Control of Coastwise Business Is the Assertion

PROSECUTION SUGGESTED

Matter Comes Out Before Committee in Washington—Instances Pointing to Assertion of Great Trust Handling the Business

(Canadian Press)

Washington, Jan. 18.—A grant combination practically controlling an American coastwise trade on the Atlantic and operating under an agreement with the railroads by which no rating is refused to independent steamship lines, except on cargo, was described to the House Shipping Committee yesterday by A. H. Bull, president of the A. H. Bull Steamship Company of New York.

Describing efforts of the combine to drive its company out of the New York and Porto Rican trade, Mr. Bull submitted circulars bearing the names of the Lunenburg Line and the New York and Porto Rican Steamship Company offering discounts of seventy per cent. on freight rates during the week when the sailing of a Bull liner from Porto Rico had been announced.

When asked by Representative Humphrey of Washington why he had not placed these facts before the department of justice, Mr. Bull said that he had been told that he was "as bad as any of the rest," because he had signed a bond in 1900 not to enter into the Porto Rican trade for ten years. He said he had decided to await the action of the congressional investigating committee.

Chairman Alexander and Representative Humphrey emphatically expressed their opinion that the combination should be prosecuted.

Harbor matters engaged the city commissioners at their meeting today. The most important matter was the scheme for reclaiming the area to the south of the Billings Wharf for use as industrial sites.

The commissioners also devoted some attention to the plans for dredging Nelson and Wellington slips, in Carleton, for providing additional accommodation for schooner traffic. It is believed that the federal government may consent to undertake the dredging.

Plans for sheathing the piling at the ferry approaches with oak plank, for which tenders have been called, were also discussed, but further information is required.

There was also some discussion of the proposals to have the length of the new government wharves at West St. John increased from 700 to 1,000 feet.

CONDENSED DESPATCHES

New York, Jan. 18.—The Canadian colony in New York was well represented at the funeral services in Calvary Episcopal church yesterday over the body of Dr. Wolfred Nelson, physician, author and sanitarian. His body was taken to Montreal last night for burial.

Rev. Dr. Chas. A. Eaton, president of the Canadian Society, was present with the following ex-officio: Dr. A. J. MacPherson, Dr. A. G. Humphreys and William James Evans, the British Schools and University Clubs and the McGill Graduate Association were also represented.

Washington, Jan. 18.—A world campaign against bookworms is to be one of the first uses to which the $100,000,000 endowment of the proposed Rockefeller foundation will be put.

Mooseport, N. S., Jan. 18.—John Thompson is dead, aged 100. He was born in Ireland. He took up a homestead at the age of 81.

Hamilton, Ont., Jan. 18.—In a suit brought by R. Hunt, a manufacturing "mist," against Dr. Anderson, for $10,000, an allegation of his wife's infidelity, an affidavit made by Mrs. Hunt that her husband had threatened to do her bodily harm if she came from Toronto to Hamilton to testify for the defendant. Chief Justice Auldbridge summoned Hunt to say why he should not be committed for alleged intimidation of a witness.

The funeral of Mrs. Hannah Gregory took place this afternoon from her late home in Main street. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. R. P. McKim and interment was in Fernhill.

OPPOSE FREE ENTRY OF CANADIAN PULP

American Paper Men Before the Washington Committee—The Other Side of Story Told by Mr. Norris

(Special to Times and Montreal Star)

Washington, D. C., Jan. 18.—The Canadian reciprocity act was thrown out before the house committee on ways and means yesterday afternoon and evening. Representatives of paper manufacturers who appeared before the committee spoke with that tone of impending disaster which characterized the utterances of the timber men a few years ago.

"Why," asked the president of the American Pulp & Paper Association, "should the United States be the dumping ground for the surplus production in Canada?" "We contend," said Morris Glitsner, of the American Wood Pulp Company, "that it is unfair competition to have Canadian wood pulp admitted free of duty when pulp from other foreign countries is subject to duty."

It is a fraud on our duties," said a third. And finally there was a plea for open market for new print paper with a rather unkindly rap at the efficiency of the American paper manufacturers themselves.

John Norris, chairman of the committee on paper of the American Newspaper Publishers Association, summed up their plea for more protection in a curt statement. "The reason why American mills are not so productive as Canadian," he said, "is because they are not so modern."

The Canadian reciprocity act, as pointed out yesterday, has been applied only so far as section two is concerned. "This admits Canadian wood pulp and newsprint paper valued at not more than four cents a pound," free when the wood used has not been subject to any export duty of embargo.

Various attempts have been made to secure a repeal, but they have so far failed, although at least one democratic measure was killed last session owing to the senate having added such an amendment as would have killed the reciprocity act. The democratic stand for maintenance of the act on the statute book because of some vague hope that reciprocity will one day be accepted by Canada.

The exhibit which the American Pulp and Paper Association has filed with its petition, includes extracts from the Star, referring to the action of the Quebec government in removing the restriction upon the exportation of pulp wood from crown lands of the Laurentian, Bois-Canadien, Price Bros. & Co., and Wayagamack Mills. This action on the part of the Quebec government, the brief adds, shows the necessity of placing the manufacture of paper in the United States under a ban where it will not receive the unrestricted competition of better located countries as to manufacture.

The brief states also that other nations are claiming the same privilege as Canada under the favored nations treaty and that "this would flood our markets to such an extent that many of our mills would positively be forced out of business, and some would have to curtail their operations to the extent of showing actual loss in operation."

The brief suggests that for the provision of section 2 of the act as to wood pulp, crown lands be substituted one providing where restrictions or embargoes are placed on export of wood pulp, importation of wood pulp from such countries shall be forbidden or similarly restricted. If an export duty is imposed, the amount of such duty shall be added to the duties already imposed upon wood pulp imported from the country in question.

As illustrating the effect of the reciprocity act, Mr. Glitsner said that the United States imported from Canada last year about one-sixth of its total importations of unbleached paper and of this about one-half was dumped free of duty.

Mr. Hastings said the paper industry in the United States comprised the output of nearly 80 establishments located in thirty-two states and employing 80,000 people. At least 85 per cent. of the production of those mills was of a quality of paper that could be imported free under the reciprocity act. Mr. Norris speaks of "trust"

In the course of his speech, Mr. Norris made some strong statements about "trust" in the United States. He told a peculiar story to tell about how a Wisconsin paper-maker had contracted with the Bois-Canadien mills at Shawinigan for a supply of 10,000 tons of paper. But the paper-maker was told that if he accepted the paper he would be driven out of the country, and part of the paper went to Lloyds in London.

The International Paper Company, he declared, had, in 1908, furnished the committee with "misleading statements." In 1909, Mr. Norris went on, American paper-makers had a chance to consummate an arrangement with Canada whereby a quantity of wood from the province of Quebec would be controlled by the American emsate, at the instigation of Senator Hale and of the International Paper Company upon the arrangement and undertook to bulldoze the Canadian province so that it could force them, by imposition of retaliatory duties, to let pulp wood come into the United States without restriction.

Instead of composing the situation this proved an ugly competition which will require years of intelligent and delicate hand to adjust. Nothing can be done by compulsion or tariff threats to provide wood for the American paper industry. That day has passed. Canada controls the pulpwood supply. Its authorities insist that they be dealt with upon a reasonable basis. "We ask for free paper and free pulp," he said, "regardless of Canadian restrictions."

Referring to the position in Quebec, Mr. Norris said that the province had cut off its timber exportation all but one twenty-fifth of the timber area. Owing to the embargo on pulp wood cut from crown lands, more than 12,000 square miles of timber rights in the province, were compelled to be sold to the American paper-makers, and he said that Mr. Norris has recently referred to one American paper-maker, who, while clamoring for protection on his own side, had been represented by the pulp-makers as a Canadian. He said that the pulp-makers were actually made in Germany. Protection for American paper-makers was secured by the "unscrupulous" method. The American paper-makers had been coddled and censored under protection until they had not tried to compete. In passing, Mr. Norris casually mentioned that "millions of dollars were available for the man who could find a satisfactory substitute for spruce pulp."

Hint as to intentions

The voice of American labor, or a section of it, was heard in a plea for protection. An instance was given where school books had been sent from New York city to England to be re-bound and then re-imported into the United States under a free list. Book-binding had practically been made in the country, and serious inroads were being made on the market for foreign trade.

Two stand-pat protectionists, with unusual insistence, strongly pressed a witness on this point, and their close questioning was most annoying. One was identified as Mr. Harrison. "Messrs. Forney and Payne stand alone on the burning deck of the country in question."

In a later observation, Mr. Harrison gave hint as to the probable decision of the Democratic members of committee referring to the putting of timber on the free list and the reduction of duties in other sections. "Mr. Norris has said that the pulp-makers you use your manufacture."

Hope For Freighter Eldorado Is Given Up

SAILED ON JANUARY 1

A Deep Sea Quirel Aired in New York—Armenia Captain Says Abessinia Ignored His Proffered Aid on Ocean

(Canadian Press)

New York, Jan. 18.—The freighter Eldorado of the Morgan line, controlled by the Southern Pacific Company, has gone to the port of missing ships with her young skipper, Captain W. E. Woods, and his officers and crew, thirty-nine in all. The company has given up hope of ever hearing from the ship, one of the last of the Cramps' iron creations, launched in Philadelphia in 1884. She sailed on January 1 from Baltimore with 6,000 tons of steel rails for Galveston. The phenomenal storm is supposed to have smashed her after she cleared the Virginia caps. Nothing was heard after she passed out of Chesapeake Bay.

United States revenue vessels have been searching for the Eldorado for more than a week, but they have found no wreckage from her. Her heavy cargo, if she had sprung a leak, might have been drifting helplessly. Captain Jacobson of the Armenia said he would have gone with her to the bottom. This is the belief of most of the British of the Morgan line. Twelve of the thirty-nine lost were native Americans.

New York, Jan. 18.—A deep sea quirel was aired along the wharves yesterday, when the White Star freighter Armenia arrived from Liverpool. The vessel tried to help the Hamburg-American line freighter Abessinia last Sunday when she was drifting helplessly. Captain Jacobson of the Armenia is indignant because, he says, the disabled steamer ignored his offers of assistance.

The Armenian said Captain Jacobson stood at the ship's mast all day, firing a long shot and holding a signal light, but received no answer. When the fog arose on his own side, he fired a shot. "I was certain," he said, "that the Armenia was in danger. I was certain that she would be able to accept the aid I offered. I think it was a shabby treatment," said Captain Jacobson today. "This is what we got for returning a long distance and offering considerable time in their service."

Election of New President of France is Well Received

(Canadian Press)

Paris, Jan. 18.—The French cabinet met today at the palace of the Elysee under the chairmanship of President Fallieres. All the ministers formally offered their resignations as a sequel to yesterday's election of Premier Raymond Poincaré as the chief of the executive. President Fallieres, however, requested his members of the government to retain their portfolios until their successors had been chosen. "He did not indicate the names of men who would be asked to form the new cabinet."

President-elect Poincaré took his coffee at an early hour this morning and then went for a brisk walk in the Avenue du Bois de Boulogne at a time when few persons were about, except those who were hurrying to work. Afterward he went to the foreign office of the Quai D'Orsay where he worked with two secretaries clearing up the arrears of national business.

Election Popular

The newspapers, even those professing monarchist and clerical sentiment, comment on Raymond Poincaré's election with favor and with a unanimity unprecedented in French politics. It is, in fact, difficult to find anywhere a dissentient word. Friends of Jules Poincaré, the strongest opponent of M. Poincaré in the balloting, aver that it was the conservative vote of the national assembly and that therefore with every one of its supporters the candidature of M. Poincaré would still have ninety-five republican radical votes more than Jules Poincaré as he won the election by a majority of 87.

WOMAN, AGRICULTURAL LABORER ALL HER LIFE; DIES AT THE AGE OF 118

Berlin, Jan. 18.—Fran Hedwige Stanwa, the oldest woman in Germany, is dead in Dortmund at the age of 118. She had worked all her life as an agricultural laborer.

All her relatives are dead, and the old woman frequently expressed her desire to die, as she had "lived too long."

MEDAL FOR EDISON FOR DEVICE IN SAFEGUARDING WORKERS' LIVES

EDISON AND THE RATHENAU MEDAL

AMERICAN MUSEUM OF SAFETY

New York, Jan. 17.—The American Museum of Safety at its annual meeting on Jan. 20 will present the Rathenau medal to Thomas A. Edison. The medal was first presented to Dr. Emil Rathenau of Germany in 1908 on his seventieth birthday. Hereafter one medal is to be struck from the original die each year for the American Museum of Safety to award to the person who has perfected the best device for safeguarding life and health in the electrical industry. Mr. Edison gets the medal because of his storage battery in mines, tunnels, buildings where explosives are made or stored or where explosive gases are generated, his material reduced the hazard of workers.

LEAVES PULPIT TO KNOCK OUT BLACK-GUARD

Preacher Suffers Long Time From Disturbers; Then Effectively Ends Matter

Sydney, Jan. 18.—Rev. John Hosking, Congregational minister, who does a great deal of work in the slum quarters of Melbourne, has given a lesson to a gang of roughs who visited his church by way of a Sunday evening pastime and interrupted the service by whistling and making obscene remarks. Earlier they had broken the windows.

Mr. Hosking left his pulpit, took off his surplice and, walking up the aisle, dealt him a heavy blow on the jaw. The interrupter went down and his followers were so astonished that they were easily ejected.

"This was a strange way to conduct a church," said Mr. Hosking afterwards, "but what can a man do? Many of the neighborhood are deprived of these services because some twenty hoodlums choose to try to break them up? I have to be a detective and a pugilist as well as a preacher."

COURTS MORE SEVERE IN DEALING WITH STRIKERS IN RIOTS IN NEW YORK

New York, Jan. 18.—Brighter hopes of settling the differences in various branches of the garment makers' trade yesterday failed to smother the hellish spirit of the strikers. It was a day of continuous small riots. At one factory the strikers received their way into the workroom only to be driven out by a militant forewoman, swinging a club covered with sharp spikes.

Several street fights occurred and arrests resulted. Police magistrates showed a disposition to be more severe in penalizing men and women arrested in recent riots. Several received workhouse sentences of from fifteen to thirty days.

New York, Jan. 18.—The strike of dress and shirt waist makers, one of several trades involved in the garment makers' walkout, was settled today and most of the 37,000 workers will return to the shops next Monday. The terms include a general increase in wages, shorter hours, the appointment of a board to settle questions of sanitation and a permanent system of arbitration.

New York, Jan. 18.—With half past and umbrella several hundred women fought the police today in one of the fiercest riots since the beginning of the strike. A policeman who tried to protect male strike breakers was beaten black and blue. The policeman arrested one woman, but had to summon twelve more blue coats before he could get his prisoner to the station house. Five women were arrested.

SAD CASE IN MONCTON

Moncton, N. B., Jan. 18.—Maude Collins of Newfoundland, who was found with a knife wound in her side, having attempted suicide, was examined by Doctor R. L. Botsford and pronounced insane. Chief of Police Rideout has wired St. John's, to locate her parents.

TRESPASS CASE

The case of Daniel Doherty and John Doyle, charged with trespassing on I. C. R. property, was set down for hearing Monday morning.

ELECTRIC FANS IN MID-WINTER

A RECORD IN NEW YORK

Mercury Higher Yesterday Than on January 17 in Any of Last 43 Years—Ice Runs in Ontario River

New York, Jan. 18.—Electric fans buzzing in offices here, mosquitoes in New Jersey, a snowless Vermont, bluebirds and robins in Virginia, apple trees budding in Maryland, outdoor baseball practice in Philadelphia, and a handball picking in many places are reports attesting today of the unusually mild winter in the east.

Popular belief that yesterday was one of the warmest January days this city ever experienced, is borne out by search of the meteorological records showing that yesterday's 50 degrees is the highest the thermometer has registered for January 17 since the weather bureau was established forty-three years ago.

The Hudson river is being navigated at a later date than any time since 1864, when Robert Fulton was running his steamship Car of Neptune between New York and Albany as late as January 29. It is customary to close the river for navigation on December 15.

Vermont in Maine most of the lakes and rivers are open, but the ice companies are still chopping for two weeks of wet weather which is required for a good ice crop.

Toronto, Jan. 18.—For the first time in the last thirty years, the Humber river has broken up into concrete pie under the G. T. R. bridge. The jam lasted only a few moments. The ice was six inches thick.

Montreal, Jan. 18.—Following a high temperature of 46 and a minimum of 35, yesterday the warmest January day in eighty years, spring like weather continued in Montreal today. At eight o'clock this morning, the mercury was about 49, with indications of going higher. Snow has disappeared from the streets. A record of the weather bureau was established forty-three years ago.

The temperature in St. John's today is in the forties. There is no snow, but no ice; there is no winter. Only on one or two days has the mercury reached zero and the maple sap has been running.

TORONTO SENDS HOME RULE CONGRATULATIONS AND A DRAFT FOR $2,000

Resolution Also Brought up in the United States Congress

Toronto, Jan. 18.—The Toronto branch of the United Irish League yesterday wired congratulations to John E. Redmond on the result of the vote on the home rule bill. At the same time a draft for $2,000 was sent to T. E. Fitzpatrick, of Boston, treasurer of the United Irish League of America.

Washington, Jan. 18.—A resolution congratulating the British House of Commons and the Irish people upon the passage of the Irish Home Rule Bill by the House of Commons was introduced in the house yesterday by Representative Goodwin, of Arkansas. The resolution declared that the Irish "struggles for freedom have appealed to all true Americans, who love freedom," congratulated the people of Ireland and the House of Commons upon the passage of the home rule bill, and directed the secretary of state to forward copies of the resolution to Premier Asquith, John C. Redmond and Augustine Barrill, Chief Secretary for Ireland.

A cablegram was sent by Representative Donohoe of Pennsylvania, to John E. Redmond, the Irish leader, congratulating him for "friends of Ireland in the American congress" upon the passage of the bill.

THE POWERS' NOTE PRESENTED TO TURKEY

London, Jan. 18.—A despatch to the Daily Telegraph from Constantinople, by way of Constantia, Roumania, says: "A reign of terror prevails in the Stambul quarters. An incident took place yesterday. The union and progressive party demands the resumption of the war."

Constantinople, Jan. 18.—After the presentation of the collective note by the ambassadors an informal meeting of the Turkish ministers was held at the office of the grand vizier. The discussion of the note and the drafting of the reply were, however, postponed until today.

London, Jan. 18.—The amassatorial conference has decided, according to the Daily Telegraph, that Mount Athos, the "Holy Mountain," consent of Constantinople, shall be declared an independent church republic and be governed by monks with the emperor patriarch as president. It will be under the protectorate of all the orthodox Balkan kingdoms.

Mount Athos, which is 250 feet high, has on it a large number of convents, chapels and grottoes. Many of the monks there live as hermits.

THE U. S. TARIFF. Washington, Jan. 17.—A substantial reduction of the tariff all along the line in the wool and paper schedules and the retention of approximately the existing duties on tobacco, cigars and similar articles constitute parts of the Democratic tariff revision programme to be presented to the coming extra session of Congress.

One descending to this planet would think that the landries had disappeared and that the profession of washing and ironing had been given up by all those who once indulged in it if one judges by the clothing that is seen.

These are not the only advantages. The softness of crepe gives one a chance to pack a good many garments in a small space. From lace underwear the price would be double. Therein lies the economy of buying crepe de chine.

It is to the woman who must be economical and who has very little time at her disposal for mending and renewing face and embroidery that these garments should appeal. Every woman knows what the iron does to lace; the damage must be repaired each week and keeps one constantly at the needle.

What is known as French underwear is always reliable, but the American shops continue to hold it at such high prices because of its hand embroidery and hand work. It is not a pretty fashion and should never be taken up by those who like to dress in a prominently brought out in crepe de chine underwear, and many women like it better.

The Purpose Behind Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is made for the purpose of supplying an absolutely pure stimulant of uniform quality and strength, for the use of the physician in the treatment of disease and for hospital and household purposes.

It is made to meet the demand for a high-grade tonic stimulant free from the injurious by-products contained in beverage whiskeys and suitable for the use of the delicate, those who are not entirely well and the aged who require a tonic stimulant to help maintain good health and strong faculties during advancing years.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is distilled from a fermented mash made absolutely pure from malted grain, and as musty or diseased grain cannot be malted, it will be seen that in this alone Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey has an asset of inestimable value.

WORK IS PREVENTIVE Five Feet, Slim, is Member of Los Angeles Force - Wears Drab Uniform Trimmed With Brown - The Work She Does

(Toronto Star) A diminutive little woman, just five feet in height, inclined to be rather slim, without the stern features or the dominating manner, but with kindly, motherly grey eyes and a soft, pleasing voice - that is Mrs. Alice Stephens Wells, Policewoman from the southern city of Los Angeles, who reached Toronto this forenoon on a special train to give encouragement to the movement in all the cities of the continent.

Wears Uniform The most distinguishing about Mrs. Wells is her uniform, which she wore upon her arrival in order that her new friends might know her appearance upon the streets of Los Angeles. It is an olive drab, to quote the wearer, trimmed with a heavy brown braid, neatly tailored, but tucked closely about the throat, and relieved in two places by brightening touches. One is a massive gold brooch upon the left wrist, the second the glittering police insignia of authority worn upon the breast.

Mrs. Wells speaks clearly of her purpose most confidently of the work to be accomplished and with the greatest satisfaction of what has already been done. She enjoys the distinction of being the first policewoman in the United States or appointment coming more than two years ago, in response to a petition from the citizens. The movement was organized by herself, it came before the suffrage was granted to women in that state, and has received the encouragement of two additional officers.

Mrs. Wells' work is largely protective, dealing mostly with women and children. Upon occasion this small woman makes arrests though her form does not seem proportionate enough to cope with much opposition. The flattering part of her work is that she has no ready-made opposition, and many of the people whom she has been forced to deal with have expressed gratitude that she was not a man who had brought them to task.

To Encourage Other Cities "My work," Mrs. Wells states, "in coming to this and other cities, will be to do as much as I can to encourage other cities to do as much as we are doing. We wish to let the women who are already working for such innovations know that we are behind them in the movement. Everywhere I go I am invited to do good work. In fact I do not think the police force in any city could do its best work without such work as there are so many cases in which a woman can help, where a man cannot. Mrs. Wells, despite her size is a resolute little woman, and gives the impression of one who, when starting a case, would not readily let go, or turn it over to the male police. In fact, she states that such a case of hers, where she has no previous record, called out upon a case, of merely working up details and then turning these over to the men. She sees it to the end, even through the courts.

Much of the work of the woman police is to be found among moving picture houses, dance halls and in the protection of the young. Women and children come especially under their supervision, and also the handling of delicate cases which should never be given publicity.

Mrs. Wells is quite sure that if Toronto chose to organize such a branch they would be very glad to see it. She is a radical one at the time, seeing that it was necessary to have a petition presented to the city council. She has counselled that her tour through the States will be followed by beneficial results, that police women will be appointed in some of the cities she has visited.

Any person who wishes to hear Mrs. Wells' personal views and experiences may do so tonight at the Women's Canadian Club. A free lecture is being delivered in Association Hall.

THREE SINGERS TOGETHER

Youths End Lives at Restaurant Table - Loved Same Girl Vienna, Jan. 18 - Three youths entered a cafe in Vienna the other night, seated themselves in a secluded corner and ordered tea. Soon after, the noise of falling bodies was heard. A waiter hastened to the spot, and found the three youths lying on the floor, evidently in the throes of fatal results. Assistance was called and it was found that the youths had taken poison with fatal results.

The father of one of the youths identified his son, the identity of the others was established by means of an envelope found on one of them. It was addressed to a girl and contained a photograph of the three youths, taken together.

The girl who is a mere child, to whom they were all ardently attached, was asked by the police to go to the room where the bodies lay. She appeared little affected and said the youths had all threatened to commit suicide on her account and to send their triple portrait in the hour of death.

GROWING OF TOBACCO IN THE EMERALD ISLE

Government Grant to Encourage Farmers to Grow It

DISPUTE ABOUT METHOD Irish Crown Tobacco Gaining a Reputation - A Chance For Large Business in Turkey Because of War There

The "Act to Restrict the Use of Tobacco by Young Persons," passed by parliament in July, 1908, is a very important law, and its enactment under government leadership, with the support of both sides of the house, the chief criticism to which it was subjected being that it did not go far enough, is significant. It means that parliament is increasingly favorable to the tobacco industry, and it is not surprising that it is necessary, reasonable and practicable, and it means that the world of hard-headed business and professional men in and out of parliament are convinced by observation and scientific testimony that the use of tobacco by young persons is so seriously harmful as to imperatively call for legislative interference with liberty in order to save the lives and preserve the health of Canadian boys and girls - in other words, that the national well-being demanded such action.

The law is not perfect. The age limit, might well have been raised to eighteen, as was done unanimously by the commonsense, though it was subsequently reduced to sixteen in order to save the lives and preserve the health of Canadian boys and girls - in other words, that the national well-being demanded such action.

The following is a summary of the provisions of the law: Section 1 - Makes it a crime to "directly or indirectly sell, give or furnish to a person under the age of sixteen years any cigarettes or cigars, or any other form of tobacco, or to sell, give or furnish to such a person tobacco in any form other than cigarettes." It is known or has reason to believe it is "for the use of that person." The maximum penalty is, for a first offence, $10, for a second, $25, and for subsequent offences, $100.

Section 2 - Provides for the forfeiture of tobacco. This section makes it "the duty of any constable" or other person having similar powers, "to seize any cigarettes, cigars, or tobacco in any form in the possession of any person apparently under the age of sixteen years, who he finds smoking or chewing tobacco, or about to smoke or chew tobacco in any street or public place." Note - (a). It is the duty of constables to seize, etc.; it is not left optional. (b). This is limited to "any street or public place."

Section 3 - Makes it a crime for any person under 16 to "smoke or chew tobacco in any street or public place, or to purchase or have in his possession, whether for his own use or not, or to purchase or have in his possession tobacco in any form other than cigarettes or cigars." The penalty is, for a first offence, a reprimand, for a second offence, one dollar, and for a third offence, four dollars.

Section 4 - Makes it "the duty of the justice to examine under oath all persons brought before him who are charged with being guilty" under this section, "as to where and from whom such persons" obtained the cigarettes or tobacco, and to cause the fiscal to give such information shall be deemed a contempt of the court," which is punishable by imprisonment.

Section 5 - Deals with the sale of cigarettes, cigars, and tobacco in automatic slot machines. Persons under sixteen are not to have access to them. The magistrate may order the removal of such machines or give any other order necessary in getting to prevent persons under sixteen from making use of them for the purpose of smoking.

Section 6 - Defines "cigarette" as "including any small cigar made of tobacco rolled up in paper, tobacco leaf, or any other material." Section 7 - Puts upon the defendant the onus of proving that he is above sixteen years of age and falling thus, he is to be held as under sixteen if he "appears to the justice" to be so.

The fact that such a law has been passed by parliament gives to parents, S. S. teachers, day school teachers, ministers, and others, a golden opportunity of effectively warning boys against the use of cigarettes and tobacco. It is now a crime for any youth under sixteen to use or to have in his possession cigarettes. Why did parliament make it a crime? Its members are not much influenced by merely moral and religious considerations - not as much as they ought to be - but they are powerfully influenced by the teaching of science and economics in considering such a question. They were persuaded that the use of tobacco by boys is so harmful to their physical, mental and moral powers that to allow them access to the weed is a crime against human progress and national welfare. Cannot those who teach the young on this ground make an irresistible appeal to boys to abstain from tobacco apart from the enforcement of the law themselves?

WORK FOR NEWCOMERS

To a Times' reporter this morning, Mr. Gilchrist, provincial immigration official, said that in his opinion the majority of employers of labor in St. John and vicinity were not doing their share in building up the city. "Men are flocking to St. John," he said, "as a result of the advertising, and many of them are unable to secure employment, and consequently leave the city. I think it would be a good policy if the employers would strain a point and make a place in their establishments for some of the newcomers, if only for a time, so as to give them a chance to get other employment. At this time of the year, business is practically every day quiet, but if the employers would only keep them on until the dull period is over, they would doubtless find lots of work to do when the busy season starts, and that is just the time when they are usually short of help."

DR. PUGSLEY'S SPEECH

"Is the Empire in peril for the want of $30,000,000?"

This striking question, asked by Dr. Pugsley in the course of his great speech in the naval debate, marks clearly the difference between the policies of the two parties in Canada.

The Empire is not in peril for want of $30,000,000, and to ask the question in the pointed way in which it is asked by Dr. Pugsley shows the utter absurdity of the attitude of Mr. Borden and his supporters.

They would be content to borrow $35,000,000 from John Bull and then offer it to him as Canada's contribution to the defence of the Empire.

If all that Britain wanted was $30,000,000 to ensure the safety of the Empire, that amount of money could easily be raised without any noisy demonstrations at Ottawa or elsewhere.

The real need is not for a cash contribution, but for Canadian men and ships to be ranged up by the side of men and ships from the other parts of the Empire to share in the task of imperial defence.

Dr. Pugsley shows very clearly that there need be no waste of time in establishing Canadian shipyards, which could, if necessary, construct Dreadnoughts as well as cruisers and smaller craft.

The history of the Fox River Ship Building Co., which, by the way, could be repeated at a Canadian port such as St. John. If it could not, then Canadians are indeed an inferior people.

Dr. Pugsley points out that if the policy of the Laurier government had been carried out, St. John would have had a ship-building plant established by the great British firm of Cammell, Laird & Co.

One of Mr. Hazen's first acts as the representative of St. John in parliament and in the government was to return to this firm their deposit, and thus decline to carry out a policy which would have been of high great value to this port and to the whole Dominion.

The speech delivered by Dr. Pugsley is one of the strongest and most practical delivered during the naval debate, and it must make a strong impression upon parliament and upon the country.

THE NAVAL QUESTION

The issue between the parties in Canada with regard to naval defence is clear cut. The government favors a policy of tribute, and apparently believes that Canadians should line their fighting ships.

The Liberal party on the other hand insist that Canada should build a self respecting navy and build and maintain her own navy, which would be an integral part of the navy of the British Empire.

Under the Borden policy Canada would have no responsibility and no control. A deadly blow would be struck at the principle of autonomy, for which Canadians have struggled all through the history of the country.

Of what benefit to Canada would it be to be represented on the Imperial Defense Committee since that committee has nothing to do with deciding the issue of peace or war?

The time has come for the people to face the issue squarely, and decide whether they are in favor of a retrograde step in relation to Canadian autonomy, and whether they are content with the humiliating position of a nation that is not prepared to defend itself but must pay tribute for defence.

There is as little reason for objecting to establishing shipyards in Canada today as there will be five or ten years hence. The little Canadians who say that we cannot build ships and cannot man them are not the men who should be in control of the destiny of this country.

The Liberals at Ottawa do well to press for an appeal to the country upon this question, and for a choice by the people between the Borden policy and that announced by Sir Wilfrid Laurier. There is no emergency. The statements made by Premier Aquith, Mr. Winston Churchill, Sir Edward Grey and others in authority in England are conclusive on this point.

Such being the case it is the duty of Canada to begin the creation of a Canadian navy, so that she may be in a position to protect her own coasts and trade routes. The people of the country will never consent to a policy which places them in a humiliating position, and talks from them even in the smallest degree that autonomy which, exercised in all the overseas states, is the surest bond of empire.

Any attempt to centralize authority will lead to disaster which will be infinitely more injurious to the cause of imperial unity than the largest measure of local autonomy. Mr. Borden did not go to England to learn what would be the best course for Canada to pursue in the matter of naval defence, but to learn in what way a contribution could best be made that would not be objected to by his Nationalist allies.

He has learned that the Nationalists are not nearly as formidable as he had feared. Two of his bright and shining lights have preferred office to principle and have repudiated their former attitude with regard to the navy. The defence of Canada and of the Empire ought not to be entrusted to men of this stamp.

If the same were submitted to the people there is no reasonable doubt that the true Canadian and Imperial policy of the Liberal party would be endorsed.

BUILDING IN CANADA

The Financial Post of Canada publishes this week some very interesting facts relative to building operations during the past year. It is learned that in cities from which returns have been received fully $390,000,000 were spent last year in new buildings, and the Financial Post believes that it would be safe to add another $100,000,000 to this amount for buildings planned and erected in 1912, exclusive of all public works and improvements of that kind. The following is a list of thirteen cities, with the Financial Post's figures showing the value of the building permits granted last year—

Toronto	$27,401,761
Winnipeg	20,475,350
Calgary	20,394,229
Montreal	19,641,955
Vancouver	18,628,652
Edmonton	14,446,819
Victoria	8,208,155
Regina	7,940,230
Saskatoon	5,491,200
Hamilton	5,275,797
Moose Jaw	4,211,285
Port William	3,621,250
Ottawa	3,621,250

Four other cities show a value of more than $1,000,000. The greatest increase in any one city last year was in Edmonton, the figures being $14,446,819 in 1912 compared with $3,672,280 in 1911.

St. John does not figure in the big list for 1912, and this is only an approximate estimate for the year, which shows the necessity of a better system of getting at the value of building permits so that the city may get the benefit of the announcement. With the large contracts to be carried out this year the St. John statement for 1913 should be one such as will make the western cities sit up and take notice.

The Financial Post shows that the building operations in the west last year were three times as large, on a basis of population, as in the east. For example, the little town of Weyburn shows for nine months a larger amount in value of building permits than is credited to St. John for the whole year, and the figures for St. John are greater than those of Halifax. From inquiries made the Financial Post concludes that the outlook throughout Canada for the present year is exceedingly bright and points to a new record in the east as well as the west.

The Toronto Globe points out that at the Guelph Agricultural and Experimental Union it was shown that on two and a half acres intensively farmed a clear profit of $2,700 per year was made, in addition to supplying the home with vegetables, fruit, eggs, honey, milk, butter and the like. It was also shown that 10 acres was too much for one family to cultivate intensively. There should be a great opportunity for intensive farming close to St. John.

Remove these delinquent girls from the conditions which have served as degrading influences and these same poor little children—criminal infants—will grow into most splendid citizens," said Miss Mary Bartelme of Chicago, the newly appointed assistant judge of the juvenile court. "I intend," she announced, "to devote my time not so much to passing judgment as to assisting those unfortunate brought to me. Delinquent children in a great majority of cases are not to blame. They are simply victims of circumstance."

The residents on Douglas Avenue have given practical evidence of public spirit, which is very greatly to their credit as citizens. At a meeting held last evening they approved of a proposition for the paving of Douglas Avenue, the property holders to pay one-third of the cost, the total cost not to exceed $21,000. Douglas Avenue is a very important thoroughfare and will become more important when the new bridge is built, and there is greater development on the west side and in the parish of Lunenburg. No doubt the street railway company may be prevailed on to do something toward further beautifying the Avenue, and it may be hoped that the work will be carried on. Not only do the residents manifest a public spirit, but they would be really adding to the value of their property, and for this reason the action which they propose should be encouraged.

The Maritime Merchant declares itself in favor of the parcel post. It admits that the attitude may not be approved by some of its readers who are engaged in the retail trade, but it points out that the parcel post must come and that there is no use in protesting against it. Those who may be affected by it should therefore consider best how they may turn it to their advantage, rather than devote any time to an attempt to ward off the inevitable. This is the right view to take. There was strong opposition to the measure in the United States but it was of no avail. Canada in adopting the parcel post will merely be following the example of other countries, whose experience has proved that the measure is of benefit to the majority of the people. The Merchant is able to point out various ways in which merchants may be benefited by the cheaper transportation of small parcels, and especially how it will work out to the advantage of the general public.

My Digestion Is Now Good

And I Feel Like a Young Man Since Using Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills.

Prof. A. T. Smith.

What a horrible condition the digestive system gets into when the liver becomes sluggish and the bowels constipated. The poisonous waste matter is thrown back into the blood stream and finds its way into all parts of the body, causing pains and aches and feelings of fatigue and misery.

It is wonderful how quickly Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills sweep the poisons from the digestive system and enable the organs of digestion to resume their normal functions.

Prof. A. T. Smith, 1 Mt. Charles Street, Montreal, and formerly of Boston, Mass., writes: "I suffered for many years from bad digestion, constipation and horrible headaches. I have been treated by many doctors without any result. One day a friend in Boston advised the use of Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills. After taking five boxes I noticed great improvement, and after the fourth box I was completely cured. My digestion is good. I never feel any pain in the back. My head is clear and I feel like a young man. I think Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills are one of the best medicines on earth."

LIGHTER VEIN

STAMP-LOCKING

The chief was in a bad temper when he arrived at the office in the morning, and forthwith he proceeded to vent his wrath on the head of the pretty young lady who manipulated his typewriter.

"Miss Jones," he said testily, "can't you keep my desk tidy? Everything on it is so small, in a state of confusion."

"Well, how can I keep it tidy when you say you don't want anything disturbed?"

"What's the use of arguing? I said I didn't want papers disturbed. Take it away! But the rubbish—take it away, take it away! Also the great sheet of postage stamps. I don't want it!"

"And where shall I put it?"

"Oh, don't ask so many questions! Put it where you like—anywhere."

"Very well," she cooed, and licking the sheet of stamps with her dainty little tongue, she stuck it on her employer's bald and shining head, then left the office to seek another post.

AN EASY SOLUTION

The mother of Master Gustave Adolphus Bins was given a Christmas party, and on the sole condition that he behaved himself, he was allowed to participate in the festivities.

The guests were seated round a friendly cup of tea, preparatory to the games, and were waited on by a maid with a swollen face. The youthful saint scrutinized the rounded contour of her cheek with keen avidity as she moved to attend to the performance of her duties. Then, rising and stretching himself to the full extent of his four foot nothing, he thrust both hands deep into the pockets of his black velvet fault-finders, and cried, as he glanced around:

"Mother, I do wish you could have toothache, instead of Jane."

His adoring mother showed her pearly teeth in an amused smile at her expectant friend as she asked:

"Why, darling?"

"Because," answered the small incorrigible, as he resumed his seat on the black satin hassock which so completed the picture, "you can pull yours out and Jane can't."

CONSTIPATION CURED BY BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Baby's Own Tablets are the best medicine a mother can use to relieve her little ones from constipation and all other stomach and bowel troubles. They act as a gentle laxative, are pleasant to take and are absolutely safe. Concerning them Mrs. Philippe St. Pierre, St. Perpetue, Que., says: "My baby was badly constipated and was cross all the time. Nothing I gave her seemed to do any good till I began Baby's Own Tablets. They are the best medicine in the world for little ones and quickly relieved my baby." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

It's well to pay as you go, and also to save enough to pay your way back.

KING STREET STORE

This sale is a practical demonstration of the science of economy

People all over the country know that when we have a sale we offer undoubted bargains. This season we are beginning a little earlier than usual. The fact that we have had an exceptionally mild winter has left us with a large stock of winter goods on hand, these we do not want to carry over through the summer. We would sooner count money than felt shoes or overshoes. We were fortunate in acquiring the Dorothy Dodd samples, consisting of a pair of all the styles made by that famous maker. Beautiful goods, but of course, mostly all of sample sizes—3, 3 1-2, 4, 4 1-2 and a few 5. These goods would regularly sell at from $5.00 to $7.00 a pair. SALE PRICE $2.98.

DOUGLAS AVENUE

Questions of Improvements Discussed and Committee Appointed

The question of the paving of Douglas Avenue came before a representative meeting of the property holders of that street in the Douglas Avenue school building, last evening. Thomas Hilliard was appointed chairman, and George E. Day, secretary. The meeting was well attended and the proposals, one of which was for a boulevard, the other for paving only, came in for some very spirited discussion. As Douglas Avenue is one of the main arteries of the city which carries the traffic, and makes the connection between the east and west sides of St. John, the residents feel that only a fair share of the expense connected with any improvements should be borne by the inhabitants of the district, as they are not the only parties concerned who would reap the benefits from an improved condition of the road. After a discussion which displayed a great deal of public spirit on the part of the residents of Douglas Avenue, a motion was proposed by J. Fraser Gregory, and seconded by D. F. Pidgeon to the effect that "the meeting approves of the paving of Douglas Avenue without boulevard, and that inasmuch as the Avenue is a main artery between the east and west sides, they should not be called upon to pay any large proportion of the cost, yet they would agree to pay thirty-three and one-third per cent. of the cost not to exceed $21,000 for pavement to end of water pipes, at the present time opposite house of J. E. Cowan."

In the course of the meeting D. F. Pidgeon gave some detailed particulars of how the proposals would work out, and the individual cost to the property holders of the Avenue.

The following committee was appointed to take up the proposition and go more particularly into details: D. F. Pidgeon, W. H. White, C. C. Phelps, L. C. Prime, George E. Day and W. G. Estabrooks. It was then moved and carried that the meeting be adjourned until Friday, January 24.

GREY NUNS MAY HAVE TO GIVE UP HOSPITAL WORK

Morrisstown, N. J., Jan. 18.—The Grey Nuns, from Montreal, who have been in charge of All Souls Hospital since its organization twenty-one years ago, will, it is said, withdraw in a few months and turn over the institution to the Sisters of Charity from the College of St. Elizabeth at Convent Station. The finances of the hospital are reported to be in bad shape, by reason of the fact that despite the great bulk of charity patients the hospital received not a cent of state, county or municipal aid, and contributions had not been as generous as hoped.

YOUNG TURKS' PROJECT BLOCKED

London, Jan. 18.—A Constantinople despatch to the Morning Post sent by way of Katerin's says an attempt was made on Monday to foment a disturbance which apparently had for its object the overthrow of the cabinet of Grand Vizier Kiamil Pasha. The demonstration was to have been made near the palace, and was ostensibly a protest against peace at the price set by the allies in London. The organizers of the demonstration, however, were forestalled by the "work of a strong force of cavalry and infantry who paraded

Lost Work of Art Found

Rome, Jan. 18.—A lost painting, "Virgin and Child," by an Italian painter, Gentile de Fabriano, has been discovered in a small church in the town of Velletri, twenty-one miles from Rome, where it was taken in the middle of the sixteenth century by Cardinal Ginnsai, the Bishop of Velletri, who removed the painting from the church of Saint Cosmas and Demetrius here. Since that time the painting has not been identified.

LOCAL NEWS

POSTPONED. The curling match between the Thistles and St. Andrew's, scheduled for today, was postponed on account of the condition of the ice.

REUNION ON MONDAY. The members of the Father Matthew Association on Monday evening next, in their rooms in St. Malachi's Hall, will hold a reunion. An entertaining programme is being arranged.

HORSES AT AUCTION. Market Square had the appearance of a horse fair this morning. Half a dozen city horses were offered for sale by Auctioneer F. L. Potts, and two other horses were also sold by him. The prices ranged from $35 to $127.50.

TRAVEL HELD UP. Street car traffic in Main street was held up for a little while this morning when a part of the machinery on one of the cars became detached, dragging heavily so that it was necessary to bring the car to a stop.

ELEVEN DEATHS. The number of deaths recorded this week at the board of health offices was eleven, caused by the following: Scalding and cardiac disease, two each; and uraemia, syncope, phthisis, meningitis, pneumonia, hydrophalus, and cerebral hemorrhage, one each.

ON INSPECTION TRIP. John Kenney, Jr., will leave on Monday morning on a trip around the province to inspect moving picture houses. He will visit Richibucto, Newcastle, Chatham, Campbellton, Bathurst, St. Leonard's, Grand Falls, Woodstock, and Fredericton and will endeavor to complete the circuit in a week.

SENT TO THE REFORMATORY. Redvers Speight, a young lad who was before Judge Forbes some weeks ago on the charge of truancy, and who was allowed to go at that time on condition that he attend school, was brought before the judge a few days ago and committed to the Boys' Industrial Home.

GYPSY SMITH IS COMING HERE. Gypsy Simon Smith, a famous evangelist, will sail for St. John in March to conduct special services in connection with the Murray Mission. Gypsy Smith is now touring Ireland and Wales and is reputed meeting with very great success. Like his world-famous cousin, "the great" Gypsy Smith, he is not only a powerful speaker but possesses a voice of rare beauty.

THE STREET RAILWAY. The proposal of the Saint John Railway Company for the financing of the improvement to the street, which the city has made one of the requirements of their extension, will be brought before the common council on Monday afternoon. While the commissioners are not entirely in favor of issuing bonds for this purpose the proposition as it now stands is regarded as much better for the city than anything which was first proposed.

DEATH OF MRS. BROWN. The death of Mrs. Louisa Brown, wife of J. S. Brown, occurred at her home, 331 Union street, at an early hour this morning. Mrs. Brown had suffered for some time with bronchitis but had been seriously ill for only the last few days. She was in the seventy-first year of her age and is survived by two daughters, Mrs. McMann of St. John, and Mrs. Austin of Boston. The funeral will be held on Monday afternoon at 2:30 from her late residence.

SEEK PARDON. It is understood that an effort is being made to have Moey Kraske, a Russian Jew, who was arrested several weeks ago on the charge of stealing from the crew of the steamer Westport, and sentenced to a term in jail, released from custody. The young fellow has no friends in this part of the country, his home being in the States, and the officials here have received several letters from the boy's mother asking that her son be released. Several local men have interested themselves in the matter, and a communication has been sent to the minister of justice asking whether the lad be pardoned. Kraske was sentenced to six months in jail.

Y. W. C. A. WORK. Word having been received by the Dominion Council of the Young Women's Christian Association that St. John was showing a tendency for such an institution to be established here Miss Jamieson, the secretary, was sent to this city to determine if sufficient support would be shown. She was received on all sides with sympathetic interest and the expressions of opinion which she gleaned were entirely evident of the desirability of providing facilities here for the work. Miss Jamieson furnished interesting information at the King's Daughters meeting last night.

FREDERICK H. FIRTH. Many friends in the city will regret to learn of the death of Frederick Herbert Firth, which took place at Meenwood, Eng., on January 5. Mr. Firth had been a resident of Fairville during the last eight years and was employed as checker by the C. P. R. Owing to ill-health while in Montreal he was forced to return to Fairville, and later went to his old home in England, thinking that the change would be beneficial. His condition became worse, however, and he passed away on January 5. He is survived by his wife, who was with him at the time of his death.

KEITHS GET CONTROL OF EDISON INVENTION

St. John people who have been looking forward to witnessing and hearing the performance of Thomas A. Edison's latest invention, the Kinetophone, which produces talking pictures successfully, will be interested in learning in whose hands the invention has been placed for introduction. A company including R. F. Keith, J. P. Albee, A. Paul Keith, J. J. Murdock and Harvey L. Watkins has been formed to take over the patent rights for the United States and Canada, and last week signed contracts with Mr. Edison's representative by which they secured these rights under an agreement which will give the famous inventor an income exceeding half a million dollars yearly in royalties.

Mr. Keith was the first to introduce moving pictures in vaudeville performances ten years ago, and now he is taking the lead with the Kinetophone to produce talking pictures. It is understood that it is the intention of the company which now controls the patent to use the new machines for an indefinite period in the larger theatres on the Keith circuit. No announcement has been made regarding its introduction in St. John, but it is supposed that, later on, this city will have its turn.

VASSIE & CO. PURCHASE SITE

Get Three City Lots Extending From Prince William to Water Street

Three city lots extending from Prince William to Water streets, which were sold at auction at Chubb's corner at noon today by Auctioneer F. L. Potts, were purchased by W. E. Foster for Vassie & Co. Ltd. The lots have a combined frontage of 129 feet on Prince William street, the same on Water street and a depth of ninety-two feet. They adjoin the property recently purchased by the Military Co. Ltd., as a site for their new office and warehouse building. It is the intention of Vassie & Co. to proceed with the erection of a building on the site. It will be for their own use in place of their present premises on the corner of King and Canterbury streets which have become too small for their growing business. The new structure will be planned to give them at least 50,000 feet of floor space and will be modern in every particular. As soon as the arrangements can be completed a start will be made on construction. The price paid for the lots was $15,000.

REGISTRATION LAW MAY BE CHANGED

Surer Method of Getting Record of Births is Wanted

A change in the system of recording births in this province may be made the next session of the legislature for the purpose of correcting some of the weaknesses of the present arrangements. The existing law requires that the parents, the physician, the nurse, or any other person interested in the event shall fill out the record blank and file it with the registrar within thirty days of a birth, under a penalty of a fine of $10. In order to make it as easy as possible copies of the form are left at drug stores where they may be obtained by those needing them and they may be mailed postage free. What a everybody's business is nobody's business, however, and under the present system there is no means of drawing the attention of those interested to the law. Parents are frequently ignorant of the law and there is no definite method of bringing it to their attention. The physicians, it is held, are the logical persons to undertake this duty but so far they have declined any responsibility and, several years ago, when an attempt was made to force them to supply the information their counsel contended that the collecting of statistics was part of the duty of the federal government and that the provincial legislature, accordingly, the matter was not pressed. As the record of births and deaths is necessary to keep track of the population and the periods between the censuses are taking it is regarded as important that the records should be as complete and accurate as possible and it is understood that the law will be amended with this end in view.

LAST ANNUAL MEETING OF BANK OF NEW BRUNSWICK

The annual meeting of the Bank of New Brunswick, the last which will be held by the historic institution under its own name, will be held on Monday, January 20, at noon. Owing to the fact that the arrangements for the amalgamation with the Bank of Nova Scotia, which will go into effect February 15, have been completed, the proceedings on Monday will be formal. It will be necessary to elect a board of directors to continue the organization for the last month of the bank's separate existence but other features which have marked the annual meetings of the past, will be omitted.

STRIKE IS ON

Engineers and Firemen of Bangor and Aroostook Line go Out

Word from Bangor today is that the engineers and firemen of the Bangor & Aroostook railway struck today. The directors yesterday refused to grant an increase in wages, insisting that the earnings of the road would not permit it. The road extends through the eastern part of the state from the Canadian border to Penobscot Bay, affording the chief outlet for the product of the paper mills of Northeastern Maine. The possible effect of the strike on the shipment of paper gives the movement an importance outside the state. The road also carries the extensive potato crop from the same territory. The men demand the standard scale paid by other roads.

RAILROAD DIRECTORS INDICTED; GAVE BONDS

Indianapolis, Jan. 18.—Frederick W. Stevens, George W. Perkins, H. P. Davison and Norman B. Beams of New York, directors of the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton Railroad, indicted on a charge of involuntary manslaughter in connection with the wreck at Irvington, Ind., Nov. 15 in which 18 persons were killed, have given bonds of $5,000 each to appear here for trial. The failure of the road to install a block system ordered by the Railroad Commission was the cause for the indictments.

FORFEIT BEQUEST IF MONEY FORM OIL KING IS ACCEPTED

Los Angeles, Jan. 18.—If the Christian Church accepts any assistance from John D. Rockefeller personally or from the Rockefeller Educational Foundation, it will forfeit a bequest of $75,000 left the university extension work, according to the will of the late Thomas W. Phillips, of Newcastle, Pa., laid here for probate.

Talk of Higher Home Fees in Northern Scotia After May 1 - Fishing in Kennebecasis Affected Again

While their fellow countrymen in St. John are busily engaged in plying the brush and polish, or in vending fruit and ice-cream to their customers, some of the members of the Greek colony are far away in the land of their birth, vigorously defending the honor of their country, having rallied to the standard when the call to arms was sounded. A letter was received this week from some of the lads at the front, telling of conditions in the land of strife, and fully corroborating the news received in the press despatches concerning the troublous times in the seat of war.

Some of those who left St. John had not been pressed into the service of their country, but were standing by ready to serve if the summons came. Among these are Michael Merozo and Anthony Neki-topoulos, who have been visiting at their old homes, and who have written at intervals upon the progress of the war, giving a little information as to what some of the others from this city are doing.

George A. Chagnar, who kept a pool room in Mill street, is at the front and is seeing active service in the cause of his country. Another of the name, George J. Chagnar, is now on his way to the land of trouble and will very likely be soon in the heat of battle, provided the war continues.

Among the most dauntless of the soldiers of Greece is one familiar with the majority of people, young and old, throughout North End, Anastasios Papageorge, who for years has conducted a small fruit store in Main street near Paradise row. "Papa," as he has long been called by those who know him, and by the scores of youngsters who have flocked to his store to buy their copper or his "one-cent bananas," has the distinction of being a sergeant in the Greek army and, his part in the front being greatly desired, he got there as soon as was possible, and has seen much warm fighting since that time.

Papageorge won his stripes in previous active service when a younger man than he is today. He saw some heated fighting in other campaigns, and has managed to escape the bullets of the enemy in two previous conflicts. He came to this country some years ago and was to be found six days and six nights a week in his little fruit store in North End doing a fair business, and laying by a little for the time when he should return to the land of his birth. The time came much sooner than he expected for, as the call to arms his response was immediate, for his valuable services were needed by his country and he has since been engaged in upholding his honor. Another one of the local contingent, Peter Aloides, is in the navy of Greece, while scores of others from this province and through Nova Scotia are listed in the rank and file of the army of her defenders.

Once more the high cost of living is making itself felt throughout North End. This time it is the landlords who are bringing it to the attention of their tenants by a gentle reminder at this early hour of the year that their rents are to be increased. In some cases rents have been increased fifty dollars and more per annum, but the average is about twenty or thirty, despite the fact that it is only two years ago that there was a general advance in rentals through the northern section of the city.

In consequence of the advance being made, and they seem to be quite general, there will probably be busy scenes throughout the north end about May 1. "Moving day" will be true to its name this year if present indications hold. Some working men cannot pay the rents asked in advance, and it is more than the proportion of his income which he has been accustomed to allocate for this purpose, and he will naturally seek localities where the monthly installments of rent will not be so great as to interfere with the payment of the grocer, tailor, butcher, doctor, and the many others whose demands must be recognized.

In new houses which have been constructed during the last few months, and which will be ready for occupancy for the most part before May 1, the rents asked are said to be such as would not appeal to the average worker, although there are some dwellings which have been put up along the more remote streets in which less room is provided at a lower cost.

It is said that the higher cost of living is the primary motive in the action of the landlords, and possibly that there might be an increased assessment this year by the council. However, the report that the assessment would be very much greater is happily incorrect.

A small fishing colony composed mostly of North End men, was established along the shores of the Kennebecasis this week, but it is not expected to last over today. In fact, many of the men engaged in fishing pulled up their nets from under the ice late yesterday afternoon after the rain came, because the ice was even then too thin to trust much. While they were there for a few days this week the men were successful in catching a fairly good quantity of fish, gaspereaux and mull. The latter particularly were plentiful, while the "gaspers" were starting to run well. There is only about an inch and a half of ice in the river near the fishing grounds, but it is not thought that it will run out today, unless a heavy wind sets in, so that with the coming of a little colder weather fishing operations could be resumed, and the several camps which have been established by the men at McCormick's Island, or Adams' cove, could be occupied after the day's work on the river.

Complaints of boys and their actions in the vicinity of Somerset street, Cranston avenue, and the surrounding neighborhood continue to be received from residents in that locality. The latest charges are of a disturbing nature, and are of a nature which are of a disturbing nature, and are of a nature which are of a disturbing nature.

Miss Brown, of Cranston avenue, told the Times this morning that she had at different times informed the police of what was going on, but it had seemed to be without avail, for the actions of the boys continued. She had known of their cutting fences down to make a short cut across a lot, and she had found it practically impossible to grow fruit or flowers to any extent because of the deprivations.

The many friends of Mrs. Teresa Hansen will regret to hear of the death of her 13-year-old daughter, Annie C., which took place last evening at her mother's home, Magazine street. The child had been ill three days and her death came as a severe shock to her family. She was a very bright girl, and had many friends. Besides her mother she is survived by four brothers and four sisters to mourn her loss. The funeral will take place tomorrow.

WHY SHOULD NOT OLD PEOPLE RETAIN THEIR YOUTHFUL VIGOR

No Reason Why Men and Women of Sixty, Seventy and Eighty Should Not Be Well—The Secret of Happy Old Age

"Fruit-a-tives," The Famous Medicine Made of Fresh Fruit Juices, Again Proves Its Great Value in Curing Kidney Trouble

Old age pays the cost of living. Few men and women of fifty, sixty and seventy are free of Kidney Trouble. Hard work, mental strain and general debility, tell in the long run. And many men and women show they have Kidney Trouble by suffering with pain in the back, headaches, rheumatism, sciatica, bladder disease.

To such people "Fruit-a-tives" have proved one of the wonders of modern medicine. This fruit medicine has performed hundreds of cures where the sufferer had been told that the case was incurable. Take, for instance, Mr. Geo. W. Barkley, a prosperous farmer and one of the leading citizens of Dundas County, Ontario.

At seventy-six, he is the picture of health—with the vigorous actions and the sprightly step of a man of fifty.

Yet for twenty years, he suffered with Kidney Trouble. He took "Fruit-a-tives" and it cured him.

"For over twenty years I have been troubled with Kidney Disease, and the doctors told me they could do me no good, and said I would be a sufferer all the rest of my life. Nearly a year ago I tried "Fruit-a-tives." I have been using them all the time since and am glad to say that I am cured. I give "Fruit-a-tives" the credit of doing what the doctors said was impossible."

"Fruit-a-tives" is the only medicine in the world made of fruit, and is the only one that acts directly on the kidneys. It cures. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50 or trial size, 25c. At dealers or sent on receipt of office by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

REV. DR. SHEARER'S LATEST CRUSADE

In the picture testifying in the famous case in Toronto, Doctor Shearer did not initiate this case, but was a prominent witness, giving evidence as to what he saw of the Darlings of Paris, the show under discussion. The jury, after long deliberation, brought in a verdict condemning the show as immoral, but declining to convict the proprietors, an inconsistency which brought upon their heads the righteous denunciation of Mr. Justice Middleton, the presiding judge.

RELIGION SOCIAL SERVICE BY KENNETH DOUGLAS, B.A., Ph.D.

Why Workers Do Not Support the Church

I know an institution, one of many scattered throughout our country, in which the members of the church who are practically compelled to lead partly vicious lives because of the paucity of their salaries. If these girls did not sell themselves occasionally to obtain some of the bare necessities of life they are forced to live in the city they could not any longer continue to eat and sleep in comfort, or dress themselves in accordance with the demands of the establishment in which they are employed. Briefly, if they were good they could not afford to work for the wages they are receiving. Their employers would be compelled to engage others or close their doors.

I am not prepared to enter into an argument as to the moral status of these girls. The facts remain, and their employers are men who are enrolled upon church membership lists. I have mentioned this wretched condition because it forcibly illustrates one of the principal reasons for the management of the church and labor. There is the argument that one cannot help the presence of a preponderance of insurance men Eight of these, from the church, interested me as to a policy within two weeks of my enrollment. Had I not been a Christian I might have been disgusted. But I knew that these were merely the enemies of the church from the inside, the man not yet in sympathy with the church cannot appreciate my attitude. As it to be expected that he should.

I remember joining a certain church which seemed to have within its membership a preponderance of insurance men. Eight of these, from the church, interested me as to a policy within two weeks of my enrollment. Had I not been a Christian I might have been disgusted. But I knew that these were merely the enemies of the church from the inside, the man not yet in sympathy with the church cannot appreciate my attitude. As it to be expected that he should.

I think that we must all admit that the estrangement existing between the church and labor is largely owing to a misunderstanding on the part of each as to the ultimate aims of the other. These, in so far as the things of this world are concerned, are practically identical. The only vital difference between the two lines is the broader one. It seeks to benefit those both within and without its fold. Labor unions are directing its efforts almost entirely for the benefit of those within its own ranks. Another point of difference between the two is as to what constitutes the difficulties that he between them and the ultimate aim, and their method of adjustment.

It makes very little difference in the final analysis of these two lines of thought. Christians among labor unions and some of the labor unions are directing its efforts almost entirely for the benefit of those within its own ranks. Another point of difference between the two is as to what constitutes the difficulties that he between them and the ultimate aim, and their method of adjustment.

Church Membership Tag On Respectability
I have made this statement with all seriousness and only after much thought and investigation. And I am going to go much further and say that a huge proportion of workmen who do not affiliate themselves with the churches of our country are influenced in their attitude by a well-founded suspicion of the motive for the presence of their employers in such institutions. A large number of our churches are supported by the money of men who through the week oppress their fellow-men. There is very few men of any standing at all in society who are not members of some church or other. I am not prepared to say that this is a sign of any standing or family respectability. Church membership is the tag of respectability. A large number of our churches might be poverty-

WILL GIVE $500 TO SICK READERS OF TIMES-STAR

Famous Scientist Who Originated the Now Wonderful "Home Treatment" Offers $100 Package Free to Sick and Ailing.

In order that every reader of the Times-Star who may not have heard of this wonderful "Home Treatment" may have an opportunity to test this celebrated medicine, the now famous scientist, Dr. James W. Kidd, offers to give absolutely free a full size $1.00 package to five hundred readers of this paper, to prove the wonderful claims which have been made for it. In making this offer the scientist said: "I know that there are many people who have been suffering for years with some chronic disease and many of them have spent large sums of money seeking a cure. I know that these people hesitate about investing money in medicine because they have been deceived of ever getting well. Thousands have told me that story, and many thousands of the same people have told me afterwards that my treatment had cured them after doctors and everything else had failed. I want to prove to a limited number—no matter what the disease, no matter how long they may have suffered, no matter how blue and discouraged—that my treatment really and actually does accomplish the wonderful results that have been reported."

SPORT NEWS OF A DAY, HOME AND ABROAD

BOWLING

On "Black" Alleys.

The Tigers won four points from the Wanderers in the City League game on Black's alleys last night, and the C. P. R. Freight forfeited their game to Macaulay Bros. & Co. in the Commercial League. The scoring was done as follows:

Table with columns for Team, Total, and Average. Rows include Tigers, Wanderers, and individual players like Belyea, McKel, White, Bailey, and Moore.

Table with columns for Team, Total, and Average. Rows include Wanderers and individual players like Smith, Green, Hanlon, Tapley, and Magin.

The teams tied in the second string, so it was decided that the winner of the third string should also take the second. In this way the Tigers won the four points. The C. P. R. Freight team did not appear in the Commercial League game, but the Macaulay Bros. & Co. team bowled:

Table with columns for Player, Total, and Average. Rows include McLean, Smith, Breen, Miller, and Irvine.

The games in the Commercial League tonight will be between T. McVeety & Sons, Ltd., and T. S. Sims & Co., Ltd. Beavers won.

In the Y. M. C. A. alleys last night the Beavers defeated the Red Sox in a well-contested bowling match. Following is the score:

Table with columns for Team, Total, and Average. Rows include Red Sox and individual players like Esley, Collins, Wiley, Johnston, and Scott.

CURLERS FROM CANADA TO BIG BONSPIEL TO BE HELD AT ST. PAUL

St. Paul, Minn., Jan. 17.—Starting on Jan. 20, St. Paul will be the mecca for curlers from all parts of the United States and Canada where the great winter sport is enjoyed and for one solid week the new clubhouse of the curling club of St. Paul will be as busy as a beehive. The month-long bonspiel is the big blue ribbon event in the curling calendar and brings together the pick of the granite heaves and crack rinks. Paul Dunbar, who put the curl in curling, is showing the same old time ability with the stones. He has visited the club regularly in St. Paul since the opening of the season and has put in from one to two hours perfecting his shots and when it comes time for the big bonspiel he can be counted on to furnish one of the visitors an exceedingly interesting time. The upper picture shows Bob Dunbar in action; the lower one, curlers practicing for thespiel.

THOUSAND A WEEK FOR JOHN BUNNY

(Continued from page 14). Flora Finch was pronounced to be very good as Jane Noyd in The West Woman in London, in 1907. The following year she was the Angelica of A Bad Boy and The Teddy Bear. In 1904 she played a girl in The Misadventures of Cecil de Mille, the playright being a member of the same cast.

Howard Masner was winning laughs as a member of the Third Avenue Stock company in 1907. John Bunny was principal comedian with Hattie Williams in Fluffy Ruffles in 1908. Crane Wilbur enacted the lover of Lotie in The Poor Saleslady, in the melodrama of that title in 1907. Riley Chamberlain played with the Harlow Opera House Stock in 1907. Marian Leonard was the unhappy heroine in The Blackmailers of New York in 1907.

Blanche Cornwall was delighting the one-night stands in 1909 with a popular star. Mildred Holland, Miss Cornwall was the ingenue of a variety of productions from Camille to David Copperfield. Gene Gauntier was portraying the suffering heroine in A Woman's Struggle in 1904.

Francis X. Bushman was lending his personality to the epic Queen of the Moon in 1908. Lillian Walker was a bright spot in Hal Reid's Little Organ Grinder, as Florence Steele in 1907. Arthur V. Johnson was horrifying matinee girls as the villain in When the World Sleeps in 1905. The same year he displayed his versatility by doing Rosenkrantz in Hamlet, and in 1907 he made a distinguished Sherlock Holmes with James J. Corbett in The Burglar and the Lady.

Mabel Tennelle and Herbert Prior were playing in The Banker, The Thief and The Girl in 1907. Miss Trunnelle was the girl in 1907. Miss Trunnelle was the girl in 1907. The taking of testimony of the United States government against the Moving Picture Trust was begun in New York this week. The Motion Picture Patent Company and the General Film Company, with their eleven subsidiary companies, were notified to have representatives on hand in connection with the hearings, and a large number of witnesses were summoned. The subsidiary companies named are those of Thomas A. Edison, Essanay, Lubin, Melio, Pathé, Procel, Selig, Polygraph, Radiograph, Biograph and Armat.

Friends of Albert E. Smith, part owner of the Vitagraph Company of America and Miss Hazel Nelson, a moving picture actress, were surprised last week to learn they were married on Tuesday in the church of St. Gregory the Great, in New York. Intimate associates knew of their being engaged and had been led to believe that the wedding probably would take place in a few weeks. Notifying only near relative Mr. Smith and Miss Nelson obtained a marriage license and arranged with Father Fitzsimmons for an immediate ceremony. Mrs. Katherine Nelson, mother of the bride, gave her away. A wedding supper was served at the Hotel Vanderbilt, and Mr. and Mrs. Smith started for the Pacific coast. Mrs. Smith first met Mr. Smith at the Brooklyn studio of the Vitagraph company.

"Cherry" (Richard) Kearton, a field naturalist, author and lecturer, of London, has a new pneumatic camera. This camera lacks a handle. One simply presses a button, which regulates the speed, the vibration being taken up by a gyroscope. Mr. Kearton, however, has another wonderful camera. With it he uses the ordinary kodak film, but the longitudinal arrangement divides them into microscopic divisions, giving five hundred feet to each twenty ordinary exposures. This film costs twelve cents, against $20 for the ordinary cinematograph film. The new camera has an electric light which can be placed against a projecting lens, and this shows a picture five feet square. This new invention will make the cinematograph a household possibility at a cost of but $50.

THE MOST IMPORTANT THING

The lecturer at the Sunday school, who was also the most important dry goods merchant in the district, had given the children a rare treat with those colored lantern slides of which he was so proud, entitled "Christmas in Europe."

The last slide had just been withdrawn, when he turned and faced the rows of eager, little, upturned faces.

"Would anyone like to ask me a question?" he queried benignly.

"Please sir," came in a still, small voice from the end of the last row but one, "would you tell us the price of the little pink fans in your shop window?"

NO FORMALITY AT EXECUTIVE MANSION, SAYS GOVERNOR'S WIFE

Mrs. Wm. Sulzer

Albany, Jan. 15.—Mrs. William Sulzer, wife of New York's new governor, is fully as democratic as her husband, and she says there will be no formality at the executive mansion while she is its mistress. "There will be no 80,000 bouquets for the Sulzers," she is quoted as saying. "We will live simply and quietly, much as we have always lived, and friends will not find us changed."

GOVERNMENT PLANS TO SPEND MILLIONS TO AID AGRICULTURE

Ottawa, Jan. 17.—A further development of Hon. Martin Burrell's plan of last week for the encouragement of agriculture is outlined in a notice of motion of which notice is given tonight as follows:

"That it is expedient to provide that a sum not exceeding $10,000,000 be appropriated and paid out of consolidated revenue fund of Canada during the period of ten years, beginning with the year ending March 31, 1914, for the purpose of aiding and advancing the farming industry by instruction in agriculture, including the work carried on by the veterinary colleges."

While the resolution does not say so, it is understood that the money will be spent on the basis of arrangements to be arrived at with the provincial governments and be spent at the rate of approximately $1,000,000 a year.

LA GRIPPE'S VICTIMS

Left Weak, Miserable and Pray to Die—case in Many Forms.

One of the most treacherous diseases afflicting the people of Canada during the winter months is la grippe, or influenza. It almost invariably ends with a complication of troubles. It tortures the victims with alternate fevers and chills, headaches and backaches. It leaves him an easy prey to pneumonia, bronchitis and even consumption. Indeed the deadly after-effects of la grippe may leave the victim a chronic invalid. You can avoid la grippe entirely by keeping the blood rich and red by an occasional use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. If you have not done this and the disease attacks you, you can banish its deadly after-effects through the use of this same great blood-building and nerve-restoring medicine. Here is proof of the wonderful power of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills over this trouble.

Mr. Emmanuel Laurin, St. Jerome, Que., says: "I was seized with a severe attack of la grippe. I was obliged to stop work and remain in my bed for several weeks, and while I appeared to get over the first stages of the trouble, I did not regain my usual health. I suffered from headaches, loss of appetite and extreme weakness. I did not sleep well at night, and would arise in the morning feeling tired and worn out. This continued for about two months during which time I was taking treatment, but apparently without avail. Then I was advised to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and I got a half dozen boxes. By the time I had taken three boxes there was a decided improvement, and actually before I had completed the sixth box I was enjoying my old-time health. I was strong as ever, could sleep well and eat well, and no longer suffered from lassitude and headaches. I have proved the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for the pernicious after-effects of la grippe, and can therefore recommend them to other sufferers."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure by going to the root of the trouble in the blood, which they enrich, and make red and pure. These pills cure all troubles due to bad blood, and if you are ailing, you should start to cure yourself today by taking the great medicine. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

BOY STARVED TO DEATH BY HIS PARENTS

was wasting away, and that tragic consequences would ensue, and you honestly, I think, intended to send him away to school and get him away from the house. Unfortunately for the boy and unfortunately for you, that intention was not carried into effect. You also, I think, tried in your wife, whether known or unknown to your wife, to sustain the lad with cod liver oil, but this remedy was applied too late. John Crozier you ought to have behaved like a man. You failed to do so, and I sentence you to five years' penal servitude."

W. E. Wylie, the defending counsel, renewed the application that His Lordship should state a case for the Court of Crown Cases Reserved.

The Judge: "You need not argue it now. I will tell you this; honestly I have had had time this week to look into the matter, but when I go back to Dublin I will look into it most carefully, and I'll find there is something I want to say on this case, but anything arguable in your submissions, I will state a case. I can assure you I will be honest with you."

Two series of submissions had been made by defending counsel. First, he had asked for a direction from His Lordship on behalf of the female prisoner on three grounds—(1) that there was no duty on her as a married woman living with her husband to provide food or other necessities of life for her step-children; (2) that there was no proof of any means on her part to provide such food or necessities; and (3) that as her husband was living in the house the prima facie presumption was that he was acting under his coercion. On behalf of the husband he applied for a direction on the ground that there was no duty on him to provide food or necessities for the deceased, he not being an infant or child of tender years.

Mr. Wylie had later objected to His Lordship's direction to the jury on the grounds—(1) that he did not inform the jury that mere negligence was not enough, that it must be so great as to satisfy them that the prisoners were wicked-minded in the sense of being careless as to whether or death occurred or not were guilty of neglect; (2) that he did not inform the jury that they must be satisfied the husband supplied the female prisoner with food, and that she willfully neglected to give it; and (3) that he did not distinguish between civil and criminal negligence.

"Some of those pictures are genuine old masters," said Mr. Currox.

"Of course, you are very proud to have them."

"Yes, and I have no doubt the old masters would have considerable respect for me if they knew what I paid for them."

TITLED WRITERS COMPETING FOR PRIZES OF $25

Lord Rossmore and Lady Angela Forbes Take Part in London Contest

HAPPY SIR CONAN DOYLE

A Daughter Comes to His Home and He Gives a Verse Writing Critic a Lashing in Kind—London Gossip

(Times Special Correspondence.)

London, Jan. 7.—Evidently the "literary" members of the peerage—of whom there are at least a few—not making fortunes out of their books. Otherwise they hardly would take part, as they are doing, in the so-called "literary" competitions which are held in the London penny weeklies. One of the worst of these latter is a new one which calls itself the "London Mail," and soon will have a fine crop of libel actions on its hands unless it stops publishing the absolute limit in the way of "epic" paragraphs about all kinds of people—mostly society folk.

The London Mail started a competition recently which consists in furnishing a suitable repertoire to a remark made by one of two characters in a picture. The first prize is $100, but it is invariably split among several competitors, so that one can hope, at best, for an award of, say, $25. A couple of weeks ago, a prize of this amount was won, with a not especially brilliant "epigram," by Lady Angela Forbes, who is sister to the Duchess of Sutherland and daughter-in-law of the late Duke of Devonshire, and member of the aristocratic Committee of Warwick, (the "Babbling Brookes" of other days), as well as of the Earl of Rossmore, whose many vicereine exploits, among them his attempt to break the bank at Monte Carlo are too famous to need recalling. Lady Angela Forbes publishes a novel, every now and then, but apparently they have not made her rich enough to despise a first or even one of the $250 "consolation prizes" awarded by the London Mail, in its high intellectual competition.

According to the rules of the contest, the "come back" of the second character in the picture may be either in prose or verse, and the second and more difficult of these two mediums has been chosen by the editor of the London Mail this week. This is none other than Lord Rossmore, the Scottish peer whose book of reminiscences entitled "Things I Can Tell" were so much noticed recently. Lord Rossmore ought to be rolling in wealth as he has his royalties therefrom, yet here we find him bothering to think out a suitable "come back" to the London Mail's little verse—and His Lordship's verse is extremely silly—and send it in to the paper with (according to the rules) all the "house and to one chance" of its getting a smile.

Sherlock Holmes has a Daughter

Sherlock Holmes' creator must be smiling all over his bearded face just now. The reason for thinking so is the following announcement which appeared in the Times of the 17th inst. in a newspaper a day or two ago.

"Conan Doyle—At Windlesham, Cranborne, the wife of Sir Arthur Conan Doyle, a daughter, on December 27."

Sir Arthur and Lady Doyle were married in 1907 and up to now had been blessed only with a son, a healthy little man whose years number three, so there is no small doubt that the New Year finds the knight in the best of humors.

Nevertheless, Sir Arthur has not been long in making a characteristically vigorous reply to the London Mail's little verse. He recently took him to task for making Sherlock Holmes believe those who were his friends, namely, Leo and Dupin. The verifier in question—Arthur Conan Doyle, the last of whose rhymed "Letters to the Editors" was addressed to Conan Doyle.

"Sherlock, your sleuth-hound, with motives ulterior," sneers a Poet's "Dapin" as very inferior. Labels Gabon's, clever "Leo" indeed, Merely a "bungler," a creature to mock, indeed!

Then, when your plots and your methods in story come clearly a trifle to Poe and Gaboriau."

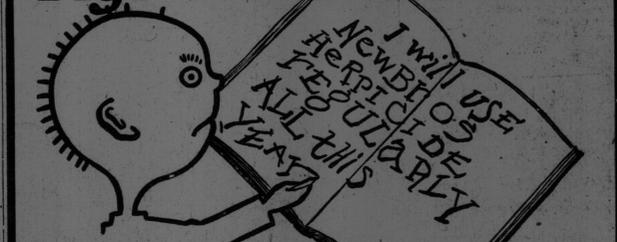

A London weekly reproduced Gaboriau's verse, and Sir Arthur's reply appears this week in its pages. Not only is it in the same vein, but in the same metre as the sacred of his admiring assailant. Sir Arthur, of course, has written a lot of verse in his time, and his reply is not less snappy than the American's onslaught. Here it is:

"Sure, there are times when one cries with grief for the royal letters agent."

"Where are the limits of human stupidity? Here is a critic who says as a platitudinous, That he began writing novels—his first one being called 'Soundrels & Co.'—and since that time, in the intervals of turning out romances, he has edited two magazines, has written several plays and also has found time to be a justice of the peace."

Now, Pemberton has broken out in a new place. In collaboration with another man he has written the book of the latest revenue to be put on here, the name of which is "Hullo, Ragtime!" London is daft on "revars" at present, almost as daft as it is on ragtime, and Pemberton

My New Years Resolution

IF I DON'T, in six months I'll look like this and eventually I'll look like this

Here is one new year resolution that your pride, if nothing else, should make you keep. Don't become a life size reproduction of one of the Going! Going! Gone!!! boys. Keeping your hair is not a difficult task, but it is a task that must not be neglected.

The dandruff germ is always working, destroying the hair life and pushing the hairs out—some every day. The loss at first may not seem very alarming but, unless checked, the final result is the same, you are going to be totally bald.

The regular and intelligent use of NEWBRO'S HERPIDOIDE is all you need. It will eradicate the dandruff and keep the hair and scalp in a clean, healthy condition. There is no more of the scale-like accumulation and the hair stops coming out. The improvement is of a most extraordinary character and you will marvel at it.

You notice the change at once. The itching ceases almost immediately. The hair is bright, glossy and full of life. Herpicide is wonderful. It contains no grease, does not stain or dry, and on account of its exquisite odor is a delightful hair dressing. You will like it.

A trial bottle and booklet for ten cents.

One application of this remarkable and well-known toilet requisite is usually sufficient to convince the most skeptical of its great merit. A trial size bottle together with a booklet telling all about the hair will be sent to any address upon receipt of ten cents in postage or silver.

See Coupon. Newbro's Herpicide is sold everywhere in two sizes, 50 cts. and $1.00.

Satisfaction guaranteed or money refunded. Applications at the best barber shops and beauty parlors.

has scored an instant hit. Pemberton's epigrams play all failed to score his, but if he can continue to score his, it is quite likely that his readers will have a long wait for another book from his pen.

ed to remove them from their present home in the Faubourg Saint Honore on account of the danger arising from vibrations caused by the heavy motor-cars which now thunder through nearly all the large thoroughfares of the city. The remaining piece of land will fall into the hands of the builders, but with the obligation upon them to respect the trees and erect only the best class of large private residences.

The chateau and grounds of La Muette are within the fortifications and the barrier of the Paris Octroi. They are situated in Passy on the extreme limit of the 16th Arrondissement.

Since M. Lebazy's assumption of the title and title of "Emperor of Babou," no other French claimant has arisen for royal prerogatives in Africa. But it appears there has for some time been a French "King of Arabia and Syria," who was appointed in this wise. The vicomte de Breal, who is a great traveler in the East, met a certain Nicholas Benz, who offered $40,000 in exchange for this title. The vicomte de Breal naturally thought it a stupid joke till he was notified that this sum had been deposited in a French bank to pay for the royal letters patent. He then asked M. Dentz for expenses, and with the advance of nearly $5,000 started for Egypt.

At the town of El Ayun he convoked the assembly of the heads of twelve independent tribes of Arabia and Syria, presided over by the Emir Abu Hassan. This assembly proclaimed the independence of both countries, and duly elected the vicomte de Breal king, under the title of "Alfred I," with Abu Hassan as his grand vizier, and twelve of the emirs as a council of ministers. The charter was solemnly sworn to.

Discolored, Wrinkled Skin Easily Renovated

(From the Woman Beautiful.)

Since brown or yellow, over-cared or blotchy complexions are decidedly not the fashion, I cannot understand why so many continue to wear them. Surely every woman has heard of mercurochrome. This I know—from my own and others' experience—will positively banish every unsightly tint. The wax really takes off, really takes off a bad complexion. It gradually, harmlessly, absorbs the thin layer of surface skin with all its defects, as chaps, liver spots, pimples, freckles, blackheads. Just as gradually the discarded skin is replaced by the clear, white, youthful skin underneath. Mercurochrome, procurable at any drug store, is applied nightly like cold cream and erased morning with warm water. One ounce will produce the loveliest girlish complexion in less than a fortnight.

I can't understand, either, why folks will be bothered with wrinkles, since the famous exotique formulae has become public property. One ounce of powdered azoxide dissolved in a half-pint of water, makes a wash lotion that will quickly efface every line, even the deepest.

trial increase in pay at all ports. It afterwards acknowledged that this increase was already overdue, and could not have been long withheld, in view of the rising property of the shipping trade, and the death of seamen. A singular feature of the dispute was that it began with a programme of demands, including a conciliation board and a fresh manning scale, all of which were dropped as the strike went on, and call for increased wages was substituted. In view of this experience it is thought, in shipping circles, that there will be no general response to the present agitation of the Seamen's Union after the first announcement of the Shipping Federation was made the amount of the advance has been fixed at many ports. In London and Liverpool it is to be $2.50 a month, and already the owners of half the shipping tonnage in the country have agreed upon the same rate of increase. This is a substantial advance, equivalent to an improvement of about 10 per cent. in the current wages.

The organization of the men's union was greatly strengthened as the result of the last strike. The membership was then under 20,000, whereas it is now said that 75,000 seamen belong to the union, or nearly half the number of men serving in British vessels.

Record on the Clyde

Clyde shipbuilders and engineers had a record year in 1912. The tonnage of the 381 vessels launched totaled 612,214, an increase of 11,800 tons on the figure of the previous year, and showing a world's record for a single year. The output included many vessels for the British navy. Marine engineering also easily established a record in indicated horse-power, the total being 87,125, an increase of 78,000.

The tonnage of vessels launched represents more than Germany's complete output last year, and twice that of the United States. The prospects for the Clyde during the current year are extremely good. Every berth is occupied, and, barring labor disputes, another record should be established.

FRESH SKUNK SKINS (NOT FOR PARCEL POST)

Deatur, 116, Jan. 17.—Somebody threw a wrench into the smoothly running parcel post machinery at the Deatur post office. It was a package of fresh skunk hides mailed by a trapper on a run route. Because fresh breezes were blowing in the country the rural route carrier was able to bring the parcel to Deatur but a soon as he carried it into the building the clerks went out by another door. The parcel will be returned to the sender.

Washington, Jan. 17.—Six million 150-ages were handled by parcel post during the first seven days of the operation. The system according to figures prepared by experts of the post office department.
