BRITISH PERIODICALS.
—VIZ—
The London Quarterly Review, (Conservative).
The Edinburgh Review, (Whig).
The Westminster Review, (Radical).
The North British Review, (Free Church).

Blackwood's Edinburgh Magazine, (Tory).
The above named periodicals, both as the cost of printing has doubled, the price of paper nearly trebled, and taxes, duties, licenses, etc., largely increased, they are compelled to advance their terms as follows:
TERMS FOR 1865:
For any one of the Reviews, per annum, £4 0 0
For any two of the Reviews, " " " 7 0 0
For any three of the Reviews, " " " 10 0 0
For all four of the Reviews, " " " 13 0 0
For Blackwood's Magazine, " " " 4 0 0
For Blackwood and one Review, " " " 7 0 0
For Blackwood and any two of the Reviews, " " " 10 0 0 For Blackwood and three of the Reviews, " " " 13 0 0
For Blackwood and the four Reviews, " " " 16 0 0 Subscribers in the British Provinces will remit, in addition to these prices, two shillings or six pence a year for Blackwood and about seven shillings a year for each Review, to cover the United States Postage.

The works will be printed on a greatly improved quality of paper, and while nearly all American Periodicals are either advanced in price or reduced in size, and very generally the matter contained in the original editions, hence, our present prices will be found as cheap, for the amount of matter furnished, as those of any of the competing periodicals in this country.
Compared with the cost of the original editions, which at the present premium on gold would be about $100 a year, our prices (which are exceedingly low) add to this the fact that we make our annual payments to the British Publishers for early sheets and copyright in Gold—$1000 a year at the time (Jan. 1865) nearly $250 in currency—and we trust that the scale we have adopted will be entirely justified by our subscribers and the reading public.
The interest of these Periodicals to American readers is rather increased than diminished by the articles they contain on our Civil War, and though sometimes tinged with prejudice, they are still, considering their great ability and the different stand-points from which they are written, best read and studied with advantage by the people of this country, of every race and country.

THE FOUR REVIEWS FOR 1863.
A few copies of the above remain on hand, and will be sold at 6s for the whole four, or 2s for any one.
We also publish the Norton, of Yale College. 2 vols. Royal Octavo, 1860, pages

The New York Tribune says, "the reason why Drake's Plantation Bitters are so universally used and have such an immense sale, is that they are always made up to the original standard, of highly invigorating material and of pure quality, although the prices have so largely advanced."
The Tribune just hits the nail on the head. The Plantation Bitters are not only made of pure material, but the people are told what it is. The Recipe is published on each Bottle, and the bottles are not reduced in size. At least twenty imitations and counterfeits have sprung up. They impose upon the people once and that's the last of them.
The Plantation Bitters are now used in all the Government Hospitals, are recommended by the best physicians, and are warranted to produce an immediate beneficial effect. Facts are stubborn things.

"I owe much to you, for I verily believe the Plantation Bitters have saved my life."
REV. W. H. WAGGONER, Madrid, N. Y.

"I have given the Plantation Bitters to hundreds of our disabled soldiers with the most astonishing effect."
G. W. D. ANDREWS,
Superintendent Soldiers' Home, Cincinnati, O.

"The Plantation Bitters have cured me of liver complaint, with which I was laid up prostrate and had to abandon my business."
H. B. KINGSLEY, Cleveland, O.

"I have cured me of a degeneration of the kidneys and the urinary organs that has distressed me for years. It acts like a charm."
C. C. MOORE, 251 Broadway, N. Y.

"I have been afflicted many years with severe prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system. Physicians and medicine failed to relieve me. Some friends in New York, who were using Plantation Bitters, prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small quantity, and after a few days feeling better by degrees, in a few days I was astonished the coldness and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I had not done for years. I feel like another being. My appetite and strength have also greatly improved by the use of the Plantation Bitters."
Respectfully, JUDITH RUSSELL.

Respectfully, JUDITH RUSSELL.

"I have been afflicted many years with severe prostrating cramps in my limbs, cold feet and hands, and a general disordered system. Physicians and medicine failed to relieve me. Some friends in New York, who were using Plantation Bitters, prevailed upon me to try them. I commenced with a small quantity, and after a few days
feeling better by degrees, in a few days I was astonished the coldness
and cramps had entirely left me, and I could sleep the night through, which I had not done for years. I feel like another being. My appetite and strength have also greatly improved
by the use of the Plantation Bitters."
Respectfully, JUDITH RUSSELL.

THE SEA SHORE.
The wide sea stretches beneath the sky,
In the golden light of day,
And the wild waves come with their snowy plumes
That glitter, and dance and play;
And on they come, and on they come,
With the lofty pomp of power,
To scatter their beauty on shiny woods,
And die on the briny shore.

The waves glitter, and glance, and play,
To break on the briny shore,
But each is bearing its tribute on,
To add to earth's bright store;
Some may bring us the little shell,
And some the store of gold,
And some the sailor's shipwrecked form,
All ghastly, and stern and cold,
And the wild waves murmur of sadness round,
Or thunder with martial roar,
As each rolls up with its given freight,
And dies on the briny shore.

There's a wide, wide sea, a changing sea—
The shadowy sea of life,
Where the lofty billows rise and fall,
And the waves are ever strife,
And on, and on, and ever on,
Pressed by relentless power,
They bear their joy or their curse to earth,
And die on the briny shore.

And on they come, and on they come,
Till night sweeps o'er the scene,
And the sun comes forth in power,
And the sea looks on in awe,
Upon the briny shore.

There's a wide, wide sea, a changing sea—
The shadowy sea of life,
Where the lofty billows rise and fall,
And the waves are ever strife,
And on, and on, and ever on,
