DOMINION HOME RULE, FULL FISCAL AUTONOMY IS DE VALERA'S DEMAND

Ulster to Have a "Provincial" Parliament Similar to Those of Canadian Lands.

ABANDONS DEMAND FOR A REPUBLIC

Happy Solution of Irish Problem Said to be Nearer Than for Many Years.

(By GRATTAN O'LEARY, Staff correspondent of the Canadian Press.)

London, July 7.—The congress of empire prime ministers is, for the time being, eclipsed by the peace negotiations being conducted with the Sinn Fein leaders. Premier Smuts of South Africa has thrown the full weight of his great eloquence and his prestige on the side of an honorable settlement. The British press, of all shades of politics, are standing behind him, and this, aided by the favorable atmosphere created by the presence of the dominion prime ministers in London, has unquestionably brought the Irish problem nearer to solution than has been the case in the last quarter of a century.

Great Difficulties Yet.

It would be idle and wrong to pretend, however, that vast difficulties do not stand in the way of an agreement. So far Premier Smuts has been successful, but those who know what is transpiring behind the scenes, realize that real obstacles will be encountered when the three parties to the dispute, the British government, north Ulster and the Sinn Fein, meet face to face in conference.

What De Valera Wants.

From an Irish-Nationalist source closely in touch with Premier Smuts and the British government in the negotiations preceding, I have been able to learn what Eamon De Valera is likely to propose in the event of his coming to London. Briefly, and roughly, it is this: He will abandon the claim for an Irish republic but will insist upon a measure of dominion home rule, with a separate parliament for north Ulster, vested with powers similar to those enjoyed by Canadian provincial legislatures. He will also ask that the central or Dublin parliament be vested with a wide measure of fiscal autonomy.

The Army and Navy.

The Sinn Fein leader, it is said, desires also that the Irish parliament shall have the right of controlling its own army and navy, if these should be found necessary. It is believed, however, that he will advance this demand merely for the sake of bargaining and can be induced to abandon it. He will demand that the Irish control the police and post office departments and will ask for full recognition of the unity of the Irish nation. De Valera will maintain that the Irish parliament should be given the right to decide its own taxation policy in the manner in which its revenue shall be expended, holding that the power of controlling taxation of its constituents is inherent in the parliament.

Dublin's Free Voice.

This, of course, involves giving a free voice in regard to income tax, customs, excise, and also the right of withholding any contribution towards the defence of the empire, and it is likely to prove the shoal upon which the peace negotiations will split. It is almost certain that Premier Lloyd George will insist upon an imperial contribution seeing that the imperial parliament would remain responsible for defence and foreign affairs although, in a last resort he may agree that the Irish parliament should have some voice in the amount to be contributed as well as in the method by which the actual contribution would be raised from its constituents.

Police Chief Plays Whist With "Pres."

Paris, July 7.—"Bon Soir" today prints a despatch stating that the Dublin Chief of Police on beholding De Valera for the first time on the occasion of his recent arrest, discovered to his amazement, that they were members of the same club and had even played whist together. Prior to the arrest, the chief of police had spent more than nine months hunting for the Sinn Fein leader. Valera was a member of the club under an assumed name.

DENIES GENERAL ORDERED FRENCH WOUNDED KILLED

Judge Declares Under Officer Should Have Recognized Nature of Order.

ALLEGES OFFICER WAS NOT SANE

Claims Under Officer Was Negligent in the Recognition of Cruelty of Order.

Leipzig, July 7.—Dr. Schmidt, president of the Supreme Court, in announcing the acquittal of Lt. General Krusius, of the charge of having ordered the execution of wounded French soldiers and prisoners, and the conviction of Major Bruno Crusius on the same charge, declared that an experienced officer like Crusius should have known General Stenger was incapable of such orders. Crusius was sentenced to two years' imprisonment, and was deprived of the right to wear the German uniform in the future.

General Not Blamed.

It has not been established that Stenger gave the order of which he is accused," said Dr. Schmidt. "The execution, which undoubtedly occurred, cannot be imputed to him. No credence can be attached to the evidence of Kleinhaus and Oberdorf, two of the witnesses against the prisoner. "Crusius was not responsible for his actions on August 28, owing to mental derangement, but on August 21 he knew quite well what he was doing. The actions of Crusius were due to negligence, he thought Stenger had given the order to finish off the wounded and prisoners. An experienced officer like himself, however, should have known Stenger was not capable of giving such an order."

LOYD GEORGE IN SHARP CLASH

Accuses Lord Robert Cecil of Unjust Attack on Eve of Labor Battle.

London, July 7.—A sharp and unusual passage of arms occurred in the House of Commons this afternoon between Mr. Lloyd George and Lord Robert Cecil. It arose from the Prime Minister's complaint that Lord Robert had accused him unjustly of having attacked the workmen of the country at a critical moment, namely the eve of the coal strike.

Demanding Retraction.

A heated altercation ensued, Lord Robert declining to give way. He continued his speech and when he finished the Prime Minister, who in the meantime had sent for a copy of the speech in question, read a quotation and justified his remarks as being an attack, not on workmen generally but on Socialists. He demanded that Lord Robert withdraw his imputations. Lord Cecil cried "with draw" were directed at Lord Robert, but he ignored them, and as the Speaker of the House did not interfere, the subject was dropped.

DOMINIONS NOT TO CONFER WITH PRES. DE VALERA

Gen. Smuts is suggested for Chairman at the Proposed Meeting.

FEWER CASUALTIES IN CROWN FORCES

Peace Talk Resulting in Less Activity Among the Republican Field Forces.

London, July 7.—The Prime Minister Mr. Lloyd George, stated in the House of Commons today that he understood Gen. Smuts, the South African premier, want to Ireland on Tuesday next on the invitation of Eamon De Valera, the Irish Republican leader.

Asked whether he had conferred with Gen. Smuts before the latter went to Ireland, the premier replied laconically that he was seeing Gen. Smuts constantly.

In answer to another question Mr. Lloyd George said none of the Dominion premiers would attend the proposed Irish conference in London to which Mr. De Valera and Sir James Craig the Ulster premier, had been invited.

Casualties Less
Meanwhile, the Government points to a slight diminution in the casualties suffered by Crown forces in Ireland during the past week as indicative that the peace moves are making some impression on the rank and file of the Irish Republican Army.

Smuts as Chairman
London, July 7.—The Westminster Gazette says today it understands that General Jan Christian Smuts, the South African premier, may be suggested as chairman of the proposed conference in London between representatives of Southern and Northern Ireland and the British Government.

Not Going to Dublin

Recognition by the city in the shape of a medal for live saving will be made in the case of Harry Finley, who four years ago jumped into Leonard's Creek, near the Marsh Bridge, and saved from drowning a lad named Reisker. This announcement was made by Commissioner Bullock yesterday.

Young Finley, who was only four years old when he performed the act of bravery, is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Finley of Thorne avenue.

FAILURES FOR SIX MONTHS.
During the first six months of the present year there have been 26 business failures in New Brunswick according to figures given out at the office of R. O. Dunn & Co., yesterday. These failures represent an amount of $308,069.22, and are covered by assets to the extent of $189,983.53, approximately 63 per cent. The largest of these assignments is that of a North Shore lumber concern whose liabilities amounted to $30,000, about two thirds of which can be met by the company's assets. During the first half of 1920 there were only 12 failures in the province, these represent $35,587 and were met by $20,145, or about 58 per cent. of the amount assigned for.

JUMPED RIGHT IN.
Bedford, England, July 7.—A night watchman at the Royal Albert hall at Cardington near here got the surprise of his life when he saw a parachute dropping from the sky early in the morning a few days ago. "Can I get a bed here?" asked a calm voice.

The parachutist was Air Commodore E. N. Maitland as his way home to Howden air station from Epsom aboard the dirigible B-33, which had acted as official traffic controller and wireless station at the Derby races. Commodore Maitland explained that he had suddenly remembered that he had to attend an important meeting at the Cardington station in the early morning. The only way to get there in time to jump right off, he said.

City To Welcome Hilton Belyea Home

Douglas Avenue Property Owners Want Wider Sidewalks.

A request for wider sidewalks on the south side of Douglas avenue from Bentley street west was received at the Common Council meeting yesterday morning. The matter of a civic reception and presentation to Hilton Belyea was left with the Mayor with power to act. The building of steps at Murray street was brought up, but action was deferred until Monday next at the request of Commissioner Jones and one tender for the paving of North Wharf was opened.

Want Wider Walks.
Messrs. F. C. Beattie, J. A. Kennedy, J. D. Maher, R. A. Corbett and James Kelly appeared and asked that the sidewalk on Douglas avenue, south side, from Bentley street west be increased from six feet wide to eight feet wide, the same as from Main street to Bentley street. After hearing from the road engineer it was decided to take the matter under consideration and notify all owners of property to come in and state what they wanted in the way of sidewalk for the western end of the street.

Murray Street Steps.
Commissioner Prink presented a report from the road engineer on the Murray street grading to the effect that he did not consider this a feasible project, and moved that the present wooden steps be replaced with concrete at a cost of $504. Commissioner Jones said some of the residents of Murray street were of the opinion that the street could be graded and suggested a visit to the place by the commissioners before any action was taken.—Laid over until Monday.

Only One Tender.
One tender only was received for the paving of North Wharf, from the Stephen Construction Co., as follows: Earth excavation, $1.70 per cubic yard; stone fill, $2.30 per cubic yard; surface, $3.15 per cubic yard, curbing, supplying and placing, $3.25 per foot.—Referred to the Commissioner of Public Works and road engineer for attention to the feat of Hilton Belyea in setting a new boat record at the Boston boat races and moved that the Mayor be given authority to arrange for a civic welcome and presentation when Mr. Belyea reached the city on Saturday.—Carried.

Police Arrive Too Late.
The firing was heard by Detective Sergeant David Morrissey of the Croy Island police station, who was riding on an eastbound trolley car between the Bowery and Christie street and ran half a block to the scene of the action. He found an empty street, except for a young man who was showing his heels in a mad race down Christie street.

Morrissey called to the runner to stop. As the man continued to run the detective drew his revolver and fired two shots from his 38-calibre automatic, causing the runner to stop. The detective found that his prisoner had been wounded by a bullet, which had entered the left leg, broke the bone and left the leg through the other side.

Got Wounded Man.
Taken to the Clinton street station, the man identified himself as John Spencer, 23, a bookkeeper, of 120 Christie street. He was unarmed. Denying that he had taken part in the gun-fight, he said he was an innocent bystander, having gone out for a walk and having been caught in the light.

Neither Spencer nor Morrissey knew whether the policeman was one of the fighters who had wounded Spencer. Dr. Spicer of Gouverneur Hospital, who attended the man at the Clinton street police station, said he was unable to determine from a superficial examination of the calibre of the bullet with which he had been shot. Spencer was held for investigation.

The police later made a thorough search of the street, and found a 32 calibre revolver with four chambers exploded and one bullet left in the weapon. Spencer said this did not belong to him.

Another Injured.
Shortly after Spencer was taken to the police station the police saw a crowd gathered in front of a restaurant on Grand street, half a block away from the scene of the shooting. They found lying in the gutter a man who said he was Wolf Fleischer, 57, salesman, of 99 Forsyth street. According to Fleischer, he had just left his home and walked around the corner, when he was caught in the rush that followed the shooting. He was struck on the head with something that knocked him unconscious. When he came to, he said, his $100 watch and chain were missing.

The police took Fleischer to the Clinton street station, where Dr. Spicer attended him for an incision of the scalp and then sent him home.

Four Youths Did Shooting.
According to the police, they found witnesses who saw the four youths draw their revolvers and start shooting at each other on the crowded street corners, but were busy about giving descriptions of the fighters. The witnesses said about twenty shots were fired. It is believed that the cause of the battle was a dispute over a woman between two rival gangs of bootleggers, with which the lower East Side is said to be infested these days.

The risks and profits of bootlegging are said to have made it a vocation, in which the danger of death is always to be considered, chiefly because of arguments over the division of spoils and the conflict of territories to be "worked."

GANG STARTS TO SETTLE A FEUD WITH REVOLVERS

Crowded East Side Street Was Quickly Cleared by Shooting Fray.

TWO MEN INJURED IN THE FRACAS

Fight Believed to Have Been Between Rival Bootlegging Gang—Participants Escape

New York, July 6.—Four freshly dressed young men of the new type of East Side gangsters met at Christie and Grand streets, once the stamping ground of such gun fighters as the late Monk Eastman, shortly after 10 o'clock last night, and immediately began to settle some feud with their revolvers.

Popping each other from behind human bulwarks formed by the order and utility all owners of property to come in and state what they wanted in the way of sidewalk for the western end of the street.

TARIFF BILL BEFORE HOUSE

No Ceremony to Mark Introduction of 346 Page Measure in U. S. House.

Washington, July 7.—The permanent tariff bill, as drawn by Republican members of the House Ways and Means Committee, took top place on the calendar today, not to be displaced by other legislation until voted on July 21. There was no ceremony in beginning consideration of the 346 page measure and the day was devoted to having it read paragraph by paragraph, while members sat and sweltered without giving heed to the monotonous droning of a relay of reading clerks.

Immediately upon adjournment, Democratic members held a conference at which it was said with "many a doleful exception" it was agreed that the party should stand as an unit against the bill. Some of the members seemed to be determined to be bound by instructions, but leaders predicted the final vote would show but few breaks in the Democratic ranks.

CLAIM SIGHT RESTORED BY TRANSPLANTING

Vienna Professor Says Normal Eye Can Take Place of Blind One.

EXPERIMENTING WITH FISH AND ANIMALS

Much Interest Aroused in Medical Circles by Claim Set Forth—Some Doubtful.

Vienna, July 7.—Can sight be restored by the process of transplanting a normal eye in place of a blind one? Vienna medical circles are at present discussing this question as the result of a lecture delivered here last night at which the claim was made that experiments carried out to prove that sight can be restored.

Professor Kolmer, of the Physiological Institute here, who supervised these experiments, matched a few hurried moments to attend a medical conference this morning, at which the question was being further discussed, and what is claimed.

Tried Out on Fish
It has long been known that fish, frogs and other forms of aquatic life have power to change their color in conformity with their surroundings, but that they lose this power on being placed in water. Experiments were conducted along these lines, and it happened when the normal eye was transplanted in place of a blind one, that the fish, frog, etc., recovered the power of adapting themselves to their surroundings, the reaction being somewhat slower than in the case of fish with their original eyes.

To test whether this recovery of power of adaptability was due to self-healing or to the eye that was put in, the fish, frog, etc., were put through the water. The fish and other forms of life on which the light in a manner similar to those animals which have normal eyesight, avoided the strong light coming through the darkness. It was also discovered that fish, etc., with transplanted eyes, although they were in lower forms of life, still varied in forms of life, has been equally successful. Good results also have been obtained from experiments on rats, which is a very high form of life.

The discovery was first made by Theodor Koppanyi, a young Hungarian here. Professor Kolmer merely supervising and assisting. A lively debate on the matter is being maintained at present. It is being stated that night and Professor Kolmer is still busy demonstrating.

BALLOON DYES DANGEROUS

New York, July 7.—A stamp in the toy balloon business is threatened by a statement made public today by the State Health Department. It announced that some of the dyes used in coloring the balloons are capable of causing a severe inflammation when brought in contact with the skin while in a moist condition.

"Children should be warned," says the statement, "against the pastime of making miniature balloons from the ruptured rubber by sucking or blowing against small pieces of the balloons held tightly against the lips."

NEARLY ALL PAPER MILLS OPEN AGAIN

Almost All Plants Outside of International in Operation is Latest Report.

New York, July 7.—Virtually all paper mills in the United States and Canada, closed for several weeks on account of a strike of workers, who objected to a wage cut, were opened today, and a great many of the number were again in operation. The thirty-one mills of the International Paper Company in the United States were opened, after having been closed since May 1, but it was not considered likely at the general offices in this city that many of the plants actually had resumed operation, for it will take one or two days to get all the equipment in readiness.

The International Paper Company officials broke off negotiations last week with the officials of the international unions and announced that they would deal with the local unions at the various plants. The mills were opened today, it was said, for the purpose of giving the workers opportunity to return to work on the basis of the proposal made by the company. No information was given out at the offices of the company concerning the number of workers reporting for work at the various plants. The international employes about 8,000 workers.

Nearly all the mills outside of the international, which were included in the strike were in operation today, under an arbitration agreement. These mills employ about 20,000 workers. It was said. The mills in Canada resumed on Monday, but in the United States the workers observed the Fourth and went back to their places this morning. The workers return to their jobs at their old rate of pay, hours and conditions pending the result of the arbitration. The arbitration board, with Judge Frank Irvine, of Ithaca, as impartial chairman, is expected to begin its work this week, first visiting most of the important mill centres to get data on the living conditions of the men.

FIRE DIDN'T STOP WEDDING

Quebec, July 7.—At 5 o'clock this morning fire of unknown origin broke out in the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Demitron Breakley, at Breakleyville, destroying part of the property, and forcing the occupants to remove to the residence of Mrs. John Breakley. At noon today the marriage of Miss Muriel Breakley to Mr. Edward Maurice De Gref, of Elm Bank, Bromley, England, was to have taken place, there, but the ceremony, instead, took place on the lawn of Mrs. John Breakley's home.

MILLIONS OF DOLLARS IS FIRE LOSS ESTIMATE IN THE PROVINCE OF QUEBEC

Evidence Accumulating That Some of the Outbreaks Were Set by Criminal Hands.

ARRESTS LIKELY TO FOLLOW AT ONCE

Rains in North Ontario Check Progress of the Flames But Deluge is Necessary.

Rains at Port Arthur.

Port Arthur, July 7.—Heavy rains fell here today doing good though the heat spells had not reached the forest fire stage.

In Nova Scotia.

Amherst, N. S., July 7.—Bush fires in the district immediately surrounding Amherst are reported under control tonight and the situation generally is said to be greatly improved.

Fires are still slowly burning along the Tyndale Road, at Black's Grove, at River Hebert and at Rodney. Outbreaks of fire are reported tonight at Northport and Tidnish. A small fire yesterday at Pugwash Junction originating from sparks from an express train, was said to be under control today.

The woods of Cumberland county are causing chief fire ranger C. H. Hunter considerable worry, however. They are as dry as tinder and swamps which in other years have served as fire guards are caked and dried hard this season. The fire rangers and their volunteer helpers are making extraordinary efforts to prevent the spreading of conflagrations. Their work is rendered difficult by the fact that wherever a spark lights a fire originates.

Ottawa Valley.

Ottawa, July 7.—The situation in regard to the bush fires in the Ottawa Valley tonight was more hopeful. Rain fell for a while in the afternoon at Wyman, Que., where the fires threatened to destroy the farm buildings belonging to H. M. Anstiss. Efforts to back burn this area were successful, and at a late hour tonight the fire was being driven towards the centre of the area, and away from the buildings. In the Gatineau district, above Maniwaki, where the fires have been burning fiercely and unabated for several days, there was thunder and lightning during the evening and hopeful signs of rain.

Grass fires, however, were few in these various districts, that a strong wind would prevent the rain, in which event the situation would be most serious.

SOME FIRES CONTROLLED

Montreal, July 7.—Chief Napoleon Longval, of Shawinigan Falls, reports that the forest and bush fires around his municipality were under control. There was danger for a time that the flames would reach the town, but this was averted. The upper St. Maurice Valley section is, however, still suffering severely from forest fires and dense smoke surrounds Shawinigan Falls.

More Lash; Less Crime, Says Judge

Plea for Leniency to Prisoner Who Attacked Little Girl Gets Scant Sympathy.

Sydney, N. S., July 7.—Sentences aggregating forty months' imprisonment were imposed by Chief Justice Harris at the criminal trial sittings of the Supreme Court here this afternoon upon prisoners convicted of a variety of serious offences including six cases of criminal and indecent assault and a case of shooting with intent to kill. Tony Pucio was sentenced to five years' imprisonment on the last named charge. When D. D. McKenzie, M. P., put in a plea for leniency for Clarence Snow, convicted of indecent assault on a little girl, His Lordship remarked that the only doubt in his mind was as to whether he should not sentence the convicted man to the lash as well, and upon counsel remarking that the lash was not much used in this country, the Chief Justice replied that if it had been a little more in the past he would not have to deal with such a disgusting docket.

MRS. DILL IS HOME.

Halifax, July 7.—Mrs. Jennie Dill, who recently with her husband, Frank Dill, walked from Halifax to Vancouver, arrived back in the place she started from, on the Maritime express this afternoon. She slung her kit bag over her shoulder and stepped sturdily along the street to her hotel, carefree of the halibutian eyes that viewed her with some surprise her riding breeches.

Clifford Behan, who accompanied his father, Jack Behan, on the long hike from the Atlantic to the Pacific, arrived in Halifax late tonight on the Ocean Limited.

ALVA PEEL IS LIBERATED NOW

Attorney-General of Nova Scotia Decides Not to Prosecute After Jury Disagrees.

Amherst, N. S., July 7.—Following the filing by the Crown of a "nolle prosequi" Alva Peel, who has been a prisoner at Cumberland county jail since March 20, 1920, when he was arrested on charges of manslaughter, negligence in causing fire and arson in connection with a fire at Oxford, N. S., in which Lewis King lost his life, was today released from custody. Decision not to further prosecute the case against Peel was made by Attorney-General of Nova Scotia, after a jury had failed to reach an agreement on the occasion of his second trial here.

History of Case.

At his first trial in 1920, Peel was found guilty of the charge of arson and sentenced to five years in Dorchester penitentiary. His counsel, H. J. Logan, of Amherst, secured a stay of sentence until a reserved case could be argued at Halifax, however. The reserved case came up in November, 1920, but the full bench of the Supreme Court at Halifax failing to agree, it went to the Supreme Court of Canada.

In the meantime, application had been made for a new trial. A new trial was granted and recently held before Mr. Justice Chisholm at Amherst. The jury failing to agree, Mr. Logan moved for another trial before another jury, and it was while this motion was under consideration of the court, the Attorney-General dropped the charges against Peel.

FOREST FIRES UNDER CONTROL

Provincial Dept. of Lands and Mines Says Situation is Greatly Improved.

Fredericton, N. B., July 7.—The Department of Lands and Mines declared today that although the air is full of smoke and the sun with its reddish tints resembles a ball of fire, there are no serious forest fires in New Brunswick.

Along the Restigouche Valley and elsewhere in the northern portion of the province the smoke is so dense today that it actually makes people's eyes smart, but the smoke there is said to come from fires in Quebec as well as in the Restigouche and Gloucester counties are entirely free from fires.

In the central portion of the province and on the lower Miramichi there are a number of small fires, but it was officially declared that so far none of these fires have been able to make any material progress because of the activities of the large number of fire wardens who are employed all over the province.

Man Dead; Didn't Know Gun Loaded

Denville, Que., July 7.—Shot through the head today, Vital Gaudreau, 64, of this town, was instantly killed by a bullet fired from a revolver by Germain St. Germain, 16 years old, of St. John's, Que. St. Germain and another youth, Simon Contant, were playing with the weapon in the latter's house while Gaudreau, who was also there, was waiting for a telephone call. The telephone in Mr. Contant's house is in the hall, and the two youths were in the office with the door open. For several moments they pointed the revolver at each other in turn, snapping the trigger, but as only two chambers were loaded, no report followed. Finally St. Germain pointed the revolver at the open door, pulled the trigger and the fatality occurred.

THREE IN TORONTO.

Toronto, July 7.—Ontario was sentenced by the weatherman tonight to swelter at least one more day in the kind of temperature which has prevailed for a week. He could see nothing of a week. It was an encouraging nature except thunderstorms in many places to vary the general condition which he forecasts will be "still decidedly warm."

There were three deaths in Toronto, due to the heat. It was reported that 25 men employed in the Chippawa Development work had been knocked out and had to be taken home.

WOMAN REFUSED TO RETURN FOR DIVORCE COURT

Gave up Her Position in Boston Last Fall for Hearing That Was Postponed.

WILL NOT COME TO ACTION NOW

Judge Crockett Reserves Decision in the Kings County Case Until July 26.

Special to The Standard.

Fredericton, July 7.—Before Mr. Justice Crockett in the divorce case of Jones vs. Jones, in which Melbourne Jones, of Beulah, seeks absolute divorce from his wife, Melissa Jones, was concluded. Mr. D. Mullin, appearing for plaintiff and J. F. H. Teed for defence. This action was begun in August, 1920, and the defendant, now a resident of Boston, gave up her position whereby she was earning her living and came to New Brunswick in October to defend the action, which the plaintiff had notified her would be tried at the November court. The plaintiff did not proceed with the trial then, and the defendant, after being away from work for over a month, went back to Boston.

Came to Court Once.

When later the action was brought on for trial at this court, she had secured another position in Boston, and she sent word to her attorney, Mr. Teed, that she has given up her position and came on to defend the action once at considerable expense, and not being guilty of the charges laid in the libel, she could not be proved guilty, and therefore did not propose to give up her means of livelihood and come to New Brunswick. Mrs. Jones is a waitress by occupation and has been so employed in Boston for over ten years.

In view of her son's evidence on behalf of the plaintiff, Mr. Teed this afternoon expressed great regret at her absence, and pointed out to the court that his client had declared upon affidavit that she was not guilty of the charge and had come last fall to New Brunswick as above stated. Afterwards counsel on both sides occupied an hour each in addressing the court.

Son's Evidence Reviewed.

Mr. Teed held that the evidence of her son George Jones did not substantiate the charge of adultery against the defendant, and it proved further that the plaintiff had been guilty of cruelty to his wife in 1911 by reason of which she then left him; and this cruelty was a bar to the husband's action. On the other hand the plaintiff's counsel, Mr. Mullin, claimed that the son's evidence had proved adultery and that there was no proof of cruelty by the husband.

Judge Crockett reserved judgment in the case and the court was adjourned till Tuesday, July 26th.

Summer Vocational School In Session

Fredericton, July 7.—The formal opening of the third annual summer vocational school in New Brunswick was held this evening at the D. S. C.R. buildings in the old Government House. Upwards of 100 student teachers are in attendance at the school which promises to be the most successful yet held, and despite the extremely hot weather, there was a large attendance this evening.

Dr. H. V. B. Bridges, principal of the Provincial Normal School, acted as chairman at the public meeting, arrangements for which had been completed. Fletcher Pascook, provincial director of vocational education, R. B. Hanson, M. P., appeared as city solicitor, on behalf of Mayor Reid and gave the address of welcome.

STOREHOUSE AT CHATHAM BURNS

Big Loss in Foodstuffs Stored in Shed Belonging to the W. S. Loggie Co.

Special to The Standard.

Chatham, N. B., July 7.—The large three-story warehouse on the Ritchie Wharf belonging to W. S. Loggie Co. Ltd., was badly damaged by fire this afternoon and its valuable and varied contents of foodstuffs, flour, feed, furniture, fishing supplies and building materials considerably damaged by fire and water. The fire started in an old one-story warehouse, known as the salt shed, a short distance to the west of the big warehouse and was first seen by the crew of a tug lying at a nearby wharf who gave the first alarm by tooting the whistle. By the time the general alarm was given the smaller building was a mass of flames and the fire had spread to the upper story of the big warehouse.

Saved the Gasoline.

A large number of gasoline barrels stored on the wharf near the warehouse were promptly removed to safety by willing hands. The local fire department soon had several streams playing on the blaze and assisted by a large number of volunteers fought gallantly to prevent the fire spreading. In a short time Chief W. A. Skidd had eleven streams of hose playing on the configuration, seven from hydrants, two from the steam fire engine that had been placed on the Government wharf and two from the Miramichi Lumber Company's tug Sirocco, which had been sent to the scene to render assistance. The fire was confined to the third story, the contents of which were practically destroyed.

Cooler in North.

Campbellton, N. B., July 7.—The heat for the last three days has been intense, sometimes registering at 94 in the shade. The smoke from the far there has been no forest fire in the nearby districts reported. A light breeze came up this afternoon and it is much cooler.

Cheer Decision To End Their Strike

English Railroad Men Loudly Endorse Executive for Calling off Their Walkout.

Newcastle, England, July 7.—The National Union of Railwaymen's Conference, after prolonged and heated discussion today, adopted by a vote of 60 to 20, a resolution endorsing the action of the executive committee of the union in cancelling the railway strike which was projected to assist the striking miners during the coal stoppage.

Received With Cheers.

The result of the vote was received with much cheering, it being considered a distinct triumph for the executive committee and the constitutionalists over those favoring direct action. The adoption of the resolution also was considered a great personal triumph for J. H. Thomas, leader of the railwaymen, who mainly was responsible for the cancellation of the strike order.

Halifax To Help The Unemployed

Public Meeting Called to Discuss Situation and Means of Relieving It.

Halifax, N. S., July 7.—At a conference held this morning between representatives of the Board of Trade and the Halifax City Council for the purpose of discussing the unemployment situation, it was estimated that there are from six to seven hundred unemployed in the city with the prospect of from 1,000 to 1,200 being added to the number within the next few months. It was further pointed out that public assistance of some form would have to be provided in order to tide over the situation, and to this end the mayor, John S. Parker, announced that he would call a public meeting to discuss the matter.

Ulster to Have a "Provincial" Parliament Similar to Those of Canadian Lands.

ABANDONS DEMAND FOR A REPUBLIC

Happy Solution of Irish Problem Said to be Nearer Than for Many Years.

Then there remains Ulster. While anxious to go as far as possible in placating the south, British statesmen are equally anxious to see that the northern minority will be afforded all possible rights, which at once presents the difficulty of reaching an arrangement to which Ulster will agree. Sir James Craig, premier of Ulster, will enter the conference, provided one is held, with many strings attached to him by Belfast and, just as De Valera will be hampered by extremists in the Sinn Fein, so the extremists in the north will be hampered by the best informed minds as to the ultimate result.

More Good Will.

Meanwhile, however, there is a growing evidence of good will and reasonableness in most unexpected quarters. This was shown tonight when Joe Devlin, who has kept the flag of constitutionalism flying against all assaults, was tendered a complimentary dinner at the House of Commons by the leaders of all parties. Those present included men holding such widely divergent views as J. H. Clynes, Sir Samuel Hoare, Oswald Mosley and Lord Robert Cecil. Both Mr. Devlin and T. P. O'Connor have been tireless in working for settlement, and it is largely due to their efforts, aided by the good will and support of Lord Birkenhead and Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill, that the present negotiations have been brought about.

Settlement in Sight

The conference of premiers did not meet this afternoon, the reason undoubtedly being a desire to give General Smuts as free a hand as possible. One of the dominion premiers, who although taking no part in the actual negotiations, is well informed of what is going on, told the Canadian Press correspondent this afternoon that the chances of a settlement were bright.

The morning session of the conference was taken up with addresses by Lord Curzon and Rt. Hon. Winston Churchill on Anglo-French relations. It is understood that certain points touched upon by Lord Curzon in his outline of the Empire's foreign policy at the opening of the conference.

THE JAPANESE TREATY

What is described as "a curious misunderstanding" has taken place in regard to the Anglo-Japanese treaty, which has been in existence for the past ten years. One of its terms provides that it shall remain in force unless denounced by one or other of the parties to it, and in the event of its being so denounced it shall continue in force for twelve months after denunciation. It has been assumed that the notification given by the British Government to the League of Nations a year ago that the treaty would be adapted to the requirements of the League constituted denunciation. To accept this view of the matter, seems to us to be rather a peculiar construction to put on the word "denounce." If a man tells a group of his friends, of whom his landlord happens to be one, that he intends to vacate his dwelling at the end of his tenancy he could scarcely expect his landlord to accept such a statement as notice of intention to quit. It would seem to be only reasonable and proper that if Great Britain did not intend to be bound by the treaty after the time fixed by its expiry, specific notification of this intention should have been given to Japan, and that a more general statement made to the League of Nations is not sufficient.

There are two treaties at present in force between Japan and Great Britain. One is a "treaty of commerce and navigation" which deals with that subject and will remain in force till July, 1923. The other is the Anglo-Japanese Alliance, and it is this one that is now engaging the attention of statesmen. This treaty contained no reservation respecting the overseas Dominions. It applied to the whole Empire, without any assent of the Dominion Parliaments. It is for the following purposes:

(a) The consolidation and maintenance of the general peace in the regions of Eastern Asia and India;
(b) The preservation of the common interests of all Powers in China by insuring the independence and integrity of the Chinese Empire and the principle of equal opportunities for the commerce and industry of all nations in China;

(c) The maintenance of the territorial rights of the high contracting parties in the regions of Eastern Asia and India, and the defence of their special interests in the said regions.

The principal article of the treaty is as follows:
"If by reason of unprovoked attack or aggressive action, wherever arising, on the part of any other Power, or powers, either contracting party should be involved in war in defence of its territorial rights or special interests mentioned in the preamble of this agreement, the other contracting party will at once come to the assistance of its ally and will conduct the war in common and make peace in mutual agreement with it." Under this provision Japan came to the assistance of Great Britain in the late war and took an effective part in the winning of the victory.

This treaty, as before stated, was to run for ten years certain and to continue afterwards unless denounced by a year's notice. It is the question of continuing it that has latterly been under discussion. A new phase of the question has however arisen now because of the somewhat strained relations between the United States and Japan. In the event of war between the States and Japan, would Britain be obliged to assist Japan? There was no thought of anything of the kind when the treaty between Britain and Japan was made. Now that the question has been raised, there is an almost universal opinion throughout the British Empire that, while a renewal of the alliance with Japan is for many reasons desirable, it should not take a form which would under any circumstances require Britain to take part against the United States. Anglo-Japanese friendship is indeed desirable, but Anglo-American friendship is equally so. Canada, Australia and New Zealand are all deeply interested in the problems of the Pacific ocean, and the views of their representatives will no doubt have great weight with the British Government.

It was on this principle that the Conference of Premiers proceeded to discuss the renewal or otherwise of the Alliance, and the point that specific notice had not been given to Japan seems to have been overlooked, unless but rationally subordinating their disappointment over lower compensation to understanding that the business could not afford to continue paying the old wages.

One must heartily agree with an American contemporary, when it declares that the country should appreciate the good spirit of the American railroad man. There are no better class of citizens than the hundreds of thousands of dependable fellows who are every day taking the responsibility of transporting safely the greatest traffic in the world.

A thousand railroad union leaders gathered at Chicago to discuss what formal action they should take regarding the wage cuts. No one expected that it would be otherwise than a loyal acceptance of the situation, even if there was some protest against the Labor Board's award.

The country would have been faced with very serious damage had the ranks of railroad labor been less intelligent or fair.

It actually be the fact, as has been suggested in the case, that after calling the Conference, the promoters of it had difficulty in finding any practical questions to submit to the meeting. The really important question, often raised, as to possible changes in the constitutional relations between the Mother Country and the Dominions, having at an early stage been specifically excluded from the agenda, there was little real business for the Conference. It is alleged that under these circumstances, Mr. Lloyd George and his colleagues thought the Conference might as well occupy itself with speeches on the Japanese question, the British Premier knowing well that at a convenient moment the discussion could be terminated by a reminder that the consideration of the subject was quite premature. Lord Birkenhead's opinion was given at a moment when the discussion was beginning to be serious.

The discussion in the Conference has not amounted to a waste of time and effort, however. It has brought out and placed before the British Foreign Office and the British Government the attitude of the Dominions in regard to the whole question of the treaty, and to other questions which will be subject to consideration by the three powers should they agree on the holding of a conference on Pacific matters, and on limitation of armaments generally. The views expressed by the Premier of the overseas Dominions will not be forgotten merely because the matter with which they particularly dealt has not to be disposed of at this time. The peculiar "error" of the British Foreign Office as to the continuance of the treaty may prove a profitable one.

COST-OF-LIVING DOWN

The cost-of-living index of the Department of Labor includes staple foods used by the average family, fuel, rent, clothing, etc. The record shows a maximum increase in Canadian cities of 103 per cent, the peak occurring in July, 1920. Last month the index showed the increase over 1915 to be 72 per cent. The decline is, therefore, 30 per cent. from the peak. That is fairly satisfactory as a rate of deflation must be evident to everyone because too rapid a general fall would cause widespread distress, and too slow a fall would bring about stagnation.

The Mail and Empire wants to know what is the public's expectation, in respect of reduction in the cost of living? Does the public want a return to 1915 prices all round? If so, are the workers generally willing to accept the wage levels of 1915? Most persons might be inclined to say "yes." If to the first query, and "no" to the second, everyone wants wages to stay up, and their costs to come down. Obviously, that is impossible. There is a close relation between general wage scales and costs of living, especially costs of manufactures, distributive services, etc. About three-fourths of the cost of these things is attributable to labor overhead, and only 25 per cent. to raw materials. This is why selling prices in so many lines in which raw materials have sunk below 1915 levels remain so high. Foodstuffs cannot be controlled by trade agreements, costs, or any formula used in the factory world as a basis for price-making. They have come down to too cheap a basis, compared with all other factors in the cost of living. Cities are still suffering from the cost of inflation, and the puncturing of this is a gradual process. As most city people are wage-earners, with a much more intimate dependence on markets for a livelihood than even the farmer has, deflation in the urban centres should, in the interest of all, be gradual.

That there is a normal relation between rents, wages, foodstuff prices, and manufacturing prices, is well recognized. Foodstuffs were by long odds the first to rise, then came textiles, then general manufactures, then wages, and then rents. If foodstuffs were the first to fall, textiles were second. General manufactures are undergoing slow readjustments along with wages, but rents have not yet been touched owing to the scarcity of houses. But there is no doubt whatever that conditions will constantly tend toward that normal relation between the various economic factors in the cost of living, because a fair apportionment of rewards for labor is essential to the country's well-balanced progress. Time, patience, and recognition of public needs, will effect the cure.

RAILROAD WORKERS DESERVE PRAISE

One million, five hundred thousand railroad employees have gone to work at reduced wages, without threat of strike, without ill-feeling toward their employers or the Railroad Labor Board

WHAT OTHERS SAY

More Economy.
For the sake of economy, it is announced, telephones have been removed from Carnarvon police-stations. Householders desiring to have burglars removed from their premises should send a postcard to the nearest police station.

Gloomy Dean On Labor.
The Dean of St. Paul's varies his outbursts of savage contempt for Christian morality with many bracing and penetrating judgments. Some of the wisest things he ever said were contained in a recent address to the British Science Guild. We will quote but one sentence: "One might suppose that the trade unions would hasten to use their immense coercive power to become producers, freeing out the old companies, but notorious by their would not look at any such schemes, preferring civil war, black mail, and internecine levies on the exchequer." It is necessary indeed to make an honorable exception of the Building Trades Federation—on whose constructive activities we have commented above—and of one or two unions in by-industries. Otherwise the Dean has got right home; it is a fair blow, directly on the Labor movement's tender spot.—The New Age (London).

A BIT OF VERSE

THE DEBT OF HONOR.
Or nation's debts go piling up, the war debt is immense,
But one debt we have to pay regard- less expense,
It is the debt we owe the men who fought for us and bled,
And who for healthy living limbs wear wooden ones instead.

It is the debt we owe the men who come with broken lives
To struggle once again to keep their children and their wives;
Among the darkened homes of these the famine-spectre stalks,
And dally in the streets and squares we pass them in our walks.

Is Canada so deaf and blind she cannot hear and see
The mute appeal of proud, brave men and children at the knee,
And suffering women pinched and starved in houses cold and bare,
While wealth and ease go rolling by without a thought or care?

Across the sodden plains of death these men have charged and fought,
They bore the agony and strain and our salvation wrought;
They did not swerve, they did not flinch, but on and on they pressed
Till in the ruin of splintering shells came one that gave them rest.

Shall we then now forget the past in selfishness and ease
And say they have no claim on us such glorious men as these?
If on a nation's throne today our country takes her seat,
It is the work of broken men that pass us in the street.

Bestow now on the dead your praise, they heed it not above,
The men that live and suffer still are they who need your love;
The very stones cry out to us, too long have we delayed,
The debt of honor faces us and that debt must be paid.

CANON SCOTT,
Quebec, P. Q., June 21st, 1921.

Weddings

Farrar-Dow. A pretty wedding was solemnized on Wednesday, June 30, at 3 p. m., at Christ Church, Campbellton, when Raymond John, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Farrar of Kodgewick, was united in marriage to Sarah Lybia, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Dow of this town. The Rev. Mr. Harrington officiated. The bride, who entered the church on the arm of her father, to the strains of the wedding march, looked charming in a gown of ivory silk with georgette and silver trimmings with veil and orange blossoms, and carried an arm bouquet of roses, carnations, sweet peas and maiden hair fern, and was attended by Marion Christina, sister of the groom, who was becomingly gowned in white tulle and wore a large picture hat of pink organdy trimmed with pink and mauve roses and carried a bouquet of pink and mauve sweet peas. The groom was supported by Mr. Leslie Dow, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the bride and groom, accompanied by their guests, motored to the home of the groom's sister, Mrs. David Ferguson of Plantlands, where a short reception was held, after which a dainty luncheon was served to about forty guests. The young couple left on the Limited for a trip to Upper Canadian cities. The bride's going-away costume, of navy blue velour with hat to match. The gifts were numerous and valuable, including a beautiful cut glass chandelier from the Christ Church choir, of which the bride was a member. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful pendant set with pearls. In the future Mr. and Mrs. Farrar will reside in Campbellton. Their many friends unite in wishing them a happy and prosperous wedded life.

Crop Agents Say Rain Is Needed

Hail and Grasshoppers Mentioned in Western Reports Received by the C. N. R. Toronto, July 7.—The crop report received by Canadian National Railways here this morning, from the West, covering the week ending July 2, is, generally speaking, as optimistic one, although it reflects the effect of the intense heat and lack of rain over wide areas before that date. A total of 221 agents reported and of those 71 recorded the weather as favorable, and 118 reported a need of rain. Agents to the number of 64 showed that recent rains had saved the situation as far as serious damage was concerned in their district.

New York, July 6.—Things were not very lively Monday night at Broadway and Sixty-sixth street until Miss Ethel Miller, of 61 West Seventy-first street came along with two sailors, but they were not very lively until she got there. The first thing she did when she reached the corner was to pull a .22 calibre single shot large pistol from her pocket, load it with a blank cartridge and pull the trigger. To the scores sitting on the benches that surround Lincoln Square the report sounded like the explosion of a cannon. Several of them began to run. The girl fired a second and a third time, and several hundred persons began running up and down Broadway and through the cross streets, shouting for the police and yelling "murder."

IN THE EDITOR'S MAIL

To the Editor of The Standard. Sir,—Kindly allow me a brief space in your popular daily to make a few points upon the article in the issue of July 2 headed, "St. Andrews by the Sea Booming." Your reporter seems to have been misinformed on some points, particularly in regard to the last paragraph wherein he states that "Mr. Everett was an enthusiastic worker in connection with the electric lighting of the town." This is not so. I have the highest respect for Mr. Everett, who is always a worker in the interests of St. Andrews, but neither financially or otherwise was he in any way responsible for this enterprise, which was taken up and put through by three of the younger citizens of the town, and to whom credit is due. The citizens as a whole are showing their appreciation in no uncertain manner. There were other projects which were not mentioned, amongst which is the new bakery, which can compare with any of its kind in the east. Watch St. Andrews. Thanking you, Mr. Editor, "CREDIT TO WHOM CREDIT IS DUE."

Airships For Use In Forest Patrol

Camp Borden, Ont., July 6.—Two airships of the "bimp" type were shipped from here yesterday to be used by the Keweenaw Lumber Company, in the Lake of the Woods district. Under the direction of Lieut. Col. Renford Mulock, C. O. formerly of the naval air service, they will be used for forest patrol work as well as aerial photography. They are being loaned by the air board so that reports on their capabilities may be made by the lumber company. The man who first circulated that libel about woman's lack of a sense of humor probably was some husband whose wife refused to laugh after hearing the same funny story for the nineteenth time.

America's Foreign-Born Population

The census bureau at Washington has just made up its returns of the foreign-born population of America for the last decade. The total now stands at 12,792,987, being an increase of 358,842. The proportion to the whole population is 13 per cent, as against 14.1 per cent, ten years ago. The present percentage is almost exactly that of 1880. During the last ten years the German element has suffered a loss of 318,000, the Austrian of 600,014, the Irish of 216,571, and the Russian of 293,782. Germany, however, still heads the list, having contributed 1,653,238 persons to the present population of the United States. Next in order are Italy with 1,607,458, Russia with 1,298,990, and Poland with 1,129,178. The order ten years ago was Germany, Russia, Ireland, Italy, Poland, and then France. Ireland has now dropped to the fifth place. She has shown decreases in each decade since 1850, and her decrease in the last decade has been larger than any previous one. Her total is now 1,035,850. Canada ranks sixth with 1,017,136, and England seventh with 812,414.—Manchester Guardian.

World's Policy For C. E. Society

Moslem World Awaiting Big Faith Delegates at New York Are Told.

New York, July 7.—Determination of a world policy for the Christian Endeavor was begun today by the sixth world's Christian Endeavor convention. Conferences were held and plans made for extending the crusade in behalf of Christianity in all countries.

Word was received from Russia that the Greek church would welcome Christian Endeavor there. The people of Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Germany, China, Mexico, South America and India, and elsewhere, were also reported bidding for the help of the society.

Rev. Dr. Samuel M. Zwemer, of Cairo, Egypt, in an address tonight urged that a great evangelistic campaign be started at once to christianize every Mohammedan land and every section of the Moslem world.

Awaits Big Faith

"The Mohammedan world is waiting, not for big finance, but for big faith," he added.

One of the features of the convention is the singing by a choir of one thousand voices. All the song service programmes are led by Homer Robbe, Billy Sunday's well-known solo leader.

The first world convention of the junior world's Christian Endeavor opens tomorrow.

Official convention records indicate tonight that the convention was the largest religious gathering ever held in this country, 16,000 delegates from all sections of the world being registered.

Two of the young delegates, Froya Kilbourn of Waukegan, Ill., and Wm. Grey of Ferris, Tex., made the entire trip here by hiking. They were twenty-four days on the road, and claimed to have spent but 53 cents.

Two cities have entered the race for the site of the 1925 convention. They are Portland, Ore., and Des Moines, Ia.

ORGANDIE SETS.

These organdie sets are a great help in freshening up a flock of wash material. They come in rich-colored collars and cuffs to match, and really improve the appearance of a simple frock immensely. The organdie sets are usually trimmed with tiny ruffles of the material, pick-stitched and put on with hemstitching. For wear with plain gingham, dresses, plain hem-stitched collars and cuffs are good. They are more easily laundered than the dyed ones. Dotted Swiss sets edged with Valenciennes are charming with a frock of plain color which shows up the dots. Being very much in demand, these collar and cuff sets are rather expensive, but it is not difficult to make them at home, especially as one can get the hemstitching done by machinery.

Strawberry Water Ice.

4 cups strawberries.
4 cups water.
2 cups sugar.
1 teaspoon lemon juice.
Ice and salt.

Put the sugar and water on to boil and boil five minutes; set aside to get cold. Mash the berries and strain through fine strainer; add the sugar, water and lemon and put into freezer; close and put the ice and salt around the can, alternately, the same as for ice cream.

Let it stand five minutes, then turn ten minutes; remove the dasher and pack the same as ice cream, with ice and salt.

Frozen Strawberries.

1 quart strawberries.
1 quart water.
1 cup sugar.
1 teaspoon lemon juice.
Wash and hull the berries; mash very fine or put through fruit press. Put two cups of water and the sugar on and boil five minutes. When cool, add the remainder of the water, strawberries and lemon juice; pour into freezer; pack with ice and salt; churn 10 to 15 minutes. Pack and set aside until ready to serve.

CLUBS REPLACE SABRES.

Paris, July 6.—The Paris police force is shortly to be equipped with clubs similar to those carried by Canadian blue coats, replacing the small sabres that have been the principal arms of the municipal force here.

The police have been protesting that their sabres gave them no effective protection against the automatic pistols of the criminals of today, and as Chief of Police Loutier, the new head of the force, is restoring the pistols the men formerly carried, the sabres are to be discarded and clubs supplied for traffic control and for use in cases of arrests where extreme measures are not required.

Select Stockings Very Carefully

Color and Shape Need to be Thoroughly Chosen—Dark Ones Becoming.

It is a season when stockings must be selected carefully—as carefully as hats. For hosiery and hats are equally conspicuous and equally important in the scheme of the costume. The very short skirts of the moment not only give opportunity to display pretty hosiery, but they also make hosiery one of the most important adjuncts of the costume. Not only the color of stockings must be right, but also the style, the material and the quality. Women are paying far more for stockings now than they ever did before and this is not so much because prices are high but because it is realized that quality is essential when stockings are putting themselves so much in evidence as they are now.

It always pays to buy the very best stockings. Good ones outlast cheap ones, even with hard wear, many times over. The economical woman finds it far wiser to buy a few pairs of fine-quality stockings and wash them every night or two herself than to invest in enough cheaper hose to last until the regular laundry day of the house comes around. One must have a good many pairs, however, to suit all the fancies of fashion this summer. There must be black stockings and tinted stockings in addition to the white ones demanded by white sport shoes. There must be pearl stockings for dancing and for the promenade and for tennis and other summer sports. There must be bathing stockings and there must be, perhaps, stockings to match one's negligees. And no woman can get along without several pairs of excellent stockings which are the smart thing with country and sport shoes.

And when you buy your stockings make sure of two or three things—never mind the salesperson's insistence that "these are size nine—just what you asked for." Be sure that the foot is long enough. Many a size nine develops into a seven and a half when you try to put your foot into it. If the foot of the stocking will fold around your clenched fist, toe and heel matted easily, the stocking is about your size, no matter what number is printed on it. But if you really want to get a pair of seamless stockings because of a barmy price, ask for a size several sizes larger than you wear—if you don't you will regret it after the first washing! Be sure, also, that there is plenty of "give" to the top of the stocking at the hem. Even the best makes vary in this respect. Some stockings stretch much more easily at the top and nobody wants to buy an "extra size" unless she has to. "Extra size" stockings are apt to have heavy ankles and, of course, they cost a little more. There are inexpensive stockings which have good flexible tops and these are expensive stockings that bind above the knee. Find out the make that suits you best and stick to it.

A fine cotton stocking looks better than a cheap, stoney one. Indeed, white cotton stockings of fine grade are preferred by some women to silk ones for golf, tennis and boating wear with rubber-soled sport shoes. One may wear dark tan hose or cotton stockings with tan sport shoes or, for a very soft taste indeed, the black stockings should always be silk whether it is worn with a dancing slipper, a buttoned street boot or a sport shoe. Black silk stockings are very fashionable again. For a time they were worn only with black costumes, but this summer they are quite the proper thing (with black pumps) even if the costume is in some color. The ankle never looks as well in anything as it does in a black stocking of hand-knitted quality and only women with slender ankles and legs that neither bow outward nor knock inward should venture to wear the pale gray or honey-colored stockings that are having a vogue just now. Dark taupe silk stockings are usually becoming and so are the dark smoke look well with white shoes. But unless you are proud of your ankles beware of pale gray slippers and hose.

MRS. SOLOMON SAYS:

By HELEN ROWLAND (Copyright, 1920, by The Wheeler Syndicate, Inc.) Being the Confessions of the Seventh-Hundredth Wife

My Daughter, in the silent watches of the night, I heard a voice chanting. And the words that it spoke were these: "Alas, alas, ye Sons of Folly and ye Daughters of Folly, what have ye done, in your vain conceit?"

"Behold, I gilded the sunsets for the delight of your eyes, and painted rainbows for your feet to follow. "I sent you dreams tinted with rose-color, and day-dreams scented with lilacs and myrra and glittering with visions. "I spilled the silver of the moon upon the waters, and filled the stars with promises and Spanish castles. "I hung the world with sweet illusions for you, and covered its hard, bare facts with beautiful idealities. "I made maidens more alluring in the eyes of their lovers, and glorified men in the eyes of women. "I filled kisses with rhapsody, and put the thrills in glances and embraces. "I led you into matrimony, through rose-strewn paths, and veiled its prosaic dullness with the bright figments of imagination. "I inspired you to perform dazzling deeds and sweet works of self-sacrifice. "I gave you genius, hope, memory, and imagination! "And now ye have cast me out! And my name is forgotten in the Land!"

"Among bards and matrons, and flappers and bachelors, I am called 'antique,' and philosophers denounce me as 'rubbish.' "With your cynicism, ye have torn the veil from me, and have mocked me with your wisdom and sophistication. "The daisies that I easily kissed, and the youth that wooeth a daisy for fun, have caused me to hide my face and weep. "With your 'petting parties' and your progressive marriages, ye have robbed me of my magic and with your painless divorces have destroyed mine immortality. "With your cigarette-smoke have ye blinded mine eyes; and with your abbreviated skirts, and sleeveless blouses and backless evening gowns and chemical complexions, have ye shattered the charm of my mystery, forever. "With your eugenics and your philosophy and your advanced ideas ye have stilled my thrills and wiped away my blushes. "With your 'FRANKNESS' and your COMMONSENSE, have ye caused me to turn and flee, forever!"

"Vainly, verily, ye know not what ye have done—neither what ye have LOST!"

"For I am the spirit of dreams, the mingling of happiness, the builder of illusions, and the motive power of life. "Yes, I am ROMANTIC LOVE!"

Rest The Best Aid To Beauty

Rules for Relaxing With a View to Improving the Appearance.

The rush of modern life and the incessant demands made upon one's time and nervous energy have banished rest from the minds of many women. But if you would retain your beauty you must take sufficient rest at night or during the day. It is as essential as exercise and bathing, yet so many women scorn the daytime period of resting as a waste of time.

But rest is too valuable to be dismissed in this manner. You may consider that if you go to bed at night and sleep a few hours' troubled sleep you are doing well. This is just another mistake. You should make a point of securing as much of your sleep before midnight as you can, and you should sleep at least eight hours.

Of course, women who are engaged in certain occupations find that they can get along with a little less sleep at night, as some of them take a few minutes during the day to relax.

Perhaps you do not sleep well, and are in the habit of sitting up late, determined to get thoroughly weary before you seek repose. This is a mistake. If you find it difficult to woo sleep, try some of the methods which have been proved helpful to others.

One of the most soothing ways is to sip a cupful of hot milk, chocolate or beef extract after you are snugly settled in bed. Use one kind of drink one night and another the next. A handkerchief, moistened with a refreshing toilet water and laid on the temples is also conducive to slumber.

But these remedies are demanded only if sleep fails you night after night.

Sleep is Necessary. Nothing makes one less beautiful than lack of sleep. Therefore, whether you sleep well or ill at night you should try to snatch a few minutes' rest during the day.

Lie on your couch, completely relaxing every muscle of your body. Let your mind be absolutely blank, close your eyes and you will soon be sound asleep. You may enjoy this for so short a space of time as ten minutes, but you will arise not only feeling refreshed, but looking refreshed.

This you should do every afternoon unless you are so situated that you have no opportunity to rest.

Women who work in offices or factories are handicapped in this matter, but in some places there are rest rooms where a few minutes may be devoted to the most soothing way is to sip a cupful of hot milk, chocolate or beef extract after you are snugly settled in bed. But these remedies are demanded only if sleep fails you night after night.

Sleep is Necessary. Nothing makes one less beautiful than lack of sleep. Therefore, whether you sleep well or ill at night you should try to snatch a few minutes' rest during the day.

Lie on your couch, completely relaxing every muscle of your body. Let your mind be absolutely blank, close your eyes and you will soon be sound asleep. You may enjoy this for so short a space of time as ten minutes, but you will arise not only feeling refreshed, but looking refreshed.

This you should do every afternoon unless you are so situated that you have no opportunity to rest.

Women who work in offices or factories are handicapped in this matter, but in some places there are rest rooms where a few minutes may be devoted to the most soothing way is to sip a cupful of hot milk, chocolate or beef extract after you are snugly settled in bed. Use one kind of drink one night and another the next. A handkerchief, moistened with a refreshing toilet water and laid on the temples is also conducive to slumber.

Chenille Fringe Trims Fall Hats

Unusual Touches for Autumn Millinery—Black Celluloid Lozengers Give Jet Effect.

Many of the best looking fall hats depend for their chic on what might seem to be an insignificant novelty. A little pompon, a hand painted bow or a frayed ribbon are unimportant things when considered in themselves, but when correctly placed on millinery they have the power to entirely transform its appearance.

Clipped chenille fringe in a warm gold color is especially used in adorning a trig little hat of navy duvetyn. The hat is smooth of line and darts in the wired brim add to the smartness. At one side of the hat and a little to the front a length of the fringe is hung, barely shading the right eye and drooping on the shoulder. The effect is very unusual.

Thumb Nail Pommops. Thumb nail pommops of fibre silk slipped through heavy wooden beads of the same color dot a French turban of cherry duvetyn. The new millinery fabric. The pommops are of cherry and red. The turban is built on tan lines, but broader and fuller than the regulation Tam O'Shanter.

Since the public is clamoring for pleasant tails on felt hats, it is up to the ingenious milliner to discover new uses for the feathers. One "Belmond" model of apricot felt has a wide sloping brim upon which are placed pendants and tails, the tails sweeping around to meet at the back. This trimming is a step away from the drooping tails that are winning favor with consumers at present.

Black celluloid lozengers are extensively used on dresses this season so that they naturally are used on hats as well. They give the same effect as jet while being less expensive. On a buff duvetyn tam, they are mingled with black embroidery. A long black silk tassel depends from one side.

Spent Much Time in Jail. Williams has spent a large proportion of his time in jail since 1887, and says that it is a healthful life. He has frequented New York jails principally in recent years, but he has been in jails in nearly every city of the country. For years he inhabited jail in the middle west for the most part, usually in Kansas and Kansas City. He says he seldom caught in the act of pick-pocketing and usually serves short sentences for jousting.

According to the detectives, the old man's earning capacity has increased with age. He does not smoke or drink and his usual diet consists of plain food. He has given him such nerve control that his fingers when off duty are as motionless as marble.

Nashwaak in 10; Stetson Cutler 4

The Nashwaak Indians defeated the Stetson and Cutler team 10 to 4 in the Industrial League fixture last evening. Fanjoy began twirling for the Stetson and Cutler team but was replaced in the third inning by Ferris. Fanjoy was touched for 4 hits and Ferris 7. The Indians' twirler was Dessormiers who allowed but two hits. A sensational catch by O'Keefe, the Indians' short-stop, and the hitting of two doubles by R. Craft of the same team, were the features of the game. Fanjoy had three strike-outs, Ferris 1, and Dessormiers 3.

Rickard Ready To Stage Fight

Carpentier-Gibbons Bout to be Arranged After Gibbons' Terms Have Been Obtained.

New York, July 7.—Tex Rickard, promoter of the Dempsey-Carpentier contest, said today that until he is able to locate Tom Gibbons he will be unable to make any definite proposition to Carpentier about a fight next fall. Carpentier is willing, he said, to fight with any good man in his class, but he has had no further talk with him on the subject pending news from Gibbons. Carpentier saw the pictures of the championship fight at Newark today for the first time. His only comment was that they "showed a good fight." His manager, Francois Descamps, said that it was evident from the pictures that Dempsey weighed nearer 193 to 194 pounds than the 188 pounds given as his weight before the fight. "You can see," he said, "he was too big, too powerful for my Georges."

RESTED AS PICKPOCKET AT AGE 87

of Profession Does Not Smoke or Drink.

SPENT MANY YEARS IN JAIL.

Operating on Fort Lee When Spotted by Officers of Law.

Fort Lee, July 5.—Harry Williams, old, known as the "dean pickpockets," was arrested at Lee ferry, charged with practicing his trade in which he is now of fifty-four years' standing, and who is well preserved, and steadily of hand, had not been before in 1921, although he was in terms of three months in 1920. Detectives Coy and Long pick-pocketed and sent to jail after a number of complaints had been received from passengers who had lost purses, money boxes. The venerable Williams has been suspected in a grand-manner with some of his victims.

Detectives Saw Him. Two detectives saw the light-colored man make his way to a group of persons leaving the ferry. Pretending to have difficulty in finding his footing, the experienced one of his neighbors the other and clutched at a bag which emerged from the station. He was spotted by the veteran. "You are," he said, "a man who doesn't shout and attract attention," said Williams, "and I will then walk over and myself up, asking to go to jail as possible."

Time in Jail. Williams has spent a large proportion of his life since 1887, and it is a thankful life. He has spent New York jails principally in nearly every city of the For years he inhabited jails little west for the most part, in Omaha and Kansas City. He was usually in southern cities of pick-pocketing and usually ending sentences for jostling. His training capacity has increased and a half century of training and him such nerve control that when off duty are as good as marble.

A strict account is kept of all you buy and as soon as you have sold three hundred copies the bicycle will be shipped to you; all charges prepaid. In case you do not desire a bicycle write for particulars about the number you have to sell to secure one or other of the various watches which will be given as prizes. Already boys and girls in different places have sold more than one hundred copies of the June issue of Pictorial Review, and at the rate they are going will have earned their bicycles by the middle of July. Any one can do it!

The generosity of this magnificent offer will be realized when it is remembered that three hundred copies of the magazine costs the competitor only sixty dollars and that the bicycle is worth more than the entire sum paid for these magazines. No such offer was ever made to the boys and girls of these provinces. Do not lose time. You can secure scores of customers this month who will take the magazine from you every month, and in a very short time you will have finished your three hundred sales and be in possession of an up to the minute bicycle. Let us hear from you at once.

WALL STREET IN FIRM BUT LESS BUOYANT MARKET

Advances Lack the Strength and Breadth of Wednesday's Big Sessions.

OIL STOCKS ARE UNDER PRESSURE

Steels and Food Specialties Break Sharply in Closing Hours of Business.

New York, July 7.—Additional gains were made by many leading issues in the stock market today, but the advance lacked the breadth and vigor of yesterday's session and was materially impaired by profit-taking sales before the close.

Shorts also opposed the recovery, basing their operations largely on the belief that industrial conditions, as indicated by the steel trade, were still subject to downward revision.

The most constructive development was the announcement by Secretary of the Treasury Mellon, that the United States railroad would receive additional advances amounting to about $500,000,000 before the expiration of the year.

Oils Under Pressure

Leaders of yesterday's rebound, especially foreign oils, were under pressure throughout the day, although Mexican Petroleum at one time managed to rise moderately from its 1 1/2 point position.

Steels and equipments, also motors, coppers, leathers and textiles registered gross advances of 1 to 2 points, but broke sharply with some of the food specialties in the later dealings. Marked heaviness was shown by American Woolen and American Sugar. Sales amounted to $25,000 shares. Further release of July interest and dividend disbursements contributed to the ease of the money market, although all call loans on the exchange again were made at 1 1/2 per cent despite the lower rate in the open market.

Doctors reported very light trading in foreign exchange, a firmer tone prevailing, however, for sterling, and the leading continental rates, with moderate reactions in Swiss and Scandinavian remittances.

Liberty bonds were irregular but speculative or convertible rails hardened again on the better tone of the transportation shares. International issues were dull and featureless. Total sales, par value, aggregated $12,275,000.

GOSSIP AROUND THE MARKETS

The cheese market in the United States has been healthy during the past few weeks. Storage holdings in the four main centres as of June 18th increased some 4,000,000 pounds as compared with a year ago. On June 1st the total holdings in the United States amounted to 17,767,752, as compared with 16,400,000 pounds a year ago, and 12,400,000 pounds in 1919 and 20,395,000 pounds in 1918.

As a result of the conditions prevailing in the Ontario dairy market there has been an increase in the number of cheese factories in operation in Western Ontario. A number of factories which made condensed milk a year ago are going into cheese making now. Four large cheese factories which last year forwarded their total milk supply to the powdered milk factories are this year manufacturing cheese. A new cheese factory has been put in operation adjacent to a condenser, and one or two other factories have been put in operation for several years are now making cheese.

Prize Edward Island has a dairy industry of importance.

During the past few weeks the dairy industry of Edward Island has been making considerable progress. The province produced 2,081,276 pounds of cheese, which sold at $52.07 per pound. The same year 17 creameries produced 1,827,237 pounds of butter, which sold for $67.147.

With the exception of a few days of unsettled following the close of the committee's operations...

With the exception of a few days of unsettled following the close of the committee's operations, the market has shown consistent strength, so much so that the Government was able to dispose of their entire accumulated balance of about $200,000,000 of taxable bonds, mostly 1934's, notwithstanding the price for 1934's of 97 1/2 per cent on November 29, 1920, is as follows:

"G. T. R. Common Not Worth One Dollar"

Montreal, July 7.—"The common stock of the Grand Trunk Railway is not worth a dollar," declared W. N. Tilley, K. C. counsel for the Government, as he closed his argument today before the board of arbitration sitting here to enquire into the value of the common and preferred stock of the system prior to its acquisition by the Dominion Government. The Grand Trunk Pacific occupied the greater part of his discussion and he claimed that apart from the growing deficits of its subsidiaries the Grand Trunk itself in time would go into liquidation.

SOLD CANADIAN BONDS QUICKLY

Twenty-Five Million Dollar Loan in New York Gone in a Few Hours.

New York, July 7.—Dillon Read and Company, underwriters of the $25,000,000 Canadian Northern Railway bond issue announced this afternoon that their subscription books have been closed, all of the issue having been sold.

Mr. Christie, manager of Dillon Read and Company, told the Canadian Press that while the sale of this issue did not constitute a speed record, considering the present market conditions, the way in which the bonds were snapped up was considered by his firm as particularly satisfactory.

"The firm has successfully handled a number of previous Canadian Government issues."

"Canadian Government bonds are very much in favor," said Mr. Christie, "and United States investors are anxious to secure them. Canadian federal, provincial and municipal bonds all find a ready market here."

Raw Sugars

New York, July 7.—There was an advance of 1-8 cent in the local raw sugar market early today to the basis of 4 1/8 cents for centrifugal. There were sales late yesterday of 25,000 bags of Porto Rico to an out port refiner and this morning additional lots of 17,000 bags were sold to a local refiner with outport options, and another lot of ten thousand bags were sold to a local refiner, all for prompt shipment. It was also reported that some Cuban were sold in Philadelphia on the spot at the same price duty paid.

The advance in the raws led to scattered covering in raw sugar futures, and prices at midday showed advances of 9 to 10 points.

Refined was firm and unchanged

JAPANESE ARE BLAMED FOR REVOLUTION

Anti-Bolshevik Papers Trace Cause of Vladivostok Uprising. SAY GEN. SEMENOFF ONE OF THEIR TOOLS Said to Have Refused to Allow Chita Government to Suppress Uprising.

Royal, July 7.—The anti-Bolshevik Russian Press, published outside Russia, is largely anti-Jap, and convinced that the so-called revolution in Vladivostok is a Jap affair which they cannot countenance. The Svobodnoe Slovo of Rerval is very decidedly of this opinion. So is the Volya Rossia, also an anti-Bolshevik paper.

"This Vladivostok revolution," says the Volya Rossia, "is simply another adventure. The idea underlying it is the formation of a Japanophile Government. Japanese policy in the Far East changed, and those in charge of it determined to accomplish a revolution in Vladivostok. That revolution was not unexpected. It was accomplished by Gen. Rozalov, who formerly represented Khabarovsk in Vladivostok, and by the followers of Semenovoff, all of them extreme reactionaries, discredited and isolated, and bound by close ties of servitude to the extreme Jingo wing of the Japanese war party.

Japs Back of Revolt. "Long before the revolution came about it was evident that it was coming, and that the Japs were at the back of it. At Grootsook, for example, the Semenovists openly formed a detachment under the command of Col. Savelloff on the pretence of self-protection against bandits. Savelloff carried out arrests, committed murders, held up trains, yet the Japanese refused to allow the Chita Government to send troops against him or against the imaginary bandits he was supposed to be suppressing on the ground that there was no armed force in the Grootsook district.

"Savelloff then moved in the direction of Nikolai and Vladivostok, but the Japanese did not apparently consider that the time was yet come, for they allowed him to retreat and to hide himself for a time. Savelloff and his friends had agents even in Vladivostok, but it was impossible for the Russian authorities there to do anything against them, as they had Japanese protection. Japanese officials, papers, and boasted that they were Japanese Government employees. This boast the Japs did not deny. On the contrary they conveyed these people in their military trains and they supplied them liberally with arms and money.

"The Volya Rossia, which is violently anti-Bolshevik, says it has a list of fifty-six members of the new Vladivostok government, not one of whom is anything but a reactionary. It says: 'Merkuloff, the head of the new Japanophile administration of Vladivostok, was head of the monarchist organization in Vladivostok and the guiding spirit of the Black Hundred newspaper Slovo. The whole business is cynically Japanese and not Russian, and the whole population of the Russian Far East regards those taking part in it as traitors to Russia worthy only of hatred and curses. 'The new Vladivostok government is supported by Japanese money and Japanese bayonets. Lenina, who is well beloved by the Mikado for thus strengthening his fading power in the Far East and making all Russians there look on the Chita republic as the defender of Russia's national and governmental interests.' The conferences of Russian monarchists, which recently met in Berlin and Bavaria, resolved to work hand in hand with the German monarchists. Probably in view of the alleged Jap attack on the Siberian Pacific coast, the Russian reactionaries

Stowaway Thought To Be Embezzler. Suspected of Getting Away With Over One Million Dollars of Russian Money. New York, July 7.—A middle-aged man giving the name of Jacob Gronvold, who arrived as a stowaway on the Scandinavian liner Frederic VIII, today, is said by officers of the ship to be suspected of an embezzlement in Russia of a sum approximating $1,000,000. He was taken into custody at quarantine by agents of the Department of Justice and secret service men of the Treasury Department, detained on the ship and later taken to Ellis Island to be held for investigation.

Gronvold boarded the Frederic VIII at Christiania, Norway. He wanted to buy a ticket and displayed plenty of money, but had no passport. Captain Gotche refused him a ticket and Gronvold disappeared, saying he was going to his hotel for his passport.

On the second day out from Christiania, Gronvold appeared on the deck. He was taken before the captain, who he said he had lost his passport. Captain Gotche sent a wireless to Christiania, which brought the reply that no passport had been issued to Gronvold. Subsequently wireless from Christiania stated that Gronvold was an embezzlement suspect.

Norwegian passengers say Gronvold spoke German on the voyage and that when he tried to speak Norwegian he betrayed but scant knowledge of that tongue, although he did drop expressions in Russian. Beyond insisting that he is a Norwegian Gronvold refused to talk about himself.

CHINA HURT BY THE LACK OF RAILWAYS. Total Mileage 7,000, Compared With 266,000 in U. S., Says President. Pekin, July 7.—President Hsu Shih-chang, discussing railways in his book, 'China After the War,' recites that China has twenty-four railway lines, with a total mileage of about 7,000, where the United States, with an area about the same as China and with only one-fourth of the population, has 266,000 miles of railway. 'Many of our lines,' he continues, 'were built with foreign capital. The diversity of foreign interests has made it impossible to lay out lines according to some comprehensive plan for the whole country. Such being the case, part of the capital seems to have been invested in unimportant routes, while many more important regions are without modern means of communication.

'Since the first construction of railways in China, forty years ago, no less than $400,000,000 has been expended, yet trunk lines are found only north of the Yangtze River and east of Honan province, leaving the great plains to the south and west practically untraversed. This not only hinders the proper industrial development of the country but it also slows the seeds of future international complications. Therefore in the interests of all concerned arrangements should be modified so as to preclude undesirable possibilities.

'In ancient China well constructed courier roads used to radiate from the metropolises to the provincial capitals, and from these to other cities of the country. There were more than 60,000 miles of roads, but nowadays few of them are fit for travelling.

Business Revival Showing In Action

Department Store Head Says He is Doing More Business Than Year Ago.

The spirit of business revival about which so much has been said and written, is now actually expressing itself in action. New Brunswick was one of the last to feel the full force of business deflation, but it is surely steadily recovering, doing business, better business and more aggressively.

The head of a department store in the city says: "We are really doing more business than we did a year ago, only we are doing it at lower prices." He is making money, too, he says—not what he made at the height of the boom, but as much as he had made normally before the war.

Speaking of business conditions, yesterday a banker of the city said the public had an enormous notion that business is to be reckoned only in terms of money. The dollar, he said, was worth more today than one year ago. It has fluctuated in value far more than the real volume of business. According to his view it is in goods, not dollars, that business should be reckoned. The dollar, he said, is merely a counter of changing worth. The goods are real wealth.

Splendid Time At Church Picnic

St. George's Society Had Most Successful Day at Grand Bay Yesterday.

Between four and five hundred persons attended the St. George's church Sunday school picnic at Grand Bay yesterday. The picnic was in charge of the rector, Rev. W. H. Samson, S. M. Sewell and P. J. Legge, assisted by teachers and officers of the school, and the Women's Auxiliary, and the men of the church.

An interesting ball game was played between the picked lines of St. George's church, and of Grand Bay. The church players were more unassuming than the up river players, the latter taking fifteen and the St. George's seven of the twenty-three runs scored by the two teams.

Executive of Gov't Ended Session

Heard Hydro Electric Com. Report and Considered Prices for Good Liquors.

The Executive of the Provincial Government completed the work of the July session at 1 o'clock Thursday afternoon. Several members of the executive yesterday expressed disapproval of holding their sessions in St. John. Being so far away from their departmental headquarters they said it was impossible to transact the business in an expeditious manner. Many documents which are wanted for reference, are in Fredericton, and proper work cannot be done without them. It is a case of work the telephone between here and the capital, and this is not always a satisfactory way of doing business.

PERSONALS

Business Considered. At yesterday's session the Water Power Commission was heard regarding the extension of a transmission line from the Nepisiquit to Newcastle. It was decided that work should start next week. The Intoxicating Liquor Commission was also heard and a schedule of prices will be issued at once, as the profits of the retailers have been decided upon. The commission is now operating fully. Ronald McAvity, W. G. Pugsley, Jr., and a California oil expert asked for consideration of a plan for oil shale development. The case between the factory inspector and the three engineers charged with not having licenses, which was to be taken up yesterday afternoon in the police court, was postponed, the date of trial to be fixed by the counsel for the case.

Jitney Drivers Full of Business

Solicit Trade Like the "Barkers" Who Through the Midway at Exhibition Grounds.

The jitney drivers, who have replaced the street cars in transporting passengers about town, are being extensively patronized and each driver sees a few more "buses" than the day before entered in the business.

The Ladies, antiquated limousines converted trucks, all line up at the foot or head of King street, and lustily solicit fares to Indiantown, Fairville, or the West Side. The motor cars go out after business with commendable energy and solicit trade in a way the staid old street cars never dreamt of. When the jitney services were first inaugurated the majority of the fleet were all voyaging along the Indiantown route, but the current of traffic has changed, and now it is the men in the motor cars who are doing the most business. It may be that the frequent jostlings have had a detrimental effect on the bus pilots. One of the most evasive in stentorian tones invited one and all to embark on his car and "take a trip to the Holy City, Fairville. Although there were no strap hangers, his car was pretty well patronized, and the score of young men and girls who formed the majority of his fares did not seem to mind the crowding or the jostling. Much speculation has given rise as to what effect the return of the street cars will have on the jitney service. It has been generally expected that the buses have come to stay. They are much speedier than the cars, and for through trips to Fairville, Indiantown, or the West Side, may perhaps prove strong contenders against the street railway service.

Fires Reported Under Control

The Fire Which Threatened Summer Cottages at Hillside Has Been Checked.

The fires at Lakewood, and on the Hickey Road were reported quiet yesterday. Highway Commissioners Jordan and Owens have charge of the districts leading from Kane's Corner through Lakewood to the upper end of Loch Lomond, had gangs of men out taking down the trees and to check the fire at those points, where it would be apt to do serious damage. Last night they were able to report the same high wind spring up the fire danger in that section of the country at least. The men sent out to fight the fire on the Backing Hill, two miles from Hillside, were able to successfully check its advance, and unless something unforeseen happens to renew the fire, the cottages at Hillside have passed the danger point of losses to property from the blaze. The fire at Musquash was also reported under control yesterday.

Watched Children On City Playgrounds

Visitor from Campbellton Here to Learn of Work Carried on by Playground Assn.

A movement which is spreading through the country is that of free playgrounds, and those interested are frequently in receipt of inquiries regarding the organization. Yesterday Havelock Samson, of Campbellton, called upon Mrs. W. C. Good, who is convener of the Standing Committee of Women, and asked a number of questions as to the management of the playgrounds. A visit was paid to the Allison grounds, where Mr. Samson saw games played under supervision, and the manner in which handicrafts are taught. Gives Children Chance. Mr. Samson is deeply interested in the welfare of children, and says that the idea of free playgrounds was suggested to him by seeing the way in which the children of Campbellton played around places where building was going on, with lumber, sand and cement. He thought that boys and girls should have a place where they could build miniature houses to their hearts' content without being sent away from such materials, and where sand piles could be placed in better surroundings.

Settlement Not Reached Thursday

Nothing Definite Has Yet Come From Attempt to Adjust Power Co. Dispute.

Rumors were flying about the city last evening to the effect that the New Brunswick Power Company and its former employees had settled their differences, and that street cars would be humming their monotonous tones today. No confirmation of such rumors could be secured from those in a position to speak with authority.

His Worship Mayor Schofield said last night that negotiations were still being conducted between the warring factions, with the city acting as an intermediary to bring them to an amicable settlement of their differences. Nothing definite was accomplished at yesterday's conference. Mayor Schofield and Hon. J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., City Solicitor, met with the men at their daily meeting Thursday. They were in conference four hours discussing the existing status between company and men. The men decided to authorize the mayor and Dr. Baxter to submit to the management of the New Brunswick Power Co. a wage proposition and conditions upon which they would return to work. It was unofficially announced that the wage proposition called for 43 1/2 cents an hour 1/2 cent more than the rate offered made the men by Manager Thomson. It is said the men would raise no objection to the operation of the one-man car, but would insist upon the recognition of the union.

In view of the negotiations going on the men decided to postpone the parade scheduled for Thursday evening. Should the conference prove futile, it is said a big demonstration would be held later. Some of the men seen last evening carried a confident air and expressed the belief that their proposition would be favorably accepted by the company. Manager Thomson had little to say on the situation last evening. He said it was a question being taken up by the city authorities and all statements should come from them. He did say, however, that the men thought they had the company beaten, but in this he thought they would find themselves very much in error. The work of laying rails on Douglas Avenue and Brussels street would continue, he said. Today is the day set for signing up the permanent crews for work and he would confer with it. About forty applications for jobs were received from local men yesterday. The applications from men outside the city would fill a basket of large size, but locals will be given first consideration.

Planning Reception For Hilton Belyea

Programme Will be Decided on by J. C. Chesley and Mayor Schofield Today.

A definite programme of the reception to be tendered Hilton Belyea, St. John's world champion sculler, and the other St. John oarsmen, who attended the New England Sculling Championships at Boston, will be arranged today, after a conference between J. C. Chesley, president of the Rowing Club, under whose colors Belyea rowed, and Mayor Schofield. It is likely that the Rowing Club officials, accompanied by the Carleton Band, will be on the Eastern Steamship dock at Hilton on an excursion as he comes down the side. From the boat a triumphant parade of motor cars, in which Belyea's car will take the van, will be made to City Hall, where the clever oarsman will be publicly welcomed by the mayor, who will voice the appreciation of the city at Belyea's splendid work. A presentation will, doubtless, be made either at the boat or at City Hall. From City Hall the little party will proceed to the west side, which will be in gala attire to welcome back the west side boy, who led them all at Boston, and there another enthusiastic welcome will be tendered. A big banquet is to come off, but this will not be given until Belyea's return from Toronto and Buffalo, where and John feel confident will excel even his wonderful rowing at Boston.

Pender Co. Objects To New Valuation

Representatives Appear Before City Council Protesting on Valuation on Property.

Representatives of the Pender Natl Works appeared before the City Council Thursday afternoon to register a protest against the valuation placed upon their property, and asking a tax rebate. Hereofore, this property has had a fixed valuation for assessment purposes, said to have been established at $100,000. This year the valuation was raised by the assessors and the tax this year made on the increased valuation. Some time ago the company notified the authorities that if the fixed valuation was not continued for the future they would be obliged to withdraw their plant from this city and locate at Sydney. The question was left with the city solicitor for final disposition.

BOIL WATER FOR DRINKING PURPOSES. Water Supply Contaminated and Board of Health Issues Warning to Users. The Provincial Board of Health warns users of water from the city supply except those living in the West End, to boil all water for drinking purposes. Examinations made of the water reveals bacteria of dangerous type, and for the present they regard it a safe course to follow if all householders boil the water for drinking purposes. Dr. Roberts was out of the city last night and it was impossible to get his personal views or specific reasons for the order promulgated. EVERY ONE MUST WEAR WHITE. The feature in sport attire in Atlantic City and Coney Island this year seems to be the White Wash Skirt with a Furled Sweater Coat of wool. Arriving by express yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Dykeman's, was a shipment of pure wool Sweaters in plain colors. One of the neatest designs of sweaters which it has been our pleasure to see for some time. The most outstanding feature is the remarkable price of Five Dollars and Ninety-Five Cents. The next value to this coat was previously sold for $9.00 and $9.00. The Wash Skirts which comprise the other shipment in the July Sales for $1.15, having two pockets, pearl button trimmed, in all sizes. These go on sale this morning at Dykeman's.
