Churchill's Defeat Shows Swinging Toward Two Parties
NATIONAL PLANS DISCUSSED

SOCIALISTS SHOW GAIN IN ELECTION

Result of the By-Election in Westminster Gives Strength to Parties. STRONG OPPOSITION London Press Makes an Energetic Attempt to Defeat Churchill.

(British United Press.) London, March 21.—The result of the by-election in Westminster following closely on the heels of Burnley, indicates clearly the direct division of the country into two great political parties which may be termed the Socialistic and the Anti-Socialistic. The Socialistic vote shows an increase in the Abbey division of 3,712, and the Anti-Socialistic an increase of 1,052 over the figures of the last contested election of this division.

Increase Amazing Considering the nature of the constituency, embracing as it does some of the big West End business premises and choice residential districts, the increase in the Socialistic vote is regarded as amazing. Winston Churchill's defeat is generally attributed to the last minute energetic and whirlwind campaign put on by the entire official Conservative organization and also for the fact that thousands of motor cars were placed at the disposal of the Conservative candidate.

Wife Scores One On Boston Bishop

Boston, March 21.—In illustration of his adoration to the gentle class of the Boston University School of Theology, always to keep in mind the opinion of others about sermons and services, Bishop Lawrence related a story which happened a few days ago and the point of which brought roars of laughter from his student audience. "Last Sunday," said the bishop, "I went to church as in the pew. The preacher expounded me by the length of his sermon, and at its finish I remarked to Mrs. Lawrence that the man who had just left the pulpit had very much to say, but went a very long way around to say it. 'Why can't such a man say what he has to say and be done with it?' I remarked to my wife, and she, quick as a flash, turned to me and said, 'Well, why don't you?'"

WIERD TALE COMES FROM NORTHLAND

Eskimo Fanatic Holds Village Under Spell Until His Death. REIGN OF CRUELTY Two of Tribe are Compelled Under Influence to Murder Him.

(By Canadian Press.) Ottawa, March 21.—An amazing story of murderous barbarism has reached the headquarters of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police from Staff Sgt. A. H. Joy, at Pond's Inlet, who tells of what befell the little Eskimo village of Kivietuk on the eastern coast of Baffin Island, 400 miles north of the Arctic Circle. A reign of cruelty and death prevailed until the violent death of the fanatic who held Kivietuk under his baneful hypnotic spell throughout the sunless weeks of winter in the land of the midnight sun.

It was one Neakutek, who so terrified the simple Eskimos that "the sun returned without being noticed and it was only some time after Neakutek was dead that the Eskimos saw that the sun was in sight." Neakutek was agent for a trading company and the richest man in the village. He professed religious inspiration and compelled the tribesmen to perform ceremonies, some meaningless and some repulsive. He would sit pouring over a Bible and complained because he could not understand it.

Snowy Bed Linen—fragrantly clean

HOW sweet and wholesome is that well come sense of fragrance which comes from well washed linen. How refreshing it is to lie between clean sheets, to rest one's head on a snow-white pillow case; to breathe deeply in an atmosphere of purity; to feel and to know that the things around you are absolutely clean.

To bring about this refreshing sense in the mind of guest or family is a triumph well worth the attention of any housewife. It is best accomplished by using Sunlight Soap.

Health is Practically Everything to Everybody

GOOD HEALTH—that rare feeling of perfect physical fitness—is the most-sought-for blessing in the world. It is practically everything to everybody. It is so definitely related to the things we eat that certain foods are a boon to the health of mankind.

Grape-Nuts is one of these foods!

For into Grape-Nuts goes all the nourishment of Nature's finest grains—wheat and barley. These grains supply Phosphorus for strength and vigor. Starches, happily changed to sugar form, by a special process of slow baking, to build and repair tissues. And roughage—to clear the body of toxic poisons.

Grape-Nuts have that delicious flavor. The tasty goodness of them makes you want to eat them. Their crispness makes you chew it—it is good for the teeth. It is easily digested, soundly nourishing and economical, because each package contains a great many helpings. Serve it right from the package—with cream or milk. Your grocer has it.

A SIGNIFICANT MAJORITY

The Mackenzie King Government's promise of economy, which is made good in the main estimates, and its intimation that there will be some tariff reduction, gave it a majority of 121 on the first division of the session—a majority said to be larger than any on the record at Ottawa for twenty years past.

SPEAKING UP FOR THE MARITIMES

Following up and strongly endorsing Mr. Hance Logan's demand for justice for the Maritime Provinces, Mr. Harold Putnam, M. P. for Colchester, celebrated St. Patrick's Day in the House by informing the members of the Commons that Confederation had not served these provinces nearly so well as might reasonably be expected.

MORE TRADE FOR OUR OWN PORTS

Hon. Dr. J. H. King, Minister of Public Works, in his comparatively short speech in the debate on the Address referred in complimentary terms to the St. John Board of Trade, but carefully refrained from any reference to Government policy with respect to the request of the St. John board that the British preference be confined to goods entering Canada through its own ports.

New Brunswick's Department of Health receives a striking tribute in the preliminary report of Vital Statistics for the registration area of Canada for the month of August, 1923, just published. In that month the infant mortality rate in this province was 77.1 per 1,000 births, which is lower than that of several other provinces.

Sir Richard Squires, former Prime Minister of Newfoundland, is found "absolutely and definitely" guilty of receiving "presents" from the Dominion Iron and Steel Company to the tune of $40,000, with the knowledge, consent and approbation of high officials of that company.

Speaking of the decline of dangerous radicalism the editor of the Saturday Evening Post says there has been a remarkable increase of sanity in the United States even since 1922.

"Finally, the long-heralded and much-dreaded Labor Government has come into being in England. Its performances to date suggest that it will be highly conservative in its application of radicalism. It came in like a lion, but almost certainly it will go out like a lamb."

Winston Churchill, who came within forty-five votes of winning in the four-cornered fight in the Conservative Abbey division, made a striking exhibition of strength and popularity. His defeat deprives Parliament temporarily of an able, vigorous and picturesque figure—and only temporarily. He will get a seat presently, and when he does he will be a sharp thorn in the Government's side.

A noted publicist says the industrial workers of Russia are today receiving about thirty-five per cent. of what they earned under the hated capitalist system, while the population of the cities and towns is but half what it was before the revolution.

Press Comment

IF WAR COMES AGAIN

When the representatives of the great powers met at the Washington conference and agreed upon a reduction of naval armaments we expressed regret that Mr. Balfour's proposal was not adopted and restrictions placed on competitive construction of submarines and air forces. For, as we said at the time, these were the weapons with which future wars would be fought.

A FAMOUS LONDON CLUB

The Athenaeum, of which Premier Ramsay MacDonald has been elected a member, was founded in London 100 years ago "for the association of individuals known for scientific or literary attainments, artists of eminence in any class of the fine arts, and noblemen and gentlemen distinguished as liberal patrons of science, literature or the arts."

Many eminent men have joined the club by the ordinary course of the law, but one of the rules gives the committee the power to elect as extraordinary members Princes of the blood Royal, Cabinet Ministers, Bishops, and others. Every Prime Minister down to Mr. Baldwin (with the exception of Mr. Gladstone and Mr. Bonar Law), all the Lord Chancellors, all the Archbishops and most Judges and Bishops have thus joined the club.

In connection with the centenary Mr. Henry R. Tedder, late Secretary and Librarian, has contributed to The Times an interesting history of the club. The two horse-blocks in Waterloo Place, he says, were placed for the occasion of the Duke of Wellington about the year 1800 when he rode from Piccadilly to visit the Athenaeum, and it would be difficult to take a step inside the house without arousing recollections of illustrious dead.

The South Library, the largest of the book rooms, is full of reminiscences. Many famous men of letters have worked here. Some portions of "Emerson" were dictated by Thackeray to Eyre Crowe at the central round table, at which, in after years, Richard Burton doggedly sat throughout the day, snuff-box at his side, busy at his translation of the "Arabian Nights"; and, after him, Andrew Lang, bending over the table, writing for long hours clear to the English history section was the favorite chair of Macaulay, after him frequently used by Hallam, Sir Henry Maine, Matthew Arnold, Mark Pattison and Lord Acton.

Smoking was unknown in the Athenaeum before 1862, when, after some hesitation, a small attic room was given over to the practice. This remained the sole accommodation until 1868; billiard and smoking rooms were then excavated under the garden on the south side. In the billiard room, Herbert Spencer played the game as an athletic or hygienic exercise, but always denied the authorship of the story told to the effect that he once said to a junior opponent that "proficiency in billiards was proof of a mispent life."

MY SCHOOL BOOKS

(Ottawa Citizen.) My school books! Dear old school books; 'Tis years since last we met, And many a milestone I have passed, And many a vain regret.

Time was, when you were newly bound and beautiful to see, With dark and shining covers from spot or blemish free;

You recall the old gray school house and the teacher's kindly face, As she calmly called the classes, telling each to take his place;

I can hear the noisy humming like the drowsy song of bees, I can hear the soft winds sighing thru' the stately maple trees;

I can see the slanting sunbeams as they fell across the door, Where the carefully planned notes marked the hours of twelve and four.

Dear old school books! These are memories which can never be effaced, Buried deep within my heart—nor can they ever be replaced.

DEATHS

Mrs. John W. McManus.
 At an early hour Tuesday morning Mrs. John W. McManus, widow of John W. McManus, Memramcook, died in Moncton. The late Mrs. McManus was born in Charlottetown, P. E. I., and was 79 years of age. Surviving are four sons, Reid (a member of the Legislature), Edward E., John W. and Rev. Walter; and three daughters, Mrs. L. X. McDonald, Sydney; Mrs. Lionel O. P. Walsh, Montreal, and Madame Katherine McManus, of the Sacred Heart Convent, Halifax. Another daughter, Sister M. Josephia, of Mt. St. Vincent Academy, Halifax, predeceased her some years ago.

Miss Mary J. Jones.
 The many friends in St. John will regret to learn of the death yesterday in Brockton, Mass., of Miss Mary J. Jones, for many years a resident of this city. Miss Jones was the eldest daughter of the late Robert Jones, of 132 Waterloo street, where she was born and lived most all her life. She went to Brockton about a dozen years ago. Miss Jones is survived by a sister, Miss Ellen, of Brockton; two brothers, William and Alfred, both of that city, and a niece, Mrs. William Vincent, of St. John. Interment will be in Brockton, probably on Sunday.

William Pollock.

The death of William Pollock occurred at the home of his son, Thomas Pollock, Mercer Settlement, on March 17. Mr. Pollock was 87 years of age and had been in failing health for some time. He is survived by his wife, three sons and four daughters. The sons are Henry, of Erb Settlement; John, of Newton, Mass., who has a wonderful reputation among the young people. When she graduated from the Newton schools she made a paradise of the playground at the children's sanatorium on an island in Marblehead Harbor. She afterwards studied for two years at the Leland Powers school of expression and the Boston school of physical education. She appeared in the Egyptian scene which was a marvellous feat of color and beauty. Miss Wheeler is now starring in health dramatics under the auspices of the Boston Metropolitan chapter of the American Red Cross and the Massachusetts Tuberculosis League.

ARRANGING FOR VISIT.

The Junior Red Cross members in St. John are arranging for the visit of Brother Brownie, Miss Eleanor Wheeler, of Newton, Mass., who has a wonderful reputation among the young people. When she graduated from the Newton schools she made a paradise of the playground at the children's sanatorium on an island in Marblehead Harbor. She afterwards studied for two years at the Leland Powers school of expression and the Boston school of physical education. She appeared in the Egyptian scene which was a marvellous feat of color and beauty. Miss Wheeler is now starring in health dramatics under the auspices of the Boston Metropolitan chapter of the American Red Cross and the Massachusetts Tuberculosis League.

SAYS VISITS PLEASE PATIENTS.

The visitors of the Women's Hospital Aid had a very pleasing testimonial to their work when they were at the General Public Hospital one visiting day recently. An Englishman, a passenger on one of the mail boats who had been taken to the hospital on arrival, greeted the Hospital Aid visitor with the remark, "Now I know what they meant when they said 'This is Tuesday, and the ladies will be here.' You should see how everybody's face brightens up when that message goes round the wards."

DRIVING IRON HORSE ACROSS THE SAHARA

Rapid progress is being made with developments in transport in North Africa, says the British Express Gazette. It is but a few months since a party of intrepid Frenchmen accomplished the journey of 1,800 miles between Algiers and Timbuktu by motor car. Now a route has been selected for a railway from Oran in Algeria to Wagadugu, in French West Africa, an important economic centre some 200 miles south of Timbuktu, the total length of the proposed line being about 2,000 miles. It is expected that the work will be completed in eight years, and it will open up to regular commercial intercourse an enormous area regarded as absolutely unprofitable but now known to contain large and economically valuable populations.

The attendance at the special services in the Ludlow street Baptist church has been very large, and last night the church was filled. The later scenes in the life of Christ, just previous to His betrayal, were shown in the motion picture, "From the Manger to the Rupert sang the solo, "There'll Come a Last Time." The services have had a great effect in deepening the spiritual life of the church, and are to be continued next week.

Children are subject to constipation. In the excitement of play, they neglect themselves and foster this dread disease. More than forty other diseases can be traced to constipation. Don't delay. Begin at once to cleanse their systems of the dangerous poisons.

Kellogg's Bran sweeps the intestine clean—and purifies it. It drives out the poisons which undermine your children's health. It makes the bowels function regularly and naturally.

Have your children eat it regularly—two tablespoons daily—in chronic cases, with every meal. They will like its wonderful, nut-like flavor—so different from common brands which are most unpalatable.

As a cereal, with milk or cream, they will enjoy Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled. Sprinkle it over other cereals. Cook it with hot cereals. Try it with delicious muffins, bread, griddle cakes and other recipes given on every package.

But start them eating Kellogg's Bran today. Start every member of your family eating it. Kellogg's Bran, cooked and krumbled, is made in Toronto, Canada and is served in individual packages by the leading hotels and clubs everywhere. Ask for it at your restaurant. It is sold by all grocers.

EAT AND-- Lose Weight—Gain Weight

One orange, 1 cup tomato bouillon, 1-2 head lettuce, 8 button radishes, 2 broiled fillets of haddock, 1 lemon, 2 cheese sandwiches, 4 tablespoons brussels sprouts, 2 tablespoons pineapple ice, 1-2 cup black coffee without sugar, 1 pint skimmed milk, 4 pieces crisp unbuttered toast.

Total calories, 1180. Protein, 269; fat, 402; carbohydrate, 468. Iron, .0192 gram.

A whole orange, rather than juice, will be found to give bulk and tend to satisfy hunger.

The cheese sandwiches are suggested as an accompaniment for the salad. They should be made of unbuttered whole wheat or gluten bread and toasted in a hot oven.

If the radishes are thinly sliced over the lettuce and one-half teaspoon grated onion sprinkled over the whole with a dash of lemon juice and a brightening of paprika a very acceptable salad is the result. Just plain head lettuce, well chilled and crisped, is delicious whether one is "plump" or thin.

A. Davidson, Mrs. G. W. Foster and Miss M. I. Long.

Mrs. Kenneth L. Golding was hostess for a cosy bridge in honor of Miss Gretchen Smith on Wednesday afternoon at her residence, King street east. Miss Smith won the first prize and Mrs. D. W. Ledingham the second.

One orange, 4 corn meal pancakes, 4 tablespoons creamed dried beef on toast, 1 cup tomato bouillon, 2 slices fried vegetable roast, 1-2 cup creamed peas, 1-2 head lettuce, 8 button radishes, 2 tablespoons scalloped potatoes, 2 broiled fillets of haddock, 2 tablespoons brussels sprouts, 2 tablespoons French dressing, 1 pint whole milk, 3 tablespoons butter, 2 pieces rye bread, 2 dinner rolls.

Total calories, 3670. Protein, 428; fat, 1678; carbohydrate, 1572. Iron, .0173 gram.

The vegetable roast used the day before is very good sliced and fried. Serve with creamed peas.

The same salad is planned for this menu with the exception of the dressing.

The brussels sprouts are well seasoned with butter.

The fish gains many calories by the lemon butter used in this menu.

The pancakes should be made rich in protein by the use of eggs.

These sandwiches are made with butter and white bread can be used.

THRIFTY COLLECTORS OF POSTAGE STAMPS ENJOY RICH GAINS

Believe It Will Become the Hobby of Millionaire Collectors.

New York, March 21.—Stamp collecting can now be listed among the hobbies of the rich. In the opinion of prominent New York collectors and dealers, the stamp hobby bids fair to supplant fine paintings and other bulky works of art in the estimation of those who make collections for collectors' sake.

One reason advanced for the change that is taking place is that modern living conditions do not afford space for bulky collections. Wherever a collection of valuable canvases requires spacious halls and corridors, with proper lighting, a very valuable stamp collection can be carried in the vest pocket. Even the largest and most valuable collections are contained within a few volumes which fit into a book-case.

Stamp collecting first became a really international hobby, dealers here say, in the early nineties. From 1899 to 1900 the hobby had a great following. Then it died down until 1912, since when the ranks of stamp enthusiasts have been steadily augmented. Today there are in the United States alone 50 or more collections which are worth between $100,000 and $200,000 each, dealers say, while there are almost any number of collections valued from $25,000 to $75,000 each.

The most valuable stamp in the world is said to be the British Guiana stamp now owned by Arthur W. M. Usher, N. Y. He competed with the King of England for this stamp and won. At the present time it is valued by dealers at about $28,000.

About five years ago stamp collecting received a great impetus, since when prices have advanced greatly, pleasing some collectors entirely and teaching of any but wealthy buyers. This has driven many collectors into the field of post cards and envelopes, but prices on these, too, it is said, are advancing rapidly.

Lately, there has been a big demand for stamps of the Confederate Government, issued during the war of the rebellion. Old ramshackle buildings on the lower East Side have produced many rare stamps of the early days of the United States.

Collectors say that the craze has extended to Europe, especially in England, where there is a particular demand for stamps of the United States.

Hardly a day passes in which there is not a stamp auction in New York. The same is true in London, and in Paris there is a regularly established stamp exchange.

MUNICIPALITIES TO VISIT HOSPITAL

Dr. Anglin to be Questioned—Concrete Builders, Ltd., Probe Likely

Fredricton, March 20.—The first meeting of the public accounts committee was held this morning, when Hon. Fred Magee was elected chairman. There was only one absentee during the session.

After organization the committee only set for a short time and covered about 20 pages of the report which included the statements made by Messrs. Price, Waterhouse & Co. of the provincial finances and one presented by the public accounts committee, and in usual form only one special warrant for capital expenditure in an auditor-general's report, but that is the record this year.

When the statements of amounts due the Provincial Hospital for nervous diseases by the municipalities and corporations to $99,819 was considered, a resolution was passed regarding the superintendent of the hospital, Dr. J. V. Anglin, to attend the committee and explain as far as possible why such amounts were outstanding. The largest amount due, $2,760, is from Kings county Gloucester, $4,990; St. John, $1,000; Madawaska, $404, closely following.

Because of statements made quite recently from the public platform in a political campaign respecting directors and ownership of the Concrete Builders, Ltd., it is freely stated that an investigation will be demanded by the parties interested to govern the public accounts committee, and that Concrete Builders and the Minister of Public Works will conclusively prove that there is no connection whatever between them and the former.

The industry, of which J. J. McCaffrey is the president, is demanding that its books and accounts be examined, together with stock books, transfer shares, etc., since it was incorporated.

BOOSTERS' CLUBS OF Y. W. C. A. MEET

About 40 Senior Boosters attended the regular meeting of that energetic organization last night in the Y. W. C. A. recreation centre. On the previous evening there were 82 Junior Boosters at their meeting. Five of the 23 were new members who had come along because they heard other girls were getting so much enjoyment from the meetings.

The Boosters this week were asked to write down why they liked to go to the Y. W. C. A. One child about nine wrote as follows: "I like to come here because we do exercises and games and learn to pray and we have stories and learn to talk of God and learn not to fight with each other, but to love one another."

An older member about 16 years of age wrote: "The reason I come to the Y. W. C. A. is that it has been so good to me. I was in trouble and had no one to care for me and had helped me to regain my strength. Not only that but has taught me to think and help me to help others. I wish to thank it for what it has done for me. Dorothy G. W."

The Old Country Club of St. David's church held an open night entertainment last evening for the pleasure of the members and their friends and had as special guests some of the men from the Marlboro T. Dreaded Meal Time Says Peterborough Man

"Everything I ate was like Poison to Me, and My Suffering Nearly Set Me Wild," Says Lucas—Tanlac Changed This.

"Well, sir, buying Tanlac was the best investment I ever made for it built up my health and strength to where I haven't a complaint in the world," is the characteristic statement of Thomas Lucas, 323 Aylmer St., Peterborough, Ont.

"Before I took Tanlac a year ago, I was in trouble with my stomach. My appetite was poor but eating was almost like taking poison anyway for my suffering nearly set me wild. I was so nervous I heard the clock strike every hour some nights and I got up mornings weak and worn out."

Tanlac not only knocked out my troubles completely but increased my weight twelve pounds and I haven't needed a dose of medicine since. My nerves are steady, I sleep fine and I'm always hungry—why, a year ago I wouldn't eat a meal like now for a hundred dollars. I will always speak out for Tanlac in trouble with my stomach. NOT INTERESTED IN BONUSES JUST NOW

Ottawa, March 20.—An instance of the abolition of numerous jobs by the Federal Government in its effort to cut down civil service expenses was brought to light today when H. C. House, president of Union No. 65, A. C. S. Local 65, reported that he had been offered a bonus of $1,000 if he had anything to say on behalf of his organization with regard to the new cut in the cost of living bonus. "Civil service bonuses do not interest me any longer," stated Mr. House. "When asked the reason for his statement, Mr. House replied that he had received notice that his services were no longer required."

MOORE PLEASED WITH RECESSION

President of Trades and Labor Congress Speaks Here Tonight

Tom Moore, President of the Canadian Trades and Labor Congress, arrived in the city last night from Fredericton, where he attended the meeting of the New Brunswick Federation of Labor and the Federation's conferences with the Government.

In an interview last night Mr. Moore said that he was greatly pleased with the reception the workers of organized labor had received at the hands of the Provincial Government. He will address a meeting here this evening which organized labor will attend. Asked if he could forecast what he might say, he said that it was impossible for him to do so.

He is poor beginning. The cry throughout Canada at the present time, Mr. Moore said, was for economy and retrenchment. But he said it was much in the cry. The proposal of the Federal Government to cut off the bonus from Civil Service Employees, he said, was a poor beginning. Few people living outside the capital realized just the amount of the bonus. And it specified the salary of the employees to cope with the depreciation in the purchasing power of the dollar. Good work could not be done from dissatisfied and underpaid men.

In the case of the postal employees, Mr. Moore said, there could be no reflection on the work they performed, either from the standpoint of efficiency or amount of work. Compared with salaries received by other workers in the public service, including the wages of policemen, firemen, and others, Mr. Moore said that the salaries of the postal employees did not measure up.

Mr. Moore represented Canada on two occasions at the International Labor Congress held under the League of Nations in Geneva.

ADDRESSES BIBLE CLASS

The church room was filled to capacity at the meeting of the Bible Class of St. Luke's church last night when Rev. R. G. Fulton was the special speaker. Mr. Fulton gave an interesting and instructive address on the vision of service and the vision which showed his prospect of the future. The address was very helpful. A. H. Finch, president, was in the chair, and during the evening the men's quartette sang. Those who sang were Harry McNeil, George Bustin, Jules Stevenson, Willard A. Smith and Melvyn Parke. The pianist was Frank Taylor. The service was held under the leadership of Rev. R. G. Fulton.

WHY IMMIGRANTS COME TO CANADA

London, March 20.—The Diverpool Journal of Commerce, discussing the rumor that United States shipping interests are looking with suspicious eyes on Canada's decision to grant new settlers from Great Britain a cash bonus of $15, says the real truth is that the pendulum of North American travel is swinging to the Canadian shore. The United States immigration authorities and the Ellis Island administration have done more to bring about the change than any effort of the Canadian authorities of the British steamship companies, concludes the Journal.

DECLARE PRIEST WAS NOT SANE

Commission Finds He Was Ill Mentally When He Shot Woman

Pittsburgh, Pa., March 20.—Rev. John Grady, pastor of St. Francis Xavier's Roman Catholic Church here, was insane at the time he shot and killed Miss Annie McDonough, parish housekeeper, a committee named by the court to determine his mental condition reported today. Two doctors, and a former judge made up the commission. They submitted a report containing 800 pages of typewritten evidence to Judge T. J. Ford, who took it under consideration.

Father Grady, a veteran pastor, shot Miss McDonough who had been his housekeeper for 28 years on Feb. 18, last. When arrested he said, the bullet striking the woman.

Other employees in the parish house told conflicting stories and Father Grady was arrested. Members of his congregation and a number of priests informed the authorities that they believed Father Grady was insane and the commission was named to investigate.

DISCLOSURES IN HOME BANK WRECK

Toronto, March 20.—Further irregularities in connection with the management of the Home Bank of Canada were brought to light when G. T. Clarkson, the manager, made the discovery that Fred R. Richardson, formerly of Toronto, now of Pickering, had been paid a substantial sum of money in the way of commissions, supposedly for influence brought to bear in the way of getting deposits from the City of Toronto.

Mr. Richardson in the last provincial elections ran as U. F. O. candidate for South Ontario.

It is stated that some one also received commission from the bank in connection with the Ontario Provincial Government deposits in the Home Bank, but it has not yet been ascertained who it was.

These commissions, it is claimed, amounted to about $45,000.

"I had been feeling weak and depressed. The least exertion tired me, and no appetite. If I got a few hours sleep at night I was lucky. I wanted to rest all the time. My nerves were on edge. The slightest thing irritated me. In fact, I was suffering from anemia. Finally I decided I would ask my friend, Mr. H. H. Page, the druggist, and see if he could do something for me. He recommended me to take a Course of Carnol (six bottles). After I had taken the fourth bottle I was a different man. I could eat, sleep and do a heavy day's work without feeling tired. I also bought some bottles of Carnol for my mother-in-law and she was greatly benefited."—Rudolph A. Benoit, St. Ladger de Riviere de Louis.

Carnol is sold by all good druggists everywhere.

Why healthy Food Poisons Many Here

Excellent Meal Turns to Poison Causing Poor Digestion, Constipation, Sick Headaches and Nervous, Run-Down Condition.

Eating too much and too rapidly clogs the liver and weakens it. When in this condition, the liver fails to supply the juices so vital to proper digestion and elimination—and it fails to filter and purify your blood.

The result is self-poisoning which makes you feel full, tired and run-down.

This explains why a sluggish liver is attended by such symptoms as constipation, biliousness, sick-headaches, sourness and gas on a weak stomach, loss of appetite, pains in the back and sides, and nervous, run-down condition—symptoms that lead to the dangerous and expensive sick-bed unless corrected in time.

Dr. Thacher, noted medical practitioner, perfected a wholesome vegetable prescription to keep the liver healthy. It is giving quick relief and curing the liver and blood system.

Dr. Thacher's Liver & Blood Syrup, doesn't cost much, pleasant to take and contains only ingredients that are known to physicians for their corrective and health-building properties.

Try this great prescription, yourself. Notice the quick difference in the way you look, eat, sleep and feel. You will be completely satisfied; otherwise, there will be no cost.

NEXT DELORME TRIAL IN FALL

Montreal, March 20.—The present term of the court of King's Bench was adjourned today after a sitting of five minutes without any decision having been made with regard to a new trial for Adela Delorme for the murder of her half-brother, Raoul Delorme, and the jury did not come up again until the May assizes.

The general opinion in legal circles is that the third trial of the Abbe will not take place until the September assizes. No application for bail will be made for the accused.

COUNTY IS NOT PAYING DRAFTS

Treasury Department of Municipality of St. John Fails to Assess

Fredricton, March 20.—The county drafts issued by the Board of Education, by the legal committee, to school districts in the city and county of St. John, are not being paid by the county, although the law expressly stipulates that the drafts shall be a charge on any funds which the county has on hand.

When the county fund was increased on the recommendation of a committee appointed by the Legislature, on which members of the Opposition served as well as members of the Government, it is stated that the municipality of the city and county of St. John failed through some reason to assess for the additional amount. The former county rate was 30 cents, and the amount assessed by the Legislature was 60 cents on $100. Now that the treasury department of the municipality of the county of St. John has failed to provide for the payment of the drafts and the drafts are practically being dishonored by the bank, the secretaries of the different boards of school trustees are complaining with the Government, asking what is the trouble. The case is covered by the law and responsibility rests entirely with the municipal authorities, and the Government really has nothing whatever to do with it.

When the county fund was increased on the recommendation of a committee appointed by the Legislature, on which members of the Opposition served as well as members of the Government, it is stated that the municipality of the city and county of St. John failed through some reason to assess for the additional amount. The former county rate was 30 cents, and the amount assessed by the Legislature was 60 cents on $100. Now that the treasury department of the municipality of the county of St. John has failed to provide for the payment of the drafts and the drafts are practically being dishonored by the bank, the secretaries of the different boards of school trustees are complaining with the Government, asking what is the trouble. The case is covered by the law and responsibility rests entirely with the municipal authorities, and the Government really has nothing whatever to do with it.

That Hang-On Cough Must Go

Home Made Cough Mixture Best of All For The Cough That Sticks—Make it Yourself in Two Minutes.

The coughing season is on and every home should have a supply of the best cough remedy to be had, and as you can make this supremely excellent cough mixture yourself why pay high prices for the common kind?

Get from any druggist one ounce of Parmitin (double strength)—to this add a little granulated sugar and enough water to make one half pint—that's all there is to it.

Then when any member of the family starts coughing or catches cold in chest or head, or has acute catarrh, you are prepared as you should be. And the children love to take it.

With hang-on beyond belief this home made cough mixture stops the toughest hang-on cough, and all because in it there is a substance (too costly for ordinary cough syrups) that immediately covers the membrane like a soothing, healing poultice, and blessed relief comes at once.

And you should also bear in mind that any remedy that overcomes catarrh, partially or wholly, is bound to be of benefit to those who are troubled with head noises and catarrhal deafness.

Get Parmitin and get better.

HAVE IRISH EVENING IN THE SOUTH END

St. John the Baptist Men Have Guests From Other Societies

The Men's Society of St. John the Baptist church last night celebrated St. Patrick's Day with an Irish evening programme given in their rooms in St. James street. Invitations were extended to all the Catholic societies in the city and there was a large attendance. The evening was spent very pleasantly. Music was furnished by the St. John the Baptist orchestra consisting of Joseph McDermott, Gregory McDermott and James Mills. The room was prettily decorated with green streamers and shamrocks.

The entire programme was Irish and the different speakers in their addresses made reference to St. Patrick and to Ireland. The chair was occupied by George McDermott, president of the society, and the programme was as follows:

Opening remarks, George McDermott; address, Rev. J. J. McDermott; selection, orchestra; vocal solo, J. W. Melody; St. Rose's Society, speech, Mr. Hennessy; solo, Edward Butler; St. Peter's Society, speech, Mr. Casey; Knights of Columbus, speech, Robert McDade; solo, Fred Barrett; A. O. The Marathon Tuxis Square of the German street Baptist church last night had as its guests at a regular meeting the Rockets' Tuxis square of St. David's church. Following the carrying out of the customary programme A. I. Crookshank, mentor of the St. David's boys, thanked the German street square for the entertainment that had been much appreciated. After the programme a game of basketball was played between teams representing the two groups.

DOG GIVES ALARM FOR FIRE IN BARN

Sky Illuminated For Miles by Blaze in Sand Cove Road

The southwestern sky was brightly illuminated last night about 10 o'clock by the wonderful reflection in the sky from a fire in a barn owned by Percy Manchester on the Sand Cove Road, near the Greenwood cemetery. The barn and its contents of straw were destroyed. The loss is probably covered by insurance.

On the property are a large dwelling and three barns, two small ones and a large one. The largest barn, which was burned, was mostly filled with straw, but Mrs. Manchester had no idea last night of how the fire could have started, unless possibly some tramp had crawled into the building for a night

SAYS SQUIRES ACCEPTED MONEY FROM STEEL CO.

Investigator Reports Against Former Newfoundland Prime Minister.

St. John's, Nfld., March 20—In his report handed into the Governor-in-Council under date of March 15, T. Hollis Walker, K. C., of London, England, Royal Commissioner, who spent the last 10 weeks here investigating the allegations of wrong-doing which led to the downfall of the Squires Government last summer, finds definitely and absolutely against Sir Richard Squires, former Prime Minister of Newfoundland.

The commissioner holds it as proven that Sir Richard accepted presents of large amounts of money from the Dominion Iron & Steel Company at a time when that concern was conducting negotiations with the Government of which Sir Richard was leader.

He judges it proved that amounts of money totalling over $40,000 were paid from the treasury of the company to Sir Richard Squires with the knowledge, consent, and approval of high officials of the company.

The reference to alleged relations of Richard Squires and the companies now known as the British Empire Steel Corporation was contained in the second paragraph of the Royal Commission and reads as follows:

"It is alleged that while negotiations were in progress between the Government of the colony and the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, Limited, and the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company, Limited, respectively, concerning the obligations of the said companies to the Government certain moneys were paid to the then Prime Minister by the said companies."

FLY SMALLPOX BUT ONE OF 12 IS FOUND

Eleven P. E. I. Men, Who Got Away From Camp, Still Abroad

A mild scare was given citizens yesterday when it was learned that 11 men, who were associated with others in a lumber camp in Maine where smallpox had been discovered, might have passed through the city or might be present here in the city heading for their homes in P. E. Island.

The eleven Islanders and a man from Grand Falls were working in a lumber camp 35 miles west of Houlton.

The Department of Public Health at Fredericton was notified on Wednesday by the Maine Bureau of Health, Dr. G. G. Melvin, chief medical health officer of the province, sent out advice to Grand Falls, McAdam, St. John's, and other points in the province to be on the lookout for the men who, one report says, cleared out on Monday and another ten days ago.

The Grand Falls man arrived home yesterday and immediately on his arrival he was escorted to a doctor and vaccinated and then quarantined.

The 11, presumably bound for the Island, are still at large. The Canadian National policemen were prepared to receive them when they stepped off the Boston train yesterday, but they did not arrive.

THE RAILWAY MAIL SERVICE.

(Halifax Herald.)

We are disposed to agree with a good deal that is said by a correspondent about the railway mail clerk. We do not understand, however, that the discussion which has been, recently, conducted by the graphic articles of Mr. Grattan O'Leary—is directed against that class of public servants whose services have been vitiated by overcrowded service in Ottawa, known as the Inside Service.

Even at Ottawa it is admitted that there are a great many mail servants who do not lack either quality or diligence. These are not clock servers. They take an interest in their work, do it well, and deserve every cent of pay they receive. Indeed, there are a few of these who are underpaid.

On the other hand, it seems to be accepted as true—and no doubt is true—that during a good many years, a large number of persons, women and men, who merely encumber the public offices—whose services should be dispensed with. Party patronage is to blame for this state of affairs; and, let it be noted, the people themselves are to blame for party patronage. Members of parliament are continually put under pressure by the people. If the member falls down before that pressure, he may be said that Canada is fortunate in having a most efficient staff.

The work is very arduous. It takes heavy toll of the physical and mental strength of those engaged in it. The work is done under conditions that put a great strain on physical reserves. The place where it is carried on is not always as well equipped as it should be; the air is ever at the elbow of the operator. It is high pressure service but it is well done by the Canadian mail clerks. The service plays a most important part in the everyday life of the people and business. It would be most surprising to hear a suggestion that the salaries should be reduced. This is not the class of public servants that should be called upon to suffer a diminution of salaries. The knife should be applied to the drones of the service, not to the men who are competent, who are giving the country service of quality, and who are not being overpaid for that service.

The reference to alleged relations of Richard Squires and the companies now known as the British Empire Steel Corporation was contained in the second paragraph of the Royal Commission and reads as follows:

"It is alleged that while negotiations were in progress between the Government of the colony and the Dominion Iron and Steel Company, Limited, and the Nova Scotia Steel and Coal Company, Limited, respectively, concerning the obligations of the said companies to the Government certain moneys were paid to the then Prime Minister by the said companies."

AIM TO RAISE SUGAR ENOUGH FOR EMPIRE

Former Digby Man Has Big Scheme Afoot in South Africa

To make South Africa a great beet sugar producing country, in fact to make it eventually produce sugar enough for the British Empire, was the purpose which sent H. A. Biden half way round the world to investigate the latest and most highly efficient machinery and mills for the manufacture of sugar from the beet, and also to gather knowledge so that he might know how to proceed when the time was ripe.

Accompanied by his wife, Mr. Biden arrived here yesterday from New York and, after a visit to relatives in Amherst, will sail from Halifax for England, where he will attend the British Empire exhibition before returning to his home in Johannesburg, South Africa.

In an interview last evening Mr. Biden said that South Africa offered a great opportunity for the raising of enough sugar beet to supply the whole demand of the British Empire, amounting to millions of tons each year. At his own expense he has started the experiment of growing sugar beet. He supplied the seed to the farmers and paid them for cultivating the land and looking after the crop.

Mr. Biden was born in Digby, N. B., and leaves on the Empress this morning to visit his home town. He then proceeds to Amherst, where a brother is located. He has lived in South Africa for 20 years, and with the exception of one occasion in 1907, has not made a trip to this country in that time. When he went to Africa, he said, he immediately took up gold mining, and was so successful that he could finance the sugar proposition himself.

Via Duofold

Means Writing with Fingers Relaxed and Mind Free to Think

We Guarantee the Point for 25 Years' Wear

BECAUSE of its Over-size barrel and classic symmetry, you need but hold this big handsome barrel with fingers ever so gently extended; while the Duofold's super-smooth point skims over the paper, writing as if by its own balanced weight!

It gives the mind free rein—the hand full play. Via Duofold is a new kind of writing—a kind you will eagerly seek to do.

To produce this effect—this writing urge—requires us to pay $240 a pound for Iridium, when we could buy ordinary pen tips for a third this amount. It requires us to fuse it by hand into an extra thick gold point, and to polish it to jewel-like smoothness. It requires five separate inspections of the point alone, before the final O.K.

And to sell you this pen at $7 instead of $10, requires enormous production and almost uncanny efficiency. For example, we save factory sweepings and even wash employees' clothes to reclaim gold dust. Not long ago, one rubbish heap yielded $2500 in gold.

Clothed in a translucent color of Chinese lacquer—red, with smart, black tips, and a rich *Gold Girdle, Parker Duofold is every bit as handsome to carry as it is alluring to write with. And its color makes it hard to mislay.

Wherever you are, step up to a nearby pen counter and buy this Classic on 30 days' approval.

"It Now Costs Less to Dress Best"

Another Big Step Forward

In spite of hard times and the present great period of depression St. John is steadily forging ahead, as proof of which we offer the completion of the Dry Dock which has supplied one of St. John's greatest needs.

And now another great need of St. John is to become a reality.

In any city the size of St. John there are to be found several thousand men, young and old who are not blessed with a perfectly normal figure, consequently these men find it difficult to find a suit which pleases them and at the same time provides a perfect fit. The price of a suit made-to-order is not within the means of all, and frequently they have to be satisfied with something they do not like, in order to get a suit that fits. This need is now satisfied.

Triple C Clothes announce the opening of a retail made-to-measure clothes department in connection with their wholesale tailoring establishment.

In all the larger cities of Canada and the United States there are found certain clothing factories which sell exclusively to the retail trade, but only through their branch stores. These branches cannot sell goods cheaper than other stores, having practically the same overhead and selling-costs as any other store, and the buying public get no better satisfaction from them than it does from anybody else.

THE TRIPLE-C CLOTHING CO. are attempting something that none of the above mentioned factories have ever done before, namely to sell our goods direct from the factory.

In this way we expect to practically eliminate every selling expense and middleman's profit. The average storekeeper has to pay for the expenses of the travellers who sell him goods; he ultimately pays the manufacturer's advertising bills and he also pays the charges incurred in bringing goods to St. John; and the consumer, of course, pays for all this in the end. The people who buy at the Triple-C showrooms will have none of these charges to pay for.

Our policy and our motto in conducting our new undertaking may be summed up in these few words:

We Make Your Suit to Measure for far Less than the Price of a Ready-Made Suit at Any Store

Our showroom is ideally situated in that a short flight of stairs leads from it to the factory. In the showroom, where the suit models and the patterns of cloth are displayed, our customers will be able to choose their cloth and also the style they desire; they will then be conducted to our factory where they will be measured by an expert tailor. Here they will have an excellent opportunity to see just how their clothes are made and also the up-to-date methods and machinery used in their manufacture. We are always pleased to show our customers through our plant and explain to them the different processes and stages through which our garments are put.

Grand Opening Friday Evening Mar. 21

This is the first of a series of sales which will be announced to the public every week through the press and we have no doubt but what these sales will in time become so popular that people will hold back from buying their suits until we feature the kind of suit they intend to get. We carry the largest range of serges, striped worsteds, and tweeds to be seen anywhere.

In order to introduce ourselves formally to the public we are making a special offer which will hold good for one week only.

A 19 oz. Pure Wool English Blue Serge Made-to-Your-Measure for $26

Price to hold good for one week only, Friday, March 21, to Saturday, March 29.

If you intend to buy a Blue Serge Suit later on in the season, now is the time to order it. A small deposit will serve to hold the suit for you, so order now during this sale, because you will never again have such an opportunity.

The cloth and trimmings used in these suits are of the very best obtainable and we cordially invite the public to come up and examine them. They are the same suits that are being sold all over for not less than $45.00 tailor-made, and not less than $35.00 Ready-made.

Policeman and 7 Firemen are Hurt as They Leave Building.

THOUGHT FIRE OUT
Manager of Garage Succumbs to Injuries Received in Accident.

New York, March 21.—One man was killed and 13 persons were injured when two explosions occurred in an uptown garage late yesterday. The injured included a patrolman and seven firemen. A. M. Healy, 50 years old, manager of the garage, was the man killed.

The first explosion was believed to have been caused by the ignition of gasoline on the sidewalk. The second was in a gasoline tank in the basement and came as firemen were leaving the building after they thought the fire caused by the first blast had been extinguished. Fire Lieutenants John Scanlon and Alexander Stapleton and five of their men were knocked to the floor, their uniforms masses of flames. Seven firemen were dragged to the street and rushed to a hospital a block away.

LINE CLOSES at 9 P. M. TO BOTH VEHICLES and FOOT TRAFFIC U.S. CUSTOMS

Malverne, L. I., March 21.—Two burning crosses, believed to have been connected by wires to deposits of dynamite secreted near them, caused a double explosion on Londer's farm near here, which imperiled the lives of an entire fire company. The roaring bursts, one after the other in quick succession, caused a great upheaval of earth, and left a crater large enough to bury an automobile.

Police began an investigation on the strength of frequent appearances of similar fiery crosses during the past year to determine whether any secret organization was involved.

The fire company had scarcely arrived at the Linder farm when the vanguards observed four objects resembling young sticks lying beneath the cross-trees of the twin crosses. The leader called a warning and ordered his men to safety just in time to escape the blast, which took place hardly an instant later. The ground shook and the crosses disappeared in an upheaval of dirt, which showered down upon the company and fell into the hole which marked the spot.

The markets of far distant countries are at the disposal of M. R. It may serve to show you, however, that the long arm of commerce stretches out from St. John, Canada's Winter Port, and with widening scope gathers in merchandise from far and near so that here in our home town we may all enjoy the advantages offered by the big world outside.

Adopt The Globe-Wernicke Unit Plan When

Few people seek to purchase or care to inherit large libraries. We do find, however, rare pleasure in starting in our own small way a collection of books that represents our individual preference as to choice and character of reading.

As your library grows you can easily keep adding units as your books require. Our stocks can supply you with finishes to suit the furnishings of any room—and there are prices to suit every purse.

FROM IRELAND

"Old Bleach" Linens

"Old Bleach" Table Damasks are among the finest made in the world; they are sun and grass bleached and finished in the slow, gentle way that preserves the natural lustre and strength of the flax fibre.

When You Buy Linen You Want the Best

A woman regards her household linens with as much pride as her wardrobe. Even more so—her wardrobe has to be constantly kept up to date, while she expects her linens to last indefinitely.

"Old Bleach" Pure Irish Linens and Linen Damasks, carry lasting satisfaction, which is due in no small measure to the extraordinary durability obtained by the old fashioned bleaching on grass greens by "the weather." Careful bleaching alone does not mean durability. Pure flax is essential. Only the purest flax yarn has ever been used by the "Old Bleach" Mills.

Gossard Corsets are designed to give ideal support to every type of figure. They assure the graceful, slenderizing front line and smooth, uninterrupted back line.

In these days of straight boyish frocks and tube-like coats, it is most important that your corset is correctly designed.

Before you choose your spring outfit, let us advise you about proper corseting. No matter how much you pay for clothes, the effect is lost unless the foundation upon which your clothes have been fitted is right. There's a type of Gossard Corset that will suit you exactly.

It was past eleven. Father entered the parlor, and, approaching his daughter's admirer, said: "Young man, do you know what time it is?" The timid youth leapt to his feet, and, stammering "7.30," hurried into the hall, and then out into the night. The old man stood bewildered. "That's a queer fellow to have calling on you, Mabel," he remarked. "Why did he rush off to bed that fashion? My watch had stopped, and I merely wanted to get the time from him to start it going again!" - Scotsman.

SPORT NEWS GLEANED FROM WORLD'S CENTRES

GREENLEAF HOLDS
COMMANDING LEAD

Has a 19 Game Margin in
Pocket Billiard League
Tournament.

New York, March 21.— Ralph Greenleaf, holder of the world's pocket billiard championship, has recovered from his slump and as a result of winning his last eight games, two of which were victories over Frank Taberki, and two others over Benny Allen, his nearest contender, the champion now holds a lead of 19 games in the race for first money in the National Championship Pocket Billiard League. Taberki also has been making rapid strides and now is only two games behind Allen for second place. Allen has won 68 and lost 22 against a record of 68 won and 36 lost for Taberki. Greenleaf's record is 81 victories and 17 defeats.

In the National Championship Three-Cushion League Robert Cannefax, the leader, lost a full game during the week and now leads Otto Reisel of Philadelphia by only two games. Johnny Layton, a former champion, continues to make progress and has crept up within four games of Cannefax. Layton has won eight out of his last 11 games. The Denton, present champion, is in fourth place, five games behind Layton. With the schedule due to be finished within the next month, Layton and Denton would be the four players to meet in the round robin for the championship.

HOREMANS WILL FINISH TRAINING

Is Due in New York Sunday—Will Play
Champion Hoppe.

Edouard Horemans, the Belgian champion, will return to New York on Sunday to finish his preparation for the world's championship match against Willie Hoppe at the Hotel Pennsylvania on April 8, 9 and 10. Horemans will be accompanied by Taddo Suganuma, holder of the national junior title. "Much interest also will centre in the arrival of Suganuma, for during the stay it is planned to arrange another challenge match for the junior crown between Suganuma and Elbert Cutler. Negotiations for the match have been under way for more than a week, but it was learned that nothing definite would be done until Suganuma arrived here. If the match is clinched probably will be played in New York on March 31, and April 1 and 2. These are the only available dates, and it is planned to hold it at that time in order to avoid any conflict with the match between Hoppe and Horemans, which will start one week later.

BOXING LAWS IN JERSEY AMENDED

May Only Appear in One
Exhibition Prior to the Main Bout.

Trenton, N. J., March 21.—Boxers appearing in the final bout of a show will not be permitted to engage in more than one exhibition within a period of five days, or 120 hours, instead of three days as provided in the past. This amendment to the rules and regulations of the state athletic commission is announced by Commissioner Newton A. K. Bugieles and will apply equally to boxers from other states coming into New Jersey to engage in contests. Mr. Bugieles said that the amendment is made necessary because of the situation growing out of the Berenbach-Delancy bout in Madison Square Garden on March 14, when Delancy knocked out Berenbach in the fourth round. Berenbach had signed a contract to box at the Broadway A. C. in Newark with Jack Clarke on March 17, and prior to the latter date he also signed an agreement to box at the Madison Square Garden on March 14.

McIntyre To Make
Lightweight Limit

Johnnie McIntyre and Irish Kid Williams will mix it up in the feature bout of the Army Club's show to be staged in the Armories on March 21, according to an announcement made by the management yesterday. The weight question has been settled by McIntyre agreeing to make the lightweight limit at 11 o'clock on the day of the bout. With the matching of these two clever and popular boxers the Army Club has secured a real good drawing card that should tax the seating capacity of the Armory.

"HOKUM," DEMPSEY'S
COMMENT ON FIRPO'S
RETIREMENT STORY

Has a 19 Game Margin in
Pocket Billiard League
Tournament.

Salt Lake City, Utah, March 21.— Jack Dempsey, world's heavyweight champion, doesn't take much stock in Press reports of Luis Firpo's contemplated retirement. "That's a lot of hokum, I think," he said after seeing the reports. "It looks like a publicity scheme and perhaps a move toward increasing his demands for future fights in the United States. The shrill cry of the American eagle is too tempting for any fellow who can sock like the 'Wild Bull of the Pampas'."

CANADIENS WILL PLAY CALGARY

Have Eliminated Vancouver in Play-off for the Stanley Cup.

Montreal, March 20.—Montreal Canadiens, winners of the National Hockey League, earned the right to meet Calgary Tigers in the finals of the Stanley Cup when they inflicted a second defeat on the Vancouver Maroons at the Mount Royal Arena here tonight. The score was 2 to 1 and this put Canadiens two games up on the series. It was not until the third period after forty-five minutes of a desperate struggle that carried the puck alternately from one end of the ice to the other, that Billy Boucher at last beat the almost impregnable Eagle-Eye Lehman with a rebound off the latter's pads from a shot by Moreaux. Nine minutes after this same player put the N. H. L. title-holders further ahead, but Vancouver tallied a minute later.

Maritime Hockey
Club Elects

Sussex, N. B., March 21.—G. P. Bolton was re-elected president and M. B. Stokoe was re-appointed secretary-treasurer of the Maritime Amateur Hockey Association at the annual meeting here yesterday. There was a large attendance of delegates from all parts of the Maritime Provinces. It was decided to conclude business at the semi-annual meeting of the M. P. B. A. U. of C. at Truro on April 3. President A. W. Covey of St. John attended the meeting.

Sussex Plays In Boston Tonight

The first game of the brief trip to Boston of the famed Sussex hockey team, New Brunswick and Maritime champions, takes place this evening in Boston with the Maple A. A. team as opponents. Included in the Maple line-up is "Chick" Williams, former Abbie star, who played here with his former teammates against the world champion Granites. On Saturday night, Sussex meets Boston A. A. club, champions of the eastern section of the United States Amateur Hockey League.

EAST ST. JOHN WON.

FLAPPERS FAIL IN
RUSH TO GET OXFORD
GARDENERS' AUTOGRAPHS

London, March 21.—London's river-side flappers had the disappointment of the Oxford crew when the Oxford crew made its first appearance at Putney in preparation for its race with Cambridge on May 5. When the crew, headed by its American stroke, W. P. Weston, left the boat-house to take the water a heavy waiting flappers rushed forward, presenting autograph books for signatures, in accordance with the annual custom. A big polo man, however, barred the way and told the girls the crew was forbidden to give any autographs this year. It is understood the new rule was made to prevent the men from being "postured" in the past.

They come here with a lead of 15 points that the locals must overcome to annex the intermediate crown and that they can do that in the confident hope of their supporters. They have been practicing hard for this game and are out to give the Trojan A. C. its second New Brunswick championship, the Trojan Senators having mopped up the available opposition with ease.

Proceeding the game will be two preliminary games starting at 8 o'clock. The local line-up, as announced last night, will be as follows: Lee and Christopher, forwards; Potter, centre; Campbell and Wilson, defences; G. Malcolm, McMurray and Welsford, spares.

LACK OF COMPETITION
FORCES KING GEORGE
TO RETIRE YACHT

London, March 21.—King George, who is a keen yachtsman, announces he has decided, "with the greatest regret," not to race his big yacht Britannia this year in consequence of lack of competitors in his class. He will, however, commission her for cruising purposes during the Cowes yachting season. It is recalled that the King laid up the yacht in 1922 for reasons of economy, but had her thoroughly overhauled in 1923, when, in great racing trim, she won eleven firsts, six seconds and one third in twenty-six races. This was the Britannia's thirtieth season.

LODGE RETURNS,
WANTS TO FIGHT FIRPO
AGAIN, BUT IN U. S.

New York, March 21.—Farmer Lodge, Minnesota heavyweight, who was knocked out by Luis Firpo in the fifth round of a bout held in South America on Feb. 24, has returned to this country, proclaiming his willingness to box Firpo again in a ring far removed from South America and expressing confidence that he would dispose of the Argentine heavyweight if a match could be arranged for a battleground in this country. "I'm not yellow, and I'm not kicking," said Lodge upon his return, "but I've learned it's a good idea for American fighters to do their fighting in America."

WILL NOW ATTEMPT TO SWIM CHANNEL

Girl Who Crossed the River
Plate Will Seek New Laurels.

Buenos Aires, March 20.—Miss Lillian G. Harrison, the 20 year old Anglo-Argentine girl who swam across the River Plate December 22, the first person to accomplish the feat, hopes to set another record by being the first of her sex to swim the English Channel. She is planning with the backing of the Argentine Athletic Federation—to leave for England in May and attempt the crossing during the English summer.

Enrique Tirabochi, the Italian-Argentine swimmer who swam the channel last summer and who accompanied Miss Harrison a part of the distance across the Plate, believes she will succeed in her new venture. The distance she had to swim across the big South American river was 26 1/2 miles in a direct line, somewhat less than the channel swim, and, according to Tirabochi, the channel currents are no more difficult to master than the Plate currents, though somewhat colder. Tirabochi himself, in an unsuccessful attempt to traverse the Plate about two years ago, was foiled by 7,000 pesos, two cups and a gold medal for her feat. She accomplished the distance in 24 hours 19 1/2 minutes, which is claimed to be the world's record for permanence in the water by a woman swimmer, as well as for distance. She started in the morning from Colonia, on the Arugayan side and landed the next morning near La Plata, east of Buenos Aires. Her father accompanied her in a launch, while relays of men swimmers escorted her in the water. She kept a pace of 27 strokes a minute, except when stronger currents compelled her to increase it to 30, and her course was approximately direct.

For food Miss Harrison took black coffee, orange juice and a vegetable concentrate, tossed to her from time to time in nursing bottles. When she touched bottom in the broad shallows on the Argentine side she fulfilled, without any seeming difficulty, a condition that to win her prizes she must wade until she reached entirely dry land.

The young woman scarcely ever rested after her exploit, going the same afternoon to attend a girl's athletic meet as billy and victorious as if she had only returned from an ordinary

ST. SIMON LINE
ON THE DECLINE

Influence of Famous Stallion on English Turf Shows Marked Decrease.

The decline of the influence of the St. Simon blood on the English turf and the remarkable strength of the Bend Or line, which seems fairly and squarely to have outstridden the St. Simon line after holding a secondary position to it for a long time, is causing much discussion among observers of the breeding industry in England, according to the New York Times. Not a great interval seems to have elapsed since the St. Simon blood was scoring all along the line. In other words, wonderful as its effect was in producing winners, it was regretted that the St. Simon blood should threaten to swamp out all other lines. It was predicted that constant inbreeding to St. Simon, though successful enough for the time being, would in the long run be detrimental to the English thoroughbred.

Those who made these predictions were unnecessarily alarmed, for by the process of time St. Simon blood has found its level, in the opinion of the London Post, which continues on the subject as follows:

"We now realize that its potency has not endured in any pronounced fashion to the third generation so far as the male line is concerned. We have to look some way down the list of winning stallions of the past before we encounter a descendant of St. Simon in the male line. St. Simon's son of Chaucer, who has never completely fulfilled the expectations at the stud, was eighth on the list. Then a long way below him came the now defunct Charles O'Malley, who reigned as the second line of St. Simon, while twenty-fourth place was filled by Chaucer, one of the few survivors of the Duke of Portland's undefeated champion."

St. Simon died in 1808, and at that time it would have seemed extremely improbable that the great horse would be so moderately represented in the winners of the next century. Ten years ago no fewer than four St. Simon horses, Desmond, St. Frusquin, William the Third and Chaucer, were among the best stallions of the winning list. Now he has not a single representative among the first seven.

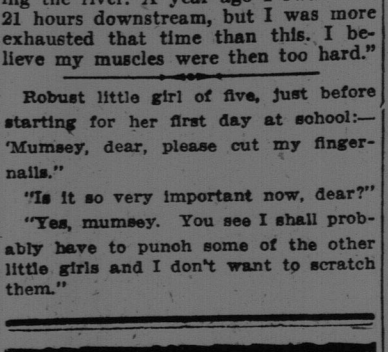

"One must not overlook the fact that a great many of St. Simon's descendants have done remarkably well as sires overseas. For example, Comedy King, by Perseus, and St. Anton, by St. Frusquin, training the best of the winning sires in Australia last year, while St. Wolf, by St. Frusquin, was easily the most successful stallion in the Argentine, both in 1922 and 1923.

"Still, at home the blood is rapidly on the wane. William the Third has left no son of real distinction to carry on the name; the sons of Perseus now on at the English stud are few and unimportant, and the best of St. Frusquin's lot seems to be Greenback. Even the pick of the best of the present day winners in Australia last year, while St. Wolf, by St. Frusquin, was easily the most successful stallion in the Argentine, both in 1922 and 1923.

"The gradual rise into supremacy of the Bend Or blood is one of the most interesting changes of the last decade in British horsebreeding. The line of Speculum is still doing well through Sunstar, and it has been pleasant to see a revival of the neglected Barcolaine strain through Harry On and Captain Cuttle. Then we find the Springfield line strongly in evidence through Tracery and his stock.

"It is all to the benefit of the English thoroughbred that the honors should go round in this way, particularly as it minimizes the temptation of excessive inbreeding."

A TRIP TO THE MOON

(Vancouver, Sun.)

George Wilson, son of California, begs to be allowed to be inside the rocket which Professor R. H. Goddard of Clark University hopes to shoot to the moon late this year.

The man who goes to the moon will have about one chance in a million of ever getting back.

He would look up into the 2,000,000 charted stars above him, all of them suns, each having, probably, at least two inhabited planets.

Then, if he had still more time, he could figure out the number of those who had lived on earth since the beginning of time as something like 3,000,000,000,000,000 beings.

With that final conclusion, away up there on the moon, 238,857 miles away from all the petty selfishness and vanities of earth, he would give up his little life feeling very, very small indeed.

O'NEILL DEFFENDS HIS NEGRO PLAY

Denies That "All God's Children" Will Cause Ill Feeling Between Races.

New York, March 21.—Eugene O'Neill, author of "All God's Children," the drama dealing with the marriage of a negro to a white woman, which the Provincetown Theatre has announced for early production, has issued a statement in answer to the many criticisms of the proposed production.

"I hate such feeling," he said. "It is because I am certain my play does not do this that I will stand by it to the end. I know I am right in knowing that all the irresponsible gaggle of the sensation-mongers and notoriety hounds is wrong. They are the ones who are trying to arouse ill-feeling, and they should be held responsible."

"All we ask is a square deal. A play is written to be expressed through the theatre, only on its merits in the theatre can a final judgment be passed on it with justice."

"We demand this hearing. We shall give the play before our subscribers only an able by their verdict, in the fullest confidence that the play, produced as it should be, can give no offense to any American, of whatever creed or race."

"Admitting, which we do not, that we are responsible to any one outside our own organization, it is to our subscribers that we are held to account."

Mr. O'Neill discussed the choice of Paul Robeson, a full-blooded negro, and Miss Mary Blair, a white actress, for the leading roles in his play.

"Mr. Robeson, I believe," he said, "can portray the character of the negro in the play. That is all there is to it. A fine actor is a fine actor. The question of race prejudice cannot enter here."

"Miss Blair is cast for Ella because I have always had her in mind. She is one of the most talented actresses on our stage. She is playing the part of the beautiful white girl. As a true artist, she does not recognize any other consideration as having any bearing."

Mr. Robeson, it was announced, has replaced Charles Gilpin at the head of the all-negro cast of "Rosanne," which is on a tour of the negro theatres of the East. At the Provincetown Theatre it was explained that this would not interfere with his rehearsals for his role in "All God's Children Got Wings."

BRITISH FILMS ASK FOR HOME SUPPORT

Cinema Makers Decry Excess of American Product.

London, March 20.—The British used to smile at the American custom of picking seven days out of the calendar to stir up interest in sunny things.

And in the colonies and dominions of the British Empire, the Yankee movies are even more popular, only 3 or 4 per cent. of the reels being British products.

The British National Film League opened its "week" by inviting the Prince of Wales to luncheon, and the Prince in a speech recounted what he called the "good points" of the movies.

Princess Mary did not make a speech to further British Film Week, but she consented to be present at a first night performance of a spectacular film based on the British efforts in battle during the world war. The house was packed.

The producers here apparently do not visualize any responsibility of driving the Yankee reels off British screens. What they hope for, they said, is to bring up the home industry so that 50 per cent. of the films shown on English screens will be British.

Several times in the past, both in London and the provinces, certain theatres have set out to show nothing but home made films. But sooner or later box office woe have driven them back to accepting appearances of the well known American actors and actresses on their screens.

DUBLIN SOCIETY TO FURTHER INTEREST IN ART AND HISTORY

Dublin, Feb. 28.—(By Mail.)—Dublin citizens have formed an influential society for the welfare of the national art collections, and to promote the acquisition of works of art and of national and historical importance.

The picture gallery in Dublin, now to be reopened after a long closing due to the proximity to the government buildings exposed to risk during the fighting, is said to be the best of its kind in the United Kingdom outside London.

The idea is, as in England, to stimulate the generosity of private citizens to enrich the national collections. Viscount Iveagh, Dublin's wealthiest citizen, and perhaps Ireland's only millionaire, has promised his support.

"Treat a widow and a widow much the same," says Peter Trout. "When you find yourself near either, 'Good idea to look out.'"

SHERWOOD GLORIES IN FEATS AS CLOWN

Critic Tells Democratic Club of Life With the Big Top.

New York, March 20.—"Robert Sherwood is his name—not exactly a ha been, but in a sense, yes. A movie critic, I believe, and a dealer in whole-sale books. A distinguished looking gentleman."

"A millionaire to boot, I should judge, what? An influential financier, perhaps, who makes the little stocks and bonds dance in that great stone building at the heel of the city, the crowd's push and fight, the back and forth of the strings and the kink of the stocks and bonds dance and kick and fall like puppet dolls at a country fair, and then he smiles as the movie clay their hands."

"No! No! You have not read him right. I have said that he was a movie critic and a dealer in whole-sale books; but he is more than that, or rather has been. He has played the greatest part in his time. Can't you guess?"

"A dramatist, perhaps?"

"You are warmer, but even now you have not hit upon it. In all the earth no counterpart. He was a clown."

"A clown, you say?"

"Indeed, a clown. He ran away from home at the tender age of 12. The sawdust lured him, the circus riders in their painted cages, the animals acrobats on their trapezes, the bare and the ringmaster in his high silk hat and the crack of his whip. The circus called and he knew her voice for a friend."

"He joined the ranks of the clowns, thought at first he just vended peanuts and popcorn to the delighted spectators on the wooden seats. He was the child of the circus and he remained under her canvas wing for eighteen years, growing into manhood. Today he is called the oldest clown in America—yes, and some who have seen him say he was the greatest."

"And it was he that spoke recently at the Democratic Club?"

"Yes. He said he was 64 years old. And as he got up to give his little talk and looked into the faces of those before him the weight of the years rolled off, and he was again a clown. Why, his eyes actually gleamed!"

"He was the first man, he said, to execute a double somersault over eight horses and two elephants without horses and his neck. He used to do it regularly with Barnum's. He has clowned all over the earth and he once caused Queen Victoria to burst one of her corset strings with laughter, for he had done his antics at the special request of England's Queen."

THE BEST TIMES

"Lady Langer did 5:17 3-5 at Hobart in a 50-yard saltwater bath at Sandy Bay Baths. The writer did 5:17 4-5 in the same race. Barney Kieran went to 5:19 at Lavender Bay, and Norman Ross beat me in Melbourne in 5:19 4-5 at City Baths, which has a fresh-water pool of 93 1-3 yards. Charlton's time was 5:20 2-5. It is his best match effort to date and I frankly believe he will do better. As it is, it places him in the best flight of quarter-milers ever seen in this country."

"Arguments have occurred and will occur again and again, concerning why Manly's stroke, by its own convictions may be interesting."

"Charlton was first brought to my notice as a boy of 13 by Tommy Adrian. This boy was gifted with phenomenal staying powers. Tommy went to work on him straight away and has been guiding him ever since. To Adrian must be given the credit of developing the latest powers that lay in that thirteen-year-old kid. Adrian has no two minds about it. He calls it a trudgeon crawl and would like to call it a continuous trudgeon. He reckons the stroke has been in the air ever since retarding movements in the old trudgeon scissers. Charlton has eliminated the kick and added the crawl leg flutters."

"I agree with Adrian's contention. Charlton strokes with his arms very much in the manner common to all trudgeon swimmers and but seldom seen in American crawl swimmers. I am referring to the apparent unevenness of this placement. The right arm is inclined further ahead than the left, which is inclined to chop a little short when compared with the reach of the right arm. Some may call this a fault, but I would not let him lose it. I am certain that it is a mannerism that is necessary to Charlton's whole stroke and rhythm."

Stroke is Analyzed

"Under water, Charlton's forearms act correctly in so far as they pull into position and across the body with the elbows bent. That is to say, the full arm reach is not made toward the bottom of the pool, but in relation to the body; the arms pass beneath the trunk in boomerang shape until the rear prior to lifting clear and coming forward again. It is right here that any slight improvement might be made. Charlton is inclined to sweep or swing his arm out of the water."

"Charlton's sense of pace is superb and his evenness, lap after lap, is almost a matter for wonderment. In that he has the vital secret of long-distance swimming. Coupled with his amazing stamina, these factors all make up a beyond the average person interested in swimming. Fooling and swimming about the Manly Baths since babyhood,

A. J. LEBLANC, K.C., RAISED TO BENCH

New Judge of the Supreme Court Sworn in by the Chief Justice.

Arthur J. LeBlanc, K. C., of Campbellton, was sworn in this morning by Chief Justice Sir Douglas Hazen as a Judge of the Kings Bench Division of the Supreme Court of the Province of New Brunswick and will hold his first court at Bathurst on Tuesday, March 25. This afternoon he will sit in chambers in Moncton, while en route to his home at Campbellton. After he was sworn in His Honor said that until the end of June he would continue to reside at Campbellton as he did not wish to remove his family during the school term. This summer it was his intention to move to Moncton and make his home in that city.

There was a large representation of the barristers of the city in attendance this morning at the swearing in of the new judge and chief justice. The ceremony was presided over by W. M. Ryan to His Honor. After administering the oath of allegiance and the oath of office, Chief Justice Hazen welcomed Mr. LeBlanc and congratulated him on his elevation to the bench. Mr. Ryan then extended the congratulations of the bar to His Honor and assured him of their best wishes and support.

His Honor thanked the bar for the kind words of appreciation and pledge of support and assured them he would do all in his power to preserve the good feeling which had always existed between the bench and bar in this province.

Seated with the Chief Justice were Mr. Justice Grimmer of the Supreme Court and Judge J. A. Barry of the County Court. Among the barristers present were M. G. Teed, K. C.; F. R. Taylor, K. C.; J. Roy Campbell, K. C.; Judge McInerney, Sheriff Wilson, J. B. Dever, J. Starr Tait, W. M. Ryan, Judge Henderson, W. A. Ross, H. W. Robertson, R. A. Davidson, D. King, J. C. DeLoren, J. P. H. Teed, C. J. Melliday and A. E. Richard.

An interested witness of the ceremony was Rev. C. P. Carleton, a fellow class mate of the new judge.

Text of Oath.

The oath taken by the new judge was as follows:

You swear that well and lawfully you shall serve Our Lord the King and His people in the office of Justice and that lawfully you shall counsel the King in his business; you shall not counsel or assent to anything which may turn him to damage or dishonour by any manner, way or Court; and that you shall not know the damage or dishonour of him, whereof you shall not cause him to be warned by yourself or by others. You shall do equal law and execution of right to all His subjects rich and poor, without having regard to any person; and that you take not by yourself or by others privily or openly gift or reward of Gold or Silver, nor of any other thing which may turn to your profit, unless it be meat or drink, and that of small value, of any man that shall have any plea or Process hanging before you as long as the same Process shall be so hanging, nor after for the same cause. And that you take nothing for your office of Justice to be done by the King and Fees accustomed and costs limited by Statute, and that you give none advice or counsel to no man great or small in no case where the King is party. And in case that any, of what estate or condition they be, come before you in your sessions with force and Arms or otherwise against the Peace, or against the form of the Statute whereof made, doth or doth to menace the people that they may not pursue the law, that you shall cause their Bodies to be arrested and put in prison; and in case they be such that you cannot arrest them, that you certify the King of their names and misprision hastily, so that he may thereof order a convenient remedy. And that you shall not by yourself nor by other privily nor openly maintain any Plea or quarrel hanging in the King's Court or elsewhere in the Country. And that you deny to no man Common right by the King's letter nor none other man's, nor for none other cause; and in case any letters come to you contrary to the law, that you do nothing by such letters but certify the King thereof, and proceed to execute the law notwithstanding the same letters; and that you shall do and procure the profit of the King and of His Crown with all such things where you may reasonably do the same. And in case you be from henceforth found in default in any of the points aforesaid you shall be at the King's will of Body, Lands and Goods thereof to be done as shall please Him.

So Help You God.

SENIOR BASEBALL FOR SOUTH END

Four Fast Teams Will Play
if Grounds are Put in Shape.

At a meeting of the South End Improvement League last evening it was announced that there was a fine opportunity to have senior baseball on the League's diamond this year. The Royals, Trojans, St. John the Baptist and Garrison teams wish to form one section of the senior amateur league of the city and to play on the South End grounds. In order to make this possible it would be necessary to erect a grandstand and make some further improvements on the grounds. It is also necessary to make a running track and provide for athletic sports for the boys, and it is desired to have an after-school league of boys playing baseball.

To carry out the programme and give the South End the best summer it has ever had in baseball and sports requires much more money than the League has available, and it has been decided to put on a drive for membership.

Last night's meeting was marked by enthusiasm, and expressions of confidence that the South End would stand by its League for the larger programme.

C. M. Lingley presided, and Chairman S. A. Payne of the grounds committee submitted the plans and estimates for needed work. At a meeting next week the drive for members will be organized, so that funds may be secured to have everything in readiness at the opening of the season.

These cases are expected to be taken up in the police court within the next few days.

As Hiram Sees It

"Hiram," said The Times reporter to Mr. Hiram Hornbeam, "I have suffered a grievous disappointment."

"To be had," said Hiram. "Wouldn't he let you be it?"

"Now that is unkind," said the reporter. "This disappointment had nothing to do with loans or financial transactions of any sort. Late yesterday afternoon I was seized with chills and trembling and all the symptoms of a bad attack of some sort. I saw myself in bed, the object of earnest solicitude—perhaps to be the subject of a 'successful operation'—or something like that. I wobbled here, put my feet in the oven, absorbed hot stuff and went to bed with a temperature and high anticipations. This morning I awoke weak but conscious, and with no excuse for not coming up here to be bored by you as usual."

"Aint that too bad," said Hiram. "I guess you were looking at them Jiggs pictures and them good-lookin' nurses he's always tryin' to git in the house. They almost make me want to be sick myself—but Hamner always brings me round with tansy tea or somethin' like that when I look white around the gills—yes, sir."
