DRESS AND MANTLE MAKING

The Fashionable West End.
To the Ladies:
We have during the past two years contemplated the establishment of a Dress and Mantle Department, in connection with our other branches. The difficulty of obtaining a suitable person to take charge, has up to the present time, only prevented us from doing so.
We have now great pleasure in informing you that we have secured the services of Miss Morrison, of Toronto, a lady of first-class abilities, highly recommended to us, and we believe eminently qualified to give complete satisfaction in every respect. Miss Morrison has for the past ten years occupied the position of cutter and fitter in one of the leading Fashionable Dress-making Establishments in the City of Toronto.
Miss Morrison is also an experienced Mantle maker, and all orders entrusted to her will be executed in a style equal to anything that can be obtained in the largest cities.
Orders for these departments will be received on and after Monday next, the 20th of May.
A. O. BUCHAN,
Fashionable West End Dress, Mantle and Millinery Establishment.

THIS MORNING'S DESPATCHES

The Modoc War.
Capture of Khiva.
The New French Ministry.
Business Crisis in Vienna.
Suppression of a Newspaper.
San Francisco, May 18.—A despatch from Lava Bed, dated 15th inst., states that Mason's and Hasbrouck's commands had formed a junction near Captain Jack's last stronghold, and would, in all possibility, hunt the Modocs in.
A second despatch, dated 16th, contradicted the former, and stated a junction had not been made, and furthermore that the Modocs had escaped from the stronghold by three routes. Both commands are pursuing. Nothing had been heard from the Warm Spring warriors. At latest accounts the Modocs were encamped on Snow Mountain, twenty miles south of Tonnass Lake.
London, May 18.—A special to the Daily Telegraph, dated Tiflis, May 17, says the Russians have taken Khiva. The Khan is a prisoner. The Russian loss was slight.
A telegram to the London Times from St. Petersburg, states that the Russians reached the Khivan Territory without serious encounter. There is talk in St. Petersburg now of the annexation of Bokhara and Khokand, as well as Khiva. The Russian press represents that Turkey is tottering with this Government, and predict that the time is coming when her troubles will culminate, and Russia will then be able to vindicate her interests.
Paris, May 18.—The programme of the new Ministry is to organize the Republic by the enactment of Conservative laws, and wholly reject Radical plans.
Vienna, May 18.—Indications at the close of the business on the Bourse yesterday were that the worst of the crisis was over.
Father Point, May 19.—The Scandinavian, from Liverpool, arrived at midnight with 61 cabin, 88 intermediate and 344 steerage passengers.
Paris, May 17.—The resignation of General, Minister of the Interior, and Jules Simon, Minister of Public Instruction, was accepted by President Thiers. It is reported that the Minister of Public Worship will be re-established. The new members of the Cabinet will act either with the moderate Republicans or the members of the party of the left centre.
Paris, May 17.—Several of the leading journals of this city have been fined for republishing the letter written by Felix Byatt, and addressed to President Thiers, and which was published in the London Times on the 1st April.
The People's Secret newspaper has been suppressed for publishing editorial articles attacking the National Assembly.
The Colliery Explosion in Nova Scotia.
Westville, N.S., May 16.—There has been very little change in the aspect of affairs here since yesterday. The work of filling the slopes has progressed steadily, and the only remaining opening is the pumping shaft, into which a good stream of water is pouring. The shaft was sounded this morning, and the indications were that the water was rising rapidly.
Everything is quiet about the Drummond colliery to-day. A number of men are still engaged in carting earth with which the various openings have been filled. Yesterday notices were posted in various places directing the employees of the colliery to attend roll-call at the office at 7 a.m. to-day. At the hour appointed about 150 of the men were present and answered to their names. When the roll was called there was a large number of absences, but the absence of many were explained by those present. Some had left the place, and others were careless about attending the roll-call. No fresh names were added to the already long list of missing. Mr. Drummond, President of the company, said he would make arrangements to provide for those who were left destitute by the disaster, and he assured them he would do everything in his power to lighten their already heavy burdens of sorrows and suffering, and in conclusion he exhorted them to be steady and lead sober and Christian lives.
Mr. Drummond appeared to feel greatly the dreadful catastrophe, and several times while speaking was deeply affected.
Halifax, N.S., May 17.—The relief meeting for the widows and orphans of the Drummond colliery was held here to-day. A large amount was subscribed, and a committee appointed to solicit subscriptions through the city.
WALTON'S GANG PLOUGH.—Mr. W. Walton's Eclipse Gang Plough was fully tested in a field on Mr. Wm. Whitelaw's farm, on Saturday last. It was tried in the presence of a number of farmers, all of whom expressed their satisfaction at the way in which it did the work. These ploughs are steadily gaining in popular favor, and before long every good farmer will consider that his stock of implements is not complete without one of Walton's Eclipse gang ploughs. Parties who wish to obtain more particulars about the ploughing on Saturday, can obtain information from Mr. Whitelaw, and those wishing to purchase the plough can get them from Mr. John Horsman, the agent in Guelph.
A MOVE IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.—On Saturday morning, Messrs. W. Campbell, J. Green, J. Green, and J. Baker, saw-millers in the township of Nelson, and doing business on the 12-Mile Creek, were fined $30 and $30 costs each, for throwing saw-dust into the stream, to the injury of the fish. Mr. Kerr, Fishery Inspector, has the honor of making this move in the right direction. If we have laws, by all means let them be enforced.

RAILWAY BONUS.—The by-law to grant a bonus to the Brantford and Port Huron Railway was defeated in Norwich Township Thursday by a small majority. The defeat was owing to an impression that had got abroad to the effect that the Town of Brantford did not countenance the scheme, and would do nothing to assist it.
A CURIOSITY.—Talking of little and big eggs, Mr. Alfred Street, of this town, has had a curiosity which beats them all. One of his fowls hatched, the other day, a chicken having three legs! The third leg was fully formed, a little shorter than the others, and grew out near the hip. Unfortunately it only lived a day or two. So says the Stratford Age.
FOUND DEAD.—The Paisley Advocate says:—A man about forty years old, Geo. Whiteford, was found dead on the road near Tiverton, on Monday morning of last week. He left Paisley on Sunday afternoon about three o'clock, and appeared to be in good health, but as he was subject to fits, it is supposed he was seized with convulsions and dropped dead.
FORT WILLIAM.—Since it is understood that the Thunder Bay termination of the Lake Superior and Fort Garry branch line of the Pacific Railway is to be at Fort William, speculation has been rife in the town lots of that place—some of which have changed hands at as high as $100, while other water lots on the river edge are held at higher figures.
THREE ENTERPRISING YOUTHS, sons of respectable parents, none of them over twelve years of age, went to the G. W. R. ticket office in St. Catharines on Thursday afternoon, one of them put down a one dollar bill and demanded tickets for South America. They were refused tickets to any point but got on board an eastern bound train, but were put off near the Falls. They were soon discovered and brought home.
REWARD.—The Council of the Township of Normandy of a reward of $200 for such information as will lead to the conviction of the party or parties who entered the stables of A. Ritchie, Ayrton, on the night of the 14th of April last, taking therefrom two horses and sending them over the embankment of the river, near Robertson's mill, causing the death of one of the horses and seriously injuring the other. It is sincerely to be hoped that the guilty party may be discovered.
—Mount Forest Examiner.
A BUSINESS CHANCE.—The Examiner says:—We notice by an advertisement in the Globe that Mr. David Yeomans offers for sale the Mount Forest mill property. He also announces his willingness to associate himself with one or two partners having $10,000 at command. The property contains eighty-four acres and there are in it two privileges, one of fourteen feet and the other six feet head, and upon the premises are a flour mill, saw mill, woolen factory and dwellings.
PRESBYTERIAN PRINTING AND PUBLISHING COMPANY (LIMITED).—Notice has been given by Messrs. C. B. Robinson, Hugh Miller, T. W. Taylor, J. K. Macdonald, W. B. McMurrich, of Toronto, and A. Mutchmor, of Ottawa, that they intend to apply for a charter of incorporation, under the name of the "Presbyterian Printing and Publishing Company of Toronto," for the purpose of printing and publishing a newspaper and to do other kinds of printing, in the city of Toronto. The nominal capital of the company is $20,000, in one thousand shares of $20 each.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Ottawa, May 17.
On the opening of the afternoon session, Mr. Tilley moved a resolution to go into Committee on Monday next, to consider the terms for the purchase of Prince Edward's Island into the Dominion. He briefly explained the difference in the terms now proposed, as contrasted with those submitted in 1869. He pointed out that since that period the Dominion had entered upon an expenditure for public works which he roughly estimated at nearly eighty thousand dollars. On this ground he mainly justified the proposal to allow fifty dollars per head in the case of Prince Edward's, while the arrangement at Confederation fixed the debt per capita at twenty-seven dollars seventy-seven cents. The Island at that time had almost no public works; but its railway now in progress will cost nearly three millions and a quarter of dollars, and would become the property of the Dominion. The Provincial Buildings, for which it was proposed to pay $30,000, was partly required for Dominion purposes, and therefore, following the precedent of Nova Scotia, the Dominion would purchase them. The steam dredge would cost $22,000; and the contract to supply telegraphic communication to the Island would cost about $2,000 a year. In answer to Mr. Mackenzie, the Marine Minister said that the lands it was proposed to redeem from absentee proprietors were valued at about $500,000 to $600,000.
Mr. Mackenzie expressed the pleasure it must afford to members on both sides of the House, especially those interested in the original scheme of Confederation, to know that Prince Edward's Island was likely to be in the Dominion; and while he would reserve any comment on the Government proposal till the papers were brought down, he was disposed to treat the matter in a liberal spirit.
Sir John Macdonald then introduced the resolution proposing to give $150,000 per annum to New Brunswick. He explained briefly that the Treaty of Washington had granted the right to Canadian vessels to carry freight between American ports, provided that no part of the journey was overland; and he argued that this was a considerable advantage to the country. On the other hand, we were in exchange to use our efforts to induce New Brunswick to relinquish her export dues; and the resolution before the House, which the Finance Minister would explain more fully, was to enable this agreement to be carried out.
Mr. Holton showed that whilst we were agreeing to pay New Brunswick $150,000 a year for ever, our Treaty proposals under which this proposal arose were only for twelve years. All the Minister of Finance could really show to be due to New Brunswick under the timber head was a sum of $340,000 a year; and assuming the concurrent arrangement under the Treaty were permanent, and not merely temporary, the sum to be paid over and above the $300,000 representing a capital sum of $2,400,000.
Mr. Mackenzie expressed his surprise that after his appeal, made some time since to Mr. Tilley, for full information, they were still quite in the dark as to the grounds on which to base a calculation of the less New Brunswick was to sustain by the abolition of her export duties. He frankly admitted that the Province was entitled to be compensated for the whole sum lost to her, either by the removal of the duties on timber or incidental losses from the same cause. But they had no evidence before them that, on the most liberal calculation, the total amount it was possible to attribute to these causes would reach $5 more than half the sum they were now asked to vote. In point of fact, as Mr. Holton had said, this was a grant of better terms in disguise. Mr. Mackenzie then went on to show in a most conclusive manner that he had always been friendly to considering the claims of the smaller Provinces, and had been among the first to advocate a just recognition of the grievances Nova Scotia laboured under, although he held them, as now, that there was proper and constitutional means of rectifying any wrong under which any one of the parties to the Federal compact was suffering. He then alluded to the apparent financial prosperity of the Province of Ontario, and showed that it arose to a large extent from the local expenditure being borne by municipal taxation. Thus, for educational purposes, whilst in Ontario the rate of taxation only contributed 21 cents per head, in Nova Scotia the Local Government provided 42 cents, and in New Brunswick 47 cents per head. Again, for roads and bridges the Government of Ontario contributed only four cents per head; Nova Scotia and New Brunswick they provided 55 cents per head. Mr. Langton had shown that in Ontario the municipal taxation was equal to $1 per head, whilst in Nova Scotia it was $1.88 a head, and in New Brunswick $1.05 per head. The whole municipal taxation of Ontario amounted to between five and six million of dollars. That accounted for his apparent advantages over the other Provinces. Under the arrangements made on the basis of the census of 1861, the Federal subsidy to Ontario amounted to nearly 80 cents per head, in Nova Scotia to 98 cents, and in New Brunswick to $1.25 per head. On the other hand he admitted that the cost of governing a small Province was proportionately greater than in the case of a larger one, and it was quite possible that $1.25 in New Brunswick might not go further than 80 cents in Ontario, but he would prefer to deal with the case on its merits, to have a specific sum proposed—not under a disguised name, but openly and frankly to be submitted to the House and considered on the plan he had suggested in the case of New Brunswick. As matters stood, if they paid the money ostensibly for the loss of the timber dues, there was no guarantee that New Brunswick might not yet be a suitor for better terms, if, as was possible, at the end of twelve years the arrangements now entered into with the United States came to an end. He had often been grossly misrepresented by those who desired to benefit by creating a sectional feeling in the Lower Provinces, but his desire was to deal fairly and liberally with all sections of the Dominion; and if, as appeared to be the case, it was found that after five or six years the British North America Act needed amendment, it would be well to bring it about in a constitutional manner and by the consent of all concerned. He should not divide the Committee on the proposition before it, but throw the responsibility of the proceeding on a Government who were perpetually tampering with and had often violated the constitution to keep themselves in power. The resolutions were agreed to, and a

DUES! Twenty vocal duets by the best composers with piano-forte accompaniments for 40 cents at Day's Book Store. Just think of it! twenty for the price of one when published in sheet form.

PRESENTATION.—On Monday night last, Mr. James Young, Harrison, was presented with a beautifully enamelled gold watch and a chaste designed gold-chain on behalf of the Masons of that place.

THE PEOPLE'S MILLS.—We are glad to be able to state that the People's Mills, owned by Mr. James Goldie, are again running. Mr. Goldie has succeeded in making a temporary dam, which will answer his purpose till the low water in summer enables him to put in a permanent one. The break in the old dam has been a serious drawback to him, for he lost some of the best weeks in the year, when the water is highest.

NASSAGAWAYA.—A social entertainment will be held at Bloomsbury, S. S. No. 9, Nassagaweya, on the evening of May 30th, for the purpose of defraying expenses connected with the purchasing of prize books for the children. Programme to consist of vocal and instrumental music, Dialogues, recitations, &c. A pleasant time is anticipated. Admission 15 cents each; Pupils attending the School during 1873 5c each. Doors open at 7:30 p.m.

SODA WATER.—Messrs. E. Harvey & Co. announce to-day that their beautiful soda-water fountain is again in operation. The hot days will soon be here, and a cooling drink will be one of the greatest treats imaginable to the sweating pedestrian. Such a delicious ice-cold drink can always be had from the "Zenith," which stands so inviting and so conspicuous in Messrs. Harvey & Co's drug store.

OUR VOLUNTEERS.—The Orangeville Advertiser says:—We are glad to learn that Captain Parsons of the Orangeville Company has been promoted to be Major of the 26th Battalion, and Lieutenant Dunbar to be Paymaster of the same Battalion. This will give an opportunity for an advance in rank of the other officers of the Company. We suppose Ensign Deacour will get the Captaincy. This promotion was well deserved, as there are no more efficient or attentive officers in the Volunteers than those of No. 2 Company.

GUELPH CENTRAL EXHIBITION.
The Directors of the Guelph Central Exhibition met at their office, over Sharpe's Seed Store, on Saturday, for the transaction of business connected with the next show.
A letter was read from Messrs. Wilson, Lockman & Co., in reference to a sewing machine offered by them as a prize for the best assortment of agricultural implements at the Show in 1871, and for which there was no competition. The Directors next year offered the machine as a prize for the best grade cow, but Messrs. Wilson, Lockman & Co. decline to give the machine on the ground that it was not offered in the class originally specified. Under the circumstances, the Secretary was instructed to settle on as favorable terms as possible with Mr. W. S. Armstrong, whose cow was awarded the prize.
A letter was read from the Guelph Sewing Machine Company offering one of their $38 machines as a prize for the best firkin of butter, not less than 60 lbs., which was accepted, and the thanks of the Society tendered to the G. S. M. Co. for their valuable gift.
It was agreed to make some alterations in the Poultry pens, the other buildings to remain as they are.
An application was read from the Y.M.C.A. for liberty to erect a building on the Exhibition grounds, in which to hold their Bazaar during the Exhibition, in aid of their building fund. The request was granted free of charge.
A Committee was appointed to petition the County Council for a grant in aid of the funds for defraying the expenses of the Exhibition.
A Committee was also appointed to act in concert with a similar Committee of the Town Council, to invite the Governor General to open the next Exhibition.

ACCIDENT.—On Wednesday evening a girl in the employ of Dr. Brown, of Baden, was sent to fetch some water from a tub, used by the button factory for condensed steam. She jumped from some single blocks on to the cover of the tub, which gave way and she was badly scalded from her knees downward.
RAILWAY BONUS.—The by-law to grant a bonus to the Brantford and Port Huron Railway was defeated in Norwich Township Thursday by a small majority. The defeat was owing to an impression that had got abroad to the effect that the Town of Brantford did not countenance the scheme, and would do nothing to assist it.
A CURIOSITY.—Talking of little and big eggs, Mr. Alfred Street, of this town, has had a curiosity which beats them all. One of his fowls hatched, the other day, a chicken having three legs! The third leg was fully formed, a little shorter than the others, and grew out near the hip. Unfortunately it only lived a day or two. So says the Stratford Age.
FOUND DEAD.—The Paisley Advocate says:—A man about forty years old, Geo. Whiteford, was found dead on the road near Tiverton, on Monday morning of last week. He left Paisley on Sunday afternoon about three o'clock, and appeared to be in good health, but as he was subject to fits, it is supposed he was seized with convulsions and dropped dead.
FORT WILLIAM.—Since it is understood that the Thunder Bay termination of the Lake Superior and Fort Garry branch line of the Pacific Railway is to be at Fort William, speculation has been rife in the town lots of that place—some of which have changed hands at as high as $100, while other water lots on the river edge are held at higher figures.
THREE ENTERPRISING YOUTHS, sons of respectable parents, none of them over twelve years of age, went to the G. W. R. ticket office in St. Catharines on Thursday afternoon, one of them put down a one dollar bill and demanded tickets for South America. They were refused tickets to any point but got on board an eastern bound train, but were put off near the Falls. They were soon discovered and brought home.
REWARD.—The Council of the Township of Normandy of a reward of $200 for such information as will lead to the conviction of the party or parties who entered the stables of A. Ritchie, Ayrton, on the night of the 14th of April last, taking therefrom two horses and sending them over the embankment of the river, near Robertson's mill, causing the death of one of the horses and seriously injuring the other. It is sincerely to be hoped that the guilty party may be discovered.

A BUSINESS CHANCE.—The Examiner says:—We notice by an advertisement in the Globe that Mr. David Yeomans offers for sale the Mount Forest mill property. He also announces his willingness to associate himself with one or two partners having $10,000 at command. The property contains eighty-four acres and there are in it two privileges, one of fourteen feet and the other six feet head, and upon the premises are a flour mill, saw mill, woolen factory and dwellings.

DOMINION PARLIAMENT.

Ottawa, May 17.
On the opening of the afternoon session, Mr. Tilley moved a resolution to go into Committee on Monday next, to consider the terms for the purchase of Prince Edward's Island into the Dominion. He briefly explained the difference in the terms now proposed, as contrasted with those submitted in 1869. He pointed out that since that period the Dominion had entered upon an expenditure for public works which he roughly estimated at nearly eighty thousand dollars. On this ground he mainly justified the proposal to allow fifty dollars per head in the case of Prince Edward's, while the arrangement at Confederation fixed the debt per capita at twenty-seven dollars seventy-seven cents. The Island at that time had almost no public works; but its railway now in progress will cost nearly three millions and a quarter of dollars, and would become the property of the Dominion. The Provincial Buildings, for which it was proposed to pay $30,000, was partly required for Dominion purposes, and therefore, following the precedent of Nova Scotia, the Dominion would purchase them. The steam dredge would cost $22,000; and the contract to supply telegraphic communication to the Island would cost about $2,000 a year. In answer to Mr. Mackenzie, the Marine Minister said that the lands it was proposed to redeem from absentee proprietors were valued at about $500,000 to $600,000.
Mr. Mackenzie expressed the pleasure it must afford to members on both sides of the House, especially those interested in the original scheme of Confederation, to know that Prince Edward's Island was likely to be in the Dominion; and while he would reserve any comment on the Government proposal till the papers were brought down, he was disposed to treat the matter in a liberal spirit.
Sir John Macdonald then introduced the resolution proposing to give $150,000 per annum to New Brunswick. He explained briefly that the Treaty of Washington had granted the right to Canadian vessels to carry freight between American ports, provided that no part of the journey was overland; and he argued that this was a considerable advantage to the country. On the other hand, we were in exchange to use our efforts to induce New Brunswick to relinquish her export dues; and the resolution before the House, which the Finance Minister would explain more fully, was to enable this agreement to be carried out.
Mr. Holton showed that whilst we were agreeing to pay New Brunswick $150,000 a year for ever, our Treaty proposals under which this proposal arose were only for twelve years. All the Minister of Finance could really show to be due to New Brunswick under the timber head was a Bill founded on them read a first and second time.

Mr. Tilley then rose to move a series of resolutions for effecting the readjustment of the public debt. He adverted, as on a previous occasion, to the altered value of money since 1867, and to the enhanced amount of revenue received by the Dominion, as calling for and justifying the assumption of the excess of debt now chargeable to the old Province of Canada, and the payment of an equivalent to the smaller Provinces. He did not assign any special reason for taking up the question at the present moment, but proceeded to explain what would be the general result of the proposed re-arrangement, and of the other additional charges which Parliament had voted, or was about to be called upon to assent to. The result of his calculations was that he anticipated a surplus on the current year, ending June 30, 1873, of nearly $700,000, and a deficit on the coming year, 1873-4, of about the same amount. The one year he believed therefore would about balance the other. He remarked upon the fact that our tariff did not now average more than ten per cent. all around, and that the loss of the tea and coffee duties had been more than recouped by the elasticity of Customs receipts.

The Finance Minister was followed by Mr. Cartwright, who, in a speech distinguished by most careful preparation and great ability, held the attention of the House uninterruptedly while he reviewed the whole financial position of the Dominion.

Hon. Mr. Tilley briefly replied, and after a few words from Mr. Wilkes, the Committee rose.

The question of increasing Ministerial salaries was then discussed, and the resolution carried.

The House adjourned at 11:15.

MONDAY EVENING, MAY 19, 1873.

Pacific Railway Scandal Committee.

The Committee met at 8 o'clock on Saturday morning, Sir John A. Macdonald, Mr. Huntington, and several other M. P.'s were present and Mr. Henry Starnes, Banker, Montreal, attended in obedience to the subpoena of the Committee. In answer to the interrogations of the Committee Mr. Starnes said that he had in his hands a packet of papers, placed in his keeping in the month of January last by the Hon J. C. Abbott, M. P., and G. W. McMillan. He was unable to state their contents, but they bore an endorsement, signed by Sir Hugh Allan and G. W. McMillan, by which he (Mr. Starnes) was directed to hold the documents until ten days after the prorogation of the present session of Parliament. He declined to surrender the documents except to the authority of the Committee. The chairman ordered the witness to give up the papers, which he did, and they were ordered to be impounded. The Committee, being thus formally seized of the documents appointed Mr. Starnes as their custodian until they should be required for the purposes of evidence. The Committee then adjourned to the 2nd July.

The fact that these papers were to be held by Mr. Starnes till ten days after the prorogation sufficiently explains the object of Sir John A. Macdonald in desiring the postponement of the investigation until the evidence should be beyond reach of the Committee, and the representatives of the people unable to take action upon it.

The Late Mr. John Shedd.

The Globe, in speaking of the late Mr. John Shedd, whose melancholy death was recorded on Saturday, says:—The deceased was one of those men whose energy and intelligence are certain to bring them into prominence, and his career in Toronto and in Canada deserves a passing notice. Mr. Shedd was born in the parish of Killbuck, in Argyre, Scotland, in 1825. He was educated in Irish academy, thus securing at least a fair share of scholastic attainments. He was early associated and connected with railway men and projects, his father being a contractor to some extent on several of the railways progressing at the time of Mr. Shedd's youth. A valuable and watch he wore at the moment of his death was a gift from the monarch on a contract on the G. & S. W. Railroad in Scotland. The crystal of the watch was broken, and it stopped at twenty minutes past nine. In 1855 or '56 Mr. Shedd came to Canada from Virginia, Va., where he had been in full possession of a difficult railway contract. Here, in conjunction with Mr. Wm. Hendrie, he inaugurated the cartage system, which has since that time become so perfected, in Montreal, Toronto, Hamilton, London, and Detroit. From the inception of the scheme he has also been among the foremost in promoting the extension of the Narrow Gauge Railways; more particularly the Toronto and Nipissing, of which, at the hour of his death, he was the President. The new Union Station in this city, for which he was contractor, is a conspicuous monument of his enterprise. He was President of the Canada Bolt Company, and connected with several other large and successful manufacturing establishments in Canada. The deceased gentleman also held the rank of Lieut.-Col. G. T. R. B., in the Active Force. It is not known to the citizens of Toronto that he intended to make nearly public the grounds of that portion of the O'Hara estate on the Hunner, which he had purchased, and already done much to adapt it to such a purpose. Another congenial direction of Mr. Shedd's mind was the cultivation of thoroughbred horses, for success in which he had few competitors in Canada. He has left but two relatives in America, a nephew, Mr. Hugh Paton, who has been with him for two years past, and a niece, Miss Maggie Paton, who has been a visitor from Scotland during the past three weeks. Another nephew was drowned a few days ago on Stony Lake. His death is regretted by a little army of employees whose he had so well utilised, as well as by many friends he had gained by his cordiality, his enterprise, and his uniformly honourable conduct.

Prisoners.

The friends of H. V. Veneat, Esq., for some time past of the office of Messrs. Oliver & Macdonald in this Town, will be glad to learn that that gentleman passed a highly creditable examination at Osgoode Hall, on Friday, and was called to the degree of barrister-at-law.

ANNABEL

THE TEMPTATION.

CHAPTER XX.

ARRIVAL AT BUDDEN.

The boat ran into a small bay between lofty and rugged rocks, which cast a black shadow on the water beneath.

The moment the grating sound of the boat's keel was heard on the gravel, Dick sprang ashore, telling Annabel to remain seated where she was till he returned.

Had the light been stronger, Annabel might have seen that, after Dick had moved up the beach to the first standing rock, a man came from behind it and met him; that the two exchanged a few whispered words and went forward together to a level place under the cliff.

The darkness was too great to enable Annabel to see this. Dick's form had quickly disappeared when he left the boat. She listened to his footsteps till they died away in the distance, and the next thing of which she was cognisant was the sound of the cart as it moved over the channel.

When he came to the water's edge he beckoned to the sailors to come aground again and hand out the luggage. The boxes as they were handed ashore were placed by him in the cart, and deposited so as to form a comfortable seat for himself and Annabel.

"Now, Miss," he called out, when the last of the luggage was landed. He came to the edge of the water to help her to land, but she leapt ashore without his aid, and a shrill run through her as her feet stood once more on English soil.

"Now you can go, you parleyvous, for we are done with you," said Dick, at the same time making a gesture to the men expressive of his meaning. His words were meaningless to them, but the notion they understood, and immediately backed their ears till the boat got into deep water. Then her head was turned to the sea, and away they went back to the lagoon, which lay at no distance off.

"What are we to do now?" asked Annabel. "Are we to go to Rockstone in that cart?"

"This is the only conveyance we have got," replied Dick, with a grin. Then, more sarcastically, he added: "Seeing as how they haven't sent the carriage, we'll have to put up with this lumbering article, and I'll be coachman myself."

"Have we far to go?" "Could I not walk it?" asked Annabel, who had a strong aversion to enter the cart beside Dick.

"No, you couldn't, for more reasons than one," was the answer. "First of all, the cart is not adapted for women; you couldn't find the seat. But what objection have you to the cart? It goes on springs, the horse is a good one, and there's a box as will make an easy seat."

"Seeing there was nothing for it but acquiescence, Annabel—again refusing Dick's proffered assistance—climbed into the cart, and, wrapping herself up in a protection from the night air, sat down on one of the boxes.

Dick did not mount just then, for he required to lead the horse over the rough gravel of the beach and up the winding path which led to the top of the height. The slope was not very steep, but the road was pretty much broken, and was obviously subject to little traffic. At the top of the long ascent Dick sprang to his place in front, and the path being level now, they set off at a smart pace across the moor, which stretched far away into the distance.

BASE BALL NOTES.
The third championship game between the Baltimore Club and the Mutuals of New York was played at Baltimore on Friday, resulting in favor of the former club by the following score—
Baltimore 0 0 4 0 1 3 1 3—12
Mutuals 1 0 0 1 0 0 0 0—10
The Mitchell Club has organized.
St. John (N. B.) ball players have had their first game this season.
A game of base ball will be played in Brampton on the 25th between a picked nine of Brampton and a picked nine of Hagger's Foundry, for the sum of $40, the foundry nine to have the benefit of 60 runs to start with. Game to commence at 2 o'clock p.m.
The game at Georgetown on Saturday between the Rockwood and Georgetown Academies was a decided victory for the former by a score of 47 to 27. This is the first time the Georgetown Academy has been beaten. The next day nines are to play again in Rockwood shortly.
A base ball club has been formed in Mount Forest under the name of the "Foresters." The following officers were elected—President, Capt. W. W. Winfield; Vice-President, Mr. T. H. Hlop; Secretary-Treasurer, Mr. John Wait, jr.; Field Directors, Messrs. Sidney Smith, W. R. Pearce and A. McKechnie. The selection of captain was deferred.

BASE BALL CRICKET.
One of the best things of the kind from the pen of an English cricketer is the appended comments on the American game of base ball, written by Captain Fitzgerald of the English cricket party, who came to America in 1872. Referring to base ball, he says:—This game is well adapted to the genius of the people. It is of comparatively short duration; it has few pauses; it is constantly changing its aspect. There is no sticking, no monotonous change of cover, all is on the strike—everybody is on the bound. It will hold its own in America, and cricket can never expect to attain its popularity. From an English point of view, it presents little interest; there are no hard knocks on the knuckles or shins, none of the excitement that is engendered by a fast bowler, or a quick wicket. It demands quickness of foot and eye, and above all, requires smartness and precision of throwing. It develops fielding, and it ought to teach men to open their shoulders, for hard hitting is a sine qua non with a good base ball player. To sum up it is an improvement on our old schoolboy's game of rounders, without, however—the most attractive part to an English schoolboy—the "corking." We can still see, we are not sure we cannot still feel, the driver of the fat boy's mallet parts, as the ball, well directed, buried itself in the flesh. "Rounders" had attractions for you; we doubt if the improved game would amuse the grown-up British public. Immense sums are staked upon it in America, and a handsome income is realized by the celebrated Red Stocking (Boston) Club. Cricket has to contend against the business habits of Americans. They will not give the time necessary for the game. They will snatch a few moments from the counter for base ball, and they would do the same for cricket; but the same two men may be in at the one game the whole time they can devote to leisure, and they are not charmed with monotony, even if it be high art. Whereas, at the other game, they may see several sides out and in at the same time. We believe this to be the true social position of cricket in the States. Time is money there, and there is no denying that much of that valuable commodity is egregiously cut into ribbons at cricket. Americans might learn much, if they chose, from our noble game; if it inculcates one thing, it preaches and practices patience, it enforces self-control, it eliminates the irascible, it displays the excellence of discipline, it is more exacting than Father Matthew on temperance and sobriety. With all respect for base ball and its disciples, we believe that it encourages the two leading failings of American character—ultra rapidity, quicksilverity, or whatever else of lightning proclivity you like to call it, and ardent speculation.

TO BE EVEN WITH THEM.—The Waterloo tavern-keepers have agreed to shut off the usual supply of water on Saturday evenings, and the Chronicle suggests the construction of a fountain on the Mill Square, with a suitable drinking trough for animals and drinking cup for thirsty bipeds. Such a structure would be most useful and ornamental. It is high time travellers had a chance to water their horses without incurring a tacit obligation to pay for the privilege by poisoning themselves.

Iron in the Blood
The Fountain Syrup, a Perfect Food, is so combined as to have the character of an aliment, as easily digested as bread, and with the blood as the simplest food. It increases the quantity of Nature's Own Vitalizing Agent, Iron in the blood, and cures "Anemia" or "Pallor," simply by Toning up, invigorating and Purifying the System. Its medicinal and "Blood Purifying" effects are not followed by corresponding reactions, but are permanent, infusing strength, vigor and life into all parts of the system, and building up an Iron Constitution. Thousands have been changed by the use of this remedy, from weak, sickly, suffering creatures, to strong, healthy, and happy men and women; and invalids cannot reasonably hesitate to give it a trial.
