Good Chance for Canadian Trade Development—Races Working in Harmony—Two Problems.

Canadian Press. New York, Jan. 15.—Bubbling over with enthusiasm for the future of the new South African Union, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux reached New York today and tonight started on the last lap of his world circling tour. Captain Hector Verrett accompanied him chief on the mission. Mrs. Lemieux and Mrs. Verrett met their husbands at Montreal with Dr. Eugene Lemieux, who has been here since Thursday awaiting the arrival of the Celtic.

"South Africa is not Canada, of course, but it is a great country," said the Postmaster General to the reporter of the Canadian Press, who was the first to reach the deck as the big ship was warped into her dock. "We had a splendid voyage across," he added, "not a ripple and we were far enough out to avoid the fog which detained the Atlantic liner for several hours just outside the harbor. I have become quite a sailor, for it took us 17 days from Southampton to Cape Town, while from Durban to Naples it takes only ten days."

"The chances for trade with South Africa are excellent. If the Canadian manufacturers will only send agents over there, they will find a market the best they could wish for. South Africa is a great ranching and mining country, but so far they have no manufacturers. Maize is grown to a large extent and exported, but Canada could sell them fruits as well as wheat and flour.

Union Working Fine. "They have everything that could be desired to make a splendid success of their union," continued Mr. Lemieux, "and up to date the union is working fine. The nation and the new union have been chosen as a new starting point for all. You could not believe, in seeing how the Dutch and English are working together earnestly for the upbuilding of the country, ten years ago they were at one another's throats."

"How does the dual language question affect the union?" "There is no friction that I could observe," said the Canadian minister, "and the use of both languages, as they are used at the opening of each sitting are said in both languages, and everybody seems satisfied. They have no school question like we have in Canada. The various provinces or states have charge of primary education, but in view of the possible difficulties that might arise out of the application of the Herzog act, Dr. Jamieson and General Botha have agreed on the appointment of a joint committee which shall take up the educational question for all parts of the country.

"The provinces have less power than ours. Their legislatures are provincial councils and they have a legislative union instead of a confederation. The central government has the right to revise all money grants made by the councils. There is a wise provision for an amendment to their constitution in ten years if it should prove not to work as well as they hope.

R. R. STRIKE IN PORTUGAL OVER

Men Return To Work And The Train Service Is Normal Once More—Gas Fitters Not Supported By People.

Lisbon, Jan. 15.—The strike of the railroad men having ended, normal train service has been resumed. The strike of the gas house workers, however, continues, but it is expected that the strike will speedily terminate on account of the strong opposition displayed by the people generally, who fear that these inopportune strikes will prove prejudicial to republican institutions. To demonstrate their support of the ministry, several thousand workmen organized a parade this afternoon and marched past the government buildings. The gas men are attempting to paralyze the lighting system by cutting the mains but these are being closely guarded by the military, while soldiers, firemen and members of the republican committees are working at the gas plants to re-establish the supply which failed at an early hour this morning. No disorders are reported.

Paris, Jan. 15.—Advices from Badajoz, Spain, five miles from the Portuguese frontier, say that the Portuguese government has acceded to the demands of the garrison at Elvas, which multiplied recently and demanded an increase of pay. No reason for this request is known, and the government refused on the ground that troops could not be spared at the present time.

WERE THEY ACTING UNDER INSTRUCTIONS?

Mr. Gilbert and Family Nearly Asphyxiated as Result of Visit of Government Plumbers to His House.

Ottawa, Jan. 15.—If the member for Drummond-Arthabaska has not opened a notable career he has at least started an eventful one. First he got the wrong telegram and rushed home to attend the funeral of a relative, who fortunately was not dead. On Saturday he and his family narrowly escaped asphyxiation from fumes from a furnace. He lives in a house owned by the government, 117 St. Patrick street, with his wife and two children. Not understanding the furnace Mr. Gilbert got his landlord to send two plumbers down. The public works department plumbers fixed up a fire and left. Saturday afternoon the family began to feel ill and Mr. Gilbert was affected. A doctor came and it was found the government plumbers had left a fire closed, filled the place with carbon gas and very nearly caused a tragedy. The member and his family discovered the matter early enough to prevent it, and they have recovered today.

PLAGUE RAGING IN MANCHURIA

Feared That Whole Villages Are Wiped Out—Chinese Object To Summary Disposal Of Bodies.

Pekin, Jan. 15.—Reports from Harbin say that the Chinese there are vigorously opposing the summary disposition of the bodies of those who have died from this bubonic plague. The authorities do not dare to burn them, the people desiring that they remain intact so that their ancestors may recognize them in the future life. Some of the corpses have remained in the city for days, but they are now being taken to the open country, where trenches for their interment have been prepared. It is reported that the Russians in Harbin are not concerning themselves with the Chinese section, although they are dealing drastically with the Chinese within the Russian city.

The Chinese newspapers are raising an outcry and bring forward serious charges of persecution and burial alive. Members of the legations are suggesting a censorship of the press. The plague is a violent type, the death usually occurs within 48 hours, and not more than one per cent of the cases have ended in recovery. Dr. G. E. Mooney, a French physician, who gave himself up to the work of combating the disease, died heroically. When he realized that he was attacked with the plague, he isolated himself in his room in a hotel, drafted his will and wrote farewell letters. He begged his friends not to notify his wife of his illness, and died alone. Already the doctors recognize the hopelessness of attempting to cure those stricken, and they are devoting their energies to fighting the spread of the contamination.

It is feared that some of the Manchurian villages have been entirely wiped out. The intensity of the cold has caused the people to remain indoors, thus fostering infection. The danger of the plague is a foot hold in Peking is considered slight, as train service to and from the infected districts has been stopped. A French doctor has gone from here to Harbin as well as several others. The doctors have been inoculated and are equipped with special costumes and masks. The government is insuring each foreign volunteer for $20,000.

Canadian Representatives at Fishery Conference Return Today to Consult Governor General.

Washington, D. C., Jan. 15.—Diplomatic negotiations have scored a victory over arbitration in the fisheries dispute between Canada, Newfoundland and the United States, a statement being issued Saturday by the state department here disclosing the fact that a complete agreement on all details involved have been reached between Canada and the United States, and likewise sufficient adjustment of difficulties with Newfoundland has been effected to make unnecessary any recourse to the mixed commission of The Hague tribunal.

The negotiations between the United States and Newfoundland will be continued; Sir Edward Morris, premier of Newfoundland having returned home to confer with the members of his cabinet, but enough ground already has been covered to warrant the belief that a complete settlement of disputed points soon will be effected. Sir Edward Morris' departure to Newfoundland was made possible on Thursday, when negotiations reached the point where it became obvious that the trade-off necessary to take the question up again with the Hague tribunal. As far as Canada and the United States are concerned, Sir Alexander Acheson, Minister of Justice, and L. P. Brodeur, Minister of Marine and Fisheries, the Canadian representatives in the conference, were not to Ottawa on Monday and submit the agreement that was reached Saturday to Lord Grey, the Governor General, when it will be made public.

Much Straightened Out. Upon stratification by him the agreement will become effective. The details of the agreement were not divulged here, but they include the modification of certain fishing regulations as well as the continuance of others. The agreement with respect to the Canadian fisheries question that American as well as Canadian fishermen would find mutual benefit from the improved regulations.

It is believed that Sir Edward Morris will return here soon to complete the negotiations with respect to the Newfoundland questions involved. Should diplomatic exchange fail to settle all the points at issue, the mixed commission at The Hague will be called upon for assistance, but the belief prevails here that such a contingency is unlikely.

The official statement announcing the conclusion of the negotiations with Canada and the status of the Newfoundland proceedings follows: "The award in the fisheries arbitration directed the two governments to be taken by means of a special commission for purposes of giving practical effect to the principles decided as to fishing regulations. Negotiations with respect to the Newfoundland questions have now been conferring to determine whether such proceedings cannot be avoided by reaching an agreement by diplomatic methods as to the application of the award to such regulations. Very gratifying progress has been made toward accomplishing this.

An agreement was reached today with the Canadian representatives and will be given out at their convenience. Negotiations with the Newfoundland government are still proceeding.

FISH GOES TO U. S.

St. John's, Nfld., Jan. 15.—The loading of Gloucester schooners with herring for the market and the announcement that more vessels may undertake the trade in herring following the recent action of the colonial cabinet refusing Americans permission to purchase herring in the southern bays, where no treaty rights obtain, has brought sharply to notice an unusual situation in the colonial fisheries. The west or treaty coast has fallen the Gloucester fishermen this season for the first time in years, and the fisheries there just closed, are a failure. The southern bays on the other hand have teemed with the fish for months, but the natives there have been unable under the Newfoundland regulations to dispose of the fish to American vessels.

WILL CONTROL SHOE FACTORY

J. A. Reid and J. D. Palmer Acquire Majority of Treasury Stock and Will Make Big Changes

Fredericton, Jan. 14.—A majority of the stock in the Hartt Boot and Shoe Co. has been acquired by John A. Reid...

It is understood that the investment of Mr. Reid and Mr. Palmer is very largely in the treasury stock...

It is pleasing to note that the increased working capital has come voluntarily from our own citizens.

The changes which will follow the transfer of the control of the stock of the company will probably not take place until the annual meeting...

In fact it is said that the output of the factory will be nearly double, if not doubled.

The Hartt Boot & Shoe Company's product, under the superintendency of Walter Damon, has acquired a splendid reputation throughout Canada.

Their boots and shoes take a place in the front rank of the best manufacturers in America.

Citizens will be glad to know that in this latest movement in the shoe factory enterprise that the control is passing into the hands of competent, energetic and successful business men.

PULPIT REFERENCE TO DISORDERS IN ST. JOHN

Rev. Dr. Flanders Speaks of Outbreak of Lawlessness and Ascribes Reasons--Foreign Population Should be Assimilated--Higher Ideal of Christian Citizenship and Prayerful Spirit Needed

At Centenary Methodist church, last evening Rev. Dr. Flanders in the course of a powerful sermon directed attention to the outbreak of lawlessness in St. John, and urged redoubled energy on the part of the churches to disseminate nobler ideals of citizenship and redeem the city from the reproach now resting upon it.

"Except the Lord keep the city, the watchmen waketh but in vain." Psalm 127, v. 1. Recent events, which have transpired among us here, have won for us as citizens of St. John a reputation of lawlessness and crime.

It is worthy of note that those occurrences have not transpired without awakening the deepest solicitude on the part of all respectable citizens and we may anticipate that steps will be taken speedily to provide against these flagrant outrages.

Causes Suggested. Naturally one inquires touching the cause of this outbreak of lawlessness. May I suggest a few of the possible contributory causes?

The presence in the city of foreigners in considerable numbers with their low ideals of morality and their vicious habits of life. A reference to the report of Chief Clark will show that during the last year no less than 35 foreigners were arrested and appeared before the courts to answer for various offences.

In the second place it is for the benefit of the people to evangelize these people as quickly as possible by presenting to them Christ and Him crucified. It is a reflection upon the Protestantism of our city that no mission has yet been undertaken among them.

Another contributory cause may be a lack of respect and reverence for the constituted authorities. The report of Chief Clark shows that 37 arrests were made last year for disrespecting the police, interfering with them and then assaulting them when in the discharge of their duties.

By far the greatest contributory cause to existing lawlessness and immorality is the liquor traffic. Of the arrests made last year, according to Chief Clark's report, which numbered 1,586, in all 945 were for drunkenness.

lem descending out of Heaven—descending, but still in a sense in suspension above the earth. Touching and with a certain points with generative power, but still to be brought down and established among men by the followers of the Man of Galilee. The new city will be established in that Golden Age when Christ is King among men.

How God Keeps City. But you ask, how God keeps a city? And I answer briefly:—First: By the exercise of a loving providence over it and answer to the prayers of His people. Pray for the peace of Jerusalem.

Again God keeps a city through the word and influence of good men. He promised to make Judah prosperous and happy under Asa and proceeded to carry out His part of the contract by requiring Asa and all of his subjects to put away idolatry and live righteously.

What our city needs above all things is a revival of Christian citizenship. Christian citizens seem to think that they have done all that is required of them when they have paid their taxes and proceed to enjoy the protection, privileges and prosperity of civic conditions with no heed to the command of Christ:—"Go ye into all the world."

J. P. McAuley Remembered by Associates on Eve of Departure for Vancouver--Address and Purse of Gold

John P. McAuley, the popular representative of Jones Bros., Apolquid, who leaves on Tuesday for Vancouver, where he will permanently locate, was the recipient of a purse and address in the City Market on Saturday.

The presentation was made at noon by A. D. Potts, who, in a bright speech addressed the crowd that had assembled. He then read the address, and presented Mr. McAuley the purse of $30 in gold.

To John P. M. McAuley, Esq.—Greeting: When it became known to us that you had hearkened to that cry which has ever been "Westward," and would so leave us for that land of promise, the golden Canadian West, we your friends and associate market men, naturally felt sorry; but we understand the change will be all for your benefit, and in that we wish you Godspeed on your journey and success and prosperity in the future.

Mr. McAuley, who was taken very agreeably by surprise, made a suitable reply, thanking the Market men for their kind wishes, and expressing a wish to see them all hale and hearty if he came back to St. John at some future time.

25TH ANNIVERSARY OF KING'S DAUGHTERS

Interesting Service Held at Guild Rooms Yesterday in Observance of Occasion--Message from General Sec'y

A large number met at the prayer service in the King's Daughters' Guild at 4 p. m., yesterday, in recognition of the 25th anniversary of the founding of the order in New York City. The president occupied the chair and the meeting opened with singing, All Hail the Power of Jesus' Name.

One little tender word for the 25th anniversary of our order. I cannot tell this dear anniversary day pass without one little word that says how dear the order is, how gracious and noble has been its work, how earnestly I ask for blessings on all its past endeavor, and beseech for it the benediction of God and the best influences that can crown its labors throughout a long and happy future.

SAINT JOHN, MONDAY MORNING, JAN. 16, 1911.

MR. LANTALUM HAS COMMAND.

The choice of delegates by the Liberal primaries has evidently proved a painful surprise to many persons in that party who have hitherto been content to trust the moving of the machinery of the party to others, while they looked on and supplied the grease for the wheels. Perhaps no man in or out of the party will be more surprised at the results of Thursday night's meetings than the Minister of Public Works. To him it must be apparent that the primaries voice the discontent that has been so frequently expressed of late over the distribution of patronage. The results in many of the wards can only be interpreted as a threat to their leader that a change in this direction is not only expected, but imperatively demanded, and further, that unless there is an immediate change of front there will be trouble of a serious character.

The primaries show clearly that the patronage seekers and the spoilsmen of the party are in charge and will select the candidates in the next election, both federal and provincial. It was announced some time since that the object of the early primaries was to nominate candidates for both houses, to have them in the field, even should the elections be still far distant. It will be interesting to watch the next move, and note the call of the executive of which Mr. John Keeffe is the chairman. From present indications it will most likely be some time before the delegates are called together to nominate the candidates, who were to have been placed in the field early that they might get acquainted with the people and secure the confidence of the electorate.

It is quite evident that Mr. Edward Lantalum, whose claims for a senatorship were ignored in the appointment of Hon. John Costigan, and who was forced off the ticket in the last general election in order that Mr. Pender might run, is now in full possession of the nominating machinery of the Liberal party, and must be dealt with one way or another. The results of the primaries, in addition to proving the discontent of a large wing of the party over the patronage question, demonstrate that Mr. Lantalum and those he represents are now in a position to dictate terms to the Minister of Public Works, and that Mr. Pugsley must give ear. He cannot ignore the delegates, and, while he may delay their meeting for weeks or months, he must sooner or later face the gentlemen who are behind Mr. Lantalum.

Mr. Lantalum and those whom he has selected have long contended that they have not received justice from the party to which they have given such an unwavering support. The plums have fallen to others. They have become mere voting machines, hewers of wood and drawers of water for those who have grown rich by exploiting "the party."

The action at the primaries on Thursday is a faduation that all this is to end now, and that the Liberal voters have drawn away from their so-called leaders and entrusted themselves to their natural leaders, whom they expect to secure for them the justice their claim has been denied in the past.

It is an interesting situation, one of the most interesting political situations that has developed in St. John in the past quarter of a century, and its solution will in all human probability wreck the Liberal party, not only in St. John but in the whole province of New Brunswick. To give Mr. Lantalum and his friends what they want, most certainly allocate a sufficient number of Liberals to render victory in this constituency impossible. To deny their demands will result in cutting down the voting strength of the party to the vanishing point. Well may the Minister of Public Works exclaim "Save me from my friends."

AGRICULTURAL DEVELOPMENT.

The Hazen Government has shown genuine patriotism in their effort to improve agricultural conditions in the province. Under the administration of Mr. Ferris the Agricultural Department of the former Government was not a going concern. It had ceased to take any interest in the well being of the farmers. Mr. Ferris, himself a farmer, should have known something of the wants of the agriculturists of New Brunswick, but if he had any such knowledge he kept it to himself. He was not able to keep the machinery running that had been started for him. "Dry root" had entered the department with Mr. Ferris, and it stayed with him while he held the office of Commissioner for Agriculture. About the only thing that he or his officials did was to draw their salaries and this they did with unfailing regularity, including travelling expenses.

Since the advent of the Hazen Administration there has been a decided change for the better. An active and energetic propaganda in favor of fruit culture has been inaugurated. There is no doubt that New Brunswick possesses a fruit belt as valuable as that of Nova Scotia. We may not be able to grow as great a variety of fruit as is grown in Ontario, but we can produce apples that cannot be excelled in the world. This has been proved by the success of the New Brunswick exhibits in London in two successive seasons. It was demonstrated at the fruit exhibition held in this city last autumn.

Unable to deny that New Brunswick was entitled to a first place among the apple growing countries of the world the opposition organs made themselves hoarse trying to prove that the Hazen Government had done nothing for fruit culture, and that the exhibitions proved how well the old Government had done for the country. All that the old Government ever did for the orchardists of the province was to plant a few illustration orchards, one of which no one ever discovered. Not a single apple exhibited came from one of these orchards. The fruit growers of New Brunswick received no aid or instruction from the Government of the province until the advent to power of the present provincial administration.

Had Mr. Labllois when he became Commissioner for Agriculture, many years ago, displayed the same interest in developing the orchards of the country, or in encouraging men to invest in fruit culture, instead of the few scattered orchards we now have through the province, there would be miles of fruit trees. Instead of being at the beginning of an enterprise, that will eventually bring in hundreds of thousands of dollars annually, the farmers would now have been in the full enjoyment of this income.

But it is not alone in fruit culture that the present Government have shown their interest in agriculture. Today through the activity of the department, potatoes are selling at a higher price in Carleton county than across the line in Aroostook. This is a reversal of the order of things which prevailed some years ago. If a large section of Queens, Sunbury, and York counties can be transformed into one vast orchard, Carleton and Victoria counties can also be converted into a magnificent potato field. Aroostook county has grown rich by producing potatoes. The land of Carleton and Victoria counties is quite as well adapted to this class of agriculture as the adjoining district in Maine, and now that the Government of New Brunswick has discovered a market for the potatoes grown there, the prosperity of these two great counties is assured.

Time and again the old Government were asked to do something to assist poultry growing in New Brunswick, but they always turned a deaf ear. The announcement is now made that an official has been appointed to give instruction in this important branch of agriculture. This will be good news for every farmer's wife in the province, for poultry raising is largely conducted by the female members of the farmers' families. There is a strong local demand for poultry of every class and the quantity that may be exported is without limit, but for export we must have a better fed and a larger fowl than is offered in the local market. It is to impart instruction how to feed and how to keep poultry that they may be a source of profit to every farmer that the new official of the Agricultural Department has been appointed.

With an immigration policy that will ensure a continual flow of desirable farm help, by rendering encouragement to those who are either planting orchards, growing potatoes, raising horses, cattle, sheep or hogs, or by means of an intelligent campaign to increase the interest in poultry raising, the Government are doing their best for agriculture. The results are already apparent with prospects for the future brighter than ever before.

Hon. W. C. H. Grimmer, the Surveyor General, will be one of the speakers at the Forestry Convention which will open at Quebec on Wednesday, under the auspices of the Canadian Forestry Association. The conservation of our national forest wealth, and the increase of scientific forestry methods generally are matters which have a vital bearing on Canada's future. When the relations of trees to the water supply, considered from the point of view of agriculture, of manufacturing, and of the other interests concerned, are taken account of, and in addition the value of the actual material of trees is considered, it becomes evident that the conservation of the forest wealth, which is a natural resource of such incalculable value, is one of the most important of Canada's national problems.

The enthusiasm and harmony which have been so marked features of the Liberal primaries in St. John, are evidently shared by Mr. Pugsley's supporters in the county. In response to the summons from headquarters that the Liberal electors of Musquash should assemble on Saturday and elect delegates, three stalwarts presented themselves at the meeting place. It is small wonder that they found the task beyond their powers and deferred the completion of the business until a more convenient season, if that time ever arrives. The evil days which have fallen on the Liberal party hereabouts are the natural result of dissatisfaction and disillusionment.

Current Comment

(Sackville Post.)

The St. John Telegraph commenting on the appointment of Col. McLean as commander of the Coronation contingent, informs its readers that the gallant colonel is eminently qualified for the position because he saw service in the northwest rebellion in 1885. Col. McLean's service in the Northwest rebellion consisted of taking a trip from St. John to Sussex with the other New Brunswick boys. They were held up by a telegram from headquarters informing them of the capture of Reil. After a few days very pleasantly spent in and around the charming village of Sussex, Col. McLean and his friends were taken back to St. John, and so came to an end the colonel's distinguished services in the Northwest rebellion of 1885.

(Edmonton Journal.)

A Toronto minister, Rev. W. A. Cameron, pastor of Bloor Street Baptist church, has refused a call to John D. Rockefeller's congregation in Cleveland at a salary of $6,000 a year. Nor are such instances of the refusal of large material rewards on the part of clergymen so rare as some people think. The old joke about father being downstairs praying to receive guidance as to whether he should accept a call to a church with a larger salary and mother being upstairs packing the household furniture has by no means a general application.

(Montreal Gazette.)

Senator McMillen adds his voice to that of Mr. Sifton and hopes that no reciprocity treaty will be arranged between Canada and the United States. Both Mr. McMillen and Mr. Sifton are Liberals, and they seem to represent the views of quite a number of their party. It looks somewhat as if the ministerial delegates at Washington might make themselves popular with the Liberals by coming home and announcing that they had added one more to the number of their Government's diplomatic failures.

The Western idea that municipalities should not only own but operate their own utilities, for the general advantage of the taxpayers interested, has taken deep root in Calgary, for the very good reason that it has put the principle of the system to a test and found it unassailable.

FARMERS HAVE ANNUAL DINNER

Kings County Society Enjoy Entertainment Provided by St. John Men—Women Attend Missionary Meeting

Hampton, Kings County, Jan. 12.—The members of the Hampton and Norton Agricultural Society to the number of about two hundred, with their wives and families, sat down to a sumptuous farmers' supper at the Agricultural Hall last evening, being the third annual function of this character. After the demands of all appetites were fully satisfied, Mr. Matthews, the monologist, and G. D. Davidson, the banjoist, both from St. John, gave a literary and musical entertainment, which was heartily enjoyed by all present.

The president of the society this year is E. Allan Schofield, and the secretary-treasurer, James E. Hoyt. Last Thursday afternoon there was a large and deeply interested meeting of ladies in the parlors of the home of Mrs. W. S. Morrison, in Hampton Village, who by invitation of Mrs. Morrison, welcomed representatives of the Women's Missionary Society, of the Presbyterian church, were gathered to attend to business of the local society and to listen to an address on missions, by Mrs. H. B. Dickson, who has spent some years in missionary work in Assam, India. In the course of a very interesting and instructive talk, Mrs. Dickson exhibited a number of articles illustrating the habits and customs of the people. Before the address, some routine business of the society was transacted and the presence of Mrs. Morrison, who is a very active worker and progress, about five o'clock the company were invited to the library, where tea was served by a committee of Presbyterian ladies and a very enjoyable hour spent in closer social intercourse.

Yesterday afternoon in the Probate Court of Kings County, before the recorder, Miss Mabel Gill, acting in the absence of Judge McIntyre, the will of the late Charles Albert Holder, of Kingston, farmer, deceased, was duly proved and letters testamentary granted to Miss Ada Augusta Holder, a daughter, and S. Theodore Holder, a brother of the deceased, who were duly sworn in as executors. The estate is sworn at $50, of which $10 is real and $40 personal property. G. O. Dickson City, proctor.

Hon. G. Hudson Flewelling, of Clifton, is visiting Hampton, attending at the Court House in his work of auditing the books and accounts of the secretary-treasurer of the municipality. Last Sunday the Baptist mission stations in this neighborhood were served by the Rev. C. W. MacNeil, until Monday afternoon when he went to Titusville, where he has been holding special services for two weeks and where he will administer the ordinance of baptism to two candidates next Sunday.

On Monday evening a social supper was given in the hall at Titusville, at which a handsome rocking chair was presented by the members of the union Sunday school to their superintendent, Mr. Roy, for his faithful and efficient services. The chair and other gifts were presented by the Rev. Mr. Townsend in an appreciative address to which Mr. Roy responded.

Mrs. William Purdy and her son, John Purdy returned home from Boston. Last Sunday morning the service in the village Anglican church was conducted by the Rev. J. Roy Campbell, D.D., who, notwithstanding his entire loss of sight, went through the service, prayers, psalms, litany, gospel and epistle without a break and delivered a sermon of much practical wisdom.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Stockton and their infant child, left Hampton where they have been guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Baird, Everett street, for their home at Edmonton, Alberta, but will stop over for a short rest at Fort William, Ont. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Skinner, St. John, were week end guests at the Wayside Inn. All the departments of the consolidated school have opened last Monday after the mid-winter vacation, with a full staff of teachers and a good attendance of pupils.

Mrs. Ella Pierce, assistant pastor of the Malden, Mass., Baptist church, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. C. Henry Snow, at their home at Hampton Station. Miss Laura Howard, who has charge of a school at Sackville, has not resumed her duties this week, but is resting at the home of her parents, at the Baptist parsonage.

George Howard, a son of Rev. Mr. Howard, has also arrived from Manitoba to visit his invalid father. W. E. Skilton, of St. Martin's, has gone on a health tour to the West Indies and California, whence he does not expect to return until next spring. Before leaving he intimated that if he found a suitable location on his journey, he might decide to settle down and not return to his native province. Mrs. Skilton went to St. John with her husband to see him safely off and returned to her home at St. Martins.

Mrs. George Raymond, Lakeside, who has been successfully operated on at the general public hospital, St. John, is expected home by the end of this week.

George Danville, of Lakeside, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Danville, is quite ill with pneumonia, contracted from a chill which he took last Friday. It will be some days before the crisis is reached, but present appearances are favorable for his recovery. Among St. John men who have visited Hampton during the last week were R. E. Day, J. G. Walsh, D. J. O'Neill, G. W. Hatheway, A. G. Pierce, T. Denham, W. H. Banks, E. A. Hoyt, Geo. Dishart, H. C. McCluskey, F. W. Storms, B. M. Armstrong, H. A. Doane, J. A. Huntley, and J. H. GOD NOT ALONE
"The Beginning of the Creation of God."
HIS ONLY BEGOTTEN SON
Sermon by Pastor Russell of Brooklyn Tabernacle

Philadelphia, Pa., Jan. 15.—Pastor Russell preached yesterday from the text, "In the beginning was the Word (Logos) and the Word (Logos) was with the God and the Word (Logos) was a God. The same was in the beginning with the God. By him were all things made and without him was nothing made that was made." (John 1, 1-3) He said:

A week ago we considered the time when God was alone. Today let us discuss the first creative act as respects intelligent beings. Long before man was created, or the earth was brought forth in its chaotic condition, long before angels and cherubim were created, Divine power brought forth a son on the spirit plane—Jehovah's First Begotten—glorious, perfect, beautiful. His own image and likeness. This glorious one is our text designated the Logos, the Word, the Message, the Expression of God. In the Old Testament he is symbolically referred to as "Wisdom" in the words "Jehovah possessed me in the beginning of his way, before his works were of old." Then I was by him, as one brought up with him, and I was daily his delight, rejoicing always before him." (Proverbs viii, 22-30.)

"This mighty one, personified as Wisdom, is declared by St. Paul to be 'the first born of all creation' (Colossians 1-18). The Psalmist similarly refers to him as Jehovah's 'first-born, higher than the kings of earth.' (Psalm lxxxix, 27). Jesus thus refers to himself as one who had a prehuman existence, saying, 'Before Abraham was, I am' (John viii, 14, 25-26). The glorified ascended Christ, in Apocalyptic vision, declared the same great truth, 'I was the beginning of the creation of God' (Revelation iii, 14). And again he declared, 'I am the First and the Last' (Rev. i, 7; ii, 8)."

All of these Scriptures fully corroborate the statement of our text that he, who, subsequently, became the world's redeemer was long before the primary Son of God. He ranked first, not only in seniority, but also in honor, dignity and station, above all other sons of God, not one of whom was himself—the direct creation of Jehovah. "For all things were made by the Logos, and without him was not one thing made that was made." He was not the creator in the primary sense of the word, but in the secondary sense. He was the active agent of Jehovah in all of his subsequent creative work; thus he was not only the first born of all creation, but individually, he was also the last of Jehovah's creation. To this agrees the word of St. Paul, "All things are of the Father and all things are by the Son."

Surely many have failed to appreciate not only the Divine personality of Jehovah, but also the greatness of him who is styled "The Son of God."

In The Dark Ages.

There was a time when God's people did not possess the Bible in their own language, and when education to read it was extremely limited, and when nobody possessed such wonderful Bibles (with references and concordances) as are common today. It should not surprise us that in that far-off time confusing errors crept into the traditional faith of the church. It was the contention of the Jews that Jesus of Nazareth was an impostor and that his mighty works were done under the influence of the fallen angel Belzebub. Should we think it strange that in the heat of discussion some of the followers of Jesus would make extravagant claims for him in their endeavor to oppose the theory that made of Messiah a mere sinful man?

It does not surprise us, therefore, that early in the third century claims were put forward in the name of Christ and his Apostles which neither he nor they ever authorized. The Apostles declared him to be "the Son of God with power, and that he was holy, harmless, undefiled and separate from sinners" (Hebrews vii, 26). The Master himself declared, "My Father is greater than I." "I came to do the will of my Father in heaven and not mine own will; thy law is written in my heart."

True, he also declared, "I and my Father are one;" but he showed in that this one-ness consisted—that it was a oneness of will, of purpose, of work. Because he had fully submitted his will to the Father's will and had made the Father's will his own, therefore they were one.

The Master again illustrated this oneness when he prayed for his disciples that "they all might be one, even as thou Father and I are one" (John xvii, 11, 21, 22). Evidently the Master did not pray that his disciples should all become one in person, but that they should all become one mind, of one heart, of one disposition through their loyalty and obedience to the Word and to the spirit of God. And this oneness, he declared, was the kind which subsisted between the Heavenly Father and himself.

Leaving the simplicity of the teaching of Jesus and of the Apostles, some went to the extreme of declaring that Jesus was his own Father; that the terms Father, Son and Holy Spirit all applied to one person who manifested himself to mankind in three different ways corresponding to these names—one God in three manifestations. Others took a still different view and claimed that the Father, Son and Holy Spirit were three Gods who operated as one. In proportion as these unscriptural human theories were received, they produced confusion. And when asked how three persons could logically be one person, and how one person could be three persons equal in glory and power, of course no answer could be given. Then the subtlety was raised, "This is a great mystery which nobody can explain."

It should not surprise us from what we know of the structure of human nature that these extreme views were opposed by others of the opposite extreme, some claiming that Jesus was a mere man; that he was born as are other men; that Joseph was his father, etc. Thus we behold the danger of any variation whatever from the precise teachings of the Word of God. It should be needless to say to

We read in Genesis, "The eolohim (Gods) said, let us make man in our image." This would very properly apply to the Heavenly Father and the Heavenly Son, in full accord with our text. "Without him (the Logos) was not anything made that was made." The word eolohim signifies, literally, the mighty, the powerful, the great. Surely it would be strictly proper to consider the Logos as a mighty, powerful as the active agent of the Almighty One, Jehovah, who is also styled the Mighty Eolohim.

This word eolohim, not only is used in respect to the Heavenly Father and His Heavenly Son, but it is also used in respect to angels as the messengers of God, and of Christ, mighty to do the will of God. (Psalm cxli, 6). "Thou hast made man a little lower than the angels (eolohim)." Still further notice that this word eolohim is used in respect to men; when David is vainly appointed and acts as God's agents they were mighty, or eolohim. Thus we read of the seventy judges of Israel appointed by Moses, "The Master shall bring him to the judges (eolohim)" (Exodus xli, 6).

We have given a very literal rendering of our text, showing the fine distinction of the Greek original in a way that our English version does not show it. As Bible students we have not in the past been sufficiently critical in our study of God's Word, but now, in Divine providence, it is possible for those even who have practically no knowledge of the Greek and Hebrew to understand the Scripture presentations thoroughly. If any amongst my large congregation are unsuccessful in finding authorities and conducted services, I shall be pleased to have them write to me for information.

Our text in the common English version misrepresents the true thought of the original, but as we have rendered it the matter is so simple and clear that a child may understand. Jehovah God is from everlasting to everlasting, having no beginning. The Logos had a beginning—his beginning was the beginning. "In the beginning was the Logos and the Logos was with the God, and the Logos became flesh and dwelt among us, and the last-creation of the God, the Almighty One—of whom, by whom and through whom are all things."

All honor and majesty and worship belong primarily to the great Father of lights and to him Jesus directed the attention of his followers, saying, "After this manner pray ye—Our Father which art in Heaven, hallowed be thy name." It is always therefore eminently proper in the highest sense of the word that our petitions should ascend to "the Father of Lights, from whom cometh every good and every perfect gift."

It has pleased the Father to so honor his First Begotten Son, and to reward his faithfulness unto death, and to so make him the Head in all things over the Church which is his body; that it is eminently proper that in the language of the Church, "All men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father" (John v, 23). They should not honor the Son in stead of the Father, however; the latter declares, "My glory will I not give to another." The exalted Christ is to be honored, yet worshipped, but not to be worshipped, but to be glorified in him, and given him a name above every other name, that at the name of Jesus every knee should bow and every tongue confess that he is the Lord God the Father (Philippians ii, 11). Moreover, there is a special reason

DIED YESTERDAY
West Side Man Passed Away
After Illness of Two Months
—His Grandmother Founder of Seaman's Mission

The death occurred yesterday morning of John C. Beatty, who passed away at his residence, St. George St., in the 70th year of his age. He had been ill about two months, and death was due to heart trouble. Mr. Beatty was very well known and highly respected.

He is survived by his widow who, prior to marriage, was Miss Margaret Mayes, daughter of the late Samuel Mayes. He also leaves one son, S. Murray Beatty, manager of the Fairville branch of the Bank of New Brunswick and one daughter, Miss Elizabeth J., both residing at home. Four sisters also survive. They are Mrs. Ketchum, Mrs. John Olive, Mrs. Charles Olive and Miss Josephine Beatty, all of Boston. The deceased was a member of St. Jude's church. The funeral will take place on Tuesday afternoon with service at the house and interment in Fernhill cemetery.

The death of Mr. Beatty recalls the history of his grandmother, Mrs. Bond, who was well known to the older residents of the West End as the real founder of the Seaman's Mission work in this city. Mrs. Bond was interested in a small mission known as the Bethel which was situated at Sand Point. She was a great friend of the sailors and conducted services for them in the tiny mission. This work she continued for many years.

Terminal Agent's Daughter
—Many Floral Tributes

A very largely attended funeral was that of Miss Gladys Sands Ross which was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Ross, 1, C. R. depot. A private service was held for the family at the home by Rev. E. B. Hooper, after which the body was taken to St. Paul's church where the public service was held, conducted by the rector and choir. The service was fully choral and was most impressive. After the service the body was taken to the receiving vault in Fernhill.

The funeral was a very large and representative one, there being several hundred railway men in the procession. Many beautiful floral tributes were received testifying to the general esteem in which the young lady was held.

Among them were the following: Mr. and Mrs. Robert Casson, cross; Mr. and Mrs. W. Irving, carnations and roses; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McQuade, darts; Mrs. Chas. E. Alarming Decrease in Winter
Port Shipments from St.
John—Cut in Half if Present
Rate of Decline Continues

A statement of winter port exports to date, compared with last season, shows a large falling off. Last winter, up to January 12th, the export valuation amounted to $5,468,126, which went forward in 41 steamers. This season up to the same date, only 28 steamships, sailing returns have been made to the Custom House, and these show a valuation of $5,299,474, showing a decrease of $5,168,652 for this season.

The first twenty-eight sailings this season to date, as compared with the same number of sailings last season, show a decrease of $317,717, thus showing that the steamers are not carrying as large cargoes as they previously did. The export of grain, lumber and cattle, is not up to the average this season, the above products being held for better market prices. Then again some of the sailings have been cancelled.

But before the season closes it is hoped that a larger and better market will be opened up. Already with the steaming have left port several of the steamers have left port with larger exports than usual.

The United States exports passing through this port in transit for the United Kingdom are larger this season.

The figures are as follows:—
For 1910, ..... $1,166,526
For 1911, ..... $3,695,673

The falling off, it will be noticed is in the Dominion products.

Wm. F. Emery.

William F. Emery, formerly of this city, died on Wednesday, Jan. 11, in New York, where he has resided for the past twenty-five years. He has suffered for some time from acute rheumatism, which finally affected his heart. A partial recovery had been effected, but a sudden relapse resulted in his death. He is survived by his father, G. F. Emery, of Charlton; two brothers, Dr. A. F. Emery and Charles Emery, and one sister, Mrs. Wm. White, of this city. The interment was made in New York.

Why all who recognize Jesus as the world's Redeemer should recognize the propriety of including him with the Father in their thoughts and in their prayers. This is because, by Divine appointment, he is the Church's Advocate with the Father—the One through whom we are acceptable to God, even the Father. How could we, therefore, ignore our Advocate, our Attorney, our Intercessor?

And with the world in the future, throughout Messianic reign, this will be equally proper, because then he will be the world's Mediator, standing between God and men, until by his Mediatorial Kingdom he shall have lifted mankind from sin and degradation and death, back to actual justification and harmony with God.

The Only Begotten Honored.
Before the beginning of the creation of God, before the Only Begotten of the Father, the Alpha of Creation, the Father had no purpose in Himself respecting all His great plan for the everlasting future. It included this world, and mankind, and the permission of sin, and the redemption of man from sin and its penalty, and the restoration to be accomplished by Messiah's Kingdom and the glorious work of eternity in further creations in world after world.

But, as the Master declared, these things the Father had kept in His own power. He did not reveal them to the angels, nor even to His dearly beloved "only begotten Son." We have seen how this divine secret purpose, was symbolically represented in the scroll in the hands of Jehovah, as pictured in Revelation v, 1. We have seen that this revelation was delivered to the Lamb, the Only Begotten, when he had been slain—after His consecration at Jordan, and in its fullness after His death at Calvary, when He ascended on high, glorified at the right hand of the Father's majesty.

But before the Logos was made flesh, before He undertook to be man's Redeemer, He became the Father's set before Him the glorious proposition. He informed Him that He had a plan, a scroll, and that the execution thereof was to be given to one who would prove himself worthy, by demonstrating His loyalty to the Divine will.

We read that God sent His only begotten Son into the world, but we are not to understand from this that He came under Divine commands, the refusal of which would have incurred Divine displeasure and His own degradation. On the contrary we understand the matter clearly when we hearken to the Apostle's statement. He became the Father's set before the world, and he had with the Father before the world was, and humbled Himself to take upon Himself man's form and then consecrated Himself even unto death—because of the joy that the Father had set before Him.

The joy set before the Logos was (1) That the He might redeem the Heavenly Father's gracious purposes. (2) That He might recover mankind from the state of sin and death into which all were plunged by father Adam's one act of disobedience. (3) Additionally He was promised the honor and distinction of the Messianic Kingdom by and through which mankind would be blessed and uplifted. (4) He was promised a special Bride class to be selected from among the redeemed race of man—a class having His own disposition of loyalty to God and to righteousness, and faithful unto death—which like Himself, would be exalted in the chief resurrection from the earthly to heavenly condition far above principalities and powers and every name that is named. (5) He was promised that His own personal distinction would be eternally a participation in the qualities of the Divine nature; He would possess, not only glory and honor, but also inherent life, deathlessness, immortality.

For these joys, He left His glory, He was made flesh, He sacrificed His earthly life, and being raised from the dead, He entered into His promised glory. Since, He is waiting in expectation for the completion of the Church, His Bride, the members of His Body, assured that they will be given Him the heathen for an inheritance and the uttermost parts of the earth for His possession, that He may bind Satan, put down sin and uplift the sinner and bring everlasting order out of earth's confusion by destroying the wilfully wicked.

A God but Not the God.
As all Bible scholars know, the word "eolohim" in the Old Testament, Hebrew is of plural form, somewhat like our English word sheep. Thus

HIGH PRICE OF LIVING CAUSES CURTAILMENT

(J. S. Bache & Co.'s Weekly News Letter.) Curtailment in all directions is going on in the business world. We have had a long period of hand-to-mouth buying. This has been due in great measure to the practice of economy, forced upon individuals by the high price of living. Little by little the demand for one thing after another has declined. This steady process forced business volume down. The retailer, restrained by diminishing inquiry for the things on his shelves began to curtail his orders to the manufacturer, not much at first, but more and more as lessening sales became noticeable. The manufacturer found his goods piling up unsold and began to cut down his production. The output of his factory declined to 20 per cent, 30 per cent, 40 per cent, 50 per cent—more than that—the United States Steel Company's volume is down to 40 per cent, of capacity. As long as curtailment and economy continue, business cannot be good. The manufacturer, finding his profits dwindling, must cut down wages or cut off employment. With all other commodities sinking in price, labor too must be liquidated. When high prices and labor have been liquidated and the low levels reached and the country has worked along those levels for a time, then there will be a slow awakening. This will take time. There is no artificial expedient in sight to prevent the workings of these natural laws. Raising of railroad rates has been looked to, to better conditions quickly. But this is being long deferred and drawn out. The decision has now been postponed until the middle of March. Meantime the railroads are continuing to economize and will not probably suddenly pour out expenditures, even if the decision is favorable. By that time the volume of transportation through slackening of trade will have reached a point where the raised rate will not at once largely benefit earnings. The return swing of railroad prosperity, upon which the country's increase of business depends, will be slow, and the country's prosperity will have to wait for it. Meantime, every step down the ladder, every step lowering of prices, every more economical living, of care in general expenditure by corporations and by business concerns, will bring us nearer the solid bottom from which prosperity will again spring. In that sense we are progressing favorably.

C. P. R. BOUGHT HEAVILY ABROAD

New York, Jan. 15.—Resumption of the buying movement in stocks was a feature of the opening Saturday. Early transactions were conspicuous for the extent of the trading in U. S. Steel and Reading, both showing sharp gains, selling by traders, presumably for profits, soon wiped out the great part of Reading's advance, but Steel held comparatively steady. The business of the first hour was on the basis of almost 1,000,000 shares for a full session, but trading fell off in the second hour, notably chiefly for the strength of Lehigh Valley.

Over $2,000,000 in Profits HAS BEEN ALLOTTED IN 1910 TO POLICYHOLDERS BY THE CANADA LIFE

The increase in SURPLUS for 1909 amounted to $1,200,000, the greatest gain in the Company's history. The large increase in Surplus each year is the best evidence that Canada Life Policies will continue to be profitable.

JARVIS & WHITTAKER, General Agents, 74 Prince Wm. St. CLOSING COTTON LETTER. By Direct Private Wires to J. C. Mackintosh and Co.

New York, Jan. 14.—The stimulus of prices yesterday was again reflected in our market today. The session lasted only two hours, of course, and in that time the amount of trading was almost equal to a full day's business a week ago. One of the prominent features today was the heavy buying by London and a few commission houses and it is surprising to a great many who noticed the strength in the market when business conditions do not warrant it. Doubtless this advance was not only attributed to buying for the long account but has also been the means of eliminating a great deal of the short account. One thing in favor of the advance in prices is the action of money not only here and in Chicago but in London and with this plethora to draw from it is very easy to put up prices. There is nothing new in the way of news but what is already known and to size up the market on the whole the deterrent features are neglected and anything pertaining to help the market receives more than usual attention. It should not be forgotten that the market is assuming an overbought condition and a reaction is due at any time.

LIDLAW AND CO. CLOSING STOCK LETTER. By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co.

New York, Jan. 14.—A slight advance of four points to a decline of 20 points was the opening of our market but shortly afterwards there was aggressive selling by local traders and the same people who bought yesterday were active today. The market gives an impression that it is in the hands of speculators as their trading has been very conspicuous. Regarding the cotton trade it is said to be in such a condition that very little buying will come from that source, only what is actually needed. The price of the commodity is too high. The spinners are pretty well supplied for some time so their speculation in futures is concerned. JUDSON AND CO. BANK STATEMENT. By direct private wires to J. C. Mackintosh & Co.

OTTAWAS COP FOUR STRAIGHT

Leaders Put it Over Quebec by Score of 13-5—Canadiens Dispose of Renfrew Team.

Ottawa, Jan. 14.—The Ottawa hockey team won its fourth straight at the local arena tonight, defeating Quebec by a score of 13 to 5. In the first period the hockey was fairly fast in the second the Quebecers shot their bolt and there was nothing to it but Ottawa.

Quebec scored first in the opening session, but Ottawa evened up at the end of the first it was 2 all. Ottawa added 7 in the second session while the visitors got two, the Quebec defence weakening and their forwards tiring, while Ottawa on the other hand improved all round.

In the third session it was all Ottawa again they driving in four goals while Quebec got one. For a time in this season they were playing three men each. Ottawa scores were while four offenders were with the times.

Rocket Power retired at the end of the first quarter with an injured ankle and then Joe Hall, who had just joined the visitors crashed into the boards, spraining some of the muscles in his right shoulder.

MALCOLM MADE AN EIGHT END

Thistle Skip Put on Score Only Thrice Equalled in History of New Brunswick Curling—on Third End

John Malcolm, one of the Thistle skips, was a proud man on Saturday night, when on the third end in a match against Dr. J. M. Magee, skip of St. Andrew's rink, he made an eight end which means that eight Thistle stones were in the rings and scored, while the opponents three stones were out of the count.

The first eight end was made by the late James Milligan about forty years ago, the next by James I. Thomas in a match against the St. Stephen curlers, the third was by the late John H. Thomson in a match against St. Andrews and the fourth was that of Saturday night.

HOLMER TELLS HOW HE WON

Former Halifax Runner Ran Against Heavy Odds—One Backer Cleaned Up $5,000—Was Dubious of Victory

New York, Jan. 14.—Hans Holmer again is in America. Surrounded by athletic friends of this country, he told the story yesterday of how he won the Marathon race in Scotland recently from the best athletes in Europe.

He appeared bright and cheerful after his ocean voyage on the Lusitania. "Before I started in the race," said Holmer, "I was looked upon as a dead one. In the odds I was quoted at 5 to 1, and a friend of mine, Dr. E. B. Backer, wagered $1,000 at those figures. You can imagine how glad he was when he cashed in. Before the race I cautioned him not to wager a cent on me, as I was suffering from a strained tendon. But when the final test of the last mile came I scarcely knew that I had a tendon and flew over the course like a deer.

DELEGATES CHOSEN BY THREE LIBERALS

Not Very Representative Gathering at Musquash Primaries—Meeting Harmonious in Every Way.

What the organs of the dredging contractors will probably call "A most enthusiastic and harmonious gathering of the Liberal ratepayers of the parish of Musquash," was held on Saturday evening in the office of the Inglewood Pulp and Paper Company. It was a harmonious gathering all right as there were but three men present and they had nowhere else to go. Consequently they held a meeting.

In order that these men, who had the temerity to stand forth as Liberal ratepayers of the parish of Musquash may receive the proper recognition from the powers that run the Liberal party in this constituency, The Standard publishes their names herewith. They were John McLean, Charles Spinney and George Read. At one time it looked as if the attendance of the meeting might be doubled as three other men passed the building while the meeting was in progress, but they did not stop.

As an evidence of the harmony which prevailed, it may be stated that John McLean was elected chairman. When the time came to fill this important office, Mr. McLean was nominated by one of the three and the nomination was seconded by the other. Mr. McLean put the motion to the meeting and it was declared carried unanimously.

The question of electing a secretary arose, but on looking around the chairman decided that the election of this officer should be postponed until a more propitious occasion. A careful survey in all directions failed to disclose any more of the Liberal ratepayers of the parish of Musquash hurrying to the gathering, so no action was taken, and the Liberal ratepayers of the parish of Musquash are without a secretary.

The meeting was more fortunate in the election of delegates to the nominating convention, although even in this case the regular quota was not chosen. The parish was entitled to send three delegates to the convention, but only two were chosen. The fortunate two are Charles Spinney and Herbert Mawhinney. No substitutes were elected.

It will be seen from this that although the meeting was attended only by Mr. McLean, Mr. Spinney and Mr. Read, the first named gentlemen will represent their parish, one as chairman and the other in the list of delegates. What position Mr. Read will fill is as yet unknown. Further advices from Musquash will be awaited with interest.

At the St. Martin's Liberal primaries Saturday night, the following were elected delegates to the convention: F. M. Cochrane, chairman; A. E. Bentley, M. P.; Robert Conolly, John A. Howard and Patrick Nugent.

INCENDIARY FIRE IN WHEAT CORN MILL

Building on Celebration Street, Owned by J. Willard Smith, Slightly Damaged—Fully Covered by Insurance

Shortly after eight o'clock, Saturday night, fire was discovered in the cornmeal mill at 60 Celebration St., owned by J. Willard Smith. An alarm was sent in from box 241 and the department were soon on the scene.

The fire was mostly about the rear of the building where the machinery is and worked along the second floor and shutters.

A couple of good streams of water were poured on the flames and after about an hour's work the fire was extinguished. The building and machinery were quite badly damaged, but it is thought the loss will not exceed $500, and is covered by insurance on the Equity Fire Insurance Co. While the building is owned by J. Willard Smith, the machinery is only stored in the mill and is owned by Greer & Company, the manufacturers, of Toronto, the representatives being E. Leonard & Sons in this city. Mr. Smith had the sale of the mill about completed to outside parties who intended putting it in operation.

The mill was built about two years ago by Ford & Darling and has been idle since its completion. It is thought that the fire was incendiary as the doors and windows were boarded up and there was nothing in the mill from which a fire could take place accidentally.

Grand Falls Rector Here. Rev. A.H. Crowfoot, rector of Grand Falls and Andover, preached in St. Paul's church, yesterday morning, and in Trinity church last evening. Rev. Rev. Mr. Crowfoot came to this province from England two years ago. He is a young man, a fluent speaker, and his sermons yesterday were much appreciated by those who heard him.

Eastern Canada Best. There was a spirited debate in the rooms of the St. Peter's Y. M. A. rooms, Douglas avenue, yesterday afternoon, the subject being "Resolved, that Eastern Canada affords better opportunities to a young man than the West." James B. Dever led the affirmative and was assisted by Bernard McCovern and Chipman Olive. Frank Cotter led the negative, assisted by Messrs. Coll and McDonald. V. Shea was the judge and awarded the victory to the affirmative side.

J. W. Eastwood Says Board of Trade Offer No Guarantee That Property Qualification Will Not be Required

At a meeting of the Socialists last evening, J. W. Eastwood spoke on the commission form of government as advocated by the Board of Trade. The speaker said the proposition as put forward was likely to be opposed by the workers, because the Board of Trade had given no guarantee that the commissioners would not be required to have a large property qualification, and further that no provision for the creation of civic machinery that would make the initiative and referendum effective.

"Socialists," said the speaker, "believe in direct legislation, but we would like to see the advocates of the referendum in city affairs acting a little more consistently. When R. L. Borden proposed a referendum on the navy question, the Liberal leaders and their local organs repudiated the idea that the people should be consulted directly."

Continuing, the speaker said that if the Board of Trade endeavored to form a citizen's association embracing all classes, and to devise a policy or select candidates satisfactory to all classes, it would be found that the expedient of reducing the size of the council was not at all likely to prove a panacea for all ills. It was a matter of history that the Board of Trade some time ago had elected a reform council, composed of business men fashioned after its hearts' desire, but it was well known that the reform council had turned out no better than the reform councils in other cities, where the movement was the result of spasmodic interest in civic affairs.

The advocates of the commission made much of the idea that the city was a sort of club. The implication was that they wanted to restrict the franchise to property owners.

In conclusion, the speaker said that St. John was deficient in inspiring civic ideals, and until the schools taught the duties of citizenship, no particular form of government would produce the results expected by the Board of Trade.

An interesting discussion followed, the tenor of which was that the Board of Trade could not run the city.

ALD. WIGMORE TO STAND BY MARKET

No Intention of Resigning and Other Members May Reconsider Decision—Charges to be Dealt With at Meeting

Ald. Wigmore, who arrived home on Saturday, declares that notwithstanding the action of the council in reinstating Mr. Dunham, and the charge made by Aldermen Pettit and Vanwart that he had canvassed for the position of Director of Public Safety, he has no intention of resigning from the market committee.

The fact that Ald. White has tendered his resignation to the mayor does not influence me," he said. "I was appointed along with the others to try to straighten out the affairs of the market and I see no reason to resign. No doubt the matter will be thrashed out at the special meeting of the council which the mayor intends to call in a day or so. The charge made by Ald. Vanwart will have to be dealt with also. I never sought the position of director in any way. Ald. White when seen last night said he would not withdraw his resignation and would refuse to serve on the market committee again.

Ald. Jones said that his first intention had been to resign, but that he proposed to consult with the mayor and Ald. Wigmore before deciding what he would do.
