Russians Announce The Surrender of Fortress of Przemysl

Petrograd Via London Mar. 22--[2.54 p. m.]--It was announced officially this morning that the Galician fortress of Przemysl surrendered to the Russians today.

London, March 22--The great Galician fortress of Przemysl fell to the hands of the Russian besiegers this morning. The last of the improvised field fortifications were captured some days ago.

With the strong Russian cordon tightly drawn around the fortress the effort apparently was hopeless from the start and 6,000 Austrian prisoners fell into the hands of the Russians while as many more fell dead or wounded.

The garrison of Przemysl originally numbered 60,000 or 80,000 men but sorties and shell must have cut a considerable number of thousands from that total.

The besieging army is understood to number about 120,000 officers and men. This force will now march on the strong Austrian fortress of Cracow 125 miles to the east of Przemysl, it being the announced determination of the Russian commander-in-chief to reduce that Polish capital as speedily as possible.

Petrograd, March 22--The announcement of the fall of Przemysl caused great rejoicing in Petrograd, where the Russian victory is regarded as of the utmost importance, opening the way for a determined advance against Cracow and thence into Silesia, the "gateway to Berlin."

The siege of Przemysl has been under way since the early days of the war. It has been a bitter and relentless siege, never relaxed for a day since the Russians invested the city. Several attempts of the Austrians to raise the siege, the latest of which was made only a short time ago, have failed.

With the fall of Przemysl, the only important fortified town in Galicia which is still in the hands of the Austrians is Cracow, in Northwestern Galicia, close to the German border.

In the early days of the war the Russian offensive campaign, as outlined unofficially, contemplated the invasion of Germany through East Prussia, on the North and simultaneously into Silesia from Galicia. The Russians succeeded in penetrating Galicia, but the success of the Austrians in holding Przemysl and Cracow blocked attempts to invade Germany across the Silesian border.

The siege of Przemysl has been one of the most picturesque phases of the war in the east. The Austrian garrison defended the city with determination and vigor, and during the earlier months inflicted considerable losses on the Russians by frequent sorties. The only means of communication with the outside world was by wireless telegraph and aeroplanes. By these means conditions within the city were obtained from time to time.

Memel To Be Base For Russian Fleet Activity

An Important Capture--The "Old Fox" Outmanoeuvred, is Opinion of Experts

Petrograd, March 22--Memel, the captured German port in East Prussia, will become a Russian naval base, from which sea attacks will be launched against other German coast cities as soon as navigation is again resumed on the Baltic Sea. While the fall of Memel is of no great strategic importance from a military standpoint, it is invaluable for naval operations, being only 135 miles from Danzig, Germany's strongest naval base on the Baltic. Swaborg, which is the main headquarters of the Russian fleet in the Baltic, is 450 miles from Danzig. With the capture of Memel, therefore, the Russians have cut off 315 miles that their warships would have to travel to reach Danzig.

WHITE IS FREED

Judgment in Case of Soldier--Appeal, Says Commissioner McLellan

Private O. White, of the 36th Battalion, arrested recently on charge of interfering with a policeman and also assaulting him while in discharge of his duty, was acquitted by Magistrate Ritchie this morning. The magistrate said the maximum penalty for such an offense was $80 or ten months in jail. The evidence on the part of the prosecution, and the testimony of the police constable and several others--also soldiers--was that White caught the policeman by the throat while he was in a cafe, having been called there because of some disturbance. The evidence made a strong case against White. On the part of the defense he and several other witnesses, also soldiers, testified that he did not catch the constable by the throat. White was there, the policeman was there, and there were twenty others, it is alleged, were there. Was the policeman caught by the throat? Was he interfered with? The policeman says yes he was interfered with while in the discharge of his duty, while ejecting Private Proctor from the cafe. After reviewing the evidence of the witnesses on both sides, the magistrate said he had given the matter careful consideration and had read over, word for word, the evidence as given, and as there was under the evidence and surrounding circumstances a reasonable doubt, the defendant was entitled to it, so the case was dismissed.

STRONG APPEAL FROM A CARLETON PULPIT

"It would be a good thing for the city of St. John if parents would pay more attention to their children, particularly their young girls," said Rev. Dr. J. A. Morrison in Carleton Presbyterian church last evening in the course of his sermon.

"It would be better for all concerned if they would keep their daughters, especially, off the streets at night, as they cannot but expect the most fearful results. I urge all good men and women," he continued, with tears dimming his eyes and his voice trembling, "to exert their best endeavors for bettering conditions. You who are listening know what I mean—I need not speak more plainly. Many parents seem to be simple-minded in the matter, but will realize that the danger is great as some have already realized."

Amazing Relief Comes at Once—Cure Every Time

USE NERVILINE

Aching joints and sore muscles are common in rheumatic people. Inflammation is deep in the tissues. You might use a dozen remedies and derive less relief than Nerviline will give you in half an hour.

Nerviline is a pain-subduer that words do not altogether describe. It is fully five times stronger than most remedies, not that it affects the skin unfavorably—no, its great power is due to its wonderful penetrative quality—it strikes deeply, but never burns.

Just rub Nerviline into sore muscles, stiff joints, and note the glow of comfort, the ease of pain that follows.

You are astonished, delighted; this is because words do not express the promptness and permanency with which Nerviline cures every ache and pain in the muscles and joints.

Marvelous, you'll say. Natural, we say, because Nerviline is different, stronger, more penetrating, a true pain-subduer. Just try it and see if it doesn't cure rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, strains and sprains.

The large 50c family size bottle is far more economical than the 25c trial size. Get it today. Sold by dealers everywhere, or direct from the Catarhozone Co., Kingston, Canada.

If constant use of tea or coffee, with its drug content, agrees with you, why—keep right on—no one should object.

GRAFT CHARGES

(Chatham World)

The Celestial City atmosphere is riddled with graft charges against officials and members. It is charged that labor bills for road and bridge work have been padded, and materials purchased from political supporters at fancy prices. Names, dates and places are furnished, and who are concerned for the good name of the province—or what is left of it since the exposure of the Flemming-Berry blackmail levy on lumbermen look forward with fear and trembling to the outcome of the investigation that has been begun by Commissioner Chandler.

Would You Let a Child Select Medicine?

You are no more capable of selecting glasses for yourself than a child is to select its own medicine. Ready-made glasses are a menace to sight and health.

Scientific knowledge, a personal interest in each case, and extreme care in the eye examination, are necessary in fitting glasses.

Untold thousands have been made miserable, permanent injury to the eyes, and often blindness resulting, from picking out their own glasses, or buying them of peddlars or elsewhere than of a reliable experienced optician.

Buying glasses at Sharpe's means safety for your eyes—the best glasses possible for you to obtain.

In consequence the usual process is followed of selecting persons for appointment before examination instead of taking them from the list of qualified candidates."

EXCELLENT SERGES MADE IN CANADA By John P. Condon One of the best known English cloth weavers wrote us regarding Canadian "Blunos" serge: "We cannot reproduce as good a serge as this for less than you pay for it in Canada. We have tried and tried. It is an excellent fabric, with body and wear in it, and we can only account for its excellence by our belief that an old Yorkshire weaver must have the secret of its making." And the English weaver guessed right, quite right. For there is only one man in Canada who can make "Blunos" serge, and the Semi-ready shops use every yard of Blunos serge made in Canada. "Blunos" is a cheviot finished serge which gives all-the-year-round service, and is especially suited for damp weather, as it sheds water like a duck, and it never gets the "shine" of the hard-finished serge. If "Blunos" serge should ever attain the vogue of the Scotch Bannockburn it would serve the needs of public economy, for there is not a suit with so much wear and service for $25. Even the silk thread, the buttons, and the linings used in the Blunos suits are made in Canada, and the tailoring of the suits is done by men who have grown up from boyhood in the study of the Semi-ready system.

Don't Let Your Truss Make Operation Necessary Operation for rupture would hardly ever be heard of if it weren't for the mischief done by elastic and spring trusses.

Maybe few people ever have to be operated on when first ruptured. But wearing unsuitable trusses year after year is sooner or later almost sure to make work for the surgeon. You know that from your own experience — you know that you no longer now than a year ago probably getting worse all the time. If you know on that way, how long will it be before you'll have to undergo a dangerous and expensive operation? Aren't you willing to let us prove — by a sixty-day demonstration — how you can save yourself from all that? Especially when you can make this sixty-day test without having to risk a penny? Here is something — guaranteed rupture holder — which has saved thousands of people from ever having to be operated on. It has so thoroughly proved its merits that we are willing to stand it on 60-DAY TRIAL. We'll make it especially for your case — make it to your measure — and practically lend it to you just for a test. If it doesn't keep your rupture from coming out or from bothering you, in any way, then you can send it back and it won't cost you a single penny. Don't Send Any Money Simply write for our free book — that will tell you everything you want to know. It shows how our guaranteed rupture holder is made on an absolutely new PRINCIPLE. How it instantly and automatically PROTECTS you against every STRAIN, or your rupture can't possibly be forced out. And how in addition it provides the ONLY WAY EVER discovered for overcoming the weakness which is the real cause of rupture. The book tells how our guaranteed rupture holder — the famous Clutho Automatic Message Truss — is so beneficial that physicians in all parts of America now recommend it instead of advising operation. How it has completely cured thousands of people whose cases seemed hopeless. How it does away with the cause of lumps, tapestries and springs. How it is perforation-proof and waterproof and will hold in the back. How you can try it sixty days without having to risk a penny, and how little it costs if you keep it. This Free Book is Full of Facts Never Before Put in Print This book sums up all we have learned about rupture during forty years of experience. Shows just why elastic and spring trusses are the rupture man's worst enemies. "Exposes the humbug 'appliances,' 'methods,' 'classes,' etc. Explains why operation is nearly always a needless gamble with death — why, even if you manage to live through it, you may have to keep on wearing a truss. It shows why sixty-day trial is the only safe way to buy anything for rupture and how the Clutho Truss is the only thing you can get on such a long trial because it is the only thing good enough to stand such a test. Don't fail to get this book — don't put it off — the minute it takes you to write for it may free you from rupture trouble for the rest of your life. THE WAR NEWS

Relations more severely strained between Italy and Austria, further successes by the Russians on the eastern front, a Zeppelin raid on Paris which proved to be a failure, and a further list of casualties among Canadians in the trenches in France are features of last night's cables from the war zone.

The death of Colonel Farquhar, commander of the Princess Patricia's, is deeply regretted. As military secretary to H. R. H., the Duke of Connaught, Colonel Farquhar had made himself very popular in Ottawa, and he was also a distinguished soldier.

An interesting sidelight on the state of feeling in Germany is obtained from a report of a scene in the Reichstag on Saturday. A Socialist deputy protested against attempts to Germanize portions of French territory, and said also that he was horrified to learn that for every German village burned by the Russians three Russian villages would be burned.

News comes from Greece that the new government may after all adopt the policy of its predecessor, and enter the war on the side of the Allies. A member of the cabinet is said to have intimated on Saturday that the country was "gravitating toward a more active attitude," which if it means anything means war.

THE GOOD FAIRY

The picture which The Standard draws of Mr. J. D. Haas as the great and only friend of St. John is one to move the populace almost to tears. We infer from The Standard that at least two or three times each day Mr. Haas withdraws himself for a brief season from the cares and toil of office to take his hand in his hands and try to think out some new thing for the enrichment and the greater glory of the city of St. John.

His latest brilliant achievement was to make St. John the point of mobilization of the 48th Battalion. It might have been mobilized at Otnabog or Saddleback, Ruisagornish or Pokemouche; but great as are the advantages of these and other centres in New Brunswick, with their splendid armories and all the facilities for the mobilization and accommodation of eleven hundred men, Mr. Haas nobly fought and nobly won the battle for St. John. We are reminded too that Mr. Haas secured the establishment of a marine depot at St. John. That it is not yet established, but appears to have a wandering foot and is sliding out into the harbor, making necessary an enormous increased expenditure, does not matter. Who cares, so long as the money is spent, whether the contractors get it right the first time or not? This marine depot might have been taken to Quaco or LEZang or Grand Lake; but Mr. Haas once more leaped into the arena and beat down all opposition to its establishment at St. John. All that now remains to be done is to anchor it properly, and it will stay right here.

Then there were contracts for war material. It is true that every factory capable of turning out such materials in a satisfactory manner anywhere in Canada has had its chance, and Lord Kitchener and Chancellor Lloyd George are yelling for more, but the militia department and the British, French and Russian government would never have known that St. John was a thump but for the pointing finger of Mr. Haas. When we think seriously of all the marvellous things Mr. Haas has done for St. John, and the sleepless hours he has devoted to the development of great plans for our good, one wonders how he ever allowed himself to be tempted to hand back that $100,000 to Cammell Laird & Company and how it is that so many of his own supporters in this city are sharpening the axe against the day of retribution.

Chancellor Lloyd George very strongly emphasizes the statement of Lord Kitchener that the great need of Britain at present is an increase in the output of munitions of war. Here is an opportunity for Mr. Haas to direct attention to the factories in St. John.

A New York lawyer told the Canadian Bar Association in Montreal on Saturday night that nine-tenths of the people of the United States were working, giving and praying for British victory. He declared further that the United States would make almost any accommodation to prevent such a calamity as war with Great Britain, and that rather than suffer England to perish in a righteous cause the United States would fight with her.

If there is any truth in the report that the Turks have attacked an American mission in Persia the American government may be expected to demand prompt redress.

Mr. Watson Griffin, who spent some months in the West Indies last year, sees great possibilities there for Canadian trade. The views of a practical business man familiar with West India trade would be much more valuable.

When the Borden government abandoned the proposed duty on fertilizers it also abandoned those of its supporters who, without any regard whatever for the farmers or the Patriotism and Production campaign, gave a purely partisan support to the proposed measure. They must now explain that a duty should be imposed, but that it should not be imposed.

Every man who wears the king's uniform should give serious attention to two sentences in the address of Her. W. G. Lane to a detachment of St. John soldiers yesterday. He said—"Any man who has any self-respect will try to keep his record clean. It is important as a matter of efficiency."

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS.

When the blood becomes impure the first symptoms which manifest themselves are a breaking out of the various forms of skin trouble such as boils, pimples, abscesses, ulcers, etc., and the only treatment you can use is some sort of a good blood cleansing remedy which will put the blood into a perfect condition, and thus eliminate all the different poisons from the system which cause these different eruptions to occur.

The best blood cleansing remedy on the market to-day is Burdock Blood Bitters. All we ask you is to try it and be convinced. Thousands have used it during the past forty years, and have nothing but praise for its curative powers.

Mrs. John Fitzgerald, Plantagenet, Ont., writes: "I am one woman who cannot speak too highly of Burdock Blood Bitters. I was covered with boils, and got rid of them. I was advised by a friend to try B.B.B. which I did, and I can truthfully say that it completely cured me. I have never had a sign of a boil since."

See that our name appears on both the label and wrapper as there are many imitations placed on the market which are said to be "just as good."

GRANDMA NEVER LET HER HAIR GET GRAY

Kept Her Locks Dark, Thick, Glossy, With Sage Tea and Sulphur

When you darken your hair with Sage Tea and Sulphur, no one can tell, because it's done so naturally, so evenly. Preparing this mixture, though, at home is messy and troublesome. For 50 cents you can buy at any drug store the ready-to-use tonic called "Wyleth's Sage and Sulphur Hair Remedy." You just dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning all gray hair disappears, and, after another application or two, your hair becomes beautifully darkened, glossy and luxuriant. You will also discover dandruff is gone and hair has stopped falling.

Gray, faded hair, though no disgrace, is a sign of old age, and as we all desire a youthful and attractive appearance, get busy at once with Wyleth's Sage and Sulphur and look years younger.

At present there are no Diamonds being cut on the market. The controlling syndicate is holding their cards close.

The Canadian government has recently levied a war tax of 7 1/2 per cent.

Diamonds must just naturally go much higher. The American continent, which is being held by the war, buys about 70 per cent of the world's output.

We have a beautifully selected stock of this kind of gems. Our prices have not been changed. They are the lowest in the land.

Gained 30 Lbs. in Few Weeks Never Felt So Well

Was Pale, Weak and Thin, and Had Nervous Headaches Before Using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

It is truly wonderful what Dr. Chase's Nerve Food does for women who are weak, weary and run down in health. New, rich blood is what is needed in nearly all such cases, and because Dr. Chase's Nerve Food forms new blood it brings cure—not mere relief, but actual cure—in the great majority of such ailments.

With an abundant supply of blood coursing through the veins the nerves are strengthened and vigor and vitality are carried to every organ of the human body.

With the nerves properly nourished, headaches and neuralgic pains disappear, appetite improves, digestion is aided, you sleep and rest well, and gain in strength and well-being.

Mrs. H. Litch, Cannington Manor, Sask., writes:—"You will remember me writing you last spring. Well, I gave up my doctor and began using Dr. Chase's Nerve Food. This treatment cured me rapidly and I was soon myself again. I was pale, thin and weak, suffered from stomach troubles and liver complaint, and frequently had sick, nervous headaches. It was surprising to find that in a few weeks' time I had gained 30 pounds in weight. I never felt so strong and well in all my life. Headaches never bother me any more, and I am grateful for the cure. If people would only give this medicine a fair trial they would certainly be cured."

Everywhere people are talking about this great food cure, which cures in Nature's way, by supplying the ingredients to form new blood, and so overcome weakness and disease by an abundance of vitality. UNFORTUNATELY HE LIVES

Man Refuses to Commit Suicide and Thereby Kills Good Story

Two small town correspondents of metropolitan dailies were swapping experiences on the train coming into Indianapolis.

"I had a peculiar thing happen to me," said one. "A man in one of the large cities got into trouble and disappeared. The police search was unavailing. He had threatened to commit suicide. It was just by luck that I discovered this man hiding in my town. He thought no one knew him. I made up my mind that he was liable to commit suicide at any moment. It was a big case, and I knew that there would be good money in it for me if I could sell a story to my paper. So I quietly wired the editor that I had found the man, and asked him if he would keep his special men off and let me handle the story in case the man committed suicide."

The editor wired acceptance, and then I dug into the man's past history and duped up the most beautiful human interest story any one ever read. I made several pages of it, for I figured the paper would spread it big. I spent two weeks' time and $20 in getting all the facts. Then I put my story in a pigeon-hole of my desk and sat down to wait for the man to commit suicide.

I waited two or three months, and the melancholy that sat on the man be-

 "And so you see," concluded the great detective's gushy visitor, "I have come to you. Of course, if Count Macaghietti is a barber and no count—of no account, you might almost put it—hee-hee!—I wouldn't dream of marrying him. But how can I tell?"
 "Very simple, very simple, indeed, my dear young harpist—I deduct you are a harpist from the way you have been harping on this subject," said the great detective.
 He leaned over and whispered into the young woman's flapping ear.
 "O, how droll and at the same time just too clever and detective!" cried the giggling.
 That night, by buying the tickets herself, she induced Count Macaghietti to take her to the opera. When the comed-dian of the troupe came on she turned and watched her escort and fiance attentively.

 "Ha-ha-ha!" laughed the count uproariously. "Very fun!" and he applauded strenuously.
 Sure enough, instead of clapping straight up and down, he used first the back of his hand and then the palm, just as if he was stropping a razor!

The daily roll-off was won by Covey with a score of 128.
 The second game of the series will be played tomorrow evening between the Maples and Malletts, and the final game on Wednesday between the Thistles and the Malletts. The team having the highest total pin fall will be considered the champions. As the three teams are evenly matched there is considerable interest in the result.

CANADA IN THE WAR

The late Colonel F. D. Farquhar, commanding the Princess Patricia's Canadian Light Infantry, has been killed in action in France. He was formerly military secretary to H. R. R. the Duke of Connaught. Lieut. Martin of the same regiment was killed also.

Jules Cassagne, of the 23rd Light Infantry, a Canadian volunteer, is mentioned in despatches for bravery in action. He refused to surrender on the capture of a German trench and was killed.

The Canadian Car & Foundry Co. of Montreal and Amherst, has received an $80,000 order from the Russian government for supplying shrapnel. This will mean a rush night and day job for a year. The company has already shipped to various fronts orders aggregating $35,000,000.

The sermon yesterday morning in Exmouth street Methodist church to the soldiers of the 26th battalion was delivered by Rev. W. G. Lane and contained much practical advice to the men going abroad.

An interesting budget of news was contained in a letter received this week by a friend here from Miss Joyce Wisheart, who left here as nurse and is now in England. The letter was dated March 8 and said that she and the other Canadian nurses expected almost any time to be sent forward to France.

RECENT DEATHS

The death of Mrs. Alice Murphy, widow of William Murphy, occurred on Saturday at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. William McBride, 48 City road. She was in her seventy-ninth year. Two sons and two daughters survive: J. H. Murphy, William Edward Murphy, Mrs. William McBride and Miss Emma Murphy, all of this city.

Friends throughout the city will regret to learn of the death of Mrs. Margaret Gleason which occurred Saturday evening at her home, 16 Richmond street, after a brief illness from bronchial trouble. Mrs. Gleason was about 76 years of age. She was the widow of Patrick Gleason who died about fourteen years ago and was herself the youngest and last surviving member of the Lawlor family who had their home at Lawlor's Lake, St. John county. She was a very well-known and estimable woman. She is survived by three sons, John F. and P. Joseph, of this city, William L., of St. John and Boston, and two daughters, Misses Mary E. and Regina G., of this city. The late D. J. Gleason, formerly head of the check room of the customs department at Ottawa, was another son. The funeral will be held Tuesday morning at 10:30 o'clock from the Cathedral after high mass of requiem.

The death of John A. Pirie, son of Anthony A. and Julia F. Pirie, occurred yesterday at the home of his parents, 146 Metcalfe street. He was twenty-one years of age, and had been employed for the last four years in J. & A. McMillan's wholesale. He leaves to mourn, besides his parents, three brothers—Adrian A. of Cardston, Alberta, and David and Daniel at home; also four sisters—Julia, Margaret, Gertrude and Lisa, at home. Many friends will hear of his death with regret.

The funeral of Miss Grace Graham, whose death occurred in the Carney hospital on March 14, was held from the home of her brother, J. Whidden Graham, in Milltown, N.B., on March 16, with Rev. B. H. Penwarden of Milltown as officiating minister.

SPORTS NEWS OF A DAY, HOME AND ABROAD

RING. Ahearn Defeats Gans. Young Ahearn, holder of the English middleweight championship, defeated Italian Joe Gans of Brooklyn in a ten-round bout in Brooklyn on Saturday night. Ahearn was the aggressor throughout. The bell saved Gans in the seventh round.

Fitzsimmons Best Man. Archie Goettler, a New York song writer, who numbers among his compositions "My Wife in Europe; She Can't Get Back," and "I Love My Wife, But You Kid," and Miss Isabella Green, a singer, known to the stage as Belle Dixon, his partner in a musical sketch in which they are playing in a local vaudeville theatre, were married in the Town Hall in Brewster, N. Y., the other afternoon. The bride and bridegroom were less an attraction to the rural populace than "Lanky Bob" Fitzsimmons, ex-champion pugilist, who, in top hat and frock coat did the honors as best man. Fitzsimmons escorted the Countess Zeelin, his partner in a vaudeville act, who served as attendant to the bride.

ROLLER SKATING. New World's Record. Roland Cloni and Edington won the twenty-four hour roller skating race ended on Saturday at the Madison Square Garden, New York. The winners traveled 804 miles and 5 laps, establishing a new world record. The former mark was 294 miles, hung up last year.

BASEBALL. Is Joe Wood a Has Been? "Jim" Murnane, a veteran baseball expert of the Boston Globe, predicts that Joe Wood will be of very little use to the Red Sox this year. Writing from the Hot Springs, Murnane says: "To me Joe Wood looked weaker yesterday than the first day that he was out for practice, so far as pitching the ball goes. From a careful study am inclined to think that Wood will be of little value to the Red Sox this season; yet, I may be mistaken, for the warm weather may thaw out a once great salary wing.

"There is no smoke in the wake of the ball that Sir Joseph tosses up to the batter this spring. He is a grand ball player, apart from his pitching, but in all positions the salary wing has a big function to perform, and without his good right arm in shape little can be done for the benefit of the club that is paying a heavy salary for first-class work.

"Wood is no shirler, and will get there if he can; and we all hope that some magic charm will bring around that arm that moved the greatest batters down like a giant sledge, ripping through a field of ripe wheat."

Seaton's "Licorice Ball." The latest winter league freak is the "licorice ball" of the Brooklyn Feds. It is supposed to be the inventor. The first essential in the use of the "licorice ball" is to have a piece of hard licorice in the jaw.

The pitcher must apply black saliva to one side of the ball, holding the other side clean. He must throw it in such a way that the black revolves around the white and gives the batter's eye alternate flashes of light and dark that will cause him to blink and fail to get an accurate gaze on where it is coming. This year was related to Christy Mathewson recently, and the veteran pitcher of the Giants had one of the best laughs of his life.

"I believe Seaton is the fellow who thought he could get away with an emery-less-emery ball by scarring the horsehide with his hard finger nails, said Christy. But even he ought to know that the "licorice ball" would be barred for the same reason that the emery ball is—defacing it. Even if it were allowed, the only effect I can imagine it having is putting the catcher's glove to the bad.

Clubs to Travel $3,593 Miles. The National League schedule for the coming season requires the eight clubs to travel 88,898 miles. The western clubs will cover more mileage than the eastern teams. Pittsburgh leads with 12,595 miles and the New York Giants have the least traveling to do, their total for the season being put at $,626. Figuring on teams of twenty-one players and four others, including managers, trainers, boxers, terry, this gives a total of 2,089,825 for the 200 players and others in the league. At two cents a mile, the minimum rail-road mileage charge, the sum to be expended by the clubs between April 14 and October 7 will amount to $41,796.80. Meals and sleeping berths will add many thousands to these figures.

Standing Vote at Meeting Addressed by Rev. T. Albert Moore in Fairville

A mass meeting of men representing various churches and societies in Fairville was held yesterday afternoon in the Methodist church and addressed by Rev. T. Albert Moore, D.D., head of the departments of Moral and Social Reform Movement of the Methodist church. Dr. Moore referred to the great brotherhood movement particularly in England and said he believed that the best results could be obtained in a community by breaking down the bars of religious differences and organizing on undenominational lines. He is president of the interdenominational brotherhood movement of Canada and intimately acquainted with the principles governing that enthusiastic and growing body.

He divided his topic "Things to Think About" into three sections, Care for the boys, temperance reform, personal purity. Speaking on the temperance question he referred to the action taken the other day by the government of Saskatchewan in cancelling all retail licenses from May 1 next and said "I read in the paper last week that New Brunswick meant to do something along the same lines. All present who would give such a reform movement their support were kindly roused." The gathering was unanimous. The address was closely followed and left a deep impression.

W. A. BROWN WELCOMED ON VISIT FROM THE WEST

Former St. John Man Now Superintendent of C. N. R. Western Division

On a short trip to visit relatives in St. John, W. A. Brown, formerly of this city, now superintendent of the Canadian Northern Railway its western division, with headquarters in Edmonton, Alta., arrived in the city at noon today. He was warmly greeted by old friends. Mr. Brown's last visit to this city was made some seven or eight years ago. He was formerly in the service of the C. N. R. here and in the west, but for some time has been connected with the C. N. R. in the important post of western divisional superintendent.

Speaking of conditions in the west, Mr. Brown said that there seemed every evidence of a continued prosperity this season, with head-quarters in Edmonton. New settlers were coming into the different districts, many from the United States, and energetically establishing themselves in the development of farms and ranches.

Regarding immigration, Mr. Brown said he did not look for any immediate increase after the war, but he felt confident that it would be long afterwards before the tide of travel would again set in and Canada would be particularly attractive for countless Europeans.

FOR MUNICIPAL OWNERSHIP

Commissioner Potts Advocates That City Owns and Operate Street Railway

One of the problems which the people of St. John soon must face, said Commissioner Potts this morning, "is the future of the street railway system and its allied lines of business. The present charter will expire in a few years and the citizens must begin soon if they are to make plans on which to act when the time comes.

"It is my belief that the whole system should be owned and operated by the city. The use of the city streets is the chief asset of the company and there is no reason why this should be given to them, practically nothing. I can show that the agreement with the city under which the company is working at present means a large financial loss to the city as compared even with the former arrangement for the upkeep of the streets, and that was moderate enough.

"Then there is the question of extensions. During the last few years the company has been extending its lines to a greater extent than before but their interests do not necessarily coincide with the interests of the city and, with a municipally owned line, extensions could be arranged in a way that would do the city the most good. There is a great amount of vacant land within the city limits which could be opened up and converted into most desirable residential sections if transportation was provided. While I am glad to see the lines running out into the county, I would like to see the city lands made available for builders and thus increase the values upon which we raise our taxes.

"The street railway, the gas and electric light systems are as much parts of the city's business as are the upkeep of the streets and the water and sewerage systems and I am convinced that they could be administered to the better advantage of the citizens if they were owned and operated by the city."

ERETRIA'S COOK WAS LOST AT SEA

FORMER TIMES MAN ABOARD

Chas. M. Wilkinson Sends Letter of Interest - Out of Danger From German Submarines - Vessel Taken Over by Admiralty

An entertaining letter has been received by Rev. W. J. Wilkinson, pastor of the Anglican church at Springfield, N. B., from his son, Charles W., a former member of the Times' writing staff who is now abroad for his health, his eyes having become weakened. His friends will be pleased to learn that he is feeling improved. The trip across was made in the S. S. Eretria.

Mr. Wilkinson tells of a very severe storm on the third day out from St. John. The seas were very high and one which broke over the after deck swept the Japanese cook overboard. It also carried away 100 tons of coal and some other things. Two sailors had to cling to the bulwarks to save their lives.

"The captain," he writes, "brought the ship about and we steamed around for about three-quarters of an hour, and the lifeboats were got in readiness, but the mate did not consider it safe to get a berth, although it would have been manned under his charge if we could have seen the Jap. He must have gone down immediately for we never saw him again. Previous to that day I had gone back with the cook to help him get stores and had I not been sick would probably have been with him the day he was drowned. Another providential result of the affair was in losing the coal we were delayed an extra day and had to put into Dartmouth on Feb. 15, the day following the harbor for two days till she could get a berth. There must have been 50 ships or more at Avonmouth docks alone and Bristol channel full of them, coming and going.

"The admiralty had the blankets, about 1,000 cases of them discharged on the steamer then sailed for Barry for coal. The rest of the cargo, it was thought, would be taken to Marseilles and then the Eretria would coal up at Gibraltar and go to some Spanish port for iron ore for the United States, to St. John for lumber. However, the vessel had been taken over by the Admiralty and sealed orders were given to Captain Sturges; so the destination of the vessel was unknown to the writer.

"Two nights before we arrived at Dartmouth, the letter mentioned, the ship was caught in a terrific gale which developed into a hurricane. The captain never saw anything like it in his thirty-five years' experience at sea in all parts of the world. The wind whistled through the rigging and water flew over the bridge, so that the captain came down stairs drenched to the skin. The glass dropped below twenty.

"When we got to Dartmouth two days later we found that two ships were lost during the storm, one of them off Falmouth, about 400 miles from where we were at the time. Here again it was fortunate that we lost our coal or we should have been in a much more dangerous position during the storm than we were as we should have been nearer the coast.

"There must be 100 ships in this port. Last week they tell me they had 118 in at one time, the most they ever had. A Norwegian boat lying alongside of us has the Norwegian flag painted on the side of the ship in hopes that the German submarines will leave her alone. Other neutral steamers come and go with their boats swung over the side in readiness to use the ship should be torpedoed, but the British ships sail as usual in defiance of German threats."
