REMARKABLE SPECIALTIES AT IMPERIAL.
The special novelty at the Imperial this change is Geo. N. Brown, the world's champion walker, and Billy Weston, jr., nephew of the old-time champion pedestrian, the most famous Boy Scout in America. Mr. Brown does marvelous walking feats on treadmills in front of the audience and enters into competition with allcomers. The Boy Scout does similar work and issues a challenge to his fellow scouts on the sides. The remainder of the vaudeville bill is composed of Jones and Agnes DuVeas, billed as the "Dancing Evangelists." Their special evangelizing is along the lines of correct poise and balance in modern dancing. This couple gained considerable notoriety a couple of years ago by dancing their correct balance method on the cornice of the Singer Building, New York. The concluding number is comedy of the funny kind entitled "A Courtship on Broadway" in which MacLaughlin and Evans sing, dance and use dialect of that famous New York section. Vivian Martin in "Little Miss Optimist" and the 4th chapter of the Vitagraph serial, "The Fighting Trail," concludes a wonderful show. On Monday the Imperial presents the latest Madge Kennedy, "Baby Mine," a Goldwyn play de luxe.

WHAT DO WE FIGHT AGAINST?

It is worth while to refresh our memories from time to time of what it is we are fighting against in this war. At a conference in Potsdam Palace in 1892 the Kaiser distributed a pamphlet which begins with these words:

"The Pan-German Empire: From Hamburg on the North Sea to the Persian Gulf. Our immediate goal: 250,000,000 people. Our ultimate goal: the Germanisation of all the world."

"After the war I shall not stand any nonsense from the United States." This is what we are fighting against, and the story is told in a very striking article in Current Opinion for December by Newell Dwight Hillis, D. D., who was a member of an American diplomatic mission to France, and who made two recent trips to the front as an authorized investigator.

Not only does Dr. Hillis show conclusively the aims of Germany, but his story of the atrocities which have marked the German war policy makes one shudder and pray for the overthrow of an enemy whose soldiers wear a token with this inscription: "Smite your enemy dead. In your judgment will not ask you for your reasons." The Kaiser's charge: "Make yourselves more frightful than the Huns under Attila; see that for a thousand years no enemy mentions the name of Germany without shuddering"—has been literally observed. Dr. Hillis submits indisputable evidence to prove what he says in the following paragraph:

"The Germans slaughtered old men and matrons, mutilated captives in ways that can only be spoken of by men in whispers; violated little girls until they were dead. Finding a child in a field on a barn-door to be dried, they nailed a babe beside it and wrote beneath the word 'weil'; they thrust women and children between themselves and soldiers coming up to defend their native land; bombed and looted hospitals, Red Cross buildings, violated the white flag—and the worst atrocities cannot even be named. For the first time in history the German has reduced savagery to a science; therefore this great war for peace must go on until the German cancer is cut clean out of the body."

"A war for peace" and for civilization is being waged and the fate of Canada is involved in it. The Kaiser would write "Germania" across the map of Canada and the United States. The crimes committed on Belgian and French soil would be repeated on a more savage scale on this continent. It is this we are fighting against. Dr. Hillis gives proofs of deeds so horrible that the heart of the reader sickens at the mere thought of such barbarity.

Is Canada to withdraw and give new courage to the Kaiser? Have the Canadian heroes whose graves the little crosses mark died in vain? Must those now offering their lives die knowing that their country has deserted them? These questions must be answered by every Canadian elector on the seventeenth day of December.

BORDEN AND CARVELL. On Monday the electors of St. John will have an opportunity to hear the great issue of this political campaign discussed by the leader of the union government and the New Brunswick member of the administration.

It is something higher than mere partisan considerations that has brought these two men together as advocates of a common cause. Neither of them is a man to hold his views lightly, and heretofore they have been political foes who did not spare each other in denunciation. It was not easy for either to contemplate a union of forces, any more than it was easy for New Brunswick Conservatives to accept Mr. Carvell as their leader, or for New Brunswick Liberals to make a truce with supporters of Sir Robert Borden. The thing was not lightly done, but under the influence of a profound conviction that without a union of effort the Canadian heroes at the front might wait in vain for the reinforcements they so sorely need. It must be borne in mind that if it was hard for many Liberals to consent to union it was no less disagreeable to many Conservatives. Only a deep conviction that national honor and safety required such action on their part would bring into the same camp men whose views on fiscal matters and many political questions are so very divergent. They came together, however, for the period of the war, agreeing to abolish patronage and send all their united energies to the one task of winning the war. The way to win the war is not to refuse reinforcements to the men at the front. That is practically what the defeat of the union government would mean. That is why every voter should refuse to associate himself with Bourassa, the thugs of Sherbrooke and the pro-Germans of Kitchener, who hope to be able to dominate Canada, and force Sir Wilfrid Laurier to withhold help from the soldiers in France and Flanders.

Liberals may not like Sir Robert Borden, and Conservatives may not like Hon. F. B. Carvell, but these two men stand together today to plead with their countrymen to "keep faith with them who die" for Canada. When the war is over the purely national questions of policy which divide men into parties will be taken up again, but in this hour so big with fate the call is for men of the trenches, and it must not fall upon dull ears. The challenge of the German Chancellor, which is the savage war-cry of the Hun, must be met by a united Empire, ready to stand immovable in defence of civilization.

A WORD TO LIBERALS. The most bitter complaint of Liberals against the old Borden government was that its administration was marked by partisanship and patronage. If the union government, when has abolished patronage, is defeated, what will we have? A partisan government, and a cry for patronage from every province. Does anyone doubt the truth of this assertion? Among those most active in opposition to the government are patronage seekers. This is true in St. John, and it is equally true of every city and province. The supporters of union government have laid aside partisanship and dispensed with the patronage committee. By this action they have removed one great cause for criticism of the old government. But they have gone further and pledged themselves if returned to power to conscript wealth as well as men, and to mobilize all the resources of the country to aid in winning the war. Why question their sincerity and make common cause with Bourassa and the anti-British element which threatens the peace and unity of Canada? This is not a time for partisanship, but for unity of effort such as that to which the union government is pledged. Every sort of partisan appeal, and every sort of unfair and dishonest canvass is being made by some of those who are opposed to the government. Thoughtful Liberals cannot fail to see the drift of such appeals, and the danger that threatens Canada in this hour of her destiny. Sir Wilfrid Laurier is not in league with the disloyal and mercenary elements, but they are determined to bend him to their will or usurp the leadership for themselves. No Liberal should be a party to such an outcome of the present campaign. Better that Sir Wilfrid should fail than succeed with such a following as he will get from Quebec province, and such a policy as would break faith with our sons in France and Flanders. When the war is over and matters of purely domestic policy again command attention, there will be a re-alignment of parties, and the men who fought in Europe will have a hand in the readjustment. Today these men should be the first consideration, with every Liberal and every Conservative, as supporters of the union government.

About the meanest excuse for not sending more men to the front is the statement that there are plenty of men in the United States. The Americans are training men and sending them across with all possible speed, and instead of making us indifferent the fact should stimulate us to still greater exertions. We have not been fighting for the United States, except in the sense that we have been fighting for civilization. First and foremost we have been fighting for Canada, and we have not finished the task.

In the United States they have what are called yegg-men, whose predatory instincts and habits get them into constant trouble with the police. We have them in Canada, but they are silent, and the police have not yet been sent after them. Just now they want the Canadian people to pay for advertising eggs and then pay fifty cents or more per dozen for the privilege of eating them.

PLAN LINGERIE CHRISTMAS

Convalescent Soldiers Work On Dainty Garments for Their Feminine Relatives

The bored civilian who gazes at the tinelled shop windows today and grouches that every Christmas is the same, needs to look in on the boys in the military convalescent hospitals. Tucked under the sheets with the hoops poised on their knees they are sewing white flowers to table dollies, red silk roses on cushion tops, and wondering whether tucks or gathers would be more becoming to Arabella. Last year they were ducking Fritz's shells, and potting the Bosches across No Man's Land.

Embroidery is receiving a great impetus these days, and the vocational officers who order supplies for the occupational work—under which hand crocheting and embroidery come—are gazing with amazement at the orders for materials for ladies' night-gowns, boudoir caps, camisoles, etc., which come to them to be filled.

Tommy is on to all the technical names, and his "lingerie Christmas" is going to be made an epoch of note in the family annals. There is no doubt that along with great grandmother's "sampler" posterity will find among its heirlooms the handkerchief which Uncle John embroidered for Aunt Mary, when he was a soldier in the hospital.

"At any rate, the needlework is irreplaceable, and even though they never sew another stitch, the boys have proven that they can embroider as well as they fight," declared the matron in one of the hospitals who has directed this occupational work.

In some of the western hospitals the work has been put in special stores for Christmas sale and others are being taken for winter work. Some men have become so expert as to fill orders for monogramming bridal trousseaus and making tidy little linens.

Alliteration with alimentation is the programme of food conservation proposed by a New York Sun correspondent. Soupless Sunday, meatless Monday, chewless Tuesday, wheatless Wednesday, thirstless Thursday, fishless Friday, sausageless Saturday.

AUTO INTOXICATION OR SELF-POISONING

The Dangerous Condition which Produces Many Well Known Diseases.

HOW TO GUARD AGAINST THIS TROUBLE

"FRUIT-A-TIVES"—The Wonderful Food Medicine—will Protect You.

Autointoxication means self-poisoning caused by continuous or partial constipation, or insufficient action of the bowels.

Instead of the refuse matter passing daily from the body, it is absorbed by the blood. As a result, the Kidneys and Skin are overworked, in their efforts to rid the blood of this poisoning.

"Fruit-a-tives" will always cure Autointoxication or self-poisoning—no matter how long it has existed. It acts gently on bowels, kidneys and skin, strengthens the bowels and tones up the nervous system.

THE ONLY METHOD

Mainly, the objection urged against the union government is the record of the Borden administration. Admitting that Liberals now in the cabinet have no responsibility for what is past, they are asked how they can consistently join hands with men whose conduct of public affairs they condemned. In particular, they are reproached for accepting Sir Robert Borden as the head of the government after accusing him of weakness and incompetence. What other logic alternative was left to Liberals who refused to give the Borden administration another lease of power, or they would have had to nominate candidates of their own who would have been crushed between Conservatives and "Laurierites"—assuming, of course, that they would have been unequal to the feat of upholding Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Military Service Act at the same time. Union government has made it possible for them to become a political force without losing their party identity, but they were not able to dictate who should be the leader of the administration. The Conservative members of parliament refused to allow Sir Robert Borden to step aside. If Liberals had insisted on his deposition they would have made co-operation impossible and have aided in wrecking the Military Service Act. The Globe will not withdraw a syllable of its criticism of the Borden regime, and it will hold the present government as strictly to account. But believing that Canada must drop out of the war unless she changed her military policy, the Globe advocated union government as the only method. In its opinion, insuring that Canada would not let the torch of freedom fall from her hands.

AMERICAN INHERITS TITLE

Frank C. Cooper Also Heirs He Gets a $500,000 Fortune.

New York, Dec. 1.—Frank C. Cooper, head of the information bureau in the District Attorney's office, was at work in the Criminal Court building one day this week when he found a letter in his mail notifying him of his succession to an English baronetcy and that he had inherited an estate estimated to be worth $500,000. For the first time, too, he learned as he read the misfire of the death of his brother, Sir Horace Cooper, which occurred six weeks ago, at Devonshire, England. The letter was sent by attorneys for the estate.

"I am an American citizen, so I will have to pass up the title," announced Cooper. He did not believe the estate was as large as claimed under the old valuation. There were mortgages on some parts of it, he thought, and war conditions and taxes may have reduced its worth and income.

The only son of Sir Horace Cooper was killed at the battle of the Somme, which brings the title and estate to the New York man, who has a younger brother, Major Charles Cooper, governor of the Western Soldiers' Home, in London. Frank Cooper was a newspaper man when former District Attorney Jerome appointed him to his present position.

WHILE OTHERS' FIGHT LET US UNITE

(Canadian Finance.)

It has been well said that there "is a sane operation of the human judgment which in the moment of decision discards the non-essential and fixes upon fundamentals." Though party and creedal distinctions die hard with us even in a worldwide crisis, they are going to be relegated to the background by the mass of the Canadian people. There is a two-fold significance in the fact that one Manitoba riding has chosen as union candidate the minister of a union church. There is nothing to fear but much to hope from "the church in politics" under such conditions. The spirit of the convention in this constituency, made up about equally of members of both the old line parties, is reported as having been most impressive in its unity and solidarity. There was not the slightest trace of division or dissension. All the passions of party seemed to have been dispelled in the one great, common desire to win the war and to stand behind the men at the front.

Even in constituencies where there has been jockeying for position at the outset, patriotic sense has often triumphed over party prejudice—as witness the nomination of President Whidden of Brandon College, as a union standard bearer, and the generous tribute paid to him in the convention by his rival for the nomination, Roderick McKenzie. President Whidden is too modest a man to relish comparison with the "professor across the border—but he has already had to put up with the reference. There is among us, happily, a growing recognition of the fact that capacity to "think straight" is as essential as familiarity with practical politics in the conduct of the national affairs.

Avoid Operations

Statistics show an appalling increase, every year, in operations performed upon women for some derangement of the feminine organism.

It is perfectly true that some of these troubles may reach a stage where an operation is necessary—but it is also true that many women have escaped the necessity for an operation by removing the trouble with even after an operation has been advised as the only means of recovery.

These Three Letters Prove That Statement

Tennil, Ga.—I want to tell you how much I have been benefited by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. About eight years ago I got in such a low state of health I was unable to keep house for three in the family. I had dull, tired, dizzy feelings, cold feet and hands nearly all the time and could scarcely sleep at all. The doctor said that I had ulceration and without an operation I would always be an invalid, but I told him I wanted to wait awhile. Our druggist advised my husband to have me try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and it has entirely cured me. Now I keep house for seven and work in the garden some, too. I am so thankful I got this medicine. I feel as though it saved my life and have recommended it to others with benefit.—Mrs. W. E. LINDSEY, R.R. 3, Tennille, Ga.

Des Moines, Iowa.—"Four years ago I was very sick and my life was nearly spent. The doctors stated that I would never get well without an operation and that I would not live one year. My husband objected to any operation and got me some of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took it and commenced to get better and am now well, am stout and able to do my own housework. I can recommend the Vegetable Compound to any woman who is sick and run down as a wonderful strength and health restorer. My husband says I would have been in my grave ere this if it had not been for your Vegetable Compound."—Mrs. BLANCHE JEFFERSON, 708 Lyon St., Des Moines, Iowa.

Bellevue, Pa.—"I suffered more than tongue can tell with terrible bearing down pains and inflammation. I tried several doctors and they all told me the same story, that I never could get well without an operation and just dreaded the thought of that. I also tried a good many other medicines that were recommended to me and none of them helped me until a friend advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. The first bottle helped, I kept taking it and now I don't know what it is to be sick any more and I am picking up in weight. I am 20 years old and weigh 146 pounds. It will be the greatest pleasure to me if I can have the opportunity to recommend it to any other suffering woman."—Miss IRENE FROELICHER, 1923 Manhattan St., North Side, Bellevue, Pa.

The strongest and most trustworthy letters come from women who have escaped this terrible ordeal by the timely use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Unless an operation is necessary at once, try this famous old remedy first. It can do no harm and in many cases it has been a blessing. The Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

With Fingers! Corns Lift Off

Doesn't hurt a bit to lift any corn or callus right off. Try it!

For a few cents you can get a small bottle of the magic drug freezeone recently discovered by a Cincinnati man.

Just ask at any drug store for a small bottle of freezeone. Apply a few drops upon a tender, aching corn or callus and instantly all soreness disappears and shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you lift it off with the fingers.

Just think! Not one bit of pain before applying freezeone or afterwards. It doesn't even irritate the surrounding skin.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also hardened calluses on bottom of feet, shrivel up and fall off without hurting a particle. It is almost magical. Ladies! Keep a tiny bottle of freezeone in your dressing and never let a corn or callus ache twice.

The Man In The Street

December promises to be an interesting month--waiting for the Victory Loan returns, wondering what the election results will be and waiting for Santa Claus to get here.

And in each case there still is time to do some hustling while we wait.

After we get those Victory Bonds paid for, a whole lot of people are going to learn, with pleasing surprise, what the word "collateral" really means.

The practical side of the transaction looms larger today, with the first payment due on the bonds.

Germans in New York had to clear out of the area near the waterfront--but who ever heard of a German worrying about being kept away from the water.

It would be a different matter if they were to be kept a hundred yards away from the schooners.

What Did You Do? The small boy had visited the vaudeville matinee and some of the catchy phases still were running through his mind the next day. He was on a shopping expedition with his mother when an accident occurred in his vicinity. A clerk who had just completed an elaborate Christmas display saw her work ruined by the carelessness of a fellow employe.

"What did you do?" she demanded in a tone that indicated the immediate severance of diplomatic relations. But the crisis was avoided when the little chap, straining on tip-toes to peer over the counter answered in the words of the song:

"What did I do? I left my happy home for you."

REPORTED DEAD IN WAR BUT SOME UNCERTAINTY

Word Comes Re Pte. W. F. Brown But Number Given is Not That Soldier's--Pte. Guy C. Daye Wounded

Word came this morning to Mr. and Mrs. James Brown of 5 Sheriff street, that their son, Private William Foster Brown, had been unofficially reported killed in action between November 22 and 19. The telegram announcing his death gives a regimental number which does not correspond with that of Private Brown, and it is hoped that even yet it may be found out that there is some mistake. Telegrams asking for particulars have been sent and the answer is anxiously awaited.

Private Brown enlisted with a battalion here, and has seen more than two years of service. He suffered from shell shock and trench fever and returned to the trenches about eight months ago. Before enlisting he was employed on the government steamer Lansdowne. He has five brothers: John, James, George, Douglas and David, all of this city, and three sisters, Mrs. A. McIntosh of West St. John and Misses Helen and Dorothy at home.

Pte. Guy C. Daye. That their son, Private Guy C. Daye of the Medical Corps, was in No. 7 Canadian General Hospital at Le Treport suffering from contusion on the back and legs resulting from an injury received on Nov. 1, was the word received by Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Daye of 7 Hammond street, this morning. Private Daye left Canada with the first contingent, sailing with Dr. Duval's Medical Corps from this city. He has been three years overseas.

PAYNE ESTATE $32,000,000

Appraisal of Ex-Standard Oil Officers' Property Charity Gets $7,000,000—First Estimate of Wealth Was $90,000,000—Painting Only Gift to Nephew, Harry Payne Whitney estate of his father, the late William G. Whitney, while Harry Payne Whitney received half one estate, $31,000,000. Colonel Payne's large bequest to Payne Whitney was said to be due to the latter's attitude toward the remarriage of his father after the death of the first Mrs. William C. Whitney, sister of Colonel Payne.

The largest bequest under Colonel Payne's will went to his nephew, Harry Payne Whitney, who gets a total of $7,465,785, including a direct bequest of $2,000,000, a sixth of the residue, and collection of art objects and paintings. Two nieces, Elizabeth B. Blossom and Frances Bolton, and William Bingham III, a nephew, all of Cleveland, each get a sixth of the residue, and one-sixth is divided between Dorothy Wyndham Paget and Olive Cecelia Paget of London, children of Colonel Payne's niece, Mrs. Almeric Hugh Paget, Colonel Payne left nothing to his niece, Mrs. Willard D. Straight, who got three-tenths of the estate of William C. Whitney, her father. Lewis Cash Ledyard received $100,000, and an equal sum went to Henrietta L. Morris and Mabel Weddell, cousins.

New York, Dec. 1.—The estate of Colonel Oliver Hazard Payne, which was estimated at $90,000,000 at the time of his death, on June 27 last, was appraised this week at $32,367,174. The report disclosed that, although Colonel Payne was for many years an officer of the Standard Oil Company, at the time of his death he did not own a share of stock of any company affiliated with the Standard Oil Company. The bulk of his securities, valued at more than $20,000,000, was in stock of the American Tobacco Company and its subsidiaries.

The share left to Payne Whitney, the favorite nephew of Colonel Payne, was appraised at $3,951,427, of which $3,714,043 was a sixth interest in the residuary estate. Harry Payne Whitney, also a nephew, got only the Turner painting, "Corpus Christi Procession, Place of St. Marks," appraised at $125,000. Whitney received only one-tenth of the

UNITED STATES CROP A RECORD-BREAKER

Value of Field Production Now Estimated at $21,000,000,000

Thanksgiving Day found America's harvest of plenty with new high record fullness. Responding faithfully to President Wilson's appeal and the needs of a war torn world American farmers produced a gross total of $21,000,000,000 worth of farm products, equalling in value the nation's total expenditure in one year of war.

were record-crops of corn, oats, rye, white and sweet potatoes, tobacco and beans. The principal farm crops will reach more than $12,000,000,000 in value; minor crops $2,500,000,000, and animal products, including butter, cheese and eggs, about $6,500,000,000. This year's values are based on preliminary production estimates and prices paid to producers November 1 as reported by the department of agriculture. An official estimate of the principal farm crop values will be made by the bureau of crop estimates on December 11. Corn, the country's greatest crop, accounts for about one-third of the increased total farm products value of this year. It is estimated at about $4,659,000,000, compared with $2,296,000,000 last year. In point of quantity corn this year saw its largest production, being 66,000,000 bushels more than the 1912 record crop, and 608,000,000 bushels more than last year. Next in point of value comes cotton with a crop valued at about $1,981,000,000, accounting for more than one-tenth

What Would It Be Worth to You
To Be Free of Indigestion

INDIGESTION becomes a habit to a certain extent. Many of the conditions under which we live are artificial. We eat too much, take too little natural exercise, and have too much worry and anxiety.

The liver is usually first to get out of kilter, then the bowels become constipated, and the whole process of digestion is disorganized. Instead of being properly digested, the food ferments and causes sour stomach, belching of wind, pressure of gas about the heart, suffocating feelings and fainting spells.

Headaches, pains in the limbs and back, tired, depressed feelings, irritability and discouragement are other symptoms.

You may have tried stomach medicines and aids to digestion until you have given up in despair.

And Rid of the Poisons
Which Cause Pain,
Tired Feelings?

Operation Avoided

Mrs. Annie Watkins, Glace Bay, New Harbor, N.S., writes: "I think it is time for me to give my experience with your wonderful Kidney-Liver Pills. For seven months I suffered with what the doctor called indigestion, but whatever it was, I suffered terribly. The pain would start under my left shoulder and pass down my side until it reached the pit of my stomach. It just seemed as if the flesh were being torn from the bone.

But what would it be worth to you to be free of all this trouble, to feel again the old energy and vigor, and to enjoy healthful living?

Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are not offered to you as an experiment. There is no question as to what they will do by way of awakening the action of the liver, kidneys and bowels, and removing the cause of indigestion and kindred ills.

Their curative powers have been proven in hundreds of thousands of cases, until they are established in the great majority of homes as the one family medicine which is indispensable.

It is for you to apply this treatment in your own case. It will only cost you a quarter to make the test, and we do not hesitate to predict that the results will surprise and delight you.

City Physicians Explain Why
They Prescribe Nuxated Iron

To Make Beautiful, Healthy Women and Strong Vigorous Men
NOW BEING USED BY OVER THREE MILLION PEOPLE ANNUALLY

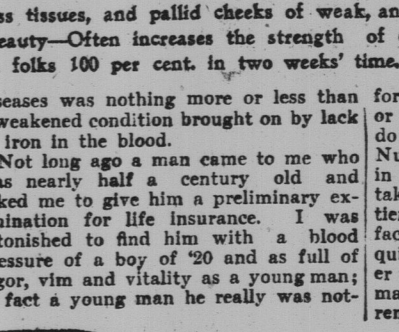

Quickly Transforms the flabby flesh, toneless tissues, and pallid cheeks of weak, anemic men and women into a perfect glow of health and beauty—Often increases the strength of delicate, nervous, run-down folks 100 per cent. in two weeks' time.

Not long ago a man came to me who was nearly half a century old and asked me to give him a preliminary examination for life insurance. I was astonished to find him with a blood pressure of a boy of 20 and as full of vigor, vim and vitality as a young man.

Dr. Ferdinand King, a New York physician and medical author, says: "There can be no sturdy iron men without iron. Pallor means anemia. Anemia means iron deficiency. The skin of anemic men and women is pale; the flesh flabby; the muscles lack tone, the brain fags and the memory fails and they often become weak, nervous, irritable, despondent and melancholy.

Dr. A. J. Newman, late Police Surgeon of the City of Chicago and former House Surgeon, Jefferson Park Hospital, Chicago, in commenting on Nuxated Iron, says: "It has been my particular duty during the past six years to assist in keeping Chicago's five thousand blue-coats in good health and perfect fighting trim so that they would be physically equipped to withstand all manner of storms and the ravages of nature's elements."

Dr. E. Sauer, a Boston physician who has studied widely both in this country and in great European Medical Institutions, says: "As I have said a hundred times over, organic iron is the greatest of all strength builders. If people would only take Nuxated Iron when they feel weak or run-down, instead of dosing themselves with habit-forming drugs, stimulants and alcoholic beverages, I am convinced that in this way they could ward off disease, preventing it becoming organic in thousands of cases and thereby the lives of thousands might be saved who now die every year from pneumonia, grippe, kidney, liver, heart trouble and other dangerous maladies. The real and true cause which started their

Dr. N.H. Horstman, for ten years in the Department of Public Health and Charities of Philadelphia, said: "After carefully examining the formula of Nuxated Iron I realized that here at last was organic iron—the only kind I could conscientiously recommend, prepared in withstanding his age. The secret, he said, was taking iron-nuxated iron had filled him with renewed life. At 80 he was in bad health; at 46 he was worn and nearly all in—now at 50, after taking Nuxated Iron a miracle of vitality and his face beaming with the buoyancy of youth.

NOTE: Nuxated Iron, which is prescribed and recommended above by physicians in such a great variety of cases, is not a patent medicine nor secret remedy, but one which is well known to druggists and whose iron constituent is widely prescribed by eminent physicians both in Europe and America. Unlike the older inorganic iron products, it is easily assimilated, does not injure the teeth, make them black, nor upset the stomach; on the contrary, it is a most potent remedy in nearly all forms of indigestion as well as for nervous, run-down conditions. The manufacturers have such great confidence in Nuxated Iron, that they offer to forfeit $100,000 to any charitable institution if they cannot take any man or woman under 60 who lacks iron, and increase their strength 100 per cent. or over in four weeks' time, provided they have no serious organic trouble. They also offer to refund your money if it does not at least double your strength and endurance in ten days' time. It is dispensed in this city by Watson's Drug Store and all good druggists.

TWO VISIONS

(By Mabelle Cole, Lyric Theatre, St. John.)

Fulfillment.
Thro' rose-tinted clouds a Vision I see,
A figure with outstretched wings,
Moving thro' space direct to me.
All the while a lullaby sings.
Resting within the curve of its arm
Another figure lies,
A dimpled infant—rosy and pink,
The Glory of Heaven in its eyes.
With faintest rustle of fairy wings
It places the babe in my arms.
The rosebud mouth against my breast
Quies all my alarms.
The Vision is gone—I open my eyes
To the new life of joy just begun.
Time has fulfilled my heart's fondest wish.
"Thanks, dear God, for my son."

Renunciation.
Thro' smoke-laden clouds, a Vision I see,
A figure with outstretched wings
Moving thro' space, away from me.
All the while a requiem sings,
Resting secure within its arms
Another figure lies,
A stalwart man, bleeding and pained,
The Glory of Triumph in his eyes.
With mighty roar of powerful wings
It carries the form in its arms
Up, up to the heights where angels sing,
Away from all sorrow and harm.
The Vision is gone—I open my eyes
To find that my mission is done.
But few years remain, I am old and alone—
"Dear God! Thou hast taken my son."

PLAY WELL PRESENTED IN ST. PATRICK'S HALL, WEST END

In St. Patrick's hall, West Side, last evening, the Church of the Assumption Dramatic Club presented a three-act comedy drama, "A Southern Cinderella," under the supervision of Miss Susie Murphy, to whom much credit is due as the play proved a marked success. A specialty between Acts 1 and 2 was a singing and dancing act given by Joseph Breen and his sister, Kattie. This was the hit of the evening and the young people received a generous share of applause, which they rightly deserved.
The specialty between Acts 2 and 3 was a singing quartette composed of J. J. Morrissy, Mr. Ellis, F. J. Joyce and J. B. Murphy, who rendered several selections.
The accompanist for the evening was Miss Marion Murphy and J. O'D. Morrissy acted as stage manager, with Mr. Quinn assisting.
After the play Mrs. Tobin, convenor of the tobacco fund for the soldiers at the front, asked that this play be presented in the City Hall, West Side, and the proceeds be given to supply tobacco for the boys now in France who have gone overseas to do their bit. The request was granted.
S. W. Wilkins, surveyor of customs here, returned yesterday after attending a civil service convention in Ottawa last week. Dr. W. J. Roche had addressed the meeting and said that, although at present there was an inner service at Ottawa and an outer service through Canada, he looked forward to seeing only one service throughout the dominion.

ST. ANDREW'S SOCIETY HONORS JOHN WHITE

Presentation of Gold Watch and Address to Veteran Officer

Members of the St. Andrew's Society at St. John in common with Scotsmen the world over celebrated St. Andrew's night in right royal style last evening. In full force they turned out at Bond's where an enjoyable dinner and smoker was held. The speeches were inspiring, and at times witty, and the songs were appropriate to the day that was being celebrated. A feature of the evening was the presentation of an address and a gold chain and locket to John White who for over fifty years has been an officer of the society. H. C. Rankine, president of the society, occupied the chair with R. W. W. Frink, president of St. George's Society, Chief Joseph Murdoch of Clan Mackenzie, and Hon. R. Ritchie, president of St. Patrick's Society, as guests of honor. Telegrams of congratulation were read from sister societies in Vancouver, Winnipeg, Montreal, Quebec, St. Stephen, Charlottetown, Fredericton, Campbellton, Windsor, Chicago, Albany, Boston, Halifax, Toronto and Philadelphia. The toast to the King and the Governor-General and of the Lieutenant-Governor were responded to with musical honors. Rev. W. Bruce Muir, of Annapolis Royal, responded to the toast of "The Day and a Wha Honor It." He referred to the noble part the Canadians were taken in the fight for liberty and humanity. John White, veteran treasurer of the society, was then asked to stand, and President Rankine made the presentation to him.

C. B. Allan proposed the health of the members on active service, and said that the country should never forget her brave sons. He made special mention of the brave deeds of the 26th. General Macdonell, who has lately returned from overseas, responded. He was greeted with cheers and those present arose and sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." He told of the great part the Canadians are taking in the war and how the 26th Battalion stood out beyond many others for their gallantry. Dewitt Cairns, F. C. Macneil and R. H. Anderson sang solos.

FRISON FOR THIERICHENS.

Raider Captain Gets 14-Month Term Under White Slave Law.

Philadelphia, Dec. 1.—Captain Max V. Thierichens, former commander of the German sea raider Prinz Eitel Friedrich, was sentenced in the United States district court here to fourteen months' imprisonment. He was convicted of violating the Mann white slave act by bringing a young German servant to this city from Ithaca, N. Y., last January. Sentence of the court will date from June 22, when Thierichens was brought here from Fort Oglethorpe, Ga., where he had been interned as a prisoner of war. At the expiration of his sentence he will be made a prisoner of war, if peace is not declared. When the Prinz Eitel Friedrich, since taken over by the government, put into Newport News in 1915, Thierichens was the recipient of hundreds of letters from women and men all over the country. One of these women writers, whom he is said to have induced to come to Philadelphia, testified against him.

SAGE TEA DARKENS HAIR TO ANY SHADE

The use of Sage and Sulphur for restoring faded, gray hair to its natural color dates back to grandmother's time. She used it to keep her hair beautifully dark, glossy and attractive. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. But brewing at home is messy and out-of-date. Nowadays, by asking at any drug store for a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get this famous old preparation, improved by the addition of other ingredients, which can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair. A well-known downtown druggist says it darkens the hair so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears, and after another application or two, it becomes beautifully dark and glossy. Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound is a delightful toilet requisite for those who desire a more youthful appearance. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.

THREE MORE NEW BRUNSWICKERS WHO HAVE DIED FOR RIGHT

Another youthful soldier of New Brunswick has given his life in the present war—Private Weldon Lelland Cole, son of Charles Cole, of Hunter's Home, Queens county (N. B.). Private Cole was but sixteen years of age when he enlisted, but despite his youth he was anxious to play a man's part for his country and has now, at the age of eighteen, given the greatest sacrifice that any man could give—his own young and promising life in defence of the institutions of the empire. Private Cole enlisted in the 115th Battalion and upon reaching England was transferred into a reinforced draft to the 28th. He had fought through many of their battles without injury, but was fatally hit on Nov. 16. He leaves besides his father, two brothers—Eldon and Edmund; also six sisters—Mrs. L. Cosman, of Millidgeville; Mrs. George Brooks, of Simonds street; Mrs. Thomas Northrup, of West St. John; Misses Mary and Ada, of the Dufferin hotel staff, and Media, of Hunter's Home. The young soldier had lived at home with his father in Queens county and could have remained behind and let others go, but he thought it was his duty and he went straight ahead until he has now filled the last great measure of patriotism.

PRIVATE WELDON L. COLE, son of Charles Cole, of Hunter's Home, Queens county (N. B.), eighteen years of age, who has been officially reported killed at the front on Nov. 16. He was but sixteen when he enlisted. Private Cole has relatives in St. John.

when only seventeen years of age with the 28th Battalion, in St. John. He was transferred to Fredrickton, where he remained until the 28th sailed for England. Shortly after arriving in England he was transferred to the 38th Howitzer Battery. He was in his twentieth year, and was a bright young man of excellent character, being much liked by all who knew him. Much sympathy is felt for the family, this being the second son who has passed away in a year.

Gunner Harold J. Fraser Killed.
Word was received last week by Fred. Fraser, of Cross Point Station (N. B.), that his son, Gunner Harold J. Fraser, had been killed in action on Nov. 6. Gunner Fraser enlisted three years ago.

A Stubborn Cough Loosens Right Up
This home-made remedy is a wonder for quick results. Ready and cheaply made.

The prompt and positive action of this simple, inexpensive home-made remedy in quickly healing the inflamed or swollen membranes of the throat, chest or bronchial tubes and breaking up tight coughs, has caused it to be used in more homes than any other cough remedy. Under its healing, soothing influence, chest soreness goes, phlegm loosens, breathing becomes easier, tickling in the throat stops and you get a good night's restful sleep. The usual throat and chest colds are conquered by it in 24 hours or less. Nothing better for bronchitis, hoarseness, croup, whooping cough, bronchial asthma or winter coughs.

To make this splendid cough syrup, pour 2½ ounces of Pinex (50 cents worth) into a 16-oz. bottle and fill the bottle with plain granulated sugar syrup and shake thoroughly. You then have 16 ounces—a family supply of a much better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for $2.50. Keeps perfectly and children love its pleasant taste.

Pinex is a special and highly concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and is known the world over for its promptness, ease and certainty in overcoming stubborn coughs and chest colds.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with full directions, and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

Private Botsford Busted, of Campbellton, Killed.
Campbellton has lost many of her best and bravest young men, but the news that Private Botsford Busted, son of Mrs. James Haines, of this town, had been killed in action caused profound sorrow to all. The deceased young man was a general favorite with all, and his mother has the heart-felt sympathy in the loss of her noble boy. When under eighteen years of age, he enlisted with the 55th Battalion, and spent his eighteenth birthday in England. He has been on the firing line a little more than a year.

Private Richard Firth Missing Since Aug. 15.
Edward Firth, of Robinsonville (N. B.), has received word that his brother, Private Richard Firth, infantry, has been officially reported missing, Aug. 15. Since this date no information is at hand relative to the whereabouts or fate of the soldier, despite many inquiries. Mrs. Harvey Malcolm, of Robinsonville, is a sister of the missing soldier, and has asked that any one with relatives at the front in New Brunswick who has heard the least word of Private Firth that they communicate with her.

The Non-Essentials.
(Boston News Bureau.)
Slowly, but inevitably, the screws are beginning to turn upon the "non-essential" industry. Pleasure and luxury must learn to give way in war time. If after the needs of direct and indirect war work there is left no adequate margin of raw material or labor or factory capacity, or bank capital, the crafts that minister to luxury or pleasure must, to that degree, do without.

Don't Stop To Count Them

There are 250 cups of strong, rich tea—all from a pound package of Red Rose. That seems a very large number, but then you must remember that Red Rose Tea is composed chiefly of the strong, rich Assam teas from Northern India, which yield an astonishing amount of tea essence.

Why! You can brew five generous cups from about one cent's worth of Red Rose. Doesn't it seem a real war-time economy to use Red Rose Tea, which tastes better and goes further?

- 1st.— Has your talking machine ever been compared in public with the voices of artists who make records for it!

Then come to us and ask us the same questions about

And these will be our answers:

- 1st.— Yes, more than five hundred times.

The musical critics of over five hundred newspapers have admitted that The New Edison Re-Creates the human voice with such perfection that the Re-Creation cannot be distinguished from the original when both are heard in comparison.

GERMAN ATTACK ON THE CAMBRAI FRONT REPULSED

London, Nov. 30.—Strong forces of Germans attacked the British on a wide front in the Cambrai sector this morning, but were repulsed after heavy fighting in which the attackers sustained great losses, according to the official statement issued tonight. To the southward, in the region of Gonnelieu, the enemy entered British positions at several points and penetrated their line for some distance, but later were driven back.

United in the Cause of Liberty

Union Government in Canada, clearly became necessary for the successful prosecution of the war. In it are united the representative men of the two great political parties. These men have joined forces to make Canada's effort in the war most effective in the support of our men at the front with additional forces, and to direct and control the industrial and economic life of Canada to the one end of winning the war.

Support Union Government

Four hundred thousand of Canada's manhood have gone into Khaki. THEY are united in the cause of liberty. Today the insistent, imperative call is for an additional hundred thousand reinforcements. The policy of Union Government is to raise this force quickly and impartially under the provisions of the Military Service Act.

The Election Issue is Clear

If you are in favor of supporting the men at the Front you will vote for the Unionist Candidates. If you prefer that our soldiers should NOT receive the reinforcements they so urgently need, the Referendum proposed by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his adherents is the instrument through which you can sacrifice the men already at the front, who have set aside their business ambitions and have given up their home life and loved ones in the defence of YOUR liberty, and indeed, the liberty of the world.

FARMERS' SONS TO BE KEPT ON THE FARMS

Speaking at Dundas (Ont.) on Saturday, Nov. 24, General Newburn, Minister of Militia, said:

"Farmers' sons who are honestly engaged in the production of food will be exempt from military service, and if I continue to be Minister of Militia I will give you my word that if any farmers' sons who are honestly engaged in farm work and in the production of foodstuffs if they are not exempted by the tribunals and are called up for military service—I will have them honorably discharged from the Canadian expeditionary force, provided they go back to the farm, because it is very important that we should increase our production of foodstuffs."

Pork $50 a Barrel, A Record Price.
Chicago, Nov. 28—Pork available for immediate delivery commanded $50 a barrel today, the highest price on record. The topmost figures in Civil War days, when gold was at a big premium, was $48. Today's sales of pork showed that the commodity had risen $2.50 a barrel in the last fortnight. Huge purchases of packing house products for the government was the chief reason ascribed for the remarkable jump in values.

HON. F. B. CARVELL ENDS WEEK'S CAMPAIGN IN CARLETON-VICTORIA

Plaster Rock, Nov. 30—Before a large audience in the public hall here tonight Hon. F. B. Carvell closed the present week's campaign in Carleton-Victoria. A meeting scheduled for New Denmark on Saturday night had to be abandoned owing to the impossibility of making train connections. On Sunday evening the minister will address a meeting in Woodville and will go to St. John for two meetings on Monday, leaving on Monday night for meetings in Windsor and Halifax.

Messrs. Wigmore and Ekin, the union government candidates, held a rousing meeting at Albert last night. More than 300 supporters of the union ticket were present.

A large and enthusiastic meeting in the interest of union government was held in Carleton last evening. The feature of the meeting was the number of ladies present who took a deep interest in what the speakers said. Speeches were made by F. L. Potts, M. L. A., Mrs. R. Hooper and Miss Alice Fairweather.

At an informal meeting of the following St. Stephen's clergymen: Rev. William C. Goucher, William W. Malcolm, O. S. Newnam and Rev. H. L. B. Strothard—held in St. Stephen's recently, a resolution in favor of the union government and win-the-war policy was passed and forwarded to each minister in Charlotte county.

ARCHBISHOP SPRATT'S STATEMENT IN KINGSTON

Concluding his statement at Kingston, Ont., in the Sister Mary Basil case, part of which statement was published yesterday, Archbishop Spratt said:

"As to the daily newspapers of the city we feel that we have a very serious grievance against them. There is an opening for a libel suit in one case, and in the other there is an inflammatory article in the editorial column calling upon the people of the city to rise and depose the administration, which, of course, includes the archbishop. Were I of a vindictive turn of mind I would appeal to the Catholic people of Kingston to rise in protest against this extravagant intemperance towards their religion? But we do not return good for evil, however, by reason of our office, we must protect the interests of religion."

"We, therefore, take this opportunity to state that if this unfair, unjust, biased and bigoted attitude is persisted in, we will be obliged to have these papers classified with the 'venom' and other anti-Catholic organs and in the exercise of our episcopal office decree that they be excluded from every Catholic home in the archdiocese."

"Some persons may be anxious to hear why the archbishop did not give evidence during the trial in his own behalf. He was not subpoenaed by either party and his counsel would not permit him on the contention that there was no evidence produced to implicate him."

"Contrary to Sister Basil's report the orphanage was declared by the archbishop to be a model institute. It was not subpoenaed by either party and, which, according to the plaintiff, led to the attempt to get rid of her by removing her to an insane asylum on the evening of Sept. 14, 1916."

"This trouble," said his grace, "has not arisen from any weakness in the administration but from a refusal to accept the law of obedience. For the present."

DR. EDWARDS GOES TO SING SING

New York, Dec. 1—Dr. Karl Edwards, formerly a physician in Detroit, known as Dr. Karl "von" Edwards, whose "practice" the police say, consisted chiefly of making the acquaintance of wealthy women for the purpose of robbery, was sentenced on two counts to seven and a half to fourteen years in Sing Sing by Judge Mulqueen in general sessions.

A jury had convicted Edwards of the theft of $600 and jewelry valued at $35,000 from Mrs. Mary A. Strangman, widow of a brewer at Buffalo, N. Y., and $1,500 of the jewelry of Miss May Ward, an actress. Two pawnbrokers with whom Edwards pledged the jewelry were in court, but they declined to restore the property to the owners unless they were reimbursed for cash advanced to Edwards. The women will have to start civil suits for recovery.

WORLD'S CHAMPION
PEDESTRIAN PAYS
A VISIT TO ST. JOHN

George N. Brown, the world's champion pedestrian, is in St. John. Mr. Brown belongs to Auburn, N. Y., and first broke into fame at Peterboro, Ont., May, 1909, when he defeated W. A. Hogland, who had held the championship for twelve years. He has been walking his way through life for nine years and has made a good success of it. In the match in which he defeated Hogland forty-two started and only fourteen remained in at the finish of a week's sensational walking. Brown won by one lap. He was only seventeen years old at the time.

Mr. Brown has sixty-three gold medals and a silver trophy three feet high. The total value of his spoils is $5,000. Among these is the Richard K. Fox belt for pedestrianism valued at $2,500, which he won in his six days' race at Peterboro. For the last few years Mr. Brown has been engaged giving sensational athletic stunts on the stage and is now doing a turn at the Imperial. He has with him Billy Weston, Jr., Boy Scout, nephew of the famous walker of that name.

QUIMET DECIDES TO JOIN FLYERS

Champion Gopher Prefers Aviation Fighting to "Going Over the Top"

Boston, Nov. 29.—If he can have his way, Francis Quimet will not "go over the top" in France with the infantry regiment with which he is now training at Camp Devens, Ayer, Mass. The fact of the matter is that Quimet has set his mind upon becoming an aviator, and he is hopeful that when he sets foot in France it will be as one of the bird-men upon whom the allies will rely to bomb the Kaiser's borders out of their trenches.

"Some of my friends have advised me against aviation as being too dangerous," said Quimet with a laugh as he stood with a party of friends at Eaglewood after the match in which he and Jesse Guilford defeated Oswald Kirby and John G. Anderson by two up. "I have given the whole matter considerable thought, and have come to the conclusion that if a man is to 'get it,' he will 'get it,' no matter whether he is on the ground or up in the air."

Quimet will not be the only prominent golfer who has thrown in his lot with the birdmen. There is George Duncan, the well-known British professional, who has been flying over the lines in France for many months.

Quimet was practically unknown when Duncan made his tour of this country five or six years ago, but if the Bostonian should get close to where Duncan's squadron is engaged, he should have no difficulty in singling out the meteoric George, who had a style all his own in golf and doubtless has one something similar in his new calling.

Peace Talk.
(Lyttelton Baker, in N. Y. Herald.)
Peace! Have you harked to the pacifists' war song of peace—
That melody of hisses of serpents and cackling of geese?
Peace! 'Tis the driv'el of devils, a meaningless word—
A split in the clean face of Honor from something absurd.
Peace! 'Tis the cry of a homeless wind thro' a wreck—
The sigh of a subtle Pagan crumbling creed.
Peace! 'Tis the wail of a mother, as cometh the dawn of day,
Like the feet of Christ, when the fends have been hurled away.

OWNERS HESITATE TO SIGN PLAYERS
WAR THREATENED BETWEEN MAJORS

Uncertainty of Baseball Situation Causes Delay in Sending Out Contracts
Maybe Big Split Over Schedules of The Baseball Leagues

New York, Nov. 29.—Because of the uncertainty of baseball conditions, the major league clubs have made no effort to sign their players for next season, and most of the clubs will wait until the time limit set by the constitution, Feb. 1, before sending out the contracts. This state of affairs is unprecedented in baseball, because in other years the club owners were anxious to get their players signed up as soon as possible after the season closed.

The club owners are anxious to wait as long as possible because they want to see just what effect war conditions are going to have on baseball affairs. This action of hesitancy on the part of the club owners also indicates that there is going to be a great change in the salaries which the players are to receive next season.

The few players who have long-term contracts will probably get their high salaries next year, but none of the other players will. The day of the contract with the bonus clause is probably over. Yesterday, in discussing the bonus feature of the contracts of the past, President Tener of the National League said: "I see no reason why a baseball player should be offered a bonus. In the first place, when he signs his contract he pledges himself to keep himself in condition and give his very best efforts. Now if he signs a contract to give his best, why should there also be a provision for a bonus which calls for an extra amount if he does unusually well?"

President Tener stated plainly that he would not put one in the mails until he was not in favor of the bonus clause in contracts, and in voicing this opinion he has evidently first sounded the club owners of his league on the subject.

Branch Rickey, president of the St. Louis Cardinals, is the first of the club owners to announce the stand which all the owners will probably take on the contract question. "I haven't signed any players yet and I don't want to sign any until I have to. If baseball law did not require me to send them out, I would not put one in the mails until March 1 at the earliest. We want to wait and see what conditions are going to be next season before signing any contracts."

"There is no reason for baseball men," he continued, "to camouflage their position. It is only natural that there should be a strong tendency toward retrenchment. Every one knows that the war has hurt baseball and will continue to hurt it as it has all other business. Baseball must prepare for the struggle. Club owners and stockholders must not suffer too heavily if the game is to survive. Naturally the pay-rolls will have to be smaller than they were in 1917."

President H. N. Hempstead of the Giants is now working on a plan to minimize the inconvenience of the war tax at the Polo Grounds next season. The use of pennies at the ticket offices is sure to create no end of confusion and he is trying to devise a scale of prices which will give convenience to the greatest number of Polo Ground patrons.

According to the plan which Mr. Hempstead now has in mind the twenty-five cent bleachers seats will be raised to thirty cents in order to do away with the pennies. There are very few of these twenty-five cent bleacher seats, and the major leagues are making an effort each season to get them out entirely. In other cities, outside of New York and Brooklyn, however, the bleachers seats are numerous and a big prospect would surely go up if the twenty-five cent pasteboards were boosted to thirty cents.

Mr. Hempstead's plan on the seventy-five-cent seats, which is the most popular ticket of admission at the Polo Grounds is to sell them for eighty cents instead of eighty-three cents, the club making up the difference in the tax on these tickets. On the $1 and $1.50 tickets of course there would be no need of changing the prices as the tax would be ten and fifteen cents on these tickets. Mr. Hempstead expects that there will be objection to any arrangement which is made, but one will be adopted which will be most satisfactory to his patrons.

CHESS.
French Champion Wins.
David Janowski, French chess champion, scored another victory yesterday in his match with Charles Jaffe at the rooms of the New York City Chess Club, where he won the eighth game, after a contest lasting 72 moves. Janowski opened with a Queen's Gambit Declined, but Jaffe held his own well until the ending, in which Janowski had two bishops against a knight and a bishop. The French master was able to win a pawn, which gave him the victory. Of the eight games contested, Janowski won four, Jaffe one, and three were drawn.

Bradley, Jr., mentioned in 1918 and 1914 in the leading selection for "All America" halfback, has just received word that he has passed examinations for a commission in the regular army, and is to report at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., for further training.

Charles Brickley, the famous drop kicker and coach of the Boston College football team, is under orders to report for duty on the staff of Major-General John A. Johnston of the department of the northeast. Eddie Mahan is in the marines, and "Packs" Hardwick is "somewhere in France" as an artillery officer.

A Graded Out-Door Prison

If It Were Sought To Devise an Institution Which Should Effectively Prevent The Growth of The Power of Self Control in Men No Better Contrivance Than a Modern Prison Could be Found smort in disgust as he reads this—if he does. The reader no doubt thinks we are being a bit over the top.

esty of our nature, the reader doubts our word. But fortunately we have court records to back us up; for our friend sued the brewery for damages.

You see, the brewers used to throw out their used malt and the lees of the beer-vats in a huge pile, just back of our friend's fence. One day an enterprising young rooster whose moral upbringing had been neglected, hopped over the fence and tried some of the malt. It tasted good. Little did he know, poor bird, that he was getting into the clutches of the Demon Rum. He ate fermented malt till he couldn't jam down another grain.

Did it go to his head? Didn't it—dear reader, that young rooster accumulated the loveliest load of lush, the most beautiful and bountiful "bum" ever seen in that district—and it is a district rather famous for its "buns."

It was long after dark when the young rooster got home—trying to find the key hole, no doubt—and he aroused the whole henery. He staggered around crowing comic songs, insulted all the most respectable hens in the place, started in to whip the other roosters, and put the whole place on the blink generally.

Our friend was aroused by the uproar, and rushed out thinking that a rat or a stray dog had got into the hen house. He said that it was the finest representation of a hilarious "jag" in an old ladies' home that he ever saw. But, of course, he didn't know at the time what was wrong with the young rooster. He thought he was sick, and went out next morning and gave him some bread and milk—or whatever it is one gives sick roosters. But the rooster would have none of it. He didn't want bread and milk. What he wanted was some bromo-seltzer or a "Collins."

Was the young rooster enlightened as to the evil of his ways? Did he take the pledge and climb onto the water bucket? Alas, no! What that young rooster did was to fly right back over the fence that very afternoon and tank up once more. Worse still, he brought the other roosters with him.

That night there was another rough house in the henery—four times rougher than the other for there were four roosters in it. They went in for close harmony in their choral work and also did a little close scrapping. They even tried to whip our friend when he went out to restore order.

Talk about drunkards homes and temperance lessons—that henery would have furnished the W. C. T. U. and the prohibitionists generally with arguments for a five years' campaign. In a few days every chicken in the place had developed a taste and capacity for beer.

A CHILD DOESN'T LAUGH AND PLAY IF CONSTIPATED

If Peevish, Feverish and Sick, Give "California Syrup of Figs"

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, a gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the food waste, sour bile, and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then look and see that it is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company."

OVER 40 YEARS ON THE ROAD

The name of W. G. Reid of Hamilton, Ont., is a familiar one to thousands throughout the Dominion. For over forty years Mr. Reid has seen service as a commercial traveller. A letter recently received from him indicates how he suffered from Rheumatism, and at last found relief.

Read this letter:

Hamilton, Ont.

"About four years ago I wrote you of my condition from Muscular and Inflammatory Rheumatism and Kidney Trouble and my efforts through travel and change of climate to rid myself of these unwelcome guests, and how I only found relief in Gin Pills after spending a lot of time and money in foreign lands.

Since then Gin Pills have been my sheet anchor. I find in advancing years a tendency of the kidneys to get out of order more easily than formerly but a few doses of Gin Pills puts them right and wards off other more serious trouble. I feel it not only a duty but a pleasure to recommend Gin Pills for Kidney and Bladder Troubles to my thousands of personal friends throughout Canada to whom I am well known as a commercial traveller of over forty years' service."

Yours truly,
(Signed) W. G. Reid.

CATARRHAL DEAFNESS MAY BE OVERCOME

A simple, safe and reliable way that calls for no use of trumpets, phones or other instruments.

To be deaf is very annoying and embarrassing. People who are deaf are generally mighty sensitive on this subject. And yet many deaf folk carry around instruments that call attention to their infirmity. Therefore people who are hard of hearing, who suffer from head noises, or who are actually deaf from catarrhal trouble, will be glad to know of a simple recipe that can be easily made up at home for few cent's cost that is really quite efficient in relieving the disagreeable deafness and head noises caused by catarrh.

From any drug store get one ounce of Parmitin (double strength). Take this home and put it into a simple syrup made of 1/2 pint of hot water and four ounces of ordinary granulated sugar. Take a tablespoonful four times a day.

This treatment should by tonic action reduce the inflammation in the middle ear that a catarrhal condition would be likely to cause and with the inflammation gone the distressing head noises, headaches, cloudy thinking and dull feeling in the ears should gradually disappear. Anyone who suffers from catarrh, catarrhal deafness or head noises should give Parmitin a trial. It is pleasant to take and is quite inexpensive.

"I Was In It"

(Halifax Chronicle)

The inaugural speech which M. Clemenceau delivered the other day, as prime minister of France, has much in it of exceeding interest and instruction to Canadians at this time. The overwhelming vote of confidence which the chamber extended to him at the close of his address indicates quite clearly that his sentiments are those of the French deputies and that for the moment, at least, France is united behind him.

"Even the ranks of 'Tassany' in the persons of the Socialists, 'could scarce forbear to cheer,' and the vote, 418 to 66, is evidence that opposition from that source is not great at the moment.

Speaking of the duty of France, Premier Clemenceau said:

"The single, simple duty is to stand by the soldier, to live and fight for him, to renounce everything that is not of the Fatherland. Let everything today be blended, the claims of the front and the duty of the rear. Let every zone be the zone of war. All civilized nations are engaged in the same battle."

Like President Wilson, the premier of France visualizes, not merely an army of soldiers, but a nation of soldiers, for he said:

"Those silent soldiers of the workshops, deaf to evil suggestions; those peasants bending over the land, those women at their toil; those children who bring them aid—these are our 'politis,' who, thinking later on of the great work, may say, like those of the trenches, 'I was in it.'"

Later on in his great address, he said: "There have been mistakes. Let us pair them. There have been crimes. Let us punish them. That is our policy. No more pacifist campaigns; no more German intrigues; neither treason nor emi-treason. Justice is on the way."

Canadians would do well to think carefully over these extracts from the French premier's speech. They are point and meaning for us, as well as for the nation to which they were addressed. Before we proceed further along the path of dissent, upon which we have set foot, it would be well for us to pause and think whether it leads and what its end may be. Of course, as Sir Wilfrid Laurier has said, "If we lose this war, nothing else matters," but we are not going to lose this war, and it matters very much indeed to us now and for the future what part we shall have in the winning of it. Whatever comes, it must be a worthy part, a part to the full of our ability. We cannot falter now. Nobody in this country or out of it can truthfully say that we have yet approached our maximum of effort. We must go on until the end, cost what it may. And when the day of victory comes, as come it will, let us hope that each one of us will be able to say with our gallant allies, the French—"I was in it."

At twelve years of age he came to the United States, and for two years worked on a farm. He hoped for a larger field and found it in the city of New York. After speaking in tones of thrilling intensity for twenty minutes, he appealed, "Young man, keep your record clean." THE CENTENARY OF JOHN B. GOUGH—THE GREAT APOSTLE OF TOTAL ABSTINENCE

To the Editor of the Times-Star—

Sir,—It was just one hundred years since August 22nd of the present year since John B. Gough first saw the light of day. Born in England, his father a soldier and a Methodist, his mother a Baptist, he started on his somewhat varied career.
