THRILLING EXPERIENCE

Of Forty Members of the Rodal Arcanum.

MANY INJURED.

The Trolley Car Jumped the Track, Fell on Its Side, and Dumped Them Into Water and Slush.

New York, Jan. 7.—A trolley car of the Brooklyn Rapid Transit company, carrying forty members of the Rodal Arcanum, jumped the track on a curve at the foot of a steep hill in Douglas street, Brooklyn, early today, turned on its side and was smashed, injuring sixteen of the occupants and dumping them into slush and water two feet deep.

None of the passengers were fatally injured. Several were temporarily pinned under the wreckage of the car, and help was summoned in the fear that they would be drowned before they could be released.

The party were returning to Bay Ridge from Canarsie, where they had installed a new lodge of the Royal Arcanum last night, and the streets at the foot of Douglas street hill were flooded by the pouring rain that descended from the clouds and blinded the motorman and hid the curve from his sight.

Fearing that the water would stop the car, the motorman drove his car into it at high speed. When it struck the curve, it jumped the track and rolled over.

The police reserves from two stations, a hook and ladder company, a wrecking car and two doctors with hospital ambulances soon arrived. The wreckage was piled up and the unconscious men taken out in time to prevent drowning. Several suffered fracture of legs or arms, and nearly all of those injured were painfully lacerated and bruised and suffered the dislocation of ankles, shoulders or wrists.

As fast as the injured were removed they were placed in rows on the slushy sidewalk and in the darkness and driving rain, the hospital attendants gave them first aid and then hastened them to the hospitals.

A number of others besides the sixteen most badly hurt were able to go home in cabs.

SWEPT BY FIERCE SEAS. Terrible Experience of the Crew of the Brig. Ohio.

Gloucester, Mass., Jan. 7.—The crew of the brigantine Ohio were landed here last night by the fishing schooner Theodore Roosevelt. The crew consisted of Captain Robert A. Wry, whose wife was also on board, and seven sailors, all of whom were rescued on Thursday of Grand Manan. The vessel was leaking badly and had suffered the loss of sails and rigging during the recent storm.

Signals were displayed at the Custom House sign station for the storm that set in this morning from the southeast. By one o'clock the velocity of the wind increased to 40 miles an hour, with frequent gusts at 45 miles.

The barometer was falling fast, with the temperature increasing. Indications point toward a severe gale on the coast, gradually shifting to west.

The Lake Champlain arrived at the island this morning with her three hundred passengers, but could not be approached by any tug or the doctor's boat on account of the high sea and wind. Several tugs tried but failed.

Around and about Fort Dufferin the sea beating against the breakwater presented a beautiful sight. The white caps were tossing, and the sea coming over the breakwater in one long line of foam.

The weather indications for tomorrow are for partially clearing and light winds. The temperature will be in the 40's.

THE STORY OF A GREAT SECRET. Millions of Mischief.

By HEADON HILL.

Author of "By a Hair's Breadth," "The Duke Declines," "A Race with Ruin," Etc., Etc. "And some that smile have in their hearts a fear, millions of mischief."

(Continued.) Not even Herzog's ingenuity could keep up the masquerade much longer, I was assured. For all my precautions I could not prevent a start when the crisis came, as it did shortly after we entered the drawing-room. Lord Alphonson had said good-night and had retired to the library on the plea of important business to attend to with a private secretary who had just arrived. Lady Muriel was chatting to Herzog, who, to my surprise, had pitched himself in her way on entering the room. I was standing at an open French window, looking out over the moonlit sea, and before I turned my back on the room Carden had been examining some photographs at the table.

"Yes, I was at Woolwich, for one term, with Rivington. What of it?" said Carden, without moving away from me. There was a hidden menace in his attitude, as though he were ready to spring on me and secure me if occasion arose. "Only this, that I am deeply interested in him, and am convinced that he was no more capable of those atrocious crimes than I am myself," Lady Muriel made answer firmly. "I thought you might enlighten me as to what he was like as a youth." Herzog at this point, as though weary of a subject that had been thrashed out in the newspapers and attired by the lawyers, strolled to the table and became engrossed in a book of prints.

"There! that bears out what my friend says," cried Lady Muriel triumphantly. "Does your description tally with that of a man who would kill his mother and sister for gain? A hundred times no, and I shall be ashamed of you, Ralph, if you don't take my side about him when Mr. Marske returns." Carden colored slightly and shot a glance at me, which he instantly averted when he saw how I was laughing upon his answer. "We will see about that," he laughed contentedly. "Not that either your championship or mine is likely to do Rivington any good, especially as he has got away to America, but I'll go so far as this—I hope they won't catch him. Now sing us something, Muriel, and forget all these horrors." As though to give effect to his dismissal of the subject he started to saunter to the piano, but I followed, and, touching him on the arm, said in a low tone: "When Lady Muriel interrupted us the discussion which you had invited was reaching rather an interesting point. Hadn't you better continue it?" He swung round and faced me fairly. "I detected no apology, but a trace of pique in the frank eyes."

Was Not Able To Walk For Three Months.

Was Given Up To Die. The Doctor Said So.

Burdock Blood Bitters Saved Her Life.

Read what Mrs. Wm. Castillon, Newport, Quebec, has to say about Burdock Blood Bitters. "I was not able to walk for three months, and was given up to die by the doctor. My husband read of the many wonderful cures made by Burdock Blood Bitters, so procured me two bottles. After using it for about ten days, I was able to get around, and could mind my baby without help from anyone. And am now well, and able to do my own work. I told a lady friend of mine who was troubled in the same way, and she used it with equal success. I cannot too highly recommend your medicine, for I know just how good it is, and hope and wish that anyone suffering as I did will give it a trial."

table turned my attention to Herzog, who had remained stooping over the prints during—could I hope it was so?—Ralph Carden's conversation. Herzog was straightening himself from his stooping posture, at the same time rubbing his large hands softly together, while every feature of his broad countenance expressed satisfaction. The sight of him plunged me back into the depths. I guessed that his wonderful insight had detected my danger from recognition by Carden, and that it was due to his inspiration that Lady Muriel had intervened at the psychological moment. He was aware of her enthusiasm on the subject; a mere suggestion from him would have sufficed to make her question Carden in the nick of time.

But what depressed me was that his could have been no kindly diplomacy. It could only have been directed at saving his own skin, or to enable me to make a fresh attempt on Lord Alphonson's life—probably at both. (To be continued.) You gain more than we do by eating "SWISS FOOD"—the most perfect breakfast cereal sold. F. McIntosh & Son, Millers, Toronto. Doctor—I think I'll have to call in some other physician for consultation. Patient—Go ahead. Get as many consultations as you wish.

ST. JOHN'S OPPORTUNITY.

In an article in yesterday's Times it was pointed out that the whole of the merchants of St. John are publishing their trade aggressively and successfully, and that a number of firms and themselves are cramped for room, while others are enlarged or have lately enlarged their premises. It was pointed out that this is a result of steady growth and not of anything like a boom in trade. Reference was also made to the development of St. John's trade westward.

WICKED HALIFAX.

Halifax is much agitated over the alleged non-enforcement of the liquor license law. The city council on Wednesday passed the following resolution: "Resolved, that this Council requests the Police Commission to instruct the police and license inspector by resolution of said commission to stop the sale of liquors in bars and hotels in this city during Sunday and that they report to the council."

enable people to get rid of an irksome bond. Why force them to wait ten years? Husband and wife generally know long before the expiration of that period whether they can agree or not. If there is nothing sacred about the marriage tie, why make people miserable by legal enactment? The Kansas senator is not doing himself justice. He should prepare a bill abolishing life-partnership and making it legal for men and women in Kansas to take one another on trial without limit of time or responsibility. It would be bad for the children, and for the lawyers, but think of the rash of immigrants to Kansas.

They are playing football at Victoria and Vancouver. B. C. While we in St. John are shivering in zero weather, and falling over "hog-backs" on the sidewalk, "red-shirted" and "full-backs" and "red-shirted" forwards on the Pacific coast are enjoying free kicks, "free rushes," "push-downs" and tackles. The porters piled in descriptions of stunts and scrums and scrimmages, and punts and kickings. There are lots of kicks coming in St. John, but the football reporter cannot do them justice.

The weekly reports of R. G. Dun & Co. and Bradstreet's today tell of favorable business conditions outside of the raw cotton market in the south, and of a feeling of confidence and preparations in the United States for an active trade.

The directors of the Exhibition Association are to be congratulated on the financial showing of the last fair. There is a balance of over two thousand dollars on the right side.

BURNED YESTERDAY.

Funeral of Rev. J. F. Forbes in Sydney was Largely Attended.

Sydney, N. S., Jan. 7.—The funeral of the late Rev. J. F. Forbes took place yesterday afternoon. Private services were held at 11 a. m. at St. Andrew's church, and attended by members of the Presbytery, after which the body was taken to St. Andrew's church where public services were held. Rev. J. A. McDonald, moderator in the absence of Rev. Mr. McKinnon, presided, and will conduct the funeral services in St. Andrew's church, on Monday evening at 8 o'clock. The funeral services were held at 11 a. m. at St. Andrew's church, and attended by members of the Presbytery, after which the body was taken to St. Andrew's church where public services were held.

SHORT MARRIAGE TERM.

Queer things come out of Kansas, and queer things stay there. The latest product of the state is a senator who proposes to meet the divorce problem and the trouble arising out of unhappy marriages by making marriage a civil contract with a time limit. He has prepared a bill, to be introduced in the legislature—and laughed out of it. But he asserts that he was asked to take action by a delegation of women. Here is the bill, which speaks for itself:

Which Found Its Destination Through The Times. The Women's Auxiliary of Christ church congregation, St. Stephen, held their monthly meeting in the school room on Tuesday evening with a large attendance of members. A pleasant incident of the meeting was a letter from Foo Chow, China, for a lady missionary, thanking the Women's Auxiliary, for twenty dollars sent to the mission for support of a blind girl. The letter was addressed to St. Stephen's church, Fredericton, Quebec. It went to Fredericton, N. B., then to St. Stephen's Presbyterian church, St. John, where it was advertised in the St. John Evening Times and proved to belong to the Women's Auxiliary of Christ church, St. Stephen, and was received by them last Saturday. The letter is full of grateful thanks and ladies' efforts, and in a few days will return the same amount. (Chalms Times, Jan. 5.)

HAS FOUND A NEW MOON.

California Astronomer Makes a New and Important Discovery. San Jose, Cal., Jan. 6.—Prof. Perrine of Lick Observatory has just discovered a sixth satellite of Jupiter by means of observations with the Crossley reflector. The moon is of the fourth-magnitude, slightly brighter and needs a telescope of ten or twelve inches in diameter to observe it. The orbit cannot yet be determined. The satellite is five or six times farther away from the planet than the outermost of the five others; its period may be from 6 to 8 months. The four very bright satellites were discovered by Galileo.

NEPTUNES WIN FIRST GAME IN PROVINCIAL LEAGUE.

Defeated the Mohawks at the Queen's Rink Last Night--Sussex Beaten at Fredericton--Opening of Nova Scotia and P. E. Island Leagues.

HOCKEY.

The First Blood.

There was a good attendance at the Queen's Rink last night, when the old rivals the Mohawks and Neptunes played the first hockey game of the season. The result, 2 to 1 in favor of the Neptunes was quite a surprise to a good many of the spectators as the majority of those present had picked the Mohawks to win.

The game was not characterized by any brilliant team work, in fact the combination play of both teams was very ragged. There was some good individual work on both sides.

The goal keepers had rather a busy time of it, although at times they were called on to stop some pretty hot ones.

The games last night showed that neither team had put in enough practice, or their combination work would have been better. However, it was the first game, and will tend to show the boys just where their weak points are. The Mohawks had considerably the better of the first half, but the Neptunes pulled together in the second half and were much more aggressive than their opponents. The points of both teams did not show up very well, both being rather slow.

The Line Up.

The teams lined up as follows: Mohawks. Goal. Neptunes. Carliele Point. Coombs Cover Point. Brown (capt.) Centre. McNeill Left Wing. McNeill Right Wing. Townsend Right Wing. Bilizard Left Wing. Murray. Howard

At 8:10. Referee Harry Dunn blew his whistle, and the game began. Rising and McNeill faced off, and after some rushes up and down the ice the puck was secured by O'Neill who put in a good hot one but Carliele was there and stopped it. Mooney was playing well, but did not get the support he should have had, he made several rushes and very nearly scored but was too far to one side when he shot.

The First Goal.

The puck was lifted back and forth for a few minutes, and finally Inches secured it and lifted a nice one into the Neptunes goal from his position, about two-thirds up the rink, after 14 minutes play. The Neptunes here started in very aggressively and considerable slashing and tripping was indulged in. Townsend was closely blocked by Inches and Mooney and O'Neill made a number of tries for goal, which Carliele stopped. O'Neill broke a shoe lace and time was called while he went in for repairs.

When play was resumed Murray and Townsend got into a mix up and the puck was lost in the benches at the upper end of the rink. In the face of the puck was shot to Neptune goal, McNeill picked it out and made a good rush down the rink and shot for goal but it was stopped. A number of offside plays were made and a moment later the whistles of the timers called the players off for half time.

Neptunes Win Out.

On resuming, the puck was kept in the Mohawks territory for a while, until Inches, Rising and O'Neill got in a little combination and carried it to the opposite end. Several shots were made for goal but resulted in failure. Howard secured the rubber and made a couple of good shots which were stopped by Tufts. About this time Townsend secured the puck and rushed down, placing it in the net. Tufts in endeavoring to stop it fell. The Neptunes supporters let loose and pandemonium reigned, when a moment later, McNeill poked in another, making the score 2 to 1 in favor of Neptunes.

The Mohawks started in to mix it up and Inches did effective work, but O'Neill did not seem to play his position, and Rising had his hands full with two men to cover. Mooney got the puck and carried it down and passed to Rising who shot, but Carliele blocked. Rising got a bad cut over the ear about two minutes before time was up, which necessitated another delay. Play was resumed but the Neptunes managed to keep their opponents from scoring and the game ended in favor of the Neptunes, score 2 to 1.

Pucklets.

"Oh what a surprise." Townsend and McNeill were conspicuous by their tripping. McNeill was worried frequently. Tufts received a bad clip on the hand with a stick. Rising received a bad cut in the ear; three stitches were necessary to close up the wound. It is not likely that he can play in Fredericton against the Trojans.

Y. M. C. A. and Ramblers.

The intermediates lined up as follows: Y. M. C. A. Goal. Ramblers. Brown. Debrisay Cover Point. Rathburn Right Wing. Terry Left Wing. Clawson (Capt.) Kenny Centre. Heans. Abbott Phillips and Belyea. Spence

The game started off considerably in Ramblers' favor, and after five minutes' play Spence shot the first goal. During the rest of the half no other goal was scored though H. Clawson made good rushes for the Y. M. C. A. E. Clawson and Inches also showed up well for this side, while Debrisay did good work for the Ramblers.

Baby's Own Soap advertisement with image of a woman and child.

In the second half Belyea replaced Phillips, who broke his skate. Y. M. C. A. played a good individual game, but the Ramblers excelled in combination. Within two minutes of time H. Clawson made a fine rush from end to end tied the score for Y. M. C. A. As the game ended in a tie, it was agreed to play five minutes overtime. Clawson again repeated the trick, and Y. M. C. A. won out, 2 to 1.

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

They make weak hearts strong. They make shaky nerves firm. Mr. Roy V. Cormier had a very trying experience while at College, but, thanks to Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, he has been restored to health. He tells his experience in the following letter to us: "Wellington Station, P. E. I., Dec. 31, 1905. Messrs. The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ontario.

"Gentlemen--Having been cured of a very troublesome disease, I find it my duty to write you a few lines. I was troubled with a very great palpitation of the heart and nervous prostration. I was attacked with it at College, and could not follow up the games of the University without being overcome with fatigue. I could not descend the stairs without resting half-way. I have left College, and am working in a general store where I found your famous pills. I used three boxes, and am now completely cured. I cannot thank you enough. You may use this letter for the purpose of benefiting anyone who is suffering as I did. My home is in Sackville, N. B., but at present I am on Prince Edward Island.

"I remain, dear sirs, Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, 50 cts. per box, or 3 boxes for $1.25 All dealers, or mailed on receipt of price. The T. MILBURN CO., Limited.

left wing and shot from in front of the goal. Staples was sent off for two minutes for tripping. The Trojans during this half had many chances to score, but failed owing to poor shooting.

At the beginning of the second half Sussex was full of confidence, but in a few minutes Rowan of the Trojans shot. The puck hit point's skate, and then went into the net. Seven minutes later Rowan shot another goal, and this was quickly followed by a third by McManamin. This was after a brilliant piece of combination work, which, however, failed.

Nova Scotia Games.

The first hockey match of the league series was played at New Glasgow last night, between the Crescents of Halifax, and the New Glasgow team. The game which was very exciting ended by a score of 5 to 4 in favor of the Crescents. In the league game at Truro last night, between Amherst and Truro, The Amherst team won by a score of 7 to 4. The play was rough, with Amherst on the aggressive most of the time.

The P. E. I. League.

At Charlottetown last night the first match in the senior hockey league was played between the Victorias and Abeywells. The Victorias won by a score of 3 to 0.

Palpitation of the Heart--Nervous Prostration--Cured by Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills.

They make weak hearts strong. They make shaky nerves firm. Mr. Roy V. Cormier had a very trying experience while at College, but, thanks to Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, he has been restored to health. He tells his experience in the following letter to us: "Wellington Station, P. E. I., Dec. 31, 1905. Messrs. The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ontario.

"Gentlemen--Having been cured of a very troublesome disease, I find it my duty to write you a few lines. I was troubled with a very great palpitation of the heart and nervous prostration. I was attacked with it at College, and could not follow up the games of the University without being overcome with fatigue. I could not descend the stairs without resting half-way. I have left College, and am working in a general store where I found your famous pills. I used three boxes, and am now completely cured. I cannot thank you enough. You may use this letter for the purpose of benefiting anyone who is suffering as I did. My home is in Sackville, N. B., but at present I am on Prince Edward Island.

left wing and shot from in front of the goal. Staples was sent off for two minutes for tripping. The Trojans during this half had many chances to score, but failed owing to poor shooting.

At the beginning of the second half Sussex was full of confidence, but in a few minutes Rowan of the Trojans shot. The puck hit point's skate, and then went into the net. Seven minutes later Rowan shot another goal, and this was quickly followed by a third by McManamin. This was after a brilliant piece of combination work, which, however, failed.

Klondykers Coming. The Dawson city hockey team will play here about the last of the month. Manager Spence has made arrangements to that effect. It is Mr. Spence's intention to tour the aggregation through New Brunswick and Nova Scotia. The tour will start on Jan. 23 and games have been arranged with St. John, Halifax, Sydney, Glace Bay, Amherst and Westville. At the latter place a combination representing all Pictou county will be pitted against the men from the Klondyke, Halifax and Sydney will probably have two games each.

Considerable interest has been drawn to this team. The fact that they have walked 400 miles from Dawson City in order to get in good condition is evident that they are out to win, and it would not be much of a surprise if they should secure the Stanley cup, and with it the championship of the world. The Capitals of Ottawa are the present holders of the cup. The games for the Stanley cup will take place Jan. 18th, 16th, and 18th, and almost immediately after these games the Dawson team will leave for the maritime provinces, where the opening game of the tour will be played in St. John. This team has booked engagements for games in the leading Canadian cities, and in American cities as far west as Illinois. St. John is the only New Brunswick town which will witness these games, and in order that the best all St. John combination may meet the visitors a committee composed of three old-time hockey players will have the selection of the team, and their choice will be governed by the showing the local men make in practice and in regular games.

Mr. Dillingham's opinion was requested to Umpire Zimmer, who has been connected with fast company as catcher, manager and umpire for upward of 20 years. "Mr. Dillingham is right," said Zimmer, "the game is not as fast, nor as brilliant now as it was 10 years ago. This is due principally to the fact that the war between the National and the American leagues brought a large number of half tips players into the business.

"These handicap the brilliant veterans by not being able to play their game, and incidentally make the entire sport look as though it had deteriorated. Some day we will have the old brilliant thinking game back again, but the evolution is coming in a decidedly hesitating way."

Not So Brilliant. Charles E. Dillingham, the theatrical manager who is an athlete himself, says that baseball has gone back in the past 10 years.

In speaking of a game witnessed last fall between two national league teams, he said: "It was the first game I had seen in about 10 years, and I must say that I am disgraced by the manner in which the game is played now."

EFFECTIVE ANSWER

TO ALD. CHRISTIE

With Reference to the Work Being Done by the Salvation Army Travellers' Home and the Need of Such an Institution in St. John.

A Times' reporter called on Adjutant Thompson, the head of the Salvation Army Metropole and Travellers' Home, a few days ago.

He found the officer busily engaged about his work, but when the reporter expressed a desire to know something of the methods and ways of looking after the castles and others, who find their way to the shelter, he immediately offered to give him all the information he possibly could.

"Come around here," he said, leading the way from the front entrance on Prince Wm. St. to the door on Water St. where the sign reads "Travellers' Home."

"Here is where our most interesting customers congregate."

"Now what can I tell you?" said he. "Of course there are lots of things in connection with our work which would strike you as queer, but I have become accustomed to them and don't notice them so much now as I used to. If you will ask me any questions about our work I will be pleased to tell you all I can."

"I suppose," said the reporter, "that you have some queer and interesting people here sometimes."

"Yes," he replied, "you might say, ever since we started. One night we had as many as eleven different nationalities represented in our lodgings. There are Danes, Swedes, French, Hungarians, Germans, Irish, Scotch, English, Dutch, Russians, and in fact all the nations of the world."

"Some only stay for a night or two, and others maybe a week or more. We charge them ten or fifteen cents a night for their bed, and a small sum for meals."

In many cases, when men land here penniless they go to some of the fraternal societies, and are given orders for food by them, and we collect from the society or the church as the case may be.

Asked if the men made much trouble he replied: "No," as a rule they are a quiet, well behaved lot, except when one comes in drunk, and then if he starts making trouble he is promptly dealt with. I remember one man not long ago who came in drunk, and was acting so badly we had to put him out. He broke a number of the windows, and otherwise tried to smash things, so that we had to close the door. Not long after he returned in company with two policemen, who asked me to take him back. They said he had told them about the trouble he had, and that he said he was afraid to go back, and he asked them to come and take him home. I asked him if I took him back if he would behave, and he promised he would, and said he would never take another drink, so I sent him in and told him to go to bed."

There was another case somewhat similar a short time ago. This man came in drunk and started making a disturbance, and I told him if you didn't stop I would have to put him out. He said: "There's no one here can put me out. I said, 'Is that so?' 'Yes,' said he, 'that's so.' 'Well,' I said, 'I'll have to try and I'll promptly grapple with him, and landed him in a snow bank outside the door. He railed around there for some time, and finally went away. A little later in the evening I went up town to order some provisions, and on my way back, when passing a dark alley, my friend of the pugilistic accomplishments, stepped out on me. He said to me: 'Are you as good a man as you were a little while ago?' I said, 'I guess so,' and he said: 'I'll have to try and I'll promptly grapple with him, and landed him in a snow bank outside the door. He railed around there for some time, and finally went away.
