Approach With Italian Government Factor.

Sacred College Believed to be Evenly Divided in Opinion on This and Opportunity is Seen for Selection of a Foreign Cardinal.

(Canadian Press Cable) Rome, Jan. 27.—With the body of the late Pope Benedict laid away beneath the flagstone of St. Peter's, the interest of the Sacred College and the Vatican household turned today to the election of his successor.

The question of a rapprochement between the Church and the Italian government enters into the election. A though canvass of opinion in the Vatican shows that the peace party, or those advocating closer relations with the government, are virtually deadlocked with the irrecconcilables, or those opposing a rapprochement.

Twenty nine cardinals, headed by Cardinal Gasparri, the camerlengo or acting head of the Church, are known to favor the continuance of Benedict's policy, which was understood to have been directed toward a resumption of relations with the Quirinal. Twenty members of the Sacred College are thought to be just as strongly opposed, while nine are classified as neutral.

The attitude of the United States Cardinals—O'Connell of Boston and Dougherty of Philadelphia—is unknown at the Vatican, but the opinion is expressed that unless a compromise is reached, never has there been such an opportunity for a foreign cardinal to be elected Pope. The majority enjoyed by the Italian members of the Sacred College is so evenly divided that Vatican officials admit all depends upon the attitude of the foreign cardinals.

The boom for Cardinal Mussi, Archbishop of Pisa, who was mentioned as favored by the government, appears to be on the decline. Archbishop Merry del Val, respectively leaders of the peace party and the irrecconcilables, are acknowledged by their supporters to have little chance of being elected themselves.

The candidacy of the Gasparri party, Cardinal Ratti of Milan, while Cardinal Merry del Val's faction, after voting for their leader on the first ballot in a test of strength, it is understood will switch to Cardinal Laurenti, the newest created member of the Sacred College presided for many years over the Catholic world missions, and is well known to all foreign cardinals.

Cardinal Van Rossum of Holland, is most prominently mentioned as a neutral candidate, should a deadlock be reached in the conclave. He is 67 years of age, and was raised to the purple by Pius X, in 1911.

For the first time in history, women will be permitted to be present in the quarters occupied by the conclave. They are the Sisters of Mercy, who will preside over the destinies of the cardinals' kitchens, which heretofore have been supervised by monks.

The arrival of Cardinals Schuler of Cologne, Bertram of Breslau, Faulhaber of Munich and Fink of Vienna brought the number of foreign cardinals in Rome to ten. In addition to the German and Austrian cardinals, there are here Cardinals Dubois of Paris, Lucan of Rheims, Maurin of Lyons, Vial of Tarazona, Bourne of London, and Gasquet, a British cardinal resident in Rome.

To Sail Tomorrow. New York, Jan. 27.—Cardinal Begin, archbishop of Quebec, arrived here today on his way to Rome. He will sail on the S. S. La Lorraine tomorrow. He is a guest at the Fathers of the Blessed Sacrament while here.

LATE SHIPPING Tacoma, Wash., Jan. 27.—Jack McAuliffe, Detroit heavyweight, was given a victory over Floyd Johnson of San Francisco after a terrific six-round bout here last night. Johnson fought an uphill battle nearly all the way, but showed exceptional staying power.

Grand Rapids, Mich., Jan. 27.—Bob Roper may be suspended from boxing in Michigan as a result of cancellation of his scheduled bout here tonight with Larry Green, according to Thomas Sager, chairman of the state athletic board of control. He has been suspended from the board at Lansing. Roper injured his hand in New York on Monday night, and Hugh Walker of Kansas City replaced him on the program, but this bout was postponed until next Wednesday because of Greb's failure to reach Grand Rapids until yesterday. The rules require each boxer to be on the ground four days before the bout.

LAST DAY OF IRISH CONGRESS

Paris, Jan. 27.—The world congress of the Irish race began the last day of its meeting here this morning with a discussion of a resolution putting the delegates on record as desiring that the result of the London conference, the negotiations of the Anglo-Irish treaty, was a denial of self-determination for Ireland. The resolution further pledges the delegates to use every means in their power to obtain complete independence for Ireland.

This resolution is regarded as merely making more specific the terms of the Irish independence resolution adopted on Wednesday. The new resolution was to come to a vote this afternoon when it was expected the congress would complete the details of the organization of the International Irish league and then adjourn.

OPPOSE DEMAND FOR BEER AND WINE

Ottawa, Jan. 27.—Vigorous opposition to a resolution of the dominion trades congress to the provincial government asking for the sale of beer and wine developed at a meeting of the local branch of the Dominion Alliance last night. A strong resolution was passed urging that the temperance act should not be so altered.

MAKES "THREE YEAR OLD" WHISKEY AT CITY COUNCIL MEETING

Buffalo, N. Y., Jan. 27.—How to make "three year old whiskey" in three minutes was demonstrated at yesterday's meeting of the city council by Dr. Francis E. Frotzsch, health commissioner. He mixed alcohol extracted from potatoes with fuel oil and burnt sugar and produced a whiskey which, he said, was commonly retailed for $6 a quart.

As Hiram Sees It

"Well, sir," said Mr. Hiram Hornbeam to the Times reporter, "I am going to Primer Post to raise a kick about this here health law. We had a real nice case of typhoid out of the Settlement 'n' along comes a feller 'n' pokes around 'n' finds out what caused it. If he had staid away we might 'n' had half a dozen funerals afore spring. That's what I call interferin' with the people's rights—'n' we'll hev to pay for it, too."

"No," said Hiram, "I'm going to run the county council."

Organizations were losing members rapidly, especially on this continent, organizations of employes and employ who have two standing armies facing each other ready for the conflict.

Mr. Parsons suggested that the time had arrived to separate the business from the diplomatic branch in the Canadian high commissioner's office in London.

Acres of Land Covered With Freezing Crows Danville, N. Y., Jan. 27.—Thousands of crows driven from their exposed places by the bitter cold have formed in a huge flock on the flatlands between Sonoma and Groveland. Farmers and motorists report acres of the lowlands literally covered with the birds, huddled together in the grass and weeds to keep from freezing. Many already have died from exposure and lack of food.

MUST GET BACK TO OLD CONDITIONS

View of Canadian Employers' Delegate to the Geneva Conference on Labor Questions.

(Canadian Press) Toronto, Jan. 27.—Dealing with the unemployment and labor problems, S. R. Parsons, Canadian employers' delegate to the international labor conference at Geneva, in an address to the Empire Club yesterday, said: "I think we will all agree that a reasonable amount of work is the finest panacea in the world for our physical, mental and moral health. I believe in reasonable hours of work, and where the work is heavy the hours should not be long, but my conclusion is that today the workers of the world have their minds too much fixed on the hours of work rather than on the hours they lose."

Number 9 is at work again. Colliers Resume Task Pending Settlement of Matter at Issue.

Glouce Bay, N. S., Jan. 27.—Number 9 colliery of the Dominion Coal Co., which had been idle since January 18, following dismissal of several drivers by the management, resumed work today. The mine workers decided last night to work with the drivers' positions filled with other men pending a settlement of the dispute between the company and the union.

Boy Hero of the Northland Saves Orphaned Brothers and Sisters after Terrible Hardships in Wilderness.

(Canadian Press) Port William, Ont., Jan. 27.—Five children, ranging in age from less than a year to twelve, have reached Watomb, on the Canadian Government Railway, saved by their 14 year old brother after enduring terrible hardships in the wilderness. With his wife and himself suffering from influenza, Athelton Nan Tucker, an Indian trapper, called his eldest son, Athelton, 14, to his bedside and bade him care for the children.

AWAIT DECISION ABOUT SHANTING

Important Moves Behind the Scenes. Confidence in Favorable Outcome is Felt in Washington—Opposition to Four Power Pact Gains in the U. S. Senate.

(Canadian Press) Washington, Jan. 27.—The arms conference continued to mark time today on the few issues now awaiting final settlement pending the outcome of President Harding's move to bring the Japanese and Chinese together in a complete agreement on the Shantung question.

Although the two groups, which now have agreed on every detail involved in the restoration of the former German leasehold to China outside of the troublesome railroad issue, had announced that they would not meet to consider the compromise proposal on that before tomorrow at the earliest, there were known to be important moves under way behind the scenes in Peking, Tokio and Washington. The general confidence that these could not result in anything but a complete agreement had been strengthened today by announcement that the Japanese and Chinese representatives would begin the drafting of a treaty tomorrow morning.

Considerable importance was attached to a lengthy conference of the Chinese delegates last night. Rumors were in circulation that the delegation was divided on the question of accepting the compromise proposal, although these had not been substantiated.

Washington, Jan. 27.—Growing opposition to the four power pact in the U. S. senate is giving administration leaders in that body much concern. Failure to reach a solution of the Siberian and Far Eastern questions in the conference on armaments is tending to strengthen opposition. A prominent administration leader in the senate said yesterday the situation was such that while the naval agreement would be ratified he doubted whether it would be possible to force the four power treaty through.

Is Not Outright. Washington conference could accomplish its object, as expressed in no wild terms by Mrs. Rose Henderson of Montreal, when she spoke on the subject of the Peace Conference Which Cannot Bring Peace" at a dinner of the executive of the Women's International League of Peace and Freedom, held here last night. Mrs. Henderson even declared that the Washington conference for the limitation of arms was a "disgraceful display of camouflage to deceive the people once more."

New Plan in Immigration IS PROPOSED (Special to The Times) Ottawa, Jan. 27.—There is a proposal that Canada should admit alien immigrants in numbers bearing a fixed percentage relation to the actual number of each nationality engaged in agriculture in Canada as shown by the census. This would favor the people of the land who have contributed largely of their Canadian emigrants to the farming population, and also the many who are refugees from continental cities. So far as the British Isles are concerned, all farmers and Canadian rural dwellers of good character would be welcomed, as well as immigrants from British Isles if the latter have plenty of money or are going to assured positions. Preferential treatment would also, it is expected, be extended to the United States and to British self-governing dominions. There seems every reason to expect a large number of British rural dwellers in Canada, because the war has broken loose the ties and attachment to the soil of many of these to a great extent. Canadian opportunities are being canvassed as never before. They will be welcomed.

Montreal Surgeon HAS PERFORMED THE LORENZ OPERATION Montreal, Jan. 27.—You have read of the noted Viennese surgeon, Dr. Lorenz, who performs bloodless operations for hip disease. Crows are waiting their turn to see him every day in New York. This very operation has been performed in your out-door department by one of your own surgeons, declared Gen. D'Alaird, president of the Homoeopathic Hospital of Montreal, at the annual meeting held here yesterday.

Mr. D'Alaird related the fact that he witnessed such an operation in the hospital, and added that "the work is on a par with doing is second to none in the country."

FOOLISH OF PARIS FASHIONABLES NOW GO IN FOR DOLLS

Paris, Jan. 27.—Dolls for grown ups, dolls that are from three to five feet in length, that hang limp, with trailing limbs, are the latest craze in fashionable Paris.

A favorite is a pale faced perrot, with wide staring eyes, and bright red, bowed shape lips. He is placed in the corner of a settee, and his white face and black silk costume produce quite an artistic effect.

Another type is a shock-headed peasant, a grotesque leer on his rubicund face, and dressed in a blue blouse, red and white striped trousers and wooden sabots.

Winnipeg, Jan. 27.—(Canadian Press) The three day annual meeting of the Social Service Council of Canada was brought to a close yesterday. Dean L. Norman Tucker and Dr. J. G. Shearer were re-elected president and general secretary respectively. The council deprecated the growing tendency to increase grounds for divorce in Canada, but felt unable to adopt the stand that divorced persons should not re-marry.

Resolutions respecting mothers' allowance, prohibition and gambling were passed. It was urged that all provincial governments should collaborate on matters of administration to make the standard of mothers' allowance uniform throughout the dominion. Regarding gambling, it was contended the government protected race track betting, which is a source of revenue, and if legislation which allows special permission for raffles and lotteries of charity and church organizations should be abolished. Newspapers and business advertisements were condemned for holding public health said that a survey of the cases of influenza reported by the physicians showed that there were no cases of flu in this city up to today.

Investigation of some twenty cases supported "flu" in Kent county also showed that there were no cases of epidemic influenza, the cases consisting of common influenza or bronchial ailments.

C. M. Hayes represented the C. N. R., W. H. Macdonnell the C. P. R., and A. H. Margeson and H. B. Durst the farmers. The railway men thought that it would be impossible to effect a general lowering of fertilizer rates, but suggested several concessions which brought the rates of some of the high price ones more nearly equal to the others and made rates to different parts of the province more equal.

THE HOSPITAL AID MAY PROVIDE SOCIAL SERVICE WORKER
The Women's Hospital Aid is contemplating maintaining a social service worker in connection with the General Public Hospital and at the meeting of the Aid yesterday afternoon in the board of trade rooms the superintendent of the hospital, R. H. Gale, was given a sympathetic hearing when he outlined the activities such a worker would be likely to engage in and told of the benefits she would bring to the hospital and the people. Mrs. E. Atherton Smith, the president, was in the chair and the report told of a month of more than usual helpfulness and activity.
Thanks for many gifts to the hospital and the nurses' home were received from Mr. Gale. With regret the resignation of Mrs. R. Duncan Smith as treasurer, tendered because of ill-health, was accepted and Miss E. A. Addy consented to act as treasurer until the special meeting. The hospital commissioners sent approval of the placing of a plate commemorating Mrs. Gale's services in the room in the nurses' home which the Portland Methodist W. H. A. wished to furnish as a memorial. Greetings were received from Miss M. C. Scott, former superintendent of nurses. A letter of congratulation was to be sent to Miss

The nation of Dominion would have no independent access either to the Atlantic or the Pacific Ocean, and annexation would be the obvious escape from this isolation."
The west wants better markets, tariff reduction, lower railway rates and control of its own natural resources. These matters must be seriously considered by the new government and parliament, and every reasonable concession should be made to avert discontent. The danger is a cleavage of interest and sentiment between East and West. The problem is to create real unity and substantial community of interest. The difficulty is one that might easily be made more serious by rashness and bad temper on both sides, and the people, both East and West, ought to turn their thoughts in the direction of proposing remedies. Seclusion, with its inevitable drift towards annexation, is out of the question. But permanent discontent in the Prairie West is also an evil which should be prevented by every means in our power.

What our friends in the East do not seem to realize is that practically all the trouble in the West results from the operation of intentional discriminations, applying to Westerners just because they live in the West.
Western Canadians pay more for everything they buy, and get less for everything they sell, than either Eastern Canadians or American citizens residing immediately south of the Prairie Provinces.
Comparison of prices, and realization of discriminations, excessive costs, and losses, make in the aggregate a disturbing force which works towards conflict between East and West, and opens the way for the bringing in of annexation propaganda.
The real difficulty is financial, not political, difficulty in making a living on a farm when the farmer sells in a free market of world-wide competition; buys in a protected market, increasing prices not less than twenty-five per cent; and earns by comparison that his American neighbor to the south always has a decided financial advantage both in buying and selling.
Arguments and explanations will not bring satisfaction. There must be a cash remedy in terms of dollars, and a removal of discriminations.
The first necessary step is fortunately one which will not cost anybody anything, but, on the contrary, will make money for every industrial, agricultural, transportation, commercial and financial interest in Canada.
This is to open the Pacific Gateway of Commerce; cut out the iniquitous Mountain Scale, which is really an insupportable tariff, preventing the western farmers from getting full value and quick returns for his produce by shipping to Pacific port. Doing this, and doing it now providing equal freight for equal service in respect of all freight traffic, will remove nearly all the trouble in Alberta and a great deal of the Saskatchewan difficulty.
Prosperity on the Prairies will only come when the gates of commerce have been opened, and the most important gate of commerce is the Pacific Gateway.

FROM JENNY LIND TO GERALDINE FARRAR

(New York Evening Post)
They all do it sooner or later. Jenny Lind, when at the height of her fame and popularity, left the opera house for the concert hall, chiefly because she was a real artist who wanted of singing all the time in the same opera, not all of them of the highest class. Lillian Nordica, Emma Eames, Mavella Scarselli, Alma Gluck, Fritsch Hempel, Sebastian Hink, all turned their backs prematurely to the opera and took to singing the lyric and dramatic songs of the great masters. And now Geraldine Farrar joins the procession, much to the surprise and dismay of thousands who do not see how they can get along without shouting "Butterfly" or "Batterfly" at Zaza, her Marguerite or Manon, or being thrilled by her Navarraise or Carmen or Louise.

Her next season, which will cover the whole country. But how can one who has been, next to Caruso and Jean de Reszke, the best paid opera singer of recent decades voluntarily give up such an honorable and profitable position? Well, the prima donna just mentioned found they could earn a good deal more in the concert halls, thanks to their operatic prestige. Mrs. Farrar can easily better her Metropolitan income by $100,000 a season. It is doubtful, however, if that was her chief motive in deciding to leave the Metropolitan. The lure of lyric song is great! It calls for a finer, more subtle art than the opera does, as a rule. By her recital programmes in recent years and by her volume of "Favorite Songs" she has shown that she naturally gravitates towards real masterpieces. Artistic treats of the highest class are therefore in store for those who will hear her in the concert halls, all the more so her voice has, for reasons known to her friends but not yet made public, been recently rejuvenated in an astonishing manner. Operagoers will hope that she will return to the Metropolitan, as she did once before after a year's absence. Probably she will. La donna e mobile—particularly in prima donna. It may be said, in conclusion, that the Metropolitan needs her more than she needs the Metropolitan.

CASE SETTLED.

The case of McKinnon vs. The Imperial Guarantee and Accident Assurance Co. was settled this morning before going to the jury. The parties reached an understanding of court. D. Mullin, K. C., appeared for the plaintiff, and Dr. F. R. Taylor, K. C., for the defendant.

COASTING PARTY.

The C. P. R. girls of Carmarthen street Methodist church enjoyed a very pleasant coasting party last evening, after which a delicious supper was served at the home of Mrs. Isaac Mercer. After supper, the balance of the evening was spent in music, and the happy party broke up after giving three cheers for the hostess.

ENCOURAGE BOY SKATERS.

A skating enthusiast who is interested in the skating meet to be held in the south end next Tuesday has suggested that similar meets be held on the east and west end pinks for boys under twenty years of age and the winners of the various events meet in a grand final. He promised to donate a cup for the boy winning the highest number of points. He said that as the north end boys have no rink they might be allowed to participate in the east end meet.

MISS L. CROMWELL.

LIST OF GIRLS WHO WALK STREETS

One to be Kept, Says Police Magistrate.

Calls Attention to Recent Sermon—Interesting Evidence of Alleged Theft of Nineteen Cases of Gin from a Warehouse.

In the police court today, Magistrate Hittle said he was sorry to call attention again to the way girls were walking the streets at night but felt it was necessary. He wished every minister in the city would speak as strongly on the subject of present day home life as Rev. H. A. Armstrong had done and regretted the fact that things didn't seem the same as when he was young. There would, he said, be made a list of all girls seen walking the streets after seven o'clock in the evening without legitimate business on the morning of January 9 after receiving a call from the police and finding that a section of the floor had been cut out. The back door and a door in a partition between the office, where the hole was, and the shipping room had been opened by removing the locks. Nineteen cases of gin were in this room on Sunday afternoon, January 8, but there were none at three when they arrived on Monday morning. They identified two of six cases in court by private marks which were made on them in an attempt to scrape them off.

Detective Biddiscombe testified that on the morning of January 9 when he arrived at the station he had a conversation with Perry, who was in custody. As a result of information received from him a warrant was issued for the arrest of four others, including Matthew Friars. About 10.30 o'clock, he said, he went with Sergeant Power and Detective Donahue to the warehouse where they found things to be as told by the other witnesses. On the night of January 11, the witness said, he and Detective Donahue were going along Main street when they saw a car coming along the street from Main street. They stopped it. The car was driven by Murray Hayward. In the front seat with him was Harry Wetmore and in the back were Matthew and Robert Friars. Matthew Friars had the robe pulled up over his face but took it away when he was ordered to do so. He was told to get out of the car. He got out by the door opposite the detective and started to run but was caught by the witness and caught him. On January 13 a search warrant was issued for the premises of Max Lambert and the six cases of gin in court were found there.

FORMERLY OF ST. JOHN.

Many friends in St. John will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Sadie Hodgkinson, beloved wife of Abram Hodgkinson, which occurred suddenly at her home, Blackstone Court, Lonsdale, N. B., on the 21st instant. Mrs. Hodgkinson before her marriage was Miss Sadie Pierce, eldest daughter of Jane and Robert Pierce, former residents of St. John, but now residing at Lonsdale. Besides her husband and parents, Mrs. Hodgkinson is survived by three small children, two brothers and two sisters. The brothers are John and Leonard, while of New Bedford, Mass., and the sisters are Mrs. Annie Mossey of Pawtucket, R. I., and Miss Teresa, at home.

BUSINESS INQUIRIES.

The secretary of the Board of Trade has received a communication from a firm in Osaka, Japan, asking for the names of exporters importing cotton, rags and waste, and also manufacturers of nuts, dates and seedlings in olive oil want to establish business connections with firms in this province. A New Brunswick man, who is thinking of establishing a retail grocery in another part of the province, wants information as to wholesalers in the grocery line. The secretary of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association in Toronto has written to the secretary of the local Board of Trade asking for information about St. John that would be of interest to their members. They also want the opinion of the local board in regard to the proposed St. Lawrence waterway to Port William.

SIR ADAM BECK WRITES RE HYDRO QUESTION HERE

The St. John Hardware Clerks Association has received a communication from Sir Adam Beck, chairman of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power Commission, thanking them for the various newspaper clippings which have been forwarded him dealing with the local hydro question. Sir Adam said that he was much interested in the local situation and had been following closely its developments. In concluding his letter, Sir Adam says, "I trust the province of New Brunswick will be successful in its inauguration of a scheme of public ownership, which has proved such a benefit to the people of our province."

POSSIBILITY FOR BUILDING AREA

Some Filling at Newman Brook Would Open Opportunity for New Street—No Danger Now.

The filling in of the area under Newman brook bridge is now nearly completed over nearly one-half of the culvert which was placed underneath the span and in about a week the other end of the bridge will be opened to receive material. The foundations of the bridge have been cracking recently but it is felt by the road engineer that the pile of material under the bridge has removed the danger of the bridge collapsing should the foundations fail.

After a visit to the site this morning, G. N. Hatfield, the road engineer, said that should the culvert in the brook bed be continued westward as far as the main piers and the area filled in over it, a street could be run through the made land to provide some excellent building sites in the residential district of the city. He said there was also an opportunity of opening up a passage eastward towards the Shamrock grounds to take traffic through by Lansdowne avenue to Main street. The grade would be an easy one and it would help to open up the building area in the vicinity of the Shamrock grounds.

Our buyer has just returned from a visit to the Ontario Furniture Exhibitions and Factories, and has secured some unparalleled bargains which will be offered, as they arrive, to our customers. Just now we will emphasize a lot of quartered oak Buffets, Tables and Dining Chairs, which were secured at ridiculously low prices from manufacturers who are discontinuing these particular patterns. Some of these are now on our floors, priced lower than we have sold anything equal in quality for years. Just think of it, some of them are forty per cent lower than we sold the same articles for a month ago. They are marked regardless of regular lists and regardless of replacement costs, for we state positively that goods of same quality will not be offered as low this season again. See the red tags on every article. Prices speak for themselves.

HON. A. MEIGHEN IS ELECTED

Majority of 1620 Over Progressive Candidate.

Ottawa, Jan. 26.—There was manifest relief among members of the old political parties in Ottawa tonight at the election of Right Hon. Arthur Meighen in Grenville today. The first returns showed heavy majorities for Mr. Meighen in the towns and villages and these majorities were never in danger by the Progressives in the rural parts.

In the election of December last, 8,731 votes were cast in Grenville and these Casselman, Conservative, received 4,824; Payne, Progressive, 2,282; McIntosh, Liberal, 2,014.

Today's contest with its 1620 majority for Mr. Meighen brought out a much lighter vote, though the weather in eastern Ontario was all that could be desired for the polling. Complete returns give Meighen, Conservative, 4,488; Patterson, Progressive, 2,818.

With his election today Hon. Mr. Meighen is assured of an income of $14,000, $10,000 of which he will receive as opposition leader, the remainder being the seasonal indemnity. Some time ago Hon. Mr. Creer, leader of the Progressives, intimated that he would not be opposition leader. The former premier received the returns at his home here tonight. As soon as the result was confirmed he left for a social call on friends and would make no statement beyond expressing his thanks to the electors of Grenville. He said that he had received support from many Liberals there, besides that of his own party.

THE TEMPERANCE ALLIANCE COUNCIL

Resolutions Passed Regarding Limit on Prescriptions—Report of Executive.

The council of the New Brunswick Temperance Alliance completed their sessions at Fredericton on November 22, the executive was authorized to send the government a memorial concerning the administration and enforcement of the prohibition act. Following your instructions this has been forwarded. A copy of the above communication is hereby appended.

We are pleased to report that an order-in-council was passed on December 15 bringing into operation, in thirty days, the sections in the Canada Temperance Act prohibiting the importation of liquors in New Brunswick for beverage purposes. We rejoice that this law has become operative and marks another milestone in the path of progress of our work in this province.

Before this law came into operation, however, unknown and unseen forces were plotting and planning to overthrow the decision of the people. We are informed that some are working to bring into effect a law that would, if adopted, be in direct opposition to the expressed will of the people as we have had it in New Brunswick.

An insidious campaign has been carried on here as elsewhere against the prohibition act. Little discernment is required to discover that we are the victims of a counter attack against the prohibition act. Again they are endeavoring to mould public opinion by subtle suggestions. We note every day news items setting forth the breakdown of prohibition. A deliberate attempt is being made at present to influence the thinking people and to incite against the prohibitory principles.

The situation indicates a plain duty for every Christian. Instead of calmly enduring these floods of misstatement, abuse and ridicule of the temperance reform, which stands for the highest welfare of the race, thinking men and women should protest against the propaganda in the name of respectability and righteousness. Editors of newspapers ought to be challenged to reveal the source of their information when they publish misleading statements appearing in their journals. Cartoons and slanderous preachers and temperance reformers should bring them to book from decent people, with the warning that the guilty parties must not repeat such presentations. A little robust rejection from the readers of publications that have become channels for the distribution of propaganda created by liquor forces will speedily open the eyes of easy-going editors and publishers to the folly of lending themselves to the nefarious business of espousing the cause of intemperance.

Ridiculing prohibition, however, has wider implications than those involved in the attempt to nullify temperance legislation. Let newspaper writers, cartoonists, vaudeville players and movie picture actors in league with the actual breakers of the prohibition law, continue their attempts to make a joke out of prohibition and they will succeed in undermining respect for all law. Already in these provinces, there is a growing tendency to consider it legitimate to violate the law, provided the perpetrator is not caught. The undermining and sappers of the liquor traffic are at work here on the very foundations of our liberty. By the use of money and by their blatant disregard for the will of the majority, they are promoting a state of open anarchy.

It is the duty of church people and all lovers of decency to educate, if possible, these enemies of freedom in the manners of respectable society which requires that the desires of the individual be subordinated to the welfare of the well-being of the majority in the group. If, however, these lovers of liquor cannot be trained into worthy citizenship, then they must be restrained and kept from doing harm. This coercion is also the business of a Christian. Your executive is convinced that the time has fully come when it must put itself on record again to oppose to any relaxing of the restrictive sections in the prohibitory act, and that steps be taken to have amendments made that shall ensure non-consumption of liquors for beverage purposes.

We are convinced that section 31 of the act should be changed so that only a limited number of prescriptions may be issued by physicians and that for a limited quantity of liquors. Experience has shown that with the restrictive measures now in operation, it

TANLAC A SPLENDID TONIC WITH CONCENTRATED VITAMINS AND PUREST SYSTEM PURIFIER. The World's Greatest Tonic 25,000,000 BOTTLES SOLD.

Increase in Weight! MILLIONS of people all over the United States and Canada have not only been relieved of the most obstinate forms of dyspepsia and indigestion by the Tanlac Treatment after other remedies have failed, but many of them have reported a remarkable and rapid increase in weight and a return to normal health and strength by its use.

Although Tanlac's claims for supremacy are abundantly supported by the world's leading authorities, it is the people themselves who have really made Tanlac what it is. Millions upon millions have used it with the most gratifying results and have told other millions what it has done for them.

That is the REASON WHY Tanlac has become the real sensation of the drug trade in the United States and Canada, and that is also the REASON WHY it is having the largest sale of any medicine of its kind in the world today.

Tanlac is sold in St. John by The Ross Drug Co., Ltd., and F. W. Munro, and by leading druggists everywhere.

is to be expected that a greater patronage can be expected at the offices of some physicians. As a protection this amendment should be made.

It is evident that there is in New Brunswick a feeling in certain quarters that a change should be made in the prohibitory act. Statements appearing from time to time concerning the amount of money made in British Columbia and the province of Quebec seems to have influenced some. Stories are circulated that by adopting such a plan as the above provinces have all the evils of the existing systems are eliminated and all benefits secured.

Authorities from both British Columbia and Quebec assure us that the system in operation there has not diminished the evils we have here but rather accentuated them, that lawlessness, crime, smuggling, bootlegging and every other evil attendant upon the liquor traffic is rife.

What we want in New Brunswick is that prohibition be given a fair chance. That necessary amendments be made to the prohibitory act, such as an increase in the amount of penalties for infringement of the act, and that jail sentences be imposed at the discretion of the magistrate for a first offence. That the government, through its department, supply official prescription blanks to the physicians, the number not to exceed one to any one doctor in any one month.

That an aggressive, impartial enforcement take the place of the half-hearted, happy-go-lucky method at present going on.

ROBERT BURNS ANNIVERSARY

A Burns' concert was given last night in Centenary Hall under the auspices of St. David's church. The hall was thronged to the doors, with an audience who were delighted with the variety of the Burns' programme, and with the manner in which it was handled by the local talent.

Dr. C. Corbet was chairman for last evening's entertainment and he had with him for exhibition a copy of a second edition of Burns' poems, printed during the poet's lifetime. It was kindly loaned for the evening by J. P. Clayton, and after the concert a great many examined this highly priced relic.

The solos last evening were sung by Miss Louise Knight, Miss L. LeLachue, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Guy, Miss Hilda R. Williams, F. J. Funder, R. B. Irving and Miss Bernice Collins. The programme announced a solo by DeWitt Cairns, the popular baritone, but he was unavoidably absent. Then there was a singing duet by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Guy, a Highland fling dance by E. MacDonald, assisted by Miss M. Macdonald, and a violin solo by Mrs. T. J. Gunn. All these performers were obliged to respond to merited applause.

No Burns' night, however, would be complete without a reading from his poems and no better choice could have been made than that by Miss C. Baillie, who delivered an inspired reading of "The Cotswold Saturday Night" a poem that is matches for its simple dramatic vigor and its thrilling patriotism.

The accompanying music was by Beatrix Currie, who filled his part admirably.

REDUCE HARBOR BUDGET $30,000

By a vigorous wielding of the pruning knife, the city council yesterday afternoon cut the harbor estimates for 1922 from $88,000 to $58,000. This reduction was brought about by reducing or omitting the amounts asked for repairs to various wharves, the council deciding to make only those repairs that were absolutely imperative. Mayor Schofield presiding and others present were Commissioners Jones, Bullock and Frink. The council is not expected to meet again until Saturday afternoon when it is hoped that Commissioner Thornton can be present to bring down the estimates for the fire and police departments.

G. H. Hare, the city engineer, was called in for consultation and he explained to him that it was going to be a hard job to find money for civic work this year, and the council had to reduce the estimates down to the minimum. Mr. Hare said that if the city had not the money, it would have

A FARMERS MISHAP

Farmer Edward Crane, of Kinburn, Ont., writes:—I was driving three horses on a narrow wheelbarrow while fixing it, one of the horses kicked me against the sharp edge of the harrow. I sustained a nasty cut on my elbow and wrist, and I could not leave work to get the wounds dressed, dirt got into them and my arm became very painful.

I looked for some time as if I were going to have some very bad sores, but I was advised to try Zam-Buk. I did, and in a few days my arm was much better—less painful and the stiffness less troublesome. I continued using Zam-Buk freely and in a short time the wounds were entirely healed. I believe Zam-Buk to be the best ointment obtainable. It should always be at hand ready for emergencies.

Mothers and fathers should bear this in mind. In the home, on the playground, at school, or in the workshop accidents will happen, and Zam-Buk is the best "first aid." It is strongly antiseptic—kills the germs which cause inflammation, festering and blood-poison. The rich herbal essences of which Zam-Buk is composed, soothe pain and quickly heal any injury. Zam-Buk is also a sure cure for eczema, ulcers, abscesses, piles, blood-poison and all skin diseases. 50c. box, all druggists and stores or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, for price. HAD BAD COUGH AND SORE THROAT

Never neglect a cough or cold however slight. If you do it can become a bad cough and sore throat, or both, affected. A single dose of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup will help to stop the cough, soothe the throat, and if the cough or cold has become settled on the lungs the healing power of the Norway pine tree along with the soothing and expectorant properties of the berries, roots and bark promptly eradicates the bad effects, and the persistent use cannot but help to bring about relief.

Dr. Albert Marsh, Lower L'Ardoise, N. S., writes: "About a year ago I contracted a cold accompanied by a very bad cough and sore throat. I sent for the doctor, but what he prescribed did me no little good. I began to get discouraged. A friend came to see me and asked me if I had ever used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. I told him I had not and sent him right away to get a bottle. I started using it, and after a couple of days I found a certain relief, and after taking two bottles the soreness in my throat seemed to be leaving me, and I resolved to continue its use. After I had used five bottles both my sore throat and cough were gone. I would not be without 'Dr. Wood's' for any more days." Price 80c. and 60c. a bottle put up only by The T. NEW SENSATION IN EVIDENCE IN ARBUCKLE CASE

San Francisco, Jan. 27.—More evidence intended to show that Virginia Happe, motion picture actress, died as the outcome of a chronic complaint and not as the result of a supposed attack by Rose C. Arbuckle, was adduced yesterday in the trial of Arbuckle.

Dr. George F. Shields, defense alienist in the first trial of Harry K. Thaw, testified that spontaneous ruptures of the bladder were possible. He illustrated how such ruptures might be caused by muscular contraction due to alcoholism, hysteria and other causes.

The defense announced that a three-week search for Mrs. Irene Morgan of

PEACE WITH SAFETY FRANCE'S SOLE AIM

French Attitude at Washington Conference Frequently Misunderstood—No More Invasion.

(Montreal Gazette.) A deeply interested gathering at the Canadian Club at the Ritz-Carlton Hotel yesterday listened to Mr. M. Casenave's presentation of France's case at the Washington Conference, and especially her reasons for demanding sufficient military force and a large naval force, both in capital ships, light cruisers and submarines.

M. Casenave emphasized the fact that France undertook first the reconstruction of her factories and fields rather than of houses, so that the strange spectacle was seen of peasants tilling recovered fields, and working in new factories, while they were living in nearby dug-outs.

Mr. Casenave explained the position of France at the Washington Conference, which he said had been frequently misunderstood. He was particularly anxious to explain this to Canadians, because the French position had been misunderstood in England as well as other countries.

"First I must emphasize that France desires and needs peace—permanent peace. France's most pressing problem today is reconstructing her devastated lands, which cannot be imagined without a perfect and durable peace."

Mr. Casenave presented figures to show that since the armistice France

"Those Who Dance Must Pay The Fiddler"

There's a settlement in profit or loss, for nearly every indulgence.

Sometimes the pay-day is long deferred, and in that case the settlement may bear compound interest.

Often a payment in ill health is required for the dance had with tea or coffee during earlier years. Sometimes the collection comes in sleeplessness, sometimes in headaches, sometimes in high blood pressure, or in nervous indigestion—sometimes in all these penalties.

Nerves won't always stand the whipping of tea and coffee's drug, caffeine.

If you've been dancing to tea or coffee's fiddling, why keep on till payment time comes? If you're beginning to pay, now, why not cancel the contract?

There's an easy and pleasant way to avoid tea and coffee's penalties, as thousands have found who have changed to Postum. It is a delight with any meal—rich, comforting and satisfying—and it never harms. Even the little children can have a breakfast cup of Postum, with no fear for what may happen to sensitive nerves.

Instead of paying penalties for your meal-time drink, let it pay benefits to you, by giving natural health a full chance—and begin the new arrangement today. Any grocer will sell you, or any good restaurant will serve you Postum.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of large bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

THE LEGISLATORS SHOULD MAKE TOUR

(Vancouver Sun.)

Parliament at its next session must deal with great and vital problems; urgent and imperative, which cannot be evaded or laid aside for future consideration.

Immigration, railways, freight rates, taxation, tariff, public works will present questions demanding immediate attention by the decision of men who should have some personal knowledge as distinguished from a geographical or historical knowledge.

Acquaintance in the great majority of cases leads to appreciation. Every member of the Canadian parliament should be invited, and so far as the government has power or influence, requested to traverse Canada from coast to coast, going one way over the Canadian National Railway and the other over the Canadian Pacific.

No man is fit to legislate for Canada until he has seen Canada. Money expended by the government in paying the expenses of every member of parliament on a journey from one end of Canada to the other would be only a reasonable and necessary insurance premium for securing good legislation and ensuring against inadequate or ill-considered legislation.

We believe that the efficiency of parliament would be very greatly increased over every member who makes a trans-continental tour of personal investigation. Even if the times were normal, and the demands for parliamentary action confined to routine legislation, there would be a great factor of safety in legislative action by a body of men who were dealing with localities they had actually visited.

Our legislator friends from the eastern provinces, once they come out and get acquainted, will find that western Canadians inhabit a fair country of much resource; and that the great golden future of Canada will materialize largely as a result of co-operation between east and west; and will be retarded by any intervening discriminations.

In this spirit we suggest to the press of Canada that a nation-wide movement be undertaken to have every member of parliament "See Canada" before he enters upon his duties as a Canadian legislator.

Workers Cannot Afford to Pay $7 a Bottle, the Price Charged in Toronto. Bootleggers in Toronto, now find themselves with considerable stocks of liquor in their possession of which they are unable to dispose, says the Globe in a news page story, and this state of affairs which they had not anticipated, according to one of them, is due to the refusal of the wage earner, who was expected to be a steady patron, to pay the prices which must be charged to leave a profit. The only way in which these stocks can now be disposed of is by selling $8 in drinks. It was explained by this bootlegger, who was anxious to get rid of fifty cases of what he declared to be the choicest stock, that the general depression had reduced many people to a position where they had to take the greatest care of their money. "No one will pay for $7 upward for a quart of whiskey now," said he. "Times are hard and every dollar counts. Consequently, the only manner in which these stocks can be sold is in drinks. Men who could be depended upon to take a quart of whiskey off your hand occasionally have only the odd dollar to spend. They drop in with a dollar or so and have a couple of drinks and then go on about their business." This bootlegger said there were other evidences of the industrial depression shown in the illicit liquor business. He said that he had been harassed daily for months by individuals who came to him with old clothes, boots and other articles in payment for liquor, and occasionally a bootlegger would suffer loss by his willingness to take such checks in payment for whiskey. "Almost every bootlegger in Toronto is in this position," said he. "They purchased their stock from Montreal at big prices, believing that the scarcity of whiskey and liquor would always keep the prices up. Now they find that it is even difficult to do a business by selling it in drinks, let alone in quart. A bootlegger cannot trust a man to bring the money back if he lets him have a bottle on credit. In fact, the entire business has gone to pieces through the industrial depression." He believed there was little prospect of bootleggers recovering their losses sustained through the depression, unless they were prepared to take the immense risk of retailing their goods by drinks and an occasional sale by bottle. He doubted if conditions would improve to a point where the wage-earner was prepared to pay $7 a quart for whiskey. The Third St. Andrew's Boy Scout troop was host last evening to the Sixth East St. John troop when the latter was entertained to a theatre party at the Imperial. At the conclusion of the "movies," games were enjoyed and refreshments were served at the St. Andrew's troop's hall, by the ladies of the church. Scoutmaster J. B. Robinson was in charge during the evening and an enjoyable phonograph concert was given. Two European professors arrived in the city yesterday on the steamer Tuntian. Professor and Mrs. G. Johnson will make their home in this city and will give a recital shortly, after which they will engage a professional musical career. Both Professor and Mrs. Johnson had had notable musical careers in England and on the continent.

THE PEOPLE OF YAP. Montreal Gazette: - The natives of Yap, the very small island which international statesmanship has transformed into a very important one, possess what is probably the most extraordinary currency in the world in the shape of limestone discs, varying from six inches to a foot in diameter. More wonderful still they keep their money piled up outside their front door. The island has a modest little trade in copra, mother-of-pearl, and phosphates, while its prehistoric remains and its protective coral reef are of great interest to the scientist. This represents the other side of Yap life and not the valuable cable features which made the possession of the island of them in the side of diplomacy for a lengthened period. The defendant, accused of stealing chickens, had been duly examined in court and at the conclusion the judge said: "As I understand it, Sam, you entered the hen-house and then, deciding to resist temptation, left it. Is that correct?" "Yes, suh, Judge. Dass about right." "In that case, can you explain how two of the hens were missing?" "It was jes' dis way, Judge. I took 'em. I reckoned I was entitled to dat many 'er 'cause I was."

ATHLETIC.

The Covey Inquiry.
Halifax, N. S., Jan. 27.—The Herald says: "No matter what President Covey and his associates pretend doing with the athletes charged with professionalism, some of the stars of the maritimes will have to give an account of their doings. Several men associated with the Independent Hockey League have sent a list of names to President Covey demanding that the men be investigated. On the list are the names of every worth while athlete in the province. It is learned on good authority that the independent hockey men got peeved when the amateurs had their game stopped at Halifax and decided to get revenge. The independents say that they would not have started the rumpus had the Halifax clubs acted squarely. Bob Algie, crack Moncton athlete, Phil Riddell, Gee Albern, Hay Hanton, Hey Haverstock, Fred Lane, Bob Goodhue and Monte Haslam are charged with brave violations of the amateur rules.

BADMINTON.

I. O. F. AFFAIRS.

Hamilton, Ont., Jan. 27.—Local members of the I. O. F. think that when the resolution passed on Monday at a lodge meeting, calling for a royal commission to investigate the order's affairs is sent to the insurance department it will ask for the circulation of a petition among the members asking their views on the matter.
The resolution was not put to the meeting, which was addressed by Chief Ranger Hunter, until the greater part of the members had left, owing to the lateness of the hour and some question as to the force of a resolution put to those remaining at the meeting was raised. Those behind it think the department would act upon it to the extent of asking for the circulation of a petition.

STAINLESS IRON'S
MANY ADVANTAGES

New Product is Said to be Tougher Than Ordinary Iron and Stronger Than Brass—Lead Wool a New Invention.

(New York Times).

A stainless iron which is tougher than ordinary iron and stronger than brass has been produced as a result of experiments that have been conducted in Great Britain for some time past. The object of these experiments was the production of a metal possessing the rust-and-stain-resisting properties of stainless steel, but so ductile that it might be employed for purposes for which stainless steel, by reason of its hardness, is unsuitable. It is stated in a late report from the British metal trades that the new stainless iron can be forged, stamped, pressed, embossed, chased or engraved, and finished equal to electrolyte. Meanwhile it possesses a primary advantage in that no heat treatment is essential, as is the case with stainless steel, to bring out its stainless properties. The new stainless iron may also be soldered, brazed and electrically welded. It can be obtained in bars of various sections, strips, sheets, tubes, and even wires. It is anticipated that the new untarnishable iron will be used for many purposes, from art metal work to making hot water bottles. Bathroom fittings, bolts and nuts, bicycle parts, buttons, cooking utensils, drop forgings, needles, motor car bonnets, cooking stoves and ranges, steam radiators, ship fittings, shop fittings and solid in tanks or skins like ordinary wool. It takes the lead over any alternative process for calking pipe joints, for conveying water, gas, electric mains, drainage, &c., representing a great improvement over the older method by which molten lead is run into the joint and then calked. Advantage over the older method are claimed on the following counts: The cast lead method requires cumbersome, expensive and sometimes dangerous melting apparatus. The lead is run in the face, which, it is asserted, does not sufficiently provide resistance against pressure, vibration and sagging. It is necessary for the pipe to be perfectly dry as otherwise the moisture turns to steam and blows out the lead, thus leading to weakness and consequent danger and expense. When pipes have to be laid in wet ground, or in repairing a burst main, considerable difficulty is encountered. If the yarn is improperly calked there is danger of the lead running through into the pipe, causing waste, and affecting the flow of gas or water through the pipe. These difficulties are all removed with the use of the lead wool. It is pointed out. First the yarn is calked in. Then every turn of lead wool is calked so that the joint is well calked throughout. The finish joint is said to be twice as strong as the run-lead joint and will withstand three times the amount of vibration and sagging without leakage. Meanwhile the cost is one-third less. No special skill is required and only slight preliminary instruction necessary for workmen. Concrete pipes will be used, it is prophesied, in future in many parts of the world, and lead wool is a very suitable material for jointing such pipes. It gives the necessary flexibility to the pipe, and being applied cold, there is no danger of surface cracks being set up. The trade report cites the many special jobs which have been carried out in recent years in various parts of the world, including British Columbia, West Indies, India, Straits Settlements, Chile, Australia, New Zealand and Nigeria, for which the older process was entirely unsuited. An example was the work of calking cracks in concrete works while the water was still running.

C. P. R. PLANS NEW VANCOUVER PIER

D. C. Coleman, vice-president of the C. P. R., western lines, on his return to Montreal from the west yesterday, said that the most important work to be undertaken by the company in the near future was the construction of an immense pier at Vancouver. The filling and dredging for the site have already been completed. The pier will be eight hundred feet long, with provision for further extension, and will be equipped with modern facilities for handling passengers and freight. Other lesser building will be undertaken in different parts of the west, including the completion of the extension to the island coal dock at Fort William.

WHY GERMANY SHOULD PAY UP

English War Pensions—Prosperity Exists Everywhere in Northern Germany Says A. J. Dann.

(Toronto Telegram) Just why Prof. A. E. Zimmern, attaché of the British disarmament delegation at Washington, when addressing a meeting at the Windsor Hotel in Montreal on Monday, held under the auspices of the Queen's University Alumni Association should appeal to the Canadian Government to urge Great Britain to right the wrong she had done in including in the German bill for reparations the amount payable for pensions and allowances, is what Fitzmaurice Alfred J. Dann, recently returned from Germany, would like to know.

Germany Not Bankrupt. Dann, living at 168 Sunnyside street, left Montreal last September, and arrived at Copenhagen October 2nd. He reached Wipperfurth, Finland, and was charged November 18th. He then signed on a German freighter and worked his passage through the Kiel Canal to the story of the excellent living conditions existing in Germany is a wonderful revelation and contradiction of persistent rumors that Germany is individually and nationally on the edge of bankruptcy.

Big Gains for Signaling. He first stopped at Kiel for five days. The first thing he noticed was that all the coast defenses were dismantled. In fact, none of them were "42" and "42a" being still in their original wartime positions. The Germans whom he spoke to claimed that they were for signaling. "You can tell us that it needs a 92-inch gun for use as a fog signal," said Dann.

Conditions generally were very prosperous there, I found, he said. Kiel is known as a manufacturing center, making articles of all kinds. There was lots of work there for everybody. Enough is earned by any class of laborer to support his family in comfortable circumstances, pay ten per cent. tax on his income, and still have money easily.

Conditions are very low, in fact the comparison between prices of commodities and salaries earned is more favorable to the wage-earner than it is in Canada or the States; $10 per month in Germany will go as far as $110 per month in Canada.

"I bought this pair of shoes I have on, outside leather covering on the tips and sole, and paper on the inside, which I wore continuously for three months, for 26 marks, i.e., 19 cents in our money. I could buy a good tailor-made suit, English tweeds or English serge for 2,000 marks, of $15. Black bread, in common weighing one kilogramme, or roughly speaking, two pounds. Horse flesh, which was always used there, is selling for two and one-half marks per pound, while vegetables are plentiful and very cheap.

"Everybody is happy there," he said. "There is more gaiety there than before the war, and Kiel is perhaps more gay than the French ports ever were. The amusement places, saloons and refreshment houses are crowded all the time. I bought a box in the best theatre in Kiel for ten marks, or about seven cents.

"All the factories formerly making machines of war have been easily converted to peace time uses. For instance, the machines in Bertha Krupp's subsidiary factories, formerly making the barrels of big guns, are being used for turning out steel and iron piping.

"There is very little poverty in Kiel. There are no workhouses nor Houses of Providence there. No need of them." Many Commercial Ships. Dann next spoke of his stay at Wenden, a large shipbuilding centre, situated half-way down the canal. "Good wages are paid the shipbuilders there," he said. "They are building a huge commercial fleet. The largest commercial ship in the world is under construction there, owned by Mrs. Lips, owner of the German Black F. line of sailing ships. The ship will be over 1,000 feet long, and the gross tonnage will be 70,000 tons. Prices are ranging much the same as in Kiel. Coming down through Williamsport, he noticed again the coast defenses and the heavy guns standing all along the pier heads there. There the German sailors gave the same excuse of the guns being used for fog signalling. Conditions were very prosperous there too.

Flooded With German Toys. He next visited Bremerhaven, St. Nicholas and Hamburg, all situated close together on the River Elbe. "There was an enormous amount of cargo in the sheds waiting to go out. Most of it consisted of plate glass consigned to American manufacturers, and German toys for the English market. The English toy market is flooded with German toys, more so than it ever was before the war. Even the old rags, the remnants of cast-off clothing, were being exported by the hundreds of tons to England for the manufacture of fancy paper, etc. They were building commercial ships at full speed there. Prices were even lower than at Kiel. Everywhere prosperity reigned. I was able to buy a pair of leather knee-high sea boots for eighty marks, or sixty cents.

Large Air Fleet. "Even back beer there costs only four marks per litre, or three cents for three pints. "There is ample opportunity to save in Germany," Dann said. "Another thing particularly noticed was that eighty Zeppelins are flying out of Hamburg every day with mail for all parts of Germany, Lithuania and Poland. You can't tell me that they need all those Zeppelins. They are all in perfect condition for war service, and are still fitted up with bomb-dropping appliances."

Mr. Dann is a 20th Battalion man, and joined the C. E. F. in October, 1914. He was wounded at St. Etienne, Ypres sector, in 1916, with a piece of bomb in the face.

WESTERN CULTURE APPEALS TO CHINA

(Toronto Mail and Empire.) A graphic picture of a China with 400,000,000 population eager for all the advantages of our western culture, was drawn by Dr. Tsui, consul-general of China, in his address before the Canadian Club yesterday afternoon at the Central Technical School, on the subject of "The Intellectual Movement in China." An interested audience listened to the speaker unfold the history of his people for the past 4,000 years, their aims and ideals, their principles of trade and commerce, their international relationships with other countries, and their present position in the Washington Department Conference. Dr. Tsui was introduced by Mrs. John Bruce, president of the club, who stated that among other guests held by the distinguished Chinese visitor, who was, for the first time since his appointment in Ottawa, visiting the club, were those of secretary of the Chinese Legation at Tokio, a member of the Cabinet Council at Peking, also consular in Australia and various countries of Europe. Dr. Tsui has the appearance of an immaculate Englishman, and would seem the ceremonious manner of the east.

The points made by the consul-general dealt primarily with the need for revision of immigration laws governing the entry of the Chinese. As the law now stands, the poorer and less refined Chinese were coming to Canada, often through the agency of syndicates, to make money, while the student classes were debarred owing to the high poll tax of $500. Dr. Tsui deeply regretted that the Canadian Government and the University of Toronto were not educating the young Chinese to a greater extent, as the Chinese students who returned to their native country from the west were being the leaders of their people. In France and in England the young Chinese were being prepared in college. The Canadian immigration laws kept away the Chinese students. In China the Chinese students who returned to attend the universities of the west, to keep pace with the men of their land. To change the present law would result in a better type of Chinese coming to Canada for educational purposes, and would benefit the trade relations between the two countries.

A vote of thanks was moved to the speaker for his able address by Mrs. John A. Cooper, who expressed the hope that the old saying "East is East and West is West" would pass away, leaving a better understanding of the east by the west. Mrs. Ketcheson seconded the vote of thanks.

STRONG NOTE OF OPTIMISM

Toronto Trade Board and Business Prospects.

Retiring President Points Out That Conditions Which Have Adversely Affected Canada's Trade are World-wide and are Now Gradually Improving.

(Toronto Globe.) Whilst admitting that world conditions did not hold out the hope and encouragement which some had been expecting, there was, nevertheless, a strong note of optimism in the address which the retiring president, W. H. Alderson, presented at the annual meeting of the Board of Trade of the city of Toronto yesterday.

He pointed to the fact that in some other parts of the world there are unemployment, and even war, rebellion and famine, but in Canada unemployment and slackness in industrial activity are practically the limit of the unfavorable outlook. Conditions in Canada, as well as in the United States, were no doubt affected adversely in many ways by the situation in the least favored parts of the world. Those who under more desirable circumstances might become our customers became our competitors, and instead of selling goods to them, they exported products to us.

Why Foreign Goods Cheaper. "The workings of exchange favor this latter situation," said the speaker. "To some extent this has now been rectified. To pay for most other European goods, or for English goods, we send much smaller sums than the par value of the respective currencies. This greatly reduces to us the cost of these goods in Canadian money."

"To purchase Canadian goods we pay one hundred cents on the dollar. To procure goods from the United States we pay one hundred and six cents on the dollar at the present time. Small wonder that the European is finding it easier to sell us goods, while the United States is discovering it harder, and that the Canadian has learned that he will have to lower his prices in order to hold his trade."

U. S. Feels Pressure Worse. "Foreign competition is probably a more serious factor in the United States than it has yet become in Canada, the reason for this being partly that the American dollar was able to pay for more goods than the Canadian dollar."

"German and other European goods have been freely entering the United States in competition with domestic products, and large importations of iron and steel supplies ranging from pig iron to the finest machinery, as well as pulp and paper, textiles, dyes, and other merchandise, are causing domestic producers to operate their factories on shorter hours. Canada is affected in a like manner to the United States. Our industries are working on a reduced scale, and here, as in the United States, there is considerable unemployment."

Referring to the commercial depression, Mr. Alderson pointed out that the number, and the price of securities of all kinds has depreciated enormously. However, among the reasons for thinking that the turn had come, or was not far off, was the fact that the downward swing had been so very drastic. It had now been in progress in the United States since the beginning of 1920, and in Canada since July, 1920. Canada pursued a more even course than the United States, and was less prompt to follow the turn of the tides. It would take the general public half a year to realize that the worst had passed and that things are on the mend.

One of the most decisive indications of coming recovery was to be found in the lowering of interest rates by the great banks of the world. The Bank of England had several times lowered its rate; France had lowered its rate; and the Federal Reserve New York rate was down. The consensus of opinion in banking circles was that it must continue to fall.

Referring to the cost of living, Mr. Alderson remarked that prices had almost reached a point at which buying would be resumed if the buying power remained. "The deflation of wages and cost of living," he continued, "has been a slow process and is still a very great problem. It is to be hoped that satisfactory arrangements can be made in the very near future with all classes of labor whereby they will be willing to accept a corresponding decrease in wages to that shown in the present cost of living—allowing, of course, for that portion of their cost of living which has not been affected, such as rent, fuel, etc."

"During the past few months some of our workmen have shown a readiness to meet the price the Canadian consumer is willing and able to pay. Even with this co-operation on the part of the workmen, and efforts which all employers have put forth to revive trade conditions, the desired result has not been realized. It is earnestly hoped, however, that the year 1922 may see a steady revival of trade."

"Let us all put our shoulders to the wheel and do our best to provide work for all, remembering Mr. Lloyd George's appeal, 'Come on everybody and lend a hand; this isn't a one-man job.'"

CLASS REACTIONS TO PROHIBITION. (New York Evening Times.) Something of a challenge to the "better elements" in the community is implied in the findings of Mr. Chester T. Crowell, whose admirable report on the effects of prohibition, published in the Independent and Weekly Review, was reprinted on this page last Monday. As far as the working masses are concerned, their intellectual horizons are wider than their inner spiritual resources are presently so copious. They do, as a matter of fact, have a nodding acquaintance with Shakespeare and grand opera. Why not improve it? The cynics assert that among the middle classes a substitute for a substitute is the process of being substituted. And herein consists the challenge for the better-off citizen.
