REPUBLICAN CONTROL IN CONGRESS PARED

DEMOCRATS MAY YET CAPTURE THE SENATE; CUT HOUSE MAJORITY

Little Group of Seven Insurgent Republican Senators Will Wield Deciding Power, Election Results Reveal

"AL" SMITH RE-ELECTED IN NEW YORK

Democrats Made Five Gains in Senate and Must Capture Four Out of Five Doubtful Seats to Dominate—Prohibition Referenda Results

NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—The squall that rocked the Republican brig yesterday washed away most of the party's majority in the Senate, reduced its margin in the House, and still was giving a scare today to some of the crew of stalwarts.

Democrats have made five gains from Republicans in the Senate—Massachusetts, New York, Kentucky, Oklahoma and Arizona—and must win four of the five doubtful seats to wrest control of the upper house from the administration party. Doubtful seats are Indiana, Maryland, Missouri, Oregon and Colorado. Total membership of the Senate is 96.

Democrats have gained nine seats from the Republicans in the lower house, where the membership is 435. They must gain 27 more to gain control and this is regarded as unlikely. More than 50 constituencies have not yet reported complete figures.

Both houses are expected to be dominated by progressive or insurgent Republicans.

PROHIBITION RESULTS FOR COAT THIEVES

New York and Illinois voted in favor of modification of the prohibition law; Wisconsin favored 275 beer; Nevada approved an appeal to Congress for modification of the Volstead Act, and California and Montana showed majorities for repeal of their state enforcement acts.

Missouri and Colorado rejected the proposal to repeal their state enforcement acts.

Fourteen Republican and ten Democratic governors were elected, with four states in doubt; they are Arkansas, Arizona, Michigan and Oregon. A little group of seven men will have the final say on over 100 pieces of legislation before the Congress. The hand will be composed of Senators Clegg, Bland, Republican, Wisconsin; Frasier and Nye, Republicans, North Dakota; Brookings, Republican, Iowa; Norris, Republican, Nebraska; and Johnson, Republican, California.

Impending Democratic victories were recorded in New York, which by electing Governor Smith with whatever effect it may have on the governor's presidential candidacy in 1928, and Massachusetts, which decisively defeated Senator Butler, president Coolidge's personal friend and chairman of the Republican National Committee.

NEW YORK SLIDE

The New York slide also snowed under Senator Wadsworth, another Republican power in the senate, while Oklahoma, returning to the Democratic fold from which she strayed in the Harding Republican year of 1920, refused to return Senator Harjo to Washington. Available returns show republican senatorial candidates either trailing or hard pressed in Arizona, Missouri, Kentucky, Maryland, Oregon, Colorado and Indiana.

Until the results in that doubtful group is more clearly defined, it will be impossible to say with certainty that the Republican majority they now have in the Senate.

SMITH IS RE-ELECTED

Thirty-three states elected governors, and although the returns from many are far from complete, a few changes of state administration are indicated. While Governor Smith was winning his fourth term, three of his Democratic colleagues were likewise amazing pluralities that promised to give them new tenures as head of their respective state governments. Ritchie of Maryland, and Donahay of Ohio, each running for a third term, established comfortable leads as the returns came in, and Hunt of Arizona already five times governor was ahead by a narrower margin for a sixth term as state executive.

BUTLER'S DEFEAT

The defeat of Senator Butler in Massachusetts was claimed as a victory by the wets, his successful Democratic opponent, former Senator Walsh, having cast his lot long ago with the modificationists. Democratic party spokesmen, however, were quick to describe the result as a rebuke to President Coolidge, who singled out Senator Butler as the only senatorial candidate to receive his personal endorsement. To set an example for his fellow-citizens in Massachusetts the president went by special train to Northampton where he cast his vote in time to return to Washington and receive the returns at the White House. He retired for the night without making public comment on the result in any state.

Mr. Butler's defeat removes him immediately from his place in the senate where Senator Walsh now takes rank as the junior colleague of Senator Gillette by whom he was defeated by a margin of 18,000 two years ago. Butler held office by appointment, and had been commissioned to serve as successor to the late Henry Cabot Lodge.

GOVERNOR AL SMITH For the fifth time New York Democrats, in session at Syracuse, nominated Al Smith for the governorship. The nomination was typical of Al Smith's popularity among his party—a matter of acclamation, bands, and immense enthusiasm. His ringing motto, the senatorial candidate, is to be Justice Robert F. Wagner, who has served to administer the oath of office to Governor Smith on the occasion of one of his re-elections. Both were elected yesterday.

SEARCH FOR MISSING Woman and Children

WINNIPEG, Man., Nov. 3.—Winnipeg police joined today with officials with the land settlement branch of the Department of Immigration in widespread search through the prairie provinces for Mary Vilot Moss, young English matron and her three children. The family vanished after reaching this city from near Sherbrooke, Quebec, some time in August 27 and every effort to find them has been without result. Local welfare organizations have no record of having been visited by the missing group. Frantic with fear and doubts for the safety of his loved ones, Ernest Moss, farmer, of Dinsmore, Sask., has appealed through A. S. Chambers, his employer, for aid in the search.

Says Four Friends Know Dead Magician's Tricks

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—Four friends of Houdini the magician who died Sunday, Leonard Hicks, a hotel operator here said today after reading a report that Houdini died without revealing the secrets of his success. Mr. Hicks claimed a lifelong friendship with the magician during part of which he said he was associated with Houdini in the theatrical profession and said the others to whom the secrets are known are Houdini's brother, known on stage as Theodore Harden, Basil Collins who was Houdini's assistant for 18 years and James Vickery, who was his assistant for 15 years.

FEELING AGAINST ANTI-FASCISTS GROWS INTENSE

Death or Injury Inflicted on Many in Demonstrations

PAPERS CLOSED

Heroic Efforts of Police Prevents Greater Bloodshed Throughout Italy

ROME, Nov. 3.—Death or injury has been inflicted upon many persons of anti-Fascist tendencies by Fascists enraged over the latest attempt to assassinate Premier Mussolini. In addition large numbers of hostile persons are under arrest and others are being closely watched.

Confirmation from Bologna that the attempt by Anteo Zamboni to assassinate Premier Mussolini last Sunday involved a far-reaching plot, instead of being merely the act of a deranged youth, has created an intensely hostile feeling against anti-Fascists. Only heroic efforts of military men and carabinieri prevented greater bloodshed yesterday among the subversive elements which the fascists in various cities and towns sought to punish.

Many of the peace officers were bruised or beaten when they attempted to hold back infuriated mobs who desired to attack the residences of anti-Fascists or wreck opposition newspaper offices. Riotous demonstrations occurred at Cagliari, in Sardinia, and at Naples, Venice, Genoa and other places.

NEWSPAPERS WRECKED

Newspaper buildings were entered by the angry Fascists and the plants damaged. At Cagliari the manifestations attacked the offices of two newspapers and then held a demonstration in front of the home of the anti-Fascist Deputy Lussu. A Fascist who climbed to the balcony of the deputy's residence, was shot and killed by Lussu. The soldiers energetically beat back the crowd which attempted to lynch the deputy and took him into custody.

HOMES DESTROYED

The home of the famous philosopher, Signor Croce was wrecked by a mob in Naples, as also were the homes of several other members of the opposition in that city. In Venice and several other towns, similar scenes were enacted.

Two Fascists and one Carabinieri were killed in Genoa when customs officers and Carabinieri fired upon bands of Fascist who were storming the residence of Signor Rossi, a Socialist lawyer. In Genoa, the premises of the newspaper Lavoro was damaged badly, as also were the offices of the Gazzetta in Venice.

PAPER LICENSES REVOKED

By decree issued by the prefect of police in Rome twelve opposition newspapers and two magazines have been refused permission to publish and the licenses of several other organs were revoked. Ten persons have been arrested and a large number of manifestos seized in connection with an alleged plot against the government. At Siena seventeen Communists have been taken into custody.

Co-operation of Farmers and Business Men
in N. B.

BOARD OF TRADE IS INITIATING MOVE

Difficulties of Marketing and Distribution Would be Gone Into

The Saint John Board of Trade today initiated a move to bring together the farmers and business men of the province in an effort to solve some of the problems encountered in rural communities. Similar co-operation has been carried out in various sections of the United States and Canada with highly successful results.

It is suggested that a joint meeting of business people and agriculturists might be arranged, and the views of officials in close touch with the farming sections of the province are being sought on the matter. Those to whom inquiries were sent today included A. C. Taylor, president of the Farmers' and Dairyman's Association, Salisbury; W. W. Huggard, president of the N. B. Dairyman's Union; H. W. Rogers, president of the N. B. Sheep Breeders' Association; Woodstock John Woods, president of the N. B. Poultry Exchange, Bloomfield; and A. B. Tritch, president of the Maritime Stock Breeders' Association, Salisbury. It is pointed out that production was not a serious problem in the province, while the matter of marketing and distribution presented many difficulties, and that it was with a desire to help the farming communities along these lines that the scheme has been suggested. Those to whom letters were sent were asked to express their opinions on the suggestion.

Great Lakes Lashed
By Furious Storm

TORONTO, Ont., Nov. 3.—Lake Superior, Michigan, Huron and Erie apparently received the full force of the northwest wind which yesterday whipped the inland seas into a fury, causing considerable damage and delay in shipping. In Lower Lake Huron, a United States lake survey boat and a sounding boat moored alongside a dock, were sunk, when waves dashed them against the wharf. The crew jumped ashore from the sinking vessel. The United States, a passenger steamer, ran aground on Corsica Shoal, near Port Huron, but was later released and much delay was occasioned. Midland, Owen Sound, Godrich, and Sarnia on the Canadian shores of the lake all reported the heaviest winds and roughest sea of the season.

REPUBLICAN
IN THE CONGRESS

until a senator could be chosen at the polls. The unexpired terms thus handed along by the voters to Walsh expires in 1929.

WAGNER'S GREAT WIN

The overthrow of Senator Wadsworth by Robert F. Wagner, in New York was perhaps the greatest surprise of all to the Republican chieftains. They had been in some measure prepared for the re-election of Governor Smith, despite a fighting campaign by Ogden L. Mills, the republican nominee, but they hoped to lead to keep the governor's plurality within such bounds that the hazard charges aimed at a democratic landslide would be averted. But Smith's tremendous vote of nearly 500,000, accompanied by such a shower of straight democratic ballots that Wadsworth found it impossible to overcome the Wagner majority in great New York with what remained of his own up-vote after it had been split by Francis W. Cramer, the independent republican running as a dry.

PARTY MAJORITY CUT.

The Republican victories accorded Wm. S. Vare in Pennsylvania and Frank L. Smith in Illinois, were accompanied by a material falling off of the normal party majorities. In both campaigns the slash fund charges aimed last spring before the senate committee, were intertwined with the wet and dry issue. An independent Republican candidate, Hugh S. McGill, entered the Illinois contest as a protest against Smith's attitude toward campaign expenditures, and polled a tidy total in the three-cornered fight. In Pennsylvania, the Democratic senatorial candidate, Wm. B. Wilson, a former Secretary of Labor, had the support of many Republicans, including Senator Norris of Nebraska. Wilson ran ahead of his ticket for a total that amounted to the hundreds of thousands, but it was not enough to overthrow the lead pyramid of Philadelphia.

PROHIBITION FIGURES

Prohibition figured as an issue in several of the senatorial and gubernatorial contests, and in eight states some feature of the dry laws was voted, but the wets and drys were still figuring before announcing their deductions. Governor Smith in New York and Governor Ritchie in Maryland ran on wet platforms, while Governor Donahoe of Ohio, was endorsed as a dry. Frank L. Smith the successful republican candidate in Illinois was endorsed by the anti-saloon league, which described his democratic opponent, George E. Brannan, as a "super-wet."

The same application was applied by the league to Wm. S. Vare in Pennsylvania, in Ohio, Senator Willis, Republican and ardent dry, won handsily over Former Senator Furness.

Voting by referendum for modification of the Volstead Act, New York State directly as a petition for 2 1/2 per cent in favor of the wet majority figures showed wide majorities in Nevada in favor of a modification applied to congress.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 2.—A serious economic situation has arisen on the Isle of Pines as a result of the recent hurricane. A report to the Navy Department today from the embassy at Havana, said that although sanitary conditions are good, a food shortage is reported. The Cuban Red Cross and the Cuban Secretary of the Interior have been asked to forward supplies immediately for two thousand people. The present food supply was contributed for the most part by United States naval vessels.

IN WORK OF NAVY

Lt. Com. Eric W. Oland Was Visiting Here—Brother on Iron Duke
Lieutenant Commander Eric W. Oland, R. C. N., who has been visiting at the home of his brother, George G. Oland, 182 Douglas avenue, accompanied by his father, George W. C. Oland of Halifax, president of Oland's Breweries here, left for the Nova Scotia capital today, as did also his father. After visiting his parents' home for a while, he will proceed to England to teach torpedo gunnery in the Portsmouth School of the British Navy. The young naval officer came directly from Esquimalt, Vancouver Island, British Columbia to this city and he was the first time in five years he has been enabled to join his own folks. After graduating from the Halifax Naval College, shortly after the inception of that school, Mr. Oland joined the Canadian naval forces. He rose to command of H. M. C. S. Patricia, which post he held for two years. This service was followed by command of the naval base at Esquimalt.

When the nerves are starved and depleted you become restless, irritable and suffer from loss of sleep. The regular use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food soon lifts you out of this condition by supplying to the system the elements of Nature from which nerve force is created.

Mrs. H. N. Harrowmith, Harrowmith, Ont. writes:—"My nerves were in a very bad state, and I did not know what it was to have a good night's rest. I could not eat, and never felt well. After taking Dr. Chase's Nerve Food for a few days I was able to sleep at night. My appetite also returned, and I felt stronger and better, and after taking three boxes of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food I was quite well."

VOCATIONAL TRAINING

THE educational authorities of the four Western Provinces are not merely content to provide vocational schools. The technical training heads have got together and evolved a plan for the kind of those who cannot attend either day or evening classes. It is proposed to have a correspondence course for the benefit of such students, and the Calgary Herald says:

"Many branches in manual arts may be taught quite as well by correspondence as by class work, especially when the correspondence class student is getting the practical training in his everyday occupation. The same rule holds with respect to numerous other occupations outside of manual arts and it is the intention to extend the usefulness of technical training centres in this direction to the furthest practical limit."

No doubt there will be many to take advantage of this correspondence course. Life evenings may very well be devoted to self-improvement, and the benefit will be not only to the individual but to the country, which stands always in need of the skilled brain and hand.

WHERE ARE WE AT?

WE ARE indebted to The Tea Hour, a magazine issued "with the compliments of The Salsola Tea Company of Canada, Limited, Montreal," for a lesson in geography which will be of particular interest to the people of Saint John, not only in Halifax and the world at large. We fancy Hon. P. C. Larkin, Canadian High Commissioner in London, will also read the article in The Tea Hour with high appreciation. Under a very excellent picture of the reversing falls at Saint John is an article describing the mighty river and explaining that the reversing falls are "just where the great Saint John river empties itself into the sea at Saint John harbor." Immediately following, however, we find this sentence: "It must be understood that the Saint John river, 450 miles long and representing the natural drainage of over 25,000 square miles of country, empties itself into Halifax harbor through a narrow gorge some 450 feet wide." The reader of The Tea Hour is left to conjecture whether the visitor should visit Saint John or Halifax to see the reversing falls. Mr. Calder, K. C., says we are too highly educated in the Maritime Provinces. Well—we could spare a little to Montreal.

The Queen of Rumania's publicity manager made an error when he timed the arrival of his royal employer at Spokane to clash with the elections. The city's attention was divided, so it is reported. Most annoying.

Reports of a snowfall in the Central and Western Provinces remind us that even our glorious climate of New Brunswick will presently direct our attention to the closet where the winter overcoat hangs.

The marking of historic sites to the extent to which it has been done in Saint John is worth while, but we may hope that in the not distant future one or more monuments of a more imposing nature may commemorate the city's historic past.

If it be correct that the South End Boys' Club is to be opened until January, for financial reasons, the fact is greatly to be regretted. Boys of the South End have derived great benefit from this club, and there should be no question about keeping it in operation.

The announcement that Australian dressed beef is to be carried in refrigerator steamers to Great Britain prompts the Calgary Herald to ask if the Prairie Provinces, which can place beef in the British market in half the time required for the Australian article, are not able to compete, either with Australia or the Argentine. The Winnipeg Tribune, noting that Australia now exports mustard to Canada, appears to entertain the fear that Australian beef may follow. Of course the matter resolves itself into a question of cost of production. The Calgary Herald properly suggests that production costs in the Canadian West might very well be made the subject of expert enquiry.

The England of Today

(Y. Y. in the New Statesman) A GOOD case can be made out for the view that this is the most comfortable age in English history. If Dickens returned to earth he would, it is conceivable, be a free man. This is not to say that he would be a member of the Conservative and a great reformer of a hundred years ago—say, the Duke of Wellington and Francis Place—who were responsible only to his member who had sold the ticket, much confusion and delay resulted, especially when purchasers tried to bring legal enforcement upon the club to obtain payment, or insured their share against loss. It is on record that once the Duke of Wellington refused to pay over to the lucky winner. He was within his rights, and there were no means of legal enforcement, though I understand that the club removed him from membership.

Even in such large cities as Ottawa, London and Hamilton there are only two papers in each place, while in Toronto it is to be noted that the field is fully covered by two papers, just as in the morning field. In other words, the movement is all away from multiplicity of papers and toward consolidation, and, therefore, stronger papers which, properly conducted, can give much better service to their readers, as well as to the community in which they are published.

Liquor Ads

AN ANNOUNCEMENT was made in the press last week that after next March no further advertisements of intoxicating liquors would appear in Punch. We warmly congratulate Punch on its action, which is worthy of the great position Punch occupies. We are sometimes told that in the commercialized press of today there is no place for idealism. Punch's action gives the lie to this statement.

Too Much Tooting

THE fact is that a motor horn is useful to disperse children playing some distance ahead on a residential street, or to signal to a car in front that another is about to pass it. But when the horn is used to get downtown traffic to command all and sundry to get out of the user's way, or when it is sounded when only a few feet separate the motor car from the pedestrian, it becomes a nuisance and a danger. The pedestrian may hardly notice it until the noise of a busy street; or, if noticed, the result may be a hasty leap to one side—into the path of some other car. As an expedient for reckless driving, the horn has no place in motordom.

News and Views From The British Capital

LONDON, Oct. 21, 1926—Despite all the sensational and Machiavellian motives read into Lord Oxford's resignation, I am convinced by prominent Liberals who certainly would not attempt to mislead anyone that his real reason is also the obvious one. The veteran and noble peer, who has by advising years and after his recent breakdown it would be simply foolhardy to think of keeping in the forefront of party battle, is retiring because he is personally concerned in the Liberalism which with him amounts to a religion shared by the masses and is utterly expelled.

There was one thing I noticed particularly about the great Guards' ceremonial last Saturday. Very few of the "temporary Guardsmen" had really grown and I hear that the men with burst boots and hollow faces are likely to get a helpful lift as the result of Saturday's affair. The men had one thing noticeably in common with the Mons film. Mr. Churchill was not the only reputed cynic whose eyes were blue and staring. These "brothers" are alleged to have persuaded Lord Oxford against his better judgment to the famous letter of excommunication against "L. G."

On his now frequent visits to the Dominions Office, the Duke of York, who is busily studying for his coming tour, displays a special interest in one big painting in the reception room. It is a portrait of the Duke of York, depicting the Royal opening of the First Commonwealth Parliament. This took place at Melbourne on May 9th, exactly a quarter of a century ago, and was performed by the Duke of York of that date—1901—now His Majesty King George V. The King is wearing full dress in the picture, and is seated in the Duke's chair, which was presented to the Duke of York by the Duke of York, then Duchess of York, stands just behind him in the stately but curiously old-fashioned room. The Duke of York's picture is the Marquis of Lintihgow, then Governor-General of Australia, but now in India, the Chairman of the Agricultural Commission, Lord Tennyson, Lord Lansdowne, Captain Sir Edward Wallington, Lord Curzon, and Sir Charles Cusack, still Equerries to King George.

New 'Calcutta Sweep' Regulations

The Calcutta Club regulations are wise in their new rule that in future the drawer of a horse, whether in the Derby or the St. Leger, sweeps and does not get a ticket. This is a very wise rule, and it is to be hoped that it will be adopted in a world-wide publicity with all its attendant inconveniences. In days gone by it was the custom to give a runner, to influence an owner to make his entry a runner whether it had an earthly chance of winning. The runner drew a considerable sum, and the drawer could easily make it worth the owner's while to run his horse. Consequently, there were a great many horses which have caused the loss of a race to one that had a chance when crowding took place at the start in the Derby and the St. Leger. This was one abuse. Another lay with the ticket plan. The drawer of a runner often sold his ticket either outright or on a conditional basis. The runner was responsible only to his member who had sold the ticket, much confusion and delay resulted, especially when purchasers tried to bring legal enforcement upon the club to obtain payment, or insured their share against loss. It is on record that once the Duke of Wellington refused to pay over to the lucky winner. He was within his rights, and there were no means of legal enforcement, though I understand that the club removed him from membership.

Odds and Ends

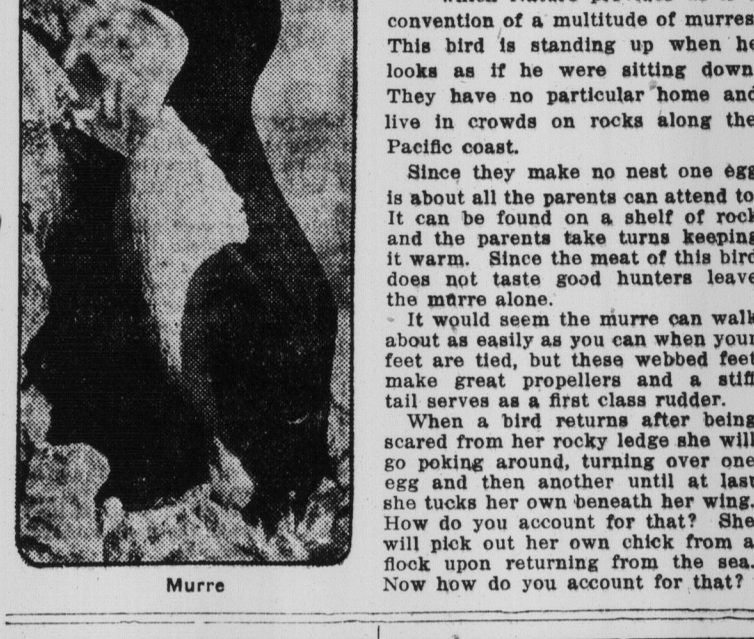

Ordeal By Camera (Queen Marie's Impressions.) It is bewildering to the European mind—that strange mixture of freedom and order. The people have curious rights, and yet they respect authority. The right of the photographer is the thing that astounds me most. He seems to have a special place at the sacred ceremonies, and though it is particularly pleasant to be confronted at every step with hundreds of machines leveled at you like so many threats, I cannot help seeing the humor of the situation which is the explanation of the fact that I am so often snapped with a broad grin on my face.

He Made It Brief (Hit-Bits) Johnny was leaving for his first term at school. "Now, write just when you like, sonny," said his father, "and don't be afraid to cut it short." For a week there was silence; then on the eighth day came the following: "Dear Dad, S.O.S., L.S.D. I.S.V.V."

Queer Quirks of Nature

IS HE STANDING UP OR SITTING DOWN? BY ARTHUR N. PAX

Murre

ONE of the strangest sights with which Nature provides us is a convention of a multitude of murre. This bird is standing up when he looks as if he were sitting down. They have no particular homes, and live in crowds on rocks along the Pacific coast.

Since they make no nest one egg is about all the parents can attend to. It can be found on a shelf of rock and the parents take turns keeping it warm. Since the meat of this bird does not taste good hunters leave the murre alone.

It would seem the murre can walk about as easily as you can when your feet are tied, but these webbed feet make great propellers and a stiff tail serves as a first class rudder. When a bird returns after being scared from her rocky ledge she will go poking around, turning over one egg and then another until at last she tucks her own beneath her wing. How do you account for that? She will pick up her own chick from a stock upon returning from the sea. Now how do you account for that?

Just Fun

PROFESSOR (in desperation over 'phone)—I demand instant communication. Hello Girl—What's the number of the church you're calling, please?

BROTHERS IN THE BOND. Her lips were like two roses. Flowers that must be kissed. Her eyes were blue and teasing. The kind I can't resist.

Her hair was gold and curly. (But there's a point to note). She was my brother's sweetheart. And I was just the goat!

NO BRAINS. "I've just been reading of a machine that does the work of 10 men. It almost has brains, hasn't it?" "Not if it does all that work."—Ull, Berlin.

HIGH SOCIETY. PROFITTEER'S LADY: I shall certainly send Fido to the dog show next year. Not of course that he would win anything, but I would like him to meet some really nice dogs—Punch, London.

GETTING TO HIS FEET, the dice roller said disconsolately. "Well, I've clean." One of his neighbors turned and inquired, "You is which?" "I says," came the downhearted reply, "I'm broke, CLEAN."

CLEAN? was the retort. "Why, big boy, you want very dirty when you come into this game, was you?"

HE COULDN'T LEARN. "Aren't you nearly ready, dear?" "John, I wish you'd stop asking that question. Haven't I been telling you for the last half hour that I'll be ready in a minute?"—Journal Amusant, Paris.

SHE KNEW. "Do you understand the nature of an oath, madam?" asked the attorney of the fair witness. "I'll tell the world I do. I married a sailor," was the emphatic response.—Judge.

CONTAGION. Katy, aged seven, had just proved of the new baby in the neighborhood and was telling of her mother. "The night she the baby but not its mother." "Oh, I might catch it."—Life.

HOW MANY. DISTINGUISHED PHYSICIAN (handing prescription to patient): If this doesn't put you right, come to me again. For 'twas upon the river bank 'PAIRED': How many guesses will you want?—Punch, London.

RIVERSIDE COMEDY. It was a lucky thing for Frank (That Philida could swim): For 'twas upon the river bank That she fell in with him.

NOW that you are married I suppose you will take out an insurance policy? "Oh, no! I don't think she's going to be dangerous."

TAD—Pa, what's a matrimonial bureau? Dad—It's a bureau, son, with six drawers packed full of women's fashions and one man's necktie.

WHEN in hot water a lot of people bubble before they boil over. I've heard about this bathin' business," says Si Perkins, "but it don't do no good. Two or three weeks after you take one of these baths, yer just as dirty again."

THE following sign is displayed above the ice-cream counter of a prominent drug store: "Take a brick home; it's fine when company comes."

IMPOSSIBLE! is one man's excuse; another man's challenge.

DOES it take more courage to raise a moustache than to raise one?

You Can Expect Great Things of The Greater Hoover. The Greater Hoover so far surpasses the fondest hopes of those who know what should be expected of an electric cleaner that it leaves no room for doubt as to its superiority over other modern cleaning devices. Review in your mind what you've always hoped, some day, to find in the cleaner you will eventually own. Then, see this new triumph of the world's oldest and largest maker and you, too, will admit that IT FAR EXCEEDS YOUR ANTICIPATIONS! You can safely expect great things of this Hoover for the ability to do great things has been built into it. Indicative of this is the fact that, due to its revolutionary new principle, "Positive Agitation," it will remove, in the same cleaning time, 101 per cent. more dirt than did the previous model. Why Don't Husbands Pay Wives the Little Attention They Crave?—On the Other Hand, Why Must These Attention Loom So Large in a Woman's Life?—What a Pity Men Can't Remember "Little Things."

THE chief indictment that the average woman brings against her husband is that he does not pay enough attention to the little things of life, and this is what turns matrimony into cinch, ashes and dust for her.

Oh, yes, he is a good man, she will mournfully admit when she goes off on one of her rages of self-pity. He has no roving eye for other women. He doesn't drink nor gamble, and he works like a day horse to support her and her children. He is a good provider. There isn't a woman in her acquaintance who has prettier clothes, or a better car, or a nicer home, but he never does any of the "little things."

He never pays her a compliment. He never tells her how young and beautiful she grows. He never notices what she has on. He never remarks on what a wonderful housekeeper and manager she is. He never sends her any flowers or brings her a box of candy. He never takes her out in the evening without a fight. He never remembers anniversaries. He never even tells her that he loves her, or gives her a kiss that isn't a perfunctory peck of duty that is as liable to land on the back of her neck or the tip of her nose as on her lips.

Wherefore, all of his virtues are as nothing in his wife's eyes and she beats upon her breast and walks out that marriage is a failure and that she is, of all women, most miserable.

Now, inasmuch as it is well known to all men that women have this crazy obsession about little things, it has always seemed to me that it was the height of stupidity for a husband not to gratify his wife's mania on the subject. If a little flattery and a pound of chocolates and a sentimental token now and then would make a woman happy, and keep her eating out of your hand, for Heaven's sake why not let her have it?

THERE is no other way in the world that a man can invest a little time and trouble and money, where it will pay such enormous dividends in peace and comfort and well-being for himself as it will if put in on showing his wife some little attention.

If I were a married man, I should make it a rule to begin the day by regularly paying my wife a florid compliment as I did by brushing my teeth. At the commencement of the year I would mark down on my calendar the anniversary of the day I met her and the day I popped the question and her birthday and our wedding day. And I'd send her some little memento on each occasion, even if it were only a ten-cent bag of peanuts. And when she asked me how I liked her new dress I'd tell her she looked lovely in anything, instead of gurgling in my throat or handing out a knock.

FOR well I'd know that if I'd sacrificed to the feminine Little Gods she would be so pleased that she'd never notice what else I did, and she would go about congratulating herself about her luck in having got a perfect husband, no matter if I beat her and starved her. Moreover, all the other women who had husbands who worked themselves to death for them, and who gave them fine clothes and fine houses instead of fine speeches, would envy her.

As I said before, it is sheer insanity that keeps husbands from paying their wives the small attention that they crave so greatly, but, on the other hand, it shows an equal lack of intelligence for women to put such an inordinate value upon trifles.

Why they make such a fetish of little things nobody knows. Nor can anybody explain the peculiarity of feminine vision that makes a little thing loom larger in a woman's life than a big thing. It just happens that way, as Michael Arden would say.

ON EVERY side of us we see women putting such stress upon some trivial thing that they are letting it ruin all of the great happiness that life has for them. We see women turning the thought that their husbands do not love them like a knife in their hearts just because their husbands do not tell them that they adore them in so many words.

Yet these very men prove their devotion every day by their works. They say it with labor, with luxuries, with the civility that makes a man sacrifice himself to keep his family safe and warm, but because they do not put it into actual speech their wives doubt them.

AND all about us we see women who should be happy—who have all of the raw material of happiness in their hands in the shape of good, kind, generous husbands and comfortable homes—making themselves miserable over trifles. They are like the princess in the fairy tale who searched under her forty mattresses of ease until she found a crumpled rose leaf.

They find their fault in the fact that their husbands don't want to go out in the evenings, or that their husbands don't feel like talking after a hard trying day's work, or that their husbands forgot their wedding anniversaries, or give them a check instead of picking them out a present at Christmas.

What a pity that these silly women, who make mountains out of mole hills, haven't enough vision to see how small little things are! For in matrimony it isn't the compliments and picking up of handkerchiefs that count. It is the big things, the tenderness, the faithfulness, the willingness of a man to stand before his wife and fight the world for her.

WHAT a pity women haven't enough philosophy and sense of humor to realize that as long as a man is nailed to his own freestone of an evening and brings his pay envelope home, it's a proof of affection you could draw money on at the bank. That when he passes his plate back for a second helping it's the most fulsome compliment he can pay his wife's cooking, and that nobody ever really gives you what you want as a present, but you can pay exactly the thing you crave on a charge account.

What a pity a man can't remember the little things, and a woman forget them.

Stage Stars Act as Mannequins in Fashion Show

By MME LISBETH

A NUMBER of New York's stage celebrities acted as mannequins in one of the fashion shows in that city recently. The three pictured here are wearing gowns for formal occasions.

Miss Sylvia Field (left), leading woman of "Broadway" is dressed in a Molyneux model for evening—a gold cloth embroidered with topaz and gold sequins. The flare for her, quins, brilliant and similar decoration for evening gowns has lost nothing from the fact that the gowns worn by Queen Marie of Romania during her visit in this country are thus embellished. This model has a slight tendency to front fullness, with a girlishly effect narrowing to the center front and a drapey hanging below the hem.

Jean Lanvin is represented in her "American Beauty" dress worn by Jean Barclay of the "Gay Paree" company. This is a simply fashioned little gown (center) with plain bodice with elbow length sleeves and full skirt. Rose petals are strewn over skirt and bodice and a bunch of American beauties is fastened at the waist.

The third model is white trimmed with pearls. Miss Georgia Ingram, dancer in "Americana" is the model. It uses front fullness in the skirt and has a V-shaped decolletage.

Frock after frock seen in the collection might be described trimmed with various types of head trimming. Gold tissue embroidered in allover fashion with vari-colored beads was a noticeable example, added contrast being offered in a scarlet velvet panel, girle and catwa. A bolero is a feature of the bodies, being more definitely marked at the back than the front.

And another—a dinner dress of rose pink chiffon—is embroidered with rhinestones and trimmed with ostrich in matching shade. A silver metal cloth foundation gleamed through the chiffon of this gown. So it goes, proving that milady must sparkle not only intellectually in society these days, but in person.

Fashion Fancies.

Flowered Crepe de Chine With Pleated Inset Makes This Gay Combination.

One would think all the "different" ways of making combinations were exhausted, yet here is a smart inset treatment that is decidedly new.

In the first place, the material is fetching, being pale blue crepe de chine with tiny flower sprays in pink and yellow. The scallops are bound in yellow, and the one-sided inset is of yellow chiffon.

In solid colors, orchid crepe de chine with pale blue chiffon would be effective.

SILK WORMS OUTDOOR

An artificial silk made from wool is being produced in greater quantity now than that of the silk worms over a given period. In one year 150,000,000 pounds of this artificial silk made from wool alone exceeded the production of real silk by all the silk worms.

BEHIND THE SCREEN

Sally Rand, blonde or brunette?

GENTLEMEN may prefer blondes—and again they may not, this being a point of controversy among experts. But do blondes want to be preferred? If Sally Rand, pretty blonde maiden of cinema fame, is the girl in question, the answer is "no."

Sally gladly would exchange her golden tresses for those of a darker hue. "There are plenty of reasons why I would rather be a brunette," she exclaimed. "First of all, I believe I am better looking with dark hair. It suits my features better."

Now Sally isn't hard to look at regardless of mere man's personal taste, as is proved by her picture, because she does not reveal her thoughts. So there you are—the blonde vs. brunette argument from a new viewpoint.

Sally has played in several pictures as a brunette. She likes herself better that way, and always begs for such roles. And it is not an uncommon sight to see her on the Boulevard or at the Montmartre wearing a dark wig and unthinking. It is difficult for a blonde not to show her thoughts and emotions in her eyes. That's another disadvantage.

"But brunettes—oh, they're all so different! You never can tell what a brunette will do and men know it. That is what makes it possible for dark-haired girls to enjoy themselves more. They can kid a man along and he never knows how to treat them. When a brunette goes anywhere she has the feeling of an adventure, because she doesn't know what may happen. Her eyes don't reveal her thoughts."

So there you are—the blonde vs. brunette argument from a new viewpoint.

TODAY'S RECIPES

Fried Cornmeal Mush—One cup cornmeal, one teaspoon salt, three cups milk. Mix cornmeal smooth with one cup cold water. Slowly stir the milk mixture into the boiling milk. Place in double boiler and cook until smooth and thick. A cup of flour stirred in near the end of the cooking holds the mush together better than the cornmeal alone. Pour into bread tin and let cool. In the morning fry on hot griddle and serve with syrup.

Pork Dressing—Make a good bread dressing as for roast chicken, seasoned with sage and onions.

Lemon Pudding—Two cups water, juice one and one-half lemons. Cook in double boiler. Whip into stiffly beaten whites of three eggs.

The Warm-over Potatoes are left from dinner. They may be creamed, scalloped, fried, or the inside may be scooped out of the shells while still warm, mixed with butter and milk, seasoned to taste, then put back in the shells and put aside until ready to bake for half an hour in the oven at supper time.

Apple Dumplings—Two cups of flour, four teaspoons baking powder, one-half teaspoon salt, four teaspoons sugar. Sift. Four tablespoons shortening, milk to make a soft dough—not as soft as for biscuits, however. Handle as little as possible.

HEALTH SERVICE Anemia Isn't Inherited But Liability To It Is

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEN.

ALTHOUGH much suggestive material has appeared in medical literature during the year relative to pernicious anemia, the exact cause of this disease has not been definitely established.

Several investigators have shown the importance of a proper amount of iron in the diet; others have indicated the significance of vitamin A and have suggested the use of liver and kidneys as important accessories in the control of this disease.

It is understood also that cod liver oil, orange juice and fresh vegetables are important accessories in the control of this disease.

FAMILY TENDENCIES

Most of the evidence that is available indicates that heredity or a family tendency does not play a very important part in the occurrence of this disease. One German investigator found 24 instances in which at least two cases were seen in the same family. Other investigators pointed out that the conditions which were likely to cause the disease in one member of the family would, no doubt, affect other members to a greater extent than they might affect other persons.

Two Pennsylvania physicians have recorded a series of cases that occurred in a family living in a small town in the northwestern part of that state.

16 CASES IN FAMILY.

A careful record of the family has been maintained and shows that anemia was first noted in one of the male ancestors who died in 1848.

Among his descendants there have been 16 cases in all, with seven deaths diagnosed as pernicious anemia.

These cases are interesting as showing possible influence of heredity in the development of this disease. It is the modern conception that the disease itself is not inherited, but that there is a form of body structure and function which is inherited and which is responsible for such cases.

Sea-Sawing Along Broadway

CLUB rooms have their advantages, but those who follow the various arts and crafts associated with Broadway seem to prefer to meet on the sidewalk.

To the best of my knowledge all available Broadway corners in the mid-Forties are now taken and it would be useless to make application for space. Each group has, long ere this, learned where to gather, although these meeting places are prescribed by habit rather than written notice.

AND, since these gathering places change from season to season, due to the overnight appearance of new theatres and skyscrapers, I believe I can safely announce to the potential visitor that the winter schedule of Broadway street corners will be about as follows:

Forty-fourth street, and the "quick and basty" lunch-counter thereabout, will take care of the movie extras' of old. It is here that the agents of the casting directors know they can always round up enough extras for the average film production. Let the word go out that some heavy casting is under way and watch the mob!

Forty-sixth street—The musicians, jazz bands, ad lib, cling tenaciously to this spot, thanks to the propinquity of booking offices. Just now, thanks to winter activities in cafes, the ranks grow thinner. But, despite the cooling weather, you'll see more hatless heads on this spot than any other in all Manhattan. Why do the young jazz bandits refuse to wear hats? Perhaps a hang-over from the summer resorts! Or collegiality!

Forty-seventh street—Vaudeville hang-out! Here you'll find the acts, from five-a-day to big-time, acrobats to society dancers, hand-ping artists to monologuers. Nearly is a leading trade magazine! Nearby, also, are the booking agents!

Forty-eighth street, across the block to Seventh avenue—Gamblers' hang-out! Everything from crapshooters to race-horse followers. Chiefly the latter just now. If you want to find out at horse night going to win, listen in on an average conversation. This is the land of "chickens today and feathers tomorrow." Tin-horns and gamblers of fairly fat purses.

Forty-ninth to Forty-ninth, also on Seventh avenue—The film distributors holding their curb market on the sidewalk. Walk right up and get yourself a nice moving picture! Anything in the cinema!

Fiftieth street, back at Broadway—Detectives! Both public and private. They meet and compare notes. This as the fringe of the night club capital. About this section plays that new criminal, the gentleman gangster. Sharp eyes are out for new faces. Here come the stool-pigeons with their tales. Here passes the gossip of So-and-so who is running wild with money on Broadway. Where did he get it? I'll wager there's a good fiction plot a day—or often—if one were on the inside.

Grim Pyorrhea gets 4 out of 5

All around you are people doomed, through careless loss, to contract Pyorrhea. Four persons out of five past forty (and many younger) are its victims.

Carelessness—neglect of teeth and gums—is the cause. And the results, too often, are loss of teeth, neuritis, rheumatism, or other serious diseases.

And yet, if you start in time, it is so easy to prevent. See your dentist twice a year. And start using Forhan's for the Gums.

Used regularly and in time, Forhan's prevents Pyorrhea or checks it. It firms the gums and keeps them healthy. It protects teeth against decay-causing acids and keeps them white.

Ask your dentist about Forhan's, the formula of R. J. Forhan, D. D. S. It contains Forhan's Pyorrhea Liquid, used by dentists.

Safeguard youth and health! Start the morning-and-night Forhan habit, today. Teach your children to use it as health-insurance. At all drugstores 35c and 6c.

Winter Plans Made by Three Local Chapters of I. O. D. E.

THREE more of the primary chapters of the I. O. D. E. held their November meetings last night and arranged for further activities. Two more were scheduled to hold sessions today. ALEXANDRA CHAPTER. Alexandra Chapter met at the home of Mrs. Walter L. Greig, the regent who presided. Very gratifying reports were received from the recent Trafalgar tea and sale and the meeting voted sums of money to the I. O. D. E. war memorial fund, to the V. O. N. U. child welfare work and to the Simonds Street Kindergarten. It was also decided to supply milk and biscuits for the kindergarten again this coming winter. Arrangements were made to send an I. O. D. E. library to the school at Lower Norton. Members were requested to attend the Armistice Day service in King Square. At the close of the business meeting refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed. The hostesses were Mrs. Gregg and Mrs. Bayard Stillwell.

Winter Plans Made by Three Local Chapters of I. O. D. E.

THREE more of the primary chapters of the I. O. D. E. held their November meetings last night and arranged for further activities. Two more were scheduled to hold sessions today. ALEXANDRA CHAPTER. Alexandra Chapter met at the home of Mrs. Walter L. Greig, the regent who presided. Very gratifying reports were received from the recent Trafalgar tea and sale and the meeting voted sums of money to the I. O. D. E. war memorial fund, to the V. O. N. U. child welfare work and to the Simonds Street Kindergarten. It was also decided to supply milk and biscuits for the kindergarten again this coming winter. Arrangements were made to send an I. O. D. E. library to the school at Lower Norton. Members were requested to attend the Armistice Day service in King Square. At the close of the business meeting refreshments were served and a social hour was enjoyed. The hostesses were Mrs. Gregg and Mrs. Bayard Stillwell.

ROYAL STANDARD CHAPTER

Royal Standard Chapter met at the residence of Mrs. A. P. Barnhill, in Douglas avenue, with Mrs. F. J. Harding, regent, presiding. Arrangements were completed for the annual fall sale which will be held on Nov. 25 and for giving an entertainment for the sailors some time later in the season. The Chapter will also provide an entertainment for the soldiers in the Lancaster hospital in March. The reports from the children of a returned soldier who is out of work. At the close of the evening a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments were served. The hostesses were Miss Fairweather, Miss Ethel McAfee and Miss Jean Horsman.

MASSON, MR. A. D. MALCOLM, MR. S. L. KERR AND MR. R. G. MARCH. About midnight delicious refreshments were served by a committee of Evelyn Mitchell, Mrs. Harry Smith, Clover Valley, Loch Lomond and Mrs. Bayard Stillwell. The guests entered the house on a raised board walk, ghosts were fitting about and a fortune telling booth caused much merriment. A program of games was carried out and home-made candy was sold. The sum of $48.25 was realized.

THE TROJAN ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

THE Trojan Athletic Association held a most delightful Halloween dance in the Venetian Gardens last evening. The building was very attractively decorated in orange and black, which not only represent Halloween but are also the well known colors of the Trojans. Each lady guest was presented with an attractive Halloween card containing candy, and the holders of the lucky numbers each received a charming dinner table black "pelt" cut. During the evening societies were distributed, such as hats, pumpkins, cats and other "fun" items as well as "noise" making devices, which added to the general merriment of the evening. The chaperones and general conveners were Mrs. E. A.

HERTZOG RAISES GRAVE PROBLEM

Equality Claim From South Africa Causes Some Division

BY GEORGE HAMBLETON
Canadian Press Staff Correspondent
LONDON, Nov. 2.—Premier J. B. M. Hertzog's claim for international recognition of the equality of status within the Empire is raising a thorny problem for the Premier's committee of the Imperial conference on inter-imperial relations. Day by day the committee is meeting and throwing ideas into a common melting pot. It is surrounding its proceedings with the most profound secrecy. But so far, it is understood, the committee has not reached any solution of its difficulties.

Premier Hertzog, while disclaiming any idea of separation from the Empire, is still pressing his idea of international recognition. He takes the ground, it is understood, that while there has been much talk of the Empire as a community of equal nations, it is not so in actuality, and won't be such until there has been some form of international recognition.

BIRKENHEAD'S VIEWS.
The Earl of Birkenhead, secretary of state for India, has stated that in his view there is nothing in the South African prime minister's formula, which cannot be composed "within the limits of that freedom which is very meaning and essence of Imperial relations."

Nevertheless the committee is finding difficulty in determining how there could be international recognition should the Imperial Conference consider it necessary. One method, it is understood, has been suggested by way of a formal announcement by all the associated governments in the British Commonwealth, but there is apparently some fear that such a course, even if the committee approves it, which it has not so far done, might lead to further difficulties. What, for instance would be the position of the Dominions in regard to foreign policy? Would the Dominions each establish their own diplomatic service?

VENTURESOME HESITATE.
The committee met again this afternoon. The situation is still so nebulous, however, that even the most venturesome hesitate to hazard a prophecy as to the decisions the committee will reach. There is, however, an obvious tendency not to regard the difficulties raised by Premier Hertzog's stand as being in any way insuperable. The view expressed by Lord Birkenhead is finding considerable support. It is stated by some that even if the South African Prime Minister's position were given effect it would not in its essence involve any great changes in the constitution of the Empire that would be more than a matter of wording. It is

Her Hair Fairly SPARKLES Now!

The woman who knows what to do after waving her hair doesn't fear the effect of hot irons. Nor of frequent washings. A few drops of Danderine—on comb or towel—and the hair is soft and lustrous, and behaves beautifully.

A bit of Danderine rubbed lightly into the scalp, is the one sure way to dissolve every particle of dandruff. But a few drops more make a dressing that is simply marvelous. A sheen that rivals brilliancy, and no grease! Any permanent wave or water wave lasts much longer and looks much nicer when Danderine is used instead of water to "set" the wave.

REDS TRY NEW ONE

LONDON—England's enemies of Bolshevik propaganda are astounded. They are confronted with the task of finding a barrier for ether. A Reigate radio fan has reported "listening in" on a revolutionary address given at Moscow and intended for the British miners. The address was given by an Englishman and was the only part of the program not conducted in the Russian language.

EX-CONVICTS TO ACT.

VIENNA—None but ex-convicts will have parts in a new American crook play written by Mme. Elmer, millionaire woman philanthropist of Vienna, who also will produce the play. Collectively, the 14 actors and actresses in the show have served more than a hundred years' penal servitude. All 14 are now proteges of the well-known woman philanthropist, who fully expects that the success of such a novel performance will free the ex-convicts from sordid money worries and will furnish them with funds to start life anew.

"HUNCH" WORTH $12,000.

CHICAGO—George L. Tompkins had a "hunch" the other day and it was worth $12,000 to him. He had advertised his apartment building for sale.

A "Mrs. Cook" answered the ad and induced Tompkins to go to Detroit to meet the "famous Mr. Wellman" and a "Mr. Bell" who had won $450,000 on the races. The three induced Tompkins to return to Chicago to get $12,000 to make bets. Back in Chicago, Tompkins became suspicious and visited detective headquarters. He identified pictures of the two Detroit men as confidence men. No, he did not go back to Detroit.

recognized, however, that the premier's committee has in its charge the major problems of the Imperial conference. Until the ban of secrecy is raised from its proceedings and its decisions made known, there will be a certain amount of anxiety as to the outcome of its deliberations.

MURDER TRIAL STARTS

Ontario Life-Term Prisoner Faces Noose on Second Slaying Charge

BELLEVILLE, Ont., Nov. 2.—Charged with the murder of Clayton McWilliams, who was shot and instantly killed on April 6, 1926, David Arthur Moon appeared for trial before Mr. Justice Stewart in the Assize Court today. Moon is already serving a life-sentence at Portsmouth Penitentiary for having caused the death of John McGie at the same time. Hugh John MacDonald, Toronto, and Robert McAuley, of Belleville, are acting as counsel for Moon.

ONTARIO BEER SALE PLAN IS ABANDONED

Premier Won't Permit Real Issues in Campaign to Be Perverted

TORONTO, Nov. 2.—Hon. G. Howard Ferguson, Premier of Ontario, announced this afternoon that he had definitely abandoned the plan to sell beer by the glass or bottle in the event that his policy of government control of liquor with local option is approved by the electors at the provincial election on December 1. Mr. Ferguson stated that beer will be handled in the same manner as other liquors and will be purchasable only at government stores.

4 DIE IN FIGHT FOR SALT

Cuenca, Ecuador, Nov. 2.—Searching for salt, of which there is a great shortage here, a band of inhabitants stormed a government storehouse today. A clash with the police ensued and four persons were killed and many injured.

Farm laborers hearing that a shipment of salt had been sent from Cuenca, put an obstruction on the railway track and cut the telegraph wires, planning to attack the train and seize the much needed commodity. The plot was discovered and troops were placed on the train as a convoy.

CHIMPANZEE LIKES FIRES.
In Berlin a postman has a pet chimpanzee that delights in turning in fire alarms. He has learned the trick of breaking the glass in the alarm boxes. It then sits by and in glee watches the fire engines come tearing to the scene. The owner has protested several times successfully when the authorities threatened to shoot the chimpanzee, pleading its saving grace of humor.

"CASCARETS" FOR YOUR BOWELS IF HEADACHY, SICK

To-night! Clean your bowels and end Headaches, Colds, Sour Stomach

Get a 10-cent box of Cascares—just once—the Salts, Pills, Castor Oil or Purgative Waters which merely force a passageway through the bowels, but do not thoroughly cleanse, freshen and purify these drainage organs, and have no effect whatever upon the liver and stomach.

Keep your "insides" pure and fresh with Cascares, which thoroughly cleanse the stomach, remove the undigested, sour food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascares to-night will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never grip, sicken, and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascares now and then and never have a Headache, Biliousness, Severe Colds, Indigestion, Sour Stomach or Constipated Bowels. Cascares belong in every household. Children just love to take them.

HON. W. P. JONES NEW LIBERAL LEADER IN PROVINCE IS REPORT

Fusiliers Here Adopt Scheme of Voluntary Enlistment, To Fund Pay

PLAN ADOPTED AT MEETING OF UNIT OFFICERS

Success of Rifle Club Told at Annual Meeting Last Evening

NEW BAND WILL BE TAKEN ON STRENGTH

Pipers to Wear Tartan of King's Own Scottish Borderers Regiment

AN ENTIRELY new scheme, under which the members will turn over their entire pay to a regimental fund, was decided upon at the annual meeting of the officers of the Saint John Fusiliers (40th Battalion, C. E. F.) held in the officers' mess at the armories last evening, with the commanding officer, Lieut. Col. George Keefe, presiding.

The scheme is called voluntary enlistment and under it all ranks agree to turn over their pay to a central fund to be used for regimental sports, amusements and other recreations. The plan has been followed in Upper Canada and has proved a success, according to reports made at last night's meeting. Another advantage of the system, it was pointed out, was that the battalion could be brought up to full strength, while in the past only a limited number of members were allowed on pay.

VARIOUS REPORTS. In presenting a report for the band committee, the president, Major G. G. Anglin, M. C., said that the organization was in excellent shape and several recruits were being tutored under the direction of the bandmaster, M. E. Perkins.

SUCCESS AT P. R. A. At the P. R. A. meet at Sussex this year, the Fusiliers had eleven men entered. Q. M. S. McLaughlin won the Prince of Wales' Cup; Lieut. J. L. McAvity tied for the Donville Cup, and Capt. W. B. Anderson, O. C. of Military District No. 7, the local team having finished well among the leaders. The team was composed of ten men, eight of whom received individual prizes.

PIPE BAND. It was decided to take a pipe band into the unit and to equip them with kilts of the same tartan as worn by the King's Own Scottish Borderers, with which regiment the Fusiliers recently have been allied.

Plans for DeMonts Ball Advanced Today. At a meeting of DeMonts Chapter, I. O. O. F., in the Government rooms this morning, with the regent, Mrs. George K. McLeod, in the chair, arrangements were made to hold the annual ball and bridge in the Admiral Beatty hotel on Thursday, Nov. 25. The committee in charge of the ball are: Tickets, Mrs. J. U. Thomas; advertising, Mrs. S. A. Jones; entertainment, Mrs. Walter W. White; Mrs. F. W. Daniels and Miss Edith Skinner; refreshments, Mrs. Bushy and Miss Parks.

It was also decided to donate another library to a country school. This will be selected later. The chapter decided to place a wreath on the monument in King Square, as well as on the one at Fernhill, on Armistice Day.

Local News

SUGAR FOR INDIA. The S.S. City of Lincoln arrived in this port this morning from Liverpool with a cargo of 1,000 tons of sugar for India.

HAVE SOCIAL. The Y. P. S. of Fairville United church held a Halloween social last evening under the direction of the social president, Miss Hazel K. Games were enjoyed and delicious refreshments were served from an attractively decorated table.

AT LORNEVILLE. The weekly Missionary Society of Lorneville United Church met last evening at the home of Mrs. William McAllister with Mrs. Peter Jackson, the president, in the chair. Rev. Mr. Jackson read from the study book, "Prayer and Mission" and readings were given by Mrs. David McCavour, Mrs. Albert Wilson and Mrs. Jackson. The hostess served dainty refreshments.

ENJOYED FORTY-FIVES. The weekly forty-fives party, held under the auspices of the Quispamis Community Club, was very much enjoyed last evening. The prize winners were: first, Mrs. McKee; second, Mrs. Andrew McIntosh; third, Mrs. M. Howorth; gentlemen, first, W. W. Amb; second, T. Saunders; third, W. McMill. Delicious refreshments were served.

MAGISTRATE ILL. Friends will regret to learn that Magistrate W. H. Allingham, of West Saint John, has been seriously ill at his home. He was today reported to be improving and it was hoped that he would be able to attend to his duties again. In the meanwhile, his cases arising in his jurisdiction were being taken over by Magistrate Adams or Magistrate Henderson.

DEATH AT WELSFORD. George Armstrong, of Welsford, passed away at his home early this morning, after an illness of about two years. He was 67 years of age, and was survived by his wife, one son, two daughters; Austin and Helen, of Welsford; Theola and Kathleen, of Brookline, Mass.; Mrs. John Gould and Mrs. Roy Cooper of Saint John. There are also three brothers and three sisters.

SEES BUSY SEASON. J. S. Clayton, terminal agent of the C. P. R. who arrived home from Montreal today says that a busy season is anticipated at the West Side docks, according to impressions gathered during his stay in C. P. R. circles in the Canadian metropolis the last few days. In about three weeks' time the first of the shipping clerks and other waterfront workers will begin to arrive in this city from Montreal.

READY FOR SEASON. Commissioner Bullock was at his desk for a time this morning, feeling greatly improved, but not yet up to taking over the full duties of office. He said the work of preparing the city sheds and wharves for the winter season at the port had been about completed and the crews of men employed on repair work laid off. The outlook at the present time was for a good season, he said.

JURY PANEL REDUCED. SOMERVILLE, N. J., Nov. 2.—Legal complications that threatened to delay the opening today of the Hall-Mills murder case, could not delay more than 48 hours, in the opinion of the two presiding judges. Possible delay through exhaustion of the ten year old "struck" jury panel, on which were several persons ineligible, was the subject of a long conference between Justice Parker and Justice Cleary last night. They decided that if the panel were exhausted a new one could be prepared within 24 to 48 hours.

BIRTHS. MCKIM—On Nov. 2, 1926, to Mr. and Mrs. E. J. McKim, 252 King St. East, a son.

Roxie, Found After Months, Is Lost Again

ROXIE is gone again! After being absent without leave for about a year and a half, during which time there was no news of her, Roxie, a big police dog, belonging to Mrs. L. Dyke, of Wentworth Hall, was returned to her a week ago last Saturday by two boys, who said they had got the dog from a man in Douglas avenue, Roxie, while with the boys in King Square, was recognized by a man to whose call the canine responded, and the boys were taken to take her to Mrs. Dykeman, and they did so.

Roxie, a great pet of Mrs. Dykeman's daughter, was overjoyed at the reunion, barking and playing joyfully when she spoke, and lay curled up at her feet when she sat playing at the piano; unleased, the dog accompanied Miss Dykeman about the town and showed a desire to wander away.

But today Roxie again is missing, and it is hoped that she will be able to return in the evening and there was no news of her until yesterday morning when she was reported seen again in the North End, but up to the present she has not been definitely located.

SLEEPING OUT IS LESSON TO YOUTH

Lad Looked After by Detective After Repose in Wood Shed

He was a small lad. His age? About ten years. Unobserved by pedestrians who were hurrying to their various destinations, he lay in a cold, open space, his body stiff with cold. He had no money, no food, no shelter. He was a street urchin, a victim of the winter weather.

But about midnight he felt the Sandman's hand. He fell into a deep sleep. He was found by a policeman who took him to a police station. The boy was clean and healthy, but he had no money, no food, no shelter. He was a street urchin, a victim of the winter weather.

C. P. R. FOSTERS HORTICULTURE AMONG WORKERS

List of Garden Prize Awards in New Brunswick Announced

IMPROVEMENTS ARE DISCUSSED AT MEET

Thousands of Packets of Seeds Annually Distributed to Employes

Officials of the Canadian Pacific Railway, realizing the paramount importance of horticultural development in all its branches as related to the general development of the country, decided at a conference held in Montreal recently, to improve the existing garden and shrubbery on company premises and along their right of way.

Although this work was begun about 20 years ago, it was unanimously agreed that the work should be extended, both in choice of plants and shrubs of various kinds, and also in the matter of color scheme. To this end a committee is now engaged in making plans for the coming summer, and it is probable that existing gardens in and about Saint John will come in for their share of improvement.

EXTENDING WORK. In addition to improvements in the company's present gardens, the establishment of new ones is also contemplated on a fairly large scale. Thousands of packets of seeds, bulbs and plants are annually distributed among employes, the company believing the promotion of artistic and colorful gardens about the homes of these people a great boon from every point of view.

The first shipment and maintenance of over 1,000 packets and station gardens in charge of expert gardeners, are annually distributed to the greatest number of gardens of any route in the world.

Climate conditions, labor expended and other content, as well as the many obstacles which present themselves in various localities, new plants are introduced throughout the Dominion, some of them proving exceedingly successful.

LIST OF AWARDS. Following is the official list of garden prize awards for 1926 as issued from the Saint John office today:

Grain Flow To This Port Is Under Way

WHILE it is too early at this time to estimate the volume of grain likely to pass through Saint John during the winter season, it has been officially announced by the Canadian Pacific Railway that the grain movement east has already commenced.

At the present time there are 500 carloads of grain en route for this port, and 150 carloads have arrived in West Saint John. All of this consignment will be placed in the local grain elevator at the earliest opportunity and will be held in readiness for the opening of the winter port shipping season. Very large shipments are anticipated, and it is generally felt that the season will be a prosperous one for Saint John.

COURT AND CIRCLE NOW AMALGAMATED

The amalgamation of the former Saint John Circle, No. 143, of the Order of Canadian Home Circles, with Court Log Cabin, No. 1701, of the Canadian Home Circles and the Independent Order of Foresters amalgamated recently and the members of Saint John Circle decided that rather than carry on as a court of the Foresters they would unite with one of the courts.

There was a large attendance last evening and the amalgamation, it was said today, would rank among the largest ever effected in the I. O. F. courts in the province. The initiatory ceremony was carried out last evening, with the court acting chief ranger, Mrs. E. L. Berringer, vice chief ranger, Mrs. E. L. Wilson orator, and R. L. Heron, chief ranger, presiding.

The unwritten secret work of the order was further demonstrated for those in attendance by the reading of a list of names of high court officials—Duncan G. Lingley, P. H. C. R.; Leslie W. Mowry, H. C. R.; J. J. Powers, H. C. R.; S. L. Belyea, H. M., and High Secretary E. J. Todd. These gave congratulatory addresses and the court speeches by H. C. Martin and S. E. Logan.

Shower Is Given in Fairville Home. Miss Marjorie Finlay entertained at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Finlay, 222 Duke street, last evening at a delightful dinner in honor of Miss Helen McFarlane, whose marriage will take place in the near future. The drawing rooms were tastefully decorated. The guest of honor was presented with a prettily decorated basket, which was found to contain a large number of beautiful and useful gifts, including silver, cut glass, china and linen. A delightful evening was spent at six tables of bridge. The hostess was assisted in serving the refreshments by Mrs. H. E. Richards, Miss Mabel Smith, Miss Ethel Coates and Miss Ada Finlay.

HARTLAND MILL IS TO BE REPLACED. The large lumber mill at Hartland, owned by F. E. Sayre & Co., and recently destroyed by fire, will be replaced immediately, it was said this morning. It was said that the mill was insured with Knowlton and Gilchrist under the name of F. E. Sayre & Co., and was reported that work on the erection of another mill would soon be started so as to have it boarded in before the snow came.

Sayre Property to Be Re-built at Once, is Report in City Today. The large lumber mill at Hartland, owned by F. E. Sayre & Co., and recently destroyed by fire, will be replaced immediately, it was said this morning. It was said that the mill was insured with Knowlton and Gilchrist under the name of F. E. Sayre & Co., and was reported that work on the erection of another mill would soon be started so as to have it boarded in before the snow came.

Customs Inquiry In Ottawa, Nov. 15. OTTAWA, Nov. 15.—The commission investigating the Department of Customs and Excise will resume its work in Ottawa on November 15, it was learned here today on good authority. After several days in Montreal, the commission will proceed direct to British Columbia of present plans are carried out.

INGLEWOOD MATTER. It was learned this morning on good authority that there has been a recent meeting of the Inglewood Pulp and Paper Co. in regard to an appeal from the decision of Mr. Justice A. E. Robb. It was said that the various interests that control the Inglewood property would probably hold a meeting in the near future.

FOR PRACTICE. It was announced today that Fred Finlay, manager of the Arena, had placed the floor of that rink at the disposal of the Trojans football team. This evening and tomorrow evening for practicing purposes.

HOME FROM ENGLAND. Mr. W. Prink, president of the N. B. Board of Fire Underwriters, returned today from Montreal, where he recently arrived, following a trip of three months duration to England.

SHOOKS MADE BY SOLDIERS HERE GO FAR AFIELD

Preparations for Armistice Day are being carried forward and the Red Cross Memorial Workshops have been busy making the poppies that will be sold on that day for the benefit of disabled former soldiers. The workshops, which are also known as the Vet-Craft Shops, are now located at 6000 assembly boxes were recently completed for the Western Packing Corporation and as this plant has closed down for the season, additional work for the shops is being sought. One of the local firms here is taking full advantage of the surplus of boxes now on hand.

SOME GO ACROSS OCEAN. Orders also have been booked for box shops for England and Ireland and when the winter season opens the Canadian branch of the Saint John Sea Frontiers and the Independent Order of Foresters amalgamated recently and the members of Saint John Circle decided that rather than carry on as a court of the Foresters they would unite with one of the courts.

COUNCIL ASKED TO 2 CHURCH SERVICES

May Divide For Armistice Day Between Stone Church and St. Jude's

Commissioner Prink, as Deputy Mayor, in the absence of Mayor White, this morning received an invitation from Rev. A. L. Fleming, rector of Stone church, addressed to the Mayor and commissioners, to attend the Armistice Day Service of the church. At this service the colors of the Saint John Sea Frontiers will be placed in the church for safe-keeping. A guard of honor will be present from the artillery and the local R. C. N. V. R. unit will attend the service in a body.

The Acting Mayor said he would have to notify Rev. Mr. Fleming that the council had already accepted the invitation of the Carlton branch of the Canadian Legion, British Empire Service League, to attend their Armistice Day service in St. Jude's church, but it might be possible for the council to divide, some attending each service.

ACTION OVER $145 Samuel Greenburg vs Richard Sprague in County Court

The case of Samuel Greenburg vs. Richard Sprague was commenced in the County Court before Judge J. A. Barry this morning, and will be concluded this afternoon. This is an action in which the plaintiff is suing for the recovery of $145, alleged to be due on an agreement for the painting and repairing of an automobile.

The defendant disputes the value put on the paint job, and maintains that certain repairs were made, and parts added to the car which he did not authorize. Three witnesses gave evidence for the plaintiff and three for the defence before court recess at noon.

There was one more witness to be called. J. F. H. Tread and J. Steel appeared for the plaintiff and J. Frank Pringle for the defendant.

FAIRVILLE EVENT. The V. P. A. of the Church of Good Shepherd in Fairville held a Halloween masquerade in the church hall last evening with about 30 members and guests attending. The hall was prettily decorated in yellow and black and with the various costumes presented a colorful scene. Games and dancing were enjoyed, followed by delicious refreshments served by members of the club.

JUNIORS ENTERTAINED. The Junior W. P. A. of St. Jude's church, West Saint John, of which Mrs. C. M. Belyea is superintendent, and Miss Hazel Belyea assistant superintendent, met yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock. Final arrangements were made for the annual meeting. The superintendent treated the "Juniors" to a delightful supper from a nicely appointed table trimmed with Halloween novelties, and also presented to each child a decorated basket of candy.

IS SPOKEN OF AS SUCCESSOR TO HON. MR. VENIOT

Former Solicitor-General and in Charge of Statutes Consolidation

NO WORD YET OF TWO N. B. BY-ELECTIONS

Hon. A. A. Dyrart Mentioned for Choice as Opposition House Leader

WITH the election of Hon. P. J. Veniot to the Federal House and his appointment as a member of the Dominion cabinet, there has been considerable conjecture as to who will be his successor as leader of the Liberal party in the province. At the present time, in many parts of the province, the name of Hon. Wendall P. Jones is being heard in connection with the position.

Mr. Jones has had a wide experience in provincial matters, and stands high in his profession, not only in his home town, but through the province. The name of Hon. A. A. Dyrart, speaker of the House under the Veniot administration, is being mentioned as the most likely choice as house leader during the coming session of the Legislature.

TWO HOUSE VACANCIES. In the event of Hon. Mr. Jones being chosen leader, there remains the question of finding a seat for him in the Legislature. At the present time there are two vacancies, Hon. Mr. Veniot's seat in Gloucester, and that vacated by the death of Mr. Veniot in Saint John, but it is not thought likely that Hon. Mr. Jones would stand in either of these constituencies.

Asked this morning regarding by-elections to fill these vacancies, Premier Baxter said that the matter had not yet been considered.

WAS SOLICITOR-GENERAL. Hon. Wendall P. Jones was born on November 25, 1866, a son of Randolph K. and Gertrude H. Jones, Woodstock. He was educated at the stock Grammar School and at Dalhousie University. Later he graduated in law from the University of New Brunswick and was admitted as an attorney in the Province of New Brunswick in 1888 and as a barrister the following year. In 1903 he was elected member of the Legislative Assembly of New Brunswick, and remained in the House until 1908.

From 1905 until 1908 he was Solicitor-General of the province under the premiership of Hon. L. J. Tweedie, Hon. William Pugsley and Hon. C. W. Robinson. He was also appointed a King's Counselor in 1905. For two years, 1913 and 1914, Hon. Mr. Jones was Mayor of Woodstock, and on the incorporation of the Saint John and Quebec (Valley) Railway he was elected president of the board of directors. When the provincial government decided a few years ago to consolidate the statutes of New Brunswick, Hon. Mr. Jones was put in charge of this work and carried it out under the Veniot government and was delegated to continue the work under the present government.

SAYS RUM RUNNERS ARE BEING CHECKED

Capt. Cousins of Arlex in Port Today, Speaks of Patrol

Rum running along the eastern shores of Nova Scotia and the coast of Cape Breton is being checked, according to Captain Harry Cousins, commander of the Canadian Government Steamship Arlex which arrived here yesterday from Halifax. One of the foremost indications of this, he said, was the fact that many of the vessels formerly engaged in this illicit trade had returned to their old pursuits on the fishing banks.

Captain Cousins has had a colorful career on patrol duty in the service of the Government this year having gone to a falling off of over 14,000 craft of various kinds.

DIOCESAN BOARD IN SESSION HERE

Ven. Archdeacon Crowfoot Is
Speaker—Reports Give Details of Work

Encouraging reports from the Dominion board meeting, held recently in London, Ont., were given at a meeting of the Fredericton Diocesan Board yesterday afternoon in St. Paul's school room. With much regret the resignation of Miss E. R. Scovill as secretary of the Pickett Memorial Fund, and of Mrs. G. W. J. Scott as junior superintendent, were received.

Miss Scovill is expected in Fredericton today, but after a three weeks' visit in New Brunswick, will have to spend the winter in the south.

Ven. Archdeacon A. H. Crowfoot in his splendidly inspirational address paid tribute to the W. A. and its fellowship in the work of the Master. Mrs. James F. Robertson, president, was in the chair and regrettably announced that Miss Elizabeth Scovill had resigned the secretaryship of the Pickett Memorial Fund and Mrs. Scott had resigned as junior secretary-treasurer. The executive had persuaded Miss Mabel Gilbert to accept the office of recording secretary and she was very cordially welcomed on taking up her duties.

NAMED SECRETARY

Mrs. Cortlandt Robinson had been named secretary of the Pickett Memorial Fund with Miss Marie Fairweather as assistant. Mrs. Nichols was appointed junior secretary. All these officers were welcomed with applause.

Miss Clara Schofield, corresponding secretary, reported that Mrs. F. H. Everett had been made a life member by her branch in Fredericton, of which she had been first president. It was regretted that Mrs. Everett was leaving the diocese. Letters of thanks for sympathy were received from Mrs. Thomas Walker and Mrs. L. H. Harrison and a letter of thanks for kind words of regret on her retirement received from Mrs. J. Roy Campbell.

Miss Schofield announced that the annual meeting would be held some time in the spring.

Mrs. G. C. P. McIntyre, treasurer,

To End Severe Cough Quickly, Try This

For real results, this old home-made remedy beats them all. Easy prepared.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous home-made remedy. The immediate relief given is almost like magic. It is easily prepared, and there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a 16-oz. bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make 10 ounces. Or you can use clarified honey, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, this mixture saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and disappear. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, hoarseness, and bronchial asthma.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract and palatable guaracol, the most reliable remedy for throat and chest ailments.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "½ ounce of Pinex" with directions. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or your money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Toronto, Ont.

DIG UP $320,000 IN MISSING BANK FUNDS

Conclusion of Pittsburgh's treasure hunt is shown here. Detectives dug up $320,000 missing funds, belonging to the Brotherhood Savings & Trust Co., a labor bank, and various labor bodies, from its cache behind the garage of Edward A. Goodfellow. The money had been subscribed for the purchase of $800,000 in Liberty Bonds at "bargain prices." Charles E. Knapp and his wife, Emma, shown at the left, are under arrest as instigators of the plan. Knapp and Goodfellow had been associates.

reported receipts during the month of $80.40 and expenditures $423.47, which included $181.38 sent to the Inter-Provincial Home for Women, which was very gratefully acknowledged by Miss J. Robinson, the matron. The balance on hand was $522.25. A letter from Rev. C. J. Markham at Stanley thanked the W. A. for a gift for the rectory.

Mrs. McIntyre reported three additional branches had sent contributions for the Coverdale Home and only $46.29 was still required to complete the pledge of $500. She made a plea for full support of the W. A. general pledge and asked life members to send in their donations by Armistice Day.

DORCAS SECRETARY

Mrs. John M. Hay, Dorcas secretary, reported measurements of all the 62 Indian children to be outfitted had been received as well as the list for diocesan Sunday school Christmas trees, had said the new branch at Bathurst was already busy at work.

Miss Portia Mackenzie gave her report as literature secretary.

Mrs. Robertson spoke of Mrs. G. A. Kahring's splendid work for the W. A. calendar this year. She is entirely responsible for the calendar.

Miss Muriel Fairweather reported as Living Message secretary.

Mrs. J. Lee Day, as E. C. D. treasurer, reported contributions from seven branches and read a letter of thanks from Mrs. Priestman for the new stove installed at McAdam.

GIRLS' BRANCH

Miss L. Peters, girls' branch secretary, reported a new branch organized at St. Luke's church, Saint John, and referred to the visit of the Bishop of Athabasca.

Mrs. Nichols, in her first report as junior secretary, told of supplies and literature sent out and letters of thanks received for the two outfits made.

Mrs. Patterson reported as Little Helpers secretary, asked for an increase of the contributions of this department. The special appeal this year is for a radio for a mission station on Hudson Bay. The department is to have a four page section in Living Message which will be issued separately. Mrs. Patterson reported having received a grateful appreciation of books sent from Mrs. Edsforth for his Sunday school work in Minto.

Miss Sudler reported as Living Message editor and prayer partner secretary.

Mrs. W. D. Forster, organizing secretary, reported visiting the Upham branch.

Mrs. C. Gordon Lawrence told of proposed observance of St. Andrews Day, Nov. 30, as a day of intercession for missions. A united service will be held in Trinity church on that day at 8 p. m.

A message of love was sent to Mrs. W. P. Dunham, who is ill at her home in Hampton.

WORK APPRECIATED.

A resolution of great appreciation of Miss E. R. Scovill's noble work

VENIOT AND OTHERS IN BY ACCLAMATION

Liberals to Banquet New Postmaster-General at Bathurst

BATHURST, Nov. 2.—Hon. Peter Veniot, Postmaster-General, was elected by acclamation. Mr. Veniot made a short speech, thanking the electors for their past support and expressing appreciation on being returned by acclamation.

A banquet will be given Mr. Veniot at the Gloucester Hotel here tomorrow evening by several of the friends of the Liberal party. It is expected that about 100 will be present to do honor to Dr. Veniot.

15 GET IN BY ACCLAMATION

OTTAWA, Nov. 2.—Acclamations were accorded to 15 members of the Mackenzie King government today. As expected, no minute opposition developed, and all but three of the ministers have now been confirmed in office by the people. Premier King himself and Hon. Ernest Lapointe, minister of justice, both of whom are overseas, were among those given acclamations today. Premier King represents the constituency of Prince Albert and Mr. Lapointe, Quebec East.

Apparently the nominations went off quietly.

A suggestion is now made that a bill may be introduced at the coming session of parliament doing away with the necessity of holding ministerial by-elections within three months of a general election.

RALSTON UNOPPOSED

YARMOUTH, Nov. 2.—At the nomination proceedings here today the Hon. J. L. Ralston, Minister of National Defence in the Mackenzie King administration at Ottawa, was the only nominee offered and he was duly declared elected by Hon. Robert Irwin, returning officer for the Shelburne-Yarmouth constituency. The new minister has spoken of the work among Chinese in Saint John and the very favorable comments made by Rev. Dr. Noyes concerning it. Mrs. Woodman, who has charge of the Anglican Sunday school work for the Chinese, had reported Dr. Noyes strongly urged having a native Chinese worker for the Chinese in the Maritime Provinces.

THE DOMINION MEETING.

Mrs. W. D. Forster read the report of Mrs. Scott, telling of services and general sessions of the Dominion meeting. Bishop Hamilton, of Japan, in his address had said that country had the only Anglican non-English speaking bishop supported by his own people and that shortly another Japanese bishop would be consecrated and before long the Japanese church would be on its own feet. He specially appealed for funds to establish a sanatorium for tuberculosis patients as that disease is very prevalent in Japan.

The special needs of Japanese missions, he said, were a Canadian doctor, a Canadian nurse and dietitian, two Canadian women missionaries and two kindergarten workers. The W. A.

been in the two counties ever since he was selected by the Shelburne-Yarmouth Liberal Association three weeks ago to contest the riding as a member to succeed P. L. Hatfield, appointed to the Senate. Mr. Ralston will leave here tomorrow morning for Halifax to attend a meeting of the executive of the Provincial Liberal Association. After this he will proceed immediately to Ottawa.

ONE DIES IN MOTORBOAT

HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 2.—Alfred Roast, fisherman-farmer of Lower East Chezzetcook, died suddenly of a heart attack in his motorboat near the fishing grounds off Chezzetcook, early this morning while with his son, Clifford, aged 16. He had been in poor health lately.

TEA AND SALE AT STONE CHURCH ATTRACTS MANY

Held by Saint John Branch of Greenfell Labrador
Mission

Very prettily arranged and most successful was the tea and sale conducted by the Saint John branch of the Greenfell Mission in St. John's (Stone) church parish hall yesterday afternoon in aid of the mission funds. Mrs. Walter A. Harrison, president of the branch, was general convener. The tea table decorations were red candles in a silver candelabrum and single silver candlesticks.

Mrs. A. L. Fleming and Mrs. G. K. McLeod presided at the tea table. For the replenishing Mrs. H. C. Schofield was convener and she was assisted by Mrs. Waldron, Mrs. Walter Gilbert,

'TAIN'T A FROG—IT'S A HIPPO

You might think this was a close-up of a big frog, but you'd be wrong. It's the head and shoulders of a big hippo, taking a long, lazy snooze in the pool at the Regent's Park Zoological Gardens, London.

Miss Hare, Miss Grace Estey, Mrs. J. S. Malcolm and Mrs. A. T. Bayly. A home cooking table was decorated with red candles in brass candlesticks and was in charge of Mrs. Harold Partridge, who was assisted by Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. Laurence McLaren, Mrs. Cecil West and Miss Colson.

The "Industrial table" was in charge of Mrs. George McA. Bizard, assisted by Mrs. W. A. Lockhart, Mrs. W. H. Harrison and Mrs. W. L. Caldwell. On this table was a very interesting and beautiful display of the work of natives at the Labrador and Newfoundland mission stations, consisting of hooked rugs, some fine pieces of fancy work and many and various wooden and tin toys, brightly painted, which latter are largely the work of convalescents at the mission hospitals.

Mrs. J. E. Angeline was convener of the flower and green table and was assisted by Mrs. J. W. Brittain, Mrs. Hurd and Mrs. Percy McAvity. The guests were served by a committee of young ladies: The Misses Elizabeth Foster, Betty Thomson, Elizabeth Armstrong, Lois Fairweather, Elsie Gilbert, Margaret Tilley, Viola McAvity, Margaret Henderson, Margaret Skinner, Ruth Johnston, Eleanor Angus, Constance White, Margaret Jones and Mary Murray. The proceeds of the tea and sale will go to Dr. Greenfell's mission fund.

MERCHANT KILLED BY MONTREAL CAR
MONTREAL, Nov. 2.—Trapped beneath the wheels of an Ontario Street car near St. Denis Street, when he was hurled from his wagon as it was struck by the tram, Joseph Morohshstein, 48, merchant of Beacole street, was killed early today. The victim lay beneath the tram for some time before he could be extricated and was dead when medical aid arrived on the scene. His body was almost cut in two.

Release of Prisoner Saves Life of His Sick Daughter

LONDON, Nov. 2.—While little Margaret Jessie Rowe—she is only five years old—lay seriously ill, and in a semi-delirious condition, in the infirmary at Doncaster in Yorkshire, following a 'bus accident, her one pathetic cry was for "Daddy."

When admitted to the infirmary she was unconscious, and her condition was very grave. Everything possible was done for the little girl, and ultimately the doctors had the satisfaction of seeing consciousness return. But then began the hardest part of their task.

In her semi-consciousness she tossed on the bed moaning, and calling "Daddy," and the infirmary staff were almost at their wits' end.

The father, Harry Rowe, an Am-herst colliery employe, was in prison completing a three months' sentence for participation in a disturbance at Elenhorpe, and to secure his release from Armlay Jail, Leeds, so that he could visit his little girl, seemed out of the question.

Her cries were so pathetic that ultimately it was decided to attempt what looked like the impossible, and an appeal was made to the prison authorities. It was even more successful than had been hoped; for, not only was Rowe at once released to go to the bedside of his little daughter, but the two weeks of his sentence that he still had to serve were remitted in order that he might be near her until she recovered.

As soon as he reached the infirmary, he was hurried to the ward where she lay, crying herself into a state of dangerous exhaustion. He tiptoed to the bedside, and as soon as he spoke her cries ceased.

With a tiny sigh, she clutched his hand and almost immediately fell into a deep healing sleep.

From that moment her condition began to improve. For hours the father sat at her bedside, his rough hand clutched by her tiny fingers, and when finally she awoke, it was evident that her father's presence had done more than all the medicine and cleverest surgery in the world could do.

The little patient is doing extremely well, and there is now no doubt that she will fully recover from the effects of her accident.

Frank, Bert J. and Edward; one daughter, Miss Katherine; two brothers, Harry and William, and one sister, Mrs. A. M. Winter, all of this city.

Walter Gehan
McADAM, Nov. 2.—Walter Gehan, aged 66 died here today. Mr. Gehan was a life-long resident of McAdam and was employed with the C. P. R. in their offices at the station until the time of his illness. He is survived by two sons, Roy, of Montreal, and William, of McAdam.

Rev. C. J. McLaughlin held services for the dead here tonight. It being All Souls' Day a catafalque was placed in the aisle and surrounded by candles. An appropriate sermon was preached by Father McLaughlin. A high mass of requiem for the dead will be celebrated tomorrow morning.

Alexander Scott
Friends were greatly shocked last night to learn of the sudden death of Alexander Scott, traveling boiler inspector of the C. P. R., who passed away in the Saint John infirmary, after an illness of about two hours. He had just returned from Woodstock and was carrying out inspection work at West Saint John and had about completed his day's work when he was suddenly seized with the fatal illness. The ambulance was called and he was hurried to the infirmary but passed away shortly afterwards.

He was very widely known in the province and very highly regarded. Besides his wife he leaves three sons, Mrs. M. G. Kirkpatrick
Many friends of Mrs. Marcella Grace Kirkpatrick, wife of Andrew J. Kirkpatrick, will learn with regret of her death which took place at her home in Rothessay yesterday afternoon, after an illness of several months. Mrs. Kirkpatrick, who was popular with a wide circle of friends, was 61 years of age. She had been ill since early in the summer. Besides her husband she leaves to mourn two sons, Warren H. Fuller, of West Saint John, and Samuel Y. Kirkpatrick, of Rothessay; two daughters, Mrs. Harmon Saunders, of Gondola Point, and Mrs. J. Douglas, of Naswigewauk; also one sister, Mrs. William Pettigrew, of New York, and ten grandchildren.

The funeral will take place Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence and service will be held in the church at Gondola Point.

The Beautiful Duchesse de GRAMONT

on keeping a lovely skin
Nature's gift to Youth.

BEAUTY now brilliant as crystal, now shadowy as a fugitive moonbeam; the bearing of a woman unconsciously proud of her distinguished lineage—this is Maria Ruspoli, Duchesse de Gramont, acknowledged leader of Parisian society.

She is one of those rare women who sense the importance of the thousand details that go to make up the perfect whole. Nothing too slight if it contributes to charm, to cachet, to distinction.

The creams she chooses for her skin, which is like "the waxen whiteness of some tropic flower"—does she select them, too, with this meticulous care? In her own words, let her tell you!

"A lovely skin and good colour are Nature's gift to youth; but their possession must not be taken for granted. Rather they are to be protected and preserved by daily care. Pond's Two Creams afford an exquisite means of giving precisely the care a woman's skin requires today."

THUS another beautiful woman of the social world offers tribute to the Two famous Creams made by Pond's! Delicate, fragrant, compounded with scientific skill from precious ingredients, these Creams should be used each day as follows:

Pond's Cold Cream affords a thorough cleansing. It should be used every night before retiring and during the day whenever the skin feels dusty and tired. Its fine oils penetrate the pores, bringing to the surface all dust and powder. If the skin is dry, more Cream, applied after the nightly cleansing and left until morning, will restore suppleness.

Pond's Vanishing Cream affords an exquisitely soft finish, natural, smooth; holds your powder long and oh! so evenly; and keeps winds, dust and city soot from chapping, and clogging your pores. It should be applied lightly after every cleansing with Pond's Cold Cream, except the bedtime one. The Pond's Extract Company.

PROTEST LICENSE ON CITY HEARSE

Undertakers Send Letter to Council; Loans Arranged For Retaining Walls

A protest against classing motor hearses as trucks and collecting a city license was received from four city firms and read at the meeting of the city council yesterday afternoon. The letter was signed by N. W. Brennan and Sons, Annie O'Neill, P. J. Fitzpatrick and G. A. Chamberlain. It was referred to the mayor and city solicitor for a report. The Carleton Branch of the Canadian Legion, British Empire Service League, invited the members of the council to attend the annual Armistice Day service of the branch on Sunday, November 7, at St. George's church. The invitation was accepted. Commissioner Frink moved that loans for the two retaining walls in Main street, in front of the property of Mrs. Carson and E. N. Herrington, be merged into one loan of $1,794. This carried. The commissioner of finance and public affairs reported payments for October amounting to $262,458.30 and recommended payments of the following departmental accounts: treasury, $1,789.21; public safety, $2,353.33; public works, $2,239.30; water and sewerage, $3,312.52; harbors, ferries and public lands, $1,337.61. Adopted.

Pictures of the fort were exhibited and lantern views were shown by Dr. William MacIntosh.

MASSEY ACTS FOR KING AT DISCUSSION

Visits With Delegates The Various Departments of Defence

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Hon. Vincent Massey Canadian minister-designate to Washington, represented Premier Mackenzie King at today's discussion by the conference delegates at the air ministry. These discussions included visits paid by the delegates to the various departments of defence. The dominions will now submit their position on Empire defence at the next preliminary meeting of the conference. This has been arranged for Thursday, but may be postponed until next week. The proceedings of defence discussions are surrounded by an air of mystery equal to that which surrounds the committee of premiers. The British government, it is understood, has submitted a full and frank statement in regard to its defence proposals, indicating where possible danger zones might be considered to lie. There was no concrete scheme submitted, however, which suggested Dominion participation.

RUSSIAN FILM LOSS

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The principal producing plant of the Russian Soviet motion picture trust has been destroyed by fire, according to the Moscow correspondent of the London Daily Express. Negatives of the six latest super films about to be released were lost in the flames. Among them was one entitled "How Douglas Fairbanks Fought With Egos Elynsky on Account of Mary Pickford," which was made by the American film stars during their Russian trip. Elynsky is the favorite Russian comedian.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Congratulations Today to Mr. and Mrs. A. Patterson. Today Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patterson, 41 City road, are celebrating the 50th anniversary of their wedding. Mr. Patterson, who is 73, and his good wife, who is 69, are both in very good health, and many friends will extend good wishes for many more years of wedded life together. The anniversary celebration will be quietly observed at the City road home today. There will be no special event to mark the anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson were married in Saint John 50 years ago today. Mr. Patterson has all his life been a shipbuilder by trade and has known no other occupation. He started his career at St. Martins, and worked on several well-known schooners in and about Salmon River, when shipbuilding was a very booming industry in Saint John county. Seven children have been born of this union. Six of them are living at the present time. They are Harry, of Stonington, Conn.; Charles, Gordon and Isaac, of Saint John; Mrs. Raymond Carson, this city, and Mrs. John Connell, Brown Falls. There are fifteen grandchildren. Miss Matilda McPayden and Charles Brown were the witnesses at the wedding of 50 years ago. Both are still living. Many friends in the city and elsewhere will join in extending congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Patterson on this happy event.

OLD FORT ANNE HISTORY TOLD BY L. M. FORTIER

Lantern Slides Illustrate Fine Address Given at N. H. S. Meeting

The exceedingly interesting history of Fort Anne in Annapolis Royal and an account of the many treasures it museum contains, were given before the Natural History Society meeting last evening by L. M. Fortier, the honorary superintendent, who has been, in a very large measure, responsible for the fact that the fort has been preserved and obtained the safe-keeping of some many historic relics. Pictures of the fort were exhibited and lantern views were shown by Dr. William MacIntosh.

MASSEY ACTS FOR KING AT DISCUSSION

Visits With Delegates The Various Departments of Defence

LONDON, Nov. 2.—Hon. Vincent Massey Canadian minister-designate to Washington, represented Premier Mackenzie King at today's discussion by the conference delegates at the air ministry. These discussions included visits paid by the delegates to the various departments of defence. The dominions will now submit their position on Empire defence at the next preliminary meeting of the conference. This has been arranged for Thursday, but may be postponed until next week. The proceedings of defence discussions are surrounded by an air of mystery equal to that which surrounds the committee of premiers. The British government, it is understood, has submitted a full and frank statement in regard to its defence proposals, indicating where possible danger zones might be considered to lie. There was no concrete scheme submitted, however, which suggested Dominion participation.

RUSSIAN FILM LOSS

LONDON, Nov. 2.—The principal producing plant of the Russian Soviet motion picture trust has been destroyed by fire, according to the Moscow correspondent of the London Daily Express. Negatives of the six latest super films about to be released were lost in the flames. Among them was one entitled "How Douglas Fairbanks Fought With Egos Elynsky on Account of Mary Pickford," which was made by the American film stars during their Russian trip. Elynsky is the favorite Russian comedian.

VIENNA, Nov. 2.—Hundreds of persons are homeless and serious property damage has been caused in the Vellach Valley of the Carinthia district by heavy rains of the past few days, which have caused floods.

WASHINGTON.—After months of packing, the Frederick Canfield collection of minerals has been installed in the Smithsonian Institution. The 8,000 specimens, accompanied by an endowment of $50,000 to be used for its increase, were given to the institution by Frederick Canfield, Ferro Monte, New Jersey, who died last July.

CROW AGENCY, Mont.—Two officers and a negro were killed in another officer was wounded in an exchange of shots following the officers attempt to arrest Jim Robinson, a negro, who had hidden himself in a barn and was routed only after Crow Indian braves resorted to their traditional method of firing the structure with flaming arrows.

GOLDEN WEDDING

Congratulations Today to Mr. and Mrs. A. Patterson. Today Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patterson, 41 City road, are celebrating the 50th anniversary of their wedding. Mr. Patterson, who is 73, and his good wife, who is 69, are both in very good health, and many friends will extend good wishes for many more years of wedded life together. The anniversary celebration will be quietly observed at the City road home today. There will be no special event to mark the anniversary. Mr. and Mrs. Patterson were married in Saint John 50 years ago today. Mr. Patterson has all his life been a shipbuilder by trade and has known no other occupation. He started his career at St. Martins, and worked on several well-known schooners in and about Salmon River, when shipbuilding was a very booming industry in Saint John county. Seven children have been born of this union. Six of them are living at the present time. They are Harry, of Stonington, Conn.; Charles, Gordon and Isaac, of Saint John; Mrs. Raymond Carson, this city, and Mrs. John Connell, Brown Falls. There are fifteen grandchildren. Miss Matilda McPayden and Charles Brown were the witnesses at the wedding of 50 years ago. Both are still living. was found to be damp. For the second time stone was sent from France and walls and ceilings were made four and a half feet thick. This has been carefully restored recently. Mr. Fortier mentioned some of the notable people who have lived at Annapolis Royal, including General Williams, parts of whose old house still exist. The garrison of the fort, he said, had been gradually diminished and the last soldiers were withdrawn in 1854 at the time of the Crimean war, when Lieut. Wedderburn was the commanding officer, and desertions had dwindled the force to the officer, one sergeant and six men. The remnant was then ordered to join the regiment at Fredericton. MENTIONS TREASURES Mr. Fortier went on to tell of some of the treasures, mentioning the 800 pound brass cannon of the French period which had been given by the British War Office from Wolwich, when it had been impossible to locate the cannons which the British had taken away. The old weather vane removed in 1758 was located in the possession of the Massachusetts Historical Society, and that society most generously sent a delegation of three members to return the key in 1922. The museum has seven pieces of Cromwellian armor, received from the Tower of London, and Mr. Fortier expressed appreciation of the courtesy with which the gifts had been presented. A judge's chair used in the Annapolis Royal court house is in the museum, and Judge Halliburton was one of those who had used it. Mr. Fortier asked specially if any of his audience, or any one in New Brunswick could give him information concerning the family and descendants of Lieutenant Wedderburn. At the short business meeting of the society Dr. MacIntosh reported 66 donations had been given to the society, and these were acknowledged gratefully. G. Farie Logan and Mrs. Mary E. Gribble were elected members. MANY VISITORS. One of the specially interesting facts mentioned by Mr. Fortier was that during the present year there have already been 8,144 persons conducted through the museum at the Fort. No charge is made, but there is a contribution box, and last year $400 from this box was used for the funds of the local Historical Association. BIRDS' BONES CARRY AIR. The bones of all flying birds are said to be hollow and filled with air, thus showing that nature knew what it was about when it designed them for the air. This plan, as any physicist will confirm, makes for not only lightness but for the greatest strength. A solid bone, besides being heavier, would be less strong against strain such as a flying fowl is put to. FINGER PRINTING. It has been discovered that finger printing as a system of identification was practiced in China as early as 400 B. C. On some ancient wills finger prints of the makers have been found. The system spread from there to India and in Japan it was soon adopted for the identification of criminals. The hiring of illiterate labor in South Africa caused it to spread to the continent. MILK HIGHER AT HALIFAX. HALIFAX, N. S., Nov. 2.—The majority of consumers in Halifax are today paying 23 cents a quart for their milk, the price having been jumped by most local dealers yesterday from 12 to 14 cents in accordance with a warning issued by them.

At Port Royal in 1606 the first dramatic performance in Canada was given and there the Order of Good Cheer was founded in 1606-7. It was the headquarters of the French colonists for a few years until the British came and finding the garrison away demolished the fort. The French abandoned it in 1629. Sir William Alexander arrived with his colonists and repaired the fort and occupied it for about two years. When the new French governor arrived in 1622, the fort was abandoned and a new site on the south shore was selected and a small fort erected, and its ruins can still be seen. When D'Albany succeeded as governor two years later he returned to Port Royal, but in 1630 the first Port Anne was erected, and this fort was defended against LaTour, was taken in the name of Cromwell, in 1664, and was held by the British for 30 years, but came again under French occupation in 1685, and because of the runous condition of the fort the French government acceded to the request that it be rebuilt, and although the new fort on the same site was not actually designed by Beauchonne, it was a perfect specimen of forts according to his principles. It was not quite finished in 1710 when it was captured by the British.

PLAN TO FILM SCENES IN CITY

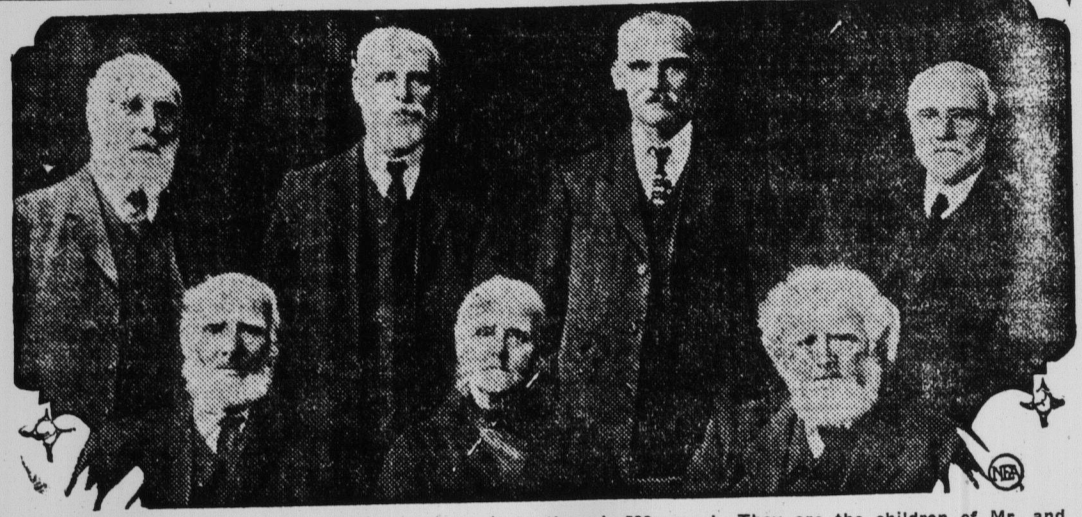

Editor and Cameraman Taking Motion Pictures for C. P. R. Feature

James W. Stuber, sportsman-editor of Columbus, Ohio, and Frank O'Byrne, Associated Screen News photographer, of Montreal, who have been touring and hunting in Nova Scotia for the past several weeks, are visitors in Saint John, and while here will take various scenes about the city including the Reversing Falls, which will be included in the motion picture feature they are making for the Canadian Pacific Railway.

They arrived on the Empress from Digby Tuesday evening. Mr. Stuber is writer of the Rod and Gun features of the Ohio State Journal, and also associate editor of Athlete and Sportsman, an outdoor magazine published at Columbus, Ohio. He has been hunting at South Millford, Nova Scotia, in the interests of the Ohio State Museum. Mr. Stuber killed one of the largest specimens of moose that has come from the neighboring province this year, and under a special permit, secured a cow moose. The moose are to be mounted for a habitat group for the Ohio Institution on Ohio State University grounds in Columbus.

MUCH INTERESTED. Mr. Stuber is also a member of the Ohio Archaeological and Historical Society, and was much interested in the history of the Micmac Indians as well as the historical features of the Annapolis Valley. Upon his return to the States he will write a number of magazine articles covering the hunting trip as well as the tour.

tion picture photographer, accompanied the Prince of Wales and also Lloyd George on their recent tours in this country, and before coming on the present trip, was with Osark Ripley in Quebec. Osark Ripley is one of the foremost American outdoor writers and former Jack London's guide and hunting companion. Mr. O'Byrne featured the steamer Empress and Captain Andrew Macdonald, in motion picture footage exposed between Digby and Saint John, including scenes at the docks here and in the harbor.

KNOWS HARRY ALLEN While at Digby Mr. Stuber and Mr.

O'Byrne were house guests of Frederick Graham, well known sportsman and game conversationalist of Digby and Halifax. Mr. Stuber is well known to Harry Allen, famous New Brunswick guide at Penniac, and president of the guides' association, and advises that throughout Ohio and the Middle West New Brunswick is regarded as one of the best hunting and fishing territories in Canada, as well as a mecca for tourists from the States.

The visitors were very favorably impressed with Saint John, and spoke of it as an interesting and busy city.

Scenes along the Dominion Atlantic Railway from Digby to Halifax were made a part of the motion picture story, and in all probability scenes along the Canadian Pacific Railway from Saint John to Vancouver will be made from the rear of the train through New Brunswick when the visitors leave over the Canadian Pacific at three o'clock this afternoon.

QUEBEC POWER CO. ACTS TO PAY DEBT

Calls Shareholders Nov. 16 to O. K. Redeeming $4,000,000 Pfd. Stock

MONTREAL, Nov. 2.—Following a meeting of the board of directors of Quebec Power Company today it was announced that a special general meeting of shareholders will be called for Nov. 16 to approve a plan decided upon by the administration calling for the redemption of the $4,000,000 seven per cent preferred stock of the company at the end of the current year. It is proposed to give the preferred shareholders the option of taking payment for their shares in cash at the call price of $110 per share, or converting preferred into common shares at the same price as the call price for the preferred.

As soon as the news was heard on the floor of the exchange today the preferred jumped 40 points to 166. The common is now selling at 104.

PARTY STARTS ON WILD BUFFALO HUNT

Includes Kiwanis Head and Bison Will be Shot on Island in Utah

SALT LAKE CITY, Nov. 2.—Four hunters accompanied by as many cowboy guides today started for the northern end of Antelope Island in the Great Salt Lake, inaugurating the "last wild buffalo hunt in America."

The hunt was arranged to dispose of the animals after they had been put up for sale alive and there were no buyers. There are more than 280 buffalo on the island, which has an area of more than 33,000 acres, and all of this number, with the exception of 40, are to be killed between now and the first of the year, when the grazing permit of A. H. Leonard, owner of the herd, expires.

The four hunters who started off this morning are Ralph A. Amerman of Scranton, Pa., president of the Kiwanis International; his brother, Edward Amerman, and Frank Benjamin, both of Scranton, and J. O. Beebe, of Omaha, Neb.

The island is in Great Salt Lake and is 19 miles long and six miles wide at the widest point. It is rugged, of volcanic formation, some of the peaks rising to an altitude of about 1,500 feet.

Thousands of men and women suffering from a generally run-down condition will get a message of hope and cheer from the experience of Mme. Josephine Lefort, 464 Champlain street, Montreal, whose quick recovery from a long, serious illness surprised her close friends.

It is never felt quite up to the mark, if you are fagged out, you'll be glad to know about Tanlac and what it did for Mme. Lefort. Here is her story.

"About two months ago, I realized that my condition was far from good. I had spells in which I would tremble all over, and I would feel as if my head would burst. I suffered from severe headaches and would be very sick at my stomach. I was very nervous and unable to sleep.

"I was advised to take Tanlac and the first bottle brought me great relief that I have kept on taking it. I am now on my fourth bottle and feel like my old self once more. My nervous nerves are in better shape and I get up in the morning feeling rested and refreshed. I not only enjoy my meals but go about the housework with vim and energy. Because Tanlac has done so much for me, I take pleasure in recommending it to all."

Mme. Lefort is only one of thousands who have found happy relief from pain and gained new strength by taking Tanlac. Why not heed their advice. Keep well, keep your health—take Tanlac. Get your first bottle of Tanlac from your druggist and see how much it will help you.

BLAZE AT MT. ALLISON. SACKVILLE, Nov. 2.—An alarm of fire at Mount Allison University caused a stir around town about 9 o'clock this morning. A box covering an electrical motor in the basement of the building caught fire from a short circuit, but the blaze was quickly extinguished with hand chemicals before the arrival of the firemen. There was practically no damage.

Piles Disappear

No Cutting or Salves Needed. External treatments seldom cure Piles. You must first free the circulation. The cause is inside—bad circulation. The blood is stagnant, the veins bulge. The bowel walls are weak, the parts almost dead.

To quickly and safely rid yourself of piles you must first free the circulation—send a fresh current through stagnant vessels by means of the new safe method. Ointments and cutting won't do it.

J. S. Leonard, M. D., a specialist, has at work some years ago found a real internal remedy for piles. He succeeded. He named his prescription HEMI-ROID and tried it in 1000 cases. He was satisfied. He named his remedy HEMI-ROID is sold by druggists everywhere to the top of a house occupied by an anti-Fascist, named Lussa, to harangue a crowd, was killed. Lussa was arrested.

DATA FOR BRIDGE AT CHAPMAN CREEK

Gully to Span is 75 Feet Deep and Several Hundred Rods Wide

HOPEWELL HILL, Nov. 2.—The hopes of the people in this part of the county, for a big bridge across the Chapman Creek where there was a trestle some years ago and where a small bridge was washed out in the recent rains, have been revived this fall, and a party of surveyors, who spent some days on the site, getting data for plans to be presented to the public works department.

The proposal, it is said, is for an earth and stone fill with a middle span, the high hills on each side to be cut down to some extent to lessen the necessary height of the structure and furnish material for the fill. The chasm to be bridged is 75 feet or more in depth and several hundred rods across.

Before the wooden trestle was built and since it was abandoned as unsafe and removed, the steep hills have had to be negotiated by cowboys that make travel both difficult and dangerous.

The route is a much travelled one and a crossing that will do away with the use of the bad hills, would be a great boon to the public.

3 KILLED IN ITALIAN FASCISTS' TURMOIL

ROME, Nov. 2.—Three persons have been killed in the disturbances throughout the country following the attempt on Premier Mussolini's life at Bologna Sunday. Two were killed in Genoa. At Cagliari, a Fascist who climbed to the top of a house occupied by an anti-Fascist, named Lussa, to harangue a crowd, was killed. Lussa was arrested.

DO THIS AFTER SEVERE ILLNESS

How to Speedily Gain Strength and Put on Needed Weight

Nothing like the wonderful vitaminizing vitamins extracted from the livers of the common codfish to help convalescing people to quickly get strong and well—everybody knows that.

So nowadays, medical men who keep up with times are ordering a vitaminizing tonic containing the vitamins that give to frail folks vigor, strength and weight—a tonic that is known as McCoy's Cod Liver Extract Tablet—and is surely has proved a blessing to thousands of people who have been debilitated by their natural strength after any severe illness.

Skinny men and women take them to speedily put on plenty of good healthy solid flesh and for this purpose they are so extremely good that thin men and women often take on five pounds in 30 days. As a matter of fact, your druggist is authorized to return your money if you don't take on 5 pounds in 30 days.

Great for weak, skinny, backward, run-down children, too, and gives them a hearty appetite.

Be sure and ask for McCoy's, the original and genuine Cod Liver Extract Tablet. Watson's Two Stores, Ross Drug Co., Wm. Hawley & Son, and druggists everywhere have a big demand for them and millions are sold monthly all over North and South America. They are sugar coated and as easy to take as candy. 60 Tablets—65 cents.

Tells Gospel Truth To Benefit Women

Thousands of women who are nervous, sickly, weak and despondent, might just as well be strong and happy, with Bright Eyes, Roxy Cheeks, abundant vitality and nerve force—if they knew the amazing value of Double Strength Erbac Tablets.

Not a "cure all," gland treatment or dangerous habit-forming stimulant—but a positive nerve food and vitalizing tonic, recognized and highly recommended by leaders of the medical profession, and as a prompt and certain help to womanhood, the value of Erbac can hardly be over-estimated. A few days use will quickly convince you of that. So, don't give up hope and let your vitality sink into the blackened depths of despair—but let Erbac show you the way to a brighter, happier, more active life. At all druggists, on a binding guarantee of full satisfaction or money back. Try it today.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

SHERIDAN, Nov. 2.—Alphonse Arsenault, of Sherbrooke, son of Thomas Arsenault, was recently shot in one knee accidentally. A rifle bullet of .22 calibre entered the knee, but has not been located. The accident occurred while the rifle, which failed to discharge properly, was being examined. The young man is progressing favorably.

Bathing the eyes in cold water several times daily will strengthen and brighten them.

John B. DeMille Speaks Highly of Province For Recreation During Summer

HOPEWELL HILL, Nov. 2.—John B. DeMille, B. Sc., of New York, who has been conducting a boys' camp at Herring Cove, on the Bay Shores, near Point Wolfe, feels that he made no mistake when he selected this province, and this county especially, as a location for his camping projects, and that the province being entirely suitable for this purpose.

Mr. DeMille is at Riverside, where he will remain for a few days before leaving for his home in New York. He has been visiting this province for several years and latterly has been running boys' camps. The number of his campers consisted of ten boys, all from New York and the number will be greatly increased next year.

NOT INSTITUTIONAL. He states that his camp is not an institutional one and has no connection with any of the boys' organizations. The members are all drawn from well-to-do families and range in age from 14 to 16 years. For the two months of camp life and training in woodcraft, forestry, geology, etc., each boy pays $800 and defrays his own traveling expenses.

The housing facilities of the camp include eight tepees, with a diamond tent and a two-room cabin built with beach stones. Each group of boys is under the direction of a "counselor," and military discipline is maintained. Mr. DeMille himself is a graduate in science of Columbia University. The boys have now all returned to their homes, and the tents have all been stored for the winter.

The director not only speaks highly of the natural resources and advantages of the camping locality, but of the people of the neighborhood as well, to whom he feels he is greatly indebted for much kindness and co-operation in the work of establishing the camp.

TEACHERS TO MEET AT WOODSTOCK

Carleton-Victoria Institute Convenes For Two Days, Nov. 4-5

The Carleton-Victoria Teachers' Institute will be held in the Fisher Memorial school on Thursday and Friday, Nov. 4 and 5, with President C. H. Turner, B.A., in the chair. A very interesting program has been arranged and the executive is looking forward to a very successful institute.

Dr. G. J. Trueman, President of Mount Allison University, will address the public meeting held on Thursday evening at 7:30. The speaker, chief superintendent of education, will be present during the sessions and will address the meeting on Thursday evening.

The following papers will be given: Literature—Miss Margaret Wallace, principal of Andover Grammar school. Geography—Ross Glenn, principal of school at Grand Falls. Arithmetic—Harold Stairs, Upper Woodstock. Reading—Miss Clara Carson, Foster school, Woodstock. Drawing—Miss Revyenne Downey, Centreville. An exhibition of physical drill will be given by S. C. Ross, principal of Broadway school, Woodstock.

U. S. HEIRESS WORKS IN FACTORY OF DAD

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Nov. 2—Miss Ellnor Dorrance, 18-year-old heiress, is punching the time clock at 8:30 every morning, the same as other employes of her father's company, which makes soap. Tired of a social life she wants a business career. She is in the cashier's department. She will inherit many millions, having no brothers or sisters.

BARACHOIS TO HAVE MUSQUASH ENERGY

Announcement is Made of Power Line Extension Beyond Shediac

SHEDIAC, Nov. 2—It is announced that the Musquash-Moncton hydro line, which is being extended to Shediac and Shediac Cap, will be continued to a point just east of the Roman Catholic church at Barachois, six miles east of town. The further extension will supply current to 50 or 55 additional residences as well as the church and rectory.

Wires have already been strung from Moncton to a point within seven miles from town and a branch line has been run from Chartersville to St. Anselme (the Fox Creek district). Many residences west of town have been wired. It is expected that the current will be turned on here about Dec. 1.

Heaviness of Motors Was Another Feature Today—Dupont Gains One Point

Canadian Press MONTREAL, Nov. 3.—Stock prices revealed a firm tone at the opening of the stock exchange this morning. Montreal Power sold unchanged at 75 1/2.

AT NEW YORK NEW YORK, Nov. 3.—Stock prices moved within narrow and irregular limits at the opening of today's market. Renewed activity and strength of the oil shares, despite the announcement of another large increase in crude oil production last week, and the heaviness of the motors were the early contrastive features. An opening gain of one point in Dupont was offset by initial

TARIFF BOARD HAS SEVERAL HEARINGS

Six Applications to be Heard at Ottawa the Middle of This Month. OTTAWA, Nov. 3.—Six applications have been scheduled for hearing at a public sitting of the tariff board to be held in Ottawa on Nov. 18 and 19. The applications selected to come before the board are as follows:

By the trustees, National Gallery, Ottawa, for decrease of the tariff incidence on objects of art. By Price, Paterson, Ltd., Vancouver, for reduction of tariff on tops for gloves. By Chas. Barber & Son, Montreal, for reduction of the tariff on water-wheel governors. By H. S. Tibbs, Toronto, for reduction of the tariff on foxes and canaries imported for breeding purposes. By Hunter-Ross Co., Toronto, for reduction of tariff on book sheets (unbound). The application for a "seasonal tariff" on fruit and vegetables by the Canadian Horticultural Council, as well as that of certain Quebec organizations for a higher tariff on potatoes, will be given a public hearing on Dec. 16.

NATIVE REVOLT MELBOURNE, Australia, Nov. 3.—Natives in the New Guinea gold fields revolted Tuesday and killed three whites. A punitive expedition was returned for reinforcements. The trouble in the gold fields started over the "jumping" of claims which led to the native revolt.

CHURCH WINDOWS BROKEN. Windows have been broken recently in St. David's church by boys throwing stones, and a member of the trustee board said this morning that if the practice was not stopped steps would be taken to bring the offenders to justice.

Remarkable Profits In French Government 6% Bonds

W HURON BELIEVES that an investment made today in French Government 6% Bonds (Loan authorized by the French Government on after Jan. 1st, 1931) presents an extraordinary opportunity for profit in the event of any material advance in the value of French francs.

International bankers believe that the French franc will sell above par very soon. They think that this means to French Government securities a rise of merely one or two cents per franc, but a profit of 60% on the investment. When the French franc sells at 100 francs per $100, you will have made a profit of 60% on your investment.

LOCAL SQUARES ACCOUNTS WITH TORONTO LAD

Veno and Whipple Win by Kayoes—Good Show All Round

LOUIS DONOVAN, local featherweight and former Maritime amateur champion, last evening squared accounts with George Barber, the fast Toronto lad, when he received a decision over the latter in a slashing 10-round bout at the Armories here. Both lads were in excellent condition, permitting them to maintain a fast pace from start to finish in one of the best scraps seen here for some time.

The first round was fairly even, but in the second the visitor had quite a margin, his blows seeming to be more snappy and landing with better effect. The fight continued even up to the seventh round, with Donovan on the aggressive most of the time and Barber backing away and countering. In the last three rounds Donovan continued a losing tempo. It wasn't a case of Donovan being the stronger and doing most of the forcing. As the fight ended, Louis appeared to be in better shape than his opponent and the fresher of the two.

While the decision met with the general approval of the crowd, there were many who thought Barber was entitled to a draw. Previous to the main bout, Harold (Kid) Somers was introduced, and issued a challenge to the winner. Kid Melanson and Joe Irvine also were introduced and were announced as fighting here soon.

PUT PATCH ON SNAKE'S SKIN

Clever Operation Performed by Doctors at London Zoo

LONDON, Nov. 3.—A really poisonous snake at the Zoo had its skin patched recently—a clever, neat operation done as efficiently as the patching of a punctured tire.

The snake, which is one of the Night Tree snakes from the Malay States, seems to have been involved in a domestic argument, for he was found with a bad bite half-way down his 8 ft. length, and the female snake was held to be guilty.

As an Imperial box was found dead the other day, the authorities decided that the best way to minister to the punctured Tree Snake was to patch his ruy wound with a piece of the skin from the dead snake.

IS BLACK SNAKE

The tree snake is black with yellow transverse stripes—a sort of wasp-mixture in colors. The Imperial box was not quite the same tone, but snakes who are patched cannot insist on absolutely invisible mending. Still it will not be too noticeable.

Collins, the head keeper of the reptiles, who is a wizard with snakes, gripped the wriggling eight feet with his snake-proof gloves, took it to the sanatorium and there Dr. John Beattie, the Zoo's anatomist, grafted a patch of new skin, about three inches long, on to the snake's wound. Held in a firm grip the snake was quite good while he was being mended.

A cotton bandage was then wound securely round the repair and the snake was taken home. Healing home, he gazed for a moment at his bandage, looked around to see if anyone had noticed his patch, and then curled himself into a comfortable position and dropped off to sleep.

MOTOR LAUNCH IN CHASE OF STEAMER

LONDON, Nov. 3.—A remarkable scene was enacted in Plymouth Sound recently. The outward-bound German liner Galicia was just drawing up her anchor in Cawsand Bay when two excited women arrived on the vessel. When they were told it was impossible, their excitement became the more intense.

"My husband is going abroad and I must see him," said one of them. "I must get a boat. The ship shall not go without me," she cried, and a high-powered launch was taken out to sea to catch the liner. The little craft had just got clear of the dock when the Galicia's bow was headed out to sea and her engines started. Her next stop was Trinidad.

The launch crowded on every possible ounce of speed and blew shrill blasts on its whistle. Beyond the breakwater the Galicia's engines were put to full speed, but the little launch kept up the pursuit. Several sea rales had been covered before the attention of the officers of the bridge of the liner was attracted and the engines slowed down.

The launch then went alongside, a rope ladder was dropped over the ves-

Marie Hears Results Of The U. S. Elections

QUEEN MARIE'S TRAIN AT SPOKANE, WASH., Nov. 3.—Queen Marie of Rumania arrived here last night to find the city's attention divided between herself and yesterday's election. After reception formalities were over she joined those awaiting the verdict box by visiting the Chronicle office to see how returns are compiled by the Associated Press, how the newspaper prepared its election extra, and then to have a look at an election night crowd. From a balcony of the building, she smiled at the gathering and listened a while to returns announced through radio amplifiers.

sel's side, and a man decended for a moment or two.

The liner's engines were put at full speed once more, leaving the little motor-boat to carry back its two passengers, happy in their accomplishment.

"THE BAT"

A COMEDY MYSTERY DRAMA By MARY ROBERTS RHINEHART and AVERY HOPWOOD

The World's Most Electrifying Plot of Excitement Now Masterfully Transferred to the Screen!

IF YOU WOULD HAVE YOUR HAIR CURLED INTO A PERMANENT WAVE, if you want palpitation of the heart, a dash of hysteria, general complications and many high nervous laughs, go to "The Bat." The advice should be taken only by seekers for real high-powered entertainment. Right from the start things begin to happen—a skyscraper murder mystery, a bank robbery, then the intricate spasm of events at the Van Gender mansion on Long Island. As in all genuine mystery plays, suspicion falls on one after another of all those in and about the premises, and one man's guess is as good as his wife's until the big expose. One is led on in such open-mouthed and trembling amazement that one hardly pauses to note the many dramatic and scenic devices which give the story its zest. But the speed and plausibility of incidents are so disarming that the result is an evening of complete enjoyment.

BUILDINGS IN ERIN ST. SUFFER IN NIGHT BLAZE

Roofs Burned of House, Shed and Barn—Furniture Ruined

Considerable damage by fire and water caused last night to a three story dwelling at 105 Erin street, owned by John Garnett, and occupied by Samuel Spragg, Alfred McCullough and J. Axel, also a shed adjoining the house, owned by Thomas J. McKenney, 107 Erin street, and a barn next to the McKenney shed, owned by Mary A. Hallihan, who resides at 20 Hanover street.

ORIGIN UNKNOWN

The origin of the fire is unknown and is supposed to have started in the upper part of the McKenney property which joins onto the Garnett dwelling. The flames burst through the roof before it was discovered by the firemen about 10 o'clock. He immediately notified Mr. McKenney, who in turn called on Thomas Mallett to send in an alarm from box 16, on the corner of Prince Edward and Hanover streets.

CONTENTS DESTROYED

The furnishings of the upper flats of the Garnett building, occupied by Messrs. Axel and McCullough, were destroyed, while nearly all of the furniture owned by Mr. Spragg on the ground floor, was removed by members of the Salvage Corps, while other articles left on the floor were salvaged by rubber covers which kept the water off.

MANY AT OPENING OF EAST END CLUB

More Than 75 Present as Season's Activities are Commenced

The East End Boys' Club got away to a splendid start last evening and the opening was declared to have been one of the most successful in recent years. The large room in the Victoria Rink building has been put in fairly good shape and last evening there were present 75 and 80 boys present at the opening of the season's activities.

OFFERS PRIZES

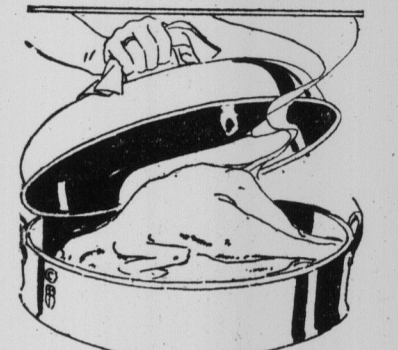

A special announcement that brought forth much applause, was one by Mr. Hamilton, who said that he would donate four prizes to the boys making the best showing in various parts of the club's work. Miss Heffer, the director, explained that the balance of the week would be taken up with registration and getting the program for the winter in shape. The regular program will be commenced next Monday.

EXPECT GOOD SUM

At a special meeting of the conveners of the recent Halloween festival of the Y. W. C. A. that was held yesterday afternoon in the recreation centre returns from that event were handed in. The returns were not all complete but the reports indicated that very satisfactory sum had been realized. This money is to be used to help defray the association's outstanding debt which at present amounts to about $8,000. Payments are to be made on a percentage basis and each creditor will receive a proportionate share of the festival proceeds.
