SIMMONS BEDS Built for Sleep

No matter how simple or how elaborately furnished the bedrooms of your home may be—there is a Simmons Bed of a design and finish that will harmonize easily. Artistic beauty, refinement, design and elegance of finish characterize every number. Simmons steel beds, in either "twin" or "double" widths, are masterpieces of beauty, and unlike beds of wood, they cannot warp, become loose jointed or noisy. They are strong, correctly proportioned, serviceable, thoroughly sanitary and 100% comfortable. Let us show you these new designs.

10 per cent off BEDS and BED-ROOMS, such as Cots, Cribs, Springs, Mattresses, etc. We handle the Simmons Bed Co.

Thirty-five cent GINGHAMS now 25 per cent off. BOOTS and SHOES. (Not this season's goods).

CHAUTAUQUA IS GREATLY ENJOYED

The Lectures and Programs So Far Have Attracted, Entertained and Instructed

When Hartland, East Florenceville and Woodstock undertook seven days' Chautauqua—three towns twelve miles apart—it was some risky undertaking. But Hartland at least has come out "over the top" thanks to the willing co-operation of the guarantors as a whole and particularly of W. D. Keith and H. B. Nixon, president and vice-president of the local committee, and A. W. Kyle, secretary-treasurer.

The week's program has been all that people hoped for and each succeeding day brought forth a larger attendance. It seems surprising that such large crowds can assemble twice a day in a town the size of Hartland. More than a thousand people attend each session. Many people have come from outside points to spend the week here.

Miss Bokhoff, coloratura soprano, delighted her audience on Monday evening, and Miss Phillips on Wednesday evening charmed her hearers with her sweet contralto. She has a remarkably fine voice and is destined to reach the high places in her profession. The Misses Hoyt delighted their audience with their limber and imperious impersonations.

The three lectures have been greatly enjoyed and heard with much profit. The charming personality of Julius Caesar Noyes, characterized by his delightful and instructive discourse on Monday evening, Mrs. Paulsen on Tuesday night spoke on behalf of the children, the hope of the nation. Mrs. Paulsen is a brilliant woman and has been in Chautauqua and similar work practically since her girlhood. Her son, a stalwart lad of six-foot-two, is also in Chautauqua work.

Last evening Arthur Hunt Chute delivered a forceful lecture. His topic, and he is amazingly enthusiastic over it, was "Young Canada." Mr. Chute is a Nova Scotian by birth and was graduated from Acadia in 1911, a classmate of Harvey T. Reid. He rose to the rank of captain in the great war and has a distinguished career. Subsequently he wrote a book on the war which ran through nine editions. He is now editor of the Wall Street Journal.

This evening the people will have an opportunity to hear one of the best known of the operas by the famous composer Ballo. You will hear in this opera the well-known songs of "Then You Will Remember Me, The Heart Moved Down and Other Familiar Songs" all of which had their origin in this opera years ago. The afternoon orchestra program of today is a delight to a large audience.

Tomorrow night the well-known popular play "It Pays to Advertise" is looked forward to a great pleasure, while on Saturday Terra's Hawaiians will give a concert. Many look forward to this as the leading feature of the course.

COY CAMPBELL

At the Lancaster Military Hospital at St. John on Aug. 3, Coy Campbell of St. John died after a period of ill health extending over several years. He leaves a widow, formerly Miss Ada Cook; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Campbell of St. John; three brothers, Ervin of Framingham, Mass., Lorne and George of St. John; five sisters, Mrs. George Clark of Woodstock, Lillian of Toronto, Melissa, Ruby and Mary at home.

The funeral was held at St. John on Aug. 10, with sermon by Rev. H. V. Bragdon. B. F. Smith of East Florenceville conducted the obsequies. Burial was in the Hunter cemetery.

Mr. Campbell was 31 years of age and enlisted and went overseas with the 104th, but was turned back from England on account of ill health.

LITTLE ALICE MARY WRIGHT DEAD AT ANDOVER

At Andover August 2, a thrill of sorrow went over the place when it became known that Mary Alice, the little daughter of George W. and Oia B. Wright, had passed away being struck by an automobile, as she was crossing the street near her home, all hearts go out in sympathy to the bereft parents in the loss of their only daughter three years of age, a child of much promise and beloved by all. The mother has recently nursed her very tenderly through a long period of severe illness and brought her back to the best of health again. It made her all the more dear and taken away so suddenly was a grievous blow. The parents and one brother are in deep sorrow. On Thursday a large congregation and many relatives from a distance, gathered at the home near the Baptist church and later at the church, where Rev. Neal McLean of Plaster Rock assisted by Rev. Chas. Flemington spoke very tenderly to the mournful ones, in the absence of the pastor who is away on a vacation. Appropriate music was furnished by a quartette and amid a profusion of flowers the lovely little blossom in the white casket seemed most beautiful of all. The broken-hearted parents are mourning but not without hope as they look forward to a meeting with their darling baby in the home, "over there." Printed by request.

REV. W. P. HAIGH SEVERELY INJURED

On Sunday evening, while returning from his Aberdeen appointments, Rev. W. P. Haigh met a painful accident while driving down Dickinson Hill, Rockland, and as the result he is a patient at Fisher Memorial Hospital with a badly fractured knee-cap. Something about the horse's harness gave way and in endeavoring to adjust matters the horse kicked striking Mr. Haigh directly on the knee. Dr. Belyea was called and after giving what relief he could brought the injured man to town, and J. W. Montomery conveyed him to the hospital. On Monday forenoon Dr. Belyea went to Woodstock and operated upon the injured knee. He found a compound fracture and the knee cap smashed to fragments. These were reassembled and sutured with extreme tension and the wound was closed. The patient is doing well as might be expected under the circumstances but at the best will be laid up several weeks.

BYRON ROSS TRIAL NEXT MONDAY

Much interest is aroused in Carleton and York counties over the preliminary examination which commenced at 10 o'clock yesterday morning before Police Magistrate Comben, in Woodstock, when Byron Ross is charged with causing the death of Mrs. Mabel Green at Somerville on June 26th. Byron Ross is a native of Carleton county, a son of Dr. D. W. Ross, who practiced at Amherst for many years and now resides at Fredericton.

Mrs. Green died shortly after the auto accident and as a result of the coroner's inquest the clerk of the peace, R. L. Simms, laid information before Magistrate Comben that Byron Ross did unlawfully and recklessly drive a motor vehicle and did kill and slay Mabel Green contrary to the statute made and provided. Ross was brought before police magistrate on July 30th, and bail was set at $4,000. Mr. Ross furnished $2,000 and Wilfred B. Riddout and Albion H. Foster $1,000 each, and the preliminary examination set at 10 o'clock on August 15. The Crown has summoned the following witnesses: Whitfield Green, Orpha Green, Samuel Hartley, Muriel Hartley, Treasa Barber, Wilfred Riddout and Dr. McIntosh.

The preliminary hearing was to take place before Magistrate Comben on Monday morning, August 16, but by agreement between the attorneys the case was adjourned till next Monday morning at 10 o'clock.—Press.

TYPHOID SITUATION BETTER

Dr. J. A. Wade, of the Department of Public Health, returned from Centreville Saturday where he has been carrying out an inspection in connection with the recent outbreak of typhoid fever in Carleton County. The well from which the disease spread was shortly after the outbreak put under quarantine, and no new cases have come from that source. It was learned that five more cases, all outside of Centreville, had developed previous to the placing of the well under quarantine, but these, along with the others right in the village, are all progressing favorably now and no further trouble is anticipated. The well, which has been under quarantine for the last three weeks, was the only source of typhoid in the village.—Fredericton Mail.

SATURDAY NIGHT FINE PARADE

Spectacular Procession Got Up on Short Notice—List of Floats—Indian Boys the Best

The parade formed at the base ball grounds, and went to Kennedy's at the south end, then up through town, and disbanded at the school house. To every child was given a number and at the end of the parade 12 numbers were drawn and tickets awarded to those holding lucky numbers. The holders of lucky tickets: Roy Small, Sam Klye, Paul Belyea, Donald Irving, Andrew McDonald, Eva Tommy, Lloyd Seely, Gerald Noyes, Merritt Way, David Howells, Peggy Carr, Mrs. McQuarrie.

In the parade were numerous floats as follows: Oriental Pageant, planned and in charge of Miss Helen Plummer and Miss Boyer; Misses Hoyt float, by Mrs. G. N. Belyea; Howell Concert float by Miss Stevens; Bohemia float by Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Nixon; It Pays to Advertise by Mrs. Clark and Mrs. Riddout; Hawaiian float by Mr. and Mrs. Hatfield; Indian float planned and completely carried out by Clinton Clark and five companions; Just Kiddles float by A. W. Kyle; Britannia's float by Miss Ethel Belyea. The parade was marshalled by four horseback riders.

Prize for the best float was awarded to the Indian float because it was completely carried out by the children with no help from adults. The judges were Mrs. Belyea, Mrs. Nixon and Mrs. Hatfield.

Great credit is due the ladies who took hold of and carried out in one day such a fine parade. Much co-operation, enthusiasm and community spirit is apparent.

HENRY YATES OF WATERVILLE DEAD

The people of Waterville and vicinity were shocked to hear of the death on Tuesday, Aug. 3, of Henry Yates, which occurred at the Fisher Memorial Hospital of typhoid fever after an illness of 21 days. He was born in Waterville, England, on May 1, 1864, and came to Canada in May, 1911.

In April, 1915, he came to live with Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Brooks at Waterville, with whom he made his home until he was stricken with what proved to be his last sickness, and to whom he became as a son. He was a young man of temperate habits, a member of the U. B. Church at Upper Waterville, and the large number of sympathetic friends who gathered to pay their last respects to one cut down so early show the high esteem in which he was held. The following floral tributes were expressive of sympathy: Cluster ferns and asters, Mr. and Mrs. Brooks; cluster ferns and asters, Mr. and Mrs. Manes, London; Mr. and Mrs. Howard London, gladiolus, Misses Edith, Mabel and Helen Brooks; wreath, sweet peas, Mrs. William Kimball; bouquet, Miss Florence Kestey; crocuses, ferns, roses and carnations, Young People of Waterville; cut flowers, Mrs. Chas. Palmer, Miss Wilma Palmer, Mrs. Albert Palmer and others. The funeral services were held at the 3rd Old Baptist church and interment in the cemetery at rear of church. The pall-bearers were Oscar Shaw, Roy Glass, Richard Hill and Gerald Lipssett. Services at home, church and grave were conducted by Rev. E. A. Trites of Hartland.

CHAUTAUQUA SERVICE ON SUNDAY

On Sunday evening there will be a union religious service in the Chautauqua tent at 8 o'clock. The pastors of the various churches will be present and a sermon will be delivered by Dr. Marshman, the Chautauqua superintendent, who is also a Presbyterian minister. The Hawaiian entertainers will render the musical part of the program. For this service no tickets are required; admission is free to everybody, but a collection will be taken to defray the day's expenses.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the friends at Florenceville and elsewhere for their kindness to us during the sickness and death of our dear husband and brother.

TO WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

This Woman's Letter Tells You How To Pass The Crisis Safely.

Letter, P. Q.—"During the Change of Life I felt so weak and run down I could hardly do my work. The perspiration would pour over my face so that I couldn't see what I was doing. We live on a farm, so there is lots to do, but many who feel as I did would have been in bed. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and it did me a world of good. I tried other remedies but I put Vegetable Compound ahead of them all, and I tell every one I know how much good it has done me."

Mrs. DUNCAN BROWN, Lancaster, Prov. Quebec.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dizziness, ringing in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and business should be looked by middle-aged women, and Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound carry them safely through this crisis and into the new life.

Women are urged to write for free advice. No other medicine has been so successful in relieving women suffering from the Change of Life. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Women may receive free and helpful advice by writing the Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

GOOD WISHES FOR FR. RYAN

Rev. Father F. C. Ryan is leaving Maliseet, Victoria county, on Aug. 15 to visit Red Bank, Northumberland county, after spending fifteen years in charge of the Tobique Mission, where he has built three churches, and a large dwelling, in addition to renewing the face of all the mission buildings. He has had five churches and three stations to serve. St. John people will well recall that it was Rev. Father Ryan who went with the late Rev. W. R. Robinson to nurse ninety lumbermen in remote camps while the influenza scourge was at its worst.

Father Ryan has been inspector and superintendent of Indian schools in New Brunswick for three years. There are eleven Indian schools in all. He will be succeeded in the Maliseet work by a Franciscan father, the work having become too strenuous for him alone.

During the last few days friends of all denominations in Victoria county have been coming along daily to bid Father Ryan farewell and to wish him every success.

There is only one way to kill all the Flies

This is it—Darken the room as much as possible, close the windows, raise one of the blinds where the sun shines in, about eight inches, place as many Wilson's Fly Pads as possible on plates (properly wetted with water but not flooded) on the window ledge where the light is strong, leave the room closed for two or three hours, then sweep up the flies and burn them. Put the plates away out of the reach of children until required in another room.

McLAUGHLIN BUICK NEW FOUR

In addition to their Master Six and Light Six Series, the McLaughlin Motor Car Co. will assume within a few days specifications and prices of a new Model 22-35 Four Cylinder Series, which will carry all the lines and manufacturing principles throughout of the Six Cylinder Buick Models, including the famous Buick Valve-in-head Motor, Multiple Disc Clutch, Sturdy Rear Axle, Third Member Construction and genuine Leather Upholstering.

From the standpoint of all around service-ability the Touring Model is unexcelled. McLaughlin Buick Motor Cars are the product of mature skill and knowledge acquired in two decades intensive engineering experience, and this practical ability to design and build a fine Motor Car is concentrated in the New McLaughlin Buick Four Cylinder Models.

Creighton & Ridley, the Woodstock Dealers, will receive the first shipment of the New Models this month.

CHARLES C. WHITE

Grand Falls, Aug. 7.—The death of Charles C. White, one of our best known and most popular business men occurred at the hospital here yesterday afternoon. He became suddenly ill a week ago with appendicitis and was operated on, but from the first his condition was very serious and little hope was entertained for his recovery.

Mr. White was in his forty-sixth year. He was a son of the late Chas. White and a native of Carleton county. He leaves his wife, one daughter, Clara, and four sons, Arthur, Rex, Donald and Roland. Two brothers also survive, J. L. White, ex-M. P. P. the well known merchant, and Burt White, both living here, also one sister, Mrs. Curtis Jones, living in Arizona.

FEW SEE SECOND CENTURY

Not Many Claiming to Be Over One Hundred Years of Age Can Prove It.

Sea serpents being out of date, and "wild men" somewhat exhausted of interest, there comes the recent story of a Kentucky man who celebrated the 131st anniversary of his birth by taking his first motor car ride.

When a report of this sort is investigated it usually is found to lack proof.

Some years ago, at a meeting of the Actuarial Society of America, its president, John K. Gore, said: "The well-known cases of individuals commonly believed to have lived a century and a quarter and even much longer have not in any instance been verified."

There is usually temptation to exaggerate the age of extremely old persons; often they do it themselves. Not very long ago a man in England, interested in the study of human longevity, offered $5,000 to any man or woman living at the time who could prove that he or she was 100 years old or more. There were hundreds of claimants, but in no case was irrefragable proof submitted.

In point of longevity, women are far ahead of men, generally speaking. They are more resistant to diseases and they live longer. And yet women are called the "weaker sex." So they are, muscularly, but it is manifest that they are the stronger sex constitutionally. They possess what biologists term greater "vitality"—a superior ability to survive.

Still a Child, as It Were. John hated to go out with his little sister. One day we went to his aunt's house, and she asked him why he didn't bring Clara along. "She's too young to go with fellows," said John.

San Hamilton's School-days. Gen. Sir Ian Hamilton, the famous British warrior, has written a very interesting and personal introduction to "The Making of Wellington College." Sir Ian is an old Wellingtonian, and he tells at the time when Dr. Benson, afterwards Archbishop of Canterbury, ruled with a rod of iron, and how "he laid on to my back all it was all blue, with a cane. When I went to the bathing lake and stripped I felt as a peacock must feel when spreading his tail." But Sir Ian says, "Wellington taught me to smile when I was being thrashed, though the blood surged like a hammer through my temples; to eat whatever was chucked at me or without; to admit without any feigning, caps, the XI, and even, in a lighter way, prize-winners and prefects."

Old Times in Western Canada

To get first-hand knowledge of the Riel Rebellion and the results which followed its suppression, a party of French Journalists and their wives arrived at Quebec in July, 1886. They were the first French Journalists to visit Canada after Confederation.

After spending a few days in the historic city they went to Montreal, where they were entertained by many French-Canadian Societies. Leaving Montreal they travelled over the Canadian Pacific Railway lines to Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan, where the women of the party remained while the Journalists journeyed to the scene of the battle during the Riel Rebellion. They visited Batoche, Ont-Knife Hill, Frenchman's Butte and other places. They travelled by methods of transportation used by the pioneer settlers, consisting for the most part of ox-carts.

Returning to Manitoba, the Journalists visited Stony Mountain Penitentiary, where Poundmaker, the noted leader of a strong band of Indian Rebels, was imprisoned. Poundmaker led the band of Rebels who defeated Colonel Otter's forces at Ont-Knife Hill.

Poundmaker surrendered to Colonel Middleton on May 28, 1886, 14 days after the battle of Batoche. The Indian leader was sentenced to serve three years in Stony Mountain Penitentiary. Several other Rebels, including Riel, were hanged. When Poundmaker was sentenced to prison, he said he would rather be hanged than go to "that place in Manitoba."

He died before his sentence expired. The French Journalists had the only photograph taken of them in Canada, during their visit to Stony Mountain Penitentiary. Poundmaker was brought from his cell and posed in the middle of the group. Colonel Samuel Lawrence Bedson, warden of the penitentiary, stood behind Poundmaker, holding the chain which was attached to Poundmaker's wrist.

Poundmaker was one of the most noted and interesting prisoners ever confined in the penitentiary. He was the only prisoner who was allowed to wear his hair long while serving a sentence.

Journalism and literature were not of a high standard when the French Journalists visited the West. The early settlers paid almost no attention to their activities in the field.

The Journalists gathered what data they could regarding journalistic achievements in Western Canada. These facts were given to them by William F. Luxton, editor of the Manitoba Free Press, and the dean of newspaperdom in the West. The Free Press was established in 1872, and it had grown to be a political power in Canada. It championed the cause of the Liberal party.

The Nor' Wester, which was the pioneer newspaper of the West, carried the only news the settlers read in the earlier days. It flourished for several years, and "died" shortly after the suppression of the Riel Rebellion. The Manitoban, and the News-Letter both had short lives. They were followed by The Media, a French newspaper. It also met an early death. The fate of The Media interested the visiting French Journalists, who secured copies of it to take back to France.

The Journalists then went to Toronto, then to Montreal, then to Quebec over the Canadian Pacific Railway lines, embarking on a steamer at Quebec for the voyage down the St. Lawrence River and across the Atlantic Ocean to France.

MAPS OF CARLETON COUNTY

Have you a map of Carleton county in your school, your office, or home? There should be one in all three places. There still remain a number of copies of The Observer's Map of Carleton county, showing parishes in colors, the roads, streams, post offices, towns and villages. The size is 25x42 inches and the maps are in two styles, one mounted on linen cloth and wooden rollers, selling for $1.50 and the other on heavy mappaper with the binding top and bottom, and selling for $1.00. Better send for one of these and familiarize yourself and your family with the geography of your own county. Send the price of the style you choose to The Observer office, Hartland, N. B.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL ITEMS

August 21, 12th Sunday after Trinity, the Rev. C. R. Canham will preach at Florenceville at 11 a.m.; Greenfield at 3 p.m.; Centreville at 7:30 p.m. Subject in morning—"Who is my neighbor?" Subject in evening—"The Imperfection of the Human Lot." Everybody welcome.

On Sunday, August 21, the Rev. R. A. Colbitts of Fall River, Mass., will preach at the Methodist church at Lakeville at 11 a.m. and at Bloomfield Corner at 7:30 p.m.

The untoward results arising from our recent epidemic are well on the wane, and may our old friend never come back, may we. Fortunately in our town, thanks to skilful medical assistance and careful nursing aid, we suffered no fatalities, and all the afflicted are convalescing. For my own part I would take a pretty strong rope to hold me steady. Taking our tip from the advertising of all travelling annual shows, we hope to all be "bigger and better than ever."

The grim reaper visited three homes last week and gathered in three elderly people in the persons of William Pryor of Good Corner, Mrs. William Reid of Digby and Mrs. Adam Hunter of East Centreville. These elderly people had all lived well over the allotted span of life and leave many relatives and friends to mourn. All were buried in the cemetery adjoining the United Baptist church.

Miss Hagerman of Lewiston, Me., spent last week with her brother, H. H. Hagerman.

Haying is all complete and harvesting operations are well under way. The farmers are smiling in anticipation of average or good crops and fancy prices. We only hope that they may receive both, for it surely tends to make money quicker when the farmers grab handfuls of it. 'Tis pretty hard to spend it until you get it.

The Biblical attributes of long-sufferance and kindness, meekness, etc., are surely possessed in large measure by the citizens of our neighboring American towns whose townships occupy prominent places on the upper stretches of our own little river. For the few past years proprietors of starch factories in these places have used this stream as a dumping ground for all pulp and other filth coming as refuse from a plant of this nature. As a result the air in their own towns is laden with indescribable stenches.

and neighbors of such a factory could almost be excused from aroar if they could be protected no other way. And yet they seem to grin and think it is a necessary evil. Surely familiarity breeds contempt for the transient pilgrim is obliged to grab his olfactory knob in both hands and go through on high. For our share of it we get the accumulated dregs, until the old mill pond which used to be like a limpid, little loch in the Highlands, now resembles a stagnant bog, a fit habitation for eels and frogs. It is an actual fact that the game fish have practically deserted the stream this season, and it really seems a shame that something cannot be done to slay this evil and actually prohibit the fouling of our beautiful little river by the heaving overboard of the least bit of rubbish. Everyone should have community pride enough not to do it themselves and have arder enough to see that no one else did the same.

Numbers from here attended the Chautauque gatherings at East Florenceville during the entertainments this week.

T. W. Caldwell, M. P., was in town on Monday.

L. L. Kennedy is busily engaged in improving his newly acquired property by the raising of unnecessary out buildings and the beautifying of his lawn.

Mrs. George West and Miss Georgia West are recovering from the injuries they recently sustained, by being thrown from a buggy while driving home from town one evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Williamson are rejoicing over the arrival of a young son at their home last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burpee are spending the week with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Burpee.

Mr. and Mrs. Phinney have returned to their home in Lyman, Mass., after a few week's visit with their uncle, David Reid.

Mrs. R. Jack Lee and children have returned from a visit with relatives in Rhediac.

Miss Edith Champion of Newcastle is spending the week with her friend, Miss Mildred DeLong.

Miss Evelyn Peggara is visiting her friends in Presque Isle.

Mrs. Ford Graham and children of Grand Falls has returned home after a pleasant visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Jameson.

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

An Insurance Policy will not Prevent a fire—but
A good Paint does
Prevent Deterioration

THERE is a certainty about the permanent protection from decay that goes on with every can of B-H "English" Paint.

There is also the romantic value of a well preserved home which goes on accumulating to an even greater degree than does its real estate value.

Therefore, for economy's sake, it pays to specify a paint of proven permanence and quality.

"ENGLISH" B-H PAINT

All the year through your property will be protected by the use of B-H "English" Paint. Heat, wind, rain, frost or snow cannot harm the house, the surface of which is protected by B-H "English" Paint.

The guaranteed formula on every can is your protection, for the base of this famous paint contains 70% pure white lead (Brandram's Genuine B.B., the world's standard) and 30% pure white zinc, to which is added linseed oil made in our own mill.

Before you paint be sure that you are using B-H "English" Paint, so that you can give your surface the correct protection.

Important!

Farmers buy a WATSON TRIPLEX
SPRAYER to protect your potato crop.
This sprayer will do it.

I also call your attention to the
JOHN DEERE RIDING CULTIVATOR
This cultivator was especially designed for the Annapolis County trade, as it works better than any other machine when the plants get big.
