

GERMANY DOES NOT THINK BRITISH CAN BREAK THROUGH

Meanwhile Attacks by the British and French in the West Continues Without Ceasing, Though Berlin Talks of Futile Gas Attacks.

By Special Wire to the Courier. BERLIN, June 30.—(via London)—Attacks by the British and French at various places along the western front yesterday and last night were repulsed by German troops, the war office announced to-day.

The official statement says: "Both yesterday and throughout the night we repelled British and French attacks at various places, and near Richebourg, southwest of Lille, we delivered an immediate counter-attack. The enemy continued his futile gas attacks.

"The intense artillery fire continued without interruption. Southeast of Tahure and near Maisons de Champagne, advancing French detachments were sanguinarily repulsed. On the left bank of the Meuse (Verdun front) we made progress on Hill 304. On the right bank of the river there was no infantry activity.

NO CHANCE OF SUCCESS, SAYS BERLIN. LONDON, June 30.—Berlin newspapers which have just reached London refer to the British activity on the western front. They pretend to believe it is condemned to failure, and say it can only result in the end of the English continental army.

"What is taking place on the British western front," says the Tageblatt, "entirely fulfills our expectations. It is obviously that great common movement in which England purposes to show that her strength has now achieved superiority over ours. We do not under-estimate the gravity of the struggle, but have no desire to permit the English to terrify Germany. The English army has not, and never will have, the operative power to drive us out of northern France and Belgium."

Fine Record For 84th Battalion in England

125 Recruits Obtained by the 215th Battalion in that Month. During the month of June, no less a total than 125 recruits were obtained by the 215th Battalion, as most satisfactory for a month's recruiting. A great many more applications were also received from men who, on examination, proved physically unfit, and to whom rejection buttons and certificates were issued.

Authorization has been received at headquarters for Lt. G. A. Duffan, assistant adjutant for the 215th, to proceed to the Provincial School of Infantry for a special examination. Owing to the holiday to-morrow, there will be no parades for the 215th. There will be no church parade on Sunday. To-day is pay day in the 215th, in common with all other overseas battalions. The work of paying off the men was carried on during the morning by Paymaster Capt. Corey.

No Paper To-morrow. There will be no issue of the Courier to-morrow as it is Dominion Day. The usual Sunday bulletin service will be maintained.

DECLARES SIR ROGER SHOULD NOT DIE

Manchester Guardian Thinks Death Penalty Too Severe for Him.

By Special Wire to the Courier. London, June 30.—The Manchester Guardian, one of the most influential papers in the country, makes a direct plea for clemency for Sir Roger Casement. While admitting that no other sentence but that of death could have been pronounced by the court, the Guardian says: "Casement was a fanatic and his crimes, like those of many other fanatics, are free from the taint of sordidness and meanness. The death penalty will do nothing to kill such a dream as his. Rather it will give them life."

"For the sake of the new Ireland, which we hope to see, it is a merit for Casement that he is a man of an indirect plea for mercy is made by other papers on the ground that the execution of Casement would not assist in settling the Irish problem."

FIREMAN DID GOOD WORK IN CHECKING BLAZE

Fire in Brant Cafe Early This Morning Menaced Whole Block. FLAMES SHOT THROUGH ROOF

By Quick and Vigorous Action, Blaze Confined to One Building. Prompt and energetic action upon the part of the Central Fire Department checked early this morning what might have proved a blaze of the most serious consequences, to both life and property. Commencing in the basement of the Brantford Cafe, 145 Colborne street, the fire burnt its way through to the kitchen, and with the result that when the fire department arrived on the scene, about 4:20 a.m., the flames were shooting high above the roof of the building in the rear, and even more gravely, the tenants occupying the flats above the front portion of the cafe. All of these, however, succeeded in escaping unhurt, while the firemen at once set vigorously to work. Three lines of hose were laid from Colborne street, and a fourth from Water Street, at the rear of the building, the East end of the street being also summoned to the scene by Chief Lewis. By diligent work, the flames were confined to the rear of the building, and prevented from gaining a footing in the adjoining buildings, though smoke did some damage to the stock of G. H. Malcolm's dry goods store. The rear of the cafe was entirely gutted and the contents almost completely destroyed, so that the damage done, though not definitely ascertained, is considerable. The cause of the conflagration is at present unknown.

Two Brantford Men Arrived Home Yesterday

Magnificent Reception Accorded Pte. Dawson and Gunner Storer.

It is doubtful if there are in Brantford to-day two happier families than those of Pte. W. Dawson, ex-member of the 4th Battalion, and Gunner Edgar Storer, both of whom returned to the city last evening, invalided home from the front, receiving at the station such a tremendous ovation as has seldom been accorded anyone before in Brantford. Met as they descended from the train at 8:40 by Mr. J. H. Spence, Mr. H. W. Fliton and others, the two returned heroes were at once surrounded by their relatives and friends, all eager to press "BIB" or "ED" by the hand, and to join in welcoming him to his home after such a long absence. B. company of the 12th Battalion, under Major F. E. James, was assembled on the platform to see the train in and united in loud and hearty cheering as Pte. Dawson and Gunner Storer passed along their ranks, attended by swarms of happy friends. Pte. Dawson was hailed at one point by a small group of his old comrades, men who had known the front with him, as members of the Mad Fourth Battalion, and had already returned, their bit done. Of the congratulations and hand-shaking that followed such a meeting, enough cannot be said, the two returned heroes, together with their families, were conveyed in motor cars to the market square, led by the band of the 12th, where a formal civic welcome was extended them by Mr. J. H. Spence, on behalf of the Soldiers' Aid Commission, and other representative citizens of Brantford, after which the soldiers were conveyed quietly to their homes.

HUNS CARRIED FRENCH POSITION BUT THEY IMMEDIATELY LOST IT

Preceded by a Terrific Artillery Fire Hun Forces Captured French Line Trenches East of Hill 304, But Were Driven Out by Counter-Attack.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Paris, June 30.—12:30 p.m.—In a terrific attack upon the French positions east of Hill 304, in the Verdun sector, the Germans captured a fortified work in the first line of the French trenches after the garrison had been literally buried under a storm of shells. The position was recaptured by a brilliant French counter-attack according to an official statement issued by the French war office to-day.

The Germans also delivered a powerful attack on the French positions between Hill 304 and west of Hill 304, but all their efforts are declared to have been checked with heavy losses to the attackers. Considerable activity is reported on the front from Neuport to the Aisne. The text of the communication follows: "In Belgium last night at about 11 o'clock, following a preparatory artillery fire, German forces attacked a salient of our line not far from the road between Neuport and Lompaertzyde. A counter attack was once delivered which drove the enemy out of one section of trenches between Chauvigny and Roze where they had gained a footing. A strong German reconnoitering party, caught under our fire, was dispersed before it could reach our trenches. "Between the Oise and the Aisne, two other German patrols also were dispersed in like manner. One in front of Queuvevires at a point to the northeast of Vingre. "In the Champagne district a minor attack of the enemy with hand grenades upon our advanced posts to the west of Butte de Mesnil, was easily repulsed.

"On the left bank of the River Meuse, the Germans last night created their offensive activity against our positions stretching from Avocourt wood to a point to the east of Hill 304. They directed upon the principal salients of our line a series of very violent attacks. These were preceded by intense bombardments and accompanied by the throwing of flaming liquids. Between Avocourt wood and Hill 304 all their endeavours were broken by our fire which inflicted heavy losses upon them. "On the east of Hill No. 304, after several fruitless assaults, the enemy succeeded in taking possession of a fortified work in our first line, the garrison of which had been literally buried by the German bombardment. At about 4 o'clock in the morning a brilliant counter-attack on the part of our troops resulted in our again becoming masters of this work. "On the right bank of the river the bombardment has been very spirited in the sectors to the north of Somville and Tavannes, particularly in the region of Chenolla. There was no infantry fighting at these points."

FIREMAN DID GOOD WORK IN CHECKING BLAZE

Fire in Brant Cafe Early This Morning Menaced Whole Block.

FLAMES SHOT THROUGH ROOF

By Quick and Vigorous Action, Blaze Confined to One Building.

Prompt and energetic action upon the part of the Central Fire Department checked early this morning what might have proved a blaze of the most serious consequences, to both life and property. Commencing in the basement of the Brantford Cafe, 135 Colborne street, the fire burnt its way through the kitchen, and the result that followed when the fire department arrived on the scene, about 4:20 a.m., the flames were shooting high above the roof of the building in the rear, and even more gravely, tenants occupying the flats above the front portion of the cafe. All of these, however, succeeded in escaping uninjured, while the firemen at once set vigorously to work. Three lines of hose were laid from Colborne Street, and a fourth from Water Street, at the rear of the building, the east end fire department being also summoned to the scene by Chief Lewis. By diligent work, the flames were confined to the rear of the building, and prevented from gaining a footing in the adjoining buildings, though smoke did some damage to the stock of G. H. Malcolm's dry goods store. The rear of the cafe was entirely gutted and the contents almost completely destroyed, so that the damage done, though not definitely ascertained, is considerable. The cause of the conflagration is at present unknown.

Local Casualties. The name of yet another Brantford boy appears in the latest casualty lists in action. Pte. Frank G. Thorne has laid down his life for his country. His father, Alfred Taylor, well known locally as a plumber, is now in the 215th Battalion. Pte. Sidney Smythe of the 4th C.M.R., though a resident of Brant County, enlisted in Peterboro, some time ago, and reached the trenches last March. Pte. Two Brantford Men Arrived Home Yesterday

Magnificent Reception Accorded Pte. Dawson and Gunner Storer.

It is doubtful if there are in Brantford to-day two happier families than those of Pte. W. Dawson, ex-member of the 4th Battalion, and Gunner Edgar Storer, both of whom returned to the city last evening, in a hired home from the front, receiving at the station such a tremendous ovation as has seldom been accorded anyone before in Brantford. Met as they descended from the train at 8.40 by Mr. J. H. Spence, Mr. H. W. Piton and other two returned heroes were at once surrounded by their relatives and friends, all eager to press "Bill" or "Ed" by the hand and to join in welcoming him to his home after such a long absence. A company of the 125th battalion, under Major P. E. James, was assembled on the platform as the train drew in, and united in loud and hearty cheering as Pte. Dawson and Gunner Storer passed along, their ranks, attended by swarms of happy friends. Pte. Dawson was hailed at one point by a small group of his old comrades, men who had come to the front with him, as members of the Mad Fourth Battalion, and had already returned, their bit done. Spence, on behalf of the Soldiers' Aid Commission, and other representative citizens of Brantford, after which the soldiers were conveyed quietly to their homes.

One of the most trying experiences of any suffered by Brantford men fell to the lot of Pte. W. Dawson, who was wounded by shrapnel in six places. In all, 18 pieces of shrapnel entered his body. Sixteen pieces have now been removed, but he still carries around with him two metal souvenirs, one in his knee and the other in the muscle of his right arm. Pte. Dawson, who was wounded with the first contingent, was wounded first by a German sniper on March 31 of last year. He recovered and went back to the front, only to receive the casual-ty from which he is still suffering, at Kemmel, Belgium, on the 19th of December last. He believes he is none the worse for his war injuries, but is incapacitated by reason of incurable stiffness in the right arm.

HUNS CARRIED FRENCH POSITION BUT THEY IMMEDIATELY LOST IT

Preceded by a Terrific Artillery Fire Hun Forces Captured French Line Trenches East of Hill 304, But Were Driven Out by Counter-Attack.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Paris, June 30.—12.30 p.m.—In a terrific attack upon the French positions east of Hill 304, in the Verdun sector, the Germans captured a fortified work in the first line of the French trenches after the garrison had been literally buried under a storm of shells. The position was recaptured by a brilliant French counter-attack according to an official statement issued by the French war office today. The Germans also delivered a powerful attack on the French positions in Avocourt wood and west of Hill 304, but all their efforts are declared to have been checked with heavy losses to the attackers. Considerable activity is reported on the front from Neuport to the Aisne. The text of the communication follows:—"In Belgium last night at about 11 o'clock, following a preparatory artillery fire, German forces attacked a salient of our line not far from the road between Neuport and Lombaertzyde. A counter attack was at once delivered which drove the enemy out of one section of trenches between Chaulmes and Roye where they had gained a footing. A strong German reconnoitering party, caught under our fire, was dispersed before it could reach our trenches. "Between the Oise and the Aisne, two other German patrols also were dispersed in like manner. One in front of Quennevilles at a point to the northeast of Vingre. "In the Champagne district a minor attack of the enemy with hand grenades upon our advanced posts to the west of Butte de Mesnil, was easily repulsed. "On the left bank of the River Meuse, the Germans last night increased their offensive activity against our positions stretching from Avocourt wood to a point to the east of Hill 304. They directed upon the principal salients of our line a series of very violent attacks, these were preceded by intense bombardments and accompanied by the throwing of flaming liquids. Between Avocourt wood and Hill 304 all their endeavors were broken by our fire which inflicted heavy losses upon them. "To the east of Hill No. 304, after several fruitless assaults, the enemy succeeded in taking possession of a fortified work in our first line, the garrison of which had been literally buried by the German bombardment. At about 4 o'clock in the morning a brilliant counter-attack on our part drove the enemy out of this work, becoming masters of this work. "On the right bank of the river the bombardment has been very spirited in the sectors to the east of Souville and Tavannes, particularly in the region of Chenois. There was no infantry fighting at these points."

Crew of Prize Ship Appam Watching For German Sub

By Special Wire to the Courier. Newport News, Va., June 30.—The crew of the German prize ship Appam, anchored in this port, last night expectantly awaited news from the German submarine reported to be due here from Germany with passengers and a message for President Wilson. Virginia pilots kept a sharp watch near the Capes for the submersible, while people on the Virginia peninsula several times flocked to the water front in answer to reports that the undersea craft had passed the Capes.

STRINGENT ORDERS ISSUED TO STOP VESSELS SAILING

Only Two Harbors Left Open on Western Coast of Scheleswig Holstein, by Orders of German Admiralty.

By Special Wire to the Courier. Copenhagen, via London, June 30.—An official announcement signed by Vice-Admiral Bachmann, governor of the Kiel district, placing further restrictions on vessels running between German and foreign ports is printed in the Kiel-Zeitung. The only ports henceforth open to traffic on the east coast of Schleswig-Holstein are the commercial harbors of Kiel and Laboe. Ships' crews will be allowed ashore only within a limited space facing the vessels when loading or unloading. Visits aboard other ships are strictly forbidden. Captains and seamen will be permitted uptown only when guarded by policemen or soldiers except by special permission of the governor. Discharged neutral seamen must leave Germany forth. All ships departing from Laboe or Kiel must have military guards aboard to a certain distance off shore.

Pte. Fred W. Bredon is Reported Killed; Sergt. Vair Likely a Prisoner

Pte. Fred W. Bredon, reported to-day as killed in action, is the third of his family to die in the present year, as his parents died within two weeks of each other in the late winter months. Pte. Bredon, of the Mounted Rifles, was reported missing in a telegram received in the city yesterday, addressed to his father, the late Mr. Bredon, and bearing the news that Pte. Bredon had been missing since June 2, some four weeks ago. In the latest casualty list this afternoon, his name appears as killed. Pte. Bredon enlisted in the West in the spring of 1915, going overseas with the 50th Battalion and being later drafted to the C. M. R. at the front. Sergeant-Major Vair. Company Sergeant Major Robert Vair is unofficially reported a prisoner of war since June 2nd, is the word received by his wife, at 116 Eagle Avenue. The telegram refers to the fact that he had previously been reported missing, but this is the first intimation of his fate that has appeared. Sergt. Vair is a married man with six children, the oldest one, Pte. Jas. Vair, with the 215th. He also has a brother, William, with the 215th. He went overseas with the C. M. R. and has been in the trenches all winter. He is serving under Lieut. Cockshutt. He always thought very much of Lieut. Cockshutt and said he would not leave him, and evidently they were taken prisoners together. Before Sergt. Vair went abroad he had been with the Cockshutt Flot Co. for five years. Pte. Wright Dead. Pte. Charles Wright, Mohawk Road, who left Brantford with the first contingent, and was reported wounded a short time ago, has died of his wounds, according to an official telegram received to-day.

TWENTY-ONE YEARS AGO MOTOR CARS WERE NOT THE LUXURIOUS VEHICLES THAT THEY ARE TO-DAY

It Was in 1895 That a Man in Toronto and No Less a Person Than Henry Ford Began to Run Around in a Noisy 5 Horse-Power Automobile.

(The Motor Magazine.)

About twenty-one years ago a one-lung, 5 horse-power automobile was chug-chugging about the streets of Toronto. A Toronto man, J. C. McLaughlin had invented it. At the same time a similar vehicle was a curious spectacle on the streets of Detroit. Henry Ford had invented this one. During the year—1895 to be exact—there are supposed to have been just these two cars in the whole world, and naturally the public looked upon them as novelties of the dangerous order.

McLaughlin's machine was one of the sights of Toronto, it being the first thing of its kind ever seen in Canada. It was a trim little two-passenger car and covered the ground very nicely. Its speed was 15 miles an hour. Of course it lacked pneumatic tires, but it was a serviceable little buggy and cost very little for repairs. It lacked some of the accessories of the modern car—top, wind-shield, electric lights, and brazen-throated horn, it was equipped with a bicycle bell, but it was a lightweight, simply constructed and did its work very creditably.

Unfortunately, although the inventor put all his energy and capital behind his car, he could not get the public interested. People were willing to ride in electric cars, or steam cars, but gasoline cars—run for your life!

The other day the writer met Mr. McLaughlin at his home at 17 Easton avenue. He was found to be working on a twelve-pound shell constructed of cast iron with which he had been experimenting since the outbreak of the war. He had practically completed his work, and as a matter of fact, the government had just put his shell under a severe test at Quebec which had turned out satisfactorily.

"I have almost forgotten that I once made an automobile," said Mr. McLaughlin. "It's a long time ago, and the motor car industry has come along with immense strides. If I could have foreseen the results of these experiments, twenty years ago I suppose I would be in the motor business to-day. In those days steam and electric cars were made, but they were not entirely satisfactory. I was told by all my friends that it was impossible to build a gasoline engine that would stand up. They considered it dangerous and impracticable in every way."

He told a story which illustrates this attitude. When driving the car one day on a Toronto street, he met a friend and invited him to have a ride. The friend was about to accept when he inquired as to the motive power.

"Gasoline," said McLaughlin.

"Gasoline. And where do you carry it?"

"Under the seat."

"No thanks," exclaimed the friend and got himself away from the imminent deadly danger as fast as possible.

McLaughlin was too early in the game with the gas-driven automobile. Besides the danger which everyone saw in gasoline he had to contend with smell, noise and price. He confessed to the writer that, exasperated by previous experiences, he prepared for one demonstration by douching the car with banana oil. He strove to build a car which he could sell for about $400—the price of a god horse and buggy—and, as he could not quite do that, the public voted the car too expensive.

For years he persisted. He tried to induce the McLaughlin firm at Oshawa to get a few bodies out for him into which he could put engines, but it is curious in the light of subsequent history of this now large automobile concern, they would have nothing to do with the idea. So McLaughlin gave up the manufacture of automobiles just on the eve, as events have proved, of success.

The builder of the pioneer car recalls his experiences with some amusement. "You know," he smiled, "we had to make everything ourselves—in the blacksmith shop. And we had to experiment as we went along. For example, I had to make the spark plugs myself, and then I had the electric current away too strong. We had a lot of trouble, too, with the gas. The gasoline was too high grade. In those days gasoline was a by-product in the manufacture of kerosene, and sold chiefly by drug stores for cleaning gloves, etc. It was much too pure for engine use. And the smell—people objected strongly to that. But the main objection to the gas-driven car was the belief that it was highly dangerous to be around where gasoline was. Everyone was afraid of automobiles just at that time. I had a prospect who learned that there was a tank of gasoline under the seat he wanted to run."

For years the car was a familiar object about Toronto streets. It was not simply and strongly made to cost next to nothing for repairs. Mr. Webster, a piano dealer, purchased it from the inventor and used it in the town of Owen Sound. Then for a long time it was used for livery purposes between Meaford and Owen Sound. Four years ago it was still doing business in Collingwood or some other town in the Georgian Bay district.

"That car was a dandy," said the inventor. "I would have stayed with the game but the public discouraged me. I guess I was in the game too early."

Seven members of the band of alleged criminals associated in the effort to get possession illegally of the fortune of Miss Gertrude Claypool, New York, will be presented to the grand jury for indictment.

Waste paper is now valuable and is much needed by paper makers owing to the impossibility of obtaining adequate supplies of paper-making materials from the ordinary sources abroad, says Sir Thomas Whitaker, chairman of the Royal Commission on paper. On behalf of the commission he invited the municipal authorities to organize a system of collecting waste paper, there being no organized industry for collecting it. The collection would be remunerative and valuable to paper users, it being understood that the localities to which the waste paper was sent would not be difficult to secure the co-operation of the public. He adds that some corporations—Birmingham and Eastbourne—are already doing something in this direction. People are now asking how this valuable economy is to be worked. In the meantime, under the auspices of the Prussian ministry of Education, a practical scheme for collecting waste paper had been begun in Greater Berlin, and will doubtless be introduced soon throughout the country.

THE SITUATION.

The daily monotony of German and Austrian offensives has been broken for some time now, and the story is not likely to be resumed to any sustained extent. The Russian forces have notched another great victory in Galicia, and the total of prisoners taken by them now reaches the enormous total of 210,000. The Austro-German losses in killed and wounded will, of course, have been in like proportion.

British reconnoitring and raiding parties continue to "feel out" the German front. The use of poison gas also figures in the news. Results are stated to have been successful, not alone in themselves, but also with reference to information gained on behalf of a general attack.

The recent awakening of the Italians has extended to a vigorous offensive against the Austrians along the entire front, and with excellent results.

DOMINION DAY—A BIT OF HISTORY.

The men who brought about the confederation of the then scattered Provinces which make up the Dominion of to-day have all passed to the great beyond, but their achievement remains, an everlasting monument. There were brave hearts in those days, which did not flinch for an instant before even seemingly insuperable difficulties.

It was in 1864 that the feeling commenced to gain sway that the time had arrived for the settlement of ever of the constitutional difficulties arising between Upper and Lower Canada. To this end leading Conservatives and Liberals got together, and were applying themselves to the great task, when it was learned that the three Provinces by the Atlantic—Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island—had also decided to call a meeting to consider a little union of their own. They were waited on, and the larger plan explained, for the most part to their satisfaction. There were many tremendous obstacles. The Rouge party, led by Dorion, were hostile to the whole project, so were some Upper Canadian Reformers. The people of New Brunswick pronounced against the scheme at the polls, before the question ever came up in their Legislature, and the Prince Edward Island Provincial House declined to enter any union:

"which it believed would prove politically, commercially and financially disastrous to the rights and interests of its people."

These were a few of the things which Sir John Macdonald, aided mainly by Sir Charles Tupper, had to overcome, but they triumphed, and July 1st, 1867, witnessed the birth of the Dominion.

Lord Monck, then Governor-General, when confiding the duty of forming the first Cabinet to Macdonald, said:

"In authorizing you to undertake the duty of forming an administration for the Dominion of Canada, I desire to express my strong opinion that, in future, it shall be distinctly understood that the position of First Minister shall be held by one person, who shall be responsible to the Governor-General for the appointment of the other Ministers, and that the system of dual First Ministers, which has hitherto prevailed, shall be put an end to. I think this is of importance, not only with reference to the maintenance of satisfactory relations between the Governor-General and his Cabinet, but also with a view to the complete consolidation of the union which we have brought about."

In a general election which followed shortly afterwards the Macdonald Ministry was splendidly endorsed, where the yarn became current that the Province had been tricked into the Confederation plan. Tupper was the only Conservative to be elected, but next general contest the figures were reversed, and only one Liberal got in—such was the influence of Tupper in his native province.

It was a far from easy task to bring about Confederation, and yet how essential the step proved is now fully recognized, not alone from the standpoint of the existence of Canada herself, but in relation to the bulwark this afforded to the Empire at large.

NOTES AND COMMENTS.

Execut June, with July on tap. Come to think of it, June was that most of the time herself.

The Duke of Devonshire, Canada's next Governor-General, is well spoken of, and his wife is apparently a charming woman. The choice does not, of course, begin to create the interest which would have been aroused had the rumored report of Rosebery's selection been confirmed, for the man of the "lonely furrow" is acknowledged to rank among the world's leading orators.

Sir Ernest Shackleton is still figuring on his how to succor the main body of his antarctic outfit. As a matter of fact, the best way to save all such expeditions is to prevent them from starting.

Sir Robert Borden, when he celebrated his 62nd birthday this week, was rightly the recipient of very hearty congratulations from all over. In the time of Empire stress he has proved himself to rank among the very first of her sons.

As far as the capital of Waterloo is concerned, it is O.K. for K. of K.

The Farmers' Sun is not usually disposed to look upon the affairs of this world with any marked glee, and the comment therefore comes with all the greater significance from that paper, that it hopes the rainy weather will not "cast down" its readers, and the conclusion, after an all-round review, that there is "a bright side to the picture," as far as all-round crop yields are concerned.

German Raiders Beaten Off by Men of Montreal Battalion.

BLOCK ENEMY SAPS Lts. Mathewson and Routledge and Sergt. Jones Spoil Plan.

Ottawa, June 30.—The following communique has been received at the militia department from the Canadian general representative at the front.

"Canadian Army Corps Headquarters in France, via London, June 30.—In spite of the inclement weather the consolidation of our new positions progressed satisfactorily. Exceptional activity in reconnaissance and useful information as to the enemy's dispositions was obtained by our patrols.

"On one section of our front patrols of a Montreal battalion examined some enemy saps. The following of their bombarding parties, under Lieut. Mathewson, Lieut. Routledge and Sergt. Jones of this unit went forward and established strong posts which will check any further advance of the German line in this direction.

Raise Red Cross Flag

"Artillery, trench mortar and grenade comets were frequent and at times severe. On one occasion the Germans raised a Red Cross flag above the parapet and were observed removing a number of wounded. "On the same day three German observation balloons opposite our front were successfully attacked by British aeroplanes and fell to the ground in a mass of smoke and flames.

"Our snipers met with considerable success. On the front of one division alone 11 Germans were accounted for by them in one day.

Foe Raiders Repulsed

"Early one morning a fierce bombardment was directed upon the trenches of two Montreal battalions. Six separate parties of between ten and 15 men each left the German trenches and advanced against our positions. They were met by rapid rifle and machine gun fire. In one trench Sergt. Macleod jumped up on to the parapet and hurled bomb after bomb at the approaching party. Only a few of the enemy succeeded in reaching our entanglements and at no point were our trenches penetrated. Having failed to attain their objective and having suffered many casualties, all the enemy parties rapidly withdrew.

"Two wounded Germans lying outside our wire were subsequently made prisoners."

Among the passengers on the Oscar II., which sailed recently for Christiansand, was Miss Julia M. Moran, an American girl, who is on her way to Hungary to be married to Count Castimir Zichy.

Eighty-five thousand satisfied owners against unproved claims and rosy promises

You judge a man by what he's done—not by what he says he intends to do. Judge a motor car the same way.

Eighty-five thousand and more Canadian-built Fords have "made good" in actual service. Since 1904 this sturdy, economical car has stood the test—not only in Canada, but throughout the British possessions.

Every passing year has seen Canadian Ford sales mount by thousands of cars—because, under almost every conceivable condition, the car has proved itself a splendid all-around utility.

It has sold on its record for dependable and economical performance—not on the rosy promises of its makers.

The man who selects a Ford is backed in his judgment by more than eighty-five thousand satisfied motorists in the Empire. Has this a significance for you?

SILENT WHEEL GUN HURLS PROJECTILES EVERY TWO SECONDS

SERGEANT GEORGE D. GRIFFIN FIRING THE ALBERTSON BOMB THROWER.

The pictures show the rotary machine gun in action during a test under the auspices of United States army officers at Governor's Island, N. Y. The gun, invented by Dr. Albert C. Albertson, hurls projectiles from a wheel by centrifugal force, and during the test it hurled projectiles every two seconds.

THIS REMARKABLE PHOTOGRAPH SHOWS BOMB IN AIR. A minute, and when the bomb or other projectile which it throws is released there is no more sound than when a ball leaves the hand of a baseball pitcher.

Ottawa Valley was amazed by the wonderful performance of McLaughlin cars.

The McLaughlin won first, second, third and fourth prizes in the Free Press Reliability Tour Contest.

Now let's see just what this McLaughlin did. The tour from Ottawa to Gouverneur, N.Y., by way of Prescott and Ogdensburg, a distance of 140 miles, was open to all motorists driving their own cars.

In such a feat as this there is proof positive that the McLaughlin is all and more than we have ever contended for it. Here is proof of the famous valve-in-head motor with which all McLaughlins are equipped, and proof of the sturdy and enduring value in the drop forged steel with which all McLaughlins are strengthened against the stress and shocks of everyday use.

LIGHT APPLE CROP; PEACHES ALSO FALL OFF

Future of Most Fruits This Year Not as Promising as Last.

Ottawa, June 28, 1916.—The July fruit crop report which is now being distributed by the Fruit Branch of the Department of Agriculture contains the following information regarding the condition of fruits in all parts of Canada:

Apples—In Western Ontario there will be a light apple crop and much of the fruit will be of a poor quality. East of Toronto, Spies are light but on the whole, indications point to a crop nearly medium. Duchess and Wealthy promise a heavy crop in Eastern Ontario. Fameuse and McIntosh will be a full crop where orchards have been sprayed. The total crop in British Columbia is estimated as slightly larger than last year. Nova Scotia reports two-thirds of an average crop or slightly over one million barrels.

Peaches—There has been considerable damage from "leaf curl" in Niagara. The crop is estimated at 75 per cent. of last year. British Columbia reports a crop about equal to last year.

Pears—In Niagara, Bartlett's are a good crop. Anjou and Kieffer fair and Duchess very light. Prospects are generally favorable in British Columbia.

Plums—There will be a light crop

Far more effective than Sticky Fly Catchers. Clean to handle. Sold by Druggists and Grocers everywhere.

Ontario. There are practically no Japanese plums except Burbank. European varieties will average half a crop. In Quebec there will be about as many plums as last year. European varieties have set particularly heavy.

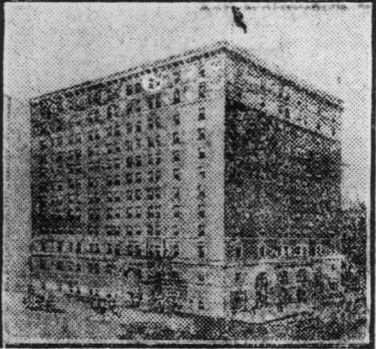

Cherries—In Niagara district, sweet varieties will be about 30 per cent. of 1915 and sour varieties 20 per cent. British Columbia reports sweet varieties light and sour varieties a fair crop. Strawberries—Late varieties will be a good crop in Ontario. Warm weather is badly needed. New Brunswick will also have a large crop of good quality. A similar report comes from Quebec. In British Columbia there will be a decided increase over last year's crop.

BANK BANDITS ARE TAKEN AFTER FIGHT

Provincial Constable Lefebvre and Posse Round Up Five Desperadoes.

Cohasset, Ont., June 30.—Capture of the bandits, who on Saturday midnight wrecked a branch of the Quebec Bank at Yille Marie in a vain effort to secure $18,000 in gold, was the sequel of a sharp fight with a posse yesterday. One of the desperadoes was shot in the head and Provincial Constable Jerry Lefebvre received a bullet in the leg.

The round-up of the five men took place at Sutton Bay, a few miles from Haldimand, and was the result of the pertinacity shown by Lefebvre in organizing a band of pursuers and tracking the bandits through a wild country.

A WOMAN'S HEALTH NEEDS CONSTANT CARE

When the Blood Becomes Poor, Disease Speedily Follows.
Every woman's health is peculiarly dependent upon the condition of her blood. How many women suffer with headache, pain in the head, indigestion, weak digestion, a constant feeling of weariness, palpitation of the heart, shortness of breath, pallor and nervousness. Of course all these symptoms may not be present—the more there are the worse the condition of the blood, and the more necessary that you should begin to crutch it without delay.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are beyond doubt the greatest blood-building tonic offered to the public to-day. Every dose helps to make new, rich, red blood which goes to every part of the body and brings new health and strength to weak, despondent people. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are valuable to all women, but they are particularly useful to girls of school age who become pale, languid and nervous. Thin blood, makes the growth of a girl's life usually means a flat-chested, hollow-cheeked womanhood. There can be neither health nor beauty without red blood. Brightness to the eyes and color to the cheeks and lips. Dr. Williams' Pink Pills do all this as is proved in thousands of cases.

For example, Carlaw Avenue, Toronto, says: "I have received so much benefit from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills that I feel it my duty to recommend them to others. I was about completely prostrated with anaemia. I had no appetite, was terribly weak and subject to fainting spells. I suffered greatly from dizziness, and various other symptoms that accompany a bloodless condition. Remedy after remedy was tried but to no avail until a friend advised me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Before completing the second box, I was again enjoying splendid health, and have since remained in that happy condition."

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills through any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

MORE STOKERS THAN SAILORS IN THE NAVY

They Have to Take Preliminary Course of Training Like Anyone Else.

TAUGHT HOW TO BULD FIRES When in Action Stoker's Chances of Escape Are Nil.

Of the men who are the soul of the British Navy none has a better claim to be lifted from the obscurity which enshrouds the "unwritten and unspoken" than the naval stokers. They are not "bluejackets"—that term applies to sailors only—and yet there are more stokers than sailors aboard his Majesty's ships.

Something more than ability to swing a shovel lustily goes to the making of a "stoker A.N." Recruits for this rating, upon entering the service are sent to the "Clackknockers' College," otherwise the stoker's training school, for a course of instruction. While there they are taught how to operate "picker" and "slice" and the right way of putting coals on a fire.

Between the right way and the wrong of doing this lies a big gap of mischievous inefficiency. Stones and sand are used for teaching the "stoker-engineer student" how to avoid this. Fires have to be kept clear and bright or the flagship will soon be snapping out a querulous "You are making too much smoke," and thus starting trouble for everybody.

Bad Stoking Smokes the Sky. Having learned the rudiments of his profession in the schools, the "stoker-knocker" goes to sea as a second-class stoker, in which capacity he trims coal for the skilled first-class hands. When rated "first-class" a stoker's pay rises to two shillings and one penny a day (about 50 cents). Now let us see how he earns it, not by the sweat of his brow alone, but by the sweat of his brain. His body that has a sweat gland in it.

Right down at the bottom of this huge battle-cruiser, rushing through the water, his "bone in her teeth"—so far down that quite a long lift journey must be made to reach the place—are row after row of glowing furnaces. Before each of these are grimy, perspiring men, clad only in flannels and a pair of "fearnought" trousers. Hard at it are they trying to satisfy an apparently insatiable appetite. With sturdy, practised swing, they throw shovel after shovel of coal into the greedy maw that gapes hungrily in front of them.

One man after a quick look over the blazing interior, lays hold of a "pricker" or a "slice," thrusts it deep into the dragon's throat, and by a spasm of strenuous effort forces the monster to "spit out the crumbs" or, to use words void of imagery, he clears the fire by dragging out the red-hot clinker.

Good Stoking Makes Records. These by the furnace mouths are the expert stokers—the first-class men—whose skill in keeping steam enables the ship's enormous engines to exert their thousand-fold horsepower to the full—and sometimes a little bit more.

During an action the stokers have the least enviable situation of anyone in the ship. Their chance of escape should she be sunk, is so small as to be almost non-existent. Although they can hear the guns firing and feel the concussion they know nothing of what may be happening above, being quite cut off from the upper deck. Amid all the turmoil of the fight the stokers must remain incessantly at work feeding the fires so that the ship has the steam necessary to enable her to respond to orders from the bridge. And should mishap occur, the standing regulation is that the stokers must draw fires before leaving their posts.

If the ship goes down they are almost certain to go with her, as they know full well. Yet they show no fear, and may always be depended on to stick to their duty to the last. Men who show such grit as this are surely worth a medal of praise. Good stoking, in fact, has advanced our Fleet more than once during the war. It helped Admiral Sturdee to run down the German squadron off the Falklands, and through it upon this occasion, the cruiser Kent was enabled to go two or three knots faster than she had ever done before thus preventing the Nuremberg escaping.

The enlistment of miners will be continued, according to the Scottish Command Orders published recently without causing a decrease in the output of coal. It has been decided to permit the discharge from the army of a limited number of examiners, who are fit for home service only, and are also suitable to resume their former occupations in the coal fields, in exchange for whom a similar number of miners, fit for general service will become available for service with the Tunneling Companies, Royal Engineers.

Advises The Use Of "FRUIT-A-TIVES", The Famous Fruit Medicine.

MR. ROSENBERG 689 Casgrain St., Montreal. April 20th, 1915.

"In my opinion, no other medicine in the world is so curative for Constipation and Indigestion as 'Fruit-a-tives'. I was suffering from these complaints for five years, and my sedentary occupation, music, brought about a kind of Intestinal Paralysis—with nasty Headaches, belching gas, drowsiness after eating, and Pain in the Back. I tried pills and medicines of physicians, but nothing helped me. Then I was induced to try 'Fruit-a-tives' and now for six months I have been entirely well. I advise any one who suffers from that horrible trouble—Chronic Constipation with the resultant indigestion, to try 'Fruit-a-tives', and you will be greatly surprised at the great benefit you will receive". ### Old World Notes

Seditious talk by a young man of Irish birth, named Philip Dalton, resulted in his appearance at Glasgow Sheriff Court, charged under the Defence of the Realm Act with having in the streets, in the south side of Glasgow, used treasonable and seditious language by shouting words derogatory to the King and Government, and also shouting that Germany was our friend, England was our enemy, and calling for three cheers for the Sinn Feiners of Ireland. Other statements made by the accused were "You should be assisting Germany to beat England for the liberty of Ireland," and "Those fighting for their rights in Ireland are put against the wall and shot." The prosecution was at the instance of the competent military authority. A solicitor on accused's behalf stated that the man was mad with drink when he made the statement, and he (the solicitor) characterized them as mere bragadoes, with no other meaning behind them. Accused was an attested man, and was at present employed as a munition worker, and he had a brother serving in the British Army. His family, the solicitor said, were a loyal Irish people residing in Dublin city. Sheriff Lytle, in passing sentence of two months, imprisonment with hard labor, said he had never known drink to turn an honest citizen into a seditious one.

BRITISH FLEET GROWING; ENEMY FLEET DECREASING

German Policy of Attrition on the Sea Has Resulted in Failure.

BATTLE CRUISER LOSSES OF BRITISH

Hans Have Had Five of Class Put Out of Commission.

A comparison of the British and German naval losses in the Archibald Hurd, naval critic, London Daily Telegraph. Battleships: Britain—Nil. Germany—Nil. Battle Cruisers: Britain—Invincible (17,300 tons), Queen Elizabeth (18,750), Queen Mary (19,000)—Total, 3 of 63,000 tons. Germany—Goeben, (2,000), Lutzow (28,000), Lutzow (28,000), Dresden (23,300), Königsberg (24,800), Rostock (43,200), Wittgenstein (43,200), SMS (15,600), REBIB (4,500)—Total, 5 of 118,740 tons.

"The Goeben is ineffective. Sea of Marmora." "The Blue a contemporary of the Invincible. The Scyllitz is probably as destroyed. Light Cruisers: Britain—Amphion (3,440 tons), (3,560)—Total, 2 of 7,000 tons. Germany—Karlsruhe (4,478), Köln (4,280), Emden (4,280), Dresden (3,396), Königsberg (3,480), Rostock (4,320), Wittgenstein (4,320), SMS (15,600), REBIB (4,500)—Total, 12 of 45,238 tons.

Matter of Percentages. The above statement shows Germany's losses in the most effective ships—even if we do not count the one which is declared to have been destroyed. The real sign is only extracted from the figures they are considered on a percentage basis. Ignoring the shipping programme of the country and Germany, also carrying out of which there is some doubt, the position in the battle-ships and battle-cruisers built and building was an outbreak of war as under: Battleships: Britain—35, of 815,100 tons. Germany—19, of 450,200 tons. Battle Cruisers: Britain—8, of 218,000 tons. Germany—8, of 186,120 tons. Total, 27, of 636,370 tons.

Consequently, while on this point we have lost 6.6 per cent strength in battleships and cruisers, Germany is the weaker by 18.5 per cent. of her fleet. In words, her proportionate loss has been nearly three times as ours.

What is the position as to cruisers which may be regarded as well as the Amphion? We possessed thirty-eight Germany twenty-seven. In the of the war we have lost one as well as the Amphion. The older Germany has been twelve. On that basis our loss amounted to 5.2 per cent, while enemy has been weakened by 45 per cent.

But both fleets have a number of good ships by the way immediately by the dreadnought era—vessels were still effective. I have vored to prepare a list of such in the following table, taking basis pre-dreadnought vessels older than fifteen years, at

Light Cruisers.
Britain—Amphion (3,440), Arethusa (3,560)—Total, 2 of 7,000 tons.

Germany—Karlsruhe (4,822), Magdeburg (4,478), Köln (4,280), Mainz (4,280), Emden (3,598), Dresden (3,296), Königsberg (3,348), Rostock (4,820), Wiesbaden (5,600), Elbing (4,300)—Total 12 of 45,238 tons.

Matter of Percentages.
The above statements show that Germany's losses in the most modern and effective ships—even if she farced no worse than she declares in the battle of Jutland—have been far heavier actually than ours since the war opened. But the real significance is only extracted from the proportions they are considered on a proportionate basis. Ignoring the shipbuilding programmes of this country and Germany, about the carrying out of which there may be some doubt, the position in dreadnought battleships and battle cruisers built and building was on the outbreak of war as under:

Battleships.
Britain—35, of 118,100 tons.
Germany—19, of 450,250 tons.

Battle Cruisers.
Britain—10, of 215,800 tons. Total, 27, of 636,370 tons.
Germany—8, of 186,120 tons. Total, 27, of 636,370 tons.

Consequently, while on this showing we have lost 6.6 per cent. of our strength in battleships and battle cruisers, Germany is the weaker by 18.5 per cent. of hers. In other words, her proportionate loss has been nearly three times as great as ours.

What is the position as to light cruisers which may be regarded as belonging to the dreadnought period? We possessed thirty-eight and Germany twenty-seven. In the course of the war we have lost one of these, as well as the Amphion, slightly older; Germany has been robbed of twelve. On that basis our loss has amounted to 5.2 per cent., while the enemy has been weakened by nearly 45 per cent.

But both fleets have sustained other losses of good ships belonging to the years immediately preceding the dreadnought era—vessels which were still effective. I have endeavored to prepare a list of such losses in the following table, taking as a basis pre-dreadnought vessels not older than fifteen years, and thus excluding ships belonging to the last century.

Battleships
Berlin—King Edward VII. (16,850), Triumph (11,955), Russell (14,900)—Total, 3 of 42,305 tons.
Germany—Pommern (12,977)—1 of 12,977 tons.

Armored Cruisers
Britain—Natal (12,550) Argyll (10,850), Good Hope (14,100), Monmouth (9,800), Defence (14,600), Warrior (13,550), Hampshire (10,850)—Total, eight of 100,850 tons.
Germany—Scharnhorst (11,420), Gneisenau (11,420), Yorck (9,350), Friedrich Karl (8,858), Prinz Adalbert (8,858)—Total, five of 49,806 tons.

Light Cruisers.
Britain—Pathfinder (2,940)—Total, one of 2,940 tons.
Germany—Bremen (3,200), Undine (2,672), Ariadne (2,618)—Total, three of 8,490 tons.

Germany Weaker
That appears to be a far less satisfactory statement than the earlier one. How does it appear on a percentage basis. In the years 1900-5 we laid down sixteen battleships (pre-dreadnoughts) to Germany's fourteen, so that our loss has been much greater actually and relatively than Germany's. But, on the other hand, we had a very large reserve of slightly older vessels, of which more must be said later on, and we initiated the building of dreadnoughts a year before Germany. Turning to armored cruisers, we began in the same period twenty-three, while Germany put in hand only six. While our proportionate reduction has been only 34 per cent., in the case of Germany it has been about 83 per cent. In light cruisers of the older types she has also come off worst.

Our Older Ships
It is in the matter of the yet older ships that we have received the greatest injury, and that fact is due largely, though not entirely, to the Dardanelles operations. Of battleships belonging to the last century, there have gone the Bulwark (launched 1899), Formidable (1898), Irresistible (1898)—three ships we could ill-spare—Ocean (1898), Goliath (1898), and Majestic (1895), and we have also had to deplore the Aboukir, Hogue, and Cressy, of the armored classes, as well as the Heracles, Hawke, and Pegasus. But, in spite of all that has happened, we possess to-day thirty-one pre-dreadnought battleships to Germany's twenty-three, and twenty-three armored cruisers to one really effective ship of that type—the Roon—in the German fleet.

SUNDAY SCHOOL.

Lesson I.—Third Quarter, For July 2, 1916.

THE INTERNATIONAL SERIES.

Text of the Lesson, Acts xvii, 1-15. Memory Verses, 11, 12—Golden Text, Acts v, 31—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

In the lesson of two weeks ago we saw Paul and Silas leaving Philippi after the night of wonderful events. Before they departed they comforted the household of Lydia and the brethren, who had no doubt been much in prayer for them (chapter xvi, 40). He would no doubt comfort them, as he did in his letter to them, by the assurance that all that had happened had fallen out rather into the furtherance of the gospel, and as his great desire was "by all means to save some" he could and did rejoice in spite of all his sufferings and shameful treatment (Phil. i, 12, 18; I Cor. ix, 22).

His next place of testimony was Thessalonica, where in the Jewish synagogue for three Sabbath days he reasoned with them out of the Scriptures, working between times at his trade night and day that he might not be any expense to them (Thess. ii, 8, 9). The gospel he preached was in the power of the Holy Spirit, for he spoke not as pleasing men, but God, who trieth our hearts, and they received it with the word of God, and it effectually worked in those who believed, leading them to turn to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to wait for His Son from heaven, who had delivered them from the wrath to come (I Thess. i, 9, 10; I Thess. ii, 13).

Working from the two epistles, working between times at his trade night and day that he might not be any expense to them (Thess. ii, 8, 9). The gospel he preached was in the power of the Holy Spirit, for he spoke not as pleasing men, but God, who trieth our hearts, and they received it with the word of God, and it effectually worked in those who believed, leading them to turn to God from idols to serve the living and true God and to wait for His Son from heaven, who had delivered them from the wrath to come (I Thess. i, 9, 10; I Thess. ii, 13).

Do you see the glad tidings and the assurance of resurrection glory? In Gen. iii, 15, 21, 24? Do you see the death and resurrection of Christ foreshadowed in the story of Isaac in Gen. xxxi? Do you see it in Ex. xii? Rev. xxi, xvii? Have you seen His sufferings, as if written by one who saw it all in Pa. xxi and Isa. liii and His resurrection and glory in close connection there? Do you see both suffering and glory in Jer. xxx, 21? As to the kingdom, with Israel as the center, it is in the prophets everywhere (Acts iii, 21; x, 48; xiii, 22-23).

Do those who hear the word would not see the teacher's or the preacher's word for what they believe, but test all that they hear by the Bible itself they would then be able to say, as the Samaritans did, "Now we believe, not because of thy saying, for we have heard Him ourselves" (John iv, 42). Believers will never be well established nor grow as they should unless they hear God speak to their own hearts directly from His own word. Our hearts should say, "I will hear what God the Lord says, I will hear His messages, and the four kinds of soil, as he did to Ezekiel (Ps. lxxxv, 8; Ezek. i, 3). In verses 4, 12 we read of some results at Thessalonica and Berea. At the former place some believed and of the devout Greeks a great multitude and of the chief women, not a few, at the latter many believed, also some honorable women who were Greeks and of men not a few.

The results in every place are briefly summed up in chapter xxviii, 24, "Some believed the things which were spoken, and some believed not." We will always find the four kinds of soil of the parable of the sower, but whether results are great or small or adverse we should never be discouraged, for He is not, and His word will not fail to accomplish His pleasure, whether for life or death, but He is not willing that any should perish (Isa. xlii, 4; I Cor. ii, 15, 16; II Pet. iii, 9). The adverse results at these two places are seen in verses 5 to 7, 13.

When anything is accomplished for God the devil is ever ready to oppose and blind and deceive, and so it will be till he shall be shut up in the pit (Rev. xx). Being persecuted at Berea, Paul's friends brought him to Athens, leaving Silas and Timothy at Berea. But Paul sent back word by his conductors that they should come to him with all speed (verses 14, 15). While believers should be able to say, "Truly our fellowship is with the Father and with His Son, Jesus Christ," yet the fellowship of human beings, who can say so with us is often very refreshing. On one occasion Paul wrote, "God, who comforteth those who are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus." And again, "I had rest in my spirit because I found not Titus, my brother" (I John i, 3; I Cor. ii, 12; vii, 6).

BIG NEW CREDIT
NOW AVAILABLE

Twenty-five Million Dollars to Finance Fresh British Orders.

Ottawa, Ont., June 30.—The minister of finance, as a result of his conference yesterday with the Canadian Bankers' Association, was able to cable the British treasury that a $25,000,000 further Canadian credit for the purchase of war munitions and supplies was immediately available.

With the $50,000,000 already advanced by the Dominion Government and the previous loan of $75,000,000 by the Canadian bankers, a total of $150,000,000 has been found in Canada for the imperial government to meet its commitments here.

The transaction has been carried out through the minister of finance as trustee for the banks and for the imperial treasury. It has been greatly facilitated by the offer of Sir Thomas White to rediscount at and time the imperial treasury bills held as collateral for the advances. The fact that facilities for discounting have been provided has made possible the transaction on so large a scale. It is the intention of the minister of finance to adopt again this fall the plan which proved so successful last year of providing discount facilities for the financing of the western crop movement.

EXPECT RAID NEXT FALL.

Fifty Zeppelins Can Then be Concentrated, British Writer Says.

London, June 30.—There cannot be, says a writer, more than some where about 35 or 40 Zeppelins at present existing, says C. C. Grey, editor of the Aeroplane, whose conclusion may be taken to be well founded. Some of the Zeppelins, Mr. Grey says, must be kept regularly at work over the Baltic and North Sea on patrol duty, some of them must be laid up for repairs, and some of them must have had accidents of some sort. Consequently one can reckon that if favorable weather happened within the next few months it is unlikely that the Germans could concentrate a fleet of more than 25 Zeppelins at once for a raid on this country. At the present rate of increase of output, one may undoubtedly assume that another thirty or forty ships will be added to the fleet by the next real Zeppelin season in September, and that then it should be possible to concentrate fifty ships at a time for a raid.

Women's Institute

Grand View and Terrace Hill Women's Institute held their annual June meeting Saturday, 24th, at the Grand View School, with 28 present. Four new members were also taken in and fees taken and programs given.

After the opening exercises a solo was given by Miss E. Malandine, two quilts were donated to be quilted at the July meeting, Thursday, July 13. North Brant societies were also asked to take up the work of supplying a field kitchen to which this Institute would gladly do its share, several cash donations being handed in already.

The president, Mrs. A. McWebb, gave a sort talk on the aims and work of the Institute for the coming year. Choruses by Mrs. Savage, Laing and Price, accompanied by Piano and guitar. The speaker, Miss Guest, was then introduced and delighted all present with her subject, "Things and Their Forces." She congratulated this Institute on its high ideals and thought it wise to hold meetings in the schools as both institutes and schools were under Government patronage. Instrumental solo by Miss C. Matthews and the meeting closed with motto and the National Anthem.

THE WESTERN FAIR.

September 8th to 16th. London's popular Exhibition promises to be better patronized than ever, this year. The management is planning larger and better things for September next than have ever been undertaken before. The new Process Building promises to be a hive of industries and considerable space is already taken. A new system of admission at the gates will be adopted by means of new coin, turnstiles, ticket booths and the public will be admitted by depositing twenty-five cents at the turnstiles. Children and those holding tickets will be admitted through a special gate for the purpose. If space of any kind is required application should be made to the Secretary at once. Prize lists and all information on application to the Secretary A. M. Hunt, London, Ontario.

SAVE YOUR CONDOLENCES.

You lads who ordered lilies To strew on Matty's mound, May just as well go trade them For drums that you can pound: Big Six still is in business With his old arm and head, And ere he quits the harness 'Tis we who will be dead. There's kinks in his old soup-bone, But none in his wise tank— And with his nifty noodle He still can run the bank; In nineteen hundred thirty I reckon we'll still read: 'Old Christy still can fool them Though he's slowed up in speed'

On arriving at Victoria Park, a fine program of sports was carried out. Those taking prizes in the various races were as follows: 1st prize, Victoria (a little Armenian girl); Howard Brand, Elsie Vern Roy, Leslie Shaw, Manie Woodard, Irene Searles, Cyril Stubbins, Ross Beech, Harry Standing, Arthur Ham, Fred Kent, Miss Mary Bryson and Mr. J. W. Shepperson. 2nd prize, Dorothy Moore, George Searles, Gertrude Shepperson, Edward Brand, Nellie Tolhurst, Margaret Kelly, Joseph Waldron, Iva Tolhurst, Mrs. Brand. 3rd prize, Leah Bozolan, Leo Bozolan, Jean Zangoschian, Vern Clemenhagen, Helen Daniels, Edna Cooper, Charlie Coles, Mrs. Stubbins, Mrs. J. H. Lake. The world's championship race resulted in a tie for Rev. Dr. Henderson and Mr. W. G. Ranton. Boys' three-legged race: Cyril Stubbins and Tom Strong. Young men's 3-legged race: Burkard and Mrs. Ladies' race: Mesdames H. Clemenhagen, F. Etherington and Stubbins.

Supper was served about 6 o'clock and everyone did ample justice to the feast, immediately afterwards, Mr. Vanstone's peanut scramble was carried out and much amusement resulted. Then a fine game of soft ball was indulged in. Miss Mary Bryson won the young ladies' ball-throwing contest. Messrs T. Darwin, and J. W. Stubbins were the starters. The judges were Dr. Henderson and Messrs G. Easterbrook and W. L. Meyer. Mr. W. J. Shepperson was field marshal.

During the return trip bananas were provided for all, and of course the scholars made short work of them. The excursion was arranged through Mr. Ewald, the local agent. Mr. Whitney, manager of the L. E. and N. accompanied the excursion.

Not a single mishap occurred. The cars returned to Brantford at 9 p.m., and thus ended the best picnic ever held by Wellington St. Methodist Sunday school.

Mr. A. L. Vanstone, as transportation manager, very capably handled the tickets. Messrs W. A. Wood, J. H. Lake and F. Etherington were in the provisions, and there was abundance of good things.

HUGGIN'S CAN'T ANSWER THIS RIDDLE'S QUERY.
Along the line an anecdotal reporter has an anecdote is told on Miller Huggins that seems to be enjoyed particularly by the married men of the British delegation. Incidentally, marriage was not the leading topic under discussion, but just happened to crop out in the conversation.

The real reason and occasion for the year in that Huggins called upon to give some fatherly advice to one of his recruits whose table and street manners needed a trifle of improvement. The recruit was a well-meaning boy, and Huggins talked to him in a most paternal style.

"Of course," said Huggins, "when you say you'd like a knife or two or a pocket watch, or a fountain pen, most people use those articles, and it might be a good thing if you ate your peas with something besides a knife after this."

"Sure," said Huggins encouragingly, "it ain't that it makes much difference, but people do these things. Just like that wedding party we saw this afternoon. Did you notice how the bride and all the bridesmaids were dressed? That's just a custom; you see, a wedding day is supposed to be one of the brightest and happiest in a woman's life, and that's why the girls always wear white."

"Say," he enquired thoughtfully, "why do the men at a wedding always wear black?"

"There's no special use," explained the Huggins patiently, "but it is just the custom of the thing like your walking around the hotel lobby fully dressed except for a collar. I dare say, you're comfortable enough without it, but most people wear collars nowadays; it's just a custom."

"Custom, eh?" repeated the recruit, willing enough to learn, but still a trifle perplexed.
