PROSECUTION TRIES HARD TO KEEP EVIDENCE LIMITED

FREDERICTON, N. B., May 30.—(Special.)—To-day has been replete with surprises and rich in dramatic incidents in the Emmerston charges of criminal libel against the editor of The Gleaner.

It was a puzzle last night why the prosecution was so unwilling to complete its case. Rumors were rife of compromise and surrender, and the defence could hardly imagine what today's session might bring forth. It brought forth a surprise that made everyone sit up, and, incidentally, the crowded courtroom warmed up to Mr. Emmerston when he boldly took the stand and prepared to give his own version of the notorious Sunday night at St. Lawrence Hall.

Neither side was quite prepared to rest its case at 6 o'clock to-night, and there was an informal understanding that either side might offer testimony to-morrow. It is decided, however, that the case shall not be continued further until next Monday morning at 11 o'clock.

It is possible that the magistrate may find over Mr. Emmerston, but no one seriously believes that the trial will ever come off.

Just now the issue narrows to a point of veracity between Mr. Emmerston and Harry Dean, once nightwatchman at the St. Lawrence Hall.

The facts are so nearly agreed upon that judgment in the case must depend only upon the inference to be drawn.

Indeed, the case, if submitted to a jury, will be largely decided upon Mr. Emmerston's testimony.

How It Happened.

Briefly, his testimony was that he had a humble friend and constant, a baggage-master on the I.C.R., at Moncton, named Geo. C. Allen. Allen's wife was known to Mr. Emmerston, thru his late father-in-law. The Allens are respectable people, but hardly in the 400. Mr. and Mrs. Allen attended some public meeting at Moncton on June 4 last, which was addressed by Mr. Emmerston. They lingered at its conclusion, and, gaining access to the minister, asked him to show Mrs. Allen to ride in his private car from Moncton to Montreal. Mr. Emmerston could not promise, but told them to be at the station when he passed through Moncton a few days later on his return from Acadia College commencement.

Three nights later, the minister, arriving at Moncton, called on the Allens at the station, and, having a vacant stateroom, invited Mrs. Allen on board. It was, he points out, a small train, and it can be said that Mr. Emmerston is naturally good-natured and democratic.

"I had had extended the same courtesy to any of you," said the minister, including in a benevolent swing of his arm the entire audience.

On this private car, Mr. Emmerston's mother, sister and daughter. So far, so good. His humble friend took her place on the car. On the following Sunday he returned to Montreal.

"What for?"

"Well, he says, 'I wanted to see a Mr. Peters, who was manager of a foundry company, in which I am interested.'"

By Chance.

Mr. Emmerston did not write, wire or phone Mr. Peters first. He made no appointment; he sent no message; he traveled from Ottawa to Montreal to meet a man who might or might not be there, and who, as a matter of fact, was not in Montreal.

How could Mr. Emmerston do Time hung heavy on his hands. Idly enough he looked over the register at the St. Lawrence Hall, where, he says, he had gone for the first time in sixteen years. Looking over the register, he found the names of Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Beauthner, and Mrs. Beauthner's handwriting may cut some figure in the case hereafter.

Mr. Emmerston did not suspect that these ladies were still in Montreal, and he went up to their room at once to call upon them. The three went to the Oxford, a rather gay cafe, and returned to the hotel at 10.30 o'clock.

What followed is a matter of dispute. The two ladies were found in Mr. Emmerston's apartment, and the nightwatchman claims that they were noisy, and that they were ordered to be more quiet or to leave the hotel. That they did leave the hotel is not disputed.

Mrs. Beauthner paid the bill for the three of them.

They went in a body to a rather obscure hotel called the Albion. The register of the Albion has been photographed, and this photograph was obtained.

HIGHER AND LOWER.

The men's straw hat will be a little higher in the crown this year. The fact is announced on the authority of Mr. Dineen, who cheerfully remarks that there are mighty few straw hats to be seen just yet, though there should be, as the June weather is coming, and Dineen's, at Yonge and Temperance streets, have some stylish favorites. They are higher in shape, but lower in price.

The popular hat now worn is a Dineen Special Black Derby at $2.50. There is nothing natter to suit all freaks of the weather man.

Italian Convicted On Murder Charge

Frank Capelli in Shadow of Gallows at Parry Sound—Companion Marano Escapes.

PARRY SOUND, May 30.—(Special.)—The trial of the two Italians, Capelli and Marano, accused of the murder of Daw on Christmas Day, as the result of a drunken row, was brought to a close to-day.

A verdict of guilty was brought in against Capelli, while his companion, Marano, was acquitted.

All the evidence was put in yesterday, and the proceedings opened this morning by the address of Mr. Keefer for the defence.

He spoke for one hour and devoted most of his remarks toward the defence of Marano.

Mr. Blackstock, K.C., the prosecuting attorney, followed, speaking for upward of an hour and a half. His address was a masterly effort, and at times it was very dramatic. His description of the tracing of the movements of the prisoners together from the time of their arrest to the commencement of the row, being a word picture.

Judge Teetzel's charge to the jury lasted upward of an hour and was considered very fair toward the prisoners.

At about 1.30 the case was given to the jury, and after deliberation of four hours the verdict was reached.

Sentence will not be passed until the close of the term, as the two accused are to be kept in custody here two more charges against them, on which they will be tried during the present term.

INFLUENCE WITH HANNA TO GET COBALT LICENSE

Detectives Cause Arrest of Two Men Who Asked $3000 For Campaign Fund.

The provincial detectives have unearthed what they believe to be the beginning of a gigantic swindle in the sale of bogus liquor licenses in Cobalt. Two men were arrested Monday. A man called Enright was taken into custody by Chief Constable of Cobalt, and another, Duncan Davidson, of Ottawa, was arrested there, charged with conspiracy to defraud.

It is alleged that these men went to Cobalt and undertook in at least one instance to procure a liquor license for a Cobalt man in consideration of $3000, which should go to the provincial government's campaign fund.

They are said to have represented themselves as the fountain-head of influence, and to be able to produce licenses at the given figure.

Davison is being sent to Cobalt, and the twin will appear there before Police Magistrate Brown Saturday morning for a hearing.

Crown Attorney Corley will go to Cobalt to-night to prosecute the men. Asked about the matter, Mr. Corley was uncommunicative. All he would say was that he is going to Cobalt to-night, and Mr. Eric Armour will take his place in the police court.

CAMPAIGN IN WEST YORK.

Suddenness of the Election is Hardly Appreciated by the Electorate.

Canvassers in the West York campaign report a surprising lack of knowledge among electors that a contest is imminent in this riding.

The speed with which the vacancy in the local office is being filled is believed to be mainly responsible for this, as it has allowed little time for public meetings. The election takes place to-morrow (Saturday). The riding comprises Etobicoke and Vaughan and York Township west of Yonge-street, the Town of Toronto Junction and the villages of Weston and Woodbridge.

The candidates are Dr. Godfrey, Conservative; Eaten Williams, Independent, and F. J. Peel, Socialist.

DIFFERENCES SETTLED.

And Sir Anthony McDonnell Will Continue as Under-Sec. of Ireland.

LONDON, May 30.—Differences between the governor and Sir Anthony McDonnell, which threatened to end in the retirement of the latter from the post of under-secretary to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, were apparently at least temporarily smoothed over at yesterday's cabinet meeting.

ACCUSED EACH OTHER.

Two Prisoners Make Admissions in Jail.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Two prisoners in the jail at Long Island City to-day denounced each other as the murderer of 15-year-old Annie Luck of Corona. The men were Henry Becker, who twice confessed to the crime, and subsequently repudiated his confessions; and Yeon Graham, who was arrested yesterday within a mile of the scene of the murder for attempted assault upon 5-year-old Mammie Luck of Corona.

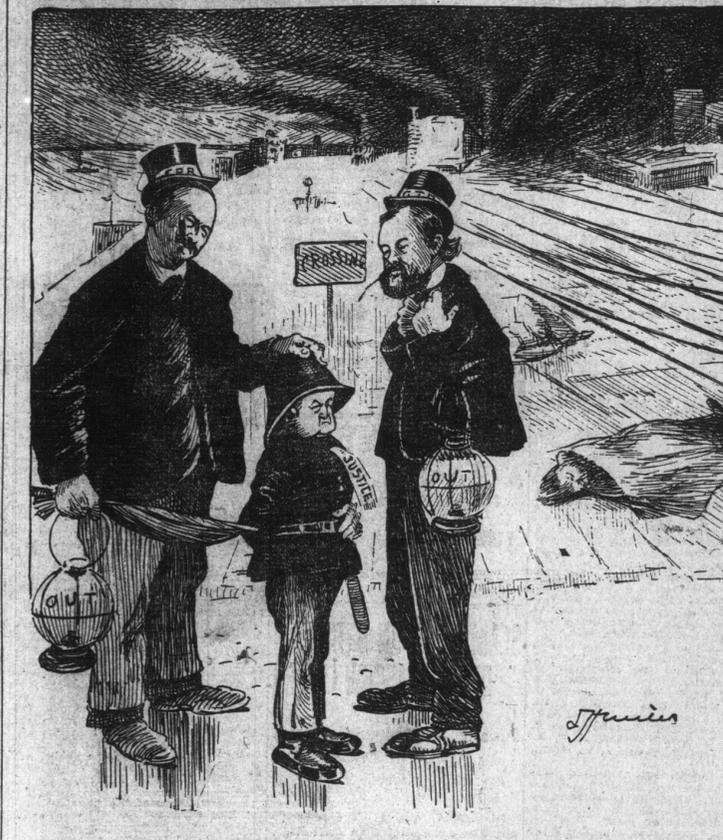

Race Train Derailed.

NEW YORK, May 30.—Several persons were injured, none fatally, when a Long Island train was derailed at the Belmont Park race track station this afternoon.

Nation Must Continue Its Policy To Control the Use of Wealth In Business By the Corporations

Roosevelt Comes Out Flatly for Positive Restraint Upon Railways to Best Serve the Public Interest.

MUST BE NO STOCK JOBBING BUT AIM TO GIVE SERVICE

INDIANAPOLIS, May 30.—"I emphatically believe that positive restraint should be imposed upon railway corporations, and that they should be required to meet positive obligations in the interest of the general public."

"I no less emphatically believe that in thus regulating and controlling the affairs of the railways it is necessary to recognize the need of an immense outlay of money from private sources, and the certainty that this will not be met without the assurance of sufficient reward to induce the necessary investment."

"It is plainly inadvisable for the government to undertake to direct the physical operation of the railways, save in wholly exceptional cases; and the supervision and control it exercises should be both entirely adequate to secure its ends, and yet no more harassing than is necessary to secure these ends."

Such was the conclusion of a notable address by President Roosevelt to-day at the laying of the corner-stone of St. Mary's Greek Catholic Church to-day, a temporary flooring collapsed, precipitating about 60 persons into the cellar, 12 feet below.

For over an hour the utmost excitement prevailed. The screams of those in the wreckage and the groans from the injured could be heard for a block away. Ladders were obtained from neighboring factories, and with the aid of the police the injured were removed from their perilous position. Some were able to walk to their homes. Others were removed to hospitals in ambulances.

The accident, it is said, was due to insufficient bracing beneath the new floor.

Bishop Hoban of Scranton, who went down with the wreckage, was at first reported to be seriously hurt. He was soon rescued by friends and removed to a place of safety. He was badly shaken up, but escaped injury.

Tasks to Be Done.

The president delivered the principal address at the exercises incident to the unveiling of the statue of Gen. Henry W. Lawton, which stands in the court-house yards. After an eulogy of Gen. Lawton, and a tribute to the memory of the men of the generation who fought the civil war, he said:

"If we wish to show ourselves worthy heirs of the men of the civil war, we must be ready to do as they did."

Roosevelt on Railways.

The power of the nation must be exercised to stop crimes of cunning no less than crimes of violence.

There can be no halt in the course we have deliberately elected to pursue, the policy of asserting the right of the nation so far as it has the power to supervise and control the business use of wealth, especially in its corporate form.

There must be vested in the federal government a full power of supervision and control over the railways doing an interstate business, a power in many respects analogous to that exercised over national banks, such supervision to include the frank publicity of everything which would be investors' and the public at large have a right to know.

It should be declared contrary to public policy henceforth to allow railroads to devote their capital to anything but the transportation business, certainly not to the hazards of speculation. For the very reason that we desire to favor the honest railroad manager, we should seek to discourage the activities of the man whose only concern with railroads is to manipulate their stocks.

I emphatically believe that positive restraint should be imposed upon railway corporations and that they should be required to meet positive obligations in the interest of the general public.

OTTAWA, May 30.—(Special.)—Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, who has just returned from Cobalt, is convinced that the owners which are now charging prominently before the people on account of the mining operations will continue to be prosperous and populous even if the silver, nickel, cobalt and other rich silver deposits should become exhausted. The minister forms this opinion from having observed the vast timber wealth and agricultural resources of the Temiscaming district. Speaking of the mining camp itself, Mr. Lemieux said—"It is undoubtedly the greatest mining camp in the world. I was able to see the shining silver by scraping my feet along the ground."

OTTAWA, May 30.—(Special.)—There will be no general election this year," stated W. S. Calvert, M.P., chief Liberal whip to-day.

"We gave our word to the leader of the opposition that there would be another session before dissolution and it holds good."

SAYS HE SET FIRE TO STAND AT EXHIBITION

Young Polander Under Arrest at Guelph Says He and Pal Named Wallace Were Responsible.

Declaring that he laid the fire that burned the grand stand at the exhibition grounds last fall, a Pole, Louis Sybiska by name, and aged about 19 years, is in jail at Guelph.

His arrest was effected by County Constable Mereweather of Guelph, on suspicion that he was implicated in recent burglaries there.

The man had been hanging around Calloway's livery stable for several days, and in conversation with some of the stablemen he let out some information that led to the theory that he had some part in the Toronto incendiarism. When placed in the lock-up he was questioned by the constable and finally confessed. He said he laid the pile and a pal named Wallace set fire to it, starting the conflagration that consumed the grand stand. Wallace is now in the St. Lawrence Hall.

Sybiska, in his confession, declared that he and Wallace got $50 for the job, but from whom the police are not in a position to say.

The Toronto police are inclined to believe that Sybiska is crazy, but some one from the department will go to Guelph to-day to investigate.

WORST YET TO COME.

Sensational Developments to Be Made by Ottawa Clergyman.

MONTREAL, May 30.—(Special.)—A clergyman high up in the established church, who is as well-known in this city as in the city hall, tells a most sensational story as to the intentions of certain sections of the church militant regarding the recent charges that have been made so boldly against several of Canada's public men, and he also declares that steps will be taken to bring other notorious facts to the light of day as soon as Sir Wilfrid Laurier returns from Great Britain.

The reverend gentleman says that certain letters now in the possession of an Ottawa clergyman, which were written to a young lady now deceased, by an ex-minister of the crown, will create a terrible sensation when they are given to the press.

It appears that the Ottawa divine wrote to the eminent politician in question for an explanation and the latter not deigning a reply a second epistle has been sent off.

In fact the minister declares that if no answer is forthcoming immediate action will be taken.

five singles by Cockman, Mullen and Sharpe. Shea's base on balls. Pardee's single. Engle's two-bagger and Mullen's long fly out to Wednesday resulted in two more runs for Newark in the second. Jack Thoney scored Toronto's solitary tally in the third inning, hitting safely to left field, he reached second on Sharpe's drop of Pardee's throw and came across the plate in a wonderful slide on Cockman's error.

Pardee grounded Jimmy Frick and Billy Phye started in the game for Toronto by executing wonderful field work. Harry Hostetter, the Newark boy, who is now with Toronto, was given a rousing ovation when he appeared on the grounds in civilian clothes. Score: Toronto, 5; Newark, 1.

CITIZENS—CONSIDER. Having arrived at the point of realizing that the population of an ordinary Ontario city is being added to Toronto every year, have you reflected upon all that follows from this fact?

First of all it means that between the Humber and the Scarborough town there will be half a million people gathered in ten years.

Would it be wise to have some central control over that territory in view of this settlement? Would it be well to prepare a plan of how parks and boulevards are to be located, of where the sewerage system and the water system and the lighting system must eventually extend? There are some people who are afraid of the idea of annexation, and it is only reasonable to consider everyone. They suppose that if the territory spoken of and not yet included in the city limits were annexed that immediately the whole tract would have to be paved and sewered and watered and lighted.

Now nothing of the kind is necessary. It is not at all a difficult matter to ensure that no work shall be done that is not absolutely required. But the trouble in Toronto is the exceeding difficulty and almost impossibility of getting work done which is absolutely necessary.

Did you observe Waterworks Engineer Fellows' report the other day? He said that the northwest district of the city had an entirely inadequate supply of water. The proper and natural system he supposed for the supply of the city would be considered too expensive and he supposed they could get along by putting in another pump.

Do you, when you have a lot of friends coming to dine, fail to make any preparation, but wait till you hear the door-bell ring and then send out for canned salmon? That has been the Toronto method for twenty years. Would it not be prudent to do our marketing a little ahead of meal time?

Did you ever see a cat that had been scalded by boiling water? Every time after her experience that cold water happens to be thrown about she jumps nine feet and clears. A number of Toronto citizens got scalded in the boom of '89, and when they hear of Toronto growing or extending, they jump nine feet. Some of these scalded cats are in the city hall and they are looking out for hot water. That is why it is so difficult to push things along that are absolutely needed. But when you think it over it is quite evident that what happened twenty years ago has nothing to do with present conditions.

By pinching and patching the city hall departments have managed to get along so far. You have heard the ominous note from the waterworks. You remember all that has been said and not done about a trunk sewer. You are aware of the condition of rents and the growth of apartment houses, while you read that in our increasing slum districts many families exist in each house. You have never for years been free of the complaints about the street, car and transportation systems generally. You have vaguely that electric railway companies are busy acquiring rights on the territory which must become a part of Toronto in ten years' time whether we will or no. Have you given any thought to the relation that exists among all these questions?

Do you realize that for thirty-fifty years to come, as long as you live in the city, you and your children after you are concerned with what the city government will decide about them now. That does not mean next year, or next December, but now as we begin to waken out of winter.

The fact is that Toronto has grown much more rapidly than her citizens generally appreciate. The great bare stretches of land west of Bathurst-street are almost all covered. Only here and there you get a glimpse of open ground. The same is true over the Don. As far east as Logan-avenue the land is solidly built over.

Beyond this east and north buildings progress rapidly and congregations of shacks fringe the more solid erections. Up in the north above the hill you will find similar conditions. Take an outing east, west and north the first afternoon you have free and try and understand what 15,000 people a year mean to Toronto.

The city is out at elbows and cramped in her skirts. It is time a new policy was inaugurated. The scalded cat and canned salmon methods are foolish.

IS THERE A LETTER? Word comes from Ottawa that the chief reason given by persons in close touch with the government for their belief that a general election will not be held this year, is the existence of a letter signed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and in the possession of R. L. Borden this year.

The word does not know whether such a letter passed or not, but the prevalence of so much gossip prompts the belief that there is something in the story.

If such a letter is in existence a very peculiar state of affairs exists. How could Sir Wilfrid Laurier, bearing in mind the principles of responsible government, pledge his word to R. L. Borden that another session would precede a general election? Is it not possible that providence or some other cause might make it imperative for the government to dissolve the house?

At first glance, the writing of such a letter and its delivery to the nominal leader of the opposition would seem to partake of the character of a reasonable act. It is to be hoped that the politics of this country have not reached that pass where one man, because he happens to be premier, can set at naught the principles of responsible government and play the role of absolute dictator, taking only his supposed rival in parliament into his confidence.

For the sake of good government and the fair name of Canada, let us hope that such a letter is not extant; but if it is in existence, the one and only thing for Sir Wilfrid Laurier to do is to make it public property. A contract with Mr. Borden to call on or call off the general elections, either to suit his convenience or the premier's own caprice, makes responsible government a mere mechanical contrivance.

By all means let this letter be made public, or if it is not in existence, let there be an official statement reassuring the minds of liberty-loving Canadians.

SUPERVISION OF TORONTO SECONDARY SCHOOLS. The time no doubt is fast approaching when some kind of unification of the high school system of this city will be necessary. Unification means supervisory and expert responsibility for all that stand between a very much overcrowded board and the schools. Just so soon as that time arrives, then and not till then will a supervisor, inspector, or whatever else he may be called, be necessary. At present there are only four secondary schools. Next year there will be five. Even with five, what the need of a supervisor is or what the board will be able to find for him to do is an open question.

Certainly no supervisor should be identified with any one of the schools or have his interests affiliated with the welfare of one to the detriment of the rest. That has been the weakness of the senior principal system. A supervisor should be a very much overworked board and the schools. Just so soon as that time arrives, then and not till then will a supervisor, inspector, or whatever else he may be called, be necessary. At present there are only four secondary schools. Next year there will be five. Even with five, what the need of a supervisor is or what the board will be able to find for him to do is an open question.

Until the board of education is in a position to take Dr. Embree out of Jarvis-street and allow him to devote his time to permeating the city on tours of inspection, and relative office work, it is premature to give him any more of the status of a supervisor than he has now. We have three competent principals besides Dr. Embree himself. The secondary schools of the city were never better managed individually and collectively than they are to-day. Why not in the meantime let well enough alone?

At any rate nothing can be done to give effect to the policy (1) after another meeting of the legislature, when the necessary changes in the law must be put forth. Why pledge the board to so important a step long before it is necessary and at least a year before it can legally be taken? This matter can easily be dealt with by the board of 1908 and so far as can be seen it will be early enough in 1910.

Indeed, the prosecution kept out all possible evidence, and the magistrate leaned towards the crown.

Mr. Emerson's story. Mr. Emerson, examined by Mr. White, stated, on Sunday, June 10, 1906, he left Ottawa for Montreal, arriving about 7:30 p.m. He was assigned a room at the St. Lawrence Hotel. He glanced over the hotel register and found the names of Mrs. Allen and Mrs. Beauchamp. He went to their room and, at his suggestion, the party went for refreshments to the Oxford Cafe. They returned to the hotel about 10:30 and, after a brief conversation at the door of the room, he went to his own apartment. He was awakened by a knock on the door and found the two ladies, Miss Beauchamp somewhat hysterical. She complained that a porter had come to their room and insulted them, and Mrs. Beauchamp insisted upon leaving the hotel. Mr. Emerson, Emerson and Mrs. Allen urged Mrs. Beauchamp to quiet down.

"It was then about midnight," said Mr. Emerson, "and having exhausted my efforts at pacification, I finally said, 'Very well, ladies, you can't leave this hotel unescorted at this hour of the night; I will go with you.' I then gave one of the ladies some money to engage a carriage, and to pay my bill. I finished dressing and we left the hotel together, driving to some other place. The next morning I returned to Ottawa."

Mr. Emerson declared that both of the ladies were of irreproachable character, and Mrs. Allen moved in the best society of Montreal, and had been known by him since her childhood. He did not meet the ladies by appointment, but he met them at the hotel since the preceding Friday. He recalled that because one of the ladies had come from Montreal to Montreal in a motor car, a more accommodation to a constituent, his mother, sister and daughter being also upon the car. At 10:30 p.m. on Sunday, June 10, 1906, he had no idea of their being in Montreal or of any particular hotel when he returned on Sunday.

Cross-examined by Mr. Hazen, Mr. Emerson said that he had gone to the St. Lawrence Hotel at 7:30 p.m. He addressed a large public meeting which Mr. and Mrs. Allen attended, and he asked if Mrs. Allen could go with him to the city on the following day. He made no positive promise, but said if there was room she would be welcome. On Thursday night, June 8, he returned to Montreal, and Mrs. Allen was at the station and was about to board the train. Mr. Emerson invited her to get on his car. It was not until after the train had started that she came to him and asked for a courtesy. It saved Pullman car fare, that was about all. Mrs. Allen said she expected to be joined by a friend at Levis, and action was taken by Mrs. Beauchamp to join the party. Being the minister's guest, she rode free.

Went to See a Man. He denied that he came to Montreal by appointment with them on the following Sunday. He hoped to meet at the St. Lawrence Hotel a Mr. Peters of the Record Foundry Co., but he had made no engagement, and witness admitted that he was coming, and did not know whether Peters was in Montreal. As a matter of fact, he was not.

He denied the women were with him in his room, and that the lights were turned off. Possibly they were in the room while he was in the bathroom.

He denied that the porter came to the room and ordered the three of them to leave the room.

He did not ask what the porter said to the ladies, or in what way they were insulted.

He had given the money to Mrs. Beauchamp to pay his bill and to hire a carriage, because she was fully dressed for the street and he was not. He denied that the lady was in his room after midnight, clad only in a kimono.

He denied all improper conduct. He had a conversation with them from the St. Lawrence Hotel, but it was only as duty as an act of gallantry.

He was unable to state why they had gone to the St. Lawrence Hotel, but thought the ladies did not want to patronize an expensive hotel. He did not know of anything wrong with the reputation of the St. Lawrence Hotel, but he knew no one else had registered him under an assumed name. He paid only his own bill.

The next morning he had returned to Ottawa. While taking breakfast at the hotel, the two ladies came to him and Mrs. Allen requested a pass for her companion.

Cartoon in Evidence. Upon cross-examination the defence put in evidence extracts from the speech in the house of Mr. Bourassa.

EMERSON TRIAL. Continued from Page 1. Upon re-examination, Mr. Emerson recalled that Mrs. Allen's father had been his father-in-law's private secretary. He declared that Mrs. Allen was of untainted character.

Plea of Defence. With the conclusion of Mr. Emerson's testimony, the crown rested. Mr. Crockett was then formally arraigned, and his counsel stated that he had admitted writing the article, that he claimed that it was true, and that the matter contained therein was true, and long before the publication by The Globe and Mail had become a matter of public discussion among the people by the public press and in parliament.

The first witness was G. M. Smyth, Lawrence Hall, showing that Mrs. Beauchamp and Mrs. Allen registered at the St. Lawrence Hotel on June 10, 1906, and were assigned to room 137.

Witness shortly after saw Mrs. Beauchamp. She came down quite excited and not fully dressed. She went upstairs, and came down dressed for the street and pulled her bill and those of Mrs. Allen and Mr. Emerson. The baggage was then brought down, and Mr. Emerson and the two ladies drove away in a carriage about 11 o'clock in the morning. Mr. Emerson was not in the habit of stopping at the St. Lawrence Hotel. Witness had not seen him before for 15 or 16 years. He did not see Mr. Emerson that night, as he was not so thru the office on his way to the club.

Lloyd testified that he was called upon to order a party out of the house that night, and that the party proposed and sustained.

Porter's Testimony. Harry Deane, night porter, testified that about 12 o'clock he saw two ladies going towards Emerson's room. They were in dressing gowns. They had left the door of room 9 open, and he closed the door. Mrs. Beauchamp opened the door, and the two ladies and two gentlemen were in the party. Witness tapped on the door, and after two or three minutes the door was opened. A tall woman came to the door. The tall woman came to the door. He told her there was a light in the bath. He told her and the party generally that they must keep quiet. She said, "All right," and shut the door.

He then reported the occurrence to Lloyd, the night clerk, and, acting under Lloyd's direction, returned to room 137. Mrs. Beauchamp opened the door. He said to the party inside, "You will have to make less noise or get out of the room." Mr. Emerson and the two ladies were then in room 137. The room was now lighted up.

Question: Did you see the bed? Answer: Yes.

Question: Had it been occupied? Answer: Yes.

A few moments later he saw the three ladies leaving the room on the following Sunday. He hoped to meet at the St. Lawrence Hotel a Mr. Peters of the Record Foundry Co., but he had made no engagement, and witness admitted that he was coming, and did not know whether Peters was in Montreal. on March 26. He had no idea that he was one of the ministers referred to by Bourassa as having been ejected with evil women from theatres and the hotel. The witness was then shown a copy of The Toronto World, containing the cartoon entitled "In the Stocks," and was asked whether he recognized his own likeness, and to state who were the other cabinet ministers depicted. This brought Premier Pugsley, crown counsel, to his feet to deliver a stung defence to the magistrate to allow the defence to make capital for the Constabulary party. The evidence was finally closed.

Upon re-examination, Mr. Emerson recalled that Mrs. Allen's father had been his father-in-law's private secretary. He declared that Mrs. Allen was of untainted character.

NEW RIVERDALE PARK LIKELY TO BE SET ASIDE. Project to Convert 17 1-2 Acres of Tax Sale Land Into a Park Approved.

A new park of 17 1-2 acres for the residents of Upper Riverdale may be set aside from tax-sale land held by the city, bounded by Logan-avenue, Balmington-avenue, Carlaw-avenue and a point south of Danforth-road, and about 1750 feet north of Balmington-avenue. It was up before the parks and exhibition committee yesterday, and met with general favor. There are $26,500 in arrears of taxes on the land, which is much more than for park purposes than for cutting up into building lots, owing to its uneven character.

Pavilion to Cost $200,000. The city architect reported on plans for a new pavilion for Allan Gardens, to accommodate 2500 people and cost $200,000. He was instructed to prepare plans for one to cost about $200,000, and to start 2000.

The assessment commissioner reported that the terms upon which Frederick Doan, owner of Rosedale Ravine property on the north side, adjacent on the west to the intersection of Park-road, was proposed to sell 202 feet of land to the city were reasonable. He asks $35 a foot for 50 feet and $30 for the rest, or $7310 for the whole.

It is probable that the Dominion Government will again be asked to cooperate in establishing an efficient life-saving service for Toronto Bay. At the meeting of the civic property committee, Property Commissioner Harris drew attention to the matter. He suggested that the storeroom, adjoining the court, could be used. Aid. Church-assessors reported on policy in not leasing Geddes' Wharf. Only $500 has been offered for the season. The Perry Company's offer of $200 for Brock-street wharf was accepted. Best Wheat MALTA-VITA; pure and clean, is the most nutritious and most healthful wheat food ever made, because all its nutriment is easily digested and taken up by the blood to build bone, brain, nerve and muscle. The mixing of pure barley malt extract with steamed whole white wheat is the exclusive Malta-Vita process, and this process makes Malta-Vita so superior to all other flaked foods. It is nourishing, so easy to digest and so good to eat because the malt extract converts the gelatinized starch of the steamed wheat into maltose, or malt sugar, a natural sweetening agent of great food value and almost predigesting.

How About Money in Europe? The most convenient and safest way of carrying money while traveling in Europe is in "Cook's Circular Notes." This being a well known, holders of their circular notes seldom have to go to their offices to cash them, and they are freely cashed by the hotels and transportation companies. Traveling with Cook's circular notes is the same as having your own bank account wherever you happen to be. You draw against your balance anywhere. A. F. Webster, agent, reports large sales this year. The annual meeting of the members of the Ontario License Holders' Protective Association will be held at the headquarters, 23 East Wellington-st., June 20.

SPECIAL FARMING LIVE STOCK EDITION

OFFER PRIZES. Many farmers and farm lovers are wealthy enough to encourage the growing of good, clean grain by offering individual prizes for good fields to be awarded at the fall fairs.

PLANT CORN AND ROOTS. Farmers will do well to plant plenty of corn and roots in view of the scarcity of hay and feed. It is not too late for plowing fresh ground for the corn crop yet.

INDEPENDENT PHONES. It is almost incomprehensible to the average person how a town council can be blind to the interests of our people in refusing to allow the independent telephone company to do business in their town.

TEMPERANCEVILLE TELEPHONES. There is a private telephone company in fine, flourishing condition around Temperanceville, in the fair Township of King.

TELEPHONE CONVENTION. Mr. A. Hoover, president of the Canadian Independent Telephone Association, leaves next week for Chicago, where he is Canada's representative at the International Telephone Convention meeting in Chicago on June 4, 5 and 6.

THE FARMSTEAD. And June about here! Plenty of corn yet to plant. Crop outlook is all right yet.

Why are some town councils so short-sighted? Prof. Wiggins says that we have two moons. Many a man has so spoken previously.

East Toronto councillors are to be congratulated upon their progressive-ness. The independent telephone idea is growing.

Messrs. Ineson of Greenbank, Ontario Co. have just set out a big apple orchard of Northern Spies. Robert Cronk of Pickering has also completed a big field. These gentlemen are on the right track.

Good spring shows have been held at various points in Ontario this year. Many people are now preparing for the fall shows. Business men and others would do well to assist in the prize lists.

A carload of pure-bred stock was shipped from Myrtle recently for points in the west.

Mr. Lee of Greenbank, who tried hard to purchase the celebrated Short-horn bull Cyclone at Fenelon Falls, is well pleased with his young imported bull, purchased from Maple Shade at Brooklin.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Hillview Stock Farm at Greenwood. Ont. John E. Disney has bred on right lines, and likes a good animal.

Mr. Hillson of Uxbridge is of the opinion that butchers' cattle are likely to be scarce during the next few weeks, as so many have come out of stables in poor shape.

The proposed dairy show for Toronto is a move in the right direction. The dairy cow has made many fortunes opulent, and the farmers around Toronto would be encouraged by such a show.

Some exceedingly bad reports have come to us since our last issue, says The Canadian Bee Journal. Losses of fifty and seventy-five per cent. Poor wintering and the cold, late spring have been disastrous. These reports have been received universally from districts where honey-dew was gathered last season. Where fall feeding was done matters are very much better. The bees have not built up well owing to unfavorable weather.

A new breed of pigs has been started in England, called the Lincolnshire curly-coated pig. They are described as fairly tenacious, strong-boned white pigs, with straight face, drooping ears and curly or wavy hair, hardy, early maturing and prolific.

HOLSTEIN PRICES. Full Particulars of the Brookville Sale of High-Class Milksters. The consignment sale of Holsteins at the fair grounds, Brookville, last Friday was most successful. Col. B. V. Kelly of Syracuse, N.Y., wielded the hammer and kept the crowd in merry mood. While prices were not as large as the merit of the animals would warrant, yet it is a hopeful sign to see Ontario breeders becoming interested in this great dairy breed of recognized usefulness.

AGREEMENT EQUAL TO THAT OF LAST YEAR. Had Season Been Earlier There Would Have Been a Large Increase. E. C. Hammond, of the firm of Oler & Hammond, has just returned from the Northwest, having been in the City of Winnipeg from May 1.

But so large a quantity of land was prepared for seeding last fall which cannot be sown this year, that it will probably mean a falling off of 20 per cent. from what it would have been had the season opened earlier.

As usual, the people are full of hope. They are very optimistic in that counting in reports that is their very energetic and forceful in the way they do the little things of life.

WINDSOR CHEESE. Windsor is still growing, but I think property there is rather in advance of the times in laying out building lots in the outskirts, however.

"HINGE-STAY" MAKE DILLON TWICE AS STRONG Short stiff, hard, steel wire stays make a "hinge-like" joint at every lateral wire on the Dillon fence. These "Hinge-stays" give our fence a greater degree of elasticity—enables it to withstand greater strains. They set back into shape after receiving a heavy blow, or the unusual pressure caused by a furious bull or other animal endeavoring to push his way through to freedom. Catalogue fills more about this "twice as strong" fence. The Owen Sound Wire Fence Co., Limited, Owen Sound, Ont.

PROSPECTOR'S HEROISM ON MONTREAL RIVER Thrilling Details of the Experiences of the Pioneers in New Silver District.

LATHEFORD, May 30.—(From the Man on the Spot)—Shirley Craig and a party of searchers have gone up the Montreal River to look for the body of Bateese Ojick, who was drowned there a few days ago.

Mr. Craig has brought down the details of the drowning accident, and it is rather singular that the man who lost his life was not an inexperienced prospector, but was an Indian 30 years of age, who had lived in the woods all his life and paddled where few white men have ever gone.
