JUDGE BLAMED FOR INJUSTICE.

How Innocent Man Suffered For Guilty.

The Committee of Inquiry into the Famous Adolph Beck Case Presents Its Report

LONDON, Nov. 25.—The report of the committee of inquiry into the case of Adolph Beck, who for the crimes of "Wm. Thomas, alias John Smith, served a term of five years' imprisonment in England on the charge of obtaining money and jewels from women under false pretences, places practically the entire blame for the miscarriage of justice upon the judge, Sir Robert Fulton, who excluded from Beck's trial in 1886 all the evidence favorable to the accused and who refused to state the case for the consideration of the higher court. The committee find that the matter could have been brought before a higher court, a flaw in the proceedings must have been discovered and the conviction have been quashed and if there had been a qualified lawyer in the home cases the real nature of the miscarriage would have been so brought to the attention of the permanent under secretary for home affairs as to compel intervention. The report exonerates the police and other officials from all charges of conspiracy, but finds that the action of the home office in dealing with the case was defective owing to lack of legal training on the part of subordinates. The committee express the opinion that the establishment of a criminal court of appeals is not necessary as the present machinery of review if made more effective by the introduction of a stronger legal element in the home office ought to be adequate to give complete relief of innocent persons convicted through mistakes of law or fact. The committee remarks that it is an extraordinary fact that in the trial in 1904 the innocent man Beck was convicted through the ignorance of the police and public prosecutor of the masterly way in which the home office and the prison authorities that Beck and Smith were not the same person which by the prosecution and points out the necessity for bringing the different public authorities concerned into such co-ordination as to make the information acquired by one available to all.

FINAL ASSAULT ON PORT ARTHUR TODAY.

Japs Ordered to Capture Fortifications at Any Cost--Important Positions Already Seized--The Russians Repulsed Near Mukden

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The Associated Press learns on excellent authority that the Japanese army has been ordered to renew its attack on Port Arthur today and to take the main fortifications at any cost. Field Headquarters General Oku's Army, Nov. 23, 6 p. m., via Fusan, Nov. 24.—The Russians are showing some activity in front of General Oku's army. At dawn today detachments attacked the left and centre divisions in two places. The centre repulsed the attack immediately and the left did also after a hard fight. As a result of the attack the Japanese occupied Poutoen. The Russians left many dead on the field. General Kuroki's Headquarters in the Field, Nov. 23, via Fusan, Nov. 24.—The report circulated during the past week in the eastern papers and probably telegraphed abroad to the effect that General Kuroki had pushed back the Japanese left a distance of three miles, are wholly unfounded. The situation remains entirely unchanged during the last months except that the Japanese have undoubtedly strengthened their defenses and accumulated supplies in that time. The Russians continue their reconnaissances in front of the Japanese, but there has been no general engagement or change in the Japanese entrenched positions. The Japanese continue to ignore the daily shelling which takes place in front of the central army, and in many places the whole line of trenches are so close that the Japanese can draw fire at any time by displaying caps on sticks. A few casualties result daily from rifle fire. Headquarters of the Japanese Army Before Port Arthur, Nov. 24, via Fusan, Nov. 25.—The possession of Rihlung and Kokwan forts enables the Japanese to place an efficient battery on the northern line of forts and to execute a sweeping movement against the battery positions on the crest of the western ridge of forts and 200 metres hills which as yet have not been captured.

ROBBERY YARN MEETS DOUBT.

Magistrate Skeptical About James Rogan's Adventures

He Says He Was Knocked Down by Three Highwaymen and Robbed

James Rogan, under oath this morning, said that he was pushed into an alleyway last night by three men, knocked down and robbed of something over six dollars. His home intimated this morning that he doubted Rogan's story, as in remaining Hugh Lyden, who is accused of being one of the trio, he remarked that it was a serious offence and "if a jury could be found that would believe Rogan's roundabout story it might mean Dorchester." His honor remanded the case till tomorrow morning to give Lyden a chance to get witnesses. Rogan in his statement said that he started out yesterday morning to visit a lawyer. He had ten dollars with him. The lawyer would not accept the fee of five dollars which he offered, but told him he would see him later. His honor here remarked that it was remarkable that a lawyer would refuse to accept five dollars. Possibly his idea was that when he saw him later he would take the ten. The quiet of the court was broken by a general laugh in which all joined except his honor and the lawyers present. Rogan said that later he had a few drinks and during the evening dropped into Peter Mahoney's saloon on Main street. There he met Lyden and invited him to have a drink. He pulled his money out of his pocket, a five dollar bill, a one dollar bill and some silver. Lyden, he says, saw it. Then he started for home. When opposite St. Peter's hall on Elm street three men came up behind him and shoved him down and put a cloth on his face. He was positive that Lyden was the man that held him down. Cross-examined by Lyden he denied giving the latter money to buy him out but admitted making certain remarks about the priests at St. Peter's church. He insisted that he had been drinking ale while Lyden said it was gin. In answer to certain questions asked by his honor, it came out that both Lyden and Rogan had been arrested on Monday for drunkenness. After Rogan's fine had been paid he returned to the station and complained that the police had robbed him of fifty or sixty dollars. Later he found his money home. He is sure that he was robbed this time.

THE SIXTON AND THE GOAT.

Several ladies were engaged in decorating the church in a village when news was brought then that a goat was making a meal of a "Peace on earth, good-will towards men" design in yew leaves, which was standing ready for removal into the building. The sexton, who was assisting, immediately rushed to the rescue, but the goat resenting the interruption, reared the attack in the most approved style. "Make haste, Johnson, and get up," said the vicar's wife, from a place of safety, "it's starting to eat again." "Let him eat again, ma'am," gasped the sexton, "I'm a goat to walk till he's got some good-will to man inside him."

their vote ask for the Gothenburg system, but these clauses do not appear to be conclusive. The conference resolutions are not sufficiently interesting to take the attention of the electors away from the election frauds.

Editor Hawke, of the Moncton Transcript at last relieves the feelings of his friends by proving that his action as returning officer in tearing the counter-foil from the ballots before handing them to the voter was not a part of a graft ballot switching scheme and was in no way connected with the mysterious disappearance of a book of ballots from another booth.

The Moncton Transcript blames all the trouble that has been occurring on the I. C. R. of late upon a train despatcher at Campbellton. The inference is that said train despatcher is a vile Tory whose job some good Moncton Grit is hungry for.

Then to her Son, who had seen and smiled, She said: "On the night that I first saw thee, my dear, What didst Thou care for a love beyond mine or a heaven that was not my arm?"

When we two lay in the breath of the kine? And He said: "Thou hast done no harm."

So through the World the Children ran homeward merrily hand in hand, Looking neither to left nor right where the breathless Heavens stood still; And the Guards of the Void reheatheated their swords, for they heard the Command, "Shall I that have suffered the Children to come to me hold them against their will?"

Following is an extract from a letter received by a member of the Star staff from a friend in South Africa, touching on the Chinese labor question: "We are getting quite a lot of Chinese here now. They are turning out all right as far as working is concerned. I have seen a great deal of these and my opinion is that they will be a decided success. They seem perfectly happy and content with their work. In the compounds built for them they have large dining halls to seat about 1,000 and splendid kitchens where the food is cooked in boilers heated with coal, as they object to grub being cooked by steam, and lavatories fitted throughout with hot and cold water. Their hospitals would put many of the country's hospitals in the shade. Every place is lighted with electricity. They (the Chinese) are a fine lot of men. Taking an average they are better built than the negroes. They are so far getting on with their work, and are taking them all round, they are a good set to the mines."

LOCAL NEWS.

The concert which was to be held last evening in St. Paul's church was postponed on account of bad weather till Saturday evening. The concert will be mostly musical, consisting of quartettes, solos, violin music, etc. It is under the auspices of the Y. M. A. Four new applications for membership in Alexandra Temple of Honor were received last evening.

Frenchmen now have the satisfaction of knowing that forty-two members of the Institute de France are sensible men. It is by that number of votes against twenty-eight that the meeting held yesterday decided that the hat which Napoleon wore at Waterloo, and which had been left by the painter Gerome to the Musee Conde at Chantilly, should be accepted.

The Neptune will hold a smoker next Tuesday evening, and the Moore cup, which has been won by the football team, will be presented to the club.

IRREVERENCE IN FRONT ROW. Another Topeka preacher tells this story: "I had occasion one time to hold Christmas services in a little town not composed of two old maids and two bachelors. When the chorus to the old maids alone sang, 'Unto us a child's been born, and the old bachelors followed up with 'W-o-o-d-e-e-f-u-l-w-o-d-e-f-u-l.' Then some wag in the front pew had to sneaker. That set it off. The choir quit abruptly."

THE NEWSBOY KNEW. Dr. William M. Berkeley, of the Port to Rican Health Board, sat in a Pullman car on his way to St. Louis. Through the car a boy in a blue uniform passed. The Filigree Ball

BY ANNA KATHERINE GREEN

AUTHOR OF

"THE LEAVENWORTH CASE."

(Continued.) Calling together a posse of street archers, I organized them into a band, with the promise of a good supper all around if one of them brought me the pieces of a broken ring which I had lost in the grass plot of a house where I had been called upon to stay all night. That they might win the supper in the shortest possible time and before the owner of the house, who lived opposite, could interfere, I advised them to start at the fence in a long line and, proceeding on their knees, to search each one of the ground before him to the width of his own body. The fortunate one was to have the privilege of seeing what the supper should consist of. To give a plausible excuse for this search, a ball was to be tossed up and down the street till it lighted in the Moore house inclosure.

It was a scheme to fire the street boys' soul, and I was only afraid of failure from the over-enthusiasm it incited. But the injunction which I gave them to spare the shrubs and not to trample the grass any more than was necessary was so minuscule and imprudent that they moved away to their task in unexpected order and with a subdued cheerfulness highly promising of success.

I did not accompany them. Jimmy, who has such an innocent air on the street, took my place and promiscuously searched the block, just to see that Mr. Moore did not make too much trouble. And it was well he did so, for though he was not at home, I had chosen the hour of his afternoon ride—his new man-servant was; and he no sooner perceived this crowd ofurchin making for the opposite house than he rushed at them, and would have scattered them and wide in a twinkling if the demure dimples of my little ally had not come into play and distracted his attention completely as to what he might be doing.

BOOK III. THE HOUSE OF DOOM. CHAPTER XIX.

When I started on this desperate search after a witness, war had been declared, but the pursuing my journey south the long expected event happened, and on my arrival in Tampa I found myself in the midst of a departure and everything in confusion. Of course, under such conditions it was difficult to find my man on the instant. Innumerable inquiries yielded no result, and in the absence of any one who would or could give me the desired information I wandered from one end of the camp to the other till I finally encountered a Rough Rider. Him I stopped, and with some hint of my business, I asked James Calvert could be found.

"His answer was a stare and a gesture toward the hospital tents. 'Nothing could have astonished me more. 'Dying,' was his answer. 'Dying! Curly Jim! Impossible. I had staked everything on this interview, and I was not going to lose it. I promised results from any lack of effort on my own part. 'Let me see him,' I repeated. 'I was taken in. The few persons I saw clustered about a narrow corner gave way and I was cut to the heart to see that they did this is not so much out of consideration for me or my errand there as from the consciousness that their business at the bedside of this dying man was over. He pressed forward, and after one quick scrutiny of the closed eyes and pale face at his side and whispered a name into his ear. It was that of Veronica Moore. He started; they all saw it. On the threshold of death, some emotion we never knew what one—drew him back for an instant, and the pale cheek showed a suspicion of color. Through the eyes did not open, the lips moved, and I caught these words: 'Kept word—told no one—she was so—' And that was all. He died the next instant. 'Well! I was woefully done up by this sudden extinction of all my hopes. They had been extravagant, no doubt, but they had sustained me through all my hardships and misadventures, trials and dangers, till now, here, they ended with the one insupportable fact—death. Was I doomed, or was I saved? Must I go back to the major with my convictions unshaken but with no fresh proof, no real evidence to support them? I certainly must. With the death of this man, all means of reaching the state of Mrs. Jeffrey's mind immediately preceding her marriage were gone. I could never learn now what to know would make a man of me and possibly save Cora Tuttle. Bending under this stroke of Providence, I passed out of the little bay and stared at him curiously, and was hurrying on, when I felt myself caught by the hand. 'Take me with you,' cried a choked and frightened voice in my ear. 'I have no friend here, now, he is gone; take me back to Washington.' 'Washington!' I turned and looked at the lad who, kneeling in the hat and at the door of the tent, was clutching me with imploring hands. (To be continued.)

EFFICIENCY RETURNS

Are Creditable to the Different Companies—No. 2 P. E. I. Leads With 299 Points.

The general efficiency returns of the Garrison Artillery competition appear in Militia orders of 15th Inst. No. 2, P. E. I. has 297; No. 1 P. E. I. has 293, and No. 1, N. B., and No. 7, Halifax, are tie for fourth place, with 278 points each.

This competition is between companies on the lower establishment, that is having two captains, three lieutenants and 49 N. Co.'s and men. The possible points are 440, made up as follows: Clothing and accoutrements... 25 Company drill... 50 Gun drill... 100 Discipline and interior economy... 25 Officers' questions... 25 N. C. officers' questions... 25

To this are added fire effect, the marks for which are awarded at competitive practice: Accuracy in ranging... 20 Percentage of effective time shell... 20 Percentage of target destroyed... 20 Gun laying... 20 Officers' observation of fire... 60

The report shows that no time shells were fired by any of the companies on the lower establishment, and the officers' observation of fire could not be carried out with the armament used by these companies. This reduces the marks obtainable to 320.

Full marks were allotted to all the Halifax companies for accuracy in ranging and points were also accorded to the Quebec and Lewis companies for this branch, but none were allowed to the N. B. and P. E. I. regiments. The omission to award marks under this head is also probably due to the armament as the system of ranging with quick-firing guns which the N. B. and P. E. I. regiments used, is not the same as with the other armaments. The Halifax company has a lead of 30 points over all competitors by reason of the conditions of practice not being the same.

From each company's marks one point is deducted for each man absent from inspection. The following table gives the points awarded to each company for all subjects exclusive of fire effect and deducting the absences, the award for fire effect and the total points made:

Table with 3 columns: 6th Quebec and Lewis, Co. Marks, Fire. Capt. Marlan, No. 1, 171 71 242

As the gun practice is not carried on with the same armament or under the same conditions by all, it will appear by the above table that the other branches the N. B. regiment did much better than the grand totals would indicate.

SAILED FROM ST. JOHN.

Bark Plymouth from Barbados For Boston Had a Rough Trip.

BOSTON, Nov. 24.—After being driven off the coast three times by hurricanes and cyclonic gales, the British bark Plymouth of Windsor, N. S., Capt. Feilden, finally reaching the harbor yesterday morning from Barbados, B. W. I.

The vessel carried a cargo of lumber from St. John, N. B., to Buenos Ayres, and on delivering her shipment she proceeded to Barbados, where orders were received from the owners to sail for Boston on Wednesday. She was sent back to Georges by another north-wester.

Finally she came into the bay last Sunday night, after banging about the coast for over a week, and Tuesday night she was picked up by the tug Pallas and brought into port.

MOHAWKS' SPORTS.

Basket Ball Game Was Full of Interest, and Boys Brigade Gave a Pretty Drill.

The Mohawk Club tournament last evening in the Queen's Rink passed off most successfully. The programme, while a little too long, was run off with very few faults, and the officials are to be congratulated on the way they conducted the sports.

The Boys' Brigade was represented by Portland Methodist, St. John's Presbyterian and Scots' companies. Their marching and individual work was splendid and elicited frequent applause. The Scots' companies seeming to be the most popular. Their physical drill was a very pretty sight.

The tug-of-war narrowed down to two teams, Carleton and policemen, the longshoremen not showing up. The teams were as follows: Carleton—E. Pike (anchor), J. Ward, J. Campbell, F. Campbell, K. A. Barbour, J. Christopher.

Police—Jas. McNamee, William Sullivan, Thomas Sullivan (anchor), O. Ward, J. McCallum, F. Bowa.

Two pulls were held in three minutes' duration. In the first the Carleton men by a quick jerk at the start pulled the white ribbon two inches to their side of the line, maintained their hold for about three minutes, and then took an extra half inch from the representatives of the law. The second was an easy one for them and they won by over two feet. K. A. Barbour gave them much assistance by his coaching. The first prize was $12 and second $8.

The basket ball proved highly exciting and was only won by the slightest margin. The teams lined up as follows: Forwards: Everitt, Crosby, Gilmour, Clawson.

Defence: Dobson (Capt.), T. Ledingham, Mc Kendrick (Capt.), Phillips.

Carleton's side started in at a great pace and rolled up four points to their opponents' zero in the first half. Two goals being tallied. In the second half the other side braced up and slowly advanced their score until it stood four all. It looked like a tie game, but T. Ledingham scored again shortly before time. The score stood 6-4, and despite E. Gilmour's efforts to pull his team out of a defeat, the best he could do was to add one point, making the final score 6-5 in favor of Ledingham's team.

The scorers were: Mc Kendrick (2), E. Gilmour (2), T. Ledingham (3), J. Gilmour (1).

A game of base ball between teams representing the Y. M. C. A. and Mohawks completed the programme. The boys won out by a score of 20 to 7, being smarter fielders than their opponents. The teams were: Y. M. C. A. —Mooney, Palmer, C. Inches, Owens, Carley, Clawson, O'Neill, E. Inches, Patterson, Howard, T. Ledingham, Ellis, R. B. Ledingham, Dewbray, Everitt, Simons.

Score by innings: Y. M. C. A. — 4 8 20 Mohawks — 5 2 0-7

The programme was as follows: March past... Boys' Brigade Drill... By Scots' Company Tug-of-war, 1st pull... Carleton v. Policemen

Basket Ball, 1st half... Carleton v. Police. Tug-of-war, 2nd pull... Carleton v. Police. Physical Drill... Scots' Company Base Ball... Y. M. C. A. v. Mohawks

MILITIA CHANGES

Will do Away With Donaldson's Drill Book.

OTTAWA, Nov. 24.—The following promotions in the headquarters staff have been gazetted: Lord Aylmer to be Inspector general of militia with rank of brigadier general; Brigadier General Lake to be chief of general staff; Col. Vidal to be adjutant general; Col. D. A. MacDonald to be quartermaster general; Col. Cotton, master general of ordnance.

The minister of militia has decided to abolish the drill books written by Lord Donaldson. A militia order notifies that copies of infantry training, 1904, and cavalry training, 1904, not issued are to be returned to headquarters. The books to be adopted for future training of militia will be those in use for different branches of His Majesty's regular army. Copies of the latest edition of these books will be supplied as soon as possible.

FOR ONTARIO.

Resolutions in Favor of Local Option.

Were Adopted by Liberal Convention. While Other More Stringent Ones Were Rejected.

TORONTO, Nov. 24.—After passing the morning awaiting the report of the resolutions committee, and by listening to a little too long, was run off with very few faults, and the officials are to be congratulated on the way they conducted the sports.

The report of the committee began with strictures upon the evils of intemperance and delegates passed on to more moral reflections upon the necessity of restraining the treating habit. It began to get down to business when it spoke of the local option as a panacea for many of the evils of intemperance.

Then came what everybody wanted, suggestions. First it was recommended that a vote of municipalities must be taken under local option upon a petition of 25 per cent of the ratepayers without reference to the municipal council. In the submission provision is to be made for offering the alternative of government control. The vote to be taken in municipal elections of 1906 for the abolition of bars and shops licenses, the result if favorable to be decisive for all time, and the law to go into effect upon the expiry of license. If the vote is unfavorable, it can be taken again in three years. No licenses anywhere unless upon application of fifty per cent of the ratepayers. Any license holder violating the law to forfeit his license.

Amendments to the effect that the present license law is satisfactory and should be strictly enforced and granting compensation when local option is carried, were voted down.

Opposition to the resolution came from Kingston, Ottawa, Brockville, Waterloo and East York, and it was pointed out that by passing such drastic resolutions, these constituencies might be lost to the Ross government. The third clause of the resolution calling for submission of local option to all municipalities in 1906 was struck out and the remainder of the resolutions adopted.

Ross adopted the convention, congratulating it upon the harmony that had existed, and expressing delight with the temperance resolutions. If they now did their duty, there was nothing to prevent another liberal victory in Ontario.

CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

Whitney Given a Rousing Reception in Toronto.

TORONTO, Nov. 24.—The Ontario provincial conservative convention convened in the Y. M. C. A. hall this afternoon. Several hundred delegates were present from outside constituencies and the city was well represented. Harmony and enthusiasm prevailed throughout the proceedings. Whitney, the Ontario conservative leader, was given a rousing reception and spoke for an hour, dealing with provincial issues. He outlined the conservative platform, dilated upon the corruption carried on by the liberal government in the recent elections, and replied to statements made at the liberal convention. Hon. Geo. E. Foster, M. P., and J. J. Foy, K. C., also spoke.

At tonight's session Mr. Gamely of Manitowish was the principal speaker. Several other members of the dominion and Ontario houses delivered brief addresses. The resolution committee was appointed and convention adjourned until tomorrow morning.

BOGUS BALLOT BOX CASE.

Magistrate Wood Will Hold Night Sessions if Necessary.

BELLEVILLE, Nov. 24.—It is stated that Magistrate Wood arrives tomorrow prepared to proceed with the criminal libel suit and finish it speedily, holding all night sessions if necessary. Mr. Carman, it is understood, will be committed for trial without much opposition. The prosecution expects to produce other ballot boxes alleged to have been brought into the riding which the name of Editor Bremner of Bancroft was associated. The United States consul says it is possible an investigation may be held in regard to the alleged smuggling of boxes across the St. Lawrence.

PLEADED FOR MERCY.

Montreal Embezzler Was Anxious About His Wife and Children.

MONTREAL, Nov. 24.—Jos. Hamee, former city paymaster, who after forging city names to a check, had been cashed at the Bank of Montreal, and who was extradited from Cuba, was this morning sentenced to seven years' penitentiary. He pleaded for mercy on behalf of his wife and children, but admitted that as far as he was himself concerned, there were no extenuating circumstances. He had not only gone wrong premeditatedly, but had refused to make restitution, and had actually employed the stolen funds in fighting extradition.

MADE THE BOXES.

Irwin of Watertown Tells

All About It.

He Has Delivered the Sample to Phillip

Lott Who Will Use It

In the Trial.

MONTREAL, Nov. 24.—The Star has a special from Watertown containing an interview with Irwin, a tinsmith of Watertown, the man in whose shop the bogus ballot boxes were manufactured. He says that Kelly, a Kingston student, was the man who ordered the boxes, "Portsmouth" as a sample of the style and working plans of improvements.

Irwin had a sample box in his possession up to a few days ago, when he delivered it to Phillip Lott, and it will be produced at the investigation at Belleville tomorrow, and one of the men who helped make twenty bogus boxes will be present and testify.

When the boxes were finished they were shipped to C. A. Kavanaugh, Ogdenburg, in a tightly closed box, and manifested as "balls." From Ogdenburg they were apparently smuggled across the river and shipped to destination as already stated.

Mr. Irvine of Troop & Son's establishment in this city said that it was very hard in these days to get good capable workmen, and it was necessary to be strict with the crews they had on board.

The Troop is now about due at St. Helena, and as far as the firm knows everything has been very quiet on the voyage.

W. A. Shilley, who was the liberal candidate, has disappeared. Kelly will be able to go to Belleville tomorrow, and it is expected that he will tell all he knows about the whole affair and that interesting developments may be looked for.

FRASER FROM WESTVILLE

HALIFAX, Nov. 24.—A young man named A. S. Fraser was arrested today on board the fast express to North Sydney Junction, charged with embezzling the sum of fifty dollars, the property of the Eastern Book Co., Sydney, where he had been employed for some months past as bookkeeper.

Fraser was taken to the station and held in a cell. He is alleged to have been in some such trouble in Amherst recently. This morning he failed to report for work and information of the lady clerk over the telephone that he was ill. The management's suspicion had been aroused through his actions of late, and they lost no time in communicating with the police.

Officer Nicholson was sent to the junction to intercept him, and his arrest followed. He had a ticket for Boston.

J. T. CARDINAL DEAD.

MONTREAL, Nov. 24.—J. T. Cardinal, who contested St. James division in the conservative interest in the last federal election, died this morning aged 44, after being in ill health for two years.

DO ALL MERCHANTS REALIZE THE IMPORTANCE OF ADEQUATE SPACE FOR THEIR ANNOUNCEMENTS?

IN A BATTLE THE MORAL FORCE OF A "BIG ADVERTISEMENT" IS GREAT AS THAT OF A "BIG GUN." A "Company" of soldiers may be adequately armed for ordinary service with rifles only—if the rifles are modern and of long range. A regiment, if operating independently in active service, must needs have at least a few "big guns," perhaps some breech-loading, rapid-fire "three-pounders."

NOT CONFIRMED.

Reports That Crew of Ship Troop of St. John Were Ill-Treated Are False.

A report has appeared in the Montreal and Halifax papers reflecting severely upon the management of several of the Troop fleet and in particular the ship Troop, formerly commanded by Capt. E. J. Fritz of this city. The general inaccuracy of the account is shown by its misplaced dates and incidents, but the chief charges of ill-treatment of the sailors on the part of the officers are pure fabrications.

"In this ferment of sea-going life the Troop herself figures conspicuously. On Oct. 21, 1898, Peter Gallaghis, a French seaman on board the Troop, driven insane by the rigors of life aboard, jumped overboard in the Pacific and was lost."

This is denounced as a gross libel. The fact is that while in Honolulu in 1898 the European crew got into a drunken brawl among themselves and several were arrested and tried. Another seaman named Brown was declared to have been ill-treated, but this is also without foundation.

Mr. Irvine of Troop & Son's establishment in this city said that it was very hard in these days to get good capable workmen, and it was necessary to be strict with the crews they had on board.

The Troop is now about due at St. Helena, and as far as the firm knows everything has been very quiet on the voyage.

WESTMORLAND COURT.

McIntyre Charged With Assault on West.

Set Free—Died Suddenly in the West.

MONTREAL, Nov. 24.—In the Westmorland court today, in the case of the King v. Harry McIntyre, sr., and Harry McIntyre, jr., charged with assault on one Cormier of Montreal, the jury found a verdict of not guilty in the case of McIntyre, sr., and found McIntyre, jr., innocent in all counts except common assault, in which they stood 8 to 4 for acquittal. The prisoners were discharged.

In the case against Lewis, the Hall convict at Dorchester penitentiary, charged with assaulting the guard, a verdict of not guilty was returned.

FREDERICTON NEWS.

FREDERICTON, Nov. 24.—At 3.15 this afternoon E. Byron Winslow, one of Fredericton's most beloved and esteemed citizens, passed away at his residence, Church street, after an illness extending over some months. Mr. Winslow was taken ill in August last after a business trip to Halifax, but did not attach much importance to his ailment, which took the form of severe pains in the head.

The attack soon developed into some form of brain trouble, and on the advice of his physician, Dr. W. W. Bridges, in consultation with Dr. Atherton, Mr. Winslow decided to consult a specialist in Boston.

Suppl. Downie of the C. P. R. kindly placed his private car at Mr. Winslow's disposal, and accompanied by Mrs. Winslow, Miss Dalrymple, J. A. Winslow and Dr. Bridges, the journey was taken without discomfort to the patient.

The specialist, one of the best in brain disease in Boston, held out no hope of permanent recovery to Mr. Winslow, but said that the disease might be arrested for a time.

Returning home, Mr. Winslow spent a sabbath at the residence of his sister, Mrs. Downie, and on the following day he prepared the public announcement of his death.

Edward Byron Winslow, K. C., was born in Woodstock April 17th, 1842, being the youngest son of John Francis Woodworth and his wife Caroline (Bainford) Winslow. He was a direct descendant in the seventh generation of Edward Winslow, who came to America in 1630 as one of the Pilgrims, and was the third governor of the Plymouth Colony. He had in his possession a silver tankard bearing the Winslow crest, beautifully engraved thereon, which his immigrant progenitor brought with him to the New World.

The deceased gentleman obtained his education in the common schools at Woodstock, the Fredericton High school, and the High school at St. John's, Quebec. Soon after he began the study of law in the office of the late Hon. J. T. Fraser, afterwards judge of the supreme court and lieutenant governor of New Brunswick.

In 1868 he was admitted an attorney and very soon became a partner with Mr. Fraser, the association continuing until the latter was elevated to the supreme court bench.

Some years after entering into partnership with John J. Fraser, E. B. Winslow resided at the latter's residence in Westmorland, and was in the habit of visiting the firm, which was then known as Fraser, Winslow & Allen, K. C., and was associated with Mr. Winslow in the latter's office under the name of Winslow & Allen.

Mr. Winslow was one of York's leading conservatives and has frequently taken an active part in the various movements for the improvement of the city, although never seeking office himself. He was a member of the Church of England, and was a member of the Y. M. C. A. He was created a K. C. by the federal government.

He is survived by his wife, Emma B. Orr, who survives him along with eight children, Wentworth Byron, Jasper A., Capt. J. J. Fraser, Elizabeth Caroline, Margaret, and Robert B. M. Robert N., and Ramsford H.

Two brothers, Frank E. Winslow, formerly manager of the Fredericton branch of the C. P. R., and T. Bradford Winslow, secretary of the provincial board of works, also survive him.

Mr. Winslow was a great gloom over his death, and the past gloom over the entire city. He was a gentleman greatly beloved by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance, and his death was a great loss to the city and to the province.

The funeral services were held at the residence of the late Mrs. Winslow on the 24th Nov., 1898.

FOOTBALL MEETING.

A meeting of the intermediate football league was held in the Y. M. C. A. room last night. Representatives were present from each of the fourteen teams which compose the league. These are Fairville, Carleton, Neptune and the Y. M. C. A. teams. S. B. Wilson, president, presided.

The inquiry made by the Carletons regarding the amateur standing of one of the Neptune players was answered to the entire satisfaction of the former.

The Neptune Rowing Club invited the "amateur" which will be held in the Neptune rooms on Tuesday evening next. On behalf of the teams, the executive accepted the invitation.

Honorary President I. E. Moore has been re-elected and will preside at the presentation of the Moore cup, which was won by the Neptune team.

YORK THEATRE.

A very good house, weather not even considered, was the order at the York last night. Manager Hyde has no reason to complain this week, as business has been excellent. Wednesday night was the best Wednesday night house since Adgie and her lions were here, which speaks volumes for the present company. Only three more performances are to be given by this company—this afternoon, tonight and tomorrow afternoon. Next week Dahl, the beautiful white performing horse, will be the feature and a good company will support him.

CATHEDRAL TEA.

At the York Theatre this evening from four to seven in connection with the Cathedral tea, children will be admitted for fifteen cents. During the evening a programme will be carried out, and an admission fee of only ten cents will be charged.

The voting contest for the most popular priest resulted as follows: Father Meahan, 1,012; Father Coughlan, 1,138; Father Holland, 1,374; Father Carleton, 1,383.

A DIFFERENT CASE.

(Catholic Standard.) "Here! you two!" yelled the stevedore, "handle that gunpowder carefully!" "What's the matter with it?" demanded Casey and he by pressing it into a powder exploded a couple of years ago and blowed up ten men."

"Don't you know some of that same powder exploded a couple of years ago and blowed up ten men?" replied Casey. "There's only two of us here."

GOLDEN WEDDING.

Mr. and Mrs. Crawford of Birch Ridge

Will Celebrate Their Fiftieth Anniversary on Monday Next.

Still another aged couple, hale and hearty, satisfied with life and happy and contented in their ripened age, are about to celebrate their golden wedding, and when he found a home for himself and his family. He has seen his share of hard work, but it has done him no harm, and now, having passed the fourscore mark, he is still as good as many men only half his age. He is in possession of all his faculties and is almost as smart as he was twenty years ago. The same is true of Mrs. Crawford, who manages her household with the same regularity and system as in her earlier life.

Mr. Crawford is a native of Donegal, Ireland, and was born there in 1823, being now eighty-one years of age. Mrs. Crawford, who was formerly Miss Byers, was born at the same place in South Africa. This will be the fiftieth anniversary of the day on which they were married.

Mr. Crawford is a very well known and prosperous farmer on the Tobique. For twenty-five years or more he has dwelt on the land which his own hard work has converted into a fruitful farm, and where he finds a home for himself and his family. He has seen his share of hard work, but it has done him no harm, and now, having passed the fourscore mark, he is still as good as many men only half his age.

A SYDNEY FAILURE.

Armstrong & Sutherland Have Liabilities of Fifteen Thousand.

HALIFAX, Nov. 24.—The Elder Dempster liner Melville is due to arrive in Sydney tonight from Montreal, to take a cargo of three thousand tons of coal from the Dominion Coal Company to Cape Town and East London, South Africa. This will be exclusive of her bunker, which will consist of several hundred more tons.

WHO IS JAMES?

A Young Lady in Nova Scotia Makes Many Anxious Inquiries.

There is a young lady in Nova Scotia who evidently takes some interest in a young man from St. John. But she is cautious. She does not care to become intimate with this young man until she has learned for herself that his reputation is all that could be desired and that she would not be making a mistake by receiving him among the number of her friends.

POLICE COURT

Saloon Keeper Must Pay $50 — Assyrian Who Assaulted John McDermott Also Fined $50

In the police court this morning Robert Garnett was fined $50 for allowing persons, other than employees, to enter his licensed saloon on King Square on Sunday last. The complaint was made by Officer Charles Marshall. Garnett's defence was that by agreement, the men went into his place with him to help him move a stove from one part of the premises to another. One of the men admitted that they had a drink of spruce beer in the saloon.

The law provides for a penalty for the consumption of liquor on licensed premises during prohibited hours, even if the person is not drunk. One drunk was fined $3 or two months.

Samuel Lewis, an Assyrian, who assaulted John McDermott on Clarence street a few days ago, was found guilty and was fined $50. Lewis, it seems, was drunk at the time and without provocation hit McDermott on the head from behind with a piece of spruce board in which there were several nails. McDermott was considerably cut and bled freely. The Assyrian had no defence other than that he was drunk and his honor remarked that he could not have been so very drunk as he knew enough to go home and to be refused to put on the clothes spotted with blood when arrested by the police shortly afterwards.

E. P. Chapman appeared for the Assyrian and asked that the fine be allowed to stand, as he was a poor man, and that all his people usually well behaved. It was seldom that there was a charge of any kind against them.

POISON KILLED HIM Harry Robertson's Suicide Established by Post Mortem—Threatened to Kill Himself

The result of the post mortem examination of Harry Robertson's body held yesterday afternoon by Dr. Grant and Dr. Grant, bears out the conclusion to which the authorities had already arrived, that death was due to the effects of carbolic acid.

Both doctors refused to talk about the autopsy, but from other sources the Star learns that there was a large quantity of carbolic acid found in the stomach of the deceased. Some opinion was also formed that these could not have contributed to the young man's death, as they had not been in the stomach long enough to disintegrate.

Evidence was also produced at the inquest to show that the deceased was more than once threatened to kill himself. It has been discovered that he was in James McLaughlin's saloon on the 23rd of King Square on Wednesday afternoon about 2 o'clock. There he had a drink and when going out said to a friend: "Good by, I'm going to die tonight, and I am going to take laudanum." Robertson then went to Henry Dolan's saloon on Charlotte street and afterwards down to the drug store where he purchased the poison.

The following jury was empanelled today—B. J. Holt, H. L. Coombs, K. McLeod, Young Swanton, J. W. Lee, A. D. Malcolm, and J. T. Kelly. The inquest will take place tomorrow night at the Court House. The remains of the deceased will be viewed by the jury tonight.

N. B. COAL MINES BOOM. Six Car Loads a Day Being Mined Now More Men Wanted—New Shafts to be Sunk

The conditions at the collieries of the N. B. Coal and Railway Company seem at present to be such as to cause satisfaction to those who are interested in them and to increase confidence in them as a business undertaking. "The output at the collieries," said W. C. Hunter, manager of the N. B. Coal and Railway Co., this morning, "is large, but it cannot begin to equal the demand. There is a shortage of miners just at present and the attempt is being made to secure some men in Nova Scotia. The men there can be no question at all that the company can meet the increased demands which are being made upon it, as the facilities for handling the coal have been greatly enlarged and improved."

The output at the mines now exceeds, Mr. Hunter says, six carloads a day, as compared with about one car load a year ago. It could easily be increased to ten car loads a day if there were more miners at work. The company intends sinking two additional shafts in the near future.

Speaking of the railway Mr. Hunter says that the company is going to make every effort to give the public a daily service over the line. New and improved snow plows have recently been purchased for the winter.

HORSE STOLE ITSELF. Capt. Taylor's Horse and Buggy, Supposed Stolen, Turns Up Safe and Sound.

Captain E. Taylor, of the Johnston Piano Co., reported to the police last night that his horse and buggy had been stolen. Chief Clark at once notified all his men and a lookout was kept for the rig.

Mr. Taylor said he left the horse on Waterloo street, while he was in a house on Union street and that when he returned in a few minutes the rig was missing. A man told police that he saw a rig answering the description of Captain Taylor's team with two men in it go down Erin street. From these facts the morning papers concocted sensational horse-theft stories.

The whole matter was cleared up and the explanation is a simple one. Capt. Taylor left the horse standing on Waterloo street with a blanket on him and heavily and a blanket on the street. A gentleman seeing the animal wandering about took the horse into Hogan's stable. Here the horse stood on the floor till about seven o'clock when one having called for it Mr. Hogan had the horse unshipped and placed in a stable and fed. This morning the police were notified and they communicated with Captain Taylor.
