MONTREALERS INDIGNANT OVER RECENT HANGING

Demand a Searching Investigation into the Hanging Case at Bordeaux on Sept. 12 Which Provoked Fiasco.

REFERRED TO AS BRUTAL AFFAIR

At Public Meeting Resolution Was Passed Favoring the Abolition of Capital Punishment.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, Sept. 24.—A searching investigation by the department of justice of both Federal and Provincial authorities into the hanging case at Bordeaux jail on the 12th of September, was asked by a meeting held in the central Y. M. C. A. tonight under the auspices of the Canadian Prisoners' Welfare Association, and after expressing indignation over that "inhuman exhibition," a further resolution was passed calling for the abolition of capital punishment. The auditorium of the Y. M. C. A. was well filled, and the tone of the gathering was generally in favor of doing away with the capital sentence, though one speaker, Captain R. L. Calder, M. C., argued from the other side and called on the anti-hanging advocates to propose an adequate way of dealing with brutal murderers of the guinea type. Mr. Robert Blesedick, ex-M. P., presided and in his opening remarks referred to the hanging case in question as "the most brutal exhibition of legalized murder that has occurred in any country since the dark and pestilential days of Nero's misrule in Rome. So called Christianity was apparently divided in camps on this question, and he regretted to say that some of the clergy in the one camp were followers of the old law of vengeance which called for "an eye for an eye and a tooth for a tooth." He was opposed to capital punishment in any form, and could not understand people who were discussing a better form of killing.

Rev. D. H. Ferrel, pastor of the Church of the Messiah, said while he did not want to be regarded as criticizing those who had to minister the law and its findings, yet, when he read the newspaper account of the hanging on the 12th September that lasted for a little more than an hour, he wondered if we could carry the old days. If we cannot carry the old days, he said, let us be satisfied if in this country we can get the gallows, or the electric chair, and if capital punishment must be let it be as decent and as civilized as possible.

Mr. A. M. Nicol, formerly of Montreal and now engaged in prison warfare work in New York, cited various cases that had come under his attention at Sing Sing, and elsewhere, which satisfied him that murderers after ten or twelve year sentences were capable of being restored to society in such a way as to make it a commercial argument for sparing their lives. Altogether he had interviewed 125 murderers, and the great majority, he said, were of such a character as to justify the hanging, and moral discipline methods instead of old punitive sentences.

Rev. R. L. Ballantyne argued the question from the religious point of view and said the hanging of men was one of the great relics of barbarism that remained in Canada today. He did not know why the church did not come out clearly against it.

Capt. R. L. Calder, M. C., suggested that the matter might be viewed, not from the point of view of the victim, nor of the pain inflicted on the spectators who were doing their duty, but from the point of view of society, and the latter might well ask whether it had any other alternative. The question was to find a punishment adequate. If British law were followed, men who killed under passion or provocation would escape the scaffold. But there were more dangerous men, such as gunmen, who were the microbes to society, and the advocates of abolition must offer some solution of that problem. The speaker touched on the military question and showed that desertions were only stopped when it was made a capital offense. The resolutions condemning the manner of the execution on the 12th September and calling for investigation also advocating the abolition of the capital sentence were then carried almost unanimously.

FIRE DESTROYS LUMBER CAMP AT ST. STEPHEN

St. Stephen, Sept. 24.—The lumber camp of the Eastern Pulpwood Company at Goulet Brook, a short distance from here, was completely destroyed by fire last night. Over $1,000 worth of provisions, besides the men's personal effects, also went up in the flames.

MASS. GOVERNOR COMES OUT FLAT FOOTED AGAINST GIVING JOBS BACK TO BOSTON POLICE

Just When Business Men and Labor Officials Believed the Opportunity Was Ripe for Getting the Striking Policemen Back Gov. Coolidge Upsets Their Dope—Intimation That Politics May be Playing a Hand in the Game—Pres. of Policemen's Union Says All Will be Back to Work by Saturday.

NEW LINES TO BE ESTABLISHED

Services Added to Accommodate Large Number of Passengers Desiring to Go to Continent.

Special to The Standard. Boston, Mass., Sept. 24.—Just when business men and officials of the Central Labor Union began to believe that the opportunity was ripe for getting members of the Boston Police-men's Union back on their jobs, inasmuch as the primary election of yesterday was over, Governor Calvin Coolidge issued a proclamation tonight that upset everyone's calculations. He came out flat-footed against the men getting their old places back, rebuked those who have worked for such ends, and called on all citizens again to assist him in upholding the law. Now that a political campaign is on with Governor Coolidge opposed by Richard H. Long, Democrat, it is felt that Governor Coolidge, at the behest of his advisors has jumped into the campaign quickly and issued his proclamation which is considered nothing more or less than a political document and an appeal for votes.

But it is generally felt that business men will take a different view than Governor Coolidge. The strike has cost them hundreds of thousands of dollars in business. Many stores have laid off help and others report that their business has dropped one-third. A good many people feel that the police have been punished enough, and that they should get their places back, especially as a majority of them are men with families. Governor Coolidge in his proclamation says:

"There appears to be a misapprehension as to the position of the police of Boston. In the deliberate intention to intimidate and coerce the government of this Commonwealth, a large body of policemen, urging all others to join them, deserted their posts of duty, leaving in the enemy. This act of theirs was voluntary, and against the advice of their well-wishers, long discussed and premeditated and with the purpose of obstructing the power of government to protect its citizens, or even to maintain its own existence. Its success meant anarchy. By this act through the operation of the law they dispossessed themselves. They went out of office. They stand as though they had never been appointed. Other police are being appointed. They are the real heroes of this crisis. The state government intends to organize a flying wedge to the state to oppose Governor Coolidge for re-election.

TEMPTING TO CANADA'S FLIERS

Prize of $50,000 Offered for Non-Stop Trans-Pacific Flight.

Victoria, B. C., Sept. 24.—Norman A. Yarrow, head of Yarrow's Limited, Esquimalt, who, with the assistance of friends, has offered a prize of $50,000 for the first non-stop flight across the Pacific from Vancouver Island to Japan, attaches the following conditions to the prize:

"That the airplane, lighter than air, shall be manufactured in Canada, including all parts and materials. Any parts and materials that are not being made in Canada at the time the airplane is constructed may be imported; and the airplane shall be navigated and manned by Canadians only during the trans-Pacific flight, and the flight is to be a non-stop from Vancouver Island, British Columbia, to Japan, and be performed prior to December 31, 1919.

Mr. Yarrow's object in offering the prize is to commemorate the visit of the Prince of Wales.

POLITICAL STRIKES

Anarchical Spirit Having Healthy Growth in Egypt.

(By H. A. Bradstreet, Daily Express Correspondent.)

Cairo, Sept. 23.—Egypt is still in a state of industrial chaos. The Alexandria scavengers and the Cairo tramway men both succeeded, by the use of violence, in preventing the resumption of the services. All new employees were attacked directly they appeared. The Alexandria trams are still idle, and are likely to remain so, the Government apparently caring nothing for the public's inconvenience. The strikes are undoubtedly an attempt to damage British prestige in Egypt and every day's delay in Government intervention is interpreted by the Egyptians as a sign of weakness. The anarchical spirit is growing more arrogant, and unless checked is likely to culminate in further riots.

EXTRA SAILINGS FROM ST. JOHN BY C. P. O. S. BOATS

Canadian Pacific Ocean Steamships Have Arranged to Extend Their Service to the Continent During Winter.

NEW LINES TO BE ESTABLISHED

Services Added to Accommodate Large Number of Passengers Desiring to Go to Continent.

Special to The Standard. Montreal, Sept. 24.—With peace the Canadian Pacific Ocean Steamships have arranged to extend their service, both freight and passenger, to the Continent during the coming fall and winter, and St. John will be the Canadian winterport for the service. These new lines will be to Havre, London, Antwerp and Southampton. These services have been added to accommodate large numbers of passengers desiring to go to the continent without the necessity of landing at British ports and making a transfer for there, with the necessary passports and other transport arrangements. With the new services it will be possible for these passengers to remain on board the vessel until they arrive at their continental port.

In these cases, however, it will be required that they have passport valid for the continent, and that they have their tickets through which they may have to travel.

The first of the services is the C. P. O. S. passenger and freight service to Havre and London, sailing from Canadian ports to Havre and thence to London, coming back direct. This line will start with two ships, running to the Granman and Corvick, alter the navigation season on the St. Lawrence from Montreal, and later from St. John for the winter season.

The first sailing will be by the Tunisian, early next month, to be followed by the Granman, Oct. 26, and the Corsican, Nov. 2nd, to be followed by the Tunisian, Nov. 21, and the Scotian again on Nov. 27, after which the two vessels will alternate on the triangular route.

The Glasgow service the C. P. O. S. will run the Scotian and Scotian, the former making her first trip to Glasgow Nov. 1. All these sailings will be made from this port until the winter season opens, when they will use the port of St. John. The ships on the Liverpool service will be the Empress of France, which will sail during the summer season, and the regular Canadian-Liverpool service will be maintained by the Melmedosa, Motagans and Scandianian.

London, Sept. 24.—The doctors of Dundalk, Ireland, went on strike today to enforce demands for a minimum salary of seven guineas (about $35) weekly for all public services. Their present salary average 275 pounds a year. A number of parties are applying for treatment at Dispensaries have been refused.

OPPOSITION LEADER FAILS TO MAKE GOOD IN LAUNCHING FRAUD CHARGES AGAINST GOV'T

His Accusations, Based Upon Stolen Evidence and Testimony of a Self-Confessed Wrongdoer, Turn Out to be Foolish—Mr. McKenzie Was Willing to Wound But Feared to Strike and Had No Faith in His Own Allegations.

NEW LINES TO BE ESTABLISHED

Services Added to Accommodate Large Number of Passengers Desiring to Go to Continent.

Special to The Standard. Ottawa, Sept. 24.—Accusations based upon stolen evidence and the testimony of a self-confessed wrongdoer are not likely to be ever formidable. When, in addition, the stolen evidence turns out to be harmless, the accusations are likely to prove foolish. That is what appears to have happened today when Mr. D. D. McKenzie launched suggestions of election fraud against Hon. Arthur Meighen. It was damaging enough to the opposition leader's case for him to admit that the alleged message upon which he based his arguments had been "handed" out of a certain Winnipeg office, but when the House was shown that the contents of the message, even admitting that it was genuine, and that there was no proof, were quite within the law, and that an unnamed officer who, according to Mr. McKenzie, would be the star witness against the government in any investigation that would be granted, was a self-proclaimed violator of the law, the whole proposition collapsed.

Mr. McKenzie, in fact, did not have much faith in his own case. Direct charges against the personal conduct of a Minister of the Crown by a member of the House carry with them the penalty of resignation in the event of failure to make good.

The House leader of the opposition, canny Scot that he is, took no such hazardous chance. Willing to wound, he was afraid to strike, and instead of proclaiming his faith in the truth of his allegations simply asked for a parliamentary inquiry upon the basis of a series of vague insinuations.

Mr. Meighen, quite naturally, took full advantage of this weakness. Quite frankly he told the House that he had no recollection of having sent the telegram complained of (an alleged telegram to the Prime Minister asking that a thousand soldier votes at large be allotted to and distributed in Manitoba) and that the Prime Minister had never received such a message. "But," he added, "if such a message were sent there is nothing of which to be ashamed. It was a message that might have been sent by any honest man." The minister then proceeded to show that, under the Election Act, it was certainly not a matter of moral turpitude if such a message were sent.

The situation, as he explained it, was simple. Under the law something like 12,000 soldiers who were British subjects, but who had never resided in Canada, for the purpose of the act they were known as soldiers at large, could cast their votes in any constituency they desired. Quite naturally and logically, they were anxious to cast them in ridings where they would do the most good. What, then, could there be of wrong about a party organization assisting them in that object?

The opposition jeered as the Minister made the last point, but their jeers turned into angry cries of protest and complaint when Mr. Meighen, facing squarely across the House, said: "The gentlemen on that side of the House were naturally not anxious to have more soldier votes in their constituencies. They were more concerned with the slack vote; they were more concerned with the votes of gentlemen who stood at the other end of the thermometer of patriotism." The thrust went home with deadly accuracy.

The Minister of the Interior, always acute and skilful in debate, was never heard to better advantage. His concluding passage gives some idea of the spirit and vigor which he put into his reply.

"Whatever his (McKenzie's) course lacks in courage it makes up in discretion. There is in this whole thing no charge, no accusation. There is nothing but an attenuated, oblique safety first insinuation. There is nothing in this whole resolution, but a fragile, circuitous, yellow tinted insinuation that mocks and discredits the very name of parliamentary controversy."

"That this is a fact was the overwhelming verdict of the House. An election post mortem is largely futile at all times, but when based upon such flimsy material as that upon which Mr. McKenzie reared his speech of today, it is bound to be a fiasco.

of the House were naturally not anxious to have more soldier votes in their constituencies. They were more concerned with the slack vote; they were more concerned with the votes of gentlemen who stood at the other end of the thermometer of patriotism." The thrust went home with deadly accuracy.

STEEL STRIKE SITUATION IS UNCHANGED

Conflicting Reports Still Continue to be Sent Out from the Various Headquarters.

PLANT MANAGERS TAKE OFFENSIVE

Labors Recruiting Forces Are Not Inactive and Are Endeavoring to Enroll Non-Union Workers.

Pittsburg, Pa., Sept. 25.—The third day of the great steel strike passed without either capital or labor having made any apparent material gains. Last night attention was being focused on Washington, where the inquiry into the industrial struggle by the Senate Labor Committee is to open today.

From their respective headquarters, industrial leaders and directors of the strike issued their usual conflicting statements, which left still in doubt the exact number of workers who have walked out.

William Z. Foster, secretary of the Strikers' National Committee, claimed that in the various steel centres 15,000 more men had abandoned their posts, bringing the total to 342,000, but in the crucial Pittsburg district, officials of the U. S. Steel Corporation, and several "independents," asserted that the stream of labor had turned and was flowing into the mills.

According to reports from Pittsburg where union labor leaders held a general rally to consider conduct of the strike, managers of the plants are seeking now to take the offensive. Not content with merely holding what forces remain with them, they are said to be trying to induce wavering strikers to return. On the other hand, labor's recruiting forces are not inactive as shown by the fact that organizers from the Mine Workers' Union have been called to reinforce agents of the Steel Workers' Union in enrolling non-union workers.

Despite the prediction of Mr. Foster that, through the work of these organizers, the strikers will be able gradually to shut down all the important works in the Pittsburg district, including those in Homestead, Clairton, Braddock, Duquesne and Pittsburg city mills of the Carnegie Company.

As in Pittsburg, the situation in Chicago also, was clouded by conflicting reports. The industry in that section, though crippled by the closing of many plants, was by no means tied up, and company officials claimed additions had been made to the reduced forces with which they were continuing operation.

In the Youngstown district, where advances were claimed by the strikers, the strike spread yesterday to fabricating plants, two of which were closed, as was the Youngstown Pressed Steel Company. Parity of production in the Mahoning Valley, caused by idleness of 44,000 workers, continues every plant being closed.

From Canton, Ohio, came the announcement by the general manager of the Canton Sheet Steel Company that his men, numbering 1,200 had voted to return to work.

In the Colorado district, plants of the Colorado Fuel and Iron Company, in Pueblo which closed Monday remained idle, and, according to officials, will make no effort to operate with strike-breakers.

Yesterday was marked by a sharp decrease in violence. Although rioting occurred in Cleveland, order reigned in Buffalo and Pittsburgh. Newcastle and Farrell, Penna., the storm centres of Tuesday.

RE-CLASSIFICATION OF CIVIL SERVICE NOW PLANNED

A Bill Will be Introduced at Present Session to Amend the Civil Service Act.

Ottawa, Sept. 24.—Formal notice has been given by Hon. A. K. MacLean of the government's intention to introduce a bill dealing with the re-classification of the civil service this session. The minister's resolution on which a bill amending the civil service act will be based is as follows:

"That the provisions of the act relating to temporary employment, dismissals, restrictions, hours of attendance, annual reports, regulations, examinations, classifications, appointments, promotions, transfers and compensations be amended, and that provisions be made for re-classification of the civil service and for any additional expenses which may result from such re-classifications."

Justice Will Be Done Soon.

New York, N. Y., Sept. 24.—Admiral Ugo Sost, of the Italian navy, who is paying an official visit to the United States in behalf of his government, expressed admiration for Gabriele d'Annunzio here today, but regret at the post-war occupation of Fiume, which has embarrassed Italy and the Allied powers.

"I do not know officially of what has transpired," said the Admiral, "but for some time I have not been in wireless communication with Rome. But if I have read in the American papers is correct all I can say is that I have nothing to say against d'Annunzio. What he has done may prove to be a mistake.

TROOPS SACK AN IRISH TOWN

Riots and Looting Avenge a Sinn Fein Murder—Led by An Officer.

(Daily Express Correspondent). Cork, Sept. 22.—The murder of a young soldier of the Shropshire Light Infantry by the Sinn Fein who held up the church parade at Fermoy on Sunday has led to an outbreak which has left the town practically wrecked.

What was unquestionably behind the rioting was the anger of the British troops at the action of the Sinn Fein in returning a verdict of murder at the instigation of their dead comrade. The jury added a rider to "their" verdict to the effect that the Sinn Fein attackers had no intention of killing any one, and this disgusting order of cold-blooded crime forced the fury of the soldiers to boiling point.

From 8.30 to ten on Monday night rioting raged in Fermoy. The troops, about 250 of them, all of the Shropshire Light Infantry, moved about the streets methodically wrecking shops and houses fronted—especially those believed to be inhabited by members of the Sinn Fein—and followed by scores of women, who helped them in their looting.

CIVIC AFFAIRS.

One of the outstanding advantages of commission government is that we have at City Hall a body of men whose whole time is devoted to the well-being of the community, who are in a position to guard its interests at all times and who, being constantly on the job, have opportunity to exercise their best efforts in behalf of this city. There is an element of disappointment in the published reports of the committee and council meetings which have been held during the past few weeks. Our commissioners have devoted their energies and their eloquence to discussions touching increased wages, repairs to ferry boats, the building of incidental retaining walls, tenders for a few feet of pipe, gratitudes to disabled workmen, cloth for policemen's uniforms, and other items of more or less moment, all important enough no doubt in connection with the operation of civic government, but lacking in real value insofar as the progress of the city is concerned—in reality subjects to be handled by clerks. There are, on the other hand, half a dozen matters of more than ordinary moment which in the rush of work have evidently escaped the attention of our commissioners, yet the outcome of these projects depends to a very large extent to the prosperity of this city and the contentment of our people.

The present assessment law is no good. It is accomplishing the very things that St. John for its own salvation must avoid. In a rented city it is loading on real estate a heavier share of the burden than this class of property should be called upon to bear, and it is releasing from taxation millions of dollars worth of personal property held by people who can well afford to pay. Yet the only comment that has come from City Hall is that the new assessment act appears to be working out well. This is the extent to which our commissioners are able to judge the opinions of the people.

For years there has been heard from every hole and corner in the city a demand for improved paving. Street after street, in disgraceful condition, has been allowed so to remain, until recently one of our heaviest taxpayers intimated that a little new work would be appreciated. That work has been done. Out of consideration for one of the most important contributors to the city revenues our commissioners were jolted out of their accustomed calm and induced to spend a few thousand dollars on very necessary construction. Later Mayor Hayes in council advocated the preparation of a definite paving programme covering a number of years and the expenditure of a few millions of dollars to provide such paving. We are to-day at a plan is being prepared, by twenty-nine men out of every hundred in the city of St. John today will declare that this is camouflage, and that no such programme will ever be brought before the council for consideration.

The St. John Valley Railway was completed and was ready for operation at a time when hundreds of our people were living out of town and when thousands of others were depending to a very considerable extent on up-river producers for their vegetables and fruit. Up to the present not a single train has run over the Valley Railway to St. John, and this railway, for which the people of this city have contributed along with other portions of the province a standing id because the St. John and Quebec Railway Company, the Foster Government and the Canadian National Railway Board of Management did not see fit to complete an agreement with the Canadian Pacific Railway to bring their trains to St. John. The completion of this line and the connection at Westport gives to this city a through service via McGilvey Junction to Montreal and the West, a road one hundred and sixty-six miles shorter than the Canadian National line to Halifax. Canadian National representatives in this city a few days ago announced that St. John would have all the business over that road that it could handle and on the following day stated in Halifax that the Nova Scotia capital would enjoy seventy-five per cent. of their entire steamship tonnage. That seventy-five per cent. of the total freight traffic will be hauled one hundred and sixty-six miles farther than it need be hauled, in order that Halifax may be fed by the people of Canada, its merchants and its laborers supported by contributions from the pockets of St. John to cover the cost of that additional one hundred and sixty-six miles of freight haulage. And down in City Hall are five commissioners who have not yet awakened to the fact that there is such a thing as the Valley Railway and the possibility of new business over the Canadian National via McGilvey.

This is one of the great advantages of commission government, by means of which our rulers are on the job from morning till night and able to watch everything that is going on. Then there is that little matter of harbor commission. It is doubtful indeed if any one of our present Board of Commissioners actually realizes that there is filed in City Hall today a definite agreement between the City of St. John and His Majesty the King whereby the latter specifically undertakes to construct a series of deep-water wharves between Sand Point and the Negro Point breakwater. That agreement, signed, sealed and delivered, was a condition of the transfer made by the City of St. John of the so-called twelve hundred foot strip from the Beacon to Sand Point. That twelve hundred foot strip was formerly held by the Canadian Pacific Railway and in order to secure its return to St. John this city was compelled to surrender to the Canadian Pacific thirty or forty acres of land in the vicinity of Blue Rock, which land is now used by the Canadian Pacific as a right-of-way, etc. We are asked to consider the transfer of St. John harbor to the Crown—or to the Federal Government—under a plan of harbor commission, but no value whatever is placed on that twelve hundred foot strip which the Canadian Pacific Railway valued as half a million dollars and which is in reality the property of St. John in view of the fact that the government has failed to carry out its undertaking to construct new wharves as specified.

These are a few of the things to which our commissioners are expected to give attention. Has anyone heard of action being taken in regard to them?

PICTURES IN SCHOOLS.

In the city of New York prominent educators and film producers are giving thought to a proposal to use moving pictures in public schools as a means of education. Thomas A. Edison expresses the opinion that the organizations now engaged in business "devoted to the production of films suited to amusement and entertainment only and that unfortunately these companies are not sufficiently interested in the educational phase of the industry to take it up of their own accord. And he is inclined to the opinion that the manufacture of films of this nature, as carried on by an organized government department. The United States commissioner of education, the president of the national congress of teachers, and others equally prominent, agree that no premature action should be taken, but rather the whole outlook first carefully studied, for although they believe that certain subjects now generally taught in public schools can be more intelligently presented by means of pictures than through the use of text books alone, they also realize that the great value of school work is after all founded on the capability of the teacher. Text books and pictures can be of no account unless the information they are intended to convey is intelligently presented, and whatever may be the outcome of the film proposal, it is realized that the responsibility of making satisfactory use of it will rest with those in charge of the classes. History, which is looked upon by most boys and girls as dry and tiresome, difficult to remember and at the best uninteresting, is the subject which, above all others, it is felt, can most readily be presented by means of the film, and as an experiment certain chapters of American history will be prepared in picture form for the purpose of visualizing to the scholars the dusty facts which they have been accustomed to read from text books. The portrayal of characters, the more important incidents under various administrations, can be accomplished just as popular novels are filmed at the present time. We all recognize the deep interest displayed in educational films touching on nature subjects which are occasionally included in the programmes of leading theatres. The development of plant life, of animal life, the action of winds and tides may without difficulty be shown on the screen in such a manner as to fix themselves in the minds of the pupils in a way never to be forgotten. If the preliminary experiments work out as some of those interested now hope the time may not be far distant when the moving picture will be an adjunct to every class-room, when knowledge of a routine nature may be imparted in a more instructive and even more impressive manner than at present and when branches of study now prohibited because of the difficulties involved in instruction may be included in the ordinary school courses.

WHAT THEY SAY

Worse and Worse. Cleveland Plain Dealer: The new dinner gowns, says an alarming Paris fashion note, will be mostly below the table. It seems a shame to waste so much lovely material.

Playing The Farmers. Toronto Mail: Farmers have as much right to organize as any other class of producers, and the more efficient their organization is for promoting the welfare of their industry, which is truly the backbone of our economic system, the better it will be for the country. But a farmers' organization will not be made more eff-cient for promoting the welfare of farmers if it gets into the hands of self-seeking politicians and is turned into a political machine. The farmers of Ontario must beware of that misuse of their Union.

Satisfied. London Free Press: Hon. F. B. Carroll, former Minister of Public Works, says he likes the work of chairman of the Dominion Railway Board "very well." A princely salary, a railway dictatorship and a job good for at least 10 years would satisfy most men.

No Alarm. Buffalo Courier: The big navy men of England are trying to alarm the country by saying that the United States navy is now more formidable than that of Great Britain. The big navy men of the United States are saying that nearly all the American naval vessels should be in drydock; that the vessels are all undermanned, and that half of the officers are trying to resign because the pay is too small. There is no noticeable alarm among the taxpayers of either country.

Handsome Is As Handsome Does. Christian Science Monitor: There is nothing beautiful about coal. In England, the land of the open grate, where everybody sees it and most people handle it every day of the week for seven or eight months of the year, coal even when it stands in its box of shining copper or brass makes no attempt to compete, in the matter of looks, with the birch log or the pine log or what not. But coal comes into its own when a fire has been made of it.

A BIT OF VERSE. THE TEST. The testing time is here! The time when souls of men are heated in the furnace of adversity. Whereby Truth separates what is real and steel the temper of her fine desire. It is the time that dross is sifted out from human masses—time when what is pure is set aside, full soon to bring about a peace on earth, good-will that shall endure.

The proving day has come! The day when man shall testify to his integrity. His love of Honor, Right's eternal sway—The end of conflict and war's misery None can evade and none can compromise This solemn duty. Suffering lands arise The great decision. Now man must arise Least justice die and love deprecate. The turning hour is here The hour wherein lies hope for future emergencies. They who uphold the hands of right, Linking their aims, attainments, destinies, Shall find in union mankind's true release. From brutal wrongs, heart-sorrow, deadly fear, A League of Souls and Nations bodes its Dawn. He stands the test whose name is written here! —Larana Sheldon, in N. Y. Times

WOMEN ARE NOT PLAYING FAIR

New York, Sept. 22.—Women were accused of not "playing fair" by trying to hold on to privileges granted because of weakness and dependence, while at the same time asserting the doctrine of equality with men, in an address delivered today before the international conference of women physicians by Dr. Clelia Mosher of Leland Stanford University. Dr. Mosher declared the old idea that being a woman was a handicap must be given up.

"The new freedom," said Dr. Mosher, "has entailed sometimes no new idea of a wider, more perfect filling of woman's own great place in the world, but has led only to an imitation of the man; an attempt to make herself into what has been characterized as an 'amateur male'."

"We must go back to the old Greek ideal of physical perfection. If we can put aside the old idea that being a woman is a handicap and bring up all girl children of today mentally and physically free, children so that they will be hampered neither in time nor work, there is no limitation on what we may expect from the coming generation."

The Fair Vale Outing Association has purchased the Garde property at Fair Vale, and the residence will be renovated into a clubhouse. The property is situated just below the residence of Major Frost, and is an ideal locality for the purpose.

Confidence in Cagni.
 Rome, Sunday, Sept. 20.—Confidence is expressed by the newspapers and in political circles concerning the mission entrusted by the government to Admiral Umberto Cagni, who has been appointed commander of the naval forces in the Upper Adriatic.

A Real Hair Saver And Beautifier

Found at Last—Shows Results at Once or Nothing to Pay.

If your hair is thinning out, prematurely gray, brittle, lifeless, full of dandruff and your head itches like mad, quick action must be taken to save your hair.

Don't wait until the hair root is dead, for then nothing can prevent baldness.

Get from any good druggist today a package of Parisian sage—it doesn't cost much and there's nothing else you could use that's so simple, safe and effective.

You will surely be delighted with the first application. Your hair will seem much more abundant and radiant with life and beauty—all itching ceases and your scalp feels cool and comfortable. Parisian sage is in great demand by discriminating women because it is delicately perfumed, does not color or streak the hair, and keeps it lustrous, soft and fluffy.

Be sure you get the genuine Parisian sage (Glenz's) for this is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or nothing to pay.

A SLIGHT MISTAKE.
She was a dear old lady, but very nearsighted. At a dinner party recently, while engaged in earnest conversation with the man on her right, she quite unconsciously dropped her serviette. This little accident did not pass unnoticed. The baldheaded old gentleman on her right observed the napkin fall and, stooping—with no small effort—sideways, rescued it from the floor. But in doing so he happened to touch the old lady's arm, immediately she turned round. Then shaking her head, remarked in a sweet gentle voice: "No—no melon, thank you!"

Happy Mothers

Many mothers who in order to keep the home neat and attractive, the children well fed and dressed, continually overdo.

The experience of motherhood alone causes a severe strain upon the system, from which many women recover slowly, and serious feminine disorders may develop unless great care is taken to prevent them.

To such women Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is invaluable. For many years this root and herb medicine has been recognized as the standard remedy for woman's ills, restoring them to a normal, healthy condition.

Mrs. Walsh's Case

Avonport, N. S.—"I have obtained great benefit by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have had five children and have taken the Vegetable Compound before each of them was born, except the first one, and if I was pregnant again I would take it. I was always troubled with a bearing down feeling when on my feet but since taking Vegetable Compound I feel a lot better. I hope you will publish this letter if it will help some other suffering women."
MRS. SEYMOUR WALSH,
Avonport,
Nova Scotia.

A Word to Childless Women

There are women everywhere who long for children in their homes yet are denied this happiness on account of some functional disorder which in many cases would readily yield to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Such women should not give up hope until they have given this wonderful medicine a trial.

Baseball Case Nearing Its End

Judge Granted Injunction Restraining Ban Johnson from Using League Funds to Defend Suit.

New York, N. Y., Sept. 24—Supreme Court Justice Wagner today granted an injunction restraining Ban Johnson, President of the American League, from using any portion of the League's sinking fund to defend the suit brought against him by the New York American League Club, in connection with suspension by Johnson of Carl W. Mays, Yankee pitcher.

Justice Wagner also granted another application of the New York Club for permission to file a supplementary complaint in the suit permanently to restrain Mr. Johnson and the St. Louis and Cleveland American League Clubs from interfering with Mays.

According to the club's attorneys, the amended complaint will call attention to resolutions adopted at a special meeting of the League's directors last August, in which Mays' suspension was alleged unlawful and Johnson forbidden to take similar action in the case of any other American League player, unless granted a hearing.

FREE EVENING SCHOOL TO OPEN
Will be Held in King Edward and Centennial Schools for Men and Boys—Opening on Monday Next.
On Monday evening, September 29th, the local School Board will open the free evening school for boys and men in the King Edward School, corner of St. James and Wentworth streets, there will be classes in reading, writing, spelling and arithmetic. In the Centennial building, on Brunswick street, mechanical drawing will be taught.
These schools afford a splendid opportunity for boys and men to improve their education and thereby increase their earning capacity, and no doubt large numbers will take advantage of this generous offer. Parents who have sons with a limited education should urge them to enter. Those who have never attended school will be gladly received and taught to read, write and spell. Arithmetic and writing will receive special attention.
A fee of two dollars ($2.00) is collected from each pupil on enrollment. This, however, is refundable on the basis of attendance. If a pupil does not miss any time his entire fee is returned to him at the end of the year. About one-half of his fee is returned pro- vide he attends half the year.
In past years many business men strongly recommended the free night schools to boys and men in their employ who were handicapped in life by lack of education. Following this advice, many enrolled in the school and in the course of a few months their services became more valuable to their employers and consequently they received increases in their salaries.
Those who wish to enroll should pay their fee of two dollars to Mr. A. Gordon Leavitt, Secretary of the School Board, Union Street, or to either of the instructors, Rex R. Cormier, Principal of the King Edward School, or A. G. Gutter, Principal of the Manual Training School.
Returned soldiers are extended a special invitation to attend these classes.

Special to The Standard—Kelley.
St. Stephen, N. B., Sept. 24—A very pretty wedding was solemnized this morning at the Church of the Holy Rosary, Rev. Father O'Flaherty officiating. The principals were Miss Julia Alice Kelley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kelley, of St. Stephen, and William R. Armstrong, of Milltown, N. B.
The young couple were attended by Miss Helen Kelley, sister of the bride, and Alexander Boyd, of this town. The bride looked very charming in a suit of navy blue serge, with picture hat, and carried a white prayer book, while the bridesmaid's dress was of peccan blue.
After the ceremony, a wedding breakfast was served at the home of the bride's parents, after which the young couple left by auto for an extended honeymoon through Maine.
The presents were very beautiful and numerous, testifying to the esteem in which both bride and groom were held on the border.

Steamer's Cargo
Caught On Fire

The Inca With a Load of Sugar Arrived in Port Yesterday from San Pedro—Considerable Damage Caused by Fire While on Voyage

One of the reasons why the S. S. Inca, which brought sugar here from San Pedro yesterday, was so long overdue was explained when members of the crew got ashore. Though the vessel was often reported ready for sea at San Pedro, and this news was flashed to the agents in St. John, the vessel did not get away with her cargo until nearly two weeks following the first report that she had sailed. Added to this delay it is said fire broke out in No. 2 hold several days ago, which required the constant attention of the crew and some 80 tons of water before the flames were fully gotten under control.

Women Getting On The Voters' List

Registration of Women as Voters Being Taken Seriously and Several of Churches Arranging So Names Can Be Added.

The registration of women as voters is being taken up seriously and at several of the churches arrangements are made so that those present at certain meetings can have their names added to the lists.

Last evening at the W. C. T. U. convention this subject was spoken of by several of those making addresses and there was an official take the names of any women who were not already registered.

Notice is being given at society meetings and the subject is very generally discussed.
How feelings have changed regarding matters of this kind was told at the W. C. T. U. convention yesterday by one member who said that four years ago her husband scoffed at the idea of women having a vote while last week he said to her "You'd better go soon and register. The lists close October 5th."

Summer Tourist
Season Was Heavy

Hotels Are Checking up What Has Probably Been One of Busiest Summers for Years — Guests Were All Well Supplied With Money.

With the approaching end of the summer tourist season, the city hotels are checking up what has probably been one of the busiest summers for many years.

Though there has been practically no let-up to the influx of visitors since early spring, some weeks have been more active than others, particularly the week of the Prince's visit and Soldiers' Joy Day. At that time, and at various times since, especially when the visitors from the United States were returning from their vacations in Canada, many of the hotels had to convert their parlors and halls into bed rooms, and even the light folding cots, and couches, were called into service.

It is interesting to note that there have been practically no losses from hotel "beats," as they are known. At the time of the visit of His Royal Highness there were many visitors to the city who were not altogether on pleasure bent. These people, besides fleeing the people, as a rule did not pay their hotel account and are practically the only dishonest patrons of the hotels who have been in the city this season.

Banquet and Addresses in Odd Fellows' Hall, West St. John, Last Evening—Regatta Planned for Thanksgiving Day.

The great interest shown in the revival of the rowing game in this city was again in evidence last evening when the Oddfellows' Hall, West St. John, was crowded with sport enthusiasts, who showed by their keen interest that St. John rowers have the backing of the citizens in their sport.

The speeches of the evening showed a keen interest in sports and the spirit of the meeting was that St. John should be represented in the leading rowing events and that a crew should be sent to St. Catharines to spring to compete in the Olympic trials. J. Fred Belyea, chairman of the meeting, announced that there was a 500 pound rowing team capable of giving any crew of its weight a run for any distance. He saw material in St. John capable of being trained to beat anything in Canada.

The gathering last evening was for the purpose of presenting prizes to the winners of the rowing events held in connection with Soldiers' Day and took the form of a banquet after which there was an entertainment and the handing over of the prizes.

Frank Belyea pointed to the fact that he had been interested in rowing for a considerable period and he had never seen such an array of prizes as those offered on the present occasion. He felt that this was an indication of the spirit of the citizens in regard to sport.

The proceedings began with a banquet, which was greatly enjoyed by those present. As soon as all had been satisfied J. Fred Belyea as chairman called upon Hon. J. B. M. Baxter to present to the members of the Rowing Association the cups won by them. Hon. Mr. Baxter referred to the keenness shown by the people of St. John in sporting events and felt sure that rowing was back again on a sound footing and all that was needed was the wholehearted support of every person in St. John. He congratulated the winners of the cups on their fine showing in the races.

The other prizes were presented by T. T. Lantalam, J. A. Barry, Judge Ritchie, J. Fred Belyea, Thomas E. O'Leary, Frank White, Dr. F. L. Kenner, Robert Brayley and Eddie Ramsey.

Fred Belyea suggested that a regatta be held on the harbor on Thanksgiving Day. He asked that someone be appointed to head a committee for this work and pointed out that, as he had worked during the summer, someone besides himself take a hand. Those present decided that Mr. Belyea was the right man to head such a committee and on motion he was selected by the unanimous voice of the meeting.

Everyone present pledged support to the idea and Mr. Belyea was given full power to select his own committee and make the necessary arrangements.

During the evening entertainment of a vocal and instrumental nature was supplied by the following artists:

The Annual Feast
Of Rosh Hashanah

Prayers of Thanksgiving for Peace Brought to War-weary World Feature of Services in Local Synagogues Last Night.

Prayers of thanksgiving for the peace that has been brought to the war-weary world was a feature of the services in the two synagogues last night, marking the beginning of the Jewish year 5680 and the annual feast of Rosh Hashanah.

The services in the new synagogue last night were conducted by Canon Fletcher, and were ushered in by the singing of the Shofar, or ram's horn. Then, led by the cantor, the congregation prayed for forgiveness and sins, asking for mutual forgiveness for a wrong done to each other and for a settlement of all personal grievances. A very beautiful address on the days to come were taken, and the general expression of the service was one of lofty purpose and religious fervor.

Following the religious services, which were in Hebrew, Rabbi Doctor Blumberg, of Chicago, delivered a very forceful and enlightening address on "The Significance of the Present New Year." The feast of Rosh Hashanah, he declared, was the time for all of the nations to have the proper feeling of good-will towards each other.

There was cause for thanking God for the unity of the world as it is today, the nations being knit in a brotherhood of mutual regard that has been washed in the blood of their best-born sons. This year, of all years, there is cause for rejoicing and thanksgiving on the culmination of peace after the bloodiest war in the history of the world.

"We have much to be thankful for this year," declared Rabbi Blumberg. "All of the faith should rejoice in the great release that has come to their brothers, and in the fact that our Palestine will be given back to our keeping again."

Rabbi Doctor Blumberg has but recently returned to his residence in London, and his statement regarding Palestine is issued on good authority, coming from representatives of the British government.

Referring to the status of Poland and the other countries in which members of the race have been martyred, a speaker said that the great amount of bloodshed would serve to link the race even closer together and bring about the rewards for service that have been promised to all true sons of the race.

Beginning at sundown tonight, and each night until the end of the ceremonies, services in Hebrew will be held in both synagogues. There are Ten Days of Penance, followed on the eleventh by the Day of Atonement, which is the holiest and most sacred day on the Jewish calendar.

Shortly after the Day of Atonement comes the Feast of Succoth or Tabernacles, which is continued for eight days in commemoration of the ancient Palestine harvest festival and the wandering of the Israelites through the wilderness.

There are about 27 families worshipping in both synagogues, and all indications show that there will be over 1,200 taking part in the feast of Rosh Hashanah.

Until sundown tomorrow night all places of business conducted by Jews will be closed.
