London Daily Express Claims That a Message Has Been Received Addressed to the Prime Minister Couched in an Exceedingly Humble Strain.

Rejoicings End in Riot in London and in Aberdeen Where a "Stop the War" Meeting Was Being Held—Queen Expresses Her Thankfulness Over Mafeking's Relief in Court Circular.

London, May 21.—(8.10 a.m.)—Displayed in the most conspicuous style in The Daily Express is the dominant war news of the morning: "We have the best reason for saying that in the last twenty-four hours a telegram has been received at the Foreign Office, addressed personally to the Prime Minister, from President Kruger proposing terms of peace."

The exact terms of the message cannot be stated, but we believe it is couched in an exceedingly humble strain. "It is inconceivable, of course, that King Salisbury can have sent any reply except the one that stands ready on the lips of every Briton." UNCONDITIONAL SURRENDER.

Rejoicings Run to Riot. The boisterous rejoicings over the news from Mafeking have become riots in parts of London, Aberdeen and Belfast, and elsewhere in the United Kingdom. In the Hackney district of suburban London, a woman closed a station master's house and smashed the windows of a draper's shop, setting the building on fire, although by accident or design, it is not yet known. Two clerks were injured.

Numerous Arrests. A sympathizer at Hartwood was attacked by a large crowd and the windows were shattered. The police charged the mob and were greeted with a shower of decayed eggs. Numerous arrests were made and the police reserves were called out.

Meeting in Aberdeen. Rioting took place in Aberdeen from 7 to 10 o'clock Saturday evening around a hall where a "Stop the War" meeting was being addressed by Mr. Crowther Schreiner, husband of Olive Schreiner.

A crowd of students and others tried to storm the hall and to break the windows of the hall. The police were unable to cope with the disturbance, and sent for the mounted police, who made some headway with the crowd, but free fights occurred between the supporters of the meeting and the police, and the Royal Arsenal was set on fire by a mob of students and others.

At Belfast the business establishment of Mr. J. Brown, a member of the Local Chamber of Commerce, was wrecked by a mob. The police were unable to cope with the disturbance and the local artillery and volunteers were called out. As the rioting continued the Royal Artillery was called upon to suppress the mob. The windows of buildings adjoining Mr. Brown's were smashed. Numerous arrests were made.

Must Be Unconditional. It now appears that the De Wet who offered to surrender with 1000 men was the well-known Gen. De Wet, but Commander De Wet. He stipulated that his men should be allowed to return to their farms.

ROBERTS HAS YET NO NEWS

But Renter States That the Relief of Mafeking Has Been Elected. London, May 20.—(11.55 p.m.)—The following is the text of Lord Roberts' despatch: "Kroonstadt, May 20.—(13 p.m.)—No official information has yet been received from the Boers that the relief of Mafeking has been effected. "Rumors reports having occupied Broers' Kraaihoek and Grootfontein, and the enemy falling back on Senekal and Pekaarsburg. "Early ruses and 2000 rounds were surrendered by the Free Staters to a battalion of Yeomanry working along the telegraph line from Beaufort West to the north. "A field concert and 96 burghers surrendered at Boshof yesterday. "While at Kroonstadt, Mafeking secured 250 rifles and between 50,000 and 500,000 rounds."

When the storm of cheers ceased for a moment, the colonel's mother briefly addressed the crowd, expressing her heartfelt thanks to the demonstrators.

Cape Town Rejoices.

Cape Town, May 19.—All the British residents here are rejoicing over the relief of Mafeking. The Boers' meeting ground, Cape Colony, which had been called by Mr. Harcourt, a member of the Afrikaner Bond, was stopped and rioting followed.

HOW THE QUEEN SEES IT.

Expresses Her Thankfulness for the News of the Relief of Mafeking. London, May 20.—Last night's court circular contains the following: "The Queen received on Friday night with the greatest gratification and thankfulness the news of the relief of Mafeking, after a heroic defence of over seven months by Col. Baden-Powell and troops under his command. "The significance of this, which refers to the receipt by Her Majesty of a copy of the Associated Press' special despatch, that it is the first official intimation of the relief of Mafeking, and it would not have been had any doubts existed in the public mind as to the correctness of the news."

LORD ROBERTS' SOLE AIM NOW

IS TO BRING THE WAR TO AN END

Since the Relief of Mafeking He Has Been Relieved of all Embarrassment—It Does Not Matter Where the Boers Stand, an Expert Says.

London, May 20.—Mr. Spencer Wilkinson, in reviewing the situation in South Africa for the Associated Press, at midnight, says: "The relief of Mafeking relieved Lord Roberts of an embarrassment. It was probably necessary for him to move north from Bloemfontein a little before he was ordered to bring the war to an end. He should have been in the mountains into the Transvaal without sending a guard at Laing's Neck, with his leading infantry division at Ingoogo, a day's march in the rear. "Gen. Buller's advance to Laing's Neck was important. It shows that the Boers are demoralized, and possibly means that Gen. Buller will get through the mountains into the Transvaal without serious opposition, in which case no resistance can be made to him before he reaches Heidelberg or Middleburg."
