COUNTY OF LINCOLN.

This County is bounded on the north by Lake Ontario ; on the east by the Niagara river ; on the south by Welland and Haldimand counties, and on the west by Wentworth county. It contains fourteen municipalities, viz : The townships of Caistor, Clinton, Gainsboro', Grantham, North and South Grimsby, Louth and Niagara ; the town of Niagara ; the villages of Grimsby, Merritton, Beamsville and Port Dalhousie ; and the city of St. Catharines.

The County is watered by numerous small creeks and streams, some of which afford ample water power for mills and factories. It is also admirably situated for agricultural purposes, the greater portion of it being elevated, on a high table land, having a limestone base with a good depth of soil above it ; the surface is generally undulating, forming a succession of hill and dale. Being situated between two large bodies of water, Lakes Erie and Ontario, it is less liable to suffer from late and early frosts than many other portions of the Province ; hence it has long been celebrated as a fruit raising district.

The County is intersected by the main line of the Great Western division of the Grand Trunk Railway, which enters it at the west border, near Jordan Station, and passing through Louth and Grantham, passes out on the south line at Merritton ; the Welland Railway, running from Port Dalhousie south and passing out at Merritton, on the south line ; and the Niagara Division of the Michigan Central Railway, running from Niagara south to the International Bridge, and leaving the County on its south border near St. Davids. Through this County also runs the Welland Canal, that great work of engineering skill which has overcome the difficulty thrown in the way of the navigation of the great lakes by the Falls of Niagara.

The County of Lincoln originally formed part of the old Niagara District, which was comprised of the present counties of Lincoln, Haldimand and Welland. The Niagara District, in 1817, contained a population of 12,540 inhabitants ; in 1824 the number had increased to 17,552 ; in 1834 to 27,347 ; in 1839 to 29,953 ; and in 1848 to 36,534.

The area of the County is 107,501 acres. Population about 33,000.

COUNTY OF WELLAND.

This County is bounded on the north by Lincoln county ; on the east by the Niagara river ; on the south by Lake Erie ; and on the west by Lincoln and Haldimand counties. It contains fourteen municipalities, viz: The townships of Bertie, Crowland, Humberstone, Pelham, Stamford, Thorold, Wainfleet and Willoughby ; the towns of Niagara Falls, Thorold and Welland ; and the villages of Chippawa, Fort Erie and Pt. Colborne.

It is watered by the Welland river and numerous smaller streams, the former being the boundary between Pelham, Thorold and Stamford, on the north, and Wainfleet, Crowland and Willoughby, on the south. The soil is rich and varied, the Short Hills, in Pelham, being sandy and very fertile, and unequalled for horticultural purposes. There are also tracts of sandy loam in other portions, while for wheat growing there are no better lands than the clay soil of the county. In the south part is an extensive cranberry marsh of about 12,000 acres, which is being rapidly drained and improved.

The Welland Canal passes through the County, from north to south. The County is also traversed by the Grand Trunk, Canada Southern and Grand Trunk Air Line railways, running east and west, and the Welland Railway, running north and south parallel to the canal.

This County forms for parliamentary purposes part of two electoral districts, Welland and Monck ; but for judicial, municipal and registration matters it is undivided.

The County originally formed part of the old Niagara District, and was separated from Lincoln in 1856.

The area is about 200,000 acres, with a population of about 25,000.

ST. CATHARINES.

The city of St. Catharines, the county seat of Lincoln, is situated on a level plateau below the mountain, and is the centre of the most fertile and thickly settled agricultural districts of the Province. It is the principal point on the Welland Canal. A street railway connects the city with Merritton and Thorold.

The principal public buildings are the county buildings and court house, costing $32,000, the postoffice, St. Joseph's convent, Protestant home and refuge, marine hospital, grand central block, Allan block, Broadway block, Masonic temple, Academy of music, and the churches, which are mostly built of stone and brick, and finished after the most modern styles of architecture. The school buildings are also substantial brick structures.

The Grand Trunk railway (Great Western division) passes through the city, and the Welland division, running north and south, connecting with the Michigan Central, G. W. Air line, and the Buffalo and Goderich branch of the G. T. R. There is also a new line (the Niagara Central) to be built, connecting the city with Buffalo on the east and Toronto on the west.

Ship building is largely carried on here. The water power is largely made use of by some of the most extensive flour mills in the Province. In addition to these industries there are numerous other manufacturing establishments. There are two daily and two weekly newspapers.

The city is divided into six wards, viz: 1st, St. Thomas; 2nd, St. Andrews; 3d, St. George; 4th, St. Paul's; 5th, St. Patrick's 6th, St. James; each returning three aldermen to the city council. Population, about 10,000.

Distant from Toronto by water 33, by rail 72; Hamilton 32, Niagara Falls 12, and Buffalo 35 miles.
