SUPERBAS' STAR HURLER GRIMES PITCHES BROOKLYN TO VICTORY IN SECOND GAME OF THE SERIES

Batteries: Cleveland — Bagby and O'Neill. Brooklyn—Grimes and Miller.

Ebbett's Field, N. Y., Oct. 6.—The Cleveland Indians, with a crackling scalp dangling at their belts, went on the warpath again today in the second encounter of the series with the Brooklyn Dodgers. The Indians believe they have the champions of the National League tied to a stake, and declared themselves in prime condition today. Over 20,000 people came out to see the fray.

"A wind-blown fly ball was the cause of our downfall yesterday," said Manager Robinson of the Brooklyn today. "With an even break on luck, my club will show the way to victory."

"We have looked the Brooklyn over and my men feel they can take the majority of the games," said "Tis Speaker today. "Brooklyn has a fine ball club, make no mistake, and I have my trouble to find pitchers to beat them in a long series."

The chill of yesterday's defeat and a cold night did not freeze the enthusiasm of the fans, who came early to the ball yard. Spectators seeking seats in the unreserved stands began to form in line two hours before sunup and shivered and shook in the Arctic blast that came out of the north.

Playing Field Good.

The wind had dried out the playing field so that the groundkeepers had to spray it with water to keep down the dust. Those who came early to the game bundled themselves up in heavy coats to keep out the cold, while the players were jacketed in heavy sweaters, except a few who defied the wind. The Brooklyn went through a long batting practice before the game. Manager Robinson was anxious to work his men out of the batting slump into which they had fallen in the last week or so. John Millus went into the box for Brooklyn and was ordered to put everything he had on the ball, so that the Indians expected Grimes to pitch against them, and accordingly the right-hander threw up the ball for Cleveland in their batting practice.

The two teams put up some very splendid fielding practice, which provoked rounds of applause from the fans. The outfield stands were well filled, but the crowd was not as large as yesterday. Near game time the sky became overcast, but there was no threat of rain as the wind held north.

Chief Commissioner Carvell Must Return From the West First.

NEW RATES CONTINUE

In Effect Until After Cabinet Recommendations Fully Considered.

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—By Canadian Press. —So far as can be learned today the board of railway commissioners has not yet received any intimation from the Dominion Government that its judgment in the railway rates case will come back to that body with some directions as to possible modifications and adjustments of the findings of the commission.

Hon. F. B. Carvell, chief commissioner, is at present holding sittings in Western Canada, and will not be back in the capital until the end of the month. The chief commissioner wrote the rates judgment, and it was concurred in by the other members of the board, who took part in the inquiry. As there would be no possibility of the commissioners undertaking to review the judgment until Mr. Carvell returns the matter will remain in abeyance, in all probability, for a few weeks and during this period, as well as during the subsequent period of inquiry, the rates will remain in effect. This means that in so far as the big end of present crop movement is concerned the new rates will apply.

Col. Leckie With Seaplane Ready For Start of Trans-Canada Flight

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 6.—Canadian Press.—Col. Leckie, who arrived here yesterday in the Falvey seaplane, which he piloted from Fredericton, and who will start on a trans-Canada flight from here, stated that the flight from Fredericton was devoid of incident, except that they ran into a fairly thick mist crossing the Bay of Fundy.

This flight across Canada, said Col. Leckie, is not a "circus stunt," but is calculated to prove beyond doubt that "cross-country flights of great magnitude are feasible."

"PUSSYFOOT" JOHNSON IS FORCED TO FLEE THROUGH GRAVEYARD TO ESCAPE ANGRY BERKSHIRE MOB

London, Oct. 6.—William E. (Pussyfoot) Johnson, the temperance advocate from the United States, narrowly escaped from an angry crowd, which interrupted the of his temperance meetings at Reading, Berkshire, and tried to break through the locked doors of the hall to reach him, according to a Reading dispatch to the Evening News today. The crowd also threw bombs containing foul-smelling chemicals.

The police had to be called out to prevent serious disorders. Johnson escaped with detectives by the rear exit of the hall through a graveyard to a taxiab.

Strong, though less violent, opposition to Johnson was reported from Wales recently.

NEW RECORDS FOR MARRIAGES ARE BEING MADE IN LONDON

Official Figures Show That 622 Weddings Have Been Performed So Far This Year—Scarcity of Houses Is Not At All Discouraging, Apparently.

A new record for marriages in London will be established by the end of the year, according to present indications. Since the beginning of 1920 there has been a noticeable increase in the number of young couples taking the nuptial vows.

Last month it assumed the aspects of an epidemic, and there is no sign of abatement at the present time. Unlike the "flu" epidemic, which it seems to have supplanted, no efforts are being made to check it; in fact, the authorities are encouraging it, and are beginning to feel that London's population is being increased by the marriages.

Staff of stenographers and clerks have been married, and while some of them have continued at work, most of them have started housekeeping, and the employers have had to look for other help.

GERMANY IS WARNED TO RELEASE MUNITIONS SHIPS DESTINED FOR POLAND, NOW HELD IN KIEL CANAL

Council of Ambassadors Dispatches Note Couched in the Strongest Terms—Germany's Attitude Is Interpreted As a Direct Violation of the Treaty of Versailles.

Paris, Oct. 6.—The council of ambassadors yesterday dispatched a note to Germany demanding the immediate release of three ships loaded with munitions for Poland, which are being held in the Kiel Canal by the German authorities. The note specifically mentions the Danish ship Dorrit, but there are two other ships which also are being held.

Germany has taken the position that she is neutral in the Russo-Polish war and that she should not permit the passage of the ships, which are destined for Danzig. The ambassadors point out in their note that Germany's attitude constitutes a direct violation of the treaty of Versailles, inasmuch as the treaty specifies that the Kiel Canal is a free waterway for all nations of the world.

The note is couched in the strongest terms and leaves no room for further discussion on the part of Germany.

Teachers To Ask Salary Increases

Board of Education Has New Problem To Worry About.

Teachers' salaries promise to provide as much worry for this year's board of education as they did for the 1919 board. Public school principals have submitted a request to have their salaries adjusted to the beginning of the year. They state that their request is a moderate one, as it will increase the average salary of only $400. They claim that their salaries are low as compared with those of teachers in the surrounding district.

Four high school teachers also have asked for an adjustment of their salaries and a number of other employees have asked additional pay for the extra services they are performing. The salaries of janitors' assistants are to be reconsidered.

TWO
Hundreds Gather To Hear
Story of Labrador Work

Generous Subscriptions Follow Appeal of Dr. Grenfell,
Made in Masonic Temple—Campaign Launched Here
To Be Carried Into States and England.

Generous subscriptions followed the appeal of Dr. Grenfell, who, in the work of the Labrador medical and educational missions at a mass meeting that overheard the speaker's capacity of the Masonic Temple Tuesday evening. So interesting and fascinating proved the romantic story of Labrador as told by Dr. Grenfell and his assistant, Dr. H. L. Paddon, that hundreds of people, unable to obtain seats, stood for two hours or more to listen patiently.

Dr. Grenfell was introduced by George M. Reid, who presided, and following Dr. Grenfell's address and an illustrated lecture by Dr. Paddon, Field Secretary Cyrus P. Keen explained the details of the mission and management of the endowment fund, to raise which a campaign launched here on Monday will be carried throughout Canada and the United States, and even into England. Subscribers to the fund may make their payments at any time previous to May, 1921, and H. F. Skey, manager of the B. M. of A. of the Bank of Montreal, is the local treasurer.

Dr. Grenfell, in beginning his lecture, emphasized the value of the work of men reared in cold climates and told of the hardy seamen whom Labrador sent to serve in the Great War. The Labradorians, whether whites or natives, are hardy races, with the exception of the Eskimoes, who are not increasing, and who lost 40 per cent of their entire numbers in the influenza epidemic of 1918. The Indians are of two tribes, the Montagnais and the Nasco.

Right Attitude.
Several years ago Dr. Grenfell proposed to transport 200 Labrador families to British Columbia to engage in the fishing industry in competition with the Japanese, but the Newfoundland Government, unwilling to lose any of its subjects, interested in the project, and Dr. Grenfell had come to be the right attitude. The Government took the right attitude.

Lack of educational facilities is a great handicap to the progress of the country, but the mission schools have graduated some famous men and women, and large numbers who are now working hard in the upbuilding of the country. Many prominent surgeons, and numbers of teachers and nurses visit Labrador annually at their own expense and assist in the work of the medical and educational missions.

NOTED BRITISH CRIMINOLOGIST
ARRIVES IN CITY

Will Address Women's Canadian Club This Afternoon—Opened Hospital.

Dr. Helen Boyle, the eminent English specialist, who has come to Canada to study criminology in connection with the juvenile courts, and will address the Women's Canadian Club at the Normal School this afternoon, arrived in the city last night with her secretary, Miss Hingston, and is the guest of Mrs. Frank Leonard.

Dr. Boyle, when young, accepted a post in an asylum.

"I went reluctantly," she says, "for the sake of the cash, but I had heard that a week until I found it one of the most enthralling places I had ever been in. And now I have found that people do not go to asylums as freely as to hospitals. There is nothing occult about them, though they are often very sad."

"There is much humor in an asylum," she says. "Don't think it a dull place. I say that there, as everywhere, the saving grace of humor is an enormous boon. One woman once believed that she could talk to her deaf husband, always did it down a hot-air grating."

Dr. Boyle's later experience in the east end of London, where she found patients being actually manufactured by the terrible conditions in which they lived, led her to make up her mind that she would some day open a hospital for these people who were beginning to break down. This hospital was begun in 1905.

"Such a psychiatric hospital should be established in or near a fairly large town," says Dr. Boyle, "presuming the establishment of such a Canada. Not in the country where the patients are apt to run away."

"The institution should be near a hospital."

"The beds should be in small wards, and not too many patients together."

"There should be no compulsory detention and no certificate patient."

"There should be a nurse of varied temperament to go with every kind of patient. Even those most violent and disagreeable nurses have their uses."

"There should be re-education methods and a club for after treatment."

"You want the social service which you have so much better developed here than it is in the old country," Dr. Boyle said.

"The patients should go to their own church and have their geyman visit them."

GAMBLING IN BASEBALL
SCORNE

The whole world can clearly see the folly in such a crime. Right is always right. The fans pay good money to see clean baseball, and it is only given when fair play is in action. Value is at stake as in the game of the world's history. John A. Nash, My Jeweler, stands out strong for value, and it pays to have perfect diamonds from My Jeweler. His store is 206 Dundas street, "where you will eventually buy."

ADVISES AGAINST
HASTY CONTRACTS

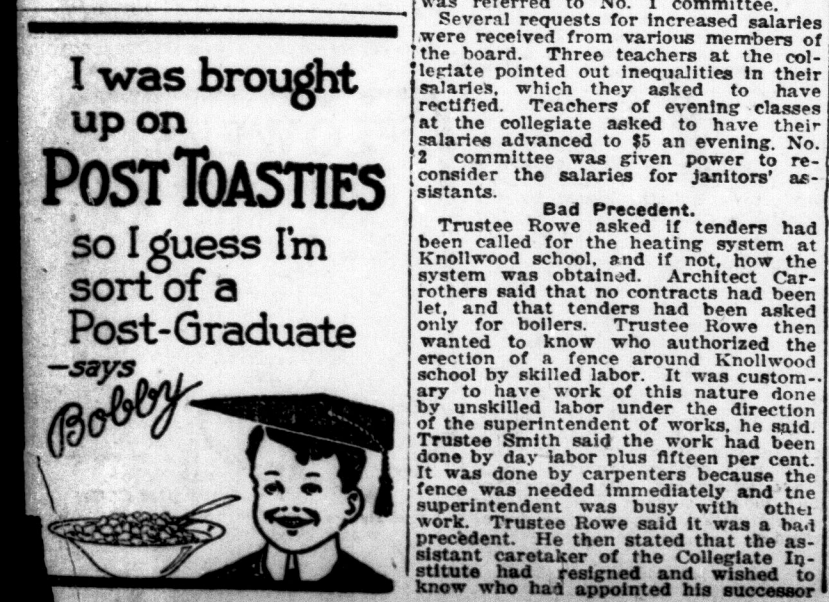

Canadian flax growers will be well advised not to make hasty contracts with American buyers, according to S. Frank Glass, M.P., who has received telegrams from English and American representatives of the Canadian flax growing industries that arrangements have been made with British factories to take all the Canadian flax they can obtain.

Mr. Glass has been confined to his home about a week with influenza. Under the urgent advice of attending physicians, he will leave in a few weeks for a two-months trip to Bermuda.

and on what authority. Trustee Smith said the appointment had been made temporarily by the superintendent of the company on the eastern lines of the C. T. R. and the officials of the company in November, according to the local office of the men's organization, which is a branch of the Canadian Brotherhood of Railway Employees. An attempt is to be made to have the same working conditions existing on the Canadian National lines applied to the employees of the company and the same scale of wages excepting that for clerks and depot foremen.

The Canadian National scale is higher than the one paid by the Canadian Express Company on the eastern lines at the present time. For drivers, scalemen, and porters the minimum on the Canadian National is $112, which is $10 higher than that paid by the Canadian Express. After one year's service the scale is $125, while the maximum at the present time here is $110. Messengers will also receive a substantial increase under the new scale. The minimum salary for messengers on the Canadian National is $145 a month. On the Canadian Express the maximum is approximately $145, while the scale goes as low as $95. The clerks and depot foremen will ask a general increase of 11 cents an hour.

THE START OF THE WORLD'S SERIES CREATES BUT LITTLE MORE INTEREST THAN DOES

THOMAS' PRE-WAR PRICE SALE

MORE ESPECIALLY IN THE CASE OF THRIFTY FOLKS

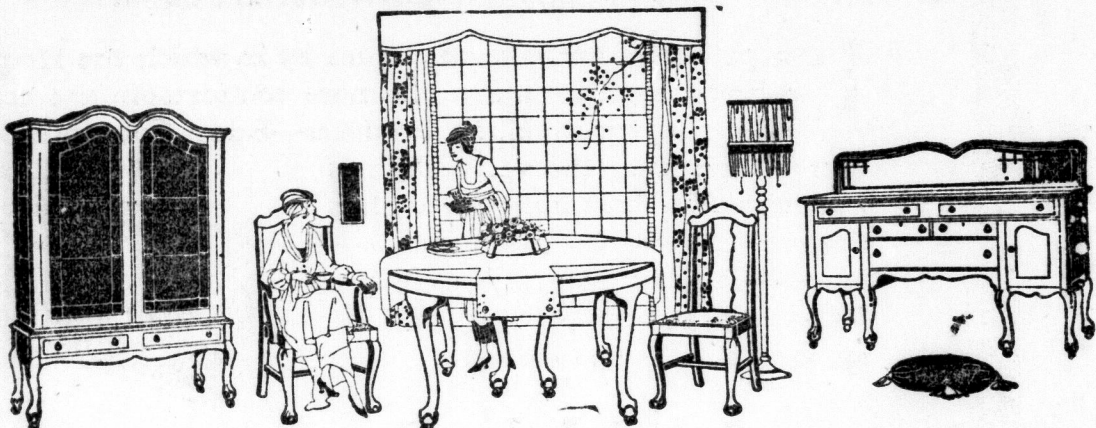

It is not in the spirit of boasting—please do not misunderstand the intention—when we say that business is wonderful, and we did not know before how much business could exist at this point in Western Ontario. Thanks for the support given by the public in general to this new policy of price-cutting. Shall we put it this way: "The public certainly has confidence in advertising done by this store." The sale will continue with renewed effort.

30% Off Regular Prices to Cash, and 20% Off to Club Plan Purchasers

This idea is so broad that it appeals not only to the person with the available cash, but perhaps more so to those of limited capital. Plain figures, understandable by anyone, is one of the rules of the store. The old prices still remain on all sales tickets—all that is necessary is to deduct either of the discounts. From the advertised prices mentioned in this advertisement club plan purchasers can arrive at their figures by taking off 20 per cent. The cash price is run in all ads.

Club plan purchasers are expected to pay at least one-third the amount, with the balance discharged within one year. Yes, we know there is a wee bit of prejudice against purchasing on time, but, after all is said and done, that is the way most of us get paid—so much each week. It's not such a bad plan, after all. Then, you have the immediate use of your purchases.

Qualifying Adjectives Are Very Necessary In Describing Some Dining Suites of Character

To put it bluntly, we have some real nice ones, carefully portraying the designs intended. No, the pretentious Hepplewhite suite is not sold yet, but it will be shortly, if the number of persons looking at it with intention of purchase can be taken as any criterion. When each one of these regular prices was $1,500, and that it embodies two-tone inlays and genuine hand-carving, you'll know it's some suite. On sale $1,050

Another lovely suite is being shown in walnut, displaying Queen Anne characteristics, with its gracefully-curved legs. There are ten pieces to this suite, including the side or serving table. Regular $521. Now $574.70

A great many young couples prefer the serviceable oak for their dining-room. Particularly attractive is one on sale in William and Mary design, with the characteristic bell turnings. The table, moreover, is leg base, getting entirely away from the pedestal table. Regular price was $214, but is now being offered for $149.80

A more popularly priced suite is one now being shown in both fumed and golden oak (eight pieces). Regular $115.50 Now on sale for $165.

Still another complete suite at a more nominal sum, in surface oak, that sold regularly at $101. Now $70.70

Take a Spin to Town Some Fine Day Soon

You may just as well turn that auto of yours to account, now that its use is going to save you money, especially on a whole household of furniture.

Most young folks have a pretty definite idea of what they want to place in the new home, and, believe us, you'll find that you can carry out most of your ideas by visiting Thomas'. Indeed, we have a completely furnished home fitted up right in the store.

Western Ontario Pours Orders Into Thomas'

No, if any person had told us a couple of weeks ago that in a few days we would have a Mail Order Department, it certainly would have been discredited. But it is true. Nine, ten, twenty, thirty and more letters a day from out-of-town folks, either ordering or making inquiries of advertised articles. And they are being filled rapidly.

True, we had to rather jump into the thing in the way of giving service, but we have got away to a fine start, and can now give pretty fair service. Any inquiries will receive careful attention at once.

We realize that this is due to possibly two things in particular—the fact that London's newspapers are distributed to so many persons, and the fact that we are offering unusual values. Thanks!

Chesterfields---Winter Time

Affording Luxurious Comfort

Right down in every woman's heart there is an earnest desire to be in possession of a Chesterfield of some sort or other. Perhaps it is the nice name given them; perhaps it is the wonderful appearance, or perhaps it is the comfort they seek—but they want them. And we have them in all styles to suit most any taste.

Tapestry is a mighty hard thing to describe, so are designs, but you will understand the quality when we say that all have outside backs, Marshall cushions, and the longer ones are supported with an extra foot in the centre. Yes, we are giving 30 per cent off them, too, and it is no longer necessary to pay $200 for a Chesterfield.

Your Home Furnished Complete-- At a Great Saving

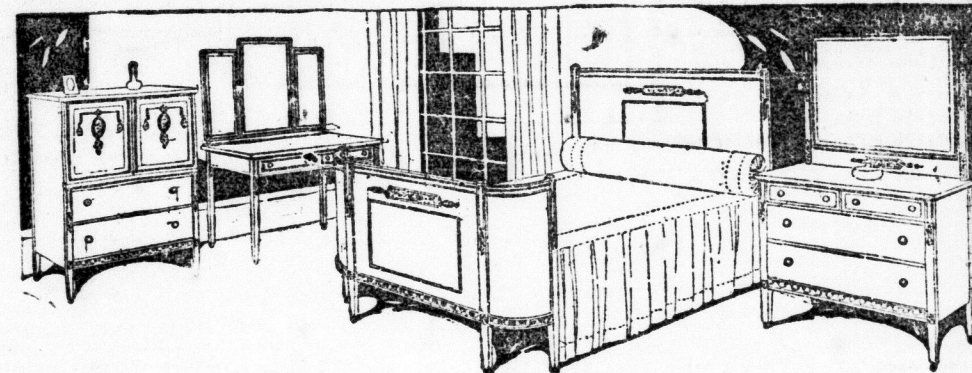

Can We Continue This Price-Cutting Event?---We Think So.

It was necessary to triple ordinary business to maintain the new low-price levels. We certainly were taking a big chance, for if we failed it would be a difficult job to return to the high war levels, after having come out strongly for lowered prices.

At this writing we feel that it can be kept up, for it all depended on volume, and there is absolutely no sign of business falling off. In fact, we are experiencing some difficulty in delivering. The men are going till 10 o'clock each evening with one truck, but this will be systematized shortly, so that no disappointments will occur.

Montreal, Oct. 6.—Commander J. K. L. Ross, owner of Sir Barton, returned from New York yesterday, and left last night for Laurel, Maryland, to complete arrangements with Trainer H. G. Bedwell, for the shipment of the champion of his stable to Windsor, for the meeting.

Kenilworth Park.

While in Montreal, Commander Ross stated that Sir Barton was never in better form than at the present. He has been doing well and satisfied his trainers in all his recent workouts, particularly

Mr. Ross further stated that the state's argument attributed to him that Sir Barton was not a purebred surely made no sense, because he would have made a name for himself if he was not a purebred. He said he would know that there is no certainty in the American turf."

The American turf will come together in the match next Tuesday, and under the conditions as arranged, there is no advantage to be claimed by either," said Commander Ross.

Pinkerton Detectives Will Swarm Kenilworth Track During Big Meet.

TORONTO, Oct. 5.—"There will be between fifty and a hundred of our men at Windsor this week for the Kenilworth Jockey Club meeting," said a representative of Pinkerton today. "Local conditions are largely responsible for the number of operatives who will be present. Some guard the two horses. The Kenilworth Jockey Club is providing this protection, and the men will be in the charge of Captain Duhanne of New York, the Pinkerton race track expert. Most of the men will be from the Detroit office, and in addition, I believe, racing men in Toronto are taking some operatives with them from here."

USED IN MANUFACTURE

WINDSOR, Oct. 5.—As a result of the recent drastic cuts in automobile manufacture by a majority of makers of popular cars, a general slump in the demand for goods involved in the manufacture of cars from the raw materials to the finished product has resulted. The first serious blow to Windsor industry occurred today when half the staff of the Kelsay Wheel Company of Windsor was laid off indefinitely. It is not expected they will be taken back within two or three months. The president of the company, J. G. Campbell, said that the Canadian Commercial Body Company, which builds bodies for business cars, reported serious declines in orders within the past few days when interviewed tonight, but said he intended to keep his whole staff at work for some time yet.

LOSS OF FAITH IN HONESTY OF BRITISH GOVT.

Reason Given by Westminster Gazette For Irish Solving Questions.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—(Canadian Associated Press).—Premier Lloyd George will speak in London on Friday, and is expected to deal at length with the Irish situation. He will probably analyze Lord Grey's proposals for a settlement and also ex-Premier Asquith's, which appeared in a letter to the Times this morning. The latter's suggestion of granting Ireland the status of an autonomous dominion in the fullest and widest sense, is received with general scepticism.

The Evening Standard, while heartily a Coalition organ, indorses what it alleges is being said generally in political circles today, that it would be the most absolute surrender to violence on record.

Could Shape Policy. "What would be the result of the Evening Standard, if New Zealand or Australia were violently anti-British? They could so shape their policy as to destroy all trade between themselves and the mother country, and in such circumstances, the Government would inevitably proceed to the point of complete political separation."

The Evening Standard concludes with a half suggestion that the Liberals may possibly repudiate Mr. Asquith's leadership or there may be a permanent split equal in effect to Gladstone's conversion to home rule.

Distant Respect. The Westminster Gazette, which usually gives its benediction to Mr. Asquith's sentiments, treats his latest proposal tonight with merely distant respect. Harking back to its own earlier pronouncements that the Irish people have suffered a total loss of faith in the seriousness and honesty of British Government, the Westminster Gazette supports Lord Grey's proposal "to leave to Irishmen the responsibility of finding the right solution of the Irish question. We share his confidence. If they can be set to work on it in a responsible manner many of the difficulties which now loom largest will disappear."

AWFUL EXPERIENCE FOR CORK RESIDENTS. CORK, Oct. 5.—The residents of Cork had another terrifying experience early this morning. The cause of the trouble was a brush between the military and unidentified persons, who fired on curfew patrols. The military replied with heavy volleys of machine guns, sweeping all suspected areas with searchlights.

MAKE FIFTEEN POLICE PRISONERS. SKIBBERIDEN, Ireland, Oct. 5.—Armed bands attacked the police barracks last evening, taking prisoner fifteen policemen and seizing arms and ammunition. The barracks was burned. There were no casualties.

SOLDIERS SEIZE AND SEARCH MAIL. DUBLIN, Oct. 5.—Another sensational raid was conducted in the city during business hours today, when armed men held up and robbed the Richmond street branch of the Provincial Bank. They carried off £300 and escaped.

On the arrival in Dublin this morning of the mails from the provinces and from England a military party entered the central sorting station and carried away all the letters. Businessmen inquiring for their mail were informed that the military authorities had taken place after the letters had been examined. A similar method of obtaining information already has been employed by the Government in other Irish centres.

PUBLIC WAITING DENOUEMENT IN CASE OF MAYOR MACSWINEY. LONDON, Oct. 5.—The condition of Terence MacSwiney, lord mayor of Cork, incarcerated in Brixton prison, remained unchanged tonight.

Authentic information regarding the mayor's condition continues to be confined to cryptic statements issued by the home office and the more elaborate bulletins from the London headquarters of the Irish Self-Determination League. The statements from these sources have been for some time of a rather stereotyped form, "exhausted" and "prostrate" but inquiries this afternoon in both quarters brought word that neither government officials nor the MacSwiney family are seriously concerned over the immediate danger of the prisoner's death.

On the contrary, officials of the league said they thought that although the mayor was exhausted, "careful nursing" would restore him to normal health should his release in some unforeseen manner be effected within a few days. The same informants expressed the opinion that Mayor MacSwiney would be able to withstand the effects of his abstinence from food for "quite some time."

The home office, which from the beginning of the mayor's transfer to Brixton Prison, has manifested marked reluctance to discuss the case, withheld comment on these possibilities.

Receives No Food. "So far as we know," he is receiving no food," remains the only Government reply to queries, and the question as to whether the Government has taken measures to insure its knowing should attempts be made to administer nourishment, meets with the official rejoinder: "Government agents are always in attendance at the prison bedside."

The public is waiting with interest, the denouement in the case. Opinions regarding the ultimate outcome, however, are not entirely one-sided. Many observers are convinced that the Irish Nationalist contention that the fast is merely an illustration of the supremacy of the mind over the body and that expert nursing and the vigilant watch maintained for the detection and quick treatment of threatened complications are playing an important part in the mayor's surprising demonstration of endurance.

FAMOUS SOCIAL WORKER IN CANADA

Seven Stanley Township Men Work Novel Plan Successfully.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Kippen, Oct. 5.—A company formed by seven farmers, with Joseph Hood as president and Norman Jones as secretary, has just closed a most satisfactory season, and demonstrated what enterprise can accomplish. They purchased early in the season a tractor and separator, and planned to do their own threshing and that of any neighbors who desired it. They found the tractor not quite strong enough for the work required, and at once secured another one of greater horsepower for threshing and kept the small one for plowing. They have found enough work to keep all the equipment in constant use all season, and lately have had many calls to go threshing in other districts. The great advantage, they say, is that threshing can be done just when needed, and that the machine, while small, threshes nearly as fast as the larger machines, and with heavy loads to be drawn, which means quite a saving.

According to John Moffatt, who has been in charge of the elevator here for the last 30 years, the sale of fall wheat has never been greater than this season. Almost any day several loads of wheat may be seen standing in line waiting to be delivered. Considerable of this season's wheat was paid for at the rate of $2.50 a bushel.

BLAME WIRING FOR DESTROYING HALL IN TOKIO

All Sunday School Convention Delegates Are Believed Safe.

TOKIO, Oct. 5.—Fire this afternoon completely destroyed the big hall in which the World's Sunday School Convention was to have held its first session tonight. It is said there were no casualties.

The fire, which resulted from defective electric wiring, started at ten minutes to four o'clock, when the lights on the dome bearing the inscription, "I Am the Light of the World" were turned on.

The building, which was constructed of light material covered with stucco, was destroyed within a few minutes. A large number of persons were in the building when the correspondent left two minutes before the fire.

Echoed by Thousands. The cry of "Fire" was immediately raised by those inside the building and echoed by thousands of persons approaching the central railroad station adjacent to the convention hall. Almost immediately the entire structure was wrapped in flames, with people streaming from the exits. Within ten minutes the building had been levelled. So great was the heat that it would have been impossible to approach the building for work of rescue if such work had been required.

Some of the delegates who had been inside the hall, when questioned, said they did not know whether all those there when the fire had started had made their escape. Charles T. Raines, New York, asserted that he had kept the delegates from overcrowding the exits. Personally he was of the belief that all of them had reached safety, although he could not be sure about those who had been working in the back of the building.

Before the fire started the correspondent found the big chorus, composed of Japanese and foreigners, rehearsing under the direction of Professor Augustus Smith. Eastern white delegates were coming and going preparatory to the opening of the evening session.

LIGHTING FIRE WITH COAL OIL CAUSE OF ANOTHER PAINFUL DEATH. WINDSOR, Oct. 5.—Terribly burned by coal oil, which she was pouring on a coal fire, when the coal exploded and hurled flaming oil on her clothes, Miss Eva Bloomfield, 1022 Louis avenue, died in Grace Hospital today. She was alone in the house at the time of the accident, and was forced to combat the flames unassisted. Neighbors summoned by her screams of anguish called doctors, but the girl died a few hours later in the hospital, to which she was rushed. The funeral, under the auspices of the Salvation Army, will be held Thursday.

Meighen Cabinet Decides Not To Change Schedules.

[Special to The Advertiser.] Ottawa, Oct. 5.—At the conclusion of a lengthy cabinet council this morning it was definitely decided that there should be no disallowance of the increased railway rates order by the railway commission. Appellants from the order not only requested disallowance, but also a suspension of the increase while the appeals were pending. The Government refused to suspend, and now has decided against disallowance.

The council, however, has, it is learned, decided to recommend to the board reconsideration of its order with respect of discrimination as between the east and west, with a view toward its removal and the filing of new schedules by the railway companies. In this regard it will be recalled that eastern appellants stood for disallowance, but did not favor any interference in the matter of discrimination.

A statement setting forth at length the Government's reason for its decision will issue before the end of the week. Pending the reconsideration by the board recommended, the new rates will continue in force.

TRENT VALLEY HYDRO SHORTAGE REACHES CRISIS

Politics Blamed For Trouble—Deputation Goes To Toronto.

PETERBORO, Oct. 5.—A crisis has been reached in this city in the power situation, and every day additional facilities are being incurred by the manufacturers. It is said that the shortage of power here is due to politics and jealousy between the department of railways and canals and the Hydro-Electric Power Commission.

The shortage of power has been attributed to low water in the Trent River and the Ottawa River, but official figures are cited as showing a heavier rainfall in September of this year than in any previous year.

A deputation from the local utilities commission is going to Toronto on Thursday to make representations to the Hydro-Electric Power Commission on the matter of the power shortage here.

OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—Representations as to shortage of hydro-electric power from manufacturers at Oshawa, Belleville and other places in the Trent Valley are under consideration by the department of railways and canals, which has charge of water conservation in that district. The department says that the hydro-electric commission has contracted for more power than it is possible to develop, unless water is released from storage in the Trent watershed. The Trent is open to two objections. First, the rights of riparian owners require that water in certain lakes must be maintained at definite levels, and second, reduction of the water level to satisfy immediate demands might result in prolonged and greater shortage later on.

ST. THOMAS STUDENTS PUT ON SUCCESSFUL COLLEGIATE SPORTS

Both London Collegiate Rugby and Basketball Teams Are Defeated.

[Special to The Advertiser.] ST. THOMAS, Oct. 5.—Contrary to well-established precedents the old town enjoyed a quiet time tonight. London Collegiate Institute pupils came over strong for field day this afternoon, saw the proposition they were encountering, and went home conquered but singing.

The annual St. Thomas Collegiate Institute field day brought out crowds of students, and demonstrations were carried out minus the usual unpleasant jars.

The weatherman favored the program of sports and the rugby match proved a one-sided exhibition, the players on either team failed to exert themselves much. The local huskies proved their superiority in every angle of the contest, as indicated by the 20 to 0 score, and the London Collegiate Institute girls basketball team also shared the sting of defeat, but a lesser degree.

Possibly this resulted in the Forest City contingent assuming a meek attitude, and the local police had little to do tonight. No rowdiness was anticipated.

Sit Down and Talk It Over With Yourself

IS there any part of your business or household equipment that gives you such real value for what it costs as your telephone?

In the morning you probably use it at least once before you leave home for the day's work. All day it stands ready for use and is used many times by members of your family.

At the office you use it constantly. How necessary it is may never occur to you because you take the service as a matter of course.

The more your business depends on communication with other people, the more vital is your telephone. Without it the whole complex system of to-day's business and social life would come to a standstill.

Unquestionably you need the telephone and the best service we can give you.

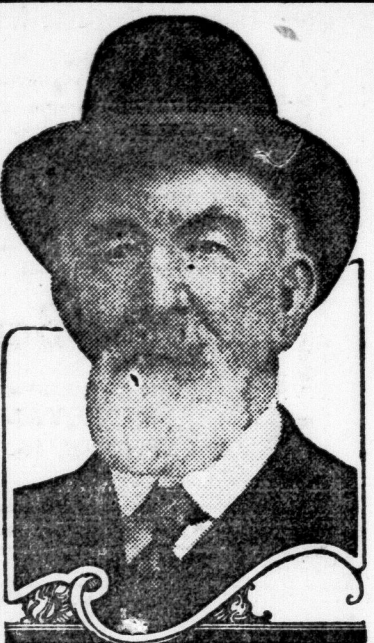

To give you good service, the telephone operator, and all responsible for telephone operations need your active good will and friendly co-operation. They are doing their best to give you a service that comes up to the standard that past experience has led you to expect.

With your friendly, helpful co-operation the best telephone service ever given in this city will be maintained.

Will you not help us to give it?

W. H. MORSE of Seattle, Wash., who says he can now turn out as much work as he could thirty years ago, in spite of his age. Gives Tanlac credit for his splendid health.

"I am in my eighty-fifth year, but since taking Tanlac I am as hale and hearty as I ever was and can do as much work as I could thirty years ago," declared W. H. Morse of 52 Blaine street, Seattle, Wash. Although in his eighty-fifth year, Mr. Morse is still daily to be found engaged in hard work down at the Ames Shipyards and is remarkably well preserved for his years. "Last spring I had an attack of the flu that left me in a very badly rundown condition and so weak that I could hardly get around. For a long while I had a very bad cold that I couldn't shake off and my bronchial tubes were so choked up that I was coughing all the time. I had no appetite and in fact ate so little that I was steadily losing weight. I couldn't sleep at night and became very much worried about my condition, because I couldn't find anything to straighten me up and restore my lost strength.

"I saw by the papers what fine work Tanlac was doing for other folks, so I got some for myself. It did me good right from the start, for in a very short while my cough left me, and I was eating fine and sure did enjoy every mouthful. I slept better at night and was soon feeling much better in every way. I have gained seven pounds in weight and am so much stronger that I can turn out about as much work as most any other man, in spite of my years. Tanlac certainly must be a great medicine to put me on my feet like I am, and I'm glad of the chance to tell everybody about it."

Tanlac is sold in London by Standard Drug, Limited, and by an established agency in every town.

MACBRIDE WANTS SEAT ON THE CROSS BENCHES

BRANTFORD, Oct. 5.—That he may not be charged with betrayal of Government confidence, a confidence he admits he has never received, Mayor MacBride, M.L.A., Labor representative for South Brant, has asked the speaker to place him on the cross benches when the House again sits. He declared in a statement issued this evening, that he did not intend, nor had he called a meeting of the Labor group, to take up the matter of the Chippewa Canal developments trouble, leaving it to Hon. Mr. Rollo, though he had suggested that such a meeting be called.

FARMERS WANT REDUCED TARIFF, NOT FREE TRADE

Alberta Legislator Testifies Before Tariff Commission At Calgary.

CALGARY, Oct. 5.—Alberta farmers do not want absolute free trade, but desire a revision of the tariff to reduce the tariff burden on farm implements, according to James Weir, member for Nanton, in the Provincial Legislature. He styled himself the only independent farmer member in the House when he appeared before the tariff commission today in the city hall. He told the commissioners that Alberta farmers were willing to see the tariff revised to allow of a modicum of protection being granted eastern manufacturers, and that never in his wide experience with them had he heard them ask for absolute free trade.

Coal operators in the province with the present moderate tariff maintained on imports of coal, according to a statement presented on behalf of the mine operators by W. P. McNeill. This tariff, it was stated, was necessary to insure the expansion of Alberta mines, and to insure a domestic market for the products. Coal mining in the province, he said, is not at the present time on a profitable basis, but with an assured market in Manitoba and Eastern Ontario is capable of enormous development in the next few years.

Jesse Gouge, Drumheller, mine operator, presented by minority report, the Mine Operators' Association, in which he claimed that protection is not essential to the mining industry, and that the document presented by Mr. McNeill was inspired by a friend of the mine operators. The association was called a protection as it now stands. The commission concluded the Calgary sessions at noon today, and will go to Edmonton on the night train. Sessions will be held there Wednesday.

OTTAWA AGAINST COLONIAL OFFICE HANDLING AFFAIR

Difficulty Arises Over Settling Payments of Debts in Germany.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
OTTAWA, Oct. 5.—Already the department of the secretary of state has dispatched $2,000,000 of Canadian money to the clearing house overseas to be paid to German merchants and individuals in payment of debts owed by Canadians prior to the war, and secured from them by the department. In the meantime, the department is encountering certain difficulties with the clearing house, to clear up which an official will be dispatched overseas. The difficulty lies in the fact that Great Britain desires that all communications to the clearing house be addressed through the colonial office. The department objects to this, further difficulty arises from the fact that Canadian claims are being computed in pounds and not in dollars.

DUMONT GUILTY OF MURDER IS JURY'S VERDICT

Judge Latchford To Sentence Him in North Bay Court Today.

NORTH BAY, Oct. 5.—Hector Dumont was found guilty by a jury at the sittings here tonight of the murder of Cyril Raymond at Sturgeon Falls, Ont., a year ago last April, and will be sentenced by Mr. Justice Latchford tomorrow. The jury recommended the prisoner to the mercy of the court. Dumont was not arrested until a year after Raymond's death. Raymond's widow at the coroner's inquest on her husband's death, and at the preliminary hearing in the murder case, she was silent as to Dumont's part in the tragedy. It was only today that she said he had struck her husband with a bottle. Ovil Laberge, charged with being an accessory after the fact, will be tried here tomorrow. His name was coupled with that of Dumont by Mrs. Raymond in connection with the murder of her husband.

BRANT MILK PRODUCERS MAKE SUDDEN RETREAT

Claim They Did Not Ask Reduction of Butterfat Standard.

BRANTFORD, Oct. 5.—The standard of butter fat contents of milk sold in Brantford will remain at 3.25, as set by the province. The milk producers of Brant, who attended tonight's council meeting, heard a report from City Solicitor Henderson that the city had no power to change the standard, and the committee in charge reported against any change. Following this the producers veered completely around, declaring that they had not asked for a lowered standard, this being due to the error of a press reporter present, although the council had a committee report fully on the situation following the first appearance of the milk producers with the request.

The city will ask the Provincial Legislature to amend the law enforcing a day off for firemen, in cases where the double platoon system is working. Local firemen oppose the move, as they do not want to lose a day's pay. The last toll road in Brant will be wiped out, the city agreeing to pay $6,100 to end the existence of tolls on the Cockshutt toll road. The council will hold a special meeting to discuss changes of civic government, including a proposal by Mayor MacBride to have the civic elections precede instead of following the Christmas holidays.

SCHLESWIG MEMBERS FOR FIRST TIME AT DANISH PARLIAMENT

COPENHAGEN, Oct. 5.—Impressive ceremonies marked the opening at noon today of the Danish Rigsdag, where for the first time since 1854 representatives of Schleswig were present. The historic event was preceded by divine services in the Christiansborg Castle Church, which were attended by the king and queen, other members of the royal family and foreign princes who were escorted by horse guards. The king, greatly moved, welcomed the Schleswig representatives. All the members of the Rigsdag and the diplomatic corps were the king's guests at a dinner tonight, after which they attended a gala performance at the Royal Theatre.

SPRACKLIN'S HOME RAIDED BY GUNMEN

Five Bullets Crash Through Window—S. A. Jewell Has Narrow Escape.

$5,000 REWARD

Attackers Escaped in Automobile When Fire Was Returned.

WINDSOR, Oct. 5.—Sitting under the light of a lamp in the front room of the home of Rev. J. O. L. Spracklin, Sandwich's fighting parson, and License Inspector G. A. Jewell, former special liquor officer of the Sandwich police force, narrowly escaped death, when a party of gunmen in an automobile drove up to the minister's residence and opened fire with revolvers on the house. Five bullets crashed through the window, one of which narrowly missed Jewell and pierced the wall near him.

Jewell, immediately the attack was made, grabbed a gun lying on the table beside him and rushed to the door. He fired several shots at the raiders, who drove off hurriedly in their car and escaped.

A reward of $5,000 was offered tonight for information leading to the arrest of the men responsible for the outrage.

BORDER RESIDENTS DISSATISFIED WITH HYDRO SERVICE

Deputation Goes To Toronto To Interview Sir Adam Beck.

WINDSOR, Oct. 5.—With complaints as to the present service being rendered by the hydro-electric power commission on the local street railway system, which serves nine border municipalities, a strong deputation from Windsor left late tonight to interview Sir Adam Beck and other members of the hydro commission at Toronto tomorrow.

They will request that the borrowing powers of the municipalities affected be increased so that an additional $1,000,000, if necessary, may be secured through the issuing of debentures to finance extensions of the present lines and the much-needed improvement of local equipment, as well as the purchase of new cars and other facilities, lack of which is now seriously hampering the service. The deputation, which is headed by Mayor Winter, includes Aids Howell, Jackson and England and City Engineer B. Rian. General dissatisfaction prevails among the people of the border at the service being rendered by the hydro commission, which falls far short of the promises made a year ago, when, by an overwhelming majority the people voted for an expenditure of $2,100,000 for the acquiring of the road from the Detroit and Windsor Railways. Since that time a few second-hand cars from the United States have been placed in service and the badly dilapidated electric coaches in service at that time repaired; otherwise the people have practically nothing to show for their money. It is felt that the people will support the borrowing of money to bring about a betterment of conditions.

WESTERN ONTARIO'S LARGEST TOBACCO CROP IS HARVESTED

Fall Wheat Acreage Suffers Through Interest in the Weed.

BLENNHEIM, Oct. 5.—The splendid weather of late has been just what was required for the tobacco and corn harvest. The latest tobacco crop in acreage ever raised in this district has nearly all been harvested, and in some sections every available barn has been made use of to hang it in. Fall wheat sowing this year has been very much delayed, and the acreage will not be as large as in some years. So many were so busy with their tobacco crops and other work that wheat sowing was given a secondary place.

The basic reasons for Waltham supremacy

IN 1854 the first factory in the world to manufacture complete watch movements was opened at Waltham.

Before that, plates were fashioned in one place, screws in another, springs in another. All the parts, produced by different people in different places, were finally assembled somewhere else. As a result, the time keeping qualities of completed movements were by no means reliable.

Waltham altered this condition.

Waltham replaced hit-or-miss methods with standardization.

At Waltham were evolved those marvellous automatic machines which replaced much hand-work, resulting in greater precision. A modern Waltham Watch is the world's finest achievement in watch-making. To own a Waltham is not only to be assured of time accuracy, but to have the prestige which comes from possessing a watch that commands respect everywhere.

REPINGTON WAR DIARY —SMACKS OF BOUDOIR

Lady Constance Stewart-Richardson, Mrs. Keppel and Doris Keane figure in New Book — Shots At Famous Men.

LONDON, Oct. 8.—Great Britain's war time Olympians have been caught by "Pepys's camera," Lieut.-Col. C. A. Repington has published his diary.

There have been war books and war books, painting this and that incident of the great conflict, but now there comes a widely known military critic who has not spared any comma in writing and telling his story—the man who was the first to reveal the scandal of the shell shortage; the man who dared to differ with Lord Kitchener when the latter was the popular British hero; the man who again and again baited Premier Lloyd George. And now given, not a picture of idealization, but real photographs, revealing the comic side and showing every ludicrous fable of many of the men who figured in the very serious world war news from 1914 to 1918.

While Col. Repington's book is a diary of those tragic years, it is full of the gay "swish" of petticoats, for while he seriously discusses some of the dreadful national disappointments and glories in some of the national triumphs of the battlefields, it is in his gossip of the camp and of the boudoir that readers will revel.

If one could forget the long lists of "In Memoriam" printed on every battle anniversary, the names of the dead in come from every class in England; if one could ignore or fail to see the legions of men in the streets; if one could forget the mourning in households in every walk of life, one might think that Great Britain did not take the war so seriously after all.

But the fact that the chief of the imperial general staff could pass a caustic comment on Lady Constance Stewart-Richardson's letter that the British minister of agriculture could admit at a dinner party in honor of the Queen of the Belgians that he did not know whether a cow's ears were above, below or in front of behind the horns, probably indicates better than anything else that England could not have won without supreme ability to play the "party game."

Col. Repington does not hesitate to reach out even to the Vatican and to Marshal Foch. He tells how Marshal Foch (then Gen. Foch) called him to France in 1914 and asked him solemnly how much continental territory England would be satisfied with in return for her intervention in the war.

"By dear general, not an inch of continental territory as a gift," Repington replied.

"Foch seemed surprised and incredulous," he says in his diary.

Of Cardinal Gaspari, papal secretary of state, whom he met at the Vatican, Col. Repington says:

"Inorgia days I shouldn't have said to him with him if he had disliked me."

Col. Repington is caustic with regard to Lord Kitchener.

"Kitchener did not comprehend the importance of artillery in the war and took no effective measures to increase our supplies," he says. "He concealed the truth of the situation from his colleagues in the cabinet."

Also he is explicit regarding the cabinet.

with this he tells of a ball given in honor of the Prince of Wales, and at which dancing was an unattractive party through a night raid by the enemy until at last a shrapnel shell fell through the kitchen skylight, whereupon the cook fled from his stove and pans and through the ballroom, but taking time to wave his best hat and the family butler.

He tells an amusing house-party story of Mrs. Keppel's daughters, Violet and Sonia, and other youngsters playing hide and seek, and how they hid the Dutch minister to Great Britain, Count von Helldorf, who was in London over the furnace, where he was almost suffocated.

Also he tells a story of a dinner at the Pitts on Italy's day in 1916, saying: "Lady Constance Stewart-Richardson, posed, contorted and danced in a few clothes and bare feet. She looked like a white devilish. Lady Keppel declared she was playing John the Baptist, and her contortions represented her efforts to find locusts and wild honey."

"Many died when Lady Constance danced, among them being Gen. Sir William Robertson, chief of the general staff, when he was asked if he would think she had a very fine leg, replied: 'Just like any other damned leg.'"

He tells how Sir Max Aitken, now in the United States, when he learned he had been elevated to the peerage as Lord Beaverbrook declared he knew it was coming, because his blood was blue when he cut himself with a razor while shaving that morning.

The tells of a luncheon at 10 Downing street, where Sir Arthur Lee was the guest, and how the table was laid for five, Mrs. Lloyd George herself got up and removed the extra cover.

"There was only the simplest food and only a maid to wait on the table," he says. "There were cutlets and vegetables, milk and plum pudding and water, when he was asked if he would like a sausage for every German over 50,000 landing in England."

The diary contains an amusing incident in connection with Mrs. Herbert H. Asquith, wife of the one-time prime minister, and her daughter, who is now Princess Bliescoe, wife of the Rumanian minister in Washington. The Princess (then Miss Elizabeth Asquith) told her mother-in-law how her mother wrote to her, "Dear So-and-So; Elizabeth looks terribly old and wears plain dresses. Please see what you can do. I am sure she sleeps under her bed—not on it."

The Princess' maid evidently was successful.
