...That... Preposterous ..Will..

BY L. G. MOBERLY.

(Continued.) "A—slavery—in a third class lodging-house," he repeated, pausing between each word. "Was my godfather quite off his head? Did he for a moment imagine that I should marry a girl of such a class, even for the sake of the biggest fortune on earth?"

"Mr. Haines was one of the sanest and shrewdest of men I ever had the pleasure of meeting," was the dry response; "and, as you know, Mr. Dayrell, he showed no sign of senile decay or of any mental incapacity up to the time of his last illness." Alan Dayrell smiled grimly as he said: "I must own he gave me the impression of being very sane when I last saw him."

CHAPTER III. As before arranged between Alan Dayrell and the lawyer, the young man called on Mr. Bray in the course of the same afternoon, to learn the result of the solicitor's investigations regarding Miranda's past. Mr. Bray's letter, after his visit to the street, had been of the briefest, given no description whatever of the girl's past life. Hoping that Miranda's claims might some way be proved null and void, he had refrained, in writing to the young man, from entering into any details about her; but now that such hopes were no longer to be entertained, nor that Miranda's position as Mr. Haines' lawful heiress was a matter of certainty, Mr. Bray made no attempt to put off Alan's evil hour, or to delay telling him the truth.

scarcely likely to resign her fortunes by marrying within the next three years, so that I may as well try to forget what might have been, and resign myself to the inevitable. By the way, what is this young woman like? It would be amusing to know by what manner of being I have been ousted.

"I will show you her worst side first," the lawyer began, when Dayrell interrupted him with a sarcastic laugh. "Can there be anything but a 'worst side?' he exclaimed; 'a saving clause would be impossible in such a connexion. A slavey?'"

"Very estimable qualities and very useful to her, any man that is pictured in a smart travelling coat, preferably one that shall cover up the costume completely, is a necessity. The experienced traveller who always limits her baggage to the smallest possible compass consistent with comfort and good dressing, be it understood, makes this travelling wrap one of the waterproof kind. When of such material—either one of the satin rubbers or some one or another of the waterproofed cloths that are sold under a variety of names—the wrap answers for many occasions. The smart one that is pictured in the rubber satin, and displays the familiar but none the less smart black and white check, varied by tiny hairlines in Dresden blue and scarlet, giving some life and character to the plain black and white background that is apt to become a trifle monotonous. The circular cut that is so much in vogue is followed, there being a bias seam down the centre back, and the double-breasted front cut after the same design. The sleeve is a plain coat pattern, and there are a convenient number of pockets inserted on the sides.

GOWN OF MAUVE COLORED MARQUETTE.

The illustration shows a gown of mauve marquette, the skirt being made with ribbon of the same color, threaded through eyelet holes embroidered in the silk. The sleeves were frills of lace, falling from under frills of the material, threaded with the satin ribbon. A band of lace outlined the yoke, which was of thinner lace, strapped with tiny bias bands of the silk, each band being held together in front by soft satin.

SENATORS WERE APPOINTED BY CABINET ON SATURDAY

Hon. John Costigan and Daniel Gilmor Appointed to the Senate for New Brunswick --- Hon. Geo. W. Ross and Robt. Beith the Choice for Ontario.

SENATOR DANIEL GILMOR.

SENATOR JOHN COSTIGAN.

OTTAWA, Jan. 13.—Four new senators were appointed at Saturday's cabinet meeting. The two Ontario vacancies were filled by the appointment of Hon. Geo. W. Ross, ex-premier of the province, and Robert Beith, who represented West Durham in the house of commons for the greater part of three terms. He succeeded the Hon. Edward Blake in the representation of the constituency in 1891.

W. G. Berrigan, chief baggage master for the C. P. R. at west St. John, left for Quebec Saturday evening for a week's visit to his family. He will return Friday.

TENNYSON SMITH IN FREDERICTON

He Declares War on Liquor Traffic and Says He Will Reform Eivils.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Jan. 13.—E. Tennysen Smith opened his temperance campaign in this city today and scored a big success. He spoke at the Opera House this afternoon and again this evening. Several hundred people were unable to gain admission at the evening meeting. At this afternoon's meeting Mr. Smith said his respects to Police Magistrate Marsh, who, he said, had offered some criticism of an impertinent nature in regard to his (Smith's) controversy with Magistrate Kay, of Moncton. Mr. Marsh has been credited with saying that he did not blame Smith so much as the committee that put the words in his mouth. He wanted it thoroughly understood that he allowed no committee to put words in his mouth and he alone was responsible for his utterances.

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

Always Stops the Cough

It combines the potent healing virtues of the pine tree with other absorbent, expectorant and soothing medicines of recognized worth, is absolutely harmless, prompt and safe. A cough is caused by the presence of phlegm in the throat and lungs, and continued coughing is liable to disorganize the bronchial tubes, congest the lungs and produce inflammation or hemorrhage. A neglected cough can have but one result. It leaves either the throat or lungs, or both, affected. A single dose of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will stop the cough, soothe the throat and heal the lungs. Read what Miss Nettie A. Sealey, Ashland, N.B., says: "I take much pleasure in recommending Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, for I have found it a very valuable remedy for coughs. My mother has used it in our family for a long time and whenever any of them get a cough, mother will say 'I will have to get some Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for I know it is good, and always stops the Cough when nothing else will'."

Insist on getting Dr. Wood's as it is the genuine, put up in yellow wrapper. Price 25 cents at all dealers. 5 pints cross the trade mark. A case of rifles was lost overboard on Friday morning from the C. P. R. steamer Montreal. When it was being landed on one of the trucks the strap gave way and the case fell between the steamer and wharf. Half the case was found floating by one of the steamship men with one rifle in it. The work of grappling for the rifles was started Saturday morning and by night fifteen were recovered from the bottom. Sunday morning about 3 o'clock a still alarm was sent in for a fire in a house owned by Richard Kiernan and occupied by him, Charles Bradley and George F. Brunton at 126 Main street. No. 2 chemical engine responded and the blaze was extinguished without much damage being done. The fire caught from a register grate.

There are two vacancies in the senate from Nova Scotia. They have not yet been filled. It is said that one of the positions will go to Hon. A. H. Comeau, a member of the Murray government without portfolio. The bill presented to parliament by the minister of the interior for the consolidation of the Dominion Lands Act, contains a provision that will meet with the thorough acceptance of settlers throughout western Canada. Owing to the enormous grants of agricultural lands made by the late government for the encouragement of railway construction in Manitoba and the Northwest, aggregating some 32,000,000 acres in all, the odd numbered sections have been tied up until the railways selected the particular lands that they preferred. This selection has now been completed in all but the region north of Lake Winnipeg, that was reserved for the Hudson Bay Line so that there is no longer any need of tying up the odd numbered sections that remain from settlement. The present bill declares accordingly that any of the odd numbered sections that have not already passed into the hands of the railways, shall be available hereafter for free homesteading. A glance at a map of the several railway land grants shows that there are no odd numbered sections remaining either in southern Manitoba or in southeastern Saskatchewan. The present step will, however, release a large area in both Alberta and Saskatchewan, well suited to cultivation, all of which will now be open to free homesteading. The government in the present bill adheres to its principle, "the land for the actual settler," but where homesteaders hereafter want to acquire by purchase unoccupied land adjoining the quarter section on which they have made their homes, the new law will allow them to buy what they need at a price not less

THE NEW SENATORS

The appointment of Messrs. Costigan and Gillmor to the senate vacancies has been so persistently foreboded in the Ottawa despatches that the event occasions no surprise. Nor was the appointment of Hon. George W. Ross of Ontario unexpected. It will be noted that both the Ontario men, Ross and Beith, are of Scotch parentage. Mr. Beith is a farmer and an importer of thoroughbred horses, and sat in the house of commons for nine years, 1891-1900 as the successor to Hon. Edward Blake. In 1900 he was defeated, but was re-elected in the by-election in 1902. The Hon. George W. Ross has been since the defeat of his government the nominal leader of the opposition in the Ontario legislature, but for some time past there has been much talk in the Toronto press regarding a possible successor. Such an one must now be found. The new appointments bring to the senate two men of very long parliamentary experience—Messrs. Ross and Costigan. Mr. Gillmor has yet to prove his mettle as a legislator. It has been said that New Brunswick should have a larger representation in the senate by men who actually live in the province. The new appointments do not remove this cause of complaint, if so it may be termed.

THE TARIFF

Touching tariff matters, the Montreal Shareholder observes: "Strong representations have been made to the finance minister, by those whose interests are affected, with a view to obtain increased protection, and some changes will be made where justice has been unjustifiably done, but otherwise the government measure as introduced will be enacted. The manufacturers are filled with orders, so much so that they are unable to meet the requirements of the country. Under such circumstances, it is in the interest of the consumers that the duties on goods imported to meet the circumstances under the British preferential tariff should be such as will not press unduly upon the consumers, and should be such as will meet the revenue requirements of the country. The tariff commission has acquired a valuable amount of information bearing upon all matters connected with the industrial and other situations of the country, and fully understands not only what there is needed, but what will be advantageous. The different interests which were heard by the commission will speak through their representatives in the house. The discussion should be freed entirely from political bias and should have as its aim the enactment of a tariff which will confer the greatest good upon the greatest number."

FOR STOUT GENTLEMEN

From Notre Dame, Indiana, comes a welcome reminder of an old friend. The Rev. A. B. O'Neill, C. S. C., formerly of St. Joseph's University, but now assistant editor of The Ave Maria, published in Notre Dame, once wrote for a college paper a bright and breezy treatise entitled, "Trying a Fall with Obesity," taking for his text the line from Thompson: "A bard here dwelt, more fat than bard becomes." This treatise has now been issued in pamphlet form with an introduction by the distinguished Dr. J. S. Vaughan, editor of Westminster, who comments it to be "especially to persons oppressed with an abnormal weight of superfluous adipose matter." "Let such as these," he says, "walk in our author's footsteps, and they will soon be relieved of their burden." The essay is written in colloquial style, and describes the (then) corpulent author's "somewhat arduous, progressively enjoyable, and measurably successful half-year's campaign against the world, the flesh and the devil—the world of totally unsympathetic, not to say cynical and scoffing, onlookers; the flesh that comes with unwelcome superabundance to most middle-aged folk in sedentary professions; and the 'noon-day' devil of whom the Palmist makes special mention, the particular infernal fiend who tempts to gastronomic over-indulgence and subsequent slothful ease, to physical inertia and mental vacuity." With this racy introduction the author sets forth with scientific accuracy the dangers as well as discomforts of too much flesh; tells of his own awakening to a realizing sense of the fact that 296 pounds was too much weight for a man five feet six and a half inches tall; and of the measures by which he reduced his weight to 154 pounds, with great joy and comfort to himself. It was largely a matter of daily long walks, hot baths and exercise. All this is most entertainingly forth, with colloquial touches that appeal to the underling mind, and in a vein of humor that is very delightful. The writer of this review remembers with keen pleasure a voyage some years ago from Liverpool to Rimouski, with Rev. Father O'Neill as a fellow-passenger. The latter was the "chaplain" of a group of Canadians at table together during the voyage. Dr. Parkin was also a passenger. Father O'Neill was returning from a summer jaunt in Europe, to his labors at St. Joseph's, and he was one of the entertainers at the customary concert given on the steamer before her arrival in the St. Lawrence, reciting a metrical composition from his own clever pen. And so this treatise, though the recipient has not been able, in the course of a varied journalistic career, to accumulate too much of anything but experience, is as welcome as if he had converted that experience into superfluous adipose tissue.

With the new steamship berth, the gas enquiry, the new armory, the new Y. M. C. A. building, the talk resulting from some real estate transactions, and sundry other matters of general interest the year has opened in St. John with promise of notable developments from the standpoint of civic betterment before its close. The citizens are hopeful and there is a healthier feeling abroad.

The trouble between church and state is becoming acute in Spain as well as in France. The general situation presents hitherto unexpected difficulties. The pope describes it as "war between the clergy and hell," and "a tremendous conflict against the church," and appeals to the Catholic world to remain firm in its faith and sympathy in this trying time.

Now that the senatorships are removed from the list of possibilities the governorship may be considered. Is the globe about to nominate Premier Tweedie?

Mr. Andrew Allan agrees with Mr. Arthur Piers that the proposal to have a fast Atlantic service via Blackhead Bay, in Ireland, is impracticable. It would involve too many transfers en route.

There is perhaps no topic of such universal interest in Halifax at present as the tides in St. John harbor. These tides, it may be pointed out, are very useful. They prevent the formation of ice.

Fredricton has now become the centre of interest in the Tennyson Smith campaign, and a lively time seems to be assured.

SLOT MACHINES SEIZED

People of Chelsea Mich. Revolted Against Gambling Devices in Saloons. CHELSEA, Mich., Jan. 12—State treasurer, Frank P. Glazier, who is president of this village, with the city marshal and a deputy sheriff, today headed a party of 200 molders from Mr. Glazier's stove factory, in a raid on the eight saloons of the village to secure all the slot machines operated in them. A total of fourteen machines were captured and carried to the village jail. Then, under the direction of his father, Harold Glazier, attacked the machines with a sledge and broke them to pieces. The debris was burned.

SACKVILLE

SACKVILLE, Jan. 11—The marriage of Miss Janet Brownell, of Bain Veale, and John R. Maxwell, of Glace Bay, Sydney, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Brownell, on Wednesday at 2:30 p. m.; Rev. J. H. Brownell was the officiating clergyman. The bride looked charming in a becoming dress of cream cologne, with lace trimmings. She wore the conventional bridal veil, and was given in marriage by her father. Miss Agnes Prescott played the wedding march. The parlors were tastefully decorated for the event and presented an attractive appearance. After the ceremony and congratulations a bountiful luncheon was served after which the happy couple took the train for their future home in Sydney, amid showers of rice and good wishes. The bride was the recipient of many elegant presents including cut glass, silver, etc. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Anderson, of Middle, was the scene of an interesting event on Wednesday evening, when their daughter, Alice Maude, was united in marriage to Wm. Johnston. Rev. J. L. Dawson tied the nuptial knot in the presence of a large number of guests. The bride was becomingly gowned in white tulle, and was unattended. After the ceremony a wedding supper was served. Mr. and Mrs. Johnston will reside at Cadman's Corner. A. F. Tomlin, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Port Elgin; Mrs. Tomlin and daughter, were in town today en route from a visit at Campbellton. R. C. Williams, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Sackville, and Mrs. Williams, have returned from a pleasant visit at P. E. Island. Lebanon Lodge, F. and A. M., were entertained at Sackville restaurant last evening by Stewart Campbell and E. A. Wilson. After a delicious oyster stew had been dispensed, speeches were in order. Among the speakers were Messrs. Goodwin, Turner, Jordan, Wilson and P. B. Black. The singing of Auld Lang Syne brought the pleasant gathering to a close. Westernized parish Sunday school convention was recently held at Point de Bute. Field Secretary, Rev. J. B. Ganong, was present and gave some valuable suggestions. Rev. R. J. Colpitts gave an interesting address. The officers of the association for the ensuing year were elected, resulting as follows: President, Frank Trueman; vice-president, Leonard Goodwin; secretary, Grace Carter; additional members of the executive, Bushy Oulton, Joseph Dixon and Howard Trueman.

QUEEN'S ROLLAWAY

At the Queen's Rollaway there is a band tonight. Tomorrow night is "Ladies' night," and Wednesday night, between the 5th and 6th bands there will be a 40 yards dash between O'Neill of the St. Peter's Society and Small, of the St. Peter's Society. These two men raced in the St. Andrew's Rink a week ago, but the ending was rather unsatisfactory and since then the friends of both have been arguing as to which is the best man. In order that there will be no chance for criticism, as in the previous race, "allies" will be run the entire length, and as the Queen's Rollaway is about 88 yards in length there will be ample room to finish, and the question of superiority should be settled Wednesday night.

THE GREAT DIVIDE

At last, at last, O Great Divide, Born strong of the will of the strong New World, We bow to the summit with the shafts of morn, To the top-most peak where the clouds are curled, Below in the splendor of the sun-clad seas, A kiss of welcome on the warm West breeze blows up with a smile on the fragrant Elysian, And a faint sweet fragrance from the far-off seas. —Joachim Miller.

IN LIGHTER VEIN THE MOTOR BOGIE. "Why are you teaching your little boy to count already? Surely he is much too young for that yet." "Oh, no, he isn't; I am teaching him so that he can take the number of a motor car if one runs over him."

SUPERSTITIOUS. Wife—Aren't you ashamed to come home like this at 2 o'clock in the morning? Husband—Don't be cross, dear, I really couldn't help it. We were unfortunately hit at table, and nobody wanted to be the first to go.

EXPECTED TOO MUCH. Warden (to female prisoner sentenced to death)—Is there anything else you would like to have? Prisoner—Yes, I would like my execution dress to be made by Worth.

QUITE ANOTHER STUD. "Browne must be very well off. You should hear him talking about his racing stud!" "Not at all, old chap. He means the stud that rolls under his dressing table and causes him to race for his morning train."—Ally Sloper's Half Holiday.

WHAT HE WANTED. Customer—Have you any white outing flannel suits on hand? Tailor—Yes, but great Scott, man, this is summer. Customer—I know it isn't, but the weather man is predicting a cold wave.—Florida Times-Union.

ANOTHER GOOD TIME AT EVERY DAY CLUB

Saturday Night's Programme Most Enjoyable — Temperance Meeting Last Night. The Every Day Club continues to grow in popularity at a rapid rate and the efforts of the committee to provide comfortable rooms and good entertainment for the men of the city are being fully appreciated. On Saturday evening the attendance was larger than on any previous evening, and every seat in the large hall was occupied by men who heartily enjoyed themselves. The social programme was a brilliant entertainment and committees will be appointed for carrying on the work which has been so well begun. One of the best features of the programme Saturday night was the physical drill exhibition given by some of the members of the Scotch Country Boys' Club, under command of Col. Buchanan. The floor space was rather circumscribed, but the lads moved in perfect union and were rewarded with generous applause. A large part of the numbers on the programme were Scotch. H. V. McKinnon played a fine selection of Scotch airs on the piano. Ald. Baxter gave a Scotch reading and Rev. L. A. McLean sang Will Ye No Come Back Again, and Annie Lawrie, in excellent style. Rupert E. Walker also gave a fine reading. After the programme, the boys gathered round the piano and held a sing-song. The reading and game room was well filled with men during the evening who spent the night in the most enjoyable manner provided for their entertainment. Mayor Sears presided at the very interesting temperance meeting held from 8:30 until 9:30 in the hall of the Every Day Club last evening, the first of a series of such Sunday evening meetings. These were people present from various churches, and the large number of young men was commented on by the chairman and speakers. His Worship led the meeting in the Lord's Prayer, after which he delivered a very interesting brief address. Then the audience sang Onward Christian Soldiers, and Mrs. R. T. Worden sang Just For Today. Robert Maxwell, M. P. P., was the speaker of the evening, and delivered of his own knowledge and experience of life of men a most impressive and eloquent appeal for total abstinence, and for sympathy with the man who is down. Miss Edwards sang a sacred solo, and A. M. Holding, speaking on behalf of the Every Day Club, referred to some criticisms, and asked that those connected with the club be given a fair chance to work out their problem in their own way. Mayor Sears referred in kindly terms to Rev. A. B. Coho, who was present, and asked him to say a few words. Mr. Coho spoke of the great opportunity for work to help men, which the Every Day Club offers. The meeting closed with the singing of the doxology. Mrs. Coho played the accompaniment for the music rendered during the meeting.

A COMEDY BILL AT KEITH'S

This week's bill at St. John's popular vaudeville theatre is advertised as one of the best, special attention having been given in its selection to comedy, singing, dancing and instrumental work. This change, from a period of the mysterious and the psychic, which was provided last week to the other extreme of light amusement, is all a part of the Keith entertainment scheme to ascertain as far as possible the tastes and wishes of their patrons. In this week's programme there is included a few bits of almost everything. In Nevada and Howard, there is both comedy and wire walking demonstration. In the sketch by Morgan and West, two well known comedians, there will be comedy galore. Singing and dancing and clever dialogue will be particularly strong for both Cunningham and Fowley have the reputation of being in the foremost rank in their line. An extra and special attraction has been included in the shape of Kimball and Donovan, high class banjoists. There are banjo players and banjo masters, and Kimball and Donovan claim the latter title, and no one will dispute this honor after hearing them. The Ford Sisters present a very pretty quick change dancing act. Another feature act will be the La Favor Bros. and Creco, who also stand high as first class comedy acrobats. As usual, in all Keith houses, the entertainment will open with travel views and close with the Bioscope animated pictures, of which there will be an entirely new series.

WASHINGTON SOCIETY IS NOT AS BLACK AS IT HAS BEEN REPRESENTED

Although Not as Chaste as Ice or as Pure as Snow it is Not as Vulgar Nor as Blatant as Some Would Have it -- General News of the American Capital.

(From our regular correspondent.) WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 10. Washington is now in the middle of the social season and while society, as it is called, is not "as chaste as ice and pure as snow," it is neither so vulgar nor so blatant as it is often represented in the newspapers. Where so many people are gathered together from all parts of the country and so variously educated it is not possible that all doubtful elements should be eliminated, but as far as society in this country can be represented, by the most influential, Washington society may easily lay claim to the title that the country provides. That it is rapidly organizing a class that is exclusive in the sense that the societies of Europe are, it is not true; that it is becoming exclusive of the sensational and notorious, and, to an extent, of the merely common, place and vulgar rich, is certainly true, and is a refutation of those pessimists who have predicted that social distinction in this country would always be estimated and measured by money alone. It has been a newspaper fashion of late years in publishing the escapades of people in Washington to state that the person referred to was a "leader of Washington society." If a girl who gave Washington her name place killed a man in a cab she was immediately referred to as a "Washington society woman." If a notorious woman roped an old and senile emcee into marriage it added immensely to the piquancy of the news if she had been "prominent in the best circles." If an obscure woman leaped into notoriety by suing some South American for breach of promise she immediately, according to the newspapers, had been the "intimate guest of the White House and the most admired of the smart set." While it is true that a few, and a very few, of that class of fashionable women of Washington have committed indiscretions that have involved them in newspaper notoriety the public should be as wary of believing that the newspapers' heroines are fashionable and influential at the capital, as it is of the reputation for beauty with which the papers have endeavored to make up for its lack in largely of the wives and daughters of public officials, are for that very reason more apt to be circumspect or more carefully guarded from indiscretion by their husbands and fathers. The society of all large cities in this country is a little more daring and risqué than any other, but it is not a prominent one in Washington. Important modifications of the Chinese exclusion act are under consideration by the congressional committee having charge of the investigation of immigration and emigration, against a too rigorous enforcement of the law and it is possible that before the end of the session some changes may be made in that regard. A new proposition has been made by the sub-committee providing that inspectors shall be established at Canton and other Chinese centres for the examination of Chinese who intend coming to this country and that Chinese in the United States desiring to visit their native land may be permitted on condition that they produce certificates of residence here. All Chinese other than teachers, students, merchants or travelers will be compelled to apply to the bureau of commerce for certificates of residence within a year. All failing to do so after that time will be regarded as unlawfully within the country and will be deported. The bill will be presented to the lower house of congress this week and it is believed that its effect on the Chinese government will be a mollifying one.

John Rhea, a well known merchant in this city died this morning at half past three o'clock at his residence 18 Mill street. Mr. Rhea had been ill only since Friday and his death, which was caused by heart failure will be learned with regret by his many friends.

Mr. Rhea came to this city about 17 years ago from Pennsylvania and since that time has resided here. He first opened up a grocery business in the old building on Waterloo street and conducted it about two years when he engaged in the liquor business on Mill street and built a store and residence thereon. Since building he was engaged in the liquor business on Mill street for a time also conducted the business on Union street where he finally sold to J. McMillin.

Mr. Rhea married a Miss Lawlor, a daughter of William Lawlor, of Brookville, who was engaged in the time business for years.

Mr. Rhea was born in Yorkville, Eng., and intended returning to the old country in the spring. Besides his wife the deceased is survived by one son, William and a daughter, Angela.

Robert Lowerson SACKVILLE, Jan. 12--The death of Robert Lowerson occurred last evening at the home of Ernest Carter, after a week's illness of apoplexy. Deceased was fifty-six years old, a son of the late Nathan Lowerson. He was a very estimable person, and possessed of more than ordinary ability and his death is a distinct loss to the community. Funeral takes place tomorrow afternoon. Rev. B. N. Nobles will officiate.

A LITTLE GIRL'S COMPLAINT Twelve-year-old Annie Ferris tearfully complained at the north end police station on Saturday evening that a man had chased her and used indecent language to her; and as a result Robert McDonald was arrested by Sergeant Kilpatrick and Policeman Corbett. McDonald is 44 years of age and was employed on the dredge Galveston.

THE REVOLUTION IS OVER SAN SALVADORE, Republic of Salvador, Jan. 12--A despatch received here from Honduras says that the president of Honduras has informed the president of Nicaragua that the Honduran revolutionary general, Dioneseo Gutierrez, and a number of his companions have been captured and dispersed in Chomeselo by the Nicaraguan authorities and the revolution is therefore at an end.

A SILK MILL BURNED PATTERSON, N. J., Jan. 12--Fire tonight damaged the Doherty silk mill to the extent of about $50,000, covered by insurance. The firemen in fighting the blaze straddled several lines of hose across the Erie railway tracks. Thousands of commuters on their way home from work were subjected to a delay of about two hours.

OBITUARY Benj. A. Everett Frederickton, N. B., Jan. 13--Benjamin A. Everett, a widely known and respected citizen, died at his boarding house, Windsor Hall, this morning. He had been in failing health since last October. Heart trouble was the cause of his death.

Deceased was born at Kingsclear, seven-and-a-half years ago, and resided there up to 1889 when he came to this city. He purchased Long's Hotel from the late George Hume, its proprietor for a number of years. In 1903 he removed to Wood street and remained there up to last year, when he returned to this city. Deceased was a staunch liberal in politics and always took an active interest in public affairs. He represented the parish of Kingsclear in the municipal council for several terms, and was at one time warden of the county. After removing to this city he interested himself in civic politics, and was elected alderman for Carleton ward, holding the seat for three years. In religion he was a Baptist, and has for a number of years been a deacon in the Brunswick street church of this city. All his life he was a firm advocate of temperance, and rendered good service to the cause during his residence in this city. He had a wide acquaintance in the counties of York and Carleton and many old friends will learn of his death with much regret.

A family of two sons and five daughters survive, they are Albert E., proprietor of Windsor Hall; Ernest, in St. Louis; Mrs. Fred Burpee, Jacksonville, Carleton county; Mrs. D. R. Pierce, Providence (R. I.); Mrs. J. J. Leatham, Winthrop (Maine); Mrs. Ward Burpee, Woodstock, and Miss Carrie Everett, of Norwich (Conn.). He also leaves two brothers, Zebulon R. and Alfred Everett of this city, and a sister, Mrs. Julia Thompson, of Danver (Col.). The funeral will probably take place on Tuesday.

Capt. F. F. Uniacke Halifax, N. S., Jan. 13--A profound impression was created in Halifax today when it was learned that Francis Fitzgerald Uniacke, captain in the Royal Canadian Regiment, was dead. He had been a pall-bearer at the funeral of Major O'Leary, last Saturday.

Capt. Uniacke's death was the result of an attack of pneumonia and pleurisy. Four days before, during the mild weather, he went out without his overcoat and caught cold. It developed into pneumonia, the progress of which was rapid and death came this morning.

The Greatest of All Clothing Sales Is Now On At Oak Hall

Saturday the greatest January Clothing Sale ever held in St. John opened with a rush and a crush at Oak Hall. From 8 o'clock in the morning until 11 at night the store was crammed jammed full of eager buyers--and all this in face of the fact that nearly all the other stores in the city were crying sales. Our first duty is to make apology to those who could not be waited upon promptly. With many special salesmen added to our regular force, it was at times impossible to give customers immediate attention. We will, however, be prepared for you this week with extra additions to our special force of sales people, and can safely promise more satisfactory service. We feel, however, that this shortcoming will be readily excused when account is taken of the amount of business done.

It would appear that the public are looking into the matter very carefully, and buying Clothing and Furnishings only after thorough investigation. The secret of the great success of the sale is not in the extent of the savings alone. The character of the Clothing and the vast stocks are very important factors.

Sale Continues All This Week. COME!

BUILDING OF LOCOMOTIVES

Industry Revived in Toronto by the Canada Foundry Company.

(From Toronto Globe)

It is nearly fifty years since the Goode Iron Foundry on Sherbourne street, the chief manufactory of the east end of Toronto, and turned out locomotives that were the subject of extreme, if local, pride.

Respectfully and other causes combined to put the Goode Foundry out of business, and for nearly fifty years the art of locomotive building was a lost one.

Two years ago the enterprising directors of the Canada Foundry Company determined to revive, if possible, the old art and practice and adapt it to the new and modern conditions.

The first locomotive was turned out of the shops about a year and a half ago. The inspection of the railway people failed to reveal a flaw, and the success of the Canada Foundry Company as a builder of the highest class of locomotives was assured.

Now the new comes that the locomotive construction by this concern has grown to such important dimensions that it is necessary to build a special shop to carry on this branch of the business, and the site of a locomotive works in the industrial expansion of the country.

Locomotives have been supplied to the James Bay Railway Company, the Canadian Northern Railway Company, and the Canadian Pacific Railway Company. Thus, after half a century, the fame of Toronto as the site of a locomotive works is revived on a most comprehensive scale.

FIGHTING EXTRADITION

Dr. Flower Will Not Return to New York Without a Struggle.

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—Detective Sergeant McConnell, of the district attorney's office, who was sent to Philadelphia after Dr. Richard C. Flower, under arrest as a fugitive from justice from New York, returned to the city today and reported that Flower was fighting extradition, on the ground that he was not in this state when the alleged offenses with which he is charged occurred.

Flower, who is said to have swindled the stockholders of the Arizona Escanaba & Development Co., of a sum of $22,000, when he disappeared in May, 1904, he was re-arrested in Philadelphia last week after a search extending almost around the world. There are five indictments against Flower in New York county.

Governor Penneybacker postponed the hearing in the extradition proceedings until next Monday.

ORGANIZER APPOINTED

TORONTO, Jan. 13.—(Special)—Ontario conservatives have appointed W. K. Sullivan, of Goddard, as organizer for Toronto. He will take charge at once.

Col. J. S. Long, U. S. immigration inspector here during the past two months, has been transferred to Montreal, where he will occupy a similar position. Frank P. Berlage, of Washington, has arrived to be his successor.

D. Arnold Fox, organist of St. John's Stone church, has decided not to become organist of the cathedral at Fredericton, and will remain in this city, his salary as organist of the Stone church being increased.

Ripples of Mirth. By WALTER WELLMAN

She—You're a brute. He—Yes? Well, you say I treat you like a dog.

Gertrude—I'm having an awful trial with my husband. He drinks something terrible.

Ellen—I never believed in these trial marriages, anyway.

Mamma—You should study to control yourself.

Lillian—Top don't. He's controlled by the trusts. Ain't he a Senator?

Grace—That mathematics professor has been making desperate love to me lately.

Mattie—I thought he claimed to be an authority on figures.

She—You treat me very badly of late George.

He—And only the other day you accused me of never treating you at all.

LATE LOCALS

The annual meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held on Tuesday afternoon at three o'clock in their rooms on Germain street. A full attendance is requested. Free Kindergarten Committee will hold a 5 o'clock tea on Saturday afternoon next in Glemis St. Baptist school room. Candy table will be provided.

The case against William O'Keefe, who was reported recently for having a light in his liquor saloon, after hours, will come up in the police court this afternoon. The regular monthly meeting of the common council is being held this afternoon. The reports of the various boards are being considered and the reports of civic officials on the work of the past year dealt with.

At Chubb's corner today Auctioneer Potts sold the property belonging to the estate of Sampson B. Manston, situated in Prince ward, for city taxes. The property was knocked down to E. T. C. Knowles for $200. The case of Terrence McMurray, who has been reported for having a door of communication between his liquor and grocery stores on Grand street, comes up for hearing in the police court this afternoon.

Rev. Herbert E. Thomas, of Moncton, gave an interesting address on the World's Problems yesterday afternoon in the Portland Methodist Y. M. C. There was a large number present and the address was enjoyed. The annual meeting of the Kentville Board of Trade will be held in the court house in that town tomorrow evening. The board, which is a very progressive one, with a fee of only one dollar per year, was organized in 1883, and has a large membership.

Lewis E. Tapley, of the customs department, this city, will leave for Ottawa tonight to attend a convention of the customs staff of Canada, which will meet at the Grand Union Hotel that city on January 16th. They will wait upon the minister of customs for the purpose of securing increased salaries for officers of all grades in the customs service. The Clark case will come up at the court house before Mr. Justice Landry tomorrow morning, when the prisoner will be sentenced, but from present information, it is altogether likely that J. B. M. Baxter, counsel for the defence, will make application to prevent the prisoner being taken from the county jail, should he appeal to the supreme court of the province.

There is every indication that the seating capacity of St. Andrew's church will be taxed to its utmost this evening at 8 o'clock, when the organ recital by Prof. Blair of Montreal will take place, assisted by leading vocal talent. This is sure to be a musical event of importance, as Prof. Blair is said to be second to no organist in Canada, being another instance of a New Brunswick boy making his mark in the world.

A HEAVY FINE FOR McDONALD Charged With Insulting a Little Girl He is Fined $50 or Three Months Jail.

There were but two prisoners on the long bench when the police court session opened this morning and very little time was taken up in disposing of them. Robert McDonald, charged with using indecent language to Annie Ferris and indulging in improper conduct was found guilty and fined $50 or three months in jail. The little Ferris girl appeared as a witness against him and told of his actions and the language he used to her. McDonald was severely censured by Judge Ritchie who told him that he ought to be ashamed of himself. John Quigley, charged with being drunk and stealing a lobster from P. A. Smith's fish market, on Sydney street, was fined $8 or two months for drunkenness, but was remanded on the second charge.

THE COLLINS TRIAL

Witnesses Left Today for Hopewell Cape. A number of witnesses subpoenaed for the Collins' trial left today for Hopewell Cape. They were Chief of Police Clark, Detective Killen, Maggie Lynch, Maggie Gogan, Joseph McCann, Dr. G. A. B. Addy, Douglas Spinney, William Hefferan, Daniel J. Buckley, Wm. Craig, Frank Krough and Wm. J. Dean. W. Dean has also been subpoenaed but, according to reports, he has left the country. As sixty jurymen have been summoned, it is expected that the accommodations of Hopewell Cape will be taxed to the utmost.

SMALLPOX IN CUMBERLAND

Chief Medical Officer Asks I. C. R. Authorities to Help Stamp Disease Out.

(Moncton Times, Saturday.) That the smallpox situation in Cumberland Co. is growing more serious and every means is being taken to prevent the disease spreading is evidenced by the visit to the city yesterday of Dr. Henry P. Clay, of Pugwash, who came to Moncton to consult with the I. C. R. authorities regarding the importance of some precaution being taken to prevent the dread disease spreading and at the same time not interfering with the train service in Cumberland. Dr. Clay, as chief health officer for the infected district, asked the authorities to place a constable on the train to guard against carrying people infected with the disease; to allow the health officers of Cumberland free transportation from station to station so that they could do the work of guarding the train. These requests, he says, have not been granted and it simply means that if any person who is suspected of having smallpox is found on the train drastic measures will be resorted to. The health officers do not wish any charity from the I. C. R., he says, but simply made this suggestion in the interests of the community. Their expenses are borne by the county and the expenses have already reached $10,000. Dr. Clay told a Times representative that the infected district is between Springhill, Amherst and Collingwood. There are over one hundred cases now existing in Victoria, Middleboro, several country districts and a couple of lumber camps. Supposing, said Dr. Clay, a person should escape quarantine and board a train, the result would be that the train would be stopped and one and all on board would be quarantined. Such measures would mean a serious loss to the railway. Or if a case developed in the train the same measure would be the result. At Oxford Junction Dr. Clay, who happened to be on a train, sent a woman home suffering from smallpox. Had he not been on board the train the woman would have continued her journey and the results can readily be surmised. This is the chief reason why the assistance of the railway was asked to guard against such cases. Dr. Clay said that about twenty-five places, including lumber camps and houses, were quarantined and every effort is being made to stamp out the disease. In the work all the help we can get is needed and the health officers consider that the greatest help can be procured from the railway authorities. Doctors have been running on the train from Springhill to Amherst. Their request to the railway, he said, was simply a matter of precaution. A man named Betts, who was one of the worst infected patients at Victoria, died a few days ago. Information has been received here to the effect that those who were vaccinated in the lumber camps have not taken the disease, while nearly all who were not vaccinated are now ill.

APPOINTMENT OF TRUANT OFFICER

School Board Will Not Appoint One Before Close of Present Term. The regular monthly meeting of the school board will be held tonight. The matter of appointing a truant officer, it is thought, will not likely be considered until the end of the term, as it is pointed out that the introduction of new scholars in the middle of a term would make it very difficult for the teachers, who would have to divide their attention between two classes of work, as the new pupils would be behind those who have been studying right along. The appointment of an officer will probably be made about the time of the usual summer vacation and that the new scholars will be started in on the new term.

Business Notices

Remember the big mid-winter sale of men's and boys' clothing and furnishing goods now on at the stores of J. N. Harvey in the Opera House Block. Very many are getting genuine bargains there now. Just arrived—Another lot of those men's working boots, solid throughout, will stand any kind of weather. Having heavy sole and shank, at the old price $2.00, was received at William Young's shoe store today. Intending purchasers of this style of footwear would find it to their interest to inspect these boots. F. S. Thomas' annual fur reduction sale starts tomorrow. This sale is usually watched for by many buyers and no doubt tomorrow will see the commencement of one of the greatest mid-winter sales in the history of this house. The St. John Fuel Co. has decided to run their retail coal and wood business on strictly cash system after Jan. 15, 1907. Believing it is better for the consumer and also for the company, as much expense will be saved in book keeping and collecting. This change will enable the company to sell coal and wood at a much lower price. A DIARY AND ACCOUNT BOOK FOR C. A. Snow & Co., Patent Lawyers of Washington, D. C., will send on receipt of postage their diary for 1907 to inventors, manufacturers, or patentees. It contains also decisions in patent cases and other useful matter.

FELL DOWN COAL HOLE

While walking along Princess street yesterday William Smith, traveller for Brown and Cole, met with an accident that might have injured him severely. About half way between Carmarthen and Sydney streets on the northern side of the street, he stepped on the cover of a coal hole in the sidewalk and the next instant was thrown to the ground, his leg having disappeared into the black regions below. The cover of the hole had not been fastened properly and there being a layer of snow on it, Mr. Smith did not see the cover until the accident happened. His leg was somewhat bruised and he was considerably shaken up but was able to walk home.
