RAG FAIR. It was an almost indescrible scene. There were Jews, male and female, young, middleaged, and very old, taking part in so called Christians in buying or selling, each adding a share to make up a clamour that was per fectly deafening. There were paths resounding on every side, the utterers calling on the Gon of Heaven to witness to the truth of what they themselves knew perfectly well were lies, their hearers knowing it at the same time. There were cloths of every space. The bright and yet but I all corrupt-Colic in Horses. - A correspondent of ed boy, who was thus paying his first sto'en is trainers Advocate says:
