Notes

The Pastor is attending the Association at Aylesford.

Remember the Conference Meeting on Friday Evening.

The Committee for location of delegates during the Convention have begun work. We are sure they will be able to report on Wednesday evening of this week a most cheerful response on the part of the church and congregation. We would like to have delegates in all our homes. They will bring us a blessing. The Convention will leave us a great deal more than we give to it. Many who could not attend one of our great assemblies have this one brought to their homes. Each will have the privilege of choosing from the list of delegates their friends. If you expect to be away on your vacation, you will still have the pleasure of entertaining by locating your delegates at some hotel. We look forward with pleasure to the Convention, and expect it will be a great blessing to our churches and the city. Let us pray to that end.

The repairs on our church building now in operation compel us to worship in the Vestry to-day. The work will be vigorously prosecuted, and we hope to be back again in the renovated auditorium in a few weeks. There is no reason why we should not have a grand time in the Vestry, where the power of God has so frequently been manifested in the conversion of sinners. Pack the Vestry at every Service.

The Convention Fund offering will need to be very much increased if we make up our allotment this year. The books close July 31st, and the time is short. Our maxim is "a contribution from every member of our church and congregation for our Denominational work." When you give to the "Convention Fund" you give to our Denominational work.

The preacher last Sunday morning told us that the biggest sin of to-day in the church of Christ is the sin of indifference. We must answer for this sin at the Judgment throne.

Applications for Sittings should be made to Deacon Jas. McPherson. The seats are assigned, not rented. Each holder of a sitting is expected to be a contributor.

THIS CHURCH IS SUPPORTED by the voluntary contributions of the people, that is to say, every member of this church is covenanted voluntarily to subscribe towards the expenses of the church whatever sum it is in their power to give, and shall so inform the Financial Secretary, and from him receive envelopes for that purpose. All bills or accounts are to be sent to A. E. Soullis, 119 Robie St. All monies contributed, donated or raised by and for the church, are to be handed to N. L. McDonald, Fin. Sec'y.

CONVENTION FUND offering the second Sunday of each month. W. M. A. S. OFFERING the third Sunday of each quarter beginning with August.

Families having cases of sickness or distress will please send word at once to the pastor, or one of the Deacons. You are urged to use the information cards in purs. If you are not a regular member of some other city congregation, you are cordially invited to come with us and find a permanent home.
