"I do not mean the working population, which will quickly come to us, but more particularly to men holding public offices or occupying important commercial positions.

HOPE FOR SETTLEMENT BEFORE DAY IS OVER

Offer of Sixty Cents an Hour for 'Longshoremen Held Over for Confirmation—Coal Dealers Agree to Accept Any Arrangement Made by Union With the Coal Interests

The local branch of the International Longshoremen's Association and the Shipping Federation failed to materialize this morning, but it is felt that the wage question will be adjusted before the day is over and that work will be resumed in port either tonight or tomorrow morning.

A mass meeting of the members was held in St. Andrew's rink this morning at 11:30 o'clock and a proposition was read from local shipping interests offering the men sixty cents an hour for a nine hour day, other conditions to remain the same as formerly. The men refused to consider this offer until they received confirmation from Montreal, and pending this they adjourned to meet again this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

After the general meeting the executive held a conference and discussed the local situation. The opinion of the members of the union are divided, some wanting to hold out for seventy-five cents an hour, while others are willing to accept sixty-five cents and some sixty cents.

The situation regarding the coal handlers' holdout for an increase from fifty cents an hour to seventy-five cents by day and eighty-five cents by night remains the same as it was last night. A large and enthusiastic meeting of the members of No. 810, the local branch of the Coal Handlers and Trimmers' Union, was held at the present opportunity.

BRITAIN AND AMERICA ABLE TO COMMAND PEACE

Address by Premier Borden in London—Old Country to Join U. S. in Future Thanksgiving Celebrations

London, Nov. 28.—(By the Associated Press)—Sir Robert L. Borden, Canadian premier, speaking at the annual Thanksgiving day banquet of the American Society today, approved of the plan to form a league of nations, but insisted that England and America are able to command the peace of the world by acting together, he said.

"Let us have a league of nations, if it can be realized, but at least let us have that understanding and unity of purpose and action between the two world-wide English-speaking communities which will save humanity its years to come from the unbearable horror, suffering and sacrifice of a war such as this."

America's share in winning the war was praised by Viscount Chid, Japanese ambassador to Great Britain.

The Earl of Reading declared that Great Britain would in the future join in celebrating Thanksgiving day in memory of America's achievements in the war.

The banquet was the most elaborate held by the society since 1914. Representatives of nearly all the associated nations were present.

GERMAN FLAG MUST COME DOWN FOR THE BUILDERS

London, Nov. 28.—Admiral Von Reuter, commander of the German fleet, which surrendered to the Allies on Nov. 21, has protested against the order of Admiral Sir David Beatty, of the British fleet, directing that the German flag be hauled down. He points out, according to an admiralty statement, that in terms of the armistice, equivalent to internment in a neutral port where, in accordance with precedent, flags are allowed to remain hoisted. He adds: "I regard it unjustifiable and contrary to international custom to order the striking of the flag on German ships."

Moreover, in my opinion, the order to strike the flag was not in keeping with the idea of chivalry between two honorable opponents."

The admiralty, calling attention to the fact that the armistice merely suspended hostilities and that a state of war still exists between Germany and the Allies, has replied that no enemy vessel can be permitted to fly its national ensign in British ports while under custody."

Cruelty To Prisoners Almost Unbelievable British Soldier, Still Living, Nailed In His Coffin

Officer Shot That Hun Guard Might Steal His Boots; Government Sends Stern Message to Germany; Must Pay For Further Suffering

London, Nov. 28.—(British Wireless Service)—An official statement issued today says that since the armistice 444 British officers and 8,350 men of other ranks, former prisoners, have arrived at Hull from Holland and Germany, fifty-five officers and 8,216 men of other ranks at Dover, and 500 at London.

The statement says the protest of the British government with regard to the ill-treatment of British prisoners has been communicated to the German government and the German authorities replied that the German high command was doing all in its power to deliver prisoners in good condition, but that the severity of the armistice conditions presented difficulties.

The German high command later was informed that no excuse would be accepted by the British government and that full recompense would be exacted for any unnecessary sufferings of British prisoners of war.

To this the Germans replied that they would do their utmost to alleviate the conditions of prisoners. Experiences in Germany.

One sergeant who had been a prisoner for seven months spoke bitterly of an enforced march after his capture. For four days he said, the prisoners had virtually no solid food, and when they arrived at camp they were put right to work burying men who had died from starvation. In one week fifteen out of one hundred died. No pity or leniency was shown to men who were unable to work through sickness. Only blows and the usual punishments of half rations were given them.

Buried Alive. A non-commissioned officer of the Royal Army Medical Corps said that the worst sight he saw was near Soissons. He was working in a hospital where English prisoners were suffering badly from dysentery. While still alive a man was put into a coffin and some German soldiers were preparing to nail the lid of the coffin down.

"I protested," said the officer, "that the man was not dead, but I was laughed at and pushed to one side. The Germans proceeded with their gruesome task and afterward informed me that they had nailed the coffin lid down with four and six inch nails."

Murder of Officer. Another man who said he had been captured eight months ago, described the murder of an officer in a prison camp near the Alps.

"In the camp one day," he said, "I saw a British officer being bullied by a German soldier. The German soldier was demanding the officer's boots, but the officer refused to part with them. After a little further argument the German soldier shot the officer and took the boots from him as he lay dying on the ground."

KING GUEST OF THE PRESIDENT

Toasts were drunk to both Great Britain and France. They were received enthusiastically.

After the dinner King George talked with President Poincare, Foreign Minister Pichon, Marshal Joffre, Marshal Foch, Marsal Petain, former Premier Briand and others.

On leaving the palace, M. Poincare accompanied King George as far as his carriage, where he cordially shook hands with him. Numerous groups of people standing nearby cheered the king.

BRITAIN AND FRANCE ARE UNITED FOREVER

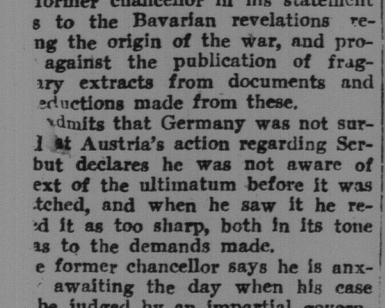

President Poincare Pledges Eternal Friendship of Nations Brought Together by War's Struggles and Suffering

Paris, Nov. 28.—(Havas Agency)—The dinner given to King George at the Elysee Palace last night by President Poincare, the Paris newspapers declare, was one of the most notable events in the history of Great Britain and France.

President Poincare, in toasting Great Britain, recalled the agreement made between the two countries in 1904 and the efforts of both Great Britain and France to avoid war in 1914.

He declared that Great Britain, by her naval, military and moral effort during the war had added an incomparable character to her splendid history. He praised the work of the British army and the effort of the British navy, concluding: "The pre-war friendship has changed into an active alliance which will find in the peace negotiations a new utility. We have suffered together and won together, and are united for ever."

King George expressed his great pleasure in being in Paris, the capital of the country with which he and his people had shared the misfortunes as well as the victories of war. He recalled the vain efforts of the Germans to capture Paris and the final triumphant campaigns of the Allies under the direction of Marshal Foch. Both nations, he added, had struggled for civilization and right and had learned to appreciate each other. He hoped that the union of hearts and interests, resulting from the war would always aid to the maintenance of peace. He paid tribute to France's heroic dead, and toasted the future happiness and prosperity of the French people.

"The statement has appeared in a portion of the press to the effect that the Dover barrage has been removed. Captain Carey and his crew of eight men were rescued in an exhausted condition, by the Gloucester coast guards. The schooner probably will be a total loss. She was bound from St. John, N. B., for New York, with cargo of spruce lumber. Soon after leaving St. John Saturday, Captain Carey said he ran into a succession of gales and snow storms.

J. Willard Smith tells the Times that the unfortunate vessel left here only a few days ago, after spending over two weeks in loading. Capt. Carey made numerous calls on St. John circles and there will be regret because of his misfortune. The schooner is owned by a Portuguese firm, and was extensively repaired and renovated at Meteghan, N. S., prior to taking her cargo here.

PROCEDURE ON DEMAND FOR SURRENDER OF KAISER TO BE DISCUSSED.

London, Nov. 29.—The actual procedure to be followed in demanding the surrender of the former emperor of Germany to the Allies will be discussed in London, according to the Daily Express. Premier Clemenceau, of France, will arrive here Sunday with Marshal Foch. The British and French governments, the newspaper adds, have reached a decision regarding their right to make the demand on Holland.

MUST RESCUE ARMENIANS FROM TURKISH RULE

Allies Should Occupy Territory and Establish Order
VISCOUNT BRYCE'S VIEWS

Christian Inhabitants Still at Mercy of People Who Have Committed Huge Single Crime of the Whole War

London, Nov. 29.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—In the opinion of Viscount James Bryce, former ambassador to the United States, "it is extremely desirable that every effort should be made to send a sufficient Allied force to occupy what was Turkish Armenia and re-establish some sort of order there."

This view is expressed in a communication to the Manchester Guardian coupled with a regret that the conditions of the Turkish armistice failed to provide for the immediate evacuation of the Allies from the districts of Cilicia (modern province of Adana on the Mediterranean) Lord Bryce says, however:

Do You Need Glasses?

Often glasses are necessary where the vision seems perfect. Delicate muscles are put to too much strain to hold the eyes in focus.

Northern Armenia provinces, and who have not ventured to return owing to the fear of encountering aving bands of demobilized Turkish soldiers. Only the presence of Allied troops would induce them to return to their homes.

"For all these reasons," he sums up, "it seems urgent in the interests of humanity that these territories should be reduced to some sort of order at the earliest possible moment. It is useless to expect any of these things will be done by the Turkish government."

TRYING TO MAKE IT

The steamer Majestic, owned by the Crystal Steam Steamship Company, is attempting to reach Fredericton. She started for the capital on Wednesday, but when she reached the river she encountered ice and was unable to proceed further and returned yesterday to the city. As there was considerable ice in the river another attempt was made today, as it was felt the winds might break up the ice sufficient to allow the steamer to get through her destination. The Majestic will winter quarters as soon as she turns to Indiantown.

An inquiry into the recent increase in the price of milk, the quality being in this city and conditions in general regarding the situation, was resumed city hall this afternoon by Commissioner Fisher and Bullock. The first witness was Walter H. Bell of the St. Croix Creamery. Hon. Dr. Roberts was expected to be present to present a proposition to the commission, and some witnesses were notified to attend Friday morning.

"Yes, Reginald, I confess I have awakened in my heart some throbbings of a first and only love."
He—"Dovey! Darling! Ouh! Ouh!"
Her Young Brother (peeping from behind the curtain)—"Hallo! Caught you! Look here; if yer don't give me a tam I'll split!"
She—"Tommy, you little wretch, away, and if you hold your tongue give you sixpence—to-morrow."
Tommy—"No fear, no more tick! I promised me a bob if I didn't tell about Sammy Spooner kissing you, you've never brased up yet!"

The speaker was warmly applauded at the conclusion of his address. The delegation thanked Mr. Freestone for the information and assured the meeting that they were willing to pay the wage agreed upon by the interests and the union.

The meeting then adjourned to meet again this afternoon, when the men anticipated having some definite proposition presented to them either by the Dominion Coal Company or through the Shipping Federation.

Mayor And Others Address 'Longshoremen'

Offer of Fifty Seven Cents Made Through His Worship at Meeting of Union Last Evening

The meeting was held in St. Andrew's rink and upwards of 500 men were in attendance. Before the meeting the executive held a conference with Mayor Hayes, A. H. Wetmore, president of the board of trade; T. H. Bullock, commissioner of harbor and ferries, and W. Frank Hatheway. After their conference it was announced to the gathering that the mayor had a proposition to present to the men. When he was introduced he explained that he had received a wire from H. C. Groat, general superintendent of the New Brunswick division of the C. P. R., who is in Montreal, informing him that Sir Arthur Harris, realizing the gravity of the situation developed at this port and the great need for keeping the steamship service going, offered the men an increase to fifty-seven cents an hour.

His Worship said that he had refrained from taking part in the matter as it was a delicate one and until asked to do so had held off hoping that a settlement would be reached. He spoke of the seriousness of the situation and said that he earnestly hoped that a settlement would be reached. He pointed out the large loss of money sustained by the large number of vessels being forced to remain idle, as well as by the men themselves. He dwelt on the offer made by Sir Arthur Harris to increase the men's pay to fifty-seven cents an hour and said that he hoped that the men would favorably consider the offer. Commissioner Bullock was called on. He had just dropped in and aside from what he read in the newspapers was ignorant of the rate being paid in any port. He said that it was a serious situation and might become considerably more serious. He said that the shipping interests could give a reasonable wage here if they could do so in Portland (Me.), Boston and New York. He said that there was a time when he was in competition with St. John. He advised the men to go slowly, to be sure they were right and hoped that they would win. His remarks were greeted with prolonged cheers.

A. H. Wetmore then addressed the men. He said that he was interested in the matter because he was a citizen and realized it was of great importance. He said that the increase as offered by Sir Arthur Harris was something to work on and said that if they could not agree to accept the amount he hoped they would decide among themselves upon some definite amount so that negotiations could be continued. He pointed out the seriousness of the situation and what it meant to the port of St. John. W. Frank Hatheway said that if the longshoremen in Portland, which is only 200 miles away, were receiving sixty-five cents an hour, they should get the same amount here. He said that the harbor in this city were just as good as the men in Portland and were therefore entitled to as much pay.

He said that he felt the men would be safe in laying their case before a conciliation board, and he felt that it was put up to them that they must pay the St. John longshoremen as high a rate as the men are getting in Portland (Me.) they would accede to the demand. He asked that they consider an acceptance if they received an offer similar to that paid in Portland (Me.) Private Session.

The representatives then left the hall and the longshoremen held a private meeting to discuss the proposition. Many of the members were heard and it was decided to reject the offer made by Mayor Hayes and to hold out for at least sixty-five cents an hour, the sum paid in Portland and other ports. A discussion took place regarding the handling of the mail and it was finally decided that the association would look after all mail that arrived at the port, but that it would be handled gratis. Several propositions were presented by members and some heated discussions followed, but nothing of a definite nature took place, and the meeting adjourned to meet some time today.

O'DONNELL CLOTHING SALE ENDS SATURDAY NIGHT

Oak Hall Wholesale Warehouse, 101-107 Germain Street Will Have Busy Week-End.

The O'Donnell sale of men's and boys' clothing and furnishings being conducted by Oak Hall at their wholesale warehouse in Germain street has proven to be one of the largest and most successful events of its kind ever witnessed in St. John.

At 10 o'clock Saturday night the O'Donnell sale will come to a close, and for the convenience of the working men and their families Oak Hall will keep their warehouse open tonight as well as Saturday night, closing only from 12 to 1 noon and 5 to 6 to rearrange the stock. Particulars of this sale will be read on page 16 of this issue.

London, Nov. 28—Advance guards of the British troops have reached the Belgian-German frontier in the region between Beho and Stavelot. They are in possession of more than 1,400 German guns surrendered since Nov. 11, according to an official communication issued tonight.

DEMAND FOR EDUCATION

Reference was made in the Times-Star Wednesday to the radical and progressive Education Act adopted by England as a war measure. The same subject is dwelt upon in the last of a series of papers prepared for the Guaranty Trust Company of New York on the subject of changing economic viewpoints, with particular reference to plans for reconstruction after the war.

As a result we see the need of education being emphasized in the plans of every country which is making ready for peace. The war has directed attention to this situation. The problems to be solved in restoring peace and preserving it are driving the lesson home.

Today's cables bring further news of the brutal treatment of British prisoners by the Germans. It is even charged that one British soldier was buried alive. The declaration of the British government that full recompense will be exacted will be approved by all civilized nations.

Aside from the economic value of universal education there is also the desirability of the people of every country knowing more about other countries and their peoples, and of a wider recognition of community interest.

In quest of truth, old and young, men and women, are alert today as they have not been in centuries. People want to know things. The impatience with secret negotiations and treaties is but a symptom of what is transpiring in the minds of men with respect to all other relationships, whether of politics or economics.

It is natural that the people thus stirred to action should turn to education as the great agency not only to promote economic independence and safety at home, but to give the wider vision which should be associated with a greatly enlarged environment.

VISION AND COURAGE

If Lloyd George had hesitated Foch would not have been made supreme chief, and who knows how long victory might have been postponed? More than any other single event the decision to establish unity of command turned defeat into victory. There were mighty obstacles in the way of common leadership.

But Lloyd George had the vision and the courage to see what was necessary and to insist upon it. He risked himself and his government in his decision to place Marshal Foch in supreme command of British armies.

Events soon proved that Foch was indeed the man needed, and the British people were quick and generous in giving him the full measure of credit due. In looking back to the gloomy days of March they see now how much they owe to Lloyd George whose wisdom and holdness made the appointment of Foch possible.

An American exchange gives particulars of the education bill introduced in congress on October 19, 1918 by Senator Hoke Smith of Georgia. The bill provides for the appropriation annually of $100,000,000, provided that sums in equal amounts be raised by the states taking advantage of the provisions.

Today's cables bring further news of the brutal treatment of British prisoners by the Germans. It is even charged that one British soldier was buried alive. The declaration of the British government that full recompense will be exacted will be approved by all civilized nations.

Sir Robert Borden approves of a league of nations, but especially of an Anglo-American league. The wider the league is the more desirable, for the vital interests of all nations are the same, and a new era in their relations calls for the widest possible understanding and co-operation.

The minister of labor wants the association of builders and the larger labor bodies to get together in the standardization of wages. It is estimated there are nearly ten thousand illiterates in Maine. How many in New Brunswick? Paris has given a royal reception to King George, the democratic king.

Food Board Flashes

Do not get the idea that the end of the war means the end of food saving. Today not only our soldiers and Allies must be fed but the people of vanquished countries and even some of the neutrals, making a grand total of something like 250,000,000 people in all. Food conservation must go on with added vigor. Winter is the season of conservation.

RECENT DEATHS

Alan J. Hopkins.

Many friends here will regret to learn of the death of Alan J. Hopkins, of Seattle. Both Mr. and Mrs. Hopkins were stricken with influenza. Mrs. Hopkins recovered, but Mr. Hopkins contracted pneumonia and passed away on October 19.

Mr. Hopkins was interested in a hotel in Seattle and had also been a school teacher in his younger days. He was a gentleman of fine character and had made many friends during his business career.

Mrs. Hopkins, who was formerly Miss Ida McKenzie, is considered one of the best all-around newspaper women in the west. She has been employed on various newspapers in the middle west as news-gatherer to editor-in-chief. In her sad hour she has the sincere sympathy of many warm friends. Rob McKeown, of McAdam, is a brother.

Mrs. Thomas McNaughton.

At Eureka (Cal.), on November 10, Mrs. Anne McNaughton, wife of Thomas McNaughton, died after a lingering illness. She was born at Waasis, Sunbury county (N. B.), seventy-two years ago, a daughter of the late William and Elizabeth Rutledge. Besides her husband she leaves one son, William, and one daughter, Sister Mary Carmel of the Convent of Mercy in Sacramento (Cal.) Miss Mary Rutledge of Oromoc, is a sister and the last surviving member of the family.

Mrs. Maud Chubbuck.

Amherst, Nov. 28.—A telegram to Dr. H. R. McCully informed him of the death of his sister, Mrs. Maud Chubbuck at Calgary at the home of her son, Robert Chubbuck. Mrs. Chubbuck of the late Robert McCully, barrister, of Amherst, was educated at Acadia Sem-

PERU AND CHILE

Santiago, Nov. 28.—No communication has been received from Peru since the protest of the Peruvian foreign minister against anti-Peruvian riots at Iquique, Chile, and attacks on Peruvian consuls, as it was said at the foreign office today. It was added that the announcement of Carlos Castro Ruiz, Chilean consul in New York, that the difficulty between Peru and Chile had been settled by an apology on the part of the Peruvian government, was evidently due to a misunderstanding.

Santiago, Chile, Nov. 28.—Ramon Luco, minister of industries resigned today as a result of a controversy following an address in the chamber of deputies on Monday night by Senor Cardenas, second vice president of the chamber, who suggested that the Peruvian situation be settled peacefully.

WILL NOT WAIT SO LONG FOR PEACE

London, Nov. 28.—Discussing the arrangements for the peace conference, the Daily Express says the suggestion that the conference would be at work fully three months before the terms were ready for signature was strongly discontenanced in British ministerial circles yesterday. Europe, it was urged, could not stand three months of suspense during which measures for demobilization and reconstruction would necessarily be held up.

The conference, says the newspaper, will hurry forward to a settlement of the main outlines of the peace treaty, which will be signed as soon as possible, and arrangements will be made for some sort of an international police to enforce it. International commissions will then be set up to deal with the details of the peace, which go beyond the terms as between the central and the associated powers.

NO INTENTION OF LIFTING BLOCKADE London, Nov. 28.—The Times says that the absurd story which the Germans are reported to have spread officially that the Entente probably will consider the abolition of the blockade, is absolutely unfounded. The Allies have not the slightest intention, the Times continues, of throwing aside their chief weapon for insuring the signature of a just peace and the performance of its constitutions, particularly in the present chaotic state of Germany.

After quoting evidence in an endeavor to refute Dr. Sol's declaration that Germany is starving, the newspaper says that German statements on this subject require careful examination. When the truth has been ascertained the Allies and the United States will allow the Germans from time to time during the peace negotiations such food supplies as humanity dictates, but the blockade must remain.

HELP WANTED

Telephone Operators Wanted

If you have had experience, we can place you immediately at a good salary. If not experienced, telephone operating offers to the bright and ambitious girl more opportunity for advancement than most lines of business. To become a stenographer or clerk, you must go to business school and pay for your education. We will teach you telephone operating in a month, and immediately upon completion you will be assigned to duty with salary increase. Further increases are then given at regular intervals until the maximum is reached. To girls who can qualify for toll operators' and supervisors' positions, higher salaries are paid. Requirements—Grade 8 education; age 17-27, and good health. Apply to Chief Operator between 9.00 and 12.00 a.m.

Caught a Tartar. An elderly man, evidently from the country, was standing near the Mansion House, when he was accosted by half-a-dozen gentry-dressed clerics on their way to luncheon, with: "Just arrived in town?" "Yes, and a great place it is," replied the countryman.

"Tis so," said another. "How is your mother?" he continued, bent on making sport with the countryman. "Oh, she's pretty well," he replied. "She's sent me up on business?" "Ah! What kind of business?" asked a third.

"Why," said the man, "she wanted me to round up half-a-dozen absentees from the Army, and I think I've got 'em." The next moment the countryman had the little lot under escort and marched them off for examination.

"This is my only child, little Margaret." "Gracious! What a name!" "Well, you see, I haven't any but her."

Grocer—"Did that watermelon I sold you do your whole family?" Customer—"Very nearly. The doctor is calling yet."

The three-masted schooner Samuel Courtney, Captain Courtney, registered tonnage 441, cleared yesterday for St. John's, Newfoundland. This schooner took a large general cargo. She has been here for several weeks. While in port she received oil engines. The latter were given a trip out yesterday before the vessel sailed for Newfoundland. It is understood that about 7 1/2 knots were made. Sailings for St. John's from this port are rare.

Heart Palpitated Could Count Every Beat. When the heart begins to palpitate, it will beat fast for several seconds, then slow, then start to flutter, and a feeling of utter depression will come over your whole system, accompanied by weak, fainting and dizzy spells. When the heart gets into this condition, you become weak, worn and miserable, and are unable to attend to either social, business or household duties. Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills will give prompt and permanent relief to all sufferers from any heart weakness or nerve derangements. Mrs. Walter Grives, Apsley, Ont., writes: "I had been run down, and doctors told me I was anemic, but did not help me with their medicines. I could not sleep nights, my heart palpitated, and I could count every beat. I used to have such dizzy spells I would have to go to bed. I was not able to do any work for eight months. A cousin of mine had taken Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills and told me what they had done for her. I took eight boxes of them, and now I am able to help every day with the work. I am so thankful to tell others what they have done for me, so that they may try this great and wonderful remedy. I hope this may prove good to some one who is suffering the way I did." Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

SENT UP FOR TRIAL. The man and woman who have been before the police court on a serious charge, were this morning sent up for trial by Magistrate Ritchie.

CLEAN SHEET TODAY. The board of health had another clean sheet today—no new cases of influenza and a stationary condition in smallpox of which there are only two mild cases in the isolation hospital.

CASE STILL GOES ON. At this morning's session of the county court, in the case of the King vs. McLellan, charged with theft from the C. P. R., Mr. Mullin completed his address, and when the court took recess at noon the attorney-general was still addressing the jury. His Honor Judge Armstrong will deliver his charge this afternoon when the case will go to the jury.

MISS VIOLET KENNEDY. The death of Violet Kathleen Kennedy, the fifteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Kennedy, 105 Britain street, occurred last evening in the General Public Hospital. Besides her parents, she leaves two sisters and one brother. The funeral took place this afternoon from the General Public Hospital. Interment was made in the new Catholic cemetery.

A FAMILY AFFAIR. A cross-action case was heard in the police court this morning and the unravelling of it caused no little amusement to the court officials. Clement Watts, colored, of Spar Cove road, laid a charge against his wife of street walking and not attending to her household duties. Mrs. Watts entered a counter charge against her husband of assault. Watts was the first witness called. He said that his wife was in the habit of going out at nights and not looking after her household duties. He admitted that his wife was only young and it was not that he minded her going out so much as it was the company she kept. Mrs. Watts in answer said that the dance was at her son's home, and that she had to go out herself at nights and did not want her to. She said he even refused to allow her to go to church. Mrs. Watts' grandmother was present and told of the lengthy advice she had given the girl when she was married, but it seemed to be of no avail.

CANDIDATES SAY THEY ARE AGAINST AFFILIATION

Editor Times-Star: Sir—In the last paragraph of the letter bearing the signatures of the present and recording secretary of the Policemen's Protective Association and published in the Times of the 27th inst., this sentence appears:—"In closing we again state we are not affiliated in any way with the labor unions or labor council, nor do we think the Policemen's Protective Union should join any body of industrial unions in affiliation." The above is in full harmony and agreement with our views, expressed in our joint letter published in the Times and Times on the 29th inst. We reaffirm our position in this matter. (Sgd.) JOHN B. JONES, JOHN THORNTON.

CAPT. R. B. LLOYD DIED HERO'S DEATH

Mrs. Marcus Lloyd of 51 Harrison street has received a letter from the assistant adjutant of the 13th Canadian Reserve Battalion, Lieut. M. W. Marsh, relative to the death of her son, Capt. R. B. Lloyd, D. C. M. He writes:—"I would like to express my very deep sympathy for you in your bereavement. Bert and I were very close friends. We embarked the same day. I was his assistant adjutant at Bramshott and also had the pleasure of officiating as his best man when he was married. There is one thing that in the midst of your sorrow I know will be a comfort to you, that is that he met his death in a way that all of us here might envy, in a way that would make any mother proud to call him son. He was in charge of a very important outpost that had to be held if the advance was to continue. Notwithstanding repeated attacks he held it and gave his life for his men and comrades might reap the benefit. He died as anyone who knew Bert Lloyd might expect him, doing his duty. I remain, very sincerely yours, (Sgd.) M. W. MARSH, Asst. Adj. 13th Can. Reserve." Mrs. Lloyd has received a card of sympathy from the secretary of state for war which reads as follows:—"The king commands me to assure you of the true sympathy of his majesty and the queen in your sorrow."

Engineer Hatfield will lay it out, the necessary material will be there tomorrow afternoon, and members of the South End Improvement League and all the boys interested are asked to go down tomorrow afternoon to lend a hand with the work. A good rink will be made, with a caretaker in charge during the skating season. The water has been made available for flooding. The executive of the league met last evening, with C. M. Lingley in the chair, and completed arrangements for tomorrow's work. They also decided to hold a meeting at an early date in King Edward school to present trophies to the baseball champions. There will also be an entertainment and brief discussion of league work, including a boost for the evening school.

SUIT AGAINST FLEMMING AND TENNANT OPENS BEFORE JUDGE MCKEOWN

Province Takes Steps to Recover Valley Railway Monies

Council For Former Premier Flemming Argues That Legislation is Not Adequate—Decision on This Tomorrow

Before Chief Justice McKeown in the chancery division of the supreme court this morning, the case of the King vs. J. K. Flemming and the King vs. W. B. Tennant were resumed. W. P. Jones, K. C., of Woodstock, and Felix J. Fleming, of Fredericton, represented the crown and J. B. M. Baxter, K. C., was acting for A. B. Connell, counsel for Mr. Flemming, while M. G. Teed appeared in the interests of Mr. Tennant.

The distinguishing feature of the session was the argument of Messrs. Baxter and Teed that the legislation enacted in the last session of the legislature providing for the return of monies to the Crown was not adequate (that the act did not allow what it was designed to provide). Judge McKeown will decide at a session next Saturday morning whether this point may be argued or not. In the meantime all the applications made for the opening of the session were granted. At the opening of this morning's session counsel for the King moved to add a further claim to that already made against J. K. Flemming, namely, a claim of $9,500, being commissions paid by the Prudential Trust Co. to the defendant. This was followed by the court. It was further moved to have certain interrogatories allowed. It was at this juncture that Messrs. Baxter and Teed opposed the interrogatories on the grounds mentioned. The case of the King against James K. Flemming arises out of the alleged payment of money to him, while premier of the province of New Brunswick, by A. R. Gould, of the St. John and Quebec Railway, in the year 1912. It is claimed that Mr. Gould paid to the defendant upon the order of the defendant to other parties, the sum of $100,000 in consideration that Mr. Flemming would use his influence with the government, of which he was then premier, in order that a contract might be entered into between the province and the railway company for the construction of the St. John and Quebec Railway, and in order that the province might guarantee certain bonds of the railway. The plaintiff claims that the money should be returned to the province both on account of the common law liability on the part of Mr. Flemming as premier, as trustee, for any monies he received personally, while premier, and also because of legislation enacted in 1915, which provides that all monies received from the purposes of construction of the railway might be recovered back. There is also a claim made by the plaintiff on the statement of claim, the evidence having only recently been discovered, that Mr. Flemming should repay to the province the sum of $9,500, which was paid to him in the year 1912 while he was premier of the province by the Prudential Trust Company, Counsel for the plaintiff is claiming that this money so paid to Mr. Flemming by the trust company is recoverable from him at common law as being a secret commission obtained by him while conducting business for the province.

The Tennant Case. The case of the King against William B. Tennant is an action to recover $138,000 paid to Mr. Tennant by the Nova Scotia Construction Company, Ltd., in the years 1916 and 1917. It is alleged that Mr. Tennant and others prepared a fictitious tender which they persuaded Kennedy & McDonald to make so that it would appear to the directors of the railway company that there were two bona fide tenders received, instead of only one. The fictitious tender contained prices somewhat higher than the prices tendered by the Nova Scotia Construction Company, Ltd.; that in order to induce Kennedy & McDonald to sign and submit their tender, Mr. Tennant promised to give them a sub-contract for the construction of a certain portion of the railway on terms more favorable than those to be given to other sub-contractors. It is also charged that Mr. Tennant persuaded other firms not to put in any tender; that having secured the contract for the Nova Scotia Construction Company, Ltd. he received $100,000 from it the day the contract was signed and $38,000 from it afterwards; that this money was not used and applied towards the construction of the railway but was taken and kept by Mr. Tennant for his own purposes; that in fact there was an understanding between him and a member of the government at that time that if the Nova Scotia Construction Company, Ltd. got the contract he would pay over to the politicians a certain portion of that amount; that as a matter of fact he did pay over a certain portion through a member of the legislature. Under the legislation of last session it is claimed that the province is entitled to recover any monies so paid to Mr. Tennant because they were paid out of the monies of his majesty or paid by the construction company with the design and intention of recouping itself for such payment out of monies provided by the province for the construction of the railway and because the monies so paid were not to be used and applied towards the construction of the railway. In both the above cases the defendants in their defences deny generally the allegations of the statements of claim and they both raise an issue of law. That is to say, even supposing the statements of the plaintiff are true, which they do not admit, they do not disclose sufficient to entitle the plaintiff to recover the monies.

GERMAN INTRIGUE IS STILL KEPT UP

Asks Protective League to Continue to Combat Propaganda

Urges Public Vigilance

Washington Hears Same Agencies Are Being Maintained as Under the Imperial Regime

Washington, Nov. 27.—Attorney-General Gregory has issued an appeal to the national directors of the American Protective League for continued operation during the period of readjustment and reconstruction now facing the country for the purpose of continuing co-operation with the government in its effort to defeat German spy craft and propaganda in the United States.

"Participation in slacker raids," said Mr. Gregory, "through the most spectacular of the league's activities, has been actually the smallest part of the work. Organized March 22, 1917, as an auxiliary of the department of justice, the league now has a membership of 2,200,000 and branch organizations in every city and town of any size in the United States. Both officers and men have served without pay, and also without rendering expense accounts to the government even when investigations have covered several states and involved heavy charges for railroad fares, telephone and telegraph tolls."

"Upward of three million investigations have been conducted for the department of justice military intelligence, the provost marshal-general's office, the state, navy and treasury departments, the food and fuel administration, the alien property custodian and other government bodies."

Simultaneously with the issuing of the attorney-general's appeal, diplomatic despatches have reached Washington from Berlin declaring that the new German government continues by all possible means the conduct of internal and international German propaganda, adding that in this respect revolutionary Germany shows herself just as active as was imperial Germany.

"Never have the Wolf agency," said this despatch, "the department of correspondents and national agencies, nor the German official press, represented by the Socialist papers, displayed so much zeal and stubbornness and what is not less to be wondered at is that this is carried out not only by the same people who were before the instruments of Landerdorf."

Attorney-General Gregory's appeal to the national directors of the American Protective League follows:

"Gentlemen: I feel it my duty at the present juncture to call upon the officers and members of the American Protective League throughout the country to carry on steadily for the present their most effective aid and co-operation with the department of justice."

"The sudden termination of hostilities has reacted strongly upon the public and there is everywhere a desire on the part of the patriotic citizens, heretofore intent upon winning the war, to withdraw immediately from war work. Such a source, if generally followed, would involve serious consequences."

"The American Protective League has performed a great task, both in active and passive service. The number of investigations participated in by you, many of which have resulted in the uncovering of serious enemy activities and disloyalties, and the apprehension and prosecution of the individuals concerned, the large number of draft evaders detected and your many other activities, have been an important factor in winning the war. "A service of equal value has been the passive but powerful influence exerted by your organization upon alien enemies and disloyal enemies. The knowledge upon their part that everywhere about them were the eyes and ears of a great organization auxiliary to the government raised a fear in their hearts as to the consequences of hostile action, and became a powerful deterrent of enemy and disloyal activities. "These services cannot yet be dispensed with. Illegal activities harmful to the public morale during the discussion of peace terms, must be watched for and reported. Violations of the war statutes, all of which are still in force, must be prosecuted. Pending investigations must be continued and others instituted. "I sincerely trust that, in view of these grave conditions, your members will be aroused to the need of carrying on your work for the immediate future with the fullest degree of efficiency. I earnestly ask your continued aid and co-operation. "Respectfully, "T. W. GREGORY, "Attorney-General." The spread of Bolshevist doctrines in the United States has also been watched carefully by department of justice agents, with a view to undertaking prosecutions if the agitation goes beyond legal bounds and develops into seditious, officials declared. Thus far the propaganda has not reached what they consider dangerous proportions, although they look for its continual growth among the foreign populations of cities. In New York and San Francisco it has become more pronounced than in other cities. Although the agitation is promoted partly by a group of former syndicalists and I. W. W. leaders, investigation shows, say government agents, that it is fostered by a new element of dissatisfied citizens, favoring abolition of private property rights and development of government Soviet committees, with communal control of industry and trade. To some extent this Bolshevist propaganda has been promoted by enemy aliens, and this is one reason for continuation by the department of justice of its policy of internments.

HERRING POSSIBILITIES. Canada's herring fishery on the Atlantic, Great Lakes and Pacific ranks as the fourth most valuable catch in the Dominion. It netted $3,773,988 in 1917. The Pacific herring fishery accounts for approximately one-third of the total. Herring are exceedingly prolific in Pacific and Atlantic waters and are capable of enormous development.

Shall America Stint Herself To Feed Germany?

An examination of the American press shows that the German wail for food, which was the first sign of life of the new-born German Government, has not aroused any large amount of compassion over here. To many observers this "propaganda" is important as the opening gun of Germany's fight for a victory at the peace table.

The leading article in THE LITERARY DIGEST this week—November 30th—takes up the latest phase of the peace negotiations, and by presenting the sentiments of editors of all political persuasions, gives the reader a concrete idea of how America feels upon the subject of feeding Germany this winter.

Full-Page Colored Map in "The Digest" This Week
This instructive Map will be eagerly welcomed by the readers of "The Digest," for on it they can easily trace the progress of the great Allied army of occupation in its triumphal march toward the Rhine. The map also shows the German territory to be occupied by the American and Allied armies under the terms of the armistice. The "bridge-heads" along the line are clearly indicated, with the neutral zone shown in color; also the battle line as it stood when hostilities ceased at the eleventh hour on the eleventh day of the eleventh month of the year. Briefly, the entire region that will be most prominent in the news for a long time to come will be available for ready reference through this map. It is worthy of permanent preservation.

M. P. WINS V. C.

LIEUT.-COL. CYRIL WESLEY PECK, D. S. O. and M. P. for the Skeena division of British Columbia, has been awarded the Victoria Cross for "most conspicuous bravery and skillful leading when in attack under intense fire." The official description of his conduct, as published in the London Gazette, gives him the highest praise. He recruited the 68th British Columbia battalion, but has been serving with the 16th Canadian Scottish.

some of the practical problems that will have to be handled and some of the media that will be found fruitful for constructive activity may be summarized as follows:

The development of new constructional projects for the immediate employment of the soldiers after demobilization and until they have been distributed again into their normal occupations, among projects of this kind being reservoirs for the conservation of waste waters, the development of irrigation and reclamation projects, highway construction, etc.

Closely related to the above is the utilization of the state's vast hydro-electric possibilities. Development in this direction would not only provide work in itself, but would directly contribute to the originating of other industrial enterprises that would in turn give employment and supply needs.

Attention is also called in this summary to the experiment in land colonization that the state now has under way. "This plan," says the governor, "makes provision for land settlement through state aid, and is the most advanced step that has been taken by any state along this line. I hope that his splendid project will be developed so that the state can offer to returning soldiers the opportunity to secure farms and homes of their own."

The handling of labor problems; the rehabilitation and re-education of returned soldiers; the use of the schools and universities for research and technical education as an aid in industry; a survey of the land to determine whether it is being put to its greatest economic use; the finding of foreign markets so as to be prepared for the cheap water transportation that will come when the government-owned shipping is no longer needed for war purposes; preparation for the expansion of shipping facilities; organization for the quick and efficient assembling and distribution of food products; consideration of the matter of a minimum wage in order to maintain the American standard of living; and plans for readjusting and stabilizing food

SOME PLANS FOR AFTER-WAR WORK IN CALIFORNIA

Formation of a Permanent State-wide Organization is to Be First Step in the Movement Toward Reconstruction

San Francisco, Cal., Nov. 28.—The state of California has already formulated an ambitious plan for handling the complex social, industrial and economic problems of the after-war and reconstruction period, the state council of defense having been designated by Gov. William D. Stephens as the central organization for working out the details of the plan and putting it into effect. An important phase of the undertaking is the fact that those who are perfecting the organization that is to pilot the state through the reconstruction era are laying the foundation of a permanent state-wide organization that is intended to operate as a primary agency for working out a broader and purer democracy. Charles C. Moore, who was president of the Panama-Pacific International Exposition, will, as director of the state council of defense, have charge of the reconstruction programme.

In explaining to a representative of the Christian Science Monitor something of what must be done by the state to meet the present emergency and how it is proposed to do it, William V. Cowan, secretary of the state council of defense and state director of the Four-Minute Men and Speakers Bureau, who has charge of organizing the new state-wide institution that is to carry on the work, said that the real idea in the undertaking is the formation of a system of about 5,000 community councils throughout the state, these to act as agencies of the state council of defense in carrying out the reconstruction programme and to remain as a permanent institution for community development and for developing and promoting the truest ideals of Americanization and democracy.

These community councils, said Mr. Cowan, will be formed in one day throughout the state, early in December, when the governor will set aside a community council day in order that the idea may be simultaneously and thoroughly fixed in the thought of the people of the whole commonwealth. These councils will follow quite closely the school districts of the state, this plan giving a good many such councils to the large cities, and leaving no section of the most rural part of the state without its organization of this kind. Within these community councils, explained Mr. Cowan, it is planned to merge all existing organizations of a similar nature, such as community centres and farm bureaus, in order that the civic effort of the community may be concentrated and organized along comprehensive and effective lines. For the present these community councils will in most cases make use of the schoolhouses as meeting places, but they will be urged to erect their own buildings in order to emphasize the idea that they are to be permanent institutions, except of course in those cases where public assembly rooms have already been provided in the school buildings for community purposes.

The work that these community councils, together with the state council of defense and its various associated agencies are to do, said Mr. Cowan, is general outline obvious. Thousands of our citizens who are to be released from the army and the war industries must be taken care of and in addition to this work, and growing out of it, there are many new problems that are pressing for solution. In fact, he said, in effect we must be prepared to meet readjustment in practically every phase of the social and economic life. As outlined by Governor William D. Stephens to the director of the state council of defense,

LIBRARY AS MEMORIAL FOR MT. A. HEROES

Sackville, Nov. 27.—The fall meeting of the board of regents of Mount Allison was held on Tuesday afternoon and evening, the sessions concluding on Wednesday morning. On Tuesday afternoon financial reports from Dr. Borden, president of the university; Dr. Wigle, principal of the Ladies' College; Dr. Palmer, principal of the Academy; and Dr. Wood, treasurer of the endowment fund, were heard. In view of war conditions which have been exceptionally difficult and harassing, the reports were considered very satisfactory.

Among the matters which received the approval of the board was the erection of a memorial library building in memory of the fifty-four Mount Allison men who fell in the great war. An effort will be made immediately to secure the necessary subscriptions to make possible the erection of a fire-proof library building which will be used jointly by the students of the three institutions.

A petition was read from the Mount Allison Athletic Society praying that the board should erect an institutional skating rink for the use of the Mount Allison institutions. The project was warmly supported and the matter was referred to the executive with power to act. It is quite possible that the rink will be built next summer. It will be located near the college campus and will thus be convenient of access.

Endowment Increased.
Dr. Borden reported that he had been making an effort to increase the endowment of the university by $50,000. Towards this end four subscriptions of five thousand dollars each had been obtained. A member of the board had agreed to give five thousand dollars provided nine others would give a similar amount. In response to that challenge subscriptions of five thousand each had been offered by Sir J. W. Flavelle and Sir John Eaton, of Toronto; and Joseph Allison, of St. John. In view of the necessity of paying larger salaries to professors, it is to be hoped that six more men will soon be found who will give five thousand each in order that the objective of $50,000 may be obtained.

The board decided to ask for legislation at the next session of the provincial legislature increasing the Alumni Society representatives on the board by four, and the Alumnae Society representatives by two.

BOARD OF TRADE

A very comprehensive report of the year's activities of the St. John board of trade has just been issued. The financial report shows that the organization is in sound shape and the report as a whole indicates that a large amount of very valuable work has been done during the last year. The report opens with a summary of St. John's advantage and an optimistic vein marks the report through to the end.

New Sentence Give Mooney His Life, In Prison

Sacramento, Nov. 28.—The sentence of Thomas J. Mooney, sentenced to be hanged on December 13 for the deaths of ten persons killed by a bomb explosion in San Francisco during a preparedness parade, July, 1916, was commuted by Governor Stephens tonight to life imprisonment.

Court action to save Mooney from the gallows was exhausted by the prisoner, the supreme court of the United States having recently decided it could not review the case.

Threats of a national strike in case the governor did not intervene had been made in various parts of the country and some time ago it was reported that President Wilson had written the governor to see that Mooney suffered no injustice. The trial judge had also requested a new trial for Mooney.

GENEROSITY DONATIONS.
The members of the Trinity church W. A. had their "pound day" yesterday when, during the afternoon, donations of pounds of provisions were brought in. "Pound day" is an annual event. The provisions are packed and sent to the Shinwauk Indian Home. The donations this year were very generous.

Industrial Uses For Alcohol

Ottawa, Nov. 28.—The research council under Dr. A. B. MacAllum has been carrying on investigations for some months into the present and prospect in uses of alcohol in Canada for industrial purposes now that it has gone out of fashion for beverage purposes. There is a large field opening for its use in the health producing lines of industry. Canada has opportunity for developing various chemical industries and turning the abnormal war demands for alcohol in connection with the manufacture of explosives, etc., to a permanent peace time industry for products hitherto for the most part imported from Germany or other countries.

With a view to encouraging greater production of pure alcohol for the needs of laboratories, etc., and of industrial alcohol, viz., 95 per cent. pure, for manufacturing purposes, a committee of the research council, consisting of Professor Goodwin, of Queens University; F. H. Wandsworth, of the Imperial Munitions Board; Dr. R. F. Ruttan, of McGill University; and Dr. A. B. MacAllum, has present excise duty on alcohol for industrial purposes to the government that the trial purposes be abolished. The committee further recommends that the government buy all the alcohol from all distillers, to be used in industry, and sell it at a small advance to each firm requiring it for industrial purposes. The research council is also arranging with several pulp and paper mills to install plants for the recovering of the waste sulphite liquor. It is estimated that from the waste products of two of the pulp mills of the St. Maurice Valley 2,000,000 pounds of industrial alcohol could be produced at a net cost of less than forty cents a gallon.

ENTERTAINMENT IN THE SEAMEN'S INSTITUTE

The Seamen's Institute has opened its season with two very fine concerts. The Navy League last night entertained the crew of H. M. S. Changwinola and all naval ratings in the port and on Wednesday night the crew of the Tunisian gave a very heartily applauded programme. A canteen is being run by the Young Women's Patriotic Association, and last night the refreshments were the gifts of the Navy League.

Colonel E. T. Sturdee, president of the Navy League, was the chairman last night and in a short opening address he welcomed the men in the name of the Navy League. Between 200 and 300 men were entertained and they thoroughly enjoyed the evening, judging by their hearty applause. Miss Jessie Church was the convener of the refreshment committee. The programme was as follows:

Pianoforte solo—A. B. Drake.
Song—Roses of Picardy, L. S. Dawson.
Song—Mrs. Murray Long.
Reading—Steve Matthews.
Song—Ragtime Navy, L.-Cpl. Dixon.

TELLS OF HEROIC NIGHT RESCUE OF "LOST BATTALION"

The following letter has been received by Mrs. Catherine Flynn, of No. 666 West 18th street, New York, from her son, Lieutenant William J. Flynn, of Company A, 80th Machine Gun Battalion.

October 15, 1918. Dear Mother—Well, the rest I wrote you we expect has not been granted yet. We expect it from day to day.

One of our battalions and two platoons of different companies were cut off in a pocket by the Boches. The pocket was formed by four high hills, very steep and almost impassable along the north hill.

For six days they were without food. The Boche handed them everything in the line of iron rations he had. High explosives, hand grenades and rifle fire.

When we learned of the hardships that these fellows had gone through we have not had a grumble since. The honor of being ordered to take over the high explosives of these two platoons fell to me.
