MILLIONS OF MONEY

LOCKED UP IN THE GLACIERS OF THE ARCTIC OCEAN.

Antediluvian Beasts That Live Frozen Waiting the Hand of Man to Mince Them of Vast Fortunes in Ivory Tusks.

Wealth is waiting for the man who shall have courage to essay a certain bold exploit. It is not gold, nor silver, nor yet precious gems, but ivory—the finest ivory in the world.

It exists in which are stored quantities of this valuable substance well nigh inexhaustible. This is no idle tale designed to inflame the human imagination.

It is a cold fact, resting upon indisputable authority. Let the most adventurous spirit take advantage of the information which is given by the famous Lieutenant Schuetze, who was sent by the United States Government to bring back to this country the bodies of De Long and his companions after the Jeannette disaster.

These ill-fated men, it will be remembered, perished of starvation and cold in the Lena delta. The Lena rises in Eastern Siberia and flows to the north into the Arctic Ocean.

To the northeast of its mouth there is a group of islands known as New Siberia. It is on these islands that the ivory mines are to be found.

The Lena, however, has not one, but many mouths. Its delta covers an area of 5000 square miles.

This frozen region was thoroughly explored by Lieutenant Schuetze in his search for the bodies. Later he visited them again, bringing several thousand dollars worth of ivory.

These ivory tusks, which were sent by Uncle Sam. Thus he secured their confidence, and they spoke to him of many things which they never had communicated to any other stranger.

They even told him about the ivory mines and showed him some tusks. They were mammoth tusks. The ivory mines are deposits of the tusks of mammoths that lived in that region thousands of years ago.

All over New Siberia, these huge animals roamed in vast herds. The climate at that time was comparatively mild, but there came a sudden change.

A winter swept over the land—a winter permanent and estimated never again to resign its sway. The mammoths sought shelter in the valleys, where they huddled together until overwhelmed by snowdrifts.

They were finally transformed into solid ice. This ice, composing glaciers, was swept through gorges toward the Arctic ocean, carrying the buried creatures.

Thus buried in ice, the mammoths were likely to be preserved for an indefinite period. Such, in fact, was the result, and to this day it occasionally happens that the thawing of a mass of ice by the short summer sun reveals the carcasses of these huge animals.

Their tusks are now in the Museum at St. Petersburg. The animal was a small one, but the tusks, being only 9 feet high and 16 feet long.

The Siberian natives had come to know Mr. Schuetze well, and told him about the ivory deposits in New Siberia. The islands of the group, they said, were built on mammoth bones.

Subsequent observation by the Lieutenant confirmed this statement. Mammoth ivory, he understood, is more highly valued than any other kind. It is worth $4 a pound in the crude. The tusk of a big fellow will measure 14 feet in length, and will weigh four times as much as the tusk of a large elephant.

The demand for ivory is now supplied to a great extent from Siberia. The mammoth tusks are carried enormous distances overland to reach the nearest railways. This kind of ivory is known as "fossil" ivory, though that is a misnomer.—New York Sun.

Young Benny—Mr. Mashe called this morning, Aunt Louise, and I told him you were out.

Aunt Louise—You naughty boy! What did you say to him? Young Benny—I said you'd been out all night.

Aunt Louise—Why, you wicked, disagreeable child. How dare you invent such horrible falsehoods? You shall speak to your father at once!

Young Benny—Well, I heard papa say you came out last evening and that now you'd be out for good.

The Female Mosquito. It is asserted that only the female mosquito bites. Though it is claimed that the carrier poison, the fact has never been proved; no venom glands have been discovered.

Dom Pedro, Emperor of Brazil, was the first man to have a private car. It cost $100,000 and was built in New York for his use.

George—I wish you were as anxious to have me come back as the return of the umbrella.

She—Why, George, you know I need the umbrella.—Boston, Gazette.

HON. JOSEPH HOWE

SKETCH OF THE CAREER OF NOVA SCOTIA'S FAMOUS SON.

A Monument to Perpetuate His Memory Will Be Erected in Halifax—Success of the Movement—One of Canada's Noblest Sons.

The movement recently started in Halifax to raise a monument to the memory of the late Joseph Howe, Nova Scotia's most illustrious son, is meeting with great success.

Joseph Howe was born on the banks of the Northwest Arm, Halifax, on Dec. 18, 1804, and died in Government House on June 1, 1872, having held the office of Lieutenant-Governor for only a few weeks.

John Howe was engaged in the printing business in Halifax and became Postmaster-General of Nova Scotia. He never accumulated any property, as his son, who always spoke of him with veneration, said that all that he had gave to the poor.

PARTITION OF AFRICA

THE MOST FAMOUS TRIUMPH OF MODERN DIPLOMACY.

Cases of All the War Talk—In May 1884 Germany and Great Britain Fighting Fairly—Carving a Continent.

In recent years the powers of Europe found it to their mutual advantage to come together and reach an agreement on the subject of Africa. Things had become very complicated since the Dark Continent and the rival powers were all at sea as to its limits.

The partition was very unlucky. It led to no end of disagreement. That disagreement has now reached a stage in this row over the Transvaal. No one has alluded to the fact that the powers concerned in the partition, namely, Great Britain, France, Germany, Italy, Spain and Portugal, claimed dominion over the little strip of Republic. It was finally agreed that the Republic should be divided into two parts, but that its foreign relations should be entirely under the control of Great Britain.

EFFECTS OF LA GRIPPE

Very few people have any conception of the deadly effects of a grippé or influenza, which with each recurring winter sweeps over Canada leaving in its trail death and broken constitutions.

Dr. Bryce, the very efficient health officer for Ontario, in his annual report to the provincial government shows that the deaths in Ontario last year from the effects of a grippé for years 1892-93 reached the aggregate of 2,023, a number sufficiently large to make us view the scourge with positive alarm.

On Saturday night last Mr. J. Bolger lost his three fine fat cows. They were devoured by the roving hounds of Vinegar Hill.

At a meeting of the Epworth League and Christian Endeavor Societies of Leeds, Grenville and Dundas, held in Athens on Wednesday and Thursday last, a very interesting and successful session was held.

Said Aesop offered us good terms provided we would give him a prescription for a new medicine.

We said, my friend, we will never live living lend our beautiful physiognomy to head any patent medicine.

In the first place, we would have to adopt a dreadfully sick make-up, which would not possibly do us any good.

Let this answer do for all time to come. We positively refuse to head a medicine either as a healed or sick man.

LOCAL SUMMARY.

ATHENS AND NEIGHBORING LOCALITIES BRIEFLY WRITTEN UP.

Events as Seen by Our Knight of the Pen.—Leon Announcement Noted Right Down.

A Masonic lodge is to be started at Westport.

There is good crossing for sleighs now on the ice bridge between Brockville and Morris-town.

Catarrh can be successfully treated only by purifying the blood, and the one true blood purifier is Hood's Sarsaparilla.

Mr. Stephen Stevens left Brockville Business College last week, having secured a position as book-keeper in Havelton, N. Y. The Old Reliable still leads.

Mr. D. York has given his farm near York's Falls and removed to Athens to give his children the educational advantages afforded by our excellent schools.

A good time is expected at the Combination rink carnival to-night. The Citizens Band will be in attendance, and a number of new features and costumes are being arranged for.

The new grain warehouse at the station here, recently established by W. G. Parish, is doing a large business in hay, oats, bran, shorts, feed and flour. Cash paid for grain.

Several new and second-hand cutters of latest styles for sale at a bargain, and will exchange for hard maple cord or stove wood. Apply to WILLIAM ASKINS, Wm. Layng's old stand, Athens.

The followers of Rev. R. C. Horner in this section this week completed the purchase of two lots in the Nash block, facing on Wellington street, upon which they contemplate erecting a church during next summer. A box is being held this week to draw some of the funds.

In aid of the Lake Elvira appointment of the Methodist church, an oyster supper and concert will be held in the Hard Island school house on the evening of Friday, Feb. 7th. A good time is assured, and all attending will be cordially welcomed. Single tickets, 30c; double, 50c.

Yesterday a couple of veteran sportsmen started out with a subscription list soliciting subscriptions towards the purchase of a boat for the ice at Charleston Lake on some day during the present month. Both of the gentlemen having the lists in charge are energetic and earnest lovers of sport, and undoubtedly by next week the list will be able to announce a good programme of the Charleston ice meeting.

Rev. Mr. Bates, who has been working in the Methodist church here for the past few weeks, is holding revival services in Westport.

J. B. Wight, our enterprising fur dealer, bought a wild cat skin last week. The hide is a very fine specimen of that animal.

A great many are suffering from severe colds, which seem to have become epidemic.

One of our local sports, in the person of Mr. Jos. Stanton, jr., while fishing one day on Devil Lake, under the lee of the dam, fathomed the bottom of the lake with his line. When he had about 90 feet of line played out a huge salmon attached himself to the bait and immediately started off, but it seems Joe and the line in opposite directions and a tug of war ensued. The tender ten-cent line, as it whistled through the water, had to be handled with judgment, but gradually the fish's strength gave out, and the fisherman was able to land his prize. In a few moments the game lay on the ice, our hero wearing a smile of triumph. The salmon tipped the scales at 18 lbs.

TEMPERANCE LAKE MONDAY, Feb. 3.—Our farmers are taking great advantage of the sleighing by hauling wood to Brockville.

The snow makers are doing a rushing business at Mr. T. Earl's. They say if they had a few mud turtles to oil their saw with they would do twice as much in a day.

Mr. Eli Mansell is recovering from the sick list, and is gradually growing.

A new scholar comes every day—the teacher reports.

The family of Mr. W. Smith were the guests of Mr. M. Mansell on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Leader of Sheatown were the guests of Mr. J. Cobey on Sunday last.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Avery spent Sunday last in Athens.

Last Friday night a number of our prominent young folks from Union Valley, Elbo and Plum Hollow passed through here on their road to Caintown, where they had a surprise party and enjoyed a pleasant night.

The great question now is where will be the next?

Mr. E. Earl is going to run a thoroughbred cattle ranch this coming summer.

Mr. G. Burnham chased a silver grey fox for two days last week.

Our wood yard is now ready for the reception of our yearly supply. Those who purpose bringing in wood on account should do so at once.

On account of funds accumulating quickly, will lend money on real estate at the very lowest rates—$12,000 on hand now. Mortgages also purchased.—JOHN CRAWLEY, Athens, Ont.

The power of the landlord to disclaim for rent under a lease based on tenure or service no longer exists. To give a landlord the power to disclaim and thus secure precedence over other creditors it will henceforth be necessary to insert a distraint clause in every lease. The change took place in the statute governing the lease of land and tenant on May 16th 1895.

THE OLDEN TIME CONCERT

The Ladies of Athens Auxiliary Score a Great Success in Their First Entertainment.

When all did so well, it may seem invidious to particularize, but cannot refrain from making special mention of the ideal way in which Mrs. Philabuster played her part. It was a faultless impersonation of a kind hearted, dignified, rather funny old lady, and her manifestations of solicitude for the comfort and enjoyment of her guests were highly amusing.

THE COSTUMES. In anticipating the pleasures of the concert, many looked forward with special interest to viewing the costumes. Such must have more than realized their expectations, for the dresses though ancient in design were rich beyond anything ever before seen on an Athenian stage. Following is a brief summary:

Miss Harrison, grey silk with white lace trimming.

Miss Ethel Arnold, pink silk with white lace drapery.

Miss Irene Malloy was becomingly attired, but in the style of olden times.

Miss Reynolds, brown silk with pink silk fichu.

Miss A. Ross, black silk and white fichu.

Mrs. W. A. Lewis, black silk skirt with blue silk drapery and bodice.

Miss Cameron, black silk skirt with blue silk paniers and bodice trimmed with ostrich feathers.

Miss Lovrin, red and green stock silk, while not trimming on bodice, and ostrich tips in hair.

Mrs. Beach, blue and white plaid silk, with lace fichu and diamond clasp.

Miss Berney, yellow silk dress, black lace paniers, and white ostrich tips.

Miss Gallager, pink silk dress, black bodice, with flower trimming.

Miss Wylie, blue satin dress with black lace paniers.

Miss Davison, grey silk dress with blue lace.

Mrs. Donovan, yellow silk dress with silver pascamenterie.

Mrs. Slack, black, flowered silk dress with white silk snow.

The gentlemen were all appropriately attired, being becomingly dressed in costumes gorgeous with lace and ruffles and brilliantly colored facings. Mr. Blackwell's diamond front and Mr. Ross' tie wig were particularly admired.

The whole entertainment was one that will long remain a pleasant memory with all who were present, and we have pleasure in congratulating the Auxiliary on the merited success that crowned their efforts.

Card of Thanks. At a special meeting of the auxiliary in connection with the Brockville general Hospital a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the Athens lodge of the G. O. P. for their very generous gift of $10 to aid in our undertaking of furnishing a ward in the new wing of the hospital.

MRS. FISHER, PRES. MRS. GALLAGHER, SEC'Y.

The many friends of Dr. M. M. Tappin, whose parents reside at Addison, this county, who have been present at the funeral of the late Dr. Tappin, for the past four years, will be pleased to learn that he has removed to 104 Chestnut St., Rochester, N. Y.

In writing the Reporter to have his address changed, he speaks of his new location, and that he is receiving a very good patronage. We are always pleased to note the success of our Leeds Co. boys.

Judson-Furvis. A very pleasant event took place at the home of Mr. P. C. Purvis, Purvis St., Lyn, on Wednesday the 29th at 8 p.m. when his eldest daughter, Miss Purvis, M. D. of Purvis St., acted as best man. After the ceremony the wedding breakfast was served to over ninety guests. The presents were numerous and costly. The happy pair left the house amid showers of rice.

Victory for the B. I. C. The weather on Saturday evening was anything but pleasant, but that did not prevent a large audience attending the B. I. C. combination rink to witness the hockey match between the Athens team and that of the Brockville Coll. Inst. It proved to be a lively game, characterized by an entire absence of anything approaching good team play on the part of either side. A good individual game was put up by Riches, George and Robinson for Athens, and by Thomas and Bellamy for Brockville. Hagerman, Athens' keeper, distinguished himself by stopping an unusually large number of dead-sure shots, while the goal-keeper of the visitors had a comparatively easy time, and a fair statement may be made that the game was well played throughout. Two goals were claimed by Athens and two by Brockville that were not allowed, as the final award of the umpire, Mr. Deacon, of 2 to 0 in favor of the visitors will be generally accepted as fair. One of the Brockville players, "Mick" George, proved to be a kind of good omen and always appeared when the game was in a fair statement may be made that the game was well played throughout.
