Would Burn Paris.

PARIS, July 9.—A number of petroleum cans were found in the barricades of the mob by the police last night. The purpose for which they were placed there is evident. The leaders would not have hesitated to burn Paris. Some of the cans were brought by women, and the city is reminded that petrolous still exists. It is not surprising that many timid think the city is to see another bloody revolution. There are now 30,000 soldiers under arms in Paris.

Nearing the End.

PARIS, July 9.—Hon. E. J. Phelps, of counsel for the United States, finished his closing address before the Bering Sea tribunal of arbitration yesterday. Mr. Phelps close his plea eloquently before a large audience. His every word was listened to with the closest attention. America, he said, stood on the justice of her cause. He dwelt at some length upon the moral importance of the tribunal's decision. Upon this decision, he said, the only appeal as to the judgment of civilization and of history. The arbitrators will hold a private sitting Monday.

SUNDAY AT THE FAIR

Not Likely to Prove a Financial Bonanza After All.

CHICAGO, July 9.—The attendance at the World's Fair to-day was very light, so light as to use doubt in some minds as to whether or not open Sundays are to prove the financial boon to the fair that was expected. While the officials express satisfaction over the attendance, it is no secret that concessionaries are generally greatly disappointed at the lack of the bustling multitudes that were fondly anticipated for this pearl of the day.

As near all concessionaries are compelled to pay 25 per cent. of their gross receipts into the exposition's coffers, they are the first to feel the results of light attendance.

The regular Sunday services were the only special attraction at the park to-day, and the well established fact that many of the exhibitors are entirely closed on Sundays no doubt helped to diminish the Sunday attendance. The attendance at the religious scenes in Festival Hall was not large. The Rev. Jenkins Lloyds Jones preached.

A windorm of terrific force, followed by a heavy downpour of rain, passed over the Whiteity a few minutes before 6 o'clock, doing considerable damage to different buildings and to exhibits.

BASEBALL.

ALERTS DEFEAT THE STARS.

The Alerts again mopped the diamond with the Stars at Tecumseh Park Saturday afternoon in the presence of a good-sized crowd. The game was an excellent one from the standpoint of the spectators and the Alerts. There was sufficient hitting to keep the fielders on the move, and the latter did their work well. The Stars started off by making four runs, Farnsworth making a "homer" by driving the ball over the left fence. It was a terrific drive and won a hearty round of cheers. The hit sent in Wiley as well. Two more runs were knocked out in the inning, but as if tired with the effort the Stars eased up, and all they did with Sheere's delivery after that was to make a hit in the ninth. The Alerts batted and fielded unusually well. Burton distinguished himself by a three-base hit in the fifth and by a very timely two-bagger in the eighth which brought in two runs. "Doc" Sheppard gave fewer bases on balls than Sheere, but was hit much harder. The score:

A GREAT GAME.

There was a great game of ball Friday on Tecumseh Park. It was the annual battle between members of the National Union and of Dominion Lodge, I. O. O. F. The Oddfellows were the winners by long odds; in fact the other fellows were not in it after the first inning. The defeat of the Union was due to their inability to make a union between the bat and Bell's deceptive curves. However they punished the atmosphere severely, and did some excellent field work. The shortstop was commendably Spry in picking up grounders and nothing got through the Ironsides of the second baseman. The Union started off well by making four runs, but in the following eight succeeded only in laying an unbroken array of soft-shelled goose eggs. The hard-hitters of Dominion Lodge batted by jerks and streaks, confining their scoring to three innings. Their fielding, too, wasn't as bad as it has been sometimes. The outfield wasn't exactly a stone wall, but the flys were stopped before they reached the fence. The playing was exceedingly fast for greenhorns and superannuated ball tossers. The game only lasted an hour and a half, a fact which the audience greatly appreciated. Mr. W. Hiscott performed his duties to the entire satisfaction of the the crowd, the teams and the umpire. The score:

TOPICS OF TO-DAY.

Three of the most notable points for the production of petroleum outside of North America are Baku, in the Caucasus; a Chinese district about Banjoewangie, where twelve wells have been sunk by a Chinese company, and Djabbekkoto, in the Island of Java, exploited by the Dortsche Petroleum Company.

In speaking of the restrictions on imported literature in Turkey, the Rev. Dr. F. E. Clark, chief of the Society of Christian Endeavor, says: "Some of these objections to current literature are frivolous enough. A text book on chemistry was recently forbidden because it contained the familiar formula 'H 2 O,' which was construed by the sapient censor to mean Hamid II (the reigning Sultan) is nothing. A geographical text-book, which naturally contained allusion to 'the union of rivers,' was condemned because the Sultan does not wish his people to know anything about union or combination; while a treatise on natural history was forbidden because in its chapter on starfishes it was supposed to contain some occult allusion to the Sultan's palace, which is named 'the Star.'"

In spite of all one has heard and read of China, Professor Douglas' account of that country, given at the Royal Institution in London, will be a revelation. The actual state of matters there, so far as government is concerned, is very much as regards other governments what the willow-pattern plate is to an ordinary landscape. It has perspective, but it is all wrong. The Emperor is not only despotic, but has power to forbid the transmigration of a soul and to keep it in suspension during his pleasure. This is a privilege tyrants may have often sighed for, but except in the case of the first cousin of the sun and moon, in vain. His sacred person is never beheld by his subjects, because when he appears they fall flat on their faces. He is shut out from the world by triple walls, within which, however, is to be found a topographical representation of his kingdom, including mountains and forests. There are also lakes, on which he goes in a toy steamer. The professor's whole description is not so much a fairy tale as a humorous nursery story, a mixture of "Bab Ballads" and "Alice in Wonderland."

Speaking of liquid fuel for making steam and the objections to the use of crude petroleum, Mr. Hutton, an intelligent authority in engineering practice, remarks that the other form of oil used—the product of the refining process after the elimination of the naptha and the kerosene or burning oils from the crude material—is a safer form of oil for fuel, and, having no volatile material remaining, gives off little or no odor, and has great advantage, though there has been sacrificed not a little of its calorie power and its length of flame. It will contain upward of 85 per cent. of fixed carbon and upward of 13 per cent. of hydrogen in the ordinary run, the balance being oxygen and impurities, so that it will compare in composition about equal to coal of the bituminous class so much used for steam purposes, and having by no means much of a theoretical calorific advantage over the solid fuels; the crude petroleum contains 21,000 heat units against 14,000 for coal. Among the disadvantages common to both forms of oil fuel, however—where the vapor system is followed—is the noise made by the burner, and in the gaseous system the sacrifice of part of the fuel efficiency for the distillation of the gas, and in both the air-vapor and gaseous systems the necessity for auxiliary and additional apparatus.

At the second h scatter between the rows about 600 pounds more of the phosphate providing abundant food for the all through their growing season. hills are struck out into regular the field can be cultivated in both and much hand hoeing saved.

The best growers have dropped th mer custom of hilling up their sq and prefer the level mode of cu The cultivator should be kept goin the field until the runners beco long that the cultivator would them in passing. A Massachusetts er who has made a special test of lizers on squashes tells in a lett American Cultivator how he grows squashes.

My former practice was to ap my squash field nine or ten cords of manure to the acre, but now, by five cords of manure broadcast handful of phosphate in each hill a much more satisfactory crop wi labor and expense, the work of pl not being half what it used to be we applied the manure in over The phosphate is very obnoxious black bugs and other insects whic upon the young plants, and I s have any trouble from them w freely use the phosphate.

To exhort ...maintain righteousness; but to ... make no effort to ascertain the conditions ... necessary to fulfill this righteousness is on a par with the exhortation of the physician who prescribes 'Be well,' but who takes no pains to ascertain the causes of the disease or its appropriate remedies.

"Many a physician acting with the very best intentions has bled his patient to death; so we, while professing Christianity, may be maintaining customs that make a nullity of the golden rule, and reduce the sublimest teaching of Christ to the level of empty platitudes.

"Permit us to call attention to one of the most important factors now affecting the condition of humanity. Wherever society collects, we find one portion of the community claiming the right to charge their fellows, not for crops raised, for goods furnished, or for services rendered, but for access to the bounties furnished by the Creator for the common enjoyment of all his children, they levy toll for access to the earth.

"'This planet,' say these privileged ones, 'is ours. The rest of you can have access to the bounties furnished by the common Father, only on condition that you pay us for the privilege.' Thus to one part of the community we give the power of life or death over the rest of the community. We establish a relationship where one part of society must forever pay, under services rendered, but for the privilege to live. And thus we establish a system of insidious despotism, whereby one part of the community can live for all time by the toil of their fellows, a system that gives sumptuous luxury without toil, and condemns the laborer to everlasting toil, servitude and penury.

"These questions we cannot afford to ignore. The charge which the part of humanity thus inflicts on the fellows is either honest or it is dishonest. The Bible declares, 'The earth hath he given to the children of men.' Our custom says this means to some of his children. We disinherit the greater portion of the race, and we thus reduce a multitude to both poverty, misery and want, that men are driven to dishonor, women to shame and children to beggary.

"To pray for the coming of the kingdom of God, and to maintain institutions that make the coming of that kingdom impossible; to urge people to be honest, and then to sink honesty into social degradation; to teach the fatherhood of God, the brotherhood of man, and then to starve the portion of the race of all rights of humanity; to denounce tyranny, fraud and oppression, and then to impress on one part of society all the burden of maintaining the whole race; must not this be the great impediment, the most serious drawback to the progress of the kingdom of God?"

2 DUNDAS STREET.

The Endeavorers.

Last Day of Their Great Convention.

No Lack of Enthusiasm Among the Delegates.

Fifteen Thousand Present at the Closing Meeting.

A Platform of Principles Announced and Heartily Indorsed.

An Unpleasant Incident — Immense Audiences at the Evening Rallies—Interesting Topics Taken Up.

MONTREAL, Que., July 8.—The fourth day of the twelfth annual Christian Endeavor Convention opened fine and clear, and the early risers turned out to the morning prayer meeting at 6 o'clock in great numbers. There is no lack of enthusiasm in the Endeavorers, although the heat of yesterday was very trying. The proceedings in the tent and drill shed to-day were only carried on in the morning. There were no afternoon sessions there.

The object of missionary work was taken under consideration in the drill hall, when the delegates assembled at 9:45, under the presidency of Rev. Francis E. Clark. Five addresses were delivered on the subject by chosen speakers. Across Craig street in the tent brief reports were received from the simultaneous committee conferences of Friday afternoon. There were eleven of these reports on such subjects as singing, music, Sunday school, etc. An address, "The Committee of One," delivered by George M. Ward, of Lowell, Mass., was followed by adjournment at noon.

There was a regrettable incident in connection with the meetings of yesterday and last night. In the morning in the tent Rev. Mr. Karmarker made a violent attack against the Roman Catholic religion.

La Presse, a sensational French paper, made much of the Hindoo man's words, and in consequence quite a number of rough characters gathered around the Champ de Mars in the evening. Some of these ruffians who were crowded out of the tent, created a little overflow meeting on the road close to the tent. The roughs threw stones and the police had to be called to restore order. It is believed the disturbance was the direct result of what a good many people designate as an ill-timed attack on the part of Karmarker.

The Province delegates held a reception in Taylor's church at 9 o'clock this morning.

SATURDAY EVENING.

Immense audiences attended to-night's session of the Christian Endeavor Convention. Fully 10,000 people gathered in the drill hall and there was nearly as many in the tent. The streets around the drill hall were filled with vast crowds of people.

The French people are indignant at the action of the Hindoo Karmarkar, especially as they gave a splendid welcome to the delegates.

The Christian Endeavor Society to-day passed resolutions repudiating the speaker's remarks, and an explanatory letter was sent to the French papers. A number of the delegates, however, threatened to raise a fight, and extra police precautions were taken. Up to this hour no disturbance beyond a few street fights has taken place.

At to-night's meeting in the drill hall Rev. H. B. Grose, of Chicago, concluded the roll-call of States, and Rev. Mr. H. Wells, of Minneapolis, delivered an address on international fellowship.

In the tent Rev. J. W. Lee of Atlanta, Ga., delivered an address on "The raw material of a great life."

CLOSING SESSION.

MONTREAL, July 9.—The big Christian Endeavor Convention was brought to a close to-night by a monster meeting in the drill hall, which was crowded to overflowing. The attendance was estimated at nearly 15,000. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed and the convention presented a grand sight. Dr. Clark, president of the society, occupied the chair, and the proceedings opened with song service and a sermon preached by the Rev. T. H. Lewis, of Maryland.

An impressive feature was the consecration service conducted by Rev. Dr. Clark. The following resolutions, which may be regarded as the practical result of the convention, were unanimously adopted.

PLATFORM OF PRINCIPLES.

Resolved, That we affirm our adherence to the principles which, we believe, under God's blessing, have made the Christian Endeavor movement what it is to-day.

1. Personal devotion to our Divine Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ.

2. The covenant obligation embodied in the prayer meeting pledge, without which there can be no true Society of Christian Endeavor.

3. Constant religious training for all kinds of services involved in the various committees which, so many of them as needed, are equally with the prayer meeting essential to the Society of Christian Endeavor.

4. Strenuous loyalty to the church and denomination with which each society is connected.

5. We reaffirm our increasing interest in the inter-denominational fellowship, through which we realize organic unity, but to fulfil the prayer for spiritual unity, "that they may all be one."

6. We also reaffirm what we have often declared, that it is not the purpose of Christian Endeavorers to override the individual conscience.

To this platform of principles we pledge ourselves.

IMPORTANT DECLARATION.

Inasmuch as the Y. P. S. C. E., the pioneer of all similar organizations, existed for eight years before the present societies modeled after it were formed; inasmuch as the principle of inter-denominational society of Christian Endeavor—and inasmuch as the commands not only but insists upon loyalty and entire allegiance to the denomination with which connected; this society, while encouraging individual societies to become national societies, and many societies into fellowship with the world's society, in the meeting

Resolved that we emphasize the deep importance of the three suggestions for enlarged service made by our president in his annual address, and would urge on every society the careful consideration of these great subjects, namely, Christian citizenship, missionary beneficence and Christian fellowship.

Resolved, that we express our appreciation of the most efficient and more than ordinary arduous services which Mr. Baer, our secretary, and Mr. Shaw, our treasurer, in the absence of President Clark, have rendered the cause of Christian endeavor during the past year.

Votes of thanks were also passed to the city press, the agent of the Associated Press, and to all those engaged in reporting the convention.

ATTEMPTED DISTURBANCE.

A crowd again marched down to the Christian Endeavor Convention to-night and attempted to create trouble. Chief Hughes and a large force were on the ground and kept the mob back. About 1,000 cheerers marched down to the drill hall and stayed till the convention was over, then escorted the delegates home.

FOR THE FAR NORTH.

Falcon Sails Away—Met With a Mishap at Portland, Me.

PORTLAND, Me., July 9.—The Falcon was overturned in her berth at the custom house dock Friday night. As the tide went out she settled, and about 10 o'clock it was suddenly noticed that she was toppling rapidly and appeared likely to capsize, the fall of the water not having been sufficiently calculated, considering the way the ship was loaded. Capt. Pickett was at the Preble House banquet attending ex-Speaker Tom Reed eulogizing Admiral Peary, but was speadily sent for. Before he got down to the ship, however, the mate had got a heavy hawser around the mast and reaching to the dock, so that at 12 o'clock she lay tipped at a very slight angle, held up by the ropes. She sailed yesterday and sailed away.

WIND'S FEARFUL WORK.

Dead at Pomeroy Alone Number 24, with 108 Injured.

POMEROY, Ia., June 9.—The dead here number 44 and the injured 108. Of the latter the list from 12 to 20 will die. The total number of deaths from the storm so far reported is 63. Two hundred and eight residences were swept completely off the face of the earth by the cyclone, and not a stone is left. Hardly a residence remains untouched, and the business portion of Pomeroy is so badly wrecked that it can be said with truth that Pomeroy is no more. The churches of the city were all demolished. The amount of damage done by the storm alone in the State is estimated at $860,000.

TERRIFIC SMASHUP.

Several Trainmen Killed—Cars Piled Up as High as the Telegraph Poles.

ERIE, Pa., July 9.—A terrific head-end collision occurred between Philadelphia and Erie Railroad freights near Johnsonburg yesterday afternoon, and eighteen cars were piled high as the telegraph poles. Engineer John Bradlock, of Renovo, on the east-bound freight, was killed at his post; Wm. Hall was crushed to death under the engine, and F. Keplar, fireman, was so badly crushed he will die. Engineer J. W. Robinson, of the west-bound train, and conductor Fay and Brakeman James Black are terribly injured. Fireman William Schoeffer and Brakeman Burke are severely injured. Surgeons were sent from Kane and Ridgeway and a temporary hospital fitted up in Johnsonburg. All the dead and injured reside in Renovo and vicinity.

DROWNED!

A Chatham Boy and the Commodore of a Yachting Fleet Lose Their Lives.

CHATHAM, Ont., July 9.—Wm. Wasson, aged 15, was drowned last evening while bathing in the river in front of Alex. Dolson's farm. The lad got beyond his depth and sank in twenty feet of water. His father, who is unable to swim, tried to rescue him, and would have lost his life also but for timely assistance from the shore.

MONTREAL, July 9.—On Saturday afternoon in the neighborhood of Lake St. Louis, situated between Pointe Claire and Lakeside, four yachts, Black Eagle, Rita, Chapion and Burgenot, were sailing along with a crew of four or five in each vessel totally oblivious of any danger ahead. Suddenly the storm broke, and before the sails could be reefed the yachts were capsized and the occupants of each precipitated into the water. For a time it looked as if every man would be lost, but finally assistance came, too late however to save the commodore of the fleet, Mr. Chas. H. Levin, who was drowned.

Saved by Her Dog.

MAY'S LANDING, N. J., July 9.—Thursday Lottie Barnes, aged 7, went bathing. Getting beyond her depth she called for help, and her father's Newfoundland dog swam to her. The child clung to the dog's neck and was taken ashore.

A Terrible Tragedy.

CANDO, N. D., July 8.—A terrible tragedy occurred on Krider's farm, near here, yesterday. The father, mother, the three girls, aged 13, 11 and 9 years, and a boy aged 7, were murdered. One Bomberger, a farm hand, committed the deed. A posse is in pursuit.

PUBLIC SCHOOL PROMOTIONS.

Many a little heart will be sad to-day, and many a heart of stronger fibre will give forth real sympathy, when the public school promotion lists are perused, and it is found that there is no request to go up higher for a loved little one.

We are all ready enough to cry out against the forcing system of education, and to call in question the healthfulness of the conditions that make the test of merit in teacher and taught the number of passes made to higher classes at each recurring examination. But where is the parent who does not join with his offspring in hoping—aye, in some cases, mutually working for—success at the periodical "grind"?

Parents should not express disappointment in the presence of their children when they fail in the promotion examinations. The average boy or girl is downcast enough when it is found that his or her name is absent from the lists without having the added sorrow of even a semblance of reproach from a parent. A kindly word of encouragement, indeed, is of far more value to a child, in such circumstances, than expressed or implied regret. The child has feelings. It values most highly approval, and it appreciates,

MANY grown persons too often ...y word of commendation ...ent that comes from father ...will be time enough on the ...pening, to talk over the ...for a failure to obtain pro... duty for the parent is ...child to the situation, and by ...to inspire the "plucked" of ...become the victor of to-morrow.

There is legitimate comfort for both parent and child in the history of many great men and women who proved dull and backward in their early life studies, but shone as stars in the intellectual firmament when they reached manhood and womanhood. The "smart" boy or girl is not by any means always the brilliant man or woman, and a precocious child may be pushed ahead to his or her serious detriment in after life. Herein lies the balm for the temporarily non-successful. Apply it with tact.

IT IS rumored that the communication which General Manager Seargeant, of the Grand Trunk Railway, has sent to Mayor Essery, and which will be laid before the City Council at the meeting on Monday night, contains nothing decidedly novel. The understanding is, it simply states, that when the city of London is ready to accept the Grand Trunk manager's proposition of last year then he will be prepared to lay it before the G. T. R. board.

WATCHING WHEAT.

No product of human industry receives so much watching these days as wheat. Since it fell below 70 cents for July in Chicago, every point lower to which it descended has been looked upon as the probable turning of the tide, and there was a little improvement in the early part of the past week which induced some dealers to increase their holdings. Cable advices from England at the beginning of the week also exhibited an improved tone, which was confirmed by cable offers at increased limits, so that the week's business in wheat opened under more auspicious circumstances than for a long time past. Stocks in London were cabled less by 1,920,000 bushels of wheat and 134,000 barrels of flour as compared with those of a year ago, and the amount of wheat on passage showed a decrease of 655,000 bushels. There was also a further decrease of 776,000 bushels in the visible supply in the United States and Canada east of the Rockies, bringing the total amount down to 62,311,000, which shows a shrinkage of about 15,000,000 bushels during the past three months. But there came a reaction on Wednesday, when British markets were cabled 3 pence to 6 pence per quarter lower and Chicago advices easier. Despite all this, as the Trade Bulletin points out, the wheat question is being watched as it never was before, irrespective altogether of its statistical position, as quite a number of operators both in and out of the trade, have come to the conclusion that present unprecedentedly low prices cannot continue much longer, and that a pronounced reaction is a moral certainty. It must be admitted, however, that the same moral certainty seemed to exist when the price of wheat was 10 cents higher than it is to-day. Happy the man who knows when to sell his product. This week a Middlesex farmer is reported to have cleared out a three years' stock of wheat at 64 cents, though at one time he declined $1 04 for the greater portion of it.

LADY ABERDEEN'S ENTERPRISE.

Lady Aberdeen, the talented wife of Canada's new Governor-General, has a most interesting paper in the July number of the North American Review. The countess endeared herself to all classes of the Irish people when she tarried with her husband in the green isle while he was viceroy. But she has proved by her steadfast friendship to the population, and especially that portion of it that through its social position has in the past had too few friends of her social standing, that she had no passing regard for the warm-hearted peasantry. Her contribution relates to Ireland's special contribution to the World's Fair, in the organization and in the opening out of which her ladyship took a prominent part. The countess is at the head of the "Irish Industries Association," and the industrial colony at the World's Fair, while intended to inspire and perpetuate in the breasts of all Irishmen sentiments of determination to be worthy of their native land in their adopted home, had a further and a decidedly practical object. The Irish industrial colony, the countess points out, not only represents the life of the Irish peasantry, but is intended to appeal, through their skill and quickness and dexterity, to Ireland's friends, and to show that through these qualities a great work can be done for that land. "What has been the reason for the great decrease in the population of Ireland? What has been her curse apart from (although in a great measure owing to) England's misgovernment?" asks Lady Aberdeen. Her ready reply is that the people have mainly relied on the land for support, though they naturally possess industrial aptitude calculated to make their country prosperous. Lady Aberdeen points out that both political parties have attempted to remedy this defect by providing means for varying the employment of the people. "Those of us who are Home Rulers," she remarks, "are inclined, however, to believe that Ireland's full industrial development can only come under a complete system of self government, and under that system of self government we look forward to a golden future, though it may be attained but slowly and through many difficulties." In preparing for that future the Irish Industries Association has for some years been bending its energies to promote and develop the very beginning of all industries likely to become permanent, and so to train the workers that they may be able by-and-bye to meet the demands of the trade so soon as regular trade connections can be made for them. This is the hope which has inspired the countess to take so prominent a part in promoting that beautiful home industry, the manufacture of Irish lace. In the North of Ireland she and her associates have done much to extend the shirtmaking and underclothing industries, bringing untold comforts to hundreds and hundreds of families. Knitting industries have been organized on the same line, and an effort is now being made to promote the lace and crochet industries, at which the Irish are adepts. Aided by Sir Patrick Keenan and the Board of National Education, the society at the head of which is the Countess of Aberdeen have been able to improve the teaching of these industries in convent and other schools, and excellent results have flown from the policy. The countess particularly mentions the woolen weaving establishment at Foxford, and the linen weaving at Skibbereen and Queenstown. The association has established shops and held sales of the wares in Great Britain and have met with generous support. But it desires to extend its operations, and the countess pleads with the millions of Irish men and women and their descendants on this continent to lend a hand. It wants to employ more teachers, designers, commercial travelers, organizers and training schools, and to start other young industries. The appeal of a woman who has herself done so much to aid in a worthy object is not likely to fall on unheeding ears.

SO SHORT is the crop of hay in Great Britain that it now costs pound for pound as much as wheat. This probably gives rise to the report that the British Government contemplate buying a low grade of flour to make into bread and feed to the army horses!

PUBLIC HOLIDAYS.

Toronto grocers say that they will never observe another holiday that comes on a Saturday. They will ask the authorities to follow the example set by this city and postpone the observance of the holiday till Monday. This is what they do in Britain. Even the Queen's birthday is arranged to be celebrated by each municipality at the time which seems most convenient. Holidays were made for men and not men for holidays.

COMMENTING upon the Ottawa Liberal convention, on 24th June, the London Free Press alleged that so far as Ontario was concerned "there was a disposition to relegate the old and tried leaders to the back ground." It went further and said that it "seemed to be the settled policy of the party so far as this section is concerned." Of course, the charge was untrue, but it was a just inference to draw from it that our contemporary objected to the prominence of the young men in the convention and out of it. Where is the point of its criticism, if that is not the necessary inference? The other day, through a distorted Shakesperean quotation, our contemporary politely informed the members of the Young Liberal drum corps that they were so many idiots. Now with the same Chesterfieldian regard for the rules of its peculiar school of etiquette, our contemporary calls the ADVERTISER a liar because it has put the only construction possible upon another of its silly criticisms. Mayhap, however, it is better not to take the Free Press too seriously.

In view of what Hood's Sarsaparilla has done for others, is it not reasonable to believe that it will also be of benefit to you?

The cry of the gray squirrel is an exact imitation of that of a young baby.

THE MAN ABOUT TOWN.

Since the suggestion to build a bicycle track was made in the ADVERTISER, I have ascertained that it is the intention of the Western Fair Board to make this desirable departure upon a certain condition—that a bicycle tournament, which is to be held in connection with the coming fall exhibition, and for which $400 in prizes is offered, prove a success. Such a limitation is not well advised. The course should be constructed unconditionally. The meet proposed will not in any way form a criterion of the interest taken by the London public in this pastime. Under present circumstances it will be impossible to secure the attendance of any of the great Canadian or American cracks. None of these gentlemen could be induced to come long distances to compete on an ordinary horse track and, unless they are present, the contemplated races will not be sufficiently exciting to call forth the highest numerical attendance or induce the greatest amount of enthusiasm that the Forest City is capable of in "backing" this peerless sport.

Is it not, then, unreasonable to make the construction of a bicycle track dependent solely upon the efforts of local riders whose training has been circumscribed, limited and deficient by unfavorable conditions. The only satisfactory mode of computing the interest taken in cycling by the citizens generally, I apprehend, is for the board to construct a track on speculation. That in Sarnia has only cost its promoters $500. Surely the Western Fair need not bicker or demur about the expenditure of a like paltry sum when it does not take a very imaginative person to realize that the proceeds of one day's racing will readily provide ample recompense for the disbursements involved.

No delay need be incurred in this matter. If the Board of Directors of the Western Fair have decided to add such a thing as a bicycle track to their already admirable equipment, on a certain condition, let them reconsider this determination and do so unconditionally. If work were commenced at once, the track would be in fairly good condition by the middle of September. Arrangements could in the meantime be made for the holding of a two-day meet on the 14th and 16th of that month. Invitations could be issued to the speediest riders on the continent. Special prizes could be offered for the breaking of various records. If this were done the advertising the fair has thus far received would be completely overshadowed. Such a meet would, I am assured, proved the most auspicious inauguration the Western Fair has yet received, and at the same time give an impetus to a deserving sport attended by innumerable salutary effects.

The fair has every means of building a track at a minimum expense, and securing, nevertheless, the highest obtainable results. It is the intention, I believe, provided the proposed fall meet ultimates successfully, to construct a third of a mile bicycle track within the present half mile horse-racing circle. This would not alone be of great utility to London wheelmen, but would, as stated, enhance the popularity and prestige of the fair. Little expense, too, would be incurred as I understand the Grand Trunk Railway has kindly offered on several occasions to supply the necessary cinders. The London wheelman are enthusiastic over the project and will do all in their power to further it.

THE BRITISH MARKET.

The London, Eng., correspondent of the Trade Bulletin writes: Naturally, with heavy landings from both America and Canada, and plenty coming forward from Holland and New Zealand, prices have eased down a bit, and holders have been content to make a concession here and there. But the demand has been so active at the satisfactory prices ruling to buyers now that a clearance has been effected in most cases, though it is inevitable some houses should be stocking. Finest colored Canadian, 49s to 50s; white, 48s to 49s; old, firm around 60s; States go at 1s below. They are asking more money in Holland, owing to the drought, but they can't get it here; 53s to 56s new grass Edams; farmers' Goudas, 44s; factories, 36s to 36s; Derbies, 50s to 53s per cwt. Holders of New Zealand are clinging to them at 52s, and will not bate. Markets firm at all ports, and stocks well cleared.

The exports of cheese for the season up to the close of last week were 291,000 boxes, against 309,000 boxes for the corresponding period last year, showing a decrease of 18,000 boxes. The shipments of butter up to the close of last week were 1,998 packages, against 4,229 packages for the corresponding period last year, showing a decrease of 2,231 packages.—[Montreal Trade Bulletin.

Young Brown was sent up from this city on June 22, 1892, for that indefinite period of not less than six months or more than five years. Look-Out Point.

Fine weather greeted the boys Friday when they rose, and while it clouded up several times, and though Wiggins declared it would rain, still it kept off and the evening shades fell upon a dry camp. One of the boys was so full of fishing that he got his hooks out before getting up in the morning and was preparing to go to the dock, but in some strange way or other he managed to get his shirt and coat hooked together, and it took him a long time to arrange a dissolution of partnership.

The five tents are pitched now, and are all occupied. Visitors will be assured of a hearty welcome and are cordially invited to inspect our camp. The boys are keeping in good health judging from their appetites, and food disappears very rapidly.

Among the visitors to camp so far we must mention Capt. A. W. Porte, Mr. Bryan, Mrs. J. N. Fraser and Miss M. Fraser, all of London, who expressed themselves as being delighted with the location and general makeup of things, dinner included. But this must not get too long, so will close for to-day. SCRIBUS.

Sunday Fires.

The firemen were called from box 2 at 1:30 p.m. yesterday to look after a fire that had broken out at 167 John street, at the corner of Raglan. The building is a large tenement occupied by several families, and they experienced a lively time in trying to move out before the flames got at their furniture. The fire is supposed to have started from a defective chimney, and, securing a firm hold between the floors and the ceiling, it baffled the firemen for some time. However, by tearing down the laths and plaster they got it under control. The building is part of the estate of the late Charles Kent, and was uninsured. The loss is placed in the neighborhood of $500. The tenants lost considerable by water and smoke, the furniture of Miss Inglehart being completely destroyed. There was a small amount of insurance on it. The brigade was again called out in the evening by an alarm from box 3. Hunt's coal yard on Bathurst street proved to be the scene of the trouble, a coal shed being on fire. About $25 damage was done.

THE OPEN FORUM.

The Conference Replies.

The special committee of the B. M. E. conference in session has reported as follows to the superintendent and conference:

Dear Brethren—We your special committee beg leave to submit the following: We regret to read in the daily ADVERTISER of July 6 an article from the Rev. R. Miller, superintendent of the B. M. E. Church, West Indies, misrepresenting facts in reference to the action of this annual conference, in stating that this annual conference has severed his itinerant connection. This is not true, for the said Rev. R. Miller is a member of the general conference and not this annual conference. He has only participated in the itinerant work of this annual conference by sufferance; therefore this annual conference has made no demands upon him whatever.

Respectfully submitted: Rev. Messrs. C. A. Washington, T. C. Oliver, R. A. Ball, B. Stewart, W. Hawkins, superintendent.

Moved by Rev. R. A. Ball, seconded by Rev. W. R. Drake, that the report be adopted. Carried.

But Miss Davenal was estimating it by comparison—as we all estimate things.

She turned herself about in the small passage in dismay. A door in the left led into the parlor, the room they would use for dining; about four such could be put into the dining-room at Hallingham. The staircase would not admit of two abreast; and right in front of it, at the top, was the drawing-room, a light, cheerful apartment, with one large window. The furniture in these rooms was Miss Davenal's, and it crowed them inconveniently.

Dorcas, she who had lived at the abbey with Mrs. Cray, stood there with a smiling face to receive them; and the landlady, an humble sort of a person in a green stuff gown, who had the pleasure of residing in the back kitchen and sleeping in the attic, came forwrrd also. The greater portion of the house had been taken unfurnished for Miss Davenal.

"About the bedrooms, Dorcas?" inquired Miss Davenal, in a half-frightened tone. "Which is mine?"

"Which you please to choose, ma'am," was Dorcas' answer. "The two best chambers are the one behind the drawing-room, and the one above the drawing-room."

The room over the drawing-room was the largest and best, but Miss Davenal did not like so many stairs, and resigned it to Sara. She, Miss Davenal, turned herself about in the small back room as she had done in the passage; her own spacious chamber at home was all too present to her, and she wondered whether she should ever become reconciled to this.

Had anyone told her a few short months before—nay, a few short weeks—that she should ever take up her abode in London, she had rejected the very idea as absurd, almost an impossibility. Yet here she was come to it of her own decision, of her own accord, but in one sense terribly against her will.

Such complexions as so many of our young ladies possess—dull, pimply, and covered with sores and blackheads, is enough to cool the ardor of the warmest lover. To such young ladies we would say, that you can never have a soft, fair, smooth, attractive, kissable complexion, unless your blood is healthy and pure, for the condition of the blood decides the complexion. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will purify your blood, tone up your system, and drive away those distressing headaches and backache, from which you suffer periodically, and give you a complexion a lily or rose-leaf might envy.

Untold Misery—What a Well-Known Commercial Traveler Suffered, and How He Was Cured.—Gentlemen,—About five years ago I began to be troubled with dyspepsia, and for three years suffered untold misery, from this terrible complaint. I was at that time traveling for Messrs. Walter Woods & Co., Hamilton, and was treated by some of the best physicians in the country, but all to no purpose. I continued to grow worse, one day I was induced to try a bottle of Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, and to my great surprise and joy, I soon began to improve. I continued using this medicine, and when the third bottle was finished I found I was entirely cured; and as a year has elapsed since then, I feel confident that the cure is complete and permanent. To all afflicted with this distressing complaint I heartily recommend Northrop & Lyman's VEGETABLE DISCOVERY, believing that the persistent use of it will cure any case of dyspepsia. (Signed.) T. S. McINTEE.

Biliousness Cured.

Gentlemen.—I have used Burdock Blood Bitters for biliousness and find it the best remedy for this complaint. I used several other remedies, but they all failed to do me any good. YE SHALL KNOW THEM BY THEIR FRUITS.

"Ye shall know them by their fruits." The good and worthy will show fruits—results—leading unto life and perfect health; the poor and worthless will result in evil and disastrous consequences. This is the way the artificial infant foods should be judged. The anxious mother should know what their real fruits are before using them for her infant.

Experience and severe testing has proved that the fruits of Lactated Food are all that can be desired. The fruits of Lactated Food—the results obtained—lead to life, strength and health for the infant, and comfort, joy and a serene peace of mind for the mother. The common prepared foods are a source of danger and death during the extreme hot weather. Lactated Food will save the weak and delicate infant; nothing else in this world can so well shield it from harm at this critical time. Our best doctors heartily recommend Lactated Food; experienced mothers know there is nothing to equal it as a diet for half-dead babies. Give it an immediate trial, dear mother, if your babe is not progressing satisfactorily.

Unhurt—anything that Pearline washes or cleans. You can do harm enough without it; with it, you can do nothing but good. You can wash clothes easily, without the scouring and Rub, Rub, Rubbing that wears them out. House-cleaning is done quickly; all cleaning is done thoroughly. Use Pearline, and you won't have hard work; you will have to work hard, if you won't use Pearline.

Send it Back — Peddlers and some unscrupulous grocers will tell you "this is as good as," or "the same as Pearline." IT'S FALSE—Pearline is never peddled, and if your grocer sends you something in place of Pearline, do the honest thing—send it back. 288 JAMES PYLE, New York.

Castoria.

"Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."
DR. G. C. OSGOOD,
Lowell, Mass.

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing syrup and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."
DR. J. F. KINCHELOE,
Conway, Ark.

Castoria.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."
H. A. ARCHER, M. D.,
111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."

LONDON AND ENVIRONS.

—Miss Lily Forsythe, of this city, has left for Boston, Mass.

—Hon. G. W. Ross is visiting his sister, Mrs. Geddes, in Strathroy.

—Rev. Principal Miller, of Huron College, will occupy the pulpit of the Church of the Ascension, Hamilton, to-morrow.

—The new Bangor ladder purchased for the fire department is at the central hall. It is doubtful if the old truck will carry it.

—Parkdale at cricket Friday made 207 against Brantford, F. W. Terry scoring a century. Brantford made 68 in two innings.

—Col. Clark feels confident that he will be given the franchise for an electric railway and lighting system at London, Ont.—[Detroit News.

—Joseph Hardman, of Rebecca, was fined $20 by Squire Jarvis Saturday for contravention of the liquor law. He admitted the offense.

—The horse attached to McLeod's milk wagon ran away on Richmond street Saturday. It was stopped before going far by Mr. John McArthur, South London. No damage.

—Secretary Joseph T. Marks, of the London Trades and Labor Council, gave an interesting address at the meeting of the Toronto Trades and Labor Council Friday night.

—The following names were unintentionally omitted from the list of pupils who passed from grade 2 to grade 3 in the Talbot street school: Edith Cameron 218, Ellie St. Clair 211, Basil Woolley 240, Frank McNames 199.

—Joseph Hennesy, who is charged with stealing a clock from the London East railway station, appeared in the Police Court Saturday. James Tubbin and George Jones were accused of vagrancy. All three were remanded until Wednesday next.

—Robert Haggard, who was surrendered by his bondsmen a few days ago, was brought up before Judge Elliot Saturday and arraigned on a charge of assaulting Rachael McDougall. He was not ready for trial and the case was adjourned for a week.

—One week from Monday an eleven of the Hamilton cricketers will start on a western tour, playing matches as follows: Paris, July 17; London, July 18; London Asylum, July 19 and 20; Chatham, July 21, and Detroit, July 22. A strong representative team has been selected.

—The London street railway Saturday afternoon and evening ran an excursion car from Egerton to Mount Hope thence to London South and back to Egerton for one fare. The car may be recognized by flags and banners. This enterprising departure will be continued every evening in the week and on Saturday afternoons.

—Jane, relict of the late Thomas Partridge, sen., of this city, died Saturday at the residence of her sister in Lobo. Mrs. Partridge went there on a visit five or six weeks ago and was since taken ill. She was born in Invernesshire, Scotland, and came to Canada in 1851. She was 78 years of age. The funeral takes place Monday from her late residence, 476 St. James street.

—The London West School Board met Friday night. Present: E. Pudney (chairman), W. L. Brown (secretary), and Trustees Ludwig, Houghton and Jones. Accounts were passed in favor of J. I. Anderson, Robt. Pudney, Mr. Bartlett and A. Westman. The report of the head master was received and adopted. Engineer Moore, of the city, was, on motion, asked to consult with the trustees in re furnaces, on Tuesday, July 11.

—The city assessors commence work Monday. They will have no trouble in finding tenants, freeholders and freeholders' sons, but the difficulty will be with those in boarding houses. They ask that boarders leave their names, ages and occupations with their boarding-house keepers, so that they may get them when they call. The statute labor tax is only $1 per capita, and it is cheaper to pay it than to attend the Court of Revision afterwards to prove your identity. An accurate census and assessment is necessary.

—The Daily Telegraph, of London, says: "Miss Nora Clench's violin recital yesterday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. Frank Lawson, No. 31 Hill street, Berkeley Square, was an unqualified success. She gave equal delight to her audience in sonatas by Schuman and E. Overbeck, Bach's Chaconne and dances by Dvorak. Miss Clench, who studied in Leipzig, and subsequently in Brussels under Isaye, will shortly leave England for a winter concert tour of 40 performances in America, and will return next spring, when, it is to be hoped, she will be heard in some important concerts."

—Rev. J. Philp spent last evening at Watford, a former charge. He found a very gracious work in progress under the labors of Messrs. Crossley and Hunter. The drill shed has been fitted up and will accommodate about 800 people. Night after night the place is crowded, Episcopalians, Presbyterians, Congregationalists and Methodists work in such delightful harmony that one cannot tell where the denominal lines are to be found. The pastors are all fully enlisted and hundreds of people have sought a personal interest in the great atonement. The services will close on Tuesday evening.

—At 1:30 this morning the G. T. R. station at Watford was struck by lightning and was badly riddled. The electric current ran on the wire from the semaphore to the building, breaking one of the front windows, tearing up and setting fire to the carpet upstairs and tearing the plaster from the ceiling upstairs and down. The frame of the door between the office and waiting room was broken to pieces and sent through a window 25 feet away. All of the members of the family felt the shock severely, but were not harmed. The night operator was standing with his hand on the key, but escaped with his hand somewhat scorched.

—R. Lewis (chairman), James Gilmour, T. H. Purdom and Medical Superintendent J. D. Balfour held a meeting of the Hospital Trust Friday. There are now 52 patients in the hospital. Collections for the month of June were $324 56. Three applications for positions on the staff of nurses were received. Miss Wylie, having finished her term of probation, was entered as a pupil nurse. Donations were received from: Thos. McCormick, 200 oranges; Gammage & Sons, flowers; Mrs. Beecher, flowers. Miss Talbot was accepted as probationer. The contract for supplying coal to the hospital for one year was awarded to A. Stanton & Co. Accounts to the amount of $1,124 68 were ordered to be paid.

For Sarnia,

Tickets are now on sale at the business office of the ADVERTISER for the excursion to Sarnia. They can also be obtained from members of the committee and the employes of the office, and at De la Hooke's G. T. R. ticket office, corner Dundas and Richmond streets.

Fatality at Port Stanley.

A Port Stanley dispatch of Saturday says: "The wife of Mr. John Rice, who lives just north of this village, met her death last night by accidentally falling into a spring at the rear of the house. Mr. Rice returned from work and found her body in the barrel, which was sunk in the ground. Deceased was 23 years old, and leaves three little children. She has two sisters this side of the Atlantic, Mrs. Less, of Belmont, and Mrs. Thruman, of Detroit."

The Scottish Gathering.

Friday night's gathering of the committees of the St. Andrew's Society and Clan Fraser, O. S. C., was largely attended. The demonstration, which takes place at Port Stanley on Wednesday, July 19, will be a monster one. It was reported by the chairman of the music committee last night that a pipers' band of six, with the necessary drummers had been engaged, and that the famous band of the Seventh Battalion would also accompany the excursionists. Mr. John Robertson was appointed chairman of the games committee and Water Commissioner Cowan secretary. The sports will be a great feature of the gathering, which will be participated in not only by Londoners, but by excursionists from Woodstock, from St. Thomas, from Westminster, Dutton, Aylmer and elsewhere.

Mission Circles Meet.

The quarterly union meeting of the woman's mission circles connected with the Baptist churches of the city was held yesterday afternoon in the Grosvenor Street Church. The circles were well represented and the meeting was made interesting by brief papers on the pioneer Baptist ministers, of whom some of the essayists were direct descendants. Mrs. Griffiths, president of the Grosvenor street circle, presided. Miss Evans, organist of the church, gave a solo, and the proceedings were varied by singing. The interval between the afternoon and evening meetings was occupied by social converse and an excellent tea provided by the ladies of the church, to which their gentlemen friends were invited. Rev. Mr. Charlesworthy, the pastor, took charge of the open meeting in the evening, and after devotional exercises, in which Rev. Mr. Walker and Rev. Ira Smith took part, Miss Katie McLaurin, a graduate of Moulton College, and daughted of the well-known missionary to India, Rev. John McLaurin, gave a very interesting address on foreign missions. Miss McLaurin leaves for her field of work in India in September. Rev. D. M. Mihell followed, speaking on the subject of home missions. A duet by Mrs. (Hon.) David Mills and Miss Moorehouse, and a solo by Mr. Charles Maynard with Miss Rendell as accompanist, were pleasing features of the enjoyable occasion. The committee under whose charge the affair was so successfully managed included Mrs. Charlesworthy, Mrs. Robert Sharpe and Mrs. Clayton.

Sore Legs Cured by Royal Crown Remedy After the Cleverest Doctors in Canada Failed.

LONDON, June 20, 1880.

Dear Sir,—I was a great sufferer for years with one of the worst kinds of sore legs. I doctored a great deal with some of the cleverest doctors in Canada. They failed in making a cure. I was recommended to try your medicine; I get two bottles of your Royal Crown Remedy and one box of your salve; I used it according to directions. In two weeks after I commenced to use it I was able to go to work again. I feel much better in health, and the legs seem to be a sound cure from the bone. I can recommend it to the world at large. J.
