DR. HORACE L. BRITTAIN, OF CITIZENS' RESEARCH, PROBES CITY SERVICES

Every Department of Civic Administration To Be Included in Scientific Survey Along Lines Similar to That Recently Conducted in Victoria Hospital.

EXPERTS HERE TUESDAY TO PAVE THE WAY

After months of argument, criticism and counter-charging, a series of "general investigations" have been decided on to include all the municipal departments.

At the last session of the city council, Mayor Wenige and his colleagues directed surveys of the police, fire, assessment and engineering departments, as well as the London and Port Stanley Railway, and today Col. W. J. Brown, secretary of the local branch of the Citizens' Research Bureau, received definite instructions from City Clerk Baker to proceed accordingly. The institute undertakes the task, shouldering one-half of the expense.

And an effort is being made to include the board of education in this general probe, in response to a demand from dozens of representative ratepayers.

Dr. Horace L. Brittain, Toronto, head of the Citizens' Research Bureau of the province, arrives in the city Monday to arrange for the preliminary details in connection with the survey, and at the regular session of the school board will submit a similar proposition to the trustees. Col. Brown will accompany him.

It was Dr. Brittain, who directed the recent survey of Victoria Hospital to the entire satisfaction of Mayor Wenige and the council, and apparently to the members of the hospital trust. Many thousands of dollars will be saved, the mayor promises, and the hospital administration is adopting as speedily as possible the direct recommendations for greater efficiency and economy as presented by Dr. Brittain and his subordinates.

Fire and Police Probes. The fire and police investigations will end, it is trusted, the several controversies that have waged in the city.

ARMENIAN ORPHANS ARRIVE IN DOMINION

Children To Be Placed On Ontario Farms by Relief Society.

Canadian Press Despatch. Quebec, June 29.—A party of Armenian orphans will arrive on the steamer Minnedosa this afternoon, coming from their country where they have been left parentless by the Turks. Arrangements have been made to provide them with special entertainment this afternoon by a special committee which has been formed at the suggestion of Dr. A. J. Vining, of Toronto, who is here to meet the children. The young Armenians will be established on farms in Ontario, and the Armenian Relief Society of Toronto is looking after their welfare.

SERVICE NOT SALARIES WHAT WENIGE WANTS

Mayor Denies That He Gave Utilities Manager $500 Increase.

"Why all this worry about city hall salaries?" questions Mayor Wenige today. "All this talk about salaries, 'salaries,' 'salaries,' he continued. 'I'm not worrying about salaries. Service to the public is what interests me now. Salaries will come afterwards automatically. I say service, plus service, plus service. Then the remuneration will come. He who profits most serves best.'"

"They say you have been very good to Manager Buchanan and given him a $500 increase," the mayor was informed.

"The mayor gave it to him, eh?" rejoined his worship. "Well, as it happens the general manager's increase and other public utilities increases were awarded when I was not at the meeting."

JUDD WILL MARK TIME ON CITY HALL INJUNCTION

There will be no injunction proceedings to prevent a new city hall on the McCormick property until such time as it can be seen that Mayor Wenige and his supporters actually mean to go ahead, Ald. Judd announced today.

"There is no use going ahead at this juncture," explained the chairman of the finance committee. "We'll wait until they commence actual work."

Ald. Judd states that a certain taxpayer will institute the proceedings.

DECLARES FAULTS OF FLAPPER GIRL DUE TO MOTHERS

Mrs. E. J. Archibald of Montreal Addresses Kiwanis Club at Outing.

HELD AT LOVEHOLME

Exceptional Stunt Program of Season Staged at Purdom Love's Farm.

Plumbing the depth of the "flapper question," in an address delivered before the London Kiwanis Club today, Mrs. E. J. Archibald, more familiarly known as "Margaret Currie," of the Montreal Star, and formerly Miss Irene Love of this city, arrived at the solution that the fault lies chiefly with the mothers of the present generation, who are themselves the much-lamented "old-fashioned girl" of the past century.

Held at Loveholme. The regular meeting of the club today was held at "Loveholme," the Springbank residence of Purdom Love, a member of the club, and a brother of Mrs. Archibald, with whom she is visiting.

The program was arranged by one of the several committees competing for the season's prize, and in addition to Mrs. Archibald's address was featured with novelties which, so far, are considered the best stunts of the season.

A race with four entries and a "dark horse" constituted the big event. Charlie Martin, riding the famous nag, "Adam Beck Snowflake Lawrasen" came out a winner. Precisely in contrast to a recent race in which one "Adam Beck" came out a winner, the prize went to the slowest horse. Riders first rode their own mounts in an exhibition race in order to be identified, and then in the proper, they rode the other fellows.

The contest was to get the other fellow's own horse first, in order that the rider's own horse might be last—and slowest.

Harry Morgan Wins. The also rans were "Bev Hay Donahue Ford" with Roy Lyons as jockey; "Hughie Isabel Armstrong," with Charlie Martin; "Spark-Plug Beetle," with Percy Banghart. The winner belonged to Harry Morgan.

The "dark horse" was a fetching decorated with a little daisies, who provided just the proper note of color. "Loveholme" was the scene of the evening's "stunt" meeting of the year. The luncheon was served on the wide lawns which front the house. Tonight the Kiwanis Club are entertaining veterans from the West—Hospital at "Ernie" Moore's fruit farm, also near Springbank.

That person who perennially shocks the ultra-moral and piques the interest of all mankind—the flapper—was today given a verdict of "not guilty" by a judge of long experience with flapperism.

The judge is Mrs. E. J. Archibald, president of the Montreal Women's Press Club, but more familiarly known as Margaret Currie, conductor of an "Advice to the Love Lorn" page on the Montreal Star.

Mrs. Archibald, who is visiting her brother, Purdom Love, at "Loveholme," Brick street, interviewed today, declared the flapper was "more sinned against than sinning."

Known to thousands of young girls as "Margaret Currie," Mrs. Archibald has come into such close contact with the modern maiden through her "advice" column that she is regarded as the best Canadian authority on the much condemned "sweet sixteen."

To use a somewhat familiar expression, Mrs. Archibald does not believe the flapper is as bad as she is painted—or painted. Also she is convinced that there have been flappers from time immemorial and will always be so as long as human nature is what it is. It does no good to call the bobbed-haired, frivolous maiden of today "powderpuff," or something equally condemnatory—she will only prove herself the more.

Gives Her Sympathy. The modern girl's fondness for dancing and her tendency to roll up the parlor rugs for the purpose of, failing the latter, her determination to satisfy her terpsichorean instincts at the dance hall, were mentioned Turn to Page 2, Columns 3 and 4.

DR. J. H. TENNENT DEAD AFTER BRIEF ILLNESS

Prominent Veterinary Surgeon Passed Away This Morning.

Dr. J. H. Tennent, a prominent veterinary surgeon in this district and a Dominion Government inspector in the department of agriculture, died this morning at his home, 275 King street, after an illness of a few months. He was in his 75th year.

Dr. Tennent was born in London Township and has been a lifelong resident of this district. He was extremely well known and popular in Western Ontario veterinary circles, and was regarded as one of the best inspectors of the agricultural branch in this province.

Although he had been ill for a short while lately he showed signs of being well on the road to recovery and was able to be out and around his own grounds. A few days ago, however, he suffered a relapse from which he never recovered.

Dr. Tennent was an active Mason and a member of St. John's Lodge No. 20. He was also a progressive member and a trustee of Dundas Centre Methodist Church.

Besides his wife he leaves a son, Dr. D. C. Tennent of Toronto. Funeral arrangements have not been completed, pending the arrival of his son.

Canadian Press Despatch. Vancouver, B.C., June 29.—Soviet Russia has called some of the inhabitants of British Columbia. Fifteen adult Finlanders, men and women, and three children, left last night for New York, via the United States, to sail for a new home they have been given in the rich wheat lands of the valley of the Don.

They have been in British Columbia ranching, lumbering, farming and fishing at points on the coast. Some have been in the province for 21 years, others since 1910. They go to Russia as a result of a colonization settlement of the soviet government.

LONDON'S FINE NEW STREET CARS. This is one of the three cars just purchased by the London Street Railway in Cleveland, Ohio, and ready for service tomorrow. The company authorities promise that at least a part of the new equipment will be placed in operation on the Oxford and Hamilton road line. With a seating capacity of 53, and room for many more standing, this represents the largest and most modern car ever used in London. Similar vehicles have proved highly satisfactory in Detroit, Toronto, Cleveland and other of the large centers. The cars are manned by two operators, motorman and conductor. Patrons enter by the front door always, however, as in the one man cars, but leave by the side entrance.

SHE DEFENDS FLAPPERISM.

Mrs. E. J. Archibald of Montreal, better known as Margaret Currie, who runs an "Advice to Girls" column in the Montreal Star, snatched by The Advertiser staff photographer beside the thick flower bushes on Purdom Love's fruit farm. Mrs. Archibald is Mr. Love's sister. The frivolous flapper is Miss Currie's friend. Bobbed hair and stenciled eyebrows don't prevent the modern girl from being a good wife and mother. Mothers and grandmothers up to the time of Madame Eve flapped just as much as the girl of today, says Mrs. Archibald.

REPORT "UNCLE BILL" WILL SOON BE WELL

Taken Suddenly Ill, London's Popular Citizen Suffers With Bronchitis.

The condition of "Uncle Bill" Moore, London's premier booster, who was suddenly taken ill last night was reported by Victoria Hospital authorities this afternoon to be quite improved. Mr. Moore is suffering from an attack of influenza bronchitis and last night his illness was thought to be serious, but physicians are of the opinion today that he will soon be well again.

"Uncle Bill" passed the night quietly, and hospital officials noticed this morning that he displayed signs of returning to his own jovial self. Dr. Clifford H. Reason is in attendance.

CHILD HIT BY MOTOR IN SERIOUS CONDITION

William Gorman, Six Years Old, Runs Out From Behind Street Car.

Running around the back of a street car at Richmond and Grosvenor at noon today, William Gorman of 893 Richmond street was struck by an automobile and rendered unconscious.

The lad was rushed to St. Joseph's Hospital and as far as physicians can learn no bones are broken, but as he is in a semi-conscious state the full extent of his injuries will not be known for some hours. Dr. Walter Thomson is in attendance.

UNIVERSITY OPENS SUMMER SCHOOL SIX WEEKS TERM

Course Offers Excellent Training For General Bachelor of Arts Degree.

PROGRAM IS VARIED

Social and Athletic Activities To Supplement Regular Work.

With the opening of the summer school of the University of Western Ontario on Tuesday next, comes another excellent opportunity for those who are unable to attend the university during the winter months.

This year is the sixth in which this plan has been carried out, and the course, which lasts for six weeks, affords those who wish, a chance to qualify for the general Bachelor of Arts degree. Except in the sciences most of the courses offered in the summer are followed by supplementary ones, to be taken up by the students after leaving for their winter work. An opportunity is also given for those who have been in residence during the year to qualify in any subjects in which they may have proved deficient.

Course in Geology.

This summer the course leading to the general B. A. includes lectures in chemistry, English, geology, French, German, Spanish, history, mathematics, astronomy, physics and zoology. Courses leading to an honorary B. A. will be offered in English, chemistry, history, geology and mathematics. A special feature of the curriculum this summer is the course in geology or physiography, which is being offered for the first time. In this plans have been made to visit and study the geological foundations of many places in Western Ontario.

A varied program of social and athletic activities will supplement the more arduous work of the classrooms and laboratories, making the six weeks a pleasurable vacation as well as a profitable one.

Announces Faculty. The faculty for the summer, as announced by the director, Dr. H. R. Kingston, is as follows: Dr. E. B. Colburn, professor of romance languages, University of California, (French and Spanish); Dr. R. C. Dearie (Physics); Dr. N. C. James (German); Dr. H. R. Kingston (mathematics and astronomy); Professor J. W. Patterson (zoology); Professor J. A. Spence (English literature); Mr. V. T. Holmes, Harvard University, fellow at the Sorbonne, Paris, 1922-23 (French and Spanish).

WARD TWO ASSESSMENT NOW NEARLY COMPLETE

The ward two assessment, payable in 1924, is practically completed and the report will be ready within a few days. The assessment authorities anticipate as much as a $100,000 increase from incomes alone. With wards three and four already completed, the approximate increased income assessment is set at $200,000, with ward one still to be computed. These figures are exclusive of the land and real estate values.

Provincial Inspector F. Elliott, also of the commission, dropped into the provincial office today on a regular visit in order to check up on the past few weeks. Neither Mr. Dingman or Mr. Spence would make any statements regarding the probable future of the O. T. A. or its enforcement.

District Provincial Police Inspector Putnam, Windsor, in charge of this district, visited Provincial Officer T. V. Stratton. The visit was merely made to inspect the office, equipment and uniforms.

THE BIG FIGHT

The Advertiser has made arrangements for covering the Dempsey-Gibbons battle on July 4th in every detail. Reading The Advertiser will be the next best thing to sitting at the ringside.

Here is the line-up.

W. O. McGeehan and Heywood Brown, two internationally famous sporting writers, are in Shelby now representing The Advertiser. They will write preliminary stories from the training camps and a descriptive account of the fight itself, round by round.

The winner, either Dempsey or Gibbons, will give his own story of the fight as soon as it is over. Naturally, whoever wins will be too tired to hold a pen himself, but in his dressing-room immediately after last round, either Dempsey or Gibbons will dictate to an Advertiser representative, his version of how he won.

Pictures of the battle, taken for The Advertiser, will leave Shelby by aeroplane for Chicago, where the plates will be developed and rushed by special delivery mail to London.

On London's Busy Corner

London certainly wins the pink club bag as a "one-corner" community.

Some idea of the traffic at the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets can be gathered from a report by Harry Humston, superintendent of the London Street Railway Company.

The superintendent relates that not long since they took a tally at the main intersection of the city—on a Saturday from 6 a.m. until midnight—and more than 8,000 automobiles passed.

Added to this were street cars, bicycles and thousands of pedestrians.

DR. F. G. BANTING CHOSEN TO OPEN 1923 TORONTO 'EX'

New Honor Is Conferred On Discoverer of Insulin by Canadians.

ADDRESSES PUBLIC

Decides To Cancel Engagements in Europe to Return in Fall.

Special to The Advertiser.

Toronto, June 29.—Dr. F. G. Banting, discoverer of insulin, is to open the 1923 Canadian National Exhibition. For the first time since the news of the discovery became known to the young scientist will speak directly to the public when he addresses the exhibition crowds on opening day, Aug. 25, when the Dufferin gates will be made to accommodate thousands of guests.

Negotiations with Dr. Banting have been in progress for some time, and almost insurmountable difficulties appeared in the way. Dr. Banting is now in England, and had decided to remain in Europe until late in the fall. But he has finally consented to cancel his later engagements and to return to Canada to be present on Aug. 25, when the Dufferin gates will swing open to admit the advance guard of the 1,500,000 attendance which is predicted for this year.

LICENSE OFFICIALS PAY VISIT TO LONDON

W. H. Dingman and Inspector F. Elliott Call On City Officers.

Two members of the Ontario License Commission were visitors in London this morning, one call being informal and the other the usual inspection.

W. H. Dingman, vice-chairman of the board of license commissioners, paid an informal visit to License Inspector Bolton this morning on his return from St. Thomas, where he had been attending his son's wedding.

Provincial Inspector F. Elliott, also of the commission, dropped into the provincial office today on a regular visit in order to check up on the past few weeks. Neither Mr. Dingman or Mr. Spence would make any statements regarding the probable future of the O. T. A. or its enforcement.

District Provincial Police Inspector Putnam, Windsor, in charge of this district, visited Provincial Officer T. V. Stratton. The visit was merely made to inspect the office, equipment and uniforms.

WEST ONTARIO TELEPHONE HEADS MEET HERE

TELEPHONE HEADS OF COUNTIES OPEN ANNUAL MEETING

First Session of the Thirteenth Gathering Held in the Council Chamber.

PRESIDENT SPEAKS

TELEPHONE HEADS of the thirteen counties met in the Council Chamber of the City of London for the first session of the thirteenth annual meeting of the Western Counties Telephone Association. Thirty-five delegates were in attendance and a number of interesting and instructive addresses were delivered.

Anson Groh of Preston, president of the association, in his opening address welcomed the delegates to the conference and outlined several of the more important items that would come before them. The need for greater co-operation among the various telephone companies in Western Ontario, and the fact that the financial side of operating rural telephone systems is becoming more vital and pressing. There was also the legal side of the telephone company which was emphasized by the new order dealing with telephone operators, issued by the Minimum Wage Board.

Present Report.
Dr. W. Doan of Harrietsville, secretary of the association, read an encouraging report and the following addresses completed the session: "The Minimum Wage Boards Order re Operators as Applied to Telephone Companies," by M. A. Gee of Selkirk, and "Telephone Companies' Rights on the Provincial and County Provincial Highways," by Hon. Nelson Monteth of Stratford.

By noon the following delegates were in attendance: Dr. W. Doan of the Harrietsville Telephone Company; A. Turill, Aylmer, of the South Middlesex Telephone Company; S. H. Stearns, Selkirk, of the Erie Telephone Company; A. G. M. Keale, Ilderton, of the Coldstream Telephone Company; Norman J. Jones, Kincardine, of the Bruce Telephone System; N. W. Baldwin and J. A. Beeger of the Stromberg Carlson Company of Toronto; Donald Cameron, Parkhill, and J. W. Wilson, Kerwood, of the West Williams Telephone Company; W. R. Wadsworth, Mount Brabant, of the South North Telephone Company; M. H. Chamberlain, Arkona, of the Parkhill and Arkona Telephone Company.

Others Present: G. M. Govenclock, Seaford, of the McKillop Municipal Telephone System; W. H. Morrison, Stratford, of the Southwood and Dunwick Telephone Company; D. Campbell, Southwood, of the Byron and Dunwick Telephone Company; J. R. Forbes, Watford, of the Norfolk and South North United Telephone Company; Frank Telford of the Southwood and Dunwick Telephone Company; Nelson Monteth, Stratford, of the Monteth and Dempsey Rural Telephone Company; C. KINDERGARTEN TUTORS HOLD SUMMER CLASS

Training Course For Primary Teachers Opens in Normal School.

A summer school for the training of kindergarten primary teachers will be conducted in the London Normal School during the month of July. It is expected that over fifty teachers will take the course this year.

The school will be in charge of Mr. T. E. Clarke of the Normal School, and the instructors will be Miss Clara Breton, the local supervisor of kindergartens; Miss A. Davidson of Wortley Road School, and Mrs. A. E. Hutchinson of Baling School.

The instructors are now enrolling children for two model classes. There will be a kindergarten class composed of children of four and five years old and a kindergarten primary class composed of children of five and six years old. The children are usually drawn from homes in the vicinity of the Normal School, but any children of suitable age may attend.

A milk lunch will be served to the little people each morning at recess time.

CALL FOR CONTRACTS FOR STEAM SYSTEM

Department of Indian Affairs Advises London Postmaster To Seek Tenders.

Thomas Duncan, London postmaster, was advised this morning that the department of Indian Affairs at Ottawa was ready to receive tenders for the labor and material required in the installation of a steam system of heating at the Mount Elgin Institute, Muncey.

Complete plans and information regarding the government requirements regarding the plant are in the hands of Mr. Duncan for the convenience of contractors in the London district, who might contemplate submitting a tender. The tenders close on July 19.

A CORRECTION

The address of the Bicycle and Motor Sales Co., 425 Wellington street, is omitted from an advertisement in this issue. The boys and girls nearly all know the street address without referring to the number.

Many of our readers, J. York, Belmont, of the Belmont Telephone Company; F. B. Stewart, nekirp, of the Ingersoll Rural Telephone Company; Ingersoll Telephone Company; P. Daggert, Toronto, supervisor of Telephone Systems, Ontario Railway and Municipal Board; George Westlake, Charles Copert, and S. M. Cruikshanks, St. Thomas, of the St. Thomas Telephone Company; Anson Groh, Preston, J. W. O'Brien, Crediton, of the Mooresville Telephone Company; W. P. Gifted Canadian Writer Defends Modern Flapper with sympathy. To sum up, Mrs. Archibald does not believe in the so-called flapper menace; rather she believes that the modern girl, when she meets the right man, will become a good wife and mother as her grandmother and mother. She stated, however, that more comradeship between daughters and their parents represents a solution to the whole problem.

"I blame parents entirely," said Mrs. Archibald. "It seems so ridiculous for men and women to denounce the flapper, when it is their own fault. The modern mother is the responsible party."

The cry a short time ago, said Mrs. Archibald, condemned the short dress of the flapper. Papers were full of the gossip, and writers of snappy stories in modern magazines snapped at the short dress with characteristic vim.

All this strong hammering of the short dress brought in with a rush the long dress, now waving in the streets of all Canadian towns. Then the critics shouted that dresses were too long to be modest. Consequently, the flapper doesn't know what to do next.

Should Be Counsellors.

The flapper was more sinned against than sinning, Mrs. Archibald said. The poor girl painted her face, that needed no color to make it bloom. Sometimes when she came to her parents for advice on the things that beset the minds of all girls, their answer was such as to prohibit a second inquiry. The parents had lost thought of their early times in mock modesty. They should always be counsellors, friends and in short, pals to their daughters.

Mrs. Archibald advocated the opening of doors to the young pleasure-seeker; to give them the pleasure they wanted in their own homes; to allow them to bring in their friends and enjoy the thrills of pleasure in the confines of their homes.

In the old days the flapper lived just as the flapper lived in the very earliest times, seeking the company of the choicest men by the facile use of her many charms. The modern girl is wrong in thinking she is creating a new impression, when she is only reviving impressions created by flappers through all centuries.

"The youth of today," Mrs. Archibald said, "is the same as the youth of yesterday and the youth of tomorrow."

True Journalist.

Mrs. Archibald is a staunch advocate of the liquor laws of Quebec, from which province she comes. She thinks light beer and wines and government vending of whiskey the best system yet devised.

Mrs. Archibald was initiated into the newspaper business on The Advertiser when Mel Rossie was editor. Later she was married and went to Montreal. She conducted a page during the war on conservation and thrift, and this developed into "Margaret Currie's page" in which all kinds of advice was given. Mrs. Currie's column has lasted a longer time than any similar newspaper feature in Canada.

Rafts of letters from the youth of Montreal, men and women, come into the Star office every day for Miss Currie to answer. Many a heart-throb is contained in those plaintive notes, and many a young girl and young man have been aided in securing Margaret Currie's advice.

Mrs. Archibald is an interesting woman to meet, full of life and vivacity. This afternoon she addressed the Kiwanis Club at a dinner held on Mr. Love's lawn.

Man's race by L. Westby, who romped in first with apparent ease. Miss Isabelle McDowell won the ladies' race, while after a keen competition Miss Florence Horwood came in first in the needle and thread race.

As the twilight began to steal down over the water, and the air became cooler, everybody voted that the biggest feature of the day had been the dinner. Through the thoughtfulness of Mr. Grace, 30 pounds of delicious roast chicken graced the festive board, and this, together with fresh strawberries and cream, made a picnic lunch that could not be excelled.

In the evening dancing held sway, and in an impromptu competition, Mr. George Deane and Miss McDowell were declared the most graceful dancers on the floor, with Mr. and Mrs. Grace and Jack Chapman and Mrs. Deane a close second and third.

HEINTZMAN'S STAFF PICTNICS AT LAKESIDE

Enjoyable Program of Sports Provides Merry Outing For Employees.

Lakeside, one of the most picturesque picnic spots in Western Ontario, was the scene of a merry outing on Wednesday afternoon, when between 30 and 40 members of the local staff of the Gerhardt Heintzman Company motored there for an afternoon of fun.

The happy party arrived at the picnic grounds about 3:30 in the afternoon, and in a few minutes a thrilling game of soft ball was in progress on the baseball diamond. The new players were captained by M. S. Grace, London manager, and R. H. Peck, head salesman, and after some innings of brilliant playing, generously sprinkled with ludicrous misplays, Captain Peck's team was declared the winner despite the voluble protests of the manager's proteges.

A short but interesting program of races and novelty events was also run off in the course of the afternoon. One of the features of the races was the winning of the fat

MAJOR HARTT TO SPEAK TO ORANGEMEN IN CITY

Major I. P. Hartt, past grand master of the Grand Orange Lodge of Ontario West, will be the principal speaker at tonight's meeting of the Orange Lodge of East Middlesex, in the Orange Hall on the corner of Market Lane at 8 o'clock. Major Hartt has traveled extensively all through the province and is a well known speaker throughout the order. P. H. Bell of Toronto will give an address on the advancement of the order and on Orange organization.

POLICE ARE WATCHING FOR BICYCLE THIEVES

Two London Lads Who Started On Career of Adventure.

Police in Western Ontario have been requested to be on the lookout for two London lads who wheeled as far as Thorndale yesterday afternoon, discarded their bicycles in that village, and then hit the road again, apparently for some time east.

One of the boys lives on Hamilton road, is 16 years of age, but is tall for his years and looks to be 18. The other is a Giles street youth, has red hair, and is described as short. He is 15 years old. Both boys have been working in the city.

The first news that the boys had started on a trip reached the city last night when a Thorndale resident called up the London police and informed them that two lads had attempted to dispose of their wheels for $2 each. Sergeant of Detectives Down immediately left for Thorndale, but the pair had disappeared and although all bars and other possible places of hiding in the district were searched no trace of them could be found, but their bicycles were discovered in the hotel shed.

According to several persons in Thorndale, the boys tried to sell their wheels, explaining that they were in a hurry to reach Hamilton and contemplated taking the train. The suspicions of the residents were aroused over the small price asked, which resulted in the call being sent to London.

One small boy of the village told of the lads showing him two tickets for Hamilton routed by way of London, but the police are at a loss to know how such tickets, if they ever had any, got into their possession.

The boys bought the wheels from an east end bicycle dealer some time ago, but the machines were only partly paid for. The dealer is now in possession of the wheels.

WILL CONSIDER NAMING COLLEGIATE TEACHERS

Recommendations Are To Be Dealt With by Special Committee.

The question of the new appointments to the collegiate staffs, which are to be made on the recommendation of E. A. Miller, the new principal of the Central Collegiate, will be dealt with this afternoon at a special meeting of the collegiate committee of the board of education.

Mr. Miller, while not wishing to discuss the new appointments previously to their presentation to the board, says that there will most likely be three new members for the staffs of the Central and the South London collegiate, but emphasizes the fact that this will not mean the dismissal of any of the old teachers. Additional tutors are necessary on account of the annual increase in the number of children who come to the colleges.

The board meets on July 5th, and the recommendations will then be presented by the special committee.

EXPECT TO GIVE LONDON OLD BOYS WONDERFUL TIME

City Will Be En Fete Early Next Month For Big Seven-Day Carnival.

PROGRAM UNDERWAY

An elaborate program for Old Boys' Week has been drawn up by the executive of the London Old Boys' Association, and from the variety and number of attractions promises to be the greatest event of the kind London has ever known.

All local organizations of a social nature are ready to co-operate as much as possible to make the week a success. The St. John's Ambulance Corps agreed to establish a uniformed ambulance division at Queen's Park during the festival. The chamber of commerce will arrange for the billeting of visitors, and the London Motor Club have assured that it, also, would be glad to help in the way.

Fraternal and other societies will be requested to enter their drill teams in a large drill competition to be staged at Queen's Park. A suggestion has been received that prizes be awarded to the oldest visitor who attends the reunion from a town or village more than ten miles outside London. The parents of the largest family present and the oldest girl present also receives prizes.

A meeting of the Old Boys' Association in the city hall last evening, it was decided to admit members to all attractions. Payment of a $1 fee entitles any man or woman to the privilege. During the coming week a thorough canvass of the city will be made to procure members. It is expected that $18,000 will be obtained in this way.

A committee has been appointed to secure a suitable building for headquarters and registration purposes. Mayor Wenigke announced that he would give five prizes to the best-dressed men and women bicycle riders in the big bicycle parade.

The program drawn up by Secretary Ed. Smith, with the aid of the committee, was endorsed by the meeting last night. A number of additions may be decided on later, and the following schedule of events is subject to change. A meeting of the association will be held next Thursday. Following is the program:

LONDON MASONS GREET VISITORS IN FINE REUNION

Members of St. John's Lodges Assemble From All Parts of Province.

VISIT SPRINGBANK

The members of the two St. John's Masonic Lodges in London, No. 20 and No. 209a, are today extending the royal hand of welcome to 40 of their brethren from other lodges in the province bearing the same name, who have assembled in the Forest City for the seventh annual reunion of the St. John's lodges of Ontario.

Nearly every train arriving in the city this morning brought its delegation for the glad event, and up until noon approximately 25 visitors were in attendance. The rest, most of whom are coming from distant points, will arrive in the city some time during the afternoon.

Committees from the two local lodges have worked diligently during the past two weeks to make this year's program the most enjoyable that has ever been held. The London members have been all the more zealous in their efforts because of the fact that this is the first time that the reunion is being held in London.

Take Motor Trip.
The program started at 1 o'clock, when the visitors were taken on a motor trip around the city. The afternoon was pleasantly cool for motoring, and the visiting delegates were unstinting in their praise of the many beautiful spots in London, and how all her suburbs bespoke of the finest of living conditions, and of great care in the planning.

The party also visited Springbank Park, and at the request of their hosts the London hosts spent quite a while within the domains of the park, so that they could enjoy to the utmost the pleasures of the city's playground. The visitors were also taken on a tour through Byron Sanatorium and shown the splendid work being accomplished there for the returned soldier. There was regret expressed on all sides when the return trip had to be made for the party to make connections with the special 2 o'clock train to Port Stanley.

Special Program.
A special program has been arranged for Port Stanley, and after a banquet in the L. and P. S. Cafeteria, the picnickers will return to London in time for special ceremonies in the Masonic Temple tonight, when the third degree will be exemplified.

Among the delegates who are already in the city are: Kingston, No. 3, Wor. Bro. H. H. Lawson, W. M.; Cayuga, No. 35, Wor. Bro. R. H. Davey, W. M.; and Bro. F. S. Kent; Hamilton, No. 40, Wor. Bro. R. J. A. Curry, W. M.; and Bro. J. E. Benridge and E. B. Thompson; Ingersoll, No. 65, Wor. Bro. J. W. Manzer and 75, Wor. Bro. Percival; Toronto, No. 7, Wor. Bro. H. H. Lawson, W. M.; Albert Slute, Wor. Bro. Reade Davis and Right Wor. Bro. T. Flislyth; Mount Brydges, No. 81, Wor. Bro. Thomas Green and Bro. Allen McNeil and Howard Heath; Norwich, No. 104, Wor. Bro. the Rev. J. H. Barnett and Bro. J. Lancaster; Brantford, No. 284, Wor. Bros. James Fox and J. Simmons; St. Johns, New Brunswick, F. C. Colwill.

The funeral will be held on Saturday from John Ferguson's Sons undertaking parlors to Mount Pleasant Cemetery. The services will be conducted by Rev. J. E. Johnson, of St. Street Baptist Church.

Roy Edwards, London, Says Tanlac Gave Him the Health of a School-boy.

"It surely was a lucky day when I first got Tanlac, for I have gained 16 pounds and feel like a school-boy again," recently declared Roy Edwards, 285 Richmond Street, London, Ont.

"Having always caused me aching pains in my stomach, I was thin, pale and nervous, and got so weak and discouraged I lost all interest in life. Well, sir, every dose of Tanlac made me feel better and better until now I'm always hungry as a bear two hours before meal time, eat three big meals a day and my stomach never hurts me any more. My nerves are so steady, I get eight or nine hours good, restful sleep every night, and I'm so strong and alert I enjoy life more than ever."

"My wife has taken Tanlac for stomach trouble and she, too, has had splendid results. We both think so much of Tanlac we never fail to praise it."

Tanlac is for sale by all druggists. Accept no substitutes. Over 7 million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.—Adv.

POST'S BRAN FLAKES With Other Parts of Wheat

Man has always needed bran. Nature always intended that man should eat it for its laxative, body-toning, healthful effects. But bran has heretofore been so unpalatable, so unappetizing that vast numbers have reverted to the use of reactive laxative drugs.

Now comes Post's Bran Flakes—a delicious, delicate, appetizing bran food that you'll like to eat. Thin, crisp, tasty, toasted flakes with milk or cream—you'd hardly know the bran was there but it is—in most delicious form.

Your nearest grocer can supply you with Post's Bran Flakes. Insist on the genuine. A generous package for 18c.—2 for 35c. Include it in your next grocery order.

VETERANS ON LOOKOUT FOR NEW CLUB ROOMS

Forced To Give Up Quarters in the Majestic Building.

Today the London G. V. V. A. moved out of their old quarters and started on a long search for a new home. The members feel their loss very keenly, and are rather pessimistic on their chances of getting another place that will suit them as well. The old rooms they occupied in the Majestic Building have been taken by the London Business Institute, who will move in next week. Meanwhile the veterans are left out on the desert without any covering, from the burning sun of the public sidewalk whenever they want to hold a meeting.

George Turner, the secretary, can be reached by letter, care of Col. W. G. Coles, Bank of Toronto Chambers, who is the president of the association. Anyone knowing of a cosy nook wherein the members could gather, one that is not too expensive, for the club is not composed of men of fashion and gay jugglers of stocks and bonds, might write to the secretary and earn the heartfelt thanks of the returned men.

Son of Peter McArthur Weds Popular Guelph Girl

Miss Dorothy Campbell Day Becomes the Bride of Daniel Carman McArthur of Toronto.

A wedding which has a Canadian-wide interest took place in Guelph yesterday, when Dorothy Campbell Day, daughter of Prof. and Mrs. George Day of Guelph, became the bride of Daniel Carman McArthur, son of Mr. Peter McArthur, the well-known Canadian writer, and Mrs. McArthur of Appin. The Rev. Henry Irvine of Norfolk Street Church performed the ceremony, which took place at the home of the bride's parents, Arnold street.

The wedding was the culmination of a college romance, the bride and groom having met in their freshmen year at Guelph, the bride attending MacDonald College and the groom being a student at Ontario Agricultural College.

Promptly at 4 o'clock the bride appeared on the arm of her father, looking lovely in her nuptial robe of white crepe de chine and chintilly lace, and wearing the groom's gift, a necklace of pearls. Her hair was wreathed with orange blossoms and she carried a bridal bouquet of Ophelia roses and lilies of the valley. Miss Helen Drake, the bride's sister, acted as bridesmaid, wearing a simple gown of peach-colored crepe de chine and carrying a colonial bouquet of pink roses and lilies of the valley. The groom was attended by his brother, Mr. McKellar McArthur of Appin.

The bride party took their stand before a bank of pink peonies, roses, orange blossoms and lilies of the valley. Miss Forbes of Guelph played the wedding music. At the signing of the register, Miss Katharine Hamilton of Guelph sang beautifully "Maid o' Mine."

The house itself was a profusion of flowers. A reception followed the ceremony, a buffet luncheon being served. Later Mr. and Mrs. McArthur left for Muskoka, where they will spend their honeymoon, the bride traveling in a smart navy suit and hat to match. On their return they will reside at Sunnyside, Toronto.

The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome brooch, and to the bridesmaid a pair of cufflinks. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Peter McArthur and Miss Elizabeth McArthur of Appin; Miss C. Waters of Toronto; Mrs. Sunley Dr. and Mrs. C. J. Zavitz, P.W. and Mrs. W. H. Graham, all of Guelph; Mrs. Barlow of Brighton; Mr. and Mrs. Fulton of Luckham; Miss Grace Woodruff, Miss Katharine Graham, Miss Carie McKel, Miss Catharine Stuart, Mr. Ward, all of Guelph; Miss Jean Hunt, Mr. Edward Chesley, Mr. M. J. Adams, Mr. Winters, all of Toronto; and Mr. R. J. Churchill of London.

June Weddings

PRATT-SHAW.
Hyatt Avenue Church was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, when Mary Shaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. Shaw, was married to Charles Pratt of Almont, Mich. Rev. Jewett performed the ceremony.

The church was artistically decorated with summer flowers, and as the bride party entered the church, the wedding march was played by Miss Rose Ashby, who also played during the ceremony. Little Miss Gladys Morris, groomed in pink and blue, and Master M. J. Shaw, made charming little attendants.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a becoming gown of white canton crepe, embroidered with pearls, and her hair was of the same material. She carried a shower of roses and sweet peas. During the signing of the register, little Miss Maude Taylor sang "Maid o' Mine."

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at Smallman & Ingram's tearoom, the guests numbering twenty. Mr. and Mrs. Pratt left later on a motor trip through Michigan, the bride traveling in all-time crepe de chine and becoming hat. They will reside in Almont.

SHILLINGFORD-TAYLOR.

The Hill Street Baptist Church was the scene of a pretty wedding yesterday afternoon at four o'clock, when Muriel Ade Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Taylor, was married to Donald Shillingford, also of this city. Rev. J. S. Johnston performed the ceremony.

The church was prettily decorated with roses and wild flowers, and the wedding march was played by Mrs. Stanley Drake as the bride party entered the church. The bride wore a gown of white crepe with a wedding veil arranged with pearl ornaments, and she carried white carnations.

Miss Erma Taylor, a sister of the bride, and Miss Alice Drake acted as bridesmaids, the latter wearing a pink canton crepe with a white hat, and Miss Taylor another sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid. Mr. C. M. DeWeaver was best man. During the signing of the register, Mrs. W. Hunter sang "Because." The ushers were Messrs. George Harris, Frank Brown, Charles Hunt and Paul Lewis.

Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served at the bride's home from tables decorated with roses. The bride wore a blue canton crepe dress with a corsage of roses.

and her grandmother, Mrs. Irons, was groomed in blue canton crepe with American Beauty roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Shillingford left on a honeymoon to Detroit, the bride traveling in a blue tricot suit with a blue taffeta hat and gray gloves.

The guests from out-of-town were Miss Irene White, Evanston, Ill.; Mrs. Mary Brown, Wilberforce, Ontario; Mrs. A. Grayson, Toronto; Mrs. Thomas Taylor, New York, Mr. and Mrs. Newton Brown and family of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilson and Mr. and Mrs. E. Wilson, Jun. of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. MacQueen, Detroit; Mrs. Riley and Mrs. J. Johnston of Detroit.

KITCHEN-STEELE.
One of the most charming of June weddings took place at 3 o'clock, Wednesday afternoon, June 27, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith, 132 Waterloo street, when the bride's sister, Miss E. Josephine Steele, second daughter of Mrs. Steele, and the late Peter Steele, of this city, formerly of Toronto, were united in marriage with Arthur Harold Kitchen, also of this city, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Kitchen of Niagara Falls. The ceremony, which was performed by Rev. Geo. T. Waters of the Wellington Street Methodist Church, in the presence of the immediate relatives of the bride and groom, took place in the living-room, made fragrant with pink and white blossoms, the same color scheme being carried out in the dining-room, where a dainty wedding luncheon was later served.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Mr. Jas. Smith, wore a graceful gown of gray canton crepe with facings of sand color, gray suede slippers, and a string of pearls, the gift of the groom. Mrs. Steele, mother of the bride, was groomed in black silk, Mrs. Smith wearing a pretty frock of sand color crepe, and Mrs. Kitchen, who, with Mr. Kitchen came up from Niagara Falls for the wedding, wore a handsome gown of dark blue canton crepe.

To make the ceremony doubly interesting, immediately following the marriage service, the christening of William Marshall, "Billy" Smith, nephew of the bride and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Smith, took place. The happy couple left on the 4:30 C.P.R. train for Toronto and Hamilton, later motoring to Niagara Falls and Buffalo. Mrs. Kitchen donning a sand color wrap and white sport hat for traveling. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Kitchen will reside at 387 Simcoe street.

FOX-PULLEYBLANK.
One of the prettiest of the June weddings took place Wednesday afternoon at Ridout Street Methodist Church, when Agnes Jessie, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Pulleyblank of St. Marys, was married to Rowland M. Fox, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Fox, Linwood street. Rev. J. A. Agnew performed the ceremony.

The wedding music was played by the organist, Mr. W. Gordon Scott, and Miss Margaret Watson. Hazel McEwan acted as ushers, the latter wearing white voile, with touches of pink, and Miss Watson with a gown of white tricotette and a white hat.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her grandfather, Samuel Pulleyblank of St. Marys, wore a lovely gown of white canton crepe, with orange blossoms forming a bandeau from which a tulle veil fell. Miss Minnie Wheeler acted as bridesmaid, dressed in a pretty gown of pink voile, with a picture hat to match, and carried pink roses. Mr. E. Noble was best man.

Roses and daisies artistically arranged decorated the church and were also used at the home of the groom's parents, where a reception was held. Six girl friends of the bride assisted in the dining-room. They were: Misses Clara Parkwell, Margaret Watson, Helen Mills (St. Marys), Veda Oliver (St. Marys), Mrs. Squires and Miss Laura Fletcher.

Mr. and Mrs. Fox left to spend their honeymoon in Belleville, the bride traveling in a blue tailored suit, with gray hat and gloves. Upon their return they will reside at 28 Linwood avenue.

DINGMAN-GRIFFIN.
St. Thomas, June 28.—"Gladfield," the lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Griffin, Stanley street, was the scene of a very pretty wedding at halfpast 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon, when their daughter, Helen Ruth, was married to George Donald Dingman, of London, Ont., eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Dingman, of Toronto. Rev. Wilfred F. Gaetz of First Methodist Church, officiated at the ceremony, which took place in the drawing-room, lovely with larkspur, daisies and roses.

As the opening notes of the wedding march were played by the London Harpists, the bride descended the stairs and entered the drawing-room on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She looked very lovely in her wedding gown of white satin canton with girdle of orange blossoms, and caught at the shoulders with pearls. She wore silver slippers and the train was of silver tissue, lined with softest pink, while her veil was of Limerick lace, arranged in the form of a coronet and caught at the back with orange blossoms. She carried a shower bouquet of Sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

Mrs. W. F. L. Edwards was her sister's matron of honor, pretty in orchid georgette with hat to match, and carrying a shower bouquet of larkspur and roses. The ribbon-bearers were Misses Frances and Isobel Edwards, who wore quaint white muslin dresses, which the ribbons were attached. Mr. Arthur Dingman of Amherstburg was the bride's groomsmen, and the bride and groom received in the drawing-room, the bride's mother receiving with them. Mrs. Griffin was lovely in a gown of gray georgette beaded in silver and blue with gray hat and a corsage bouquet of roses, while Mrs. V. S. Dingman wore a handsome dress of gold brocade with brown canton crepe with cocoa brown georgette hat trimmed with unguined ostrich tips, and a corsage bouquet of Sunset roses.

Mrs. Albert Francis of Port Arthur, sister of the groom, was in buttercup georgette with large leghorn hat trimmed with the same color. Mrs. Hardey Dewar of Toronto wore black lace over natte blue velvet, and Mrs. Frank Griffin, junior, was in plaited white crepe de chene with large white hat.

Following the wedding breakfast, the happy young couple left on a motor trip to Muskoka, the bride wearing for the trip a smart hen-stitched gray French-crepe costume with small gray hat to match and navy roshigara crepe wrap. On their return they will reside at 71 Ross street, city. The occasion was doubly interesting, as it was the wedding anniversary of the bride's parents, and the occasion of the birthday of Mrs. J. E. Sullivan, sister of the bride.

HAYNE-ELLIOTT.

SHOW NERVOUSNESS IN RUHR OCCUPIED AREA

Struggle Intensifies as Germans and French Become Panicky.

By HIRAM K. MODERWELL.
Special Cable to The London Advertiser and Chicago Daily News. Copyright, Cologne, June 29.—Increasing nervousness has characterized the Ruhr struggle during the last fortnight.

On the one hand the Germans are becoming panicky about food supplies, which in several cities have been cut off as the direct result of various French administrative measures. On the other hand, the French troops are using the firearms with a recklessness which the most charitable can only attribute to nervousness.

There are almost daily reports of German civilians shot in towns where a rigorous state of siege prevails as the result of the murders of French sentries. In many instances the Germans claim, with considerable supporting testimony, these shootings have been committed by the French. Recently such instances have been admitted by the French, but it is generally impossible to trace the murderers because the French authorities prevent German investigation and arrest of witnesses.

"Pollyanna Club" Holidays At Port

Miss Jean Waugh and Twelve Girls Leave Today.

The girls of the Pollyanna Club, twelve in number, and their leader, Miss Jean Waugh, are spending the holiday at "Summerholm," Port Stanley.

The first party of girls will set down today to be followed on Saturday by others. Still others will not join the house party until Monday. The visit of the Pollyanna Club will constitute the opening of the Y. W. C. A. cottage, "Summerholm," for the season. And it is expected that many business girls of the city will soon take advantage of this lovely cottage on Orchard Beach, and find rest and renewed health by the lakeside.

Canada's Day will be celebrated by thousands in Victoria Park Monday morning. Be there.

School Girls Feed Trustees At Forty Cents Each

Grade Seven Pupils of Riverview School Act As Hostesses To Members of Board of Education.

Counting the cost as well as cooking the meal was the feat of excellence performed by grade seven girls of Riverview School, who last night were hostesses of the board of education at a beautifully served dinner, which the trustees each proclaimed to be a revelation in the culinary science.

The dinner for the board of education is an annual event at the Riverview School. Yesterday morning the girls visited the market, where they purchased their supplies. The afternoon was spent in preparation, and by 4:15 o'clock, the hour of serving, they had a dinner fit for a king.

At a table, perfectly appointed and set, with decorations of marigolds, place cards were laid for twenty-two guests, the majority of whom were able to be present. Soup, a joint with salad and vegetables, a delicious-looking cottage pudding, and sweets were served, and as the young hostesses were able to announce at the conclusion, it was all done at a cost of 39 and a fraction cents per plate.

With the exception of three of the eighth-grade girls who assisted, the entire work of preparation and serving was accomplished by the girls of the seventh grade under the direction of Miss Isabel Craig, teacher of domestic science at Riverview School.

Those of the trustees who voiced their admiration of the dinner itself and the economical aspect of the same.

"If I could carry out the science of cooking at a cost of 40 cents a plate I'd soon be a millionaire," was the way Mrs. Caroline Hunt, the lady member of the board, put it.

Edwin Smith, Dr. Alf. Grant, W. Casselman, and A. N. Udy, chairman of the board of education, each expressed admiration of the skill shown by the girls and the excellence of their training.

In addition to the members of the board, Principal Beal of the Technical and Art School, Principal F. W. Newhouse of Riverview School, Mr. Arthur Ford, W. A. Tanner, secretary of the board of education, and Inspector V. K. Greer were also guests.

FRIDAY, JUNE 29, 1923.

Anxious to Smash the O. T. A.

Mr. J. A. McCausland, Conservative member for Southeast Toronto, has stated his position. His first move in the legislature will be to splinter the O. T. A. He cannot be accused of riding under false colors, because he made this one of the planks of his platform, and he was one of many who publicly and privately gave the impression that the Ferguson party would "do something" about amending the O. T. A.

Mr. McCausland has publicly stated that the first thing he would do at the next session of the legislature would be to press for a change in the O. T. A.

His reason is that "we cannot get a good class of English, Irish and Scotch stock into this province if they cannot get a glass of beer."

We hope that Conservative temperance people who closed their eyes tight to this issue when the vote was taken will appreciate the logic of their Toronto colleague.

There would be just as much reason in stating that if we wished to bring Russians to Canada we would have to allow them to set up a soviet government.

Where does Mr. McCausland propose to put the people he wishes to attract here with beer? Would he put them in the cities, and, if so, what would he have them do there? Would it be his desire that they compete for what employment is offering?

Ontario needs farmers, but they should be good farmers, and if conditions to make a living are right, they are not going to question about the presence or absence of beer.

Mr. McCausland is reckoning from a poor angle when he hopes to fashion a glass of beer into a magnet that will draw people to Ontario.

The performance of this new Conservative member is starting at an early date. He has not even the good grace to wait for his leader to announce his policy.

Let Us Get Alberta Coal.

The present condition of the coal market indicates one thing—that we should be making definite arrangements to put Alberta coal into Ontario cellars.

Today there is little coal coming in here. The old line companies seem to have a price, but no coal to supply at that price. It is of no use that they should quote $8.50 at the mines, if they are not able or willing to ship. They might as well say $3.50 or $13.50.

Then the broker comes along. He has coal, but it is $11.50, or for best quality as high as $12, and there must be a certain amount of pea coal taken with shipments of nut and egg sizes. It works out at about two of stove or nut, two of egg and one of pea, the latter being a dead weight to the dealer's hands.

If he pays $12 to a broker, the coal merchant must add $3.28 freight to Buffalo and another $1.47 to London, plus exchange. It costs him close to $16 to put the coal in here. To that he must add his expenses here, and several coalmen say they cannot deliver, wait for their money and carry office and yard expenses under from $2.25 to $2.50 per ton. It means about $18.25 for coal that is bought from the brokers today.

The unfortunate thing is that all this makes little provision for the consumers who can buy only a ton at a time, as they use it. Their finances do not permit them to lay in coal as soon as the winter season is over. They must buy at a time when there is a rush for coal and when prices are high.

The government, preferably the Dominion government, because it has the means of transportation, should plan for a coal supply from Alberta. Public opinion will back any reasonable step they wish to take to bring this to pass.

Without being at all pessimistic, it is simply facing facts to say that prospects for Ontario getting coal from United States are not any better than they were a year ago.

Let us demonstrate that we are in earnest in this country, and that we mean business when we say we are going to get free of the winter nightmare of looking across the line for coal.

Mr. Raney Goes the Whole Distance.

Hon. W. E. Raney came up a whole lot in the estimation of Kitchener people when he wrote an apology to the mayor of that city for remarks he made at his Ferguson meeting.

A man is apt to make some remarks in an election contest that will not stand an X-ray treatment, and it marks Mr. Raney as a pretty good sort of politician and citizen when he comes along with an apology to the mayor for stating he had been informed that certain residents of Kitchener had gone to Ferguson to break up the meeting there.

Moreover, Mr. Raney explains that he will be in Kitchener some time in the near future, and would appreciate the opportunity of apologizing to the citizens personally.

Hon. W. E. Raney is a hard fighter, a real two-sided man to deal with, but he has a big streak of fair play running through him which even his most bitter opponents must admire.

Was Bound to Get There.

Mr. J. M. Denholm, publisher of the Blenheim Tribune, writes to his paper just as he is leaving Montreal for England. His letter refers to the time he took the same trip 23 years before. At that time he got on his bicycle at Blenheim and rode to Toronto. Of course wheeling was a regular epidemic then, and that trip was not considered out of the ordinary.

Arriving at Toronto, he did not visit the ticket agents, but went to the stock yards, where he was taken on to look after a load of steers. The trip from Toronto to Montreal was taken part time in the cattle cars and part time on top. On the boat each one of those animals seems to hold the Blenheim publisher responsible for his trouble, and many a time he wished for the skill of a Spanish tortador.

However, he got there, got back again and went to work. There is something about that sort of persistence, a willingness to rough it if necessary in order to "get there," not complaining if both sides of a board are hard—there is something in that spirit that makes it almost certain that the possessor of such qualities will succeed ultimately.

Any young man can well and profitably take a leaf out of that book. If there is not a limousine waiting to take you on to success, start and walk—perhaps some person will give you a lift in a lumber wagon. It's much better to be on the way than waiting at the corner.

The Pen Mightier Than the Sword.

A few days ago the Old Edinburgh Club met and went in a body to the grave of Adam Smith, the man who wrote "The Wealth of Nations," described by members of the Edinburgh Club as having "done more towards the happiness of man than has been effected by the united abilities of all the statesmen and legislators."

It is 200 years ago, 1723, since Adam Smith was born. He lived in historic times and in historic places. It is memorable to the point of the unusual that Panmure House, Edinburgh, is still pointed out as the place where Adam Smith lived for the last twelve years of his life, despite the fact that it figured largely in the wars, plots and counter-plots of the time of James II. and subsequent years.

Panmure House, a fine, stately old mansion, was built facing the green slopes of Calton Hill, in 1634. It is rich in old Jacobite associations, having been held at various times by dukes who were true to the "Old Pretender."

When the rebellion of 1715 broke out Panmure joined James with 500 men, proclaimed the Old Pretender as James VIII. at Brechin, and when the prince landed in Scotland entertained him in his castle at Brechin. At the battle of Sheriffmuir the earl was captured, but rescued later by his brother. He escaped to France, but his estate was confiscated. In 1732 Panmure House passed to the Dalhousie family. In time it was handed over to George, the ninth earl, who was a distinguished soldier and lifelong friend of Sir Walter Scott. In 1813 Dalhousie and Scott together were presented with the freedom of Edinburgh.

Yet in spite of all these historic associations, centered as they are in the time when Scottish history was rich in adventure, battle and plot, Panmure House, although much of its grandeur has been snuffed out by commercial encroachments, is referred to today as being a landmark because Adam Smith, student of men, of economics and human nature, lived there for 12 years. No doubt it would add to the joy of the Scots at Edinburgh were they able to claim that Smith wrote his book there, but as his "Wealth of Nations" really was the result of 30 years' study and observation, they can hardly stake that claim and make good on it.

Strange, too, that this same book that has made its author and the place where he lived famous in Edinburgh, and known in many other lands, should be so little in demand. London Public Library has two copies of it, and the report is that "Wealth of Nations" is seldom called for. Every student of politics, economics or every-day problems should read it.

Now That the Pay List is Published.

The publication of the salary lists of the various civic departments has created not even a flutter. They are contained in the city year book, and the interest in the whole affair can be judged to some extent by the fact that up to date only 61 of these books out of 1,000 printed have been disposed of. Fifty cents is charged this year, whereas they used to be given away. There should be a 10-cent sale, otherwise the city will find itself stuck with a lot of old literature on its hands.

A fairly careful survey of the figures would lead to the conclusion that civic employees, in any or all departments, are not overpaid. Out of 197 employees of the public utilities commission, for instance, there are only 18 men receiving $2,000 a year or over, and of the 18 only three have $3,000 or over. Operators, clerks, linemen, meter readers, wiremen, etc., are not in any sense of the word overpaid; if anything, there are some cases where an upward readjustment might be in order.

The London & Port Stanley Railway Commission, with a total of 250 on its pay list, including managers, engineers, agents at various points, shows only 12 men over $2,000 a year, and of these only two at $3,000 or over. All others in all of the various departments of an electric road the size of the L. & P. S. are not drawing large pay envelopes. In fact, the average pay seems to be quite a modest affair.

The same thing holds true in other civic departments. Men who are called upon to keep up homes at from $4 to $4.50 per day income cannot have very much left over. If the family is large, or if there is sickness during the year, the problem of existence in these homes must be a serious affair.

The publication of the salary lists has at least shown that much.

Note and Comment.

A lot of families get into trouble because they have eight-cylinder tastes and a four-cylinder income.

Well, if hot weather comes again, Hon. Howard Ferguson can at least give each of his 70 members a tree to sit under.

Department heads at Ottawa do well this year with increases of $2,000 per year for ten of them. Salary jumps of $2,000 per year in the government service should be few and far between.

The women of Baltimore are on strike, for cheaper bread following a reduction in the price of flour. But how many of these women can take a bag of flour, get out the old board and turn out a good loaf of homemade bread?

A U. S. customs officer made $4.25 a day, and yet drove a limousine and owns considerable real estate. He is in jail now for accepting a $20 bribe to evade customs duties. Limousines and real estate holdings do not grow on $4.25 per day.

Only a few more June days and we shall put away that fine phrase, "the bride looked charming as she entered the room leaning on the arm of her father." She was assisted by . . . presents costly and numerous testified to the esteem . . . left for points east."

STILL SAFE AND HUMAN.

(From the Los Angeles Times.)

Newspaper inquiry centered upon the sweet girl graduates that 70 per cent of the college girls still consider matrimony as their best career. As between the home and an independent life in the business world 70 per cent prefer the home with its children and lace curtains. Some figure that they can have both children and a career, but a majority of them prefer home life to a career—if they must decide between them. Asked what they thought was wrong with the average young man, a good many of the fair graduates announced that he was all right. To those who found fault the girls agreed that failing was his conceit. Most of the girls agreed that there was too much conversation about flappers. They said that the social flapper was not vastly different from their grandmothers at the same age. A jazzy gasoline environment may have colored her life, but her heart was the same. The responses to the questionnaires would indicate that the college girl is still safe and sane.

FEAR NOT DEATH.

Them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.—Hebrews ii, 15.

To be afraid of death is to live like a slave, and to die many times a year.

A friend once begged Woodrow Wilson not to risk his life by marching in a long procession through an excited city—"the country cannot afford to lose its president."

Like a flash came his answer: "The country cannot afford to have a coward for president."

It is a strange fact, and worth noting, that those who have most to do with death—like doctors and nurses and ministers—are not much perturbed by it.

They are of the same mind as Cato, in Cicero's dialogue On Old Age: "Satisfy the call of duty and disregard death."

Better still is the saying of St. Paul: "Neither death nor life shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord."

WHAT SCIENCE NOW DOES TO BANISH SCIATICA DANGERS

By ROYAL S. COPELAND, M.D.,

United States Senator from New York. Former Commissioner of Health, New York City.

One of the great nerves of the body is called the "sciatic nerve." It runs along the back part of the thigh, from the hip down to the foot. It has many branches which supply the buttocks and all this region as well as the parts down the back of the leg.

This painful disease is often associated with rheumatism and gout. On this account, "sciatica"—inflammation of the sciatic nerve—is often called "sciatic rheumatism." As a matter of fact, its causes are not unlike the usually accepted causes of rheumatism. Cold, exposure to the weather and chilling due to getting wet or any other reason, will bring on an attack.

The pelvis is that part of the skeleton forming the hips and the prominent bony middle part of the body. Within its cavity are the bladder and rectum and, in women, other important structures. The sciatic nerve has its origin inside the pelvis, therefore, certain disturbances or diseases here may produce sciatica. A tumor, for instance, may press upon this sensitive structure and produce pain in all the parts supplied by the sciatic nerve. Likewise, rectal disease or constipation may produce the symptoms of sciatica.

The chief symptom of the trouble is pain. This may be in the hip, down the leg and even into the foot. It may be constant, or come and go. It may come on in sudden violent attacks. It may be cutting or grinding or burning and is usually worse at night.

Walking sometimes increases the pain because the structures are so very tender. The victim may walk on the toes or bend the knees to escape pressure on the nerve. All the symptoms may last for months and even years. After an apparent cure there may be other outbreaks.

Rest in bed in the severe cases is essential to relief. The leg should be kept quiet and not applications made. The acute pain may be controlled sometimes by rubbing on menthol-vaseline or capsaicin vaseline, followed by the application of hot wet cloths.

In severe cases, injections of various substances have been made into the nerve itself. This treatment is resorted to after other measures have failed.

The condition of the pelvis and all its organs must be determined and proper correction made.

Needless to say, attention should be given to the bowels. If the bowels cause you to suspect them resort to the X-ray and have appropriate dental treatment. Any focus of pus infection must be removed. Correct the constipation or other intestinal abnormality. Have plenty of fresh air and lots of sleep. Business or domestic worries must be removed by some sort of magic, and the patient must be given every aid, physical and mental, in order to be restored to comfort and health.

ANSWERS TO HEALTH QUESTIONS.

MOTHER. Q.—My little 6-year-old boy grinds his teeth while sleeping. Will you please advise me the cause of this condition?

A.—I would suggest that you watch the child's stools for worms. For full particulars kindly send a self-addressed, stamped envelope and restate your question.

A. M. Q.—Will you please tell me if it is harmful to take any and also what conditions it is used for?

A.—This drug should only be taken under the direction of a physician, and for a definite condition.

MRS. R. J. G. Q.—Will you please tell me if a child who has had whooping cough can get it a second time?

A.—No, it is not likely that a child who has once had whooping cough will have it a second time, as one case usually confers immunity, although a cough like whooping cough may occur in some individuals.

A. S. Q.—I am a man 60 years old and I am getting hard of hearing. Will you please tell me what I can do to improve this condition?

A.—You should consult an ear specialist or apply at a hospital clinic for an examination. After the cause of your trouble has been definitely determined suitable treatment will be outlined.

Dreams

By ANNE CAMPBELL. Sometimes you have a troubled dream. Or waken with a pain. And when I lift you up you seem To be all right again.

I sit and for a moment hold You closely to my breast. And kiss your precious head of gold. And lay you back to rest.

So comforting your mother's arms, You sleep the whole night through. And waken when the first bird charms With carols sung for you.

When you grow up, and troubles dare Your restless sleep to break. May one who loves you, dear, be there To heal you for my sake!

Looking Abroad

By DOUGLAS McREYNOLDS.

The proud record of "Uncle Joe Cannon," known as the "Father of the House of Representatives," because of his long service at Washington, which extended over 24 terms, not continuous, as he was not elected to the 53rd and 52nd congresses, is surpassed in years by two members of the British House of Lords, who by the way, each celebrated his birthday last month, for the Earl of Coventry, who has reached the ripe age of 85, has been a member of the upper house of parliament for 64 years, and the Earl of Listowel has sat in the same chamber for 54 years, or he has been a member of the House of Lords by hereditary right for 50 years.

George William, ninth Earl of Coventry, called "The Father of the House of Lords," has also been nicknamed "The Grand Old Man of the British Turf," because for years he has been a landmark at all the principal race meetings. He is also dean of the Jockey Club, of which institution he has been a member for 68 years. Even now, at his great age, he is hale and hearty, and eight years ago celebrated his golden wedding to Lady Blanche Craven, daughter of the second Earl of Craven.

Lord Coventry was a great personal favorite with the late Queen Victoria and King Edward, and was connected with the royal household during many years as master of the royal hunt and as captain of the Corps of Gentlemen-at-Arms. His principal country seat, Croome Court, noted for its rich collection of priceless paintings and art treasures, is situated in one of the most enchanting spots of Worcestershire, and overlooks an extensive and thickly wooded park, and has splendid gardens that originally were designed by the famous landscape gardener of the eighteenth century, "Capability" Jones.

Lord Coventry is a lineal descendant of that John Coventry who was a close friend and one of the executors of the will of that famous Lord Mayor of London, Richard Whittington, who left him the celebrated cat for its trouble, which cat is the only one of its race to have a statue erected in its honor in one of the oldest churches in the city of London. Coventry succeeded Whittington as lord mayor in 1426.

In England there is a statute known as the Coventry act, which provides for the punishment of false assertions concerning the personal honor of the sovereign. This statute owes its origin to one of Lord Coventry's ancestors, who dared to utter some disagreeable truths about the disappointed Charles II. from his place in the House of Lords. Members of the King's party remonstrated with him for "casting reflections upon the conduct of his majesty," whereupon Lord Coventry aggravated matters by declaring that "the King's conduct is so dark that it is impossible to cast reflections upon it."

When the Merrie Monarch was informed of his subject's flagrant lese majeste, he had his brave waylay the outspoken peer and cut off his nose. Whereupon the King rather brutally remarked: "In the future Lord Coventry will not be able to poke his nose into my affairs."

The present Earl of Coventry enjoys the rather unique distinction of being father-in-law to three American women, since three of his six sons chose their brides from the United States. The oldest, and the heir to the earldom, George William Coventry, Viscount Deerhurst, married Virginia Bonyng, adopted and step-daughter of the late California millionaire, Charles William Bonyng. Miss Bonyng was really Virginia Daniels, her mother being the widow of William Daniels when she married her second husband.

Some years before she wedded the heir to Lord Coventry, Miss Bonyng was betrothed to Viscount Cantaloupe, eldest son of Lord de la Warr. The reason for the breaking of this engagement was never given, and some time later Lord Cantaloupe was drowned off the coast of Ireland during a fearful storm, when his yacht was wrecked. Viscount Deerhurst was a comparatively poor man until he inherited an unexpected fortune from his Aunt Bettine, Countess of Wiltown. Lady Elizabeth Craven, daughter of the second Earl of Craven, and the sister of Lord Deerhurst's mother. This fortune, which amounted to something like $3,000,000, included Egerton Lodge, near Melton Mowbray, a beautiful ivy-clad place in the midst of the hunting district.

TO THE EDITOR.

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE TORONTO GLOBE.

As a constant reader of the Globe for many years, I would like to ask you some questions:

1. Is the Globe wet or dry?

During the campaign just closed, the Globe lined up with the "wets" against Drury, and now today, I see the Globe has faced right about and is advising the temperance people to organize a fight to undo what the Globe helped to do on June 25.

2. Is the Globe trying to ride four horses—the "wet" and the "dry"?

3. Is the Globe Grit or Tory?

I noticed Ferguson's meetings featured on the front page with large two-column headings, while Hay's meetings were relegated to some obscure place on the second or third page. We also had the spectacle of the Globe backing Beck against a Liberal candidate, all of which would make us conclude that the Globe is a Tory paper.

4. Is the Globe trying to ride four horses—the Grit and Tory and the wet and dry?

5. Is the Globe aware of this: The fight for "government control" was fought and won on June 25?

ROYAL WELCOME TO FERGUSON BY TOWNSMEN

FERGUSON IS GREETED BY THOUSANDS ON HIS VICTORIOUS TRIP HOME

Referring to Weather (?) Premier Designate Declares "A Little Drop Once in a While Wouldn't Do Anyone Any Harm"—First Cabinet Choice, Charles McCrea, Introduced—Prominent Conservatives, Including Meighen, Gather at Kemptville.

MANY ASCRIBE VICTORY TO LEADERSHIP

Special to The Advertiser.
Ottawa, June 29.—(Train story from The Advertiser's staff correspondent written on the victor's train)—Two days ago the Hon. G. Howard Ferguson was called to Government House and requested to form a cabinet and take over the administration of the province's affairs. Yesterday he returned to the people who nineteen years have stood behind him politically and who last Monday returned him once again as their representative in the provincial legislature. But it was the people of the province who placed him in the premier's chair.

It was therefore to be expected that the day allotted for Kemptville's celebration should be shared by many others of his supporters throughout the province. Those through whose territory he passed seized the opportunity to say with cheers and deputations what they had already said with votes at the commencement of the week.

Mr. Ferguson's own followers are ascribing victory with loyal generosity to his personal ability and leadership. That the leader of the Conservatives has succeeded in inspiring in his adherents a feeling of admiration and affection was made abundantly clear by the series of deputations which greeted him at almost every stop made by the C. P. R. train which bore him eastward. The very train crew seemed anxious to excel themselves, and it is whispered that Mr. Ferguson had no better welcome in the late afternoon than these same railroad men who know him personally as a "real good fellow."

Liberals Turn Out.
Even the enemy turned out to express generous appreciation of the stern but just leader. W. J. Bragg, member-elect for West Dundas, was waiting at Bowville with a delegation and, following the example of their cheering though beaten leader, they paid their liberal compliments to the victor. An interesting little scene was enacted at the West Dundas Lake station, where some twenty railroad workers had gathered to give three cheers for the premier-elect. A few minutes later a construction gang's outfit and a friendly exchange of greetings took place.

All the way along Mrs. Ferguson kept adding to her collection of flower-tributes to her share in the glory. It remained for Smiths Falls, the last stop prior to the entering of the province, to give a truly regal touch to the ceremony. As the train came to a standstill a crowd of the hundred surged to the platform and the hero of the day made his way to the center of the celebration. The hero of the day made his way to the center of the celebration. The hero of the day made his way to the center of the celebration.

Promises Visit.
"A sigh of relief has gone up all over the province," Mr. Ferguson declared, "at the promised return to a stable government." He apologized for his inability to speak at Smiths Falls during the campaign—he was needed more west of Toronto. He, however, promised to come there soon and discuss with the people the problems that confront the new administration, and some of the plans he had in mind for dealing with them. He introduced his first ministerial choice, Charles McCrea, as fine a type of a man as one could wish to see in charge of the department of mines. Mr. McCrea in a brief address lauded his leader, and asserted that no other man living could have carried the party to such a victory. Only once before had such a defeat been ministered to a government of the province.

It was here also that a dainty little miss in spotless white presented Mrs. Ferguson with a gorgeous bouquet of white carnations. The parlor car was by this time assuming the character of a flower shop's exhibition. A considerable gathering, when the train started to depart without him. This entailed an abrupt end to his speech and a hasty drive for the end of the car. Active yet, Mr. Ferguson gained the steps and was speeded on his way by cheers no less hearty because the speech was nipped in the bud.

Reach Grenville.
By the time Grenville County was reached the sun was sinking low in the sky. The rain which had intermittently pursued the returning native was for a while in suspension, and the horizon took on a wonderful blood-red hue. The great ball of fire sank majestically out of sight, leaving the field to another son, a son of the province, a son of a political father. Kempville, son of a political father. Kempville, son of a political father. Kempville, son of a political father.

doorway, a cheer that leaves nothing to the imagination breaks from high a thousand throats. Premier Ferguson has come home!

Mount Platform.
Hon. Mr. Ferguson and his party, members-elect from neighboring ridings, Hon. Mr. Meighen and his wife, mounted on a speaker's platform. The electric light made the drizzling rain seem like hanging wisps of silver wire. They shone on a thousand people huddled beneath umbrellas, on bandmen hugging their instruments against their uniforms, on a circle of motionless cars, on a bare-headed speaker.

A. Langstaff, vice-president of the Grenville Liberal-Conservative Association, began the addresses. "We have," said he, "in our new premier, a man of integrity, a man of ability, a man who will guard the finances and other interests of the province in a jealous way, a man who has all the qualifications necessary for the high office to which he is called."

Ferguson Speaks.
"G. Howard" stepped forward to speak. Such a hush fell over the assembly that the rain could be heard patter on the planks of the platform. "Friends and fellow citizens," began Mr. Ferguson. "I have experienced many proud moments in my life, but this is by far the proudest. Never before have I experienced such feelings as I have tonight, and I find myself unable to express adequately my appreciation of the wonderful welcome extended to me. I want to thank this rising for the splendid work that was put on in my absence for the effort which rolled up such a magnificent majority last Monday."

Mentions Cabinet.
Mr. Ferguson's cabinet will be composed, he said, of men of well-tried ability, whose names, when they become public, will command respect throughout the province. Mr. Ferguson said he had the opportunity of running in more than one northern Ontario riding and in Ontario, and he declared "so long as I remain in public life I shall stay with the people who stayed by me."

Referring to the inclement weather, which had driven many of his audience to seek shelter beneath the family umbrella, the premier-designate quoted a saying of Sir James Whitney to the effect that "a little drop once in a while wouldn't do anyone any harm." His hearers might perhaps be excused for regarding more than one meaning into this palatable double entendre.

Having introduced his first cabinet choice, Charles McCrea, Mr. Ferguson referred to the galaxy of successful candidates around him on the platform. "I asked these men to be with me tonight in order to demonstrate the splendid type of representatives that I shall have sitting behind me in the legislature."

Ventures Prophecy.
In an analysis of the contributory causes of victory, he laid stress on the solidarity of action of the Conservative party in the house during the past three and a half years. He ventured to prophesy that the provincial success of the Conservative party was but a forerunner of the Dominion-wide victory that will no doubt occur as soon as the people have a chance to express themselves.

"The people of Canada are imbued with the advantages of constitutional practices. They will not tolerate an organization masquerading under a popular name to depart a hairs-breadth from the historical path of all British nations. The Drury administration had received a richly-deserved condemnation at the hands of the people."

At the conclusion of his address, Mr. Ferguson was presented with a loving cup, while Mrs. Ferguson and Mrs. Meighen were presented with roses.

Child Leads Rush.
"All right!" shouted a youngster, and led the rush of children. In addition to the Right Hon. Arthur Meighen and Charles McCrea, the following Tory stalwarts graced the platform: Aaron Sweet, successful candidate in Dundas, where W. H. Casselman was defeated; E. R. Steadman of South Lanark; Senator Webster, Sam Charters, M.P., A. E. Honeywell, unsuccessful contender in West Ottawa, W. J. Garland, M.P., N. D. Larmouth, Ottawa; H. P. Hill, ex-M.P.P.; A. H. Acres, Hon. R. H. Grant, victor in Carlton; Andrew Grey, winner in the Leeds sector; Dr. H. A. Clark, from North Bruce; J. C. Mulligan, A. C. Casselman, ex-M.P., Grenville, who made way for the federal Conservative leader.

Rev. R. J. Dumbille made the presentation speech, and handed Mr. Ferguson the silver cup, with the comment that it was brimful, not of liquid refreshments, but of love, esteem and affectionate regards. Whilst claiming his freedom from political bias, he confessed to a leaning towards the Tory party. He certainly voiced the sentiments of his flock in eloquent fashion. Miss K. B. Johnston presented addresses of welcome to Mrs. Ferguson, and Mrs. C. Adams read the address of welcome to Mrs. Meighen.

Mrs. Ferguson made a neat reply, in which she assured everybody that nobody knew better what a wonderful man was George Howard than herself.

When the crowd scattered to celebrate in the "wide open" town, the premier-elect and his wife returned to their home on the 30-acre farm.

REPORT SAFE ARRIVAL OF TREVASSA SECOND BOAT
Associated Press Despatch.
London, Eng., June 29.—The owners of the British steamer Trevassa, which went down in the Indian Ocean a month ago, received a cablegram from Mauritius Island today, announcing the arrival of the vessel's second lifeboat, with sixteen men aboard, at Souillac, South Mauritius. The other lifeboat, in which were the captain and sixteen members of the crew, was yesterday reported to have reached the island after a trip of more than three weeks, during which the men subsisted on condensed milk and one biscuit a day.

Says City Labor Unworried By Defeat of Stevenson
Ald. Colbert Believes Big Interests of London Supported Beck Candidature For Own Protection.

Ald. John Colbert, president of the London Street Railwaymen's Union, and prominently identified with the London Labor Party, stands undismayed after the defeat of Dr. Stevenson.

As a matter of fact he does not consider that labor has received a setback, as it were; either in London or throughout the province. In this city he concludes that the big bulk of the workers just ignored the election and stayed away from the polls. "For some reason or other they just wouldn't get behind Dr. Stevenson," Ald. Colbert says, "and the only thing to gather from that is that he did not suit them."

"That is what I believe actually happened, the workers did not vote, except possibly a few who were led in the other direction. I was out that day, and took notice that after 1 o'clock, when we expected the big vote from the carshops, that they did not come to the polls. They stayed away. As a matter of fact, Sir Adam did not receive the vote that he did in 1919, but their organization was out working early, and from what I could see a big women's vote was polled all day."

ADVISES RELAYING RICHMOND STREET IF PEOPLE WANT
Mayor Favors Paving Thoroughfare This Year Before Other Enterprises.

WORST IN LONDON
Street Railway Company States Willingness to Co-operate in Project.

Re-lay Richmond street if the people of that thoroughfare are willing before any of the other proposed paving enterprises are undertaken is a suggestion that meets with the whole-hearted approval of Mayor Wenige, as well as the street railway employees.

Complete Re-laying Steel.
The company has practically completed the re-laying of steel on Oxford street, between Richmond and Adelaide streets, a portion of the next move by the city council. The fact has been emphasized that while the city council has directed the paving of Richmond street from Fullerton to Oxford streets, Oxford street, Central avenue, east from Richmond street, a portion of the whole street, and so forth, all this work cannot be accomplished this summer.

In view of this the proposal has been made to undertake the Richmond street project first, as this is the worst piece of pavement in the entire city and subject to the most traffic. "That would be my idea," Mayor Wenige asserted. "That is the main artery and should be done."

R. G. Ivey, vice-president of the London Street Railway, impresses that the company is only too willing to co-operate with the city in the general interest of the community. He extends the hope, however, that if the city proposes to undertake this task first, the program should be so arranged in order that the street shall not be torn up during Old Boys' Week, early in August.

All Right for Re-union.
"Let them outline just what work they can finish by August 1," he suggests, "and then this main thoroughfare will be all right for Old Boys' Week. For one year at least let us not have the streets torn up when there will be so many visitors in town. We have had a reputation for that during the past 20 years."

VISIONS PROBLEM
LIKELY TO ARISE
ON HALIBUT PAC

London Times Asserts Consideration by Imperial Economic Conference Necessary.

DOMESTIC TREATY
Claims Action Important Episode in History of British Empire.

Associated Press Despatch.
London, June 29.—Commenting on Canada and the Empire, the Times today says that the debate in the House of Commons at Ottawa on the government's resolution with reference to the halibut treaty added little to the arguments already advanced for and against the line of action now recognized as an important episode in the constitutional history of the British Empire.

The recognition of the national status of Canada, whether by a foreign power or the British people, does not depend upon questions of procedure, declares the newspaper. "The statement of the Right Hon. MacKenzie King, prime minister, that the halibut treaty had been of an imperial character the government would have expected Sir Auckland Geddes, the British ambassador at Washington, to sign it, is a definite answer to most of the criticism of his motives. When the statement is analyzed, however, it can hardly be said to dispose of many of the serious problems raised."

"When does a treaty cease to be of 'purely domestic concern,' and become 'of an imperial character'?" the Times asks. It is a very embarrassing question which thus arises, as a Dominion which sought imperial assistance in enforcing a domestic treaty might discover to its cost. Whatever lesson may be read into the episode, during the debate on the treaty, that he has no fear of Canada's continued loyalty to the British crown; it is possible to read the suggestion that the forces opposed to the Conservative resolve are the danger of offending the patriotic sentiments of the great majority of the Canadian people."

COUNCIL ALTERS VIEWS ON AUTO FOR OFFICIALS

Works Board Recommends the City Engineer Be Furnished With Machine.

It is not so long ago that Mayor Wenige advocated the cancellation of automobiles for all city officials. This was an expenditure which could be quite easily eliminated, he argued. Several members of the council agreed with him and prepared to follow his lead.

What a difference a few days make. Some of them have evidently changed their mind about it, as a clear majority of the board of works has ruled that City Engineer New be furnished with a machine in order that he will be better able to attend to his duties which carry him each day to various and distant sections of the city.

A recommendation to this effect, the board learned today, goes forward to the city council for approval next Monday. Although the city engineer has been in the city several months he has not had a city car at his disposal for business purposes, having had to depend upon haphazard service obtainable from the cars assigned to the works department.

This system was far from satisfactory, the engineer advised the board of works. He pointed out that in the absence of Ald. Douglass, explains that it is the idea of his colleagues that the new car be of the coupe type. A closed car would be of much better service to the department than any other, he pointed out.

"Magic" Y. W. C. A. Camp For Girls Now Well Under Way At Port Bruce

Girls Organize Into Tribes and Choose Their Tribal Officers.

Special To The Advertiser.
Port Bruce Girls' Camp, June 28.—Laughter and fun and all the joys of life, friendship and love and tender sympathy, work that brings both hand and brain in play, and chances to serve.

Camp! Word of magic. Laughter and fun and all the joys of life, friendship and love and tender sympathy, work that brings both hand and brain in play, and chances to serve.

For once again, this the fourth season of camp is open at Port Bruce, and everyone acclaims the new name, "Orendaga," well chosen. For does it not mean "Place of Magic"? And is it not magic that has drawn the girls to the new camp center, and made it a place where they should be in extra dish of pudding for the hungry swimmers, or milk in the evening, and always friends and activities planned to make the day speed by on golden wings?

The first camp of the season is for older girls, a small camp, but one already proving very happy in its spirit of comradeship. The election of tribal officers resulted as follows: Orendaga tribe, meaning the Bluebird, for happiness; tribal leader, Miss Hilda Keene; Grace Gibb, secretary; Mena Knowles, Sarnia; sports leader, Eleanor Grant, London.

Other leaders with the camp are: Miss E. V. Jones, camp mother; Miss Mabel Hardie, nurse; Miss Smilie of Toronto, Bible and mission study; Miss Louise Burns and Miss Dorothy Moore, both of Toronto, sports leaders.

Each day is filled with activities, so that all too quickly the happy days pass by, and presently a new camp will be coming in, and the first camp of 1923 will be returning to their homes, feeling that "Camp has shown to me a way so great, so real, so full of things unknown—And yet so sweet and simple, that I own needs must follow, catching from my own visions of all the great things that are."

Already the second camp is full of overflows—and registrations are still coming in. Registrations will be accepted, with the understanding that the director will try to arrange that those who cannot come to a later camp shall be given first consideration, and that otherwise those who can do so will be asked to come to a later camp.

Shouts of "Girls! the mail is in." Oh, there must be something for me. And scrambles to be the first to meet the postman. We wonder how many mothers and fathers and friends at home realize what it is to be a person who has a letter from a girl in a later camp.

THE BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN.

When Mr. Myers of Winston-Salem, North Carolina, stepped into the drug store and asked his storekeeper for the best medicine he had in his store for a woman's ailment, it is any wonder he was handed a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound? Mrs. L. K. Myers in writing of it says: "I had been weak, rundown and had a pain in my left side for a long time so I could not do my work. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound helped me in a short time. I am now able to do all my housework, including washing and ironing, and now I feel fine all the time." As Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound holds the record for benefiting 28 women out of every 100 women who take it, it will pay every suffering woman to try it—Advt.

Simple Way to Have Beautiful Wavy Hair

Lustrous, fluffy, wavy hair plays an important part in the scheme of beauty. A heated iron should not be used to give the desired wavy effect, for it destroys life, lustre and nourishment of the hair. It is far better to use the simple Silmer method, which curls the hair more effectively, more lastingly, and at the same time keeps it beautifully soft, light and glossy. The Silmer method is so simple, and it is such an easy thing to apply the liquid Silmer brush for the purpose. Liquid Silmer may be had at any drug store, and a few ounces will last for months. It is neither sticky nor greasy, and leaves no odor or streaks. This hair will stay in curl even in moist or warm weather. Advt.

TRIBE LEADERS AT PORT BRUCE.

Miss Hilda Keene, leader of the "Orendaga" tribe, and Miss Helen d'Avignon, leader of the "Iriari" tribe, at the Port Bruce camp for girls.

CAMP SOCIAL NOTES.

Miss Barbara Dickson of London spent several days last week with Mrs. William Wonnacott at Port Bruce.

Numerous visitors in search of cool breezes have been attracted to Port Bruce during the last few days, among whom have been Mr. and Mrs. Phillip Sauve of St. Thomas, Mr. Chas. and Mrs. Thompson of Brantford, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Parsons of London and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Smale, and Mr. John Smale of St. Thomas.

All their many friends have been delighted to have the Rev. Jesse and Mrs. Arnpup with them for a few days at Port Bruce. After a serious illness of sleeping sickness, Mr. Arnpup is greatly improved and recovering strength.

The growing popularity of Port Bruce is showing by the building taking place. Extensive work is going on in connection with the old hotel, known as the Prince George. Mr. Simons and Mr. Dunn of Dundas are building a very attractive stuccoed house.

The fishermen have had the wheel of fortune turned in their favor lately. The catches have been good, largely of blue pickerel, herring and perch, with quite a number of catfish and several sturgeon as special attractions.

Miss Bessie McCamus returned yesterday to her home in London, after spending two days at Orendaga, the Y. W. C. A. camp for girls.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Rickman of London are spending the summer at Port Bruce.

Vacurette Suction Cleaner

Men and the Vacurette

Custom associates a woman with the task of keeping the home clean. But men owe it to their wives to lighten that task as much as possible. They gave them many little pleasures and joys BEFORE they were married, then why not AFTER?

The VACUETTE SUCTION CLEANER, the very newest and most advanced development of vacuum cleaners, takes the labor out of keeping the house clean.

Its lightness (only 7½ pounds) makes it child's play to operate.

It will go beneath the davenport or dresser, take out the persistent dust and dirt, leaving the carpet hygienically clean and healthful.

It costs less to buy, costs nothing to operate, and will last a lifetime.

FREE TRIAL

Prove this for yourself by having a Free Trial in your own home at your own leisure. It will convince you of its wonderful effectiveness and in no way obligates you to purchase.

MOTHER GOOSE DOT PUZZLE

What is that which we often return yet never borrow?

"Pussy" was the youngest of five children. She was a scrawny child, much given to weeping. The children, much given to weeping, were talking at the top of their lungs, slammed doors, muddled the halls and littered the furniture with their "things." ran errands for the neighbors and waited cheerfully on their mother.

"Pussy" said mother, "please eat a little of your potato. The doctor said you must not eat so much meat. Eat your vegetables with—"

But Pussy was off her chair and on father's lap and he was stroking her hair and saying "Never mind. Eat your vegetables. Just eat what you like. There, there!"

"Pussy" stand on both your feet. The first thing, Son, kneel down and that foot all out of shape. Stand straight."

"Oo-oo-oo," wept Pussy. "I'm going to tell father that you're all the time scolding me. Oo-oo-oo!"

"Lily Mary," (that was her real name) said the teacher, "put both your feet on the floor and hold your book as I told you. I can't allow you to grow lop-sided."

"Oo-oo-oo," wept Pussy. "I'm going to tell my father on you."

"Indeed," said the teacher grimly. "There's nothing like having something to tell while you're about it. In the meantime, you'd better learn that we have no time for howlers here. The study room is empty. You can have it all to yourself and cry as loud and as long as you wish. Out you go."

Pussy sat in the quiet room and wept a few weeps and then busied herself with the reader she had carried to school. The teacher called her and said: "Have you finished weeping? Are you ready to work with this class?"

"Yes," said Pussy.

Now the weeper went only for father. The teacher had no trouble with her and the brothers and sisters were free from her tyranny and father came home. "That's something," she said.

The best cure for a weeper, one who weeps to an audience is to deprive him of the audience. Give him no sympathy. Withhold the thing he cries for. Hand him a handkerchief. (Copyright, 1923, by Bell Syndicate.)

GOVER-LEVERTON.

A quiet wedding took place at 10 o'clock yesterday morning at St. James' Anglican Church, South London, when Beale Leverton of this city was married to Thomas Gover, also of London. Only the immediate relatives and friends were present.

KEEPING COOL.
Turning from the thought of keeping warm in winter—which yesterday's article on the care of the furnace brought to mind—let's talk today of the more timely need for keeping cool in summer. For some obscure reason, we housewives aren't apt to give as serious attention to warm weather comfort as to cold weather comfort. Yet it is quite as possible to mitigate the long torrid season as to take the sting out of winter's chill.

Of course it is not inexpensive to do this. What a juvenile member of travagance to indulge in electric fans in living-room, dining-room and bedrooms, since we all use fewer electric lights in summer, especially since daylight saving came in vogue, and the current used will probably not exceed that consumed in the winter months, when more lamps are used.

With plenty of iced drinks during day and night, an artificial breeze everywhere in the house, frequent shower baths, cooling foods, and tranquil thoughts, the hot humid weeks may be lived through very comfortably. At night keep a half-current fan going gently in one our family calls "coolth" isn't any cheaper than warmth. We expect to pay well for our winter comfort—the furnace itself, coal, and perhaps wood for the fireplace. Why not be willing to buy summer comfort in the way of plenty of electric fans, a capable well-filled refrigerator, and vacuum bottles to preserve cold water throughout the hot nights?

It is not extravagance but economy to keep the ice-box completely filled with ice. The larger the piece the longer it keeps and the better the food keeps also. It is not ex-

At the Movies Last Night

"Minnie"
Marshall Neilan's production, "Minnie," with Leatrice Joy and Matt Moore, was scheduled for the Allen Theatre last night. It missed the train connections yesterday, with the result that it arrived too late for the afternoon performances. Since the substitute was "The Girl From Outside," directed by Rex Ingram from Rex Beach's famous story, "The Lady," the mishap was not entirely unfortunate.

"The Girl From Outside" will always have a place of honorable mention in the annals of film history. One reason is that it set the feet of Cullen Landis in the path of stardom by his excellent work as the "lucky kid." Another is that it was directed by Rex Ingram.

It is at least five years since the picture was new. Granted that movies have made rapid strides scientifically since that day, there are many points in which it might give the lead to even the better class productions of the present time. One striking instance is the selection of types. The fact that it depicts the year 1900 in Alaska prevented it from appearing in any way old-fashioned.

From the point of view of many at the afternoon showing, who had come prepared for something good, it was not entirely a disappointment. "Minnie" was expected to arrive by the evening. American reviewers have called it one of Neilan's best. Several made flattering mention of the appeal in the role taken by Matt Moore.

"Success."
The value of a man's reputation, the ease with which it is lost and the difficulty in ever regaining it, is shown in the feature picture, "Success," to be seen at Loew's Theatre the remainder of the week.

A story full of human interest and pathos, together with a little comedy to lighten the more serious situations, the picture is one which attracts and holds the spectator's attention until the final scene when the denouement is most unexpected.

The story deals with the stage and without anything vulgar or untoward unfolds a story of human life. The actor, Barry Carleton, played by Brandon Tynan, reaches almost to the pinnacle of success, but then considers that he is alone in his class.

With this idea he starts to forget the finer things in life, believing that his reputation will sustain him at the top of the three. From step to step down the ladder he goes until at the end he is merely the dresser of a younger man who plays the same Shakespearean role. How Carleton, separated from his wife, meets his daughter after not having seen her for 15 years, and how she inspires him to do the utmost that is in him when an emergency arises, is one of the features of the film. Jane Reynolds, Carleton's actress wife, is played by Naomi Childers, and the portrayal is well-deserving of praise. Sam Lewis, a Hebrew theatrical promoter, furnishes the lighter touch, especially when he considers Mr. Shakespeare should be told to interpolate a high kicker and a few dances into his plays. The fear that he will lose his money by venturing it in Shakespearean plays also is amusing.

The vaudeville, while not as good as some that has been seen here, is very entertaining. Whiting and Dunn, with an offering of songs and patter introduced some novel musical hits into their act which took well. Hayden and Harrington, just a couple of "nuts, lolly-pops, sheiks, cat-masques or whiffnpoofs," raised several laughs with their peculiar efforts at song. The rhyming of the alphabet was also good. Hamlin and Mack have an act that is unusual and picturesque, embracing singing and dancing. The feature of their act is the song "The Ghost of the Gramophone."

The bill is concluded with a Charles Murray comedy, "The Pill Pounders," and a scenic.

"One-Eighth Apache."

Four pictures are being shown at the Patricia the remainder of the week and each is well worth seeing. The feature, "One-Eighth Apache," starring Roy Stewart and Kathleen Kirkham, is a story of the out-of-doors and the love of a cultured woman for a man of the open spaces. It is full of action from beginning to end and of unexpected situations. The plot is of a conspiracy between a man who has murdered the hero's father, and an Apache Indian, to brand the hero as part Indian and as such spoil his career. How this works out and how the scheme is found and spoiled, keeps the interest right up to the last curtain. A real fight, man to man, is introduced. The scenes taken in a snow blizzard are most realistic, it making one cool to look at the wintry scenes. The end shows the woman forsaking the comfort of the more effete regions and joining her man in "God's Country."

Neely Edwards and Bert Roach are co-stars in an amusing comedy vehicle, dealing with the prevalent craze for spiritualism and mediums. A Mutt and Jeff cartoon drew roars of laughter from the audience, it being one of the best of this series which has yet appeared on the local screen.

SYNDICATE GOLF.

The American temperament would appear to be more suited to gambling than that of other nationalities, and original ideas have resulted from the custom of "having something on." For instance, how many can know the meaning of the expression, "Pits and Putts?"

This form of gambling must prove very expensive at times, as it means that every time your ball finds a bunker you pay your opponent the unit and a similar amount for every unsuccessful attempt at recovery. On the putting green every putt above the customary allowance of two on each green costs you the unit, but it is here also where you can "make a hit" as you receive a unit for each stroke you save on the green. Good approaching and holing off the approach may be a source of income when the remainder of one's play is at fault.

Of all the ways of scoring that are adopted for gambling purposes, "syndicate golf" must be the most ridiculous.

Any number of players from three upwards can take part in a game. Each contributes a unit to the "kitty" at every hole, but the amount held by "her" is only paid out when a player wins a hole right from all the other participants. To show what a ludicrous game this can become, it is only necessary to point out that two players out of seven (which is not an unknown number of players in a syndicate game) may play perfect golf for seventeen holes and have a hole in the eighteenth, one of the remainder, who has not previously played a good hole, may find the bottom of the tin with his tee shot. He wins the entire amount contributed to the "kitty" which, taking one shilling as the unit, has by this time amounted to six guineas.

Gamblers are born, and I personally have no regrets that this is not one of my weaknesses. It is sufficiently thrilling and pleasing to me to hit the ball as I intend to, it is practice or a match. But to those who must have further excitement may I say "beware of overdoing it, and do not sacrifice a good game for the sake of a few Bradburys." Also, beware of the inveterate gambler and the class who suggest doubling up at

Mothers and Their Children

STRAWBERRY FOAM.

One Mother Says:
My children delight in taking turns at the egg beater while making a dessert they like, called strawberry foam. Into a large, deep bowl they put a pint of ripe strawberries, a cup of granulated sugar and the white of one egg. Then they beat it briskly for fifteen or twenty minutes. This makes enough to serve eight or ten persons.

The dainty, economical soap for dainty fabrics

PRINCESS SOAP FLAKES

In every home, in every laundering, there are delicate fabrics, dainty garments to be washed. Now they can be beautifully cleaned without injury to material or harm to lovely coloring. Thousands of careful women manage it easily, simply, by using the pure white, curly PRINCESS SOAP FLAKES—made by PALMOLIVE.

Crepes, satins, silks—sheer voiles, fine batistes and gingham—expensive cretonnes; they come from washing with renewed brilliance and beauty. PRINCESS FLAKES are economical in two ways: They give longer life to fabrics; and, being pure, unadulterated soap, they save on soap cost.

They give quick, creamy suds that dissolves dirt quickly and thoroughly. Splendid for the washing machine; splendid, in fact, for every laundry and household use.

In handy one-pound packages or bags. Order some today. Save by using them.

Home Bank Maintains High Position.

The annual meeting of the shareholders of the Home Bank of Canada was held at the head office in Toronto Tuesday, June 26. The statement for the year's operations ending May 31 last shows that the bank while experiencing the general narrowing of business activities has fully maintained its position. The deposits remain practically stationary, at $22,151,770, a contraction of current account deposits being more than offset by the increase in savings account deposits. There is

MEN AND HORSES

How closely related is man to the more intelligent of the animals is seen in many of the ailments to which both are prone and the remedies to which they answer.

Doctors and veterinarians are oftentimes surprised to learn of the similarity of their methods of handling the ailments of man and beast.

Sprains, burns, scalds, scratches and many other minor injuries, many every day ailments, too in men and animals take the same course, and both answer immediately to the same treatment—Absorbine Jr.

Absorbine was first discovered by a very close student of the horse, W. F. Young, and by him, devoted to its use. Its very exceptional benefits, however, were promptly seized upon by the human race and, in a milder form, the preparation is sold all over the continent today as Absorbine Jr. It is used for men, women and children everywhere as a positive germicide—a germ killer—and a prompt and certain healer of all hurts. It is useful not only for all the purposes served by ordinary liniments and embrocations, but as a mouth-wash and for anything else where a germicide is needed. Don't wait until you need it. Get it in the house today. $1.25 at your druggist's.

AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE SHAREHOLDERS.
In accordance with sub-sections 19 and 20 of section 86 of the Bank Act, 1912, I beg to report as follows: The foregoing balance sheet has been examined with the books and vouchers at the Head Office, and with the certified returns from the Branches, and in accordance therewith, I have obtained all needed information from the officers of the Bank, and, in my opinion, the transactions coming under my notice have been within the powers of the Bank, and the cash has been checked and the securities of the Bank verified, at its chief office, both on the 31st of May, 1923, and also at another time during the year. The cash and securities of one of the Branches have also been checked, and in each case they have agreed with the entries in the books of the Bank with regard to the cash, and, in my opinion, the above balance sheet is properly drawn up so as to show a true and correct view of the state of the Bank's affairs, according to the best of my information and the explanations given to me, and as shown by the books of the Bank.

FARMER'S HOME IS DEVASTATED BY THE CYCLONE

Livestock In the Stables Is Still Buried In the Wreckage.

GOLDIE CONSULTED
Special to The Advertiser.

Guelph, June 29.—So extensive was the damage caused by the cyclone which struck this city and district on Monday that many individual cases of damage are only now becoming known.

The home of Mr. John Dyson, a couple of miles from the city, between Brampton and York roads, was laid flat. Up to the present Mr. Dyson has been unable to get his stock out of the stables which were buried in the ruins, but is keeping them nourished by carrying in feed and water.

Mr. W. Sharples, milkman, in the same neighborhood, had just returned home after polling his vote when the storm broke. He did not take time to put his car into the shed, but ran for the house. On the way he saw his windmill fall across the path, and incidentally there has been much loss in this way generally. Next all the posts on his veranda were swept away but one, which still supports the roof from the losses they sustained.

A very large elm tree at the Beaver Meadow, near Mr. Moore's, about three miles from Guelph, was uprooted and fell across the Eramosa road. Captain Parkinson, who brought to the city the returns from the Four Corners poll, found the road blocked and had to detour. A couple of young men from Rockwood the same night had to turn at Lester's Corners and come in by way of Marden. The tree has since been cut up and the wood cleared.

About 375 trees, large and small, in Mr. W. W. MacAllister's place, Victoria Park, were broken down or uprooted, while the trees about the Camp were untouched.

Mr. Lincoln Goldie, M.P.-elect, had a consultation with a number of farmers at Elora yesterday to discuss some form of government assistance which may enable them to rebuild their barns and otherwise recover from their losses.

STUDENTS' RECITAL DELIGHTS AUDIENCE
Pupils of Clarence E. Gilmour Play and Sing in Cronyn Parish Hall.

A pleasing and thoroughly artistic recital was given in the parish hall of Cronyn Memorial Church last night by pupils of Clarence E. Gilmour. Care in the training of the piano students was evidenced in every number by the sureness of scale playing and the utmost delicacy in the phrasing. Piano pupils taking part were Misses Leota Fawkes, Ruby Stauffer, Florence Whittle, Jean Todd, Marion Whittle, Lily Fawkes, Marjorie Stauffer, Gladys MacMillan, Phyllis Adams and Mabel Humphrey and Masters Claude Parker, Billy Ballard, Sidney King, Harold Robinson, Jack Symons and Messrs. Wilfrid Mawson and Harold Linley.

Kathleen Gibson sang London Ronald's "Down in the Forest"; Irene Whittle, the "Daffodil Song" from Haydn Wood's "Twelve Little Songs of the Year"; and Minnie Robinson, Roger Quilter's lovely "Now Sleeps the Crimson Petal." Each had a voice of exceptional clarity and sweetness.

Master George Tucker, who sang Anne Stratton Miller's "Boats of Mine," surprised and delighted the audience. A large number heard the recital.

EXPECT AGREEMENT.
Associated Press Dispatch.
Paris, June 29.—The end of the Belgian cabinet crisis, as announced in advice from Brussels, will enable the French and Belgian governments to come to an early agreement on the reply to be made to the recent German reparations memorandum, it was said in official circles today.

EXPECT LARGEST CROWD IN HISTORY ON DOMINION DAY

City Railroad Prepares To Carry Capacity Throngs To Port Stanley.

ARRANGE FEATURES

Everybody is going to Port Stanley on Monday next, Dominion Day, and the London & Port Stanley Railway is making preparations for the carrying of the largest crowd in the history of the famous old resort. The program that has been prepared for Dominion Day is certainly the best that has as yet been attempted at the lakeside. Two brass bands, the G. W. V. A. and the First Hussars, has been engaged for the day, and they will render programs of the latest music in concert to be held on the L. & P. S. beach and on Invererie Heights.

The baby show will undoubtedly attract mothers with their babes, not only from London and St. Thomas, but from many other places in Western Ontario. The splendid L. & P. S. orchestra, under the leadership of Prof. Angelo Russo, will be present, and will play a program of appropriate airs during the judging of the babies. A special feature will be the singing of a number of lullabies and sympathetic baby songs by Mr. Cameron Geddes, the famous Canadian vocalist, who comes to Port Stanley direct from the Capitol Theatre, Detroit. There will be a prize for every baby shown, and valuable prizes for those who carry off the honors. Every child that wins a first prize will be entitled to compete for the grand L. & P. S. Western Ontario championship sweepstakes prize of $500 that is being offered by the Northern Life Assurance Company of London. This prize will be awarded by popular applause on Labor Day and means that at the expiration of twenty years the winner will be paid $500 in cash and that from the moment the prize is won, the child will be insured for the amount named in the policy. And it will not cost the parents a cent. It is a fully-paid-up policy and is given as a prize absolutely free.

To Give Many Prizes.
The sports program is an excellent one, with first class prizes for events that will appeal to everyone.

The daylight fireworks will be set off at 6 o'clock with the firing of a royal salute of twenty-one high explosive aerial bombshells in honor of the fifty-sixth anniversary of Canada's birthday as a nation.

At night the L. & P. S. free movies will be shown, when an exceptionally strong bill will be presented. The feature picture will be the sensational film, "The Understudy," and there will also be shown a Christie comedy entitled "O Promise Me," and a Cameo comedy, "Family Troubles."

Don Linden and Cameron Geddes will both be heard at the sing-song, and community singing, which has become such an appealing feature of the L. & P. S. free movies, and will render some pleasing numbers. Russo's orchestra will be usual supply the music.

Tonight there will be a change of bill; the movies. The feature picture will be Gus Edwards' "School Days," with Wesley Barry in the leading role. Two side-splitting comedy films will also be shown. Don Linden will also be heard at the sing-song, and community singing, and the old-time favorite and the latest popular hits will mingle on the program. Speaking of "School Days," the New York Telegram says:

Praise Film.
"Wesley Barry, that much befreckled youthful star of filmdom, wins more admiration from cinema fans and weaves himself still deeper into the hearts of Young America in his latest laughing screen hit, 'School Days.'"

William Nigh wrote the screen version of the stage success made famous by Gus Edwards, and also directed the befreckled Wesley through a host of laugh-provoking antics which are apt to augur badly for the much harassed school matron of today if all the kids start aping Barry in the schoolroom.

The film was given a private showing recently in the ballroom of the Astor Hotel and was voted a "Babe Ruth" in the "laughter league." Admirers of the youthful film star claim that Nigh's screen creation of "School Days" is by far the best picture Barry has been in.

The Cafeteria and Bath-House at both the L. & P. S. and Casino report excellent patronage during the hot weather.

ALD. WATT SAYS A WORD ABOUT "OBSTRUCTIONISTS"

Ald. Peter J. Watt is back in civic affairs, after a few days' visit out of town. And he has a few words of comment concerning "obstructionists" in the city council.

"I see that they are still making a noise," he said. "And I suppose they will keep it up, now that their party was elected. There is one way for those fellows to decide who is right—throw their hats in the ring and try the mayoralty race next December."

As Ald. Watt is a staunch advocate of the proposal to build a new city hall on the McCormick property this year, it is inferred that his advice is directed toward those five councillors who differ from the mayor in this respect.

MR. DRURY WON'T BE THERE.

Mayor Wenige is persistent in his announcement that they will start a new city hall on the McCormick site this summer. "When are you going to lay the cornerstone?" he was asked last night. "August 5," explained the mayor confidently. "Well, Drury won't officiate," volunteered Ald. W. A. Wilson.

City Council Traffic Committee Takes Action Upon Advice of Mayor Wenige—Will Inaugurate Educational Campaign.

All parking of automobiles on Richmond street between York street and Queen's avenue, and Dundas street between Talbot and Wellington streets, both sides, will be prohibited every night after 6 o'clock until midnight.

This unexpected piece of legislation passed at a special session last night of the city council traffic committee upon suggestion by Mayor Wenige. This will solve the congestion in the downtown area, his worship argued, pointing out that there are plenty of other available spots that may be used.

The committee also approved the passage of a bylaw to permit the parking of cars without lights on any night on the market square. The opinion was voiced that this space would care for all the cars on any night.

The mayor's Richmond and Dundas street no-parking proposal did not meet with the entire approval of the committee, however, carrying only with a bare majority of one—Ald. William Wilson, chairman.

Chief of Police Birrell, Police Inspector Lucas, and Police Sergeant Oakley supported the mayor, while Ald. Hayden, Ald. May, C. E. Jarmaine and Ed. Bernard opposed the move, believing that it would not be to the best advantage of the retailers especially.

In response to a query from Mr. Jarmaine it was ruled that "parking" constituted the act of leaving a car unattended. Chief Birrell warned that legislation will yet be forthcoming when it will be illegal to also leave a motor running unattended.

Urges Ten-Minute Limit.
Ald. Hayden questioned whether a ten-minute parking limit in the downtown area would not suffice, but the mayor contended that it would require an army of men to check delinquents. The police representatives on the committee concurred, and related the difficulty encountered now with the one-hour parking limit.

A tie vote developed and Ald. Wilson voted in the affirmative in order that they could try the proposal for an experiment.

During the session Chief Birrell directed attention to the question of lights on parked cars. He pointed out that it was a direct waste for any person to have the front lights lit as well as the rear. There was absolutely no need for the former, he said. Mayor Wenige explained that motorists should invest in the rear parking light on the fender. It was also decided that the police officers on duty at the corner of Dundas and Richmond streets should be equipped with a whistle as a guide for the pedestrians. Whistles are now in use in Detroit and Toronto and the officers will use the same only when occasion demands.

Educational Campaign.
In the same manner the traffic constables will allow or halt the left-hand turn at the main intersection, using his own judgment and when he deems the occasion fitting.

The chief promised that cars would be exercised to protect the owners of cars parked on the market, and explained that officers have long since been on duty in the parking areas for this very purpose and that vast satisfaction had been noted.

Mr. Jarmaine introduced a proposal that the police inaugurate an educational system and this met with the hearty approval of the chief and the police inspectors, who hereafter will leave a note on all parked automobiles where the owner is guilty of a minor infringement of the bylaws. No police court appearance will be forthcoming until two or three warnings have been necessary.

FOUND WONDERFUL RELIEF FROM CONSTIPATION

BY USING

Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills

Constipation is one of the most prevalent troubles the human race is subject to, and is the greatest cause of many of our ailments, for if the bowels cease to perform their proper functions all the other organs will become deranged.

Keep your bowels working gently and naturally by the use of Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills, and thus do away with the constipation and all other troubles caused by it.

Mrs. A. R. Spence, Springhill, N. S., writes: "I have suffered for some time from constipation, and was advised by a friend to try Milburn's Laxa-Liver Pills. After taking a vial of them I have found wonderful relief, and would advise all those who are constipated to give them a trial, for I feel sure they will also receive the same benefit I did."

Price 25c a vial at all dealers or mailed direct on receipt of price by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.—Adv.

Ailing Children Get Well on Laxative Syrup Pepsin

A small dose at bedtime brings relief and laughter by morning

HOSPITAL and doctor's records prove that 75 per cent of human ills has its origin in the intestinal canal, complicated with what is commonly called constipation. Realizing what that figure means, mothers should contrive methods of handling their children while they still control them that will prevent these future dangers. Teach children regularity of bowel movement, and be especially watchful of young girls. Insist on two passages a day until the age of 18, when one is usually sufficient. Give plenty of oranges and apples, plenty of butter because it lubricates the intestines, and encourage the drinking of water.

If you detect restlessness, belching, gas or wind on the stomach, sleeplessness, or lack of appetite, examine the tongue and you will find it coated, accompanied by unpleasant breath. The child is bilious, constipated. According to age, give from one-half to a teaspoonful of Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin, which children never object to taking as they like the taste. By morning the youngster will be well again. Likewise if the nostrils are stuffed up or there is persistent sneezing, a dose of Laxative Syrup Pepsin will break up the fever and cold.

Mr. A. F. Lithgow of Montreal, keeps his family well in that way, and Mrs. E. Whalley of Winnipeg, Man., has been using Laxative Syrup Pepsin for her baby, her mother and herself. Dr. Caldwell's Laxative Syrup Pepsin is a vegetable compound of Egyptian senna and pepsin with agreeable aromatics. The formula, however, is on every package. Druggists have sold it with satisfaction to their customers for over 30 years, and it is now the largest selling family laxative in the world. Buy a bottle today. It will last you for months, and the cost is less than a cent a dose.

MARION BECK IS THROWN FROM HORSE, UNHURT

Grosse Point Hunt Club Is Scene of Two Unique Spills.

Special to The Advertiser.

Detroit, June 29.—Two unique spills in neither of which was the rider injured, thrilled the spectators watching the ladies' hunter event at Grosse Point Hunt Club show yesterday afternoon.

The first spill came when Miss
Marion Beck, daughter of Sir Adam Beck, of London, was thrown into the air by her horse, Fanatic. Miss Beck landed on top of a beam uninjured. She remounted her horse and finished the event.

Just before reaching the second last jump Freckles Sister, ridden by Mrs. T. R. Donovan, balked and threw the rider in a somersault over the horse's head. She landed feet first, uninjured, on the other side of the jump.

Miss Viola Hammond rode two winners in Class No. 9 for horses suitable to become hunters. She rode the winner, Good Will.

Women's Institute was held Wednesday afternoon on the grounds of the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. A. Sinclair.
Dr. Annie Ross, of the McDonald Institute, Guelph, gave an excellent paper on "Institute Work." The following program was rendered:

Piano duet, Misses Melissa Tupper and Irene Guttman; report of year's work, Mrs. George Weston, Sen.;
vocal solo, Miss Marie Mabey; reading, Mrs. J. B. Reid; piano solo, Master Dick Carroll. The social committee served refreshments before the meeting.
