This has been announced by officials of the club and also by men who played with the team last winter. It now remains to be seen where the All-Canada team will play. It is possible that a big ice rink will be built in the Hub and that professional societies of Canadian hockey players will show the Bostonians what hockey really is. The hope is that some of the "tourist" players of the Maritime Provinces will play in Boston and that a man who managed a big New Brunswick rink last winter will handle the Boston rink.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPT. 11, 1934.

THE CONVENTION.

There is not in all St. John a man more worthily esteemed than Mr. James Pender, the new member of the liberal ticket chosen last evening, nor is there one who, because of business ability, sound common sense and aggressive energy is more capable of representing in parliament the interests of a constituency such as this. Mr. Pender has lived in St. John for practically all his life. He was not born with a silver spoon in his mouth, nor had he any pull, but during the past thirty years he has by his own untiring efforts created one of the most progressive and successful industrial concerns in Canada today. His time has been devoted to his business and to his home. He is not and never has been one to whom outside amusements have been appealed. His attention has been centred on his work and his recreation found by his fire-side. The result has been that by his close application, and by study along the lines most useful to him he has acquired a knowledge of tariff matters particularly, and political economy in general, which makes his opinion one of much weight. He has now reached such a position that some of his time can be spared for the benefit of those among whom he has lived, and he makes his entry into politics not as one who begins at the lowest rung of the ladder and works upwards, but as a man of recognized ability, whose qualifications enable him to the highest honor politically in the gift of a party. Mr. Pender is a strong man commercially, intellectually and physically. His constitution is well fitted to stand the strain of a political campaign. He is an entirely credible, and he enters the arena with the confidence of the people, irrespective of party prejudice, as in every way worthy of the highest esteem.

It was, of course, a foregone conclusion that Hon. Dr. Pugsley would be the choice of the convention for the city and county. His record of achievement since his entry into the federal cabinet has been one in which St. John may feel through gratification. And his speech last night was a simple outline of what he hopes to perform in the future. The combination of Pugsley and Pender is the strongest possible ticket in St. John today, and if anything more than Dr. Macrae's nomination had been needed to destroy all chances of conservative success, the action of the liberal convention furnished it.

WATER AND SEWERAGE.

After a delay of over eight months the annual report of the St. John Water and Sewerage Department has been completed and printed for distribution. The information which it contains, although now rather old, is still interesting.

During the year of 1933, $197,585.24 was spent on the water works. Of this amount the chief items were:—Interest and Sinking Fund $101,693; Construction of New Mains, $48,210; Labor, $27,330; Material $17,353.

One of the most interesting parts of the report is that dealing with the Leah Leonard extension. During the year the sum of $26,428 was expended on this department including $14,811 paid to contractors; $6,178 for extra work done by city, and $5,439 for the Recorder's expenses, land purchased and crops damaged.

With the work still in an unfinished state and with much additional expense yet to come the total cost of the extension amounted at the end of the year to $442,253. This is about three times the amount of the original estimate and is getting dangerously near to the half million mark, although when the work was commenced those who prophesied that the undertaking would cost half a million dollars were regarded as rank pessimists.

A part of the report which does not arouse the happiest of recollections is the detailed account of the various breakings which occurred during the year. Owing largely to the breaks and leakage the cost of water maintenance was $26,252, which is $11,000 greater than the previous year. Over a mile of new mains were laid during the year. With the exception of a single instance the cost of every main laid largely exceeded the estimate; in one case the cost was more than double the estimate. This was chiefly due to the increase in pay demanded by the laborers.

In order to ascertain the actual amount of water used in an average household a meter was placed in Director Murdoch's house. At the end of the year it was found that the actual consumption had amounted to only 12.6 gallons per individual per day. The amount generally estimated for a city's supply is twenty gallons per day per person for all purposes. The total estimated consumption for the year averaged over fifty-three per person daily, including mill supply, etc. The cost of water to large consumers is based on consumption and to ascertain the amount of this one hundred and ninety-five meters are in use.

The report also deals extensively with the sewerage system. During the year 1931 construction of new sewers cost $5,433; maintenance, $15,044; interest, $11,592, and proportion of salary, $18, included in the item of maintenance are many improvements to the service which will be of permanent value.

Almost one third of the system is composed of old wooden sewers, one section of which is mentioned as being still in use although probably a hundred years old. There are altogether about forty miles of sewer mains in the city.

These figures will give some idea of the magnitude of the enterprise which is controlled by the city in the Water and Sewerage Department.

SUMMER DREAMS.

I dreamed I was a butterfly, On light breezes flying high, A tiny jewel on azure sky, To spend on joy a term. On fragrant honey blooms to sup, To fill my pleasure a sweet cup, When all at once I did wake up To find myself a worm.

DIDN'T HURT HER MUCH.

An English country parson was one day going his usual round visiting when he was stopped by one of his congregation, an old farm hand, who said, "An' hoo be yer darter this mornin', yer reverence?" "My daughter," exclaimed the parson, rather surprised, "oh, she is quite well, thank you."

"What?" cried the rustic, "quite well? Why heard she had a clyck accident yesterday, an' busted her inner tubin'?"

WEATHERY.

Some people talk as if hot weather in summer is nothing less than a blooming outrage, which the government ought to put a stop to.

THEY RISE TO FALL.

The almskip from the earth withdrew And hovered overhead; And then the west wind lightly blew And slammed it 'gainst a shed.

AN EXCELLENT PERFORMANCE.

Joseph Selman's Stock Company Present Northern Lights, at Opera House

The Selman Stock Company, headed by Joseph Selman, at the Opera House last night presented the stirring melodrama "Northern Lights." It was an excellent production in every way and the company is one of the most capable to exhibit the capability of each member of the company. It abounds in strong emotional situations and effective climaxes although without any pretensions to an involved plot. The scenes of the play is laid in the State of Montana, and the story deals with one of the Indian campaigns. The central figure is John Swiftwind, an erstwhile Indian chief, who having renounced his own race, studies medicine and is assistant to Chief Surgeon Sherwood, who is possessed by a desire for the acquisition of fresh light and knowledge in the science of bacteriology. This has led him to consider the saving of human life as of secondary consideration and finally leads him to inject cholera germs into his own wife's flesh in place of morphine which it has been her habit to take.

So disgusted does John Swiftwind gradually become at the various practices of the doctor that he finally under the name of civilization that he returns to his own people.

Mr. Selman as Swiftwind gave an excellent rendering of the character of the educated Indian—a most exacting piece of work. The most artistic feature of his characterization was his preservation of the natural Indian stolidity in his strongest scenes he maintained his dignified role in admirable style and his conception was particularly finished.

William Townsend as Sydney Sherwood did splendid work, his scene in the third act proving him an excellent actor.

Mr. John Boyce as Wallace Gray also gave a good performance while Robert Tolson was seen to advantage as Dan Norton.

Miss DuBois made the very most of the part of Florence Sherwood and her earnest and pathetic reading was not overdone.

Miss French was excellent as Helen Dare, Sydney's Sherwood's former lover. Miss Lee won all hearts as the Little Major and Frank Smith made a most imposing figure on the stage and looked every inch the grim old cavalry leader.

Mr. Daly is very versatile and as Lieutenant Sherwood made assiduous love to Dorothy Dunbar. He also was heard to advantage in songs. Henry Wilson was ever welcome in the comedy parts and makes himself very popular with the audience by his refined and delightful humor. He was also clever in specialties in which other members took part. The Starlight of Miss Eastcourt should deserve special mention. She made a fine impression by her charming manner.

The clear articulation was a welcome feature of the evening. Northern Lights repeated tonight.

THE ADVANCE OF JOURNALISM IN CHINA

Seven years ago a leading English authority declared that China had no newspapers except those started and controlled by foreigners. Today there are over two hundred native journals.

The Chinese newspaper usually takes one of two forms. It is either printed on one side only on very thin paper—like the India paper editions of books at home—or it is printed on both sides of thicker paper. The latter is considered more up to date. One popular organ, which lies before me as I write, consists of three blanket sheets, 3 ft 6 in. long, by 2 ft. wide. Each sheet contains eight pages of closely set Chinese ideographs. There is a good supply of foreign telegrams. Reuter's service being freely used. Leaders' articles on all manner of subjects, native and foreign, and a number of minute and dainty line drawings occupy most of the space.

The advertisements speak even more eloquently than the text of the change that has come over China. Yesterday John Chinaman believed that the world was flat. Today globes, showing the latest discoveries in geography are prominently offered for sale in nearly every paper. European dress, musical instruments, and dummy arms for schoolboys are given well-displayed notice, and you are shown sketches of the young Chinaman minus his pigtail and dressed in Western garments.

Several British manufacturers advertise their wares, and the British and American medicine venders send specially active. A well-known and successful advertiser of a London-made solution of malt. Insurance companies, rubber waterproofs, American-made typewriters, and American dental machinery all declare their merits.

These appear, he is noted, in a paper printed solely in Chinese and managed altogether by Chinamen.

Other journals, while giving the bulk of the matter in Chinese, have several columns printed in English. The English tongue is becoming more and more the "lingua franca" of the Far East. If you read the English columns you will see that, apart from cable news, their main matter consists of exhortations to the people to reform. Here is an article denouncing the binding of the feet of women, and praising up a young wife who committed suicide rather than continue the practice. Another article demands the reasons why full representative government has been delayed; a third urges the people to send their children to school. An English editor wrote to a friend of mine a few weeks ago asking him to describe the movement that some thought would lead to the awakening of China. My friend replied: "My dear Sir, you are three years too late. China has been wide awake these three years past." These journals bear out the statement.

FOR PROMOTION OF REVOLT.

Let me not convey the impression, however, that the contents of the papers are wholly good. A great deal of crude stuff is to be found in many of them. Young men who had obtained a superficial education in Tokio return home and attempt to make the press a promoter of revolt. Some Japanese have obtained power on the native press, and they use it in a way that may well cause alarm. Racial wars are freely preached.

I have no wish to dwell on this point, but one cannot forget the harm that has been done by the mis-statements over a recent massacre, and by the publication of the "Chinese slavery" cartoons in the Japanese-controlled Press around Shanghai. Probably the LONG SLEEVES, SHORT GLOVES AND CORSET STRINGS TEN YDS. LONG Strong Features of This Season's Styles, According to the President of the Dressmakers' Association Now Meeting in New York.

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—Corset strings ten yards long are about given the two features of this season's styles that are actually established, according to Miss Elizabeth A. C. White, president of the Dressmakers' Protective Association, who talked on the new fashions to three hundred dressmakers from all parts of the country at the opening session of the association's convention Monday afternoon.

Miss White exhibited something like forty Paris gowns, all different, and when any one asked her which was the latest style her invariable reply was: "They all are. There never was a season when the styles were so unswayed and changeable. In fact, a well dressed woman can wear anything this year except a sheath gown."

"The sheath gown is not stylish," she added. "It cannot become popular. It was not originated by any of the important houses in Paris and has never been worn by persons of refinement. There are many variations of the Di-prole costume in vogue, but the tight fitting skirt, especially the form slit up the side, is not at all correct."

Only one characteristic prevails in all this season's styles. That is the extremely long sleeve, covering the hand. The short glove is the thing, of course. As to the new corsets—well, they are adapted to making the figure resemble a telegraph pole as nearly as possible. For that purpose they are extremely long, and it takes ten yards of of string to lace them properly. A slender woman can wear them. Stock women cannot entirely eliminate their curves—they must simply do the best they can."

JURY ACQUIT CARLETON CLINCH WITHOUT LEAVING THEIR SEATS

Judge Declares Crown Failed to Make Out a Case and Orders Jury to Bring in a Verdict of Acquittal—Morrisey's Loss Must be Regarded as One of the Misfortunes of Business

Without leaving the court room the jury yesterday afternoon in the trial of D. Carleton Clinch, broker, of this city, by the crown on information of acquittal and Mr. Clinch was discharged. Attorney General Hazen appeared for the crown and L. B. Baxter for the defense.

Captain Morrisey, the only witness for the crown, was residing at Wornworth, Eng. He told of instructing the Bank of Liverpool to pay $9,000 to W. H. Goadby & Co., brokers, and agents of D. C. Clinch, doing business at 74 Broadway, New York city. Mr. Clinch's request, the $9,000 was to be invested by Mr. Clinch in United States steel stock preferred.

Mr. Baxter objected to the statement sent the sending of the amount by the bank to the Goadby concern.

Mr. Baxter objected to any correspondence between Goadby and Morrisey being allowed in evidence. A copy of the original cable was shown, which directed the Bank of Liverpool to forward to W. H. Goadby at New York the amount specified.

The witness received a communication from Clinch acknowledging receipt of the money, but stating that he had not made a purchase of the stock, as he considered the price unreasonable.

In a later communication the accused wrote Mr. Morrisey, stating that preferred stock shares were selling at 27 1/2, but as he expected to buy at 25 he had to wait for the market to stand in abeyance, and if he (Morrisey) would not get impatient, everything would go all right.

The witness called Clinch shortly after as follows:

"D. C. Clinch, St. John:
"Buy steel preferred and cable amount—Morrisey."

NOT PLACED IN EVIDENCE

A letter written on Jan. 29 was not placed in evidence by Mr. Hazen, on objection by Mr. Baxter, as a discussion of the proper mode of investing the money was the contents of the mislaid.

On Jan. 29 Clinch wrote to Morrisey the following letter:

"Dear Sir—I received your two cables the first asking if I bought the steel, to which I replied no, not yet. A second letter on the same day stated that the Clinch had purchased the steel, and was mailing certificates later. He asked Morrisey to be easy on him as he had been paying for a long time, and he had not enough to make compensation.

To Mr. Hazen I wrote to Clinch requesting the certificates or money but received neither.

On March 21 Clinch wrote to Morrisey, stating that he had attached part of my funds with my New York agents but I will be able to send the certificates in a month or so. Remember that ten years ago I pulled out of a bad hole when I owed you a large amount."

On June 2, Mr. Morrisey said he left Liverpool, arriving in St. John on the 10th. He immediately went to Clinch's office, where he asked for the steel certificates, but the accused responded that he had not the documents so he could not give them to him.

He complained of the financial stringency and threatened to shoot himself if Morrisey took action.

On July 1 witness received a letter from Clinch begging him to delay instituting proceedings against him.

To Mr. Hazen the witness stated that he had any time had he received his money or the certificates.

In the depot he had a conversation with Clinch immediately prior to the institution of civil proceedings. Clinch took him out on the platform where he declared to the witness that if "suitable" time were given him he would repay every penny he owed."

He declined to consider the proposition, as he intended prosecuting him.

Jury—"Did you do or say anything that brought forth the solicitations from the accused?"

Witness—"No other than to ask him for my certificates."

Mr. Hazen completed his questioning and Mr. Baxter commenced the cross-examination for the defense.

WHY HE INTERVIEWED DR. EARLE

Witness had a good idea why Clinch interviewed Dr. Earle, who was counsel for him (Morrisey). He had instructed Dr. Earle to take action against Clinch in the police court. He denied that the accused informed him that his chattels were levied on in New York by the sheriff, which rendered him unable to secure the steel certificates for Morrisey. He would not swear positively that he used the words "You'll either find that money or I'll go ahead with the prosecution" in conversation with Clinch.

He denied securing postponements of the civil action in the police court in the hope of being recompensed by Clinch or his friends. He said he was willing to drop proceedings against Clinch if restitution was made, but he never expected Clinch to be able to comply as the latter had himself informed him that he "hadn't a dollar in the world."

As far as he recollected, three of the judgments in the police court were due to Judge Ritchie's absence in Quebec, and another owing to the illness of Dr. Earle.

He left it to Clinch's judgment to invest at the most opportune time. Goad-

Starting today with the fourth change of pictures this week, the Bijou have a programme the equal of which will be hard to find, and, we doubt very much, ever excelled. The first picture, one of the dramatic order, shows a young and pretty lady out picking autumn leaves. A gallant young man, happening along just about the time she is making great effort to pick some beyond her reach, kindly offers assistance, which is accepted. His gallantry wins the young lady's heart and a future meeting is planned. At this meeting her father happens along with the man of his choice for his daughter's hand. Then there's trouble. A duel follows. The young lady hearing of it, hastens to the spot, steps in between just as the first shot is fired, and gets the contents. She recovers, is locked in a castle, from which she makes a thrilling escape with the man of her choice. This picture is entitled "Tale of the Autumn Leaves." In comedy "Anti-Hair Powder" the Bijou have a dandy and one that causes continuous laughter. Then another of the comedy kind, "The Professor's Discovery," and still another, "I'll Dance the Cake Walk." So far as real fun goes there's more than you'll see for a long time. Miss Smith, having made such a hit yesterday in "When You Know You're Not Forgotten," will be heard again today, so early if you want a good seat tonight.

EXCEPTIONAL PICTURE PROGRAMME AT PRINCESS.

There will be an entire change of programme at the Princess Theatre today and the pictures shown are the strongest dramatic films that have arrived in the eastern provinces for some time. These pictures are secured through the Kiens Optical Co., which have few equals as producers of the best moving pictures in the world. Human Vultures is the title of an exceptionally long dramatic picture that is full of strong situations abounding in thrilling adventure and sea-scapes of wonderful beauty and charming effect, and introduces some customs of the inhabitants of the out-of-the-way coast districts. It shows how cruel wreckers who care nothing for the loss of life and the wrecking of ships to obtain their cargo after they are battered to pieces on the rocks. The scenes are perfectly photographed, and the rock-bound coast of Brittany forms a most picturesque setting for this cleverly enacted sensational drama. Another dramatic film of great interest is entitled "Ironkon Heart." This picture, which is longer than the ordinary films, presents some touching scenes in both city and country life. Another interesting picture is entitled "Policemen on Duty," and shows the real life of a policeman, whose life is not always a happy one. In addition to these very strong pictures, the great Selsky will appear in magic acts, and Harry Newcombe will be heard in pretty illustrated songs.

AL DILLON AT THE CEDAR.

The Cedar is gaining more in popularity every week. Why? Because they are giving the public what they want—a first class show in every respect. Another great show today. The picture film, "The Foreman's Heir," is one that will suit the young as well as the old. The White Man and His Wife, The Hodagob Coat, and the Tramp and the Soap make the bill. Al Dillon will be seen in a new act. Mr. Wallace has a new song to offer. Admission 5c.

NOT WILLING TO PAY THE $160

The ferry committee last night appointed Aid. Baskin and Aid. Holder to take charge of the alterations to the East Side Ferry building. These alterations are being made in order that the policemen who use the water street lock-up may have more commodious quarters. The changes to be made in the building to bring about this result are the shifting of a partition. The contractor wants $160 and the aldermen are not willing to pay that sum.

Those who were at the meeting were Aid. Baskin, Aid. McGowan, Aid. Baxter, Aid. Holler, Superintendent Glasgow and the common clerk.

After waiting some time for a quorum the committee got to work. Aid. Baskin explained what was wanted.

Aid. McGowan moved that Aid. Baskin and Aid. Holder be appointed a committee to look over the matter. Carried.

Aid. Holder said he was opposed to paying $160 for the work.

Aid. Baxter thought there was little need whatever of the alteration.

Aid. McGowan's motion was carried and the committee decided to go to the ferry house today and inspect the premises.

PROMINENT NEWCASTLE MAN DIED YESTERDAY

James O. Fish Had Been in Delicate Health for Many Years

NEWCASTLE, Sept. 10.—James Ogilvie Fish, a prominent lumber merchant, Forester, Pressman and Presbyterian, died today from the effects of a fall some two weeks ago following a long period of delicate health. He was the son of the late James Fish, lumber and provision merchant. He married Miss Rachel Sinclair, sister of the late Edward Sinclair and aunt of Mrs. John McKane. He was in the sixty-second year of his age and is survived by a widow and the following brothers: William E., civil engineer, and Charles E., contractor, Newcastle, and Dr. E. Clifford Fish, Melrose, Mass. The sisters are Mrs. C. C. Hamilton, Shelias, and Mrs. Donald Morrison, M. P. F., Newcastle. The funeral will be held next Sunday afternoon at two-thirty.

ROCKWOOD'S SEASON WASN'T SUCCESSFUL

Rockwood Park will not close tomorrow evening, but will remain open in the afternoon next week, closing on Saturday. The present season has not been a successful one as far as Rockwood is concerned. The crowds have been fair, but little money was spent. The same condition of affairs is being felt by all the parks and outside amusement centres, not only in Canada, but in the United States as well. At Cony Island, Revere Beach and Wonderland the attendance has shown a marked decrease. The reason is that there are such a large number of unemployed in the country.

Last year when the attractions were secured for Rockwood a heavy expense was incurred. However, the management are looking towards future years and hope that their efforts to please will meet with success.

The fishing privileges at the park were ended last evening. This feature, which was introduced for the first time this season, has not been very successful. Nevertheless, what fish were secured were large and of good quality.

Speaking with a reporter for The Sun last evening, Frank White stated that the park would be open next week for the convenience of visitors to the exhibition. All the attractions will be in full swing during the afternoon, but in the evening all will be dark. Mr. White said that the pavilion would be open during the winter months for the convenience of snowshoes and skating parties, when hot drinks would be served. Although nothing has as yet been decided upon, it is possible the same winter attractions will be secured for the coming season.

STRONG EVIDENCE AGAINST ALLEGED P. E. I. BURGOLARS

CHARLOTTETOWN, Sept. 10.—The police court was crowded today to witness the trial of Joseph Sheppard, of Sydney, and Chas. McDonald, of Pictou, charged with breaking into Trade station and stealing a horse and goods amounting to over $800 on Sept. 2 and 3.

Attorney General Palmer appeared on behalf of the crown, and L. P. Hazard on behalf of the Dominion government. Many witnesses were examined and all the articles stolen were claimed by the owners, making each offence so strong that the prisoners have been committed for trial at the Supreme Court.

WHY HE INTERVIEWED DR. EARLE

Witness had a good idea why Clinch interviewed Dr. Earle, who was counsel for him (Morrisey). He had instructed Dr. Earle to take action against Clinch in the police court. He denied that the accused informed him that his chattels were levied on in New York by the sheriff, which rendered him unable to secure the steel certificates for Morrisey. He would not swear positively that he used the words "You'll either find that money or I'll go ahead with the prosecution" in conversation with Clinch.

He denied securing postponements of the civil action in the police court in the hope of being recompensed by Clinch or his friends. He said he was willing to drop proceedings against Clinch if restitution was made, but he never expected Clinch to be able to comply as the latter had himself informed him that he "hadn't a dollar in the world."

As far as he recollected, three of the judgments in the police court were due to Judge Ritchie's absence in Quebec, and another owing to the illness of Dr. Earle.

He left it to Clinch's judgment to invest at the most opportune time. Goad-

JAMES HENDER CHOSE MINISTER'S APPLAUSE

Liberals in Hearty Convention Nominate the Strongest Candidates in the Constituency's History.

Dr. Pugsley Gives Account of His Stewardship --- Conservative and Liberal Treatment of St. John Contrasted --- Suicidal to Check Liberal Transportation Policies Now, Says Pender.

At one of the largest and most enthusiastic Liberal conventions ever held in the city of St. John, Hon. William Pugsley, Minister of Public Works, and James Pender, head of the Pender Mill Works, were unanimously chosen last night to represent St. John city and county at the St. John city, respectively, in the next parliament of Canada. Unanimity, enthusiasm and exceptional good feeling were characteristic of the entire proceedings and the delegates left the convention hall, after hearing from their candidates two able and stirring speeches breathing optimism, progress and prosperity, feeling confident of the result at the end of the coming political contest. A spirit of victory was in the air. The delegates were all read more fully than ever what Dr. Pugsley and his colleagues are doing for the port of St. John, and what they propose to do during the coming months.

In James Pender the Liberals of St. John have undoubtedly chosen the strongest man in the province to carry over to carry, along with Dr. Pugsley, the standard of their party.

Prominent Business Man

Mr. Pender is one of the most prominent business men in all Canada and enjoys the full confidence of the business men of this city. Conservative and Liberal alike, better qualified to discuss tariff matters and when he briefly took up that subject during the convention it was plain to everyone that the speaker was right at home. And it is significant that Mr. Pender is the man whose nomination was least desired by the local Conservatives. He has announced that he is in the field to win, and as Dr. Pugsley said in beginning his address last night, "When Mr. Pender goes to parliament there is no doubt that he will go, you will find in him a staunch supporter of all that is best and most progressive in the country."

With this he told how Mr. Foster was responsible for the removal of the Harris car works, employing some 30 men, from St. John to Amherst. Mr. McAuliffe spoke of Hon. Clifford Sifton's plan in opening up the lands of the west and in closing predicted a glowing victory for the candidates in these constituencies. His address was a masterpiece and received the applause it richly deserved.

The candidates then arrived and Dr. Pugsley was called upon to speak. He was cheered for several minutes as he walked to the front of the platform. After thanking his friends heartily for their cordial reception, Dr. Pugsley said: "It is upwards of a year since you did me the honor to nominate me as the candidate of the Liberal party for this city and county. In resigning the membership of the province and taking on the onerous and important duties which I know would devolve upon me as the representative of this great constituency, I realized that I was assuming a position of unusual responsibility. I knew that much was expected of me. The fact that the Conservatives of our constituency came forward voluntarily and pledged me their support gave unmistakable proof that the PEOPLE OF THE CONSTITUENCY were prepared to entrust their interests, at a somewhat critical time in the history of this city, in my hands.

There were five questions then up for the consideration of the convention:

1. The admission by the government of the claims of this city to be recognized as a port of call for the Atlantic ports, and the consequent taking over by the Dominion of the obligation of incurring the expenditure necessary to enable the port properly and efficiently to handle its fair share of Canada's trade in the winter season.
2. That no arrangements should be made for the use of the Intercolonial Railway which would work injuriously to the membership of the province and deprive St. John of the legitimate advantages which its geographical position naturally gives it in competing for the foreign trade of Canada.
3. That every reasonable effort should be put forth to have St. John made one of the Atlantic termini of the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company's line, in order to enable the people of this community to share in the benefits resulting from the opening up of the vast and fertile territory to be developed by the new Transcontinental Railway.
4. That the policy of directing Canadian trade through Canadian channels and Canadian ports should be carried to the utmost limits.
5. That by the acquisition by the Intercolonial Railway of the branch lines of these sections might be materially enhanced, not only to the advantage of the sections of the province immediately and directly interested, but to the benefit of the province as a whole, and this city, as its chief commercial center.

You know that I WAS IN FULL SYMPATHY WITH YOUR HOPES AND ASPIRATIONS in regard to all these questions and you were kind enough to send me to parliament as your representative, charged with the mandate of carrying out your wishes in regard to them. Now that I shall, at a day not very distant, come again before the electors of this constituency, asking for a renewal of their confidence, the people will naturally ask themselves the question, Has he been true to the trust reposed in me? In other words, have I met the good? I regard the relationship between a representative and his constituents as a very close and sacred one. You, upon your part, gave me responsibility and power. It is my duty to you as faithfully as that they will withdraw your support and your confidence and relegate me to private life. If, on the other hand, I were to fail under a sense of obligation to give me a renewal of your confidence. Therefore, it is important for me and for the electors to consider well as to whether I have served the people of this constituency so faithfully as that they will feel that it is right and proper that they should give me their confidence for another parliamentary term.

It seems appropriate that I should tonight deal with the various questions to which I have referred as before. I am particularly anxious to deal with the question of this constituency, and which I may not say, to this province, where interests are so largely identified with the interests of the city.

First, as to the recognition by the Dominion government of the fact that St. John is a port of call for the Atlantic ports, it might be well, for the young voters, the young men who know nothing of the struggles through which St. John has passed in connection with the winter port business here, to refer briefly to some of the leading incidents in its history.

What Foster Did

I remember well when Mr. Foster, once a power in the political life of Canada, and a member of the cabinet, called on me at the time when you chose me as your representative. He was, as you know, a man of great ability and high character. He was, as you know, a man of great ability and high character. He was, as you know, a man of great ability and high character.

RUNNING RIGHTS ON I. C. R.

As to the second matter which interested you at the time when you chose me as your representative, namely, the running rights on the Intercolonial Railway, you will remember that Mr. Foster, when he was in the cabinet, was the author of the policy which was then in vogue. He was, as you know, a man of great ability and high character. He was, as you know, a man of great ability and high character.

ENGINEER'S STATEMENT.

It will be of interest to the people of St. John now to be informed that I have a statement from Mr. Davy, who was the engineer in charge of the work of the bridge carrying over the Courtenay Bay, which was made on the 20th of September, 1908. The Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Ottawa.

The bridge taken over the entire proposed entrance channel to Courtenay Bay show no rock above grade, grade 22 feet below low water. The least depth of water is about 10 feet and a soft mixture of sand and clay was penetrated to 35 feet below low water. In Courtenay Bay no rock was encountered except within three hundred feet from shore, where it is first found about 10 feet below low water. The materials in the bay are mostly red clay, with sand and gravel. The least depth of water is about 10 feet above low water. Weather permitting, will be finished here this week.

H. M. DAVY.

I have informed Mr. Hays, president of the Grand Trunk Pacific, of what the engineer has to say. I have received from him a telegram expressing his gratification, which I shall read to you.

MONTREAL, Sept. 8th, 1908.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Ottawa.

Message received; very pleased to note favorable report received from one of our engineers as to Courtenay Bay, St. John.

(Signed) CHAS. M. HAYS.

It is now absolutely certain that the Grand Trunk Pacific say they desire, of laying out their terminals upon a broad and comprehensive scale. (Applause.)

Further, let me inform you that at the last session a subsidy was granted to the Grand Trunk Pacific for the purpose of enabling them to carry out their plan of laying out their terminals upon a broad and comprehensive scale. (Applause.)

TWO NAMES VOTED ON

When the delegates assembled at 7:30 o'clock on the second floor of Berryman's Hall, Edward Sears was asked to take the chair. Two names were voted upon, James Pender and Edward Lantulum, ex-M. P. P. Mr. Pender's majority was very large and Mr. Lantulum at once moved that the choice be made unanimous. At the ratification meeting later Mr. Lantulum made a brief speech, pleading his hearty support to the candidates.

The delegates then adjourned to the main hall above and amid cheers and applause resumed their choice. The candidates then took seats on the platform.

In the meantime while the delegates were at work a large crowd of voters had packed the main hall waiting to hear the result. Shortly before eight o'clock, on motion of A. O. Skinner, John Keele took the chair and called upon E. H. McAuliffe, K. C., to address the meeting. It is no exaggeration to say that Mr. McAuliffe's speech was one of the features of the proceedings. He was never in better form and in one continuous witticry that he kept his audience busy, now laughing, now cheering, as he referred to Hon. George E. Foster's cold bloodedness and Dr. Pugsley's untiring energy in securing for this port increased facilities. The audience roared Mr. McAuliffe's reference to Mr. Foster as "an icicle" was received with mingled laughter and applause.

Mr. McAuliffe told how stagnation marked the condition of the port of St. John under the Conservative administration and pointed out the great development that has taken place here since Sir Wilfrid Laurier came into power. He referred to Mr. Borden's policy plank and contrasted it with the reviving revelations in Colchester. The speaker referred to the lack of any immigration policy prior to 1896 and drew attention to the fact that under Conservative rule thousands of our own people were driven across the border to earn a livelihood. In connection with the facilities of our port; we want to reach that position whereby it will be possible for us to handle the business that will be offered to us in the years to come. Therefore, I say, it would be suicidal to interfere with the government's transportation policy at this important time. (Applause.)

"The Department of Public Works and Dr. Pugsley's colleagues have done a great deal toward the development of St. John and I believe it is highly essential that we should in the coming election show our appreciation of what he has done for us. Let us not dishearten the government in the work which they are now performing at this port. Let there be no rebuff." (Cries of "no! no! no! and prolonged cheers.)

Mr. Pender then went to refer to the enormous expenditures being made at this port and spoke of the great benefits the city and province receive from the large amount of grain being shipped through St. John. This trade should be encouraged to every extent.

Dealing with the fiscal policy of the government, Mr. Pender said the best evidence of its excellence was the satisfactory condition of the country's business up to the recent financial crisis which was the result of the south much harder than it did us.

Referring to the tariff the speaker claimed that some of the features of the Canadian tariff were ahead of anything ever embodied in any other tariff in the world. He went to refer to the "anti-dumping clause" which prevents the people of the United States from dumping their goods into Canada. As it stands now the more they dump the more the government benefits. (Applause.)

Mr. Pender reviewed the business conditions of the country during the last few years and in closing again urged the convention that he was in the fight to win and if he won would give the interested parties his undivided attention. (Prolonged cheers.)

DR. McALEISTER.

After Mr. Pender finished, Dr. McAleister of Sussex, who was on the left, was called upon. He was not only cheered as he went to speak, his references to the splendid ability of both Dr. Pugsley and Mr. Pender, and that if they, in Kings-Albert, could have secured the former to carry their standard in the coming election, would have elected him by at least 1,000 majority.

"But Dr. Pugsley," he said, "is loyal to the cause of St. John, so for goodness sake use him right." Dr. McAleister expressed his confidence in winning in Kings-Albert. (Applause.)

Just before the convention adjourned the following were elected as the Liberal executive for the campaign:

The Joy-Promoter

By MRS. LUTHER HARRIS.

(Continued) Then he drew his hand across his mouth and looked across at the dying sunset quite as if he had just given me the most ordinary bit of information in the world. Just as if he had told me the population of Madagascar or something like that!

Then he had a fit of coughing and while he was rolling a fresh cigar I got myself in hand a little, hoping he would not see how utterly unstrung I was, and tried to appear calm and unperturbed—tried to appear as if this bit of information had not set my whole stream of thought toppling about my ears! And all these beautiful days I must lay away in lavender, only to cherish like dead things the rest of my life!

The dead added calmly: "You Sibbel has allowed a sentimental microbe, too. Don't think anything of it if he attempts to make violent love to you!"

Well, it was only a day or two after that, that I met the Prince, by the morning down the flex path. He seemed particularly silent and absorbed, though his silences are simply changed with meaning.

All at once, with startling abruptness, he threw himself into the high moment of his swooning. He poured out his heart in the ready words of the temperamental silent man when his recollection yields to deep feeling. His calmly modulated voice broke with a feeling it was impossible to conceal.

The sick consciousness—that it was the mere meaningless mouthing of an unbalanced mind... the dull aching pathos of the thought that I had had otherwise...

How I ever managed to refuse him, I don't know; it is all a sort of hideous nightmare of memory. I had no time to get hold of my nerves, and it is well I am not an hysterical person or it would have all ended like a French play.

The experiment of four brigades being handled by a single general in a country which regards its army not as a first, but a second, line of defence is attracting the attention of the whole of Europe.

To turn was the work of an instant. The Household and eastern regiments got into close contact with the enemy and changed with a rolling motion the black and brown lines rushed in at a tearing gallop, and soon the whole field was in a tumult.

A FINE CHARGE

The three lines of the main charge came swiftly along, but possibly owing to the changed look of the Downs in the mist they lost direction, and instead of striking at the centre of the line, they struck the left of the position.

HIGH POWER AUTOMOBILES OFF ON SPEED TEST RACE

NEW YORK, Sept. 11.—Thirteen high power automobiles driven by men who have participated in many thrilling tests of speed will start on a twenty-four speed race course tonight. The track is in a spot perfect condition today and new records for the event are looked for unless unfavorable weather develops. Nearly all the drivers have taken part in the big long distance road events in this country and Europe.

"HARD BOILED" FACTS.

In a hen's egg only one-fifth of the substance is nutritious, one-third part is refuse, and the remainder, the greater portion, is water.

White-shelled eggs are not quite as good as yellow ones, for they contain a little more water and a little less fat. But your purveyor knows this, and from quantity colors his white eggs with coffee.

Judged by the amount of nutriment, the white-shelled egg is the most valuable. Next in order are ducks, guinea-fowls, hens, turkeys, and plovers. Eggs contain a large quantity of albumin, which is purpure to the blood, and good for the complexion.

To get the best eggs you must feed your fowls on grain; and to cook it in the most digestible way you must not boil the water. Heat the water to 180 degrees and leave the egg in it for ten minutes. You will then digest every morsel. But if you boil it for three minutes, you lose the nutritive value of the egg. It will take to be digested. Thus, if you eat two eggs boiled for three minutes every day, you waste five dozen in a year.

RIFLEMEN SHOOTING FOR A $4,000 TROPHY

SEAGIRT, Sept. 11.—The Dryden match for a $4,000 trophy, presented by John F. Dryden, former United States senator, was the principal event on today's program of the great shooting tournament. To the military riflemen this contest is second in importance only to the National match, and it is the most important event of the Seagirt. Governor Ford and Ex-Senator Dryden were in the large gallery of spectators who watched the shooting in this match, again the riflemen were favored with a perfect day. The members fired ten shots each at 200, 300, and 1,000 yards. In addition to the trophy the winning team receives $100.

AN EXTINGUISHED LANGUAGE

Relics of a Tongue Which Has Disappeared

LONDON, Sept. 10.—The discovery of an extinct Christian language is reported by the Berlin correspondent of The Morning Post, who telegraphs that a number of manuscripts which were found by the German Eastern Turkistan expedition three years ago at a place called Turfan, and which were hurried to the leaders of the expedition, Herr Grunwedel and Le Coq, have been examined by the philologist, Herr Sieg and Siegling, and placed beyond all doubt among the Indo-Germanic languages.

These manuscripts, many of which contain portions of the Testament, are supposed to be Turfan and for what reason.

The most probable explanation is that they are the work of Persian Nestorian missionaries who penetrated into Central Asia in the early centuries of the Christian era.

Another remarkable fact is that, although the language of these writings is distinct from any other, it is evident that the language in which they are written has totally disappeared.

Some curious affinities are pointed out by Herr Sieg and Siegling.

In this language, which they call "Tether," the word for "father" is "pachar"; for "mother," "matchar"; for "widow," "waschar"; for "ox," "okar"; for "man," "man"; for "horse," "karak"; for "sheep," "sheep".

Equally remarkable is the similarity of Turfan numerals to numerals in the languages derived from Sanskrit. "Twenty" is "tri," "five" is "pan," "twenty" is "viti" (Latin "viginti"), etc.

HER HUSBAND'S HAIR DOES NOT MATCH THE PAIR, SAID GREEN IN PARLOR

NEW YORK, Sept. 10.—A cable despatch to The Herald from Paris says that it would be difficult to conceive a more harrowing tale of man's unscrupulous indifference for woman's hair and sensibilities than the one disclosed in an application for divorce just filed before the Paris courts.

The wife who makes the petition has such a delicate and aristocratic nature that she suffers tortures from the hideous discord existing between the color of her drawing-room upholstery and the color of her husband's hair. Incredible though it may seem, the husband actually refuses to dye his hair to some less discordant hue.

When they were married the husband's hair was a delicate, pale golden color, which went admirably with the drawing-room furniture and hangings, then of a cool grey tint. Some time ago the wife returned her salon in a pale, sad green, and every time her husband enters it his straw-colored locks set his wife's nerves on edge.

Appeals, tears and fainting fits all failed to induce the husband to change his yellow hair, not necessarily sage green, but some tint harmonizing with the furniture in deep, rich tones. The wife finally petitioned the Divorce Court to free her from a partner whose artistic abstractions was making her life one long nightmare.

The case promises to be interesting especially if the Judge orders the furniture to be brought into court to see whether the husband's hair really makes such sickening contrasts as the wife claims.

UNEMPLOYED APPEAR BEFORE GLASGOW COUNCIL

GLASGOW, Sept. 10.—A remarkable scene was witnessed this afternoon at the office of the city council. Crowds of the unemployed gathered in George Square before the council convened, and a delegation of twelve was admitted to the meeting. The councillors received the delegation by rising from their seats. The spokesman of the unemployed said that never before had there been such a large number of unemployed in Glasgow. "Every human unit," said the spokesman, "is entitled to a job. We make no outrageous request, we are only here to plead for the souls of the men and women. They demand work."

The chancellor replied with deep emotion. He said the council had received the delegation in a spirit of brotherhood, and that it would do all in its power to help those who needed it.

Large bodies of troops were held in reserve this afternoon in anticipation of rioting and attacks on property. The men, however, have decided to refrain from demonstrating for one week in order to give the council an opportunity to adopt measures for the improvement of the situation.

The police arrested a Socialist, who incited a man to riot.

ABD-EL-AZIZ GIVES UP

CAHIRE, Sept. 11.—Abd-El-Aziz, the former Sultan of Morocco, who has been exiled by his brother, Sultan Mohammed V, has written a letter to M. Toug, one of his leaders, thanking him for his support but saying that he had decided to abandon the struggle. M. Toug replied that he would accept the Sultan's decision and that he would not fight against the new ruler of the empire.

THE AGE OF THE HUMAN RACE.

The highest authorities place the total number of years elapsed since, in the light of the best geological evidences, man first appeared upon the earth at 250,000. Of this 250,000 belongs to the preglacial epoch, 100,000 years to the glacial, 44,000 years to the interval between the glacial epoch and the prehistoric and neolithic, 10,000 years to the last named epochs, and 6,000 years to the time elapsed since the beginning of the historic period in Egypt.

HERSCHEL'S MEMORY.

Until he had become a very old man Sir John Herschel retained the strength of intellect and freshness of memory which enabled him to accomplish his great scientific work. Sir Henry E. Roscoe in his autobiography records an instance when Herschel was seventy-four years old.

One evening in 1861 I happened to meet him. He mentioned as an interesting piece of news that a star recently discovered had suddenly burst out into first or second magnitude. "Do you know," said Herschel, "that when I was at the Cape I observed a precisely similar phenomenon?"

He considered a moment and added: "Yes, it was in the year 1835." Again he paused for a moment and concluded: "On August the 16th at 1 o'clock in the morning."

HIS IDEA OF WATER.

At one time the balliff in charge of an English jury was sworn to keep them "without meat, drink or fire." It was Justice Maule who gave the classic reply to the balliff, who inquired whether he might grant a jurymen's request for a glass of water. "Well, it is not meat, and I should not wish it to be, but you may."

HEAVY EARRINGS.

The wearing of earrings was so general in Rome and the Jews were so heavy that there were professionals known as ear healers, who tended the ears of ladies who had torn or injured the lobes with the weight of the pendants.

KAISER'S OWN OPERA

Critics Call Sardanapalus "Dreary, Dull, Stupid"

BERLIN, Sept. 10.—If plain speaking about theatrical performances constituted less majesty under the Prussian scepter the dramatic critics' fraternity in Berlin would be well started on the road to jail. There have rarely been franker references to the Kaiser than are contained in the reviews of his "Sardanapalus," historical pantomime which was put on at the Royal Opera this week.

"Dreary," "dull," "stupid," "intolerable bore," "a dramatic Jena," "brilliant misconception," are only a few of the terms applied to the production. To locate the amateur traces of such fond hopes of starting not only the native, but the entire Assyriological world's greatest authorities in which had been invited to Tuesday's premiere. The Kaiser's version of "Sardanapalus" was prepared with a wholly extraordinary expenditure of time and money. His Majesty put his private purse completely at the disposal of Fred. Bellzsch, Germany's celebrated Babylonian scholar, in order to produce the pantomime upon a scale of historical veridicality and Oriental splendor rivalling in every detail the actual environment in ancient Nineveh. The Kaiser's expedition into Babylonian ruins were undertaken by German explorers, who hunted for days and nights to locate the authentic traces of trappings which would assist in making the performance exalt faithfully the atmosphere of 605 B. C.

It was just this zeal for painful accuracy, however, that wrecked the pantomime as a dramatic production in the eyes of the Kaiser's honest critics. They declare that the production, curiously and grotesquely effectively edited, all the imaginative quality out of "Sardanapalus" as pictured by Byron, and manufactured into a picture of a coldly scientific series of pictures.

PEEK-A-BOO BY PHONE

New York Woman's Chastity After Demented Husband

CHICAGO, Sept. 10.—Mrs. F. D. S. Bethune, wife of the young attorney who disappeared from New York a fortnight ago, expects to meet her husband at Buffalo tonight, according to the detective agency which has been searching for the missing lawyer.

Mrs. Bethune, who had been in Chicago since the disappearance of her husband, was called to the telephone last night, and it is said the well-known voice of her husband informed her that he was at Buffalo and feeling familiar with her voice. This is the third message of the kind to have been received by Mrs. Bethune, as her husband on Saturday last had talked with her twice over the telephone from Cincinnati.

"Mr. Bethune was mentally demented from overwork," said a detective familiar with the case. "He left his home and travelled through Canada and some of the smaller towns of the United States. Whenever the cloud on his brain became less dense he called up his wife and talked with her, but he always disappeared before she could get a glimmering of reason, only to lose it again."

MANY FOREST FIRES IN THE MAINE WOODS

KINNO, Me., Sept. 10.—A number of small forest fires have broken out in the region west of Moosehead Lake. The largest conflagration is reported in the vicinity of Afton Pond, and a crew of 150 men have been rushed there to fight the blaze. Many people camping out near Little Brasau Lake have been compelled to break camp and return here on account of the proximity of a fire there. A small fire is burning in the vicinity of Tom Fletcher's farm and another near Lake Moxie.

The three week's drought has left the woods very dry, and it is feared that a heavy rain within the next few days the numerous scattered fires may unite and cause widespread damage.

WILL PROMOTE PRACTICE OF THE GOLDEN RULE

TORONTO, Sept. 11.—The Presbyterian General Assembly Board of the Moral and Social Reform meeting in Toronto today decided to aggressively push the policy of temperance as adopted by the General Assembly, which includes local vote abolition of all saloons, and the prohibition of liquor in cities and towns the power of retaining shops temporarily, providing the element of private gain is eliminated.

Cordial sympathy was expressed with the local efforts of the Board of Temperance towards improving conditions of life and labor and promoting hearty co-operation in the prevention of labor in mines, shops and factories, and of employment of adults for under 16 hours or more than a week and under insanitary and hazardous conditions, such as are associated with the sweatshops.

Arrangements were made to have the ministers do all in their power with employers and employees towards promoting the practice of the Golden Rule in industrial life, and gratification was expressed over the success of the conference here and elsewhere, which the board urged should be still more vigorous in the southwest.

VETERANS LAND RIGHTS

Major H. B. Blair, of Halifax, sends the following to the Star:

Major H. B. Blair has received further news concerning the value of land selection rights to be granted to South Atlantic veterans. The price has been established as yet. Many men have unavailingly left their rights go for less than $100. On the other hand, several contracts have been made for delivery of rights of 800 each and it is probable that $100 would be a fair price. Major Blair's informant advises the veterans should not be in a hurry to dispose of their claims. There are numerous speculators looking for these claims at low prices and selling them to men at a lower price to others who do not sell.

None of the men here who have been selected have received information of such an encouraging nature. In Ontario the rights are selling from $125 to $150. If the veterans were able to go west and settle on the land they would, no doubt, reap large benefits from the larger cities. It is a distance it is found difficult to do very much. Others, many of them, have been received from parcels in the west who may they will give in the vicinity of three hundred dollars, but when accepted of such offers are made the western men quickly declare they were mistaken in their interpretation of the act and do not feel like giving more than half the original offer.

GIRL STRUCK WITH A

STONE AND BADLY HURT

A little girl, seven or eight years old, was struck on the head with a stone on Main street this morning and received a bad wound.

The accident occurred about noon. Some boys were tormenting a Jew and started to throw stones at him. One of the stones flew wide and struck the little girl on the forehead, making a very bad cut over the left eye. She was carried into Christie's Pharmacy and Dr. Case was called to dress the wound. He found it necessary to put several stitches in the cut. After being made as comfortably as possible by the doctor the youngster was taken to her home.

The boy who threw the stone got away and was not held to account for his action, which narrowly escaped resulting in the child's death.

WESTMORLAND COURT FINISHES BUSINESS

DORCHESTER, Sept. 10.—The Circuit Court finished business this morning and Mr. Justice Gregory returned to Fredericton this afternoon.

The case of Andy J. Gorman against A. B. Copp occupied the court Tuesday and Wednesday. Judgment was reserved with leave to either side to move the court to vary the verdict. This case arose out of an accommodation note given by J. P. McFarlane Company which failed last fall. The plaintiff had loaned the company money on the note and other securities. When a settlement of its affairs was made by the liquidators thirty cents on the dollar was paid and the defendant in the suit claimed to have the right to credit the defendant should be realized before calling upon him to make good on the accommodation note. A. W. Bennett & R. Triles for plaintiff, Priest for defendant.

Thos. McGarry, in whose case the jury disagreed, was allowed to go on his own recognizance to appear in January.
