Flanders Field and After

A Message from the Silent Cities of the Dead. "In Flanders fields, 'Somewhere in France,' Or elsewhere, as the battle's chance Has left us sleeping on the clay, We patiently await the day When Canada our loss shall feel And freedom from the foreign heel Appreciate enough to build A temple to our name, If filled With patriotic zeal in peace, As when in war, Canadians cease Not wrong to fight, and make a name For honor, truth and right their aim, We shall be satisfied. But rest We cannot till we know the best Our country'er can do, is done For those who fought, like us, and won, But live, enduring toil and pain, A meagre livelihood to gain. Our agony is past and gone, But they; still suffering, live on. Treat them like men. No paupers they, But heroes, well deserving pay For benefits conferred. Be just; Let swords and rifles turn to rust, But ever keep the memory bright Of comrades wounded in the fight. Let justice rule in law and deed, And every service get its meed, So that our land itself shall be The temple to our memory. For us who died, some simple stone, Or cenotaph, or shaft alone, Is all we ask, that ye who live May be reminded how to give, In sacrifice, some service, small Or great, for benefit of all.

A PLEASANT SURPRISE

Last Friday evening the Rector of St. John's church addressed a meeting of his congregation regarding the question of his resignation. He read a letter from the Archbishop of Nova Scotia asking him to reconsider his resignation. After reading this letter he stated that he would leave the meeting that the parishioners might discuss the matter freely.

Mr. Dixon, after expressing his surprise and heartfelt gratitude, left the meeting. Dr. Moran Hemmon took the chair and asked for an expression of opinion. Mr. Henry Ruffee moved and Mrs. Collins seconded a resolution of confidence in Mr. Dixon, asking him to continue to hold office as long as he felt able to do so.

"A BOY OF FLANDERS"

Jackie Coogan charming and funny in Metro Picturization of Dutch Story, Reviewed by Summer Smith. Old and young will find "A Boy of Flanders" a delightful entertainment. This Jackie Coogan production for Metro presents the child star in a role singularly adapted to his talents, and the Dutch costumes which he wears should make him more than ordinarily appealing to the feminine element of his audiences.

ACADIA COLLEGIATE LOST TO PICTOU ACADEMY

In Close Contest at Truro on Saturday - Score 5 to 3

TRURO, Nov. 1.-The New Glasgow High school football squad defeated Acadia Collegiate this afternoon on the T. A. C. grounds by a score of 5 to 3. The day was dull with a chilly south wind sweeping across the field. The boys of the Blue and Red lost the position for wind, and shortly after 2 o'clock kicked off.

Their forward line with a pretty combination soon carried them into New Glasgow territory, where they met stern resistance in the shape of hard tackling, but nevertheless the New Glasgow lads were forced to touch for safety. After a few scrim on the 5 yard line, the New Glasgow boys got away, displaying nice passing and kicking, eventually forcing their way to the Acadia 25 yard line. Acadia fought hard but New Glasgow controlled the pigskin, and with a nice dribble Crowell, the hard working half liner, secured the ball and dashed over the touch line for the first score.

The ball was then placed and Tibbets with a nice kick easily connected, nothing two more for his team and increasing the New Glasgow boys supporters' enthusiasm. With both teams working hard, play surged back and forth to both twenty-five yard lines, but no further scores were made.

New Glasgow kicked off for the start of the second period, and a long kick found the ball again in Acadia territory, but with nice tackles and passes play was forced to the New Glasgow end and Acadia tried desperately to make a score. Soon New Glasgow was forced to touch for safety by the machine like tactics of the Acadia boys. A scrim was ordered near the New Glasgow line and the Acadia scrim heeled the ball out and scored a touchdown made by Smith, who could not be seen for the mass of players on top of him. Score, New Glasgow 5, Acadia 3. The touchdown was not converted.

With excitement at high pitch, New Glasgow forced the boys of the Blue and Red on the defensive, but try as they would, they could not penetrate the Acadia lines for further score. The scrim on the Acadia team appeared heavier, and they secured the ball of ten from the Green and White. Henry Finch, of Halifax, handled a difficult game in a fair and impartial manner. The attendance was slim, only a hundred witnessing a fine football game.

The line up: New Glasgow: Full Back, McDonald; Halves, Nicholson, Crowell, Grant, McKay; Quarters, Tibbets, Nickerson; Williams; Forwards, MacLean, Townsend, MacLean, Melville, MacLean, Murray, Thompson, Spence, MacLean, Peppel, Robertson. Acadia Collegiate: Full-back, Wallace; Halves, Berry, (Capt.), Williamson, Raymond, Fetterley; Quarters, Hamilton, Smith, Jenkins; Forwards, Kierstead, Smellman, S. Titus, G. Titus, Harman, McLaughlin, Harrison.

Touch Judges-New Glasgow, Stanley Frazer; Acadia-Parker. An unusual demand upon our copy space this week has prevented the customary quantity of reading matter in this issue. The demand would have been provided for but for the illness of the members of the staff which made the office too busy to undertake the work. THE ACADIAN has good things in store for its readers, however, that will more than compensate for the present conditions, for which we offer our apologies.

Editorial

Our pulpits are our work clothes. Each of us live some kind of a sermon every day.

THANKSGIVING DAY

MONDAY next, November 10th, has been set apart by the government as a Thanksgiving Day in Canada. The idea of devoting one day to the expression of our thankfulness to the Almighty for the blessings bestowed upon us during the past year, especially with regard to the bountiful harvest reaped from Mother Earth, is most appropriate.

We plough the fields and scatter
The good seed on the land;
But it is fed and watered
By God's Almighty hand.

We are ever inclined to grouch over mostly imaginary evils, and the weather, the crops and the results of our efforts generally are always regarded as perfectly proper objects of our complaint. What more reasonable than that during one day we should count up our blessings and return thanks for all the benefits which we enjoy.

All of us have much to be thankful for, and when we attempt to sum them up it is surprising to find how numerous they really are. Even for those who seem to have reaped nothing but failure is there not, at least, some cause to say—"Thank God, it's no worse".

During the present season we in this favored land have escaped many of the calamities to which other places have been subjected. On the whole the earth has yielded good returns for the labor expended and as a people we enjoy more than our share of the good things of life. For the peace and plenty of this land of the Maple Leaf we have reason to be grateful. Let us seek to uphold the highest interests, noblest aims and ever hold to the principle of putting Right above might in this Canada of ours.

WEAR A POPPY ON ARMISTICE DAY

POPPY DAY—November 11th—we will all be wearing poppies. Poppies. We wonder if the significance of this little red flower is strongly enough engraved on our hearts. Back in the crowded days of war, during the long hot marches, during the agonizing wait for the zero hour, during the unrelenting bombardment, during the wet and the mud and the filth this little red blossom was the companion and the joy of our Canadian Tommies. Now that the din of battle has ceased and the burying party has long since completed its task, this same little red flower remains over there to watch over the graves of our boys. Surely we should all consider it a privilege once a year to wear a poppy, the flower which has done and still is doing so much for us.

But not only for this reason. As in the past, the poppies are this year made by disabled veterans here in Nova Scotia. Men who have lost their sight or the use of their limbs and whose only livelihood is obtained in this manner. Men who have the courage of heroes or they could not carry on. Men who need your support and your sympathy.

Wear a poppy on Armistice Day, November 11th, in memory of the boys who died that we might live; in recognition of the service the poppy is still rendering us in Flanders fields; and also to help and encourage those who left our shores in the prime of manhood and who returned broken, men who look into the future with dread but with a smile.

WILL GREATLY IMPROVE THE TOWN

THE PROGRESS that has been made during the present season in the work of filling in and reclaiming the property at what was formerly known as "mud bridge" indicates that with comparatively little effort and expense on the part of citizens a wonderful transformation might be made. Situated in practically the centre of the town the section has been for years a blot on an otherwise beautiful landscape and a detriment especially to the eastern section. In view of what has already been done and what might now be accomplished without any great difficulty if our people were so minded, THE ACADIAN puts forth the suggestion that a plan for the completion of this work to be desired work next summer be put into immediate operation.

With all due respect to the enterprise and public-spiritedness of citizens of Wolfville we venture the assertion that few communities would have permitted the work to have been so long delayed, when the advantages of its completion are so pronounced and apparent. As a sound business proposition the undertaking should appeal to those who have the best interests of the town at heart, as the value of the property to the town when reclaimed should be far in excess of the cost of the work.

USELESS PROFANITY

THE TROUBLE with profanity is not so much that it is wicked, as that it is just plain dirty. It is not so much that you shock religious people as that you disgust decent people, that we object to. Swearers are behind the times. They are holdovers from a former century. Nowadays anybody who swears is set down at once as being coarse and vulgar. The young man who wants to succeed needs to take advantage of everything that may help him on. Swearing will be a black mark against him in any job he may have. If he wants to associate with the right sort of girls he must keep his talk clean. Nobody wants a swearer in the office nor in the workshop, nor on the train, nor in the hotel. The only place swearing fits is the saloon. Swearing means you don't know how to talk. Your vocabulary is limited. It is the sign of ignorance. Swearing means weakness. You will notice that forceful men, whose words carry weight, use simple plain words. When you swear it shows your impotence. It is the petty refuge of the helpless. If you can help a thing, help it, if not, keep still; anyway don't swear.

DO YOU SUPPORT YOUR NEWSPAPER?

THERE IS nothing that calls attention and draws people to a town equal to a good newspaper. In order for a man to make a good newspaper he must have the patronage of the people among whom he lives. If he has half-way support it stands to reason that he must make a poorer newspaper, and in doing this every man in the town and surrounding country has to bear a portion of the loss. For this reason, if no other, the man who tries to make a good newspaper, should have the support of his own people, all of whom reap fully as much benefit from its efforts as he does himself.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

When Hanging Paper.
So many amateur paper hangers (housewives) find it so hard to find a board long and wide enough to use to paste on, take down a closet door and use it, always spreading old newspapers lest you get paste on the door.

Softening Paint Brushes.
To soften a paint brush in which the paint has been allowed to dry, heat some vinegar to the boiling point, and allow the brush to simmer in it a few minutes. Remove and wash in soap-suds and the brush will be like new.

Fireless Cooker.
Dry your fireless cooker perfectly as soon as possible after the food is removed. Leave the cover slightly ajar until ready to use again, so that the air may get in.

ARMISTICE DAY 1918 - 1924

"CEASED FIRING!" Six years ago next Tuesday at eleven o'clock, those momentous words resounded over the almost unending battlefronts of that day. Almost instantly, the battlefields reverberated the thundering hurrahs of the fighting men who had conquered in their struggle to preserve the peace of the World.

The four winds caught the unfettered spirit of rejoicing and carried it to the corners of the earth. And the whole world joined in a tumultuous expression of joy and gratitude for deliverance from the War's Caldron of Sorrow. The Day was aflame with the thrill of Victory--the Victory of Pesce!

On this Armistice Day of 1924, let us--- Citizen of Wolfville ---commemorate that glorious Day by observing next Tuesday in a fitting manner. Let us display the Flag at our homes and places of business--in honnr of those valiant living and dead who fought for the honor of their County and for the protection of our homes and loved ones

And let us pay added respect to those sleeping boys who so unselfishly made the Supreme Sacrifice---by giving them two minutes of reverent silence at eleven o'clock Let us show the world that---

Personal and Social

Mrs. James Voight, of North Sydney, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. R. Creighton, Seaview avenue.

Mrs. A. W. Blakney returned home on Monday after spending more than two months in the United States, where she attended the marriage of her daughter, St. L., and visited her sons and other relatives.

Dr. and Mrs. Wendell Mitchell, of New York City, were recent visitors in town, at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. MacKenzie, Prospect street. They arrived by motor on Friday and on Saturday went on to Halifax, and intended to return via Yarmouth on Tuesday.

Mrs. J. W. Vaughn moved this week into her new home just completed on Highland avenue. Mr. W. E. Fielding, who had charge of the work, has constructed an attractive and well planned residence, which its owner is sure to find convenient and comfortable, and which is a distinct addition to that part of the town.

Heralded as her greatest picture, Pola Negri's second Paramount star production, "The Cheat", produced by George Fitzmaurice and featuring Jack Holt with Charles deRoche in support, will be shown at the Orpheum Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday. It is an absorbing screen drama with a highly satisfactory climax and a role that presents this famous star in a most delightful manner.

Most of the action takes place at a Long Island society resort. Miss Negri appears as Carmelita de Cordoba, a South American heiress who falls in love with a New York broker (Jack Holt). They elope in Paris and coming to New York, a series of highly dramatic episodes occur in which the young wife finds herself sorely pressed for funds. As a last resort she accepts the aid of a bogus East Indian Prince who loves her madly. A happy ending brings the picture to a novel close—an unusually gripping court room scene constituting the climax, the equal of which seldom has been seen on the screen.

This is the type of picture that the public has been clamoring for. Nothing has been left undone—it is a veritable triumph for both actor and producer. Nor must the splendid work done by Jack Holt and Charles deRoche be overlooked. Beautiful women, gorgeous gowns, sumptuous settings, a tremendous story and acting to the nth degree, all combine to make "The Cheat" THE picture of the current season.

FACES

By D. C. MacArthur.

Faces here and faces there, In town and city everywhere— Faces come and faces go.

Haunting faces I seem to know, They hurry by me when we meet, Found and lost on the busy street. "Hello, old man", they seem to say— We smile and nod and go our way. — Where did I see that face before? Back in the crowded days of war; Memories come with a sudden flash, Tuned to the shrapnel's scream and crash.

The fierce barrages echo yet— Now I remember where we met!

Vimy Ridge on a dirty night; The long two weeks of the Cambrai fight.

Keeping watch on the German Rhine; Down by Lens in a ruined mine; Up on the crest of Monchy hill; Back on rest by Abbeville; A windy spot in the Arras scrap; A Belgian billet near Jemappe—

Echoes of half-forgotten days, Out of the misty battle-haze; Something of gladness, something of pain, Seeing forgotten faces again, Out of the whirlwind over there Into the days of Apres la Guerre!

AN IMPORTANT CONFERENCE

With a view to the securing of more adequate fire protection for the district surrounding this town a meeting of representative citizens of Grand Pre, Greenwich, Port Williams, Gasperau, Hortonville, Melanson, etc., is to be held this evening at 8 o'clock, at the town hall. All interested are invited to be present to hear the proposed plan and estimate of cost. Since the purchase of our new fire equipment there have been frequent calls for assistance from sections outside the town limits, and much as the town authorities would like to be able to respond this can only be done at the risk of the efficiency of the department at home. The Council recognizes the somewhat difficult situation in which the town is placed, and at the meeting this evening will suggest a solution of the problem which ought to readily appeal to all those interested.

GENEROUS GIFTS

The immense value offered by The Family Herald and Weekly Star of Montreal this season is meeting with the success the publishers deserve. Their large calendar for 1925 with the beautiful picture—"The Sale of Old Dobbin" is proving a very popular premium, while the Ten Thousand Dollar Election Contest is a record breaker. For those who raise clubs of new subscribers, there is a catalogue of some very handsome and useful rewards. The Family Herald is securing thousands upon thousands of new subscribers by their generous gifts, added to the super excellence of the paper itself; in fact few homes will be found without that great weekly when Two Dollars will secure so much.

Rev. A. N. Harkness, a former pastor of the Wolfville Baptist church, is at present secretary of the Kiwanis Big Brothers, Vancouver. He recently addressed a joint luncheon meeting of the health and civic bureaus of Vancouver on the subject, "The Under-privileged Child".

St. John's church has been the recipients of two memorial gifts recently. On Sunday 26th the rector dedicated a prayer book, the gift of Mrs. Morris Macklin, of this town, in memory of Robert Clarence Borden who fell in the great war. Last Sunday was also dedicated a very handsome altar prayer book, the gift of Miss May Townshend and Mrs. J. D. Sherwood, in memory of their father, the late Sir Charles Townshend, ex-Chief Justice of Nova Scotia.

The action of the members of the congregation of St. John's church, referred to in another column, in remembering their rector so handsomely, is most gratifying to Rev. Mr. Dixon's friends throughout the town and surrounding section, who will be very glad to learn that he is to continue to fill the position which he has occupied so efficiently for the past quarter of a century. As a citizen Rev. Mr. Dixon has always displayed a willingness to do his part for community welfare and has endeared himself to our people generally who will join THE ACADIAN in wishing for him many years of continued health and usefulness.

A large number of relatives and friends scattered through the county will regret to learn from the Vancouver papers of last week that Edward E. Rand, of that city, has passed away. His father, the late Edwin Rand, for many years connected with David M. Dickie and Silas R. Tupper in the firm of Dickie, Rand & Tupper, hardware merchants, lived in Canning in the house now owned by Chas. E. Ell. The sons, Chas. D. (since deceased) and Edward E., being cricket enthusiasts in the days before 1881 when the family went to British Columbia, where the two brothers carried on a large real estate business for years. Mr. Rand, who was 64 years of age, leaves a wife in Vancouver, a sister, Mrs. Carroll, and a brother, Arthur, in London, England, beside numerous cousins in Canada, Kingsport, Wolfville, and Hantsport.

At an early hour on the 2nd of November there passed away at White Rock a most highly esteemed citizen in the person of Joseph P. Jodrey, in his 82nd year. The deceased was born at Sweetland in the county of Lunenburg, and when a young man moved to White Rock and became a member of the Baptist church there. He was widely known as a man of sterling character, a true neighbor and friend, especially to those in need. A cabinet-maker and wheelwright by trade, he was always very active until five months ago when his health began to fail. Eleven days before his death he contracted pneumonia and owing to a weak heart could not overcome the disease.

On Monday afternoon the funeral services at the home and the Gaspen church were conducted by Mr. Boyea, of Wolfville. The floral tributes were lovely and the music beautifully rendered by the choir included "Abide With Me", "Saved by Grace", "A-sleep in Jesus" and two quartettes, "Looking This Way" and "Some Day the Silver Cord Will Break". He leaves to mourn the loss of a kind and loving father, two sons, and a daughter, Charles, of Greenfield, Roy, of Wolfville, and Eva, at home; also two brothers, John, at Lake Egmont, Halifax county, and Hibert, at Sweetland on the old homestead. One brother, Alfred, of Hubbard's Cove, predeceased him a year ago.

ABOUT BOOKS

By the Acadian Bookman.

The poems in "White Winds of Dawn" by Frances Beatrice Taylor (Toronto: McClelland and Stewart, A175) are chiefly on religious themes, especially on the birth of Jesus and on death. There is a decided note of mysticism in this religious verse, and yet deep insight, the meaning of Christianity as a way of life for this world. The author, though she does not always achieve verbal music in rhythm and in rhyme (the imperfect rhyme "house"—"bough" occurs four times in the slight volume), has considerable felicity in imagery, particularly in imagery of color, and in symbolic suggestion. The poems on the birth of Jesus make the volume a suitable Christmas gift.

CANADA'S FUTURE

(From the Boston Post.) Our restrictive immigration laws are giving to Canada an opportunity that our northern neighbor has quickly grasped and is profiting thereby. Statistics just furnished by the Canadian Pacific Railway show that immigration into Canada during the first six months of the current year has increased by more than 40 per cent. Dominion authorities rejoice over these figures, as they have every reason so to do, because they may be accepted as an indication that the first swell of a rising tide has set in towards the shores of the Dominion that bids fair to continue to an ever-increasing extent.

There is plenty of room up there for these newcomers, who numbered 77,125 for these first six months as against 52,592 in a similar period of the previous year. They include nationals from about every country, even Russia sending over about 1500. The English government is not alone encouraging its people to emigrate, but is co-operating with the Canadian government in furnishing them with farms.

What Canada needs more than anything else is an increase of manpower. The cultivation of its fertile fields and the uncovering of its hidden wealth has been handicapped and blocked by the lack of hands to do the work. Canada can take care of millions of newcomers, provided they are willing and able to work. There are tremendous possibilities up there, that only await exploitation and maturity to give to the world another great civilization as powerful and populous as any that are now in existence.

CANNING AND VICINITY

Lady Borden entertained the Women's Institute of Canning, Tuesday evening Oct. 28, president, Mrs. A. A. Ward in the chair. The meeting, a special one, was addressed by Miss Helen McDougall, Provincial Organizer of Women's Institutes, who suggested lines of activity and ways of carrying them out. The tremendous growth of Institutes throughout the world was emphasized and the inspirational motto, "For Home and Country" noted, which when combined with the initials of the organization gives us a splendid ideal Women's Institutes of Nova Scotia, (W-I-N-S). We have proved that we as Institutes are serving a definite, worth while purpose when we live up to our motto, "For Home and Country", and all that circles around this. We should stand for the best in mental, physical, and spiritual things. The responsibility and privilege that are ours, to work for the better conditions of coming generations and to assist in having better home centres, where children can learn to be the finest type of citizen, was emphasized. The importance of keeping in touch with the standing committees and what they are working for was also stressed. The address was a very helpful and interesting one. Miss McDougall, who is a pleasing speaker, was tendered an expression of appreciation.

Mrs. Brownell Allen, of Hantsport, a former student of Canning High School, and her sister, Miss Clara Davis, nurse, of Braintree, Mass., were recent guests of their cousin, W. J. Melvin. guest of Mr. and Mrs. Spurr Woodworth.

Grades III, IV and V of Canning school, teacher, Miss Josephine Harris, held Hallowe'en exercises Friday afternoon, which were much enjoyed. The room was decorated with Hallowe'en favors, and the children with pumpkin grinders were arrayed as ghosts, and a guessing contest as to the names of the pupils was held. The following were prize winners: Miller Rodgers, Lycia Bigelow, Paul Sarsfield, Clifton Rodgers. Choruses by the school were followed by a programme in which Paul Sarsfield, Dorothy Blenkhorne, Barbara Blenkhorne, Dorothy Rodgers, and Reginald Eaton took part. At the close refreshments were served. The afternoon was unusually interesting and the programme delightfully carried out.

The decorations, exclusively Hallowe'en, were unusually attractive, the funds being taken by two witches, Miss Geraldene Melvin and Miss Florence Cook, who also added to the pleasure of the fifty guests by cleverly foretelling the future. A Hallowe'en supper, full of good things, was enjoyed, after which games and a social hour followed. Proceeds $18.00.

An expression of appreciation was extended to Miss Trotter, who is an unusually pleasing speaker. Hallowe'en games were followed by supper. Miss Trotter returned to Wolfville at the close.

Edward Gresham, of Bridgewater, whose parish is in Centreville, N. B. Rev. A. E. Andrews performed the ceremony. The bride, who was given away by her father, was very lovely in a gown of white canton crepe, with conventional veil, wearing a head-dress of pearls and carrying a shower bouquet of carnations. The organist was Mrs. Claude Ross. At the conclusion of the ceremony a delicious luncheon was served. The gifts, which were very lovely, included a set of flat silver from Messrs. John Tobin & Co., Halifax, the staff of which the bride's father is a member. Mrs. A. M. Covert, Mrs. Spurr Woodworth, Mrs. Clarke, Mrs. Frank Sheffield, Miss Ruth Sheffield, Miss Lou Covert and

SHEFFIELD MILLS

The annual community gathering held under the auspices of the Sheffield Mills Women's Institute, president, Mrs. W. W. Harris, was held at Community Hall Thursday evening, Oct. 31, and this year took the form of a Hallowe'en party attended by more than a hundred guests. The hall was very lovely with its color scheme of yellow and black, with ribbons festooned intermingled with Hallowe'en favors. Pumpkin grinders also had their part in the unique decorations. Upon their arrival the guests were met by three ghosts, Mrs. David Ellis, Mrs. Clarke Ross, and Mrs. Harold Fellows, who silently motioned them to their places. Twenty-five tables were arranged for games in which all participated, and at 10 o'clock two witches, Miss McKenzie and Miss Ross, of the teaching staff, assisted the committee, Mrs. David Ellis, Mrs. Clarke Ross, Mrs. Harold Fellows, while a delightful supper was served consisting of all kinds of Hallowe'en goodies. Suddenly two ghosts appeared in the form of Miss Jean Burgess and Miss Kathleen Kinsman, bearing huge pumpkins filled with lovely gifts. These, accompanied by an address cleverly portraying the sentiments of the guests, were presented to Miss Eaton by Miss Irene Rand. The Port Williams Acadian

PORT WILLIAMS AND VICINITY

Mrs. R. S. Hockin was "At Home" to a large number of friends on Friday from 4 to 6 o'clock. The hostess, who was charming in a gown of tangerine silk crepe, was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. D. S. Collins, who wore a handsome gown of navy blue flat silk crepe. Mrs. Mariot received at the door, while the tea table was presided over by Mrs. L. Gates and Mrs. J. W. Harvey, while Mrs. Dr. Zwicker, Mrs. Carl Starr, Misses Dorothy Illsley and Mary Vaughan passed delicious refreshments. Mrs. Harris, of Margretille, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. Neal Coulston.

Miss Elva Lantz is visiting her brother, Mr. Kempton Lantz. Several from here attended the Halloween Supper at Greenwich on Thursday night. The hall was very tastefully decorated for the occasion and the supper all that an epicurean could desire.

The Lily of the Valley Division was re-opened for work on the 27th inst. As the busy season is still on, but captians (Mrs. Ralph Newcombe, Mrs. Leander Woodworth) were chosen to provide programs for the ensuing quarter. Mr. T. J. Borden was elected delegate to attend the coming session of the Grand Division at Halifax.

Miss Cogswell and Miss Lucy Cogswell spent the week end with friends in Wolfville.

The Halloween Social held in the Temperance Hall on Friday evening was a decided success. The hall was never so crowded before, but everybody had a good time. The program comprised five selections by the Wolfville High School orchestra (16 pieces), conducted by Miss Gladys Newcombe; reading by Miss Bessie Frazer; two violin solos by Miss Robert Bishop, with Miss Lucy Cogswell accompanying; vocal solos by Miss Annie Pearson and Mr. Harry Molins, of Acadia; A selection on the bells, by Mr. MacLaughlin, was much appreciated by the large audience. Several numbers of the prepared program had to be omitted on account of the overcrowded hall, the stage having to be used for the orchestra. Quite a number of Acadia students hiked over and enlivened things generally by their college yell and snatches of song. During the intermission the girls of the Delta Alpha Class, who originated the idea of having a social, sold fudge and told fortunes. Some of the girls' costumes were unique, especially Miss Mary Vaughan, who in her black robes made a veritable witch. The receipts of the evening were given as a Halloween present to Harold Chipman.

Trapping muskrats is the order of the day—or night—around here just now. The boys are all busy and some have made a catch of four rodents a night.

Mr. Edson Griffin received a prize of $11.00 on his pen of Rhode Island Reds which have been in Truro the past eleven months in the egg-laying contest in the poultry department of the Agricultural College. Of the twenty-five pens in the contest Mr. Griffin took the fifth standing, five hens producing 929 eggs. The pen of Barrard Plymouth Rocks, owned by R.W. Young of North Sydney, captured the first prize, producing 1008 eggs. The last prize for laying the greatest number of eggs was captured by a White Leghorn hen from Deep Brook that laid 245 eggs, while one lazy old hen only produced 14 eggs during the whole period of the contest. When the new building is completed at the Experimental Farm, Kentville, an egg laying contest for Nova Scotia is to be carried on.

Friends and acquaintances of Mr. Joseph Smith were sorry to learn of his serious accident at Gasperen River last week and hope for a speedy recovery. Mr. Smith was for some time in the employ of Mr. D. S. Collins.

Mr. Harvey Lantz is visiting relatives and friends in this vicinity.

Mr. N. H. Newcombe left on Wednesday for Bridgetown, where he will spend some weeks.

ARMISTICE DAY AT PORT WILLIAMS

Armistice Day has always been celebrated at Port Williams, and this year it promises to be an interesting meeting. The children of the public schools in district No. 6, Port Williams, Town Plot, Church Street and Chipman Corner, are to march to Citizens' Hall, Port Williams, on Tuesday evening, Nov. 11th, and provide part of the program, with songs and recitations. Mr. E. W. Robinson, M.P., for Kings county, will deliver an address suitable to the occasion. We, who have lived through those awful years of "The Great War," should not begrudge the time to mark and bring to remembrance the blessing of peace for which our bravest and best fought, suffered and died. Should not this spirit be passed on and kept alive by the next generation—"Lest We Forget." John Donaldson.

GREENWICH

Mrs. Edgar Forsythe and little daughter, Irene, of Cambridge, who spent a few days with relatives here, returned home last Tuesday.

Miss A. Cogswell, of Port Williams, was calling upon friends here last Tuesday.

The Halloween Supper held here by the young people of the G. C. L. last Thursday evening proved to be a very good success without any programme in connection. The proceeds amounted to almost sixty-one dollars—to benefit in various ways for the League. The hall was very tastefully and artistically decorated in the Halloween colours, orange and black, and some colour as shades on the lights causing a soft glow over all. The ice-cream, candy and fortune-telling booths were each splendidly done, as well as the long supper tables, and many exclamations of pleasure on how lovely the hall looked were heard from those present. Great credit is due the energetic young people who worked and took such an interest in making preparations, and thanks go to those of the ladies who kindly assisted in providing "extra" seats.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Bishop, accompanied by Rev. and Mrs. D. B. H. H.

mean, of Wolfville, left on Friday morning by automobile for Yarmouth on a camping trip of several days.

Much interest was expressed, by those of our residents who helped, at the good success of the rummage sale recently held in Wolfville by members of the Baptist church there, for the Acadia fund.

A large number from here attended and enjoyed the concert at the Division hall at Port Williams last Friday evening, the singing of Mr. Molins, of Acadia, being heartily enjoyed. Three of our young people assisted on the programme.

Mr. and Mrs. Hazen Bishop and little daughter, Dorothy, motored through to New Ross and returned last Sunday.

Rev. Mr. Prestwood, of Hantsport, again occupied the pulpit in the church here on Sunday afternoon. Those present enjoyed the duet by Mrs. W. Curry and Mr. Turpele, the two voices blending well. Mrs. Curry also sang a solo in a pleasing contralto voice.

Miss Carter, of Canso, is visiting friends here for a time.

HE THAT LOVETH SILVER shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loveth abundance with increase: this is vanity. When goods increase they are increased that eat them; and what good is there to the owners thereof, saving the beholding of them with their eyes?—Ecclesiastes 5:10, 11.

A SONG OF THANKSGIVING:—Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! O come, let us sing unto the Lord; let us come before his presence with thanksgiving. For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture.—Psalm 107:25; 95:1, 2, 7.

NOVEMBER 11
BLESSSED ARE THE PURE IN HEART: FOR THEY SHALL SEE GOD.—Matt. 5:8.

stayed at Father's all night. He is very fond of music and we sang till ten o'clock, when we had prayers and retired.

Jan. 1st, 1850. I arose this morning before six, took a book and was reading; Rob. John and Ann also were reading when Mr. McKeen came out. He was praising our studiousness, but he arises every morning at five o'clock at the college and goes to study; he carries a book with him wherever he goes that he may never be idle; he went to G. Davidson's to breakfast. After the work was done we went down to meeting. Shortly after it had begun we were surprised and pleased to see Mr. Taber come in; he spoke and gave out meeting for this evening. Capt. Michener attended the services today; he seldom goes, except to Temperance meetings and funerals. He is a great Temperance man. Mr. Kirk has just called to see us.

Jan. 2nd. This has been a cold blustering day. I had prayer in my school this morning for the first time. I feel I need the help of God to do my duty to those around me and I wish to teach my scholars aright. I lost my wedding ring since last night. I did not miss it till this forenoon. I prized it for the sake of the donor and am very sorry to lose it. I have some fears at times that he may never return. I hope all is well with him.

3rd. The Widow Beckwith was taken violently ill yesterday and was delirious all night. I have just been to see her but she knows no one. Old Mrs. Beckwith and Mrs. Kendal are there. It is a great affliction. My wedding ring is found! Sister Ann had taken it off my finger.

4th. It has rained nearly all day. Adah will stop all night with me. I almost got confused with the noise of the children today. I went up to the Temperance meeting. Some very interesting anecdotes were told which might teach us a lesson.

5th. Olivia and family are visiting sister Mary today. I was over to tea, then went to meeting and heard Mr. McKeen preach, after which I went to Father's and stayed all night.

6th. Mr. McKeen took dinner at Capt. G. Holmes', then called at Father's. He seems wholly devoted to the cause of Christ. He went to Brooklyn to preach in the evening; from there he will return to Horton and be here again next Saturday.

7th. I have had 18 scholars today and they kept me pretty busy. They are rather noisy at times. Brother John called this evening and I went up home with him and spent a very pleasant evening studying Geography and singing. Father and Mother were up to Capt. Marsters.

8th. There was quite a snow storm last night. I only had seven scholars today and their fathers had to bring them. I spent the evening at Mary's.

10th. We had a very interesting meeting last night. W. Irish spoke; he is very sincere and has a great desire to be a Christian. This evening I have been over to Mary's; Ann, the boys, and Asa and Emily Ann also were there.

13th. Sunday morning. On Friday evening I was agreeably surprised to hear that Nancy and Ellen Dickie, accompanied by James Dickie, had come from Cornwallis, so soon as possible I went to Mrs. James, and found them there, also Mrs. Toye and Mrs. Peter Barker. We spent a pleasant evening and heard the girls sing; Nancy, Ellen and I then spent the night at Mary's. On Saturday they all came and took dinner with me, also Mrs. James. We went up to Conference meeting in the afternoon, after which we all went down to Olivia's. Ann, Rob. John, James Leighton, Chipman Davidson and John Michener also were there. We spent a very pleasant evening and heard the girls sing a number of new pieces. Nancy came home and stayed all night with me. As I was sitting here writing this morning Chipman Davidson came in and told me the "Ready Rhino" had come and that he had seen Simeon and talked with him. A few minutes later Nancy and I would have been gone to meeting. She went but I was pleased to stop at home; it was not long before he came. How very thankful I am that he has been spared to return in safety. Very soon John came in; he had gone to meeting but hearing of Simeon's arrival he came back. Then Maria and his father came; James Holmes and many others have called. John Michener stayed to dinner, then he, Simeon and James Holmes went to the shore. Ellen Dickie, Ann, and brother John then came.

THOUSANDS OF CANADIANS RETURN

Exodus From U. S. Heavy During First Half of Fiscal Year

OTTAWA, Oct. 21.—Canadians to the number of 27,486 returned to Canada from the United States during the first half of the present fiscal year, according to Immigration Department figures.

MUSIC AS A RECREATION

Urging universal participation in the production of music as a recreation, Peter W. Dykema, professor of music at the University of Wisconsin, in a recent article writes that the field of music affords some type of recreation to fit every mood.

"Music is a comparatively young art," says Prof. Dykema. "Practically everything that we have in the remarkable development of modern music has come into being within the last 400 years. Music was just starting when painting had reached a stage which has probably not since been surpassed."

In singing and in playing various instruments, from the most simple folk songs and roundelays to the more difficult types of choral and vocal music, from the simple harmonica and ukulele to the intricate string and woodwind instruments there is recreation for everybody, according to Prof. Dykema. "It is not only possible but essential that music should become the normal possession and accomplishment of all," concludes Prof. Dykema.

A great many people who have to mind putting in an extra "a," don't

I can install this modern heating system in your home in less than a day—any home, old or new. No walls to rip up. No mutilated partitions. No muss or fuss. Just one register on the main floor. I'll start first thing in the morning and by afternoon your Gilson will be ready to protect you against winter's cold.

Guaranteed to heat your whole house

All you need is enough cellar excavation to accommodate the furnace. I not only give you my personal guarantee of satisfaction but also Gilson's of Guelph will stand back of me. This proven heating plant also leaves the cellar fine and cool—you can store vegetables alongside it, if need be, without harm.

The Most Phenomenal Success in the Heating Business in Canada

Only placed on the market a year ago, the Gilson furnace has had an astounding success. It has taken the trade by storm. Over 400 of the best hardware men and tinsmiths in Ontario alone—men who KNOW furnaces—have taken on the Gilson because it appeals to them as the best heating plant made.

Here are Some of the Reasons Why:—

- (1) A real cast-iron furnace—fire pot, feed section and radiator are heavier in construction than in any other furnace I know of.
- (2) Burns coal or wood. A splendid furnace for soft coal. Big roomy door makes it ideal for burning wood.
- (3) GUARANTEED FOR TWENTY-FIVE YEARS—The broadest and longest guarantee given with any furnace. Two-piece fire pot, straight-walled to prevent ashes lodging against the side and deadening the heat radiation.
- (4) Triangular duplex grates, easy to shake, and big roomy ashpit.
