EXEMPTION TRIBUNAL WORKING HARD

Large Number of Cases Being Heard and Reports Issued.

The Campbellton Exemption Tribunal has been sitting regularly each day for the past two weeks and have dealt with a large number of cases. The Tribunal is composed of M. A. Kelly and M. M. Mowat, with A. McG. McDonald as the military adviser. So far 165 claims for exemption have been under consideration. Of these 96 were in category A. 61 of these were granted exemption owing to the men being engaged on railway work, shell making, farming or other essential work. Thus 35 men have been sent up for service. A large number of cases are yet to be dealt with.

DALHOUSIE.

Dalhousie, Nov. 27.—Mrs. Thos. Nadeau, born in 1881, a boy friend had a very narrow escape from being killed on Saturday evening. They were driving to Bel River and when getting near the crossing the Ocean Limited train was passing at high speed. The horse took fright and ran towards the passing cars and was struck and sent reeling a telephone pole breaking its neck. The occupants of the sleigh escaped without an injury.

Mr. John Edmond who for several years gave faithful service to the firm of A. & R. Loggie here is now in the employ of The Dalhousie Lumber Co. He is in charge of a new Caterpillar Tractor which is being used by the company to haul their pulp wood to the cars. The tractor is a 100 horse power machine and can draw 50 tons of pulp wood.

On Thursday evening there will be a whist party held in the convent hall. A large number of prizes will be given. There is every prospect of the affair being well patronized.

As for the first time in the history of the county that nomination was not held in the shiretown, our people are looking forward to the public meetings, that no doubt will be held by both parties before election day. A very large vote will be polled in Dalhousie by the relatives of our soldiers and naturally they are anxious to hear the public quip: "one discussed from the platform and it is to be trusted that every speaker will get a fair hearing."

Mr. Phil. R. Hussey, manager of operations and Mr. Geo. C. Scott, Sec. Treas. of the P. Q. Lumber Company were in town on Monday. Their headquarters are at Nouvelle, where they have an up to date office. Their work is progressing rapidly here in the erection of their saw mill. Over eighty men are at work in Dalhousie, some of the concrete and others preparing the frame etc.

Mr. Albert C. LaBillette who is a native of Dalhousie, has been promoted and was last week officially appointed manager of the Amherst and St. Catherine St. branch of the Royal Bank of Canada, Montreal.

Mr. Wm. Savage of Nash's Creek was in town to-day. Ex-Councillors Thos. Hayes and Louis Giroux were visitors to the shiretown on Monday.

Councillor elect W. G. Mawhinney, of Upper Charlo, was in town to-day. Mrs. LaBillette received word that her nephew Geo. McNaughton a pilot's course in the Royal Flying Corps. The Quebec "Telegraph" in referring to Geo. McNaughton stated that Lieut. Geo. McNaughton, the popular centre player of the Sons of Ireland Hockey Team has gone to Toronto, to study for Aviation Corps. That he was one of the best hockey players in the Eastern Canada Amateur Hockey Association. McNaughton is one of the most graceful hockey players in Canada. He is a native of Pabos, Gaspe, Co. and a brother of Roche McNaughton, who was so badly wounded at Le Somme battle and was for ten months in British Hospitals, and who is now in a convalescent hospital in Montreal.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Wallace have had word from Ottawa, that their son Andrew was wounded on the 6th inst. He enlisted with the famous 26th Battalion and has been nearly three years in the trenches. His only brother Alex. was killed at the front last year.

Mrs. Walter Marquis, Campbellton, was a visitor to town on Monday. Mr. Wm. Robinson, Shigawake, P. Q. was here this week the guest of his brother Alderman Philippe Robinson. Miss Nellie Jones has returned home after visiting her aunt Mrs. Norman McKay, at Campbellton.

The many friends of Mrs. Joseph Greene of Maguasha, P. Q. will regret to learn that she is very ill at her home.

Mr. H. Dube of P. E. I. was here on Sunday, the guest of Mr. E. Blanchard. Miss Robinson, the popular teacher of Mountain Brook, spent the week end here the guest of Mrs. E. A. Giguere.

87th Battalion, 1st Infantry, (Canadian Grenadier Guards) In the Field, August 28th, 1917

Mr. Edward Firth, Robinsonville, N. B. Dear Mr. Firth: I am very sorry indeed to have to advise you that No. 793062 Pte. R. W. Firth has been missing from August 15th, last.

On that date the Battalion attacked the enemy and very severe fighting took place. The ground was fought over for six days before finally won by our troops. During that time the enemy took some prisoners, but I am at present unable to say what became of Pte. Firth, whether he was killed and buried by the Germans or whether he was taken prisoner wounded or unwounded. If at a later date we get any information we will immediately write you.

Yours very truly,
W. O. DONAHOE,
O. C. 87th Batt. Can. Infantry,

LAST CALL FOR VICTORY LOAN

Successful Campaign in Restigouche County Nearing End—The Totals.

The last call for Subscriptions towards the Canadian Victory Loan is going out. The campaign ends Saturday night Dec. 1st and we sincerely trust that everyone will have done his or her duty.

The following appeal has been issued by the Chairman of the Restigouche County Victory Loan Committee and should meet with a ready response from those who have not already subscribed:

To the Citizens, of Restigouche County.

The Victory Loan campaign closes on the evening of Saturday the 1st of December. Through the hearty co-operation of many of our leading business men of the Town of Campbellton and throughout the County of Restigouche, this County is doing its share towards the success of the Victory Loan campaign.

Although our canvassers have endeavored to personally call on each person who should subscribe for the Victory Bonds, undoubtedly quite a number of persons have not been asked to subscribe.

I now appeal to all such persons not to neglect their duty. Invest all you can in VICTORY BONDS. Not only is it a good business investment but it is our duty to assist in this great Dominion wide undertaking.

When the campaign closes be able to say with a clear conscience: I have answered the call of "Our Boys in the trenches," I have done my bit.

Yours sincerely,
H. F. McLATCHY,
Chairman of the Restigouche County Victory Loan Campaign.

The total subscribed in this county towards the Victory Loan is as follows:

Campbellton	$205,000
Dalhousie	85,650
Durham	34,500
Colborne	69,550
Dalhousie Parish	4,650
Balmoral	4,500
Eldon	6,250

This amount was subscribed for 672 persons or about one out of every twenty-five of population.

There are only two full days more and it will be too bad if the amount from this county does not amount to $500,000.

The response from Campbellton is good, but surely there are a few thousand more and each parish should endeavor to add a little to the total. Let everyone be a Victory Bond Booster for the last two days.

FOOD CONTROL PLEDGE BEING SIGNED

Committees In Charge of Work Making House to House Visitation.

The committees of the various women's societies have undertaken to have the food conservation cards signed, and this week committees have been hard at work.

The following districts have been laid out and will be canvassed by members of the society named.

Mill Creek bridge to Prince William Street—Tipperary Club.

Prince William Street to Andrew Street—Women's Institute.

Andrew Street to Minto Street—Soldier Comfort Association.

Minto Street to west end of town—W. C. T. U.

The committee that have commenced work are meeting with a very sympathetic reception and a ready response to the request to sign the cards.

There seems to be some misconception as to the object of these cards. It is not intended to enforce stricter economy in general upon householders as it is admitted that in these times of high cost of living every manager of a household has to practise the strictest economy in order to live, but the object is to have all assist in feeding the boys at the front by curtailing the use of wheat flour, pork products and beef. Whenever possible substitutes are to be used and thus conserve these articles for export to Canada's Allies. We are even requested to use corn meal and whole wheat flour even though it costs more than wheat flour.

It is our duty if we wish to do our bit in winning the war, to sign these cards and then in every way endeavor to fulfill the pledge.

EXEMPTION IN QUEBEC PROVINCE

Appeals Taken From Military Tribunals' Decisions.

Ottawa, Nov. 26.—On the question of appeals, which has aroused considerable comment throughout the Dominion, the Military Service Council has issued the following statement:

"It has become perfectly apparent that a large number of exemption tribunals in the province of Quebec have failed to appreciate their duties, and, in consequence, have granted exemptions in a very large number of cases where no justification for exemption exists. As a result it has become necessary to invoke the right of appeal on a very large scale. Already over four thousand appeals have been launched by the military representatives in Montreal and more than one thousand in Quebec and in both districts steps are being taken very largely to augment this.

ASSAULT CASE

Five or six young men from Athol were before His Honor yesterday morning charged with assaulting an old man. It appears that his daughter was being married when the young men started creating a disturbance. The father tried to drive the crowd away by throwing stones. The boys retreated and thus the case. Judgment was reserved.

MORE GOOD ADVICE

If the merchants of Campbellton are to capture a good share of trade this season which hitherto has gone to mail order houses in the Upper Provinces, they should not be too parsimonious in the use of printers ink. It is a good plan some time to fight the old boy with fire. Make good use of The Graphic's advertising columns during the next few weeks.

VICTORY LOAN ON GASPE COAST

Messrs. W. W. Marshall and F. Saint-Pierre, joint chairmen for Canada's Victory Loan for Division No. 10 of the Province of Quebec have been in town and state that they are greatly pleased with the subscriptions received in their Division especially in the Counties of Bonaventure and Gaspé. As is only natural, a good many residents of Bonaventure have put in their applications with Campbellton banks and even with members of the Campbellton committee. Credit for such subscriptions will be given to Bonaventure which is not more than equitable and fair, but the chairmen wish to impress on residents of Bonaventure the importance of making their subscriptions through their own solicitors, and thus prevent confusion.

Edmond Levesque, New Carlisle is secretary for Bonaventure. Send to him for information.

It is most important that we put our shoulders to the wheel and make a record for our country which will put them in the forefront. It has been done in other patriotic work and it will be done in the Victory Loan. There are only eight days left.

N. B. FARMERS CALLED ON

Larger Crops Must Be Raised Next Year to Help Allies More Wheat is Demanded

Men, munitions and money, we are told are the three main factors that will ultimately decide whether Great Britain and her allies come out of the present gigantic struggle in which they are engaged with victory perched on their banners or crestfallen with defeat. In other words the nation that can best uniformly maintain these three factors the longest is bound to be the nation that will triumph in the end.

When the worst comes to the worst a nation may say to a man, "Go fight," and he must go. The nation may also say, "Give," and men must give. Many lines of munitions can be speeded up at short notice and an adequate supply may be thus maintained.

But what of "food," the main and most essential of all munitions. To increase the food supply, preparation must be made many months before the harvested product is needed for consumption. The land must be ploughed, cultivated, fertilized and seeded. Then comes first the blade and after many days the full corn in the ear, and the proverbial bread cast upon the waters returns a manifold yield.

In the line of food supplies, grains, fats and sugar are the essential and most urgently needed for the sustenance of our armies in training and in the field as well as the masses of munition workers and others who are not producers of food.

Of the three food supplies mentioned in the foregoing paragraph the farmers of New Brunswick can lend a hand in conserving and production of grains and fats, and of these two, grain is the most urgently needed, and it is in turn the one that requires the longest time to prepare increase. The first grain commodity for consideration must be wheat, the predominant bread grain. From a European broadsheet point of view the other cereals are substitutes to be used in mixing with wheat, and a certain amount of wheat is essential. Herbert Hoover, the United States Food Administrator, has compiled statistics which show the wheat situation in France, Italy, the United Kingdom and Belgium to be as follows:

Total yearly pre-war importations 568,584,000 bushels
Total average production 590,685,000
Total estimated production for 1917 383,770,000
1917 deficiency 196,905,000
Total imports required to maintain normal consumption 577,709,000

The total export surplus of wheat from the 1917 sowing in Canada and the United States is only 230,000,000 bushels.

In order that England and her allies may be adequately supplied with wheat they must necessarily import and shipping must be available to transport it. The world's shipping is however already too short to afford sufficient tonnage to traverse the longer routes to India, Australia and Argentina, which routes require three was spent on doctors' bills, without any benefit, as was spent in Zam-Buk, which effected a complete cure!" says Mrs. Fred Gervais of 124 Bligny St., Montreal.

"A rash broke out on my baby's skin, and she became very fretful and lost weight. I took her to a doctor, who gave me some lotion to apply, but it did not do baby any good. At last I took her to another doctor, but with the same result. Then a friend, who saw the condition baby was in, brought me some Zam-Buk, which she so highly recommended that I commenced using it. In one week's time baby looked much better, and before a month had elapsed she was quite well again."

"Baby is now the picture of health, and I think it wonderful that 12 worth of Zam-Buk brought about this cure when $30 spent in doctors' treatments did no good whatever! I certainly advise other mothers not to experiment with useless remedies, but to save their little ones unnecessary suffering and themselves needless anxiety and expense by using Zam-Buk in the first place."

Zam-Buk is also best for eczema, ringworm, scalp sores, boils, ulcers, abscesses, bad legs, blood-poisoning, piles, cuts, burns and scalds. All dealers or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. See box 3 for $1.25.

times the time of the one to North America and thus three times as many ships to transport the same quantity. Furthermore, the American route is the best protected.

While our shipbuilding may in time overcome the destruction in the meantime ships must be diverted from the longer to shorter routes to fill the gaps made by submarines.

The Mother Country and her allies, therefore, look to Canada and the United States for the major portion of their wheat supply, but Canada and the United States supplies, upon a normal export basis, approximately 359,000,000 bushels short of the Allied needs. This shortage may, however, be lessened by economy on the part of our citizens through the use of wheat substitutes and an honest effort on the part of the farmers to increase wheat production.

Mr. Hanna said at a recent conference with the Ontario Department of Agriculture in Toronto, "I want to tell you gentlemen to-day, that food is being sent across the Atlantic regardless of the fact that in eight months from now the people of the United States and Canada, should the war go on—and there is nothing to indicate that it will not—the people of the United States and Canada will be on rations, whether they like it or not, and no one will object if rations will save the situation. The suffering that is to-day indicated by the conditions across the sea."

This is a true state of affairs. What will our New Brunswick farmers do to relieve the situation? concerted action is immediately needed.

New Brunswick is a flour-importing province despite the fact that wheat can be grown successfully in every one of her counties. Many of our farmers have found it more profitable to grow other crops and purchase their flour requirements. The time has now come when the question of profit must take a secondary position to that of necessity. We have no assurance that in order to supply more urgent needs an embargo may not be placed on the shipping of wheat or flour to provinces that can to a certain extent "bread themselves" if they do not put forth an honest effort regardless of cost.

The word "cost" must never figure in the prosecution of the present crisis to a successful outcome for England and her allies. It has already cost many of our homes the blood of their manhood. Shall the farmers of the province not rally to the call by producing more wheat and thus help to diminish the quantity we must purchase from the great wheat fields of the west. Every bushel of wheat that the West can thus save export across the Atlantic will be an extra bomb thrown into the camps of our enemies. The 1917 season was not favorable to the best results in wheat growing for

Red Rose Coffee

No Advance in 3 Years

With war-time prices so terribly high for nearly every article of food, it must be a particular satisfaction to those who love good coffee to know that there has been no advance in the price of Red Rose Coffee for three years—and the great increase in the sale of Red Rose Coffee this year shows that the price is appreciated.

People everywhere seem to be using much more coffee than they did before.

Red Rose Tea is economical on account of its superior quality—but Red Rose Coffee is economical both on account of its quality and price, a combination hard to maintain in war-time.

RESOLUTIONS PASSED AT CONVENTION

Maritime Branch of Canadian Manufacturers Favor Maritime Union.

At a largely attended convention of the Maritime Branch of the Canadian Manufacturers Association held at Sydney, N. S. a number of very important resolutions dealing with Maritime province matters were passed. The resolutions were of considerable length and we are sorry we have not space for the full text of each, but reproduce two which touch us in New Brunswick more closely. The first of these deals with Maritime Union and the others is in reference to development of Water powers.

WHEREAS the Association views with interest the growing agitation for a Union of the Government of the three Maritime Provinces and

WHEREAS it would materially increase the prestige and influence of these Provinces in Federal Affairs, THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Executive be instructed to approach the Provincial Government with a view to arranging a Conference of delegates from their Governments to discuss the feasibility of such a Union.

WHEREAS it is to the economic interest of a country to develop and utilize its water powers to the fullest extent, and considering what has and is being done in other Provinces in Canada in this respect,

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that the Legislature Assembly of New Brunswick be requested to appoint a Commission to survey and to assist in any way toward the development of the water powers in that Province.

FURTHER RESOLVED that a copy of this resolution be sent to the Premier of New Brunswick for his early consideration.

A resolution favoring Vocational Training and another approving of Sir Robt. Borden's formation of a Union Government were passed.

The Province of New Brunswick and consequently many farmers who gave wheat growing a trial did not realize the results they anticipated. Our failure does not by any means spell defeat, and it is an incumbent duty on every farmer in the province to grow as big an average of wheat as he possibly can in 1918. The farmers can only do a part and if they do that part well Providence will do the rest. Farmers who wish to win the war will do their utmost along the lines suggested and consequently there will be a demand for large quantities of seed wheat for use next spring.

Anticipating this demand Hon. J. F. Tweedie, New Brunswick's Minister of Agriculture, called a meeting of the municipal county councillors of the province in the Government Building, Fredericton, on November 20th, to place the matter fairly before them and invite their assistance in ascertaining the quantities of home grown wheat seed that is available, the quantities that must be imported to supply the demand and in the distribution of the supply in such a way that every honest effort put forth by our farmers will be helped.

There is no organization in the province that so thoroughly covers every district as does the Municipal Council.

The response to the call was very encouraging. Councillors representing many districts of the province received an insight into the seriousness of the situation. Many of them did not realize before coming to the meeting that the demand was so urgent, and openly expressed themselves as being heartily in accord with the steps the Department of Agriculture has taken, not from the political standpoint but purely and simply as a pressing need that must be attended to without delay.

Mr. Carter, Chief Superintendent for Education for the province, was present and offered the Department of Agriculture and the Municipal Councils every possible assistance through the agency of the various branches, pupils and officers of the schools in the province, a proposition which was readily accepted. The plan of campaign will necessarily require publicity in order to bring the seriousness to give the matter all the public attention of every farmer. The press will be asked to co-operate in this work. Councillors explaining the situation will be asked in every home and the clergy at all church services.

have already expressed their willingness to give this matter all the publicity they can.

A blank form will be placed in the hands of every farmer, who will be expected to fill it in and return it to the secretary of school trustees, school teachers or councillors for his district. This blank form will contain questions to the home supply of seed wheat and the quantity that must be purchased to supply the demand.

Premier Foster attended the meeting and took an active part in the discussions. The following resolution was carried unanimously:

Whereas, the supporting of the soldiers fighting in the trenches is paramount;

And whereas, the necessary support must be forwarded to the wives and families of the soldiers drafted in the allied nations.

And whereas, wheat and fats must be supplied by Canada, and in view of the act that a great shortage of wheat is likely to ensue;

Therefore, be it resolved, that we, the representatives of the Municipal Councils do hereby pledge ourselves to urge our respective Municipal Councils to take immediate action in ascertaining the average and the amount of seed wheat needed for such acreage to be sown during the spring of 1918.

And further resolved, that we will recommend to our respective Municipal Councils the favorable consideration of financing the purchase and distribution of said seed grain.

And further resolved, that we will, within fifteen days from date, ascertain and furnish the Provincial Department of Agriculture an estimated quantity of seed required for said acreage in the respective parishes:

Moved by P. P. Melanson; seconded by J. W. Smith. Carried.

The legislature at the last session, anticipating such need, placed upon the statute books an act whereby municipalities could do so.

No Advance in 3 Years

With war-time prices so terribly high for nearly every article of food, it must be a particular satisfaction to those who love good coffee to know that there has been no advance in the price of Red Rose Coffee for three years—and the great increase in the sale of Red Rose Coffee this year shows that the price is appreciated.

People everywhere seem to be using much more coffee than they did before.

Red Rose Tea is economical on account of its superior quality—but Red Rose Coffee is economical both on account of its quality and price, a combination hard to maintain in war-time.

ANNOUNCEMENT.

So many changes have been wrought in political circles because of the formation of a Union government, and the consequent change of allegiance in one party or the other, that the Graphic has decided to be neutral (strictly independent) during the present election campaign. The present is to critical a time to stir our community up to fighting pitch by cheap political issues, and the Graphic will not be a party to fomenting such strife.

THE CURFEW BELL.

The need of some regulation whereby children of tender years may be obliged to remain in their homes after hours than at any other period of the evening by every person who has the welfare of our boys and girls at heart.

More girls and boys are directed to the downward path that leads to vice and wickedness during the evening hours than at any other period of the day. Boys and girls below the teen age should be in their homes at prescribed hours and to accomplish this towns and cities have brought into operation a law which sits forth that any boy or girl under the age of thirteen years who is on a public street unless accompanied by a guardian after a certain hour will be liable to arrest by the police. The signal is the ringing of a bell, which is known as the "Curfew."

Ladies of Campbellton who have viewed with alarm the increasing number of children which may be encountered alone on our streets up to a very late hour at night are taking up this matter, and they should receive the moral support of all.

"GOOD INVESTMENT."

The man who buys a hundred dollar Victory Bond maturing in twenty years gets his hundred dollars back at the end of that period, and in the meantime he has received one hundred and ten dollars interest. Think of it! He invests $100; he gets back $210, including interest. These are the gross figures. But if the bondholder, as each half-year's interest is paid him, puts it in a saving bank and allows it to accumulate, his interest at the end of twenty years will have amounted, with the principal, $250.

Perhaps there are many people, however, who do not wish to make an investment for twenty years. Very well; they may purchase Victory Bonds payable in ten years, or even five years. But suppose they want this money in the meantime? Then all they have to do is to take their bond to a broker and he will sell it for them. There will always be a strong market for Victory Bonds.

Here is an idea for the man who has a child or a grandchild, or some other kiddie dear to his heart. Present the youngster with a Victory Bond. Arrange with his parents that each half-year's interest, as it is paid by the Government, shall be deposited to the youngster's account and allowed to accumulate. Then when he is twenty-five (if he is five at present), he will have $250 for every hundred dollars you invest for him now.

How handy it will come in for the young man starting upon his career, and how green and fresh it will keep the memory of dad or granddad, or whoever the donor may be. Or if the little loved one is a girl, how acceptable it will be for the trousseau in days to come.

There is no investment like a Victory Bond. There is no present like a Victory Bond. "It blesteth him that giveth and him that taketh."

A WORD IN SEASON.

(St. John Evening Times.) It is said that the shameful attacks by the Halifax Herald upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier and upon Liberals generally, are responsible for a good deal of the trouble in Nova Scotia in the union government. There are many Liberals in New Brunswick who vituperate the campaign methods of the St. John Standard. Of the situation in Ontario and elsewhere the Canadian Courier says:

"The bitter attacks which the Conservative press are making upon Sir Wilfrid Laurier are driving thousands of Liberals into opposition to union. For, while many Liberals believe Sir Wilfrid has not suggested the best method for winning the war, few, if any, of them believe him to be guilty of not wanting to win the war. It is a mistake of judgment and not of heart, they reason. To denounce the man upon whom they have relied since childhood for leadership in public matters as a traitor, to caricature him as in league with the Kaiser, is an insult to their judgment. We must remember that charging Sir Wilfrid with treason is no new thing. When in 1911 he advocated reciprocity with the United States he was represented as a traitor to the Empire. The charges today are no stronger, no more virulent, the cartoons no viler, than they were then. And yet today we have a fair measure of reciprocity with the United States; we have borrowed money from the United States by the scores of millions, and we are relying upon the United States today to finance the grain crops of western Canada. We have gone further toward Continentalism than Sir Wilfrid advocated, and no one has suggested that treason has been committed."

To attack Sir Wilfrid as a traitor is to raise a battle-cry for war horses retired from duty through lack of employment. It must not be forgotten that six months ago Sir Wilfrid had the biggest personal following of any man in Canada. To hold Sir Wilfrid up to the Liberals of Canada as in league with the Kaiser is to weaken confidence in the statesman-like qualities of unionism. Sir Robert Borden has not done so, and his example ought to be good enough for his followers."

We must go on living together after the 17th of December. Let the political struggle be conducted fairly and honorably. The issue is too grave for ordinary partisan appeals.

PROTECT BIG GAME.

Reports from all sections of New Brunswick for this big game season go to prove that there are not as many game animals or game birds in our forests as there were two or three years ago. This is particularly true of Restigouche county. The unrestricted slaughter of moose and deer by settlers has almost cleaned these game from our forests. If they are to be allowed to reproduce good guardians must be appointed and kept on the trail for the entire year. The season closes Saturday, but if the game is not protected it has in reality only started as the pot hunter hunts best when deep snow is on the ground.

We trust that a few good men will be kept on during the winter months and certain to some extent at least, the annual slaughter of big game for lumbering camps supply of fresh meat.

CANADIAN SHELL PRODUCTION

A great many firms have successfully and very profitably remodeled their entire plants to take part in the production of shells of various sizes. One of the largest building firms in Canada is now turning out, daily, a large number of shells of various sizes, up to and including the 4.5 inch high explosive shell, of which a brief outline of the manufacture follows:

First, government inspected and marked billets of pure high-carbon steel, about 1 1/2 inch length by 5 inch diameter are heated in an oil burning furnace for about two hours at a temperature of about 2,000 F. They are then removed, one at a time, with a long draw-bar. As soon as each billet is removed it is taken by grapple irons to a table where the scale is scraped off. Then it is placed on end in a die, and a powerful press with a pressure of 200 to 350 tons per square inch forces a punch through the centre of it, as one would push a hot poker through butter. The billet is now a hollow cylinder, much longer and of slightly greater diameter, but with one end closed.

This cylinder is then cut off to the exact length required and its walls are planed down to the exact thickness required by the government inspector. Next the inside is machined from end to end to make it absolutely accurate. The open end is then carefully heated by an expert to a temperature of 1600 F. For this heating an expert is required as the heating must not extend too far down the shell, nor yet not extend far enough. In the second case the dies of the nosing press would be put under too great a strain and smashed. When thus heated, the shell is put in a nosing press and the open end forced in to form the nose taped. Next, the inside of the nose is threaded and a temporary plug is screwed in. At this point, the shell is weighed and then the base is faced off until exactly the right weight is reached. Then, a groove is cut in the outer wall around the body at a certain distance from the base and two waved threads are formed in this groove. The copper band is then slipped along the shell body until it reaches the groove. Here a powerful press forces the band into the groove and locks it on the waved threads. Next, the base of the shell is bored out and a special base plate either screwed or riveted in to receive the terrific impact of the firing charge. Next, the temporary nose plug is removed and a brass socket substituted. Then the socket and the copper band are machined. The shell is now ready for its final touches. It is varnished inside and heated in an electric furnace to harden and dry the varnish. At this stage it is thoroughly inspected. It is then painted on its outer surface and again inspected. It is now, ready to be crated and shipped to the war office in England. In England it is loaded with high power explosive, the time cap adjusted to the nose, and shipped to the front to "do its bit."

TAKES OFF DANDRUFF, HAIR STOPS FALLING

Save your Hair! Get a small bottle of Dandruff right now—Also stops itching scalp.

Thin, brittle, colorless and scraggy hair is brute evidence of a neglected scalp of dandruff—that awful scurf. There is nothing so destructive to the hair as dandruff. It robs the hair of its lustre, its strength and its very life; eventually producing a leanness and itching of the scalp, which if not remedied causes the hair roots to shrink, loosen and die—then the hair falls out fast. A little Dandruff tonight—now—any time—will surely save your hair.

Get a small bottle of Knowlton's Dandruff from any drug store. You surely can have beautiful hair and lose not a hair if you will just try it. Dandruff. Save your hair! Try it!

BONAVENTURE COUNTY.

Information from Bonaventure County leaves no doubt as to the return of Hon. Charles Marcell by a tremendous majority. His two last majorities exceeded 1000 and 1200 but this time it seems as if his majority will far exceed those figures.

Two men have been nominated against him Mr. P. Furois of Quebec and Capt. Ambrose Landry of Maria Cape. Both stand chances to loose their deposit. The former is a Unionist but the latter is an anti-conscriptionist.

A large number of leading Conservatives are supporting Mr. Marcell in the campaign.

He is visiting the whole County and by the end of the election period he will have delivered some thirty addresses. He is being supported by Hon. J. H. Kelly, Mr. J. F. Bugeaud, M. L. A. and Mr. Cote, advocate of New Carlisle. Several large meetings have already been held at Bonaventure, New Carlisle, Paspheiac Gascons, Port Daniel East and West, Shigawake, St. Godfroi and Hopetown.

Mr. Marcell has prepared a programme of meetings and visiting of the whole constituency. He will speak in the Council Hall at Cross Point on Thursday afternoon, November 29th.

NEW RICHMOND

On the afternoon and evening of Nov. 22nd a large and representative company gathered at St. Andrew's Manse, New Richmond on the twenty-fifth anniversary of the marriage of the Rev. E. J. Rattee and Mrs. Rattee, of the Presbyterian congregation, New Richmond.

A most enjoyable time was spent and those present were very pleased to find that the main object of the gathering had been kept a secret from the Pastor and his wife. The sum of one hundred dollars, in coin of twenty-five cent denomination was presented in remembrance of the day.

The following address was read:

To Rev. E. J. and Mrs. Rattee,

The Manse,

New Richmond, P. Q.

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Rattee:— On behalf of the congregation of St. Andrew's, New Richmond, I beg to say how much pleasure it gives us to meet with both of you this afternoon on the twenty-fifth anniversary of your marriage.

We are glad that it is in this congregation this memorial day is spent, and we trust that you may see many more anniversaries among us. Although the time has not been long since you came to be our pastor, it has been more than long enough to endear you to the hearts of your people.

You have gone in and out among us in seasons of joy, and in time of sorrow and bereavement. At such times you have not failed in loving Christian sympathy and gentle persuasion.

You have not spared yourselves in the work for the good of your people whether in spiritual or temporal matters, in Church, Sabbath School, Missionary Societies, Red Cross, etc.

We look upon our renovated cemetery and we remember to whom we owe the change in appearance.

For you and Yours: May God grant that you may long be spared to one another. May you see your sons return in safety from the battle scene.

May the hearts of both of you be comforted and sustained in the work of this congregation, and may you see the work of the Lord advance and prosper under your ministry. May you long be spared to minister to us. Dear Pastor! Dear Pastor's wife! Why should we say more? Suffice this: We ask your acceptance of this silver gift as a small token of our esteem and affection, and we pray that the bond which unites us as pastor, pastor's wife and congregation may long remain unbroken.

In Closing:

The Lord bless thee, and keep thee: The Lord make his face shine upon thee, and be gracious unto thee: The Lord lift up his countenance upon thee, (and give thee peace.)

ST. ANDREWS CONGREGATION

The Rev. E. J. Rattee and Mrs. Rattee of New Richmond desire to express their very heartfelt thanks, through the columns of the Graphic for the many tokens of kindness received at different times from their people, culminating in the splendid celebration on Thursday, Nov. 22nd of the silver anniversary of their marriage, when, besides other gifts, the congregation presented them with 400 quarters, $100.00. The idea was surely unique and fitting to celebrate with silver and quarters which were twenty five. Whose was the fertile mind, the Pastor does not know, and he was completely surprised by the shower of silver, but he thanks one and all for their too flattering recognition of his services.

PARCELS TO PRISONERS OF WAR

In co-operation with the new Scheme instituted by the British Government all parcels from Canada to Officer Prisoners of War interned in Germany or Austria-Hungary containing foodstuffs on and after January 1st, 1918, can only be accepted for onward transmission by Postal Service if they bear a "coupon" issued by the Prisoners of War Department, Canadian Red Cross Society, London, England.

Under the new arrangement the amount of foodstuffs which may be sent to an Officer Prisoner of War during four weeks must not exceed one hundred pounds. Of this total the Prisoners of War Department of the Canadian Red Cross will send to each interned Canadian Officer including those attached to other than Canadian, units not less than six tenpound parcels each four weeks. The remaining forty pounds of foodstuffs per each parcel must bear a coupon which can be obtained on application from the Prisoners of War Department, Canadian Red Cross Society, London, England.

The right to send food parcels to an Officer Prisoner of War rests with the next of kin, but may be transferred by the latter or by the Prisoner of War himself to any person. It is advisable that application should be made to the Prisoners of War Department, Canadian Red Cross Society, London, England, for the necessary coupons for parcels packed personally at the earliest possible moment.

These coupons are to be used on food parcels only and no coupons can be issued for amounts under ten pounds. If, therefore, it is desired to despatch a parcel weighing less than ten pounds an ordinary coupon must be used and the parcel counts as one of the four permissible in four weeks.

Articles may be sent to any Society for enclosure in any parcel despatched under the Red Cross label. The importance of guarding against any misuse of the label cannot be too strongly emphasized. Such action would not only harm the Prisoner to whom the parcel was addressed but would react on other Prisoners and might endanger the whole system of despatching the food supplies to Officers and men who have fallen into the hands of the enemy.

Parcels for Officers interned in Bulgaria and Turkey come under the new scheme. Owing, however, to the difficulties of postal communication, it is not advisable to send many parcels to Officers in Turkish camps. Supplies can be purchased in Asia Minor and it is better to remit money to the Prisoners than send many parcels.

This new scheme relates only to parcels containing foodstuffs for Officer Prisoners of War interned in enemy countries and does not affect in any way the present regulations governing the transmission of parcels to Prisoners of War than Officers, which regulations remain unchanged.

The needs of Officer Prisoners of War holding commissions in the Imperial Army are looked after by the Central Prisoners of War Committee, 4 Thurlow Place, London, S. W. England. This Committee will supply the necessary coupons to the next of kin of these Officers for parcels addressed to them which are packed personally.

JACQUET RIVER.
A Liberal meeting was held in the Church Hall at Nash's Creek on Thursday last. A very large and enthusiastic crowd greeted the speakers Mr. P. Michaud addressed the assembly and gave a very able talk of many matters of importance, in strong and forceful language. He was heartily applauded. Mr. Wm. Currie also spoke and was greatly appreciated, also Mr. Anderson addressed the crowd and was very well received. Mr. Michaud visited many of the people of the parish of Durham last week and met with a very warm welcome.

Mr. Peter M. Fiolotte received word last week that his son Peter Jr., was wounded in the back, and had been admitted to hospital. Private Fiolotte was one of the first Jacques River boys to join the overseas having went across in the 26th. His many friends wish him a speedy recovery.

Also Mr. John Gallant received word that his son Private John Gallant was wounded recently. Private Gallant went over in the 132nd. His many friends also wish he may recover quickly.

The nominators were busy at work last week taking down the names of mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of soldiers overseas. The voters list will be considerably swelled in consequence. Mr. William Savage had charge from the lower end of the Parish to Jacques River bridge, and Mr. Robert McArthur had charge from the bridge to the district above.

The winter has arrived in earnest there were several inches of snow followed by rain, then a decidedly cold wave, so that the roads are badly frozen making bad going. The cars stopped running on Friday.

The congregation of Jacques River Roman Catholic Church presented their Church to the community as the best of its kind in the County for the fiftieth anniversary of the foundation of the Parish. The new organ was installed Thursday. The choir rendering special music for the occasion. A number of visiting clergy were also present at the High Mass, Rev. Father with a handsome organ, with Fathers Hutton and Langrange as Deacon and Sub-Deacon. Father Tibbault acted as Master of Ceremonies, Rev. D. M. Barthelemy, John Callaghan, William Savage, Thos. Hayes, Harold Hayes, Frank LaPointe, Thos. Steeves, John Black, Joseph McIntosh, T. A. Landry, Paul J. Doyle and Cpl. Charles Doyle.

Mr. John Harquail, President of the Restigouche Liberal Association visited the Parish of Durham last week. Judge McAtchey was in town last week and received a number of added subscriptions to the Victory Loan.

Mrs. O'Keefe of Campbellton is the guest of Mrs. Paul Doyle. Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Sorel of Charlott spent the week end the guests of Mr. and Mrs. D. MacArthur. Messrs. Wilfred Barton and Percy Shannon enjoyed a few days hunting in Red Pine last week the guests of Mr. Guy Lutes.

Mr. Thomas Hamilton attended the special O. R. T. meeting held in Campbellton recently.

Mrs. O. A. Barthelemy of Campbellton was the guest of Mrs. C. L. Fenderson last week.

Miss Trites spent the week end the guests of Miss Bertha Archibald of Archibald Settlement.

Mrs. Morrison and baby have gone to St. Stephen to spend the winter months.

Miss Regina Sargeant of Campbellton was the guest of Miss Mary Devoreux last week.

Mrs. Simon Foley is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Brian Foley.

BALMORAL.
A largely attended and most enthusiastic Liberal meeting was held in Balmoral on Wednesday evening the 21st inst. The hall was crowded to the doors, a considerable number of strangers being present. The feminine sex was well represented not only the ladies taking an active part in the approaching election, but a large number of their less fortunate sisters having come to hear the speakers.

Now that the press has been bought throughout Canada, we can no more depend on it. The indignant people will hear the truth only from well informed men, men who have followed the government closely, and who come before the electors to instruct them. But we still remember the attitude of the Liberal press, what it taught us, what it criticized and what it approved before it turned traitor.

It takes more than twenty-four hours for true men to forget and we rely upon what former supporters of the Liberal party have revealed us. Sir Wilfrid Laurier is the man of the day, the Frontenac who is called back to save the country, not from the inroads of the Indians but from the ravages of a government made up of the worst elements of both parties.

The meeting opened with Mr. James Drapeau in the chair. Mr. A. T. LeBlanc, M. P. E., just came in, as he has a long drive back to Campbellton was the first speaker. Everyone who has heard our distinguished speaker knows that he has not yet been rivaled in the province. He is master of the English language as well as his own. Our worthy member began his lengthy and most interesting speech by thanking the electors for having chosen him as their local representative of meeting them since the 24th of February. He then expressed his admiration for the unbounded loyalty they had so splendidly shown at the last local election and hoped that corruptors would always be treated as worthily as the two specimens of the 24th of February last.

Mr. LeBlanc then forcibly and impressively exposed to the electors the ruined condition of the country and supported his statement by setting forth facts of the enormous profits on food production and manufacturing goods. The profiteers are either members of parliament or supporters of it, hence Borden's avoiding any amendment. Yet to-day we must forget everything, be peaceful, united and submissive, yes, forget everything but Mr. Borden and his progressive government. War is the only important question, the country will be attended to after the war (if there is such a thing as a country left). We'll let the government continue to pocket the country's money, to accumulate millions and oppress the poor, to neglect the industries and take men from the farm and manufacture.

"An election is necessary during these troubled times," continued the speaker "it gives the people an opportunity to manifest its opinion. The millions of Flavell and others will be lashed throughout Canada to bribe the electors. But I trust you will show the world that, if the press has turned against us so as to conceal the government's infamous action, if some of Sir Wilfrid Laurier's supporters have turned traitors and have joined the party of conspirators to sell the very souls of our dear country on pretence of being patriots, the people cannot be influenced to sell the country's best manhood for an accursed dollar (prolonged applause)."

There has been one, nineteen centuries ago, who sold flesh and blood for a few pieces of silver, and twenty-four hours afterwards remorse and despair led him to suicide. Such is the end of the traitor.

Borden and his gang have been suddenly inspired with patriotism. It took them three years to realize that England was at war. If a union government is the best thing in the world and the only government that can successfully bring the war to an end, why was it not formed before? Ah! there was no need of it when an election out of the question, but Borden tried it as his last and only hope to remain in power and finish his infamous task. Seeing how unpopular the Prime Minister was in Canada, some loyal friend suggested him to bring conscription and let the soldiers and their female parents vote. These would surely be for the government. (How bitterly disappointed the "popular Borden" will be, should a voice.)

"England does not ask for conscription in Canada. The soldiers overseas do not demand a bleeding of their country knowing, by experience, that such a reckless step would bring nothing but ruin and would have no considerable military result. How absurd for any one to try and convince one's self that without 100,000 men from Canada, France will be vanquished, Belgium annihilated, England overpowered. In that case, had conscription existed in Canada at the breaking of the war, the world would now enjoy perfect peace."

Very amusing this policy. You all remember the old name horses and the Ross rifle? It would be much wiser for the government to send less soldiers overseas, and equip them better so that they may not be exposed to the sneers of the other Allies as were the heroes of the First Contingent.

Those who went voluntarily are all heroes and they deserve the world's admiration. The voluntary system would undoubtedly have had a splendid success had it been given a last and fair trial. If recruiting in Quebec was not up to the standard Borden may say "Mes Culps." The Conservatives are reaping what they have sown in the campaign of 1911 when Nationalist Candidates of the Borden government spoke so strongly against Laurier's proposal of mobilizing a navy and drew such a dark picture of the mariners fate. The impression made upon the Quebec people is not yet defaced. Reciprocity was also condemned, yet Borden had to beg the Americans for their wheat since their scarcity of it in Canada.

Mr. LeBlanc terminated by saying he hoped there was not one conservative in the audience.

Mr. John Harquail was the next speaker. He emphasized what Mr. LeBlanc had said and hoped the electors of Balmoral would live up to their principles.

Then came our Candidate Mr. Pius Michaud. He was loudly cheered. This is not an ordinary election," he said, "not a matter of petty disputes and calling down of one another's dishonesty, but it is a matter of life or death. I am a straight Liberal and I approve my old chief's programme through and through. The country is facing the most dreadful crisis in its history, it is on the verge of total ruin. Laurier is the man of the day. That grand, noble figure can yet save Canada from the perilous abyss over which it hangs. When the Military Service Act, against which we fought for three months, was passed, we sadly murmured to one another, 'How extremely pitiful! The country is ruined!'

No man in Canada to-day can put his hand on his conscience and vote for Borden. You will be a traitor to yourself and to your fellow citizen. The electors conscience is his best dictator. Be wary of corruptors. I have been representing Madawaska for ten years and have always been elected with a large majority. This proves that my people were satisfied with me. If the 17th December you cast your vote in my favor, I shall do my utmost to give Restigouche as much satisfaction as my County people. (Applause as he terminated).

WANT PHOTOGRAPHS OF ALL CANADIANS IN GREAT WAR

The Office in charge of Canadian War Records has asked us to make known that it is desired to compile a complete history in photographs of the Canadian share in the War, in the same way that all other belligerent countries are compiling similar records.

It is particularly desired to obtain photographs of Officers, N. G. O's, and men who have served or are now serving in the Overseas Military Forces of Canada, and it is requested that an appeal should be made to this end through these columns.

All Officers and other Banks serving overseas, find it difficult to send in their photographs and their relatives are therefore appealed to, to send in their photographs for them.

By preference the photographs should be unmounted and printed on bromide paper in order to ensure permanence. Each photograph should be accompanied by a concise record not exceeding two or three hundred words of the subject's military career, including date of enlistment, promotion distinctions and so on, as this will greatly assist in obtaining a full and accurate record of all concerned.

In addition it is desired to collect all photographs dealing with mobilization, Training and Departure of Troops together with pictures illustrating Reviews, Sports, Presentations etc. Any photograph of this nature is regarded as a document of historical importance, and it is hoped that the possessors of all such photographs will deem it their duty to send either the original or copies, which will ultimately be placed in the permanent Public Archives of the Dominion.

All photographs, which will be acknowledged, should be addressed to the Office in Charge of Canadian War Records, 14 Clifford St. Bond St. London, W. I. England.

A Man Who Snores

Most of the trouble in apartment houses is caused by phonographs, pianos and sopranos. But in one Kansas City flat building an ordinary phonograph becomes almost an opiate in comparison with a fat man who snores. He starts usually about midnight, and by 12.30 has awakened the baby in the next apartment. The baby in turn awakens the fat man, who arouses the women in the neighborhood with his shocking language. The women then improve the rest of the small hours telling their husbands what they would do if they were men, and a man swore like that in the hearing of their wives.—Kansas City Star.

O. Henry Stories III.—The Enchanted Profile

By O. HENRY

HERE are few calligraphers. Women are Schemerzades by birth, prodigious in the strict and arrangement of the vocal chords. The thousand and one stories are being told every day by hundreds of thousands of visitors' daughters to their respective sultans. But the bowstring will get some of 'em yet if they don't watch out.

I heard a story, though, of one lady Ralph. It isn't precisely an "Arabian Nights" story, because it brings in Cinderella, who furnished her dress in another epoch and country. So if you don't mind the mixed dates (which seem to give it an eastern flavor, after all) we'll get along.

In New York there is an old, old hotel. You have seen wood cuts of it in the magazines. It was built—let's see—at a time when there was nothing above Fourteenth street except the old India trail to Boston and Hamster's office. Soon the old hotel-ry will be torn down. And as the stout walls are riven apart and the bricks go roaring down the chutes crowds of citizens will gather at the nearest corners and weep over the destruction of a dear old landmark. Civic pride is strong in New England, and the wettest weeper and the loudest howler against the iconoclasts will be the man originally from Terre Haute whose fond memories of the old hotel are limited to his having been kicked out of its free lunch counter in 1873.

At this hotel always stopped Mrs. Maggie Brown. Mrs. Brown was a woman of sixty, dressed in the rustiest black, and carrying a handbag made, apparently, from the hide of the original animal that Adam decided to call an alligator. She always occupied a small parlor and bedroom at the top of the hotel at a rental of $2 per day. And always, while she was there, each day came hurrying to see her many men, sharp faced, anxious looking, with only seconds to spare. For Maggie Brown was said to be the third richest woman in the world, and these solicited gentlemen were only the city's wealthiest brokers and business men seeking trunks of cash.

She was equal to a full century in any correspondence school in the country. She sometimes did a little typewriting for me, and as she refused to take the money in advance, she came to look upon me as something of a friend and protégé. She had unfeigned kindness and good nature, and not even a white lead demon or a ferocious bulldog ever dared to cross the dead line of good behavior in her presence. The entire floor of the Acropolis, from the corner, who lived in Yonkers, down to the hand porter, who had been bedridden for sixteen years, would have sprung to her defense in a moment.

One day I walked past Mrs. Brown's little museum Rembrandtism and saw in her place a black haired unit—unnecessarily a person—pounding with each of her forefingers upon the keys. Musing on the authenticity of temperance affairs, I passed on. The next day I went on a two weeks' vacation. Returning, I stole through the lobby of the Acropolis, and saw, with a little warm glow of soul long since, Mrs. Brown, as Greek and kind and few less as ever, just putting the cover at her machine. The hour for closing had come, but she asked me in to sit for a few minutes in the dictatorial chair. Mrs. Brown explained her absence from her return to the Acropolis hotel in words identical with or similar to those following:

"Well, man, how are the stories coming?" "Pretty regularly," said I. "About equal to their going." "I'm sorry," said she. "Good type writing is the main thing in a story. You've missed me, haven't you?" "No one," said I. "Whom I have ever known knows as well as you do how to space properly belt buckles, semi-colons, hotel guests and hairpins. But you've been away, too. I saw a pack of peppermint pop in your place the other day."

"I was going to tell you about it," said Mrs. Brown. "If you hadn't interrupted me."

"Of course, you know about Maggie Brown, who stops here. Well, she's worth $40,000,000. She lives in Jersey in a $10 flat. She's always got more cash on hand than half a dozen bus-ness candidates for vice president. I don't know whether she carries it in her stocking or not, but I know she's mighty popular down in the part of the town where they worship the golden calf.

"Well, about two weeks ago Mrs. Brown stops at the door and rubbers at me for ten minutes. I'm sitting with my side to her, striking off some manuscript copies of a copper mine proposition for a nice old man from Toopah. But I always see everything all around me. When I'm hard at work I can see things through my side comb, and I can leave one button unbuttoned in the back of my shirt waist and see who's behind me. I didn't look around, because I make from $15 to $20 a week, and I didn't have to."

"That evening at knocking off time she sends for me to come up to her apartment. I expected to have to type write about 2,000 words of notes of hand, lens and contracts with a 10 cent tip in sight, but I went. Well, man, I was certainly surprised. Old Maggie Brown had turned human."

"Child," says she, "you're the most beautiful creature I ever saw in my life. I want you to quit your work."

"Well, she's worth $40,000,000," and come and live with me. I've no kith or kin," says she, "except a husband and a son or two, and I hold no communication with any of 'em. They are extravagant burdens on a hard working woman. I want you to be a daughter to me. They say I'm stingy and mean and the papers print the handkerchiefs and stockings and petticoats and collars and light stuff like that. I've got $40,000,000 in cash and stocks and bonds that are as negotiable as Standard Oil preferred at a Chicago rate. I'm a lonely old woman, and I need companionship. You're the most beautiful human being I ever saw," says she. "Will you come and live with me? I'll show 'em whether I can spend money or not," she says.

"Well, man, what would you have done? Of course I'd have said 'no' to the truth, I began to like old Maggie. It wasn't all on account of the forty millions and what she could do for me. I was kind of homesick in the world too. Everybody's got to have somebody they can explain to about the pain in their left shoulder and how fast patent leather shoes wear out when they begin to crack. And you can't talk about such things to men you meet in hotels; they're looking for just such openings."

"So I gave up my job in the hotel and went with Mrs. Brown. I certainly seemed to have a mash on her. She'd look at me for half an hour at a time when I was sitting, reading or looking at the magazines."

"One time I says to her: 'Do I remind you of some dead relative or friend of your childhood, Mrs. Brown?' I've noticed you give me a pretty good optical illusion from time to time."

"You have a face," she says, "exactly like a dear friend of mine—the best friend I ever had. But I like you for yourself, child, too," she says.

"And say, man, what do you suppose she did? Looked up like a Marcel wave in the surf at Coney. She took me to a swell dressmaker and gave her a carte to fit me out—money no object. They were rush orders, and madam locked the front door and put the whole force to work."

"When we moved to—where do you think? No, guess again. That's right—the Hotel Bonten. We had a six room apartment, and it cost $100 a day. I saw the bill. I began to love that old lady."

"And then, man, when my dresses began to come in—oh, I won't tell you about 'em! You couldn't understand. And I began to call her Aunt Maggie. You've read about Cinderella, of course. Well, what Cinderella said when the prince fitted that $3 A on her foot was a hard luck story compared to the things I told myself."

"Then Aunt Maggie says she is going to give me a coming out banquet in the Bonten that'll make moving vans of all the old Dutch families on Fifth Avenue."

"Well, I wish you could have been at that banquet. The dinner service was all gold and cut glass. There were about forty men and eight ladies present besides Aunt Maggie and I. You'd never have known the third richest woman in the world. She had on a new black silk dress with so much passementerie on it that it sounded exactly like a hailstorm I heard once when I was staying all night with a girl that lived in a top floor studio."

"And my dress! Say, man, I can't waste the words on you. It was all hand made lace—where there was any of it at all—and it cost $300. I saw the bill. The men were all baldheaded or white sided, and they kept up a running fire of light remarks about 3 per cents and Bryan and the cotton crop."

"On the left of me was something that talked like a banker, and on my right was a young fellow who said he was a newspaper artist. He was the only—well, I was going to tell you."

"After the dinner was over Mrs. Brown and I went up to the apartment. We had to squeeze our way through a mob of reporters all the way through the halls. That's one of the things money does for you. Say, do you happen to know a newspaper artist named Lathrop—a tall man with nice eyes and an easy way of talking? No, I don't remember what paper he works on. Well, all right."

"When we got upstairs Mrs. Brown telephoned for the maid. I guess it came, and it was said. I saw the bill. Aunt Maggie faints. I got her on a lounge and opened the backwork."

"Child," says she when she got back to the world, "what was it—a case of rent or an income tax?"

"Just a little dinner," says I. "Nothing to worry about—hardly a drop in the bucket. Sit up and take notice—a dispossess notice. If there's no other kind."

"But say, man, do you know what Aunt Maggie did? She got cold feet! She hustled me out of that Hotel Bonten at 9 the next morning. We went to a rooming house on the lower west side. She rented one room that had water on the floor below and light on the floor above. After we got moved all you could see in the room was about $1500 worth of new swell dresses and a one burner gas stove."

"Aunt Maggie had had a sudden attack of the hedges. I guess everybody has got to go on a spree once in their life. A man spends his on highballs, and a woman gets woozy on clothes. But with $40,000,000—say, I'd like to have a picture of—but, speaking of pictures, did you ever run across a newspaper artist named Lathrop, tall, I asked you that before, didn't I? He was mighty nice to me at the dinner. His voice just suited me. I guess he must have thought I was to inherit some of Aunt Maggie's money."

"Well, Mr. Man, three days of that tight housekeeping was plenty for me. Aunt Maggie was affectionate as ever. She'd hardly let me get out of her sight. But let me tell you, she was a helmer from Hedgesville, Hedger county. Seventy-five cents a day was her limit. She'd cooked our own meals in the room. There was with

"I am no worshiper of money," says I.

"A thousand dollars' worth of the latest things in clothes doing stunts over a one burner gas stove."

"As I say, on the third day I flew the coop. I couldn't stand for throwing together a fifteen cent kidney stew while wearing at the same time a $150 house dress with Valenciennes lace insertion. So I goes into the closet and puts on the cheapest dress Mrs. Brown had bought for me. It's the one I've got on now. Not so bad for $75, is it? I'd left all my clothes in my sister's flat in Brooklyn."

"Mrs. Brown, formerly 'Aunt Maggie,' says I to her. 'I am going to extend my feet alternately, one after the other, in such manner and direction that this tenement will recede from me in the quickest possible time. I am no worshiper of money,' says I, 'but there are some things I can't stand. I can stand the fabulous monster that I've read about that blows hot birds and cold bottles with the same breath, but I can't stand a cutter,' says I. 'They say you've got $40,000,000—well, you'll never have any less. And I was beginning to like you, too,' says I."

"Well, the late Aunt Maggie kicks till the tears flow. She offers to move into a swell room with a two burner stove and running water.

"I've spent an awful lot of money," child," says she. "We'll have to economize for a while. You're the most beautiful creature I ever laid eyes on," she says, "and I don't want you to leave me."

"Well, you see me, don't you? I walked straight to the Acropolis and asked for my job back and I got it. How did you say your writings were getting along? I know you've lost out some by not having me to type write 'em. Do you ever have 'em illustrated? And, by the way, did you ever happen to know a newspaper artist—oh, shut up! I know I asked you before. It's funny, but I couldn't help thinking that he wasn't thinking about the money he might have been thinking I was thinking I'd get from old Maggie Brown. If I only knew some of the newspaper editors I'd."

The sound of an easy footstep came from the doorway. Ida Bates saw who it was with her back hair comb. I saw her turn pink, perfect statue that she was—a miracle that I share with Pygmalion only.

"Am I excusable?" she said to me—adorable petitioner that she became. "It's—Mr. Lathrop. I wonder if it really wasn't the money—I wonder, if after all, he—"

"Of course, I was invited to the wedding. After the ceremony I dragged Lathrop aside."

"You an artist," said I, "and haven't figured out why Maggie Brown conceived that was? Strong liking for Miss Bates—that was? Let me show you."

The bride wore a simple white dress as beautifully draped as the costumes of the ancient Greeks. I took some leaves from one of the decorative wreaths in the little parlor and made a chaplet of them and placed them on nee Bates' shining chestnut hair and made her turn her profile to her husband.

"By jingo!" said he. "Isn't Ida's a dead ringer for the lady's head on the silver dollar?"

Mother (in passing Show-Joan, dear, have you been doing anything to this ink?

Joan—Yes Mummy, I put some water to it to make it write weak—I've been writing a letter to daddy—and I wanted to whisper something to him!

It is not the highly gifted man but the steady, persistent, plodder that often wins.

A WONDERFUL NEWSPAPER
The Family Herald and Weekly Star, of Montreal, is the most unique paper and very popular in every home in Canada. It is surprising what great value to the reader is contained in every issue. Few homes are without it, and they are the losers in not having it. The subscription price is $1.25 a year, and includes a colored war map of the fighting area in Europe. It is a splendid map and of great assistance to understand the war. We understand the map offer is shortly to be withdrawn. The year's subscription and war map are certainly big value at $1.25.

BOTH FIGHT AND PAY.
(Christian Science Monitor.)
Some knowledge of the quality and temper of the men composing the expeditionary force under General Pershing may be obtained from the fact that they subscribed $5,812,600 to the second Liberal Loan. This is simply another proof of their willingness to stake everything they possess on the cause in which they are enlisted.

Union government may sound good but how is the Gleaner and the Standard and some others going to swallow, "F. B. Carvell, Minister of Public Works in Premier Borden's Cabinet."

All Canadians are in favor of "winning the war," and politicians who make use of terms referring to the clergy, nationalities or creeds for political gain, should be classed as un-British, unpatriotic and they should be severely dealt with by the government.

ELECTION CARD.

To The Electors Of The Electoral District of Restigouche and Madawaska

Ladies and Gentlemen:—
On December 16th 1915, at a convention held at Saint Leonards, I had the honor of receiving the nomination as a liberal candidate for the united counties of Restigouche—Madawaska. On the occasion I laid before you my political platform and it received your unanimous approval. Since, owing to certain circumstances, the political life of our country has been somewhat changed and the party lines have been altered. I think that it is my duty to give some explanation in regard to the stand which I take on political issues now before the country.

1. I approve of and support the political platform of Sir Wilfrid Laurier as laid down in his Manifesto to the people of Canada.

My views in regard to conscription are well known to you. I voted in the House of Commons against the conscription Bill of Sir Robert Borden and supported the resolution of Sir Wilfrid Laurier asking that the question should be decided by the people by a Referendum before it should be put into force. To-day, I maintain the same attitude which I took in Parliament, and if I am elected as your representative, I hereby undertake to vote in Parliament for a Referendum to the people of Canada on the important question of conscription.

2. I do not approve of Union Government as presently constituted as I believe that this Union has not been brought about with a view of uniting Canada, but I believe it is a Union of big interests against the laboring classes. The main object of this Union is to cover the tracks of the misdeeds and scandals of the late Tory Government since its formation on the 21st day of September 1911. You are well aware that during the last three years, the Borden Government has most obviously misadministered the public funds of the country, has burdened the poor under heavy taxes and has favored solely the Big Interests while our soldiers were offering their lives on the battle field and enduring hardships for the defence of liberty, justice and freedom. Unfortunately, the political Manifesto of Union Government does not offer any remedy for such abuses. I promise, if I am elected to support all measures tending to better the conditions in which our gallant soldiers now live, and also to establish the finances of the country on a solid basis and remove the same from the hands of a few political friends of the present Government.

3. You are all well aware that since the idea of a punk patriot, a man who runs a few thousand dollar automobile and then gives fifty cents to the Red Cross Fund.

16. When a man's business runs down the shore, come along and watch.

is due largely to the fact that the Cabinet was made up of millionaires who were more attentive to their own business than to that of the country. The C. N. R. deal is a flagrant outrage to the people, and if I am elected I hereby promise to support any measure that would help the country out of this entanglement.

5. Union Government has not the support of the people of the country and to avoid defeat they are endeavoring to prevent the people from expressing their disapproval at the next election by imposing candidates of their choice in the different constituencies of the country. The War Time Election Act is a most outrageous piece of legislation and the like cannot be found on the Statutes Book of the wicked Germans. Hundreds, thousands of our women have been deprived of the right to say who is going to govern this country, while the franchise was granted to thousands of people who had never set a foot on the soil of our beloved Canada. The principles of constitutional Government have been forgotten and the pages of our constitution have been torn to pieces in order to prevent the people from expressing its voice. Sir Wilfrid Laurier, the greatest Canadian Statesman, had always respected the voice of the people and in power as in opposition, he has always stood for the principles of Government of the People, for the people and by the people, and to-day he stands for the same principles, and asks you to endorse him. I offer myself as a candidate to the electors of the united counties of Restigouche and Madawaska standing on the platform above outlined, and I am confident that I will receive the support of all who stand for justice, union and freedom.
