NOGI'S VETERANS AT GATES BURDEN SIGNS AND SOUNDS OF MOVING PREVAIL JAPS TURN RUSSIANS' RIGHT FLANK

Necessary Now For Kuropatkin to Beat Hasty Retreat to Tie Pass, But He Will Not Find It a Path. Way of Roses.

Reports from Japanese sources claim that the Russian right flank, southwest and south of Mukden, and contiguous to the railway, has been completely turned by the Japanese forces under the immediate command of Gen. Oku. To the eastward Gen. Kuroki is directing a vigorous attack, with heavy artillery against strongly fortified Russian positions. Gen. Kuropatkin is said to be concentrating a strong force in front of Gens. Kuroki and Nogi.

It still seems probable that Gen. Kuropatkin will find it necessary to retreat to the Pass, which appears to be a necessary movement. St. Petersburg has word that affairs latterly have taken a turn for the better for Russian arms, and the tactics of Field Marshal Oyama in an attack on an impregnable position in the centre as a mere diversion, while the real blow was being struck on the flanks, is criticized by Russian military officers.

ON TO MUKDEN.

Mukden, March 5.—The rumble of carts in the streets of Mukden is again heard, and the city is again being shelled by the Japanese. The Japanese are reported to have captured the village of Suohodagan and are fighting along the Shinnin road, but heavy fighting is continuing there.

THE JAPANESE VANGUARD POSTS ARE ABOUT SIX MILES WEST OF MUKDEN, WHERE THE BURSTING OF SHRAPNEL IS PLAINLY VISIBLE. A fight also is raging at Suohodagan and are fighting along the Shinnin road, but heavy fighting is continuing there.

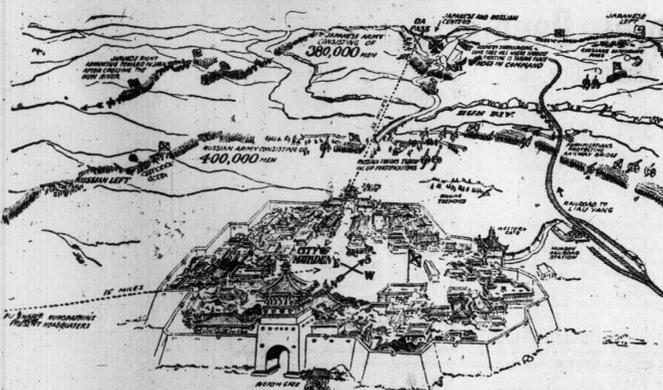

THE JAPANESE AND RUSSIAN ARTILLERY ARE ENGAGED IN THE HEAVIEST DUPEL OF THIS WAR. Russian mortars are fired at the Shakhe Bridge, and Japanese 11 inch guns are in full play, but the Russian fortifications, on which they had been working all winter, offer a fairly secure protection for their defenders.

There is little news of Gen. Kuropatkin's operations on the extreme east of the line. The Russians are holding their ground, and even beaten off, it is reported that a Japanese cavalry division with 12 quick fire guns is sweeping far to the eastward on a rapid turning movement. The carnage at the centre and on both flanks has been enormous.

The Japanese at many places simply threw away their lives, beating against the Russians' powerful fortifications in attacks, which in the centre are apparently intended chiefly as a demonstration to cover the driving home of Gen. Nogi's blow. It is believed now that the operation to the eastward was in part in the nature of a feint with the design to draw up reinforcements thither. If this was the design it was successful. Gen. Kuropatkin having

Fate of Gen. Kuropatkin and His Army Depends on Result of Fight at Mukden

St. Petersburg, March 6.—(3:25 a.m.)—The fate of Gen. Kuropatkin and his army hangs in the balance today, depending on the result of the fighting almost in the outskirts of Mukden. According to latest reports this morning the fighting went well for the Russians, who beat back the wave that threatened to roll over Mukden as it had over the fortifications of Port Arthur, but nothing is known as to what is going on behind the line of breakers, whether part of Gen. Nogi's force is in full career for the Pass, or whether the Japanese have staked all in a cast against Mukden. The imminence of the peril on the west wing has withdrawn attention from the operations on the centre and left, where the fighting has been extremely heavy, and especially where the Japanese gains are sufficiently great to cause apprehensions to themselves. Military critics here point out that the Japanese have put themselves in a critical position by the extreme extension of their lines, leaving themselves open as they did at Liaoyang, to the possibility of a most effective counter stroke, and probable defeat if Gen. Kuropatkin should be able to launch a column against a weak link in the chain.

AT THE VERY GATES.

The net result of the fighting in the far east for the past two days is a material advance by Generals Oku, Kuroki and Nogi. Nogi's Port Arthur veterans are at the very gates of the City of Mukden, and sounds of moving mingle with those of battle. The Japs have lost heavily, but they are pressing on till now they are within a few miles of the Russian winter quarters.

In the despatches from the Manchurian battlefield there is much that is improbable, and some stories that must be untrue. The correspondents who are telegraphing from points northeast and west of the fighting lines undoubtedly are handicapped in obtaining fairly accurate information, and have no time to investigate the reliability of certain news coming to them from the battle grounds.

The position of the Russian army in several ranges of mountains precludes the belief that the Japanese have up to this time seriously damaged the main body.

The pregnant fact is that General Kuroki on the east and General Oku on the west are executing two wide flanking movements, with severe fighting attending every advance made. The route of their divisions is thru ranges of wooded hills, great defiles in the mountains and across streams faced by fortified ridges rising to the height of 1000 feet. Probably not more than one-third of the Japanese east and west armies are engaged, the main divisions holding by the centre army for the general advance that must follow the success of the flanking movements.

Kuropatkin's right is now seriously threatened, as General Oku has at least a brigade northwest of him. Kuroki, because of more mountainous country, has not penetrated relatively so far northeast, but his men are splitting all the screening divisions of the Russian left, making imperative a general battle or the attempted retirement of General Kuropatkin's central forces.

When one of these two events comes to pass the situation will be the most interesting of the war.

CORPSES MAKING PARAPETS JAPS PRESS ON TO VICTORY

Kuropatkin Reports That Kaotai Pass Falls Into the Hands of His Persistent Foes.

St. Petersburg, March 5.—Gen. Biriuzev telegraphs from Mukden that a determined fight occurred seven days ago (twelve miles west of Mukden). He confirms the report that the Japanese have occupied Shinnin, which is forty miles west of Mukden.

Gen. Kuropatkin reports that the Russians have been compelled to evacuate Gaotuling (Kaotai Pass, where Gen. Linevich was in command). He says that the Japanese lost enormously in the fighting on the Russian left. In another despatch dated March 3, Gen. Kuropatkin says: "The Russians began an offensive movement against the enemy yesterday evening, occupying Salnpu and the neighboring villages to the south. This movement was successful this morning, and the same time reinforcements arrived from Mukden."

"Twenty Japanese battalions repeatedly attacked the flank this morning in the region of Jansintun and Kendoian. All these attacks were repulsed, with great loss to the Japanese. The commander of the district reports that there are masses of Japanese corpses in front of our positions."

"The enemy again attacked Gaotuling this morning, three times approaching the village, but were repulsed. They were repulsed with numerous losses. The men in front of the attacking party were dressed in the uniform of the Russian Chamberlains Regiment, which is posted in the Gaotuling position."

"The enemy made three attacks on the left flank, the last one was especially vigorous, bayonets being used. All these attacks were repulsed, with great loss to the Japanese. Lieut.-Col. Crost is wounded, but remains in the ranks."

"The losses of the enemy on our left flank are so great that the enemy is making parapets with the corpses of fallen comrades."

ANOTHER LIBERAL GAIN.

London, March 4.—The Liberals captured a seat as a result of the election in Bute-shire yesterday, when Mr. Lamont secured a majority of 21 over the Unionist candidate, Edward E. Salvesen, the solicitor-general for Scotland. The election was due to the elevation of Andrew Graham Murray to the peerage on his appointment to a judgeship.

OYAMA TIGHTENS THE GORD AND CHOKES THE RUSSIANS

Reports That He is Driving the Enemy Before Him, Tho With Great Losses

Tokio, March 5.—(2 p.m.)—Field Marshal Oyama is continuing his great drives around both flanks of the Russian army. His front is now a huge bow, the base on the Shakhe River, the right arm reaching a point east of Fushan and the left arm extending to a point west of Mukden. He is steadily tightening the great cord of men and steel. Gen. Kuropatkin is striving desperately to check the Japanese advances, contesting the flank encroachments and hammering the Japanese centre.

In another despatch dated March 3, Gen. Kuropatkin says: "The Japanese are making gains of ground west of the railway and have captured great quantities of stores and equipment, occupying ready been bloody fighting and heavy losses, and this will be vastly increased when the masses of the enemy infantry are reported on March 4, Oyama says that the Japs are driving the Russians before them. He says the new line is fifteen miles southwest of Mukden. He continues: "During a previous engagement, the enemy's casualties were heavy. The spoils we captured were great. No time to investigate. We captured large quantities of provisions at Wanchangpao and captured a clothing train at Tabantai."

Estimates of Gen. Kuropatkin's force between Shakhe and the Pass, prepared here, give a total of slightly more than 400,000, composed of 23,000 infantry, 25,000 cavalry and 25,000 artillery with 104 guns. This estimate does not include troops at Vladivostok and other garrisons, railway guards and other elements. The strength of the Russian force at Lake Baikal is estimated at 700,000 men.

"An Elephant Mad With Pride" ONE HELD WHILE OTHER STABBED

How One Liberal at Ottawa Describes Sir Wilfrid Laurier and His Attitude on the Separate Schools Clause of the Autonomy Bill.

Premier Proposes to Alter the Wording, But Will Not Change the Effect of the Clause, and the Situation is Still Critical.

Ottawa, March 5.—The storm which threatened the authors of the separate schools clause of the autonomy bill last week has not yet lifted. Supporters of the government in the house are in suspense. They know that all kinds of pressure have been brought to bear on Sir Wilfrid Laurier to induce him to withdraw the clause, and they are anxious to know what he will do. It is estimated that the clause will cost the government 100,000 votes in the next election.

It was rumored on Parliament Hill to-night that Sir Wilfrid was prepared to support the clause as amended, but both Sifton and Fielding, trusting to Quebec and the Catholic vote in the other provinces to carry him over. This rumor does not appear to be well-founded, at least not at the present stage of the crisis. Sir Wilfrid will do a lot of negotiating before he will invite an open rupture, but there can be no doubt that SIR WILFRID HAS UNDERGONE A CHANGE OF TEMPERAMENT WHICH MAKES HIM A HARD MAN TO DEAL WITH. It may be his health; it may be a disposition to assert himself; it may be a combination of both, but there can be no doubt that the prime minister has of late become a more determined and less pliant man. He is peevish. He is jealous of his authority. He wants to be dictator in everything.

Pretty Vigorous Phrase. "An elephant mad with pride," are the words used by a prominent Liberal in referring to Sir Wilfrid's conduct. He said it was incomprehensible that in the absence of both Sifton and Fielding, the prime minister should take it upon himself to launch upon the country a measure fraught with such fatal consequences as the separate schools clause of the autonomy bill.

Either he placed an extraordinary reliance in the loyalty of his colleagues or he was under extraordinary obligations to the hierarchy," said the Liberal. "He should not voluntarily and in ordinary expectation of party loyalty have pursued such a dictatorial course."

The situation is still serious. It is stated to-night that the government will require at least another week to decide what course it should take, and that the autonomy bill will not come before the house until the first of next week. Sir Wilfrid has the problem of his political life in his hands and his nervous system is in a state of high tension, which he is passing in connection with the autonomy bill.

PUBLIC TO HONOR HIM IN DEATH AS IN LIFE

Funeral of E. F. Clarke This Afternoon—Remains to Lie in State in Broadway Tabernacle.

The widespread feeling of sorrow at the death of the late E. F. Clarke, and the esteem in which his memory is held, was fully attested by the long line of citizens which, during Saturday and all Sunday tied past the plain black casket containing the remains. The body lay in the drawing room of his late residence on Markham-street, surrounded by banks of flowers which more than filled every available spot. At the head is a beautifully wrought crown of roses, carnations and lilies of the valley, the tribute of his sisters, Miss Jennie Clarke and Mrs. Battin. The calm, natural expression of the countenance was the subject of much remark, altho it caused many to have a presentiment that they were unable to conceal their emotion.

Mrs. Clarke and the other members of the family, who bore up bravely under the trial, had many intimate friends among the callers, and they were glad to express as they would wish their appreciation of the many kind and sympathetic messages they received. Among the callers on Saturday were Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, solicitor-general, and F. D. Monk, M.P., and yesterday Mayor Urquhart and many other prominent citizens were among the callers.

To-day's Funeral Service. The arrangements for the funeral have been completed, altho some slight change may be necessary. Owing to the insufficient seating capacity of the Reformed Episcopal Church, the public service will be held in Broadway Tabernacle at College-street and Spadina-avenue at 3 p.m. A private service for the immediate family will be held at 1 o'clock, after which the body will be removed and will lie in state from 2 to 3 o'clock at the Tabernacle. The galleries will be thrown open to the public, the main floor being reserved for the official bodies and others attending the funeral. Entrance will be by the east door, and the exit by the west door. The house service will be conducted by Rev. George Orman, pastor of Emmanuel Episcopal Church, in accordance with the illness of Rev. F. TenBroeck Reynolds of the College-street church.

The public service will also be in charge of Rev. Mr. Orman, who will be assisted by Rev. J. D. Freeman of the Blois-street Baptist church, Rev. Dr. Potts, Rev. Dr. Gilroy of College-street, Presbyterian Church and Rev. E. N. Balfour of the Broadway Tabernacle. The music will be furnished by the choir of Christ Church, the Tabernacle and of Rehoboth Masonic Lodge.

Order of Procession. The route of the procession will be along College to St. George-street, and out to Yonge-street by way of Bloor and to Mount Pleasant cemetery. The honorary pall-bearers will be: Hon. Worship the Mayor, ex-Mayors Boswell, Fleming, McMurich and Schuchman, Hon. Rodolphe Lemieux, and the Toronto colleagues of deceased in the house of commons, A. B. Kemp, Hon. George E. Foster, E. B. Alder and A. Claude Macdonell. The active pall-bearers have been selected from the various societies which Mr. Clarke was connected, together with some intimate personal friends.

The order of the procession will be as follows: Mounted police, County Orange, a band on foot and other societies walking, clergy, honorary bearers, active bearers, carriages with flowers, hearse, representatives of the governor-general, the senate and house of commons, the lieutenant-governor, and the local legislature, city council, official, etc.

THE TURN OF LIFE

A Time When Women Are Susceptible to Many Dread Diseases—Intelligent Women Prepare for It. Two Relate their Experience.

The "change of life" is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and the anxiety felt by women as it draws near is not without reason.

Mrs. E. Powless

Every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time invites disease and pain. When her system is in a deranged condition, she is predisposed to apoplexy, or congestion of any organ, the tendency is at this period likely to become active and with a host of nervous irritations, make life a burden.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, dizziness, and a feeling of impending evil, tingling, sounds in the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness and inactivity, and listlessness, are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life. It invigorates and strengthens the female organism and builds up the weakened nervous system.

Special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and will be furnished absolutely free.

Read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound did for Mrs. Powless and Mrs. Mann.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham—In my opinion there is no medicine made for women which can compare with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and you have no truer friend in the Dominion than I am.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Powless and Mrs. Mann, it will do for any woman at this time of life.

It has conquered pain, restored health, and prolonged life in cases that baffled physicians.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

OBSERVANCE OF LENT IN TORONTO CHURCHES

Mid-Day Services Arranged for St. James' Cathedral—Devotions in R. C. Churches.

The usual Lenten instructions and regulations in regard to fasting and prayer were read out in all the Roman Catholic churches yesterday.

At St. James' Cathedral the mid-day services of the Lenten season in Toronto, have been arranged. In the address to parishioners the rector, Rev. Canon Welch, says:

"We have been hearing of late that parts of the motherland are passing through a period of religious revival. That means that new truths are being proclaimed, but that old truths are being re-entrenched, and that many who had ignored them, or to whom they have not meant much, are beginning to take them seriously and to allow them to have the influence they ought to have upon their lives."

On Sunday mornings, March 10 and 11, the preached will be Rev. Prof. Clark. On Sunday evenings there will be a course of sermons, as follows: Christ the Life of the World, Christ the Truth, Christ the Support of Life, Christ the Head of the Body.

First week—The Calls and Claims of Christ, March 8 (Ash Wednesday); The Gospels of the Gospels; The Gospels of the Gospels; The Gospels of the Gospels.

Second week—Conviction Without Compromise, March 15; The Light of the World; The Light of the World; The Light of the World.

Third week—Conviction Without Compromise, March 22; The Light of the World; The Light of the World; The Light of the World.

Fourth week—The Life of Service, April 5; The Light of the World; The Light of the World; The Light of the World.

Fifth week—The Life of Service, April 12; The Light of the World; The Light of the World; The Light of the World.

APPENDIX JUST A TOY NOW TO SURGEONS OF CLEVERNESS

In 1000 Cases There Was Not a Death According to Royal Medical Society Reports.

London, March 5.—It, as was fittingly remarked recently in the editorial columns of one London paper, the removal of the appendix is an essential qualification for entry into smart society, the meeting of the night of the Royal Medical and Surgical Society should have been the occasion of a smart gathering, for its interest centered, so to speak, round the appendix.

Those present, numbering more than 200 surgeons and physicians, had two hours of appendix, and in the course of Sir Frederick Treves' lucid address, which opened the discussion, even a layman had ample occasion to improve his perfunctory acquaintance with it.

How thoroughly modern the subject is, was made manifest by a casual introductory remark by Sir Frederick Treves when he mentioned that when, in 1887, before the same society which now has mustered in force to discuss complex problems at times presented by operations, he was first introduced to the removal of the appendix in cases of recurrent attacks, his suggestion had been received with polite scepticism, not unmingled with derision.

Operations Rarely Fatal. Since then a deluge of water had flowed under the bridge. Sir Frederick had himself in private practice operated on more than 1000 cases without a single death, or even a serious complication.

Some Causes of Relapse. The greater part of Sir Frederick Treves' address was devoted to consideration of the causes of relapse after the removal of the offending appendix, as shown by recurrence of attacks. A majority of these are of too technical a nature to admit of appreciation by a layman, but one or two of them are of more curious interest.

The recurrence of the pain is at times due to the incompleteness of the operation, when the appendix had not been entirely removed. Often again the pain is due to a sort of neuralgia in the amputated stomach.

More extraordinary even to the lay mind, are cases where the pain has occurred where the pain altogether is hysteric, a question of nerves pure and simple.

Again, mistakes in diagnosis do occur, and before now many a patient who has been operated on for an offending appendix only to find that his trouble had its seat in quite a different part of his anatomy.

Sir Frederick did not, against all traditions, quote the familiar story of the man who, to guard against contagion in the event of sudden loss of consciousness, wrote tattooed on his abdomen, "Do not operate, I have an appendix removed three times," but he told a no less remarkable story of a patient who has come to him with a relapse after having undergone an operation for removal of the appendix.

Investigating matters, Sir Frederick was able to remove it for him a second time. On the first occasion, presumably, the surgeon had overlooked it.

READY TO TEST THE ISSUE IN TORONTO BY-ELECTION. Strong Move Toward Selection of Fred Dane as Conservative Candidate.

Toronto Conservatives are quietly talking over the question of the succession to the late E. P. Clark, M.P., in the Centre Toronto representation.

In view of the turn of events at Ottawa, the majority of Centre Toronto Conservatives want a man who can be depended on to offer the strongest opposition to the separate school clauses of the autonomy bills now before the house of commons.

It is felt that he will not have a better chance to ascertain just how the people feel with regard to his proposals.

How Street Cars Spent Sunday. Bathurst St. Tracks Caused Trouble—Belt Line Trolley's Frank.

The Street Railway Company provided amusement in large chunks for several hundred people yesterday afternoon, in Bathurst-street, in the vicinity of College and Usher-streets.

For a couple of blocks the rails are covered with ice. The cars went on and refused to run on such a slippery-cared-for track.

Car 624 was the star performer. When it jumped the track it turned around and wanted to go up street again. One of the passengers, a young woman, fainted. She was soon revived.

At 10.30 last night a Belt Line car made a dash to enter the Black Horse Hotel at Front and George-streets.

YOUNG MAN HYDE'S SALARY TWICE AS MUCH AS TEDDY'S

Friends Intimate That His Eminent Lawyers Are Hampered by Group of Speculators.

New York, March 5.—Active work was begun by the Crimmins committee Saturday to reach thru the mails several thousands of policyholders in the Equitable Life Assurance Society living in this state.

The cooperation of these policyholders is being sought for the pressure they can exert upon different members of the legislature when the committee is ready to have its mutualization bill introduced.

Who has supplied the committee with the lists of policyholders is a mystery. The committee on Friday sent a formal request to the Equitable Life for a complete list of its 600,000 policyholders, but up to the present time the officers of the Equitable have not acted upon the request.

The Hyde forces are irrevocably opposed to granting the request of the Crimmins committee, as they regard it as an adjunct of the campaign being waged by President James W. Alexander to place the control of the society and its funds of $40,000,000 absolutely in the hands of the policyholders.

The number of policyholders who have voluntarily communicated with the Crimmins committee, pledging their support and co-operation, now runs into the thousands.

The group of speculative financiers who are behind Mr. Hyde in the fight to have him named as a piece of rank injustice if he were made to surrender control of the company which his father established.

Men who have sided with young Hyde largely because of their old friendship for his father, are disgusted with the way his side of the fight is being managed by a certain speculative clique.

One of the former said yesterday that every error which could possibly have been committed had been made.

This statement is remarkable in view of the fact that he is surrounded with some of the ablest lawyers in the country, including Ethu Rort, Samuel Usher and John G. Johnson of Philadelphia.

Alexander S. Bacon, who appeared as friendly to the Hyde or his secret friends to involve the issue as far as the policyholders are concerned, sources that the twenty-eight-year-old vice-president receives a salary of $100,000 a year, or twice as much as the young Mr. Hyde's salary as vice-president of the United States receives.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

WAX USED IN INSULATION SERVES TO CARRY FLAMES—BAD FEATURE OF OVERHEAD WIRES SHOWN.

London, March 5.—People grumble a great deal about the telephone service in London, but now are finding out what a terrible thing it is to be without it altogether. At any rate there are now 6000 subscribers in the city who this week were forced to do without telephones and many of whom may be in the same unfortunate position for some time to come. All this, the most disastrous fire which the telephone company ever experienced.

The origin of the fire was two miles away near Westminster bridge. There was a little fire in the cable subway there which caused a short circuiting at the bank exchange. The high voltage resulted in a spark which set the testing house on fire. The flames ran up the immense iron derrick or four-sided tower carrying scores of thick cables. As wax enters largely into the insulating machinery of these cables, they burned furiously. The flames sped along the wax cables and over the housings with extraordinary speed until the sky around the Man-sion house seemed to be full of fiery serpents.

The fire brought home to Londoners for the first time the possibilities of overhead telephone cables as agents in spreading the flames. In the present instance, however, the damage was confined to the wires, derrick, and test-house, which were destroyed.

EUROPE AS IT ONCE WAS.

Prof. Macallum Tells of the Changes That Time Hath Wrought.

Prof. Macallum spoke at the university lecture in the Practical Science building Saturday afternoon on "Pre-historic Man." His observations on the magic lantern slides referred chiefly to the pre-historic dwellers in the Dorset region of France, where discoveries in caves, indicating a low type of art, the bones and skulls of human beings with small brain cavities, together with the remains of the rhinoceros and other animals of tropical regions, have been found. In some caves have been found lamps, the oil for which had been got from whale blubber. These ancient inhabitants of the earth are the most interesting because they lived during the inter-glacial period, when the climate of Europe changed from sub-tropical to almost Arctic, the ice advanced and retreating for a long period. Men existed before the first glacial period, and the first glacial period was over a million years ago.

He threw on to the canvas maps showing the land outline of Europe when there was no Mediterranean Sea, when Great Britain and the North Sea and the Baltic were parts of the continent and when Europe was divided from Africa by a sea running where the Sahara Desert is now. India was then an island.

BELL MAY WITHDRAW.

Jaxious to Have Agents of Examiners' Service Make New Terms.

The attempt of the Bell Telephone Company to drive out of business the independent company, that established a private line connecting Box Grove, Cedar Grove, Locust Hill, Whitevale, and Green River is doomed to failure. Indications are that the Bell Company is anxious to withdraw from the neighborhood. It put in a number of petitions giving the agents of the phone and a percentage of 20 per cent. on outgoing business. The Bell Company is anxious for an arrangement and wants to charge the agents $20 a year for the phone and allow only 10 per cent. on outgoing business. This the agents are not likely to stand for. Subscribers to the independent line in York and Ontario Counties look upon this movement of the Bell as an indication that they are anxious to withdraw. The refusal of the agents to accept any new terms would give the Bell Company a good excuse.

Meanwhile the independent lines are flourishing.

RAILWAYS IN GOOD SHAPE.

Only Around Owen Sound Does Storm King Interfere.

The railway situation is of the smoothest at present, the only section in Ontario where traffic is being at all hindered being that around Owen Sound, which continues to make half-hearted attempts to stop up the line in spite of a storm center. During the past week snow has been falling intermittently but never in sufficient quantities to cause any uneasiness among officials. On Friday and Saturday particularly did it snow and blow, but the work of the rotary plow had put the lines in such splendid shape that there was little trouble met with in overcoming these comparatively trifling setbacks.

Certain small branch lines in the Maritime Provinces are the only connections for which freight cannot be accepted at present. The International has had a desperate fight for the past few weeks, in referring to which a local G.P.R. official mentions an incident in which a train was stalled in one huge snowdrift for three days until relief came.

TWO MAY DIE.

Level Crossing Accident at Kingsville Finds Two Victims.

Kingsville, March 5.—A serious railroad crossing accident happened about one mile west of here this morning about 10.15. As the west-bound Pere Marquette train reached the crossing a horse and covered buggy containing Wm. Lockhart, an aged farmer of Gosfield South, and Miss Kers of Essex, attempted to cross, but in doing so they were struck by the train. The horse was killed outright, the buggy smashed to pieces, Lockhart unconscious and hurt internally and Miss Kers had a leg, arm and some ribs broken.

Drs. Lee and McKenzie of here were quickly in attendance, but held out little hopes of the recovery of either.

Toronto Light Horse.

Classes for non-commissioned officers and for men who desire to qualify as such, will commence this evening at the main armories, and will meet on Monday and Thursday nights until further notice. Recruits will also be formed and continued during the spring months. A course in signalling for the officers, non-commissioned officers and men of the garrison has been organized and will begin this evening.

Mrs. Chadwick on Trial To-Day.

Cleveland, March 4.—Andrew Carnegie arrived here to-night in response to a subpoena by the federal authorities to appear as a witness in the trial of Mrs. Cassie L. Chadwick, which opens on Monday.

Trustee Lissner to-day filed an inventory and appraisal showing that the personal property in the Euclid-avenue home of Mrs. Chadwick is valued at $31,123, and the real estate at $41,130.

Summery.

A teacher in the Bolton-avenue school on Friday afternoon in an endeavor to encourage originality in her pupils asked them to write a short sentence on the blackboard. One small boy wrote "A hen lays eggs," which was duly commended. It suggested a thought to the next young man, who followed with the words "A man lays bricks." The students greeted this with much amusement, but the teacher wisely complimented the boy on his originality.

Penna. R. R. New Bond Issue.

Philadelphia, March 5.—The North American this morning says: "The Pennsylvania Railroad Co. at its annual meeting, to be held March 14, will ask the stockholders to authorize an issue of $100,000,000 of new bonds."

Nan Patterson's Re-Trial.

New York, March 4.—Judge Gaynor has ruled that Nan Patterson is entitled to a new trial by May 1, or to bail. It has been decided to commence her second trial on April 3.

London, March 5.—People grumble a great deal about the telephone service in London, but now are finding out what a terrible thing it is to be without it altogether. At any rate there are now 6000 subscribers in the city who this week were forced to do without telephones and many of whom may be in the same unfortunate position for some time to come. CHILDREN CREMATED.

Father Retains Home From Work Found Pisco in Flames.

Niagara Falls, March 4.—About 8 o'clock this evening two children, 5 and 6 years of age respectively, were cremated in a cottage on Ontario-street, occupied by Walter Phillips.

The children were left in the house alone, the father not having returned from his work, while the mother had gone over to the American side on business. The father was on his way down street to the house when he saw a fire burst from the windows. The bodies of the two little ones were taken out of the ruins, burned to a crisp.

BOMB KILLS SERVANT.

Warshaw, March 5.—A telegram from Lodz says that a bomb was exploded at noon today in the mansion of M. Poznanski, a millionaire cotton manufacturer, and that one servant was killed. M. Poznanski's employes went out on strike yesterday.

Woman Shots Man.

Passaic, N. J., March 4.—Antonietta Tollo today shot and instantly killed Joseph Santo at Kingsland, seven miles from here. The families were neighbors. Santo was married and had three children and Mrs. Tollo was the mother of a boy and girl. Mrs. Tollo said she killed Santo in defence of her honor.

AFTER N. Y. PHONE CO.

Pettion Goes to Legislature Demanding an Investigation.

New York, March 5.—The exorbitant charges imposed by the New York Telephone Co. upon the people of New York are to be made the subject of a crusade in the Albany legislature.

The board of trade and transportation yesterday initiated the movement by calling before it representatives of various civic organizations. The matter is in the hands of the committee on telephone legislation. At the meeting a formidable representation was assured to appear before the finance committee of the senate at Albany and before the assembly. They will urge the appointment of a committee to investigate exorbitant telephone rates in New York. The hearing will be held in Albany next Tuesday.

Forty representatives of 19 different associations were present. Frank B. Green presided, and opened the meeting with this presentation of the rights of a public franchise, and should be regulated and subject to police, control and legislative regulations.

The following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, that the legislature of this state be and is hereby earnestly, and respectfully petitioned to appoint a special committee to investigate the charges for telephone service, the cost of such service to the companies, the amount of actual cash invested, the dividends paid, the percentage of profit to actual cash invested, or on hand, or expended for the uses and purposes of the company and for what uses and purposes expended, and such other information as may be useful in determining the rates to be just and equitable."

GOODBY TO HIS BLUEBELLS.

New York, March 5.—The marital woes of a sentimental song writer will be heard in the supreme court on Wednesday, when a suit for divorce instituted by Theodore F. Morse against his wife, Mrs. Morse, will be heard. Morse has written lots of songs and has made some money. Morse met his wife, who is a Philadelphia business man, three years ago. Morse had just written "Goodbye My Blue Belles" and Miss Dilkes liked the song.

"I fell in love with Miss Dilkes at first sight," he says. "I had always said that I would never marry a stage girl, for I wanted a wife that was home in the country near farm. But she was the part. I think my courtship was partly responsible for the success of my recent songs. Shortly after becoming acquainted with the young lady I dashed off 'Way Down in My Heart I've Got a Feeling for You.' This pleased her immensely, and she consented to be mine after I had written 'Please Come and Stay in My Arms Finally' after she was engaged. I wrote 'Dear Old Girl' and dedicated that piece to her. Mr. Morse says he has had her for three months ago. Morse hasn't written anything sentimental since. He says his thoughts have turned to different things.

WOMEN CREMATED.

Hillsdale, March 5.—Mary White, 18 years old, and her mother, Della Owens, aged 38, feeble minded, were burned to death early to-day in a fire which destroyed the main building of the county poor farm. The attendants had great difficulty in rescuing the two score inmates.

Bride Came by Ticket.

Irwin, Pa., March 5.—"To Tobias Berkowitz, Postoffice Building, Second Storey, Irwin, Pa., U.S.A." was the inscription on a card pinned to the dress of an emigrant girl who alighted from a Pennsylvania train here.

A railroad employe sent word to Berkowitz, who appeared with Ludwig Katrach of Pleasant Valley. The girl had come alone from Poland. Her name is Annie Kerpach, and she is 15 years of age. She came here to marry Katrach, who paid her passage. Annie says that she had no trouble in traveling the 4000 miles to Irwin.

Bessie Ables.

At noon on Saturday a barrel of benzine exploded in the woman's factory on Pearl-street. The Bay-street firemen responded to a still alarm. When they appeared on the scene the benzine had floated on top. The loss, however, was not very great.

STUDENTS MALTREATED BY POLICE

Shocking Tales From Tomsk-Women Stripped and Beaten.

St. Petersburg, March 5.—Mail advice which have just arrived here give details of the student riots at Tomsk, western Siberia, Feb. 28, preceding the closing of the university and technological institute.

They represent it as a horrible affair, in which students were held, shot and slashed by the infantry, Cossacks and police.

Nine students were killed and 23 were seriously wounded. Over a hundred young men and women were taken to the police station, where they were stripped of their clothes and some of them were beaten into insensibility with sticks of wood. The women were dragged about by the extent of the police of the station. "There is the wretched liberty you want."

So shameful was the action of the police that the whole fifth division of police was bound over by the court on the charge of brutality.

Best for Table Use.

In 1860 Dr. A. W. Chase was a practicing physician in Ann Arbor, Mich., but such was his reputation that he could not confine his practice to Ann Arbor and vicinity or even to the State of Michigan; for people heard of the remarkable cures that were being brought about and wrote for advice and treatment.

It was this demand from people at a distance which led Dr. Chase to put up for public sale a few of the prescriptions, which had proven so successful in his private practice, and backed by the integrity of character and honesty of purpose of Dr. Chase these family medicines soon acquired a reputation for reliability which has won for them the confidence of the best people of the land.

For some years previous Dr. Chase had made a hobby of collecting, studying and experimenting with receipts and prescriptions and the result was the publication of Dr. Chase's famous Receipt Book, which has had a world-wide circulation. This work, together with marked natural ability and high technical knowledge as a physician graduated from two of America's leading medical colleges, at Ann Arbor and Cincinnati, gave him undoubted qualifications for the extraordinary success he achieved as a physician.

Take for example Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills, which have become so well known as a family medicine to be depended on for the cure of liver disorders, kidney disease and constipation. Here is a letter from a Canadian who obtained treatment from Dr. Chase personally in 1867.

Cured by Dr. Chase in 1867.

Mr. G. W. PARISE, Sturgeon Bay, Ont., writes—"In the year 1867 I was very bad with my kidneys. I could not work on account of my back being lame, sore and painful all the time. Though I carefully followed the directions of our family doctor, he was unable to do me much good. At this time Dr. Chase was becoming known as an especially successful physician, and on the advice of my uncle, Charles Williams, I went to Dr. Chase at Ann Arbor, Michigan, and he gave me a box of his pills for kidney disease.

"You can scarcely imagine how much good they did me. They helped me so much that I went back to the doctor and bought a dozen boxes. In my mind there is not a medicine half so good as Dr. Chase's Kidney-Liver Pills for kidney trouble and headache. We always keep them in the house as a family medicine, and I would not think of using any other."

From the small beginning in Ann Arbor in the sixties the output of Dr. Chase's medicines increased at first slowly, but later by leaps and bounds wherever their merits became known.

While the advertising has been confined solely to Canada and the United States the reputation of these great family medicines spread abroad until it was necessary to establish an office in London for the British Isles, while orders have been received at the Canadian offices from such far away points as Belgium, France, Australia, New Zealand, Dutch West Indies, British Guiana, Nyassaland, Central Africa and Aden, Arabia.

Nothing short of genuine merit can account for such enormous demand for Dr. Chase's Medicines, every one of which was prepared by Dr. Chase on the principle of not merely relieving, but positively curing disease, by removing the cause, and to this principle is due, we believe, their phenomenal success.

Dr. Chase's medicines are for sale by all dealers or Edmanson, Bates & Co., Toronto, Ont., and the Dr. A. W. Chase Med. Co., Buffalo, N.Y. The portrait and signature of Dr. A. W. Chase, the famous receipt book author, are on every box of his medicines.

$1,000 will be forfeited if the above testimonial is not correct and on file at these offices.
