DUBLIN, June 10 .- The reports concernnsation in Dublin. The lord lieutenant and permanent officials were at the castle until last night sending instructions to various parts of the country regarding the see the children dead and gone to heaven, protection of landlords. The officials are in to see how pretty they were with the nice danger. The feeling of despondency here was never greater, and the feeling is intensified by the fact that the agricultural prospect throughout the country is particularly specified by the fact that the agricultural prospect throughout the country is particularly specified by the fact that the agricultural prospect throughout the country is particularly specified by the fact that the fact th pect throughout the country is particularly bright. The attempt to assassinate farmer Brown near Ballina was a work of daring. Six men approached him in a field, and asked him why he took the farm when he was warned not to. Six shots were fired at him. Two bullets lodged in his thigh. Brown was found insensible. He is aged 60 and will probably die. The police patrol passed the scene of the outrage ten minutes before. Four arrests have been made on suspicion of an attempt to murder East, an extensive farmer and mill owner in the county of Roscommon. This also was a daring act, Three men, with blackened faces, carrying heavy bludgeons, jumped over the wall of the farm-yard in the day time and attacked him savagely. His son came to his assistance, but was compelled to flee. East's wife came, but the assail ants then shot East in the hip, knee and ankle. He is sinking rapidly. Four men were arrested, but he could not identify

Earl Spencer, addressing a deputation o school teachers to-day, said the recent mur-ders furnished abundant proof that an or-ganization existed which murdered and maimed in open defiance of the law. He earnestly hoped that the repression bill be

The Irish bishops have issued an address The Irish bishops have issued an address to their flocks, prompting the support of the clergy to the reople in peacefully agitating for their rights but condemning as the worst enemies to the countrymen who recommended illegal courses, particularly those belonging to secret societies. The bishops condemn the recent horrible murders, but believe they were due to evictions, which it is the duty of the government to stop at any cost. They point ernment to stop at any cost. They point out that what is morally wrong cannot be politically right. It is the indeputable right of the Irish to live on their own soil. It is the right and often the duty of those oppressed, either by the state or individuals, to seek redress by lawful means. On these approval of the priests and bishops, and even of the pope and all just and generous men, without distinction, race or creed; but it is noforious that the means often nployed are utterly out of order. The employed are utterly out of order. The address specifies the means as refusing to pay just debts, preventing payment by others, injuring neighbors in person or property, forcibly resisting the law, forming secret societies and obeying the orders thereof. Under each of these heads numerous offences have been committed, fearfully prominent amongst them being the hideous murders which even at the present moment disgrace our country and provoke the anger of God and his church. We declare it is your duty to regard as the worst enemy of our creed and country the man who would recommend the country the man who would recommend the commission of any one of the above-named offences. We appeal to all to have no connection with secret societies but to oppose them as hostile to religion and freedom. Let us assure you that the national movement purged of what is criminal, shall have the earnest support of the clergy. A considerable instalment of justice has been within the letter. classes, particularly laborers, much more is due. It is the duty of the clergy and the people to press their claims in every peace-able and just manner, but the clergy can countenance no illegal means nor dissen-sion. The bishops express their belief that the late crimes would never have occurred if the people had not been driven to despair by evictions, justly described by the premitras sentences of death and which must be a fatal and permanent provocative of crime to which it is manent provocative of crime to which it is the duty of the government to put a stop as speedily as possible at any cost. The address is signed by Cardinal McCabe, Arch bishop McGettigan, primate of Ireland, Archbishop Croke, Bishop Nulty and twenty-one others.

CITY OF MEXICO, June 11.—It now appears that Guatemala's offer to withdraw her claim to Chrapias and Saconusco was on condition of receiving a heavy indemnity from Mexico. It is understood that the object of Barrios visit to the United States is to secure the pressure of the American government for five Central American republics to enter a confederacy and elect Barrios president, the compensation for this pressure to be an offer of annexation to the United States. The greater part of the Guatemala Mexicans are confident that the American government will not interfere.

Schenegtady, N. Y., June 11.—The general synod of the Reformed church, now in session here, has before it two memorials to change "hell" into "hades" wherever it occurs in the standards of the church.

We take it for granted that God wills that man shall act honestly. Right, not might, should be the measure. If a man has originated a theory, or invented a machine, he is anxious that it should have full scope where its power and application can best be seen. And so with christianity, can it have best scope in the church, the family and in commercial life? to be too true. Mr. Morrison was in good health on Friday evening, and he was around town chatting in a very buoyant spirit with his friends, and as one gentleman remarked who saw him passing up Toronto street, "I never saw Angus looking better." As he was late in coming to breakfast on Saturday morning a member of the family went to his room and made the sorrowful discovery. His right hand was placed near the region of the heart, and life had been extinct since 3 o'clock. Mr. Morrison's remains will be interred at 3 o'clock this afternoon from his late residence at Windsor and Front streets. sion ages before the snakes had time to crawl there from England. A LAMENTABLE FAILURE. It had got to be a recognized fact that religion had nothing to do with business, and nothing to do with politics. God help both of them without it. People preach about "getting religion." The phrase was a false one. We want to do religion, to live it. A man's religion is a man's life. The only way to God was through humanity. Christ had become incarnate, he was incarnate. had become incarnate, he was incarnate now in heaven and also on earth. MR. PHIPPS' NEXT ARTICLE.

Mr. Phipps' next article will appear The World to-morrow. It will be under the head of The National Policy-its avowed and its secret enemies.

An encouraging sign of the time is the number of young men who are at the head of our financial institutions in Toronto. Trunk is a power in many con-George Stephen at the meeting of the bank stituencies; it is opposed to the syndicate, of Montreal the other day attributed no small share of the good management of that great corporation to the policy pursued by the bank, for years past, of taking on young any means, and the expectamen and allowing them to rise by seniority. tion may prove a most deceptive one for The Shareholder of Montreal in speaking the reform party to depend upon. That of the progress of Toronto notes as a grati- the reform government of Ontario can count fying fact that nearly all of our money on having the Grand Trunk on its side is corporations are controlled by young men. sure enough. Herbert Mason of the Canada Permanent of loan companies, and Mr. Kenny of insurance companies, [are given as brilliant examples. But these gentlemen are nearly all of them what we might call the old young men. There is still another and younger generation of young men who are in the van of Canadian enterprise. They Blake? We think not. More probably it are opening up the Northwest, they are will be Grand Trunk policy to carry out the developing works partly begun in Ontarlo. These young fellows have little sympathy with the "fathers of the country" in the matter of politics or ways of doing business. In the former they look for a genuine national life: in the latter for more enterprise and push. We are behind our neighbors in these two respects: we have the Catholic league, the Catholic vote, or neither their spirit of nationality nor their spirit of enterprise. But both of these are coming, though it is the young men who will have to bring them about. But there is side. According to all present appearances certainly more sympathy between gentle- the same system of compromise voting-for that the Shareholder names, and the bub bling life of the younger generation. But we are afraid even that bond of sympathy would recieve a rather severe shock if some of the youths just embarking in business went down to the financial prodigies of the Shareholder and asked for a little accommodation. They would be asked for "solid names" and "solid names" generally speaking are the property of old men.

Toronto shows, as our contemporary points out, a "sign everywhere of general prosperity." This, however, is in a great measure due to her young men. There never was such a commercial activity among the youth of the land as to-day, and especially is this true of this city. They are taking hold of all kinds of business in the city and in the Northwest. We can name twenty to thirty students at University college who have investments greater or less in one enterprise or another -a fact never before known. All the young men ask is for "a show" from the 'older heads'; even without that they will get along. And as they are now getting the control of business, they will get control of the politics and let us hope for the better. We cannot look to the older men to reform their political ways or to advocate sounder principles. They must be left to go their way; the duty of the younger men is to avoid their tracks wherever they are narrow or misleading, and to strike out for greater commercial activity, for purer

But for these be an important factor in the development reform-protectionist votes, the revolution of our Canadian intellectual and religious of that year would not have taken place. life, Now for election probabilities. Can ny mortal man who walks the streets to-day, point to a single fact indicating that the body of reformers who voted for the N.P. in 1878 are likely, to any extent worth mentioning, to vote against it in 1882? Is it not true rather that the number of reformers who are also declared pro tectionists, so far from having fallen off in the meantime, has considerably increased during the four years? The fact is before our eyes that all the prominent reformer who declared in favor of the N.P. in 1878, are again coming to the front for it now, along with not a few who then held back. But those reform protectionists, who supported Sir John in 1878, rather astonished their conservative allies of that year by sup porting Mr. Mowat in 1879. That was an instance, and a very important one too, of what we call compromise voting. Now for what we firmly believe will turn out to be another. The Grand lation they wanted: they had but to ask, and Mr. Mowat and Mr. Pardee were prompt to give. West of Toronto they asked for charters creating more railway competition, and got it. East of Toronto they asked for charters to destroy, by law, the competition then existing, and they got that too. They will therefore support Mr. Mowat, of that let no man doubt. But will they support Mr. political compromise of supporting Sir John for the Dominion, and Mr. Mowat for Ontario. Of this identical compromise there have already been two remarkable instances. The protectionist reformers who voted for Sir John in 1878 voted for Mr. Mowat in 1879. In virtue of the compact with most of it, is sure for Mr. Mowat in Ontario. But in 1878, as is well known, the Catholic vote in Ontario was mostly cast on Sir John's Sir John and Mr. Mowat-is about to be repeated by the majority of Roman Catholic voters in Ontario. The signs are all that way, as any observing man must see. We say, mark well the growth of compromise voting in Ontario, Study attentively its course and tendency, the hold it s getting on some classes and on many individuals, and you may find the key to countable developments. Many a tory watch, when the Dominion elections are on Roman Catholics, and we venture to predict influence is concerned. We invite all concerned just to turn a little of their atten-

PUBLIC FEELING IN IRELAND. The old proverb "who is to guard the guard ?" has received a terrible illustration in the last Irish assassination, when the soldier detailed to guard Mr. Bourke shared his doom. It is practically impossible to take any precautions in dealing with assassins who, like the Russian nihilists or the Irish political murderers, are perfectly the Irish political murderers, are perfectly fearless of consequences. And there is reason to apprehend that there is something sible, for colonization of the Jewish revery like a general sympathy in Ireland for the executioners of a vengeance which is national and political, rather than personal. It now appears that the indignation professed in Dublin at the Phoenix park tragedy was to a great extent assumed and cleaked in a deep sense of exultation at the successful perpetration of such a deadly blow to English rule. It is known that Lord Frederick Cavendish's body was followed to its debarkation by a hooting and jeering mob. The situation is a very serious one, and if England attempts to renew the policy of Cromwell, and the half-hanging. and pitch-capping of 1798, serious complications may arise in America where public opinion may at any time take an anti-British turn and favor a crusade for Irish liberation.

A MISSION FOR PLUG HATS.

The ladies of the society for the sup pression of vice in their righteous zeal for the reformation of young men, have prozines be made for distribution among young men liable to be lured into the haunts of dissination. They therefore solicit donations of old numbers of magazines, and seem to expect that by being well supplied with back numbers of the Family Herald, the young men of the period will be inwardly moved to cleave fast to virtuous ways. By a mild course of reading in ancient periodical literature they trust to cast out Satan. Such confidence in the power of literature is touching ; but we fear "the old gentleman" is likely to be too much for the not very elderly ladies. But we suggest that a mission be set on foot to supply to any young man who may be destitute of that means of grace, a new and glossy plug hat. No young man in a new and handsome plug hat will ever wholly lose his self-respect. He will not enter doubtful and disreputable haunts. This hat will shed a Sunday influence over his week-day life. He will recall how he held it to his face on entering church.

A NEW STREET CAR MOTOR. In the new hopes excited regarding the use of stored electricity as a motor, the old experiments with other sources of power, such as compressed air and coiled springs, should not be forgotten. Mr. Oliphant appears to have had his hands full in attending, as representative of the Mansion house committee, to the wants of the Russian refugees in Galicia In a letter dated at Bucharest, May 8, he writes of receiving deputations, examining refugees, despatching emigrants, attending to a voluminous correspo European language, besides Hebrew, and of doing, in addition, a considerable amount of travelling. He was accompanied by Mrs. Oliphant. Crowds assembled to greet them on the way, and collected in front o the hotels at which they stopped, testifying their gratitute in the most extravagant terms. From Brody and Lemberg Mr. Oliphant went to Bucharest, intend fugees within the Turkish dominions, and especially in Palestine. He found the whole Jewish population of Roumania, with the exception of a few rich bankers and merchants, eager to start for Palestine as soon as fitting arrangements could be made. At Jossy he attended a meeting of delegates from tweaty-eight Palestine colonization societies. There are forty-nine such societies in Rowmania. At railway stations he was met by persons bearing lists of families who had signed as ready to go. "There is no doubt," he writes, "about the widespread popular enthusiasm on the subject, both here and in Russia. The difficulty is to keen the people form crowding into accompany. keep the people from crowding into a country quite unprepared to receive them in such large numbers."

"Before the wounds gape," says the Israelit of Lemberg, "the balm is ready. The truth of this saying of our sages has been illustrated in the most impressive manner at every period of the history of Israel's suffering. In Russis rages the scourge of persecution, and in England arises the instrument of rescue. If it is heartrending to see the suffering of our brethren on the one hand, on the other how orethren on the one hand, on the other how consoling it is to behold men, not at all o our race, who, inspired by pure philan-thropy, sacrifice strength, time, and money to their humanitarian labors."

The Israelit then speaks of the services rendered by Mr. Oliphant in caring for the refugees, of whom a party of 250, all in the most pitiable destitution and misery, arrived at Lemberg on the 17th of April, among them persons of all ages, men and women, infants at the breast, and many sick and barely with strength enough to drag themselves along upon their journey.
They were provided by Mr. and Mrs.
Oliphant with fresh clothing, and cheered and encouraged, while the Jewish residents of the place turned out in a body to provide them with food, all the women helping to cook and serve. At Sadagura Mr. Oliphant stopped to have an interview with a rabbi of that place, who is invested in popular belief with the power of effecting miracuthem with food, all the women lous cures and other astonishing and super naturel things, and who is known as the

Cheap Life Insurance. [From the Ætna Quarterly.]

The co-operative assessment associations have secured a large membership from their representations that they furnish cheap insurance. Men have been induced to join these associations because they recognize the uncertainty of life, and their duty to provide for their families in event of death. They have been led to believe it is the only true and in surance, and superior to the well-tested plans in use by the panies. We have frequently shown through the column that the representations of these associations and their agents are delusive and untrue, and that they are unwell-dence or patronage, having no permanent basis to stand up

THE ÆTNA LIFE INSURANCE CO'Y, of Hartford, Conn., was early in recognizing that a considerable number of those seeking insurance desired it upon the most inexpensive plans. With a view of meeting the popular demand it organized a copyrighted system, which combines the utmost cheapness, safety and equity. The plan requires only a minimum rate, and avoids the necessity of taking large premiums for the sake of returning large dividends. It gives all the advantages obtainable under more expensive policies. It is peculiarly adapted to those who desire to secure the largest amount of insurance at the least possible cost; to those who want immediate protection, but are not ready or able to pay for endowments or other plans more expensive, and for those who wish insurance for a limited time, or for a specific purpose. The accumulations under this plan are kept distinct and separate, and the insured receive the benefit of them by the application of the surplus at stated periods.

Mr. Edgar had said sneeringly said the speaker was the first state of the speaker was the first went out of power we again had surpluses. Cartwright was once president to the speaker was the first year of Johan Cartwright's administration there was a deficit although the out going ministry had left a surplus; the second year the deficit increased, and so on throughout their term. He had taken [A voice—"What about John O'Donohoe?"] shares and had moreover became the Candhar manager of the English shareholders.

[Loud laughter.] Mr. Edgar had further said that [Loud laughter.] Sir John Macdonald [Cheers.] Mr. Edgar had further said that [Loud laughter.] if it had been brass he (the speaker) would have taken the whole of it. [Laughter.] In answer to that he would say that nstitute, and Mr. Edgar was still sucking at that cow. [Cheers.]

THE PURITY OF CANADIAN GIRLS.
There was another thing that the chairman wished to allude to. In the Globe of ment from a "special correspondent" of that journal, the like of which was a dis-grace to the press of Toronto. When the nonor of the girls of Canada was brought into question we were all ready to rise and defend that honor. [Cries of "Yes, yes."] The Globe had said that the girls of the

WERE AN IMMORAL SET. He would tell the man who wrote those words and the paper that printed them that they were both, in plain terms, liars; he would read the words referred to from the Globe's corresponden from Montreal:

ence, and little object in life, even the exercises of the hour which stir the most commonplace minds, searcely rousing them from their stupor. One of my informants, speaking of Hochelaga operatives asys:

"Their lives are such that they become wholly apathetic—a brut's, in my own language, is the best that they become wholly apathetic—a brut's, in my own language, is the best of the property of their mental condition.

"heir lives are such that they become wholly apathetic—a brute, in my own language, is the best term I know to describe their mental condition.

THEIR MORALS ARE BAD, VERY BAD.

The conduct of the girls is immodest in the extreme, and a deep degradation reveals itself in both sexes when anything awakens them for a time from a mode of mental life which can scarcely be said to be more than mere existence. During a strike at the mills, in which I saw much of their conduct when aroused, the superintendent had to face crowds of men and gtrls who spat in his face and looked like demons. Even the quietest looking girls hurled the most obscene language at him and the mayor. Threats of violence were made by many, but no attempt was made to carry them out; the people are so sunken that they are too destitute of courage to attempt anything. I do not think that they are too destute of courage to attempt anything. I do not think in a hundred. A good-looking girl is almost certain to fall before she has long lived in the surroundings of cotton mill life." A mill president tells me "that the immorality which prevails is frightful," and he doesn't know what to do to check it. Mill operatives reli me a somewhat similar story. It is possible that the views referred to may be too dark. There must be girls whose purity of life resists the tendencies around them; these deserve real and practical respect; their weaker sisters deserve sympathy, for under the conditions in which they live there is little of an elevating character. An there wil which is common to mill industries, though intensified in cotton mills by the

They know nothing of housework, and are physically and otherwise incapable of rearing their children properly. Their husbands often take to drink." who wrote these words and the paper who printed them should be taken into the niddle of the bay and tied together with ropes and chains and sunk to the bottom.

[Cries of "So they ought."] THE N. P. AND CLOCKS. S. T. Culp, a wholesale importer of clocks and jewelry in Frontstreet, was the tirst speaker of the evening. He went into the merits of the N. P. as it affected the importation and manufacture of clocks and watches. He used the argument that He used the argument that while the duties ou these articles was much higher now than under the tariff of 1878, yet they were sold at a much cheaper rate, and he quoted from price lists, etc., to prove this. In 1878 he was one of the men who joined the party of progress, who swept away the fly-on-the-wheel, Kansastulking, know-nothing, do nothing Cart-wright and his followers. He had been up in Haldimand and Welland last week. While in Haldimand he passed the castle of "Davy" Thompson, the member for that Davy's castle was situated near peautiful stream and opposite the village of There were 17 houses in the 15 of which were boarded up. The other two were occupied by two men that Davy in his little mill. Davy was a very rich man but he was one of those that liked to keep his money locked up, but W. H. Merrit, his opponent, employed forty men. Mr. Thomson could not point with pride to his with both arms extended far into the air, he demanded of the meeting in a voice of thunder, if Davy Thomson could say with pride, "Look at In-di-ana! Look at In di-Mr. Culp then went on to show how the Hamilton clock works, which employed 300 people, had made such commendable progress under the N. P. The same could be said of silverware as of clocks; under the present tariff this article was cheaper than it was under the old one of 17½ per cent. it was under the old one of 17½ per cent. tival will occur He also furnished figures to substantiate Thursday next. this statement. In 1878 Burrows, Stewart & Milne of the Hamilton malleable iron works paid out $500 per week in wages; Processions and services took place at now, under a 40 per cent tariff, Rome, Paris. New York, San Francisco, their weekly wage-list was $1800. while ago that the terrible N. P. had raised the price of butter, and Davy Thomson of the same party told the farmers in his county that this terrible terrible N. P. had lowered the price of butter. [Laughter.] Mr. Wood of Hamilton, who was part owner of the Canada cotton mills, feels sick about the time of the elections and goes off to the old country to brace up, and Mr. Sanford of Sanford, Vail and Bickley, of the great Hamilton clothing house, also gets out of the way about election time and leaves his conservative partners to look after the business. This was the way of the grits. The speaker then related a trip through the conservative partners to look after the business. This was the way of the grits. The speaker then related a trip through the watch-making district of Switzerland, the progress of the art in that country how American workmen had got into that country and eclipsed the native artizans; how the Swiss watches had found their way into Ended any planted the British into England and supplanted the Britis make, and how finally the fine mechanism of watch-making was extended to the United States, and by severe competition with other countries watches were made cheap and accessable to all. He hoped all his hearers would vote for the N. P. Lawyer J. E. Rose remarked that we would not trust our case to a poor dector who could not cure, nor to a poor lawyer who lost all his cases and said the judge was stupied, and when we met a poet wh sang poor songs we said he was a grit. Thus it was with the liberal party; they were failures. The first year of Jonah Cart-wrong he was the first one to turn around and go back to the right road again. The Edgar had turned all his brass into gold. The speaker had never received one cent of money, patronage or favor from the government, while Mr. Edgar had received $18,000 for his fees in connection with the Mr. Edgar had received $18,000 for his fees in connection with the Mr. Edgar had received $18,000 for his fees in connection with the Mr. Edgar had received $18,000 for his fees in connection with the ship of state. He denounced those persons who were trying to set one faction those who were trying to set one faction. province against another province, and those who were trying to set one faction against another. The men in parliament did not recognize any of us as men of Ontario, but as men of Canada. [Cheers]

Those who preached independence were annexationists pure and simple. The what did it mean? The grit twaddle about this "burning question," as they called it, was getting stale. Then they (the grits) talked of an appeal to arms to defend Ontario rights. Imagine Mayor McMurrich with a pop-gun, J. D. Edgar with a flute and Tommy Thompson with a yard-stick starting out to look for the imaginary boundary line. [Laughter.] He closed by affirming that the conservative party was loyal to the old union-jack and the crown, and that the country was not strong enough to be independent of the old flag, and when we heard of a person speaking of and when we heard of a person speaking of independence, we could put down as an annexationist and a grit. [Cheers.]

J. Alph Livingston closed the meeting.

He dealt with the glories of the Northwest that Sir John nau marker that some produces a feel-according to my own observation—produces a feel-according to my own observation and the feelas a land for immigrants. The bargain that Sir John had made with the syndicate was out of question. The ministry of Sir John Macdonald had grappled with this great question in a statesmanlike manner, and Canada would find that she had trusted her affairs to wise and far-seeing heads The only thing that he could say about Mr. Mackenzie, his cabinet, and his followers was that they were the worst pack of un-hungvillains in the world. A DASTARDLY DEED.

A Bootblack's Crime-"Come on or I'll Blow Your Brains Out"-Bang!

Yesterday forenoon half-a-dozen bootblacks and newsboys started for the Hum-ber on foot with the intention of having a "high old time." After spending some time in various ways they started for home via the railway track. When a short distance from the city, one of the party named John Woods pulled a single shot cartridge pistol and turning round to another boy, Samuel Brown, who was a short distance behind, yelled "come on or I'll blow your brains out," and without further warn-ning fired on Brown, the ball striking the left temple midway between the eye and ear. Brown fell and the blood spurted out freely, when Woods became alarmed and asked Brown to say it was somebody on the hill that fired. Brown resolutely refused, and seeing that the case would be prosecuted Woods took to his heels and has not been captured yet. Two young men in a buggy took the wounded boy to No. 3 police station whence he was removed in the ambulance to the hospital. The extent of the injury is not known but it is supposed that the ball struck the temple at an angle and glanced off. The detectives are at work and as Woods is well known to them he will doubtless be captured.

Meld up in Lombard Street.

John Smith came to town from Oakville on Saturday, got on a spree and at 7 o'clock yesterday morning, he fell into the company of John Dayle, Michael Callahan and Michael Carroll, a hard crowd who hang about Lombard street. Smith was inveigled into a den on that thoroughfare, where he drank considerable. The four men came out together and while Doyle held Smith up Callahan took $14 out of his pocket. Detective Reid was at once notified by the victim and he arrested Calla-han and Carroll while Doyle managed to get away. Doyle was found two hours afterward in a water-closet in rear of 18 Lombard street by Detectives Reid, Burrows and Hodgins. Doyle has served two terms in the central prison for beating his mother and Callahan has been twice in the penitentiary. They are a hard crowd.

SPRING RACES OF THE ARGONAUT ROWING CLUB.

Two Prize Fights on Coney Island-Toronto Y. C. Race-Foxhall-Treatment of the Hillsdale Crew- Notes.

The spring races of the Argonaut rowing club have always been regarded as a social, as well as an aquatic event, and the suc cess which has attended these races i former season, was repeated on Saturda last. The members and their friends turn ed out in large numbers, the upper rooms of the club-house being almost uncomfortably crowded. The reception committee, however, managed to make every one enjoy themelves to their hearts content. While the more enthusiastic lovers of boating climbed to the top story to witness the contests, the majority of the ladies and gentlemen whiled away the afternoon is treading the mazy waltz. One of the features of the day was the refreshments, which were both abundant and enjoyable.

The caterer was Mr. Wylie. Punctually at 2,30 the races began, the following being the crews and the order of rowing: N H Wallace, stroke, K OB Moffatt, F A Bethune, F W Morson, bow. SECOND HEAT.

J W Hogg, stroke,

Jas. Pearson,

H T Brock,

W C King, bow. THIRD HEAT.

W D Gwynne, stroke A W Morphy, stroke, Victor O'M Armstrong, C E Brooke, bow.

Douglas Armour G H C Dunstan, P D Hughes, bow FOURTH

H Galt,
George Ridout,
W G A Lambe, bow.
The first heat was a capital one through might have erred in judgment in some things, but when he saw things were going out, and although the veteran Galt called repeatedly upon his men Wallace's crew crossed the line winners by four feet. In the second heat both fours got off on even terms and at one time it was thought that Hogg would succeed, but his bow oar, King, steered rather a bad course, which allowed Ince to forge ahead and win The third heat would have been almost a walk-over for the Morphy crew had not a stupid fellow, who said he hailed from across the "herring pond," got in their way thus causing a foul. Their opponents who thus causing a roul. I heir opponents who were not slow in taking advantage of this mishap rowed the remainder of the course. In order to give the unfortunate ones an opportunity of showing their superiority the same crews again went over half the distance when Gwynne's crew came in easy winners. This was a novel as well as an absurd pro-In the fourth heat the McKay four rowing in good form won easily by a length and a halt.

The fifth between the winners of the first and second heats was won by Wallace by a clear length. This was followed by the winners of the third and fourth heats, and was an exercise row for crew stroked by McKay. A rest of half an hour was then taken before the rowing of the final heat. Considerable speculation was indulged in on the result of this race, as it was thought the crews were very evenly matched, each having won two heats.
McKay, however, had got his men into along at a rattling pace, and although Wallace spurted again and again he was a length and a half in the rear at the finish.

CONEY ISLAND, June 10.—Benjamin Green and James Murray, Rhode Island pugilists, began a prize-fight in a hotel here this morning. A number of prominhere this morning. A number of prominent sporting men were present. Three desperate rounds were fought, when the Brookiyn police appeared. The assemblage scattered in every direction, many escaping by jumping from windows. Others left by the back stairways. Green, his backer, second and referee jumped from a window. Murray and his second, Daniel Dougherty, were arrested. It is said Green received the most punishment, but his friends claim if the police had not interrupted he would have defeated Murray. The fight was for $500 a side and the light weight championship of Rhode Island. The prisoners pionship of Rhode Island. THE TORONTO YACHT CLUB RACES.

The annual races of the Toronto Yacht club took place on Saturday. The start club took place on Saturday. The start took place at 2 o'clock the fleet being sent away from buoys anchored off the club house near the foot of Simcoe street. The course lay from the starting point through the channel to a bucy placed off Gibralter > of the Hall extradition case. It is under-stood that the Newark officers have addi-tional evidence to offer at to-day's hearing. There was a numor circulated on the streets yesterday that Mr. Worts was dead and many people were under the impression that it was correct. The gentleman, however, was very low, and yesterday for the first time since > his illness refused nourishment in any Winnipeg Times: The prisoner Kerr, who was charged before Col. Peebles a couple of days ago with obtaining money under false pretences and was ordered to be taken to Toronto to stand his trial, has not yet been removed, and it is not likely that he will be, as the plaintiff, it is stated, is endeavoring to get a settlement with him.

Young men, and old men too, for that natter, are asking why the police do not suppress a certain Yonge street merchant who has long been known to be a follower of a most abominable art. He is to be seen in the streets nearly every night on the lookout for "subjects." He uses the most approved artifices of this class of abominapproved artifices of this class of abominables to locate his victim.

Sam Smith, a boy, was at No. 3 station last night charged with stealing pigeons from a place on Portland street Saturday night. Michael Hughes was also in custody, as his wife got out a warrant against him for assault. Four young men, James Hackett, Wm. Greenway, and James and Frank Collins were arrested by the Wilton avenue police yesterday for trespassing on the property of the Christian Brothers, just sout of Riverside park. The demand for Le Mesuriers & Son's to baccos and snuffs is daily increasing. For some time past they have found it very difficult to fill their orders, but now as they have a fresh and full stock they are prepared to supply the trace on the shortest notice. Robert Shields & Co., the Ontario agents of this firm, give prompt attention in filling all orders and invite the trade to inspect the stock at 30 Front street east. At the mart on Saturday a vacant lot on Dufferia street, 240 feet south of King street, and an area of 120x200 feet, was offered, when the highest bid was $$1300; withdrawn. The white brich residence on the east side of North street, uear Bloor street, occupied by R. S. M. Sewell, with lot 50x100 feet was sold to Frank Arnoldi under a power of sale in a mortgage for $5500. Other properties were ogered, but no sales were effected.

A large number of ladies and gentlemen were present at the residence of the Misses Porter and Blackwood, Charles street, on Friday evening last, the occasion being the annual parlor concert given by the pupils of these ladies. The entertainment was greatly appreciated, and the program, which was somewhat lengthy, was gone through by the young people in a manner which gave every proof of the care and ability which had been bestowed upon their musical education. The accompanists were Miss Porter on the piano and Mr. Taulmin on the visibin on the violin on Saturday Night—A Van Full of Frati Feminine Humanity. When the friends of the society for the suppression of vice peruse the papers and sip their coffee this morning they will come to the conclusion that the police, especially those of No. 2 division, were very active on Saturday night. No less than 34 inmates of irregular houses, with their male consorts, were run in. The "Black Maria," when she left for the Don yesterday, was freighted full to the room with painted, frail, feminine nature, and the old lumbering van had to make two trips as there were 32 persons to take passage in her. SERGEANT SEYMOUR'S SWEEP.

THE MIDNIGHT DESCENT

PALACES OF SIN.

Shortly before midnight Sergeant Seymour and a pesse of his men left police headquarters for York street. The sergeant went himself to No. 145 kept by Fan. Dunn, and arrested her for keeping a di o der y hous; the only other occupants of the place were a sick girl and a baby, who were left unmolested. The other officers went to 181 and arrested May Davis the keeper, Mary McIntosh (20), Margaret Johnston (22), Carrie Matheson (19) and Michael O'Brien. While on the way to police headquarters a man named J. Shuemaker, who lives at Nelson and Simcoe streets rollowed behind the party. Policeman Cuddy, who was in plain clothes, thought that the man in the rear meant mi-chief, and fall ng back arrested huemaker. The latter had a stone weighing five pounds in his hand, and the polic hink that it was his intention to shie it at the officers. INSPECTOR WARD'S WALK ROUND

About the same time Inspector Ward, Sergeant Munroe and all of the night squad of No. 2 division started out. This police precinct contains more disorderly houses than all the rest put together, an houses than all the rest put together, and Inspector Ward's men made quite a haul. The party was divided up into squads and pulled the following places: At No. 5 G uld street, Maud Ross, (the keeper), Mary Pearson and J. Hedgess, Thos Jackman, R. H. James and Joseph Henway were found. At No. 142 Chestnut street, Annie Thompson (the keeper), Nellie Anderson, Maggie Johnston and John Mayor were captured. At 124 Edward street, Jennie Vincent (the keeper), Maggie Smith and Minnie Foster were taken in charge. went to Lorne park, Oakville and Hamil-Lena Rossa, better known as "Dutch Lena," the woman who wears the magnifi-cent warrdobes, runs No. 18 James street. cent warrdobes, runs No. 18 James street. This is said to be one of the most fashionable of Toronto's gilded palaces of sin, and is said to be extensively patronized by those who can afford to pay $6 for a bottle of bad wine and a couple of dollars for a 25 cent bottle of ale. The police made quite a haul here. Besides Dutch Lena, Pearl Snow, Georgiana Robinson, Chas. Williams, Joseph Mason, James Johnston, James Wilkes and John Evans were found.

No. 52 Albert street is kept by Lilly Howard. Ida Roduller, Cora Greenwood, Maggie Taylor and George Smith were also MRS. BEARD ALL ALONE.

Sergeant Williamson and his men of No. 4 division went to No. 149 Queen streets east and found Alice Beard, who has often been before the courts, alone in her house and she was removed to the station. THE MEN BAILED OUT.

Nearly all of the names given by the men are supposed to be fictitious. They were all bailed out on bonds of between $400 and $500. None of the women were $400 and $500. None of the women were allowed out on bail, however. Many supposed respectable citizens applied for bail for some of the girls. One man went to No. 2 station about five times to get "Dutch Lena" out, but the officers would not listen to him. Finally he brought a certificate from Dr. Pollard that Lena was a sufferer from sick headaches and her health would be impaired by incarceration. But she had to stay there. The raids created quite a stir among the immates of houses that were unmolested, and last night, it is said, nearly all of theses places were entire. said, nearly all of theses places were entirely deserted.

The Civil Assizes.

Before Mr. Justice Galt on Saturday, Currie v. Furniss was commenced but not finished. The plaintiff, John Currie, was a manufacturer of boots and shoes in Toronto, and in August of last year applied to Mr. Furniss for a loan of $1200. The loan was agreed to be made by Mr. Furniss, and Mr. Currie made a mortgage on some real estate which was given to Mr. niss, and Mr. Currie made a horogage on some real estate which was given to Mr. Furniss as security. Mr. Furniss failed be-fore the money was paid to Mr. Currie, and now the plaintiff sues to have the money paid or have the mortgage back. There were some partnership dealings between the parties, which, it appears, made it impossible for a settlement to be reached without recourse to the law. James Reeve for plaintiff. C. H.
