LABOR DEPARTMENT PLANS SCHEME FOR MOTHERS PENSIONS

Recommend Commission of Five to Administer Proposed Legislation. MUST BE BRITISH

Advance copies of a voluminous report by the Ontario department of labor, contain the long-expected recommendations for the appointment of a provincial commission to administer mothers' allowances under proposed legislation.

The report is the reply of the province to a widespread demand by philanthropic, religious and kindred organizations which pressed resolutions during the last ministry and since the change of government, or forward deputations urging the necessity for legislative action to bring Ontario abreast of other provinces and states that have with good results adopted schemes of mothers' pensions or allowances in recent years.

The gentleman who makes the weather, and the coal dealers are said to have formed a combine and it was rumored yesterday that a woman complained to the board of commerce that if it had not been for the weather man sending at this time of the year such a bad variety of his article, the ten tons of coal she bought at the fall at eleven dollars per ton would have lasted out. Yesterday she was compelled to purchase more coal at $18.35 per ton, which was an increase of 25 cents above the previous day's price.

FEDERAL SOLUTION OF LUMBER SHORTAGE

Ottawa, Feb. 19.—(Special.)—To meet the lumber shortage the board of commerce may adopt the same system in effect in securing print paper supply for Canadian customers. The board may, by negotiation, have each mill set aside a percentage of its output to meet the home supply. Canada exports about fifty million dollars' worth of lumber to the United States and imports from that country about fifteen million dollars' worth, chiefly of hardwoods, essential to our industries. The lumber question is becoming quite acute, especially on the prairie, and some action will be taken.

Five Members Representing National Railways and Grand Trunk Lines Will Operate the Consolidated Roads As One Great National System of Railroads.

The Dissenters Can't Stop Consolidation.

THE Canadian public and parliament can afford to ignore the wild statements of injustice made by the little group of dissenting Grand Trunk shareholders at yesterday's meeting. The resolution of protest counts for nothing. The resolution of ratification was passed by a practically unanimous vote.

Twenty Thousand Miles of Government Railways to Be Co-ordinated.

GRIPPE PATIENTS FILL HOSPITALS IN BERLIN

Berlin, Feb. 19.—Grippe patients are overcrowding the Berlin hospitals and the scarcity of nurses and inadequate accommodation are complicating the conditions of treatment. The physicians claim that malnutrition and inadequate clothing are chiefly responsible for the large number of cases. Epidemics similar to the one here are reported in Breslau, Dresden, Hamburg and Bremen.

Overlapping Eliminated.

Co-ordination of traffic and operation will not await the complete absorption of the Grand Trunk into the government system. It has been claimed by advocates of the purchase of the Grand Trunk that millions can be saved by co-ordinating the systems. Dual ticket agencies in various cities, competitive trains and other unnecessary duplications will gradually be eliminated. Both systems need to be rolled into one, and this will be provided as soon as possible, so that traffic, both passenger and freight, can be efficiently handled.

Government Must Bear Extra Cost of Production by Publisher.

The minister of education is now facing the question of the cost of producing school text books and the price at which they are sold. The department issued a statement on the subject, which sets forth the conditions under which the government finds it necessary to subsidize the publishers, and bound under all the circumstances to continue the arrangement under which the publishers are working.

UNION NECESSARY FOR BOTH NATIONS

Dr. John A. Stewart Pleads for Anglo-American Friendship.

Introducing Dr. John A. Stewart of the Sulgrave Institute, at the Empire Club yesterday, Price Lewis, in the absence, thru illness, of Arthur Hewitt, said that the white man's burden had been recognized before it had been discovered that a yellow race was domiciled in the centre of the white man's country, and today the white man's burden, the pacification of a turbulent world, must be borne by the united Anglo-Saxon race.

Dr. Stewart began by saying that if he were composing a prayer and would be: "O God, preserve me from myself, from my weaknesses and my prejudices." The greatest dangers of the day were reactionary. It was because of what the Anglo-Saxon race stood for, law and law imposed by justice and made glorious by mercy, free speech, liberty of conscience, separation of church and state, and other similar ideals, that American friendship was all the stronger on account of De Valera's speeches.

Canada was a bitter enemy of the United States would have been playing the game of the secret enemies. He saw articles in the press, pin-pricks that were intended to stir up this anti-American-British propaganda. He knew who wrote these articles, some of the writers consciously, some of them as tools, and why they were written. He instanced a speech published in a Canadian paper alleged to have been delivered by a prominent American. This gentleman absolutely denied it and declared that the man who wrote it was a liar. If they failed in this Anglo-American friendship they would fall and the world would fall with them.

At a midnight meeting held in New York city for newspaper men the junction was given them that if they received any information that was favorable to certain interests they must publish it and expand it in the most radical form, while any information unfriendly to these interests was to be suppressed. Dr. Stewart was careful in making this statement, but declared it was an example of the policy being pursued to overthrow the Anglo-American friendship.

When men came to him and said the De Valera effort should be suppressed he said "No." The more Mr. De Valera displayed himself the stronger became the feeling among intelligent people that it must be opposed, and the movement he supported in Anglo-American friendship was all the stronger on account of De Valera's speeches.

been threatened by an organization then founded that America would be taken care of by an alliance of Irish and Germans. It was one of the reasons that sent the Germans into war that they saw they could not break up the Anglo-Saxon movement. Eight times in the first three months of the war the Sulgrave Institute offices had been broken into in search of information which they had. But it was not discovered because it had been kept in a safety deposit vault.

The constitution of America determined certain methods of doing things. There was a doubt that the treaty of peace, as drawn in Paris, might derogate from the authority of one section of congress. There were other points, but there were no two opinions in the United States about the league of nations. If the league was ratified by congress there was no doubt that the courts would declare the treaty unconstitutional. What held them together was the recent competition between ideas and ideals among the English-speaking peoples.

He described the settlement of Virginia, and said that in 300 years these little bands, with their British way of doing things, had expanded and grown, one into a nation of 104,000,000 and another of 10,000,000. They were able to open their doors and say to the peoples of the world, "Here you can have an opportunity and a rest." They had withheld nothing from them except that only those born on the soil could be president or vice-president. Annually they had been sending ten billions across to Europe to support their poor. Everything that man could do they had done, and given everything to others which they had for themselves. They had a certain way of doing things, an outlook on life that was more valuable than anything among their possessions. Everything depended on the integrity of these institutions. There was today a determined effort to subvert these, free speech, liberty of conscience, respect of law and order. He adjured them to turn their back on generalities, on newspaper stories, on anything that tended to overthrow these institutions. In the far future, perhaps not in their time, but certainly, there were signs in the east that the sun would rise on the solidarity of Anglo-Saxon-Keltic humanity.

A. Monroe Grier expressed the thanks of the club for Dr. Stewart's address.

MISS MARGARET MORIARTY BURIED.

A sorrowing congregation assembled at the funeral of Miss Margaret Moriarty yesterday morning, when the casket of Nora Margaret Moriarty was placed before the altar. At the offertory the "Pater Noster" was sung by Miss Evelyn O'Donoghue, and "Nearer, My God, to Thee" as the cortege left the church for St. Michael's Cemetery. Miss Moriarty had been librarian at the Roncesvalles library for some years, and her uniform courtesy and interest in serving the public had gained her many friends, especially among the children, for whom she thought no work a trouble. To the widowed mother, brother and sister, sympathy is extended by many friends.

MAPLE LEAF PART OF DOMINION ARMS

Women's Historical Society Anxious for Its Inclusion Forthwith.

At the February meeting of the Women's Historical Society, held at the Sherbourne House Club, Mrs. W. A. Cawthra told something of her work in France under the heading "Allied Shopkeeping in Devastated Regions." The speaker described Folembroy, one of twelve villages on the Seine, which had suffered almost total extinction at the hands of the Hun. Here the speaker and her husband were allotted the task of helping to rehabilitate the people. When they arrived in February there was a population of only 30; when they left in July there were 350, so anxious were the people to get back to their old homes, even the in ruins.

With the aid of two nurses a dispensary was opened, medicine and attention being given free. A magazine was next established in an old shack, and here food and clothes were sold at very low prices. Had it not been for this shop the people would have had to go ten miles to do their shopping. The dugouts left by the Germans were the first homes to which the people came, then tents were given them and later they went into the woods and gathered material for wooden homes. Chickens, rabbits and a few cows were established by Mr. and Mrs. Cawthra. The cure was also brought—Mr. Cawthra going for and bringing him some miles in a motor—and for the first time in four years the people had a religious service, which was held in the mortuary chapel. Mrs. Cawthra spoke of the generosity of the American Red Cross whom they met, and who gave a generous supply of clothes for distribution. She also stated that the gratitude of the French people whom they served was sometimes embarrassing.

Floral Emblem for Canada. Prof. R. S. Thompson also spoke at the meeting, explaining the investigation going on for some time in regard to a floral emblem for Canada. The maple leaf has no authoritative recognition in the Canadian coat of arms, yet all felt that it had won a right to such. Many, too, were in favor of a flower representative of Canada, an impetus having been given by the wish to plant flowers on the graves of Canadian soldiers overseas. A variety of flowers had been suggested, among them the columbine and cornus canadensis, popularly known as the bush-berry, which has a white flower followed by a bunch of red berries. The hepatica and trillium have also been suggested. The government at Ottawa have become interested in the matter and are working on a new design for a coat of arms for the Dominion.

In the discussion that followed the address of Prof. Thompson, a resolution was passed by the meeting asking that the maple leaf may be officially incorporated in the Canadian armorial bearings. The matter of the flower was not decided upon, the vote of the meeting seemed in favor of "cornus canadensis." Miss Sarah Mickie presided.

LAND SURVEYORS ELECT OFFICERS

Association Thinks Rights Have Been Ridden Over by Dominion Government.

Election of officers and nominations for members of council formed the principal part of the business transacted at the final session of the 23rd annual convention of Ontario Land Surveyors, held yesterday in the lecture room of the Engineers' Club. The following were elected: President, T. B. LeMay, Toronto; vice-president, G. A. McCubbin, Chatham; secretary-treasurer, L. V. Rorke (reappointed); auditors, John Van Nostrand and D. D. James; scrutineers, A. T. Ward and H. L. Estlin. Two members will be elected to the council and the following were nominated for the vacancies: F. N. Rutherford, St. Catharines; J. W. Pierce, Ottawa; H. M. Anderson, North Bay; W. G. McGeorge, Chatham; J. J. MacKay, Hamilton; J. D. Evans, Trenton, and E. D. Bolton, Listowel.

Messrs. T. B. LeMay and John Van Nostrand were appointed to the advisory committee, which will cooperate with committees from the other provinces for the purpose of securing legislation in matters affecting the profession of surveyors. Legislation Challenged. The members of the Surveyors' Association are much troubled over the action of the Dominion parliament under which they claim that the government assumes the right to appoint non-qualified persons to perform the work of surveyors in any province. Both President Aylesworth and Secretary Rorke expressed themselves strongly that the Dominion government thru this legislation can leave out in the cold those qualified under provincial statutes to undertake the duties of surveyor, while any outsider, no matter what his trade or calling, can receive lucrative employment thru the Dominion government. Steps, they say, will be adopted to remedy this state of affairs.

BITUMEN CONCRETE PAVEMENTS BEST

Bruce Aldrich Says, in Addressing Engineering Institute of Canada.

The regular meeting of the Engineering Institute of Canada, held last evening in the Engineers' Club, West King street, was fairly well attended when Mr. Bruce Aldrich, district engineer, the Asphalt Association, gave a lengthy and practical address on "Bituminous Roads."

In the construction of bituminous roads he recommended that roads should be dry before the application of bituminous materials, and before applying bituminous materials to macadam surfaces all holes and ruts must be repaired.

This class of pavement, said Mr. Aldrich, is a wearing course, having a wearing course of macadam coated with asphalt or tar and usually laid on a stone foundation, or on concrete or an old macadam surface.

Mr. Aldrich said that the American Society of Civil Engineers defines a bituminous concrete pavement as one having a wearing course, composed of stone, gravel, sand, or slag, or a combination thereof, and bituminous material incorporated by mixing methods.

NEWS OF LABOR

PLANS FOR TEMPLE ASSUMING SHAPE C. F. L. MEN DENY O. B. U. CONNECTED

Jewish Authority Confirms Tom Watt, in Manifesto, Report New Labor Temple Planned.

Authoritative confirmation was given to The World last night of the report given out to the effect that a large new labor temple was about to be built by the Jewish community of Toronto. A member of the committee having charge of the arrangements stated authoritatively that the building would cost in the neighborhood of $10,000, that it would be built on Beverley street, near Grange avenue, that it would contain three auditoriums, one with a seating capacity for 1,500 to 2,000 people, the other two with capacity for 700. Besides these there would be large pool rooms and a fine commodious gymnasium.

Complete This Year. The World's informant stated that work was expected to commence on the new building at the end of March or some time in April, and that there was every reason to hope that it would be completed at least before the beginning of November. It was pointed out that besides showing the way to other labor groups this new project would give employment to large numbers of men in the building trades for many months. All the Jewish societies had given their promise of strong support. Individual shares were sold five to an individual, each at five dollars, but societies could purchase shares ad libitum. Many had been sold to date.

WANT VIEW OF LABOR ON DAYLIGHT SAVING

Canadian Manufacturers' Association Suggest a Referendum.

Montreal, Que., Feb. 19.—Action is now being taken by the Canadian Manufacturers' Association to secure the opinion of labor in Canada with regard to the passing of a daylight saving bill this summer.

It is believed that a referendum will give the association a mandate with which to approach the Dominion government, and ask for a daylight saving act.

The method suggested is that each manufacturer through the Dominion take a straw vote of his employees, and forward the figures to the Canadian Manufacturers' Association headquarters at Toronto.

The Montreal branch has already taken a straw vote of the printing trade here, which resulted in 1700 to 43 in favor of such an act.

The standpoint of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association as shown in the literature sent out to all the provinces, is that a genuine expression of opinion is all that is needed to place the daylight saving measure on the statute books.

Denies That Galt Bricklayers Have Made Wage Contracts

Galt, Ont., Feb. 19.—(Special)—George Egerton, business agent of the Bricklayers' Union, denied a report from Toronto that the local union had made arrangements for an 85 cents an hour wage scale for the coming summer. He says that is what they want, but that he has been unable up to the present to have a conference with the employers' exchange, also efforts have been made since December.

METCALFE VS. CAVE

District 48, International Association of Machinists, last night passed a resolution calling upon the Dominion house to define by legislation exactly what sedition really is, so that no individual opinion may bias the general situation. The general feeling was that a measure should be enacted, laying down rules in this matter for the education of the judges of the country. In this connection it is interesting to note that the union has issued a pamphlet showing the comparative judgments of Mr. Justice Metcalfe in Winnipeg in 1918, and of Mr. Justice Cave, one of Britain's most notable jurists, upon practically identical issues, those relating to alleged sedition. The ruling of the Winnipeg judge to his jury resulted in a verdict of "guilty"; the ruling of the eminent British jurist resulted in a verdict of "not guilty."

SHIPBUILDING PROGRESSING

Steel having begun to come in in fairly large quantities, the Dominion Shipbuilding Company is increasing its force week by week, and now the company employs in the neighborhood of 500 men. Within a short time it

Peterboro Labor Favors Street Cars on Sundays

Peterboro, Feb. 19.—At a meeting of the Trades and Labor Council, held last evening, a resolution was endorsed, commending the city council for its recent decision to allow street cars to operate on Sunday. In a short address Mr. John Noble of Toronto expressed his disapproval of group insurance, and urged that the employees get sufficient remuneration to carry their own insurance. Mr. Fred Bancroft of Toronto also gave an address, in which he dealt with many labor problems.

ONLY SIX REPORT

The trade report for the Brotherhood of Carpenters for February, 1920, shows that out of a total of 72 locals in the province only six locals have sent in any kind of report. The monthly report records the organization of one new local, that at Oshesay, where inside woodworkers are fairly numerous. The report also records the opening of three new factories in Woodstock during the month. Only in Oshesay, Cobalt and Brantford is trade progressing, but this is because of the season of the year, the climatic conditions restricting work to a large degree.

PLAN SCHEME FOR MOTHERS' PENSIONS

The lieutenant-governor-in-council will control the positions of chairman and vice-chairman of the commission which will be effective with three members either present as a quorum or in office.

The commission will recommend its own permanent salaried staff, investigating all applications under the act, and also making recommendations to the lieutenant-governor-in-council will make regulations as to the appointment of local committees provided for, also making recommendations to the lieutenant-governor-in-council and have supervisory powers.

An exhaustive review of mothers' allowances in other provinces and states the foregoing recommendations are made for Ontario. The title of the bill is "The Mothers' Allowances Act." Allowance to be made available to: Widow; wife of an inmate of a provincial hospital for the insane; or of a totally disabled person. The mother must be a suitable guardian for her children.

Allowance for Families. Allowance available to families of two or more children under fourteen years of age and in the immediate care of the mother. The father or mother must have been a British subject before marriage; mother and children actually resident in Canada at the time of the death or total disability of the father; mother resident in Canada for three years prior to the application for allowance; mother's net income in Ontario for two years prior to and at time of application and finally continued residence in Canada while family is in receipt of allowance.

The amount allowed in every case is to be determined by the commission, but shall be a maximum per family. The cost of administering the act is to fall wholly upon the province, one-half the annual appropriation, however, to be charged directly by the commission against the municipality where the beneficiary has continuously resided for one year prior to the date of the proposed act as figured out at $995,036 a year if the age limit of children paid for is 18 and on the basis of a one-child family; but if 14 be fixed as the dependent age limit, the cost would fall to $995,532, excluding the cost of the contemplated permanent staff, and so on, which would approximate $20,000 to $25,000 per annum.

According to the Canadian registration board there are in Ontario 15,244 widows with 30,159 dependent children, of British nationality, and 524 widows with 1,064 children non-British, or a total of 47,721 persons who may come under the benefits of the proposed law. These have been subdivided into classes of families of one to twelve-child families. But a calculation based on personal visitation placed the number of needy children in the province at 8,907.

WANTED IN HAMILTON

Wanted in Hamilton on a charge of assault. Charles Davidson was arrested last night in a downtown hotel by Detectives Nicholls and Courtney. When arrested he was accompanied by his two-year-old son.

If He Died... The Business Would Die

How often have you heard some such statement made about a particular business? It means—that one man, either through technical knowledge, or through his ability as an executive, controls, for the time being, the destiny of the firm. If he died, creditors would become anxious, inquisitive or even troublesome. Many contingencies might arise to threaten the stability of the business.

Unless—his life was insured in favor of the firm. It is possible to so insure "his" life that the storm can easily be weathered and the business successfully carried on without him. The matter is very clearly dealt with in a book we have published, entitled "Personality in Business." It would be well worth your while to send for a copy and read it. You may have one for the asking.

The youngest of the children was kept by her mother. She is employed in the household of a family in Parry Harbor and contributes to their support. COLONEL DINNICK'S COUNSEL SEEKS FOR ENLARGEMENT Wants Time to Probe Books of Standard Reliance Subsidiaries.

INFORMATION VAGUE

J. H. Spence, counsel for Col. Dinnick, asked for an enlargement when the probe into the affairs of the Standard Reliance opened before the master-in-chambers at Osgoode Hall yesterday morning.

Geo. H. Kilmer said that the entire history shown by the books had been obtained by the liquidator after much work.

"It seems inconceivable that in some of these transactions it should require any other aid than Col. Dinnick's memory, but he says he doesn't remember, and we must take that in the meantime, or else abandon his examination.

Mr. Spence: "I don't think my learned friend should make a statement like that. He is doing it for headlines in the newspapers. Col. Dinnick has assisted the court and the liquidator all the way thru this investigation. He would, however, go on if the objection was pressed."

Mr. Spence: "The position of Col. Dinnick has also been very difficult. We did not know until yesterday that these three companies were going to be discussed at all. Why were we not told two weeks ago?"

"My learned friend does not need to get wrothy," said Mr. Kilmer. "From time to time documents have been produced for Col. Dinnick's inspection which Dinnick said were his. I am quite willing to admit that, but I wish to have all the papers in Col. Dinnick's possession bearing on these matters. Whether they are his papers or not they are producible here. It is not a question of his producing papers belonging to the Standard Reliance, but a question of producing any papers belonging to the Standard Reliance, whether his or not."

"If my learned friend wants any paper Col. Dinnick has in my hand it is for the asking," said Mr. Spence. "When he asks for them," interrupted Mr. Kilmer. "Are we going to gather up every paper for the last twenty years and throw them in the liquidator's hands?" asked Mr. Spence excitedly.

Liquidator Handicapped. The referee thought Col. Dinnick should have an opportunity to see if he had any documents or books that would throw any light on the transactions. "The liquidator has been greatly handicapped," he said. "Many of the directors are dead and the whole thing is in a chaotic state. He has had a terrible time during the past few months going thru these books. I think the probe has gone ahead very rapidly considering we have not only been investigating the Standard Reliance, but about twenty companies."

J. O. Lundy of Windsor, an agent for the sale of the Old Orchard Land Company, which was one of the subsidiary companies of the Standard Reliance, was called. He told Mr. Kilmer that the property near Windsor was sold at the instance of the Standard liquidators. "Did you ever give the Standard a mortgage?" asked Mr. Kilmer. "No." "Do you owe the Standard $7800?" "No."

The referee asked if the mortgage could be produced. "No," replied Mr. Kilmer.

FIFTY CENTS FOR SIMPLE HAIR-CUT

And Twenty-Five Cents for Shave is New Barber Schedule.

It will not be surprising to see in the streets of Toronto men wearing their hair in the style of Charles I. period, for the barbers of the city have determined as from next week to raise the price of hair-cutting to fifty cents, and if you should be of the indolgent class and require a shave in addition they will oblige you by only charging 25 cents extra.

"Fifty cents for a simple hair cut! Twenty-five cents to run a razor over your face! Just think of it; and they said a little time back corkscrews were the only things left to go up in price. Peculiarly enough, the barbers do not offer the popular excuse of the day—the exchange rate—for the rise in price."

From enquiries made by The World last night, the Toronto barbers claim they have great difficulty in getting reliable assistance. They declare the "best blood" and the younger hands are all going over the border to the States, where the wages are considerably higher than in Canada. The present rates of wages in Toronto are $20 to $25 per week, and in the States $33 to $35 per week, guaranteed. The Toronto master barbers say they cannot blame the men leaving the Queen City, and as there are very few new men coming into the "profession," they were compelled to advise some scheme to keep the old hands at home. To equalize wages was the only way and to do this it became necessary to raise the prices of hair cuts and shaves to the public.

Too Little Profit. The owners of the shops they claim make so little profit under existing rates that they could not afford the additional wages out of their own pockets. In other words, the barbers are to get a high rate of pay and the poor old man has to get the difference. The master barbers have, however, made one concession to the public. Such necessary adjuncts to the toilet as face treatment and the other extras which barber always tells you it is necessary to your personal appearance to indulge in, will remain at the same price. It is hoped the public will be grateful for this concession by having a hair cut and shave twice a week instead of once. At present the barbers' shops close at 8 o'clock, but a petition is being presented to the city council asking them to make an order for the closing of the shops at 7 o'clock.

From many observations heard by The World last night it would appear that there will be a boom in safety razors in Toronto next week. When the new prices become operative it will cost a man who is shaved every day by a barber, more per week to "clean his face," than it will a good housewife to feed her family on bread. Fifty cents for a hair cut! Twenty-five cents for a shave! It's enough to give a man bad dreams.

U. S. RAILROAD BILL STRONGLY OPPOSED BY UNION LABOR

Memorial Calls on Congress to Defeat in Entirety Reorganization Measure.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Organized railroad workers and union labor in general, contending that the reorganized railroad reorganization bill was destructive of the employees' constitutional privileges and liberties, tonight called upon congress to defeat the measure in its entirety.

At the close of an all-day conference representatives of the 15 railroad unions made public a memorial to congress making this suggestion. Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, and Frank Morrison, secretary, attended the conference. The memorial embodies this declaration: "The bill deprives citizens employed upon the railroads of the inviolate right to enjoy gains of their own industry. The returns to capital are fixed upon an arbitrary basis; the rate which the public must pay and wages which labor must receive must accommodate themselves to this basis fixed for capital. This act makes the public and labor subservient to capital."

The memorial, which is addressed to the public at large as well as to congress, says that the provision in the bill fixing the returns to the railroads would be "an abandonment of government for the common good, the establishment of government for private interests, special privileges and class benefits."

Attack is also made on the method of constituting the arbitration boards proposed in the bill. The employees say they have "an inalienable right to have an equal voice, representation and vote in any tribunal created by law or by mutual agreement which is to establish the compensation we are to receive."

PROCLAIM MARTIAL LAW IN THE SAAR REGION

London, Feb. 19.—Martial law has been proclaimed in the Saar region, now occupied by French troops and under control of an allied commission, in consequence of new disturbances, according to an Amsterdam despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company. Gen. Wirbel, commanding the French forces, issued instructions to the inhabitants of the region not to show themselves at the windows of their homes, the despatch says, declaring that the troops had been instructed to shoot at sight all those doing so.

DISCUSSION RIFE, BUT LITTLE DONE

Trades Council Becomes a Forum for Endless Debate.

Discussion ad libitum with final reference back to committees was the order of the day at last night's session of Toronto Trades Council at the Labor Temple, the question of the disposition of the 350 tons a day of city garbage and the question of the appointment of the civic refuse commission occupying nine-tenths of the entire time of the session.

Garbage and public ownership formed the nature of a long discussion involving the Oakton and other coals in the course of which an attempt was made to rescind the motion of a previous session to oppose the sale of garbage to a private company as a franchise for the purpose of transmitting the refuse into coal. Controller Gibbons pointed to the fact that 850 tons of garbage was carried to the incinerators every day, that out of this amount 50 tons remained for disposal, and that it would profit the city to sell that 50 tons to the best advantage. Some delegates advocated the sale of the 50 tons to both or either the Oakton and Nulikon companies; others again pointed out that neither of these companies had coal except on paper and that even at that it was sold at only 25 cents a ton less than ordinary anthracite. Motions were freely carried and rescinded, and chaos reigned supreme at various periods. Finally it was decided to refer the matter back to the municipal committee.

Civic Railway Commission. The other matter, that of appointing the commission for the all-Toronto civic railway of 1921 was important. The main theme of discussion was the suggestion of Mayor Church to invest the board of control with the power of commissioners for the railway. Opinion at the meeting was generally against any such procedure. However, opinion was more vigorously opposed to permitting any outside body to interfere with matters affecting the city. Tom Williams did not see why Toronto with its 500,000 people, one-fifth of the entire population of Ontario, should allow the provincial legislature to dictate its policy in the matter of appointing the commission. Another delegate believed the city council should be urged to get busy with the work of appointing a commission in the way.

Control of New Cars. Controller Gibbons believed that the question of new cars and rolling stock formed the chief consideration, and that the appointment of the commission was really a question of getting the best men, no matter how, who favored a commission appointed by the city council.

Every Three Years. James Mackay believed the commission should be appointed every three years, and that the provincial authorities should not be allowed any voice in the appointment. When the question of the new cars was given new impetus Controller Gibbons stated that under present conditions he would not spend a five cent piece in the United States. Toronto, he said, could easily build the needed cars herself. This was the information he had received from no less an authority than Mr. Fleming himself.

This whole matter, like that of the garbage, was referred back to the municipal committee for further consideration.

PERPLEXING LABOR SITUATION

London—F. C. Acland and Tom Moore, distinguished labor leaders in Canada, having arrived too late in Paris to attend the recent meeting of the governing board of the International labor conference, will remain in London until March 22, the date for the next meeting of this board, and will study the labor situation in Britain, which, so it has been hinted, is proving a problem worthy of the most astute Philadelphia lawyers.

Acadia and Intercolonial Coal Firms Adjust Dispute

Ottawa, Feb. 19.—A telegram received today by the minister of labor, indicates that the board of conciliation dealing with the dispute between the Acadia and Intercolonial Coal Companies of Nova Scotia, and their employees, has been successful in adjusting the points at issue.

The report of the board has not yet been received at the department, but the telegram states that it is an unanimous one, and that it is apparently acceptable to all parties.

FRIDAY MORNING, FEB. 20.

Victory, and Afterwards.

The nineteenth of February was a notable day in the calendar of all who have fought for the public ownership of railways in Canada.

It can be said, of course, that the nationalization of the Grand Trunk, agreed to by the shareholders in London yesterday, is not so much a triumph for public ownership as a making the best of a bad job, in which national proprietorship and management are incidental to a widespread misfortune, and not a demonstration of the conquering advance of a new principle in the conduct of Canadian business.

But what would have been the situation if the Grand Trunk were in its present form, and parliamentary opinion had been where it was fifteen, ten, even five years ago? The Grand Trunk would have fallen to private interests such as the C.P.R., or some financial groups that could see vast fortunes for themselves in the reconstruction of the wreckage. The latter end of Canadian transportation would have been worse than the beginning.

A nation would have been sold anew into bondage to financial interests which regard their liberty to exploit an industrious population as the sum of human prosperity.

Why did that possibility become an impossibility? Because there were Canadians who believed in public ownership, and who dared to preach it in press, on platform and in parliament, where to advocate what has now happened was to expose oneself to hostility, ridicule and isolation.

What we see today is a cause for gratitude to the responsiveness of public opinion to sound principles of progress, when those principles are presented in season and out of season, and with conviction and foresight. The public is not swift to receive and act upon new ideas, but when it has once grasped the fundamentals of a far-reaching national policy, it never lets go.

Reluctant and even antagonistic parliaments are brought into line with progressive sentiment. They may not desire to implement the popular will, parliamentarians do as events command them. Even when they do it in obedience to that instinct of self-preservation which is the first law of so many politicians, their deed is to be counted to them for some wisdom and a little righteousness.

The winning of the greatest Canadian victory for public ownership is like similar achievements on the strike-ex field—it is the beginning of a burden which only consummate ability, unflinching courage and rigid, economical efficiency can carry. The value of the Grand Trunk, as a going concern, has still to be determined by arbitration, which must fix the value of stocks that have hitherto been of little value to their holders.

London stock exchange influences will hope for a result of the arbitration that will give them one last great chance to shave gold leaf from the certainties of the creation of traffic by the toll of the Canadian people. An effort will be made to satisfy British investors that Canada is getting a mighty fine bargain in the Grand Trunk. The government should have acquainted the British public with the true state of Grand Trunk affairs—in the shareholders' as well as in the Canadian interest. It should be made impossible for stock operators in any way to capitalize the burden we have now assumed.

It is the shareholders to whom the good fortune has come. It has not been made clear enough to them that they were saddled with a responsibility towards the immense deficits of the Grand Trunk Pacific, which their board of directors was totally incapable of meeting, and that beginning today they are guaranteed by the Canadian nation, interest and dividends, which any conceivable continuance of private control would have rendered impossible.

The old railway has been thrown into the pit by the greed and incompetence of stock-jobbing control. It can only be rescued by the combined energy, skill and loyalty of the Canadian people to their own future, which is hampered by the legacies of a race of disappearing magnates, whose works, unfortunately, do not follow them into obscurity.

Now that at last the management of a great Canadian railway is transferred from London to Canadians who have where its traffic is created—should have been done decades ago—what is the policy to be followed? The thoroughness of the nationalization of the Grand Trunk is made clear in section 7 of the act of parliament which, with its consequent agreement the shareholders accepted yesterday.

As soon as said agreement has been ratified, a committee of management shall be formed consisting of five persons, two to be appointed by the Grand Trunk, two by the government and the fifth by the four so appointed, to insure the operation of the Grand Trunk system (in so far as it is possible so to do) in harmony with the Canadian National Railway, the two systems being treated in the public interest as nearly as possible as one system. The committee shall continue to act until the preference and common stocks are transferred to or vested in the government, when it shall be discharged.

Instant co-ordination of the Grand Trunk with the Canadian National therefore, is the first requirement of the hour. The government, strangely enough, does not seem to be in a position to announce the personnel of the committee, or to foreshadow the savings that are to be speedily effected. This cannot be because of the magnitude of the job waiting to be done. Everything in today's situation was foreseeable and could have been prepared for, including the immediate absorption by the C.N.R. of the G.T.P., which is already provided for by the act and the agreement.

The public will be greatly disappointed if the co-ordinating policy is not at once declared and put into force, and intimation given that as the Grand Trunk, according to the act, is brought to the Canadian National, and not the Canadian National taken to the Grand Trunk, the administration of the enlarged system shall be directed from the headquarters of the Canadian National—the city that is entirely sympathetic to public ownership. Toronto is the headquarters of public ownership in Canada, and by every canon of fair play and every axiom of statesmanship, must so remain.

Advantages in Street Railway Purchase. A new consideration of the proposal for an immediate purchase of the street railway by the city is before the board of control. Mr. Fleming, of the street railway, revived the question by presenting the alternatives of the city buying 200 cars needed and allowing the company to operate them, or taking over the railway now by arbitration.

Whatever the board may decide there are obvious advantages in an immediate possession of the railway by the city. It is not clear that the proposal to arbitrate will facilitate an acceptance of the purchase alternative, but if the company is anxious to sell, a straight offer at a minimum figure would be more attractive.

Another year and a half of the present service is not a pleasant prospect for citizens, and it is anything but a prudent arrangement for the city. A good deal has been said about the actual profit and loss aspect of the company's accounts, but there is more to be considered from the city's side than the revenue and cost of running the cars. One important fact about which the health officers have no doubt is that the present street car service is more responsible for influenza and pneumonia than any other agency. A comparison of the street railway cars with the cars on the civic lines will drive this fact home. It is not one that can be discussed in terms of dollars and cents. Scores of deaths daily are attributable to the determination of certain interests that the citizens must put up with the present service until the end of the franchise. Hence the opposition to accept the company's offer.

There is another consideration of importance apart from the direct financial side of street railway purchase. It contains the development of the city, the improvement of city property, the enhancement of the city assessment, and the increase of the city revenue from the higher assessed values. The construction of civic lines on Danforth avenue and St. Clair avenue has transformed these districts and added many millions to the city's valuation. A unification of the city's street car services and a renovation of the plant and rolling stock would have a similar vitalizing effect over the whole city. There is no outlying part of Toronto that would not feel this influence, and profit by the greater accessibility which a proper street car service would provide. Central property would benefit in exact proportion from the same advantage of accessibility and easy communication.

Any stranger coming into Toronto can see these obvious and irrefutable advantages, but the prejudices, the ancient grudges, the personal spite and quarrels of thirty years past prevent many influential people taking an open-minded and business-like view of the situation. If Toronto was owned by one man who wished to make the most of his property, or by a company which wished to develop it to the utmost, in neither case would the present policy of making the citizens suffer in order to spite the company be pursued. No doubt there are some who will accuse those who take such a view, of devil's advocacy, but we believe that the matter can be viewed dispassionately and apart from the legends of the past. And it is to be noted that those who are most influential in settling the matter do not ride in street cars themselves.

Day Labor for Mount Pleasant.

There is nothing remarkable about the fact that no tenders have been forthcoming for the construction of the Mount Pleasant street car line. The conditions in the supply trades at present are exceedingly uncertain and unstable. Iron and timber cannot be secured on any sort of reliable terms, and, until the spring, labor itself is a precarious factor, and may then be even more so. The city is also known to be a close figurer and contractors are in demand on private work to a degree that makes a public contract less tempting than it otherwise would be.

UNREASONABLE

CAP. CLEMENCEAU: Kin you beat it? He goes and gets himself hung up, then he kicks about us guys goin' on with the game without him.

What, then, should be done? Nothing more than was done on Bloor street, and then is to be repeated on Bloor street in the extension of the civic line westwards on that thoroughfare. This line has been constructed by day labor, and well constructed. For the quality of work done it has probably been as cheaply executed as it could have been by contract. There is a clear obligation of six years standing to the people of North Toronto to construct the line and it should be proceeded with by day labor as soon as practicable. The city has had the experience on the Bloor street line, and no new construction equipment will be necessary. The city can secure supplies as readily and economically as any other party, and there is no occasion to hesitate about doing the work.

The Tariff Issue Must Not Be Tied Up With Any Other Issue or "ism." The World has more than once cautioned the friends of the national policy against tying up the tariff issue with ultra-imperialism and opposition to public ownership. The manufacturers are prone to err in both directions. The their headquarters are in Montreal and under the influence of that city.

Even our good and usually sedate neighbor, The Mail and Empire, has imbibed some of the Montreal atmosphere, and hence we find friendship for public ownership bracketed with hatred of England. In an article commending the Hearst newspapers The Mail is good enough to remark:

We do not believe that there is another civilized country in the world where such papers as the Hearst publications, advocates of prohibition, public ownership, and war with Great Britain . . . could build up such a great opposition and command such great influence.

The Mail followed this yesterday with a well-reasoned defence of a stable tariff and the national policy. The Montreal Gazette is equally sound on the tariff question, but develops symptoms of hydrophobia when any suggestion is made of public ownership. The Manufacturers' Association in Montreal at least went out of its way last fall to help Senator J. S. McLennan and The Montreal Gazette fight the government's bill for the nationalization of the Grand Trunk.

By the same token we do not believe the tariff question is at all involved with the question of Canadian autonomy or imperial federation. Yet the manufacturers have been anxious to be classed as imperialists. Quite naturally they desire as little trade as possible between Canada and the United States. By their advocacy of closer relations and larger trade with the mother country they have given an opening to the western farmers and the friends of free trade. The farmers' party advocates immediately increasing the British preference to 50 per cent; increasing it further to 20 per cent per annum, and free trade with the mother country within five years. This, from the standpoint of the Canadian manufacturer, would be nearly as fatal as free trade with all the world. Yet the farmer free traders like J. A. Maharg, M.P., and Hon. T. A. Crerar, adroitly link up the imperialistic utterances of the manufacturers with a demand for free trade within the empire. "Stop talking cant," said Mr. Maharg to the manufacturers the other day, "and do something practical for the old country"; while Mr. Crerar at Winnipeg is, thus reported:

He questioned whether the patriotism of the Canadian manufacturer was strong enough to win his support to the plank in the farmers' platform, which provided for free trade with Britain within five years.

We venture to think that the Canadian tariff must be made by Canadians for the best interest of Canada. It has nothing to do with imperialism, but is essentially national. It has nothing to do with public ownership with any more than it has to do with prohibition—the twin evils which bring nightmare to the usually drowsy slumbers of our good neighbor, The Mail and Empire.

OTHER PEOPLE'S OPINIONS

The World will gladly print under this heading letters written by our readers, dealing with current topics. As space is limited they must not be longer than 200 words and written on one side of the paper only.

Slippery Sidewalks.

Editor World: In an editorial of Thursday's issue appears an article on "slippery sidewalks." I would like to draw the attention of the authorities respecting ice being left on the sidewalks. It is positively dangerous for pedestrians, especially if they do not wear rubbers, which are hard upon those people who have to wear them, and should you leave them at home, a bad accident results. Many people like myself have had to look left on the sidewalks, and have to look where they walk, especially on a frosty day. If the police would allow the citizens to leave an inch of snow on the sidewalk, or compel them to put ashes or sawdust down, it would be more safe to walk on.

TO SEND CZECH TROOPS HOME FROM SIBERIA

Washington, Feb. 19.—Announcement of plans that have been adopted by the allies to send Czech-Slovak troops home from Siberia was made in a statement by General March, chief of staff of the United States army today.

They will be carried in British and American ships via the Indian Ocean and Suez Canal. The general said it would cost $225 per man to transport the troops from Vladivostok to their homes and that this would be paid by the Czecho-Slovak government.

WOULD TREAT LUMBER ON PULP, PAPER BASIS

The growing scarcity of lumber has resulted in the attention of the board of commerce being drawn to the heavy exports of lumber to the United States. American dealers are grabbing everything available here in the shape of lumber stock, and prices have jumped nearly 50 per cent since last fall. It has been suggested that lumber be treated the same as pulp and paper by the federal authorities, and a percentage of the output reserved for Canadian needs.

MAY INTERN WILHELM ON ISLAND OF CURACAO

Paris, Feb. 19.—Suggestions that former Emperor William be sent to the island of Curacao, off the Venezuelan coast, are received more favorably in some quarters at The Hague than the idea of transporting him to one of the Dutch East Indies, according to The Mail. The newspaper says the last allied note to the Dutch government called evident embarrassment at the Dutch capital.

FULFILLING OBLIGATIONS TO GENERAL DENKIN

London, Feb. 19.—Premier Lloyd George was asked whether aid, financial or otherwise, was still being given to any Russian army or organization whose aim was the overthrow of the soviet system. The premier replied that no aid was being given except that the government was continuing, as far as circumstances would permit, to fulfil the remainder of its obligations to General Denkin.

Partly Life the Embargo On Freight From Stratford

Stratford, Ont., Feb. 19.—The general embargo on freight from Stratford, which has been in effect for the last few days owing to the blockade occasioned by Monday and Tuesday's snow storms, was partially lifted today, the Grand Trunk accepting shipments of freight direct to Toronto, Hamilton, London, Brantford, Sarnia, Windsor, Woodstock and Chatham. To all other points the embargo is still on.

List of Criminals Includes Some in Hands of Allies

London, Feb. 19.—The list of war criminals presented to Germany included some offenders now in the hands of the allies. Premier Lloyd George informed the house of commons today. Whether these accused persons would be tried by an allied court would depend on the reply made by Germany to the recent allied note, the premier added.

THE GIRL WHO SMILED THRU By MARION RUBINCAM

PLEASANT PLANS.

It is always hard for youth to feel deeply any sorrow that is not very personal. Sympathetic as Alice normally was, she found it hard to feel any grief for the death of her aunt. "It's mother I am sorry for," she told her faithful friend, Clara, when she met her, that afternoon in a little store nearby. "She hasn't seen her sister for about 20 years, and, of course, I never have. At least, I don't remember her, so I can't be awfully upset."

"Yes, mother takes it hard, tho'?" Clara asked. "Yes, but you see it makes her feel so old and useless. If it had been anyone else, you'd have seen her. I would have been the same. Old people take death much harder than young ones, I think," philosophized Alice. "You know, I'm perfectly satisfied as she is quoted the children's name for Alice."

"I never expect to," said Alice. Then as the two of them went out of the store and turned together up the sunny street, she felt a sudden desire to confide her wonderful news to her friend. "But would David mind? It was sweet to have it as a secret for a while—but, of course, telling Clara was almost like talking to oneself! So arguing she decided to talk. Only it was hard to begin. 'Did—do you like David Thorne?' she asked, by way of working ground to it."

"Why—yes. What makes you ask?" Her tone made Alice turn to look at Clara, and in amazement she saw that Clara was blushing furiously—quite like a school girl being teased about a new beau. "This made it embarrassing. Alice did not know how to go on. 'He—he likes you,' she stammered, not making matters worse. 'Does he? Did he say so?'" Clara turned to her eagerly. "Yes, of course he said so. He said he thought you were very clever and pretty, which you are," Alice was afraid to go on now. She hated to hurt Clara's feelings. So they walked on in silence till the corner where Clara turned off to her own house. Then she turned to Alice impulsively. "You know, I'm perfectly crazy about David—Mr. Thorne. He hasn't said anything to make me feel so; he has just been awfully nice, as he is to everyone. But he's so different from other men about here."

"He comes from the city and from college, and he's traveled a lot, and his mother was brought up in a very prominent family in England. So he's had more time and more chances to learn nice manners than our town boys."

"How do you know all this?" Clara asked. "Oh, he told me." And this was near a confession as Alice could get. How dreadful she thought, if Clara had fallen in love with him too! How dreadful it would be if David had encouraged her! "But this idea did not stay in her mind a moment. She knew David was too fine not to keep his heart closed. He came that evening as soon as their simple supper had been cleared away. "There's a traveling road show in town," he announced. "Do you want to go? We tickets for the three of us. I could take your mother in that carriage of mine—I like it by the week, you know."

"What fun it would be!" Alice answered joyously. She rarely had an opportunity to indulge in even the few amusements that Farmington afforded. But Mrs. Fairbanks was feeling too ill to want to go, so it was Alice and Clara who went secretly, glad to be alone. "Of course, it's badly done," Alice remarked during an intermission. "It doesn't seem to me, because I've never seen anything better—only these road shows and the movies. But you must find it stupid."

Mailing Room Foreman Served Paper Faithfully for Twenty-Five Years.

The World is today mourning the loss by death from pneumonia of one of the oldest members of its staff—James E. Gordon, foreman of the mailing room.

Just 25 years ago the late Mr. Gordon, after training for his position with the old Empire, came to join The World mailing staff. His worth as a man and a faithful employe was soon recognized and it was not long before he became foreman of the department. He was a born organizer and his knowledge of newspaper mailing work was unique. He seldom, if ever, had trouble in his room. He was as "white" to those under him as to those above him. He made many friends, and his death to them, as to the whole World staff, came as a great shock.

The late Mr. Gordon, who lived at 164 Duchess street with his wife and one son, was taken ill with flu two weeks back. Pneumonia supervened, and he died peacefully on Wednesday morning.

Mr. Gordon was just fifty years of age and survived by his wife and son, his father, Hugh Gordon, and two brothers, George, who is assistant foreman in the World mailing room, and Albert, who is a dealer in lace and curtains.

Mr. Gordon belonged to the Church of England and attended All Saints' Church, Sherbourne street. He was a member of the Orange order, his lodge being the Beaver, No. 911. He was also a member of the Masonic Brotherhood.

The funeral of the late Mr. Gordon will be a motor one, and is to be held on Saturday at 3.30 p.m. from his late residence to St. James' Cemetery.

CITY HALL NOTES

Toronto's board of control yesterday managed to accomplish lots of business with little distraction and no recriminations. Among other things tenders were called for refreshment booths for the various parks, the object being to serve the citizens.

The suggestion emanated from Mayor Church and was given very favorable consideration everywhere. Alderman Beaman, chairman of the parks committee stated that plans to this end had already been begun.

The board was not too favorably disposed toward the project of purchasing the old St. James' Hospital, formerly the Toronto General Hospital, for a new isolation hospital. Apparently the purchase of health had o.k.'d the idea, but both Commissioner Bradway and other members had opposed the purchase on the ground that the building erected in 1854 was altogether too obsolete for any such purpose. Dr. Hastings, indeed, rather favored a building outside the hum of the city, but Alderman Beaman, such a project impossible. Referring to the present site of the old General Hospital, Controller Gibson pointed out that it contained the finest of lumber, lumber which could not be purchased today anywhere, and that the building contained all the material necessary to erect a very commodious isolation hospital. A conference with the C.O.H. is to be held before further action is to be taken.

INSURANCE DOCTORS DISLIKE ADIPOSIT

Wider Waist, Shorter Life, Says Dr. H. B. Anderson at Institute.

Get your life insured before you commence to increase your waist line and lessen your life line.

The above is valuable advice to those persons who are prone to fatness, if the statement made last night by Dr. H. B. Anderson, L. R. C. F. (London), M. R. C. S. (London) and medical referee of the Imperial Life Assurance of Canada, is carefully considered. Dr. Anderson last night delivered an interesting lecture at the monthly dinner of the Insurance Institute of Canada at the board of trade rooms, Royal Bank building, taking as his subject "Blood Pressure." Dr. Anderson declared it was a medical fact that as a man increased his waist line he lessened his life line. A fat man possessed comparatively a small heart to supply a big body. Such cases, he said, did not represent good insurance risks. After describing the circulatory system and the functions it performed on its journey round the body Dr. Anderson said that from the time blood left the heart only one minute elapsed for it to do the round tour. The heart, according to the doctor, possessed a wonderful reserve of power—and in a healthy subject could perform seven times the amount of work it was called on to do. The daily work the heart did was enormous and in 24 hours it generated sufficient power to lift a four-pound weight from the bottom of the deepest mine to the top of the highest mountain, or the same amount of power could lift a man from the street and place him on the top of the highest building in New York. If the daily heart power was multiplied by 30, a big force would be created and would beat any machine yet invented by man.

Blood Pressure

Coming to the question of blood pressure, Dr. Anderson said that before the discovery of instruments for testing blood pressures doctors tested by pulse pressure, and if they found a high pressure pulse they knew it meant disease of some kind. An Englishman named Hoiles in the 18th century introduced a tube into a horse and by the length to which the blood rose in the tube, the pressure was estimated. As years advanced instruments for use on human beings were invented and were in extensive use today. Blood pressure varies with age, said the doctor, and as age increases five points must be added for every 10 years from 15 upwards. Low blood pressure, he declared, was less serious than high pressure, but most insurance companies would take risks with a pressure 12 to 15 points above the standard figure. Low blood pressure was always serious in disease, especially in pneumonia. Dr. Anderson issued a warning against the too frequent taking of blood pressure tests as if it was overdone it worried and frightened nervous persons, who in many cases thought it was a more serious matter than did the doctor. In conclusion Dr. Anderson said that insurance doctors when they found a case of high blood pressure usually postponed the risk for some time for the purpose of seeing if the pressure remained at a standard or if it denoted kidney or other diseases.

H. W. Crossin was in the chair and some 150 members were present to enjoy the address.

HATS OF INTEREST

BY LILLIAN M. SCOTT.

VERY lovely is the blouse of ivory point d'esprit net, and no less flattering to its wearer is the hat of nettier blue, with crown of straw.

One of the most interesting hats worn at a recent wedding was a large black hat trimmed with delicate antique rose-colored plumes. Another was of vivid yellow.

As yet, hats for early spring wear show no startling change. There is the small fabric turban over which is sometimes draped a veil of embroidered net. Tricorne in every conceivable shape is already being worn. Close-fitting hats with large, often wide, brims are making their way. For formal occasions there is the broad-brimmed hat of pineapple straw, faced with fallie and trimmed with flowers or fruit.

A Guide to Matrimony—in One Lesson.

GREET him with that "Oh, aren't you wonderful!" smile. Gradually lead him to tell you all about "that wonderful shot" he made, four years ago. (You won't understand it—but you can't lose amaze.)

Let him FINISH!

Ask him if he is as strong as he looks! Admire his muscularity. NEVER intend to let him tell you all about his ailments and "how he suffers."

Ask him how the war has affected his business.

Let him tell you all about his troubles at the office and how unreasonable the boss is, and what a lot of "dubs" the merit of the office forces are.

Murmur sympathetically. Call him "Poor boy!"

Ask him who REALLY wrote "The Young Visitors"; what he thinks of Sir Oliver Lodge; what he thinks of the administration; what he thinks of feminism.

AGREE with him—ab-so-lute-ly!

Let him tell you "all he knows about women." Encourage him to "confide" in you. (You know where these "confidant heart-to-heart talks lead.) Inspire him to confess his "sentimental affairs."

Ask him to read his palm. Tell him what a wonderfully keen reasoning faculty he possesses; what marvelous judgment!

Tell him he should have been a lawyer. Tell him "ought to write a book about his life!"

Tell him he is too kind-hearted for his own good.

Get out the chafing dish—and FEED him!

During the process try to look cute and awfully domestic.

Tell him that "Mother" is teaching you how to cook; that you are "dreadfully old-fashioned," you guess; that you make all your own clothes.

Ask him to NEVER intend to marry! (This is the real mustard-egg!)

After while, suggest that the lights hurt your eyes—and let him turn up the shade on the rose-colored lamp beside the piano.

Play something soft and low—and sed.

Get better still put a Mische Elman record on the phonograph. Mrs. Jas. Sigh—a little.

ALLIANCE DEMANDS UTMOST MEASURE

be supplied with the conclusions we arrive at upon mature consideration of the legal opinions given us on these questions.

Domestic Demands.

The demands of the Dominion Alliance in substance are as follows:

1. Immediate and annual provincial registration and taxation of all liquor in Ontario.
2. To prevent the people of Ontario obtaining liquor otherwise than from the license commission's stores. The O.T.A. be amended to provide regulation and delivery of liquor in the province and the keeping of it.
3. That the serving of liquor at banquets, dinners, etc., be regulated. This would apply to private houses and is meant to limit the number of guests to whom liquor may be served.
4. Further limitation of the quantity of liquor that may be prescribed by doctors or kept in doctors' possession. Only non-potable liquor to be prescribed or supplied for external use. Prescriptions to be upon set forms, except in cases of emergency. Limiting the quantity of liquor one person may obtain by prescription within a set period of time. Repeal of the O.T.A. provisions for sale of native wine. Illegality of holding liquor in private possession for another. Illegality of using liquor as beverage when obtained for any other purpose. Extending the power of magistrates to imprison and fine for first offence. More drastic law against liquor advertising. Compulsory duty of police to prosecute for secondary offences.

The preamble of the foregoing recommends the most drastic experiments of certain states across the border with regard to sacramental wine.

Utmost Measures.

After careful consideration of the matters contained herein and conference with representatives of various temperance and other sympathetic organizations we come to you on behalf of the Ontario branch of the Dominion Alliance, as we have come to every government of the province of Ontario for many years, and respectfully request that you do at the forthcoming session of the legislature introduce a bill embodying the utmost measure of prohibition of the traffic in intoxicating liquor for beverage purposes that the province has power to enact.

We believe that only such legislation will meet the needs of the situation and give effect to the expressed will of the people in the recent referendum. And we further submit that the referendum results warrant this.

Public opinion will support the government and give effect to the granting of this request. While the Ontario temperance act is a splendid measure and one which has materially strengthened and improved, we declare our earnest willingness to give every possible aid to the government in realizing the more prompt and adequate legislation. We ask that the following principles govern the framing of amendments to the law:

1. That the government, thru the board of license commissioners, shall absolutely control all sales and distribution of liquor in the province of Ontario.
2. That the board shall provide adequate facilities of a sufficient supply of all liquor needed for sacramental, medicinal and industrial purposes.

MARCH IN ALGONQUIN PARK

The bracing atmosphere, the attractive winter sports, the novelty of fishing through the ice, the indoor pleasures enjoyed at the "Highland Inn" by a game of bridge or just lounging before the open fireplace, while the colobves from the tired brain and give rest and recuperation to those who need them. March is a good month and early application for rooms should be made as accommodation is limited. Ask any Grand Trunk agent for descriptive booklet or write N. T. Clarke, Highland Inn, Algonquin Park Station, Ont.

FLYING AS A PASTIME.

Wealthy men in Japan have turned to airplane as a sport. Many of those who made fortunes during the war in manufacturing munitions and building ships are neglecting their motor cars to devote time to skimming thru the air. The Japanese government is encouraging the innovation in every way, for it realizes that the more persons who indulge in the pastime the greater will be the prospects of progress in aviation in the island Kingdom. Japanese like a natural leaning toward aviation, for like the Chinese, they are great kite fliers, young and old indulging in the sport. Large kite-flying tournaments which the fliers compete in take place in the island Kingdom. The contests are awarded by judges by a point system that is hard for an Occidental to understand.

In aviation most of the machines used are of the "pusher" type, that is, expected that the home production of equal soon both the government demand and that for recreational purposes.

Central Ratepayers Consider Housing

A well attended meeting of the executive of the Central Ratepayers' Association, held at the city hall last night, with Vice-President Mullens in the chair, a committee was, after a good deal of discussion on the city housing question, named, to go thoroughly into the matter and report at an early meeting of the association.

The general opinion of the executive was that some more comprehensive plan for relieving the situation so far as the city is concerned would have to be undertaken before the matter would right itself. The members agreed during the coming season, and a large scale of those who, it is said, earlier in the session intended building will instead take their tools and go out and work wherever available.

A few of those present were: Honorary President J. B. Skelton, Mrs. McVeer, G. George Shields and J. Laxton.

COUNTY ORANGE LODGE ENTERTAINS PATIENTS

County Orange Lodge rejoiced the hearts of St. Andrew's Hospital patients with a smoking concert last night. The program was arranged by A. A. Gray, deputy grand master, assisted by W. H. Elliott, worshipful county master; S. M. Caric, county treasurer, Wm. Harrigan, Wm. Peterson and Wm. Powell.

The following artists kindly assisted in making the evening an enjoyable one: Pat Morrison, elocutionist; Norman Johnson, fancy dancer; Master Bert Powell, Scotch dancer; Bill Gray and Stearns, comedians. The 40th Highlanders' pipe band gave many selections.

Further features were a wrestling bout between Jack Harris and Kid Bevan and a four round boxing bout between Frank Ward and Kid Cooke. Mrs. Gray and Mrs. Harrigan dispensed comforts to the bed patients who could not attend the festivities.

Forbes Robertson says Hamlet was not crazy; he "I wonder what he thinks of some of the actors who have felt a call to play Hamlet."

RISE OUT OF HIM

A farmer and an Irishman were at work in a field when an airplane passed over their heads. The Irishman said to the farmer, "That's a fine sight to be up in that thing," said the farmer. "Faith, I'd hate to be up there and not in 'it," retorted the Irishman.

DOG'S LIFE

Rivers had some home, and was stumped by the dog in the dark hallway. "What are you growling about, dear?" called Mrs. Rivers from the floor above. "I am growling," he answered in his deepest bass voice, "to drown the barking of my shins."

DOG AND BLIND MAN

"A dog never becomes really attached to a blind man," That was the really astounding statement a dog expert made the other day. Asked how he could prove that to be true, and, if so, why was it true, he asserted that a dog loves and understands more than anything else the eye of his master. And he said, quite truly, that the dog, worshiping his master, always look up into his face. The expert agreed that it was quite possible that a dog should, when he had gone blind, still show affection, but that it was impossible for a seeing dog, who had never seen the eye of his owner, to become really attached to him. He would be a faithful, willing slave, but there would not be the real deep affection.

Washington, Feb. 19.—(By Canadian Press).—The senate again Sherman, Republican, setting himself up as a person who knew things, and who had enlisted federal government political interests in his son, Edsel, was a man of military training. "And I may say," he said, "that I regard it as an international movement, more useful matter than the war, in the world of time and substance. Senator Sherman had acquired 2000 acres of land for a new plant, an act which, in the eyes of the public, is a gross violation of the law. He said the court had had purpose of a minor child. "The government continued," he said, "has no right to interfere with the private property of a citizen. It continues promoting his interests and politically."

Mr. James White, commission of conservation, introduced the valuable trade on the fur trade on which Montreal would probably have west than Lake Superior exports of furs to Montreal. The value of the fur trade is estimated at $13,800,000 in 1919.

The great need of the fur trade is to have steps never take all fur bearing animals be totally extinct. Conservationists are regular trappers, and men who never have value of skins. ### CALLS HENRY FORD INTERNATIONAL PEST

Senator Says Government Has Become Philanthropic Institute for His Benefit.

Washington, Feb. 19.—Henry Ford and all his works were attacked in the senate again today by Senator Sherman, Republican, Illinois.

Setting himself up as "one of those persons who knew everything instinctively from birth," Senator Sherman said Mr. Ford had reared "a financial Mo'och," had secured congressional aid in acquiring and improving land for private purposes, and had enlisted the services of the federal government in promoting his political interests in Michigan, while his son, Edsel, was making good his escape from military draft.

"And I may say," added the senator, "that I regard the Ford automobile as an international pest. It destroys more useful material than any other machine in the world. It is a waste of time and substance."

Senator Sherman declared Ford had acquired 2000 acres of land along the Rouge River, in Michigan, in 1917, for a new plant, and then had induced congress to appropriate $400,000 for the river's improvement in order to give right to eminent domain by which adjoining land might be condemned. He said the courts had made "this great philanthropist" double the price he had proposed paying to the estate of a minor child for one tract of land.

"The government at best," he continued, "has become a philanthropic institution for the benefit of Mr. Ford. It continually is engaged in promoting his interests financially and politically."

CANADA MAY BECOME LEADING FUR MARKET

Montreal Would Be the Trade Centre—Must Protect Animals.

Montreal, Que., Feb. 19.—C. C. Jones, chairman of the fur industry and wild life conference, which began today under the auspices of the commission on conservation of the advisory board on wild life protection, stated that Canada will soon become one of the leading fur markets of the world, and Montreal may once more become the great centre of the fur trade.

Mr. James White, chairman of the commission on conservation, pointed out the valuable influence of the fur trade on the development of Canada, without which British colonization would probably have never gone farther west than Lake Superior. Canada's exports of furs to the United States has increased from $1,800,000 in 1915 to $13,800,000 in 1919.

Protect the Animals.
The great need for protection of animals was urged by Dr. Bryce. It steps were not taken in this direction all fur-bearing animals would soon be totally extinct, owing to their abnormal destruction not only by regular trappers, but by hundreds of men who never hunted before. The value of skins has increased enormously. A mink once worth only forty cents, is now valued at between $12 to $28, and a muskrat, which was once bought for twelve cents, is now bought for $5.50. It was urged that trapping licenses should be issued.

WORKMEN AND TROOPS CLASH NEAR GENOA

London, Feb. 19.—Serious fighting between workmen and troops in the industrial region about Genoa is reported in a Central News despatch from Rome under Wednesday's date. Many casualties occurred during the disturbances.

The trouble took place at the Arsaldo factory and at factories in San Pier d'Arena, Cornigliano, Sestri, Levante and other places, where the workmen fought the police and soldiers all day long. The troops eventually gained upper hand, cleared the factories and established armed guards.

The trouble apparently arose through the announcement of the owners that wages would be temporarily reduced. The workmen refused to accept the proposal and the owners closed the factories.

For More Publicity on Work Of the Peace Conference

London, Feb. 19.—The provincial newspaper conference, which met here today under the chairmanship of Viscount Burnham, adopted a resolution urging the necessity of greater publicity regarding the work of the peace conference. The resolution protested against the facilities granted the French press, which were withheld from the British. A copy was handed to Premier Lloyd George with the request that he present it to the conference.

What Women in Their "Forties" Need

BY A SPECIALIST.

Many women approach the critical changing period of their lives that comes between the ages of forty and fifty, unmindful of its tremendous importance to their future health and happiness. Not understanding the functional changes taking place in their bodies, they work beyond their strength, often break down, become nervous wrecks, their bodies suffering with fatigue and their weakened nerves trembling at every step. Often in their weakened condition capillary hemorrhage becomes excessive, this condition compelling them to take to their beds from nervous exhaustion.

What these women need is something that will instantly relieve the pressure on the overworked nerve centres and give them the vitality to stand up under the gruelling strain. Wonderfully effective results are often given in such conditions by the simple use of Ferro-Pepine, a skillful combination of six of the best nerve-vitalizing elements known to modern chemistry. This little tablet contains no dangerous habit-forming drugs and are entirely harmless in their action. Thousands of women can testify that Ferro-Pepine strengthens the faded nerves, revives the tired brain and puts the energy and courage into the body that enables one to stand up under the unusual strain of the changing period. Ferro-Pepine has to do these things or it costs nothing, as all druggists sell it on a positive guarantee of relief or money back.

Prince Tells of Meeting Cornishmen in Toronto

London, Feb. 19.—Presiding at the annual dinner of Cornishmen in London, the Prince of Wales, who is also the Duke of Cornwall, said that the Association of Cornishmen was established to provide social intercourse between Cornishmen living in London.

"I think that is a little bit of camouflage," continued the prince, "because the association seems to have become an institution for providing lord mayors for London. There have been three in the last few years. At Toronto I had a very busy time and local Canadian authorities said there would be no chance of the Toronto Cornish Association coming to see me. This Canadian authority said, 'No,' but the Cornishman said 'Yes.' They presented me with a very kind address and I had the pleasure of meeting about 50 Toronto Cornishmen."

Sir Charles Henson replied to the toast proposed by the prince. He is also one of the former Cornish lord mayors of London and well known in Canadian financial circles.

HAVE OCCUPIED CITY IN AMUR DISTRICT

Revolutionary Forces From Vladivostok Took the Place Without Fighting.

Vladivostok, Feb. 19.—A revolutionary expedition from Vladivostok and Nikolai occupied Harborovsk, an important city in the Amur district, and General Kalmikoff's headquarters, Tuesday afternoon, according to an announcement by the revolutionary staff here. The troops occupied the city without fighting, the announcement said.

The commander of the revolutionary forces reported as follows: "Kalmikoff is in hiding, whereabouts unknown. The population met our troops with enthusiasm. The city was decorated with red flags. Upon demand a Japanese armored train was turned over to the revolutionists; eight of Malhiokoff's officers were hiding on the train. I report once more that I do not need the help of the allies in policing the railroad and telegraph lines."

Japanese are the only foreign troops in the Harborovsk district. Vladivostok remains quiet.

DRUG PROBE FINDS MORE USING OPIUM

Shatter Charge That Soldiers Are Users—Think Habit in Canada Will Lessen.

Ottawa, Feb. 19.—(Canadian Press.)—Emphatic refutation of the charge that returned soldiers were to any large extent responsible for the deplorable increase in the use of opium and other habit-forming drugs, was made today by the federal health department, which body is conducting a thoro probe into the drug business in Canada.

Some astounding facts have been brought to light by the department since it took over the operation of the act concerning opium and habit-forming drugs two months ago. Less than fifty per cent of the drugs used in Canada are necessary.

Another, and still more astonishing fact is that children on the streets of at least one large Canadian city have been given drugs, with the object of leading them to become drug fiends.

"There is, it was stated, no doubt that the drug-using habit has been on the increase in Canada during the past year or two, but we believe the limit has been reached."

MUST ANNUL TRIAL OF FRYATT MURDERERS

Berlin, Feb. 19.—Examination of the official text of the last allied note sent to the German government relative to the trial of men accused of war crimes, showed that a significant passage was omitted from the Paris version published here on Tuesday afternoon. This passage refers to a stipulation by the allies that previous verdicts at trials of German war offenders must be annulled, and that they be remanded for new trials.

This provision, The Freiheit says, means the reopening of the Fryatt case, in which a German commission decided the execution of Fryatt, captain of a British merchantman, was not a violation of international law. The conservative pan-Germanic press unites in rejecting the allied note as wholly unacceptable, and The Tageblatt expressed the belief it is "a halting place on the road leading to revision of the Versailles treaty."

The majority of the farmers complain bitterly of the shortage of labor and the high wages they are forced to pay, and declare they will reduce or suspend production, because they do not propose to labor from fourteen to sixteen hours daily to supply the necessities of life to "highly-paid, short-hour urban resident consumers."

VIENNA PAPERS OBJECT TO SIZE OF COMMISSION

Vienna, Feb. 19.—Recent reports stating the allied commission coming to this city would number some 1,200 men have led to a storm of protest from newspapers here. It is pointed out the commission will require at least 600 hotel rooms and 200 automobiles, and that gasoline is so scarce in Vienna that the city is unable to operate its motor ambulances. Demands that the government request the allies to reduce the size of the mission have been made by several journals.

H. Lemay, a large lumber exporter, this morning told the lumbermen's convention here that there was absolutely no need for any alarm. Canada, he said, could not use one-fifth of what she produced, and if the exportation was stopped it would simply mean the closing down of most of the lumber mills.

THE HERRICK GOLD MINES, LIMITED

Incorporated Under the Ontario Companies Act (No Personal Liability)

A Property of Great Promise

SPECIAL OFFERING OF 100,000 SHARES AT 40C PER SHARE

Authorized Capital $2,000,000---Shares $1.00 Each
1,000,000 Shares Reserved for the Treasury

Those who are conversant with world financial conditions are predicting an extended period of great prosperity for the gold mining industry. There are several reasons to justify this view. Perhaps the most notable one contributing to the importance of gold has resulted from war conditions. The world's supply of paper money has been increased enormously in proportion to gold reserves. This has brought about a depreciation in the value of paper money, which is reflected in no uncertain terms by the present chaotic condition of the foreign exchanges.

To return to a sound financial basis it will be necessary to replace a large amount of paper with gold. The British Government have already arranged to replace with gold 20,000,000 pounds sterling of paper money. Gold is at a substantial premium in Great Britain for this reason. It is also at a premium in Canada equivalent to the premium on American money. The demand for the yellow metal is so great that it may lead to the placing of a bonus on the production of new gold. A bonus of $10 an ounce has already been proposed.

Furthermore the costs of producing are steadily declining. The position of the gold mining industry will become more favorable as time goes on. Gold mining investments of merit offer most excellent inducements from an investment and speculative standpoint.

In recommending the purchase of shares in the Herrick Gold Mines we are thoroughly satisfied that the property will develop into an important gold producer, yielding substantial profits to its shareholders.

We are particularly impressed with the results from preliminary exploration. The main vein is strong and exceptionally well-defined on the surface for 1,000 feet. It has been stripped for this distance. Channel samples give assays showing a remarkably even distribution of gold and excellent values. This is one of the best indications that the ore-body reaches to great depth. Diamond-drilling which has been carried on to a depth of 800 feet clearly indicates that the vein continues to great depth and carries consistent values in gold over a substantial width. In a property comprising 275 acres, many other veins will, no doubt, be found to exist. Development will greatly enhance its possibilities.

A mining plant now being put in place will be ready for the carrying on of aggressive and extensive opening up of the large body of ore already indicated by shaft-sinking and diamond-drilling. These operations, we confidently anticipate, will put the company in possession of ore reserves sufficiently large to warrant the erection of a mill within a few months.

We express this opinion, because we consider it simply a question of opening up a large tonnage of ore practically proven to a depth of 800 feet. Therefore we do not hesitate to recommend the purchase of Herrick shares. We regard the price of 40 cents a share as very moderate in view of the excellent exploration already done. As the offering is limited to 100,000 shares at 40 cents a share, we advise placing orders early.
