COLORED PEOPLE ORGANIZE FOR ADVANCEMENT OF RACE IN GENERAL

The much talked of meeting for the advancement of our people in the Dominion of Canada was held in Ulster Hall on Monday evening, August 11th, with a goodly number of the citizens present. Outlining the idea which prompted the formation of the organization, J. F. Jenkins, editor of The Dawn of Tomorrow, a paper devoted to the interest and ideals of the colored race, declared that the time was ripe for colored people to exert an organized effort to better conditions among themselves throughout the entire country.

Mr. Jenkins set forth the aims of the society in a three fold way. 1st, to fit the colored man for better positions; 2nd, to find such positions for him, and 3rd, to keep him fit for such positions. Mr. Jenkins pointed out the deplorable conditions with which we are confronted and also charged that the colored people of Canada had not progressed in the 100 years of free British rule as they should have done, citing as causes partly the lethargy of his own people and partly the prejudice of the white race. It was distinctly pointed out by the speaker that the solution of the problem lay only through united effort in a similar manner to the workings of the Urban League in the United States. We in Canada have not advanced nearly as much as our brethren across the line, said Mr. Jenkins, and the time has come for us to cease marking time and advance. Organization would help to alleviate present conditions. And with the assistance of the Anglo-Saxon people, whose innate sense of fair play would rally to our cause as soon as they were convinced that the people of our race were trying to help themselves. He believed that great strides could be made in that direction.

Mayor Wenige also addressed the meeting, assuring the audience that he was heartily in accord with the movement that was being launched, and pledged himself to give any support possible either from his official or private position. His Worship claimed that the colored man has ability and cited many cases that he himself knew of and had come in contact with. He was of the opinion that perseverance and industry would conquer all obstacles.

Several other speakers were present and expressed their views regarding the organization. David Ross, president of the Brotherhood Federation, declared that the white race owed much in the way of atonement to his darker brethren and expressed hope that the Brotherhood movement would pave the way for better understanding.

W. J. Wray and John Moule spoke along similar lines.

Rev. S. R. Drake, Rev. E. M. Wood, and Rev. F. O. Stewart also were speakers and gave inspirational addresses, exhorting the colored people to stand by the organization and help them in their endeavour to be firm for the right.

Rev. N. J. L. Gonzales, M.Th., of Lexington, Ky., was listened to with much interest. Rev. Gonzales claimed that every race of people in the world was trying to preserve its racial identity, but the Negro in Canada apparently was ashamed to own his nationality and seemed to be trying to discard the fact that he was a member of the race. The speaker claimed that we are Negroes and should not try to hide the fact by becoming hostile at the mention of the name. He said that we should demand that the name be spelled with a capital "N" and make it stand for something. The constitution and by-laws were presented and adopted and the following officers elected.

Hon. President, Sir Adam Beck; President, Mr. Jno. W. Montgomery, Toronto; 1st Vice-Pres., Byron Fountain; 2nd Vice-Pres., Rev. E. M. Wood; 3rd Vice-Pres., Paul Lewis; Sec.-Treas., J. F. Jenkins. A meeting will be called at an early date to complete the organization. In the meantime, any city or town desiring to form such an organization locally, may communicate with the Secretary, who will be pleased to forward any information possible, as the object of the parent body is to establish branches throughout the Dominion of Canada. A selection by Mme. Hunter, and a trio by Messrs. Jenkins, Ball and Mrs. Jenkins helped to keep the audience in good spirits during the evening.

The meeting was brought to a close with the National Anthem and benediction by Rev. F. O. Stewart.

J. W. MONTGOMERY, of Toronto who was elected President of the Canadian National Association for the advancement of Colored People. The organization had its birth in London, Ont., on Monday last.

Chautauqua Form of Education Introduced

New York City, Aug.—(By The Associated Negro Press)—The pioneer effort to introduce the Chautauqua form of education and entertainment among Negroes in Greater New York was presented at the Abyssinian Baptist Church with a programme that began on the afternoon of August 10, and is to continue for a complete week.

The church in its effort to perform a community service interested a number of speakers of both races, most of whom are persons of national reputations. Among these are, John Louis Hill of Chicago, author of "When Black Meets White"; Congressman Hamilton Fish, Jr., Gordon White, dramatic editor of the Billboard; and Dr. J. W. E. Bowen, of Gammon Theological Seminary, Atlanta, Ga.

Some of the entertainers who were presented on one or other of the daily programmes were: Melville Charlton, organist, who was recently given the honorary degree of Doctor of Music at Howard University; Abbit Mitchell the internationally known soprano; J. W. Cooper, a lyceum ventriloquist; the Chautauqua Quartette, Richard B. Harrison, dramatic reader; William Elkins, of Choral Club fame.

THE NEGRO RACE; WHO ARE THEY?

(By S. E. G. Allen)

Who are they? What is their condition? What position do they hold among the white races in America? These are questions that too many of us, as white people, hardly pause to consider. Their black faces alone disqualify them for being on any kind of equality, no matter what their condition of mind, no matter how beautiful and honorable, how practical and useful, how pure and unselfish, how noble their lives may be, their faces are black and that is enough. "Thus far shalt thou come and no further" is the attitude we have too long assumed, and is but a proof of a selfish narrow-mindedness that will take an indefinite period of time to entirely overcome.

In the meantime, the Negro himself, in spite of his numberless disadvantages, is forcing himself, by sheer merit, into positions where many a white man would be proud to stand. This in itself, is proof of his value as a citizen. Surely, God is his Father, and loves him as His offspring. Surely He listens to his prayer as to yours or mine. Surely He guides him with the same love that He feels for you or me. Surely there are no color distinctions in the Divine mind, that is not the basis on which we will be judged, we all know. Yet we forget, and in our insolent and often disobedient attitude, we assume positions to which we have no claim. Let us note how many of this race are being led by our Father into positions that not only do honor to Him, but are a credit to themselves, and the country in which they live.

I have recently been reading an article in one of our standard American magazines, headed: "Negro contributions to American Life," which begins in this way: "The Negro is an intimate part of our American history. Increasingly it has become clear that America cannot do without him. He is one of her great assets." and in the opinion of the writer of the article, "Regardless of handicaps, he is better off in America than anywhere else, and he is in America to stay."

CANADIAN NATIONAL ASSOCIATION

Last Monday evening about seventy-five of the colored citizens of London met at Uulster Hall and organized the Canadian Association for the Advancement of Colored People. At this meeting were several white citizens who took an active part in the proceedings and who became members of the association, pledging their support in every way. The Chamber of Commerce, the Rotary Club and the Kiwanis Club had been approached concerning the advisability of such a movement. They all expressed themselves as being heartily in sympathy with such a movement and individual members have pledged their support.

This organization marks the first effort that has been put forth in the Dominion to unite the whole colored population into one organization. As stated in the constitution, the object of the organization shall be to bring about co-operation and co-ordination of existing bodies and agencies of all races for improving the industrial, economic, social and spiritual conditions of Negroes and to develop other agencies and organizations where necessary; to lend assistance and encouragement to Negro boys and girls with special talent in securing special training, who otherwise would not receive such training; to make studies of the industrial, economic, social and spiritual conditions among Negroes; to gather statistics concerning the Canadian Negro and to publish same in its official organ, The Dawn of Tomorrow; to assist in maintaining The Dawn of Tomorrow and in general to promote, encourage, assist and engage in any and all kinds of work of improving conditions among Negroes.

The organization has already taken steps to apply for a charter. It intends to begin immediately upon an active campaign. London is naturally to be the home office and the headquarters but the society intends to begin to establish branches in any city or town in the Dominion where such a society may be deemed necessary, any community which might be interested in having a branch of the Canadian National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, is advised to write to the Secretary immediately.

It has been said that such an organization as this cannot exist here in Canada for the reasons that the Canadian Negro is not interested in his own progress nor are their white brothers interested in him. However we shall see. The colored people of London have, in a modest, unassuming, yet determined way, made a start. They are deserving of much credit for this attempt.

MILITARY HONORS FOR SHOW.

Boston, Mass., Aug.—(By The Associated Negro Press)—The Second Separate Battalion of the National Guard occupied seats, marching into the theatre in military order, at a performance during the final week of the run of "In Bamville" at the Tremont Theatre, in tribute to Noble Sissle's war record, and as an appreciation of the donations that the company has made toward worthy philanthropies while in the city.

COLOR QUESTION TEST OF CIVILIZATION

Williamstown, Mass., Aug.—(By The Associated Negro Press)—The solution of the color question threatens to become the acid test of Occidental civilization, said Sir Vaentine Chirol, director of the foreign department of the London Times, in the second of his lectures at the Institute of Politics tonight. He reviewed racial and economic forces at work in India and added:

"It is not by the sword that England can hope to rule India. What is to be feared at present is not over rebellion against English rule, but a steady estrangement of the best elements of India itself, without whose aid, and the whole weight of India co-operation the whole scheme of reform may languish and perhaps perhaps be thrown into the scales in favor of a final breach with Occidental civilization. It will be an evil day for the Occident if all the other political, social and economic problems with which it is faced in the Orient come to be merged into one comprehensive color problem which must irresistibly unite against the West all the different races and creeds of the otherwise disunited Orient."

COOLIDGE DRAWS NO COLOR LINE

Washington, Aug. 11—Replying to a letter of protest against the candidacy of a Negro in New York State for Congress, President Coolidge to-day expressed "amazement" at the suggestion that he intervene, and reaffirmed his intention of administering the constitution, which, he pointed out, guarantees equal rights to all citizens, without discrimination on account of race or color.

The letter said in part:

"Our constitution guarantees equal rights to all our citizens, without discrimination on account of race or color. I have taken my oath to support that constitution. It is the source of your rights and my rights. I propose to regard it and administer it, as the source of the rights of all the people, whatever their belief or race. A colored man is precisely as much entitled to submit his candidacy in a party primary as is any other citizen. The decision must be made by the constituents to whom he offers himself and by nobody else."

BRANTFORD NOTES

Rev. S. A. Lucas had charge of the services on Sunday in the absence of Rev. Adams, and preached two wonderful sermons. Both services were well attended.

Mrs. Washington, of London, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. I. Johnston.

Mrs. Abrone Sr., her son, Spencer and her grandson, and Mr. Plummer, all of Buffalo, were motor visitors over the week end, with Mr. and Mrs. A. Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. George Jones and Son, Mr. and Mrs. Howard, and a friend, all of Buffalo, were motor visitors in the city over Sunday, and were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson.

There is being held on Thursday 14, a moonlight picnic and open air concert in the church yard, under the auspices of Club No. 1, Church aid.

Always glad to meet old friends, and cherish the acquaintance of new ones.

The Negro Race; Who Are They?

coast," and history also records that a Dutch man-of-war came to James-town harbor, "three centuries ago and sold to the planters there "twenty negars." The culture of the tobacco plant was mostly the cause of their rapid increase, but there were other southern productions needing just the help these slaves could give. cotton, sugar rice, and it is said that about the year 1750 the slaves outnumbered the whites by about two to one, their labor being indispensable, and proving a large factor in American progress. It is said that in the nation as a whole, the supply more than half the workers, as farmers. They occupy over one million farms, at least one quarter of which are their own. Forty thousand of the coal miners union are Negroes, and, indeed, a large percentage of the workers in the various industries of the U.S. are Negroes.

In America there are seventy-eight Negro banks, with a capitalization of $100,000,000, and the increasing number of successful business concerns, managed by Negroes, prove their capacity. It is said that their accumulated wealth of $20,000,000 in 1866 became $1,500,000,000 in 1920.

Dr. Carter S. Woodson, a Negro historian, is the author of several works on the Negro question. His latest: "The Negro in Our History", it is said, will yet be made a text book in schools and colleges, and a reference book on American history in libraries.

To copy from a magazine, "In a half century of freedom, the Negroes achievements have been remarkable. at the commencement season of 1922, five hundred and twenty-three Negroes received the Degree of Bachelor of Arts, twenty Masters degrees, besides three hundred and thirty-two graduate, with professional training, including seventy-five awyers, besides a large number in other professions."

These few words barely touch the borders of this vast, important, and fruitful subject, but they may be the means of stimulating some capable and earnest seeker after truth to take up the study of what will prove increasingly interesting as investigation proceeds. The Negro is here to stay. He is proving himself more worthy of our study than perhaps some of us are willing to admit, and should he advance to leave so of us "po' whites" behind, the fault will be our own.

Factory Closes; No Workers

Fayetteville, N.C., Aug.—(By The Associated Negro Press)—Because they cannot be operated as now organized, with white labor, and because of the absence of Negro workers, due to migration North, the Hawthorne Silk Mills, run here for the last thirty-five years, have been forced to close down. In normal times the mills employed 600 Negro workers. Since the war they have had to import workers from other towns and states, but have now found it so difficult to do so that it is felt necessary to close down to avert bankruptcy. Officials of the firm declare that talk about the Negroes returning after a while is all "piffle."
