RICHARD YEO CHARGED WITH A FENISH ASSAULT

Man Under Arrest at Chatham Narrowly Escaped Proper Punishment at the Hands of a Crowd of Angry Women.

CHATHAM, N. B., July 12.—Richard Yeo was charged this morning in the police court by Magistrate Connors with rape, committed against the three-year-old daughter of E. Black. The prisoner was remanded until Monday at 10 a. m. for further evidence. Yeo stated to the court that the girl was just staying with him, and he was then taken back to the cell.

When Yeo was discovered yesterday a score of women surrounded him and had sticks or stones been handy, he would have fared badly before the police arrived. One large woman did strike him two or three times with her hand. Indignation is forcibly expressed as to the heinousness of the crime, which is thought to be the worst in Chatham's history.

The little girl is better today, but her body is badly cut and bruised where the man's hands lacerated and pinched her flesh. Dr. Byrne made an examination yesterday and as a result Yeo was charged with criminal assault.

ST. CROIX COTTON MILL DAMAGED BY FIRE

Blaze Was Confined to One Department and Work is Not Retarded—Loss Under $10,000.

ST. STEPHEN, N. B., July 12.—A somewhat serious fire broke out in the St. Croix cotton mill at Milltown this morning. It was about half-past three when the watchman in the mill discovered fire in the loose cotton in the dye house department of the mill. The alarm was sounded and the four fire departments from Milltown, Me., Milltown, St. Stephen and Calais, were quickly on the scene, and with the aid of the fire organization connected with the dye factory, were soon at work. Their efforts were well directed and what at first threatened to be a disastrous conflagration, was confined to one department of the dye house. The loss cannot readily be estimated, but will not exceed ten thousand dollars, which is covered by insurance. All departments of the mill are in operation this morning, the damage having been confined to stock and the interior of one department, and without injury to any machinery.

LIPTON GIVES A CUP FOR FISHERMEN'S RACE

BOSTON, July 12.—The Boston Old Home Week committee has received a telegram from Sir Thos. Lipton stating that the cup, said to be valued at $5,000, which Sir Thos. has offered for a fishermen's race during Old Home Week is on its way here.

Two hundred invitations have been sent out to owners of fishing schooners from Provincetown to Gloucester to compete in the race. There will be two classes for schooners, one for boats over $5 feet.

HAYWOOD WILL CONTINUE HIS EVIDENCE TODAY

BOISE, Idaho, July 12.—Wm. D. Haywood, the first of the men to be placed on trial charged with the murder of former Governor Frank Steunenberg, today will continue his testimony in his own defense under examination of Clarence Darrow of counsel for his defense. Haywood probably called in the last witness called in the direct examination. By this afternoon or the adjournment of court tomorrow, both sides will have closed and the rebuttal will commence on Monday morning.

IN THE EQUITY COURT

In the Equity Court chambers this morning in the case of Miss Catherine Patchell against the Colonial Investment Co., W. Watson Allen moved for a writ of possession; F. R. Taylor opposing. The judge gave the order. The case of Farrell v. Manchester and Eldin of the Portland Rolling Mills, was settled on appeal to the Supreme Court of New Brunswick on the application of J. M. Price for the appellant, M. G. Teed, K. C., consenting for the respondents. In the matter of Francis Meehan, Wm. Meehan, Annie Meehan, Jane Meehan, Andrew Meehan, Edward Meehan, who reside in Brooklyn, N. Y., William Gallacher of Johnville was appointed guardian, with power to sell their interest in farm lands at the latter place. J. B. M. Dixon appeared for D. B. Gallacher of Bath. The farm land is worth in the vicinity of $1,000.

CALIFORNIA IS GREATLY EXCITED OVER ANOTHER JAPANESE INCIDENT

A Japanese Spy, Who Got Employment as a Servant, Was Found to Have Photos and Plans of the Fortifications at San Diego, and Reports of the Shooting.

SEATTLE, July 11, via Tokyo, July 12.—The request of the Korean delegation at The Hague, as published in the Courier de la Conference to the effect that the Emperor of Korea is a prisoner here and the imputation that the emperor is helpless in the hands of the Japanese, is denied by Marquis Ito as a gross misrepresentation of facts.

Marquis Ito regards the personal liberty of the emperor to be unchanged by the protectorate, the emperor being free to go and come and to see whom he likes. His manner of life remains unchanged. Foreigners have until now not regarded the emperor as a prisoner. Marquis Ito's reform of the Korean court, or as it is called, Court Pacifica, excludes a class of intriguers heretofore guiding the emperor, but does not interfere with the emperor's movements, communications or access to ministers and others who have legitimate business, and even auspicious interpreters are admitted to him.

NEW YORK, July 12.—The World today prints this version of the arrest of a Japanese at San Diego, Calif., on the charge that he was drawing the fortifications at Fort Poscreans. The intruder was caught in the very act of sketching the emplacements of four ten-inch guns at battery Wilmerston, and copies of plans he had made of the torpedo casement and the electric machinery connections and keys controlling the mine field of San Diego harbor, were found in his possession. The plans included everything which might be of use to foreign power in case an attack was made at a point on the Pacific coast. According to a mill source he even had records of the sub-calibre target practice made during the present encampment of the Fifth Regiment, National Guard and the Regulars.

It is said that this Japanese had been working in secret with the Japanese consul in San Diego, who lives in the officers' homes, and that he had in his possession when arrested, more than 200 photographs giving all possible positions of the guns, bird views and a panorama of the government reservation showing in detail the relation of

ORANGEMEN EVERYWHERE CELEBRATE THE TWELFTH

In Spite of Threatening Weather a Very Large Crowd Went to Hampton This Morning—An Incident in Montreal.

The Orangemen of the city turned out in big numbers this morning to march to the train which carried their excursion party to Hampton for the celebration of the glorious 12th. After leaving Orange Hall, Germain street, they paraded to the hall on Simonds street, North End, where the brethren of Dominion Lodge No. 141 joined in the procession, and in which turned out the following branches of the Order were represented: Trinity Perceptory, Black Knights of Ireland; True Blue Lodge, of Carleton; the Prentice Boys, the District Lodge and others. Headed by the St. Mary's Band under Prof. Williams' leadership, the Orangemen swung into Main street from Simonds with banners flying. They made an excellent showing and their march was military and highly creditable.

HAMPTON, N. B., July 12.—Dull skies and a fine misty rain greeted the crowds of holiday seekers who arrived here by train shortly after 10 o'clock this morning to celebrate the glorious twelfth. But thus far these drawbacks are not sufficient reasons to prevent the people moving about and apparently enjoying themselves. On arrival the Orangemen formed up on the station platform and marched with banners flying. They were joined by a delegation from Maple Leaf Lodge, No. 145, Norton, and some of the members of Hampton Lodge, No. 52. When all were in line the procession proceeded by the St. Mary's band led by the veteran Professor Williams, marched to the Orange Hall on Midway, where a meeting of the lodge was held, at the conclusion of which the visitors were joined by delegations from Kings-ton, Champions Lodge, No. 45, Boyne Lodge, No. 15, Whitehorse, Kings Own Lodge, No. 83, Gondola Point, and Prentice Boys' Lodge, No. 57, Seadog C. B. this morning for Covered Bridge, where the Orangemen are celebrating the anniversary of the Battle of the Boyne. A number of orations will be delivered at the picnic. The chief orator will be Mayor McLeod of this city.

WEATHER MAN OBJECTS TO THE STAR'S STATEMENT

Claims That the Forecasts are Right Nine Times Out of Ten—Yesterday One of the Days When This Did Not Happen.

Under the heading "The Weather," yesterday the Star printed the following: "The weather probabilities for the past two months have been right on only half a dozen occasions. The Star will not publish the weather probabilities for the remainder of the summer."

Immediately following this notice was the forecast, saying: "Moderate fresh to northwest winds, fine and warm." This speaks for itself. Mr. D. L. Hutcheson, of the meteorological bureau in St. John takes exception to the above paragraph, and by facts and figures proves conclusively that during the past two months there have been only eleven total failures in the forecasts, yesterday's being the eleventh. Mr. Hutcheson goes on to say that these forecasts are prepared for the Maritime Provinces, and that any little conditions peculiar to St. John, and not applicable to the larger portion of the province, cannot reasonably be inserted every day. There have been some few occasions on which the weather has disregarded the forecast to a slight extent, but the failures have not numbered a dozen. On certain days on which the promised weather was to have been fine and warm, St. John had fog, and very heavy fog at that, sometimes even amounting to rain. Such a day would be classed as a failure, but on 112 other occasions in the past two months the forecasts have been right.

As an instance of how differences may occur, Mr. Hutcheson states that, owing to heat inland, it is frequently found that a current of air from a southerly direction passes over St. John conveying the impression that a southerly wind is blowing. Sometimes persons or so who are transiently here. At two o'clock the Orangemen will again assemble at the hall and march first to the village and then back to the station where arrangements have been made for addresses to be delivered from the court house portico, the audience standing on the ground and walks. Grand Secretary Nell J. Morrison, accompanied by R. A. C. Brown, and Pipers Rose and the two Craik-shanks passed through this morning on their way to attend the Orange celebration at Markhamville.

OUIDA IN POVERTY IS LIVING AT FLORENCE

Famous Novelist, With No Idea of the Value of Money, Gave a Dinner to Dogs.

LONDON, July 12.—Relative to Ouida, the novelist, being reduced to poverty the Florence correspondent of the Daily Mail sends a story of her recent life. He says that until two years ago, Miss De La Rance occupied a splendid three-story villa at Leuca, Sicily, as she invariably had thirty, and was always seen with a number of them around her. Her intense fondness for dogs, with a certain Megalomania, caused her on one occasion to give a meal of milk, bread, and meat to every dog in Leuca. She said the bill for this extraordinary banquet was willingly, although heavy debts were crowding upon her through her utter ignorance of the value of money.

THE POLICE COURT

Magistrate Ritchie had a busy session in the police court this morning. The boy problem was once more the chief subject of discussion. Rebekah Segal, a Jewish woman, complained to the police court that a number of boys had been annoying her by ringing the door bell, doing other things that boys are liable to do. The woman was not in court this morning, but from the endeavors of the police two boys were reported to be in court. The three absentees were accounted for by Mr. Lawlor, who said that he resided next door to the boys who did not respond to the policeman's summons. The boys in question were four and five years of age and were too young to be brought into court.

With a look of disgust the magistrate asked Policeman Finley of he was summoned boys of that age to appear in the police court. Finley said he had notified them. He was summoned to the street by telephone. Mrs. Segal made the complaint and another officer notified the boys from the names given by the complainant.

The magistrate: "It is again, and again and again that I have spoken on subjects of this kind. Surely there is not a policeman who has notified a four or five year old boy to appear in the police court. There is no particular law for boys and men. If men stand at the head of King street, one swears and leaves, it is not the duty of the policeman to arrest the others who are not guilty. The officers, some of them, then pass judgment that people are not fine when brought here, You boys can go."

Fred Izard was charged by Policeman Henry with encouraging two dogs to fight on Main street last night. The prisoner who is only a youth said that the dogs were fighting before he arrived on the scene, and that one of them caught hold of him by the leg. He then said "Sis-a-boy" to the other dog and was arrested. He was given a lecture on cruelty to animals and was allowed to go home with his mother.

Three drunks were fined the usual amounts. Richard W. Folkins charged with wilfully breaking open the city gate at the dump at the east end of Broad street was told to make good the damage done to the gate and appear in court next Monday morning at ten o'clock to receive sentence. Mr. Folkins complained to the court that Policeman Marshall had been rather offensive in speaking to him and that the officers could be heard a couple of blocks away.

The policeman said that the defend-

BAPTISTS DENOUNCE THE BOOK
WRITTEN BY REV. H. F. WARING

WOODSTOCK, N. B., June 11.—At the afternoon session of the Baptist Association today the officers elected for the ensuing year were announced as follows: Rev. J. H. McDonald, of Fredericton, moderator; Rev. D. Hutchinson, of St. John, assistant moderator; F. W. Emmerston, clerk; James Patterson, treasurer. Members of executive—Dr. McLeod, B. H. Nobles, E. J. Grant, Dr. Kierstead, Dr. McIntyre, D. Hutchinson, C. T. Phillips, J. LeTonne and C. T. Woyman. Members from St. John for H. M. Board—W. H. White, R. G. Haley, Rev. Wellington Camp. Colonel Vince called attention to the fact that while there should be five hundred ministers and delegates present at this association there were only 23 delegates and 41 ministers, or one-seventh of the whole. The committee on denomination was instructed to attempt to remedy this. The thanks of the association were heartily passed to the church choir and people for their hospitality. On a resolution of thanks to the proprietors and editors of the Maritime Baptist for the excellency of the paper and urging its reception in every home Rev. E. J. Grant, Dr. Creed and Rev. C. P. Wilson desired that the paper should make a firm, outspoken pronouncement against the dangerous teachings of the so-called "new theology," as enunciated in Rev. Mr. Waring's book. The resolution was adopted. It was resolved that a Provincial B. G. P. Union be organized to meet September or October and that a committee of five be appointed to carry this into effect. A resolution of thanks to Miss Gannon, in India, for her letter, was passed. Resolved that a course of study be inaugurated in missions, Sunday school work and the Bible.

ANTI-TRUST PROCEEDINGS.

The action which was commenced on Wednesday last by the United States government against the American Tobacco Company, marks the institution of an entirely new policy of anti-trust prosecutions, one which is more radical than anything previously undertaken, and which it is anticipated will be more applicable to present conditions. The charge is that the American Tobacco Company is a monopolistic corporation acting in restraint of trade in violation of the Sherman law. The case, which is the first to be taken up on the new plan, will be followed by other prosecutions and there is hope that even Standard Oil may be brought under government control. The department of justice aims at placing each law-breaking trust in the hands of a receiver who, as agent of the court, shall carry on the business of the corporation. If the movement succeeds in the present case, it will be the first practical application of the law, for the suits instituted in the past have been of little effect, for the decisions of the courts have easily been avoided. The receivership plan is, however, looked upon by the department as workable, sound in law, and the only sensible scheme so far proposed by which the desired end may be reached. What the courts may think of it remains to be seen. The court is asked first of all to grant an injunction restraining the defendant corporation from engaging further in interstate commerce, and as an alternative, that a receiver be appointed to carry on the business. This plan is adopted because the government realizes how difficult it is for any department or court to force a corporation to continue in business in conformity with the law. While the trusts exist under their own management, it is almost impossible to keep a close watch over them, and while it may be known that they are continually violating the law, yet prevention is almost impossible unless direct departmental control exists. Hence the request that receivers, as agents for the courts, be appointed to carry on the business in the interests of the corporations and of the people. The duty of the receiver would be to conduct matters in strict conformity with recent statutes for the regulation of trusts, to bring about in as short a time as possible a thorough dissolution and if possible to restore the various units forming the corporation to the condition in which they existed prior to the combination.

AN UNFORTUNATE NAME.

In the land lying between St. James, Wentworth, Britain and Pitt streets is an institution which is carrying on as noble a work as any in St. John, but which is rendered repellant by such a name as should never be attached to any hospital. The Home for incurables is one of the greatest blessings in the city. Hospitals need all their accommodation for those whose recovery is possible and the unfortunate who are beyond treatment were, until the establishment of this home, often deprived of those comforts which should be their lot. There is another institution in the city supported by the Catholic denomination and performing work of a somewhat similar nature, but to it a different name has been given. It is the Mother of Mercy, or Mother of the Suffering Heart. Realizing the effect which the name of any such hospital may have on the minds of the patients the provincial government not long ago transformed the Linnæus Asylum into the Hospital for Nervous Diseases, which conveys the same meaning but holds out hope. The Home for Incurables is of course a home for incurables, but the afflicted ones, patient and contented though they may be, cannot rejoice in the daily reminder that for their death is in no way uncertain.

WILL BE A DISGRACE.

In a score of years from now, it will be just as much of a disgrace for a man to have consumption as it now is for him to have the itch. Nine times out of ten, these diseases are due to ignorance and filth and no self-respecting family now encourages conditions which develop them. Neither will they, when the nature of the disease becomes familiar, permit the spread of tuberculosis. Dirty habits are the principal cause, for though the most cleanly and careful person may contract consumption, the number of such victims is insignificant in comparison with those who develop it through contact with others. And as the modern idea of treating the disease spreads, greater caution will be exercised and care taken to prevent contagion.

THE UNNATURALIST.

O I am a most Unnaturalist
And I tell of "How Things Ain't,"
I take the animals on the list
And give 'em a coat of paint.
I do not bother 'bout what they do,
But tell of "Things They Don't,"
And spite of the Realistic crew
Reform my ways I won't.

I love to sing of the Kangaroo
And tell how he took a Moose,
And hit its vermiform in two,
And tore its windpipe loose.
I love to tell of an infant Leon
That grabbed an Elephant's trunk
And filled that aged Mastodon
With a deep cerulean funk.

I love to sing of the speckled Hen
That sat on a bunch of keys,
And spite of all our Hired Men
Remained there at her ease.
I love to tell of the child that came
Until one morn in May,
She hatched a dozen keyholes bright
And cackled the living day.

I love to sing of the Teddy Bear
As soft as a plate of mush,
And tell of his silky milky hair
And his epidem of plish.
I love to tell of the child that came
Just why they call him Ted—
Because he's stuffed with sawdust from
His narrative to his head.

But best of all when night comes by,
My pen's been put to sleep,
My inkpot blinks its dreamy eye
In slumber sweet and deep,
I find it quite a pleasant trick
To listen to the roar
Of golden eagles as they kick
The vulpine from my door.

EMIGRATION FROM ITALY.

According to Daily Consular and Trade Reports, 41,573 emigrants left Italy in 1906 and 122,190 former emigrants returned home. In 1905 the emigration was 350,381 and the inflow 102,889, so that the emigration of 1906 was greater than that of 1905 by about 67,000 persons. This is where the 1906 Italian emigrants went to: United States . . . 287,000 Argentina . . . 114,818 Brazil . . . 124,602 Central America . . . 1,097 Points east of Suez . . . 1,148 Other countries . . . 277 Total . . . 417,573 Those returning were from: United States . . . 94,445 Argentina . . . 24,602 Brazil . . . 11,861 Central America . . . 871

Below is exactly what occurred on a West Side street car a few months ago: Three little white boys and a colored boy entered a car one day, and when asked for fares, the oldest boy (not over seven years) handed the conductor a dime. The conductor, a son of Erin, and feeling good-natured, remarked that that would not do; he wanted twenty cents. "Oh, no," said the boy. "It's two for five now." "That means for brothers," replied the conductor. "And this little fellow (pointing to the colored boy) is not your brother."

"Oh, that's all right," replied the boy. "My mother says there's a black sheep in every family."

A certain young preacher was much disliked by his congregation for his foolishness and conceit. He considered himself greatly persecuted, and, meeting an old German friend of his on the street one day, began to tell his woes, ending up by saying: "And Mr. Brown, the churchwarden, actually called me a 'perfect ass'; my cloth prevents me from resenting insults, but I think I should refer to it in the pulpit next Sunday. What would you advise?" "Mein friend," said the old German, with a twinkle in his eye, "I know not, but I think that all you can do will be to boast to brag for them, as usual."

"What is there on your hat that makes you so proud of it?" "The eyes of all the other women."

Peasimist—After all, this world is most all uphill work.
Optimist—Go, but you're hard to please; the last time I saw you you were complaining because your business was all running down.

Candid Wayfarer—Yes, I've been in prison.
Benevolent Lady—You should be ashamed to own it.
Candid Wayfarer—I didn't own it; I was only a lodger.

"Well, are you getting better?"
"No, I'm just managing to keep out of my grave."
"O, I'm sorry to hear that."

His Mother—But I thought you said your wife could cook.
Her Son—She can.

His Mother—Then what are you growing about?
Her Son—She won't.

The pompous Judge glared sternly over his spectacles at the tattered prisoner, who had been dragged before the bar of justice on a charge of vagrancy.
"Have you ever earned a dollar in your life?" he asked, in fine scorn.
"Yes, your Honor," was the response. "I voted for you at the last election."

Mr. Nagger—Was there any silly idiot hanging about you before I proposed to you?
Mrs. Nagger—Oh, yes, there was one. Mr. Nagger—Well, I wish to goodness you'd married him.
Mrs. Nagger—I did marry him.

CORONER'S JURY CHARGE DAVID WITH MURDER OF HIS WIFE.

The Inquest Held at Woodstock—Witnesses Tell of Hearing Prisoner Threaten to Kill the Woman.

WOODSTOCK, N. B., July 12.—The inquest over the remains of Mrs. Julia David was held in the council chambers last night before Coroner Hay, Solicitor General Jones representing the Crown. The jury empaneled: J. W. Plummer, Isaac Draper, William Lilly, John Cogger, C. R. Watson, Hugh Dalrymple, John E. Leach, and Kall Aborn sworn, said he lived in Woodstock, knew deceased since June 5th. Saw her in the hospital after she was shot. Dr. Butler, of McAdam and Dr. Rankin, of Woodstock were present. Never knew Tom David until last Saturday. He made no threats against his wife in my presence. I understood Jim Andrews told him to leave her alone and said he had a 32 revolver in his pocket as a plate of meat with him. I was in the hospital when she died at twenty minutes to five on Wednesday afternoon. Before her husband on Sunday she told me that he threatened to kill her. I asked him if that were so and he said he did not mean it. He was joking. She told me that she came from Lowell, and on Sunday in her husband's presence she told me she would not go with him as she was afraid that he would shoot her. Sadie Foster sworn, said she was Captain of the Salvation Army in Woodstock. Was in McAdam on Monday morning on her way to St. John. Noticed the man and woman referred to. Was in the waiting room of C. P. R. "I saw the man she called her husband shoot her. The first shot was fired with the revolver pointing at her." Also heard the second shot. Saw the man that died the shooting arrested by Policeman Gardner. Heard his name was David, his last name was there until Dr. Fuller cannot take charge of the case. I took off her clothes and saw the wound and assisted the doctor. I then went to St. John.

Dr. N. H. Grant, sworn, said he was a medical doctor in Woodstock, at present on the hospital staff. First saw deceased on Monday, when through a telephone message from the hospital he went there. Drs. Butler and Rankin were present. Found Julia David suffering from the bullet wound on the lower right portion of the groin. Patient was conscious, not suffering much pain. He was shot through the chest. The two doctors and myself had a consultation and decided not to operate at that time. Next day we did enter the abdominal cavity and perforated the bowels in six places. In such cases as a rule the wound causes death. If bullet had not touched bowels she might have got better. I was not present when she died today. The cause of death was peritonitis, resulting from the bullet wound.

After a careful consideration the jury through Foreman Plummer rendered the verdict that they found that Julia David came to her death from the effects of a wound caused by a bullet from a revolver in the hands of her husband, Tom David, while in the waiting room of the C. P. R. at McAdam Junction, on Monday last.

RUNNERS THE BIGGEST WINNERS

Electioneer, one of the famous race-horses of the race, earned $5,220 a minute by winning the Futurity at Sheepshead Bay, New York, the prizefighter earned about $22 a minute when he met Terry McGovern in Philadelphia. His "bit" of $12,000 was considered a good one too.

A sporting statistician, desiring to ascertain the comparative earning capacity per minute of the horse and the prizefighter, made deductions recently.

The value of Futurity to the owner was $46,770. Electioneer ran the course in one minute and thirteen and three-fifths seconds. The Gans-Nelson fight lasted forty-two rounds and Nelson's earnings of $20,000 amounted to $19 a minute. The statistician concluded that the most money for true sports is in a winning horse.

In two seasons Accountant, a brown colt, owned by James B. Brady, earned A. H. and D. H. Morris, and as a two-year-old earned $15,000, while in the stable of Captain S. S. Brown. Upon the death of Captain Brown and while the colt was in his three-year-old form, he was trained by Robert Tucker and earned $10,910. The horse was later purchased by James B. Brady for $30,000.

They are Mrs. Bernard Walsh, Mrs. Michael Fitzpatrick, Misses Mamie, Nora, Julia and Charles. The deceased has been ill for about two months.

The propeller of the S. S. Calvin Austin was yesterday and Eastport one of the crew attempted to cut away the rope. He was unsuccessful, so when the vessel arrived in port last night driver Lehey went down and cleared the propeller.

The steamer Yale arrived from Boston at eight o'clock this morning. She brought 108 passengers. A large number of passengers took the I. C. R. to Pt. du Chene and Nova Scotia towns. The tourist travel to Prince Edward Island has been heavier than ever this year, the majority of travellers having relatives on the island.

A very sudden and unexpected death took place in Oliville, Queens County, on Saturday last, when Mrs. George Lourie, daughter of the late William Tilley, schoolmaster for over thirty years in that locality, passed away, casting a gloom over the whole village. Mrs. Lourie was in the thirty-third year of her age, and leaves a husband and three small children. Four sisters—Mrs. J. Thompson, Mrs. Levi White, Estella and Olive, all of West Avon, Conn., and four brothers, William, Alexander, Crawford and Lemuel Tilley, survive. Mrs. Lourie, who was greatly esteemed for her many admirable traits, was interred in Lyon's cemetery, Armstrong's Corner, on Tuesday of this week, the obsequies being largely attended.

A woman by the name of Mrs. Corrigan made things lively on Mill St. this morning. She appeared in a costume most appropriate to the day and had several yards of orange ribbon in her hands. Mrs. Corrigan had been imbibing too freely, and as the procession of Orangemen went by, she became too enthusiastic in the celebration of the "24th" and was arrested. She did not go to Central station without resistance, but put up a stiff fight with the policeman. A warrant was secured and Mrs. Corrigan was conveyed to jail in it.

CHARLIE MURRAY'S SHOP WAS DECORATED TODAY

W. S. Not Pleased—Police Took Down the Trimmings.

After the Usual Custom, but the Proprietor

Charles Murray, the Union Street shoe maker, is so loud in his praise for the "little shamrock" that several of his friends never allow the 12th of July to pass without decorating his shop. But the decorating is done in the wrong way, and in such a manner that the veteran cobbler is turned to wrath. This morning when citizens turned in Murray's store, they found it gayly set forth in orange bunting, and at 8 o'clock a large crowd had gathered to await the arrival of Mr. Murray at his place of business. Over the door of the shop several yards of orange bunting had been hung, and over this King William in effigy was suspended by a rope from the roof. The coat worn by the "dummy" was trimmed with orange colored braid. On the peak of the roof, an orange flag was blowing in the breeze. These decorations were alone sufficient to arouse Charlie's anger, but when he spied on the doorstep a small piece of green ribbon, his anger knew no bounds. The crowd waited and waited outside the shop for Mr. Murray to arrive, and at 8:30 o'clock he turned the corner of Charlotte street and approached his place. When he reached No. 8 fire station he caught a glimpse of his decorated shop, turned and walked away in the opposite direction.

BELGIAN OFFICER EXPOSES CONDITIONS IN THE CONGO

Soldiers, He Asserts, are Brigands Who Prey Upon the Natives—He Had Been Charged With Cruelty.

BRUSSELS, July 12.—Major Lemair, who served 18 years in the Congo, and who resigned when he was notified he would be prosecuted for cruelty toward the native soldiery, retailed by publishing a sensational exposure of the revolting conditions prevailing in the native army. He declares the soldiers are merely brigands who raid the population, assault the women and burn villages. The major adds that when he attempted to protect the natives by inflicting severe punishments on the troops his disciplinary measures were over-ruled by his superiors. He insists that the real object of the Congo administration in preferring the charges was to get rid of him.
