THE SITUATION IN CHINA IS GROWING DARKER

Daily Increasing Reports of the Massacre of Missionaries and Foreigners Leave Only a Slender Thread of Hope For the Legations.

Even in Shanghai Things Are Serious—10,000 Chinese Troops Have Been Secretly Moved There—The Triads Also Grow More Threatening—Tuan Gives Rewards for the Heads of Foreigners Brought to Peking.

London, July 30.—(Special.)—The Shanghai correspondent of The Daily Telegraph says he is still firmly convinced that the Ministers are safe, but with the exception of an alleged message from Peking, brought by a runner, saying that the legation was still defending itself, nothing has yet been published giving anything in the nature of proof.

No Threat of Hope. On the other hand, the daily increasing reports of the massacre of missionaries and foreigners leave only the most slender thread upon which to hang a hope.

Situation is Darker. The general situation is steadily becoming darker and a crisis is said to be first approaching. It is rumored in Shanghai that 10,000 Chinese troops have been secretly moved into that vicinity, and that the commander of the King Yu forts has been ordered to fire, if any further addition is made to the number of foreign soldiers ascending the river. Rioting has already occurred at Kiu Kiang, the most threatening death to foreigners.

A special despatch from Shanghai, dated yesterday, says that the English mission station north of Ningbo has been destroyed, and 35 missionaries have been murdered.

Triads Threaten to Hainan. The Canton correspondent of The Daily Telegraph, in a despatch of yesterday, says: "The Triads have become numerous and threatening in Hainan. The local and the local mandarin are terror-stricken and decline to protect foreigners. All the missionaries except three have left, and the island is in a state of anarchy."

Boxer Plot. "The Chinese authorities have just discovered a Boxer plot, devised by Sun Mui, to blow up the Manmo temple, and to destroy the Cantonese officials while performing ceremonies in honor of the Emperor's birthday. If the plot had succeeded, the Boxers would have attacked Canton, looting the city and murdering foreigners and all persons favorable to foreigners."

Chinese Rewards Assured. "Chinese newspapers assert that Prince Tuan offered rewards for the heads of foreigners brought to his Yamen in Peking. The Boxers, finding it difficult to get enough of these, decapitated all Chinese

The Story is That the Governor-General Wrote a Sharp Letter to the Premier About the Utterances of Minister Tarte in Paris—A Crisis Was Averted.

Montreal, July 29.—(Special.)—A story which followed the letter is said to have been a strong one, Sir Wilfrid, of course, repudiating the case of his favorite Minister.

Days followed, and His Excellency's letter to Sir Wilfrid was forwarded to the refractory Minister in Paris, and it is related that the scene which followed the exception of Lord Minto's communication on the bank of the Selco was even more threatening than a later interview which took place between the Governor-General and the first friend of the Sovereign at Ottawa.

SOUTH AFRICA SITUATION.

Isaac N. Ford Says British Public Have Now Become Wholly Indifferent to Details

AND THE ONLY PRACTICAL WAY TO SUPPRESS GUERRILLA WARFARE IS BEING PURSUED BY LORD ROBERTS.

New York, July 29.—In reviewing the South African war situation, Mr. Isaac N. Ford, in his London cable letter to this morning's Tribune:

"A remarkable feature of the war in South Africa is the public indifference to the details. Military experts no longer comment in the press upon the operations in the field; war maps have disappeared from the daily files. The special correspondents, with three or four exceptions, have retired from service, and the closing incidents of the campaign are passing almost without observation. It is not clear what is meant by khaki campaign in politics, when the story of the war, with its marches, skirmishes, battles and records of heroic fortitude and gallantry, has ceased to interest a bored and listless public."

"Hunter's campaign south of Bethlehem has not been followed with intelligence, even by the veterans of the military clubs, and Broadwood's hunt after Dewet has been the subject of private wagers, with the heaviest betting on the fox."

"The reason for the apathy is the public conviction that the prestige of the British army has suffered irreparably by the unexpected protraction of the war, and that little should be said about the unequal conflict between the Imperial army of 250,000 men and the remnant of the Boer commandos."

"The situation has been partly cleared by Roberts' advance toward Middleburg, and Hunter's operations in the Pekaarsburg district, and out of from supplies at Komatipoort, and that the guerrilla warfare will gradually succumb to an energetic and unrelenting campaign."

"The Boers in the Free State, and De Wet's northward march, have not been effective, since the sole reason for the capture of 200 prisoners, but it has exposed the remnant of his force among the hills to defeat, with only one road open for retreat and only a single place of refuge."

"Roberts is not moving as rapidly as the Indian English public desires, but he is suppressing the guerrilla warfare in the only practical way. The Boers are enjoying the best guerrilla fighters in the world, for they are expert hunters, and among the mountains, and the processes of Roberts' campaign are necessarily slow and laborious. Little progress is being made at every turn."

THE OLD BOYS OF BRUCE

Are Keeping Up the Festivities at Walkerton Camp, Nichols

Walkerton, Ont., July 28.—A picnic was given on the Bend here this afternoon in connection with the Old Boys' reunion, which has been in progress for the past week. Fully three thousand people were present, including several hundred visitors from the tables were spread in the open air, and the provisions were supplied by the ladies of the Old Boys' Association.

At the picnic, the only game played was in attendance. Mr. McNamara, collector of customs, on behalf of the Town Council, made a brief speech of welcome to the old boys. An excellent program of sports was provided, the feature of the day being a baseball match between the old boys and the new boys, in which the former were victorious by a score of 15 to 14. Among the players was James Nichols, collector of inland revenue here, who many years ago was captain of the renowned Maple Leafs of Toronto, which they made their sensational tour thru the United States.

The best professional organizations of that generation, Jim held down second base today and hit the ball, which he hit with a flourish, and he could get back into his old form. A band concert was given in the evening, and the reunion, which started somewhat suspiciously with a wet day last Tuesday, is nevertheless turning out a grand success. Old boys and girls have responded from the four corners of the earth, and many more are expected during the remaining days of the festival.

THE BALLOON COLLAPSED.

Prof. Hutchison's Narrow Escape at Hanlan's Point on Saturday.

The dangers attendant on ballooning at night were amply illustrated on Saturday evening at Hanlan's Point, when Prof. E. R. Hutchison experienced a very narrow escape from a fatal accident. While the balloon was in process of inflation, the check ball for the fire cord fell in, catching the flames and the hot air. Also Prof. Hutchison knew the balloon was not fully inflated, he determined to risk an ascension, rather than disappoint the large crowd.

The balloon rose to a height of a couple of hundred feet, when it began to collapse suddenly, and the crowd, which had time to open his parachute, he fell with great force on the ground, and he was seriously injured.

Prof. Hutchison has consented to give another ascension to-night, and there will thus be a grand double bill, including the splendid performance on the stage, when Charles G. Grant will perform his astonishing feat of riding a horse on a hot leader in four bounds on his bicycle. The great Martinis are also on the bill.

HENRY ALFORD IN CHATHAM.

The Young Englishman Who Disappeared From London Was Soliciting Employment.

Chatham, Ont., July 29.—The young man named Henry Alford, employed up to a week ago in Gorman & Eckhardt's store in London, and reported missing for some days last week, on Thursday he called on some leading citizens and solicited employment. The London dispatch says that Alford had mysteriously disappeared. Often he had received an allowance from England, but he was the cause of a mystery, as he clearly told who he was, and gave his name, and address, and was of good address, and well educated.

He Liked the Old Man.

They were sitting on the verandah, holding hands, at 10 o'clock last night, and as the old gentleman's footsteps were heard in the hall, the couple broke away, and the young fellow said he guessed he would go.

"The old man's papa came out, wiping his brow. 'You might,' he said, as his daughter introduced him to the visitor, 'better come inside and have a drink.'"

The invitation was accepted rather timidly, but the old man was jolly, and he produced a bottle of Shannock's ale, remarking that he always kept that brand in the house, because it was the best. He gets it at Taylor's, 205 Parliament street, and orders by phone.

In the Turf's digestive apparatus is a delicate apparatus, the mechanism of which is delicate as the mechanism of a watch or scientific instrument, in which even a breath of air will make a variation. With such persons suffering from the stomach, the Turf's medicine is recommended as mild and safe.

THE LATTER DAY SAINTS Meeting in a Tent on Spadina Avenue—They Don't Believe in Polygamy.

The reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, commonly called the Latter Day Saints, were held in a meeting in a tent on Spadina Avenue, last night, for the purpose of discussing the doctrine of polygamy.

The Latter Day Saints date back to 1830, when Joseph Smith, a young man who is in custody on a charge of attempting to commit suicide, was attacked and brutally kicked and beaten by some rowdies in St. Lawrence Park on Saturday night. There is no doubt that the rowdies were in control of the park, and it is some of these who are now in the city of women, and who are a formidable body, with the Lord of the city.

Now Elder Barnore is by no means an elderly man, but a young man, who appears to be in the prime of life, and presents his case with forensic force. He has a strong, well-cut face, and a fine, intelligent expression.

After Kerbstone Bookies. Police Unearth a Racing Ticker at Work Upstairs at 69 East King-Street.

Many complaints have been filed with the police during the past few weeks by business men, who claim they have been annoyed while passing along King and Toronto-streets and Leadenhall by individuals coming up to them and asking them to bet on the races in progress on the American tracks. These "kerbstone bookies," as they have been named, at first solicited bets from only the knowing ones, but lately they have been catching a trade that has been recorded by the police, and has been the cause of many complaints.

Five Different Explosions on Friday Night and the Cars Were Wrecked. St. Louis, July 28.—Five cars of the Transit Company were damaged during the night by dynamite placed on the tracks. Nobody was injured as far as can be learned.

The first two explosions occurred near Spring and Easton-avenues; the third on the southern electric line on Arsenal, between 9th and 13th-streets; the latter explosion was terrific. The floor of the car was blown out and the seats were twisted out of place. Windows in nearby houses were broken.

A fourth explosion occurred in front of No. 3017 Easton-avenue. At 2:10 a.m. the fifth occurred. It wrecked the front part of an Owl car at Peck and Kosciusko-avenues. There were scarcely any passengers on any of the cars, and damage in all cases was practically confined to the cars.

PRINCE OF MONACO SNUBBED. Queen Maria of Portugal Would Not Countenance His Gamboling in the Casino.

Paris, July 28.—Queen Maria of Portugal, despite previous reports published in French newspapers, has declined to attend the banquet given in her honor by the Prince of Monaco, of whose gambling habit she disapproves. The snub was felt so keenly by the prince that he has written to the queen, begging her to attend the banquet, and to forget himself so far as to write an insulting letter to Queen Maria.

S. Ackerman, commercial traveler, Belle Mills, writes: "Some years ago I used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People. I was suffering from rheumatism, and three bottles cured me. I am now able to move without crutches, and my general health is greatly improved. I have never been troubled with rheumatism since. I have cured 100 cases in 10 to 15 days. 100 page Book Free."

THE QUEEN'S CHILDREN ILL. Empress Frederick Said to Be Morally Stricken—Prince Alfred.

London, July 28.—Empress Frederick of Germany is morally ill with an internal complaint, she is in the castle of Crozier, near Homburg.

The Empress had arranged to pass the autumn at White Lodge, Richmond Park, London, which was given to her by Queen Victoria, after the death of the Duke of Teck. It is feared that she would be unable to go, and that she would be confined to her room.

The Duke of Saxe-Coburg is also seriously ill with Bright's disease.
