WATFORD CEMETERY BOARD

The Cemetery Board of Watford labored under difficulties during 1920 its initial year of work, in not 1920 its initial year of work, in not being able to secure a permanent caretaker but nevertheless an excellent beginning was, made and much done towards putting our Cemetery in the shape it should be.

Walks and roads were gravelled, plots mowed and cared for and a number of monuments straightened.

The Board is this year securing a permanent caretaker and feels justified in undertaking greater improve-

MAIN ST. PAVEMENT NOW POSSIBLE

WATFORD HAS GOOD CHANCE TO SECURE PERMANENT ROADWAY

A fair representation of ratepayers of the village was in attendance at the meeting called in the Lyceum on Wednesday evening to discuss permanent pavement for Main street. Mr. R. C. Muir, Chief Engineer of County Roads for the Province of Ontario, was present and gave a very interesting and instructive address on the various types of permanent roadways adapted to towns and vill-ages of Ontario, similiar to the vill-age of Watford. Several excellent lantern slides were shown of each type of road in various stages of construction.

His suggestion for Watford was a concrete roadway throughout the length of Main street from the railroad bridge to the 4th line, 36 feet wide through the business blocks and 20 feet through the residential part. From cursory examination he would estimate the cost at approximately $38,000.

Sixty per cent. of the cost of a 20 foot roadway would be borne by the Provincial Government and ac-the Provincial Government and activanced us through an agreement with the County Council, which would be apart from the annual grant the Village now receives from the County.

He pointed out that this was made possible by a recent amendment to the Public Highways Improvement Act, and congratulated Watford on her alertness, on being the first village or town in this County to seek to take advantage of this.

to take advantage of this.

Mr. Muir was very convincing in his address and prompt in response to various questions asked by numerous ratepayers, and impressed his audience with the fact that the Minister of Highways and his Department were doing all in their power to assist the smaller municipalities in permanent road building.

Mr. John McCallum, County Road Inspector, also gave an address, in which he urged the Village of Watford to do something which would result in a permanent road, and assured the Corporation of all assist-assured the Corporation of all assist-ance possible.

The neighboring towns of Glencoe, Ridgetown and Blenheim have taken advantage of this Government assist-ance, and there seems no real reason why Watford should not fall in line with this progressive movement especially since the cost to the rate payer would be exceedingly small.

We venture to say that making out the 1920 income tax returns has caused more anxiety to citizens than the message which Noah received announcing the flood. When chartered accountants, competent business men and even officials in the tax office at London disagree as to the amounts to be added or deducted, what chance has the average man of sending in a correct return. From various conversations we have had they have been returned with the hope that they will pass muster. The 1919 plan of government accountants figuring up the amount of income tax one should pay was preferable to the present system. It at least gave one certain protection from fines or goal.

PASSING OF THE PIONEERS-ARE THEIR LIFE STORIES WRITTEN ?

(Owen Sound Sun-Times.)

Every few days one reads with regret, and often with a sense of personal loss, of those who came in the early years to the town, or to some of the townships round about, and contributed through their lives to the making of the town a city, and the townships among the finest in the county or Province. Of them, there appears often but a brief biographical note, giving little beyond a bare out line of a life bravely and worthily lived. It seems a pity that there should not be made and preserved in every municipality, at least a snould not be made and preserved in every municipality, at least a worthy sketch of such lives, in recognition of the contribution they made in their day to the general welfare of the community. Such a record would in the course of time furnish valuable materials for his cord would in the course of time furnish valuable materials for historical sketches. They would be an incentive to the next generation to do as well or better than the previous one. They would develop civic consciousness and civig pride. They would help set a standard that no one would care to fall short of, and many would try to surpass. The rising generation would emulate the virtues and achievements of those who went before and blazed the way, and made it easier for those who and made it easier for those who came after to go further and do bet-ter, even, than they had been able to

When one thinks of the handicaps of the earlier days and how bravely and cheerfully the first and even the of the earlier days and how bravely and cheerfully the first and even the earlier, settlers faced their tasks, and how heroically they stayed with it, one feels ashamed to grouch and whine when one has to deny one's self this or that, and even sometimes to be content with a horse when one's father or grandfather was thankful for—sometimes indeed proud of—a good yoke of oxen. There were compensations even in the earlier years. There were fewer diversions and distractions. More time was spent socially. Fewer books were read, but they were more carefully read. There were fewer religious services, but they were on the whole more highly prized. Clothing was plainer and coarser, but it wore longer, and one didn't feel quite so embarrassed if he wasn't able to buy a new suit or hat every year. It seems a pity—a shame, that the stories of pioneer life should not be written, before all the pioneers have passed, with all the wealth of literary material they have stored in their memories of the past. Local papers, perhaps without exception, would be glad to publish any such sketches if brief, graphic and artistically true—real pen-pictures of real life. ically true-real pen-pictures of real saved from cleaning lamps and makes a total of 547 hours a year.

C. F. Tressin adds in the time

Think of all the things your wife could do with that extra seven weeks. And then you have electric light. You can't know the joy and comfort of electric light till you have experienced it. Just press a button and release a flood of bright, clean, safe light. No matches. No lamps. No danger.

Delco-Light gives four times as much light from a gallon of coal oil

fire, lots of light.

as a lamp gives.

NY one of over 75,000 users will tell you that Delco-Light pays for itself.

They will tell you that the pleasure and comfort of Delco-Light cost you nothing. A ROUND the house there.

HORES are non-productive work. Cut down chore time and you can do things worth money to you. Wm. Schneekloth says the electric power from his Delco-Light plant saves him 81/2 hours a week on the churn, separator and washing machine alone—over 40 working days in a year. Think of the money he can make in those forty days.

Lights the Home

On the Helms farm at Belleville they use Delco-Light power for the chores—in milking and feeding stock, in pumping water, in ironing and washing—and save 19 hours a week, or about three months of one man's work in the year. Here's a hired man's work for three months which Delco-Light does. The cost of operating Delco-Light is less than the cost of oil for oil lamps.

But operating the small machinery around the farm is only a part of the work which Delco-Light does for you. Take the question of pumping water; with Delco-Light you can have water under pressure at taps anywhere on the farm. You can water stock easily and quickly. You can have hot and cold water in the house. S. W. Cooke & Son, of Maysville, have a big herd of Holsteins. Delco-Light has pumped the water and done the milking for three years. They figure that their saving is not less than $1,800. As Mr. Cooke says, they could pretty nearly afford a new Delco Light plant every year. And remember this saving does not include the convenience and comfort and saving of electric lights.

J. H. Lackey raises Polled Jerseys and Poland China Hogs. He, also, needs a lot of water. His Delco-Light outfit enables him to get along without two men he formerly hired.

Delco-Light does work on the farm. Saves time for more productive things. Its electric power will, in most cases, save enough time to pay for the complete Delco-Light plant in three years.

The electric light you get free.

MacGARTH NOVELS PROVE

The latest of Harold MacGarth's The latest of Harold MacGarth's fascinating adventure stories to be screened is "A Splendid Hazard," the photoplay version of which was produced by Allan Dwan and presented by Mayflower through First National. It will be shown at the Lyceum, Saturday, May 7th. As in the oase of the previous MacGarth novels transmitted to the screen, "A Splendid Hazard" has proved to be idea I photoplay material. It is a Splendid Hazard" has proved to be idea I photoplay material. It is a colorful tale of love and adventure, brimful of action and set in France, America and the romantic and picturesque isle of Corsica where a gripping struggle for buried treasure takes place. The leading male role, that of the ruthless, ambitious treasure-seeker, Karl Breitman, is enacted with rare skill by Henry B. Walthall. Rosemary Gobert, the beautiful prima donna whose love Breitman uses as a stepping stone to the achievement of his ambition.

PROVINCIAL LAW CHANGES

After all the fuss and fury of an almost record-breaking session of the Ontario Legislature the average man on the street remains to a surprising extent unaffected as a result of almost three months of legislating. If he commits B.O.T.A. he can, as a result of a last session enactment, appeal to a County Court, instead of a High Court Judge; if he wants to get married he will have to get his license from a municipal clerk instead of a jeweller; if he has children they cannot, as a result of the Legislature's verdict, work in a factory until the age of 16, and if he has a daughter working in a factory she must now, under certain conditions, be supplied with seating accommodation. He was, for a few days, intensely interested in a proposal to see that he was fairly treated with regard to the rent that he was to pay in future, but, somehow, that particular item did not "pan out." The session opened on January 25th and closed Saturday morning at 5 o'clock after a session of 18 hours. The dying hours of the session were charged with more interest than has been packed into any day's stings through the fourteen weeks preceding. Right on top of the fight over the Burnaby matter the House ran into a two-hour debate on rural Hydro distribution and just at the end when the members were locking their desks the Frenier precipitated a twenty-minute fight by announcing the decision of the Government to withhold all timber licenses from the Shevlin-Clarke Company until the company agreed to the terms set down by the Government After all the fuss and fury of an

There were 262 bills introduced to the House. Of all the items of legislation probably that relating to rural Hydro extension most widely effects the benefits of the people of Ontario. Under its terms the Province, in an effort to get power to the farms will effort to get power to the farms will pay one-third of the previously pro-hibitory cost of constructing trans-mission lines into rural sections.

It's virtually impossible for a man to be truthful nowadays. If the On-tario Temperance Act or the Motor Vehicles Act doesn't make him a fluent liar the income tax reports sure will.

Occasionally you will hear a person say that higher education is of little use to the ordinary man, but just imagine how telling it must be for an M. P. On May 1st there were 1,774,000 persons unemployed in the United Kingdom. A similiar ratio applied to Canada's population would give us about 210,000 unemployed. The total in Canada is probably a little short of one hundred thousand. This shows that Canada is feeling the business depression much less than most countries. most countries.

"Three cents for a newspaper? Its grand larceny. Thirty-eight cents for gas? Never! Never! Never! Fifty cents to a barber? Not me. The eight-cent fare is a nuisance to our inalienable rights. If he depended on me, the clothing profiter would be starving in a garret. Are you sare it's the real stuff for only $90.00 a gallon? I'll-take all youv'e.

Unemployment is a serious prob-lem these days, but labor, in de-manding wages even higher than those current in the past year or so, is merely making a bad situation worse and more difficult to solve. With conditions as they are at the moment, public sympathy cannot be allied with labor in its fight for higher wages. The tide has turned and labor must show its willingness to share some responsibility and be prepared to accept lower remuneration in order that business may resume and public confidence be restored.

The small town paper has often been accused of being too conser-vative, because it refuses to publish all the scandal and horrible details which accompany some unusual and unfortunate local affair. But in the first place the small town editor is nearly always acquainted with the people concerned, and sympathizing people concerned, and sympathizing with their feelings, cannot add unscrupulous publicity to the already oppressive burden. And would it not be wisest if more of the city papers were also conservative? Reporters readily admit that, after publicity has been given to some horrible crime, the same crime is likely to be represented many times in almost the crime, the same crime is likely to be repeated many times in almost the same manner. We are all influenced by the power of suggestion more than we are willing to admit, but especially susceptible are those persons of weaker minds who are capable of committing some atrocity. They have already a latent criminal sense; it only takes a vivid description of some deed to awaken them to tion of some deed to awaken them to similar action. Conservatism, when it comes to publishing the details of crime, is always a virtue.—Wing-

TORONTO BUTTER PRICES

On Monday the price for fresh made touched 40c. On the Chicago market 30c was quoted for creamery extra. All quotations, however, at extra. All quotations, however, at the present juncture must be regarded as purely nominal. One dealer in Toronto is talking of 25 cent butter by June, but this seems to be an extreme view, and there are not many who go as far as this. There are a few, however, who lean to the opinion that a 30 cent level may be seen by that time. The export market is looked upon as a source from which a steadying influence may be derived. Wholesalers Monday were selling to the retailers at 50 cents for greamery prints.

SPEAKS HIGHLY OF BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Once a mother has used Baby's Own Tablets for her little ones she is always pleased to speak highly of them to other mothers. She knows the good they have done her children and realizes that her experience should be of benefit to others. Concerning the Tablets Mrs. Fred Murphy, Charlottetown, P.E.I., writes: "I have used Baby's Own Tablets for the pact sight months for my behing." the past eight months for my baby. I cannot speak too highly of them for they have been of great assistance they have been of great assistance to me in my first experience of motherhood." Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which are absolutely harmless and may be given to even the newborn babe with perfect safety. They are sold by medicine dealers or direct at 25 cts. a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

The Red Cross Carries On---Why?

- 1. Because of demands made upon it in dealing with the terrible aftermath of disease and suffering which always follows war.
- Because of the serious health conditions revealed by the war-more than half of our Canadian young manhood unfit for combatant military service.
- 3. Because an international conference of medical experts, realizing that voluntary organization was necessary as an aid to Governments in solving the world's health prob-lems, decided that "no other organization is so well prepared to undertake these great responsibili-ties as the Red Cross," and that "no movement deserves more the hearty and enthusiastic support of all people than does this."

the happy company were called to order when a very interesting and impressive program was given, which consisted of music, vocal and instru-mental, speeches, recitations and readings.

At the close of the program an adares was given after which the happy bride and groom were each presented with a beautiful quarter cut oak rocker, by the family, and a purse of gold from the bride's sister, Miss Gibbs. The happy couple although completely taken by surprise made a very suitable reply, a reply which will ever live in the memory of those present. Few indeed in this life are spared to live fifty years of married life together, with the family circle unbroken by death.

CITY VERSUS FARM

The country districts contain many people who are not farmers, and so one need not be a farmer in order to obtain their fullest share of rural prosperity. There are a great many persons living in rural communities who do not belong to farmers' families. The villages with their stores The villages with their stores shops and smaller industries and busi-ness establishments get all the benehese establishments get all the benefits of prosperity and stability of agriculture and indeed the trade of the farmer is the best and most constant trade in the world. Some of the facts therefore, which young men should look squarely in the face arc these:

—City opportunities may be likened to an old mine with much of the best ore gone. Wealth is already actually increasing faster in the rural districts, than in the cities and men of industry and ability should be able to capture a reasonable part of this increase. The drift of population into cities has slowed down, not for sentimental reasons but rather because of the hard sledding for those who migrated to the cities. During who migrated to the cities. During business depression the cities suffer worse than the rural districts; and in times of properity, now that the farmer produces food for three times as many as he formerly did, the rural districts make the bigger gains in wealth. Then young man why not go after these rural riches? If you are on the farm now stay there, if not, get there and that while the get-ting is fairly good.—St. Mary's Jour-

bring a different result. The care of a family multiplied household duties, and very often the weakness caused by womanly disease, tend to prolong the suffering and to make convalescence a slow and weary process. Many women—perhaps your own neighbors-have had beneficial experience with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, which prepares the prospective mother. HAMILTON, ONT.—"I was advised by a practical nurse to take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription as a tonic during expectancy, and I have had every reason to be grateful for her advice, because it kept me in perfect health and I had practically no suffering. The 'Prescription' not only benefits the mother, but I am positive the child is mother, but I am positive the child is benefited, too. I would not hesitate to recommend this 'Prescription' to every expectant mother."--MES. C. SPIKE, 46 Hess Street. N.

OPEN CONFESSION

The Buffalo News, which has been talking out in meeting concerning the consolidation of the power interests on the American side of Niagara Falls and urging the people of Buff alo to begin a fight for cheap electric power, makes this confession in its ssue of Ajril 19: "We had a start of about 20 years on the Canadians in electrical development on the Niagara, but it did not take them long to catch us: Now we are in the ruck. With the Chippawa-Queenston works nearing completion, they are considering plans to scrap plants at the Falls nearly as efficient as our new development there. This to prevent waste of energy. And they are as far ahead of us in policy as they are in prac tice. Public service is the order there private service here. Niagara current on the Canadian side flows out to municipalities more than a hundred miles away; the distribution of Niagra current on this side of the border is restricted to the factory lands of the generating company."

The News is right when it says that public service is the order on this side of the border in the matter of Hydro power. But public operation has vigilant and powerful enemies still, and there is need-occasionally of such an illuminating flash as that contained in the article of The News to light the way toward further Do you find yourself

The cost of operating the smaller tractor is shown to be greater than the cost of operating the larger, that is in regard to horse-power. The cost of discing with the smaller is shown to be less due to greater speed possible than with the greater. The cost of plowing with the smaller is more than with the larger. The lighter machine burned gasoline at a cost of 45 cents per gallon and the heavier machine, kerosene at 28½ cents uer gallon. Cylinder oil cost 85 cents per gallon.

Children Cry for Fletcher's

Fletcher's Castoria is strictly a remedy for Infants and Children. Foods are specially prepared for babies. A baby's medicine is even more essential for Baby. Remedies primarily prepared for grown-ups are not interchangeable. It was the need of a remedy for the common ailments of Infants and Children that brought Castoria before the public after years of research, and no claim has been made for it that its use for over 30 years has not proven.

What is CASTORIA?

Castoria is a harmless substitute for Castor Oil, Paregoric, Drops and Soothing Syrups. It is pleasant. It contains neither Opium, Morphine nor other narcotic substance. Its age is its guarantee. For more than thirty years it has been in constant use for the relief of Constipation, Flatulency, Wind Colic and Diarrhoea; allaying Feverishness arising therefrom, and by regulating the Stomach and Bowels, aids the assimilation of Food; giving healthy and natural sleep.
