PROBABLY DROWNED.

Port Rowan, October 4.—Two boys, Clarence Rockafellow and Arthur Banting, went out in a small clinker during a heavy gale on Wednesday morning to shoot ducks, and have not been seen since. Their boat was found filled with water, about two miles out from the shore, anchored, with a vest and pair of shoes in it. On Thursday a party spent all day dragging the bay, a pair of pants, a pair of shoes and a gun were brought up from the bottom of the bay near where the boat was found. The boys ages respectively were sixteen and fourteen.

COLUMBIA CAPTURES CUP SHAMROCK LEADS OVER LINE

British Challenger Finished First in Final Race, But Yankee Boat Wins Upon Time Allowance—Sir Thomas Lipton Takes Defeat Gamely.

New York, October 4.—With victory flags flying from her towering masts and the ensign of her spreaders in honor of her concluding triumph in the America's cup races of 1901, the gallant sloop Columbia returned to her anchorage to-night under the escort of the entire excursion fleet. She to-day completed her defense of the honored trophy in another stirring race with the Shamrock II. over a leeward and windward race of 30 miles, crossing the finish line two seconds behind her antagonist, but winning on the time allowance conceded by Lipton's boat, by 41 seconds. For the second time she has now successfully foiled the attempt of the Irish knight to wrest from her possession the cup emblematic of the yachting supremacy of the world. And plucky Sir Thomas Lipton standing on the bridge of the Erin, led his guests in three hearty hurrahs for the successful defender. "She is the better boat," he said, "and she deserves to be cheered."

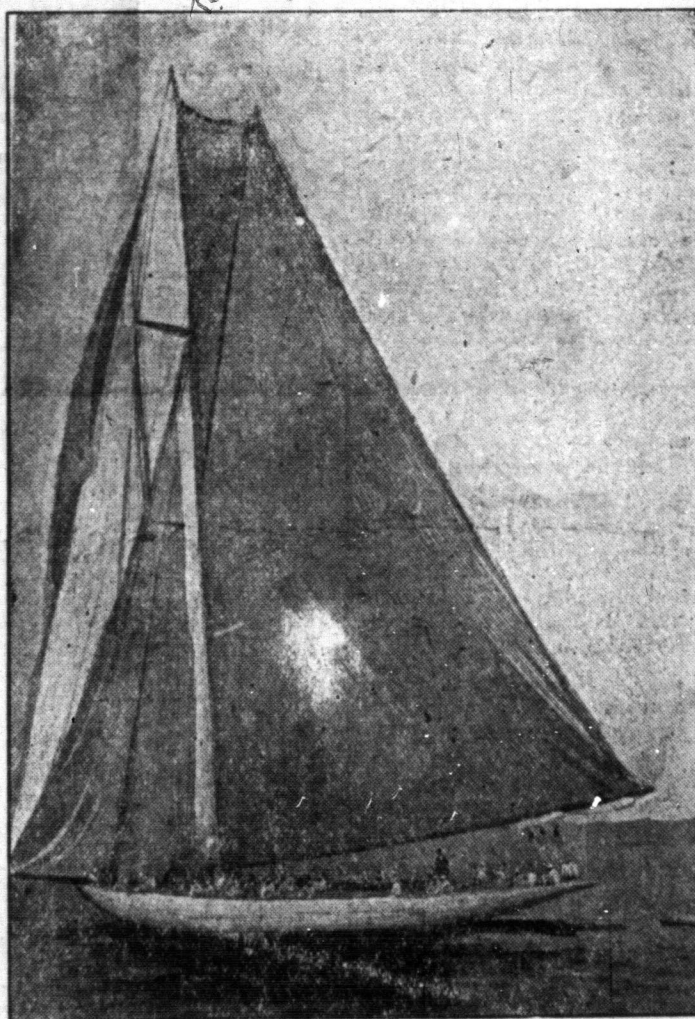

The series of races just closed will always be memorable as the closest the wind last Saturday, the challenger to-day gained slowly but steadily all the way out, and rounded forty-nine seconds before the defender, having actually gained one minute and four seconds. Immediately after the yacht turned their noses into the wind for the best home breeze moderated and turned fluky. The skippers split tactics, each searching for wind, with the result that first one would get a lift and then the other. At one time Columbia seemed a mile ahead when, with a sudden cant of the wind, allowed the Shamrock to point nearer the mark, and a mile from home the challenger appeared to be leading by fully half a mile. The talent began to feel nervous, but as the yacht approached the finish the Yankee skipper, by some marvellous legwork, shoved his boat into the light air like a phantom ship, and 100 yards from home the two racers were almost on even terms.

It was a pretty sight and one seldom witnessed when they crossed rail to rail, the white yacht's bowsprit just leaping the golden ball's mast.

PANDEMONIUM BROKE LOOSE AT THE FINISH.

The usual pandemonium that attends the final Yankee victory in a cup contest followed. Whistles, sirens, bells, bands and cheers united in a ever sailed for the cup and Sir Thomas, although defeated, will go home with the satisfaction of knowing that his golden yacht is the ablest foreign boat that ever crossed the western ocean. During both series of races not an untoward incident has occurred and Sir Thomas will return to England by far the most popular of foreigners who have challenged for the America's trophy.

To-day's race, on paper, was the closest of the series, but because of the flukiness of the wind on the boat home as a contest of the relative merits of the yachts it is not to be compared with the magnificent, truly-run and royally-fought battles of Saturday and yesterday. The conditions of the race at the start to-day were very similar to those of yesterday. The wind was strong and from the shore, embroiling the sea with foam and piling up no well-ideal conditions for the challenger.

The racers were sent away before the wind, each carrying a penalty for crossing the line after the handicap gun.

The contest of the yachts fleeing before the following wind was picturesque, but not exciting. The big racers, like gulls, with outstretched pinions, had every inch of canvas spread, all their light sails, including bulging spinnakers and balloon jib topsails. Their crews were gathered aft to keep the heads of the boats up, and thereafter until the outer mark was reached it was merely a question of holding on to all the canvas and letting the wind do the rest.

CHALLENGER AHEAD AT OUTER MARK.

Notwithstanding the fact that the Columbia beat the Shamrock before liked to have won one race." Hardly had the Erin's anchors touched bottom when a launch from the yacht Corsair came along side bearing the regatta committee of the N. Y. Y. C. Sir Thomas met them at the head of the gangway and as he shook hands with them individually, he said: "Gentlemen, it was a fair boat. I want to say again that you have treated me with the utmost fairness and courtesy. You have met every wish of mine, and from my heart I thank you."

Commodore Lewis Cass Ledyard, chairman of the N. Y. Y. C. regatta committee, replied: "Sir Thomas, we have never had a truer sportsman to deal with."

Many of Sir Thomas' guests on board the Erin crowded around to express their sympathy at his defeat and assured him of the high place he had won in the hearts of all Americans. "When a man wins a heart he has won more than a cup," said one of them. There were tears in the Irish knight's eyes when he thanked them for their kind words. Said he: "The words you have spoken touch me far more than my defeat to-day. I tried to win the cup, and I have done my best. But better than all that I have the good wishes of this country."

NOT DECIDED ABOUT FUTURE PLANS.

When asked about his plans for the future Sir Thomas said: "I am not decided yet what I shall do, and as to challenging again it is too soon to think about it."

E. D. Morgan, the manager of the Columbia, said: "I am very happy that we won and glad the strain is over. We certainly had to make a splendid fight for it. We had a splendid captain and a splendid crew."

The Columbia's mainsail was unbuttoned before she came to anchor and soon after dark she was towed to City Island. Before leaving Capt. Barr said: "We did the best we could, and they did the best they could, and we came out first. That's all." At the New York Yacht club to-night Chairman Kane and Secretary Oddie were closely questioned by members regarding the sensational finish. Mr. Kane said he had great difficulty in timing the yacht, but was fortunate in sighting the mast in proper range.

The range was from a small white flag on the committee tug, and the mainmast of the Sandy Hook Lightship, Chester Griswold, of the regatta committee, held the watch that timed the yacht.

FEELING OF DISAPPOINTMENT IN LONDON.

London, October 5.—There is a feeling of extreme disappointment in London over the failure of the Shamrock II. to win even a single race. Those who denounced Sir Thomas Lipton's ambition, asserting that he was using his yacht to advance his business interests, now realize that his sportsmanlike efforts deserved a better result.

When it was announced that Shamrock II. was leading, many of the result was received in silence by the crowds on the embankment. There never was much betting on the outcome in this country but the disappointment of the masses is undoubtedly great and sincere.

The question is much debated here as to whether the defeat of the challenger was due to the superiority of American seamanship or the better constructive ability of the Americans. With a view of settling the question the Daily Express has cabled Commodore Morgan and Sir Thomas Lipton suggesting that they should arrange a race with the Columbia's crew on board the Shamrock II. and the crew of the challenger on board the defender.

A CROSSING ACCIDENT.

Windsor, Ont., Oct. 4.—Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wigle, of Maidstone township, drove their horse in front of an east-bound train last evening, about 8.30. The buggy was smashed into fragments, and the harness torn into shreds. The horse escaped without injury. The occupants were carried into a doctor's residence, where their wounds were dressed. Mrs. Wigle was severely cut about the head and body, her scalp being cut in several places. One rib was also broken. Mr. Wigle escaped with a few bruises.

AN AGE OF PROGRESS.

Every young woman endowed with unusually good vocal powers and therefore qualified to sing in a church choir is not endowed with that sufficiency of wealth to make equal display with the more fortunate, if you consider it so, sister in the matter of stylish clothes and millinery. The young person with a good voice, but wanting in the latest fashioned hats and gowns hesitates to sit in a choir alone: in full view of a congregation too prone to be critical in such worldly matters. Even if it were otherwise, and all the members of the choir able to appear regularly in the pink of fashion, the bewildering array of hats, bonnets, and "stunning" gowns affected by the members of the average choir is wont to distract from the attention that should be paid to the utterance of the hymns, at least it is so alleged, the authorities in a Toronto church decided to robe the members of the choir in black gowns, thus doing away with the distinction in dress and all cause for distraction after the first appearance had worn off. The black robe choir made its first public appearance on Sunday, and was voted a success. We read that "The male members were attired in black college gowns, with large white ties, and the ladies wore gowns with a touch of white at the neck, and large black velvet bows, in the place of caps, as used in some Episcopal churches. The bow, besides being much more hygienic, is also more becoming than the mortar board."

We further read that "Besides relieving the choir of the distractions of expensive dresses and hats, the change is an improvement in that it fits in with the color scheme of the building, giving a quiet religious tone to the front of the church. All of which goes to prove that we live in an age of progress and aesthetic development in which the 'color scheme' for church interior decoration must in future include the gowns to be worn by the members of the choir. We soon may hope to read that the occupant of the pulpit will find it necessary to exchange the time honored black for a shade that harmonizes with the color scheme of the building in which he officiates. — Ridgeway Dominion.

KING CROKER.

Dr. Seth Low, in accepting the nomination for mayor of New York, in the effort now being made to overthrow the abominable rule of Tammany, said he would strive to wrest the control of the city from those who permit one man to govern it from his English home, like a second George III., and to make millions for himself and his friends out of it, as though the city of New York were his private gold mine. New York has never had a more cultured and high-minded candidate for power than Dr. Low, but we suppose in democratic institutions men must stoop to conquer, and even university presidents must, on the stump, talk at captandums vulgus. Poor old, silly, pious, mulish, gentlemanly King George has suffered much and long in popular estimation among our neighbors as an irresponsible tyrant, who sought to tax and otherwise play the despot over the people of the thirteen colonies. But never in his wildest dreams of tyrannical exploitation, supposing "Farmer George" ever indulged in such fantasies, did he imagine he could establish a power so absolute, so irresponsible and so thoroughly despotic as that now enjoyed by Richard Croker in the first city in America. Nor could the men who led in the rebellion against the republican liberties they sought to establish on an enduring basis in the course of a century and a quarter degenerate into a system of organized scoundrelism such as English monarchy never had occasion to devise, controlled by men as lacking public virtue as they are devoted to the personal accumulation of riches by means too foul for republican institutions. The fact that republican institutions have so degenerated into a system of organized scoundrelism, however, proves, however, that institutions must be too good for the people called upon to administer them, and like all good things when perverted, may become doubly evil. The spectacle of one of the greatest, wealthiest, most intelligent cities in the world governed and plundered by a gang of vulgar ruffians is supremely sad. Why the better elements in the population permit the worse so to rule them is a question not hard to answer, but one that can only be solved by heroic self-sacrificing Christianity. It amounts to this, whether a majority can be found willing to spend and labor for the public good as freely and energetically and persistently as those who wield the present majority do for the lining of their own pockets. To-day Tammany sits calmly enthroned upon its dunghill, defiant of everything. The best element is going to do its best to overthrow it. What a triumph for Tammany would mean at this juncture cannot be expressed in words.

A LITTLE POLITICS.

Under the above caption the Ridgeway Dominion comments: West Kent Liberals are evidently in no great hurry to renominate Mr. Pardo. The executive met at Chatham on Saturday and decided that there was no urgency. They give out that there is to be another session, and they will meet in December and decide date of convention. In East Kent, also, the Liberals are making no move toward calling a convention.

The impression prevails in Kent Liberal circles that the Government will hold another session and pass a gerrymander bill, one of the features of which may be the transferring of Chatham township, including Wallaceburg, from West Kent to East Kent, in exchange for Harwich and Blenheim. The object of the change, which is advocated by a little group of Chatham wire-pullers, is to make a seat in the Legislature for Mr. Gordon, of Wallaceburg, the defeated of Bothwell, who will endeavor to secure the nomination in East Kent. It is also contended by them that Mr. Pardo's chance of victory under present conditions is not very bright, and that his local influence in Blenheim and Harwich must be brought directly to his aid for him to hold West Kent.

SYCAMORE VS. BARR.

This, from the Buffalo Express, shows how the Americans look at it: As usual at the start the skipper of the Columbia succeeded in out-jockeying Capt. Sycamore and won the windward position with a good lead through the error of the Shamrock II's skipper in getting over the line before the starting signal. It seems to be pretty well settled that Capt. Barr is somewhat more clever in maneuvering his craft quickly at the starting point than is Capt. Sycamore. There is considerable danger of fouling the rival in these tactics, but fortune lies with the brave, and each skipper will continue to take long chances in order to get the better of the other.

Emilius Jarvis, who was skipper of the Invader, which captured the Canada cup at Chicago this season, gave undisputed evidence that he is an expert at the jockeying business, comments the Hamilton Spectator. We don't think his superior exists. We saw Barr and Sycamore at it the other day, and his impression is not that Barr is more clever in maneuvering; but that Sycamore is more gentlemanly. Sycamore has been accustomed to the apes vices tactics of the aristocratic British yachtsmen, who rather lose a race than seem rude; while Barr has been long enough in the United States to press his advantage to the limit of the rules every time. Capt. Sycamore can perform any trick that Barr is equal to; but he has not been instructed to do so.

MEMORIAL ODE.

The Planet reproduces the following, written by Rev. J. M. McLaren, Presbyterian pastor at Blenheim, on the death of President McKinley, from the Blenheim News:—

Oh! God, by Thee, we know,
Kings reign on earth below,
By Thee they stand;
Deceasing justice here,
Free from all slavish fear,
Their country to uprear,
A noble land.

We cannot soon forget
Our neighbors' strong regret,
A Victoria's gone.
We learn with heartfelt grief,
That they have lost their chief,
Send thou, O Lord, relief
To all—and one—

That one, around whose soul
Grief's surges toss and roll,
His wife and queen.
The nation's sorrows will
In time be calm and still,
But this one heart will fill
While memory's green.

O Lord, how long! how long!
Will Folly's hand be strong!
Ruthlessly smite!
Through this and every land,
Pass on the great command,
Thy brother's keeper be,
In truth and right.

Oh, Love! 'Tis thou alone
Gives peace to every sorrow;
Sweet Charity!
Thou earnestest evil deed,
The hungry thou wouldst feed,
"Love God and man," thy creed;
We long for thee.

Heal this nation's wound,
In one may they be found,
Chastened by Thee.
Vengeance is thine, O Lord;
Ours to proclaim thy Word;
Justice, unseemly thy sword;
We bow the knee.

A THOROUGH SPORTSMAN.

New York Sun.
When the wind blows high or the wind blows low; when Columbia is in front or Shamrock is in front, St. Thomas Lipton is cheerful. This is one of the conclusive proofs that he is a true sportsman. He proved to be a good loser the last time. It is almost a pity that he isn't likely to have the chance to show that he is a good winner.

You should not always judge a dentist by the first impression.

OTTAWA MAN WHO WRITES THIS TIME

Grants Full Permission to Use his Name in Behalf of Dodd's Kidney Pills

Was in the Clutch of Bright's Disease—Suffered all the Symptoms of this Fearful Malady.—But He took Dodd's Kidney Pills in Time.

Ottawa, Oct. 4, (Special).—A fortunate young man is Frank Chartrand, of this city, for by the merest chance he was saved from that modern curse so dreaded by doctors, Bright's Disease—the incurable malady of the kidneys. The story of Mr. Chartrand's escape from this dreadful disease is best told in his own words:—

"I had been greatly troubled by my kidneys for two years, since having a dose of the grip. I suffered with backache, and I always felt drowsy and very heavy in the limbs, with frequent severe headaches, and often felt severe pains in the top of my head which prevented me from doing my work as I would like to do it. Often my fingers and legs would cramp and occasionally I felt pains in the loins and a very heavy dizzy feeling with shortness of breath and pain in the left side. Sometimes I would eat very good meals and other times I would take a biscuit, and a cup of tea and that would finish my meal. I had tender spots over the back of the spine and felt very tired in the region of the kidneys, with a dragging, heavy feeling across the loins, in short there was no doubt I was suffering from Bright's Disease."

"I kept taking the medicines the doctors gave me all this time, but they did me no good. A few weeks ago I happened to tell a friend that I had given up hope."

"Why don't you try Dodd's Kidney Pills?" he said.

"I went directly to the drug store and got three boxes, which I have used and which have so much improved my health that without hesitation I say I am sure it is but a matter of a short time till I become completely and permanently cured."

The government has sent an entire regiment in pursuit of the brigands.

THE LOCAL BUDGET

W. F. Robertson, of Stewart, was in the city to-day.

Mr. Esler has returned from Ridgeway.

Frank Stone, of Highgate, was a Chatham visitor to-day.

Walter Moore, of Detroit, spent yesterday with friends and relatives in the city.

The concrete work on the new residence of Peter Emmett, of Ennet, has been commenced.

Mrs. V. Tremblay, Emma street, who has been quite ill, is not much improved to-day.

Mrs. John Stover, King street east, returned yesterday from a week's vacation with friends in Detroit.

Mrs. M. Woodcock has gone to visit the Pan-American, and Quebec and other eastern points for one month.

John Whitaker, of London, is in the city to-day finishing up the slating work on the Separate school.

Harry Fife, Sheldon avenue, who has been ill for some time with typhoid fever, is somewhat better to-day.

The schooner Ontario came into port this morning with a cargo of lumber for the S. Hadley Lumber Co.

Miss Benn, of Wallaceburg, who had a surgical operation performed in St. Joseph's Hospital, left for her home to-day.

Miss Nellie Young, of the McKeough school teaching staff, is spending Sunday with her uncle, James Bennie, of Dover.

John Fleming, an employee of the Banner-News, left to-day at noon for Boston, where he has secured a more lucrative position.

The annual meeting of Macaulay Club will be held to-night, at 8 p.m., sharp, at the law offices of Wilson, Kerr & Pike. Election of officers and other important business.

The choir of St. Joseph's church will render special music at the evening service to-morrow. Father McBrady, professor of the Sandwich college, will give the annual lecture for the poor of the church. The services are under the auspices of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

The rates to the Pan-American exposition have taken a sudden drop, and W. E. Rispin now announces via Grand Trunk and Wabash Rys. return tickets to Buffalo, on Tuesdays, Thursdays and Saturdays, at $2.85 each, good to return six days from date. This liberal arrangement by the railways should induce a heavy travel to the exposition for the balance of the month.

To be seen in E. J. MacIntyre's window this evening will be three very handsomely engraved silver trowels, which will be presented to T. L. Pardo, M. P. P.; S. F. Gardiner, and Judge Houston, when the above gentlemen lay the corner stone of the Wesley Methodist church in Raleigh on Tuesday next. The trowels are to be presented to the above named gentlemen by the trustees of the church. The church will be a very fine one when completed.

More Glasses Are Worn.....

Now-a-days than ever before. No doubt of it. People used to think that the wearing of glasses should be put off as long as possible—it was an old age necessity only.

We know more now. We know more of the relief and cure known agency for the relief and cure of eye sickness—and there are methods in common use to-day which weren't heard of even ten years ago.

Now we commence to right eye-sight just as soon as it commences to go wrong. Now school children by the hundred wear glasses. And it's wise and proper.

DOWSLEY WORKS

Rapid Progress in Their Extension and Equipment in This City

The Dowsley Works is going along very rapidly. The machinery is beginning to arrive and indications point to a start in the factory by November. Louis Paul, now in charge of the Pontiac Spring and Axle works, will take charge of the Dowsley works as foreman.

The G. T. R. will begin at once to put the switch into the factory. Mr. Dowsley intends moving into the city in a few weeks. F. J. Dowsley will be superintendent of the factory. Experts will be employed to a great extent, thus bringing some more families into the city. Many local men will also be employed.

Some of the machinery is very heavy, one of the biggest weighing 30,000 lbs. The factory will be modern in every department, and will be lighted by the combination of arc and incandescent lights. The London Heating and Ventilating Co. have the contract for heating the building, which will be with steam.

WAS RATTLED

Deluded Dentist Got Somewhat Mixed and Early Loss is Pain.

"Fargo" Changes cars for the Michigan Central."

These were the words shouted by a L. E. & D. R. brakeman, which aroused one of our Maple City dentists from a tranquil slumber, which he was enjoying while en route from Chatham to some place on the line of the Michigan Central.

He awoke with a start, and thrust his head out of the window. He did not think that he had been sleeping long, surely the train had not gone as far as the M. C. R., and really the place did not look like Fargo.

But he had as much time to think the matter over as the train had already stopped. So he made a grab for his grip, his cigar stub, which had previously become extinguished, dropped from his trembling lips, and it was not long before he stepped off to get to the platform, for there was none there.

He thought it queer, but before he could finally get straightened out he heard the command, "All aboard!" shouted by the same brakeman.

He walked hastily up to a bystander and asked excitedly, "Is this Fargo?"

"Why, no," said the man, evidently a farmer, "this is Richardson."

By this time he saw through the whole thing. The brakeman, who was a new man on the route, made a slight mistake, and called out the wrong station.

He had barely time to catch the train before it pulled out, but he did, and walked boldly back to his seat in the smoking car.

"I thought you got off at the last station," said a fellow passenger.

"Oh, no," said the deluded dentist, "I only wanted to speak to a friend."

The other wondered why he needed his grip to talk to a friend, but it was none of his business, so he leaned back in his seat and was soon lost in his newspaper again.

The train soon pulled up at Fargo and this time the brakeman made no mistake.

Against the dentist got off and this was the last heard of him. It is supposed, however, that he reached his destination without any further mishap.

"We were very much pleased with the design you sent. It was beautiful and appropriate." The Victoria Ave. Greenhouses receive such words of commendation every day. Telephone No. 181.

Judge Bell will hold Court of Revision for the trial of appeals from the assessments for the repairing of the Hickey drain on Monday, Oct. 7, at 10 a. m., at the town hall, Valetta.

ROW IN RANKS

Trouble Reported to be Causing Sad Rampage Among the C. C. I. Cadets.

"Jealousy, thy name is woman," somebody said. Perhaps it was Shakespeare. He generally gets blamed for all he did and more. That's probably true of the women also.

What has all this got to do with the trouble in the C. C. I. cadet camp? Nothing—perhaps.

Captain Will Tackaberry, who for the past year has been the popular and efficient captain of the C. C. I. Cadets, has left the school and resigned his commission in the splendid corps.

By the order of promotion First Lieut. Will C. Mounter should be given the captaincy, and second Lieut. Garnet Brackin and Color Sergeant J. R. Waddell, should both go up a step. Some of the members of the Company, however, think that they would make just as good a captain as Lieut. Mounter, and not being versed in military ethics and unaware that the first proper soldier should learn to obey, they have created trouble in the camp.

The principal is said to hold an appointment by promotion is the only fair manner in which to deal with the vacant office, and matters are now at a standstill, so murmurs report.

This is too bad, and it would be worse should the efficiency of the corps be impaired by the good opinion the privates have of themselves. The C. C. I. cadets are a splendid organization and make an excellent appearance in their fine new khaki colored uniforms. It is to be hoped that the differences said to exist will be removed, and the C. C. I. cadets, of which the school and citizens are proud, will be again found in the front in military manoeuvres.

FACE ON THE FLOOR

J. W. Wilson, the well-known bass soloist, who has just returned from a pleasant trip east, has an interesting fact to narrate in connection with his trip to the Buffalo Exposition.

Mr. Wilson had visited the enclosure where President McKinley was shot, but had noticed nothing. While going through the Mines Building, he met Miss Hagan, a young lady well known in this city. She asked Mr. Wilson if he had noticed the features of a man outlined by the grain of the wood. Mr. Wilson went back, and found that by looking diagonally across the enclosure, the likeness of a man could be plainly distinguished. Some there are who say that the picture resembles the late President, but Mr. Wilson could find no resemblance.

FATAL ERROR

Unfortunate Englishman Desired to Pay Compliment, but it Wasn't Taken That Way.

"Some people may not think there is as much difference in the use of words in England and in Canada as there is," said an Englishman the other day while chatting in The Planet Office. "I, however, had a very interesting and unpleasant realization of the difference in the meaning of one word. Recently I was invited by a friend of mine in Chatham to spend an evening at his home. I enjoyed myself greatly and was much taken with the perfect presence of my friend's wife in her own house."

"Meeting my friend the next day I thanked him for the pleasant evening and I added, 'I liked your wife. She is so lovely.'"

"I couldn't understand why my friend looked hurt and left me so abruptly until I learned that in Canada the word lovely refers to looks in not a pleasing sense. In England it is a term of praise and means just what it should mean—a person who plays the queen when she has a home for the stage setting. Of course, as soon as I learned my error I rushed off to apologize, but we two don't meet just the same as we used to."

The drainage dispute between Tilbury East and Romney on the Government drain has been settled, whereby Romney accepts its assessment, less $100.

The Household

How to cut Pineapples—A Florida fruit grower states that the natives of the pineapple district never think of cutting a pineapple across. They pare it, cut it lengthwise, slice it or not, and, with the trimmed crown as a handle, eat it much as a New Englander does his corn, rejecting the core. This, the writer says, not only improves the flavor, but lessens the strings of fibre that get in the teeth.

German Salad Dressing—Rub the yolks of two hard-boiled eggs in a basin till smooth. Add two raw egg yolks, one at a time, work well together and stir in slowly four tablespoons of olive oil. Add half a teaspoonful of made mustard and work in four more tablespoons of olive oil, and when thoroughly mixed, put in two tablespoons of tarragon vinegar and black pepper and salt to taste. This is also an excellent sauce for cold, cooked vegetables.

An Appetizing Salad—Take a half a new cabbage; remove the outside leaves and cut out the heart; then with a very thin blade sharp knife, shred the cabbage fine as chrysanthemum leaves and shake it up with the hands so it is light, then take about four long green peppers; remove stems and seeds and shred them with the knife as fine as the cabbage. Lightly mix the peppers with the cabbage; put it in a large salad bowl, make a plain salad dressing and pour it over the whole and serve at once.

Chelsea Buns—Take a pound of dough and three ounces of butter, four ounces of sugar, two eggs and a few pieces of candied peel. Let all rise for two hours; then divide into six pieces which should be rolled into long, round strips. Roll these round in a circle squaring by degrees, lay them on a floured baking sheet, and set near the fire to rise. When they have almost doubled in size, bake in a good oven, and when nearly done, brush with beaten egg and strewn over with confectionery sugar.

Southern Corn Pudding—Score the corn down the centre of each row of grains, then with the back of the knife press out the pulp. To each pint and a half of this pulp allow four eggs, a pint of milk, a teaspoonful of salt and a dash of black pepper. Separate the eggs and beat until light, add the yolks to the pulp, then the milk, salt and pepper; mix and then stir in carefully the well-beaten whites. Brush a pudding dish lightly with butter, pour in the mixture and bake slowly one hour.

Boiled Mackerel with Sauce—Remove the fins, split open, dress and broil the mackerel on the fish grid. Cook in a well-oiled broiler over a slow fire and dish on a hot platter with a platform of mashed potato shaped to the fish. Spread over the fish a partly melted maitre d'hotel sauce, made as follows: Cream three tablespoons of butter and add one tablespoonful of cream or parsley finely chopped and wrung dry in a cloth. Put a few grains of pepper and salt and one or two tablespoons of lemon juice. Garnish the fish with lettuce and slices of lemon and serve with sliced dressed cucumbers.

French Lamb Cutlets—Cut a loin of lamb into chops, remove all the fat, trim them, scrape the bones and lay them in a dish. Cover with salt and oil and let them remain an hour. Mix together finely grated bread crumbs, a little minced parsley, pepper, salt and some grated nutmeg. Cook in a well-oiled broiler over a slow fire and dish on a hot platter with a platform of mashed potato shaped to the fish. Spread over the fish a partly melted maitre d'hotel sauce, made as follows: Cream three tablespoons of butter and add one tablespoonful of cream or parsley finely chopped and wrung dry in a cloth. Put a few grains of pepper and salt and one or two tablespoons of lemon juice. Garnish the fish with lettuce and slices of lemon and serve with sliced dressed cucumbers.

Bluefish—There are no better fish in market than bluefish. They may be obtained absolutely fresh in the morning. Small bluefish are best for broiling and large ones for baking. Broiled bluefish, with maitre d'hotel sauce are delicate and delicious. Have them split for broiling at the market; rinse them well with cold water; cover the fish well on a piece of cheesecloth; put it on a broiler which has been well rubbed with butter; then rub the fish well with melted butter, lay the skin side next the fire and broil, and also it under (hangs flame blue side up). Let it broil till brown; then season with salt; turn it over and broil on the other side. Lay it on a hot platter, skin down, garnish it with parsley and quarters of lemon, and pour the maitre d'hotel sauce over the fish.

To make the sauce put a tablespoonful of butter in a dish, squeeze in the juice of a half lemon, add a tablespoon of parsley and a part of butter. Mix this together with water to form a thick cement, which must be spread thickly and smoothly in the place where the lining is needed. First may be made in the store in a few hours. Autumn Rheumatism Cuts Off Thousands of Victims
Pain's Celery Compound
BANISHES PAIN AND AGONY
AND CURES PERMANENTLY

A Long-Standing Case Cured After Use of Three Bottles of the Marvellous Compound.

Why suffer the excruciating pains of rheumatism and allow yourself to become crippled and useless when thousands of others are banishing the disease by the use of Pain's Celery Compound?

The wonderful cures effected by Pain's Celery Compound for almost incurable sufferers must be known to you. Your friends and neighbors can tell you of many rescues from suffering and death after the use of this compound. Your physician, if he is honest with you will recommend its use. Past failures with other medicines should not utterly discourage you to expect you to think that Pain's Celery Compound is no better than the many medicines you have used.

Pain's Celery Compound is the true and only specific for every form of rheumatism; it cannot disappoint you if you give it a fair trial. Do not allow any dealer to suggest a substitute for Pain's Celery Compound. Substitution is practised by dishonest dealers for the reason that other medicines pay larger profits than Pain's Celery Compound. Mrs. Elizabeth King, Cedar Hill, Victoria, B. C., says: "I have been troubled with rheumatism all my life and about eight years ago I had a very severe attack. I lost the use of my right arm. A friend recommended the use of Pain's Celery Compound, and kindly gave me a bottle. I was so much benefited by that one bottle that I took three more, and was quite cured. Since then it has been almost my only medicine for all the ailments that I experience from time to time, and all my family have found some benefit from it. I am sixty-five years of age, I live on a farm, get up early in the morning, and am equal to a good day's work."

The cellars and foundations for John Post's new hotel at Merlin, are finished. The contract for the structure has been let to J. Hancock. The work of erection will be proceeded with as soon as the material is on the ground. When the building is completed it will cost over $50,000.

The Tilbury News has undergone a change of management. The former manager, Mr. Wilson, has sold his interest to Mr. W. B. Veale, who has been associated with the paper since its birth. We wish the new firm the full measure of success that was accorded the old one.

Last week one of the infant twin daughters of Stephen Marshall, of Stewart, passed away after a lingering illness. The other child is in a very low condition and will not long survive the first. Mrs. Marshall, Chatham, left to be near her daughter, Mrs. Marshall, in this hour of affliction—Tilbury News.

The Rev. J. M. McLaren, of Blenheim was the recipient of a beautiful and costly altar cloth, which handsomely decorated the church desk on Sunday last. This fine piece of work was the gift of Mrs. W. Elliott, who had been awarded first prize on same at both London and Toronto exhibitions this fall.

Miss Edith Stevens, who underwent a critical operation at a Detroit hospital, where she had been a sex trained nurse, is now at home, with her mother, Mrs. Stevens, Blenheim. She has sufficiently recovered to be able to walk about the house, but is unable to take any active exercise yet. Her many friends hope she may soon be restored to her usual health.

One of the best local games of bowling of the season was played at Ridgeway, on Saturday afternoon between McKinnon. At the end of the score the bowler was on the outside line. If the bowl was out of play by having crossed the inside line, Mr. Gundy would be the winner.

JUST WHY

Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablets

Has a Record of Cures Unparalleled

Because it is not an experiment, not a "cure all," but a modern, up-to-date formula, thoroughly tried and tested on many hundreds of cases in private practice, hospital and outdoor clinics. A medicine that has kept pace with the times and the advancement of medical science. A medicine confined to a particular range. One that does not promise more than it can do. A backache, kidney, bladder tablet, pure and simple, the same yesterday, today and tomorrow. This great kidney medicine is a boon alike to the young, the middle-aged and the aged.

It was the people who successfully used Dr. Pitcher's Backache Kidney Tablet that applied to it the term: "The Great Kidney Medicine," because it removed symptoms like the following that were starting them in the face every day, all the result of disordered kidneys:

Backache.
Pain in the back.
Weak, sluggish circulation.
Puffy or dark circles under the eyes.

Urine cloudy, milk-like or stringy, dark in colour, or offensive.
Painful, scalding sensation in passing.

Dull, heavy headaches, tired, dizzy feeling, faint spells, irregular heart beats.

Urinary weakness, compelling frequent attention during the day, to get up many times during the night.

Restless, sleepless nights. Fagged out, run down and irritable.

These are some of the danger signals, nature sets to show the track of health is not clear, but kidneys clogged and Bright's disease stealing in.

If you are convinced Pitcher's Tablets are what you want, you can purchase them at your druggist's for 50 cents a bottle. If not obtainable at druggists, mailed free of postage on receipt of price.

TO INTIMIDATE THE SULTAN.
Cologne, Oct. 3.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Gazette says the Sultan is insisting on the sovereign rights of Turkey over Kowkay. The present rumors about the landing of Turkish troops at that place, it is believed, are a mere excuse for the creation of an impression in England in favor of a great British naval demonstration in the Persian Gulf. This, it is calculated, would intimidate the Sultan.

The Highest and Best Energy for Body and Brain is Produced by

MALT BREAKFAST FOOD

A wholesome and pure food such as Malt Breakfast Food produces the highest and best energy of body and gives to the daily toiler a stronger intellect and more and more brilliant ideas. No starchy substances, no skin or blood irritating properties in Malt Breakfast Food. This marvelous "health food," consisting of choicest wheat and purest malt, is scientifically predigested, therefore suited for the weakest as well as the strongest stomachs. No other food used on the breakfast table can afford such nourishment, vitality and strength. Ask your grocer for it; you will be captivated by its deliciousness.

Ask!—And did your uncle remember you in his will?

Tell!—Well, he remembered me all right, but what was he didn't mention me in the will.

Permanent Muscular Strength.
There is this to be borne in mind in these days when so many young men are giving so much attention to muscular development, in gymnastic and athletic exercises, that there cannot be permanent muscular strength where there is not blood strength.

Hood's Sarsaparilla gives blood strength, promotes digestion and assimilation, and builds up the whole system.

The artist's model, in posing, has a position such as might be called a steady job.

WOMEN WHO WEAR WELL.
It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life will make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliance vanish like the bloom from a peach that is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, faint echo of the charming maiden. There are two reasons for this change, ignorance and neglect. Few young women appreciate the shock to the system through the change which comes with marriage. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant drains which are often consequent on marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. Half a million women and more have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

It makes weak women strong and sick women well.

He is richest who is content with the least; for content is the wealth of Nature.

A. A. JORDAN At the Sign of
The Big ClockBRITONS CALL
FOR ROBERTSThey Desire His Hand at the Helm Again in South Africa.War Office Scored by Rudyard Kipling
—He Says it is Falling Back into Old Ruts.

London, October 4.—"In spite of the pledge of the government, the whole army machine is to be hauled back as soon as it may be to the old ruts of impotence, pretence and collapse," writes Rudyard Kipling in a striking letter to the Spectator upon the appointment of Sir Redvers Buller and Sir Evelyn Wood to command army corps.

This pungent sentence voices the national feeling that has prevailed this week without regard to party politics. "Men see," adds Kipling, "that the chosen commanders are not quite in touch with the real army, which with a little tact and a little seriousness, might so easily survive. It is not the triviality that appeals, but the cynical levity."

Very much on these lines all the weeklies regardless of politics (take the government to task. "The English people," again to quote from Mr. Kipling's letter—"have paid no small price in money and in blood that there might be born an army handled by fit and proven leaders."

WANTS ROBERTS SENT BACK.
The Spectator, although among the most cautious of the government's supporters, comes out boldly with a declaration that the appointments of Gen. Buller and Wood are absurd, but also with a demand that Lord Kitchener be recalled. This demand is unmistakably worded.

From the moment Lord Roberts left South Africa, a certain loose and strategic grasp of the country says the Spectator, and it urges, though without much hope, that its suggestion be accepted that Lord Roberts be sent out again. According to the Spectator, Lord Kitchener has accomplished nothing in a year except by the process of attrition. It compares his methods with those of Grant, but does not believe that "a hammer man" is the man to command in South Africa, although the Spectator believes Lord Kitchener would make an excellent commander-in-chief at home. It suggests that Lord Roberts should go back for six months. Lord Kitchener either relieving him in London or acting again as his chief of staff in South Africa.

"If Lord Roberts went out to finish the war," says the Spectator, "he would, we believe, finish it by making the best possible use of the material in hand."

Winston Spencer Churchill, speaking last night at Oldham, delivered himself of another severe censure of the war policy of the government. He declared that the military situation in South Africa was now "not less momentous than when the Boer armies threw themselves into Natal at the beginning of the war" and that the empire to-day "confronts difficulties and dangers more embarrassing than those which hung over it in the black week of December, 1899."

LOSS WAS HEAVY.
The casualty list shows that all the British losses in the attack of Col. Kekewich's camp at Moedwil were four officers killed, and twenty-three wounded and fifty-one men killed and 115 wounded, numbers much greater than those heretofore reported.

"Owing to the fact that the Boers have constantly recaptured the stock," says the Cape Town correspondent of the Daily Mail, "all cattle and sheep now captured, are immediately killed. South Africa is thus being converted into a black, hopeless wilderness."

SUNDAY SERVICES
International Bible Lesson for Tomorrow — Joseph Sold into Egypt—Gen. 37, 12-36.

We have here an attempt of the evil one to destroy Joseph, and his deliverance by being sold into Egypt as a slave. Compare with a similar attempt through Herod to destroy Jesus in His childhood and His escape to Egypt. Joseph had to learn that "before honor is humility." Joseph's claims breed envy and he is despised and rejected. Jesus' claims excite the rulers' envy and He is despised and rejected. Joseph's life was too good for His brethren; Jesus' life was so goodly He was hated. The good reproves the bad, therefore the bad kicks; "yea, and all who will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution," yet walking in the will of God all is well, dead or alive. Judah sells Joseph for 20 pieces of silver; Judah sold Jesus for 30. Joseph, in Egypt's darkness, becomes the great deliverer in the seven years' famine; Jesus, tasting death for every man, gives the bread of eternal life to "whoever will." Jacob deceived his father, Isaac, with his goat skins, and his sons now deceive him with goats blood. "With what measure ye meet it shall be measured to you again."

DOWN WITH
HOME WORKInsp. Ct. R. Park Severely
Condemns This Branch of Public School Work.Draws Lessons From the Visit of the Teachers to Detroit—Tribute to Retiring Teachers.

"Homework! This abominable word is the pest of nearly every one of the parents in the city whose children are attending our public schools."

This emphatic exclamation emanated from Inspector Robert Park at the Public School Board meeting last evening.

"It should be done away with altogether," continued he, "in cases of children in the lower rooms. Not only does it unnecessarily take up time at home but it takes up school hours. I understand that in our schools the teachers take up the last half hour in school before dismissing at four o'clock in giving the children home work. It ought to be abolished."

Mr. Park was discussing the public school teachers' trip to Detroit and pointing out the ways in which the method of teaching there is better than ours.

He thought, however, that our teachers were better than theirs, but in the matter of being up-to-date they were sadly lacking. Among other things suggested were glass doors. These, he thought, would be a big improvement.

There were present at the meeting Chairman Dr. R. V. Bray and Messrs. Wilson, McKenough, Morley, Thomson and McCorvie.

A communication was read from F. F. Quinn, declining the honor of a position on the Free Library Board, owing to pressing business. S. B. Arnold was appointed in his place.

A communication was received from Miss E. Dawson, resigning her position as teacher in the Queen St. school. It was accepted.

In moving the acceptance Mr. Wilson said:—

"I am sorry that Miss Dawson left in the way she did. I think she had no right to act in the way she did."

Miss Thomson's resignation was also received and accepted.

In moving the acceptance to her resignation Dr. McKenough said:—

"I have often thought that in accepting the resignation of such a teacher as Miss Thomson we ought to be able to do more than pass a resolution of regret. She was a teacher of normal school standing and the different principals and the inspectors of the school have always spoken very highly of her work. She was a conscientious and able teacher and we are sorry to have to accept the resignation of such a teacher, especially as she has apparently worn herself out for the public. We hope and trust that her health will be restored permanently and soon."

Her position as teacher on the staff was given to Miss Jane Coltart. This was done on the recommendation of Principal Flawas.

Ready is the Word

Greetings to many-hued October. No one fears his advent if the bin and the wardrobe are in order.

We have been telling you lately about the various stocks as they came in from our own and other factories. Now the time has come to fling the doors wide open and say one big-little word—READY. Not a stitch is wanting to the round completeness of this fall and winter stock. It is the triumphant result of weeks of planning and hard work, and we must really be pardoned for making a little noise about it. Will our lady friends call it opening week and come in? Fully half our customers are women who buy for their husbands and sons.

It is a time of year when many things are needed—an expensive time. We claim that this store offers the most thrifty shopping open to the men of Kent County. The man that lost his pocket book and looked for it among the p's in the dictionary was on the wrong track. So is the man, who from good nature or force of habit or for the sake of getting credit, goes on paying more than he need for his clothes.

Ready, ready, ready. Overcoats, worsted suits, warm underclothing for men and boys, hats and caps, neckwear—everything a man puts on except shoes.

When at the Fair

Do not miss calling at our store to take a look at our line of Overcoats for fall and winter. See them in the interests of your comfort and your pocket book. This is a progressive age and our factory is turning out a better overcoat for the money than ever before.
