HE TELLS OF THE OPEN BOX

William Servis On Stand
Corroborates Spence's
Confession

"RED LIVERY TICKET"

Toronto, Nov. 2.—In the election conspiracy case yesterday Wm. Servis gave evidence corroborating the confession of William Spence, the deputy returning officer, who Wednesday told how he had yielded to temptation and permitted E. R. Sifton to inspect the ballots cast at the Beck-Rumball election. Servis said that he merely looked on and took no part in the inspection.

Received $7 For His Services.
He admitted receiving $7 for his services in that election, while in the Hyman-Gray bye-election he said he had received $25. Sifton and Mulloy, respectively, had given him envelopes to hold on these occasions.

James Orme swore that he received $10 from Collins in Lewis' hotel shortly after the Hyman-Gray bye-election of 1905.

George Saunby had been promised money by Lewis if he voted for Hyman. He gave his ballot to Gray, however, and received no reward. He is employed by Mr. Beck.

$900 For Election Rigs.

A number of witnesses swore that they received money for voting, while Donald Ferguson, a lumber dealer, stated that he had been in charge of Hyman's rigs on election day, and had paid out $800 or $900 for that purpose. He had issued the "red" tickets to which reference has been made during the investigation, and explained that they were used as a check upon those who supplied rigs on the day of the election. He redeemed the tickets some 40 days afterwards out of money furnished by Mr. Geo. Reid, treasurer of the association.

Never Tamed With Ballot Box.

Percy Baldwin, a deputy returning officer in the two last elections, was asked over the coals by Mr. DuVernet, who had a letter to the effect that the envelopes containing the ballot papers had been opened while the box was in Baldwin's possession. Witness, however, swore that he had never tampered with the box and always delivered the box to the returning officer immediately after the votes were counted.

O'Meara Committed For Trial.

John O'Meara, charged with perjury in the London bribery cases, was yesterday committed for trial on the evidence already submitted. Magistrate Denison would not accept bail despite a long argument put up by the prisoner's counsel, J. W. Curry, K. C., who will make application this morning at Osgoode Hall before a high court judge.

MERLIN TELEPHONE SERVICE

Merlin, Nov. 1.—The Bell Telephone Co. has begun at last to recognize that better accommodation and service must be given this town and already has started to improve it.

Some twenty telephones have been put in throughout the oil field and at Stewart and Fletcher. Twenty or twenty-five local subscribers have been secured in Merlin and party lines have been constructed to South Buxton and the lake shore. Altogether fifty-four phones will be connected with Merlin central.

This is the telephone service for which Mr. H. S. Omentis, M. P., has worked so faithfully and well. His earnest efforts in the interests of the farmers of this district, and his untiring fight with the telephone company, are directly responsible for the present satisfactory state of affairs in T. Buxton and Merlin. He has forced the company to realize their obligations to the farmers of the township.

HALLOWEEN PRANK

A well known local young man spent Halloween with a lady friend on Leacock street. In order to reach the home of his fair friend with the greatest possible speed, he rented a wheel from Brian Bros.

When he arrived at the house, he left the wheel outside, the anticipation of the pleasant smiles that awaited him having outwitted any elimination of the remembrance that it was Halloween, and that the small boy was out for mischief.

Later in the evening, after bidding fond adieu, he went to look for his wheel. It was gone, and the young man was forced to walk home. Next morning the matter was reported to the police, who found the wheel hanging in a tree near the house.

NO MORE COMPLAINT

A number of complaints have been received of late from residents near the corner of Raleigh and Edward streets, relative to the loading and unloading of cars on the electric road. Mr. C. Thomas Groves was down in that vicinity Wednesday afternoon, and interviewed some of the residents who were loudest in their complaints, and he also reported the result of his findings to Robert E. Kiser, the general manager of the road, who promised that the matter would be attended to, to the satisfaction of the residents of that street. It is expected that there will be no more complaint.

FOOT WAS CAUGHT IN RAIL: MAN NARROWLY ESCAPES DEATH

Englishman Was Walking on Track When He Got
In Perilous Position

10 MINUTES TO THE GOOD

Mr. J. C. Wanless Arrived Ten Minutes Before The Train—
Man Was Freed

While driving out through Chatham Township recently, Mr. J. C. Wanless, the hardware man, came across a man in a curious predicament. He was nearing one of the Pere Marquette crossings, when he noticed a man struggling as if to free his foot from the cattle-guard to the side of the crossing. On drawing nearer, Mr. Wanless discovered that the man's foot had become fastened between one of the rails and the adjacent rail in the cattle-guard. The man was badly frightened, and appeared to be well nigh exhausted. He explained to Mr. Wanless that he had been walking on the rail when his foot slipped, and his shoe became fastened between the rail and the rail. He had been trying for half an hour to free his foot, but without success. He said that he was about to give up in despair when Mr. Wanless came along. If a train had come that way during the time, he would have been unable to get off the track, and as it was his left foot which was caught on the rail, he would not have had even the option of losing the foot to save his life. If he had been his right foot which had become fastened, he could have leaped over the rail had a train come along, and though he would have lost the foot, he would have been able to save himself from further injury.

On looking at his watch, Mr. Wanless saw that a passenger train would be due in about ten minutes, so he immediately set to work to help the man free himself. Their combined efforts, however, proved futile, and it was found necessary to cut the man's shoe up with a pocket knife in order to get it free. The man had barely been freed from his dangerous position when a passenger train whizzed by. If Mr. Wanless had not come along at the opportune time, which he did, the man would probably have been killed.

The man whose foot was fastened in the track, is a recently arrived Englishman, who lives in this city. He was walking the tracks to the city when the mishap occurred.

"Really it made my blood run cold," said Mr. Wanless when relating the incident to a Planet reporter this morning. "The man had lost his head completely when I arrived on the scene. I knew that a passenger train was due in a short time. The man had given up, and he said that he had made up his mind to let me kill him. I asked him why he didn't unlace his shoe and cut himself free with his knife, but he said that he had never thought of that. He had become so frightened and excited that he had lost his presence of mind. I was never so glad in my life as when that fellow got free."

NOW IN DENVER

The Planet is in receipt of a letter from Denver, Col., from Mr. W. G. McLean, 122 of Detroit, who is well-known to many of our readers. In his missive Mr. McLean says: "I have gone west to Denver, and I am delighted with the climate. We are having beautiful weather. Have only been here a week, and I feel better already."

"Please send The Planet here instead of to Detroit."

THAT EMMA ST. PAVEMENT

Mr. Fallahee Explains Position
Of His Company Re
Poor Concrete

WAS NOTICED IN TIME

John Fallahee, of the Warren Bitulithic Pavement Company, was a caller at The Planet office yesterday afternoon, to explain the position of his company in reference to the row over the concrete on the Emma street pavement. This company has the contract for the laying of the bitumen, but they are in no way responsible for the concrete foundation. This work is left to other contractors, and inspected by a city inspector. It was found on this street that some of the concrete laid was much inferior to what was required by the agreement between the city and the contractors who have the work in hand. It is claimed by the contractors that the trouble arose through the fact that an inexperienced man was put on the mixer. As soon as attention was brought to the matter, it was immediately rectified, and the poor work will be reconstructed. "While we are not directly responsible for the laying of the concrete," said Mr. Fallahee, "still we are held responsible for the life of the pavement, and it is to our interests as well as the interests of the city that the good concrete is laid. I am very glad that the poor work was noticed in time, as it may mean much to us."

Some of the pavement was already completed, and had to be torn up. Mr. Fallahee procured a sample of the bitumen as it was laid in the pavement, and is exhibiting it to his friends as a perfect piece of pavement work.

SUING FOR $42,000

Windsor, Ont., Nov. 1.—John Piggott & Sons, lumber merchants, have issued a writ against the Windsor, Essex and Lake Shore Railway for a claim of $42,000. The firm supplied the company with ties and posts used in the construction of the road, for which payment has not been made.

It is alleged that John Piggott is president of the road, but evidently this fact does not deter him from bringing the action against the shareholders for a settlement of his claims.

WAS TAKEN WITH REGARD TO THE COMPLAINT.

There was very little business of an important nature before the Water Commissioners at their meeting last night, and everything was concluded shortly after eight o'clock. Those present at the meeting were Mayor W. S. Marshall, Chairman W. D. Sheldon, Dr. G. W. Cornell, Supt. E. L. Jones and Secretary Weir.

The superintendent stated that it had been found impossible to grant Fred Stephens' request to have water brought to his engine in the G. T. R. yards, as it was found that the same would have to be laid through property belonging to the Chaplin Wheel Works, and the company would not consent to it.

An account for $18.25 was received from Fred Wood. This account it seems had never before been presented to the Board. As it was not itemized it was referred back to Mr. Wood to be so made out. The chairman said he would much prefer to have all accounts sent in monthly.

Isaac Smith, of Prince street, complained of excessive water rates. It seems that Mr. Smith divided his house into three tenement dwellings, each with a separate water metre. He claims that for part of the time that he was charged with one of these houses was not in use, and yet he was charged at the minimum rate for all three. The Board were of the opinion that he should have had all three houses on the one metre. No action was taken with regard to the complaint.

The cash statement showed that the balance in the bank last month amounted to $209.05, and at present is $101.52.

The following accounts were ordered paid:

Park Bros., $22.62.
Westman Bros., $70.51.
Geo. Stephens & Co., $200.71.
McKinnon & Trotter, $17.43.
Doherty Mfg. Co., $63.77.
Garlick Parking Co., $19.50, $16.00.
Pennsylvania Salt Co., $25.
Buffalo Mfg. Co., $11.40, $1.50.
Lake Erie Coal Co., $85.84, $120.62, $122.47, $98.42, $90.43, $107.48.

GAS BY CHRISTMAS

"We are going to live up to our statement, and have natural gas piped to Chatham before Christmas," said Mr. Eugene Coote of the Symmes Natural Gas Co. to a Planet reporter this morning.

"We have already ordered fourteen miles of pipe, and we understand that some of this shipment is on its way to Chatham now. We have a tracer out to find out just where our shipments are at, and we are bound to get things under way at the earliest possible moment."

The Gas Company are at present looking for offices up town. So far they have been unable to find offices to suit their requirements.

Household Hints For Women

A Column Specially Prepared By The Planet For
The Busy Housewives of Chatham and Vicinity.

RECIPES FROM TABLE TALK.

RUSK.

Scald one pint of milk. Dissolve in it two tablespoonsful of butter and a half teaspoonful of salt. When lukewarm add one-half of a yeast cake dissolved in a little warm water and sufficient sifted flour to make a drop batter. Beat well, cover and set aside until light. Beat together three eggs and one scant cupful of sugar. Add this to the sponge when light, with a half cupful of flour; beat and let rise again. When very spongy stir in sufficient flour to make a soft dough and knead until smooth. Put aside again until light, then take off pieces the size of a large egg and mold into round biscuits. Put close together in well greased deep pans, brush the tops with milk, and when very light bake in a moderate oven; they must not be very brown when done. To dry them, let stand for a day, then break or cut each rusk in halves. Spread on flat pans and let stand in the open oven for a day or more until thoroughly dried. Keep in a tight can or covered stone crock.

POTATO BISCUIT.

Pare and boil six white potatoes. While hot put through a ricer, then add gradually one pint of scalded milk, one-half of a cupful of butter, one teaspoonful each of salt and sugar and one-half of a cupful of flour. Let stand until lukewarm, then add one yeast cake dissolved in a little warm water and sifted flour to make a soft dough. Knead lightly, using no more flour than is needed to keep from sticking to the board. Cover and let stand again until very light, then form into small rolls, handling most carefully and greasing the hands if the dough is inclined to stick. Place in greased pans, let stand until fully doubled in bulk, then bake about twenty minutes in a quick oven.

BREAD CROQUETTES.

Rub the inside of a loaf of stale bread through a colander, then measure. To one good quart add one pint of milk and heat over the fire in a double boiler. As soon as it reaches the boiling point take it off, let stand for a moment, then add one-half of a cupful of cleaned currants, two tablespoonsful of chopped citron, one-half of a teaspoonful of cinnamon, two tablespoonsful of chopped almonds and the beaten yolks of two raw eggs. Return to the fire and stir and cook for two minutes, then turn out on a greased dish and set aside until cold. Form carefully into small cylinders, dip each in egg, roll in fine dried crumbs and fry golden brown in smoking hot fat. Serve with a foamy sauce.

DEVILED KIDNEYS.

Remove the fat from four veal kidneys, then, with a very sharp knife, cut the outer portion from each lobe, rejecting the central purplish or dark colored core. In doing this have the good portion in very thin chips. Melt one tablespoonful of butter in a frying pan; add the prepared kidneys, toss and stir over a quick fire for five minutes. Add a half teaspoonful of salt, a dash of pepper and the merest pinch of grated nutmeg. Skim the kidneys from the pan and put in a hot dish. To the butter in the pan add one tablespoonful of flour and brown, then add one cupful of good beef stock, one tablespoonful of Worcestershire, a dash of cayenne and a few drops of caramel coloring. When boiling take from the fire and add two tablespoonsful of sherry and strain over the kidneys.

COFFEE FILLING.

Scald one cupful of milk in a double boiler. Tie two tablespoonsful of ground coffee loosely in a piece of thin muslin, drop it into the hot milk and steep for ten minutes. Blend two tablespoonsful of cornstarch in a little cold milk. Take out of the coffee bag, add quickly the starch paste and stir until thick and smooth. Cover and cook for five minutes. Pour it over two well beaten eggs, blend and return to the fire for a moment. Take off, add a half teaspoonful of vanilla and, when slightly cooled, spread between the cake layers.

SNAPSHOTS OF LA MODE.

Face Sashes Very Smart—Cheap Panama Skirts—Nail Head Dog Collars. Gowns of linen, batiste or lawn made with simple tucks and plaits, lace yokes and frilled sleeves, receive an added touch of beauty if girdled with a lace sash. These sashes are really very ultra affairs and are easily made by the ingenious girl. The girdle portion is boned and shaped to the figure, while the sash ends, narrow at the top and beaver shaped at the bottom, are lined with white mull and corded.

Good, well cut Panama cloth skirts are selling for $4.50 and $5. This material wears like iron and the skirts are therefore good investments.

Dog collars made of nail heads in various colors—purple, pink or red—are very much worn. These nail heads are artistically combined with tiny gold beads.

The narrow cluny insertions, some of them looking very much like heavy hand crocheted work joining seams and used in place of veining, are particularly favored. Such narrow cluny lines set together all the seams of many blouses that have cluny trimmings.

A smart little traveling hat is seen in the cut of tan chip. It is simply trimmed with a band of chestnut brown velvet and decorated at one side with two American Beauty roses and some velvet knots. JUDIC CHOLLET.

Nothing is impossible to industry.

CASTLE IN THE AIR

Warrant For Montreal Who Posed as Having Been Left a Fortune.

Montreal, Nov. 1.—R. M. Cremer, who posed as heir to a fortune of half a million, and who was on his way from Germany, has confessed to the fraud, and a warrant was issued yesterday.

He managed to get money advanced him and purchased real estate and personal property to the value of $10,000. For the past week he has been driving the best horses and rigs in the city, with footmen and groom in elaborate livery.

He bought $5,000 worth of jewelry for a young lady, $1,200 for clothes, $3,000 for horses, and $2,700 for harness.

He confesses the fraud, but still insists he has a large estate in Germany. He has lived here for ten years, and was well known as a steady man.

SOO GUARANTEE LOAN.

Renewed For Five Months—Government Retains a Director.

Toronto, Nov. 1.—The Soo guarantee has been renewed for five months. Hon. Mr. Matheson made the following statement yesterday evening:

"The Canadian Improvement Co., which is the one with which we deal, have been negotiating with prominent financial firms to enable them to take up the guarantee loan of $1,000,000, commonly known as the Soo guarantee, falling due May 1, 1907, by various means, and partly owing to the rise of the Bank of England rate to 6 per cent, they were not prepared to meet the payment due on this date, and they have asked the Government to extend the provincial guarantee for five months, to April 1, 1907, they paying the interest falling due on Nov. 1, for the past six months, to the holders of the certificates."

"These are issued by the Canadian Improvement Co. and secured by the Government. It is possible the company may be able to take up the certificates before the 1st of April, but they asked for that extension and the Government has granted the request."

"The holders of the certificates having agreed to the extension, an agreement carrying out the arrangement has been authorized by the Government and executed by the Canadian Improvement Co., the holders of the certificates and the Provincial Treasurer, on behalf of the Government."

Hon. Mr. Matheson stated also that it had never been proposed to remove the Government director from the board of the company.

GET RELIEF UNDER NEW ACT.

A Point Which Peterboro Deputation Was Unaware of.

Toronto, Nov. 1.—T. H. Bradburn, M. P. P., Senator George A. Cox, Mayor Best, James Kendry, T. F. Matthews, E. H. D. Hall, city solicitor, and Ald. Adams composed a deputation which waited upon Premier Whitney yesterday morning. The city wanted authority to develop and distribute electric energy from waterpowers on the Ottawa River. The Premier referred the delegation to the Hydro-Electric Power Commission, and they saw Hon. Adam Beck in the afternoon.

A private bill was before the committee of the Legislature with the same object last session, but was thrown out on account of its conflict with the Commerce Act, and the opposition of local interests.

Hon. Mr. Beck pointed out that until the Hydro-Electric Commission received an application for power from the city the Commission was unable to act. As soon as an application was received, the new Hydro-Electric Power Act would apply to the situation, and the Commission could then arrange for the supply of whatever power was required, quite irrespective of the Commerce Act.

The relief afforded by the Hydro-Electric Power Act appeared to have escaped the attention of the municipality, as it has in other cases.

St. Helena Without Garrison. Jamestown, Island of St. Helena, Nov. 1.—For the first time in its history since it became a British possession, St. Helena is without a garrison. All the troops have been withdrawn as a measure of economy, the guns and ammunition have been removed and the island is left defenseless. The outlook for the islanders is dark, as they practically lived off the garrison and will now have no market for their produce.

Sporting Parson Shot. Toronto, Nov. 1.—On Tuesday Rev. A. J. Fawcett, who has charge of the Presbyterian parishes of Coldwater and Waukegan, went duck hunting on Georgian Bay with E. F. Clifford of Leatherdale. An ear struck the gun and the charge of shot went into Fawcett's thigh. He was attended by Dr. Harvey, who accompanied him to the General Hospital here last night.

Shareholders to Meet. Toronto, Nov. 1.—There is to be a preliminary meeting of the shareholders of the Ontario Bank to-day, largely due to the initiative of Cephus Goode. It is sought to assemble 7,000 shares and thus control the election of directors to be held on Dec. 11, as 2,300 shares are said to have been taken off the market and therefore can not be used for voting purposes.

Had Legs Cut Off. Died. Quebec, Nov. 1.—Benjamin Lemieux, who had his legs cut off by a locomotive in the C. N. yards at Chaudiere Tuesday, died the same evening at the Hotel Dieu hospital, Levis.

House Meets Nov. 22. Ottawa, Nov. 1.—Announcement will be officially made to-day of the calling of Parliament. It is practically certain that the session will open on the 22nd of November.

Eczema, Ulcers and Skin Diseases.

Don't you believe in nature? Don't you think that skin and blood diseases such as the above, can best be cured by applying nature's own herbal extracts? From Bible times the "herbs of the field" have been commended to mankind for this purpose. Zam-Buk is a combination of the finest medicinal herbal essences, concentrated, purified, and rendered highly antiseptic. Zam-Buk eases pain, stops suppuration, and heals all sores and skin diseases. A natural herbal balm, operating in nature's own way. Note well following cases.

PROOF OF ZAM-BUK'S POWER.

Mr. Montague Jones, of Tavistock, Ont., says:—"About four years ago sores started to break out on my skin. I used salves to check them, but only for a time, and they caused me great pain. Sores then started to break out on my head. I went to the doctor, who told me that I had scalp eczema and that I should need to give very careful attention. He gave me some salve which I rubbed on, but notwithstanding all my care I continued to get worse. I then tried several advertised remedies, but to the same end. One day I read a report about Zam-Buk, and I thought that what had done for other people it could do for me, so sent for a sample box. The result of the use of so small a quantity was so satisfactory that I at once obtained a full supply. I also obtained a few boxes of Blisters for internal use. Within a very short time there was a marked improvement. I applied ZAM-BUK in accordance with the directions and very soon the scales were all gone and the sores completely healed. They show no trace of returning, and I feel that I am cured to stay cured."

"Mrs. L. Finch, of Cambrill, says:—"Our little girl, May, had eczema on the scalp. It spread all over the head and the pain was so bad at times that the poor child screamed aloud. Her hair came out in patches. Hospital treatment failed. The first application of Zam-Buk eased the agony and by the time we had used a few boxes the disease was cured. It is the finest balm ever brought into a house for all skin injuries and diseases."

USE ZAM-BUK IF YOU SUFFER FROM:— Eczema of any skin disease, Ulcers, Abscesses, running sores, blood poison, eruptions, chronic sores, etc. It also cures chilblains, chapped hands, cold sores, cuts, burns and bruises. It eases the pain of piles, and cures the ailment by softening the hard veins and removing the congestion. Also good as an embrocation. Used by Sherman, the "Markham" inner; Leamon, ex-champion wrestler, and leading athletes the world over. All Druggists, 50 cents a box, or from the ZAM-BUK CO., TORONTO, upon receipt of price, 6 boxes for $2.50.

Late Liberal Candidate in East Elgin Sells Farm Stock.

St. Thomas, Nov. 1.—The farm stock of W. F. Hepburn of South Yarmouth was sold at auction on Tuesday, realizing $3,675. His race horse, Wild Brino, was bought by John Barnes of this city for $250, and the trotting mare, Maud, by William McKenzie of South Yarmouth for $300.

Mr. Hepburn, who was Liberal candidate for a time during the East Elgin campaign, leaves shortly for the Northwest. He threw up the candidature on the publication of stories concerning his alleged personal habits.

GOOD REASONS FOR ITS SUCCESS

The majority of catarrh remedies are useless. But one that does cure is Catarrhazone. It clears the head of all mucous discharges. Putrid matter in the nostrils, phlegm in the throat, and discharges from the eyes are completely swept away. The cause of the disease is destroyed, its results are destroyed, and the system is so thoroughly cleansed of a virulent poison that cure is permanent. All types of catarrh, throat and bronchial trouble, colds and coughs are more certainly cured by Catarrhazone than anything else. Two sizes, 25c. and $1, at all dealers.

A Turkish Story.

The Turk, as a rule, is not energetic, but he is capable of sudden bursts of activity. A writer in Cassell's Family Magazine gives an illustration:

He was going home late one night in Constantinople when a man ran by him, pursued by four zapties. Directly they caught the man they belabored him vigorously with the butt ends of their guns. The Englishman intervened.

"If he is a thief, why not take him to prison and let him be tried properly? Don't half kill the man without a trial."

"O effendi," said the spokesman of the party, "we don't mind his being a thief. We're only hitting him because of the trouble he gave us to run after him." And that is an offence which the average Turk never forgives.

MUSICAL

A DELIGHTFUL RECITAL.

The recital given in the Auditorium last evening was one of the most successful events of this kind ever offered to the music-loving people of Chatham. It was under the direction of Mrs. S. C. Walker, who has spent much time and effort in arranging a most artistic program, and the reception given each number last evening showed that the audience appreciated the result of her splendid work.

While every number in itself was a decided treat, the special attractions of the evening were the two visitors, Miss Annie L. Reid, soprano, of London, and Mr. Henry McCaw, violinist, of Detroit. Miss Reid appeared in Chatham some time ago, in a sacred recital in Holy Trinity Church, when she created a most favorable impression. Those who heard her on that occasion have been most anxious to hear her again. Miss Reid will always be assured of a hearty reception in the Maple City. She has a wonderful voice of high range and splendid quality, and she sings with the expression and ability of a true artist.

Mr. McCaw is an old Chatham boy, and an artist whom the people of this city are proud to claim as their own. He has, since he left Chatham, met with exceptional success in the musical world, and some idea of his ability on the violin can be imagined from the fact that he is considered a top-notch violinist in Detroit, where he is now located.

Those who assisted Mrs. Walker in putting on this entertainment were, Mrs. Cooper, Mrs. Milton Ewart, and Messrs. Wilfrid Smith, John Smith and R. W. Angus. Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. Bogart are well known to Chatham audiences, and their appearance on the concert stage is always enthusiastically welcomed. Their duet last evening was one of the most popular numbers on the program. They never sang to better advantage, and the number was enthusiastically encored. Mr. Wilfrid Smith sang two solos in his usual good style.

The program included solos by Miss Reid, Mrs. S. C. Walker, and Mr. Smith, violin solos by Mr. McCaw, and a duet by Mrs. Bogart and Mrs. Cooper. The evening was concluded with a trio, Ti Preco O Padre by Nicolo, sung by Miss Reid, Mrs. Ewart and Mr. Angus.

Mayor Marshall opened the evening with a capable address. Mr. John Smith acted as accompanist. Mr. McCaw's accompaniment were capably executed by his sister, Miss McCaw, who is a prominent Windsor organist and pianist.

BETTY'S BURGLAR

By RUTH CATHERWOOD

Copyright, 1900, by E. C. Parcells

Grenville looked about him contentedly. When a man has been absent for a month and has slept in sleeping cars most of that time home seems pretty good, even though it may only be a four room flat.

He washed the stains of travel from his face and hands, slipped on his smoking jacket and went over to the humidor. To his surprise the box was empty save for a card on which was scrawled: "Had a party. I owe you a box. Bert."

With a laugh he started for the window. Bert Niblo lived on the floor below. He would demand the immediate return of a couple of cigars. He wanted a chat with Bert anyway, and the quickest way down was by the fire escape.

His slipped feet made little or no noise against the iron rings, and presently he stood on the landing below. The windows were open, and he stepped into the room.

For a moment the gloom blinded him, then as his eyes became accustomed to the dusk he started forward. As he did so there was a click, and a feminine voice commanded him to throw up his hands.

The command had to be twice repeated before he obeyed, but at last he comprehended that the order was intended for him, and he raised them above his head.

There was a rustle of feminine draperies, then the light was turned on, revealing a girl who was pretty even in spite of the white eagerness of her face.

"I beg your pardon," said Grenville. "I am afraid that there is a mistake somewhere. I thought these were Mr. Niblo's apartments."

"They are," was the quiet response. "You made the mistake of seeing Mr.

trigger of the nasty looking revolver, ready to shoot at the first sign of an outbreak. She was a western girl, he remembered, and trained to the use of firearms.

"How did you come to have that gun?" he asked curiously.

"I heard some one in Mr. Grenville's rooms and knew it must be a burglar. I was just going upstairs when I heard you coming down."

"When will Bert be back?" he asked anxiously.

"Mr. Niblo will be back in a short time now," she said formally.

"Don't you think you had better call the janitor or some one?" he pleaded. "It will save a lot of time."

"I think it is safest just as we are," she said sharply.

"Do you really think I look like a burglar?" he asked.

"I never saw a burglar before," she admitted. "I don't know what they do look like, but I suppose that there are some rascals in real life."

"Well," he said complacently, "I'm glad I look like a gentleman burglar, anyhow. I should hate to have you think I look like the Bill Sikes type."

Betty smiled in spite of herself, but it was just for a moment, though long enough to make Grenville hope that she would smile again.

"I should think you would try to be respectable," she scolded. "You look like a man who might become a good citizen."

"I'm a gift member citizen," he protested. "I'm a member of the Reform club and all sorts of good government things. I forget just what they are, but I remember that I belong to a lot."

"I suppose they cannot be very careful in these large societies," she commented. "Still, it is a pity that they afford you an excuse for posing as a good citizen."

"Bert will give the life out of you for this," he said irreverently. "I'll bet he shrieks when he comes home."

Betty started. This visitor seemed to know her brother very well. What if she had made a mistake? She knew he would never be permitted to forget it. Her lips parted as if to speak, when a key grated in the lock, and the hall door opened.

"Hello, Bert!" shouted Grenville. "Come on in."

"Hello, Fred!" came the surprised reply. "When did you get back?"

With a quick gesture Betty thrust the revolver under the pillows of the sofa and looked appealingly at Grenville. He smiled and nodded just as Niblo came into the room with outstretched hands.

"I came down after those cigars," he laughed. "I found your sister here, and we've been having quite a chat. I wanted to get back upstairs, but she insisted that I should wait until you came."

"Glad you found some one home," laughed his chum, attributing Betty's confusion to another cause. "Betty's got a compelling way about her. When she says 'stay' you might as well make up your mind to stay."

"So I've found out," he agreed. "I couldn't have got away if I had tried."

"Well, let's have some supper," suggested Niblo. "I'm hungry as a bear."

Betty slipped out to set the table, and presently the three sat down to a cold lunch. The girl exerted herself in every way to be agreeable, and long before the meal was over Grenville decided that she was the burglar—she had stolen his heart.

At last he stood by the window taking his leave. "You were very good," whispered the girl as his hand closed over hers.

"Not good, but selfish," he corrected. "I shall hold that over you like a rod of iron to make you always nice to me."

"Is that needful?" she asked, but her eyes told him more.

Reading an Inscription.

That all inscriptions are not as ancient as they look was once proved by the French Academy of Inscriptions and Belles Lettres, which discovered a stone upon which was:

THE UNRAVELING OF THE MYSTERY OCCUPIED the academy for a considerable time, and savants with different versions of the inscription's meaning grew angry with one another. The explanation and translation of the inscription were eventually found by a Parisian tradesman, who explained that he was a friend of the beetle of Montmartre church, who had told him that the stone had acted as a signpost to the workmen who went up to Montmartre with their donkeys for plaster of paris, of which there used to be large quarries there, and that the inscription merely meant: "Tel le chemin des ânes" ("This is the path for the donkeys").

England Has Largest Eggs.

"Egg cups are bigger in New York than anywhere else in the world except England," said a globe trotter. "I can't say the same for the eggs, although the hens in this country perform their duty of helping to feed the human race pretty creditably. Still, they cannot come up to the English hens. Their contribution to the food products are extraordinary in size; hence the corresponding capaciousness of the egg cups. The further south you go on the continent the smaller the egg cups grow. In Egypt they dwindle away to the size of the average thimble. Their diminutive proportions are commensurate with the size of the eggs, however, which are the smallest laid by self respecting hens any place on earth. Place an ordinary Egyptian egg in the British cup and it is absolutely lost."—New York Press.

Thankful are They Who Escape The Surgeon's Knife

Thousands of surgical operations are performed every year in our great city hospitals upon women afflicted with serious female troubles. Sometimes the operations are successful—oftentimes they are not.

It is safe to say that certainly nine out of ten operations for female troubles might have been wholly avoided.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Do not consent to an operation which may mean death until after you have given Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a fair trial. Note what it did for Mrs. Robert Glenn, whose letter follows:

DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is so well and widely known that it does not need any recommendation from me, but I am glad to add mine to the many which you have in its favor. I suffered untold agonies from a serious female trouble for nearly three years, and the doctors told me I must have an operation; but I was unwilling to undergo this, and decided to try your Vegetable Compound. I am so pleased that I did so, for it restored me to perfect health, saved me the pain of an operation and the immense bills attending the same. Please accept my hearty thanks and best wishes.

MRS. ROBERT GLENN, 434 Marie Street, Ottawa, Ont.

Thousands of women, residing in every part of Canada, bear willing testimony to the wonderful virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It cures female ills and creates radiant, buoyant female health. For your own sake try it.

A Canadian Gift.

The massive silver beaker which was presented by the citizens of British Columbia to Lieut.-Col. English and the other officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the Imperial troops at Esquimaux on the occasion of their departure from Canada in May last, has just been placed in the museum of the Royal United Service Institution, in Whitehall. With the beaker is an illuminated address, signed by the Mayor, recalling the fact that for upwards of 150 years Imperial troops had been stationed within the borders of what was now Canada. Another interesting relic which has just been deposited in the museum by Gen. Sir Julius Raines, G. C. B., on behalf of Mr. James Hilton, F. S. A., is the sword of honor which was presented in 1804 to Capt. John Hilton, of the 2nd Regiment of Foot, by the citizens of the town of London. The sword is a testimonial of his conduct as a gentleman and ability as an officer.

If you have wasted money on doctors, and taken medicine after medicine, without relief, of course you are discouraged. But don't give up. There is a cure—certain and sure—that will make your kidneys well and strong. Here is a letter from an old gentleman, 72 years of age, who had just your experience, but who was convinced that he owed it to himself to at least try GIN PILLS. Read what he says:—

The Bole Drug Co., Minneapolis, Minn.

Dear Sir, I am now 72 years of age. I have been ill for about six or seven years, and have been attended by different doctors, but I could get no help. I started taking Kidney Pills and I have taken several odd boxes, and I have found them a little better. This spring I started to take Gin Pills, and believe they have cured me. I cannot say too much about them, and recommend them as a good kidney pill.

(Signed) WILLIAM CUMSTONE.

Note that Mr. Cumstone not only found quick relief, but "believe they have cured me."

Try just once more. Give GIN PILLS a fair trial. So sure are we that GIN PILLS are a positive cure for all kidney troubles that we will let you test them free.

LADY ERNESTINE HUNT.

Titled Lady to Ranch in Canada—Buys 30,000 Acres of Land.

With the arrival of the steamship Montclair at Avonmouth, London, from Montreal, came the news of an experiment which Lady Ernestine Hunt, eldest daughter of the Marquess of Ailesbury, has undertaken.

Lady Ernestine Hunt has started a horse-ranch at Calgary, Alberta, on a stretch of land between 30,000 and 40,000 acres in extent, and she has personally supervised the conveyance of seventeen of the horses to Great Britain. From Bristol the animals will be transhipped to Dublin, where they will be broken in and sold.

The horses are still in a half-wild state, and throughout the voyage across the Atlantic Lady Ernestine Hunt had little or no assistance in their management.

Lady Ernestine Hunt says she is the first woman who has ever brought live stock across the Western Ocean by herself, and she pays a tribute to the cattlemen, who are, in her opinion, a much-maligned class.

"Since I was 20 years of age," added her ladyship, "I have been facing the battle of life by myself. As long as I can remember I had had a roving disposition, and have been fond of two things—horses and the sea."

"Three months ago I went to Canada with a perfectly open mind, but possessed with a vague idea of starting a ranch. The whole affair is in its infancy, but things will be on a much larger scale before long."

A Canadian Abroad.

The long list of Canadians who have won distinction in the political, industrial or financial life of the United States includes the name of Edward Thomas Burrows, manufacturer. Mr. Burrows was born at Sherbrooke, Quebec, July 25, 1852. On Queen Victoria's birthday, May 24, 1867, he became a resident of Portland, Maine.

At the age of 14 he entered a store and continued at that work until he had reached the age of 20. During this time he saved a little money, which he used to advance his education in the Maine Wesleyan Seminary and Wesleyan University. After one year he was obliged to leave the latter institution on account of health. It was about 1873 that he commenced the manufacture of wire screens in a small way. To-day he has the largest factory for the manufacture of wire screens in the world. He is also president of the Curtin Supply Co., Chicago, manufacturers of the railway curtains which he invented. Mr. Burrows is a trustee of Boston University and a leading Maine prohibitionist.

EARL OF CRANBROOKE DEAD.

At Age of 92—Was Twice British Secretary For War.

London, Oct. 31.—Gathorne Gathorne-Hardy, first Earl of Cranbrooke, who was twice Secretary for War and Lord President of the Council, died yesterday at Hemsted Park. He was born in 1814.

The Earl of Cranbrooke was born in 1814. He was a Conservative candidate for Bradford in 1847, but was defeated. He represented Leominster from 1856 to 1865, when he was elected for Oxford University. This seat he retained till 1878, when he was raised to the peerage. He was successively Under-Secretary of State for the Home Department, President of the Poor Law Board, Home Secretary, Secretary for War, Secretary for India, and President of the Council.

He was educated at Shrewsbury School and Oriel College, Oxford. He owned 6,000 acres in Kent and Sussex, and was also a partner in the Lowthian Ironworks.

Niblo got out and not knowing that I was here.

"Not remarkable, considering the fact that he is a burglar," he smiled. "I'll bet you are his sister."

"I am," she admitted stiffly.

"Then you must know me," he began. "I am Fred Grenville."

Miss Niblo's nose raised itself in protest. "That is very clever of you," she said, "only Mr. Grenville is out of town and will not be back for another week."

"Great heaven!" he gasped. "You don't take me for a burglar, do you?"

"Who else would be likely to make entry by means of the fire escape?" she asked.

"But a burglar in smoking jacket and slippers?" he protested.

"I suppose it is a new dodge," she explained. "Something like the dress suit burglar, isn't it?"

"But I really am Fred Grenville," he pleaded. "I always drop down to see Bert by way of the fire escape. He took all of my cigars for some party, and when I got in ahead of time to-night I found his note and came down after some."

"So you've been robbing Mr. Grenville's flat, too?" she said. "You must have been to some pains to find out the safe places."

"But I tell you that I am Grenville," he persisted. "I will show you."

He reached into his hip pocket for his cardcase, but at his first move the pistol went up again. "Put up your hands or I'll shoot," warned a steady voice, and Grenville's hands went up. He knew that she meant what she said.

"I wish you would call up the house," he said. "Most of the tenants know me, and identification will be easy."

"My brother will be in soon," she said. "I feel safer this way."

"It's a mighty uncomfortable way," he pleaded. "May I not lower my hands?"

"If you keep them in your lap," she agreed, "but keep them away from your pockets. Sit in that chair."

She indicated a rocker by the window, and into this he backed. She took a seat in front of him, her finger on the

ALYS BATEMAN

With The Edward Parlovitz Concert Party, which plays at the Brisco Theatre on Monday next.

The Prima Donna's wonderful success is not to be wondered at, when we consider that she not only appeals to the most cultivated musical tastes, but to the general public, who though less versed in vocal art, can nevertheless appreciate the brightness and beauty of her voice and the brilliancy of her executive.

She has a strongly marked personality, combining a most fascinating appearance with an irresistible charm of manner and an exquisite taste in dress. Her present work includes a trans-continental tour of Canada and the U. S. with the gifted young pianist, Edward Parlovitz, who had the honor of introducing to America this gifted Prima Donna last spring, under the sole management of Maude C. Bradley, the concert directress of Brockville.

OIL AND GAS NOTES

Merlin, Nov. 1.—Considerable interest centres on the Broadbent well at Easton, which is now down about 800 feet. Drilling operations are at a standstill owing to the loss of a bit at the bottom of the hole. This well is being watched with interest by drillers.

The Sarnia Oil Co. brought in an oil well on the Harwood Murchland farm, south half lot 4, Con. 9, Tilbury East, this week, which has a production of 100 barrels per day. On this farm there are at least 10 or 12 good producing wells. The farmer's royalty—one-eighth of all oil produced—is estimated to yield an income to Mr. Marshall of over $100 per day.

The H. D. Symmes Co., which has secured the franchise for supplying Chatham with gas, are asking Raleigh Township to call a special meeting for the purpose of considering the granting of a franchise for laying pipe lines through the township to Chatham. The reeve and one of the councillors being away, the company will probably wait till the regular meeting on November 15. This company has a gaser of over 6,000,000 cubic feet per day on the D. Halliday farm, and are putting down another well to the north of this.

THE WORLD'S RECORD

New York, Oct. 31.—Rose L. Fritz, of this city, who won the world's typewriting championship in Chicago last June, came out ahead in the contest at the National Business Show in Madison Square Garden last night. She wrote 2,467 words from dictation in half an hour, making five errors.

Of the other thirteen entrants Paul Munro, who defeated Miss Fritz last fall, came nearest to her record; he wrote 2,466 words, but made 61 errors.

HALLOWE'EN

Halloween passed off very quietly in the city. The reports of damage done by the small boys are very few, and from all appearances the boys were very good.

John Laylor, a wagon maker and blacksmith on Joseph street, reported to the police that some boys did about $10.00 worth of damage on his wagon. He will be satisfied if the boys will call and settle. James Paul claims that some of his property was damaged, and some of it was taken away. He will be satisfied if the boys who took it will only return it.

Seven races were torn down. The event was chiefly celebrated in ringing door bells and raising a row on the streets.

TO PREVENT BRONCHITIS or CONSUMPTION

Do not neglect a cold or cough no matter how slight as the irritation spreading throughout the delicate lining of the sensitive air passages sooner or later will lead to fatal results.

If on the first appearance of a cough or cold you take a few doses of you would save yourself a great deal of unnecessary suffering.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup contains all the lung healing virtues of the pine tree combined with Wild Cherry Bark and other pectoral remedies.

It stimulates the weakened bronchial organs, allays irritation, lessens inflammation, soothes and heals the irritated parts, loosens the phlegm and mucous, and aids nature to easily dislodge the morbid accumulations.

Miss Belle Campbell, Long River, P.E.I., writes: "For some time I was troubled with bronchitis. A friend advised me to try Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup. So I procured three bottles but it only took two to cure me."

Be careful when purchasing to see that you get the genuine Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup.

It is put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark and the price 25 cents at all dealers.

Odd Overcoats

We have a few odd overcoats scattered through the stocks that were carried over from last year, of course that are not as stylish as those we are making this year. How could they be? But then they are just as serviceable and we have knocked all signs of style out of the prices as the following list of reduction shows.

$ 7.50 for $ 5.00	$10 for $ 8.00
10.00 for 6.50	15 for 8.00
15.00 for 10.00	20 for 16.00
12.00 for 10.00	22 for 18.00

This lot has:

5 size 34	4 size 38
4 size 36	3 size 39
3 size 37	2 size 40

Also Ends of Stock in Boy's and Men's Sizes at a Snap.

Quite a number of these coats are in big boy's and small men's sizes, others are for very big men. If you are not a stickler for extreme style and want to be warm this winter, now is your chance.

NECKWEAR SALE

On Saturday we will place on sale 60 dozen fine silk ties principally "Hook-on", made from 50c silks—in an immense variety of the best fall patterns and shading at 19c.

We were able to clear all that a manufacturer had, and we got them at our own bid, hence the ridiculously low price. Here's a chance for you to see what our great buying power is constantly doing for you.
