REVISED UNIFORM INTERNATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

BY REV. F. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Teacher of English Bible in the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago.

LESSON FOR AUGUST 4 GROWING STRONGER.

LESSON TEXTS—Luke 2:42-52; II Peter 1:5-7. (MAY BE USED WITH TEMPERANCE APPLICATIONS.) GOLDEN TEXT—But the path of the righteous is as the shining light, that shineth more and more unto the perfect day.—Proverbs 4:18.

1. Jesus Christ Growing (Luke 2:42-52). While Christ was indeed divine, his deity did not interfere with his development as a human being. The processes of his physical, mental, and spiritual growth were the same as those of any human being.

2. Jesus found in the temple (vv. 44-50). When Joseph and Jesus' mother had gone some distance on their return journey, they perceived that Jesus was missing, and sought him among their kinsfolk and acquaintance. Not finding him there, they turned back to Jerusalem where they found him in the temple.

3. He was "sitting" (v. 46) showing that he was no passing visitor or eighteen. He was perfectly at home in his Father's House.

4. Jesus obedient (v. 51). Though he was conscious of his divine being and mission, he lived a life of filial obedience (v. 52).

5. Jesus' development (v. 52). It was (1) Mental—"Increased in wisdom." (2) Physical—"Stature." (3) Spiritual—"Favor with God and man."

6. Growth in Grace (II Peter 1:3-11). This is not growth into grace, but growth in it. We get into grace by the new birth. This new nature which has its source in God must be developed in order that our lives be fruitful for God (v. 8), that they bear testimony to the cleansing power of Christ's blood (v. 9), and that we may have assurance of salvation (v. 10).

The following are lines of growth: 1. "Virtue" (v. 5). Virtue here means energy or courage. This is not "added" as in the Authorized Version, but as in the Revised Version which reads: "In your faith supply virtue." It means increase by growth, not by external junction. Faith is the root from which spring all these excellencies.

2. "Knowledge" (v. 6). This means a right understanding, a practical knowledge. 3. "Temperance" (v. 6). Temperance means self-control. This self-control extends to all the affairs of life. Practical knowledge will supply to itself the government of all appetites.

4. "Patience" (v. 6). This means endurance. Having control of self within, there will be endurance of that without. 5. "Godliness" (v. 6). This means piety, reverence for God, the submission of the human will to the will of God. This is a part of that practical knowledge which we are obliged to supply.

6. "Brotherly kindness" (v. 7). Love of the brethren must be developed in godliness. The proof that one is godly is that he loves the brethren (I John 5:1). This means the special love of Christians for each other. 7. "Charity" (v. 7). This is love. Peter's climax is reached in love. Out of faith, which is the root, springs this seven-fold fruit. In order to prevent apostasy, Peter calls all to be diligent in the development of these graces. All such shall endure.

GREEK RESTAURANTS ARE WRECKED

By Returned Soldiers in the City of Toronto Damage Will Reach Several Thousands of Dollars

Toronto, Aug. 3.—At 1 o'clock this morning after a night of raiding an angry mob of over two hundred returned soldiers and civilians had completed the destruction of four Greek restaurants with a loss of several thousands of dollars.

Waving the Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes the veterans took the law in their own hands and without a second's warning visited three Yonge street cafe's and completely demolished the interior of the buildings.

The affair started at 6 o'clock in the evening in the White City Cafe, 423 Yonge Street, and towards morning grew worse as the crowd increased in numbers.

Police Held in Reserve The city police were all held in reserve, but were instructed by acting Deputy Chief of Police Dickson not to intervene. Lt. Miller of the most-Marshal's office, was on hand, but was unable to get any great number of soldiers from Exhibition Camp. At one o'clock this morning two motor transports containing fifty men were rushed to Yonge and Bloor streets, Inspector Miller would not attempt to stop the raiders with this small number of men.

He stated to the papers that the only thing he would be able to do would be to find out the places which the soldiers intended raiding next, and despatching men to the spot and ordering the proprietors to turn out the lights and lock the doors.

Thieves on Hand Returned men minus limbs and arms made up the crowd. Thieves took the opportunity of hiding in the crowd to avoid police detection, and immediately the soldiers took possession of the places they were seeking and were seen carrying away goods in large numbers.

One boy was caught and when the police patrol started away with him the crowds attempted to overtake it, but the driver hurriedly drove through the crowd to the police station. During the affair Policeman Sharpe on duty keeping the crowds clear of passing street cars, was struck over the head by a returned man with a crutch. The officer did not lose his temper and the soldier walked away to rejoin the crowd, who were crying "this is the night that we will get justice."

What Started It The riot commenced over the alleged assault of a returned man from Davisville hospital, who was in the White City Cafe, on Thursday night.

Albert Cludray, a returned soldier was eating in the restaurant, when at 10.30 in the evening, when he is said to have been assaulted by a Greek. He was found unconscious and bleeding from the head. The police ambulance was called, and the soldier was taken to the general hospital.

Not Hurt in Restaurant An investigation by the police showed that the soldier had not been attacked in the restaurant, and it is stated that the soldier at the time was under the influence of liquor.

Yesterday afternoon it is said the soldiers in uniform in the hospitals organized, and after a brief discussion, plans were made for the visiting of three places owned by the two Greeks who control the White City Cafe on Yonge street.

Smashed Window At 12.50 a.m. the crowd tore into the Marathon Cafe, 822 Yonge St., and with crutches forced in the big bay window. The entire stock was carried out, and windows and electrical fixtures were splintered.

Nothing Left on Shelves The store of John Kios at 504 Yonge street, who conducts a delicatessen business, was badly damaged when the raiders paid their visit there, tearing down the shelves and wrecking everything in the place. Boxes were hurled about, in fact nothing was left on the shelves.

Abdul Simons, of 501 Yonge street, convinced the crowd that he was an Italian, and he was allowed to pass un molested.

A woman and three children in the windows of the Home Lunch on Yonge street, just south of Bloor street, appealed to the better side of the soldiers, and they passed on to other places. It was said that the woman and the children alone saved this place from destruction.

REST HOME FOR CANADIAN RED CROSS NURSES

Fine Institution at Boulogne, France, Ministers to Comfort of Nurses on Leave

(Canadian Associated Press Correspondent) London, Aug. 3.—One of the most recent enterprises of the Canadian Red Cross Society for the comfort and convenience of the members of the nursing service is the nursing sisters' rest home, opened in Boulogne in April. The facilities of this institution are extended to nursing sisters of Canada, Australia, South Africa, United Kingdom, and the United States, and already several hundred have enjoyed its hospitality.

"We regard it as our home in France," said a Canadian nursing sister recently. The whole environment is essentially home-like and restful. The situation is ideal, just below the rugged cliffs of Boulogne harbor, overlooking the quaint old French terrace five minutes distance from the wharf and railway station.

The primary purpose of the hostel is to provide accommodation for nursing sisters travelling from England or France on duty or on leave. A motor bus meets all boats and trains, the transport section being in charge of Miss Woodford.

Of the internal economy of the hostel, the culinary department deserves special mention. With the limited means at the disposal, wonders are accomplished. Economy as here practised is a fine art. Bread and hardtack which have grown stale are put through a mill and ground down again to flour. Baking powder and the usual ingredients again being added the stale bread becomes soft and loaves so irregularly shaped are accomplished. Economy as here practised is a fine art. Bread and hardtack which have grown stale are put through a mill and ground down again to flour. Baking powder and the usual ingredients again being added the stale bread becomes soft and loaves so irregularly shaped are accomplished.

Staff is Entirely The staff of the Canadian rest home are entirely Canadian. The needs of the transient sister. No matter at what hour sisters arrive, hot meals are prepared. Trains and boats arrive and leave so irregularly that meals are served at practically all hours, sometimes at 3 and 4 a.m. in the morning. In the ordinary way, breakfast is served at 7, luncheon at 12 and dinner at 6 p.m.

The accommodation of the hostel is 60, but under present conditions and twenty-five have been put up for the night.

The rates charged are most reasonable. For the average sister, the guests receive dinner, bed, bath and breakfast, and if their stay is prolonged over the transient period, extra meals are charged for on a proportionate basis. It is hoped that the house may become almost self-sustaining.

Captain Blacklock, now Commissioner of the Canadian Red Cross Society in London first recognized the need for such a hostel, and it was he who evolved the scheme for its establishment and secured the necessary consent of the British Authorities.

The personnel is composed of the following who for the most part are Canadian Voluntary Aid Detachment Workers:—Mrs. Gordon Brown, of Ottawa, commandant; Mrs. G. H. G. Wood, of London, England, matron; Mrs. Kidd, Ottawa, Miss June Allen of Toronto, quartermaster; Mrs. Chidsey, London, book-keeper; Miss Woodford, England, transport matron of the British Red Cross. The housemaids are Miss Beck, Vancouver; Miss Coote, Vancouver; and Miss Leung, and Miss MacBride, Winnipeg. Parlor maids are Miss Bond, Toronto; Miss Blackadder, Miss Kingsman and Miss Howard, Montreal.

Mrs. Gordon Brown of Ottawa is commandant of the Canadian institution. Y. A. D.'s in France. Previous to taking up her present command she was in charge of all Canadian Voluntary Aid Workers' billets in France. She has served in France for fourteen months. All of the Canadian personnel of the rest home have been supplied from the Canadian Imperial V. A. D., of which Lady Evelyn is commandant in England.

Won Military Medal Mrs. Gordon Brown's youngest daughter, Miss Evelyn, holds the distinction of being the first Canadian girl to win the Military Medal, for courageously driving an ambulance through heavy fire while on duty with the First Aid Nursing Yeomanry Corps. She is the only Canadian girl in the corps.

Miss June Allen of Toronto, quartermaster, has earned quite a local reputation for the efficient manner in which she carries on the work of her department.

A Montreal confectionery company has been ordered by the Food Board to return any sugar on hand, as it is not entitled to an allowance for candy-making.

DOOR IS OPEN TO DEFAULTERS

Deserters and Absentees Returning by 24th Avoid Penalties

An extra of The Canada Gazette issued at 7 o'clock last evening contains a proclamation removing deserters and absentees under the Military Service Act from liability to punishment if they report for duty between now and August 24. It is recognized that many men who failed to report because of lack of a proper understanding of the Act will be glad and willing to do so if a period of grace is allowed. It is believed that the establishment of such a period will bring to the colors many men whom it would be difficult to otherwise reach.

Men who are still classed as deserters and absentees, subsequent to August 24, will, the proclamation states, "be pursued and punished with all the rigor and severity of the law, subject to the judgments of our courts-martial, which will be convened to try such cases, and other competent Tribunals."

The proclamation provides that "those who employ harbor, conceal or assist such men will be held strictly accountable as offenders, and subject to the pains, penalties and forfeitures in that behalf by law provided for their offences."

Misunderstood, or Been Miled. The purpose of the Government has in view in issuing the proclamation fully set forth in the following paragraphs:

"Whereas, considerable numbers of men belonging to Class I under the Military Service Act, 1917, called on to active service in our Canadian Expeditionary Force for the defence of Canada under our proclamation of October 13, 1917, although they have thus become by law soldiers enlisted in the military service in Canada, have failed to report for duty as lawfully required of them under the said Military Service Act, and regulations thereunder, including the order in Council duly passed on April 20 last, or have deserted, or absented themselves without leave from our Canadian Expeditionary Force;

"And it is represented that the very serious and unfortunate situation in which these men find themselves is due in many cases to the fact that notwithstanding the information and warning contained in our proclamation aforesaid, they have misunderstood their duty or obligation, or have been misled by the advice of ill-disposed, dishonest or seditious persons.

Desire to Be Lenient. "And whereas we desire, if possible, to avoid the infliction of heavy penalties which for lawless deserters and absentees who have thus become guilty and to afford them an opportunity within a limited time to report and make their services available in our Canadian Expeditionary Force, as is by law their bounden duty, and as is necessary for the defence of the Dominion of Canada.

"We, therefore, in exercise of our powers and of our goodwill and pleasure in that behalf, do hereby proclaim and declare and cause to be published, and made known, that the penalties of the law will not be imposed or exacted against the men who belong to Class I under our Military Service Act, 1917, and who have disobeyed our proclamation aforesaid, or who have received notices from any of our Registrars or Deputy Registrars to report for duty on a day now past and have failed so to report, or who, having reported and obtained leave of absence, have failed to report at the expiry of their leave, or have become deserters from our Expeditionary Force, provided they report for duty on or before the 24th day of August, 1918."

Report Soon as Possible. It is further provided in the proclamation that it is not intended to relieve the men affected by it from their obligation to report for duty as soon as possible, or to grant them immunity from detention or arrest in the meantime for the purpose of compelling them to perform their military duty, the law being merely to forestall or remit the penalties heretofore incurred, for failure to report, "absences without leave, or desertion," incurred by those men of the description aforesaid who shall be in the proper discharge of their military duties on or before the said twenty-fourth day of August, 1918."

COMMITTEE TO OTTAWA. Toronto, Aug. 2.—The committee representing the G. N. W. operators and the Company will go to Ottawa tonight to confer with the Minister of Railway, to carry on their negotiations there.

G.W.V.A. Seek To Heal Split

By Courier Leased Wire. Toronto, Aug. 2.—After their excursion yesterday to Niagara Falls, the G.W.V.A. delegates did not turn up at this morning's session until 9.40, although the hour set was 9 o'clock.

"Before we proceed further," said President Purney, "I wish to welcome to this convention Comrade McPherson, of Ottawa, a member of the executive who arrived this morning."

"Sorry I was not here when the 'fire-works' were on," said Comrade McPherson, "I was detained at Petawawa Camp."

An additional delegate from London turned up, in the person of H. E. Bullard. London is still one short of its quota.

President Purney urged the convention to confine itself to the important business still undone. "I ask you to refrain from disputes, and to confine yourself to the work before us. People are saying that we have lost public confidence. Let us show them we are worthy of confidence."

On motion of Maj. McPherson, the president appointed a committee, consisting: Hendrie, Hamilton, Creelman, Montreal and Tyson of British Columbia to interview the Winnipeg and Ottawa delegations and try to "bring them back into the fold."

A drastic resolution regarding enemy aliens passed unanimously. It demands the internment of all Aliens not engaged in work of national importance restrictions in travel within a five mile radius; the appointment of a custodian of Alien enemy property; the strict enforcement or present enemy alien laws; the suppression of enemy books and newspapers; dismissal of alien enemies employed by government and the application of M.S.A. to all Allied aliens, with the alternative of returning to their own country.

A revised draft of the constitution was submitted.

TORONTO LOST TO SEMI PRO'S

Athaneums Were Defeated in a Close Encounter Last Night

Toronto Athaneums made their bow to Brantford baseball fans at Agricultural Park last night, when they went down to defeat 9-7 at the hands of the local semi-pros, in as well matched and hotly-contested a game as the season has yet brought forth.

Hett, captain of the visiting team and the first man at bat, started things in the first inning, leading off with a clean hit. After two men had perished at first, Burns uncoiled a two base hit, Chandler followed with a drive which Burke could not handle, and Oswin singled, three runs crossing Brantford, in the half, could only manage one, on Burke's walk and Bradley's single.

The last few weeks the games have been half an hour or so late in starting, and as a result have been finished in semi-darkness. A prompt start would be appreciated by fans, and probably by the players.

The semi-pros would appear to have run into a streak of hard luck, for McKelvey their crack center-fielder, spiked his foot white slinging to second in the game at Hamilton on Wednesday night, and will not be able to play again this season, while last night in practise before the game Andy Doyle got a nasty bounder in the mouth, losing several teeth and having his lip badly cut. Sum-merhays also got a nasty smash on the knee during the game, but was able to continue.

Hett and Woods of the Athaneums are a great pair of kidders, and kept the fans in a continuous roar of merriment.

One of the wierdest plays ever perpetrated on any diamond was brought off in the second inning, when Sears was cornered between third and home by Burns, Chandler and Kelly. Burns finally got the ball, and was about to tag the runner when the latter dropped flat to the ground, ducked through the catcher's legs and crossed the plate in safety. It. And maybe the stand didn't bowl.

The locals have yet to taste the bitterness of defeat on their home diamond. They have been having a harder run of luck while on tour, however, having been beaten by London, Hamilton and Woodstock. Hamilton semi-pros play here on Monday morning.

Score by innings: Toronto 9, Brantford 7. Table with columns for Toronto and Brantford, and rows for each inning from 1 to 9.

Summary: Struck out by Kelly 2, by Muir 7. Bases on balls, off Kelly 1, off Muir 1. Wild pitch, Muir 2. Missed 3rd strike, Oswin. Two-base hits, Bates, Sears. Double play, Oswin to Burns to Hett. Left on bases, Toronto 9, Brantford 9.

Sporting Comment

Benny Kauff, who was recently drafted from the Giants for the U.S. army, is just now the most ambitious rookie in the 12th company, 3rd training battalion, 158th depot brigade, at Camp Sherman, Ohio.

Also Benny is making arrangements so that every man in the 12th company is going to have a cigar after each noon and evening meal. The little Giant singer expects to get these smokes by playing ball games.

"Lots of these boys," Kauff writes, "haven't got a lot of stray dimes, and will get very little pleasure unless someone gives it to them. I'm going to do it. I already have bookings offered for 15 games, and will have a team that can draw the crowds and make enough money to raise a big fund. From this fund we'll give the 12th company boys a touch of real life. Most of them need the little pleasures such as a fund can provide for them."

Practically all the good ball players in camp have asked Benny for a trial on his club. They all want to play with the Giant outfielder, and when he gets through coaching them he will have a real team. Benny likes army life, and does not hesitate to say so.

"Why a fellow is as strong as a bull in the army," he said, "you are not in baseball shape, but you certainly are in fine physical trim. I never knew a straw pile would make a comfortable bed, but I sure sleep well on mine. And feed, say, you can't beat the chuck we get. I clean up every meal, and go back for more. In case of a pinch there's the Y.M.C.A., where a fellow can finish off on pie.

"But there's one thing that gets me. The mornings sure are long. I've been used to sleeping late, and now when I think it must be noon I look at my watch and find it's only 8 o'clock."

SIDELIGHTS OF THE STAGE AND SCREEN

"UNKNOWN 274."

The story of "Unknown 274," a Fox five-reel picture to be seen at the Rex the first of next week, in which June Caprice plays a poor ragged orphan, beaten by the rough matron of the asylum, has freshness of interest and works up to an exciting struggle. It is the kind of picture that most people like extremely well.

June Caprice enters the picture as a country orphanage. We have seen her in the city, a motherless baby cared for by her father, a kindly musician. He is hurt and loses his memory of the past. The baby is brought to the country by a neighbor and later taken to the orphanage, where she is registered as "Unknown 274." In the next scene she has grown to be June Caprice, ill-treated drudge who makes friends of the children. A man and woman, New York crooks, come to the village and persuade her to run away and be their daughter. They intend to make use of her. She has her father's violin, and back in the city, they take her to the old musician to be taught. He has recovered, but fails to recognize her as his baby. Later the rich man who is set to marry her sees that something is wrong and truly falls in love with June. The crook, whom she calls father, gets jealous and

Sheriff Nell of the screen—Polly Moran in real life—is undergoing a fury of war work. The popular comedienne made a dash up to Oxford, Cal., last week, where she entertained the farmers and sold dances with herself. The following night she motored down to the submarine base at Los Angeles harbor and sang to the jacksies. The next night she was with the Coast Artillery, etc., etc. Most of her leisure hours she spends with two long needles and a ball of yarn and she goes about murmuring, "Knit two, knit two, ravel ought eight."

Donald Crisp, director of Paramount pictures, is not only a good fisherman but a good patriot. He caught 825 pounds of fish near California Island one day. The people of the island tried to buy the fish for fertilizer, but nothing doing. "Not in these days when food conservation is so important," said Crisp, who took his catch over to Los Angeles and divided it between the Children's Hospital and the Hollywood Studio Club, the latter an organization for moving-picture girls.

Douglas Fairbanks engineered a party welcome for Fred Stone, the new Aircraft star, when the latter arrived in Los Angeles to start work on his first picture. There in the crowd of the station were a lot of

THE MODERN FLUTE

The flute, a good home instrument; Harmonizes Well With Piano; Ancient Invention, But Most Modern in Orchestral Use.

By H. H. Kinzett.

Though the flute is modelled upon the rude instrument of prehistoric times, for it has been in constant use in various forms for countless ages, yet, though so ancient in essentials, it is still one of the most modern among orchestral instruments.

Haydn's "Creation" is full of charming flute melodies. Berlioz also has a striking melody, a most unique piece for two flutes and a harp in his "L'Enfance du Christ," while in the works of more modern writers, the flute takes a foremost place, for it is undoubtedly the composer's peculiar vehicle for conveying the tender voice of the songs of birds; the sweet liquid voice of Nature.

For the most part the flute is made of locust-wood, though other kinds are used, body ebony, metals of various kinds, ivory, even glass. The sound is produced by blowing with the mouth into an oval aperture on the side at the thick end. The keys work in such a way that the holes are open when not in use, the lessening the length of the pipe, and heightening the pitch. It has a compass of three octaves, with low C in the treble clef, with all the chromatic intervals.

The flute is quite adapted for home work, harmonizing well with the piano. A strict course of earnest study is necessary in mastering this noble instrument, but it is impossible in a written treatise to explain the difficulties the student will have to surmount, which can only be obtained by oral instruction.

bucks, tanned and "chapped," with brilliant shirts and flaming handkerchiefs, sombreros on their heads and hats bristling with weapons. At the Brant the first of next week, Thomas H. Ince presents Enid Bennett in the story of an amateur vampire who spoils the plans of a German spy and his secret agents.

Nancy Lyons..... Enid Bennett
Robert Walsham... Douglas MacLean
James Walsham... Charles French
Phil Well... Robert McKim
Mr. Fleming... Melbourne MacDowell
Mrs. Mulligan... John P. Lockney
Directed by Jerome Storm.

The story: Nancy Lyons, a wardrobe girl with a musical comedy settlement worker. When he falls to propose she dons the gorgeous dress of a chorus girl and practices her vampirish arts upon him, with the result that they are wedded, and two days later go to Ore Junction, Pa., where Walsham is to take charge of a community house. Mr. Fleming, a German spy, and Phil Well, his agent, seek to foment a strike among the miners, but the plot falls after Nancy has wrung the secret of the proposed strike from Well by playing her vamp tactics upon him. Both Fleming and Well are arrested by secret service operatives, and Nancy is hailed as the preserver of the community.

In her new starring vehicle, "Uncle Tom's Cabin" which will be shown at the Brant theatre next Thursday, Friday and Saturday Marguerite Clark, celebrated as the "sweetest girl in motion pictures," portrays the roles of Eva and Topsy, two widely dissimilar characters, but which she handles with the skill of the true artist.

This is a splendid dramatization of Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe's famous novel, her publication of which did much to bring on the Civil War and resulted in the emancipation of the slaves in this country. The novel was translated in many languages and the constant point of numbers the sales of the book exceeded that of any story ever published. The principal incidents of the story are embraced in the photoplay and collectively they form one of the finest picture productions ever made by any motion picture corporation.

Uncle Tom is a Kentucky slave who is sold down to the South. When on a skunkboat on the Mississippi river he saves the life of Eva St. Clair, whose father purchases him as a reward for his bravery. St. Clair purpose to set him free, but his death, which occurs soon after Eva's demise, prevents this and Uncle Tom is sold to Simon Legree a brutal planter who maltreats him to severely that he dies from his injuries just as the son of his former owner arrives to repurchase him and to give him a comfortable home for the rest of his days.

Miss Clark portrays the roles of Eva and Topsy, a slave girl, two parts that stand out distinctly above all others. She is admirably supported by a well known screen players of recognized ability.

any key can be played, while instead of several, the player has only one to keep up, and the tone with one flute is certainly better than with several with the constant changing, for it is a singular fact warmer, owing to the rise in temperature it gets sharper.

The highest part in the music of an orchestra is generally given to the flute, for it is the most acute, so that any melody the composer desires to predominate of the body of the harmony, can be safely entrusted to it, while it is so agile that anything in the way of scales, runs and appoggiaturas can be executed with ease and certainty.

Its services in orchestral work are constant; it doubles the first violin in the melody either in unisons or octaves, or in combination with other wood-winds, being the coprano, it takes the highest parts for it is so extremely brilliant in solos. Not only is rapid execution its special feature, but it is equally capable in sustained notes of long duration with high tone; the opening chords in Mendelssohn's "Midsummer Night's Dream," being a case in point.

Beautiful solo work and obbligatos abound in the works of the old masters, Handel's "Hush ye pretty warbling Chorus," "Will the Sun forget to Shrink," and "The Soft complaining Flute," are exquisite; while

CANADA HOLDS RECORD.
By Courier Leased Wire
Ottawa, Aug. 2.—Canada now holds the record for speed in wooden ship building on the American continent. The feat was accomplished by the Quinlan and Robertson Shipbuilding Co. of Quebec in the construction of the "War Seneca," a wooden steamer. This vessel was launched on June 13th and a dock steam trial was made yesterday—just forty-eight days later—by turning over the main engine and auxiliaries under steam. This is six days better than the previous best record made in the United States, which is said to have been fifty-four days.

The boat was built for the Imperial Munitions Board.

with several children. But to return to a representative menu for the 50-cent dinner, and its portion per person. First you will have soup, very nearly a half pint measure of it, then a choice of roast beef or veal, and New York City's first station under this service is established in quarters on West Seventy-ninth street, in a home converted for the purpose and presenting an inviting appearance in a color scheme of mulberry and white.

Upstairs is the salad room, a piece of well done and a small piece of fat, that is, unless you have specified otherwise.

An Average Meal.

If your choice was not loaf you will get a square about four inches by an inch or so in thickness, with tomato sauce. They are large, two if not a moderate sized ladle of buttered peels, a similar portion of cauliflower in cream sauce and salad will follow. The salad will be two good sized leaves of head lettuce, with cream cheese and French dressing. For dessert you will have a square of cottage pudding with sausage, or a portion of lemon jelly.

Perhaps you are investing in a dollar dinner. Then you have a more elaborate menu which should run about like this: Half a grapefruit with a cherry, olives and radishes, an entree of curried codfish, roast beef and browned potatoes, hot buttered peels, peas, a salad of hearts of lettuce and a choice of lemon pie or chocolate blanc mange. Just as for the other service, the menu for the dollar dinner admit of variety.

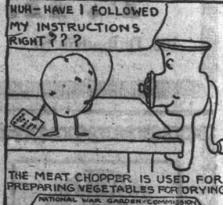

For the 35-cent dinner you would get the 50-cent dinner with this change, either the salad or the dessert course eliminated. Very soon the 25-cent dinner is to have a printed menu all its own as it grows in popularity. The station is serving luncheons, also.—The Woman Citizen.

A BOY AND A BICYCLE

What This Lad Did to Obtain a Wheel, Others Can Also Do

Little Jimmy Jones had been wanting a bicycle for a long time, but his father did not quite see his way clear to coming through with the cost of the bike, so Jim had to watch the other boys flying around on their bicycles without having one himself.

When vacation time came, however, Jimmy made a little deal with a man in his town who needed a boy almost as much as Master Jimmy needed a bicycle. The deal was not made on the basis of 50c or 75c a day either, as boys now are making more than many men earned two years ago.

In a few weeks therefore, he went into the biggest bicycle store in town and demanded to see one of those bicycles with the Maple Leaf on it, and the letters C. C. M. on the Maple Leaf. Ten minutes later he planked down fifty perfectly good dollars and rode away on his new purchase, which was no "idea" machine, but a first grade men's model in 20-inch frame with the saddle lowered to where it would be most comfortable.

No, he did not "jump his job" right away, as he needed a few other things, but you can depend on it he has been getting lots of fun out of all his spare time since then and is due to get a lot more.

If Jimmy had wished, he could easily have secured another job where he would have made use of his bicycle and in this way earned still more money, but he did not think it was worth while changing for the short time remaining.

He now has a bicycle he would not have had if he had not earned it, and has had some experience at earning money for himself and really working at a job where he had to be on hand every day at a certain time whether he felt like it or not, that will be worth a lot to him when he strikes out "on his own."

Jimmy is not the only boy who has had this valuable experience. Many other boys are doing the same thing this summer. It is not too late for others to commence now.

MAN ON BICYCAL IS WORTH TWO ON FOOT

Watchword of the Year is "Speed Up." And This Article Tells How

RIDE A BICYCLE

The pass-word of the year is "Speed Up." Every one of us in these days should as nearly as possible do the work of two.

Workmen can beat the whistle by riding a bicycle and be in better shape to do a good day's work.

Merchants and business men will be in better condition after a brisk ride on a bicycle than after riding in a stuffy street car or reclining in a motor car.

Boys and girls need never be late for school when riding a bicycle and will be ready to get through their studies with less trouble. After school or in vacation it is wonderful how many errands can quickly be done on a bicycle and how much fun can be crowded into the times between.

Ladies will find that a little spin once in a while on a bicycle is not time wasted, since work can be done much easier and quicker after such a refreshing change from household or social duties. For riding to business, making informal calls, etc., there is really nothing to equal a good bicycle.

For delivering small parcels quickly, a carrier on a bicycle has everything else beaten. Service counts and when service is given by bicycle delivery, it is economical as well as quick and satisfactory.

Collectors can get around so quickly on a bicycle that no creditor can escape them, unless he too rides a bicycle; even then one can give him a great run.

Doctors, even when they own more than one motor car, find there are times when grabbing a bicycle with one hand and their hat with the other gets them there quicker than any other method.

Ministers are riding bicycles in ever increasing numbers and find that it is just the thing for making a great number of calls, many of them away from a street car line, very quickly and easily, while at the same time obtaining the outdoor exercise which is so necessary to keep one in the best physical and mental condition.

The war has taught us many things. Not the least of these is the value of time-saving and exercise. Perhaps no one thing has helped more toward both these things than the bicycle.

LABOR NEWS

A big new sardine factory is being built in St. John, N.B., by the Booth Fisheries Company of Chicago which has immense fishery establishments on the Atlantic Coast. The new plant will cost over seven and a half million dollars, so it is said. A large staff of employees, mostly women, will be employed.

Englehart, Ont., which is on the line of the Timiskaming & Northern Ontario Railroad, has one of the best locals of the maintenance of way employees to be found in the north country. At the last regular meeting there were over 70 members present and there was nothing of special importance on either.

The steady increase in development of the pulp and paper industry in Canada is shown by the latest figures of the exports in this industry from the Dominion to Great Britain, and foreign countries. The value of newsprint exports from Canada for the year ending March 31, 1918, was $23,978,347, compared with $23,594,134 for the twelve months ending March 31, 1917, an increase of $10,384,213, or over 44 per cent. The total value of all paper manufactures exported from the Dominion for the year ending March 31 last was $37,742,697, compared with $26,104,824 for the previous year, an increase of $11,637,873, or 44 per cent. Every item of export in this category showed an increase over 1917, the principal gains being shown by newsprint and wrapping paper.

All the metal trades in the marine yards at Montreal have received substantial increases in wages and all round improvement in working conditions. Employment is good in nearly all the industries, excepting the building trades.

At the last session of the New Brunswick Legislature the Provincial Federation of Labor succeeded in securing legislation providing for an addition to the Health Act which will hereafter ensure a strict examination of plumbers and the registration of bakeries, factories, mining and lumber camps. The workmen's compensation for injuries act was amended to provide for vocational education and an act to provide for the examination of chauffeurs was also passed.

Machinists report business as being very brisk on the C.N.R. at Quebec. There has been a big demand for locomotives and some 30 extra locomotives have been put on this division since the beginning of the year. There has been an excessive amount of overtime in the shops, in fact so much so that the union had to register a big kick and the evil was remedied to a considerable extent.

It is said that the Ross Rifle factory in Quebec is to be put into full commission again at an early date. A new two million dollar company has been formed to be known as the North American Arms Company for the manufacture of automatic revolvers for the United States Government. It is said that ultimately between 2,500 and 3,000 hands will be employed.

Kingston iron molders have now established a minimum wage of $3.40 per day, the former rate earlier in the year having been $4.05.

"Speed Up" is the Password ALL ALONG THE LINE

The Nation Needs the Goods. In These Days of Stress it is the Duty of Everyone to do the Work of Two in One Way or Another. To do This You Must Consider Your Transportation Problems. In Olden Days When Time was not so Valuable the Ox Cart was Used. In Modern Days You Have to Speed Up.

HERE IS A COMPARISON OF COST IN MODERN TRANSPORTATION.

Walking---

with Shoes at $12.00 to $14.00 per pair, a person walking ONLY six miles per day for 300 days will wear out, at least, three pairs of shoes. Figuring at $12.00 per pair ... $36.00

And how can you speed up on Walking? Besides, six miles is not going very far. Total mileage 1,800.

The Horse---

Any old plug would cost $150.00, and another $100.00 for outfit, and it will take $5.00 per week to feed him, and for 300 days it would keep him going to average 15 miles daily. Besides the trouble of housing, feeding, cleaning, repairs on vehicle and harness: Cost of Horse and outfit ... $250.00 Interest at 6 per cent ... $15.00 Feed and care per week $5.00 ... 260.00

Cost of riding 15 miles daily for 300 days ... $275.00 Allowing horse and rig to stand at purchase price

Street Cars---

Riding four times daily, using two regular tickets and two workingman's tickets; limited tickets cost per year ... $39.60

Remember this is only for your regular daily trips, allowing nothing for extra trips.

A "Cleveland" Bicycle.

The Standard by Which All Other Makes Are Judged

Original Cost $50.00

Interest at 6 per cent ... $3.00

A Cleveland Bicycle is good for 10 years, on an average cost of upkeep of $5.00 per year ... $50.00

The average rider will ride 3,000 miles per year on a cost of ... $5.00

It's up to You to Decide on Your Mode of Transportation

Father, to save time and car fare; Mother, to enjoy herself; Brother, to get to school on time, and run messages for mother, and become aggressive; Sister, for the sake of good health, pleasure, and to save time.

Dyspepsia

50c Tablets per Box

WILL CURE YOU

Dyspepsia is an advanced stage of indigestion, arising from the stomach refusing to perform its normal functions. Digestion consists in the changing of foods from an insoluble form, so that they may pass through the walls of the alimentary canal and become part of the blood. The stomach keeps the food in almost constant motion for a considerable time to accomplish this purpose, and should this organ not be kept in good condition, indigestion results, to be followed in due course, if not relieved, by dyspepsia. You can keep the stomach performing its functions, and even relieve and cure dyspepsia if you get a Box at 50c from
