GERMAN DEFEAT MEANS BRIGHTER DAY FOR EUROPE

Mr Edward Grey Sets War Facts Before Constituents

BRITAIN'S ONLY COURSE

Progress of War Has Revealed What Terrible Thing is German Militarism—Times Asks For More News

London, Sept. 5.—In a letter which was read at a meeting of his constituents in Liverpool, last night, Sir Edward Grey, minister of foreign affairs, made the following statement:

"When our sincere and strenuous efforts to prevent a European war failed, we would gladly have stood aside had been possible, but we were bound to take the observance of Belgium neutrality one of the conditions of our own..."

Times Wants More News

London, Sept. 5.—The Times speaking editorially of the lack of official war news, says:—"Premier Asquith said on Monday at the government felt that the public is entitled to prompt, authentic information of what happened at the front and that the government was asking arrangements to that end. We wish we could see any sign that these arrangements were coming into effect..."

ALLY TO THE AG IN BRITAIN

London, Sept. 5.—Reports of a wave of enthusiasm are heard. Recruits are rushing to the colors. Between two hundred and two hundred and fifty thousand have already joined. Many members of prominent London clubs joined yesterday in a eleventh battalion of Royal Fusiliers, which is being formed especially for the East End club men. Many professional clerks are joining.

ONE OF BEST HOPES OF MISS PETERS TO BE REALIZED

On the day following the funeral of Miss Mabel Peters, a plan of Fort Howe Park, prepared by government engineers, printed, showing that provision will be made for a splendid playground in sheltered space under the bold bluff overlooking the Military Road. It is worth while to recall the fact that it was a suggestion from Miss Peters which first aroused the interest of J. B. Irwin, Dominion Commissioner of Parks and Playgrounds, in the possibility of Fort Howe as a park. He had then to her asking if there were any other battlements in New Brunswick which might be brought within the scope of the Dominion Parks Commission and converted into national parks. Miss Peters laid the letter before the committee of the Playgrounds Association, and suggested that they recommend it to the government. This was done, and a co-operation of other organizations the city solicited. All of them heartily joined in the appeal, and as a result plans have been prepared and they are now being put into effect.

A BIRD'S EYE MAP SHOWING PARIS AND THE CIRCLE OF DEFENCES AROUND IT

GERMANS SAY THEY ARE STILL PRESSING ON AND ARE NEARER TO PARIS

Cavalry Raids Now Being Made Towards the Fortifications

AUSTRIAN DEFEAT IS A ROUT

Crippled German Destroyers at Kiel Were From Heligoland Sea Battle—Belgium Once More is Fighting Ground—Vigorous Recruiting in England

London, Sept. 4.—(11.55 p. m.)—What has been described as the arrow head of the German army, which has been slowly forcing its way through the Anglo-French armies toward Paris, has made further progress, according to the German official report issued today, and has now driven the allies back behind Conde.

Le Fer has been captured without resistance says the German statement, and with the exception of (name deleted)—which is now being attacked, and Maubeuge, which the Germans have masked, the outpost for this are now in the hands of the invaders. Cavalry raids, too, are being made in the direction of the Paris fortifications, which will, if the Germans accounts are correct, be the next step of the allied armies.

This news was a great disappointment here, where earlier official reports from Paris to the effect that the Germans had suffered a check near Verdun, led to the hope that the advance had at last been stopped.

AUSTRIANS ARE Routed

The allies take some consolation from the fact that the Russian defeat of the Austrians around Lemberg, which town has fallen into the hands of the Russian Emperor's army, with its immense stock of war material and provisions is apparently complete. The possession of Lemberg gives the Russians a base from which they can work and from which they can attack in the rear the Austrian army which has been invading Russian territory.

In a battle lasting almost a fortnight, the Austrians have suffered terrible losses, 12,000 having fallen in one place, while the Russian general says he has taken thousands of prisoners and 200 guns. The Austrian retreat, it appears from official advices, has been turned into a rout.

Belgium, which has had so many battles during the earlier stages of the war, is again the scene of fighting, German advices indicate that the Germans are completing a half circle around Antwerp.

Information has reached England, that seven of the German destroyers which the British fleet engaged off Heligoland light, and which escaped in a damaged condition, when three cruisers and two destroyers were sunk, have reached Kiel. Others were so badly damaged that they went down before reaching that refuge.

The speech of Premier Asquith, who has started a campaign in which all political leaders are taking part to further recruiting, was the most stirring heard in England in many a day. Its effect has been almost immediate, as the recruiting stations have been crowded all evening.

Besides the Prince of Wales fund for the relief of the dependents of soldiers, other funds are being raised for those who have been thrown out of work through the war. Queen Mary yesterday appealed for money to provide work for women and today she received $100,000. Among the subscribers are Lady Strathcona, who gave $25,000, Andrew Carnegie, who donated $5,000 and half a dozen others who contributed similar amounts.

NO OFFICIAL WORD HERE YET AS TO ELECTION OF NEW POPE

His Lordship Bishop LeBlanc returned home last night, accompanied by Rev. Dr. Guertin, of St. Joseph's, N. B., from Milltown, where Rev. Monsignor Doyle was invested with the purple, upon his appointment as Domestic Prelate, in the presence of many priests and members of his congregation. Others to receive this honor during the last week have been Very Rev. W. F. Chapman, V. G., of St. John the Baptist church, Monsignor Belliveau, of Grand Digne, N. B., and Monsignor Herbert, of Duclouche, N. B.

Bishop LeBlanc has as yet received no official announcement from Rome concerning the appointment of the successor of Pope Pius. He did not meet Pope Benedict while in Europe, but said today that he had probably seen him with other cardinals before there was any direct thought of the need of a new selection for the office of Sovereign Pontiff.

TRADE NOTE The Engineering and Arc Lamps, Ltd., of St. Albans, Herts, Eng., have sent a letter to the St. John board of trade, asking to have their name laid before the Canadian public as a firm capable of supplying an article of manufacture that he had probably seen him with other cardinals before there was any direct thought of the need of a new selection for the office of Sovereign Pontiff.

Gallant Work of The British Cavalry Told Of But More Are Needed

London, Sept. 5.—Sir Philip Chetwood, commanding the British cavalry brigade, which routed the Prussian horse at Cambrai, Landrevies and Le Cateau on August 28, writes home as follows: "We have been fighting without cessation for ten days. "We have had no rest, and have been fighting with odds, five to one against us. We have been through the Uhlands like brown paper, but we must have men."

Sir Philip Chetwood was the first one mentioned in General French's despatches.

TYPHOID AND CHOLERA GERMS FOR WATER SUPPLY IN ENGLISH CITY

Letter Received Here From Bolton Tells of Evident Dastardly Attempt By Agents of Enemy

The story of a dastardly attempt by her enemies to spread sickness and death among the innocent non-combatants of England, is told in a letter received by Joshua P. Clayton from his cousin, a graduate nurse in Bolton, England.

The letter tells of the arrest of two men, supposed to be a German and an Austrian, near the Bolton water works. They had in their possession vials containing the active germs of typhoid fever and cholera, and it is believed that they were attempting to introduce the germs into the water supply with the intention of poisoning the whole city. When the letter was written the men had been dealt with, but it was expected that they would pay the fullest penalty for their attempt.

ST. JOHN BOY ATHLETES IN COMPETITION TODAY

The twice-postponed boys' sports, in connection with the closing of the playground, are in full swing today on the Shamrock grounds, and the morning was an ideal one for the athletic events. Two every one ambitious for a share in the honors of the day, gathered at the grounds about 9 o'clock and, under the supervision of C. D. Howard, superintendent of playgrounds, and his assistants, Messrs. Kein and Harding, started earnestly on the sports. Dashes, runs, broad and high jumps, shot put and other athletic events for all ages, were included in the programme, and the showing made by the youngsters promises well for the future athletic record of St. John.

A citizen of West St. John complained to the Times this morning that cows and horses are continually running at large between St. Jude's church and Fort Dufferin and destroying public and private property. It is also complained that no effort has been made on the part of the authorities to stop this and that a policeman is hardly ever seen in that section of the city.

BRITISH LUMBER MARKET BETTER

The outlook in the British lumber market has improved. The price of spruce has advanced about 15s. a standard. Freights, however, are also higher, ranging now at 50s. to 55s. There is considerable demand for lumber for fitting out transport vessels. The closing of the Baltic has also caused a better general demand for Canadian spruce. How long this will continue is, of course, problematical, but the condition of trade here is much more encouraging. Two steamers are here now to load, two more are due next week, and another a little later the month. Several vessels are also loading up the bay.

The American lumber market is very dull at the moment, the trade apparently being afraid that provincial lumber, originally designed for the British market, would be dumped there because of the war conditions. This, however, will not occur.

PRESBYTERIAN MODERATOR ON THE WAR SITUATION

Ottawa, Sept. 5.—Rev. Dr. W. T. Herridge, moderator of the general assembly of the Presbyterian church in Canada, in an address last night said that there was only one course for Canada to pursue at the present time, and that was shoulder to shoulder with the rest of the empire. Dr. Herridge said the fight was one of right against might, and a supreme opportunity for the church was presented in the situation.

GERMAN LOSSES ARE MORE THAN 100,000 MEN

Correspondent Reports on Tour of Principal Cities

GERMANY IN MOURNING

Marked Change From Conditions at Outbreak of War When All Was Jubilation and Optimism—Black Now Seen Everywhere

New York, Sept. 5.—The Tribune's Copenhagen correspondent, Count Rudolph Ehrenberg, cables as follows: "I have just returned after a trip through Berlin, Leipzig, Dresden, Hanover and other large German cities. In spite of the difficulties of transportation and the suspicious reception of foreigners, I was able to observe closely the condition of the country and the state of the people. At the outset, during the period of general mobilization, the whole country resembled an armed camp. Soldiers were everywhere, and ordinary railway traffic was suspended to allow their trains to pass. There was much bustle and activity, and unbounded optimism prevailed. The troops went singing to the front. No thought but of speedy victory entered the minds of the German middle class.

"Now Germany is a land of universal mourning. Black is the predominant color. The train which conveyed me from the capital to Hamburg was full of weeping women in black. "I believe I will be within the mark in stating that more than 100,000 German soldiers already have been killed in various battles on the eastern frontier, the western frontier and in Belgium and France.

London, Sept. 5.—The Copenhagen correspondent of the Standard says: "The Germans are mourning 100,000 dead."

May Be 200,000

London, Sept. 5.—The Daily Mail's correspondent at Ghent, a French town near Beauvais, estimates that the total losses of allies at 40,000, and the losses of the Germans at 200,000.

BLACK WATCH MEN WOUNDED GET GREAT WELCOME IN LONDON

Sang Harry Lauder Songs as They Fought Germans—A Tribute to Jewish Soldiers

London, Sept. 5.—A corporal and two privates of the "Black Watch," a famous Scottish regiment, all wounded, have just arrived in London from the front. They were surrounded by a crowd and cheered. The corporal, telling how his regiment fought, said: "In the thick of it we were singing Harry Lauder's latest, 'Aye, 'Twas grand.' All around us were dead and dying. Every now and then German shells burst and as we peeped away at 'em we sang 'Roamin' in the Gloaming' and the 'Lass O' Killin'rankle."

Somebody in the crowd asked what the Jews were doing. The Highlanders replied: "Their duty. We had three with us and bonnier, braver lads I don't wish to see. They fought just splendid."

A private in a Berkshire regiment added: "We had ten in our company—all good fighters—and six won't be seen again."

JOINS BROTHER TO FIGHT FOR EMPIRE IN CANADA'S FORCE

Another St. John boy is with the troops at Valcartier preparing for active service beyond the seas. John C. Nuttall of City Road has received word from the big camp that his son, Jack, is under arms. Mr. Nuttall already had contributed one son to the contingent and his son Gordon is now at Valcartier with the signallers. In June his other son, Jack, left the Imperial Theatre, with which he had been engaged, and joined Gordon's ministrals. Recently letters addressed to him have been returned and Mr. Nuttall was beginning to wonder what had happened to his son when he received a letter from Gordon announcing that Jack also was at Valcartier and had been placed in Captain Sturdee's company.

RAISULI, NOTED MOORISH BANDIT, REPORTED DEAD

London, Sept. 5.—The Exchange Telegraph Company's Tetuan Morocco correspondent says that Raisuli, a noted Moorish brigand and pretender to the throne of Morocco, has died in the country near Tetuan and Tangier. Raisuli gained fame in 1908, when he captured Mr. Perciaris, an American, near Tangier, and demanded a ransom of $50,000. Theodore Roosevelt, then president of the United States, demanded of the Sultan of Morocco "Perciaris alive or Raisuli dead." Perciaris was released after an American fleet made a demonstration before Tangier.

A PLEASANT EVENT. A pleasant function took place last evening in Wanamakers restaurant when the proprietors entertained the members of Mack's Musical Revue at a enjoyable dinner at which a special programme was given and a special menu provided. Miss Lillie Akerstrom presided and made a capable toast mistress. During a round of toast speeches, songs, and other numbers, N. Farnum, one of the company, presented to the members of the stage crew at the Opera House, in behalf of the Revue company, appropriately engraved cuff links. The presentation was made by Joseph Stackhouse, stage manager, in behalf of the staff, and he replied, expressing thanks. During the stay of the company the best of feeling has prevailed between the Opera House crew and the Revue players, and this presentation to each of the former was a token appreciation of many kindly acts.

CAPTAIN JONES OF ST. JOHN REPORTED AS MISSING AFTER RECENT BATTLE

Simon A. Jones yesterday received a message from Montreal stating that his brother, Captain Ernest Rae Jones, of the Cheshire regiment, was reported missing after a recent engagement with the Germans in Belgium. Captain Jones was a former St. John boy, and his many friends will await with anxiety a confirmation or denial of the report.

Mr. Jones, when the message was received, was skeptical, and immediately cabled the British office for particulars, but up to this morning had received no response.

WAR NOTES

It is reported from Amsterdam that the German general staff has moved from Brussels to Mons, in France, also that Termonde, 16 miles south of Ghent has been destroyed and railway communication destroyed.

Harve is being made an open town. The British wounded have been taken to England.

There has been further fighting near Antwerp. German troops are reported going to Galicia to help the Austrians.

The Russians have captured both Lemberg and Halicz. The Austrians left 25,000 men, nearly 200 cannon and many other war material on the field at Lemberg.

Russia has invaded Austria from Tomass. The Servians at Jadar captured 100 cannon, 8 siege guns, 2500 horses, 8 hospitals of 8,000 beds, 87 mitrailleurs, 87,000 rifles, great quantities of shells, 4,600 prisoners, and an aeroplane. Between 30,000 and 32,000 Austrians were killed.

Another attempt at a survey on the steamer Shenandoah was made at 8 o'clock this morning, but was found impossible, on account of the position of the steamer. All the cargo that could possibly be lightered from the vicinity of the hole has been taken out, and this morning an extra salvage pump was put at work in an effort to clear the forward part of the steamer of water. The tug Neptune is also pumping away at the water. It is hoped that by tonight the water will be reduced far enough to ascertain the extent of the damage, and make temporary repairs.

Force of rabbit. A humorist was looking over a mill, and while, in an unguarded moment, he was pertrating one of his jokes upon an innocent operative, he was drawn into some ponderous gearing and badly crushed.

They extracted him from the machinery and laid him on the floor. "Who is it? Who is it?" was the anxious inquiry, as a crowd collected. "Nobody knew."

"Then the funny man suddenly opened his eyes and strove to speak. A sympathetic bystander bent down to catch his words."

"Because of a good reason why nobody recognizes me," he whispered, sympathetically. "What is it?" asked the sympathetic one.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. William Andrews, formerly of this city but now of Staten Island, New York, who have been visiting in St. John for a few weeks after an absence of thirty-five years, celebrated the golden jubilee of their wedding at the residence Mrs. J. B. Emery, Elliott row, a sister of Mrs. Andrews.

A large number of former friends and acquaintances gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emery evening and agreeably surprised them. Among those who were present at the wedding fifty years ago, and who were guests last evening were: D. Howe, Frederick Dunham and Mrs. Allan Bustin, niece of Mrs. Andrews. Mr. Emery was also present at the wedding. Mr. Howe, on behalf of those present, read an address and presented to Mr. Andrews a gold-headed cane, and to Mrs. Andrews a gold-headed umbrella.

The evening was pleasantly spent in games and dancing, and all agreed that the bride and groom of fifty years were still as young in heart on the day of their wedding. Mrs. Andrews was formerly Miss Emery, daughter of the late James Emery, of Moss Glen, and was married to Mr. Andrews by the late Rev. William Scovill. Mr. Andrews was a former ship builder in St. John, and is now a contractor and builder in New York.

The largest tillable farm in the United States is said to be near Tarkio, Mo., and contains 29,000 acres. The land alone is estimated to be worth about $8,000,000.

The Best Quality at a Reasonable Price

Desire

The desire to own a Diamond is simply a call of nature. It is the most beautiful of all gems, and its intrinsic value is a really valuable possession. Diamonds secured gold for many European travellers in the last few weeks when nothing else would.

The desire to own things of real intrinsic worth is a wholesome desire—one that should be cultivated.

The Diamond combines beauty and value in an extremely practical form. It is an exquisite ornament and a profitable investment—especially profitable right now, for the Diamond prices are mounting day after day, but the Diamonds at Sharpe's are on sale at prices established before conditions responsible for the sudden rise in price took place.

BULL DOG ATTACKS

LITTLE ONE AND BITES

CHEEK OF RESCUER

The attack of the Germans on the French could not be more ferocious than the attacks of a large brindle bull dog made on a small terrier owned by Mrs. R. M. Rive. The affair, which was witnessed by a large crowd, took place in King street east about eight o'clock, and in effecting the rescue of the smaller dog, Robert J. Cox, harness maker, who lives in King street east, was badly bitten by the bull dog and had to receive medical attention.

As the little dog was being nearly killed, the crowd tried to separate them. Three times the bull dog was driven off, but each time he came back. Finally Mrs. Rive's dog, who was badly bitten, was rescued by Mr. Cox, who was obliged to hurry to the office of Dr. G. A. B. Addy to have the wound dressed. The terrier was safely within the door of its mistress' home. Even after the dog was placed safely in the vestibule and the door closed, the bull dog charged the door several times and had to be driven off with stones.

WHERE MILLIONS ARE FIGHTING.

Belgium is organized purely for defense. Her army is 200,000 strong. The River Meuse, the largest tributary of the Rhine, is as wide and deep as the Thames. It flows through the centre of Liege, a city of some 500,000 inhabitants, surrounded by a ring of twelve forts, powerfully armed.

The Meuse divides Belgium into two parts. To the north is the fertile flat country, with its great and populous cities; to the south is the wild and hilly forest region of the Ardennes. The valley of the Meuse is the natural highway across. The valley is guarded by the fortress of Liege, by the rock fortress of Namur, and by the French frontier fortress of Givet. The capture of Liege laid open the whole of industrial Belgium to the sea.

"IF WE EVER GET THEM IN THE OPEN, GOOD NIGHT"

The British army in France is described as fit in every sense of the word, and its transportation intact. The fighting along the line of the German advance has been incessant and desperate. One officer said:—"The more you kill them the more there are of them, but if we ever get them in the open, it's Good-night."

Ward Leaders Appointed For Visiting Soldiers' Families—Red Cross Branch at Hampton—Some Contributions

The Women's Auxiliary of the Patriotic Fund Committee has agreed to take over the work of visiting the families of the soldiers who have enlisted to foreign service, and ladies at once appointed ward leaders to take charge of the cases already reported.

At a meeting of Hampton ladies yesterday at the home of Mrs. N. M. Barnes, a branch of the Red Cross Society was organized. Mrs. J. A. McAvilly and Lady Tilley delivered addresses on the subject. The officers elected were Mrs. J. J. Ryan, president; Mrs. N. Chipman, Mrs. E. H. Creed, Mrs. H. Crowfoot, Mrs. J. A. Mortimer, Mrs. T. Conway, vice-presidents; Mrs. Vivian Fowler, secretary, and Mrs. E. Angvine, treasurer.

Major Frink yesterday received a donation of $19 from the officers and men of the steamer Aberdeen, with the promise that each month there would be a contribution forthcoming until the total reached $20,000.

close of the war, as part of a day's pay deducted from each of them. The mayor also received $20 from Lady Barker and $5 from Miss Wilmfred Barker. The Robert Reford Company, Montreal, has contributed $5,000 towards the Canadian National Patriotic Fund.

MRS. W.F.B. PATTERSON SERIOUSLY INJURED

Other Occupants Also Hurt When Thrown From Carriage — Delivery Team Also Runs Away

Four persons were injured when a horse attached to a carriage in which Mrs. W. F. B. Patterson, her brother, Alfred Plummer, of Boston, Mrs. Plummer and their daughter, Miss Bertie Plummer, were driving, ran away yesterday in Garden street. Mrs. Patterson had her collar bone broken and was otherwise painfully and seriously injured and Miss Plummer received some bad bruises. The party was driving down Garden street when the horse stumbled, breaking one of the shafts and, becoming frightened, started to bolt down the steep hill. Mrs. Patterson, who was driving, had the presence of mind to turn the horse into Charles street, but in taking the corner, the carriage upset, throwing the occupants to the street. Dr. G. G. Corbett attended the injured members of the party. Shortly after six o'clock last evening a broken strap caused the horse attached to O'Neil Bros' delivery express to run away in King street east. The driver after trying to stop the animal, jumped. The horse continued at a mad rate down Sydney street until it collided with a sloop, throwing the horse and smashing the wagon. The horse was only slightly injured.

A further gift of £10,000 has been made to the Cardiff, Eng., Medical School by the anonymous donor who has previously made donations equivalent to £10,000.

AMERICAN CRUISER A FERRYBOAT BETWEEN FRANCE AND ENGLAND

London, Sept. 4.—The failure of Southampton port officials to advise the officers of the American cruiser Tennessee that she could dock there was responsible for the unexpected landing of the cruiser at Weymouth today with 800 refugees from Havre. Application for permission to dock the cruiser at Southampton had been made and the failure to receive an answer forced the American boat to select Weymouth for her landing.

The Tennessee has now been ordered to set as a ferry from Havre to England, until all passengers reported there have been transferred. The Tennessee's passengers reported that German airships had been seen over many French cities. They said there were numerous delays of trains near the outside Paris forts because of the preparations for defense and the tearing down of houses to make way for clear gun fire from the outside fortifications in Paris.

THE WAR NEWS

The war news that came over the cable last night was slightly more favorable, but the report of a check to the German right wing before Paris, and its enforced retirement to a point eighty miles from that city has not been confirmed.

THE VOICE OF BRITAIN

The world rings today with Premier Asquith's stern and eloquent denunciation of Germany. In effect he declares that this is a war between civilization and barbarism, and of right against might.

It is because the world realizes the justice of the statements of Premier Asquith that Germany is today without a sympathizer among the enlightened countries of the world.

THE EXHIBITION

The St. John Exhibition will be opened this evening under exceptional circumstances, and the speakers will find occasion to allude to a topic never before filling the public mind in Fair time.

Col. the Hon. Sam Hughes says that 200,000 men have offered themselves for active service since the enrollment in Canada began.

The plan of Fort Howe which has been prepared by government architects and engineers shows that the property will be converted into a magnificent park.

The Standard very properly says that credit is due to Hon. Mr. Hagan for his assistance in having Fort Howe converted into a park.

THE BUSINESS OUTLOOK

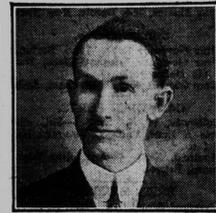

The fact that the embargo has been lifted from sugar and a number of other lines of food products in England, and that they can be imported into Canada again is the strongest evidence of the restoration of business confidence in the Mother Country.

Canadians should take a lesson from the Mother Country, which is so much more seriously affected by the war and so much nearer the war zone.

Morning Cables Tell Of German Defeats On Land and Sea

While the official announcements made by the British and French authorities last night were to the effect that there had been no change in the situation of the belligerent armies, unofficial reports said that the German right wing had been checked and forced to retire on St. Quentin, on the River Somme, thirty miles northwest of Laon and eighty miles from Paris.

The British official press bureau, in its statement, said, a German movement was developing in an eastward and southwestward direction. The exact geographical location of this movement was omitted.

Further confirmation was received in New York last night that Russian troops had gone into France to join the Allies against the Germans. Their number was estimated at between 70,000 and 80,000.

Newspaper reports to London last night said the Germans were operating in the district between Alost and Termonde, Belgium and that fighting was in progress.

That another naval engagement in the North Sea has occurred seems possible from a statement issued by the London official press bureau. It said seven German torpedo boat destroyers had arrived at Kiel in a damaged condition and that others were understood to have been sunk in the vicinity of the Kiel Canal. In some quarters, however, it was suggested that the vessels may belong to the German force that was engaged in the recent fight with the British off Heligoland.

The official Russian statement concerning the capture of Lemberg, capital of Galicia, says that it is believed the remnant of the Austrian army left after the Russian attack is no longer of military value. Besides the thousands of men killed, wounded or made prisoners, the Russian report that they took 200 guns from the Austrians.

Grand Duke Nicholas, the Russian commander-in-chief, has ordered the Russian general in command in that country.

The Bulgarian minister to Greece declares that Bulgaria has decided to maintain her neutrality until the end of the war.

Easy & Practical Home Dress Making Lessons

Prepared Especially for This Newspaper by Pictorial Review

A REIGNING MODE.

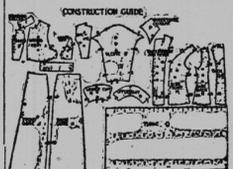

Finished with deep cuffs. Accompanying the basque is a skirt with side pleated tunic. Six and one-half yards of 44-inch material, with 1/4 yard of 38-inch lining and 2 yards of extra material for the sack make the suit.

From a fold of the fabric all parts of the pattern are cut except the piecing for the tunic and side back.

The most difficult part of the costume is the construction of the basque. The lining is simple, being just the plain foundation for which rules so often have been given.

For the outside first underface the front from 1 inch inside of line of small "o" perforations to front edge; turn over on small "o" perforations to form revers and stitch upper edge to position. Center-front indicated by double "oo" perforations. Gather front edge between double "T" perforations and stitch a tape 1/4 inch long under gathers. Join front to side front and back to side back as notched. Gather along seam in front and side front between double "T" perforations; stitch tape 1/4 inch long under gathers. Close under-arm seam as notched, easing any fullness in side front between notches. Close shoulder seam. Sew Directorate collar to neck edge, center-backs even and underneath revers matching single large and double small "oo" perforations.

Tunic—Slash down fold at center-front to large "O" perforation for opening. Close center-back seam. If desired with open front, see cutting directions. Turn under front edge 1 1/2 inch. Turn under lower edge on double "oo" perforations for hem. Pleat, creasing on slot perforations, bring edges together to small "o" perforations and fold near center-back to center; press pleats. Adjust on skirt, center even; stitch upper edge along single even "oo" perforations.

Tiny black or blue satin buttons enhance the beauty of the costume.

Handsome semi-fitted costume in new blue satin, featuring the basque of 1830, combined with a side-pleated tunic skirt.

The best dressmakers of Paris have given this model a very high place in the ranks of fashion. The soft, supple materials are required for its development, and nothing is more effective than satin in one of the new shades of blue. The basque has a fitted lining and large armholes with long sleeves.

SOME HORSE-TRADER THIS MANAGER

(By Fullerton.) "These minor league club owners are entirely too smart for me," groaned Charlie Comiskey. "One has to keep his eyes open all the time, and he didn't come to me to sell a player. He showed the figures, and sang the praises of that fellow until I thought the club wasn't quite good enough for him. Finally I told him to bring the player on and let me see him. He brought him.

"The fellow looked all right, and he didn't say much. He just sat around and kept his hat on. I wondered at it at the time, as all of us had our hats off but thought maybe he didn't know any better. I bought him. The first day he practiced his hat blew off and I understood.

"That head came straight up to a point, and the owner had tipped the player to keep his hat on so I couldn't see the slant of his head until I bought him. They have horse traders beaten a block."

Belgium has the greatest number of public houses per capita in the world. Mexican Constitutionalists Also Discovered Blood Stained Clothing of Murdered Madero—Several Arrests Made

Mexico City, Sept. 4.—The military branch of the Constitutionalists authorities today discovered a human heart, preserved in alcohol, in a glass jar in a private residence in Mexico City. Several arrests in connection with the discovery were made, but the authorities refuse to divulge the names of those taken into custody. Other arrests are expected shortly. Blood-stained clothing which belonged to President Madero and Vice-President Pino Suarez, who were killed in Mexico City in February of 1913, also has been found, together with a watch which belonged to the president and a pin which was the property of his brother, Gustavo Madero. These pieces of jewelry will be placed in the national museum. General Joaquin Jimenez Castro, one of the federal commanders, was arrested today. The charge against him was not made public.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven Catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address: F. J. CHENEY & CO., Toledo, Ohio. Sold by Druggists, 75c. Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

NORTH END NEWS

An abundant supply of country produce is being brought to the city with each trip of the river boats and farmers are getting good prices for all kinds of vegetables and apples. The latter are exceptionally plentiful this year. Early apples are selling from $1.00 to $8.00 a barrel. Potatoes were a little higher yesterday and were selling at from fifty to sixty cents a bushel. Tomatoes are also very plentiful and cucumbers, cabbage and carrots are selling at the same prices as last week.

The steamers have had good passenger lists during the last week as people are moving in from the country and several families have been coming down river each day. The May Queen had about fifteen passengers this morning when she left for the Grand Lake. Many of these were excursionists taking advantage of the holiday on Monday to spend Sunday up river.

Paving work in Main street is progressing very slowly and street cars are still running on the one track from Mill street to Douglas avenue so that there is often considerable delay in going either way on the cars and teams can use only one side of the street for a considerable distance so that traffic is often congested. During the exhibition, which opens tonight, traffic will be even heavier in Main street than now. It does not seem as if the work will be completed for some time yet.

SPECTATOR ASKS WHERE KAISER'S VIOLATION ENDS

London Paper Sees Where President Wilson Can Render Service to Mankind by Demanding Explanation From Germany

London, Sept. 4.—The Spectator, discussing the German operations at Louvain, says: "We venture to take this opportunity of again suggesting that President Wilson should approach the German emperor and ask him for a plain declaration of what his intentions are with regard to all the treaties signed in his behalf at The Hague. Those agreements have been shamelessly disregarded so that no earnest man can now place any trust in German promises."
 The newspaper says that Englishmen, no matter what Emperor William's answer might be, would have no thought of reprisals, adding that there must be no policy of "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth."
 "Here is Mr. Wilson's opportunity," the Spectator continues. "The United States is strictly neutral—as honestly neutral toward Germany, we are sure, as toward ourselves. But she is the only neutral great power, except Italy, left outside the orbit of war. We earnestly hope that Mr. Wilson, finding himself in this position—particularly since he represents a nation deeply committed to the principles of The Hague—will boldly ask the German emperor to declare his intentions."
 "Mr. Wilson can act where no one else could as the spokesman of civilization and of human rights. The question to be put to the German emperor could be asked in a manner that would admit of no misunderstanding or evasion."
 "Does the German emperor repudiate the Geneva convention, and—perhaps even more binding—the common understanding of Europe that has grown up in the 200 years? Does he repudiate all the Hague conventions? We ought to know. In our opinion the United States owes it to civilization to find out for the rest of the world."

WHY IS IT?
 Why is it that a glass dropped into a pan of hot water will break but if put in a pan of cold water and boiled, it will not even crack?
 This is not such a poser as it seems to be, because almost everybody knows that most things get bigger, that is, they expand when they are heated just as they shrink or contract under the influence of cold. So if a tumbler is filled with hot water or put in hot water it expands or breaks because every part of it does not become hot at once.
 If, however, the glass is in the pan while the water is boiling the whole glass expands equally, there is no strain between inside and outside and there is no reason why it should break.

A HEALTHYGRAM.
 Out of every 100 cases of typhoid, 85 come from polluted water, five from milk, five from flies and five from other causes. Wither is a mere carrier of germs. The germs do not grow and multiply in it as they do in milk. Demand close inspection of all dairy farms from your health department as a man with "walking" typhoid may easily start an epidemic of real cases.

LEADER RESIGNS TO FARM IN CHILE

Count Otani's Ideas Were to Make Buddhism of East as Strong as Christianity of the West

Tokio, Sept. 4.—Indictments which have been returned charging five Buddhist priests with the embezzlement of approximately $4,000,000, together with allegations that the corruption has extended to some prominent officials attached to the Imperial Palace in Tokio, and the resignation of the distinguished abbot, Count Otani, of the Western Honganji sect, because of the scandal, have caused a sensation here as a farmer, have constituted a sensation for all Japan.

Count Otani's case is of absorbing interest. The Western Honganji sect, founded 700 years ago, has been one of the richest Buddhist sects in Japan. Today it has a debt of some $5,000,000. The sect has a beautiful temple at Kyoto, and its leader, Count Otani, has over a million followers throughout the Empire. He was one of the most picturesque and commanding figures in Japan, although only thirty years of age. His great idea was to make Buddhism in the East as strong a force in the world as the Christianity of the west. He had traveled much abroad. He went through China, studied Buddhism in India, made investigations in England, sent favorite priests on long journeys to all parts of the world, equipped an expedition to Central Asia, started a religious propaganda on a large scale for the diffusion of Buddhism and kept in touch with the world problems to an exceptional degree. He spent much time and money in establishing Buddhist schools in which his priests were educated, bought and sold land, harbored an ambition to become a member of the House of Peers, and built a magnificent palace on the top of Rokkusan, a mountain near Kobe.
 He saw that Christianity, as he put it, was like a strong chain that joined the countries of Europe together. He predicted a time when there might be a great clash between Oriental Buddhism and Occidental Christianity, and wondered whether Buddhism would be strong enough to hold together the yellow race.
 His ambition was to strengthen Buddhism so that when the great combat came the religion of the east would predominate.
 In Japan Buddhism found its greatest strength, he believed. Returning to

PLENTY OF OYSTERS BUT NO MARKET
 War has nipped the oyster crop of Long Island in the bud. The bulk of the blue point crop, which is a big one, is sold abroad, but the embargo on foreign shipments leaves the oyster men with only the home market to supply, and this means that the supply will be much greater than the demand. Hundreds of men are employed in gathering and packing oysters. These will be without work until the foreign market re-opens.

Japan he began a vigorous campaign. He preached his doctrines and his ideas. He told the young men that they should go abroad as missionaries, specially to the uncultured parts of the world for the diffusion of Buddhism. His students began to dream of adventures in far distant lands. Some went to Australia and others to the Pacific coast of South America.
 Then he conceived a gigantic scheme to explore Central Asia. He was convinced that a Buddhist party would be able to make discoveries that would strengthen the claims of Buddhism upon the world. Older priests pleaded with the abbot not to launch such an expensive project, but the Count insisted and sent a boy of eighteen, son of a Nagoya priest, as the leader of the expedition. The undertaking cost thousands of dollars. Its results were doubtful as concerning science, say the Count's critics.
 Count Otani meanwhile lived in almost regal style in his wonderful villa at Rokkusan. His mansion was rich in carvings and paintings and rare objects of art. There were gardens, dormitories, schools and all that goes to make up a little kingdom of itself, looking down upon the harbor of Kobe and the Bay of Osaka. The dormitories were modelled after those the abbot had seen at Eton. Clothing, furnishings and food were luxurious. When the old priests who slowly climbed the mountain, coming from the temple at Kyoto, remonstrated with him for extravagance he told them not to worry as he was seeking the great interests of Buddhism.
 Not one of the abbot's present critics accuse him of vanity or personal aggrandisement. He was sincere, they say, in his big enterprises which included speculation in land. He was influential

GERMAN GIRL SPY CAUGHT BY BRITISH WITH PLANS OF PARIS

On Same Day at La Croix, German Dressed in English Uniform, Was Shot as He Made Movement to His Pocket

London, Sept. 4.—11.41 p. m.—A despatch to Reuter's Telegram Company from Dieppe says: "A German girl spy was arrested yesterday by English soldiers on the bridge over the Oise river at La Croix. In her possession were the plans of all the roads and bridges around Paris. She looked to be not more than seventeen years old."
 "A German spy, dressed in an English uniform, was caught the same day and shot immediately by an English officer because he made a gesture as if to take something out of his pocket instead of obeying an order to throw up his hands."

BURNING AND ITCHING ECZEMA

On Hands and Arms. Broke Out in Fine Rash. Had to Give Up Work. Could Not Rest. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured.

Lombardy, Ont.—"I had been suffering for two years with eczema on my hands and arms. At first my hand broke out in a fine rash with a burning and itching that was hard to bear.

Then it spread all over my arms. I could not rest at night as the bed clothes would irritate my eruption every time I would stir or move my hands.

I tried two treatments giving each a fair trial but they failed to cure me. Then I saw the advertisement in the paper about Cuticura Soap and Ointment so I sent for a sample and I began to use them with very little faith, but to my surprise I found relief from the very first.

My hands and arms were so sore I could not stand to put them in water. I also had to give up my work. Then it spread all over my arms. I could not rest at night as the bed clothes would irritate my eruption every time I would stir or move my hands.

COULD NOT STAND ON FEET

Mrs. Baker So Weak—Could Not Do Her Work—Found Relief In Noval Wax.

Adrian, Mich.—"I suffered terribly with female weakness and backache and got so weak that I could hardly do my work.

When I washed my dishes I had to sit down and when I would sweep the floor I would get so weak that I would have to get a drink every few minutes, and before I did my dusting I would have to lie down.

I got so poorly that my father thought I was going into consumption. One day I found a piece of paper blowing around the yard and I picked it up and read it. It said "Bared from the Grease," and told what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for women.

I showed it to my husband and he said, "Why don't you try it?" So I did, and after I had taken two bottles I felt better and I said to my husband, "I don't need any more," and he said "You had better take it a little longer anyway."

THE CHIEF DESIGNER'S NEW FALL MODELS

What Gentlemen Will Wear This Season—The New Suitings and Overcoatings as Shown in the Semi-ready Tailoring—Imported British Woollens—The Finest Fabrics

All the new style models for fall and winter have arrived at the Semi-ready Store. The chief designer, in writing to a friend in town, proudly proclaimed his productions as the best he had ever evolved in his long experience.

The English note is predominant in the fall fashions for men, and the new fabrics are of beauty and harmony. The pure English models are best depicted in the three-button soft roll coat, with peaked lapel, and noticeably form-fitting, yet designed to give the effect of a comfortable lounge suit.

The younger set have always found the new attractions worth while in the Semi-ready line, but for those who prefer the more conventional business and professional suits, the Semi-ready designs are ever attractive.

The colors for fall, usually with a dominant brown effect, will this season give place to a notable green, which will add a touch of brightness and warmth to the more sombre brown. There are some charming examples of the weaver's art in green-blue effects, and some very beautiful broken plaids in dark grey, tastefully woven with green.

Norfolk jackets are appreciably gaining in vogue, and, like the Canadian ulster, they are essentially suited to the rigorous outdoor climate of Canada.

Fall and winter overcoatings are shown in a profusion of patterns and fabrics, with a choice which will meet every fancy.

The shawl collar, at first shown only in the Canadian ulster, has taken a place with the less weighty fall-overcoat, and a neat garment of the Chesterfield type, with patch pockets, will prove an attractive creation.

The Balinesean, a revival of the old-time Raglan, has a touch of the army swagger, and for a time the military touch in clothes will find favor with the younger set.

Without much departure from the regular lines, the full dress suits and tuxedo dinner jackets in the Semi-ready line showing have some delicate and dainty touches.

It has always been the purpose of the Semi-ready designers to adhere closely to the immediate and classic creations in both fabric and fashion. The leaders in any line must ever consider the true note in art, avoiding that which is faddy and fast fading by its lack.

With the price in the pocket, and the trade label, which gives to each customer an abiding faith in each purchase, the vogue of Semi-ready tailoring has made rapid strides in Canada. Tailors and manufacturers from England and from the United States have journeyed to Canada to study the "secret" of its success, and yet have sensed the fact that its fuller success lies not in secrecy, but rather in excessive candor.

John P. Condon invites every man who likes art and who desires comfort and good value in clothes to call and see the new Semi-ready creations. He is ready to buy, but simply to study and to know.

Mr. Condon has the only store in St. John selling the genuine Semi-ready tailoring, and though it has been called the store "on the wrong side of the street," he says they are always on the right side in fashion and in moderate price. Suits are sold for $15 and up.

THE INDUSTRIAL SECTION of the St. John Exhibition has been growing with each succeeding show, and the display to be made next month will, judging from the applications for space, surpass anything seen in the past.

Gossip of the Movies—Picture Actress as Nurse—Sketch of Barry O'Neil—Catholic Film Corporation—Better Feeling in England

The condition of the motion picture industry in England has a peculiar interest to manufacturers and exhibitors on this side just at this time.

Two representative trade papers published in England, the "Bioscope" and the "Kinematograph," have taken pains to get an expression of the views of the situation, and the probable outlook from the principal English companies and the branches of American concerns in London, besides obtaining through their correspondents in the British Isles the reports of actual conditions in the various localities.

There is a diversity of opinion among the executives of the large firms, but on the whole, the sentiment seems hopeful.

Edna Goodrich, who was to have begun work this week for the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Company on the motion picture production of the "Warrens of Virginia," in a letter to Samuel Goldfish, head of the Lasky firm, advised that the picture would necessarily have to be postponed as she was marooned at Ostend, Belgium, and had busied herself for the past two weeks, at a member of the Belgium Red Cross.

"I have occupied my time," writes Goodrich, "by making bandages for the wounded. My hotel, The Kurmaal, has been turned into a hospital and there are three hundred badly injured soldiers here."

She's One of the Youngest Anita Stewart, the Vitagraph star, is probably the youngest leading lady in motion pictures.

Miss Stewart is only nineteen years old, yet she often portrays roles of a woman every year in the silent acting.

Less than two years ago Miss Stewart was given a small part by Ralph Ince, her present director, in a wild sort of picture. Her part was that of the Wood Violet. Her success was complete.

Mr. Ince then recognized a coming star in her. He took her in hand, and taught her every nuance of the silent acting.

Anita Stewart's greatest triumph was in "A Million Bids," seen in St. John at the Imperial, in which the audience was held spellbound at the wonderful acting she displayed.

Though born in New York, Barry O'Neil, who is a picture favorite in St. John, is of Irish parentage, as his name mildly suggests. In his stage career he has favored Irish roles, especially of the Boucault type.

One of O'Neil's greatest productions was the famous earthquake photo-play, entitled "When the Earth Trembled," written by Edwin Barbour. In this picture houses and interior scenes showed players buried in the ruins. The interiors of four different houses were constructed for what is called breakaways.

Her part was that of the structure were built of wooden "bricks" the rooms plastered and papered and fitted with electric lamps, chandeliers and handsome furniture—all to tumble in at the cue and become a ruin in five minutes.

Over thirty carpenters, builders and other contractors worked for five weeks to build the breakaways, and $3,000 worth of property was wrecked by Barry O'Neil pulling a string. Such is the detail that the able director demands for his productions, but he gets the results.

Realism is O'Neil's great asset. He will take his company a thousand or more miles to get atmosphere. In taking Eugene Walter's drama, "The Wolf," scenes were required to be set in northern Canada. The hunting grounds of the Hudson Bay Company, with the trappers, snowshoe men, dog sleds and walrus, are shown. The principal players, with patch pockets, will prove an attractive creation.

The Balinesean, a revival of the old-time Raglan, has a touch of the army swagger, and for a time the military touch in clothes will find favor with the younger set.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

The condition of the motion picture industry in England has a peculiar interest to manufacturers and exhibitors on this side just at this time.

Two representative trade papers published in England, the "Bioscope" and the "Kinematograph," have taken pains to get an expression of the views of the situation, and the probable outlook from the principal English companies and the branches of American concerns in London, besides obtaining through their correspondents in the British Isles the reports of actual conditions in the various localities.

There is a diversity of opinion among the executives of the large firms, but on the whole, the sentiment seems hopeful.

Edna Goodrich, who was to have begun work this week for the Jesse L. Lasky Feature Play Company on the motion picture production of the "Warrens of Virginia," in a letter to Samuel Goldfish, head of the Lasky firm, advised that the picture would necessarily have to be postponed as she was marooned at Ostend, Belgium, and had busied herself for the past two weeks, at a member of the Belgium Red Cross.

"I have occupied my time," writes Goodrich, "by making bandages for the wounded. My hotel, The Kurmaal, has been turned into a hospital and there are three hundred badly injured soldiers here."

She's One of the Youngest Anita Stewart, the Vitagraph star, is probably the youngest leading lady in motion pictures.

Miss Stewart is only nineteen years old, yet she often portrays roles of a woman every year in the silent acting.

Less than two years ago Miss Stewart was given a small part by Ralph Ince, her present director, in a wild sort of picture. Her part was that of the Wood Violet. Her success was complete.

Mr. Ince then recognized a coming star in her. He took her in hand, and taught her every nuance of the silent acting.

Anita Stewart's greatest triumph was in "A Million Bids," seen in St. John at the Imperial, in which the audience was held spellbound at the wonderful acting she displayed.

Though born in New York, Barry O'Neil, who is a picture favorite in St. John, is of Irish parentage, as his name mildly suggests. In his stage career he has favored Irish roles, especially of the Boucault type.

One of O'Neil's greatest productions was the famous earthquake photo-play, entitled "When the Earth Trembled," written by Edwin Barbour. In this picture houses and interior scenes showed players buried in the ruins. The interiors of four different houses were constructed for what is called breakaways.

Her part was that of the structure were built of wooden "bricks" the rooms plastered and papered and fitted with electric lamps, chandeliers and handsome furniture—all to tumble in at the cue and become a ruin in five minutes.

Over thirty carpenters, builders and other contractors worked for five weeks to build the breakaways, and $3,000 worth of property was wrecked by Barry O'Neil pulling a string. Such is the detail that the able director demands for his productions, but he gets the results.

Realism is O'Neil's great asset. He will take his company a thousand or more miles to get atmosphere. In taking Eugene Walter's drama, "The Wolf," scenes were required to be set in northern Canada. The hunting grounds of the Hudson Bay Company, with the trappers, snowshoe men, dog sleds and walrus, are shown. The principal players, with patch pockets, will prove an attractive creation.

The Balinesean, a revival of the old-time Raglan, has a touch of the army swagger, and for a time the military touch in clothes will find favor with the younger set.

Without much departure from the regular lines, the full dress suits and tuxedo dinner jackets in the Semi-ready line showing have some delicate and dainty touches.

It has always been the purpose of the Semi-ready designers to adhere closely to the immediate and classic creations in both fabric and fashion. The leaders in any line must ever consider the true note in art, avoiding that which is faddy and fast fading by its lack.

With the price in the pocket, and the trade label, which gives to each customer an abiding faith in each purchase, the vogue of Semi-ready tailoring has made rapid strides in Canada. Tailors and manufacturers from England and from the United States have journeyed to Canada to study the "secret" of its success, and yet have sensed the fact that its fuller success lies not in secrecy, but rather in excessive candor.

John P. Condon invites every man who likes art and who desires comfort and good value in clothes to call and see the new Semi-ready creations. He is ready to buy, but simply to study and to know.

Mr. Condon has the only store in St. John selling the genuine Semi-ready tailoring, and though it has been called the store "on the wrong side of the street," he says they are always on the right side in fashion and in moderate price. Suits are sold for $15 and up.

The referee of the American games will be Harry Cutler of New York, and the referee of the English games will be Conrad Howison of Montreal. Both are experts at their respective styles of billiards.

Umpire turned and glared angrily toward the bench to try to locate the party.

LAST OF THE FAMOUS ORMONDALE STUD SOLD
New York, Sept. 3.—What remained of the Ormondale Stud of California, so studiously and laboriously assembled by the late William O'Brien Macdonough, and which was originally headed by the famous racer Ormondale, for which he paid $150,000, was disposed of at a sale at the training farm of J. B. Haggia at Sheepshead Bay yesterday.

For Ossary, the eighteen-year-old son of the unbeaten Derby winner, Ormondale, while there was no bid for another son, Orsini, and a third, Ormondale, now eleven years of age, went to Joseph McDonough on a bid of $2,000, which was probably a matter of family sentiment, though he has been a success as a sire and as a race horse won the Futurity stake.

Mrs. Cronan heard her little granddaughter, Margaret, crying as if in pain, and hastened to the child.
"Why, dear, what is the matter?" inquired Mrs. Cronan. "Did you meet with an accident?"
"N-no, grandma!" sobbed Margaret. "It w-wasn't an accident! M-mother did it on purpose!"

Bob Shawkey
Connie Mack is grooming another pitcher to turn loose on the unsuspecting National League winners. He seems to be "prepping" Bob Shawkey to help Bender and Plank this fall. This indicates that Mack thinks Boston will win the National League pennant. Shawkey is in great form just now and is staidier than he has been since joining the Athletics.

AMERICAN'S RACING STABLE IN FRANCE IN DANGER OF GERMAN'S
London, Sept. 4.—Durbur II, winner of this year's Epsom Derby, and many other valuable racing horses belonging to H. B. Duryea, of New York, are in training quarters at La Motte, within a short distance of the German forces. Mr. Duryea arrived in London tonight, having crossed from France to Weymouth on the American cruiser "Tennessee" today. He is uneasy as to what will become of his horses. The French government has offered every protection to thoroughbreds, guarding the mares especially, as it desires to encourage the raising of good cavalry horses. The German advance, however, imperils the stables at La Motte.

Canada Can Buy Sugar In England; Other Lines, Too

Cheery News Comes to Local Wholesale House—The War and Its Effect on Prices of Other Necessities

Not only sugar but rice, pickles, and peas can now be got in England, along with some other lines, for import to Canada. Not only has the sugar embargo been taken off as far as the West Indies are concerned, but in the Mother Country as well.

Wholesalers report an active demand, but they are able to sell only for immediate shipment, as nearly every day brings announcements of higher prices or a higher tendency in lines imported from countries affected by the war.

This is good news, and shows that the people in the Mother Country are settling down steadily with confidence in the future, and the assurance that Britain's commerce will be safe from attack and her sources of supply unimpaird.

The wholesale grocery market continues firm in all lines of provisions. The excitement following the declaration of war caused advances in certain staples which have since been proved to have been unwarranted, but today it is said that quotations are based on actual conditions rather than mere speculation.

Other Lines of Trade

J. M. Humphrey & Company said in the Times yesterday that wholesalers have not yet advanced prices on boots and shoes, but are selling out their present stock at former prices, and not showing any disposition to take advantage of the war conditions.

Those who contracted early in the season for molasses are congratulating themselves on having done so as the embargo placed on that commodity from the Barbados has lifted, and stocks can now be had.
