Americans Leaving Mexico.

Mexico City, Aug. 28.—American residents in the capital are at a loss to know how to interpret the perplexing situation in Mexico. The American consulate was crowded today by Americans of all ranks, many of whom were highly original and elicited warm applause from the holiday-decked crowd.

Warning has been created somewhat of a commotion on the part of the Americans. It will undoubtedly result in a new expedition and the determination is to abandon anything they possess in the belief that lives are endangered, but in what they are unable to fix a reasonable amount should be removed from the tent and packed in the fresh provisions. When cool, it should be in a tightly covered tin box or jar. The bread should be packed and dried in the sunlight at once a week. A cloth should not be in the bread box.

MANY ATTRACTIONS FOR THE HOLIDAY

Labor Parade a Fine Success

Weather Perfect and Turnout Was Greatly Admired. Sports and Garden Party in the Afternoon and Evening—Baseball, Horse Races and Theatres Draw Big Crowds—Large Number of Outsiders in the City.

Labor day—the well-earned holiday, sacred particularly to those toilers whose work goes on year after year building up great cities and making material the inventions of a progressive age—has come round again and passed beneath the bright sunshine which is the first and last essential for a successful holiday.

A Fine Parade.

The greatest Labor day parade ever held in St. John. That was the consensus of opinion among the big crowd that lined the streets yesterday morning when the two-mile-long procession arranged and organized by the St. John Trades and Labor Council was passing by.

Tea and Coffee Served.

And another feature of the parade was the excellent arrangement. This was due partly to the committee who organized the order for the different organizations and floats, and partly to the assistance of the St. John Police.

Tea and Coffee Served.

Two hundred horses, bestowed by members of the Teatamers' Union, headed the parade. Following them came the marching band, Mayor Frink, members of the municipal council and board of trade, brass band of the provincial legislature, brass half that number of automobiles, and a number of gentlemen of prominence.

ST. JOHN, N. B., SEPTEMBER 3, 1913

A RADICAL. There are Radicals and Radicals. When the Mayor of St. John the other day made a business suggestion calculated to work out greatly to the advantage of the city he forthwith provoked criticism of a position which he took but tentatively by saying that he probably would be described as a Radical by some citizen.

MR. HAZEN, THE BORDEN CLUB, AND THE CITY. Hon. J. D. Hazen, minister of Marine and Fisheries, New Brunswick's representative in the Cabinet, is about to return to the East after a pleasant visit to British Columbia and the Yukon. His return recalls the fact that the Borden Club, a Conservative organization of this city, has not yet received any official indication that the Minister of Marine has complied with a request made by the club on June 19 last.

SOME TRADE FACTS. After the Underwood tariff bill becomes law Canada will be receiving overtures from Washington for still better tariff relations, for President Wilson and his advisers are friends of reciprocity. In tariff matters this is the day of those who believe in tariff reduction for the benefit of the country making the reduction.

THE EXPANSION OF OUR TRADE WITH CANADA AND SOUTH AMERICA shows how little effect artificial restrictions have upon the natural channels of trade. Our exports to South America are three and a half times as great as a decade ago, and to some of the countries of South America they have increased four or five times. Our exports to the Dominion are almost twice as great as they were only three years ago.

Never in the last generation has there been in public life in Great Britain any example of courage and high purpose combined, devoted to the public welfare, as it is completed and handed over to the Grand Trunk Pacific by the Federal government, and that it is the intention of his company to live up to its obligation when it comes into possession of the road from Winnipeg to Moncton.

It has been reported in St. John that when the Mayor and Commissioners waited upon Mr. Hazen before he departed for the West they were advised by him to take some of these matters up with Mr. Chamberlain. Whether or not such was Mr. Hazen's advice, and whether or not it was followed, is not known officially.

MERELY A LITTLE MORE CONVERSATION. Commissioner Agar has been having, on behalf of the Mayor and Commission and his fellow citizens generally, a little early autumn conversation with the manager of the St. John Street Railway.

Mr. Commissioner Agar would like to see the street railway extension proceeded with, but he looks back over the preceding eighteen months and follows in detail the history of the negotiations and conversations between the city and the company, he probably will feel, like most other people in St. John, that the situation requires a little more drastic medicine than has been employed hitherto.

Everybody is agreed that street railway extension in St. John is a burning question, but everybody must also be agreed that the weapons employed by the forces representing the city must be sharpened and the city's tactics changed very extensively if the wheels are to be made to go around within the decade.

THE FIGHTING CHANCELLOR

From a speech made by the Rt. Hon. Lloyd George in Manchester on Aug. 15 in which he discussed the Insurance Act and the coming land reforms:

"Their Reckoning is Piling Up." Shall I give you another case, that of a laborer in Lancashire? (Yes.) He was a bricklayer's laborer. He is spoken of by the secretary of his approved society as being a modest, genuine fellow. He was discovered to be suffering from tuberculosis, but he refused to give up his work because he said he had gone through too much eight years ago, when he was ill, and did not want to lie up again.

I have never pretended that this Act is going to remove all the social and economic evils which afflict and press on millions of men, women and children in this and every other land. I have never joined any set of theorists—and there are many—who believe they have discovered some one infallible specific for all these evils. To remove the mischief at the root of our social conditions there is much more to be done than ever insurance, old-age pensions, wages boards, labor exchanges, or mines regulations, and other Acts. They have accomplished their part, but not all. There is much more to be done before undeserved poverty and privation is chased out of this proud country.

But social reform to be thorough and effective must move on an extended front. We are moving on.—(Cheers.) We have already attacked the poverty of the aged worker.—(Cheers.) That position has been stormed.—(Cheers.)—and one million old people have been freed from the bondage of anxiety in old age.—(Cheers.) We have started our movement against sweating. Intemperance is being attacked. We are now about to march against the central position, which is land monopoly.—(Cheers.) The struggle will be a fierce one, but with your help we will win.—(Cheers.)—and then the road will be free to a Britain where a man who is willing to give the honest labor of brain and hands may feel assured that, whatever vicissitudes may befall him, he will not be forsaken nor will his seed be forced to beg his bread.—(Loud cheers.)

The Land Monopoly. I have never pretended that this Act is going to remove all the social and economic evils which afflict and press on millions of men, women and children in this and every other land. I have never joined any set of theorists—and there are many—who believe they have discovered some one infallible specific for all these evils.

BAPTIST CONVENTION HERE NEXT MONTH

The eighth annual session of the Baptist Association of New Brunswick will be held this year at St. John at the Brussels Street Baptist church, beginning September 24, and will last for five days.

The president of the association is Rev. H. T. Cousins, Ph.D., of Newcastle, and the secretary is E. C. Wernham of this city. The association is to be presided on the eve of the session by Rev. James McClockie, of East Florenceville (N. B.). The delegates will assemble on September 24 at 10 a.m. The clergymen will hold their special meeting on the preceding afternoon at 8 o'clock.

"This brings me to the one thing which is at present lacking, and the supply of which would round off all the other advantages of our life here, and that is a sufficiency of congenial neighbors. It is the hope that the true and disinterested statements contained herein may help to remedy this state of things which has induced me to make this letter so lengthy, for I can assure you that if the province of New Brunswick, with its many advantages of climate, beautiful scenery, abundance of game, and its glorious St. John river were only made better known in the Old Country large numbers of my countrymen would like to realize the folly of making the tremendous and expensive trip across Canada in order to pay five or six times as much for their homes, with absolutely no compensating advantages, when all that they require and many additional attractions and advantages of which they never dreamed, can be obtained within little over a week's journey from London."

There will be one-third of the average apple crop in New Brunswick this year, said S. L. Peters, Dominion fruit inspector, yesterday morning. "I have been all over the province and the same shortage prevails everywhere. The early apples, such as the New Brunswick and transparent varieties, will be the most abundant, but as usual the growers are in a hurry to pick them for the first prices and are not giving them a chance to mature. The quality is well up to the average."

Word has been received from a well known buyer in Nova Scotia that the quality of this season's apples there is very poor. It is estimated that at least fifty per cent will be third grade fruit. The usual percentage is about fifteen per cent thirds. This overstock of poorer apples, it is believed, will keep the price low and will tend to spoil the sale of the better varieties.

MEXICAN SITUATION

Leaves For Holiday With Family American Envoy Still Waiting at Vera Cruz

British Press Skeptical of President's Policy—Believes Another Incident Will Happen Similar to the Sinking of the Maine and War Will Begin.

Washington, Aug. 29.—President Wilson left Washington late today for the summer capital at Cornish (N. H.), still hopeful of a favorable culmination of the negotiations undertaken by this country to bring about peace in Mexico. Although no affirmative action on either side had been reported up to the time of the president's departure, encouraging despatches were received from Nelson O'Shaughnessy, in charge of the American embassy at Mexico City, bearing on the general situation.

The president, it is known, feels that good may come from an opportunity for the position of this government, as announced in his message of Wednesday, to link in.

Mr. Lind, it was asserted tonight, had been instructed from Washington to continue to act at his own discretion as to whether he should await developments at Vera Cruz or to return to Mexico City. Up to a late hour no despatches had been received at the state department from Mr. Lind. Secretary of State Lansing is expected to return tonight on a night trip to Pennsylvania that he believed the envoy would remain in Vera Cruz tonight.

Mr. Bryan conferred with the president over the reply of Senator Gombos, Mexican secretary for foreign affairs, to Mr. Lind's second note. They also considered the message of Mr. Lind to Washington yesterday afternoon. These latest communications gave reason for hopeful expectations was freely expressed.

Mr. Lind, it was reported, probably would make the next move in the negotiations which the president emphatically asserted in his message had not been closed and could be declared open on the initiative of either government.

THE IRISH TROUBLES THAT "LITTLE WAR"

Some Protestants Who Do Not Endorse the Carson Programme of Rebellion.

Belfast, Aug. 18.—The Ulster Guardian, the organ of the Ulster Liberal Association, published today, has the following:

"We have received intelligence of a dastardly outrage recently perpetrated at Ballyninch. Four horses belonging to a prominent citizen of the town were discovered one morning with their tails cut off close to the stump. Only one explanation of the outrage can be reasonably suggested. The owner, who has always lived peacefully with all his fellow-citizens and given no just cause of offence, incurred the hostility of the lower and most violent section of Unionism in the town last September by refusing to sign the covenant, and this hostility broke out again with greater violence at his refusal to take any part in the Unionist demonstration recently addressed in Ballyninch by Sir Edward Carson. It was almost immediately after the demonstration that the outrage upon the horses took place. A claim for compensation has, of course, been lodged, but the police so far have given no indication of having discovered the perpetrators of a wanton and cruel crime."

Independent inquiry confirms the statements made above. If Liberals adopted the Carson logic they would endorse a platform that when he is endorsed by all self-respecting Unionists, unfettered Ulster Unionists, even for "provisional government," since Sir Edward Carson is never apparently happier on the subject of the land question than when he is contending that because a few misguided people in the south and west of Ireland committed outrages on cattle the people as a whole ought not to secure self-government.

A Unionist Cleavage. Confirmation of what I wrote regarding the cleavage in the Unionist ranks as one of the results of the Carson tour is forthcoming from an unexpected quarter in a remarkable letter signed "Constitutional," published in the Irish Times. The writer, who states that he is an Ulster clergyman, makes the following points:

(1) Considerable numbers of Unionists in Ulster against Sir Edward Carson and in favor of Lord Lansdowne, who is prepared to accept the verdict of the people on home rule as expressed at a general election.

(2) Many people signed the Ulster covenant in the hope of influencing or forcing the government to test the feeling of the three counties on the home rule issue.

WON GOVERNOR GENERAL'S MATCH WITH 104 SCORE

Rockcliffe Ranges, Ottawa, Aug. 28.—In almost ideal weather the first stage of the governor general's match, the most important contest of the D. R. A., met was shot today and the winner was J. M. Wallace, of Montreal.

Q. M. S. Wallace is a member of the permanent army medical corps, and is a well known rifleman. He made a possible at 900 yards, another at 500 yards and only once missed the bull's eye at 600 yards. His total score was 104 out of a possible 105.

New Habeas Corpus Writ Likely

Chauffeur Out On Bail Declares He Won't "Squeal"

Sherbrooke, Aug. 29.—It was reported in Sherbrooke early today that Superior Judge Hutchinson, returning from his vacation, has agreed to grant to Canadian lawyers, acting for New York state a writ of habeas corpus, calling for the production of Harry K. Thaw in court ones.

Sherbrooke, Aug. 29.—New York state made no step forward today in its fight to return Harry K. Thaw to the Matinean Asylum for the Criminal Insane. He remains in the Sherbrooke jail on a commitment which will not bring him into court until the king's bench convenes in October, and William Travers Jerome, conferring with Canadian counsel, has as yet been unable to secure the throwing of the bolt that detains him.

Roger Thompson, erstwhile Times square chauffeur, lounged about the hotel corridors this afternoon, lunched near Jerome, wrote letters to friends, walked the streets unattended, and kept quiet as regards the Thaw case. He was released on $500 bail today on the double charge of having entered Canada "by stealth" and of having aided and abetted Thaw, to cross the Dominion border.

He will be tried on these charges, barring further postponements, on Wednesday next.

Furnished with counsel by the Thaw family and provided with spending money presumably from the same source, Thompson flatly and repeatedly refused to tell what transpired on and after the Sunday morning on which he drove Thaw away from the asylum gate after Stamford Wilson had whisked past Howard Barnum, the agent-keeper.

Thompson Won't Squeal Now. "I would not squeal if you gave me the whole town of Sherbrooke," said Roger. "I believe Thaw is sane and I would not say one word to hurt his case. I want to see him get away. I want to jump my bail. I can't go back to New York because they have a warrant out charging me with conspiracy. That worries me a whole lot. My old mother is worried about me, too. But I wrote her today, telling her not to be worrying. I am a British subject and I hope to beat this case. For now I get away with me to the subject of the details of the trip with Thaw."

NEW YORK MAN DID THE TRICK

Swam from the Battery to Sandy Hook, a Feat Which Many Had Tried.

New York, Aug. 28.—After many unsuccessful attempts by long distance swimmers for years past to swim the twenty-two miles from the Battery to Sandy Hook, Captain Brown, of the Flushing Bay life saving station corps, accomplished the feat today. Diving off the Battery wall at 5:16 o'clock this morning he landed at the Sandy Hook proving grounds at 6:33 p.m., having been in the water thirteen hours and thirty-eight minutes.

Marine men at the Hook considered him lucky in having landed safely, as several sharks, of man-eating size had been seen during the day in the vicinity of his course. One of these, a 12-footer, was hooked by the crew of the yacht Ventura, fishing in the Swash channel in the lower harbor for blue fish.

His Literal Wife. (Lippincott's)

Mr. Ives has a mind that delights in facts. One evening he laid down the paper, was silent for a moment, and then said:

"That's odd."

"What is it?" inquired his wife.

"Why, here is a man who says that it would take twelve million years to pump the sea dry at the rate of a thousand gallons per second."

Mr. Ives sat thinking the matter over. Finally he said:

"Why, Henry, where would they put all the water?"

Young America.

It takes but one generation to make a loyal American citizen. Not long ago a little English boy, studying in one of the city schools, came home greatly stirred by certain facts he had just learned about the War of the Revolution.

"Father, are you English?" he asked excitedly.

"Yes, my son."

"Is mother English, too?"

"Certainly. She was born under the Union Jack."

"Well, we licked you anyhow, and we were only farmers, while you had the King's Regiment!"

"A beautiful little fellow of the brown race, a Japanese, six years old, son of a minister in California, is no less a patriot."

His soft black eyes, in his chubby oval face, looked very deep and solemn as he said to his father:

"It would make my heart feel very sad to fight you. But I am American now, and if we ever have war with Japan, I must fight for my country."

Wagons and IHC Wagons

THE farmer who, in need of a wagon, blindly makes a bee line for the first new wagon or dealer in sight may get a good wagon. If chance steers him to an IHC dealer, well and good. That is his good fortune. If not, he will probably be in the wagon market again years before he should be. But the economical farmer will study and compare different makes, and find out in advance which wagon will give him best service, and consider such questions as company standing and reputation. When he has finished, the evidence will lead him to buy an IHC wagon.

Petrolia Chatham

Here are only two of the many features that contribute to the making of IHC wagons. Air-drying of lumber. Every stock of wood used—hickory and oak for wheels and axles, bay for box sides, long leaf yellow pine for bottoms—lies drying in open sheds from two to three years, saving all its resinous saps, toughening, seasoning, gaining elasticity, as only air-drying can do. Kiln-drying, the terrific application of artificial heat for a few days, evaporates the sap, leaves the wood inselactic, brittle, and weak—ruins it in short. Through inspections. Every IHC wagon, before it is turned out for the farmer, has to pass many rigid inspections by experts. Seldom does any flaw in material, or defect in shaping, ironing, and assembling, get by without detection. Every IHC wagon that leaves the factory has had to come up to IHC standards first. Look the line over, and see the catalogue, from the agent, or write the

ACTIVITY IN AND NEAR SUSSEX

It seems a good deal like carrying coal to Newcastle to know that St. John, surrounded as it is by a farming country, second to none in this continent, has to import farm and dairy products from outside the province of New Brunswick. But the fact is that it does and that on a large scale at times. The Times and Star, referring to the matter on Saturday last, said: "The amount of produce that is imported to St. John during the present week more than 250 cases of eggs have been received in St. John from Prince Edward Island for local dealers, an inspection of about 7,000 dozen, and a number of local merchants to wonder as to just what the farmers through New Brunswick are doing in the way of providing produce for the ready market here."

Of course, just at the present the shortage in supply might be attributed to the laying season, the farmers being too busy to bring their goods and send them to market, as well as to the fact that many of them are holding back for better prices. It is, however, a fact that there is at present a large quantity of produce in the market here. There is at present being raised at Washington a bill regarding abolition of the duty on dairy products, and should that go through, it would be a benefit to the dairy farmers of this province, as it would allow them to sell their produce at a lower price than they are now able to do. It is also being raised in this province a bill regarding the regulation of the sale of milk, and should that go through, it would be a benefit to the dairy farmers of this province, as it would allow them to sell their milk at a higher price than they are now able to do.

That the prospectors for copper at Scotch Settlement, Kings county, have had more than their fondest expectations realized goes without saying, and those interested are jubilant at the outcome of their efforts. Some years ago Gilbert W. Ganong, of St. Stephen, took out mining rights for a square mile of territory, and after being associated with him the Dick brothers, and for some time they have been working on the claim meeting with more or less success. They have been making excavations over the property, and in the process have discovered in practically every place they have found copper ore in considerable quantities. It is said that on the average, the ore will yield 25 per cent of copper, and as it is asserted that it pays to sweat ore, which only yields from 7 to 10 per cent, it looks like as the Scotch Settlement mines would prove to be a by-product. The ore is known as the Calco pyrite and contains traces of gold and silver.

That portion of the building which will contain the ticket office, waiting room, etc., will have a frontage of 74 feet and the baggage and express room will have a frontage of 88 feet 8 ins. and will be connected to main part of the station by a covered walk 40 feet in length. The men's waiting room will be 80 feet square and the ladies 18 feet 6 inches by 27 feet. Off each of these will be modern toilet rooms with the floor and walls of tiles designed in green, brown and yellow shading. The ventilation of the waiting and toilet rooms will be of the most up-to-date method. There will be two express rooms of 3 by 15 feet each and the baggage room will occupy a space of 29 by 27 feet. The front of the station will be a covered walk, will be 112 feet 8 inches in length. Between the ladies waiting room and ticket office there will be a waiting room for trams with an entrance from outside. The waiting rooms will have latest style drinking fountains, handsome electric light fixtures, and will be heated with hot water. A veranda seven feet wide will extend full length of the building and covered walk in front and extending past on each side will be a concrete platform 600 feet long. The building will have a concrete foundation and is to be constructed of brick, with trimmings of grey granite, of an olive tint, or of grey freestone, approved by the engineer with the approval of the city council.

McLean-Lansom.
Fredericton, Aug. 29.—A pretty wedding took place last evening at 8 o'clock at the residence of Guy L. Lansom, York street, when his mother, Mrs. L. A. Lansom, of this city, was united in marriage to Rev. S. A. Baker, of W. Norman, McLean, a prominent business man of Grand Manan (N. B.). Mrs. Lansom is a member of the Charlotte county society. There is a fine romance in this union as Mr. and Mrs. McLean were very close friends, if not lovers, and it was a matter of days, but had since been married.

and floats, some of which were very artistic. A miniature dredge, beautifully constructed and meant to take a prominent part in the parade, was being carried by the dredge-workers, the float, being too large to be taken on the ferry, was taken around by the bridge and was shown at the grounds.

Prizes. The turnout of saddle horses in the parade yesterday morning created a great deal of favorable comment. J. V. Russell and P. Kane, who acted as Judges, awarded the first honors to Robert Short, who drove a horse belonging to Macaulay Bros. & Co. John Bain won second prize, with a horse belonging to Vassie & Co., Ltd. William Grant was given third place, with one of the horses of Smith's Fish Market. The awards were in cash, $10, $6 and $4, respectively.

Many Attractions for the Holiday. Fully 6,000 people attended the labor sports yesterday afternoon on the Barrack Green. The programme was a great success. Besides the sporting events, there were numerous other attractions on the field in the form of games, etc. These latter were well patronized. The float carried by the carpenters, who were attired in white aprons and caps, was a miniature house built of tiny shingles. There was much hand-clapping as it passed.

The Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators, Local No. 794, and the United Association of Plumbers and Steam Fitters, Local No. 481, next passed. The float of the plumbers was a miniature room, containing sink, table and all plumbing in miniature, all splendidly executed. Headed by St. Mary's Band the Broom Workers' local, the Nailworkers' Union, the Journeymen Barbers' International Union, Local No. 662, and the I. C. R. Freight handlers passed, in the order named. Several floats symbolic of the various trades were carried by this group.

The International Association of Machinists, local No. 156, next came along with the 62nd Band playing an appropriate march in front. The machinists carried a most interesting float. Then came the International Moulders' Union, the Brotherhood of Boilermakers and Iron Shipbuilders, the Sons of England Band, the International Typographical Union, in Panama hats, the Printing Pressmen and Assistants Union, in three automobiles, and the Carleton Cornet Band.

Out in Force. The Longshoremen (International Longshoremen's Association), followed the Cornet Band and were an interesting feature in the parade. They were turned out almost full strength. Two of the most interesting floats of the parade were carried by them. One was a model of a full-rigged ship, the other was a steamship. In the evening the crowd was as great as in the afternoon, and the grand party was much enjoyed. Also, the parade was a success. The evening was a grand one, and was all that could be desired for the auspicious occasion.
