Premier Borden Moves For Increased Representation By Western Provinces---West London People To Demand Better Car Service---Storm Sewer Contracts Once More Laid Over---No Further Action In Smallpox Cases

PARLIAMENT BEGINS MORNING SITTINGS

Some Legislation, Including C. N. R. Aid Bill, To Be Pushed More Dropped.

WHO TOLD THE PREMIER?

Annoying Question Asked by E. M. MacDonald Receives Evasive Reply.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, May 11.—Parliament began morning sittings today. The Government wants to let its Ontario members get away for the elections in that province. They propose to push some of this legislation and to drop more of it. The Mackenzie & Mann land bill will be pushed. So will the measure of aid for the Farmers' Bank.

The railway legislation, and probably the civil service bill, will be held over for consideration next year.

Prediction as to the date of prorogation vary. The Government and its followers hope to get away before June 1st. There are many members who declare that if Parliament does justice to the legislation before it, prorogation cannot take place until the end of next month.

The first morning sitting of the session concerned itself with non-contentious matters.

The Toronto, Niagara and Western Railway bill, with the provision insisted upon by Toronto, was given third reading.

So was Finance Minister White's bill to allow drawbacks on pig iron to be paid Canadian manufacturers on export business.

E. M. MacDonald called attention to a statement by Premier Borden, in Hansard, last year, when the $15,000,000 was being voted the Canadian Northern Railway. The words used by the Premier last year were: "The Canadian Northern Railway Company proposes itself able, under ordinary conditions, to raise all the money that may be necessary for the completion of the line."

Mr. MacDonald wanted to know who made the statement, when it was made and in what writing it was made.

Premier Borden said the statement had been made to him "by an official of the Canadian Northern Railway Company." He said it was communicated to him shortly before he made the statement in the House. The statement was not made to him in writing.

WIFE GIVES EVIDENCE AGAINST HER HUSBAND

Roy Riddell, V. S., of Norwich, Charged With Performing an Illegal Operation.

[Canadian Press.]

Woodstock, Ont., May 11.—Roy Riddell, V. S., of the village of Norwich, was placed on trial this morning in the judge's criminal court before acting Judge Wallace on a charge of performing an illegal operation upon his wife. A plea of not guilty was offered by the accused, and it is expected that the case will not be concluded before tonight or tomorrow. The principal witness heard this morning was Mrs. Riddell, wife of the prisoner, who gave evidence against her husband. R. C. Robinson, K. C., of Toronto, is appearing for Riddell, and R. N. Ball for the prosecution. The case has caused intense interest throughout Oxford County, and hundreds of citizens of Norwich Township were in the city today.

JURY COMPLETED AND BECKER TRIAL BEGINS

Prosecutor Gives No Hint of New Evidence, Simply Reviewing Events.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, May 11.—A jury to try Charles Becker, former Lieutenant of Police, charged with instigating the murder of Herman Rosenthal, the gambler, was again completed today. Frederick A. Streck, a book-keeper, and Frederick C. Barrett, a consulting engineer, were the men chosen today to take the place of men excused on Saturday.

It was just at noon when the twelfth juror was selected, and District Attorney Whitman immediately began his opening presentation of the state's case to the jury.

Mr. Whitman, in his address, made no mention of the execution of the four gunmen, and in no way suggested that the prosecution had any new evidence to present. It is understood that whatever new evidence the state does introduce will be held as a surprise.

His speech on the whole was without bitterness, and was chiefly a review of the events leading up to and following the murder.

"The state will show that this assassination was planned by the defendant to halt the arm of the law in the uncovering of criminal conditions in this city," said Mr. Whitman.

NEW YORK PAYS TRIBUTE TO MEN WHO FELL AT VERA CRUZ

Thousands Gather to Show Respect to Bodies of Slain on Arrival and Business Is Suspended—Wreath of Orchids.

[Canadian Press.]

New York, May 11.—The dead from Vera Cruz were buried on American soil today, and city, state and nation, paid their tribute.

Two hours before the city was astir, seventeen flag-draped coffins were removed from the boat deck of the armored cruiser Montana, and placed on caissons on the plaza in Battery Park. Few witnessed this ceremony, for the sun was half risen; but thousands later lined the streets to watch the slow procession wind its way to the navy yard. Perhaps not since the Dewey parade has there been such a spontaneous demonstration. That, however, was a noisy tribute to a returning victor; this a reverent one to the returning dead.

Thousands in Streets.

The sky was almost cloudless, and there was just enough breeze to stiffen, aloft and ashore, the thousands of flags which flew at half-mast. Silent thousands, long before eight o'clock, began making their way toward Lower Manhattan. Many wore little bows in their hats, were bands of black upon their sleeves.

President Wilson arrived in the city from Washington shortly after seven o'clock, almost unobserved. He took no part in the procession, but was driven immediately to the home of his close friend, Col. E. M. House, thence to the navy yard.

Cadets Led the Way.

Twenty-four picked mounted police led the way. Behind them were the combined bands of the Drednoughts Wyoming and Texas, and behind the bands, 600 blue-jackets from these ships.

Next came the coffins, in single file. At the side of each rode a policeman, and at the corner of each caisson trudged a national guardsman. The Stars and Stripes alone covered the caissons.

Behind the last caisson came the caissons bearing the President, the Secretary of the Navy, senators, Congressmen and representatives of the state and city. At the rear were the floral tributes.

The Stock Exchange was closed in honor of the dead, as were other exchanges in the city. Business marked time, and in the schools special exercises were carried out.

The City's Offering.

At city hall, whose columns and portico were draped in black, the cortege halted while Mayor Mitchell placed upon a caisson a wreath of orchids, the city's tribute. As he did so, the blue-jackets stood at present arms and eight hundred

STORM SEWER BIDS AGAIN LAID OVER

Expert's Opinion Will Be Secured on Considering Tenders.

ONE SECTION IS TOO HIGH

Cost of Adelaide Street Work Beyond Estimate—New Tenders Called.

Eighteen tenders for the construction of the storm-sewer system of the city were opened at the meeting of the board of control this morning, but all were laid over with the exception of the Adelaide street tenders until a special meeting of the board tomorrow morning, when Consulting Engineer Willis Chipman will be present to advise the board.

The Adelaide street tenders, of which there were four, were much too high in the opinion of the controllers and City Engineer W. N. Ashplant, and the board decided to advertise for new bids at once, the tenders to be submitted by next Monday. The other tenders were reasonably close to the estimated cost, and the acceptance of the bids will be recommended to the council tomorrow.

Appointed Supervising Engineer.

The board accepted the offer of Engineer Chipman to supervise the work of constructing the storm sewers at 2½ per cent of the cost. This will amount to $10,000 on the outlay of $400,000 during the next two or three years, and the board recommended to the council without discussion, supervised by the city engineer's department, would entail an expenditure of at least $3,000 for additional expert help which would be required. Engineer Chipman has already received two per cent commission for the preliminary plans and surveys, his total commission being 4½ per cent as against 5 per cent asked by other engineers.

The board passed a motion authorizing an advance payment of $1,000 to Engineer Chipman's firm to cover the salaries of his assistants.

New Bylaw Passed.

The new board of health bylaw—the old one revised in harmony with the new provincial public health act—was recommended to the council without discussion, the board of health having thoroughly considered it clause by clause.

It was decided to take eight pages of space in a local advertising pamphlet, to be distributed to the council without discussion, at a cost of $1,500. The electrical and water departments will pay $500 for three of the eight pages, and will make use of several hundred of the best. City Clerk Samuel Baker and Industrial Commissioner Philip will prepare the articles.

The Sons of England were granted the use of the East End Town Hall on Thursday evening. Miss Meta Nichol, secretary of the London Humane Society, was asked to investigate the insufficient fire exits of two local liveable streets, and Building Inspector Piper will be asked to investigate and report on the complaint of the society.

The London city and township agreement will be revised, striking out the clause giving the city any claim to the 1913 taxes.

Fire Chief Aitken reported the absence through illness of two members of the fire department.

Those present were Mayor Graham, Controllers Rose, Coles, Moore and Ashplant, City Engineer Ashplant, City Clerk Baker, and Fire Chief Aitken.

WHITNEY IGNORANT OF ELECTION DATE

Says He Has Had No Information of Colleagues' Views Concerning It, So Cannot Give Out Anything.

[Canadian Press.]

Toronto, May 11.—Sir James Whitney, premier of Ontario, was again at this office this morning. He smiled broadly when the subject of elections was approached.

"An election," he replied, "why we have two years yet before we need go to the country. But, you know, that is not saying that we will not go before that time. As I have not been informed as to what my colleagues think of it, I can't say."

The other members of the cabinet will not talk about the date of the election.

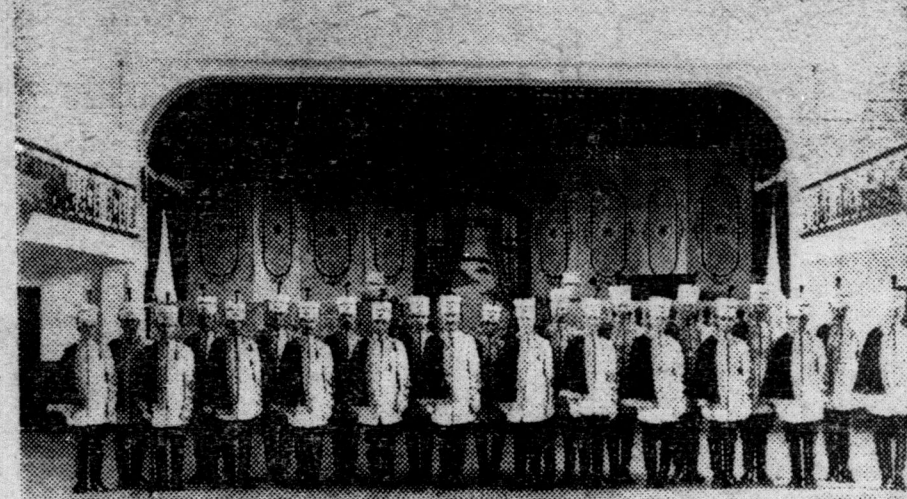

INDIAN ESCAPES FROM GUELPH PRISON FARM

Oliver Sherry Was One of the Notorious Fennie Gang of Oxford.

[Canadian Press.]

Woodstock, May 11.—The local police department was advised this morning of the escape from Central Prison Farm at Guelph of Oliver Sherry, the young Indian, who, a few weeks ago, was sentenced here to a term of one year for the part he had taken in the wholesale thefts of cheese, butter and grain by the Fennie gang in South Norwich township.

Mocha Temple Uniform Patrol

Members of the famous uniformed patrol of Mocha Temple that left for Atlanta, Georgia, yesterday. The patrol, in its white and gold uniforms, has made a hit in London, and it is expected to be one of the big Western Ontario features at the annual convocation of the nobles of the Mystic Shrine, the imperial council of which is in session in the Georgian city.

$35,000 TO BE SPENT ON MIDDLESEX ROADS

County Plans Big Expenditure on Thoroughfares and Bridges—Some Contracts Already Let.

Middlesex County Council will spend between $35,000 and $40,000 this year on bridge and road work.

The contract of furnishing material and erecting six reinforced concrete bridges, spans from 6 to 20 feet in length, for the township of Nissouri, has already been awarded to Freman Talbot, of Byron, for $2,000.

Other contracts for bridges to be let shortly are: Mud Creek, near Parkhill, 60-foot span and 18-foot clear roadway, which will cost in the neighborhood of $2,500; opposite lot 8, concession 16, West Williams, 16-foot span and 16-foot roadway, at an approximate cost of $500, and on lot 16, concession 7, West Williams, 22-foot span and 16-foot roadway, costing approximately $800.

A steel and concrete bridge between Ekfrid and Caradoc, known as the Howe bridge, will be erected with a 35-foot span, costing about $1,100.

A bridge between London and Bidland Township, 24-foot span, will cost in the neighborhood of $650, while one between London and Lobo, opposite concession 4, London, 20-foot span, will probably cost $500.

A reinforced concrete culvert on the Sarnia gravel road, Lobo, section 24, will have a 10-foot span, and will probably cost the county about $450.

Removing plank floor, cleaning and painting the steel bridge, placing steel guards, repairing guard railing and flooring with concrete on the bridge over Oxbow Creek, on the Sarnia gravel road at Melrose, will probably cost about $500.

A bridge between Delaware and Westminster, 24-foot span, will cost approximately $600.

Three reinforced concrete bridges will be erected in North Dorchester. A bridge opposite lot 5, and between concessions 1 and 2, S. R. T. will cost about $500; one opposite lot 55, and between concessions 3 and 4, N. R. T., at about $650, and the last one opposite lot A, between concessions 3 and 4, at about $450, making an approximate expenditure of about $1,600 in North Dorchester.

The township of Metcalfe will have a steel and concrete bridge erected opposite lot 10, between concessions 4 and 5, 33 foot span, at an approximate cost of $900.

Caradoc will have four steel bridges erected, one on lot 1, concession 5, costing about $800; another opposite lot 1, concessions 4 and 5, at about $500; one on lot 11, concessions 4 and 5, $600, and the last on lot 2, concession 3 and 4, at $400, making an approximate cost of $2,300.

$1,200 on Dundas Street.

The roads will be put in the best possible shape as soon as possible. Dundas street, between the city limits and Crumlin, will have $1,200 spent on it, as will also the side road north of Hallymote.

The Flood Line road, north of St. Johns, will also receive repairs to the extent of $1,200.

The Sarnia gravel road in Lobo Township, will have $3,000 spent in repairs on it, and London Township, $1,300.

The town line between London and Lobo, will receive $500 worth of repairing, will also the Alderton side road east of St. Johns.

The Quarter road, Dorchester, will receive $2,000, and the town line between London and Dorchester will receive $1,500 worth of repairs.

The Wharfedale road, Westminster Township, will cost the county $1,500, while the Adelaide road between Strathroy and Mount Brydges, will have $3,000 spent on it.

The town line between Caradoc and Metcalfe, and No. 12 side road, Ekfrid, will reach a cost of $1,500.

The road between Newbury and Glenora will receive repairs amounting to over $1,000.

NO FURTHER ACTION IN SMALLPOX CASES

Board of Health Officers Do Not Anticipate Any.

Members of the board of health do not contemplate any action in the smallpox and vaccination question at the present time. According to Medical Officer of Health, Dr. T. V. Hutchinson, and Dr. F. L. Burdon, chairman of the board of health, there are only seven cases of smallpox still under quarantine in the city and all of those are old cases.

"While the members of the board of health believe in the efficacy of vaccination," said Dr. Burdon this morning, "we cannot go into the homes of the people and compel them to be vaccinated. The local smallpox outbreak is practically over and nothing more is likely to be heard of the vaccination question at the present time."

The board of health will meet Tuesday afternoon and it is not unlikely that trustee W. T. Strong's assertion that he had heard there were forty cases of smallpox in the city, and Dr. H. W. Hill's attitude in regard to the dangers of uncollected garbage, will be discussed either formally or informally.

SIR WILFRID KINDLY CORRECTS THE PREMIER

Points Out That Proposed Senate Increase May Not Be Legal.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Ottawa, May 11.—A bill increasing the number of British Columbia senators from three to six was offered by Premier Borden, who said the intention was to give each of the four Western Provinces six senators, and so make a group of twenty-four senators in the West, as there was now such a group for the Maritime Provinces, for Quebec and for Ontario.

Where is Authority?

Sir Wilfrid Laurier said that while there was no doubt that there was authority to increase the senatorial representation of Alberta and Saskatchewan, it was doubtful if there was authority to increase the senatorial representation of Manitoba, and he could find no such authority in regard to British Columbia. He thought that before additional senators could be appointed for Manitoba or British Columbia, authority would have to be obtained from the Imperial Parliament.

Approves Increase.

Sir Wilfrid said he entirely approved of the increase proposed for the each of the four Western Provinces. However, he thought that the Government would do as well to proceed in a safe legal way, which was by address to the British Parliament, to constitute a western senatorial group of twenty-four.

Premier Borden said he would give consideration to Sir Wilfrid's representations, but in the meantime suggested the resolution should pass and the discussion take place on the bill.

This was agreed to.

WIDE POWERS ARE GIVEN THE ENVOYS

Huerta's Delegates Supposed to Have Power to Sign Any Documents.

MEXICAN PRESS BITTER

The Lobos Lighthouse Incident Referred to Mediators for Settlement.

[Canadian Press.]

Vera Cruz, May 11.—Emilio Rabasa, Augustin Rodriguez and Justes Elguero, the three envoys deputed by President Huerta to represent him at the Niagara Falls conference, who will sail late today for Havana, en route to Key West, are clothed with full powers, nominally at least, to sign any agreement or convention.

The Mexican senate, in a resolution approving President Huerta's nomination of the three commissioners, conferred "full power and ample authority to judge, counsel, carry on business, and sign any agreement or treaty whatever." Many prominent Mexicans here, however, are not inclined to regard this broad authority as real. Others believe that Huerta has instructed the commissioners to place no insurmountable objections to an amicable adjustment of the difficulties with the United States, believing that the failure of the negotiations might result in pushing American intervention, which they feel would not unite factions but force Huerta to fight alone.

Papers Are Bitter.

Mexico City newspapers continued to make bitter attacks upon the United States. Alleged copies of the American articles of war are being published in the capital to inflame the public. They represent American military practices as most cruel. The newspapers of the capital, also, are still insisting that the United States is violating the armistice, this time complaining that the charter of war transports by the war department is a direct violation.

Schools Reopen.

Four schools opened here today with native instructors and the same machinery as before the occupation by the American troops. If the experiment of opening these four schools is successful, General Funston plans to re-establish the entire school system of the city.

The Lobos Incident.

Washington, May 11.—Huerta's protest over the reported seizure of Lobos Island—an important lighthouse point off the eastern coast of Mexico—by a landing party from United States torpedo-boats was taken up today by the South American envoys. The reported occupation of the island—probably to assure uninterrupted operation of the lighthouse—was resented by Huerta as a violation of the armistice. The reported occupation of the island—probably to assure uninterrupted operation of the lighthouse—was resented by Huerta as a violation of the armistice. The reported occupation of the island—probably to assure uninterrupted operation of the lighthouse—was resented by Huerta as a violation of the armistice.

The note was considered in detail.

To Safeguard Shipping.

It was believed that the seizure was contemplated for a precautionary measure to safeguard shipping. As such, it was asserted, it would be without any significance as territorial aggression and would not justify any accusations against the United States. Reported occupation of Lobos, it was believed in Washington today, was probably brought about after its light was threatened. Admiral Howard had reported that Huerta had ordered the suspension of lights on the Pacific seaboard, so as to impede navigation by American ships, and the same order was said to have been issued for beacons on the Atlantic coast.

Names of the American delegates—Associate Justice Lamar, of the supreme court, and Former Solicitor-General Lehman—were announced soon after the receipt of dispatches from Vera Cruz, telling of the arrival there of Huerta's representatives.

With The Man With The Grip

Travellers Are Not Disheartened at Street Railway Manager's Ignoring of Request for "Owl Cars"—Placing of Two Fast Limited Trains on Schedule of C. P. R. Meets With General Approval of Drummers—"Samples From the Grip."

Travelers are invited to correspond and exchange views through this column. News of general interest to commercial men will be published. Letters, if brief and to the point and containing no matter which is considered objectionable, will be run in the order received. The column is intended to foster a spirit of co-operation among the men on the road. All communications should be addressed to "Travelers," in care of The Advertiser.

TO CONTINUE "OWL CAR" AGITATION.

While Manager C. B. King of the London Street Railway Company has expressed himself in print to the effect that he considers the establishment of an all-night car service in London as impractical, commercial travellers who are advocates of the system are not discouraged, but are rather incensed through the manager's slighting of their proposal. The fact that many travellers residing in London arrive in the city on the early morning trains and are forced to walk to their homes, often in pouring rain or a driving blizzard, has started an agitation that will not easily be turned aside.

City Big Enough. "London is certainly large enough to have an all-night car service such as was suggested by a fellow traveller through the columns of The Advertiser recently," said a well-known drummer. "We are past the town stage and there are many people on the streets early and late whose occupations regulate their time of home-going to the wee small hours. The value of 'owl cars' for this class is difficult to appreciate by anyone who had not worked at night."

"If the railway company believes that there would be no profit in operating all-night cars, the service could at least be maintained until 1 o'clock and start at 5 instead of 6 in the morning. Besides incoming travellers there are many citizens who are down town after 12 o'clock who would patronize the cars."

Agitating For Years. "Commercial men have been advocating the owl car service for many years, but so far they have not got together and asked for it. It has always been a matter of discussion, but has never been taken up in earnest. Just now the feeling is being given fresh impetus by several live wire salesmen in the city. The idea is to try to arrange for a service for the fall and winter months. Meanwhile the question is being kept warm among London drummers."

NEW C. P. R. FLYERS HANDY FOR DRUMMERS.

The proposed addition of two flyers to the "through" service of the C. P. R. to link Montreal, Toronto and Chicago, is meeting with general satisfaction among travelling men out of London, whose trips include many two, and even three-week jaunts during the year. For them the addition of the new trains will, in many instances, mean the shortening of absence from their homes, through better and faster service.

Canada Is Progressing. Harold D. Palmer, traveler for a big Chicago clothing concern, who passed through London Saturday, en route for Toronto, Montreal and intermediate points, commented favorably on the installation of the fast trains to meet the increasing demands of traffic.

"Canada is going ahead by leaps and bounds," he said, "and it is time that our railroads thought of putting on trains that were above the ordinary speed average. Time now-a-days is valuable and the traveling public is going to patronize the road or roads that are making the fastest time. With the modern facilities employed today, the danger from fast service is minimized. The old idea that to travel at a speed above forty miles an hour was courting danger is rapidly being shelved."

Can Cover More Ground. "The average American traveler can cover territory faster because he has better railway accommodations. In many of our Canadian towns that I have been in there are only two trains a day, one in the morning and another in the afternoon. Look at the time you lose waiting to move to the next place. It's the same way on the main lines, to a lesser extent. Of course the population does not warrant a heavy service. But it will come gradually. It's a sure bet that many travelers out of this city would come home oftener if train service was better. These new trains of the C. P. R., while not running through the city, will be some advantage to us."

You will find that other roads will be outdistanced and will put on some speed trains also. Just as soon as they can get competition getting to them, they will make the change.

Samples From the Grip.

Billy Sunday's methods of preaching scripture to commercial travellers are novel, to say the least. At a recent meeting in Philadelphia, in speaking of the conflict between David and Goliath, he is credited with saying: "David looked at Goliath and asked, 'Who is this big stuff?' Then he hit him between the lamps, chopped off his block, and the rest of the gang beat it."

Although the manager of the London Street Railway does not seem to approve of all-night cars, on the grounds that they would not pay, traveler advocates "should worry." If they want them very bad and show that they are a necessity, the company will not be slow in "coming across."

WELCOME in the way in which the addition of two new fast trains on the C. P. R. is heralded by the "drummers." For many of them it will mean that they can come home oftener over week-ends. Now let the other road follow suit.

Here's to the season and heavy selling in old W. O.

WILL RESIDE IN LONDON

[Special to The Advertiser.]

PETROLEA, May 10.—Richard Borland, carriage-maker, has closed his works and left today for London. Mr. Borland has been in business in Petrolea 35 years and built almost all wagons and carriages in town until about fifteen years ago, and still enjoyed a good trade when he closed.

He intends to visit with his daughter in London for some time until he sees another opening.

SHRINERS LEAVE ON ANNUAL PILGRIMAGE

Nobles of Mocha Temple Depart for Atlanta Sunday Morning.

EIGHTY MEMBERS IN PARTY Special Train, Manned by Shriner, Will Carry It to Imperial Conclave.

Nearly 75 Shriner of Mocha Temple, and the far-famed Imperial Patrol, left London at 9 o'clock yesterday, bound for the Imperial council meeting in Atlanta, Ga. Wearing a smile, in spite of the fact that it looked like rain, the nobles marched to the Grand Trunk station in a body. Each and every one toted a smile around, and a smile on the Grand Trunk station is straight from the heart.

Shriners, shriners everywhere, even the train crew of the mystic company, Conductor Mier. McKenzie was the selfsame conductor who, four years ago, escorted the train to New Orleans. Engineer William Campbell kept engine 327 purring powerfully to Detroit, and brakeman J. Culley made the spiking of switches unnecessary. At Detroit, another shriner crew led the special on to Atlanta.

In the train, which was composed of two Pullmans and a commodious car, two Pullmans and a commodious car, were already encoined, the St. Thomas members of the Temple, with Potentate "Hy. Henry" Roe, in the middle foreground. Altogether, the train load was about eighty. The train was a special, and made only two or three stops between here and Atlanta. Mocha Temple have the full-speed-ahead idea. They arrived in Georgia about 1 o'clock this morning.

With the delegation from London is Charles Alford's well-trained Oriental Hauthoy Band, a peach of a band, according to those who have not heard it, for they do say that it sounds like the bagpipes.

FINDING OF ROWBOAT INDICATES SUICIDE

[Special to The Advertiser.]

SANDWICH, May 10.—An empty rowboat, picked up in Turkey Creek two miles from here with the oars carefully placed beneath the seat, has been identified as one in which Everett Curtis, now missing for ten days, was last seen.

It is greatly feared that Curtis, who for some time had been brooding over a long illness, has suicided. All efforts to locate the body so far have proven unsuccessful.

Special Demonstration and Exhibition of Newest Bon-Ton and Royal Worcester Corsets

Miss Donahue, expert demonstrator from the Royal Worcester factory, Worcester, Mass., begins today a special demonstration and exhibit of the newest 1914 models, proving in every figure at the fitting of fashion the pliant, supple lines that are the goal of all. The matchless style of the Bon-Ton is apparent the moment you see them. The mandates of fashion are unmistakable. Any hint of restraint or even stiffness is not tolerated.

The richest fabrics are wasted unless made upon fashionable lines, and how are the correct lines to be secured unless the corset embodies them? The modelling must be accurate and sensitive, with mellow contours and almost invisible lines, and no corset combines all these attributes more perfectly than the Bon-Ton.

Miss Donahue will be here for a few days only to assist our corset fitters, and will be pleased to impart any corset information desired to all who avail themselves of this special opportunity. Some valuable corset hints may be gathered. Demonstration will continue tomorrow and all this week.

"Bon-Ton" Models $4.00 to $10.00
"Royal Worcester" $1.25 to $2.50

WILL CHRISTEN TWINS
DUKE & CONNAUGHT

[Special to The Advertiser.]
STRATFORD, May 10.—There is one family, at least, in Stratford which will not soon forget the visit of the vice royal party. The happy couple are Mr. and Mrs. Bert Jesson, McFarlane avenue, who on Friday were blessed with twins. The two small sons will be named Duke and Connaught. They regret that the stork did not leave a girl to be called Patricia.

GLUE FACTORY WIPED OUT AT BRANTFORD

Fire Brigade Unable to Respond to Call—Loss Estimated at $125,000

[Special to The Advertiser.]
BRANTFORD, May 10.—The main plant of the Canada Glue Factory on the outskirts of this city, was wiped out by fire Saturday evening, causing a loss of $125,000.
Seventy employees will be thrown out of work.
The origin of the fire is a mystery, the night watchman having made his rounds a few minutes previous to the outbreak.

Brigade Did Not Work.
Employees endeavored to check the blaze, but without success, and it was impossible for the city brigade to respond to the call.
The building was of cement construction. The fire did not reach the outer buildings, which contained a big gasoline supply.

Factory To Be Rebuilt.
The loss is covered by an insurance of $116,000. It is announced that the factory will be rebuilt.

WAR CORRESPONDENTS ARE PLACED IN PRISON

Canadian Press Man and Three Others
Prisoners of Mexicans.

[Canadian Press.]
VERA CRUZ, May 10.—Walter C. Whiffen, correspondent of The Canadian Press, Sutton, a photographer for the Washington Post, Oliver M. Hueffer, correspondent of the London Express, and another English correspondent, named Rourke, were placed under arrest by the Mexican authorities at Mexico City, Thursday evening. They had just returned from Vera Cruz and the police were waiting with coaches when the train drew into the station.

Placed in Jail.
All were taken to the jail under guard and Messrs. Whiffen and Sutton were held for investigation. The two Englishmen were released, and the officer who arrested them was reprimanded. Later Whiffen and Sutton were set free.

Whiffen carried only a handbag, which happened to contain a copy of the Mexican Herald. The official who searched the bag remarked: "That kind of English does not go here." Sutton carried a camera which was confiscated. He showed a correspondent's credentials signed by Rear-Admiral Badger, but to no effect.

Demanded Release.
Hueffer went at once to the Brazilian minister, who notified the British minister, Sir Lionel Carrington, and also called on the police to release the Americans. The police replied that some action would be taken as soon as the chief of police had investigated the merits of the case.
Rourke, the other English correspondent, returned here, while Hueffer remained at Mexico City.
The British consul here has received no advice and the Brazilian consulate is closed.

FIREMEN BANQUETTED

Efficient Work in Saving Garage From Flames Is Rewarded By Owner.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
GODERICH, May 10.—As an appreciation of their efficient work in saving his premises from being consumed in the fire that gutted the Walker Carriage Works on Friday, May 1, A. M. Glover, proprietor of the East Street Garage, rendered a banquet to the firemen Saturday night.

The fire, which for a time threatened to sweep a large section of the town, was placed under control by the brigade after stubborn fighting. The firemen made a particular effort to save the surrounding buildings from the flames, and succeeded in keeping the fire away from the garage.

SOUTH HURON AROUSED; WILL NAME TEMPERANCE CANDIDATE

Hanna's Action Meets With Strongest Disapproval and Will Have Its Result at Convention on May 18th—More Liquor Ordered.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

GODERICH, May 10.—The temperance workers of South Huron have called a convention to meet in Hensall on May 10, and at this meeting steps will be taken to select a candidate pledged to make certain that the bar is removed from the riding.

This is a direct result of the recent breach of faith on the part of Hon. W. J. Hanna, who, after pledging his word to a temperance people that every bar in Huron would go out of business on May 1, deliberately granted three months' extension in Centre and South Huron.

A leading temperance worker, stated to The Advertiser tonight that the organization which secured the biggest majority for the Canada Temperance Act that has ever been won in Ontario will see that a temperance members sits in the house after the next election for South Huron.

ELECTORS ARE AROUSED.

All through the district those who voted to abolish the bar in Huron are up in arms against Mr. Hanna for deliberately frustrating their hard work by playing into the hands of the liquor interests.

It is generally admitted that Mr. Proudfoot will win easily in Centre Huron as a result of what has happened there recently.

Everywhere the most scathing condemnation is to be heard of Mr. Hanna's breach of faith.

ORDERING MORE LIQUOR.

In Centre and South Huron, instead of the bars being closed, thousands of dollars' worth of liquor is being ordered from the breweries, and all the hotels are doing business as if no monster majority against the liquor traffic had been piled up by the electors.

The convention to be held at Hensall will be attended by every leader in the district. All are aroused to the importance of the matter in hand, and many leading workers declare that Mr. Hanna's attitude has won many votes which in the C. T. A. campaign were cast in favor of the bar.

NORDICA IS DEAD

Great Singer Passes Away in Java—Will Be Buried in the United States.

[Canadian Press.]

Batavia, Java, May 11.—The body of Mme. Lillian Nordica, the operatic singer, who died here from pneumonia last night, is to be sent to the United States. It will leave here on May 16, inclosed in a Chinese casket.

Born in 1859.

Mme. Nordica was born at Farmington, United States, in 1859. Her education was received at the Boston Conservatory of Music, where her wonderful voice received its first cultivation.
Her first appearance before a large audience was in La Traviata, in Brescia, London, 1887. Later as Marguerite in Faust she achieved considerable fame for her interpretation of the role.

Married Three Times.

Her first marriage was to Mr. Gower. Later she was married to Herr Dorn, and more recently to George W. Young, a prominent New York banker, by whose name she was known in private life.

Her death was due to a relapse, following an attack of pneumonia, contracted during her removal from the wrecked passenger steamer Tasman last January.
She had intended to retire with a series of concerts to be given in the principal cities of the United States as a conclusion to her world tour.

"SUFF" BOMB PLACED IN SPURGEON'S CHURCH

LONDON, May 10.—A bomb placed by suffragettes exploded this afternoon in the gallery of the Metropolitan Tabernacle in South London, an edifice made famous by the late Rev. Charles H. Spurgeon.

Little damage was done by the explosion. It is believed that the bomb, a canister containing about two pounds of powder, was placed in the gallery during the morning service, which ended at 12:30 o'clock. An hour later the caretaker in the tabernacle was startled by the explosion.

Near the spot where the bomb exploded was a card on which was written: "Put your religion into practice and see that women obtain their freedom."

QUEBEC GIRL IS CRUELLY SLAIN

Nineteen-Year-Old Blanche
Dubois Struck Down
With Hammer.

[Canadian Press.]

QUEBEC, May 10.—One of the foulest and most brutal murders ever perpetrated in Quebec was committed here this morning in St. Sanguin ward, when Marie Blanche Dubois, aged 19 years, was beaten to death with a hammer in the rear of the shoe store, which was conducted by her brother and herself.

This morning about half past ten o'clock somebody rang the bell at the private entrance. Miss Dubois answered the door and came upstairs, she told her mother that there was a man who wished to change a pair of boots, which did not fit. She took the key to open a door communicating from the passage of the private entrance to the store and evidently let the man in.

Mother's Awful Discovery.
As she had not returned in half an hour, her mother became anxious and called down to her. There was no reply, and the mother, on descending the stairway, found the door leading to the store open. She entered the shop, but could not see her daughter anywhere, and again called her without receiving any answer. Then she opened a door leading to a repair shop in the rear of the main store, and to her horror she saw her daughter lying in a pool of blood.

Great with grief and horror at the awful spectacle which her murdered child presented, she ran to the street wringing her hands and crying hysterically for help. Augustin Rodriguez, and Louis Elguero arrived here today on their way to Niagara Falls, Ont., where the conference between the mediators and the representatives of the parties concerned for a settlement of the difficulties between the United States and Mexico will be held. The commissioners politely but firmly declined the offers of hospitality made by Brig.-Gen. Funston, as well as Rear Admiral Badger's offer to give them passage on the Morro Castle, and boarded the steamer Kron Princess Cecilie, which will probably sail tomorrow for the United States by way of Havana, touching at Key West.

Girl Still Breathed.
Dr. Leclerc found the girl still breathing, but in a state of unconsciousness. She was bathed in blood, and the left side of her head behind the ear had been crushed in with a shoemaker's hammer. There were wounds on the neck and back, and blood oozing from the girl's side.

Indications are that the perpetrator of the dastardly crime was familiar with the layout of the store, and suspicion is said to attach to two persons who had a grudge against the store, one of whom was working on the roof and of the other refused when he applied for employment. The provincial and city police are working on the roof and expect to make an arrest before morning.

PEACE ENVOYS DECLINE

Observe Strictest Neutrality on Way To Niagara Falls, Ont., For Conference.

[Canadian Press.]

VERA CRUZ, May 10.—President Huerta's three peace commissioners, Emilio Rios, Augustin Rodriguez, and Louis Elguero arrived here today on their way to Niagara Falls, Ont., where the conference between the mediators and the representatives of the parties concerned for a settlement of the difficulties between the United States and Mexico will be held. The commissioners politely but firmly declined the offers of hospitality made by Brig.-Gen. Funston, as well as Rear Admiral Badger's offer to give them passage on the Morro Castle, and boarded the steamer Kron Princess Cecilie, which will probably sail tomorrow for the United States by way of Havana, touching at Key West.

LATEST SOURCE OF KNOWLEDGE

Someone has said, "One's knowledge is of two kinds—that which he already knows, and that which he can readily find out."

There are but few of our readers who realize that the building of the great Panama Canal is actually the greatest work of all time. The Advertiser is distributing a book to its readers which sets forth every detail of this information. It tells you of the financial operations of Count De Lesseps, the Frenchman, who first started to dig the great waterway; it explains the problem that has baffled civilization since Balboa crossed the Isthmus 400 years ago; it shows how the skill of modern engineering has conquered the seemingly insuperable obstacles. Not only is this information given in detail, but the country and the people are described so accurately that one feels on neighboring terms with them after reading this book.

"Panama and the Canal in Picture and Prose" is profusely illustrated with more than 600 rare photographic reproductions and 16 magnificent watercolor studies. These portray every conceivable phase of life in the zone and include numerous scenes never before printed. The pictures alone tell a story of this tropical country that far surpasses any ordinary narrative, and the young as well as the older members of the family will imbibe no end of knowledge on this timely subject.

Certificates such as will be found elsewhere in The Advertiser today are printed daily during the educational campaign. Clip and present six of these certificates with the small expense amount indicated covers the bare cost of distribution and this beautiful and useful volume is yours. If not exactly as represented your money will be promptly refunded.

NEW LISKEARD, May 10.—Arthur W. Roebuck, of New Liskeard, who opposed R. T. Shillington at the last provincial election, was the unanimous choice of the Liberals of Temiskaming at their convention here. Ten other names were put before the convention, but withdrawn.

Mr. Roebuck is a former Toronto newspaperman, who is regarded as one of the striking figures of the northern country. His friends are confident that he can win the constituency.

WYOMING, May 10.—While planting potatoes on his father's farm recently Lewis King, second line, found a beautiful gold wedding ring embedded in the soil. Although it must have lain buried for many years, it showed no sign of having deteriorated. The ring is marked 18-karat, and after being cleaned up is as handsome as ever.

CONSULT OTTAWA ABOUT PROVINCIAL ELECTION

Ontario Government Anxious to Bring It On Soon, But Want Federal Support.

[Special to The Advertiser.]
OTTAWA, May 10.—The date of the Ontario provincial elections was considered today by members of the Ontario Government and members of the provincial Government. Messrs. W. H. Hearst and I. V. Lucas reached Ottawa tonight and spent the evening discussing the situation with Hon. Mr. Borden's ministers.

It is understood that they want to hold the Federal elections as soon as convenient, but wish to have the assistance of the 72 members of the Federal House from Ontario in the fight. They are reported to have urged Premier Borden to close the Federal session as soon as possible by either prorogation or adjournment.

Railway Deal In The Way.
The measure of aid for MacKenzie & Mann, to which the Government has committed itself is an obstacle in the way of prorogation. The adjournment would be an easier thing, but most unusual. It is understood that there was no conclusion reached as a result of the conference, but that the Government would be a decision come to and announced shortly. With morning sittings starting tomorrow it will be difficult for any of the men from Ontario to leave Ottawa without seriously crippling the Government majority.

Uncertain of Support.
This is especially true as Mr. R. B. Bennett and W. F. Nickle are outspoken against MacKenzie & Mann aid and a number of other Conservative members have threatened to vote against the Government over it.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., May 10.—Charles W. Post, wealthy cereal manufacturer of Battle Creek, Mich., ended his life at his winter home here today while temporarily insane.

The verdict of the coroner's jury was noncommittal. It was simply that death had been caused by a gunshot wound.
Soon after having breakfast with his wife, Mr. Post dismissed his nurse from his room, asserting that he wished to rest. A moment later a shot was heard.

MEXICAN WAR COST
TO U. S. IS $2,701,327

Transporting of Army Will Reach Million and a Half, According to Memorandum.

WASHINGTON, May 10.—The first big memorandum of expense, on account of the Mexican crisis, sent to congress, was submitted today, when the House received estimates aggregating $2,701,327 for pay, subsistence, supplies, horses, barracks, transportation and engineering work. The troops now at Vera Cruz and on the Mexican border. Congress was asked to make the appropriations immediately.

The largest item is $1,483,674 for transportation of the army, which is additional to $464,371 estimated March 17. This amount, the war department says, is required to cover the expense of moving troops, of keeping certain transports in commission, chartering of vessels, purchase of coal, water and of stevedores in connection with chartered vessels and the purchase of additional draft and pack animals required for proper equipment of troops in the field.

THE WORST IS COMING!

Boston Society Passing Through Fris-t Shocks of Pantalot.

BOSTON, May 10.—Boston society is gasping over the first appearance of pantalots in the Back Bay. They were worn by Mrs. Lionette Lovell at the ball of the Massachusetts Federation of Progressive Women at the Copley Plaza. Had she but known how much attention her new gown would attract, Mrs. Lovell might not have worn it, she said.

Skirts with the pantalot effect have been seen in Boston, but it was the first time a garment of this kind had come into view here. Those present gazed at it almost continuously throughout the evening. Some women were simply dumfounded. Others said it was not so bad, and added that they may later adopt the style.

BURDOCK BLOOD

CURED A BAD ATTACK OF ECZEMA.

All skin diseases such as Eczema, Salt Rheum, Tetter, Rash, Boils, Pimples, and Itching Skin Eruptions, are always caused from the blood being in a bad condition, and it is impossible to eradicate them from the system unless you put your blood in good shape. This you can very easily do without the slightest trouble by using Burdock Blood Bitters.

It drives out all the humor from the blood, and makes it pure and rich, and not only are the unsightly diseases removed, but a bright clean complexion produced, but the entire system is renovated and invigorated at the same time.

Mrs. G. A. Day, Somerville, N.B., writes:—"Last spring I had a bad attack of Eczema. I tried several patent medicines as well as the medicine of a physician, but they seemed to make the disease worse. I was advised to try Burdock Blood Bitters, and I did so with the result that in two weeks time the sores began to disappear. I continued to take it until I had taken three bottles and they worked a complete cure."

THE CANADIAN NORTHERN.

THE second clause of the proposed agreement with the Government refers to a "New Trust Deed" to be executed to secure the guaranteed securities, such new trust deed to be made to a trustee or trustees approved by the governor in council. There is another trust deed referred to in sub-section D of the same clause, dated the 19th of November, 1913, made between the Canadian Northern Railway Company, MacKenzie, Mann & Company, Limited, the British Empire Trust Company, Limited, and the National Trust Company, Limited, trustees securing £3,500,000, or five per cent land mortgage debentures. Another trust deed is referred to in clause 12, dated the 6th May, 1910, made to the British Empire Trust Company and the National Trust Company with reference to the conversion of $25,000,000 debenture stock. This proposed trust deed to secure the guarantee by the Government is, therefore, to be called the "New Trust Deed."

In the draft agreement between the railways, MacKenzie & Mann and the Government, provision is made that MacKenzie & Mann will make no claim for commission or remuneration for services in financing or for any other services rendered. In this connection it has been stated that they could claim several millions in this way.

The new trust deed is very important in this aspect. If this Government deemed it wise to provide against a claim by MacKenzie & Mann for services and financing, how much more necessary with reference to the New Trust Deed? The commission of a trustee in connection with a trust of $45,000,000 would be large, and if default happens, much larger, whether the roads pay or not.

Is a new trust deed necessary? Could not all that is necessary be embodied in a statute? If a trustee is necessary, why not make the Receiver General the trustee? The sum involved as commissions might be a source of much temptation. It would tax the imagination to trace what might be done with it. A trust deed is not necessary, and should be abandoned. The matter, if dealt with, should be dealt with by the statute finally, and the temptation necessarily connected with the large fees and commissions avoided.

BACTERIA, THEORIES AND LIGHT.

A French woman scientist is said to have succeeded in evolving, by the use of ultra-violet rays, whatever they are, a new species of bacteria from a species already known. The new monsters cause quite a new disease. The lady's theory is that the multitudes of existing species of bacteria and diseases have come, under influence of light, from a few primitive forms.

One thing is certain about evolution, and that is that the species of scientific theory are in a state of constant multiplication and variation, under the influence of light more or less infra or ultra violet. This is often thrown up to science as a reproach. It is not a reproach, but a credit. Live things are always varying, even dead things change. It is worse than dead to remain fixed and unvaried.

HELP FOR THE WESTERN FARMER.

IT is rather amusing to note the change of view that has been coming over the Conservative press of the western provinces. It is not very long since they were demanding help for the farmers. Some of them wanted free wheat; many wanted free agricultural implements. These were among the "demands" that were made, not by Liberals especially, but by Conservatives as well. And it was broadly intimated that the Government dare not turn a deaf ear to the call of the West.

But it did. Mr. White brought down his new tariff measures, and there was no free wheat and no free implements. All that was done was five per cent reduction on mowers and binders. But the indignation that might have been expected does not appear. The Winnipeg Telegram, for an example, intimates that while wheat used to be the great production of the West, the people are now turning their attention to mixed farming. Free access to the United States markets is really not so important after all. And as for free implements, why "the West is not sectional. It is Canadian and British to the core." It puts its interests in the scale along with those of the country as a whole. If differing conditions in the West call for other treatment than would serve in the east that is not to suggest that the west would never itself from the east, or that it would seek to dominate the situation.

So the "imperative demand" of a few months ago is submerged by a broad patriotism when the party politics requires it. But that patriotism would not have been so evident in the columns of our Manitoba friend if it had been a Liberal Government which refused the demand. And though a Liberal Opposition favors it, the demand will not be pressed for fear it should damage the Conservative Government.

In the meantime, however, the Government has done well for the Western farmer, we are told, because it has reduced the tariff five per cent on mowers and binders. And great praise is accorded for this boon. The praise may be deserved, or it may not. A farmer may buy one of these machines once in ten years. If the reduction of five per cent on the duty meant a corresponding reduction in the price, the farmer would save from 50 to 75 cents a year. But as two great firms—the Massey-Harris in Canada and the International Harvester in the States—practically control this business the farmer need not expect any reductions in the price he is paying for his machines. Both firms are selling in Canada, and are not likely to cut prices. The five per cent cut in duties is a sop that will be of little value, if any. And on other agricultural implements—plows, drills, cultivators, etc.—there is not even a five per cent cut. Yet they are trying to make the farmers believe that Mr. Borden has done great things for them. It remains to be seen whether the western farmer is as credulous as his Conservative advisers seem to think he is.

THE INDIVIDUAL WITHERS.

ONE of the drawbacks in our modern world of rapid, long-distance transportation and kaleidoscopic change is the thinness and precariousness of personal relationships. Is friendship what it was, when we are here today and there tomorrow? It may be urged that railways make reunions at the holiday points of the year's calendar. But a flash of reunion now and then is not the equivalent of long and steady association such as obtained when few people moved far from home. It is almost necessary for peace of mind to indulge in only moderate friendship, when the friends may be suddenly placed as far apart as Vancouver and Montreal, or even London and North Bay. Cheap postage, photographs, excursions are of small avail to counteract the obliterating force of distance.

If the general brotherhood of the race is promoted by our modern conditions, it must be confessed that they have done something to diminish the intensity of personal relationships. If "the world is full of farewells to the associates. Perhaps we have to adapt ourselves, abandoning the old demand for eternity in friendship, but enjoying its sweetness while it lasts, with a frank recognition that tomorrow will divide.

ANTI-TIPPING BILL.

SENATOR Davis' bill to make tipping illegal has been given its second reading in the Upper House, and it is quite likely that it will pass the Commons without much opposition. There has been a tendency amongst some of the senators and some newspapers to treat the matter lightly, in the nature of a joke, but the average man will agree that the habit is a pernicious one, and that it should be wiped out. While it is probably more common at the capital than anywhere else in the Dominion, it has become widespread within the last few years. This applies particularly to trains, steamboats, hotels and restaurants where employees make such a good thing out of it that they are engaged for the most meagre salaries. This in itself is an excellent reason for the abolishing of the habit.

To get a fair wage for service skillfully given, is surely a manlier and more decent way, if not so lucrative, of earning a living than by dependency on the bounty of the public, which is largely given under protest. And wouldn't it be a good thing to discourage this species of servility that is unfortunately prevalent. Quite apart from the "hold up" part of it, tipping is usually accompanied by an obsequiousness, and hat tipping that is distasteful to Canadians. Besides, the habit of tipping leads to many abuses. Failure to tip the waiter in a fashionable restaurant makes the courageous one a marked man, and in nine cases out of ten, if he returns, he will receive poor service. On the other hand, lavish tipping tends to breed dishonesty amongst employees, as not infrequently they will make it a point to see that the free giver gets a few extras at the expense of the employer. From every angle this proposed legislation to make tipping punishable with a fine or imprisonment seems a good one, and there is no doubt that it had the support of the public.

Of course, the measure, if it goes through, will be violated in practice. Tipping is too good a thing to be quickly surrendered. A reformed train robber has recently stated that when he held up a train his first victim was always the Pullman car porter. However, with the law as an excuse, a man will be able to face more calmly the sneer of the colored buccanniers and the contemptuous stare of the dining-room tyrant, where now he quails and hurries to disgorge.

There is no question but that Huerta is making his mark in history, but it is a good deal of a smudge.

With the boating season at hand, wouldn't it be well to insert a clause in that anti-tipping bill to prevent fools tipping the boat.

 One very useful piece of legislation has been produced, namely, the new Workmen's Compensation Act drawn by Sir William Meredith. But for this the government cannot properly claim any credit seeing that it was not induced to take action until the had been constant prodding not only by Mr. Rowell and other representatives of the Liberal party but by Labor deputations as well. It is a measure calculated to place the relations of the employer and the employee on a entirely new plane relative to responsibility for injuries brought about by industrial accidents and ought to be productive of much good.

THE VOICE OF THE PEOPLE

A REPLY TO MR. McELHERAN.

To the Editor of The Advertiser:
 Will you, of your courtesy, permit me to lay before the public through your columns the true facts of the case in the matter of the letter sent to the board of education on behalf of the Women's Canadian Club by its capable and esteemed president. I will not call this a reply to the secretary of the board, for his communication, with its contemptible insinuations against the honor and truthfulness of the flower of London's efficient and brainy women, breathes so plainly the spirit of the man, with his well-known reputation as regards broad-mindedness and culture, that it needs no refuting. It is, however, but right that the public should not be deceived by his specious suppression of facts.

The women of the Canadian Club obtained their information, as all intelligent people do from the daily press, which publishes a report of the proceedings of the board of education and its committees. In one sense this is a more trustworthy source than the minutes, for it gives the discussions, whereas the minutes merely record the formal motions voted upon. It is also the medium through which public opinion is influenced, and is, therefore, of the greatest importance. If the reporter makes mistakes or false statements regarding the proceedings of the board, it is plainly the duty of the secretary to correct them at the time, but to find any instance of his having done so, I will reproduce, as briefly as possible, some of those reports which have appeared in your columns:

Advertiser, December 3, 1913: "The report of the finance committee was read. Dr. Teasdale moved for the minimum to be increased to $500, maximum $800, as formerly, remarking that 'the young teachers were the ones who should be benefited rather than eight or ten old ones, who had been many years in the service and were not as good as they had been.' Trustee Strong contended that if they had eight or ten incompetent teachers on the staff they should get rid of them. Trustee Teasdale said: 'If I used the word incompetent I withdraw it. What I said was that some of the teachers were not as good as they were ten years ago.' Trustee A. M. Hunt believed that good results might be obtained from giving bonuses to the teachers who showed an increase in their efficiency. Trustee Shaw acknowledged that some teachers were entitled to more than others, but thought that the proposal to bonus teachers might result in those with a pull having things all their own way. The amendment to refer the matter to the board of 1914 was lost and the motion to increase the minimum to $500 carried. Trustee Shaw was then prepared to move that the finance committee be instructed to see if there were any incompetent teachers on the local staff, the findings to be called for the purpose of dealing with salaries. The secretary advised that the question of salaries had been disposed of so that Trustee Shaw's desire for an investigation was not gratified. This referred to the women teachers request for an increase in the maximum which was not granted."

Advertiser, February 9, 1914:—"The women public school teachers of London will not receive an increase in their maximum salaries, at least, before the mid-summer holidays. The teachers recently petitioned the board of education to increase the maximum from $800 to $1,000, but the finance committee, at a meeting on Saturday afternoon decided to take no action, pending the receipt of the inspector's confidential report next month. When this is presented, the finance committee, to hand out increases accordingly. Those who get the inspector's O. K. will be recognized by the board in a substantial way, but those who fail to pass the silent examinations, as it were, will be left out in the cold so far as salary increases are concerned."

Advertiser, March 7:—"At a meeting of the finance committee of the board of education yesterday afternoon, a schedule of increase in the salaries of public school principals was decided upon, but the committee was unable to arrive at a satisfactory arrangement for the lady teachers, and decided merely to report progress. Principals having charge of six to ten room school will get an annual increase of $100 until a maximum of $1,700 is reached, and principals of schools from eleven to sixteen rooms will receive $100 increase yearly until they reach a maximum of $1,900. The increase to take effect from the 1st of January. The old maximum salaries were $1,400 to $1,600."

Advertiser, March 14:—"The finance committee of the board of education, at a

GIRLS' FRIENDLY SOCIETY HOLDS ANNUAL MEETING SATURDAY

Delegates Here From Twelve Branches—Mrs. Ernest Smith Again Elected President—A Year of Progress.

Mrs. Ernest Smith, of this city, was unanimously re-elected president of the diocesan branch of the Girls' Friendly Society, at the annual meeting held, in Cronyn Hall on Saturday afternoon. The remaining officers are: Honorary president, Mrs. David Williams; vice-presidents Mrs. C. C. Waller of this city, Mrs. Cockshutt, Brantford; secretary-treasurer, Miss Matthews, London; re-elected; missionary correspondent, Mrs. Mansell, London; honorary elected members, Mrs. Hutton, Brantford; Miss Carlisle, Windsor; Miss Bell, Brantford; Mrs. Moorhouse, London; Miss Kershaw, Windsor; Mrs. Jenkins, Brantford; Mrs. Brewin, Woodstock; Mrs. Howard, Chatham; Miss Glass, London.

The session was opened at 2 p.m. by Rev. Canon Tucker, D.D., of St. Paul's Cathedral. After prayer, Canon Tucker extended a warm welcome to the visitors. He hoped that much of the joy of their trip to London, it was a beautiful city, but there were weak spots. There were many dangers for girls and women, he said, especially those who lived in boarding houses and had no home life. This afforded a great opportunity for such an organization as the Girls' Friendly Society to help these girls, to show them the dangers of the world, and to help them to overcome them. Much of the trouble, he believed, was caused first by non-attendance at a place of worship, followed by a departure from the higher standards of living. Many working girls, even those who lived at home, spent their spare time on the street, and many used all their money for clothes to adorn themselves. Such girls needed to have higher ideals set before them.

Canon Tucker stated that he would like to see branches of the Girls' Friendly Society organized in many centres across the country, so that when a girl left one city or town, she could be passed on, as it were, to another branch of the society, and thus be protected.

Mrs. Smith also spoke a word of hearty welcome in greeting the delegates. She hoped that by next year the diocesan branch would be more firmly established, and its influence extended to a much broader field. Mrs. Smith voiced the general regret felt at the illness of Miss Charles, Dominion organizing secretary, who visited London last autumn.

Miss Matthews presented the report of the corresponding secretary. There were twelve branches in the diocese, including London (two), Woodstock, Windsor, Chatham, Brantford (four), Wallaceburg, Waterloo, and Sarnia. There was also a branch at Ingersoll now working in affiliation with another church society.

Candidate Work.
Candidate work was discussed by Miss Petty, Brantford, at some length. In this department of the service, the endeavor was to imbue the younger children with the objects of the organization, so that they might become members later on. Miss Petty believed that it was better to have quality rather than quantity in the membership. A few good, active workers, thoroughly in sympathy with the aims of the society could do more good than many half-hearted ones.

Miss Dupont, of Windsor, in charge of the social service department of the society stated that while no very radical work had been carried on, she believed the members were doing their very best sort of social service work in being friendly to girls. She would, however, like to see a movement for better boarding houses for young working women, places with a more homelike air. Miss Beverly Robinson, of Toronto, central corresponding secretary, warmly supported Miss Dupont's remarks. She believed that one of the first essentials for social service work amongst girls was better accommodation. She also urged the benefit of having large printed cards placed in station-houses and other public places, telling girls strange in a city, where the secretary of the Girls' Friendly Society might be found.

Lodges For Girls.
Miss Matthews advocated the establishing of Girls' Friendly Society lodges in every city or town of size. They had been founded in other places, and while giving girls board and lodging at very moderate rates, had been found to be self-supporting.

Miss Carlisle presented the report of the commendation work.

Reports from branch secretaries presented proved very interesting, showing much good work being carried on by the various branches of the Society. After some discussion it was decided to donate $200 from the diocesan branches towards the organizing fund. A resolution was passed to the effect that the diocesan branch meet each year at the time of the Huron Women's Auxiliary. The business session then adjourned, and in the evening the delegates assembled in St. Paul's Rectory, where they were entertained by Canon and Mrs. Tucker. Many of the visitors remained in town over Sunday, returning home today.

THE HOROSCOPE

[TUESDAY, MAY 12, 1914.]

According to astrology this day that should be passed in routine activities, for the stars are not kindly in their sway. Uranus and Mercury are both in a highly adverse aspect and there is no positive influence for good, except early in the morning, when Jupiter exercises a kindly sway.

It is not a favorable date for entering into partnership or agreements. It is particularly bad for signing contracts, leases or legal documents of any description.

Under this sign it is held that four-year changes and renewals are unfortunate. Unexpected obstacles and disappointments are common.

Travel abroad in the summer months will be attended by many unusual experiences. It is said, for events that will make history are foretold. The weather in England will be fine during June, but there will be storm periods the second, thirteenth and seventeenth.

At the summer solstice Mars is in the ascendant at Berlin, Rome and Constantinople.

There is a prophecy that owing to Mercury being in the tenth house in quartile to Saturn, affairs in Ireland will not be quiet during the summer. The viceroy and the Lord Mayor of Dublin are both said to be subject to ill omens.

The death of elderly members of the royal families of Germany and Italy are foretold.

Financial anxieties among professional men and women in the United States are indicated by the stars. The autumn probably will bring a change for the better.

Promises of good crops in the West is made. Floods and severe storms will do damage in the Midwest and some parts of the South.

Persons whose birthdate it is are warned to be conservative in conducting their affairs during the coming year. There is an evil portent for going security or for speculation. Loss of money is prognosticated.

Children born on this day will probably meet with many changes in life. Their stars foreshadow vicissitudes. Girls have the augury of marriage with a kind but unlucky husband.

Address on Heredity.
That the office of motherhood was one of divinity as well as of dignity, was emphasized by Rev. E. W. Norwood, speaking before the Lorne Avenue Mothers' Club on the subject of heredity. Too often women looked upon the raising of children as drudgery, yet there was no other place in life where women could so well prove their worth as in motherhood. The speaker censured women who refused to assume their duties, and who amount of desecration would completely obliterate good breeding, and no amount of acquired culture could completely remove bad breeding. Mr. Norwood's address proved profitable and interesting to the many mothers present.

During the evening musical numbers were contributed by Miss Don, Mrs. Arthur Brown, and Miss Olive Robinson. All were highly appreciated. Mrs. White, president of the Union Club, was present; also visitors from Aberdeen Mothers' Club.
At the close of the program a refreshment was served.

gives you more of the costliest "six's" best qualities—at less than the cost of the cheapest worth-while "six."

50 per cent fewer motor parts than any "six" is another reason for the RUSSELL'S marvellous records. Only this World's Champion Motor could run continuously 13 days and nights (equal to 10,000 road miles)—at high speed—under full load—without a single stop for adjustment, replacement or repair.

To ask more in any car is unreasonable. To accept less is unnecessary. To pay less is unwise. A RUSSELL-KNIGHT "Four" is a gilt-edged investment in permanently satisfactory service.

BOYS' BRIGADE FOUNDER

DIES IN LONDON, ENGLAND

LONDON, May 10.—Sir William Alexander, founder of the Boys' Brigade, died here today. He was born in 1854. Sir William visited Canada in 1895, and the United States in 1905 in connection with the Boy Scouts movement.

The Boys' Brigade existed in London for many years in connection with the Croydon Memorial Church. Sir William is believed to have visited London while in Canada.

VICTIM OF EXPLOSION

HAD MONSTER FUNERAL

[Special to The Advertiser.]

INCHESOLL, May 10.—One of the largest funerals seen here in months was that of the late Mrs. Thomas Charles, victim of the distressing accident in Derham Township Wednesday night, which was held Saturday to the Church of the Sacred Heart, thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery. From all parts of the township as well as from Ingersoll in six-hour shifts as required by relatives and friends.

Rev. Father Gnam and Rev. Father Goetz, of Tillsonburg, officiated. The pallbearers were: Messrs. W. Kirwin, M. J. Williams, M. Sheehan, M. Clear, James Kirwin and Dr. Robbins.

Postmaster Joseph Gibson conducted services in the Methodist churches of Berlin and Waterloo today.

Friends in Ingersoll and throughout the township of West Oxford mourned with deep regret the death of Mrs. George Jenvey, which occurred at the family residence after an illness of five weeks' duration. Mrs. Jenvey was widely known and highly esteemed both in Ingersoll and in West Oxford.

The family moved to Ingersoll eight years ago, since which time Mrs. Jenvey had rapidly won friends. She was in her sixty-second year, and besides the husband, is survived by three sons, B. O. P. and Earl of West Oxford, and three daughters, Mrs. W. W. Nancekiville, of Kith Oxford, and Misses Myrtle and Winnie at home.

GRAND DISPLAY OF MODERN ART

Modern processes of color printing now make it possible to give the lover of art exact representations of great paintings and other objects of art in their original colorings. The publishers of "Panama and the Canal in Picture and Process" have employed these latest color processes in reproducing a splendid collection of watercolor studies for this new book. The cover bears an inlaid panel in beautiful colors showing the famous Culebra cut. This was made from a painting. Grant and gives a decided individuality to the appearance of the large volume.

The same modern color processes have also been used in making the magnificent plates or reproductions that abound throughout the book. Take, for instance, a view of Panama Bay from the Ancon Hospital grounds. This was made from an original watercolor study by E. J. Read. The sharp contrasting colorings give the effect of an oil painting. The stately palms and tropical shrubbery softly blending into the waters of the bay, and over all the rich tints of the tropical sun, making of this a most pleasing picture. But this is only one of sixteen similar reproductions which adorn the beautiful volume, and any one of the collection is worthy of a splendid frame.

In addition to this grand array of gorgeous coloring are photographic reproductions of numerous scenes depicting the life and activity of Panama and the Canal zone. Around these illustrations is drawn a most entertaining and instructive story setting forth the complete history of the people and the country. The Advertiser presents this book almost free to its readers. In another column of this issue is printed a certificate which explains the entire plan. Look for this certificate and clip it today.

A ROYAL SALUTE TO DUKE AT ST. CATHARINES

Daughters of Empire Present Governor-General With History of Welland Canal.

[Canadian Press.]

St. Catharines, May 11.—A salute of 21 guns by the Seventh Field Battery and appropriate music by the Nineteenth Regiment Band announced the arrival of His Royal Highness the Duke of Connaught and party at the Grand Trunk depot, St. Catharines, at 10:30 o'clock this morning, where, after being met by Mayor Pettie and Alderman Chaplain, and inspecting a guard of honor from the Nineteenth Regiment, the vice-regal party, accompanied by a mounted escort from the Second Dragoons, was driven through a lavishly-decorated route to Montebello Park, where an official address of welcome was presented to the Governor-General to which he replied.

Book and Bouquets. Miss Catherine Welland, Merritt, granddaughter of the late Hon. William Hamilton Merritt, representing the Daughters of the Empire, presented a hand-embroidered, richly-bound and illustrated History of the Welland Canal. Bouquets were presented to Princess Patricia by Miss Pettie and Miss Williams.

Patriotic songs were sung by the school children and massed choirs.

This afternoon an inspection is being made of the work on the Welland ship canal. Sgt.-Major Walter Legg, of the Seventh Field Battery, received a long service medal from the hands of the duke.

Over 25,000 people were on the streets, a half-holiday having been declared and observed.

COLORADO MINES TO REMAIN CLOSED DOWN

Secretary of War Announces That None Will Be Permitted to Open Yet.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, May 11.—No mines will be permitted to reopen in the Colorado strike district for the present, Secretary of War Garrison announced today. He denied that orders had been issued forbidding importation of strike-breakers, but explained that while the situation remained threatening the mines not already running probably would be kept closed until, in his judgment, their opening would precipitate no further trouble.

"It makes no difference whether strike-breakers are imported or whether the labor is on the ground," said the Secretary of War. "The question is whether their employment would start trouble. We are not going to permit anything that would aggravate the situation. The mines will be allowed to reopen just as soon as conditions warrant."

YOUTH CHARGED WITH KILLING THREE OTHERS

[Canadian Press.]

Ocala, Fla., May 11.—The tugs of the Great Lakes Towing Company's fleet will go into commission today after being tied up for three weeks. The men refused to remain on the tugs continuously, working six-hour shifts as required by the company under its interpretation of the twelve-hour navigation law. They asked for twelve hours' continuous duty, followed by twelve hours' off the boats. The tugmen agreed to return to work pending the result of a conference to be held at Cleveland tomorrow.

TUGMEN WILL WORK PENDING CONFERENCE

[Canadian Press.]

Buffalo, N. Y., May 11.—The tugs of the Great Lakes Towing Company's fleet will go into commission today after being tied up for three weeks. "Done To A Turn" THE UPPER CRUST

By the Author of HE COMES UP SMILING, THE MYSTERIOUS "CHARLES SHERMAN."

Copyright, The Bobbs-Merrill Company.

The shadows were growing long, reaching across the beach to the water's edge. Algernon lay on the sand, his back against a rock. Before him stretched the ocean, slim and graceful, rose and fell in the quiet waters of the little cove as if beckoning him to come and open the closed cabin, unfurl the long idle sails and go to seek the never-found land of perfect content, over the sea, in the soft, pink clouds of the after-glow. Behind him were the woods, swaying in the evening breeze, whispering, mysterious, filled with the scent of ferns, evergreens and rich dark soil in virgin sweetness. But for the dog at his feet and a few seagulls winging their way across the sunset sky, Algernon was alone. The only sound was the sobbing of the ocean and the dismal wail of the bell-buoy.

"I suppose you think me terrible," said the clear, sweet voice of her of whom he was thinking.

Algernon jumped up. She had crossed the sand unheeding, and was only a few feet away, looking at him like a naughty child, mischievous and wilful. She wore a white dress, and a large fluffy parasol, and over one shoulder, threw into relief her head with its crown of black hair. It was raised now, and she looked at him with her small, saucy eyes half veiled under long silky lashes.

"I suppose you think me terrible," she repeated. "But you are not so good yourself, Joe."

Algernon laughed and swept her a low bow. "Come and sit down and tell me how it feels to have a guilty conscience," he said.

"Thank you, I was afraid you thought I had no conscience," she said.

"You would rather have a guilty conscience than none?"

"Wouldn't you?"

"I can't say. I have none."

"Poor Joe," said she. She walked to the water's edge and stood a moment watching the waves slip softly up the sand nearly to her white shoes. The sun ran down to her, she bent and patted his little head. He leaped away, joyfully awkward, picked up a stick and tore up the beach with it. Algernon, she laughed and followed him.

"We were out all the morning," said she, closing the parasol and taking a stone out of sight into the deep sand. "Oh, Joe, it's good to be rich, just rich."

She sank down on the sand, pulling her skirts away from the over-affected dog and making room for Algernon beside her. "I love to play grand dame for four years I have struggled and struggled, typist, stenographer, housekeeper. Now I have my chance and I am going to make the most of it. She nodded and her mouth closed firmly. She jabbed a hole in the sand at her feet and then turned to him suddenly. "Tell me, Joe, what have you done?"

"Today, yesterday or last year?" asked Algernon.

"Why did you leave New York? You said something about a confession when we were foolish enough to give you mine, that day on the sloop."

"Let's talk about you," hedged Algernon.

"It's more interesting about myself—and so do you. You have the advantage of me. I do not know anything about you at all."

"There is nothing to know. Nothing but the same old story in the same old way. I am not original. You are. Let's talk about you."

She leaned over and gave him a tender little pat, a world of kindness in her changeable eyes. "Poor old Joe! I know. It is something bigger, stronger than ourselves that makes us do wrong. It is life, Joe, that's what it is. The man who is strong enough to resist life is a saint. We others are like you and me. She threw out her hand with the little gesture he had grown to look for.

Algernon turned sideways, his elbow on a rock, his head on his hand, and, picking up a stick, drew a figure in the sand between them. Her tender sympathy was sweet, but he could not meet her eyes. He felt too much like a sneak. She looked wistfully at the bent head with the sandy hair, smooth save where his fingers ran through it and rumbled it up as he supported his head, and wished, she thought not why, that he respected her more. Then she smiled, a tiny flicker of amusement, understanding and compassion.

"Wait until I am Mrs. John Hancock, and then see what I do for you," said she.

Algernon looked up, and in his mild gray eyes was an expression she in her turn could not meet. Steadily he looked at her, and she slowly turned her head and gazed seaward toward the distant buoy, rising and falling a mere speck on the water.

"Well?" said she.

"Don't sell yourself, Molly," said he quietly. He reached up to the sand and laid his hand gently on the two hands she had clasped over the stick of her parasol.

"What have I done for the last four years?" she asked coldly. "Have I not practically sold myself? Was any moment of my waking hours mine? In my new job, at least, I shall receive my money's worth."

She shrugged her shoulders and jabbed angrily at the sand with the point of her parasol.

"We have all got to work in this world," said Algernon, "some for daily bread and some for amusement. Work is a law of the universe and not a sign of bondage."

"Folks, Joe, you don't believe that yourself. Algernon Van Rensselaer Todd never did any work."

"Yes, he did," said Algernon, turning his attention to the stick in the sand again. "What do you know about him? I only saw him once in the dark, and you make me think of him, Joe, I don't know why. But I have heard things about him, and I know he never worked, not even for amusement. Amusement was amusement to him, and not work."

"You don't know what he is doing now."

"No, but I know that whatever it is it is not work. Believe me."

"Oh, rot!"

"I've got you there, Joe." She laughed gaily and held out a slim hand, white and well cared for. "Help me up, please. It is nearly dinner time. We have dinner here every evening. Such a bore!" she drawled, with gentle affection.

He held her to her feet and picked up his hat, shaking the sand from it.

SUICIDE OF A U. S. CONSUL IN MANCHURIA

Southard P. Warner Had Been Ill, But Was Recovering.

[Canadian Press.]
Harbin, Manchuria, May 11.—Southard P. Warner, United States consul here, committed suicide today in a hospital here where he was undergoing treatment. Mr. Warner had held the appointment here since August, 1912. He was born in Washington, D. C., in 1881.
Consul Warner killed himself by shooting. He had been in a hospital three weeks, and was making satisfactory progress toward recovery. The cause of his suicide was not known by the authorities.

INDIAN DOCTOR IS CHARGED WITH BIGAMY

[Canadian Press.]
Hamilton, May 11.—Robert Curley, an Indian doctor, well known throughout Western Ontario, was committed for trial on a bigamy charge here today. A Brantford woman swore he married her ten years ago. Emily Parsons, a pretty blonde, aged 19, said she was wedded recently to the doctor here. She told the magistrate that Curley informed her he had been married before, but that an Indian was permitted to marry twice.

A $250,000 FIRE.
[Canadian Press.]
Deming, N. M., May 11.—Fire starting in the Western Union telegraph office destroyed half a block of the business district valued at $250,000 yesterday. The Victoria hotel and the Deming National Bank were badly damaged. A large sum of money and valuable papers in the bank vault are believed to be safe.

BUYERS SAY HOGS ARE TO GO LOW IN PRICE

Large Shipments From West
Expected to Glut Toronto
Market.

Hay and live hogs comprised the offerings on the local market this morning. Twelve loads of the former being on hand, and meeting a keen demand at prices ranging from $13.50 to $15.50 per ton.

There were no oats or straw offered, a small shipment of live hogs was made, the ruling price being $8.25 per hundredweight. Buyers claim that the price will be less than $8 per hundredweight shortly, due to the large shipments coming down from the west and glutting the Toronto market, which rules all the live hog markets in Ontario.

GRAIN SHIPMENTS.
Montreal, May 11.—Grain shipments for the week ended May 9 were 104,000 bushels of wheat.

Winnipeg, May 9.—Prices were higher at the opening, being 1/4 to 1/2 higher. May leading and trading was fair at the lower prices. American markets were also higher. The weather over the Canadian west has greatly improved, and conditions over the spring and winter wheat areas of the United States continue favorable. Winnipeg features closed 1/4 to 1/2 higher.

The cash demand for wheat was not quite so active today. Oats and flax were firmer, and it was claimed that over a quarter million bushels of No. 3 Canadian western and No. 1 feed oats were sold for export to the United Kingdom over night.

Cash wheat closed 1/4 to 1/2 higher for contract grades. Cash oats closed 1/4 to 1/2 advance. Cash barley closed unchanged, 1/4 to 1/2 higher. Cash flax closed 1/4 advance on all grades.

Inspections Friday, 315 cars, against 408 last year; in sight were 275. Deliveries through the clearing house were: Wheat, 363,000 bushels; oats, 30,000 bushels; flax, 61,000 bushels.

BEST LAXATIVE FOR

BOWELS—"CASCARETS"

When Constipated, Headachy,

Bilious, Breath Bad,

Stomach Sour.

Get a 10-cent box.

Are you keeping your bowels, liver, and stomach clean, pure and fresh with Cascarets, or merely forcing a passage every few days with

Salts, Cathartics, Pills, Castor Oil or

Purgative Waters?

Stop having a bowel wash-day. Let

Cascarets thoroughly cleanse and regulate the stomach, remove the sour and fermenting food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver, and carry out of the system all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will make you feel great by morning. They work while you sleep—never gripe, sicken or cause any inconvenience, and cost only 10 cents a box from your druggist. Millions of men and women take a Cascaret now and then and never have Headache, Biliousness,

Coated Tongue, Indigestion, Sour

Stomach or Constipated Bowels. Cas-carets belong in every household.

Children just love to take them.

prices advanced during the forenoon.
The improvement was not checked by announcement of arrangements for exportation of $2,000,000 more gold to Paris for the discounting of bills for Russia. The latter announcement was the first arranged in about a year for Germany. Buying of stocks, while not heavy, proceeded

Essex Priest Now Under Suspension By Bishop Fallon

Father Loisele Absent From Pulpit at River Canard and No Service Is Held.

[Special to The Advertiser.] WINDSOR, May 10.—As a result, it is alleged, of his having differed with Bishop Fallon over an affidavit made regarding bilingual matters, Father Loisele, rector of the big church at River Canard, is under suspension, and there were no services in the church today.

Father Loisele was in London yesterday, and because, it is alleged, he refused to withdraw his name from the affidavit he was suspended. It is well known that the priest has differed from Bishop Fallon's views in regard to bilingualism for some time.

Threatened Suspension. It was stated to The Advertiser tonight that Father Loisele gave evidence recently at a diocesan court, and that his statements did not meet with the approval of Bishop Fallon, who is alleged to have threatened to suspend him if he did not withdraw them.

Father Loisele is rector of a new $75,000 church, which is not all completed yet. The affair has aroused the greatest interest all through this district.

CHUBBY GRANDCHILDREN OF GOVERNOR-GENERAL

The picture shows the two children of the Crown Prince and Princess of Sweden, with their mother, who before her marriage with Prince Gustavus Adolphus, was Princess Margaret of Connaught. The little girl is Princess Ingrid, four years, and her plump little brother is Bertil, Duke of Halland and a Chevalier of the Order of the Seraphim. He is a little more than two years old.

CHANGE IN HEAD OFFICE OF MONARCH FIRE CO.

New Toronto Shareholders Arrange for Transfer of Main Office to Queen City.

A large block of the stock held by the directors of the Monarch Fire Insurance Company was sold at a meeting of the board on Friday, April 8th, to Toronto capitalists. It is the intention of the new directors to move the head office of the company to that city.

The new directors elected together with the remaining old directors will make a very strong board, which will be composed as follows: Hon. Thos. Crawford, W. R. Tudhope, B. Hibner (Berlin), Alfred Taylor (Galt), His Honor Judge Morgan, A. M. Aletter, all of Toronto.

The London and Western Ontario interests of the company will be represented on the board in the person of Capt. T. E. Robson, who continues as vice-president, J. E. Thomson, William Kennedy, and C. J. Adams. President F. G. Rumball and Managing Director B. N. Campbell will retire and their positions be filled by W. R. Tudhope as president, and A. M. Aletter, as secretary-treasurer. It is the intention of Mr. Campbell to engage in an insurance brokerage business in the city. The company will be represented in the past by Messrs. D. Campbell & Sons, Bank of Toronto Chambers.

PICTURESQUE IMMIGRANTS

Train Load of Them Enliven Noon Hour at G. T. R. Depot.

Three hundred and thirty foreigners, Swedes, Slavs, Poles, Russians and Bulgarians filled a special train of six coaches bound for the West yesterday afternoon. A half-hour stop was made at London for lunch at noon.

Out swarmed the whole 330, about seventy-five of them women, and they made one concerted dive for the lunch counter. The throng attracted a large crowd of bystanders. Dressed in padded leather jackets, fierce moustaches, baggy trousers and high-top leather boots, they were a queer and picturesque sight, but the lookers-on thought they were more queer than picturesque.

SUSPENDED SENTENCE

Alleged Wife Deserter Allowed To Go In County Police Court.

Squire W. H. Chittick had two cases to dispose of in county police court this morning.

Henry Siddall came up on remand on a charge of trespass. The case was adjourned for a week in which time Siddall must remove all his belongings from lot 24, concession 13, Lower Township. Siddall was evicted last week from the premises after disregarding the sheriff's orders to leave.

J. W. Hartnell, who resides in London Township, was charged with wife desertion and non-support. He has six children under sixteen years of age. He was brought from Guelph on Saturday night and appeared before Squire Chittick this morning. As he promised to take care of his wife and family, he was allowed to go on suspended sentence, as he has secured a position with George Thompson, of this city.

ARM BROKEN WHEN AUTO TURNED OVER

[Canadian Press.]

Brantford, Ont., May 11.—Mrs. J. V. Porter, wife of Dr. J. W. Porter, V.S., Queen street, had her left arm broken between the elbow and the shoulder yesterday afternoon, between Galt and Glenmorris, by the car in which she was riding turning over on its side. The other members of the party were shaken and shaken up, but received no other injuries.

SENTENCES SET ASIDE

Labour Leaders Freed on Contempt Charge By Supreme Court.

[Canadian Press.]

Washington, May 11.—The contempt sentences imposed by the district supreme court upon Samuel Gompers, John Mitchell, Frank Morrison, labour leaders, were set aside today by the supreme court for the second time.

Justice Holmes, in the opinion, said the case turned upon the point that the contempt proceedings were not started within three years from the date of the committing of the offences.

SEVENTH SHOOT

High Scoring Continued at Saturday's Range Work.

Shooting for the Seventh Regiment was continued at the Cove ranges Saturday afternoon, and several high marks were registered. About fifty marksmen turned out for the second day of the match. Sergt. Lee leads the competition, with a total score of 195 for the two Saturdays. The standing is as follows: Sergt. Lee 195, Corp. Watson 188, Sergt. Giblin 185, Pte. Short 180, Pte. Wise 155, Pte. Lacey 151, Sergt. Galpin 145, Corp. Hughes 141, Sergt. Payne 121, Color-Sergt. Holmes 112, Pte. Watson 108, and the high score for the day, registering 97.

John D. Jacobs Did Not Say Hotels Were Not Living Up to Law.

Through an unintentional mistake, John D. Jacobs of the Trades and Labor Council, was quoted as saying in the report of the last meeting of the Trades and Labor Council, that the hotels on "Whiskey Row" were not living up to the law. According to Mr. Jacobs, what he did say was that if the hotels were not living up to the full letter of the law, the licenses should be cancelled.

SOCIALISTS DO WELL IN FRENCH ELECTIONS

[Canadian Press.]

Paris, May 11.—The Socialists were very successful on the second ballot yesterday for members of the Chamber of Deputies, 61 of them being elected. This gives them 101 seats in the new chamber, as compared with 68 in the old.

The Caillaux radicals managed to hold their own, electing 74 members, which with 87 elected on the first ballot, gives the party 161, as compared with 156 in the old chamber.

The other Republican groups, to which most of the Brisardists were attached, elected 101, making with those elected on the first ballot, a total of 262, as compared with 291.

The palbearers were: Richard Dale, Joseph Martin, M. P., Gives Good Advice to British in Reply to Dispatch.

TRY NO MOULDING OF CANADIAN PEOPLE

Joseph Martin, M. P., Gives Good Advice to British in Reply to Dispatch.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, May 11.—Joseph Martin, M. P. for East Canada, declares that he considers a dispatch published by the Times on Saturday from its Toronto correspondent, in which stress was laid upon the alleged "Americanization of Canada," as very dangerous, says a London cable to The Daily Mail.

The correspondent mentioned the need for "moulding the Canadian people into a common devotion to the Empire." As to this, Mr. Martin says: "The fever madding attempts by the people of the United Kingdom the better. One strong reason for making the British away popular is that the Canadian people are allowed to pursue their own fancies and manage their own affairs."

KINGARDINE MAN HAS SLENDRO CATCHES

Trout Fishing Promises Very Well—Farmers Getting Rid of Stones Off Land.

[Special to The Advertiser.]

Kincardine, May 11.—Preparations for the new harbor are progressing. Farmers who have time are busy drawing stones to place in the harbor, which they are getting five dollars a cord. The price is quite an inducement, but not the only one. In some fields north of the town are many large piles of unsightly stones, which remain from the work done in the past by the stones really a nuisance well got rid of.

The hook and line fishing still continues brisk. On Thursday and Saturday last, William Hall made a record. Thursday's catch was thirteen trout, which weighed, when cleaned, 66 pounds. Friday being too rough, none were caught, but on Saturday the same individual caught eight trout, weighing 55 pounds, when cleaned. Many others caught beautiful trout off the pier. The first catches of herring and perch were made last week with hook and line. The fishing for herring is nearly as interesting as the fishing for trout, and for beauty, when newly taken out of the water, there is no other fish can vie, excepting the brook trout.

To see the stir and preparation made along our shore for the summer rush of visitors, augurs well for a big season. Preparations for the horse races are being made, and soon flaring bill posters will announce the dates and prizes, to induce a bumper turnout on June 2.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Was Formerly of London.

Mrs. Mary Guest, widow of George Guest, and formerly of this city, died yesterday in Scranton, Pa. She is survived by two sons, Horton and Clifford, both of Scranton, three brothers and one Gibson, of Detroit, Charles Gibson, of St. Paul, Minn., and Mrs. Thomas Spettigue, of 22 Garfield avenue.

A brief telegram announced her death to relatives in London, and as at recent writing she was in good health, her death was a sudden and unexpected.

She was about 75 years of age. Her husband was formerly a harnessmaker in this city. Twenty-one years ago the family removed first to Binghamton, N. Y., and later to Scranton, Pa.

Mrs. R. F. Cooper.

Word was received here yesterday of the death in St. John, N. B., of Mrs. Mae Hornbrook Cooper, wife of Roy F. Cooper, formerly of this city. Mrs. Cooper, who was the daughter of John Hornbrook, died at her father's home. The funeral will be held in St. John.

Death of Mrs. Taliaferro.

The death occurred in Detroit on Sunday of Mrs. J. H. Taliaferro, formerly of this city, in her 76th year. She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. William J. London, and Mrs. John Harper, South London, and a daughter, Mrs. J. D. Brady, Misses Sadie and Faustine Taliaferro, all of Detroit, and W. H. Taliaferro, 147 Colborne street, this city.

Buried at Woodland.

The funeral of Charles Linnell took place from his late residence, 179 Richmond street, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock to Woodland Cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. C. R. Gunne, of Christ Church. The funeral was largely attended, and there were many flowers. The palbearers were Messrs. William Hoskins, Richard Jones and Charles Pickering, who were neighbors of the late Mr. Linnell, and Ald. C. H. Merfield, Harry Hamby and H. Spoule, of the Independent Order of Foresters.

Mrs. Lewis Buried.

The funeral of Mrs. Emma Lewis, wife of L. Lewis, of 427 Richmond street, took place from her residence at 427 Richmond street, Friday afternoon at 3 o'clock to Woodland Cemetery. Services were held at 230 o'clock by Rev. Mr. Hawkins, of St. Paul's Cathedral. The palbearers were: R. J. Haslett, Thomas White, Richard Burch, George Berry, John Whittaker and Albert Lewis.

SOCIETY WOMAN WANTS TO NURSE SOLDIERS

NEWPORT, R. I., May 8.—A palatial home at Newport will be exchanged for a hospital tent on the battlefield if the government accepts the proffered services of Mrs. James J. Brown, wife of the Denver and Newport millionaire. She will equip her own hospital outfit if she goes to the front.

Mrs. Brown has had experience in nursing women and children in the coal-mining regions of Colorado, and as a Titanic survivor she helped to nurse the sufferers of that ill-fated ship.

David Dale, David H. Dale, W. P. Dale, McKenzie Duncan and Jacob Sutton, Mr. E. S. Hunt, of Scottsville, rendered very sweetly during the services "Did Jesus Care."

Funeral of Thomas Boyd.

The funeral of Thomas Boyd was held yesterday afternoon at 2:30 from his residence, 856 Adelaide street, to St. James' Cemetery. The services, which were held at 2 p.m. by Rev. W. R. McIntosh, of King Street Presbyterian Church, were largely attended.

The palbearers were Messrs. John McD. Stewart, McCallum, Robert Aitken, John McCallum, Samuel Taylor and James Lawrence.

NO GRANT; NO PAINT FOR WESTERN FAIR

Parsimony of Council Precludes Decorations For the Exhibition.

The "palace" at the Western Fair will be this year without the new coat of paint which was promised.

"Since the city council could not see its way clear to give us the $2,500 we asked for, I am afraid we cannot clean up the main building this year," said A. M. Hunt, secretary of the Western Fair board.

The cattle buildings will be repaired, and work will commence inside of a week. The floor of the machinery building will be built of concrete. New fronts will be built on the buildings which were burned last year.

"We will not be able to construct any new buildings this year, however," said Mr. Hunt.

"More than half of the old exhibitors in the palace have taken space again this year, and a large number of new exhibitors have come in, so the palace will make a good appearance inside, even if it is in need of a coat of paint."

The attraction committee has communicated with Major McCrimmon, and may take up the proposition of bringing cadets here from all over Ontario. They have not come to a definite agreement yet.

"It is possible that we may also accept the Boy Scouts' proposition. If this is done, several hundred scouts will camp inside the ring, and perform drills and scout manoeuvres before the grand stand."

All the plans and space allotments which had been drawn up were burned in the Dominion Savings building fire.

"We are beginning to get them straightened up again," said Mr. Hunt. "This year looks like a good one for the fair, judging by the way exhibitors are buying space in the buildings and grounds," he said.

DEATHS OF THE DAY

RELIEVING DISTRESS OF DESTITUTE SICILIANS

Many Are Migrating With Possessions—Number of Dead 150.

[Canadian Press.]

Catania, May 11.—Army, navy and civilian authorities continued today their efforts to relieve the distress of the thousands of Sicilians deprived of their homes and property by the earthquake which destroyed a dozen villages and caused the death of or injury of hundreds of persons during the night of May 8.

Many of the peasants afflicted by the catastrophe are migrating from the district, taking with them all they could recover of their possessions and leading their farm animals with them. Others for the present refuse to move from the scene until they know the fate of their missing relatives.

The injured found among the debris of the ruined houses have been taken to the nearest hospitals, after treatment by the Red Cross surgeons. The village priests are doing their best to console the stricken people, many of whom form processions to neighboring shrines.

The official returns of the death list give the number at about 150, but it is believed that many more are still buried in the heaps of debris. The death toll many hundreds, and from time to time the number is added to by the finding beneath the ruins of others who were unable to extricate themselves owing to fractured limbs.

More Shocks.

Several slight earthquake shocks were registered by the observatory here today, but no further damage was reported.

UNEMPLOYED THREATEN MONTREAL CITY HALL

Are Angry at Mayor's Failure to Provide Work—He Is Guarded.

[Canadian Press.]

Montreal, May 11.—Detectives were this morning guarding Mayor Martin's house as a result of the labor situation, which has today reached an acute stage. Rumors have been heard of threats of violence on the part of the foreign element, who declare that civic officials have held out promises of labor to them which have not been realized.

The mayor is particularly blamed for it is just two weeks ago since he informed a gathering on the Champ de Mars that in a few days there would be work for all of works again took possession of the parade ground.

There were rumors afloat that the unemployed intended to gather in greater numbers this afternoon, if nothing is done to appease them, and take the city hall by storm.

FIRST ANNIVERSARY OF CENTENNIAL S. SCHOOL

Special Services Mark Observance of Day—Membership of 450.

The first anniversary of the new Sunday school of the Centennial Methodist Church was held yesterday afternoon. The room was filled to overflowing, over eight hundred being in attendance to listen to the able address given to the scholars by Rev. George S. Hazen, a former pastor of the church.

Mr. Hazen also preached the morning sermon to the children on "Mother's Day." The choir at this service was composed of children from the Sunday school. Their young voices sounded exceptionally sweet. Miss Annie Martin's solo was also well rendered. Miss Muriel Lancaster, who instructed the children for yesterday's service, is to be congratulated on the able manner in which they acquitted themselves.

At the conclusion of Rev. Mr. Hazen's afternoon address, a brass band in memory of Richard H. Steadman, erected by his mother, was unveiled by Robert Tuft, associate superintendent of the Sabbath school. The Collegiate Orchestra, under the direction of Melville Platt, provided the music for the afternoon.

Membership of 450.
The Centennial Sunday School is one of the most flourishing in the city. It has a membership of over four hundred and fifty, and is still growing phenomenally. 75 members being added since March 8, 1914. It has a staff of 26 efficient teachers. The primary classroom of the new building is found to be too small already, and not nearly large enough to accommodate its 70 little members.

The library has just been reorganized, 208 new volumes being added to the already large list.

The school has raised $756 this last year, and has given $200 to the church trustees for the building fund. Yesterday the scholars raised over one hundred and fifty dollars for Sunday school purposes.

The Officers:
For the year are: J. A. Peck, superintendent; Robert Tuft, assistant superintendent; Miss L. Hardy, grading superintendent; Miss Georgia Newberry, librarian; C. T. Allen, treasurer; S. Lancaster, secretary; A. Wright, assistant secretary; pianist, Miss Muriel Lancaster.

LITTLE CHURCHES OF LONDON

No. 16—

ST. PAUL'S UNITED EVANGELICAL CHURCH.

St. Paul's United Evangelical Church, Grey and Wellington streets, was founded Sunday evening, July 9, 1905, by Rev. W. A. Biermann, of Buffalo, a member of the home mission board of the New York district of the Evangelical Synod of North America. At a meeting held in the Duffield hall, Clarence and Dundas streets, from July 16, 1905, to September of the same year, meetings were held in the Evangelical Synod, earlier churches in the Duffield hall, where it met until the erection of the present church building in 1906. The Evangelical Synod of North America, although independent in itself, corresponds to and is identical in all important respects with the "Evangelische Kirche" or Prussian State Church, of which Kaiser Wilhelm II. is a member. It is a union of the Lutheran and Reformed churches of Germany, a union which many synods in America refuse to recognize. The local church was originally established to meet the religious needs of the German residents of London, but now only one service, the Sunday morning one, is held in the German tongue. It was one of the first churches established in Canada by the Evangelical Synod, a union which many synods in America refuse to recognize. The local church was originally established to meet the religious needs of the German residents of London, but now only one service, the Sunday morning one, is held in the German tongue. It was one of the first churches established in Canada by the Evangelical Synod, a union which many synods in America refuse to recognize.

At the head of the Christian Endeavor Society is Miss Alma Kaiser, president; Miss Mae Weber, secretary; and Mrs. Alfred Hertel, treasurer. The society has a missionary committee in connection, composed of Rev. H. Noehren, Mrs. Davidson, Miss Georgine Hoffman, and Miss Gunther.

Sunday School Officers.

Officers of the Sunday school are: Rev. Mr. Noehren, superintendent; Carl Rindellhardt, assistant superintendent; Mrs. H. Noehren, treasurer; Mrs. (Rev.) H. Noehren, Miss Meta Kaiser, Miss Alma Kaiser, Miss Muriel Lancaster, Miss Gunther, and Mrs. H. Noehren. All departments of the church work are in a flourishing condition, the membership is increasing steadily, and the financial condition of the church is very encouraging.

Yesterday morning Rev. Mr. Noehren preached in German on "The Vision of God's Greatness, and the Visions of Sin, of Salvation, and of Service from the text, Isaiah VI, 1-8. His evening service in English was from the text, Acts XX, 35. "It is more blessed to give than to receive."

NO MESSAGE FOR MAN WHO FORGETS SOUL'S IMMORTALITY

Dr. C. R. Flanders, Preaching in First Methodist Church, Says Judgment Is Narrow and Confined—Must Enlarge Vision.

"God has no message for the man who forgets the immortality of the human soul," asserted Dr. C. R. Flanders in the First Methodist Church last evening. "This judgment is very narrow and confined. We must ever relate time unto eternity and life unto God if we wish to carry our life to the end." Dr. Flanders was preaching from the text, "Blessed are they that mourn for they shall be comforted."

"God sends us grief," declared the minister to call our attention from the trivial things to the great problems of time and eternity. "There is a happiness for those who are able to leave their idols so that through the sorrow we may see visions of the perfect love and true happiness of the eternal life."

SAVE CONCERN BY TRUSTING IN GOD

Seaforth Pastor Gives This Advice in Sunday Morning Sermon at First Church.

Rev. F. H. Larkin, of Seaforth, occupied the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church at both services Sunday.

In the morning, Rev. Mr. Larkin preached on the parable of the seed: "First, the blade, then the ear, and after that the full corn in the ear." He said that in this parable there was a vivid scene. The picture Jesus Christ sets before us is a field, filled, prepared and seeded. The owner has prepared it carefully so that he may realize a good profit on his investment. All the husbandman does is to plant the seed in the spring and then in the fall of the year harvest the crop.

In the summer there is a period of inactivity. The grain grows, but he knows not how nor does he bother himself about it.

"However, Christ had something else in his mind as well," said Mr. Larkin. "There is great spiritual perception behind it all. Sometimes the human head is compared to a garden. Let the word of God be the seed sown in it. Good seed must be sown to build up the temple of good humanity. Let us get at the heart of things and be receptive and hospitable in our relationship to the word of God. If the truth of God is sown in our hearts it will bring forth good fruit. We will declare itself in the form of Christian life. It is for us to live in a spirit of hope, looking forward to the days to come, and great will be the harvest."

He stated that a lesson could be taken from the wise husbandman. He was not careless, nor did he worry about the growth of the seed. Why? It was not his affair.

"God assumes great obligations on our behalf, and we may depend on Him to fulfill these obligations. God asks us to do what we can. He is not unreasonable and does not ask too much, only to trust in Him to do His work. We would save ourselves a lot of concern if we could get hold of that idea. It is the great

UNNECESSARY TO DEFINE GOD, DECLARES PASTOR

He Can Be Utilized by Mankind Without Definite Knowledge of What He Is.

Preaching anniversary services in the Seaforth Congregational Church yesterday morning, Rev. M. Kelly, of the Congregational Church, Bradford, spoke on "God," taking as the basis of his remarks the suggestions in the 18th verse of the First Chapter of John: "No man has seen God at any time. The only begotten Son, which is in the bosom of the father he hath declared."

"The idea pointed out in this statement," said Mr. Kelly, "is that Christ's purpose in coming into the world was not that of a great ethical teacher, although we are thankful for that teaching, nor was it that of a miracle worker that he came, although we gladly recognize the place of miracles in the New Testament."

"The great contribution of Jesus to human knowledge was the revelation He made of God."

"We are not able to define what God is, although Jesus tells us He is Spirit, yet we do not know what spirit is."

"However, it is not necessary for us to be able to define God in order that we may utilize him. We do not know what electricity is, nor steam, yet we use these for the running of our cars, lighting of our streets and for the driving of our machinery. In the same way we are called upon to define God, but that does not prevent us from entering into fellowship with Him."

OBTAIN GOOD SUM FOR PARSONAGE

Dundas Centre Members Subscribe $7,200 at Two Services.

PLEDGE $6,800 IN MORNING

Nearly the entire cost of a new $6,800 parsonage was subscribed by members of Dundas Centre Methodist Church at the two services yesterday, and the work will be commenced early this summer, the new parsonage to be erected just east of the church on the site of the present parsonage, which will be torn down.

Raise $7,200.
At the morning service, in response to an appeal by the trustee board, $6,800 was pledged in amounts varying from $1.50 to $500. Additional pledges at the evening service brought the total amount already subscribed up to $7,200. In addition to the cost of the building, it confidently expected to raise a sum above that amount sufficient to largely furnish the new parsonage. Rev. A. J. Johnston, the present pastor, leaves at the end of the conference year in June to accept a professorship in Victoria College, and the work of erecting the new parsonage will be undertaken immediately upon his departure from London.

Last evening, Rev. Mr. Johnston preached on "Things Laid Away in the Treasuries of God." God stores up in advance many blessings, making provision for the needs of man, he said. When the watersheds become inadequate to furnish power for the increased progress of the race, steam power was discovered. When the forests were depleted and new fuel was required, the coal stored up in the bowels of the earth was resorted to. To heal human ills, the medicinal properties divinely stored in herbs and flowers and certain chemical combinations were discovered. As the Psalmist declared, there is a great storehouse of blessing in God's great heart of mercy. Peter said that the cross of Jesus Christ was not an accident. The cross, though it is a cross, is a cross embodied in the cross had been forever in the mind and love and purpose of God.

Lives Part of Eternal Process.
"You live and mine," said Rev. Mr. Johnston, "are part of an eternal process viewed from the beginning of eternity in the thought of God. No matter what view of the atonement you take, even if you take the rather loose view of the atonement of Jesus, in His great example to us of the all-consuming sacrificial life on the altars of God, yet in the life and influence of Jesus Christ is laid up for us an eternal store of goodness and love. What seems to be accident and chance fits into the great eternal purpose, and man finds blessing when he needs it and is ready to appreciate it. God has laid away great and many blessings, until man demands them. Many lives are impoverished because they are not ready to ask God for these blessings. Ask and ye shall receive. I have many things to say unto you, but ye cannot bear them now," said Jesus. How sinful, how foolish, then to rest our creeds and faith on the opinions of past ages and historic councils.

The Roman Catholics rest their faith on the declarations of the councils. So do the Anglicans largely base their faith on historic standards. Many Presbyterians think that the Westminster confession contains all the truth, and there are Methodists who think that it lived and died with John Wesley. But new truths will be given to our children, and our children's children, from generation to generation."

A feature of the special music rendered by the choir, under the direction of Parrell Morris, organist and choirmaster, was a tenor solo, "The Ninety and Nine," sung by Herbert Hodgson. Next Sunday morning, Mr. Hodgson will sing for the last time in Dundas Centre Church before returning to England to take up contract work with his father.

MOTHERS' DAY WAS WELL OBSERVED

Rev. W. R. McIntosh Preaches After Hearing of His Own Mother's Death.

Mothers' Day was observed in London yesterday by the wearing of white flowers, special services and special sermons in the churches, as tributes to the nation's mothers. In nearly every church in London special services were held in the morning in observance of the day set apart over all the civilized world as a day sacred to mothers.

Unusually Sad Significance.
Mothers' Day services in King Street Presbyterian Church had an unusually sad significance for the pastor, Rev. W. R. McIntosh, who on Saturday received word of the death of his mother, Mrs. Robert McIntosh, of Lucknow, while visiting her daughter, Mrs. A. Goodhand, of Wetaskiwin, Alta. Her daughter, Miss Cassie McIntosh, was with her on her visit to Alberta. News of her death came as a great shock to Rev. Mr. McIntosh. Only a few days ago, he received a letter from her in which she declared that she was enjoying the best of health. She was 75 years of age. The telegram received on Saturday gave no particulars of her death.

Sunday evening Rev. Mr. McIntosh preached the special sermon to Mothers' Day to his congregation. Although greatly saddened and nearly overcome at times, he conducted the entire service, the circumstances and the strong and deeply felt sympathy of his congregation, making the service one of the most touching held for a long time in King Street Church.

Leaves For Listowel.
Rev. Mr. McIntosh's father died seven years ago. His mother is survived by one other son, August McIntosh, of Lucknow, and four daughters, Mrs. Robert Thompson, of Seattle, Wash.; Mrs. Goodhand, of Wetaskiwin; Mrs. Isaac Hetherington, of Goderich, and Miss Cassie McIntosh, of Lucknow. The funeral will be held on Tuesday afternoon at Lucknow. Rev. Mr. McIntosh left this morning, and will meet the remains, which will be accompanied by his sisters from the west, at Listowel. All the members of the family, it is expected, will be present at the funeral.

What We Owe Our Mothers.
"What We Owe Our Mothers" was the subject of Rev. W. R. McIntosh's sermon in the Egerton Street Baptist Church. He preached from John, xix, 26-27: "Behold thy mother." This text was chosen as a favorite one for a Mothers' Day sermon by almost every London minister.

Success Through Mother Love.
Mr. Riddiford said that scores of illustrious men have declared that their lives were successful only because of the love and devotion of their mothers. As example, he cited the case of Charles Jones, C. P. Minick, arrested by the tracks last night. They both pleaded guilty to trespassing, and the magistrate suspended sentence. Thomas Smith, charged with vagrancy, was also given a stay to secure work, instead of doing time in jail.

For breaking the liquor license act, Thomas Cate, Robert Bear, Joseph Lazotti and Flora Lazotti, paid $10 and costs each, or 21 days in jail.

William Waddell, charged with vagrancy, was discharged.

LOTS OF WORK

Magistrate Suspends Sentence in Order That Vagabonds Get It.

Magistrate Judd thinks that jobs are plentiful in London just now that he suspended sentence on three men charged with trespassing and vagrancy, and told them to get work. "There's all kinds of work around the city now," said his worship. "Go up to the city hall. They will give you a job there."

He told this to John Devine and Harry Minick, arrested by the tracks last night. They both pleaded guilty to trespassing, and the magistrate suspended sentence. Thomas Smith, charged with vagrancy, was also given a stay to secure work, instead of doing time in jail.

For breaking the liquor license act, Thomas Cate, Robert Bear, Joseph Lazotti and Flora Lazotti, paid $10 and costs each, or 21 days in jail.

William Waddell, charged with vagrancy, was discharged.

Three Sisters Cured of Weak, Watery Blood

A Splendid Example of the Great Blood-Forming Qualities of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

It is in the red corpuscles of the blood that the nutritive qualities lie. On analyzing the blood it is found to be deficient in red corpuscles, and your blood is weak and watery. But you can find out for yourself when the blood is weak and watery by looking at your eyelids and lips will be pale and your eyelids and lips will be bloodless in appearance.

Other symptoms of watery blood are indigestion, headache, feelings of weakness and fatigue and lack of energy and ambition.

There is nothing like Dr. Chase's Nerve Food to overcome this run-down condition. Here is a letter to tell you what this food-cure did in one family by curing three daughters.

Miss Effie Bancroft, Longwood, Ont., writes:—"A year or so ago I was very much run down in health. The blood was so weak and the nerves very much exhausted. Having heard of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food and of its success in curing cases similar to mine, I began to use it, and was very greatly benefited by continuation of this treatment. Two of my sisters also used this medicine, and found it to be a splendid means of building up the system."

We have also used Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linsseed and Turpentine with good results. One of my brothers had pneumonia, twice, and we always use this medicine for him, as we find that it breaks up a cold the quickest and best of any medicine we can get."

Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, 50 cents a box, 6 for $2.50. All dealers, or Edmondson, Bates & Co., Limited, Toronto.
