Political Browbeating.

Lloyd George Threatens to Resign --- Irish Provisional Government Greatly Strengthened --- Attempts to Interrupt Transport Traffic in South Africa --- New Egyptian Ministry Formed.

LYDD GEORGE THREATENED RESIGNATION.

LONDON, March 1. Premier Lloyd George has thus far made no public threat to resign, but has done so definitely to Austen Chamberlain and other Union leaders. The action is in the nature of a protest against the tactics which have been employed by extreme Tories to undermine his power in the Coalition Government. If the Premier presides at his resignation it will be merely personal resignation and not the resignation of the Government. The report in a London daily that the Premier had threatened to resign because of the warfare against him by the Unionists has caused much speculation on the political situation. Some time ago there was talk of Lloyd George forming a centre party, with the assistance of Winston Churchill, Lord Beaverbrook and others, but the results of the by-elections suggest that Lloyd George will not resign unless his position becomes absolutely untenable, and that Chamberlain will not allow extreme Unionists to carry their tactics against the Premier too far. Premier Lloyd George is expected to-night to meet the Liberal Ministers in his apartment when it is understood that the political situation was gone over.

GRIFFITHS IN CONTROL.

DUBLIN, March 1. Numerous clashes occurred again today in Dal Eireann and feeling high. De Valera concluded to resign for recognition of "Dail's" supremacy, but the Ministers of the Provisional Government held firmly that they were supreme and responsible to the Irish people. The dispute continues to show that Griffiths is in control and the opinion as to the proceedings so far have remained the hands of the Provisional Government.

REPUBLICAN ARMY WILL NOT INTERFERE IN COMING ELECTIONS.

DUBLIN, March 1. The arrangements for the protection of Irish interests made between the Provisional Government and the Republican Army, were announced by Richard Mulcahy, Minister of Defence, at this forenoon's meeting of the Provisional Government. The Minister stated that the Republican Army would act to safeguard the military posts controlled by the British troops, but agreed not to interfere with the election with the Anglo-Irish dispute as the issue, and to abide by the results. The greater part of the day was occupied with answering questions which cabinet ministers were propounded for the purpose of backing and harrasing the terms of the treaty party. Bitterness was again displayed and party lines were closely drawn.

RECIPROcity BE REVIVED!

WASHINGTON, March 1. W. S. Fielding, Canadian Minister of Finance, had a private audience with President Harding today and there is much speculation as to whether he sought to revive the reciprocity issue. The opinion here is that immediate steps towards reciprocity are unlikely, but that Fielding may bring about a better understanding regarding tariff matters between the two countries.

COAL AGREEMENT REACHED.

MONTREAL, March 1. The British Empire Steel Corporation and representatives of 15,000 miners of Nova Scotia, today reached a tentative agreement covering wages and working conditions. The details of which will be submitted to the miners for ratification, but it is expressed that it will be acceptable and assure industry in the coal fields for some ment abolishing the British Protectorate.

TO HELP EACH OTHER. OTTAWA, March 1. Plans are being made to give timely and effective help to ex-service men emigrating from one part of the Empire to another. Field-Marshal Earl Haig stated in a letter, reviewing the work of the British Empire Service Association of which he is President, to the Dominion President of the Great War Veterans Association, the headquarters of the League, which represents 8,000,000 men, have been established at 48 Grosvenor Square, London.

ATHLONE BARRACKS TRANSFERRED.

BELFAST, March 1. Commandant General McKeown at the head of five hundred men of the Irish Republican Army, took over Athlone Military Barracks from the British military yesterday, in the name of the Provisional Government. Ten thousand people witnessed the formalities and cheered enthusiastically when the new guard was posted and the tricolour hoisted over the castle.

STRIKE AVERTED.

NEW YORK, March 1. Morning newspapers published in this city appeared in abbreviated form to-day because of the controversy arising from the pressman's wage arbitration award, made on February 22nd, by Judge Martin of the U.S. Court of Appeals. A meeting of the local Pressmen's Union called to order at eight o'clock last night, did not adjourn until late this morning, so the publishers were forced to print only eight pages. The meeting, reported to be stormy, resulted in the Union agreeing to abide by Judge Martin's award, and union members were ordered to return to work in the press rooms and to report for duty hereafter at regular hours. Judge Martin's decision fixed $51 and $45 as pay for day pressmen in charge and journeymen respectively, and $54 and $48 for night pressmen, in charge and journeymen.

U.S. GOVERNMENT AND MERCHANT MARINE.

WASHINGTON, March 1. A Government plan for aid to the American Merchant Marine was presented to Congress to-day by President Harding with the declaration that the influence of the United States in the World's Councils is "sure to be measured by that unflinching standard which is found in a Nation's Merchant Marine." His message endorsed the subsidy plan proposed by the Shipping Board and it was subsequently introduced in both Houses. The plan provides for a subsidy of about $32,000,000 annually to be paid American shipowners by diversion of ten per cent. of the nation's customs receipts to that purpose.

NICKEL

Enjoyable Programme at the Nickel.

Yesterday's holiday show at the Nickel attracted large audiences. Miss Ruth Chase, the charming soprano, gave excellent renditions of "Ave Maria" and "Thank God for a Garden." Mr. George Dale delighted his hearers with "There is No Death" and "Somewhere a Voice is Calling," which he sang with the usual expression and deep appeal.

An unusually appealing story of love and conflict is unfolded in "The World and His Wife," which opened at the Nickel last night. The picture was adapted from the stage play of the same name, in which William Faversham starred successfully some time ago. Alma Rubens, the pretty screen star is the featured player in the screen version. The story deals with a clash between false gossip and true love. Fedora, the central figure, is a young Spanish girl, who marries a rich man older than herself. A young writer comes to live with them, and evil rumours are circulated regarding Fedora and him. A dual results, followed by a series of dramatic events that finally clear the air.

L. O. A. Charity Concert.

HANDSOME SUM REALIZED.

Last night a very enjoyable entertainment took place at Victoria Hall under the auspices of the L.O.A. Mutual & Relief Committee. Mr. Kenneth Ruby performed the duties of Chairman and following his opening remarks the programme as follows, was rendered:—

Piano Solo—Mr. Walker.
Duet—Mrs. Fry and Miss Driscoll.
Solo—Mrs. Garland.
Spoon Exercise—Messrs. H. Whitten and H. LeShano.
Recitation—Miss Brushett.
Cornet Selection—Messrs. Noseworthy and Driscoll.
Spoon and Mouth Organ Selection—A. George and T. Tapper.
Solo—Mr. Noseworthy.
Violin and Piano Selection—Miss Heister and Messrs. Bishop.
Song—Miss Redstone.
Recitation—Mr. G. McDonald.
Dialogue—"Wanted a General Servant."

The different items received the hearty applause of the audience which filled the hall to overflowing. At the close of the concert delicious teas were served by the Ladies Auxiliary. The affair which proved a decided success closed with the National Anthem. The proceeds of the entertainment exceeded expectations.

FROSTILLA
FOR CHAPPED HANDS ROUGH SKIN

Holiday Bill at the Crescent.

Despite the weather man's vengeance the Crescent Theatre was largely attended last night, when Eddie McGinley appeared in another change of vaudeville. Eddie returned to the blackface character yesterday and caused fun in galore. His renditions of "Ma, He's Kissing Me" was one continuous scream. His jokes were all new originals. Eddie cragged some good ones in connection with the Carnival which took place on Tuesday night. For his closing item he gave that very popular novelty song "Tuck Me to Sleep in My Old Tucky Home." A single character act such as Eddie McGinley does is no easy task, as it is not very difficult to perform with a partner, but Eddie plays his part single-handed with marked ease and comfort. Hear him to-night at the Crescent and enjoy a good hearty laugh.

Fads and Fashions.

Colored silk laces are exactly right for the spring evening gowns. Brilliant embroidery characterizes the lower half of many skirts. The laced basque and circular skirt are used for frocks of tulle. The notched shawl collar characterizes the coat of the practical suit. Frequently one finds a cape made with a vest and a high collar of fur. Satin-back crepe is a new material used for making afternoon frocks. A dinner hat of yellow cape is trimmed with great bunches of black grapes. Caracul fur is used on dinner gowns, often to weigh panels of chiffon. A gown of silk rep in a soft coral color has a girde of coral and diamonds. Black or white combined with silver is a favorite combination for evening gowns. Stripes and plaids, developed in brilliant colors, are shown in the crepe materials. The strap slippers should be worn with light colored stockings, in "nude" or gray. Cascade panels, placed at the right, are frequently seen on evening or dinner gowns. The tailleur for spring is cut straight, blouse, and belted at a very low waistline. Paris predicts a return of the strapless pumpkin patent leather trimmed with steel. An evening wrap of black crepe roman has edges weighed with soft velvet flowers. Wide sleeves and the bateau neckline are used together on many of the newest frocks. Stafford's Phorotone, best for Coughs and Colds, 35c. per bit. Jan 4, 11

What is Your Verdict!

Is it not safe to assume that the Ford Motor Company of Canada, Limited, who manufacture in their own huge perfectly equipped plant practically every part of the Ford car, are the people best qualified to make replacement parts at the lowest price compatible with the high quality which must be maintained?

Manufacturers of spurious parts, operating as they do on a small scale with limited capital and inadequate equipment, cannot possibly make parts of the same quality or accuracy at anywhere near the low price you have to pay for Genuine Ford Parts. Yet you are asked to believe that these spurious parts not only equal Genuine Ford Parts in quality but can be produced to sell for less!

We rest our case here. The verdict we leave to you.

INFLUENZA JAUNDICE.

WARSAW, March 2. A new kind of influenza, with complication of jaundice, has made its appearance in Poland. The disease is particularly virulent along eastern borders, where refugees are pouring in by thousands daily from Russia. The mortality rate is high.

POLITICAL COMPLICATIONS.

LONDON, March 2. Either an early general election or the resignation of Premier Lloyd George will be the upshot of the present political crisis, it is generally believed. The apparently widening breach in the Conservative party, together with a consistent gain in the strength of the Liberals, under former Premier Asquith, and Laborites, as evidenced in recent bye-elections, have forced these alternatives on the Premier. Mr. Lloyd George is understood to have served notice in his letter to J. Austen Chamberlain that Sir George Younger, leader of the Conservative secessionists, who recently attacked the Premier in the House of Commons, must go or he will step down from office. Sir George Younger's tactics have met with disfavor among a considerable section of the party, especially with Mr. Chamberlain and Lord Chancellor Birkenhead, the latter publicly voicing his disapproval in a recent speech. In this connection some significance is attached to a report that Younger may resign from the House and be elevated to the peerage.

Women Smugglers in Big Liners.

Smuggling by passengers and others arriving at Southampton in the big liners from the United States and South Africa, and in steamers plying between that port and the Continent, is increasing to such an extent that the Customs officials are experiencing the greatest difficulty in dealing with it, says the Daily Mail. A warehouse at the docks is congested with a great medley of seized goods. Crates and loose bottles of choice liquors, champagne, and perfume from France are piled high amid motor parts, films and watches from the United States, and in huge cupboards are stacked great quantities of cigars, cigarettes, and tobacco. Other cupboards contain glittering arrays of bottles, whisky, brandy, rum, and gin, the original owners of which had attempted to smuggle them into the United States. Some of this haul was detected and sent back to Southampton from New York, but much of it was stopped in ships about to sail from Southampton.

Mr. A. W. Scarlett, waterguard superintendent at Southampton, says: "The smuggling is far worse than before the war, because the very much increased duties make it a far greater temptation. The running of spirits to America has become particularly serious. It seems to be quite a trade. The shipping companies are doing all they can to help us stop it, for they themselves are heavily fined if spirits are found coming off their vessels."

Bottles of champagne have been discovered carried in baggy trousers. One man recently searched had a foreign watch in each of his ten pockets. Women are often far more daring than men in trying to evade the Customs. The carrying of bottles of scent in their bosoms is a favourite practice.

Bluebeard in the Flesh.

French annals state that "Bluebeard" (Gilles de Laval, Seigneur de Retz), said one to have been Marshal of France—a successful military commander, commenced, when 37 years of age, the horrible course of living which brought infamy on his name. Through inheritance he became the richest subject in France. But his great fortune was the cause of his ruin. Forsaking the old way of life, he plunged into a course of debauchery and profligacy which rapidly diminished his wealth. It is said he maintained a guard of honor of 200 horsemen, and his suite (of 50 persons) comprised chaplains, choristers, musicians, pages and servants, most of whom were accomplices. Yet he affected great pomp and magnificence in religious ceremonies. His chancel was hung with cloth of gold and silk, the sacred vessels were of gold and enriched with precious stones. His chaplains were clothed in scarlet robes adorned with pearls, and bore the titles of dean, archbishop and bishop, and he even went the length of sending a deputy to the Pope to ask permission to have a cross carried before him. The lives he sacrificed were those of children. In the majority of cases the bodies were burned, but the remains of more than 125 victims were found, but how many all together came to their death at his hands was never clearly known.

Where It's Always Cold.

There has been no other invention in the world that has become so much used in so short a time as the refrigerator.

To-day we could not live without it, for our immense system of food transport is based on the cold-storage principle.

Cold-storage rooms are fitted in all food ships. These rooms are specially constructed to prevent heat passing in from outside, their walls being partly hollow, and partly filled with sawdust or glass-wool.

The room is made cold by means of a system of iron pipes fixed to the roof. A refrigerating machine pumps cold brine—a mixture of salt and water—through the pipes, keeping the liquid at a temperature of about ten degrees below freezing point.

When the cold-storage room has been filled for the voyage, the doors are shut, and are not opened again until the ship reaches its destination. Before the doors are shut a search is always made round the compartment to see that no one is left inside, for once the door is closed it is impossible to hear any sound through the double walls.

On one occasion a stowaway hid in one of the stores, not knowing it was a refrigerator, and probably thinking it an excellent place to hide in. He was not found until six weeks later, frozen to death, looking like a wax figure.

Fruit, such as apples, is never frozen, but stored at a temperature two degrees above freezing point. The moisture in the fruit would freeze, you see, and as it swelled it would burst the fruit. Then when it thawed, the fruit would collapse or msh.

The atmosphere in the room is a dense white fog due to the moisture in the air solidifying and floating about. Sometimes the fog settles out, and the whole place is suddenly subjected to a miniature snowstorm.

It's Flavor that Makes the Meal!

And the sauces that the Libby chefs have adapted for you give flavor to the simplest dishes.
 It may be eggs, or macaroni, or a cheap cut of meat—an unusual and delicious sauce will make it something you eat with delight and remember with pleasure—because of its flavor.
LIBBY'S CATCHUP and CHILI SAUCE are made from red, ripe tomatoes, grown in the fertile soil of Kent County, Ontario, picked when they are mellowed by the sunshine of long summer days, then rushed to the nearby Libby kitchen.

Here in sunny rooms the tomatoes are cooked with fragrant spices, onions, sugar and the best vinegar—cooked for hours until all the flavors are blended through and through.

Now the sauce is ready to give an appetizing relish to your steaks and chops, or a new piquancy to the meat gravy you serve with your roasts.

Your grocer has, or can get you, Libby's Catchup or Chili Sauce. Use it with your cold meat teas and note how quickly the second helping is necessary.

The delightful flavor of Libby's Beans is due largely to the wonderful Sauce prepared by the skilled chefs. Have you tried them?

Drastic Dentistry.

HOW THEY EXTRACT TEETH IN TIBET.

London. (Associated Press).—The Dalai Lama of Tibet, the religious and secular head of that secluded country has to work harder than the average British or American business man. He gets up at 4 o'clock in the morning and labors until midnight, notwithstanding the fact that he is unquestionably the "big boss."

Sir Charles Bell, a British political officer in India, who has just returned after a year's residence in the romantic "forbidden city" of Lhasa, the Tibetan capital, says the Dalai Lama is a wonderful personality. Sir Charles is one of the few Europeans who have mastered the Tibetan language and this helped him to become friendly with the head of all Tibet.

"He paid me the honor of inviting me into the forbidden enclosure of his country palace," said Sir Charles.

"This was a little wonderland of flowers, birds and wild animals—a hidden retreat where he gives deep thought both to his religious and state affairs. Hundreds of canaries were singing here, and there were also stags, pheasants and a great tiger from Bengal."

The climate was intensely cold when Sir Charles arrived, and for days the temperature indoors never rose above freezing point. The place of window glass, Tibetans used a sort of wax cloth. It lets the wind in, but they are a hardy race and do not appear to feel the discomfort of the cold.

"Mutton, yak beef and pork are the staple diet," Sir Charles went on. "Tibetans do not like either chickens or eggs."

"They do not sleep on beds but on the floor, on which are placed large downy cushions. You lie on top of these and fold them over you. They are very comfortable and warm."

"There is an official date for winter to begin and end, and the fur hat and other warm garments ordained for officials are invariably worn without regard to weather conditions between those dates. However comfortable the official may be with the fur hat April 25 or without it after that date, he would never dream of departing from the sartorial convention in public for five minutes. The etiquette of the people is very elaborate and strict."

"There are, practically speaking, no police, no firemen, and no wheeled traffic in Lhasa. If a man suffers from toothache, he goes with a few friends on to the flat roof of his house. His friends bring a big stone, round which they fasten a string. The string is then tied to the bad tooth, and the stone dropped over the roof top. Two or three friends hold on to the patient to prevent him from going over too."

Willing to Meet Winner of Gibbons Greb Bout.

New York.—"Jack Dempsey will gladly meet the winner of the Tom Gibbons-Harry Greb bout in Madison Square Garden provided either man shows sufficient ability to warrant such a match," declared Jack Kearns, the champion's manager. "We're not looking for anything 'soft' mind you, but then everybody ought to be 'soft' for a world's champion, don't you think?"

"On the level, nobody is more anxious to see a real contender develop than we are. This fellow Gibbons is big enough and has a healthy enough wallop, according to all reports, to give Jack a contest. However, we'll have to wait and see how he does with Greb."

"Personally, I'm afraid Greb is too small for Dempsey, but then you never can tell. Sometimes a little fellow is harder to fight than a big man. Look at what little Joe Walcott did to the heavyweights in his time. And they were good heavyweights too."

"We are not anxious to leave the United States, but business is business, and we are tired of remaining practically idle. If we don't get a suitable offer here we'll be forced to go abroad and take one of the offers over there."

Chinese Pirates Pillage Steamers.

Shanghai. (Canadian Press).—Chinese shipping companies, lacking government protection from pirates who have been seizing and looting ocean going vessels in buccaneer style, have taken to arming their ships and placing details of guards aboard.

No trace has been found of one pirate band, 30 in number, whose members shipped in the guise of passengers aboard the steamer Kwang-lee from Shanghai to Hong Kong, last December, and when a day out from Hong Kong, rushed the ship, imprisoned the officers and crew and looted the vessel and its passengers of valuables estimated worth $120,000 Mexican.

Two weeks after the Kwang-lee episode the steamer Hsingha was attacked by pirates, between Hong Kong and Shan Mi. The marauders Fishers' Protest.

SCOTCH ANGER WHEN GERMAN CATCH IS LANDED.

The Elise Kunkell, a German steam trawler, landed a catch of white fish at Aberdeen. The trawler is the first ex-enemy fishing vessel to discharge at a British port since 1914.

Every previous German effort to land catches had failed. Frequently at Scottish and English ports fish workers had refused to handle the catches. The Elise Kunkell was successful because the fish porters had earned little for many weeks owing to the storms, and desired to "sink their principles to get a bite of dinner."

The unloading of the German trawler was witnessed by fishermen and other workers, who protested angrily. At a meeting which was held later it was agreed to take steps to prevent a repetition of the incident.

After Many Years

By the Railway Contract of 1898, it was provided that the Contractor should "furnish additional rolling stock, equipment and accommodation, as fast as, and of such quantity and of such description as the developing and increasing business of the railway may require, so that the traffic requirements of the Colony may be fully met."

From the foregoing it will be seen that the price which the Contractor agreed in 1898 to pay for the Railway, was not only the million dollars which he paid over at that time, but also the full amount of the additions and improvements which should prove to be necessary for the Railway during the period of fifty years.

MINISTER OF POSTS REPLIES TO CRITICISMS.

"If we had no mail train service, of course arrangements would have been made, as in the olden days, for transportation by horse or dog team, but the Department, not having any special gift of prophecy as to weather conditions, could not foresee what was likely to happen in connection with the transportation of mails, and if horses had been on the road with mails, and the trains were running at the same time, the general public would criticize the Department for wasting money and delaying mails."

Hon. W. W. Halyard, Minister of Posts and Telegraphs, made the above statement to the Telegram to-day in reply to certain criticisms levelled at his department in connection with Conception Bay mails. Mr. Halyard said that advantage was taken of every available opportunity to get mails through to the isolated districts. When possible, mails were sent by air. Too much dependence was placed on the optimistic reports concerning the branch line service, which were received from the Reid Nfld. Co. An extra regular mail service during the winter would mean an increased expenditure of several thousands of dollars.

Portia Reaches Port.

MEETS WITH HEAVY ICE.

Capt. Connors of S.S. Portia, which arrived at 1 p.m. from the Western Coastal Service, reports the heaviest ice he has ever seen. Both Placentia and St. Mary's Bays are frozen solid and ice conditions have practically put a stop to the West Coast fishery. The Portia had a fairly stormy trip and was delayed for over two days at Burin by ice. She made the run from Bay Bulls to St. John's in two hours. The ship brought the following cabin passengers:—Messrs. W. Mead, J. T. Moulton, Capt. Pétite, H. F. Giovanetti, J. L. Giovanetti, W. Lever, H. H. Small, H. A. Crossman, J. Hanham, A. Baird, J. E. Patten, M. Forsay, E. J. L. Stephen, M. Fishman, W. Parsons, W. Collins, G. A. Bartlett, T. Cheeseman, J. Abbott, Jas. Abbott, Moulton, G. Hollett, R. Hollett, Riggs, R. Burton, M. F. Powers, F. Goodridge, Mesdames Rowsell, Collins, Misses Rose, Wounded, Bartlett, and 51 steerage.

Air Mail Subsidies.

A small subsidy is being paid Major Cotton by the Postal Department, for carrying mails by air. This subsidy is paid out of the proceeds of the Halifax Air Stamps which netted the Post Office $4,000. The Ministry of Posts cannot consider a permanent aerial mail service as the cost would be too great.

Train Notes.

McMurdo's Store News.

THURSDAY, March 2. At this time of year chilblains are more common than popular, and cause their possessors a good deal of suffering. Schoolboys and girls are much subject to chilblains. The use of Uce O Chilblain Lintment will in the case of unbroken chilblains, give prompt and effective relief; if the chilblains are broken, Uce O Ointment is the proper thing to soothe the pain and itching and to heal them in short time. It is always better, however, to use the Chilblain Lintment as soon as the blains appear, and by this means to prevent their going in to the second or "broken" stage. In all cases the general health should be attended to, and McMurdo's Parust's Syrup (35c. a bottle) is excellent to build up the blood and improve the circulation. The price of Uce O Chilblain Lintment is 40c.; of Uce O Ointment 25c. a box.

The Prince's Rink will not be open this afternoon.

Sealing Deadlock.

NO SETTLEMENT YET.

There has been no break of the deadlock now existing between the marine engineers and the sealing ship owners. The latter say they are willing to take a fair share of the risk attending sending the ships to the ice. In the engineers' demands the proposition is "heads I win tail you lose" for the owners say they are satisfied to give either a percentage share of shore wages plus an ordinary share, but the engineers will accept before sailing which they will have. They, it is claimed, want the option when the ship returns to port. The scale paid during the past three years was the same as paid to the captain, namely 2 per cent. if the gross returns of the steamer's catch amounts to $20,000; 3 per cent on $30,000 and 4 per cent on $40,000 or over. The regular monthly meeting of the engineers takes place to-night, when it is hoped that some satisfactory arrangement will be reached.

Chapel's Cove Larceny.

FATHER AND SON SENTENCED—PRETENDED DISTRESS.

Thomas and Edward Ezekiel, father and son, were given heavy sentences in the Magistrate's Court this morning, when they appeared before Judge Morris charged with larceny at Chapel's Cove. The father, whose second offence it was, and who had influenced the son to help him commit the larceny, was given twelve months with hard labor. Edward Ezekiel was fined $100 or six months, as it was his first offence. The larceny is that referred to in the recent despatch to the Telegram from Dr. Jones, of Avondale. The accused went at midnight to the store of James Conran, five miles from their home, and after forcing an entrance, took away two barrels of flour, two tubs of butter and 390 lbs. of beef and pork, on their elids. The total value of the goods stolen was $30. Constables Devine and Gronchy investigated the larceny and as a result of their enquiries, fastened the guilt upon the Ezekiels. Edward Ezekiel, when the four was found in his pantry, at first claimed it had been bought but when questioned further, admitted his guilt. All the witnesses for the Crown stated that the accused were in good circumstances, and had some property. That of the older Ezekiel was worth $600. His plea of necessity consequent upon destitution was therefore pretence. The constables who made the arrest, were advised to bring their prisoners on here for trial, as Magistrate O'Toole was not in Harbor Main at the time. The Judge, in passing sentence, said that the accused were as well off as their neighbors, and if every man sought relief in the same way law and order would be destroyed.

Workmen Are Warned.

By the Kyle yesterday letters were received by gentlemen in this city from Mr. D. Gillis, Secretary of the Miners Committee at New Waterford, Cape Breton, which said that work had been made to arrange for some five or six hundred men from this country to be put to work at the mines in Cape Breton in place of the workmen now on strike there. The letters said there were hundreds of these miners belonging to Sydney and the smaller mining towns now out of work, and that they would strongly resist any attempt to put Newfoundlanders in their places in the mines, and therefore warned these gentlemen to advise people from this country against coming over to Cape Breton seeking work at the collieries.

Carbonear Protesters Postal Indifference.

Special to Evening Telegram. CARBONEAR, To-day. Within two days easy travel of St. John's, and no daily mail or newspapers for a fortnight, excepting small letter mail by airplane, for which we were grateful to Major Cotton, and excuses wanted for the giving of relief work, scores of people would have been glad of an opportunity to earn some food for their families in this way. Why did not the press suggest to the Richards "hikers" that they take in Carbonear, and bring along a few newspapers. The public are disgusted with the indifference displayed by the Government and Postal officials.

(Why not wake up the member for Carbonear, and have him get busy in respect to the matter complained of, which is serious enough in all conscience.—Editor Telegram.)

Obituary.

CATHERINE FAHEY. By the death of Mrs. Catherine Fahey which occurred on Ash Wednesday, Bay Bulls has lost one of its best known and respected residents. Born and reared in this city she has a host of friends who will hear of her death with heartfelt sympathy, for she possessed qualities which are found in none but the just. Though of a retiring disposition she was always ready with a cheerful word for those who needed it and always accepted her own share of worldly troubles with a smile. Labouring unselfishly in this life for her family she has had the consolation of her one great ambition in seeing all her children reared before going to her eternal rest. Though living a quiet and unassuming life she has performed many an act of charity, and leaves an indelibly implanted epitaph to her memory in the example of her life to her family and a wide circle of friends. She was also well known and highly respected by the people of Placentia, Olerin, and in the district of St. John's, having lived in each of those places during her husband's term of office there. Her passing though not unexpected, comes as a great shock to the family and friends. The knowledge that the day of her death was symbolical of her life, one of humility and prayer, is a consolation to those who mourn. True to the traditions of the grand Irish race from which she descended, her one great characteristic was complete resignation and submission to the Divine will of Him who has now seen fit to call her to her eternal reward.—Com.

Shipping Notes.

S.S. Mapledawn arrived in port at 3 a.m. 88 hours from Louisburg. The ship reports aloft ice all the way along. The Mapledawn brought a fair freight but no mail. S.S. Dighty left Liverpool yesterday for this port.

The Prince's Rink will not be open this afternoon.

TELLING FORTUNES BY CARDS.

(From the Sovereign Magazine)

GENERAL INFORMATION.
 When a number of court cards fall together it is a sign of hospitality, festive social intercourse, and gaiety of all kinds.

Married people who seek to read the cards must represent their own life-partner by the king or queen of the suit they have chosen for themselves regardless of anything else. For example, a very dark man, the King of Spades, must consider his wife represented by the Queen of Spades.

Bachelors and spinsters may choose cards to personate their lovers and friends.

A court card placed between two cards of the same grade—for instance, two nines, two sevens, etc.—shows that the one represented by that card is threatened.

Should a military man consult the King of Diamonds he must always be represented by the King of Diamonds.

It is always essential to cut cards with the left hand, there being a long-established idea that it is more intimately connected with the heart than the right. A round table is generally preferred by those who are in the habit of practising cartomancy. It is a matter of opinion as to whether the cards speak with the same clearness and accuracy when consulted by the inquirer without a fortune-teller. The services of an expert are generally supposed to be of great advantage, even when people have mastered the rudiments of cartomancy themselves.

TELLING ONE'S FORTUNE WITH TWENTY-ONE CARDS.

THE ITALIAN METHOD.
 Thirty-two cards are actually required for this method, although only 21 of them are used. After shuffling the cards, and cutting with the left hand, the fortune-teller counts off the first 11 cards and lays them aside. From the 21 which are left he takes the top card and lays it apart, then he lays out the other 20 on the table before him. One card must represent the inquirer, either a knave or a queen according to the sex. If this card is not among the 20 cards on the table the pack must be dealt over again. The meaning of the cards must then be considered; if any set of 2, 3, or more of a kind occur their meaning should be read also, as it may modify the general interpretation of the rest. The 20 cards should be read from left to right continuously to let each card continue the meaning of the one before. The cards must then be put together again and shuffled and cut as before. The top card is again laid aside and the others divided into 3 packs, of which 2 contain 7 cards each and the last only 6 cards. The inquirer chooses one of the packs, which is next turned with the face up, and one after the other the cards are to be read according to their significance. This operation must be repeated 3 times.

The following will give an example of how these cards are to be manipulated:

Let us take the Knave of Clubs as representing the inquirer, and the 21 cards selected are the following in their regular order: King of Spades, Queen of Hearts (reversed), Ace of Hearts, Knave of Clubs, Ace of Spades (reversed), Ace of Clubs, Knave of Hearts, King of Hearts, Queen of Spades (reversed), Nine of Hearts, Knave of Diamonds, Ten of Spades.

Ace of Diamonds (reversed), King of Diamonds, Seven of Diamonds, Eight of Diamonds, Eight of Spades (reversed), Seven of Clubs (reversed), Nine of Clubs (reversed), Nine of Diamonds. The Surprise placed apart.

On examining this list carefully we find there are 4 Aces, which indicate danger and financial loss. The fact that one of them is reversed shows the trouble is somewhat lightened.

There are 3 Kings, which indicate that important matters will be undertaken and carried through successfully by the inquirer.

There are 2 Queens, both reversed, which show that the young man may suffer through his own faults.

There are 3 Knaves, which mean more worries and vexations through which the inquirer's honour may be at stake.

Three Nines, however, are indicative of happiness and wealth, although there will be difficulties to overcome.

The 2 Eights indicate some love interest and flirtation.

And the 2 Sevens speak of mutual love and marriage, although one being reversed adds an element of regret.

We will now follow the cards as they lie before us from left to right:

The King of Spades is an unscrupulous man who is a dangerous enemy and will cause trouble.

The Queen of Hearts, reversed, speaks of a woman who, while good-natured, has had an unlucky love affair and on whom the inquirer has set his heart.

The Ace of Hearts indicates that a love-letter containing good news will be sent to her by the inquirer.

The Knave of Clubs, a clever young fellow, is mixed up in the affair, but some grief may affect his health as indicated by the Ace of Spades, while the Ace of Clubs, coming immediately after, shows that this sorrow may have something to do with money matters.

The 3 court cards which follow are indicative of a good time in which the inquirer will have to deal with the Knave of Hearts, who is a young bachelor devoted to enjoyments, the King of Hearts, a man of generous disposition, and the Queen of Spades, reversed, a dark, intriguing woman.

The Nine of Hearts shows that the inquirer will have good luck and pleasure, but the Knave of Diamonds, following immediately after, shows that an untrustworthy friend is trying to bring him to trouble.

The Ten of Spades means considerable worry and is followed by the Ace of Diamonds, reversed, which also indicates bad tidings in which the King of Diamonds, an old soldier with a deceitful turn of mind and who has a grievance against the inquirer, will have recourse to scandal and slander, as indicated by the Seven of Diamonds.

Next comes the Eight of Diamonds, which shows that the inquirer will indulge in love-making, but he is in for considerable worry, as his offer of marriage will be rejected.

The Seven of Clubs tells him that money matters will also cause worry until the Nine of Clubs, reversed, indicates that a gift of money will relieve the situation somewhat. However, there will still be vexatious hindrances, as indicated by the Nine of Diamonds.

The "Surprise" may now be turned up and contains, let us say, the King of Clubs—a warm-hearted, true friend, straight in his dealings, through whom happiness and prosperity may come to the inquirer.

Just Folks
 WINTER.
 It seems so dead out there to-day. The snow lies deep about the place; The ground whereon the children play Has lost its touch of charm and grace.

What was a garden, now is bare, The rose stalks flutter to and fro, There is no hint that life is there, Beneath the drifted ice and snow.

The sparrows twitter in the tree, But otherwise no sound is heard, Where used to ring the minstrelsy Of many a golden-throated bird.

I gaze across this barren waste Of beauty held in winter's clutch, I note the lines of sorrow traced By desolation's cruel touch, "Suppose," unto myself, I say, "This garden bleak and cold and bare, Were doomed forever thus to stay And never rose should blossom there?"

But all this ugliness must pass And ice and snow must vanish soon; Springing shall awake the slumbering grass, The roses shall return in June.

So with this faith through life I'd go, Meeting my care as winter's sting, Knowing that all the ice and snow Must vanish with the birth of spring.

Fashions and Fads.
 The panel skirt is favored among Parisian designers. A kasha frock in cream color is trimmed with white silk. The full, scalloped skirt is the favored one for the dance frock. Shoulder capes, added to suits, are new in the world of Fashion. In bouffant dance frocks net is used much over satin for the skirt.

WITH BRIGHTER SKIES Come New SPRING THINGS

Like the early spring buds and the first flights of returning birds, we too are showing many signs of returning Spring.

Newfoundlander
 Ord...
 A very impressive and solemn ceremony took place at Holy Trinity, Halifax, on Sunday, Feb. 19th, when His Lordship Bishop Pison, of Antigonish, ordained priesthood Rev. W. J. Williams, Carbonate, Newfoundland. Williams at the Seminary Chapel was an unusual grandeur, showing all its pomp and splendor. The singing ceremonies of the Catholic Church. The chapel was so packed that the singing room for more was thereby showing what a number of friends the rev. young man has made during his five and a half years' absence. His Mother, St. Bonaventura's College, also join in the singing of hymns for now another link has been added to that glorious chain, to the line of priests numbered in the school register at one time or another.

The young priest is the son of Louis Williams, the popular energetic Superintendent of the Towns Electric Company of the Car. Nfld. After a brief holiday, Williams will return home to the noble and self-sacrificing labor of love to which he has dedicated his pure young life. The of Carbonate will be an aid in their hundreds to give him a royal welcome home after his absence. We fervently pray that he may be spared years rich with fruit in God's kingdom on earth.

A WELL WISHED.

West Coast Non-Unionist
 Editor Evening Telegram.
 Dear Sir,—I chanced upon one of the weekly Advocates of the West Coast and saw there a scrawl from a person who calls himself "West Unionist," so I trust you will not mind me for a few words in contradistinction. W.C.U. is what part of the West Coast is from, simply because there is a man that really belongs to the Coast who would write such a thing as Coaker is looked upon the worst kind of pestilence. W.C.U. would name any part, he knew he would be shown up as a failure. West Coast is near enough to and those who croak for him, there is any distress or poverty. The West Coast it can easily be ed to Coaker's interference. The price of fish before the Fish Regulations were enforced by the West Coast higher prices to fishermen to catch than could be had from Coaker or St. John's. It was Coaker and his adherents were out of the West Coast that preposterous thing as the fish regulations ever came into existence. Knowing that this rotten Act would ruin some of our coasters, I say that some of the West Coast Unionist kidney would like to into the shoes of those that iniquitous regulations caused the of. As there is a premises for sale here hence this business Coaker is doing such wonders as a depreciation in the Labrador fishery? Also where did the men to that worked on that road from nowhere to nowhere? Why so many of the northern men sort to pit prop cutting this order to keep from starting are doing so well under Coaker Coaker will have to preach a gospel than ridiculing the men before he can hoodwink the people of the West Coast. If West Coast Unionist wants to preach Coaker do so under a title by which may take stock in him, but drag the West Coast into the favouring of Coaker.

Thanking you, Mr. Editor for Yours truly,
 WEST COAST NON-UNIONIST

Blair's NEW SALE SYSTEM —of— "DIFFERENT SELLING"

MEANS BARGAIN PRICES FOR YOU.

Owing to changing and present conditions of business, we are considering this year running our merchandising and selling differently. Part of this change will be the cleaning up of goods of which we have an overstock, or goods the season of which is passing, at prices which will not necessarily mean any consideration of the cost of these goods. Customers will however note that all such prices can hardly be expected to be held indefinitely and they will do well to seek advantage of same early.

In our "Different Selling" Campaign we also aim to achieve other results which will be unfolded later.

We open our "Different Selling" Campaign with the following Reductions and Bargains:

- CORTICELLI WOOL in balls. Regular 25c., at 19c. ball
- LADIES' ENGLISH WOOL GLOVES.
Regular $1.25 and $1.35 pair, at 89c. and 99c. pair
- LADIES' BLACK FLEECE WOOL CASHMERE GLOVES.

HIS DIARY.

March 1st.—By the foreign despatches, it is made plain how Great Britain will abandon its protectorate of Egypt. Little news other than how the engineers do go out on strike, and very like to cause the sailing voyage to be abandoned. In the afternoon, to the club, where I play at billiards. In the night, out and to play at cards, to my great content. Then home and to do some work. So to bed.

Wrecked Crew Arrive.

CAPTAIN OF "ROSE M." TELLS HIS EXPERIENCE.

A graphic description of the thrilling experiences of himself and his crew, when his schooner the Rose M. went ashore at Fayal, in the Azores, was told by Capt. Kendrick on his arrival home. The vessel left Fogo on December 20th last, bound for Malaga with fish. When about 400 miles off the Newfoundland coast, heavy gales and high seas were encountered. The ship suffered severely, her canvas and boats were lost, and it was found necessary to jettison part of the cargo. Added to these misfortunes, the ship sprang a leak. Oil bags were ordered out, and the continuous use of these against the heavy seas kept the ship afloat for several weeks. The pumps were constantly kept going and after twenty days, when the vessel was off the Azores, it was decided to make for Fayal. By this time, the ship had become so waterlogged that she would not answer her helm and in thick weather she went ashore near Fayal Harbor. Boats from the shore took off the crew and brought them into Fayal. The crew of the Rose M. were well looked after and returned home via New York and Louisburg. They arrived here on the Kyle on Tuesday night.

Mldr. at Windsor

ADDRESSES AUDIENCE OF 7,000.

Newfoundlanders generally will be glad to learn that a son of the soil, Mr. James Hughes, formerly of North River, Conception Bay, but for the past 15 years a resident of Windsor, Ont., has succeeded well in the land of his adoption. Writing to the Telegram, Mr. Hughes gives an account of a lecture on Newfoundland and Labrador given by Dr. Grenfell. About 7,000 of the citizens of Windsor attended and the sum of two thousand dollars was donated to the mission. Mr. Hughes, who is the only Newfoundland resident in Windsor, was amongst those who addressed the audience.

Long Sea Voyages.

On March 2, 1910, the four-masted barque "Inverness-shire" sailed from Hamburg, bound for Santa Rosalia, in the Gulf of California. During a passage which included such incidents as her temporary abandonment by her crew in dread of her foundering, she was forced to put into the Falklands to rest, and sailed again on her interrupted voyage on September 27. From that time she was neither seen or heard of until she arrived safely at her destination on February 2, 1911, 338 days out from her original port of departure. The voyage of the "Inverness-shire" almost compares with the performances of the lumbering craft of earlier navigators. On November 13, 1887, the "Desire," under command of Thomas Cavendish, a gentleman of Suffolk, set sail from the headlands of California, for the English Channel. At break of day on June 8 of following year she fell in sight of the island of St. Helena; on July 3 she crossed the line, and after holding the brave trade winds to the limits of 40 degrees north latitude, reached the long-wished-for port of Plymouth on September 7, 1888. Not much better could be expected from the ships and their equipment. The sailing master of the "Desire" thought it worthy of record that, running merrily before the wind under all the sail she could carry, his vessel compassed 140 miles between noon and noon, a feat which would expose the modern shipmaster to the derision of his companions in every ship-chandler's shop of the ports he frequented. Among some extraordinary voyages made by deep-sea sailing craft within recent years, there may be mentioned that the "Beacon Rock," engaged on a short coastal trip between two Australian ports. After all hope of her safe arrival had been abandoned she turned up at Talca Huano, Chile, some 6,000 miles from her intended destination. Being in light trim and consequently with no grip on the water, she had been unable to make any progress against a persistent head wind and her master had been compelled to square yards and make a fair wind across the broad Pacific. The "Buteshire," also four-masted, had in 1910 the remarkable experience of circling around the windless Gulf of Panama like a circus-horse until she was obliged to put back ninety days out, and short of provisions, to her port of departure.

FUR BUYERS GONE.—Rev. Francis B. Boone and Mr. G. Silberman, who have been purchasing beaver furs from the Government "Skin" Department, left yesterday by the Kyle for Boston. Mr. T. E. Cloutier, Secretary to Hon. W. F. Cosker, left with them.

SIDE TALKS.

By Ruth Cameron.

IF WE COULD SKETCH THE HEROINE.

Do you notice the description of people in books? Do you get any definite picture of them or do you unconsciously make your own pictures?

We fell to talking the other day about the appearance of a character in one of the most popular books of the season. The hero has a wife who absolutely fails to understand or appreciate him. She is a perfect housekeeper and runs the home beautifully but she is absolutely out of sympathy with his whimsical, thoughtful temperament, and takes no interest in the business to which he is so ardently devoted. We were discussing the character of this woman and presently veered to a discussion of what we thought she looked like. And behold there were almost as many conceptions as there were talkers.

As we pictured her. One woman declared she was sure Mabel was a small, delicate looking person with very refined small features. Two others thought of her as large and blond. Where we got the impression none of us could tell, but all had a vague idea they came from a certain passage which described the hero watching her as she lay sleeping. I turned to this passage and found that the only words of description were "how utterly calm her face was, he moved with his finger across her hair that had fallen across her face." Not very definite, surely.

Later I did find a short passage of description and this was what it said: "She had rather a long nose and this pleased her for she had once read somewhere that long noses were aristocratic. She stroked her nose as she read. Her complexion was pale though this was perhaps exaggerated by her coloring which was dark. Her features were noticeably regular and noticeably refined though her eyes were the least bit inclined to be prominent."

Yet We Thought She Was Blond

Isn't it astonishing to find how little of that description had entered into our conception of the appearance of the character.

I suspect a great many of us have a way when we are reminded by a character's personality of someone we know of identifying the two in our own appearance also, and I don't wonder if that was what we were all doing with the unlovable Mabel.

And a remark in which I sometimes catch myself is this. The author says of his character that he or she has a certain feature that reminds us of someone we know—a single dimple on the left hand side of the face, a broad white forehead, a strong square jaw—and immediately we unconsciously give the character the person's whole appearance.

The Same Words Mean Different Things

Suppose a certain book had 100,000 readers and suppose each one were to be temporarily gifted with the power to sketch a picture of the heroine as he visions her, I imagine we should have 100,000 pictures, no two of them any more alike than any two people in a city of 100,000 inhabitants. Rather an interesting idea, don't you think, since each would theoretically draw his inspiration from the same words. One more testimonial to the dangerous elasticity of the written or spoken word.

TO-NIGHT'S SPORTS.

What The Rink Fan Says:

To-night! And all championships at hand! 0 Boy!!!

With the Guards, Church Lads, and Cadets coming together for the first time since before the war, and the 155 competitors! 25 centres for 15 events, three of them with the Terra Nova and Pelidians clubs and the B.L.S. and Clover Ladies' A.A. all striving for the Real Victor laurel trophy.—0 Boy! again!!!

The first item on the biggest and classiest athletic card ever produced in Newfoundland is the hockey match between this year's champions—the Pelidians—and the best octette that can be picked from the St. Bon's, Saints, and Terra Novas. Who comprise the City team? You must be curious, you must come down and see. Take my word for it, it's going to be some game—the best exhibition for the season.

By the way! Did you phone Bill McLean to put away those tickets for you? He's still got some choice ones left.

The next item is the Half Mile. The recognized champion of the 1921 season, George Squires, with R. Pearce, will wear the Guards' colours. And here's where the M.G.B.C. hang up their first 5 points on the trophy—at least their supporters say so—but the two speed kings of the Terras, Jack Canning and Ern Churchill, will of course have something to say on this point, as will N. Chafe of the Cadets and J. Bishop of the C.L.B. Then a whole host of Irishmen have to be seriously reckoned with, viz: McGrath, Phelan, Manning, Burton, Kavanagh and Caul. There are also three unattached athletes, Joyce, Bailey, and Hall.

It may be of interest to the old timers to recall that on this date 23 years ago Borgan and Hayward skated at the Parade Rink for the championship and a sidebet of $15. It was won by the former.

Following the half mile is the event that will tickle the hearts of the hockey fans and make us poor old married couples sit up. The ladies' quarter mile for the championship of Newfoundland finds entered, Misses Dorothy Sellars, Nellie Cooper, Margaret Lawlor, Stella Learning, Vera James, Eva Noonan, Gertrude Wiseman, Ida Allan, M. Johnstone, B. Squires, L. Thomas, and Rose Hart. We trust that this will be but the beginning of the activities of the fair sex in the realm of sport. We feel sure in prophesying that the race will be a very exciting one as the first lady champion skater of the Island is a title to be much coveted.

We are asked to request the lady competitors to please congregate at the ladies' dressing room, where Mr. Jack Higgins has been deputed by the Committee to attend to all their requirements.

Neither have the juniors been forgotten, and there is a title to be obtained to-night in the half mile for boys under 16. Hubert Vatcher, Jimmy Walsh, Mike Monahan from Mount Cashel, Ches Curtis, Albert Young, Gordon Carl, R. Knight, T. Thomas, Max Garland, B. Chacey, P. Werner, G. Bayley, Charles Rice, R. Stirling, A. Chown, P. Cotter, Colin Nicol, and that chip off the old block Bruce Chislett whose daddy won many a championship, will all compete, and 'tis a mean father who will refuse to furnish the wherewithal for his boys to see their chums in action to-night. The genial Registrar of Births, Mr. Will Martin, had a strenuous forenoon yesterday furnishing the required birth certificates.

With the exception of the plucky lads from the Royal Stores, Reid's evidently put the wind up in the rest of the Mercantile skaters, but the Post Office boys have entered Squires, Coulter, and Richards to wrest the laurels from the Reid officials, who will be represented by Jimmy Jacobs, Murray, and Corworthy. The Royals will have skating for them Bishop, Scott, and Kennedy. A unique feature of this event is that the three teams represent the East, Central, and West, respectively.

Although the doors will be open from 7 o'clock, it is as well to point out that the Sports do not begin until 8.30.

Then we come to what is considered among skate fans as the event of the evening—the 3 Mile Championship. Squires and his supporters are confident that he can successfully defend his laurels, but before making your bets it would be as well to give the once-over to the following starters:—Billy Barrett and F. Phillips for the C.L.B.; Jack Chancey, F. Corworthy, Jimmy Jacobs, and Eric Robertson for the Guards; Billy McGrath, Jack Bell (the champion runner), Tommy Woods (erstwhile champion of this event), J. Brown, Tommy Manning, and Pierre Corworthy for the B.L.S.; Ernie Churchill and Jack Canning for the Terra Novas; Chafe for the C.C.C.; and unattached, Burton, Joyce, Murray, Darcy, Ebbs, Lewis, Bayley, and Hall.

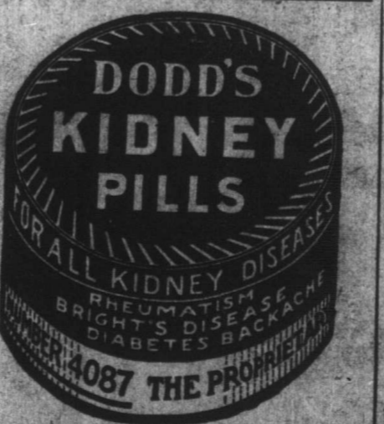

No athletic event would be complete without the Colleges being represented, and so we find a relay race with a silver cup as prize, which will be competed for by Withers, LeMessurier and Lloyd for the Bishop Field; Gus Power and the two Eagan boys for St. Bon's, and three from the Methodist College, whose names have not yet been handed in. This will be one of the most exciting events of the evening.

Following this is the Hockey League Relay for which the Pelidians, Terra Novas and St. Bon's have entered. As the games have been hard fought, so will this race, and no quarter will be given.

And remember, kind Reader, that the admission to all the above and 9 other events is only 25 cents! Evidently we are so keenly interested in you are and would love to see it too. And so would Bill and Jack and Mary and Doris. Being the whole lot of them along! Every quarter means a stone in the Memorial for those gallant gentlemen who sleep in Flanders' Fields where poppies grow.

Now come to be settled two muchly debated points, (1) whether the Parade or Prince's patrons are the fastest lady and gentleman skaters, and (2) and which particular pair is the speediest. Thus we find Mr. and Mrs. Lionel Norman, Miss Thomas and Mr. Burton, Miss Sellars and Mr. Caul, Miss Hart and Mr. Coulter, Miss D. James and Mr. Coxworthy, Miss Pike and Mr. Squires, Miss Squires and Mr. Scott, Miss Squires and Jim McGrath, Miss Nellie Cooper and Mr. Mark Marshall, Miss Vera James and Mr. Bayley, and Miss Noonan and Mr. Ebbs, all competing in the arm-in-arm. And we have it on good authority that Mister Dan Cupid has his quiver full of arrows for this.

A little humor now and then is relished by the best of men. And thus it is that the Memorial Sports Committee have very wisely injected into the more serious events just a little spice in the nature of a half mile walk on the ice. Now this is a feat that requires considerable skill especially when one is debarrered from wearing creepers, rubbers, or roughly shod boots. Young Bursell, who did so well in the A.A.A. event last year, is entered on behalf of the C.L.B. Old Comrades as is Mark Marshall. For the Cadets we find J. McGrath, F. O'Neill and R. O'Boyle. Under the blue and white wash of the Guards is M. Moore, Harry, Wilson, Adam King and G. Redden. The trefols have Steve Constantine, J. Morrissey, Pat Colford, B. Kavanagh, and Will Cleary. Whether to take a short step or a long pace there is where the rub comes in. It might be as well to mention that the "mine sweepers" at the Rink seem to prefer the short pace as the quickest means of propulsion on the slippery surface, and we pass along the comment for what it's worth.

No. 11 is the 1 Mile Championship, and in this the contestants are the same as in the 3 mile. The shorter distance, however, will make it a whirlwind of speed, and those competent to judge predict that all previous Newfoundland records will be broken.

Capt. Bob Stick, who has charge of all competitors, requests us to say that if they will report to him by 5 o'clock to-night at the hockeyists' dressing rooms (upstairs) he will furnish them with numbers and positions for the various events, as well as allocate comfortable quarters for sleeping—far removed from the mad-dancing crowd. In addition the middle section of the lower gallery has been reserved for competitors, so that while waiting for their particular events they can witness the other items without inconvenience. Contestants will therefore confer a favor on the Committee if they will report to Capt. Stick in good time as to prevent any mishap, as it has been positively decided that no event will be held up or any time lost waiting for tardy entrants.

For the Club Relay Race, Billy Callahan, Gus Power and C. Eagan will skate for the B.L.S.; Barrett, Hackett, and Phillips for the C.L.B.; and Squires, Jacobs and Peach for the Guards. The Pelidians have also entered, but their three men have not been announced.

Season or rink tickets will not admit to-night. The side doors will be open for Sports ticket holders and officials; all others must use the main entrance. This regulation will be strictly enforced, and spectators are asked to kindly observe it.

A difficult stunt will be the quarter mile backwards. There are eight contestants as follows: Gerald Edens, J. Hickey, W. McGrath, Jr., Caul, Kavanagh, Bayler, R. Peach, George Hunt (skating under C.L.B. colors) is looked upon as the favorite, but often there's many a slip 'twixt the cup and the lip.

The next will be the special challenge relay race between the old guard of the old Terra Novas—Pins Parsons, George Marshall and Jim Vianicombe—and Ernie Churchill, Jack Tobin and George Hunt, the survivors of the old Victoria. This is a very popular event, and old Terras have promised to stage a come-back that will surprise many.

In the Indoor Sports last fall, the Guards' Old Comrades managed to make a get-away with the cup presented by Sir Richard Squires, but now we find their old rivals the Cadets and C.L.B. right after their scalps. This time it is for the trophy presented by the Executive of the National Sports Committee, and a mighty tug it's going to be for possession of it. It is sure to be an interesting and exciting event.

The members of the Press have always such friends of the athletes that they are favored with a special relay race all to themselves. The News have entered their three men while The People's Paper, the Telegram will be represented by Gus Herder—and—Well done, the newsies!

Last, but not by no means least, is the feast of music furnished by the Personal

Mrs. Chaisson and Evans, the latter of whom had been undergoing treatment at the General Hospital, left by S.S. Kyle last evening for their home Port aux Basques. Magistrate O'Toole, of Harbor Main, accompanied by a delegation (of which he is chairman) of six electors of that district, arrived in town by Tuesday's train, and yesterday had an interview with the Government authorities on the unemployed question in that section, with satisfactory results.

Shipping Notes.

Schr. Roy Bruce has arrived at Barbados, after a good passage from this port.
Schr. Francis Moulton, which loaded codfish at Port Union, has arrived at Maceo.
S.S. Bornholm sailed for Halifax and Boston yesterday, taking a small outward freight.
S.S. Malkoff is now being put in readiness to relieve the Fortia on the South Coast Service.

A COMFORTABLE HOUSE OR PORCH DRESS.

Pattern 3622 is shown in this illustration. It is cut in 7 Sizes: 34, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46 inches bust measure. A 36 inch size will require yards of 27 inch material. The 10th of the skirt at the foot is 2 1/2 yards.

Gingham with pique for chemise, collar and cuffs would be nice for this. It is attractive also for chamber, linen, percale, albatross, crepe, crepe mohair or flannelette.
A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

A NEAT POCKET DRESS.

3816. Even a tiny girl loves a dress with pockets, such as this model portrays. The lines are simple, and the making not difficult. Figured percale, or checked gingham may be selected for the dress, and pique or repp in a contrasting color for the trimming.
The Pattern is cut in 4 Sizes: 2, 3, 4 and 6 years. A 3 year size requires 2 1/2 yards of 36-inch material. Collar, cuffs, belt and pockets of contrasting material require 1/2 yard.
A pattern of this illustration mailed to any address on receipt of 10c. in silver or stamps.

Mrs. S. A. Richards Writes of Dr. F. G. Kinsman's Heart Tablets and Dyspepsia Powders.

Your Heart Tablets and Powders are a wonderful medicine, and I wish all to know what they have done for me. Before I commenced their use I could not lie on my left side at all nights, and had such a choking sensation in my throat that I could hardly breathe. I would have to sit up in bed nights my heart would beat so hard, and my left arm and side pained me very badly. My heart would also flutter terribly when I would go upstairs, and I would have smothering spells. I have felt none of these symptoms since using two boxes of your Tablets, and can lie on my left side with ease. Please accept my gratitude for ever offering so good a medicine.

$70 — $102

Investors will recall that we steadily urged the purchase of this issue around $70 and up to $80. To-day's price shows a point advance, and considering its particular circumstances believe it will be strong up to, at least, $110.

We now suggest a 10-share purchase for our younger clients on margin deposit of $20, for a 10 to 12 point profit. Experience has proven that only the big stocks are the ones. Switch the penny issues into the good ones.
