Sir Richard Cartwright Among New Privy Counsellors—List Otherwise Uninteresting.

London, Nov. 9.—With the exception of some possibly significant decorations to Portuguese and Japanese officials, the long list of His Majesty's birthday honors is comparatively uninteresting. Some promotions in connection with the coronation ceremonies and the South African war, and because of services rendered to commerce and in parliament, are announced. No new peerages have been created.

Sir Richard Cartwright, Canadian Minister of Commerce; Lord Revelstoke, chairman of the recent commission on London docks, and the late Lord Mayor of London, Sir Joseph C. Dimsdale, are among the new privy counsellors.

The new baronets include Alexander H. Brown, M.P., and Augustus Frayser, Governor of the Bank of England.

Among other honors recorded in the list is the conferring upon the Japanese Prince Arisakawa, a coronation viscount of the decoration of Knight Commander of the Order of the Star and Companion of the Bath.

Sir James L. Mackay and Count Matsuyama, ex-Premier of Japan, are made Knights of the Grand Cross of St. Michael and St. George.

Col. Machado and Captain Ferreira, of the Portuguese navy, who have both filled the post of Governor of Mozambique, and Viscount Castro, Governor of the Mozambique Company, are made Knights, Commander of St. Michael and St. George.

Gen. Gorring, present Governor of Mozambique, is made a Knight Commander of the Bath.

Rear Admiral Lambton, R.N., is appointed Extra Equerry to His Majesty.

DR. PARKIN IN LONDON.

Pleased With the Way Colleges Are Treating Rhodes Request.

London, Nov. 9.—Dr. Parkin, visiting at Oxford, says he has been greatly interested in the way all the colleges discuss the best plans of working the Rhodes students into the university systems. All the replies to his inquiries he has received up to the present are very favorable. The request for the first year will elect seventy to seventy-five students and a similar number in the second year.

In the third year there will be about thirty. Each college is prepared to take from two to five scholars every year. Oxford University has twenty colleges. There are from eighty to two hundred undergraduates in each college.

They are about changing 47 miles of the Northeastern, near Newcastle, from steam to electric power, and are looking for hints on this side of the Atlantic. Mr. Watson says that the Lancashire and Yorkshire will also make a change in the congested districts near Manchester and adjoining lines.

KING AT DIVINE SERVICE.

Taking the Kaiser's Arm, He Entered the Church at Sandringham.

Sandringham, Nov. 9.—The weather here to-day was perfect, and the bright sunshine brought out crowds of visitors to Sandringham on the chance of seeing Emperor William and King Edward on the first anniversary of his birthday.

The approaches to the church were lined with spectators. Queen Alexandra, the Prince of Wales and Mrs. Chamberlain arrived at the place of worship together. Half an hour later, King Edward, Emperor William, Prime Minister Balfour, Colonel Curzon, and other distinguished persons arrived and stood chatting outside the church.

King Edward, dressed with Mr. Chamberlain for a few minutes, then the Emperor of Germany approached the altar. The Kaiser, dressed in a military uniform, and the Emperor and King Edward, dressed in their respective uniforms, entered the church, the King taking the Emperor's arm.

The Bishop of Ripon preached on the possibility of the disappearance of free institutions, and the attaining of the grand brotherhood of man. He referred to King Edward's recovery from his illness, and to the visit of his kinsman monarch and to the ties which have long united Germany and Great Britain, and to the ocean, a race which has grown on the other side of the Atlantic, where German and English men are working together for the benefit of the world.

After dinner at the Palace the Austrian violinist.

Sir Henry Irving and Arthur Bourchier have been commanded to act before King Edward and Emperor William at Sandringham, and to present a one-act play.

LOST BOTH LEGS.

London Young Man Fell Off a Moving Train.

London, Nov. 9.—David McKenna, aged 22 years, whose parents live at No. 518 Central-avenue, was the victim of a most shocking accident near here this morning. While standing on a Grand Trunk train from Pontiac, Mich., to this city, he fell to the track, and was run over by the train. His legs were so badly mangled that it was found necessary to amputate them both. His arm and face were badly bruised, and it is feared he was also injured internally. He was removed to Victoria Hospital, where he now lies in a critical condition. His parents are well-to-do people, and why he should have chosen this means of reaching home is not known.

The new bank will cater especially to the patronage of women. The capitalists interested in the New York enterprise desire to have the concern officered exclusively by women.

ODD BATTLE WITH DOUKHOBORS AT MINNEDOSA

FANATICS HUGGED ONE ANOTHER TO FORM HUMAN CHAIN

POLICE AND CITIZENS TUMBLED THEM INTO CARS

Pedley Corralled Them in Skating Rink—Journey to Train, 100 Yards, Most Remarkable in Canada's History—Took Five Policemen to Move Each Douk—Casualties Numerous But Not Serious.

Minnedosa, Man., Nov. 9.—Another chapter in the history of the Doukhobors' pilgrimage to convert the world has closed, but with the end, "to be continued." On the arrival of the Doukhobor army here they were met by Mr. Pedley and Mr. Speers, who led them to the skating rink.

They formed outside and sang a psalm then were led in prayer by one of their number, who addressed the citizens, asking them to do something for Jesus by helping them along with food.

They then went inside and were interviewed by Mr. Pedley, who tried to find out the leaders. Many schemes were tried, but the Doukhobors were cunning and would not bite. At last Mr. Pedley persuaded them to pick out one man from each village to meet him and talk over the situation.

Notable Conference.

About 2 o'clock Mr. Pedley, Mr. Speers and five Doukhobors held a conference in the balcony of the rink, one of the Doukhobors acting as interpreter. Mr. Pedley tried every means to find out the real object of their pilgrimage, and many amusing were the evasive answers given by the Doukhobors.

They showed that they were well posted on current events, saying they wanted to go south to convert the miners in the recent coal strike. From this interview it was most apparent that their religion was not their only object, but that they were going to force the government to give them their own laws or they would tramp to some other country, but as after this showing, no other country would have them, Mr. Pedley decided to let them go to the villages and keep there.

Broke Away at 11.

Mr. Pedley told them they must prepare to return next day, and that he would go back with them, which seemed to satisfy them temporarily.

Saturday morning they again spread around the town begging as they did the day before, but gathered back and had their meal at 11 o'clock. Then a break was made to move east. Then they discovered they were confined, and could not go.

They made a slight show of forcing their way out, but were held back by police, and were kept in until the special train of six empty coaches and three cars filled with men of the N.W. M.P. arrived. Mr. Speers entered the rink and asked them to go quietly to the train, but Zeboroff, who has been exhorting them ever since their arrival here to remain firm, again tried to hold them together.

Han Zeboroff Out.

Mr. Speers grabbed Zeboroff, and in spite of his struggles and fighting, ran to the rink and called to the police to bring the rest. They went out all right, but as soon as they got to the rink and called to the police by every man hugging another, making a solid body.

Then the excitement commenced. The citizens turned out and helped the police, but it was hard work for a while to even get the Doukhobors apart. They had four or five men together in the rink and were being held by every man hugging another, making a solid body.

Then the excitement commenced. The citizens turned out and helped the police, but it was hard work for a while to even get the Doukhobors apart. They had four or five men together in the rink and were being held by every man hugging another, making a solid body.

Several Accidents.

One citizen has an ear nearly bitten off, a Doukhobor had his ankle broken and there were many other minor mishaps. A few of the Doukhobors went to the coaches and the rest of the majority were carried, bodily dragged, pushed along, or loaded in the wagons of farmers who had gathered to see the sight. The latter course was bitterly fought by the Doukhobors, as they are seriously objected to being drawn by horses.

The fight in getting the Doukhobors the one hundred yards from the rink to the station ended in a victory for the government forces, but the Doukhobor army again formed for battle, and it was here that by far the fiercest fighting occurred. The Doukhobors fought, kicked and clung to everything they could get hold of, the coaches getting nearly every thing out of them.

Five to One.

It was an impossibility for any one policeman to load a Doukhobor. Some took as many as five or six, and then clung hard to be made to make the Doukhobors lose their hold. But as soon as a clubbed off one place they caught at another, and most stubbornly resisted every inch of the way.

The Doukhobors were by far the heaviest build and used every ounce of their immense bulk to advantage. Altho not on the offensive, they certainly made every inch of the way.

Altho victorious here, it is a question yet to be decided if the government will not be defeated in their final fight in getting the Doukhobors back to the villages. If the fight here is any example of what the government has to contend with, it will take a much larger force to move the Doukhobors the one hundred miles to their villages, and this chapter in the history of the Doukhobors' pilgrimage must assuredly end "to be continued."

HON. MR. SIFTON PRESIDED.

Announces That He is and Always Has Been an Abstainer.

Ottawa, Nov. 9.—The prohibitionists opened the oratorical part of the referendum campaign here to-day by holding two meetings, at which J. A. Nichol was the orator. At the meeting in St. Patrick's Hall to-night, Hon. Clifford Sifton presided. He said he was always a total abstainer, and his father and grandfather were abstainers before him. His views, instead of growing weaker, were becoming stronger. He described the liquor traffic as the greatest evil in the country, and was glad to be present to show his sympathy with the temperance cause.

HUNT FOR MISSING MAN.

Searchers Find the Trail of Railway Superintendent Egan.

Kellepp, Mont., Nov. 10.—A final effort is being made to find Superintendent Egan of the Great Northern Railway to-day. Two large parties have left Essex and Caran, and will meet at a common point, covering every foot of the ground Egan could have traversed. Several Flathead Indians and search, Sheriff Hunt reports that the trail has been found and that it is the north arm of Half Moon Lake. A deer was found at that point yesterday which apparently had been killed about 48 hours. It is feared he may have been devoured by wolves or bears.

In Montreal It is Considered That He is Sure of a Portfolio.

Montreal, Nov. 9.—It looks to-day as if Mr. Prefontaine had downed his enemies and that the ex-Mayor is absolutely sure of a portfolio. It is even said that the men here who have been doing their best to keep Mr. Prefontaine out of the government have not only thrown up the sponge, but will even join in a further movement to have the Department of Public Works remain in this province.

PROGRESS OF EDUCATION BILL.

With the Aid of Closure, It Will Pass Before Christmas.

London, Nov. 9.—Parliament is making steady progress with the education bill, which, with the aid of the drastic enforcement of closure, will be passed before Christmas. Mr. Balfour is in a conciliatory and inflexible mood. The acceptance of an amendment securing to the laity of the Church of England control over religious education in the church schools is an important concession to those who dread the influence of the dogmatic and ritualistic clergy, and the radical nationhood movement. Mr. Balfour is expected to be in conformity with the wishes of the bishops.

Interest Now Centres About What Crown Will Do With Herbert, Who Confessed.

London, Nov. 9.—(Special.)—"Not guilty" was the verdict in the Sifton murder case Saturday evening. It was the result of a week's trial. This was practically the third trial of the famous criminal case. At 5 o'clock the jury were given the final instructions and retired. Three hours later they returned and Foreman Gillies reported to Judge Britton that an agreement was impossible. At that hour two stood out for conviction and the balance for acquittal. The judge sent the jury back to see if an agreement was possible. In 20 minutes they reported an agreement, "Not guilty."

THE YOUNG WIFE OF THE PRISONER RUSHED WILDLY TO HIM AND THREW HER ARMS AROUND HIM.

She manifested the greatest joy. The crowd in the courtroom cheered, and many women rushed forward and grasped the prisoner's hands. Judge Britton told the prisoner the jury had been very merciful in his case and discharged him. Sifton left the courtroom after shaking hands with the members of the jury.

LONG FIGHT FOR LIFE.

This is one of the most remarkable criminal trials in the history of Canadian jurisprudence. It has cost the Crown more than $25,000, and Gerald Sifton has been fighting for his life since June 30, 1900.

Throughout the contest the prisoner has not apparently considered his position as if he was in danger. When the jury reported this inability to agree, Sifton merely smiled. When they reported a few minutes later an agreement the accused showed some interest for the first time, but he still did not appear to expect anything of an alarming character. When the foreman's report was announced he sat up and hugged his wife, but in no other way indicated his pleasure. Then he handed his hat and left the courtroom with his wife, after an imprisonment of more than two years, most of the time in the very same cell in which he had been confined.

THE JURY WAS COMPOSED OF WILLIAM THORNTON, ANDREW GARDNER, D. K. McCORMACK, JOHN FATHER, DONALD GILLES, J. E. THOMAS, F. A. RYAN, WILLIAM SUTHERLAND, HENRY RIMMICK, GEORGE I. STEPHENSON, W. T. HOWELL, DAVID WOOD.

WHAT OF HERBERT?

What will the Crown do in the case of Walter Herbert, who voluntarily confessed that he was a party to the murder of old Mr. Sifton? Herbert swore that Gerald Sifton was a murderer, but the jury says he is not. If Herbert is sentenced to death it will be upon his own statements, which are discredited by the acquittal of Sifton. Inspector Murray says he does not know what action will be taken by the young man. He is of the opinion that the young man will be brought before the judge. He is of the opinion that the young man will be brought before the judge. He is of the opinion that the young man will be brought before the judge.

AFFECTION BETWEEN BRITAIN AND U.S.

One of the fortunate international developments of the past few years has undoubtedly been the growth of friendly relations between Great Britain and the American Republic, but now The Chicago Tribune seeks to create the impression that, if there is any special friendliness between the two nations, it is all on one side.

A Vital Test.

When a man in the prime of life dies suddenly and unexpectantly, it is a tragedy for his wife and children, but in a few days gone by the relatives and friends of a certain man in London, while there are few English visitors to America, or it may be that the English really have for the Americans an affection which is not returned.

MODERN SPIRITUALISM.

Editor World: According to a morning paper, a B. H. Austin is anxious to have a public debate with Mr. A. H. Stevens on three questions, who endorsed Stevens' views, publicly expressed, that the phenomena of modern spiritualism was the work of devils, and that spirits were being in communication with devils.

AN EASY WAY TO KEEP WELL.

It is easy to keep well if we would only observe each day a few simple rules of health. The all important thing is to keep the stomach in good order, and to eat only what is necessary to diet or to follow a set rule or bill of fare.

ARGENTINE AND CANADIAN CATTLE.

We print in another column a report of an interview between Mr. Hanbury, president of the British Board of Agriculture, and representatives of certain English interests, who desired the removal of the embargo on live cattle from Argentina. It will be well for Canadian farmers and drovers to carefully read this report.

UNITED STATES STILL A DEBTOR NATION.

New York Commercial: There is no more interesting but elusive unsatisfactory study than that of the international balance of trade. The subjects is so immense, and its peculiarities are so many and so far-reaching, while so many intricate cross-currents enter into the accounts of one country or another.

THINK HE GOT SPURIOUS PLATES.

The Stuart-Raymond counterfeiters' case promises to assume much larger proportions before it is concluded. TRACKING THE CRIMINAL.

Inspector John Murray keeping his eye open for the counterfeiters in 1880, when in Toronto one day he observed a man carrying a box of the old counterfeit, John Johnston. He followed him to a house on Hazelton street, where he was seen to deliver the whole family of live turkeys. Shortly afterwards he observed the man in a street going to Markham. He followed him and saw him change a number of bills at a saloon. The bill collector found them to be clever counterfeiters.

Welland, Nov. 9.—A peculiar accident happened at Welland yesterday afternoon, at Jacobs, a M. C. R. section man, who was working on the track, stepped aside to allow an east-bound train to pass. He did not get far enough, however, and was struck in the mouth by the engine. Mr. Jacobs was alive and three or four teeth knocked out.

CAUGHT WORKING ON SUNDAY.

Three workmen who were engaged in the work of laying in the King Edward Hotel on Sunday were interviewed by a police officer. Their names were taken and they will probably be charged with a charge of breaking the Lord's Day Act.

LEVER'S V-Z (VINE HEAD) DISINFECTANT SOAP.

It is easy to keep well if we would only observe each day a few simple rules of health. The all important thing is to keep the stomach in good order, and to eat only what is necessary to diet or to follow a set rule or bill of fare.

STUCK IN THE MOUTH.

Welland, Nov. 9.—A peculiar accident happened at Welland yesterday afternoon, at Jacobs, a M. C. R. section man, who was working on the track, stepped aside to allow an east-bound train to pass. He did not get far enough, however, and was struck in the mouth by the engine. Mr. Jacobs was alive and three or four teeth knocked out.

CAUGHT WORKING ON SUNDAY.

Three workmen who were engaged in the work of laying in the King Edward Hotel on Sunday were interviewed by a police officer. Their names were taken and they will probably be charged with a charge of breaking the Lord's Day Act.

fect and the brain normal, so far as the "grossly visible" evidence was concerned, she was a worn out old woman. It is the opinion of physicians who have studied the case that the girl's sinking was due to intense mental distress and terror; that she belonged to that class of hysterical patients known as auto-hypnotists, capable of throwing themselves into a state of coma, and had passed beyond the state of self-restoration.

Women Are Like Flowers.

Poets have been fond of likening women to flowers. Her fairness is flowerlike. Her softness is flowerlike. Her fragrance is flowerlike. Her type is flowerlike. Her beauty is flowerlike. Her grace is flowerlike. Her charm is flowerlike. Her wit is flowerlike. Her strength is flowerlike. Her endurance is flowerlike. Her patience is flowerlike. Her gentleness is flowerlike. Her kindness is flowerlike. Her love is flowerlike. Her life is flowerlike.

THE GREAT SECRET

Of woman's preservation of her beauty lies in the intelligent care of her bodily health. So close is the relation between the health of the delicate womanly organs and the health of the body, that whenever the feminine functions are deranged or disturbed the consequences are felt by every nerve in the body. Severe headache, backache, pain in the side, and bearing-down pains are borne with by so many thousands of women that one who is sound in health is a rare exception. Most women would give anything to know how to be cured. The way is very plain. Follow the path made by more than a half a million women who have been perfectly cured of womanly ills and weakness.

NOTHING IS SURER

Than the effect of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong, sick women well. It regulates the periods, stops disagreeable drains, heals inflammation and ulceration, and cures female weakness. It prepares the system for motherhood, gives her vigor and physical strength, so that the birth hour is practically painless. It is the best tonic because it contains no alcohol, neither opium, cocaine, nor any other narcotic. For working women in the home, store or schoolroom it is an invaluable medicine. It quiets the nerves, increases the appetite and causes rest and refreshing sleep. Nursing mothers will find no tonic so beneficial to mother and child as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

WHAT SHALL I DO?

That question is often on a woman's lips, for of her it is expected that she shall be ready to do something in any emergency in the home. When that question refers to health, sickness or disease, the answer will be found in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser. This great work contains 1008 large pages, and is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of contents and mailing only. Send 10 one-cent stamps for the book bound in paper, or 50 stamps for the volume in cloth binding. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Description of New Treatment Discovered in Montreal for the Disease.

Montreal, Nov. 9.—Dr. George Charlton, Rockefeller fellow of pathology McGill University, the discoverer of a serum which has been successfully used to combat scarlet fever, has made public a statement in which he says that it does not cure scarlet fever, but its timely administration in severe cases tends to allay unfavorable symptoms, overcomes complications, and, given at a fatal termination, "I have, for now close upon two years—to be exact, since Jan. 26, 1901—been engaged upon a series of studies of cases of scarlet fever admitted to the Montreal Hospital for Infectious Diseases, and upon the treatment of the same. During the time which I have been engaged upon this work 117 cases of scarlet fever have been studied bacteriologically. Cultures have been taken from the tonsils and pharynx in all these cases, and streptococci have been isolated from 100 per cent. of those examined. From twenty-five of the severe cases cultures have been taken from the blood, and in every instance, relatively large quantities of both being employed for the purpose in the time when I was also observing the cases clinically, bred in the culture during the first five days of the disease. Streptococci, however, in the doctor's opinion, is not the essential agent of the disease, but the medium in which the mild, uncomplicated cases. These cases gave no trouble, and after the first week of the disease, the patients were in a dying condition when admitted to the hospital, and lived only four hours. The other, upon admission, was suffering from a severe pneumonia, and, the improving somewhat, succumbed to secondary infection to an attack of laryngeal diphtheria."

of the cause of it, if not all, of the untoward complications of the disease. The severity of the attack appears to be due to the concurrent, or as Rogers terms it, synergistic action, of this micro-organism and the causative agent of scarlet fever upon the susceptible individual, much as it has been noted that streptococcal infection renders diphtheria more severe, though the effects of this synergism in scarlet fever appear to be still more marked.

"The administration of anti-streptococcal serum was therefore, indicated to counteract the effect of the toxins of the streptococcus and to bring about the destruction of the organism. For it appeared that if this could be accomplished the cases would resolve into a less severe type and the prognosis would be more favorable."

To the Trade 5% Money to Loan

Wednesday, Nov. 12th.

A special sale day for all odds and ends in each of our respective departments

JOHN MACDONALD & CO. Wellington and Front Streets East, TORONTO.

AT THE THEATRES THIS WEEK.

Princess "Ben Hur" religious dramatic spectacle. Grand "The Sign of the Cross" a story of the early Christians. Toronto "Happy Hooligan" fun and music. She's-Loop-de-Loop and refined vaudeville. Star-Utopian Burlesques.

It is rather a coincidence that the two leading theatres presenting dramas should this week have attractions of a nature that will appeal as much to the regular churchgoer as to the habitual attendant at the playhouse. In "Ben Hur" which commences its engagement at the Princess, Torontoans will be given an opportunity to see the dramatization of General Lew Wallace's famous novel, presented on a massive and complete scale. It is claimed to be the greatest spectacular drama of modern times, and 350 people, 12 horses and three camels are required in its production.

The performance commences at 8 o'clock precisely, when the curtain rises on a picture to the play proper, in which the Wise Men are revealed following the trail of Bethlehem across the desert on camels. No word is spoken during the prologue and arrivals will not be shown to their seats until the curtain falls on the tabernacle. The story of the novel has been transferred to the stage with great fidelity. In Ben Hur's vision, in which he sees the Mount of Olives, with its multitude of worshippers slaying adorations to the Master, the divine presence is indicated by a shaft of the purest white light of wondrous brilliance.

At the Grand "The Sign of the Cross" Wilson Barrett's famous historical play, will be presented all the week, with the usual Wednesday matinee. It is the first time in this city that popular art and modern drama have been brought exactly the same that appeared during the phenomenal London engagement of the piece at the Lyric Theatre, where it ran for crowded houses for over two years. "The Sign of the Cross" is a story of the most passionate and touches chords that recall a thrilling story of the oppression of the early Christians by the tyrant Nero, and presents a series of beautiful stage pictures of the magnificence of a pagan nation. The play is played by Miss Lily Laird, a Toronto graduate of the Harvard College Institute, who has been receiving much laudatory notice for her splendid assumption of the part.

It is doubtful if a more daring act has ever been presented in this city than that which Lottie Branson will attempt in looping the loop on the stage of She's Theatre at every performance. Miss Branson is an expert cyclist, the holder of many records, and was the first woman who ever rode in the cycle world. In her latest feat she gets up the necessary speed to make the loop on a home trailer, discharging the inside of a narrow circular track, over the top and down again, for a complete revolution in five seconds. Others on the hill are: Durie Bros. and their trained monkey, who make Charles Dwyer and N. D. Daly, novelty dancing act; Ellsberg Murray, new songs and stories; Moore and Bagley, presenting "The Gypsy Maid"; Lily Link, black face comedian; the Musical Kleider, Silver and Enrie, dedicating experts, and the Kinetograph, with new pictures.

A plot of unusual interest, with ludicrous complications and dull characters, characters drawn from real life and treated by the author in a genuine and humorous way, eleven specialties and the latest and catchiest songs, are the pleasing promises held out by "Happy Hooligan" who will open a week's engagement at the Toronto this afternoon and evening.

Dink's "Utopian Burlesques" will cater to patrons at the Star this week, with the usual daily matinee. "The Magic Hat," the opening burlesque, will introduce members of the company in splendid specialties, and "Hotel Razzie Dazzie" will follow.

The King's Birthday concert of the Retail Merchants' Association at Massey Hall on Tuesday night will attract a large audience. Some of Toronto's most popular concert artists have been engaged, and the program is of real merit.

Katharine Bloodgood, well known to Torontoans, has married recently to Mr. H. K. Kipp of the U.S.M.

SERMONS TOUCHING KING EDWARD

Woodgreen Methodist Give $800 Towards Church Debt—Berkeley's 65th Anniversary.

One hundred members of the Northwest Field Force met yesterday morning at the Armory and marched to All Saints' Church, where Rev. Arthur Baldwin gave a powerful and inspiring sermon. Among the members of the association present were: Col. J. M. Delamore (president), Major Leslie (vice-president), T. M. Wood (secretary), Sgt. Major Johnston (treasurer), Col. Buchanan, Major Harston, Captain Thorne, Col. Ryerson, Major Wallace and Quartermaster-Sgt. Butler of Halifax.

The form of service was that sanctioned for general use on the King's Birthday, and included the beautiful coronation music. Rev. Mr. Baldwin took for his text 1 Kings 2: 21. After paying a beautiful tribute to the memory of Queen Victoria, the speaker went on and extolled the greatness of the British empire. It may seem strange, he said, when people are told that loyalty to the King is greater in the colonies than in the Mother Country, his account for this by people coming to Canada and bringing their love of England to their children. No man is more loved today than King Edward VII.
