OWEN SOUND TRAIN WRECK.

Eleven Passengers Were Killed and Twenty-Six Injured.

Train Was a Special From Owen Sound—Four Cars Derailed.

Orangeville, Sept. 3.—Word has reached here of the wreck of a special train from Owen Sound, which passed through here at 9 a. m., containing six coaches.

Most of the Orangeville people remaining on the track. Several bodies have been taken from the wreck and brought to Orangeville.

Harry Halbert, son of James Halbert, nightwatchman here, had a leg broken; W. J. Robison, of North Day, formerly of Orangeville, was badly injured, as were Mr. and Mrs. Douglas, of Markdale, father and mother of J. C. Douglas, druggist, Orangeville.

Orangeville, Sept. 3.—Later information shows that eleven were killed and some twenty-six were injured. The train, it seems, was travelling too fast for the down grade of the mountain, and the engine jumped the track.

Mr. VanAllen might make another move, and order the cottagers off the beach, so that the rest of us could have a show.

The Man In Overalls

Were you out of town?

That Dundurn demonstration was all right.

They say it will take $50 to turn Sir John around. Well, the old man was always "set" in his ways.

I hope the ladies are watching for our new story.

Now, Johnnie, get your school books.

How is it that some people lose their manners when speaking through the telephone?

Take it all through, August was a pretty good month.

The trouble with the Dundas Star is that it has lost the confidence of a big section of the party. It's even losing confidence in itself.

How would a slice of the Normal College building do for an art gallery?

If there is to be no Lakeside Park at the beach, what's to become of all those annual passes the rest of us won by being good guessers?

A few more street cars, Mr. Green or Mr. Hawkins, on Saturday evenings especially, would be quite acceptable.

Mr. VanAllen might make another move, and order the cottagers off the beach, so that the rest of us could have a show.

A lot of people are more tired to-day than they would have been had they been working yesterday.

We know that we have lost the Normal College, but we do not know that we are to get a Technical College.

Thanksgiving Day next. We have all much to be thankful for, whether we are or not.

I am told that the ice cream foundries made fortunes for their owners this season, and still there are lots of ice stored down by the bay.

What kind of a society job is this William McAndrews job? Will I have to touch my hat on the passing?

The only people who missed the Labor parade yesterday were the aldermen. They lost their annual cab drive.

If there is to be any trouble over the Beach, Mr. VanAllen will immediately declare the Beach to be in a state of siege and place it under martial law.

Don't say that I told you. But I saw a policeman yesterday afternoon riding upon a bicycle upon the sidewalk for quite a few hundred yards.

Mr. Birrell must think that was a happy thought of Mr. Midwinter when he presented the veteran firemen with a big box of cigars on their departure for Buffalo.

LIBERAL PICNIC.

Graham and Aylesworth Will be the Speakers.

Secretary W. T. Evans, of the Hamilton Liberal Association, has received an invitation from Secretary Geo. A. Corman, of the Wentworth Liberal Association, for the entire Hamilton association to attend the big Liberal picnic at Dundurn on Tuesday of next week, Sept. 10.

The picnic will be held at the Dundas Park, and a fine programme of games and sports has been arranged.

East End Young Lady Resisted Attempt of Robbery.

THAT BEACH PARK WILL BE BUILT.

Commissioner Morden Never Intended Blocking Scheme, It Is Said.

Men Behind the Project Explain What It Means to Hamilton.

While no official statement has been issued yet by the Canadian Amusement Company, several prominent Hamilton business men interested in the building of the Lakeside Park, say that a lot of unnecessary alarm has been caused by the drastic action of the Beach Commissioners in passing a by-law prohibiting amusements on the sand strip for pay.

Mayor Stewart is one of those interested in the scheme. When asked for an opinion on the Commissioner's actions he said: "If the by-law was passed with a view to getting a license fee out of the company I think it was quite proper. If it was passed with the intention of preventing the building of the park it was wrong."

"I think Commissioner VanAllen has gone a long way out of bounds to knock a legitimate enterprise," said a business man who has been prominently identified with the scheme, to the Times today. "In one part of his printed interview he casts a slur on the stability of the company by saying the by-law was passed to guard people against putting money in a company formed for that kind of amusement."

Steuvenville, O., Sept. 3.—A Labor Day riot that would more likely have ended in murder had it not been for the bravery of two young telephone girls occurred here shortly after noon. The victims of the fury of the rioters are: Joseph Harbison, skull fractured and body badly bruised.

BIRRELL THERE.

Another Unpleasant Call at Peebles & Hobson's Store.

Inspector Birrell was on the warpath on Saturday night. He did some scouting around, and visited among other places Peebles, Hobson & Co.'s grocery.

Mr. Peebles, in speaking this morning, said: "On Saturday evening about 10 o'clock, a regular customer of ours who does not get up until late, came in and bought three or four pints of ale to take home with him."

Inspector Birrell was on the warpath on Saturday night. He did some scouting around, and visited among other places Peebles, Hobson & Co.'s grocery.

here was on a different scale. It was to be much the same as Luna Park, at Cleveland, with the chutes eliminated, as they would be too expensive. The buildings would all be of a substantial nature, with a large, permanent hall for conventions and the like.

"Would the park be built elsewhere on the north shore?" he was asked. "No, that would not be considered, because we could not get the railway and boat connections. Colonel Ingersoll after looking over the ground has stated there is not a finer spot on the continent of America for an excursion park."

"We are not building the park through philanthropic motives," said this man. "We expect to make lots of money, but the people will certainly be repaid."

IN THE WORLD OF AMUSEMENT

Under auspicious circumstances, Bennett's new vaudeville theatre, adjoining the Terminal station, was opened last evening. The opening was a big success in every way and the President and the directors of the Bennett Amusement Company as well as the local manager, Mr. Geo. F. Driscoll, had every reason to be pleased with their efforts and with the way their first efforts to provide high class entertainment at popular prices were received by Hamiltonians. There was a large and representative audience present and hundreds were turned away, being unable to gain admittance. The other thing necessary to make the opening a pronounced success was a good performance and that was certainly given; the bill was a capital one. Hamiltonian society was well represented and a fashionable crowd occupied the boxes and many of the orchestra chairs. Among the box holders were:

Mayor Stewart and party; Mr. W. J. Southern and party, the Misses Lewis and party, Mr. W. A. Driscoll and party, Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Harris and party, Albert Dymont, M. P.; and Robert Hobson and party, Hon. Adam and Mrs. Beck and Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Crerar and party, Mr. and Mrs. Eastwood and party, and Mrs. Col. Gibson and party, and Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Gardner and party.

Before the performance commenced, Mayor Stewart, with his band, made a short address, informally declaring the theatre open. He said in part:

"On looking around I cannot but feel my surprise and pleasure at the perfection of the house, both as regards artistic finish and as measures taken to ensure the comfort of its patrons. I think that the Bennett Canadian Theatre syndicate, which is an institution composed of Canadians and run with Canadian capital, is deserving of every support at the hands of the people of Hamilton. I see in the advent of this new theatre a compliment to the growth of this beautiful city of ours, and I am confident that our citizens are quite willing to support a theatre of this character. From what many of my friends tell me, the Bennett theatre company is noted throughout the country—and I believe they are actuated with a desire to put a theatre in every large city in the Dominion, and have done so already in Halifax, St. John's, Quebec, Montreal, Ottawa, Hamilton and London. This company is noted I say for the strongly moral and artistic shows they introduce to the public. The bold form of entertainment—vaudeville—in such a house, as this must commend themselves to the public. There is no reason why mothers and fathers and children too, should not visit this house, seeing what care has been exercised in securing for their amusement wholesome, and diverting entertainments. In conclusion, I say, that I wish this new theatre every success and congratulate the manager, Mr. Driscoll, on the house he has charge of. He is a man well spoken of by all and is welcome to the city. I think it would not be inappropriate to inaugurate this beautiful Canadian theatre by singing 'The Maple Leaf for Ever.'"

His Worship's suggestion was carried out, the orchestra striking up the Canadian song which the audience sang heartily.

During the evening Mr. C. W. Bennett received a large number of congratulatory telegrams. From Mr. Marienelli, the organizer of the $100,000 theatrical syndicate, now in Paris, came "Good luck for opening." From E. F. Albee, controller of 150 American and 102 European houses: "My congratulations and best wishes for the opening of Hamilton house, adding as it does one more achievement to your short but wonderful career. May this house be the success you deserve to have." Albert Dymont, land manager of Virginia Earle, wired: "Convey to Bennett and associates wishes that Hamilton house may prove successful and popular like the other Bennett houses." Other wires reached Mr. Bennett from friends through the U. S. and Canada.

The bill presented was a good one, and sufficiently varied to please almost all tastes. Several of the acts were what is known in the profession as headliners, and the audience was not slow to appreciate them.

William A. Dillon, monologue artist, made the hit of the evening with his songs. On account of the large amount of "talking" done, Mr. Dillon had his eye in rhyme, and his songs were certainly good. He was given a hearty encore for his own composition, "Every Little Bit Added to What You've Got Makes Just a Little Bit More," and in response giving a side-splitting burlesque on the celebrated Scotch songster, Jack Lorne, who is well known to Hamilton theatre-goers.

Much interest was evinced in Virginia Earle, whose company of four presented a one-act musical comedy, entitled "A Midnight Mistake." The plot was not very deep, but the sketched the audience in roars of laughter. Miss Earle's songs were greatly enjoyed. Her support was good, but the lover in the play possessed a rich deep bass voice, instead of the regulation tenor. The farce went with a dash.

Probably the most wonderful act of the evening was the turn of the two Finneys, father and daughter, which was done in a large glass tank filled with water. They ate, drank and did other stunts under water, in full view of the spectators. Mr. Finney gathered 79 coins from the bottom of the tank with his mouth, remaining for a marvelously long time under water.

Lamont's dog and monkey circus made good. The act was exceedingly well staged, and the performance given by the animals was clever.

Carleton and Terre, conversational comedians, were very funny; Jessica Cree did a good whistling turn; Marion and Pearl brought down the house in a comedy singing and dancing stunts; the Althea twins proved to be as clever erratic dancers as have been seen here; McPhee and Hill appeared in an original and laughable aerial act. The performance was brought to a close with new motion pictures, shown by the cinematograph.

For a first night the performance ran smoothly and there were no noticeable hitches. The vast audience was seated with despatch, the whiners being up to their work. Mr. J. Melody, chief usher, was congratulated on the work of his men. All the actresses are in uniform.

There was another large audience at the theatre this afternoon. The same bill will be presented every afternoon and evening this week.

Crowds at the Savoy.

The Savoy vaudeville theatre played to capacity yesterday afternoon and evening. The audiences were largely representative, too, many of the best families being present and the evening audience was a stylish one. There are nine acts on this week's bill, which is better than the programme given on an open evening. All the acts are above the average. LaVelle's dog show opens the bill, and it took with the audience. The professor has certainly educated his eight or ten animals to a higher degree than could be expected of dumb animals. The act comprises the general line of dog tricks and a two round boxing exhibition, which is most amusing. Rose Busch, a dainty soprano, charmed the house with her sweet singing. It places her among the foremost of entertainers and worthy of the three or four encores she received. Morgan and Chester, presenting a German comedy, start the evening's laughter, and it is kept up right through the act. It is a conversational one, but funny enough to make one laugh. A novel turn is given by the Goetz trio, two ladies and a gentleman, acrobats from the Berlin Winter Garden. They feature on this, their first appearance in America, ball balancing and slack wire walking work. One lady holds the wire with her teeth for her partner's performance. For this feat and numerous others of strength and skill they were liberally applauded. Geo. W. Day's blackface comedian, with several parodies and a tale of woe for the feminine race, is particularly clever in his line of amusement. One or two more of his short songs would be greatly accepted. A one-act comedy with music, entitled "Stanley's Nightmare," has many startling surprises. It is the reality of a man's dream, and the pranks played by a small lad, assisted by special scenery, containing trap doors and sliding panels, is somewhat sensational. The singing, too, is catchy, especially the song of Jos. Madden, "I'd Hate to See the Sights That Some Men See." An opera treat is in store for all who hear the Italian male trio, refined vocalists. They sing in their native tongue, and their voices are marvellously trained. This act received about the most hearty acknowledgment. Hickey and Nelson gave a twisted and tangled act that is amusing. The male member tumbles around with a table, while the partner sings. The cinematograph pictures close the show.

Big houses are looked for all week, on account of the excellence of the bill.

Mrs. Sothern Blinded.
New York, Sept. 2.—Virginia Harned, the actress, who is the wife of E. H. Sothern, was brought to this city on a special train last night, suffering from blindness brought on from taking several flashlight pictures in New Haven.

In order to get Miss Harned in the centre of the pictures, the photographer kept the camera close to her. She stood the strain for pictures of the first three acts, and then said that she was too tired to make two more changes of costume for the remaining two acts. Early yesterday she called her maid and said that she was unable to see. Drs. Allinger and Blake were summoned and worked over her until 3 in the afternoon before she was able to raise the lid of one eye. She may recover her sight.

Holiday Crowd at Summers.
There was the usual holiday crowd at Summers' mountain theatre yesterday, the open air play house being crowded at both the afternoon and evening performance. The bill pleased the company, presenting "The Bachelor's Honorary." In fact, the bill was as follows:

Peter Perchant, Geo. H. Summers; Gilbert Murdoch, Harry Waterhouse; Richard Gordon, Fred J. Dority; Tom Payson, Arthur Stone; Asa Spades, Joseph Knappman; Mrs. Garfield, Florence Natos; Annie Garfield, Beatrice G. Lee; Jean Joy, Cecil Gordon; Belle Gordon, Belle Stevenson.

Between the acts vaudeville turns were given by Misses Gordon and Hayes, Miss Bessie Lee and Mr. Arthur Stone.

The same bill will rule all week. The company closes its successful engagement here on Saturday night.

Banquet at Bennett's.
After the performance at Bennett's theatre last night, a barbaque, or banquet, was held on the stage, to mark the closing of the Bennett Co. in Hamilton. All the members of the theatre from Manager Driscoll down to some of the stockholders of the company were present, besides a few invited guests. Mr. Albert Dymont, M. P., presiding. Speeches were made by Major Beatty, T. H. Smallman, and General Manager Bennett, of London, local manager Driscoll, Mr. John Dickenson and others.

At the Red Mill.
Labor Day was a big day at the Red Mill—the largest since the popular little theatre was opened. Although all the

FRESH AT NIGHT
If One Eats the Right Kind of Food.

If by proper selection of food one can feel strong and fresh at the end of a day's work, it is worth while to know the kind of food that will produce this result.

A school teacher of Media, Kan., says in this connection: "I commenced the use of Grape-Nuts food five months ago. At that time my health was so poor that I thought I would have to give up my work altogether. I was rapidly losing weight, had little appetite, and experienced almost constantly a feeling of exhaustion. I tried various remedies without good results, then I determined to give particular attention to my food, and have learned something of the properties of Grape-Nuts for rebuilding the brain and nerve centres.

"I commenced using that food and have since made a constant and rapid improvement in health in spite of the fact that all this time I have been engaged in the most strenuous and exacting work.

"I gained twelve pounds in weight and have a good appetite, my nerves are steady and I sleep sound. I have strength and reserve force that I feel almost as strong and fresh at the close of a day's work as at the beginning.

"Before using Grape-Nuts I was troubled much with weak eyes, but as my vitality increased my eyes became strong. I never heard of any other food as nutritious and economical as Grape-Nuts. Read 'The Road to Wellville' in packages. 'There's a Reason' arcade and theatre were crowded from early morning until 11 p. m., the management handled the business in a satisfactory manner. The programme, which consisted of "Life's Realities," "Geek Fighting," "The Butcher's" and "A Squat Deal." Miss Watson, late of New York, illustrated the pretty waltz song "Some One." An entire change of programme will be given Thursday.

Coming to the Grand.
The musical farce success, "My Wife's Family," will be given at the Grand tomorrow night. This comedy has met with liberal patronage wherever it has been presented and makes a hit when seen here last season. It follows the lines of the celebrated Hoyt farces and this year strictly up-to-date musical numbers have been introduced. Seats are now on sale.

Next Saturday afternoon and evening at the Grand the old time favorite Irish play "Kerry Gow," will be given. The role made famous by Joe Murphy, is being played this season by Bertie Dely, a young comedian. He is said to have a sweet tenor, the exact counterpart of the late W. J. Scanlan's.

Potter J. White's "Faust" will be presented at the Grand on Friday night, with Miss Olga Verne as Marguerite.

MR. JONES IN WINNIPEG.
Seneca Jones, secretary-treasurer of the Canadian Millers' Mutual Fire Insurance of this city, is in Winnipeg, on a tour of inspection for the company.

Mr. Jones has visited Western Canada five times, and he finds wonderful improvements to have been made since his first trip about fifteen years ago.

Speaking of the crops in the vicinity of Souris, Estevan, Carman, Deloraine, Boissevain, and that district generally, Mr. Jones expresses the opinion that they have an excellent outlook indeed for a good yield and a good sample. He was so favorably impressed with the Red River valley district, harvesting, he found, is becoming quite general; a good deal of reaping has been done already.

A Noted Desperado.

BILL MINER.
For the capture of whom the Canadian authorities paid $12,000 and who has escaped from custody.

"Why don't you write your life?" The question was asked of A. E. Miner, alias W. J. Miner, alias W. A. Morgan, alias G. W. Edwards, or, as he has been known up and down the Pacific coast for forty years, plain Bill Miner.

It was asked but a few months ago, when Old Bill was a humble shoemaker, serving the sixteenth month of his life for the last of his train robberies, that of the C. P. R. Transcontinental at midnight on May 8, 1906.

"Someone else can do that," replied the silver-haired desperado, "but he will have to wait for the last chapter, for Bill Miner is very much alive, even though he is sixty-five."

Within two weeks this most notorious stage and train robber in America, complained of swollen feet and rheumatism, he pleaded for work in the brickyard. On the afternoon of Aug. 7, with three fellow convicts, Miner, within the range of vision of two guards and an instructor, dug a hole under the fence surrounding the brickyard and then, with the hatchet with which he had been working, broke the chain that imprisoned a seven-foot ladder and all four scaled the twelve-foot stone wall of the Penitentiary in broad daylight.

To-day, Miner is free, the freedom with which he is familiar—pursued by bloodhounds and a regiment of officers armed and mounted, and sought for by every police officer and detective in British Columbia and Washington State.

Meanwhile, the Department of Justice at Ottawa is considering the reward that will again be offered for his capture, dead or alive. Fifteen months ago, $2,000 was paid out to Mounted Police officers whose rifles covered Miner and his confederates, Dunn and Colquhoun, seven miles from the scene of their hold-up of the C. P. R. Transcontinental near Kamloops when the desperados got a few registered letters and quite overlooked $35,000. This was due to the coolness of Small Clarke, Willis and McQuarrie, who convinced the robbers that they had seen all the registered mail bags.

They were liberally rewarded by the C. P. R. for their bravery. These were the members of the Royal Northwest Mounted Police who gathered in the $12,500: Sergeant Wilson, Corporal Stewart, Constable Taboada, Constable Brown, Sergeant Shoebottom and Sergeant Thomas, all of Calgary, with "Slim Jim" Benyon as guide.

Miner had, until then, been living on the $7,000 which he had "lifted" from the C. P. R. express at Mission Junction, September, 1904. The year before he had held up and robbed the Oregon Railway & Navigation Company's express securing some $5,000. Two years before this he served the last of a twenty-five years' sentence in San Quentin, California, penitentiary.

He had actually served twenty-two years, the rest being allowed for good conduct. This sentence followed his conviction, by the confession of a confederate, for the robbery of the Del Norte, Colorado, stage, in the latter seventies.

Miner almost killed Sheriff Brennau and Officer Goodwin, who first made his capture for this crime. They had bound him with wire and then sought to bring him to Del Norte in a wagon. But they were compelled to camp over night some distance from Del Norte. Completely exhausted, the Sheriff and his officers slept, leaving the teamster on guard. Miner got loose, secured the officers' revolvers, wounded all three and fled. But six months later both were caught in Sacramento, California. His pal confessed, and life sentence for both followed.

The record of Miner is lost here. He had, according to Del Norte officers, been robbing stage coaches for fifteen years previous to this.

JAILER JAILED.
Governor Harmon, of Windsor, is Committed for Twenty Days.
Windsor, Sept. 3.—By reason of a division court order John Harmon, governor of Sandwich jail, will be required to imprison himself.

Some months ago he was sued by a Nova Scotia firm for an old bill for marble he purchased when he was in the monument business. Judge Clement directed the governor to pay $5 a month. The defendant set up that he was a government official, but this had no effect with the court. Gov. Harmon failed to make the necessary payments, and to-day an order was made to commit him for twenty days.

The governor will look himself up and take extreme care for three weeks lest he escape from himself.

The tariff is becoming a vital issue in Australian politics.

CREMATED IN CLOSET.
Boy Mistook Door for Exit From Burning Building.
Malone, N. Y., Sept. 3.—Eleven-year old Abraham Stone was burned to death, and several other persons narrowly escaped with their lives in a fire which destroyed the farm of Mrs. Geo. Morris at Lake Titus to-day.

When the members of the family were awakened the house was in flames and the occupants fled in their night clothing. All escaped, with the exception of the boy, who is believed to have mistaken a closet door for an exit. After the fire was extinguished he was found in the closet dead.

A terrific rain and lightning storm passed over Kent on Sunday evening. Several fires were reported, and some horses and cattle killed. The rain was badly needed, but it came at a great cost.

WANT U. S. MONEY.
Havana Masons Go on Strike—4,000 Buildings Under Construction.

Havana, Cuba, Sept. 3.—Four thousand buildings under construction of about to be constructed were abandoned yesterday when the masons struck, demanding the payment of their wages in American money. The police are guarding the buildings with orders to stop all meeting near them or interference by the strikers.

The cigarmakers are supporting the masons and will contribute part of their wages to the strikers' fund.

The president of the cigarmakers union advised the masons to-night to keep order as being the best means of winning, reminding them of the cigarmakers' success.

This may be the beginning of a general move for American money, expected since the cigarmakers' strike.

The resignation of Rev. Wm. Frizzell, Ph.B., from the pastorate of Queen Street East Presbyterian Church, Toronto, comes up to-day before the meeting. Presbyter, Mr. Frizzell has been obliged to take this step owing to continued ill-health.

FIVE WERE KILLED
Eleven Hurt in a Railway Wreck on Chesapeake & Ohio Road.

Charleston, W. Va., Sept. 3.—A revised list shows that five persons were killed and eleven injured when a Chesapeake & Ohio local train was derailed a mile below Kanawha Falls last night.

The dead: William Campbell, Venetta, W. Va. Walter Saunders, Wendall, W. Va. Silas Vaught, Gauley, W. Va. Allen Levine, express messenger, Hinton, W. Va.

A white man, name unknown, Robert Allan, colored, suffered a broken leg. Injuries to the others are so slight that they will continue on their journey. Spreading of the rails is supposed to have caused the accident. The track was torn up for several hundred feet.

The record of Miner is lost here. He had, according to Del Norte officers, been robbing stage coaches for fifteen years previous to this.

NOTABLE EVENT AT ST. MARK'S CHURCH.

Thirtieth Anniversary Being Celebrated by a Reunion All This Week.

Reception to "Old Boys" Yesterday Afternoon and Address in the Evening.

The anniversary services and reunion of the former choir boys of St. Mark's Church, in commemoration of 30 years of successful work of the church under its one rector, Very Rev. Canon Sutherland, M. A., Sub-Dean, was started on Sunday. There are nearly 200 of the former choir boys here to enjoy the week's proceedings, and a good start was made.

On Sunday morning the sermon was preached by Rev. Canon Webb of Calgary, Alta. He was assisted in the service by Sub-Dean Sutherland. There was a very large turn-out of present and former parishioners, many of them coming from far-off cities.

Canon Webb, in his sermon, said it was, indeed, a great pleasure to be present, on such a momentous occasion, and he considered that Sub-Dean Sutherland had a record of 30 years' work that he might well be proud of. Canon Webb said he owed a great deal to Sub-Dean Sutherland's teaching in past years, while he was a member of the church, in that it helped him materially in his work in the West.

At the request of the Sub-Dean, Canon Webb preached in the evening, also giving a brief outline of the general missionary work of Calgary, of which he has charge. He said that people in the East had very little idea of the enormous distances that the clergy had to travel in their ministry in that part of the country. The country is as yet but newly settled, and there are other difficulties to be surmounted. People in Ontario are led to believe that the farmer in the West was a lucky man, and that everything came his way. On the contrary, Canon Webb stated, the conditions were a good deal harder on the farmer in the West than on world imagine. Money does not grow in the wheat of the West. Canon Webb stated that new parishes were being established almost weekly, and help was needed, and badly.

On Monday afternoon an informal reception was held in the church to the returning choir boys and parishioners. For the course of an hour, a pleasant time was spent receiving old acquaintances. At 6 o'clock, an organ recital was given by W. H. Thresher, the present organist of the church. After the recital a choir practise was indulged in for the course of an hour, and the choir was conducted by Canon Webb, of Calgary, a former choirmaster.

After Christ was over, the choir was photographed. Of this choir, five were ministers, and included Canon Webb, Rev. W. R. Blachford, Rev. W. G. Davis, Rev. W. S. Bennett, and Sub-Dean Sutherland.

A luncheon served by the ladies of the parish brought the afternoon's proceedings to a close.

In the evening, the choir and members of the congregation gathered in the church to hear a special address given by Rev. W. R. Blachford, of Cairo, Mich. Taking as his text, "I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me," Mr. Blachford went on to give a brief outline of the work that had been done in St. Mark's during the past years. He had reviewed the situation carefully, and had arrived at the conclusion that Sub-Dean Sutherland certainly had a very brilliant record to look upon. Mr. Blachford said he considered it a pleasure to have learnt of God in St. Mark's Church, through his best adviser, Sub-Dean Sutherland.

At the conclusion of the service an informal concert was held in the parish hall. A number of former choir boys rendered very effective solos, and a general good time was enjoyed.

The programme for the remainder of the week is:

Tuesday—8 p. m., sermon by Rev. J. Hirst Ross, Chippawa, Ont.

Wednesday—8 p. m., address on "Church Music," by F. G. Plummer, rector St. Augustine's Church, Toronto.

Thursday—8 p. m., special service, Rev. S. Bennett, Greensville, Ont.; 8:30 p. m., parish at-home, reception by the rector.

Friday—8 p. m., sermon by Rev. W. G. Davis, Stoney Creek, Ont.

Sunday—8 a. m., early celebration 10:30 a. m., matins; 11 a. m., Holy Communion, sermon by Lord Bishop of Niagara; 7 p. m., evensong, sermon by Rev. C. E. S. Radcliffe, Camden, East.

REV. C. E. S. RADCLIFFE, Camden East, Speaker at the closing service, evensong, Sunday, Sept. 3.

AT THE FAIR.

HON. MR. LEMIEUX ON THE SUCCESS OF TRADES DISPUTE ACT.

Important Speech at Exhibition by Mr. J. Quinicy—Americans Want Closer Relations—United States People Realize They Must Make First Move.

Toronto, Sept. 2.—The settlement of industrial disputes and the question of closer commercial relations between the United States and Canada furnished the topics at the luncheon given by the directors, and elicited important speeches from Mr. Rodolphe Lemieux, the Postmaster-General, and Mr. Joseph Quinicy, of Boston. Mr. Lemieux dwelt on the advantages that had already accrued from the operation of the legislation passed by the Dominion Parliament for the settlement of industrial disputes.

If, he said, during the past six months Canada had been spared on two occasions a complete tie-up on the Grand Trunk Railway System, a prolonged strike on the Intercolonial Railway System, another serious industrial war in the coal fields of the west, protracted and injurious strikes of dock laborers at Montreal and Halifax, and if today the 3,000 employees, many of them young women and girls, of the cotton mills of Valleyfield, were continuing their work while their grievances were receiving a free and frank discussion before an impartial tribunal, Canada had in all these cases to thank the legislation which had been of such eminent service to the country in these many instances.

Mr. Quinicy's speech was a strong plea for closer commercial relations between Canada and the United States, and was interesting, as showing the growing sentiment on the other side of the line in favor of reciprocity. At its close, however, the Chairman, Mr. W. Z. George, administered something of the nature of a cold douche by remarking that Canadians were well satisfied with present conditions.

A MINISTER WHO KNOWS.

Rev. Mr. Blachford, of Clairmount, knows what he says in stating the only sure cure for Hay Fever is Catarrhazone. "For two months of the year for ten years I suffered. Catarrhazone cured me so perfectly that the disease has not returned. Others in my parish I know have been permanently cured by Catarrhazone, which I strongly recommend for Hay Fever, Asthma and Bronchitis. $1.00 at druggists.

For the second time since "red Sunday" (January 22, 1905) Emperor Nicholas yesterday entered the capital to attend the consecration of a church to the memory of his grandfather, Alexander II, who was assassinated in March, 1881, on the spot where the edifice was raised.

SCENE AT WEDDING.

VICAR FIRST READ BURIAL THEN BAPTISMAL SERVICE.

The Bride Began to Weep—Bridegroom Then Noticed Condition of Vicar, and Another Minister Was Sought.

London, Sept. 1.—An amazing scene is reported at a wedding at Isle Abbots, which is a village near Buntingford, in the County of Somerset. The Vicar, Rev. J. H. Taylor, first ordered the bridegroom and bridesmaid to stand up and then started to read the service. The bridegroom, Arthur Bart, stopped him and explained that the bride had not arrived. When the bride arrived, the vicar began reading words which they could not follow from the prayer-book service. Presently, when the vicar said: "I commit these people to the ground, earth to earth, etc.," they saw that he was reading the burial service. The bride began weeping and the bridegroom expostulated with the vicar, whose condition he had just noticed. The clergyman insisted on resuming the service, and this time he began with: "I baptize these people with water." The wedding party made him desist and the vicar sat down while some of the members of the party began searching for another minister. They eventually got Archdeacon Chard, who conducted the marriage, after two hours' delay. Vicar Taylor, who had gone outside the church and thrown down his surplice, was returned and sat through the service. The bridegroom has since received a letter from the Bishop of Exeter, expressing his regret at "the vicar's disgraceful condition and conduct."

SENTENCED TO THE LASH.

Four-Year Term Also Imposed on Man at London.

London, Ont., Sept. 1.—Thomas Tavender was on Saturday sentenced to four years in Kingston Penitentiary and twenty lashes for an assault on Emma Matthews, a eight-year-old girl. ## TORTURED THEIR COMPANION.

Pennsylvania Miners Poured Turpentine Into His Eyes and Nose.

Washington, Pa., Aug. 31.—James Connelly, a miner of Avella, near here, is dying from treatment received at the hands of several fellow-workmen. Connelly remonstrated with his companions, who were playing poker. It is alleged they threw him to the floor, tied him and after pouring turpentine in his eyes, nose and over his body, turned Mount Elgin Institute, near Munice, durtic with pain, running wildly in a woods several hours later. Informations have been made against Connelly's companions, all of whom have disappeared.

An Ideal Jury.

The difficulty of impaneling a jury in the early courts of Wisconsin may be seen from a story related by a lawyer of that State, afterward a Senator of the United States, according to the New York Times.

A Judge Irvin was on the Bench, and a murder trial was pending. G. T. Long, familiarly known as "Lucy" Long, was under sheriff. There was difficulty in getting a jury that knew nothing about the facts of the case. The regular panel had been exhausted, and the special venire had been issued and was finally returned.

"Well, Mr. Long," asked the Judge, "have you at last secured a sufficient number of jurymen who know nothing about this case?"

"Yes, your Honor," replied Long; "six of them know nothing about the case, and the other six know nothing at all."

Harry Maynard was instantly killed at Lowell, Mass., while attempting a drop in a defective parachute.

Child Dies at Long Branch From Eating Unripe Fruit.

Toronto, Sept. 2.—The nine-year-old daughter of Mr. Geine, a resident of Long Branch, was taken violently ill early yesterday morning and died about noon, from acute poisoning. The little girl, it appears, had been playing in the garden the day previous and had eaten very heartily of green apples and green tomatoes. Dr. Forbes Godfrey, of Mimico, was called in when it was seen how dangerous the little girl's condition had become, but she was then past the possibility of recovery and died shortly afterwards.

Couldn't Stand John.

Butchers, as a rule, can stand a good deal of grumbling from their customers, but there's a limit to everything—even a butcher's patience.

"John," said a certain member of the trade in Coventry, to his youngest apprentice, "I'm getting tired of that Mrs. X, and her eternal grumbling. I wish to goodness she'd take her custom elsewhere. When next she comes in, I'll turn her over to you."

"Very well, sir," said John, calmly.

BLUES AND REDS.

MIMIC WAR ON LARGE SCALE ON SALISBURY PLAIN.

Twenty Thousand Men Engaged in the Campaign—General Ian Hamilton Commands the Invaders—Defending Force is Led by Sir Frederick Stopford.

London, Sept. 2.—A state of warfare, which will continue throughout the week, commenced this morning on the military area known as Salisbury Plain.

The troops of one district are being pitted against those of another. Twenty thousand men of all ranks are engaged, this being the ultra strength of an Aldershot command.

landing. The defending force is under the command of Major-General Sir Frederick Stopford. Marlborough is supposed to be the chief harbor on the east coast, and the only other place suitable for landing troops are Fighleam and Wilton Bay.

"Red Land" is supposed to have as its capital "Redtown," which is laid down as situated forty miles west of Bath.

A certain engagement is assumed to have occurred and arrangements are understood to have been made for capturing "Redtown."

Reminding their men that public spirit led the landholders to place their ground at the disposal of the military authorities, the officers have announced that readiness have been made to avoid damage and annoyance, and that the game on the landowners' preserves particularly must not be molested.

SHE WHIPPED BOY.

Mother's Hand Torn and Child's Hip Mangled by Explosion.

Cheboygan, Mich., Sept. 2.—"Oh, ma, please don't whip me; I won't do it again."

Hardly had the seven-year-old son of Fred Williams uttered these words when a terrific explosion occurred and the shingle with which Mrs. Williams was paddling the boy was blown to bits and the mother's right hand was torn and bleeding.

The lad had been out in the fields with his father, who was blowing up stumps with dynamite, and got hold of one of the percussion caps and put it in his pocket.

Over One Hundred and Three Thousand in 1906.

New York, Sept. 2.—The Sun has received the following cable despatch from London: According to the annual report of the Registrar-General of Ireland, the number of births in 1906 was 103,530 and the number of deaths 74,427.

Against this natural increase of 29,100 in population must be placed a decrease of 33,344 by emigration, showing a diminution in population of 4,230.

HAMILTON MAN

Ordnained and Made Pastor of Bracebridge Church.

Rev. Charles T. Holman, a native of Hamilton, son of Mr. T. W. Holman, 175 John street south, was ordained and inducted as pastor of the Bracebridge Baptist Church, Bracebridge, Ont., on Thursday last.

At 8 o'clock, before a well-filled church, the evening service began. Rev. Thomas Bingham occupied the chair. Rev. Mr. MacNeill read the scripture and Rev. Mr. Cameron led in prayer.

The charge of the church was given by Rev. D. N. Cameron. Rev. Thomas Bingham gave the charge to the candidate.

Rev. Mr. Holman is a recent graduate of McMaster University. His brief pastorate at Bracebridge has been highly successful, there having been a very considerable increase in the membership, and a doubling of the size of the congregations.

Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, leaving Southampton for America, said he found more drunkenness in Britain than in America.

The "Yell-Oh" Man And One of His Ways.

To call a man a liar seems rude, so we will let the reader select his own term. Some time ago the manager of "Collier's Weekly" got very cross with us because we would not continue to advertise in his paper.

We have occasionally been attacked by editors who have tried to force us to advertise in their papers at their own prices, and, on their own conditions, failing in which we were to be attacked through their editorial columns.

We had understood that the editor of "Collier's" was a wild cat of the Sinclair "jungle bungle" type, a person with curdled gray matter, but it seems strange that the owners would descend to using their editorial columns, yellow as they are, for such rank out-and-out falsehoods as appear in their issue of July 27th, where the editor goes out of his way to attack us, and the reason will appear too clearly to any reader who understands the venom behind it.

We quote in part as follows: "One widely circulated paragraph labors to induce the impression that Grape-Nuts will obviate the necessity of an operation in appendicitis. This is lying, and, potentially, deadly lying. Similarly, Postum continually makes reference to the endorsement of a distinguished physician or a prominent health official persons as mythical doubtless, as they are mysterious."

We do not hesitate to reproduce these mendacious falsehoods, in order that it may be made clear to the public what the facts are, and to nail the liar up so that people may have a look at him. If this poor clown knew what produced appendicitis he might have some knowledge of why the use of Grape-Nuts would prevent it.

Let it be understood that appendicitis results from long continued disturbance in the intestines, caused primarily by undigested food, and chiefly by undigested starchy food, such as white bread, potatoes, rice, partly cooked cereals, and such. These lie in the warmth and moisture of the bowels in an undigested state, and decay, generating gases, and irritating the mucous surfaces until, under such conditions, the lower part of the colon and the appendix become involved. Disease sets up, and frequently of a form known as appendicitis.

Now then, Grape-Nuts food was made by Mr. C. W. Post, after he had an attack of appendicitis, and required food in which the starch was predigested. No such food existed; from his knowledge of dietetics he perfected the food, made it primarily for his own use, and afterwards introduced it to the public.

In this food the starch is transformed by moisture and long-time cooking into a form of sugar, which is easily digested and does not decay in the intestines. It is a practical certainty that when a man has approaching symptoms of appendicitis, the attack can be avoided by discontinuing all food except Grape-Nuts, and by properly washing out the intestines. Most physicians are now acquainted with the facts, and will verify the statement.

Of course, this is all news, and should be an education to the person who writes editorials for "Collier's," and who should take at least some training before he undertakes to write for the public.

Now as to the references to "a distinguished physician" or "a prominent health official" being "mythical persons." We are here to wager "Collier's Weekly," or any other skeptic or liar, any amount of money they care to name, and which they will cover, that we will produce proof to any Board of Investigators that we have never yet published an advertisement announcing the opinion of a prominent physician or health official on Postum or Grape-Nuts, when we did not have the final letter in our possession. It can be easily understood that many prominent physicians dislike to have their names made public in reference to any article whatsoever; they have their own reasons, and we respect those reasons, but we never make mention of endorsements unless we have the actual endorsement, and that statement we will back with any amount of money called for.

When a journal willfully prostitutes its columns to try and harm a reputable manufacturer in an effort to force him to advertise, it is in the public knowledge the facts. The owner or editor of Collier's Weekly cannot force money from us by such methods.

Crawford's Confession.

By Thomas Benson.

"I never could understand," remarked Culnane, meditatively, "why a man who has planned a crime, and figured out all his chances of being detected in it and convicted, and has covered all his tracks, will weaken and confess when captured by the police."

Benson, who had been sitting silent and apparently not at all interested, and as if he did not hear what Culnane and I were talking about, chuckled suddenly in his most irritating manner and then as Culnane glanced angrily toward him, sobered, and took a sip from his stein.

"They figure on everything but that," Benson chuckled again, and this time there was no mistaking the tone of the chuckle.

"Did you ever think," he asked Culnane, "that maybe a man may have an object in confessing?"

"I know several who have confessed to save others," admitted Culnane.

"Ever hear of the Crawford case?" asked Benson, after chuckling, long and in his most annoying manner.

"Yes," said Culnane, surprised. "I worked on that case. What about it?"

"Did you know the Board of Pardons released Tommy Fitzgerald day before yesterday?" asked Benson, chuckling again.

"The dickens they did!" said Culnane, surprised into excitement. "Some more of their blundering meddling. 'Turning crooks loose, crooks and murderers, to make more crime and more work for us.'"

"No," said Benson, solemnly. "Not in this case. Tommy Fitzgerald was innocent. I've spent the last three weeks proving it."

Never having heard of the case, I scented a story, and pressed both Benson and Culnane for it, but they were in the midst of an argument, Culnane protesting hotly and Benson chuckling aggravatingly.

"Well," I finally said, "tell me about it. I never heard of the case and can't understand what you two are wrangling about."

"Let him tell it," jeered Benson, chuckling at Culnane's anger. "He knows more about it than I do."

"It was this way," said Culnane. "Bert Crawford was a half-brother of Tommy Fitzgerald. Fitzgerald was three years younger than his half-brother, and I should think that, at that time, which was about eight years ago, Fitzgerald was 21 or 22 years old. Their mother had inherited a considerable sum of money at the death of her first husband, and within the year had married Fitzgerald, a handsome, reckless sort of a fellow, who drank heavily, and who used up most of her small fortune before he died. The mother had a pretty hard time of it keeping up the family until Bert got old enough to work. She was a good-looking woman, even at 48, when I saw her first."

boys. Apparently they fell in love with each other—and contemplated marriage. About that time, too, Mrs. Fitzgerald received about $8,000 from the estate of her first husband, which enabled her to make something of a splurge in dress. The money formed part of the incentive to the crime.

"Upmeyer had been calling on Mrs. Fitzgerald for a month when his attentions to her caused trouble in the family. Tommy Fitzgerald, being young and hot-headed, took a violent dislike to his mother's suitor, and openly expressed himself against him. He even threatened to throw Upmeyer out of the house."

"Less than a week after his threat was made Upmeyer's body was found at the mouth of an alley not three blocks from the Fitzgerald home. He had been waylaid and shot down. I was put on the case the moment the body was found. I discovered that Tommy Fitzgerald had left a saloon not three blocks from where the body was found ten minutes before the murder was committed. He said he was going to get a revolver from a friend of his to whom he had loaned it."

"I know several who have confessed to save others," admitted Culnane. "Ever hear of the Crawford case?" asked Benson, after chuckling, long and in his most annoying manner.

"Yes," said Culnane, surprised. "I worked on that case. What about it?"

"Did you know the Board of Pardons released Tommy Fitzgerald day before yesterday?" asked Benson, chuckling again.

Never having heard of the case, I scented a story, and pressed both Benson and Culnane for it, but they were in the midst of an argument, Culnane protesting hotly and Benson chuckling aggravatingly.

"Well," I finally said, "tell me about it. I never heard of the case and can't understand what you two are wrangling about."

"Let him tell it," jeered Benson, chuckling at Culnane's anger. "He knows more about it than I do."

"It was this way," said Culnane. "Bert Crawford was a half-brother of Tommy Fitzgerald. Fitzgerald was three years younger than his half-brother, and I should think that, at that time, which was about eight years ago, Fitzgerald was 21 or 22 years old. Their mother had inherited a considerable sum of money at the death of her first husband, and within the year had married Fitzgerald, a handsome, reckless sort of a fellow, who drank heavily, and who used up most of her small fortune before he died. The mother had a pretty hard time of it keeping up the family until Bert got old enough to work. She was a good-looking woman, even at 48, when I saw her first."

"Bert Crawford got a job with an express company downtown, worked hard and steadily, and was the mainstay of the family. He was a clerk at $55 a month when the matter Benson and I were arguing about happened. Fitzgerald took after his father. He was a reckless, handsome devil—more sort of a lad, and was in trouble with the police two or three times, nothing serious, however, merely boyish scrapes. He never could hold a job long, and never seemed to care whether he did or not. "Tommy Fitzgerald promised to turn out bad, like a lot of other wild, west-side boys. He fell in with bad company. His mother's influence, however, held him back for a long time. The boy seemed to love her devotedly, and anything she suggested went with him. Undoubtedly," said Culnane, triumphantly, "Fitzgerald's love for his mother was the strongest motive back of the crime."

THE RIGHT HOUSE

Store closes at 6 p. m.

In-rush of newest fall goods

Earliest with latest things. fairest prices on all things

ALREADY the in-rush is assuming large proportions, and every mail brings us tidings of more. The displays throughout the many departments are taking on a fresher aspect day by day. These galaxies, of all kinds of best things, are the finest gleanings of the best mills and markets of Europe and America, carefully sifted by our three foreign buyers, working independently, through many countries, who searched for and bought only the best. Then the biggest kind of order-giving brought us right up to the citadel of cost, and the savings we share with you.

Manufacturers' prices have advanced—are advancing still higher. In some cases even we, with the great buying power of

The Right House organization behind us, have been compelled to pay advances, but we have always insisted on qualities measuring squarely up to Right House standards, and you will find this season's Right House values as good and better than the splendid values that have proven The Right House superiority in the past.

The products of the best manufacturers abroad, and at home are open to us. Much is confined to us exclusively for this city. Others extend to us first choices of their goods. Cash and the power of big purchases bring their prices down to the lowest possible mark. Does this not suggest to you the supremacy of this store's value-giving powers?

The display of the first new things for the fall and winter is exclusive, keenly interesting. No one will wisely miss it. But the vital keynote of the showing is the keynote of economy. You will find here fairest prices on all things as well as first authentic showing of the new.

It is a great thing to have just what the people want. How nearly this store comes to doing this is best evidenced by its rapid growth of the past year. In the long run people find out where they can depend on getting what they need or desire, so all the care, study and energy we devote to having the right things are well repaid.

Wednesday you will find first showing of fall costumes, stunning skirts, handsome coats, exclusive dress fabrics, etc., etc.

CORNER KING EAST AND HUGHSON STS. THOMAS C. WATKINS HAMILTON ONTARIO

ANOTHER ROYAL WEDDING.

Princess Victoria of England and Russian Grand Duke.

Copenhagen, Sept. 2.—Reports of the engagement of Princess Victoria of England and the Grand Duke Michael Alexandrovitch of Russia are revived, and in responsible quarters are confirmed. The Grand Duke will accompany his mother, the Dowager Empress of Russia, on her coming Scandinavian cruise, which he will meet Queen Alexandra and Princess Victoria.

A number of Russian detectives have arrived here as a bodyguard to the Dowager Empress during her visit. They are quartered at a villa within the castle grounds. Their presence is due to the colony of Russian fugitives here, which has increased rapidly since 1906, and now numbers 2,000, including several adherents of the terrorist organization.

Must Be Looked After.

Joseph Miller was once conversing with a learned professor who was visiting California. To the poet's query, "What do you do?" the professor answered that he held the chair of metaphysics and logic at a New England university. Whereupon the venerable Miller with an encouraging smile, reassuringly parted the professor on the shoulder. "Logic and metaphysics, eh? Well, I suppose we must have people to look after these things, even if they don't exist."

THIS SCANDAL WAS HUSHED UP

BY MOTHER OF ERRING YOUNG MAN
ADOPTING THE CHILD

Of Girl He Neglected to Marry—The Father, a Dundas Young Man, Disappeared for Parts Unknown.

A scandal that threatened to create a stir in Dundas has been hushed up in a rather unusual manner. Several days ago a young girl of neat and rather attractive appearance appealed to the civic authorities to provide for her infant. She said at the time the baby was born, the father, a well-known Dundas young man, employed there as a druggist, suddenly disappeared for parts unknown. His parents are respected residents of the Valley city and when the girl told the story the young man's father was sent for. He admitted his son was the father of the child without having gone through the formality of the marriage ceremony, and expressed a willingness to provide for the child if the mother abandoned all claim. The girl agreed to this and John W. Waddell drew up the papers for the adoption of the young man's mother of the baby. People in the City Hall remarked on the loving care with which the foster parent cared for the tiny mite as its own mother handed it over. The child slept quite peacefully, unconscious of the trouble its entry into the world caused.

AT HARD LABOR.

Three Prisoners Given Two Months
Each This Morning.

Judge Snider held court this morning and disposed of three criminal cases. John Ziemann, Hungarian, was charged with indecent assault on Mary Clement about three weeks ago. He pleaded not guilty. Crown Attorney Washington prosecuted. The evidence showed that Ziemann was somewhat under the influence of liquor, and while walking up Cannon street, near James, he grabbed hold of Miss Clement. As it was light at the corner, Ziemann walked quickly on after he had committed the offence. Judge Snider found Ziemann guilty and sentenced him to two months' hard labor in the jail. Lavergne Adams pleaded guilty to three charges of stealing a horse, a set of harness and a buggy on August 10th. He was defended. On account of his youth, being only 17 years of age, and his previous good record, Judge Snider let him off with a sentence of two months at hard labor. John Timson, pleaded guilty to stealing a wagon jack from Normandy & Well. He was accommodated with two months at hard labor.

GRANT SKIPPED.

Stolen Horse and Buggy Recovered at Welland.

The local police are after a young man who goes by the name of Norman Grant. He is supposed to have come from Beaverton. Some weeks ago a horse and rig was stolen from Beaverton and Grant, who left the town, is accused of the theft. He came down this way, and undoubtedly landed at the farm of Emmitt Twiss, Brookton. He boarded the horse at Mr. Twiss' stable, and worked for him for eight days as a farm laborer. On Saturday he thought it was time to move, and he hitched up the horse and drove off, taking with him, it is alleged, $24 of Mr. Twiss' money. The last that was seen of him was driving east, toward Niagara Falls. This morning the police received word from Welland that the horse and rig had been recovered at Welland, but that Grant had skipped. The police along the line are looking out for Grant.

OFF TO BUFFALO.

Volunteer Firemen and Kiltie's Band
Went To-day.

Headed by the band of the Ninety-first Canadian Highlanders the Hamilton Veteran Firemen paraded this morning and marched to the station to go to Buffalo to participate in the firemen's demonstration in connection with the Home week. There was a large turnout, and the company, in uniform, looked first rate. It took along the old hand fire engine "Victoria," a relic of the days when Hamilton had no waterworks.

HORSEMAN DEAD.

John Gillespie Passed Away at the City Hospital.

Jack Gillespie, one of the most successful trainers of harness horses, and one of the best drivers who ever sat in a sulky, died last night in the city hospital. Mr. Gillespie was a native of this city and was known all over Canada and the United States for his ability as a horseman. He had been in poor health for a number of years, and his death had been looked for for several weeks. Deceased was about 70 years of age. The funeral will take place on Wednesday at 4 o'clock from A. H. Dodsworth's parlors.

NEW MANUFACTURING CONCERN

William Holmes begs to announce to his friends and patrons that he has this day taken into partnership Alexander Donald, late with the B. Greening Wire Co., Ltd., the new firm styling being the Canada Wire Goods Manufacturing Company, and it will occupy the premises known as the Young Bros' brass foundry, 102-108 King William street. The principal lines of manufacture will be wire cloth and ornamental wire work of every description. Mr. Holmes desires to bespeak for the new company the same hearty support he has received from the citizens of Hamilton in the past, and shall be pleased to meet his old and new friends in their new premises.

Mr. R. L. Borden addressed three thousand people at Valleyfield.

Byron F. Richardson and W. H. Yates, jun., of this city, were elected on the Board of Directors.

When September arrives one begins to get whiffs of autumn and thoughts for heavier clothing suggest themselves. There are some signs, too, of changes of season as a wagh—large shipments of fleece-lined underwear and merino and wool are now in, to be sold at fifty cents a garment and upward. Also new fall hats at the post office opposite.

By the throwing of the wrong switch at Paris station yesterday a freight train on the Grand Trunk backed off westbound passenger train No. 3, which was standing at the station, about 10 o'clock in the morning. Only one person was hurt. Mr. G. M. Pierre, of Chicago, sustaining slight injuries to his shoulder. The damage to the rolling stock was not much.

FOOTBALL RUMOR.

Ottawa and Montreal to Come in
With Toronto and Hamilton.

It is altogether likely that a new football union will be formed in the course of a few weeks, one that will be by far the strongest and best that Canada has ever had. It will include the Hamilton Tigers, champions of Canada; the Montreal Club, champions of the Quebec Union; the Toronto Argonauts and Rough Riders, of Ottawa. The Rough Riders and Montreal teams have practically consented to drop out of the Quebec Union and enter the new one or the O. R. F. U., and if the western clubs agree to certain propositions which the Ottawa and Montreal Clubs have made, the league will likely be formed in the course of a few days. The expenses will be greater than in the Quebec Union, but then, the gate receipts will be doubled or tripled.

SCHOOLS RE-OPEN.

To-day Saw Beginning of the School Year.

Books and slates that had been relegated to dusty corners during the long summer vacation were brushed up this morning, for to-day saw the reopening of the city schools. A good portion of the day was taken up, arranging the classes. It felt rather lonesome at the Collegiate Institute this morning with the Ontario Normal College gone. There was a larger enrolment than usual at the Collegiate. There were few changes on the teaching staff. Mr. E. Morrison, who was appointed assistant science master, succeeds Mr. Malcolm, who resigned in the spring. Dr. Morgan's place has not been filled yet. Mass was celebrated at 8.15 at St. Mary's Cathedral for the Separate School children. Loretto Convent also reopened to-day.

FIREMEN'S PARADE.

Buffalo Firemen and Those From Fifty-Five Towns Parade.

Buffalo, Sept. 3.—To-day's programme for the old home week celebration included a parade of firemen as the feature. The Buffalo fire department, the Buffalo Exempt Firemen's Association, and fire and hose companies from fifty-five towns and villages in western New York and Canada participated. The number of visitors has so far exceeded expectations. Nelson Leclair was killed at a railway near Lowell, Mass., while attempting a

TO LIVE A CENTURY.

Founder of S. A. Imparts Nine Rules for Long Life.

London, Sept. 3.—Gen. William Booth, head of the Salvation Army, who is now in his 80th year, and who expects to live for many years to come, has just given to the world the rules he has formulated on "How to Live 100 Years."
Avoid doing things which will cause you regret in your last year and your mind. Many people are broken down in health and made old by bad consciences.
Cultivate cheerful spirits. It is an evidence of youth in and old person to be cheerful.
Eat only as much as is required—wholesome food and not poisonous luxuries.
Sleep regularly a given number of hours in every 24, and don't get in the habit of missing rest one night by hoping to catch up the next.
If you are single and can afford it get married.
If you are married and your wife is cross, buy her some ribbons.
Take recreation. By recreation I don't mean such things as golfing and cricketing, which becomes a kind of work, but rather something more simple, as romping with the children.
Live within your income.
Have a purpose, and to give you any genuine pleasure must be a purpose which will benefit others.

FELL ASLEEP.

Young Brakeman Killed on G. T. R. at Winona.

Early Sunday morning a young G. T. R. brakeman, George Gardner, of Delhi, was struck by G. T. R. express train at Winona Junction and instantly killed. He was one of a crew on a freight train which was waiting for the express to pass, and while sitting on the platform he fell asleep, and leaning over the tracks, was struck by the passenger train. His body was dragged almost a hundred feet and was horribly mangled.
The remains were put on board the freight and brought to this city, when they were removed to Dwyer's undertaking room. Coroner Bill was notified and decided to hold an inquest at Dwyer's yesterday morning. After the body was prepared for burial here it was sent to Delhi yesterday afternoon and the funeral took place there to-day.
