BURNING OF AN OCEAN STEAMER.

TWENTY-ONE LIVES LOST!

The screw steamer, City of Bath, Captain J. S.

Conroy, owned by Richardson and Otis of Boston,

was totally destroyed by fire on the morning of Sunday the 10th inst. The City of Bath had on board about 25 miles N. W. from Cape Hatteras, when the fire was discovered well under way in the coal boiler. In two or three minutes after the discovery the coal passers and firemen were compelled to abandon their posts. The engineer slackened speed, went on deck to notify the captain, and returned to his post where he was so badly burned and suffocated that when rescued he was nearly exhausted and nearly insensible. All hands were busily at work trying to check the progress of the fire and were so far successful that at four o'clock it was supposed to be entirely under control. But a gale was blowing at the time, and the flames broke out again with such force as to convince the captain that the vessel must go down. He gave the order to "stand by," and the vessel was abandoned. The crew were ordered to take to the boats, and the vessel was abandoned at about five o'clock. The vessel was abandoned of a hostile country—I allude to Ireland (hear, hear). There is a party in England which speaks of justice to Ireland as if it were merely a catch phrase for the popular ear in that country, and as if it had no real meaning. I hold that to sustain in a country a foreign and hostile church, and to confiscate all the ecclesiastical revenues of that country to that church, and that church enclosing within its borders but a very small minority of the people, is an act of injustice such as I believe statesmanship or unstatesmanship has never yet committed in any other country than this (applause.) I say further, that to maintain laws which are adverse to the natural division of land, where the whole of the soil has been confiscated within the last 200 years, is to perpetuate the exclusion of the people from the possession of their own soil, and to create and make perpetual pauperism and discontent. If these things had been done in Poland, in Hungary, in Venetia, under the influence of a competing government, I believe that there is not a single man or woman in England that would not have been ready to condemn such a state of things. I have raised my voice on many occasions—I believe on every fitting occasion since I have been in Parliament, and many times out of it—against a state of things which is absolutely destructive of content and loyalty in Ireland (hear, hear)

THE PRINCE'S DAY.
Air—St. Patrick's Day.
Though dark are our sorrows, to-day we'll forget them,
And smile through our tears like a sunbeam in showers;
There never were hearts, if our rulers would let them,
More fervid to be tranquil and blest than ours!
But just when the chain has ceased to pain,
And hope has enervated it round with flowers,
There comes a new link, our spirits to sink,
Oh! the joy of such hearts, like the light of the pole,
Is a flash amid darkness, too brilliant to stay;
But though 'twere the last little spark in our souls,
We must light it up now, on our Prince's day.
Contempt on the minion who calls you disloyal!
Though fierce to your foe, to your friends you are true;
And the tribute most high to a head that is royal,
Is love from a heart that loves liberty too.
White cowards who blight your fame, your right
Would shrink from the blaze of the battle array;
The standard of green in front would be seen—
Oh! my life on your faith! were you summan's this minute,
You'd cast every bitter remembrance away,
And show what the arm of old Erin has in it,
When roused by the foe on her Prince's day.
He loves the green isle, and his love is recorded
In hearts which have suffered too much to forget;
And hope shall be crown'd, and attachment rewarded,
And Erin's gay jubilee shine out yet!
The gem may be broke by many a stroke,
But nothing can cloud its native ray;
Each fragment will cast a light to the last;
And thus Erin, my country, though broken thou art,
There's a lustre within thee that never will decay;
A spirit that lures through each suffering part,
And now smiles at their pain, on the Prince's day.
—MOORE.

DRIFT ON MY BARK.
Drift on, my bark! The subeans sleep
Upon the tranquil tide;
The flagging waters ally creep
And meekly to my side.
The languid breeze that lightly plays
Its softest, sweetest air,
Upon the river, falls to raise
One golden ripple there,
And on my breast she is at rest,
Drift on, drift on!
Drift on, my bark! The day is worn,
The shadows round us close,
O'er distant hill and waving corn
The dying sunset glows.
The asphodel, the grown dark at last,
Wakes with a dreamy sigh,
And joins the breeze, now rising fast,
In mournful lullaby;
But still I hear a whisper near:
Drift on, drift on!
Drift on, my bark! The night winds chill
Sweep round,—the luteen calls,—
O'er waving corn, and distant hill,
The gathering darkness falls.
One pale and solitary star
Steals out a timid light,
The curlew chimes out afar
A wondrous good night!
The day is done, we are alone:
Drift on, drift on!

PUT UP THE BARS.
After the milking was over
Annie would follow the cows
Hill a mile down to the clover,
And turn them into the clover.
Near little figure is Annie,
Hanging the bars in the lane,
Letting down ever so many
Jobs in the sunlight's wane.
Wild roses blooming beside her
Match not her cheeks' lovely red;
And the leaves trying to hide her,
Daunt at her musical tread.
Whisking curls peep from her bonnet,
Sweep the bright studs from their nest,
And the heart—oh, to have won it!
Beats with gentle unrest.
Lips may be humming a ditty,
And music may show unobscured;
But serious there are—what a pity
That some are too easy to learn.
Now while the robins are meeting
Why does she wait in the lane?
Though, if while some need a meeting,
No one, of course, could complain.
Lights in the farm-house are gleaming,
And lamp must be lit in their place,
But little Annie stands dreaming,
A blush on her beautiful face.
Is it late? Not that the curlew now
Ah, merry eyes, and wild and brown,
Could you not tell why she waits now
Just the best night of a frown?
Over the path by the hillside
Some one would wander by night,
Some one who chimes on the mill
Led by two eyes that were bright.
Meadow and valley grow stiller
Under the moon's silvery light,
Would it be strange if the miller
Helped Annie to put up the bars?

ARRIVAL OF THE ENGLISH MAIL.

HALIFAX, March 1.
The R. M. Steamship Asia arrived here to-day at noon, from Liverpool, G. B., via Queenstown, bringing news to the 10th ult.

The Reform scheme of the Government is either openly denounced or "damned with faint praise" by every journal in London, save a couple which are devoted to the advocacy of Tory principles. The Full Measure remarks:

Mr. Disraeli's speech was a surprise to all but those members of the Government who are in the Cabinet. To the opposition it was a surprise and a satisfaction. To the majority of Mr. Disraeli's own followers it was a surprise and a disappointment. So deep was the feeling that a half blunder had been committed when Mr. Disraeli set down, that we believe the public will soon regret that one or two of the subordinate members of the Government propose to resign. Indeed there was a rumor on Monday night that one or more resignations had already been sent in.

A number of the Liberal party have already consulted together with reference to the reform scheme of the Government. Disraeli's approval of the "resolutions" was so general that it will probably take a distinct shape—perhaps the form of a motion of no confidence—when the subject next comes before the House of Commons. The "resolutions" have also been condemned by the Reform League, the London Working Men's Association and a public meeting in Birmingham. Mr. Bright, in a telegram sent to the Birmingham meeting, states that the proposals of the Government are only calculated to disappoint, to insult, and to irritate those who ask for an honest reform in the representation.

A numerous deputation of R-formers, headed by Mr. Bright, met Mr. Gladstone on Monday, and presented to him a very complimentary address. The right honorable gentleman made a reply, expressive of his faith in a speedy and satisfactory settlement on the reform question.

The reform demonstration in London on Monday morning threw into a state of almost panic-stricken alarm by the appearance there of several hundreds of suspicious-looking fellows, who proved to be Fenians. The Fenians were armed with clubs, and some of them carried revolvers. They were dispersed by a detachment of the Scots Fusilier Guards, 600 or 650 strong. Whatever may have been the intention of the Fenians, the prompt action of the authorities put a stop to their proceedings, and all remains quiet. The presence of a strong garrison in the city is due to a further Fenian design. Had the Fenians taken possession of the city they would have had at their service 900 stand of arms, 1000 swords, and 200,000 rounds of gunpowder. To guard these weapons and stores were on duty two companies and 50 soldiers of the 5th regiment, and one officer and 35 men of the militia staff. The Government, after the deed had been nearly done, ordered the Fenian headquarters in the city to be broken up, and the Fenians to be dispersed. Troops are also to be stationed in Liverpool.

There is stirring news from Ireland. The Fenians have made an extraordinary movement, and on Thursday night a body of the conspirators attacked a police station near Valentia, and seized some arms. They also attacked the Atlantic cable, and succeeded in partially severing the communication. The outbreak does not extend beyond the district of Killarney, where the Fenians have taken up a position in the mountains; and as the Government has sent troops into the neighborhood it is not probable that the insurrectionary movement will be continued in the west of Ireland. The Fenians are doing all they can to keep suspicious persons out of the country; and during the week they are reported to have arrested several persons in Dublin by the Liverpool and Holyhead steamers.

The Bank of England rate of discount, which had stood at 3 1/2 per cent. since the 21st ult. was on Thursday lowered to 3 per cent. On the 16th of August last the rate stood so high as 10 per cent., and since that time has steadily declined. On the 1st of August, the rate was 7 per cent., on the 15th it was 6 per cent., on the 23rd it was 5 per cent., on the 30th it was 4 per cent., on September 6th it was 3 1/2 per cent., on September 27th it was 3 per cent., on November 8th to 4 per cent. There was no further change until December 20th, when, as already stated, it was reduced to 3 1/2 per cent.

Sir J. B. Kaye, the Solicitor-General, has been returned for Anson without opposition. The Right Hon. M. Morris, the recently-appointed Attorney-General for Ireland, has been re-elected for Galway without opposition. The new Irish Solicitor-General, Mr. Chatterton, Q. C., has stepped into the seat that for Dublin University—which, until a few weeks ago, was occupied by Mr. J. E. Walsh, the late Attorney-General for Ireland, now Master of the Rolls in Dublin.

The Jamaica Committee has commenced legal proceedings against the alleged murderers of the late Mr. Gordon. The case is being tried at the Old Bailey or in the Court of Queen's Bench, to answer the charge of murder preferred against them for the part they took in the trial, conviction, and execution of Mr. Gordon, as an accessory in the negro rebellion at Morant Bay. Their standing in the dock, however, was their own choice. The chief magistrate told them they might have seats near their counsel, but they preferred to stand in the dock. As the expense of the prosecution is defrayed by public subscriptions collected for the purpose by a committee composed chiefly of members of the Anti-Slavery Society, and the offence charged was committed by officers of the Crown engaged in the public service at the time, we are not surprised to find that the defence has been taken up by the Government. Mr. Eyre has not yet come or been brought into the police-court.

A Journal specially devoted to military and naval affairs says that the army estimates are nearly completed. A considerable amount of financial reduction has been effected under the head of "writings stores." Some of the recommendations of the late Comptroller and some, too, that were apparently most valued, will not be found adopted in the estimates. The proposal, however, to give an additional 24 days to the army estimates will not be much in excess of those of last year.

Advices from Rome state that the departure of the French troops from that city has not caused the slightest attempt at anything like political agitation. There is a continued and interesting English dialogue, in which the French and English are engaged, in which the French discover a reconciliation between the Holy See and the Kingdom of Italy. The Pope and his friends have resolved on increasing the foreign legion and returning to the old system of guarding the Papal throne by a foreign soldiery. His holiness is said to be in excellent health and spirits.

The decree, recently issued, which provides for the augmentation of the cavalry squadrons of the French army, is looked upon as an indication of the intentions of the Emperor to increase the effective as well as the reserve of the French army. The Paris correspondent of the Morning Post says that "no one seems to doubt that the Emperor has decided on an increased warlike expenditure for what, in Imperial language, is termed 'defensive and peace purposes.' It is difficult to imagine who is to get the attack; France; and if the army is placed on something like a war footing, is not that a dangerous instrument to hold in hand?"

His Royal Highness the Duke of Edinburgh will probably put to sea in command of the Galates within three or four days of the 20th inst.

We believe that the visit of the Prince of Wales to Paris, at the opening of the Exhibition is finally settled; and that he will return with the Princess to Paris in July.

It is understood in Paris that an aide-camp of the King of Prussia has gone to St. Petersburg with full instructions concerning a treaty of alliance about to be signed between the courts of Berlin and St. Petersburg. The matter has caused some talk in Paris, where such an alliance would be regarded with anxiety.

FROM THE STATES.
BOSTON, J. F. MCGUIRE.
This distinguished gentleman was entertained at dinner at the Park House, Boston, on Monday evening last. He will deliver a lecture at the Boston Theatre on the afternoon of the 17th March, for the benefit of the Home for Destitute Roman Catholic Children.

EUROPEAN AND N. A. RAILWAY.
The bill granting aid to the European & North American Railway to the amount of $1,000,000, passed the Senate without material opposition, and the House passed it without any serious discussion or negative vote. It has been reported by a motion reconsiderer, but there is little prospect of defeating it.

THE MILITARY RECONSTRUCTION BILL.
Notwithstanding all the exertions made to have the President sign the Military Reconstruction Bill, he has concluded to veto it. His veto message is completed, and was to be sent to Congress on Thursday. This is a compromise bill, drawn up by the Reverend Johnson Democrats, allowing Congress to pass the bill over the veto.

DEFEAT OF THE NIAGARA CANAL BILL.
Mr. Fessenden moved to take up the Army Appropriation Bill. Mr. Chandler called for the unfinished business—the bill to incorporate the Niagara Ship Canal Company. Mr. Chandler said this bill was quite as important as any from the Committee on Finance. The committee of the lakes reported in favor of the canal, and it was necessary to have this outlet. After considerable discussion the question was taken up by the motion of Mr. Fessenden, when it was agreed to by a vote of 24, yeas 18. This was the quietus of the House Niagara Falls Ship Canal Bill; but Mr. Chandler gave notice that he would bring up on Thursday the next session, a bill for the construction of a ship canal around Niagara Falls by the General Government, free to all the world.

THE TARIFF BILL.
On Monday last the House of Representatives, by a vote of 84, yeas 87, (a two-thirds vote being necessary) to submit the Tariff Bill, passed by the Senate to a Committee of Conference. This is regarded as a fatal blow to the tariff bill, and it was necessary to have this outlet. After considerable discussion the question was taken up by the motion of Mr. Fessenden, when it was agreed to by a vote of 24, yeas 18. This was the quietus of the House Niagara Falls Ship Canal Bill; but Mr. Chandler gave notice that he would bring up on Thursday the next session, a bill for the construction of a ship canal around Niagara Falls by the General Government, free to all the world.

THE HONORABLE ADVERTISER WASHINGTON CORRESPONDENT.
The tariff bill was finally taken up in the House of Representatives at 3 o'clock on Tuesday afternoon. The reading of the Senate amendment occupied till nearly 8 o'clock. Over an hour was then spent in a noisy and excited wrangle as to the order of the whole proceeding as a first class frolic. The bill was reached, the amendments recommended by the ways and means committee were taken up and acted on serially. There were 275 of these, and 110 members were present, and the division on each amendment was so nearly equal that one side or the other invariably called for tellers. The House was generally in excellent humor, and seemed to regard the whole proceeding as a first class frolic. The bill was made to take effect ten days after its passage. The various amendments in the section relating to wool and woollens were apparently acted upon without regard to principle, while some were carried by four or five majority, others on a majority of ten or twelve.

At half-past ten, when twenty amendments had been acted upon, the committee voted itself without a quorum, and a call of the House was ordered. A quorum was obtained and the committee then, by a small majority, and the House at 11 o'clock adjourned.

CORRESPONDENCE.
GRAND ENTERTAINMENT AT THE MIS-COUCHE CONVENT.
TO THE EDITOR OF THE HERALD.

Sir,—Aware that your paper is always favorable to the advancement of Education, I trust you will favor me by publishing the report of the above named entertainment, which took place on the 27th ult. After a picnic at drive, enjoyed with some kind friends, in the park and bringing air of one of the winter's coldest days, we were introduced into the large Convent hall, which was beautifully and tastefully decorated with evergreens, flowers, etc., and capable of containing several hundred persons, was crowded to the utmost. Among the visitors, we noticed the Rev. Mr. Quevillon and the Rev. Mr. Tremblay, Messrs. J. A. McDonald, N. J. Brown, R. Holmes, J. O. A. Reynolds and H. Hunt.

Looking towards the platform, we perceived that the entertainment by the young ladies, already mentioned, and was notified by a friend that a part of the entertainment was over. The young ladies were seated on the platform went through a French drama in an able manner, and for which they received the applause of the whole audience. An English drama, in which Miss Borgeois, of Studeo, took a prominent part, greatly attracted the attention of the audience. Some French comic songs, by Miss Perry and Miss Borgeois, kept the guests in continual bursts of laughter. The instructive French dialogue, of the Rev. Mr. Quevillon, was well received, and the audience gave great credit to the performance by several repeated claps. Lovers of music were then enraptured when the first notes of a beautiful and melodious English choir were struck. Here we were struck by the voices vibrating the air and carrying to our ears the most sweet sounds which they uttered. Then followed a most interesting English dialogue, in which the Rev. Mr. Quevillon, took part, and aroused the sympathies of his hearers.

A universal snigger, finished by God Save the Queen, crowned the scene. The Rev. Mr. Quevillon, the founder of the establishment, then thanked the assembly for having so liberally patronized the efforts of the good ladies of the Convent. The Rev. Mr. Tremblay said that, having journeyed during the greater part of the day, to be present at such a recreation, he felt amply rewarded at the end. If there had been more present from Egmont Bay they might have been induced to send his determination to patronize it by saying that he was about playing one of his daughters under the care of the ladies of the Convent. After this the people dispersed, satisfied and amply rewarded for their trouble.

YOUR REPORTER.
Egmont Bay, March 21, 1867.
The Herald.
Wednesday, March 23, 1867.
On Saturday afternoon last, when the Declaration of Members was over, the Liberals forced themselves into a procession, in honor of their victory, and marched through the principal streets of the City. First came the Amherst City Band, in a "two-horse team," then the triumphant sleigh, drawn by six horses, and following in order, some forty or fifty sleighs, accompanied by the usual miscellaneous crowd of small boys, and their usual, who are always ready to "hooray" for a sleigh or sleigher were Messrs. Coles and Hendry, Kelly, Balderson, Messrs. Kiekham, Calbeck, and one or two other members. The display of bunting was as large and varied as is generally seen on such occasions, and among the rest, was a flag painted by Mr. John Morphy, upon which was inscribed, "George Cole, the Introductor and Supporter of Responsible Government." Everything, we believe, passed off harmoniously and quietly, with perhaps an exceptional case of noisy drunkenness. The members elected did not indulge in much speechifying, having doubtless arrived at the same conclusion with most of their supporters, who remained at home, that their action in the future, rather than to their words in the present, can they look for the continued support and approval of the people.

CONFEDERATION BILL!
THE BILL TO PROVIDE FOR THE UNION AND GOVERNMENT OF BRITISH NORTH AMERICA.
We publish below, for the benefit of our readers, a few clauses from the Constitution of the Dominion of Canada.
EXTRACTS FROM A BILL INTITLED
An Act for the Union of Canada, Nova Scotia, and New Brunswick, and the Government thereof; and for purposes connected therewith.
II.—UNION.
It shall be lawful for the Queen, by and with the advice of Her Majesty's Most Honorable Privy Council, to declare by proclamation that, on and after a day to be appointed by that Council, not more than six months after the passing of this Act, the Provinces of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick shall form and be one Dominion under the name of Canada; and on and after that day the said three Provinces shall form and be one Dominion under that name accordingly.
3. Canada shall be divided into four Provinces, to-wit: Ontario, Quebec, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.
4. The Provinces of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick shall have the same limits as at the passing of this Act.
III.—EXECUTIVE POWER.
11. There shall be a Council to aid and advise in the Government of Canada, to be styled the Queen's Privy Council for Canada; and the persons who are to be members of that Council shall be from time to time chosen and named by the Governor General and sworn in as Privy Counsellors, and members thereof shall be from time to time named by the Governor-General.
12. It shall be lawful for the Queen, if Her Majesty shall so think fit, to authorize the Governor-General from time to time to appoint any person or persons, jointly or severally to be his Deputy or Deputies within any part or parts of Canada, and in that capacity to exercise, during the pleasure of the Governor-General, such of the powers, authorities, and functions of the Governor-General as the Governor-General deems it necessary or expedient to assign to him, or them, and to revoke or suspend any power, authority or function of any Deputy or Deputies so appointed by the Queen; but the appointment of such a Deputy or Deputies shall not affect the exercise by the Governor-General himself of any power, authority or function.
13. The command-in-chief of the land and naval militia, and of all naval and military forces, of and in Canada, is hereby declared to continue and be vested in the Queen.
14. Until the Queen otherwise directs, the seat of Government of Canada shall be Ottawa.
IV.—LEGISLATIVE POWER.
19. The Parliament of Canada shall be called together not later than six months after the Union.
THE SENATE.
21. The Senate shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, consist of seventy-two members, who shall be elected as follows:
22. In relation to the Constitution of the Senate, Canada shall be deemed to consist of three divisions—
1. Ontario;
2. Quebec;
3. The Maritime Provinces, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick; which three divisions shall (subject to the provisions of this Act) be equally represented in the Senate or given by—
Ontario, by twenty-four Senators; Quebec, by twenty-four Senators; and the Maritime Provinces by twenty-four Senators, twelve thereof representing Nova Scotia, and twelve thereof representing New Brunswick.
23. The Governor-General shall, from time to time, may in the Queen's name, by instrument under the great seal of Canada, summon qualified persons to the Senate; and, subject to the provisions of this act, every person so summoned shall become and be a member of the Senate and a Senator.
24. Such persons shall be first summoned to the Senate as the Queen by warrant under Her Majesty's Royal Sign Manual, that it fit to approve, and their names shall be inserted in the Queen's Proclamation of Union.
THE HOUSE OF COMMONS.
27. The House of Commons shall, subject to the provisions of this Act, consist of one hundred and eighty-one members, of whom eighty-one shall be elected for Ontario, sixty-five for Quebec, sixteen for Nova Scotia, and fifteen for New Brunswick.
Money Votes; Royal Assent.
24. It shall not be lawful for the House of Commons to adopt or pass any vote, resolution, address, or bill, or to appropriate any part of the public revenue, or to incur any debt or liability, or to impose any tax or impost, or to propose any bill, or to recommend to that House by message of the Governor-General in the session in which such vote, resolution, address or bill is proposed.
25. Where a bill passed by the House of Commons is presented to the Governor-General for his assent, he shall declare, according to his discretion, whether he assents to the provisions of this Act and to Her Majesty's instructions, either that he assents thereto in the Queen's name, or that he withholds the Queen's assent, or that he reserves the bill for the consideration of the Queen's pleasure.

Y.—PROVINCIAL CONSTITUTIONS.
Executive Power.
58. For each Province there shall be an officer, styled the Lieutenant Governor, appointed by the Governor-General in Council by instrument under the Great Seal of Canada.
59. A Lieutenant Governor shall hold office during the pleasure of the Governor-General; but any Lieutenant Governor appointed after the commencement of the first session of the Parliament of Canada shall not be removable within five years from his appointment, exclusive of the time of his absence from the Province in which he is appointed, which shall be communicated to him in writing within one month after the order for his removal is made, and shall be communicated by message to the Senate and to the House of Commons within one week thereafter if the Parliament is then sitting, and if not, then within one week after the commencement of the next session of the Parliament.
60. The salaries of the Lieutenant Governors shall be fixed and provided by the Parliament of Canada.

Legislative Power.
1.—ONTARIO.
62. There shall be a Legislature for Ontario, consisting of the Lieutenant Governor and of one House, styled the Legislative Assembly of Ontario.
2.—QUEBEC.
71. There shall be a Legislature for Quebec, consisting of the Lieutenant Governor and of two Houses, styled the Legislative Council of Quebec and the Legislative Assembly of Quebec.
EDUCATION.
93. In and for each Province the Legislature may exclusively make laws in relation to Education, subject according to the following provisions:—
(1.) Nothing in any law shall judicially affect any right or privilege with respect to denominational schools which any class of persons have by law in the Province at the Union.
(2.) All the powers, privileges, and duties of a Governor-General conferred and imposed in Upper Canada on the separate schools and school trustees of the Queen's Roman Catholic subjects shall be and the same are hereby extended to the dissenting schools of the Queen's Protestant and Roman Catholic subjects in Quebec.
(3.) Where in any Province a system of separate or dissenting schools exists by Law at the Union or is hereafter established by the Legislature of the Province, an appeal shall lie to the Governor-General in Council from any Act or decision of any provincial authority affecting any right or privilege of the Protestant or Roman Catholic minority of the Queen's subjects in relation to Education:
(4.) In case any such Provincial Law as from time to time comes to the Governor-General in Council requires for the due execution of the provisions of this section to be made, or in case any decision of the Governor-General in Council on any appeal under this section is not duly executed by the proper provincial authority in that behalf, then and in every such case, and as far only as the circumstances of each case require, the Parliament of Canada may make remedial laws for the due execution of the provisions of this section and of any decision of the Governor-General in Council under this section.

YII.—JUDICATURE.
96. The Governor-General shall appoint the Judges of the Superior District and County Courts in each Province, except those of the Courts of Probate in Nova Scotia and New Brunswick.
118. The following sums shall be paid yearly by Canada to the several Provinces for the support of their Governments and Legislatures.

Province	Dollars
Ontario	Eighty thousand.
Quebec	Seventy thousand.
Nova Scotia	Sixty thousand.
New Brunswick	Fifty thousand.

Two hundred and sixty thousand; and an annual grant in aid of each Province shall be made annual to eighty cents per head of the population, as ascertained by the census of one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one; and in the case of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, by each subsequent decennial census, until the population of each of those two Provinces amounts to four hundred thousand souls, at which rate no grant shall thereafter remain. Such grants shall be in full settlement of all future demands on Canada, and shall be paid half-yearly in advance to each Province; but the Government of Canada shall deduct from such grants, as against any Province, all sums chargeable as interest on the public debt of that Province in excess of the several amounts stipulated in this Act.

X.—INTERPROVINCIAL RAILWAY.
145. Inasmuch as the Provinces of Canada, Nova Scotia and New Brunswick have joined in a declaration that the construction of the Interprovincial Railway is essential to the consolidation of the Union of British North America, and to the best interests of Nova Scotia and New Brunswick, and have consequently agreed that provision should be made for its immediate construction by the Government of Canada; therefore in order to give effect to that agreement, it shall be the duty of the Government and Parliament of Canada to provide for the commencement, within six months after the passing of this Act, of the construction of a Railway connecting the River St. Lawrence with the city of Halifax in Nova Scotia, and for the completion thereof without pecuniary aid, and the completion thereof with all practicable speed.

XI. Clause provides for the future entrance of P. E. Island, Newfoundland and British Columbia on such terms as these depending may deem just and equitable.

THE LONDON QUARTERLY REVIEW for January has been received from the Leonard Scott Publishing Co. New York. Its contents are:—1. Charles Lamb and some of his Companions; 2. The Cholera Conference; 3. Books of Fiction for Children; 4. Crime in the State of New York; 5. The Week's Republic in Palermo, 1866; 6. Game and Game Laws; 7. Ultra Ritualism; 8. Yankee Humor; 9. English Democracy and Irish Fenianism. This No. gives a very fair estimate of the writings and genius of Wm. Hazlitt, Leigh Hunt, Coleridge and Chas. Lamb. In the case of Coleridge, the estimate set upon his genius and influence would appear to be too high; but the sketch of Lamb is one of the most pleasant, genial and truthful that we have read in biographical or critical literature for a long time. We would not begrudge the yearly subscription of the London Quarterly for this one article.

CHARLOTTETOWN LITERARY AND DEBATING SOCIETY. The following readings and Recitations before the above Society, which were postponed from Friday last, will take place in the Upper Temperance Hall on Friday evening next 15th inst. at 8 o'clock. The doors will be opened at 7 o'clock and the public will be admitted on payment of an entrance fee of 5d. P. S. MacGOWAN, Sec'y.

THE PEOPLE'S FRIEND. Perry Davis' Vegetable Pain Killer Possesses virtues, which not alone remove pain instantly, but regulates the stomach, gives strength, tone, and vigor to the system. It is one of the medicines that is worth more than gold. Don't experiment in testing new remedies, when you can buy the genuine Pain Killer, which everybody knows to be good. The Woodstock (C. W.) Sentinel says: "It is generally admitted that the medicine manufactured by Messrs. Perry Davis & Son has been instrumental in alleviating much pain, and giving relief to millions of suffering humanity. The medical faculty almost everywhere recommend the Pain Killer, and its reputation is now established as the most beneficial family medicine now in use, and may be taken internally and externally to expel pain."

News by Telegraph. St. John, March 6.—London, 5.—The Colonial Minister has resigned for reasons connected with the handling of members previous to a meeting of the Legislature, unless they have first been placed in the Colonial Secretary's Office within the time specified. From not complying with these plain conditions, petitions for one object or another, year after year, thrown aside to be heard of no more, except through the unavailing grumbling and disappointment of their originators and signers. Now is the time for the people to act and have their wants supplied—failing in which, they will have themselves to blame if they do not obtain what they want.

All Accounts not settled before the 1st of APRIL, will be placed in the hands of the Clerk of the Court for collection without further notice. ALEX. J. McDONALD, Georgetown, March 6, 1867. Prepare for Lent! FOR Sale at the Rent Book Store: THE OFFICE OF THE HOLY WEEK, according to the Roman Missal and Breviary, in Latin and English. The week before Easter was called by several names, from the great mysteries and various ceremonies celebrated and performed in it. The Greeks and Latins have named it the Great Week, and its ceremonies the Painful Week, that is, the week of sufferings; also, the Week of Sorrows, the days of the Cross or of sufferings. "We call it the Great Week," says St. Chrysostom on Ps. 118, "not that it consists of a greater number of days, or that the days in it are longer, but on account of the great things which God has wrought in it: for, in those days, was a tyranny of the great overthrow, death, dismembered, and its cruel taking away; heaven opened and made accessible, and men made friends with the angels in this week, it is to celebrate the memory of the passion and death of her Redeemer; every part of the sacred liturgy is directed to the end; the Church's offices, more solemn and more multiplied in this week than in any other during the whole year, are most especially adapted to excite in the hearts of the faithful, the whole liturgy of the Church for the Holy Week has been collected in this volume; and is presented to the public, both in the Latin and English languages. Thus, while the pious Christian unites his voice with that of the Priest and of the choir, he may also penetrate the sense of the divine office, and sanction by the fervor of his heart what he pronounces with his tongue. For this reason, the editor flatters himself that this book will not fail to please all those who still entertain a due sense of piety and religion; and may profit even those who, through a want of instruction, seldom or never reflect on the great mysteries which the Church commemorates during the Holy Week. The very reading of the most pious and affecting part of the Church's liturgy is capable of exciting in their hearts a true spiritual devotion during the Holy Week. EDWARD REILLY, Charlottetown, March 6, 1867.

AYER'S Sarsaparilla. Is a concentrated extract of the chloret root, so combined with other substances of still greater alterative power as to afford an efficient antidote for disease. Sarsaparilla is reputed to cure. Such a remedy is rarely wanted by those who suffer from Strumous complaints, and that one which will accomplish their cure must prove, as this has proved, of immense service to the large class of our afflicted fellow-citizens. How completely this compound will do it, has been proven by experiment on the worst cases to be found in the following complaints:— Scrofula, Scrophulous Swellings and Sores, Skin Diseases, Pimples, Pustules, Blisters, Eruptions, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Tetter or Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, &c. Scurvy or the Venereal Disease is expelled from the system by the prolonged use of this Sarsaparilla, and the patient is left in comparative health. Female Diseases are cured by the EXTRACT OF Sarsaparilla. Do not reject this invaluable medicine, because you have been imposed upon by something pretending to be Sarsaparilla, while it was not. When you have used AYER'S—then, and not till then, will you know the difference of Sarsaparilla. For minute particulars of the disease you are cured, we refer you to AYER'S ANTI-SCROFULOUS, which the agent before named will furnish gratis to all who call for it. AYER'S CATARRHIC PILLS, for the cure of Coughs, Croup, Hoarseness, Hoarse-ness, Dysentery, Piles, Hemorrhoids, Gonorrhoea, Stricture, Pain or Morbid Inaction of the Bowels, Flatulency, Neuralgia, and as a Dinner Pill, are unequalled. They are sugar coated, so that the most sensitive can take them with pleasure and they are the best Aperient in the world for all the purposes of a family physic. Prepared by Dr. J. C. AYER & Co., Lowell, Mass., and sold by all Druggists and dealers in medicine everywhere. W. B. WATSON, General Agent for P. E. Island. Mar. 13—3m
