man Burhill, proceeded to the park in a hack and brought the body to the morgue. When picked up there was tied tightly about the child's neck a piece of brown ribbon such as is used for lining women's dresses. That the child was choked to death by this means is generally believed.

The matter will be dealt with by Coroner Walker, who has Detective Ring investigating the same. A post mortem examination will probably be held today.—Sun, Monday.

Weak and Nervous.

THE CONDITION OF A YOUNG LADY OF WELLAND.

Subject to Frequent Headaches, was Pale and Emaciated and Grew so Ill She Could Barely Walk.

From the Tribune Welland, Ont. Miss Hattie Archer, of Welland, an estimable young lady, whose acquaintance extends among a large number of citizens of the town, has the following to say regarding the virtues of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People:—In the fall of 1897 I was taken very ill. I was nervous, weak and debilitated. At this time the least exertion caused great fatigue. My appetite was poor and I was attacked with frequent sick headaches.

I gradually grew worse until I was so weak I could barely walk through the house. I was very pale and emaciated and finally became entirely insipidated. Various medicines were resorted to but gave no relief. Later I was treated by one of the best physicians of the town. One said my blood was poor and watery. I followed his advice for some time but did not improve. Then the second doctor was called and said he could help me, but after thoroughly testing his medicines without benefit, I gave it up and despaired of ever getting well. My grandmother had been reading at that time much about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and persuaded me to try them. That was about January, 1898. From the first the results were really marvelous, being far beyond my hopes. After taking five boxes I can stand more fatigue than I could for two years. I have gained weight splendidly, can take my food with a delightful relish, and again feel cheerful, healthy and strong. I would advise every girl who is thin, pale and suffering from any of the above symptoms to get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. I hope that my testimony will prove beneficial to other girls similarly afflicted.

The experience of years has proved that there is absolutely no disease due to a vitiated condition of the blood or shattered nerves, that Dr. Williams' Pink Pills will not promptly cure, and those who are suffering from such troubles would avoid much misery and save money by promptly resorting to this treatment. Get the genuine Pink Pills every time and do not be persuaded to take an imitation or some other remedy from a dealer, who for the sake of extra profit to himself, may say "just as good." Dr. Williams' Pink Pills cure when other medicines fail.

Ten New and Original Songs Which Can Be Had Free.

What will the great metropolitan papers do next? This is the question some one asks nearly every day. But there is one which leads all others. It has gained the sobriquet of "America's Greatest Newspaper" by just such remarkable pieces of enterprise as the one which has just now attracted the attention of the press all over the country. Last week the New York Sunday World announced that it would give away an album of ten of the up-to-date class of songs that are now so popular, such as songs of sentiment, "coon" songs, "cakewalks," &c. These ten songs the Sunday World proposes to distribute one each week, with every copy of the Sunday World. When it is considered that the average price of new music, written and composed by popular authors, is from 20 to 40 cents, the unparalleled enterprise of the World in giving the song away with a big Sunday newspaper, for which only 5 cents is charged, is apparent. The World requests that we publish the following announcement:

Murder Most Foul.

The dead body of a male infant found in the woods at Rockwood park, Saturday afternoon, now lies at the dead house. Those who discovered the body examined the place where it was picked up, and are convinced that the child was strangled shortly after it came into the world. There is convincing evidence, too, that the child was born close to the place where it was found. The ghostly find was made by Mr. Bridgen of Toronto, who is visiting friends here. He at once notified the caretaker of the park, who telephoned in to Coroner Berryman, having failed the latter was informed to get Coroner Walker by telephone. Coroner Berryman, accompanied by Police-

HOW THE QUESTION CAME HOME.

"They are such tiny feet; They have gone such a little way to meet The years which are required to break Their steps to evenness and make Them go More sure and slow.

"They are such new, young lives Surely their newness thrives Then well of many sins. They see so much That, being immortal, they would touch, That if they reach We should not chide, but teach.

"God help us then to-day To tenderly, lovingly clear the way That they must tread, From needless anures that heartless greed would spread, And dangerous lures to deadly sin, Till they grow strong to strive and win."

In the dusk of a summer evening I looked my child to rest; Then sat and mused, with my darling Still folded to my breast.

His ringlets swept my shoulder, His breath was on my cheek, And I kissed his dimpled fingers, With a love I could not speak.

A form came through the gateway, And up the garden walk— And my neighbor sat down as often To have an evening talk.

She saw me across my baby With almost repentant touch, And she shook her grey head gravely: "You love that boy too much!"

"That cannot be," I answered. "While I love our Father more; He smiles on a mother's rapture Over the baby that she bore."

For a while we both sat silent, In the twilight's deeper gray; Then she said "I believe that baby Grows lovelier every day."

"And I suppose that the reason I feel so drawn to him, Is because he reminds me strangely Of my own little baby, Jim."

My heart stood still a moment With a horror I dared not show, While the trembling voice beside me Went on, in accents low:

"Just the same high, white forehead, And rings of shining hair, And smile of artless mischief I have seen my Jamie wear.

"And I've sometimes thought—well, Mary, The feeling perhaps you guess— That my trouble would not be lighter Had I loved my baby less."

My neighbor rose abruptly, And left me in the gloom, But the sob of a broken spirit Was echoing in the room.

And when the lamp was lighted, I knelt by my baby's bed; And wept o'er the noble forehead And the ringlet crowned head.

For I thought of the blessed visage, And the matted hair of him Whom all the village children Knew only as "Drunken Jim."

And my heart cried out, "O Father, Spare me that bitter cup! And destroy the liquor-traffic Before my boy grows up."

Temperance Cause.
A PITYFUL STORY.

While the police come daily in contact with poverty and crime, they seldom have to do with a more pitiable case than that of John J. Murphy, a boiler maker, who resides at 104 Farm street, Point St. Charles.

It will be remembered that Mrs. Murphy was arrested a short time ago, her infant child having been smothered while she was under the influence of liquor. As there was no proof of criminal intent, she was discharged. Another child died some years ago. The present family consists of five children, the two oldest being twins, eight years of age. Mr. Murphy is a good workman, capable of earning three dollars a day at his trade, and should have a comfortable home.

Since the recent sad death of their child both parents are said to have been continually drunk, and have failed to provide necessities for the children. The neighbors allege that Mrs. Murphy is the worst of the two, and when her husband tries to stop drinking, as he recently did, she torments him and drives him to drink again, gloating over her success in that direction. Certain it is that the poor fellow has expressed his shame at the condition of affairs, and his desire to do better at the same time professing inability to reform under such trying circumstances.

Mr. Marshall of the S. P. W. C. applied both at the Police and Recorder's courts for a warrant for Mrs. Murphy's arrest on the ground that she was not a proper person to care for her children and failed to provide food and clothing

THE NEW PIANO.

SUNIE MAE.

"We must have a new piano," Said the daughter dear, one day; "This organ is old-fashioned. We'll have it moved away." So they bought a new piano; And the change was quickly made; But the mother's face was thoughtful, And to herself she said:

"Good bye to you, old organ, You are very dear to me, For faces that have vanished About you, now I see, And voices that are silent Come to my ears once more, And in fancy I hear her singing 'Sweetly as in days of yore.'"

"What a friend we have in Jesus," Sang the childish voice so clear, As she stood beside the organ, With brother and sister dear. She's singing now in heaven, But loving memories cling About the dear old organ, Where my darling used to sing.

"Yes, darling little daughter, You've found that friend above, And I know you're safely resting In the Savior's arms of love. The piano, grand, is handsome! But fondest memories cling About the dear old organ, Where Bertha used to sing."
—Franklin Falls, N. H.

A Flea.

'Twas the same old story that is every- where, Yet I heard it again wit a throb of pain, And after the footsteps were hushed on the stair, And outside were the winter wind and rain, My thoughts went back in the quiet hour, To that sunny head, now bowed in shame, God could save the soul by His cleansing power, But it never can be the same.

And came the thought, like a dagger thrust, How the shadow had darkened another path, Till honor and truth were dragged in the dust, And a sinful life and a shameful death, A soul that out into eternity fled, Without a hope and without a prayer, And the scorn and contempt of the voiceless dead, With the sunlight glistening her shining hair.

O! you who have hold of the children's love, And the priceless gift of the children's love, Do you know of the evil throughout the land, That calls for vengeance to God above? Now if the that comes to you spot- less, wh Should walk in the path that these have trod, Could you say that you guarded, and led them aright, When you come to stand at the bar of God?

You mistake when you give the one your care, And think the other is safe from blight And sing with a pathos that seems a prayer, "O where is my wandering boy to-night?" And the girl, God help her! you let her drift Till all too soon the bolt has sped, And the ray of sunlight the dark clouds sift.

And the serpent lies waiting with fangs outspread, Both souls are precious alike in God's sight, Both shall stand before Him on the Judgement Day, God give you strength to guide them aright, And lead them both in the narrow way.

ST. JOHN LETTER.

A good many people in the city remember Mr. and Mrs. Jack Van Shaick who were residents here for a considerable period four or five years ago. Mr. Van Shaick is a son of millionaire Van Shaick of Chicago. They separated about two years ago and Mrs. Van Shaick brought an action against the elder Van Shaick for alienating her husband's affections and got a verdict against him for $50,000, but compromised for a settlement of $15,000 on her infant son. Later the elder Mrs. Van Shaick died, leaving $50,000 to "Jack" on condition that he kept away from his wife. Mrs. "Jack" went on the stage and last Friday she and "Jack" met by accident in New York. They adjusted their differences in about five minutes, and the $50,000 left to Jack by his mother goes to her other heirs. When here Mrs. Van Shaick arranged a good deal of business for her "style" and vivacity and Jack was known as a thoroughly good fellow.

George S. deForest and Sons have just received word from India that their order for 100 half chests of Indian tea has been executed, and that they may be expected in St. John during the next two months. This is probably the largest purchase of Indian tea ever made in the maritime provinces. They also have three car loads of China tea, including and to transit and 500 packages of Ceylon tea ordered forward. This with their present supplies make no doubt the largest stock in the maritime provinces. Their sales of Union Blend are increasing rapidly and their four travellers are busy looking after the firm's interest among the retailers, most of whom in the three provinces are among their customers. The market was very steady, prices are generally unchanged; business is good and collections are improving. Small lots of Nova Scotia apples are arriving; red varieties are quoted at $1.25 to $1.75 per barrel. The market is over stocked with eggs and prices has dropped to 13 cents. Choice butter is in limited supply and arrivals are quickly taken up at 14 cents.

Rev. W. W. Brewster, formerly pastor of one of the Methodist churches in this city and well known all over the maritime provinces had been suspended for drunkenness. Matthew Garnett went into the North End post office last Wednesday and asked the young lady in attendance for change for a $10 bill. When she had counted out the money, he threw a handful of dust in her eyes, grabbed the cash and made off. In two hours he was behind the bars.

Robert Courtney, surveyor, was treated to an involuntary bath in the harbor last Thursday. He was tired when he was fished out but kept on with his business just as if nothing had happened.

A man who was arrested for debt on Charlotte street last Thursday was a tough customer, but he "got there" in the end. A large quantity of furniture was stolen from a Bay Shore cottage a few days ago while the occupants were temporarily absent. It was carried off on wagons.

By the falling of a staging at the L. C. R. elevator last Friday afternoon, Herbert Harris, formerly of Truro, was instantly killed and John McEscherson is thought to have been fatally injured.

Diamond Dyes
 Far Ahead of All Others.

Practical Experience Has Demonstrated That They Are the Easiest to Use.

It is the easiest matter in the world to dye with Diamond Dyes, as thousands of women know from practical experience. By using these simple home dyes one can make old clothing look like new and save a great many dollars in the course of a year.

Do not accept imitations of the original Diamond Dyes from any dealer, no matter how strongly he may recommend them, for while he makes a larger profit on them they do not dye as much goods, nor do they equal the Diamond Dyes in fastness of color.

When poor dyes are used, both your money and labor are thrown away and the goods spoiled forever. Use the Diamond Dyes only and get the best possible results. All reliable dealers can supply you with the Diamond Dyes.

Paine's Celery Compound Has Given Them New Health and Long Years of Life.

THOUSANDS MADE WELL DURING THE SUMMER MONTHS.

How to Be Strong and Happy in the Autumn Season.
 Happy indeed are the men and women who, during the summer months, have taken advantage of the disease-banishing and life-giving virtues of Paine's Celery Compound. Dizziness, sickness and wasting diseases have been overcome and banished, and they enter the autumn months full of life and vigor, with long and happy years before them.

If you are unfortunately numbered with those who are tired, worn out, nervous, dyspeptic, rheumatic, neuralgic, or your life made miserable by kidney disease, liver trouble or blood diseases, and have met with sad failures in the past under medical treatment and the use of various medicines, we would impress upon you the wisdom of trying Paine's Celery Compound, a medicine that cannot fail or disappoint you. It is the only remedy in the world that has the full and hearty approval of educated men and women—a remedy that has received the complete endorsement of the best physicians.

Fell to His Death.
 A terrible accident occurred this afternoon shortly after two o'clock on the new C. O. R. elevator.

Two men fell from the top of the building, a distance of more than fifty feet, and one was instantly killed, having his brain dashed out on the solid flooring of the impassable structure.

Four men, it seems, who were working on the inside of the elevator near the top undertook to raise their staging, a light structure. They were holding it in position with their hands, preparatory to making it secure, when some lumber fell from above and, striking on the staging, knocked it from their grasp. The blow, which was at one end of the staging, caused the two men at that end to lose their footing and they fell headlong down through a narrow opening not more than four feet wide, and intersected by a heavy beam.

The man who was killed struck on the top of his head on the heavy flooring timbers. He was a bright looking fellow. His brains were scattered all over the flooring and the blood spurting, staining the wood work and flowing in a stream down on the underpinning. Apparently he was not injured about the body. After some time had elapsed he was identified as Herbert Harris, aged 37, hailing from Truro, N. S. He and his wife boarded at 97 Eglon street. His body was taken to Mr. Chamberlain's undertaking premises.

Harris's companion was John McEscherson, a Chipman, Queens county, youth, a son of Mr. Donald McEscherson, blacksmith. He escaped without external injury, but at 3 o'clock the doctors were unable to say whether or not he had been injured internally. McEscherson told the Globe that he was feeling fine, that he did not know just what had happened. Dr. D. E. Berryman had him sent to his home in Cousan's boarding house, Mill street, in the ambulance, and enjoining on him the necessity of keeping perfectly quiet until a critical examination could be made. It is presumed that he struck against the cross-beam, while falling and that his fall was broken thereby.

The Keeping Up of Quality.
 The Keeping Down of Price.

This is our one and only business aim and more the advantage of trading with a firm which says what it means, and proves what it says. When we offer goods lower than others, the goods never suffer in quality, but it is because we are willing to sacrifice a little cash for the sake of our company, on that we can afford to make the reduction on account of some special purchase on our part.

ed on him the necessity of keeping perfectly quiet until a critical examination could be made. It is presumed that he struck against the cross-beam, while falling and that his fall was broken thereby.

The two men who worked at the opposite end of the staging were Messrs. Alex. Dupuis and Walter Downing. Their story of the accident is substantially that given above.

The staging in its fall struck against the cross-beam and lodged about twenty feet from the floor.

This terrible disaster is the first that has occurred in the building of the elevator and it seems to have completely unperked the workmen. Engineer Jamieson feels very badly over the accident, and did all in his power to make comfortable the injured man.

Dr. Broderick and G. A. B. Addy were on hand soon after the dreadful occurrence, but their services were not needed.—Globe.

Few Men Original.
 Did you ever notice how few people are original in things they say and do? For instance, one man makes a fortune out of a simple thing; immediately hundreds of others try it. This is human nature. While it is gratifying to be the "first man" to bring out an idea, the great man must be content to follow their leaders. There is one line that is always original, however, and that is the business of Bradley-Garratt Co., Limited, of Bradford, Ont., because they continually bring out publications, to suit the times and seasons, that their agents as kept steadily at it to make big money.

In fact, no other occupation is more honorable, healthful, lucrative, or offers half so many opportunities for promotion. It is a life school. Many men and women in Canada to-day, testify to the truthfulness of his claim, in fact, it is conceded on all hands, that one year's experience with this firm is worth more to any young man or woman than two or three years at College, from an educational point of view, and financially, it is all that can be desired.

CHICAGO'S GREAT FIRE.

October 9 was the twenty-sixth anniversary of the great Chicago fire of 1871. The Times Herald of that city makes the following interesting comparisons: The famous London fire, which ended the great plague, and the destruction of Rome by Nero are said to have cost lives have never been obtained. These are the estimates: Lives lost in Chicago fire, 200; Bodies recovered in Chicago fire, 100; Lives lost in London fire, 10,000; London bridge fire, 1831, 3,000; San Francisco fire, May 2, 1849, 50; Brooklyn Theatre fire, December 2, 1876, 200.

The property loss compared with the property lost at other famous fires, was: Chicago fire, $100,000,000; London fire, $10,000,000; New York, December 18, 1835, 20,000,000; Pittsburgh April 24, 1845, 5,000,000; Albany, September 9, 1842, 10,000,000; Boston, September 2, 1872, 10,000,000.

The Chicago fire began October 9 about 9:30 o'clock in the evening in the barn of Mrs. O'Leary, 137 De Koven street. A freestone cow is supposed to have knocked over a lighted lamp. The fire spread rapidly and in a few minutes it had proceeded by a fire the night of October 1, which burned fourteen hours, with a property loss of $274,141. Some fires raged October 8. The weather was windy and southwest and west winds prevailed.

The duration of the Chicago fire was much shorter, but the damage done was much greater. It burned for twenty-four hours, and destroyed property to the value of $100,000,000. The Boston fire lasted a day and a half, while that of Chicago lasted twenty-eight hours.

The insurance on the burned Chicago property was $90,000,000, and the loss to the insurance companies was $100,000,000. Nearly 100 were driven out of existence by their losses. The fire also destroyed the lives of 200 people.

AN ADDRESS TO THE CLERGY.

Many a poet has sung ere now Of the song he hoped to sing, But never has quite found the music right. There was that of the adoring priests, Forever lovely and strong and sweet, But was there just lack of a tongue; But was his heart like the joyous bird, Its heart on the breeze had flung.

Now when the preacher as the others sing, We know how it is unobscured, We have serious gales, a fearful storm, Lashed up on the windy shelves; But where is the sermon we vain would preach.

But it will not come, it will not come, The sermon we vain would preach, It is evermore just as before, If it isn't way out of sight; For the heart of the pulpit is left to the will of the laborer to insure or not as he pleases; in St. Gall each must insure.

Failure of a Picturesque Industrial Scheme. Switzerland has attached the problem of socialism, and the provision for the laboring man in an extremely novel manner; namely, in a scheme of state industrial insurance, mention of which has already been made.

Why should a person make himself a nuisance? What gain is there in grinning, and sourness, and unobediability? For people care to listen to whining and complaint. On the whole, the world uses us as well as we deserve.

Mrs. James O'Leary of Newcastle is sojourning at her mother's Mrs. Gormley, for the purpose of recuperating her health, which has been shaken by an attack of fever.

A singular specimen of the Genus tramp, has been skulking in the woods along the Cove Road. Upon different occasions he entered Samuel Drost's house and demanded food. Not satisfied with this he made several threats against Mrs. Drost. A party of men scoured the woods for him, but have not captured him yet. On account of his deprecations Mrs. Drost has gotten out a warrant for his arrest.

Parties are the order of the day. A short time since, a large party of young people gathered at Wm. Watson's. Dancing was the order of the night. It was kept up till old sol put in his appearance. Mr. Francis McNeil was in charge of the floor and it is needless to say he performed his duties in a praiseworthy manner.

While Mr. Patrick Farrar was working in his field, lately, he was bitten on the cheek by a hornet, as he supposed, but the swollen condition of his face convinced him that it was serious. Dr. H. B. Hay, of Chipman, pronounced it a bite from a "Kissing Bug" and considers the condition of his patient serious.

The Upper Salmon Creek Baptist church was the scene of a very fashionable wedding on Wednesday last. James Brown and Maude Higgins were joined for wed or woe. The church was tastefully decorated for the event and reflected great credit on Miss Baird who also presided at the organ. After the indissoluble knot was tied the happy party with a large party of guests repaired to Mr. Higgins where a most bountiful repast was served, which speedily disappeared before the disciples of Epicurus.

The young bride was the recipient of many valuable and useful presents. The presents and donors are as follows:

gold bracelets, Bridgroom; silver cracker jar, rock book and silver crumb tray, Mrs. Bateman; silver butter dish, silver dessert spoon and silver butter and pie knife, Mrs. Elliott; gold berry spoon, Dr. Bateman and wife; fan, Lizzie McIntyre; cut glass set, Mr. and Mrs. Dixon; lamp and pitcher, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kadey; chips set, Larkin Langin; green glass set, Fred and Flossie Fowler; Handsome teapot, Nellie Porter; 4 doz. tumblers, Alice Porter; glass pitcher, Frances Porter; 4 doz. tumblers, Wm. FREDERICTON, N. B.

Sept. 2nd 1899.

To EDITOR QUEENS COUNTY GAZETTE.

Dear Sir: I would like to say a word, through the columns of your paper, concerning the United Teachers' Institute for the Counties of Queens, Sunbury and York.

The joint committee for the Institutes of these counties decided that the Institute should take place in Fredericton in the Assembly Hall of the High School Building on Thursday and Friday, the 8th and 9th of October next, and a program has been prepared and will be forwarded in a few days to all those engaged in the work of teaching in these Counties. This program has been prepared with particular reference to the work which is being done in our ungraded schools, and it is the hope of the committee that the large majority of the teachers will avail themselves of this opportunity of listening to carefully prepared papers on subjects of interest to every teacher and thoughtful discussions thereon.

Arrangements are being made for free return fare by the different steamboat lines and members of the Institute are allowed one day for travelling—at least those who require it. The Committee hope that you may consider the program worthy of publication in a later issue.

Very sincerely yours,
H. V. B. BARDEAU,
President.

Sept. 2.—The Presbyterians of Headline held their annual picnic at No. 4 Orange Hall, on Wednesday afternoon last, the picnic was fairly well attended. The proceeds amounted to about $145. Good music was furnished by several violinists and very enjoyable afternoon was spent in dancing and other amusements. About dusk some little trouble arose, and a number of blows were exchanged and ended in what might be termed a rough and tumble fight. A Petersville J. P., one of the leaders in the affray, besides being somewhat disfigured is also mourning over the loss of his best coat.

Rev. N. C. Hansen spent part of Thursday and Friday calling on his friends in this community before leaving for Montreal. All wish Mr. Hansen success in his present undertaking.

Rev. A. J. Campbell, a former Methodist minister on this circuit, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kerr.

Mrs. G. T. Corbett returned to her home in St. John last week.

Mr. John Galey and daughter, Miss Ida, have returned to Portland, Me. Miss Mable Corbett, of St. John, was visiting friends here last week.

Aug. 30.—The farmers of this place are about all done haying and some have their oats all cut and the sound of the threshing machine is heard now in place of the mowing machine.

We are in need of rain as the pasture is all drying up and the drought has about ruined the late potatoes and in consequence a light crop is expected.

Mr. John D. McLean is home on a visit to his friends and all are glad to see his smiling face once more.

Miss Janet MacDonald spent Saturday and Sunday with friends at this place.

Mr. Melbourne Reese and Miss Mary Reese spent Sunday with friends at Cole's Island on the 29th.

Mr. Becher McLean is visiting his brother Loch, who is lying very low with consumption.

Miss Mary Reese, who has been home on a vacation, returned to the city on Monday.

This place is expecting to have a new Pastor soon in the person of D. F. Miller.

On Saturday last a blueberry party was held at this settlement headed to the dizzy top of Lily Hill.

The woman who is lovely in face, form and temper will always have friends, but one who would be attractive must keep her health. If she is weak, sickly and all run down, she will be nervous and irritable. If she has constipation or liver trouble, her impure blood will cause pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. Electric Bitters is the best medicine in the world to regulate stomach, liver and kidneys and to purify the blood. It gives strong nerves, bright eyes, smooth, velvety skin, rich complexion. It will make a good-looking, charming woman of a run-down invalid. Only 50 cents at any Drug Store.
