

New York, Oct. 15.—Standing on a temporary platform wherein an office desk served as a pulpit, and with his back to the sombre gray front of the old custom house, the lord bishop of London preached the gospel in the open air of Wall street at noon today. It was the second appearance in the financial district of the right Reverend Arthur Foley Winnington Ingram and while all who could get into Trinity heard him before, a multitude that filled the street from curb to curb listened, it was an unique sight. On either hand of the bishop were banks and brokerage houses while nearby were the various exchanges where the world's markets are recorded. Many who failed of standing room within hearing distance looked from the open windows and even the roofs of many buildings were lined with auditors. Bankers, brokers, policemen, clerks and messengers made up the audience. It was the bishop's fortieth sermon since his arrival here for "rest and recreation." The bishop, who had no rest but talked of the "pull" of faith. "A small boy was walking along a London street on one of those foggy days and holding a stick and kite string in his hand," he said, "a man who asked him what he had and he replied that he had a kite. "How do you know you have a kite, you can't see it," was the question. "No," was the reply, "I can't see it but I can feel it pull. In our lives as Christians we have also to feel the fact that we are believing in something we cannot see, but that we can feel it pulling us every moment of our lives. I feel a pulling to my intelligence, my mind, my soul, and my conscience and I respond to the pull," he said. It was the pull of the conscience which enabled me to distinguish right from wrong. The pull of the conscience, the heart and the soul was a pull towards a life of prayer. After the sermon the bishop was entertained at luncheon by a number of clergymen and laymen at the St. Denis hotel where he spoke briefly. The bishop was then whisked away in an auto for a flying trip through the east side, where he visited the university, the mills, hotels and hospitals. Tonight he was a guest at the dinner of the Pilgrims.

WANTS ORIENTALS

Former Nelson Man's Interview in St. John, N.B. Globe. An Arrowhead subscriber forwards us a copy of the Woodstock, N.B. Dispatch, containing an alleged interview with Hugh Stevens, reproduced from the St. John, N.B. Globe. Accompanying the paper was the following explanatory note: "Editor: The Daily News-I am sending you a copy of the Dispatch printed in Woodstock, N.B., with an item marked for you to read; perhaps you have already read it. Now, this Mr. H. Stevens is the Hugh Stevens that used to be steward on the C.P.R. boats here and on Kootenai lake. He is running the boarding houses here and at Comaplex for the sawmill company and has all Chinese help; he won't have a white cook or waiter, but he has a money out of them so you see why he is in love with them. The men here in Arrowhead are very bitter towards him over this item and it is well for him that he is in N.B. at present."

The item referred to above reads as follows: CHINESE AND JAPANESE IN THE FAR WEST (St. John Globe) Mr. Hugh Stevens, formerly of the city but for the last ten years a resident of Nelson, is visiting in St. John and receiving a welcome from many old friends. Mr. Stevens has given up his old business and is now catering to the large crews that are employed in the lumber woods in his locality. Talking with the Globe this morning Mr. Stevens said it is a great mistake to suppose that the Vancouver riots indicate the real feelings of the people towards the Asiatics. The Chinese, Mr. Stevens said, are the servants on the boats and would be impossible to live without them. They are scrupulously clean, do all manner of housework and without them the ladies would be compelled to work themselves at all the housework now put on their servants. The Japanese do not accept work of this kind but are laborers. Mr. Stevens could not speak in too high praise of them. He said they accept the regulation whatever it may be and go voluntarily to work, giving their employer full value for his wage. In this they are different from very many of the white laborers, who demand the highest wages, are indifferent to their work and think much about strikes, etc. The Japanese are a studious race and spend every idle moment in studying to improve themselves so they can climb higher. In fact, said Mr. Stevens they are far superior to all other classes of labor and are needed. The Hindus, on the other hand he condemned as dirty, shiftless and un-ventured to life in the west as they could never get acclimated. Mr. Stevens thinks they should be excluded and that with proper regulations the Japanese and Chinese should be admitted, as the country needs them.

It is astonishing that any British Columbian should seek to mislead eastern people on the Asiatic question as Mr. Stevens' interview published in the St. John Globe, is certainly calculated to do. No one denies that both the Chinese and Japanese have good qualities, but to say that they are essential to the progress and development of the province is utterly misleading and false. It is to be regretted that men who should know better should take such a narrow view of this important question. Because Mr. Stevens apparently can save a few dollars by employing Asiatic labor he is willing to have the province overrun by Orientals to the detriment of the healthy development of the country and the disturbance of economic conditions. It is sometimes alleged that the labor unions take a restricted view of the question, but nothing could be more mistaken than the attitude attributed to Mr. Stevens by the St. John Globe.

ALL CEMENT BUILDINGS

EDISON DECLARES HOUSE CAN BE BUILT IN 12 HOURS. NEW COMPOSITION WILL BE PLACED ON THE MARKET.

New York, Oct. 25.—The laboring man who makes $1.50 a day can have an indestructible three-story cement dwelling built in 12 hours at a cost of $1000. This statement was made yesterday by Thomas A. Edison in his laboratory at Orange, N.J. in the presence of a delegation of 300 members of the American electricians' union. Edison, who usually shuns interviews, was as affable and talkative as a candidate at a district election rally. He took the World reporter to the second floor of his laboratory, showed him the model of a Queen Anne cottage, and said: "Next spring I intend to build a house by this model. By means of a system of pipes and moulds it is possible for any contractor to build a house of solid cement 25 feet wide and 45 feet deep, three stories high and capable of housing three families, for $1000. Three families in a house built on this model will give each family lots of room. The most important feature of the patent lies in the moulds, which are of iron but the material for the house is to be composed almost wholly of a new composition of mine, consisting of one part of cement, three parts sand and five parts of quarter inch crushed stones. The only part of the house not built of cement will be a strip of wood around the ends of the floors on which to tack down carpet. "A house like this will abolish insurance forever. "By pouring the cement into the moulds beginning, of course at the top until the whole mixture overflows the edifice, it will be possible to build the house in 12 hours and in six days more it will be settled and hardened so as to be absolutely indestructible. "I have built the model of this house on the basis of a laborer owning netting $1.50 a day. The moulding forms are of cast iron and for $1000 the entire house can be built. This to include heating pipes, stair cases and cement floors and mantels of cement and a cement roof that won't leak. The plumbing and even bath tubs will be of cement. The durability of the house is unquestionable. It will last forever. Even children may go around with axes and chop as much as they like without doing any material harm. "Therefore there will be no necessity for repairs. Even the window sashes will be of cement. Aside from the narrow strip of wood intended for the holding of carpets, the only wooden thing which will be placed will be the front door stoop. I have given it a wooden stoop to make it more beautiful. I have been in consultation with a New York architect on the subject of the wooden stoop and I think it possible to omit that material in the stoop construction. It will cost a contractor $30,000 to get the moulds which will build the houses but then he can build over 20,000 houses with the one set of moulds. The moulds can be taken down in a few hours after the house is completed and they may be carried to any part of the world in less space than is required for shipping an ordinary derrick. That is what will appeal strongly to commercial economy."

TURGEON IS ELECTED. RESULT OF RECOUNT IN PRINCE ALBERT CONTEST.

Prince Albert, Oct. 25.—Hon. Mr. Turgeon, attorney general of Saskatchewan, was today declared elected by a majority of 99 over Bradshaw, the provincial rights candidate, in the contest for the seat in the House of Commons. The ballot boxes were counted at 1 o'clock this morning and declared the result this afternoon. A few minutes before they started, representatives of both sides in a batch of appeals against the decision of the court of revision. The liberal party appealed 101 votes and the provincial rights party 27. As regards the number of seats placed upon them, 17 of which were marked for Turgeon, were withdrawn from the count until they can be taken before a judge. Among the appeals, ten by Bradshaw and 19 by Turgeon were in respect of votes declared by the court of revision. This further the tie up placed Bradshaw at a disadvantage for the present as to votes; and although it is possible for him to eventually win the seat as a result of the appeals the returning officer in his count omitted all appealed ballots and declared the candidate elected by a majority of 99. Bradshaw's unappealed votes, which was Turgeon's 68. Both sides claim they would have won if no appeals had been entered, but it is now considered that the majority of Turgeon is safe.

Emerson, returned missionary on furlough from Japan, where he spent several years, said Canada has not treated Japan as generously as that country had treated the Japanese. He contrasted the treatment of the Japanese in British Columbia with the protection given Canadians and other foreigners at the time of the riots following the signing of the peace treaty, and said he thought that Japan had good reason to question the superiority of Canadian over Japanese civilization, and its sense of international obligation.

Portage, Oct. 25.—The trial of Wynn for attempted murder was concluded at the assizes this morning when the jury brought in a verdict of guilty after being out 40 minutes. The disease is directly transmissible to a Chinaman who died from it. A dominion quarantine officer has gone to Seattle to confer with the authorities there.

CANADA'S WATERWAYS. Speaker Sutherland Talks to Kansas City People.

Kansas City, Oct. 25.—Robert Sutherland, speaker of the Canadian house of commons, in an address tonight before the Knif and Fork club, predicted that Canada would soon have a 21-foot channel from the upper lakes to the tide water and that her ports would be the busiest of any in North America. Mr. Sutherland said: "In 1865 Joseph Aspinwall longed for a 14-foot draught from the upper lakes to the tide water. In 1891 this had become an accomplished fact, but the task is really not yet completed. People now alive may live to see the minimum depth made 21 feet and when the day comes, Montreal and Quebec, Halifax and St. John's, and perhaps some other harbor that is as yet only dreamed of, will be the busiest ports of the North American continent. Of this great highway, Canada holds the door. New

ANOTHER DREYFUS CASE. SENSATIONAL ARREST OF TWO FRENCH OFFICERS.

Paris, Oct. 25.—The arrest of ensign Chas. B. Ulmo, of the French navy at Toulon, yesterday on the charge of having abstracted a secret naval signal, was followed today by the arrest at Vendome of an army reserve officer named Berton, who is charged with negotiating with an agent of a foreign power for the sale of military secrets. The arrests are creating a great stir and as Ulmo is a Hebrew the papers term his case a second Dreyfus affair. It appears that Ulmo offered certain documents to the minister of marine, saying that unless his offer was accepted he would sell them to a foreign power, thereupon a correspondence was begun ending in Ulmo's capture. A search of his papers revealed that he not only had the secret code system, but was in possession of the complete plans for the mobilization of the French navy, the location of harbor mines and the whereabouts of war and photographs of the mechanism of France's famous seventy-five millimetre field guns. The cases of Ulmo and Berton added importance to the debate which is now on in the chamber of deputies this afternoon on interpretations regarding the state of the national defenses. General Picquart, minister of war, warmly defended the army, denying two deputies' allegations that a state of disorganization existed in it. The chamber almost unanimously voted confidence.

Young Keegan ran a mile around a dangerous curve and stopped the train which reached the edge of the bridge as it fell.
