

At present there was little protec-tion against this floating foreign population enjoying franchise rights. To overcome this, the Hon. Mr. Ferguson advocated legislation com-pelling foreigners to make a declara-tion of their intention to become citizens four years before they were permitted to vote. OLYMPIC TROOPS NOW ON TRAINS

In Port Colborne District

Port Colborne, March 26.—The recru-descence of influenza is causing un-easiness in this district. No less than ing, owing to the continued high 30 or 40 cases in Humberstone and Port Colborne were reported today. One case of sleeping sickness was al-

matically at is o'clock and Mr. Vien, Lotbiniee was in possession of the floor when the house adjourned with-out a vote being taken. The resolu-tion, however, remains on the order paper, and may possibly come up again for discussion on Monday. Dr. Edwards' Motion. Dr. Edwards, Frontenac, moved that "the amount of $5,000 received by Sir Charles Fitzpatrick for the fiscal year 1915-16 and 1916-17 to cover expenses in connection with the judicial com-mittee of the privy council, should be returned to the treasury of Canada forthwith."

now un ikaino, the station of the second train, numbered 1319, drew out at 11.35 with the remainder of the 116th Battalion and detachments from the 52nd Battalion, the 43rd and the third divisionel headquarters staff. lowing a man to pocket $5000 from the public treasury, for which that the public treasury, for which that man had given no service. He did not care whether the person taking the money was the chief justice of Canada or a man in an inferior position. The point at issue was the same. Hon. Arthur Meighen said that the resolution was a peculiar one, and of a very grave character. The point was that every effort must be made to arrive at the truth before impugning the honor of a private citizen. Sir Thomas White submitted a memorandum prepared by Mr. Bo-ville, deputy minister of finance. In this memorandum Mr. Boville this memorandum, Mr. Boville re-marked that the change of wording in the vote converted a vote for traveling expenses into a grant which might be paid to Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, apart altogether from his attendance at altogether from his attendance at meetings of the privy council. The position was, Sir Thomas went on, that the government changed the wording of the vote which had pre-valled up to 1915-16, and which cou-verted traveling expenses of the chief justice, when attending the sittings of the privy council, into a special al-lowance to cover expenses. "My be-lief is." said Sir Thomas, "that the payment was made by the finance department legally and regularly. That was the view of the auditor-general, who authorized payment." Sir Charles who authorized payment." Sir Charles had received the money under the new wording in monthly payments. McKenzie Asks Fair Play. D. D. McKenzie declared that Sir Charles Fitzpatrick did not claim or require any defence from him, but require any defence from him, but why ignore the exchequer court when there was a precedent established in the British Columbia case referred to by Mr. Nickle? Sir Charles should be heard by his peers before any judg-ment was given against him. The prime minister was supposed to speak for the government and the house had a right to accept as fact what he had stated, namely, that Sir. Charles usually went twice a year. If there was anything wrong in the transaction, said Mr. McKenzie, in closing, it was traceable not to Sir Charles Fitzpatrick, but to the prime minister's office, because it was from

JASCHA HEIFITZ Brilliant Genius of the Violin

Plays Tonight at Massey Hall

Genius is a word that cannot lightly be used in these days when super-talent is the gift of many, yet it can rightfully be applied to Jascha Heifetz. The most distinguished musicians and reviewers in the country have used the word "genius" in connection with him.

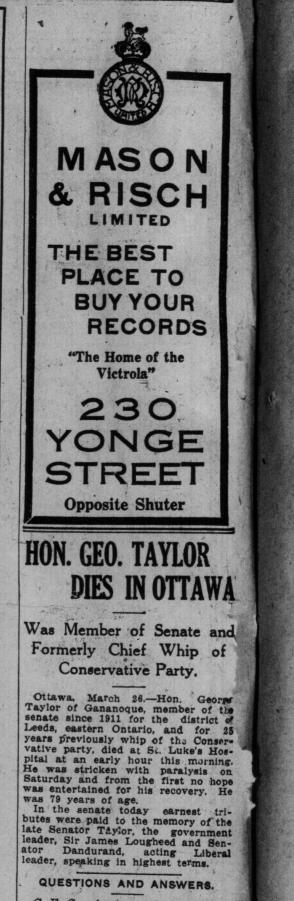

The exquisite tone he produces is pure violin, yet is unlike that of any other violinist, a silvery gloss radiates from every note, no matter how swiftly they fly past.

Like most of the great artists of the world Jascha Heifetz makes records exclusively for "His Master's Voice" and through these you can hear this great artist no less truly than listening to him in person.

PLEADED THE CAUSE OF WIDOWS AND ORPHAN Rev. Peter Bryce Deplores Small Pensions as Being Insufficient.

Rev. Peter Bryce 'n an address yesterday, before the Kiwanis club at the King Edward hotel, pleaded the cause of the widows and the fatherless. He evidenced the case of the widow of the Canadian soldier, who, if she had three children, drew a government allowance of $70 per month, to which $8 was added for every additional child. The speaker was thankful to say he could add that if the widow lived in Toronto she had an adidtional grant of $30 per month until $1,000 had been paid.

He had determined to compare these conditions with those in the U.S. There he found that the widow of an American soldier drew only $47.50. Upon further investigation he discovered that the U.S. government discovered that the U. S. government had provided an insurance system by which the American soldier could, by the payment of about $6 per month, insure himself for $10,000. As prac-tically every soldier had availed him-self of this, the widows received an ad-ditional $57.50 a month, placing their total at $105 attonal $57.50 a month. placing their total at $105. British Pensions. The case of the widow of the British reservist was exceptionally sad. She had but $26 a month. In Australia it had been decided to make these widows a grant which would place them on a footing with the widows of Aus-tralian soldiers. "I think, gentlemen, the government here should do the same," he said. "We owe more than we will ever know to the men of the contemptible little army.' We have their widows and children with us. They are not many, and it would not cost us very much, so surely we ought to see that they have enough to live on." Measures ought to be also taken whereby the widow of a member of the R.A.F. should receive a Canadian pension instead of an Imperial one. The widows, under the Workmen's Compensation Board, no matter how many children they had, could not draw more than the maximum pension of $40 per month. The worst case was the widow who was absolutely without any source of income. In his district, chiefly as a result of the "flu," there were 25 such homes, which he was trying to keep intact, in the hope taht the government would pass a mother's allowance act.

Comrade Walter Willcocks, of 652 Ashdale avenue, a man of. over 40, who saw considerable service in both the fire trenches and in no man's land as a stretcher-bearer, yesterday brought up another problem affecting returned soldiers vitally. He stated that he had been classed as a non-combatant because of the fact that his work had been with the Canadian combatant because of the fact that his work had been with the Canadian Field Ambulance, and that for this reason he had been given to under-stand he was not eligible for the war gratuity given to those on active ser-vice on any war front. Interviews with returned soldiers generally showed that opinion was unanimous that stretcher-bearers had done work on the front line, which in many cases was beyond expression by pen or lip, and that few men were more entitled to the war gratuity than the men who had carried their comrades thru heli and brimstone to the com-parative safety of the field dressing parative safety of the field dressing

Without Dissent. Not a dissentient note was found among the score of interviews ob-tained with representative returned men. The gist of the sentiment ex-pressed was that the stretcher-bear-er, no matter how classed, had in-variably done his bit in the very heat of foreverse of well as during the ordin variably done his bit in the very heat of forays, as well as during the ordin-ary routine of trench warfare, when shells and trench mortars and explo-sive bullets killed and maimed large numbers of men. The opinion was generally expressed that those com-rades who had been stretcher-bearers were mistaken in their belief that no gratuity was coming to them.

TN recent years, it has been demon-strated to the world that in most L lines of manufacture the Canadian product is equal to, and in many, superior to foreign-made goods.

In the manufacture of candy and chocolate. Canada is at the top. The Pure Food Laws guarantee a wholesome product, while skill in manufacture has produced 'a quality and deli-ciousness unequalled in any country.

Within the last few months a tremendous demand for Canadian candy and chocolate has grown up in England and Europe. The large supplies sent to our men overseas during the war gave to many Europeans their first opportunity of appreciating the high qualities which the Canadian product possesses. European merchants and candy lovers are now clamoring for Canadian candies.

There may be some Canadians who do not realize that the most wholesome and delicious candy and chocolate are made here at home-but this is true.

A Last Plea for the Grand Trunk.

The Globe makes its last effortone of thirty in the last year-to persuade Sir Thomas White to pay the shareholders of the Grand Trunk more than the road with all its commitments is worth. No one can imagine what the awful possibilities might be if the Grand Trunk and all its subsidiaries in the United States were put into the hands of ever so many receivers. So says The Globe. But much more so for the shareholders who care to bring this about. They will hurt themselves, not Canada. The Grand Trunk, as far as Canada is concerned, can have only one receiver and that would be the same as now in office for the Grand Trunk Pacific.

But this, so serious article in yes terday's Globe appeared in The Montreal Star as paid reading matter from the Grand Trunk offices several days ago!

Let Sir Thomas White sit tight and the Grand Trunk shareholders. will gladly accept his offer. The Globe has been too ready to suggest "voluntary bargaining" for the road once it is in default. If the Grand Trunk really wants a lot of receivers in the States they can have them!

I had the same feeling I always had had about looking my best before Blanche Orton, even tho I had given her very little thought the past few months (one reason pro-tably being that Lorraine Morton, who usually brought me all the gossip, had been out of town ou a visit). I rested all day long—a tribute I never thought of paying a dinner before rested all day long—a tribute I never thought of paying a dinner before baby came. And I was satisfied tha'. I never had looked better. Neil's eyes showed he was pleased and he said several flattering things, making me feel still more assured that I should not be entirely overshadowed by our hostess. There were only eight at the table.
