BOY FOUND IN THE SWAMP Mystery Surrounding Disappearance of East Gwillimbury Farmer Partially Cleared Up.

LAST SEEN OCTOBER 20, 1900

Search Party Investigated the Swamp at the Time—An Inquest Opened.

Mystery surrounding the disappearance of William Fowler, 74 years of age, from his home on the 7th concession of East Gwillimbury, about 18 months ago, was cleared away on Sunday, when his dead body was found a short distance from his farm. The remains, which were unrecognizable to his friends, were identified by a pipe and knife found in the pockets of the clothing.

Fowler left his home on the morning of Oct. 20, 1900, apparently for a walk, and when he did not return his friends became anxious as to his safety. Searching parties were organized by Chief Savage of Newmarket, who had charge of the case, and every place where the old man was likely to go was visited. The woods in the vicinity were searched without success. Nothing more developed in connection with the case until William Loewin, while searching for a lost sheep on Sunday, discovered the badly decomposed body of Fowler. Goodwin communicated with Chief Savage, and in turn, Chief Savage, in turn, notified the coroner, J. H. Wesley of Newmarket, who was notified by an inquest. The remains were removed to Mount Albert yesterday conducted an autopsy. In the afternoon an inquest after several witnesses had been examined an adjournment was made till next Monday evening.

A strange circumstance in connection with the case is that the searching parties organized after the disappearance of the body failed to notice the remains. Altho Dr. Forrest has shown that despite the propaganda of his own political friends the Premier is not a man to be trifled with. Taken in all it was a debate worthy of the topic, and a welcome relief from the platitudes of party politics, with which the last week of the budget debate was padded out. The principal subject was introduced by Mr. W. F. Maclean on the motion to go

WHY CANADA GETS NO PREFERENCE FROM BRITAIN OUR GOVERNMENT REFLECTED TO AS FERT

Record of Opportunities Let Slip by Shown Up by the Member for East York, Precipitating the Liveliest Debate of the Session—Sir Wilfrid's Refusal to Discuss Imperial Defence in Connection With Commerce Puts Canada on Same Footing With Foreigners.

LIBERALS' POSITION ON IMPERIAL QUESTIONS CONDEMNED

Ottawa, April 15.—Imperial politics up-to-date describes in five words the discussion which took place in the Commons today. It turned upon the adoption of a protective policy in Great Britain as announced in the budget speech of the Chancellor of the Exchequer, it covered the entire ground of Canada's commercial and military relations with the Mother Country, and elicited an exchange of views between party leaders in the House upon the policy of preferential trade within the empire. It was certainly a timely topic, also the leader of the government affected to regard it as inopportune.

The querulous attitude of Sir Wilfrid Laurier upon the subject, and perhaps only natural, feeling that the triumph of protection in the Mother Country removes the last vestige of excuse for his failure to obtain for Canadian products a preference in the British market. That excuse was that England was wedded to free trade and would never consent to adjust her fiscal policy so as to permit a preference to be given to Canada in return, even for the preference given to the British goods by the tariff of the Dominion.

Belled His Predictions. Wriggle as he might Sir Wilfrid was forced to admit that the new fiscal policy of England belled his predictions to the extent that it clears the field for an Imperial preferential trade arrangement being arrived at by the conference which is to assemble in London next June. Since 1896, therefore, the Liberal party has been traveling in a circle on the preferential trade question, and is now back where it was in 1896, when Sir Wilfrid made that famous speech in London, Ont., in which he decanted upon the benefits of preferential trade and promised if placed in power to send a commission to London, England, to obtain that boon for the Canadian people. But after his utterances in the House yesterday this question not naturally cropped up between the lines of his opponents' speeches, Can the Prime Minister be trusted not to repeat at the conference of 1902 his worse than political blunder of 1897?

Recklessly Abandoned. The ordinary expenditure of the country, quite apart from the war, is being run on a credit of the ever growing expenditures for armaments and navies in other countries, and it is difficult to see how the country can be expected to frame some scheme of taxation upon a basis equitable alike to all the taxpayers and to all the nations. The late Mr. Love of the import duty on wheat has not rested. The effect of a duty of three pence per one hundred weight on wheat is to add to the cost of the loaf a farthing increase in the price of the loaf, and the competition which is being made by anyone trying to raise the price of bread on such a ground would probably result in a very small advantage. The Chancellor declared that the registration duties on grain and flour would increase the price of bread and would increase the cost of food. He thought the duty had been recently abandoned and declared the remission did not reduce the price of food. He therefore proposed an import duty of three pence per hundredweight on all grain, with a co-relative duty of four pence per hundredweight on flour and meal. The total yield of this duty was estimated at £2,450,000, bringing the total estimate of the revenue from the new taxation to £5,150,000.

Opportunity Neglected. Now, what does that mean? It means that for the first time in over 50 years a measure has been introduced into the British parliament proposing a tax on food products, and the disappointing thing to us in Canada is that when the opportunity came to the parliament of Great Britain to reciprocate towards Canada the opportunity was not taken advantage of. We have given Great Britain a preference in our markets. The Canadian government claims that as an act for which they deserved the greatest credit—as one which would bring good results. But when the opportunity came to Great Britain to reciprocate there was no reciprocity.

A Conservative member: They said they did not want it. Mr. Maclean: But we want something for what we have given; and why was the opportunity not taken advantage of yesterday? I believe the cause of the opinion that Canada is regarded by our ministers as entirely satisfactory. There can be no scheme of defence applicable to all.

Recent Events. Let me read what has taken place within a very few days. I am now quoting from a prominent English magazine. In the Nineteenth Century for March is an article dealing with Mr. Chamberlain as an empire builder. Speaking at Birmingham in January last, Mr. Chamberlain made this statement: "A new factor has entered into the politics of this country. In future you will have to take account of the opinion of your colonialists. You will have to consult them, and of course, in doing so, you will be dealing with the people's interest. They take credit to themselves for our good crops and prosperity. They are entitled to credit for either, but they are not prepared to give up their opportunity after opportunity of doing something to extend and promote the trade of this country, and especially to obtain reciprocity from the Mother Land in return for the great opportunity which, after all, we have given her. [Hear, hear.] When Mr. Chamberlain made the statement in Birmingham that our land must call her colonies to her councils, no reply of an encouraging kind was made from the Mother Land. And when an official invitation was given the Prime Minister to go over there and discuss all the questions concerning the colonies and the Mother Country he replied that he did not intend to discuss the question of defence.

Might Have Been Different. But, Sir, the defence of a nation is not a question of life and death. It is a question of peace. Continued on Page 8.

English Miller Now Has Protection of Four Cents Per 112 Pounds of Flour.

Montreal, Que., April 15.—"They should have adopted it years ago," said Mr. Robert McElginch, president of the Lake of the Woods Milling Company, this morning, speaking of the proposal of the British government to impose an import duty on grain, as announced in Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's budget speech yesterday. "I hold that the placing by Great Britain of a duty on wheat and flour is a policy, which, in the interest of the British people, they should have adopted years ago, as the near future will demonstrate the fact that the producer will pay the duty, not the consumer."

"The mistake, I think, they have made is that they did not make the duty higher and extended it to importations of other foodstuffs. However, the way they did it is placed in the hands of the British people, as the English miller will have a protection of four cents per 112 lbs. on flour."

"I am of the opinion that the Canadian people should have taken up the questions of preferential trade and imperial defence, and impressed upon the Imperial government the necessity of giving the colonies a preference."

It was the evidence that the accident could not possibly have been avoided and that D. M. Murray, who was in charge of the vehicle, is a capable and careful driver.

NO PREFERENCE TO COLONIES.

Minneapolis, April 15.—In an interview, W. C. Edgar, editor of The Miller, says the Imperial tax on grain: "There is no danger to the milling industry of America. It was the fact that England will treat her colonies the same as she does foreign states."

No Other Name Was Considered at the South Toronto Convention.

W. B. Rogers will be the Liberal candidate for South Toronto in the approaching provincial election. He was given the nomination unanimously at a convention of the Liberals of that division, in St. George's Hall, last evening, and accepted it with an expression of deep gratitude to the delegates.

H. M. Mowat, president of the South Toronto Liberal Association, occupied the chair, and among those on the platform were: Malcolm Gibbs, L. V. McBrady, Dr. J. S. King, George Dower, George Harris, F. Stacey, Fred Ross, Hon. S. C. Biggs, J. G. Hanes, Spencer Love, Patrick M. Kennedy, J. S. McMahon, George E. Gibbard, Dr. Elliott, S. H. Jones, Charles March, M. Barry and W. B. McMurich.

In opening the meeting the chairman explained its object, and spoke in hopeful terms for the success of the Liberal government in the elections. Liberals were proud of their party, and more especially proud of their chief, [Applause.]

Upon nominations being asked for, G. E. Gibbard proposed the name of Mr. Rogers, which was received with vigorous applause. L. V. McBrady seconded the nomination, stating that the Liberals of Toronto could feel assured that Mr. Rogers would do his duty by them, as well as by the government. If in 1898 he could reduce the majority of the previous election from 2,000 to 1,400, surely he could this time wipe out that vote to the good.

Nominations were declared closed and the chairman announced Mr. Rogers as the candidate. A rousing cheer ensued. Mr. Rogers thanked the convention for the nomination, and said he had the utmost confidence in the Liberal government. The record of the government was such as to select any man as its supporter. He praised the agricultural policy of the government; the management of the finances of the province; the manner of disposing of the timber resources, and the labor legislation, which he professed the best of any on the continent.

Mr. Rogers came in for criticism for supporting Mr. Powell's motion to have the Tomahawk Railway built from Mattawa, thereby taking trade away from Toronto. For this alone, he said, they should be ousted from their seats. W. Elliott, vice-president of the South Toronto Liberal Association, presided during the remainder of the meeting, when address was made by J. G. Hanes, the speakers were: Malcolm Gibbs, Mr. McMahon, J. G. Ramsden, Mr. Elliott, Hon. S. C. Biggs, Dr. King, S. March, S. H. Jones, George W. Dower, Dr. McMahon and W. B. McMurich, K.C. Dr. McMahon made the nearest speech of the evening, and S. H. Jones, in his remarks, suggested that Dr. Beattie Nesbitt and Mr. King should be invited to battle the fight out among themselves in North Toronto, without a Liberal in the field. Mr. King was applauded with an outburst of disapprobation.

Continuing Mr. Jones intimated that Dr. Beattie Nesbitt was just as big a traitor to his party as Mr. Marter. In 1898 a certain man came to his house at a very late hour, and was one of Fred Doane's heavy vehicles at Davenport-road and McMurtry-street on Monday evening. It was the evidence that the accident could not possibly have been avoided and that D. M. Murray, who was in charge of the vehicle, is a capable and careful driver.

IS NOT SO SANGUINE NOW London Paper Hears of Serious Difficulties in the Way of Peace.

Colonial Secretary Anxious to Make
Charge on the Transvaal—
145 Boer Casualties.

London, April 16.—The Daily Mail, in its issue of this morning, says that the Boers are not so sanguine now as they were in the past. The paper hears of serious difficulties in the way of peace.

The cabinet council has decided to refuse a strongly worded request from the Boer leaders at Pretoria for an armistice pending the negotiation of a peace treaty.

It is also not likely to cause the Boers to withdraw from the conference, says the Daily Mail, but what threatens to stop the negotiations is the fact that the government declines to place the later Cape rebels upon the same footing as the burghers with respect to amnesty, and is not inclined to withdraw the banishment proclamation.

These features are regarded by the Boers as two cardinal points in the irreducible minimum of terms, which Lord Milner of British High Commissioner in South Africa went to Pretoria to ascertain, and in return for which the Boers agree to the loss of independence and a general surrender.

His other demands, continues the Daily Mail, are that Great Britain should build and restore the farms, take over the legal claims and liabilities of the government within a shorter period than is now contemplated.

Some Differences.

In discussing the South African situation in debate in the House of Commons today, the Chancellor of the Exchequer, Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, admitted that he and the Colonial Secretary, Joseph Chamberlain, had a little difference of opinion. He thought the Colonial Secretary was more sanguine and more anxious than himself to make a charge on the Transvaal.

Yet it could not be supposed that the Chamberlain and the Exchequer were backward in a matter of this kind.

145 Boer Casualties.

The following four non-commissioned officers of the Royal Canadian Dragoons have been ordered to Halifax for South Africa.

The candidates will undergo the footing and riding tests to-day, Sunday, at 10 o'clock, and all made such a good showing that it is not likely any of them will be plucked on this score.

Only about 50 per cent of the men who went before Surgeon Lieut.-Col. Natrass yesterday to undergo the medical examination necessary to join the fourth contingent were pronounced fit for service. This is a higher percentage of plucked ones than on previous occasions, due, perhaps, to a little greater care being taken on the part of the medical examiners.

Between 200 and 300 men were at the Armouries ready to offer their services when Col. Otter arrived at 10 o'clock in the morning. With the assistance of Capt. Burnham, Capt. Stanley and several sergeants, the men were lined up and inspected and about sixty were sent to Surgeon Natrass for examination.

The rejected recruits were represented as follows by the applicants: Toronto Mounted Rifles, 6th Field Battery, 19; G.G.B.G., 29; 48th Highlanders, 27; Royal Grenadiers, 28; Rangers, 21; 12th York Rangers, 12. There were also a number of applicants from outside battalions. Preference was given to men who have already done military service and to the mounted corps.

Those who passed the medical examination, to 5 o'clock last evening, when Dr. Natrass adjourned his task until this morning, were: William H. Young, 63 Gould-street, G.G.B.G.; Robert M. Carmichael, 510 Church-street, G.G.B.G.; J. C. Whitehead, 587 Jarvis-street, first contingent; William H. Young, 63 Gould-street, G.G.B.G.

Day Bicycles With 1902 Dunlop Tires

The record of the Day Bicycle during the past three years stamps it as a strictly high-grade wheel. Once you see it, you'll be quick to recognize its graceful design and elegant finish. But there are other features that are worthy of emphasis:

- First. All the Day Bicycles are fitted with Dunlop 1902 Tires, fully guaranteed by the makers.
Second. The wheels are guaranteed to be free from defect in workmanship and material; this guarantee is good for the riding season of 1902.
Third. The prices—$25.00 and $35.00—are, we believe, the biggest money's worth in wheels on the market to-day.

Other good features and desirable points will be explained if you call. If you cannot come write for catalogue. Every wheel carries our personal guarantee to give satisfaction.

Ostermoor Mattresses

As simple as A B C is the logic of the whole argument in favor of patent elastic felt as a filling for ideal mattresses. Being resilient, free from animal matter and non-absorbent, it repels vermin, dirt and water; never mats or packs and remains an even, downy mass for all time. The Ostermoor is restful and long-lived.

Sewing Machines

Many people, even among the shrewdest-minded, dread buying a sewing machine. Hence in advertising our Seamstress models we delight to emphasize the money-back-if-not-satisfied guarantee. It bespeaks our confidence and your safety.

A warranty certificate for five years accompanies each machine. We give free instructions in operating. We'll refund money if the Seamstress does not give perfect satisfaction. What more can we do to ensure your absolute protection when buying:

- 3-Drawer Seamstress, at... $21.00
5-Drawer Seamstress, at... 22.50
Drop-Head Seamstress, at... 25.50
Automatic Drop-Head, at... 28.50

Wernicke Book Cases

Can you imagine a continued story, wonderful and never ending, but complete with each chapter? That's the "Elastic" book case all over again—a system of units, expanding with your library. Not too small for a nucleus, not too large for a vast collection. We suggest a personal examination.

PREFERENCE WITHIN THE EMPIRE.

The member for East York opened his latest debate in the session in the House of Commons at Ottawa yesterday afternoon, and all England was ringing yesterday with the same question, viz., that England had at last decided to resort to a tax on grain; had gone back on free trade, and had gone in for protection in a mild way to start with. As Mr. Maclean pointed out, and as Mr. Borden re-emphasized, it had come when Canada should demand that the British tax on grain, as proposed by Sir Michael Hicks-Beach, should be amended into a tax on grain grown without the empire, and that a preference should be given to the grain of Canada and the other colonies.

PROTECTION IN BRITAIN AND IMPERIAL.

Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's statement that the Imperial government intends to levy import duties on grain, flour and meat entering the United Kingdom constitutes one of the most important announcements ever made in the British House of Commons. The character of a tariff for revenue only, the departure means the entrance of the steel edge of the protection wedge. The immediately precipitated by the financial requirements growing out of the war, this radical innovation in the British fiscal policy may be taken to signify the beginning of the end of the free trade fetish worship. The very fact that the government would dare to introduce such a measure indicates how far British public opinion has drifted away from the ancient Cobden ideas.

Moreover, the friends of Anglo-American solidarity could not object to an Imperial tariff arrangement on the score of possible offence to the United States. The British empire is to-day one nation, and as such has just as much right as the United States to levy a common tariff against the rest of the world.

Canada and Australia can supply mother country. Commenting on the new British "bread tax" The New York Tribune remarks editorially: "In 1900 we (the United States) sent to the United Kingdom about $35,000,000 worth of corn, $415,000 worth of wheat and $38,000,000 worth of wheat flour, a total of $117,500,000 worth of merchandise. It was then free from taxation. The question which American farmers, millers and merchants now have to consider is the effect which Sir Michael Hicks-Beach's proposed 'registration tax' will have upon that trade. There

Shredded Wheat A Natural Food

What Canadians Say OF Shredded Wheat Biscuits

110 RIVER STREET, TORONTO, April 15th, 1902. We have been using your Shredded Wheat Biscuits for some time and cannot speak too highly of them. Our baby is ten months old and has gained five pounds in two months, eating Shredded Wheat Biscuits steadily and nothing else. MRS. MARTIN.

Having suffered for about nine years the inexpressible misery of a dyspeptic and all the time growing worse (notwithstanding the fact that I spent many dollars for patent medicines, etc.), and being, as I thought, incurable, I was advised to use Shredded Whole Wheat Biscuit. I must say I felt like striking the friend who advised me, as he said he could 'Cure' me, but I must 'Stop taking medicine.' Now I have ordered the second case, and am recommending them far and near as the 'Only cure for Dyspepsia,' no matter how long standing or what form. You may publish a part or whole of this letter, as I am anxious to do something to help alleviate suffering humanity. J. A. McCONNELL, Surgeon Falls, Can.

DUNNVILLE, Ont., April 12th, 1902. THE NATURAL FOOD CO., Niagara Falls, N.Y. Gentlemen: Having used your Shredded Wheat Biscuits I take great pleasure in recommending them to any one who may be suffering with indigestion or constipation. Yours truly, CLARA GREENE.
